IN LOVING MEMORY

STEVE BISCIOTTI

OWNER

COLLEGE: SALISBURY STATE UNIVERSITY
BORN: 4/10/60, PHILADELPHIA, PA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 25/25

STEVE BISCIOTTI wants consistency. His goal is to have the Ravens in the playoff hunt every season, avoiding dips that plague some franchises.

The Ravens are one of only four teams (Green Bay – 12, New England – 12, Baltimore – 11, and Kansas City – 11) to earn at least 11 postseason berths in the last 16 years (2008-23), with Baltimore winning at least one game in eight of those 11 playoff campaigns. Additionally, during this span, the Ravens have compiled the NFL's fourth-most postseason victories (12, tied with Green Bay), and they have advanced to four AFC Championship games (2023, 2012, 2011 and 2008), winning Super Bowl XLVII in 2012.

"We're proud of what we're giving to Baltimore," Bisciotti says. "You have to make the playoffs to have the opportunity to compete for championships, and championships are our goal. We want to be a consistent winner that avoids big lulls and not being in the playoffs for any length of time."

The Ravens are part of an elite group: They are one of 15 NFL teams with multiple Super Bowl victories. Five franchises have won one title. Eight others have earned a berth in the game and lost, while four teams have never advanced to the Super Bowl. More importantly, with the Super Bowl XLVII Championship, the Ravens (two), the Patriots (six), the Chiefs (three) and the Buccaneers, Giants and Steelers (also two each) are the only teams that have won more than one NFL title since the turn of the century in 2000.

The passionate Bisciotti, who at 64 is the NFL's fourth-youngest majority owner (Kansas City's Clark Hunt, 59, Arizona's Michael Bidwill, 59 and Washington's Josh Harris, 59), bought a minority interest in the Ravens from Art Modell in 2000, completing the purchase of the franchise on April 9, 2004.

Steve's initial investment to the team provided funds to secure free agents for the 2000 Super Bowl XXXV Championship team. Today, his influence in the NFL continues to rise. He served for several years on two important ownership committees: Broadcast and Digital Media.

When Bisciotti, now in his 25th year as an owner of the Ravens, hired Harbaugh as the team's head coach in January of 2008, some eyebrows were raised. Harbaugh had never been a head coach at any level. In fact, he had not been an offensive or defensive coordinator in the NFL. It was obviously the right choice. Along with the Super Bowl XLVII victory during the 2012 season, Baltimore advanced to the playoffs in its first five years with Harbaugh, who is the only modern-day (since 1970) head coach to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons. He is also the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in six of the first seven seasons, while his 12 playoff victories tie (Tom Coughlin and Bill Cowher) for the fifth most ever by a head coach in the first 16 seasons of an NFL coaching career.

"We all saw something in John. And, you have to be willing to separate yourself from the masses – take some chances – to achieve great success," Bisciotti says of Harbaugh, who in 2019 was named NFL Coach of the Year after guiding Baltimore to a franchise-best 14-2 record. "There's probably a little bit more perception that we took a risk with John. We don't think we did."

Since taking over as the Ravens' full owner (2004), Bisciotti's teams have earned the playoffs a total of 12 times, including the AFC's No. 1 seed in both 2019 (14-2 record) and 2023 (13-4 record). His 2004 (9-7), 2013 (8-8), 2017 (9-7) and 2021 (8-9) teams were in playoff contention heading into the season's final week. Baltimore has also captured six division crowns under Steve's leadership, and with Harbaugh at the helm (since 2008), has produced the league's third-most total victories (172, including playoffs).

QUOTH THE RAVEN: STEVE BISCIOTTI

"My responsibilities are not only to my family and the people who work for the Ravens. There are over a million stakeholders in the Baltimore area who we have an obligation to. They're the fans who invest more than three hours on Sunday to watch, listen to or attend our games. That's a big difference from owning a non-sports company."
— Steve Bisciotti on owning the Ravens

"What really strikes me about Steve is his loyalty to the friends he's had forever. A lot of people, when they become very successful like Steve, they move on. His friends are the same ones he grew up with. That's one of his strengths."
— Longtime Maryland basketball coach Gary Williams

"[Steve] is a great leader. The players love him. They love when he's around. He's an inspiration to all of our guys, to me, to this organization. He sets the tone here. It's a great organization because of his vision."
— John Harbaugh on Steve Bisciotti

MOST SUPER BOWL TITLES SINCE 2000 SEASON

Titles	Team	Seasons
6	New England Patriots	2001,'03, '04,'14, '16, '18
3	Kansas City Chiefs	2019, 2022, 2023
2	Baltimore Ravens	2000, 2012
2	New York Giants	2007, 2011
2	Pittsburgh Steelers	2005, 2008
2	Tampa Bay Buccaneers	2002, 2020

Born in Philadelphia on April 10, 1960, Bisciotti moved with his family to Baltimore (Severna Park) in March of 1961 when Steve, the youngest of three children, was 11 months old. His father, Bernard, took the children to Orioles and Colts games. Sadly, Bernard died of leukemia when Steve was 8. His mother, Patricia, a huge Ravens fan, then raised the children.

After graduating from Salisbury (Md.) State University in 1982 with a degree in liberal arts, Bisciotti worked in the temporary help industry. In 1983 (at age 23), he started Aerotek with his cousin, Jim Davis. They offered aerospace and technology companies access to skilled temporary employees.

Aerotek is part of Allegis Group, the largest staffing firm in the United States and the largest privately held talent management firm in the world. The company, headquartered just outside Baltimore, has offices throughout North America, Europe and Asia Pacific. Allegis Group has over 16,000 internal employees and 130,000 employees assigned to client locations. These include engineers, scientists, IT professionals, accountants, attorneys and industrial workers.

Before purchasing the Ravens, Bisciotti's business success was not well known to the general public on a national level, or even notable in the Baltimore area, where he and his partners kept a low profile. "I'm OK if I'm one of the least known owners in pro sports," Bisciotti says.

Steve, an energetic visionary, is quietly dedicated to several important causes and projects, some associated with his deep Catholic faith. He is a board member for Catholic Charities and created The Stephen and Renee Bisciotti Foundation. Most of Bisciotti's extensive charity work and generous giving are done without public notice, although, in 2020, it was announced that the foundation and the Ravens combined to donate $5 million to assist vital programs supported by Catholic Charities from more than 200 locations in Baltimore City and nine Maryland counties.

In August of 2020, the foundation and the Ravens also jointly distributed $1 million to support social justice reform in Baltimore, with a committee of current and former Ravens players determining the 28 programs chosen to receive funds from the contribution.

Additionally, at the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, Steve and Renee's foundation and the Ravens combined to donate $1 million to support four nonprofit organizations – the Fund for Educational Excellence, the United Way of Central Maryland, the Baltimore Community Foundation and the Maryland Food Bank – in their efforts to combat the public health crisis.

In June of 2021, Steve and Renee honored Ozzie Newsome – the Ravens' longtime personnel executive and Pro Football Hall of Famer – by making a $4 million gift in his name to Maryland's Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs). Through their foundation, the $4 million donation created the Ozzie Newsome Scholars Program, which funds scholarships for Baltimore City Public Schools graduates who attend an HBCU in Maryland.

In January of 2023, The Stephen and Renee Bisciotti foundation and the Ravens made a $20 million commitment to the Boys & Girls Clubs of Metropolitan Baltimore to create the Baltimore Ravens Boys & Girls Club at Hilton Recreation Center. The previously-closed center will undergo a comprehensive renovation resulting in a space where hundreds of children ages 6-18 will participate daily in youth development programs. In April of 2024, Steve and Renee's foundation and the Ravens announced a $10 million donation to help form the Baltimore Ravens College Track Center, targeted to open in the fall of 2025. The new academic facility is being created to help Baltimore City Public School students advance through high school, college and into the workforce.

Bisciotti enjoys golfing and boating. He and his wife, Renee (Foote), are the parents of two sons: Jason and Jack, both of whom reside with their families in the Baltimore area.

(Bisciotti is pronounced: bih-SHAH-tee.)

QUOTH THE RAVEN: STEVE BISCIOTTI

"I remember going to a couple of Colts games every season with my dad or mom and brother (Mike) and sister (Cathy Thomas). We were on the 10-yard line, lower deck. We'd go to O's games, too. My favorite player was Paul Blair, because my brother already claimed Brooks Robinson and would not let me take the same guy. We'd also go to Westminster for Colts training camp. We have pictures with various players, and I have one with me wearing Johnny Unitas' helmet. I would always ask the Colts players if I could wear their helmets."

SASHI BROWN

PRESIDENT

COLLEGE: HAMPTON / HARVARD LAW SCHOOL
BORN: 5/15/76, BOSTON, MA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 16/3

Entering his third year with the Baltimore Ravens, SASHI BROWN, 48, oversees and manages all business areas of the organization, including finances, legal, budgeting, corporate sales, operations, stadium activities, communications and business ventures. Brown was also appointed by Commissioner Roger Goodell to serve on the NFL's Stadium Committee.

"He's very smart and has good judgement," stated longtime Ravens president Dick Cass, whose role Brown assumed in April 2022. "He's thoughtful, and what you really notice are his people skills, poise and presence."

For the three years (2019-21) prior to his arrival in Baltimore, Brown worked at Monumental Sports & Entertainment, last serving as President of Monumental Basketball (Wizards, Mystics and Go-Go) and as a special advisor to the CEO.

Brown also previously accrued 13 years of NFL experience, including five seasons (2013-17) with the Cleveland Browns, where he served two years (2016-17) as executive vice president of football operations. Prior, he spent eight years (2005-12) with the Jacksonville Jaguars, last serving as senior vice president and general counsel.

In 2015, Brown was named to the Sports Business Journal's "Forty Under 40" list.

He began his career as an attorney at the Washington, D.C.-based law firm WilmerHale.

2022-24: (with Baltimore Ravens) 2024: Spearheaded by Brown, the Ravens announced in April the creation of the Ravens College Access Program, which is supported by $50 million in donations that benefit three organizations (College Bound, Bridges Baltimore & College Track) dedicated to providing access to higher education...The Stephen & Renee Bisciotti Foundation and the Ravens will contribute $30 million to the three college completion programs ($10 million to each), while M&T Bank and College Track will also provide $10 million investments each...In conjunction with this program, the Baltimore Ravens College Track Center is expected to open in the fall of 2025...In March, the Ravens entered a partnership with Levy to become the team's official food, beverage and hospitality (F&B) partner and the exclusive concessionaire at M&T Bank Stadium. 2023: Brown led the months-long planning and December unveiling of "The Next Evolution," a three-year (2024-26) upgrades project to significantly enhance the gameday and year-round fan offerings at M&T Bank Stadium...In addition to substantial developments on the exterior plazas, every level of the venue has undergone (or will undergo) renovations – thus completely transforming the stadium experience for all fans and ensuring that the stadium remains a world-class NFL and entertainment venue well into the future...In

> "The Ravens serve as a beacon of excellence for the community and beyond. Our performance on the field must be matched by our investments off the field, which we've accomplished — tens of millions of dollars invested in the greater Baltimore community. It's a core part of our mission to be a great steward, not only a great football team on the field, which we've been, but also a great steward of the community in Maryland as a whole."

BROWN MAKES IMMEDIATE IMPACT

Brown serves as Chairman of the Ravens Foundation, which in June 2024, helped transform and beautify The Historic Samuel Coleridge-Taylor Elementary School in Baltimore City. The Ravens Foundation fully funded the project, providing upgrades to the first Baltimore City school built specifically to educate African American children in 1926.

Brown, pictured with head coach John Harbaugh (left) and owner Steve Bisciotti (right), oversees and manages all business areas of the organization, including finances, legal, budgeting, non-football personnel, corporate sales, operations, stadium activities, communications and business ventures.

In December 2023, Brown unveiled a series of significant projects that evolve gameday and year-round fan offerings at M&T Bank Stadium. Initial upgrades come on-line for the 2024 season, with the remaining enhancements set for 2025 and 2026, ensuring the stadium remains a world-class NFL and entertainment venue for years to come.

The launch of the Baltimore Ravens College Track Center (targeted to open in 2025) was announced in 2024 by the Ravens, The Stephen and Renee Bisciotti Foundation, M&T Bank and College Track. Brown's vision was instrumental in developing the partnership and the future educational opportunities that will assist Baltimore City students.

ERIC DeCOSTA

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

COLLEGE: COLBY
BORN: 4/10/71, TAUNTON, MA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 29/29

ERIC DeCOSTA's loyalty, love and pride for the Baltimore Ravens are unmatched. A pillar of the organization's well-laid foundation, DeCosta has been with the franchise since Day One, first beginning as an intern during the inaugural 1996 season and then ascending to the personnel department's chief decision-maker in 2019.

Prior to being named executive vice president and general manager – succeeding the legendary Ozzie Newsome – DeCosta, 53, received GM interview offers annually from multiple teams over the years.

Yet, he never seriously considered leaving Baltimore, because Eric's respect for – and thorough understanding of – the Ravens' culture aligned perfectly with his dream job.

"I'm the kind of person who appreciates people who stick with things," DeCosta admits. "Even when I think about athletes I've admired, people I've admired, they've had long tenures in different places. But I love this community. My family is from this community. I love the people I work with day to day. Anyone who knows me knows that."

In 2007, Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti first approached DeCosta about becoming general manager one day. Years later, they decided Eric would continue to serve as Newsome's top lieutenant through 2018, helping groom him for the GM role and setting up a seamless transition.

"Did I have chances [to leave]? Yes," DeCosta shares. "Did I have a lot? Yes. Did I ever really consider it? Not really, because every time I'd go to bed thinking that maybe I would consider something, I'd wake up and say, 'What are you, crazy? You know you're going to have the job someday that you've dreamed about, so just wait and make it perfect.'"

From an outside perspective, the imminent ascension might have spawned challenges in DeCosta's relationship with Newsome. That was never the case, however, because the duo has always had a remarkable connection – one that forged a rare professional partnership and an extraordinary friendship.

"He's an outside-the-box thinker, but his football beliefs are based on substance, history and collected wisdom. He can see the unintended consequences that come with certain big decisions. He'll push the envelope to make sure we're covering all possibilities."
– Ravens EVP Ozzie Newsome on Eric DeCosta

"Ozzie basically took a 25-year-old kid who had no experience in the NFL, who was so different from him, and gave me a chance and accepted me," DeCosta says fondly. "He and I have always been very different in a lot of ways, but so aligned. It's a special relationship in my life. I've learned a lot of football, but honestly, just a lot more about being a good person."

A graduate of the Ravens' "20/20 Club," which includes members of the personnel staff who started with the team as young assistants and grew into evaluators with more input, DeCosta quickly moved up the ranks. He was first a personnel intern (1996), then area scout (1997-2002), then director of college scouting (2003-08), then director of player personnel (2009-11) and then assistant GM (2012-18).

It became evident early in DeCosta's tenure that he was destined for NFL success. Brimming with passion, resourcefulness, a relentless attitude and an advanced aptitude, he quickly earned his co-workers' respect.

"When Ray Lewis walked into camp his first day, he never really was truly a rookie," former Ravens SVP of football operations Pat Moriarty recalls. "He was Ray Lewis, our starting linebacker. [That same year of 1996], I think Eric was never 'Eric the Intern.' He was more than a scout."

Raised in Taunton, MA, DeCosta set his sights on becoming an NFL GM from the age of 6. His interest first piqued in 1978, when, contrary to many of his friends who were Patriots and Broncos fans, he began to follow the Cowboys.

"I was fascinated by the Cowboys and Tom Landry, Gil Brandt, Tex Schramm – the whole notion of scouting and building a football team," DeCosta states. "Doing things differently than all the other teams did back then really appealed to me."

Throughout much of his upbringing, Eric would study the NFL – particularly the draft – in a detailed manner that continuously amazed friends and family members.

His passion for the game of football was also quite evident on the field. Though, admittedly, he was never the biggest, fastest, smartest or most talented athlete, DeCosta was undoubtedly the hardest worker – someone always seeking ways to make himself better and gain a competitive edge.

While attending Colby College in Maine, the undersized linebacker went on to become a three-year starter and senior captain. He knew every assignment on the gridiron, holding himself to the highest of standards, all while inspiring teammates to reach new levels.

After graduating from Colby in 1992, DeCosta took part in a graduate coaching fellowship for the football team at Trinity University, where he would also earn a master's in English. But as time passed, he became uncertain about where a coaching path would lead. Looking to maximize his options, Eric applied to law school and prepared to pursue a new career, rather than cling to his football passion.

However, a chance encounter reinvigorated DeCosta's football pursuits in 1995, when he met someone who had completed an internship with Washington's NFL team. Upon learning of such NFL opportunities, Eric immediately sent resumes and letters to all 32 clubs. In response, he received rejection notices from all but one team – Washington – which hired him to serve as a training camp intern.

Thanks to that experience, DeCosta had finally – and successfully – broken into the NFL. The following year (1996), he landed the Ravens' personnel internship during their first-ever season. Coincidentally, he accepted Baltimore's offer the same day he learned that he had been placed on the University of Connecticut Law School waitlist.

"I was willing to take a chance," DeCosta affirms, "because I knew that once I got to Baltimore, I'd do everything to make the most of my opportunity."

The rest, as they say, is history – something bolstered by loyalty, love and pride from a man who helped build an organization, just as much as the organization built him.

JOHN HARBAUGH

HEAD COACH

COLLEGE: MIAMI (OH)
BORN: 9/23/62, PERRYSBURG, OH
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 27/17

Super Bowl-winning head coach JOHN HARBAUGH is in his 17th season at the Ravens' helm. The 2019 NFL Coach of the Year has led Baltimore to a playoff berth in 11 (2008-12, 2014, 2018-20 & 2022-23) of his 16 previous seasons, and in 2012, captured the franchise's second World Championship.

Though he never wants it to be about him, it's impossible to ignore Harbaugh's significant success. Here's a look at the NFL's second-longest-tenured head coach (Mike Tomlin – 18 seasons), entering the 2024 campaign:

- Since Harbaugh's 2008 Baltimore arrival, the Ravens have posted the NFL's third-most total victories (172, including playoffs). He has also led the Ravens to 160 regular season wins since 2008, ranking as the NFL's fourth most.

- Under Harbaugh, Baltimore is one of four teams (GB - 12, NE - 12 & KC - 11) to earn a playoff berth in at least 11 of the past 16 seasons. Baltimore (five) is also one of four teams (KC - 6, Buf. - 5 & Phi. - 5) to make the playoffs in at least five of the past six seasons (2018-23).

- The Ravens' 12 playoff wins since 2008 tie (GB) for the NFL's fourth most, trailing only Kansas City and New England (16 each) and San Francisco (13). Of those Baltimore victories, an NFL-best eight have come on the road.

- Harbaugh's 12 playoff victories tie (Tom Coughlin & Bill Cowher) for the fifth most by a head coach in the first 16 seasons of an NFL coaching career (Joe Gibbs – 17, Bill Belichick – 15, Chuck Noll – 15 & Mike Holmgren – 13).

- Harbaugh owns the most road playoff wins (eight) by a head coach in NFL history. Tom Landry (Dal.) and Tom Coughlin (Jax./NYG) are second with seven each.

- Harbaugh is one of nine coaches to earn at least 11 playoff berths in his first 16 seasons (Bud Grant & Mike Holmgren – 12; Harbaugh, Pete Carroll, Tony Dungy, Chuck Knox, Mike McCarthy, Chuck Noll & Marty Schottenheimer – 11).

- The 2012 Ravens won Super Bowl XLVII, 34-31, over the San Francisco 49ers in one of the most dramatic games in NFL history. Baltimore jumped to a 28-6 lead, but needed a critical goal-line stand late in the fourth quarter to help seal the victory. The Ravens overcame a furious second-half comeback and a 34-minute power outage at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans to clinch the franchise's second World Championship.

- Under Harbaugh's guidance, the Ravens have appeared in four AFC Championship games (2008, 2011, 2012 & 2023) and have won at least one playoff game in eight of their 11 postseasons with him as head coach.

- Harbaugh is the only head coach in NFL history (since 1970 merger) to win a playoff game in each of his first five seasons. Notably, no other NFL coach has won a playoff game in each of their first four seasons at the helm. He is also the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in six of the first seven seasons of a coaching career.

- John and his younger brother, Jim (2011, 2012 and 2013), the former 49ers head coach and current Chargers head coach, are the only NFL head coaches to reach three conference championships in the first five seasons of a coaching career.

- With Harbaugh, the Ravens have posted an 93-37 mark at M&T Bank Stadium over the past 16 seasons, ranking as the NFL's third-best winning percentage (.715) during that span (2008-23).

- In 2019, the Ravens recorded a franchise-best 14-2 record. Baltimore won a team-record 12-straight games to close out the regular season, also earning the franchise's first-ever No. 1 playoff seed.

- Coach Harbaugh has led the Ravens to five AFC North Division titles (2011-12, 2018-19 & 2023).

From his job interview with the Ravens, to his first press conference, to his consistent action and talk about Baltimore, it is all about "the team" for Harbaugh. Signs can be seen around the Ravens' complex:

"The Team, The Team, The Team."

COACHING BACKGROUND

YEARS	COLLEGE/PRO TEAM	POSITION
1984-86	Western Michigan	Graduate Assistant
1987	Pittsburgh	Tight Ends
1988	Morehead State	DBs/Special Teams/ Strength & Conditioning
1989-94	University of Cincinnati	Special Teams, TEs, OLBs, RBs
1995-96	University of Cincinnati	Assistant Head Coach
1997	Indiana University	DBs/Special Teams Coordinator
1998-2006	Philadelphia Eagles	Special Teams Coordinator
2008-24	Baltimore Ravens	Head Coach

Despite his continued success, "Harbs" diffuses accolades: "It's about us. It's about the team. It's about the players, the coaches, Steve [Bisciotti], Ozzie [Newsome], Eric [DeCosta] and the scouts. It's about Dick [Cass], Sashi [Brown] and the support staff. It's about all of us pulling together to win – to be the best."

Unlike other NFL head coaches, "Harbs" took the road less traveled. Most NFL field bosses graduate from pro jobs that include the word "coordinator" after "offensive" or "defensive," or they emerge from leading big-time college programs. Before becoming the Ravens' head coach in 2008, John was the Eagles' secondary coach (2007), and prior to that, Philadelphia's special teams coordinator (1998-2006) and a 14-year collegiate coach. (Harbaugh grew up learning about the game from his father, Jack, a longtime college coach.)

In 1998, then-Eagles head coach Ray Rhodes hired Harbaugh, who quickly established a reputation as one of the NFL's top special teams coaches. Subsequently, he was one of four assistants retained by Andy Reid in 1999.

Prior to hiring Harbaugh, the Ravens talked with over 40 people about the energetic coach. "Did we take a chance by hiring John? My belief is that you have to be willing to do things the masses don't, or you'll never separate yourself from the masses," team owner Steve Bisciotti stated. "We obviously picked the right person."

Simply put, Harbaugh strives to be the best. "We don't want to just win a championship. We want to be a championship team," he stated. "We seek the highest levels."

ADDITIONAL RAVENS NOTES DURING HARBAUGH ERA: Maintaining a strong defensive tradition during his time in Baltimore (2008-23), Harbaugh's defense has allowed the NFL's fewest overall touchdowns (527), the fewest points per game (19.0) and the second-fewest net yards per game (318.2). Most recently in 2023, the Ravens allowed the NFL's fewest points per game (16.5), while in 2018, Baltimore produced the NFL's No. 1 defense (292.9 ypg) and the No. 2 scoring defense (17.9 ppg). The Ravens finished four-straight seasons (2008-11) as the NFL's No. 3 scoring defense (fewest points allowed) – tying an NFL record for consecutive seasons ranking in the Top 3 (record has since been eclipsed by Seattle, 2012-16). Additionally, from 2014-16, Baltimore's defense was one of three teams (Den. & Sea.) to rank in the NFL's Top 10 in yards allowed each season. Harbaugh's red zone defense has also finished in the Top 5 in nine of his 16 seasons, including first overall in 2011 and second in 2023, 2014, 2012 and 2008.

The Ravens' offense has also experienced record-setting success during the Harbaugh Era. In 2019, Baltimore finished No. 1 in the NFL in points (33.2) and rushing yards (206.0) per game, while it was No. 2 in total yards (407.6). In 2019, the Ravens also became the first team ever to average 200 passing and 200 rushing yards per game in a season. Baltimore also set a new NFL single-season rushing record (3,296 yards), besting the 1978 Patriots' 3,165. Additionally, in 2019, the Ravens set season team records for touchdowns (64), points (531), net yards (6,521), rushing yards (3,296) and first downs (386, eclipsed in 2021). This attack was led by unanimous NFL MVP QB Lamar Jackson, who accounted for a league-high 43 total TDs, including a league-best (and franchise-record) 36 passing scores. Jackson also rushed for 1,206 yards, setting a new NFL single-season record by a QB. A year later, in 2020, Baltimore's attack registered the second-most total TDs (55), points (468) and rushing yards (3,071) in franchise history. The 2020 Ravens also produced the NFL's No. 1 rushing attack (191.9 ypg), with their 3,071 rushing yards standing as the third most in a 16-game NFL season. (The Ravens own two of the Top 3 marks.) Producing a revolutionary rushing attack over the past several seasons, the Ravens have rushed for an NFL-high 16,668 yards (168.4 ypg) since QB Lamar Jackson's rookie campaign (2018).

On special teams, an impressive seven Ravens have earned 17 combined Pro Bowl honors while playing for Harbaugh: ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (2008), K Billy Cundiff (2010), RS Jacoby Jones (2012), K Justin Tucker (2013, 2016 & 2019-23), LS Morgan Cox (2015-16 & 2019-20), P Sam Koch (2015) and RS Devin Duvernay (2021-22). A byproduct of the Ravens consistently producing one of the NFL's top special teams units during Harbaugh's tenure, senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin ranked the Ravens in the Top 6 of his annual comprehensive ratings system in seven consecutive seasons (2012-18). (This includes a No. 1 ranking in 2015.) In 2021, Baltimore's special teams unit finished No. 1 in both Gosselin's rankings and Football Outsiders' DVOA ratings.

NFL ASSISTANT COACH: 1998-2007 (with Philadelphia) Harbaugh's special teams in Philadelphia were consistently ranked among the NFL's best. From 2000-05, the Eagles' units finished in the Top 10 in five of those seasons in The

"What separates John from a lot of different coaches is that he watches every player. He has a tremendous work ethic, he has a passion for it, and he works well [with the scouts]. He has tremendous credibility with the scouts because they know he's done the work. That's what I love; that's a joy. He has a strong opinion, but it's always backed up by the tape and by what he wants on this team, and the scouts and coaches always respect that."

Dallas Morning News' special teams rankings. In 2001 and 2003, Philly ranked No. 1, according to senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin's composite ratings (includes 22 kicking-game categories).

Following the 2001 campaign, Harbaugh was voted the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year by his peers. He was also named The Dallas Morning News Special Teams Coach of the Year that season. In just four seasons (1998-2001), Harbaugh elevated the Eagles' special teams from 29th to first in the NFL.

In 1999, the Eagles signed K David Akers, who had been working as a part-time waiter after brief kicking stints with Carolina, Atlanta and Washington. With Harbaugh's help, Akers earned three Pro Bowl honors. Harbaugh also worked with P Dirk Johnson, another "street" free agent, helping him record the then-Top 2 punting averages (38.4 in 2005 and 37.4 in 2004) in Eagles history. Under "Harbs," 15 Eagles earned Special Teams Player of the Week awards, while snapper Mike Bartrum was named to the Pro Bowl, and return specialist Reno Mahe led the NFL with a 12.8-yard punt return average in 2005.

COLLEGE COACHING CAREER: Among John's 39 years of coaching is a two-year stint (1995-96) as the assistant head coach at the University of Cincinnati, finishing 6-5 both seasons with the Bearcats. He coached 10 years on offense and four on defense at the collegiate level, launching his coaching career in 1984 at the age of 21 as a graduate assistant for his father at Western Michigan. In his second position at the University of Pittsburgh (1987), he was mentored by the legendary Sid Gillman, a Pro Football Hall of Famer. John also coached the tight ends at Pitt under head coach Mike Gottfried. While at Cincinnati (1989-96), Harbaugh coached special teams, tight ends, outside linebackers and running backs, and he served as the recruiting coordinator.

Over eight years, Harbaugh recruited 27 starters for the Bearcats and tutored both the NCAA's top return man (former Raven Robert Tate, 34.3 KOR average in 1995) and the second-ranked returner (current Ravens assistant head coach/pass game coordinator Chris Hewitt, 31.5 KOR average in 1993).

John was part of a staff that helped Cincinnati produce three out of four winning seasons (1993, 1995-96) for the first time in 20 years.

"Harbs" also coached one season at Indiana in 1997 as the defensive backs coach/special teams coordinator, under former Ravens offensive coordinator Cam Cameron, and one year at Morehead State in 1988 as the defensive backs coach/special teams and strength and conditioning coordinator.

COACHING HONORS: Leading the 2019 Ravens to a franchise-record 14-2 season and No. 1 seed in the playoffs, Harbaugh was named the Associated Press and PFWA NFL Coach of the Year. He was also named AFC Coach of the Year by the NFL 101 Awards and "Greasy" Neale Pro Coach of the Year (Maxwell Football Club) in 2019. In April 2014, Harbaugh was inducted into Miami (Ohio) University's "Cradle of Coaches Association" and was immortalized with an on-campus statue. Harbaugh's statue joins existing Cradle of Coaches statues for Earl "Red" Blaik, Paul Brown, Carm Cozza, Paul Dietzel, Weeb Ewbank, Sean McVay, Ara Parseghian, John Pont and Bo Schembechler. The Cradle of Coaches honors Miami graduates who have earned recognition as national collegiate or professional Coaches of the Year, who have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame or the Pro Football Hall of Fame, or whose teams won national collegiate or professional/Super Bowl championships.

HARBAUGH COACHING FAMILY: Harbaugh is from a football family. His father, Jack, is a 41-year coaching veteran who won the 2002 NCAA Division I-AA football championship as the head coach at Western Kentucky. His younger brother, Jim, who was the Ravens' starting QB in 1998, played 14 seasons in the NFL, was the San Francisco 49ers' head coach from 2011-14 and led the University of Michigan to a National Championship in 2023. (The Los Angeles Chargers hired Jim as their head coach in 2024.) In a showdown that featured the first-ever NFL game between head coaches who are brothers, John's Ravens bested Jim's 49ers, 16-6, in a 2011 Thanksgiving Night primetime special. The Ravens, of course, then topped the 49ers, 34-31, in Super Bowl XLVII. The brothers' sister, Joani, is married to longtime collegiate basketball coach Tom Crean.

HARBAUGH IMMORTALIZED WITH STATUE AT ALMA MATER

In April 2014, Harbaugh was inducted into Miami (OH) University's "Cradle of Coaches Association" and was immortalized with an on-campus statue.

"I don't think you can even express what something like this means. I've been trying to figure it out," Harbaugh said. "There's nothing like Miami. There's nothing like being back here. Words can't describe my gratitude for being part of this."

The cross-country visit from Jim (then head coach of the 49ers) was a surprise: "There have been a lot of proud moments, but I've never been more proud of [John] than I am today," Jim said. "I always prided myself on being the tallest Harbaugh, but that all changed today when they unveiled that statue."

COLLEGE: Harbaugh earned a degree in political science at Miami (OH), where he won the Football Scholar Athlete Award as a defensive back for the Redhawks. He earned his master's in physical education at Western Michigan.

COMMUNITY IMPACT: Devoted to his family and Christian faith, John is most active in helping the Baltimore area be better for families. He earned the 2011 "Power of Excellence Award" from the (Ben) Carson Scholars for "demonstrating excellence in life and being a role model." He served on the board of the Port Discovery Children's Museum and is a contributor to numerous Baltimore-area events and charities. Also a willing volunteer, his wife, Ingrid, contributes to the Helping Up Mission and Sarah's House, and she is on the Board of Trustees at The Maryland Zoo in Baltimore. In 2020, the couple made significant donations to help fund the distribution of meals to healthcare workers serving on the frontlines of the COVID-19 pandemic. John and Ingrid also support Compassion International, which is an organization that aims to positively impact the long-term development of children living in poverty globally. Additionally, the couple is heavily involved in FCA Baltimore and has sponsored several Baltimore City girls' lacrosse teams, helping make the sport more available to youth who don't traditionally have much access.

Harbaugh is a strong advocate of the U.S. Military. The NFL awarded him its 2013 Salute to Service Award, acknowledging exceptional efforts by those in the league who honor and support military members. (He was also a finalist for the award in 2011.) In 2012, the late Army Chief of Staff General Raymond Odierno presented him with the Outstanding Civilian Service Award. Harbaugh has also visited numerous military installations, including bases in the Persian Gulf as part of the inaugural NFL USO Coaches Tour (2009), the Naval Special Warfare Center in Coronado, Calif., (2011), Andrews Air Force Base – just two days after the capture of Osama Bin Laden (2011) – and undisclosed locations in Turkey and Afghanistan.

In 2008, Harbaugh helped institute Military Appreciation Day – an annual event that takes place during Ravens training

HARBAUGH COACHING ACADEMY

The Harbaugh coaching family (Jack, John, Jim and Tom Crean) debuted their Harbaugh Coaching Academy (HCA) in 2024. The four men and their team of proven leaders joined together to help make a difference in the lives of athletes by way of the coaches who lead them. The academy starts by supporting coaches, teachers, instructors and even parents with the resources to bring out the best in their players both on and off the field. From tactical instruction and leadership skills to inspirational stories and the importance of mental health, HCA provides expert-backed content – filled with unique insights and techniques – to help improve team performance and change young lives for the better. camp. Since its establishment, over 11,500 service members have enjoyed preferred seating and opportunities to meet Ravens players and coaches. Once the season begins, Harbaugh then invites wounded warriors to be his guests at every Ravens home game. In 2017, he donated New Era hats to soldiers in Afghanistan. The hats represented all four of the major professional sports leagues and several from the NCAA. Additionally, he has purchased school supplies for children whose parents are serving in the military and has sent care packages to troops overseas.

PERSONAL: A history buff, Harbaugh has taken the Ravens to Gettysburg, Pa., during offseason team activities to learn about the Civil War. Near the end of the 2017 training camp, he surprised the entire team by cancelling practice on two occasions, loading everyone on buses to visit The Pentagon and Arlington National Cemetery and another day visit to the National Museum of African American History and Culture in Washington, D.C. The trips were opportunities for players, coaches and staff to receive behind-the-scenes tours of the historic locations and show appreciation for what each represents.

John attended Pioneer (Ann Arbor, MI) HS, where he and his brother, Jim, were inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 2016. John and Ingrid have one daughter, Alison, a 2024 University of Notre Dame alum who played lacrosse for the Irish and is now enrolled as a graduate student at South Florida.

JOHN HARBAUGH

HARBAUGH FAST FACTS

John Harbaugh has led the Ravens to a playoff berth in 11 (2008-12, 2014, 2018-20 & 2022-23) of his 16 seasons, and in 2012, captured the franchise's second Super Bowl title. In 2019, Coach Harbaugh became the first Ravens coach ever to win Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year Award.

Here are several more Harbaugh quick hits:

Harbaugh owns the most road playoff wins (eight) by a HC in NFL history. Tom Landry (Dal.) and Tom Coughlin (Jax./NYG) are second with seven each.

Under Harbaugh, Baltimore (11) is one of four teams (NE - 12, GB - 12 & KC - 11) to earn a playoff berth in at least 11 of the past 16 seasons (2008-23). Baltimore (5) is also one of four teams (KC - 6, Buf. - 5 & Phi. - 5) to make the playoffs in at least five of the past six seasons (2018-23).

In 2019, the Ravens posted a franchise-best 14-2 record. Baltimore won a team-record 12 straight games to close out the regular season, earning its first-ever No. 1 playoff seed.

Coach Harbaugh has led the Ravens to five AFC North Division titles (2011-12, 2018-19 & 2023).

The Ravens' 12 playoff wins since 2008 tie (GB) for the fourth most in the NFL (KC - 16; NE - 16; SF - 13).

Under "Harbs," the Ravens have secured an appearance in four AFC Championship games (2008, 2011, 2012 & 2023).

"Harbs" is the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first five seasons. Notably, no other NFL coach has won a playoff game in each of their first four seasons at the helm.

John and his brother, Jim (while with the 49ers), are the only head coaches to advance to three conference title games in the first five years as NFL bosses.

Harbaugh is the only coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in six of the first seven seasons of a coaching career.

In 2012, Harbaugh became the third coach (with Bill Cowher & Chuck Knox) since the 1970 merger to guide his team to the playoffs in each of his first five seasons.

With the Ravens' 2014 playoff berth, Harbaugh became one of eight coaches in NFL history to make the postseason in six of their first seven seasons coaching.

HARBS IN THE PLAYOFFS

The Ravens own an 12-10 playoff record under head coach John Harbaugh, a mark that includes a 34-31 victory in Super Bowl XLVII vs. the San Francisco 49ers.

HEAD COACH JOHN HARBAUGH: YEAR-BY-YEAR

- Producing the NFL's best regular season record (13-4), the 2023 AFC North Champion Ravens earned a No. 1 playoff seed...After beating the Houston Texans, 34-10, in the Divisional Round, the Ravens fell, 17-10, at home in the AFC Championship to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Kansas City Chiefs...In the 2023 regular season, the Ravens tallied an NFL-record 10 victories vs. teams that finished with a winning record, and they posted six wins over playoff teams...Baltimore also ranked No. 1 in the NFL in both point differential (+203) and turnover margin (+12, tied w/ NYG).

- Baltimore became the first team in league history to finish a season ranking No. 1 in each of the following categories: points allowed (16.5 ppg), sacks (60) and takeaways (31, tied w/ NYG)...Led by All-Pros S Kyle Hamilton, DT Justin Madubuike, ILB Patrick Queen and ILB Roquan Smith, the Ravens allowed the league's sixth-fewest yards (301.4 ypg) and ranked No. 1 in sacks (60, tying a franchise record from 2006).

- On offense, Baltimore ranked No. 4 in scoring (28.4 ppg) and No. 6 in total yards (370.4), averaging an NFL-high 156.5 rushing yards per game...QB Lamar Jackson, who was voted AP NFL MVP for the second time (also 2019) in his career, produced the NFL's fourth-best passer rating (102.7), throwing for 3,678 yards (career high) and 24 TDs...Jackson added 821 rushing yards and 5 TDs to become the only QB in NFL history with multiple seasons (2019) reaching the incredible 3,000/800 milestone.

- K Justin Tucker posted a franchise-record 147 points, connecting on 32-of-37 FGs (86.5%) for his NFL-record ninth-ever season reaching at least 30 FGM...WR Tylan Wallace registered a game-winning 76-yard PR-TD vs. LAR (12/10/23), marking the fourth OT PR-TD in NFL history.

- Eight Ravens were voted to the Pro Bowl: S Kyle Hamilton (first), QB Lamar Jackson (third), C Tyler Linderbaum (first), DT Justin Madubuike (first), LB Patrick Queen (first), LB Roquan Smith (second), K Justin Tucker (seventh) and G Kevin Zeitler (first, as a replacement).

- With a 10-7 regular season record, the Ravens clinched a playoff berth for the fourth time (2018-20, 2022) in five seasons, earning the AFC's No. 6 seed...Baltimore finished second in the AFC North behind 12-4 Cincinnati, which played one fewer game overall...The Ravens split the regular season series with the Bengals, but then fell at Cincinnati, 24-17, in a Wild Card playoff...Despite QB Lamar Jackson (knee) missing the season's final six games and Baltimore losing both starting wideouts – WR Rashod Bateman (foot, Oct. 27) and WR/RS Devin Duvernay (foot, Dec. 20) – to season-ending injuries, the Ravens produced at least 10 wins for the ninth time during Harbaugh's tenure (since 2008).

- Baltimore boasted a Top 5 defense in multiple categories, including the NFL's No. 3 unit in points allowed per game (18.5)...The Ravens were also third against the run (92.1) and in defensive red zone TD% (46.4), while finishing fourth on third down (34.9%)...Baltimore allowed the NFL's ninth-fewest yards per game (324.3), tied with Tampa Bay.

- Baltimore produced the NFL's No. 2 rush offense (160.0 ypg) and racked up an NFL-high 12 games with at least 150 rushing yards...In 12 starts, QB Lamar Jackson threw for 2,242 yards, 17 TDs and 7 INTs, adding a team-high 764 rushing yards...Including Jackson, the Ravens had four players rush for 400+ yards: RB J.K. Dobbins (520), RB Kenyan Drake (482) & RB Gus Edwards (433).

- K Justin Tucker scored a single-season career-high 142 points and made an NFL-high 37 FGs, while WR/RS Devin Duvernay posted a 103-yard KOR-TD in Week 2 vs. Mia., helping Baltimore's special teams rank No. 3 in Football Outsiders' 2022 DVOA rating.

- Seven Ravens were voted to the Pro Bowl: TE Mark Andrews (third), RS Devin Duvernay (second), CB Marlon Humphrey (third), QB Tyler Huntley (first, as an alternate), FB Patrick Ricard (fourth), LB Roquan Smith (first) and K Justin Tucker (sixth).

HEAD COACH JOHN HARBAUGH: YEAR-BY-YEAR

- After starting the season with an AFC-best 8-3 record, the Ravens dropped their last six games – five of which came by a combined 8 points…With its final 8-9 record, Baltimore missed the playoffs for the first time in four seasons and for just the fifth time during Harbaugh's 14-year tenure…Ravaged by injuries throughout the year – including season-ending injuries to standouts RB J.K. Dobbins, RB Gus Edwards, CB Marcus Peters and DE Derek Wolfe prior to Week 1 – projected 2021 starters missed a combined 114 games due to injury/illness (this included QB Lamar Jackson, who missed five games).

- Baltimore's offense ranked No. 6 in total yards (378.8 ypg) and registered the league's No. 3 rushing attack (145.8 ypg)… All-Pro TE Mark Andrews was sensational, producing single-season franchise records for receptions (107) and receiving yards (1,361)…Andrews' 1,361 receiving yards also rank third most by a TE in league history and were sixth overall in the NFL.

- Baltimore produced the NFL's No. 1 run defense (84.5 ypg) and ranked No. 3 on third down (34.8%)…On special teams, K Justin Tucker led the league in FG% (94.6) and connected on an NFL-record 66-yard game-winner at Detroit…RS Devin Duvernay finished No. 1 in the NFL in PR average (13.8) and No. 7 in KOR average (24.1), helping Baltimore's special teams rank No. 1 in Football Outsiders' DVOA ratings.

- Five Ravens players were voted to the Pro Bowl: TE Mark Andrews (second), RS Devin Duvernay (first), QB Lamar Jackson (second), FB Patrick Ricard (third) and K Justin Tucker (fifth)…Andrews, Duvernay and Tucker also each earned first-team All-Pro honors.

- The Ravens earned their third-straight playoff berth – and ninth overall under Harbaugh – by posting an 11-5 regular season record…As the AFC's fifth seed, Baltimore won six-straight games – including a 20-13 Wild Card battle at No. 4 Tennessee – before falling, 17-3, in the Divisional Round at No. 2 Buffalo to close out the 2020 campaign…The Ravens advanced to the Divisional Round of the playoffs for the eighth time during Harbaugh's 13 years at the helm.

- The Ravens' rushing attack finished No. 1 in the NFL (191.9 ypg) and produced the third-most yards (3,071) in a 16-game NFL season…Baltimore had three players – QB Lamar Jackson (1,005), rookie RB J.K. Dobbins (805) & RB Gus Edwards (723) – rush for over 700 yards each, while Jackson became the first QB in NFL history to surpass the 1,000-yard rushing milestone in multiple seasons…Dobbins' 6.01 ypc average ranked No. 1 among all NFL RBs, while Jackson's 6.32 ypc average was No. 1 overall…TE Mark Andrews had 58 catches for 701 yards and 7 TDs, becoming the first TE in Ravens history with multiple seasons of at least 700 receiving yards and 7 receiving TDs… WR Marquise Brown posted team highs in receiving yards (769) and receiving TDs (8) on 58 catches.

- Baltimore allowed the NFL's second-fewest points (18.9) and seventh-fewest yards (329.8) per game…The Ravens also boasted the No. 2 third-down defense (34.0%) and produced a league-high 25 FFs…CB Marlon Humphrey led the NFL with a Ravens' single-season record 8 FFs, also registering a team-high 11 PD…S Chuck Clark tallied 96 tackles, 2 FFs, 2 FRs, 1.5 sacks, 1 INT and 1 defensive TD, while OLB Matthew Judon led the team with 6 sacks and 21 QB hits…Rookie LB Patrick Queen posted a team-high 105 tackles and was the NFL's only defender with at least 70 tackles, 3 sacks, 2 FFs, 2 FRs, 1 INT and 1 D-TD.

- Seven Ravens players were voted to the 2020 Pro Bowl, tying the Chiefs, Packers and Seahawks for the NFL's most selections: T Orlando Brown Jr. (second), DE Calais Campbell (sixth), LS Morgan Cox (fourth), CB Marlon Humphrey (second), OLB Matthew Judon (second), FB Patrick Ricard (second) and K Justin Tucker (fourth).

- The No. 1 AFC playoff seed Ravens (14-2) won a franchise-record 12-straight games to close out the regular season, before falling at home in the Divisional round, 28-12, to the Tennessee Titans…Baltimore's league-best 14-2 record set a franchise mark, topping the 13-3 campaign from 2006… The Ravens secured a playoff berth for the eighth time in Harbaugh's 12 seasons and won the AFC North for the fourth time (2011-12, 2018-19).

- The Ravens ranked No. 1 in points (33.2) and rushing yards (206.0) per game, while they were No. 2 in total yards (407.6)… Baltimore became the first team ever to average 200 passing and 200 rushing yards per game in a season…The Ravens set a new NFL single-season rushing record (3,296 yards), besting the 1978 Patriots' 3,165…Baltimore also set season team records for TDs (64), points (531), net yards (6,521), rushing yards (3,296), first downs (386, eclipsed in 2021) and fewest turnovers (15).

- Unanimous NFL MVP QB Lamar Jackson accounted for a league-high 43 total TDs, including a league-best (and franchise-record) 36 passing scores…Jackson also rushed for 1,206 yards (sixth most in the league), setting a new NFL single-season record by a QB…RB Mark Ingram II posted 15 total TDs, tying a single-season team record and ranking fourth overall in the NFL. He also rushed for 1,018 yards.

- Baltimore allowed the NFL's third-fewest points (17.6) and fourth-fewest net yards (300.6) per game…The Ravens boasted the league's No. 5 run defense (93.4 ypg) and were No. 6 vs. the pass (207.2 ypg)…During their 12-game winning streak (starting in Week 5), the Ravens allowed the NFL's fewest yards (268.9) and points (15.2) per game…Baltimore allowed just 18 TDs (a league low) in its final 12 games, also scoring 6 TDs of its own during this span…OLB Matthew Judon led the team with a then-career-high 9.5 sacks and 4 FFs…CB Marlon Humphrey tallied 14 passes defensed and tied (CB Marcus Peters) for the team lead with 3 INTs.

- Thirteen Ravens were named to the Pro Bowl, tying the 2007 Cowboys for the most-ever selections on a Pro Bowl roster: TE Mark Andrews (first), T Orlando Brown Jr. (first), LS Morgan Cox (third), CB Marlon Humphrey (first), RB Mark Ingram II (third), QB Lamar Jackson (first), OLB Matthew Judon (first), CB Marcus Peters (third), FB Patrick Ricard (first), T Ronnie Stanley (first), S Earl Thomas III (seventh), K Justin Tucker (third) and G Marshal Yanda (eighth).

- Winning six of its last seven games – all with rookie QB Lamar Jackson as the starter – Baltimore (10-6) captured its first AFC North Division title since 2012 (and fifth ever), earning a playoff berth for the seventh time during Harbaugh's 11-year tenure… The Ravens returned to the postseason for the first time since 2014, but fell at home in the Wild Card round, 23-17, to the Los Angeles Chargers.

- The Ravens produced the NFL's No. 1 defense, allowing 292.9 yards per game…Baltimore also permitted the league's second-fewest points per game (17.9), just behind Chicago's 17.7…With 2018 Pro Bowlers LB C.J. Mosley (fourth), S Eric Weddle (sixth) and DT Brandon Williams (first), Baltimore ranked No. 1 in total defense for the second time (2006) in team history…The Ravens produced a Top 10 defense for the eighth time in Harbaugh's 11 seasons at the helm.

- Boasting the NFL's No. 2 rushing attack (152.6 ypg), the Ravens racked up the then-second-most rushing yards (2,441) in franchise history…Baltimore also produced a then-franchise-record 5,999 total yards…Over the team's final seven games (with Jackson as starter), Baltimore piled up an NFL-high 1,607 rushing yards (229.6 ypg)…RG Marshal Yanda earned his seventh Pro Bowl nod, helping Jackson finish with the NFL's most rushing yards (695) by a QB.

- K Justin Tucker (a Pro Bowl first alternate) made 35-of-39 FGAs and scored a franchise-record 141 points for the third-straight season, becoming the NFL's only kicker to surpass the 140 mark in each of the past three years (2016-18)…Baltimore ranked fifth in the NFL in punt return average (11.5), with RS Cyrus Jones posting the league's fourth-best mark (13.2).

- Winning six of its last nine games, Baltimore finished second in the AFC North with a 9-7 record, falling one game short of earning a playoff berth (lost on tiebreaker with Buffalo) for the seventh time in Harbaugh's 10-year tenure…The Ravens needed a home win over Cincinnati in Week 17 to make the 2017 playoffs…However, Baltimore's hopes were dashed when the Bengals produced a 49-yard touchdown pass on fourth-and-12 with just 44 seconds remaining to earn a hard-fought, 31-27 victory that closed out the season in heartbreaking fashion.

- The Ravens produced NFL bests in interceptions (22), takeaways (34) and shutouts (3 – the most in a season since the 2003 Patriots)…Baltimore's +17 turnover differential ranked No. 1 in the NFL, while its defensive passer rating (72.4) and 5 defensive touchdowns (tied with Det. & Phi.) were each second best… Baltimore allowed just 18.9 points per game, which ranked sixth best in the league…It marked the seventh time during the John Harbaugh Era (since 2008) that the Ravens produced a Top 10 scoring "D."…Behind Pro Bowlers LB C.J. Mosley, OLB Terrell Suggs and S Eric Weddle, Baltimore's defense ranked 12th overall (325.1 ypg).

- Over the season's last nine games, Baltimore scored the NFL's second-most points per contest (29.4)…During this span, the Ravens also ranked No. 1 in fewest giveaways (5) and No. 2 in sacks allowed (10)…Baltimore finished the year ranking ninth overall in points per game (24.7) and seventh (tied) in both giveaways (17) and sacks allowed (27).

- Football Outsiders tabbed Baltimore's special teams as the NFL's No. 1 overall unit in 2017…The Ravens' ranking (9.2%) was the NFL's eighth highest in a season since 1986…In the annual special teams report from senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin, Baltimore ranked in the league's Top 5 for six-straight seasons (No. 4 in 2017)…The most accurate kicker in NFL history, K Justin Tucker connected on 34-of-37 FGAs and all 39 PATs to earn first-alternate Pro Bowl honors…P Sam Koch posted NFL bests in both punts inside the 10 (16) & 20 (40), with the 40 boots inside the 20 setting a new franchise record…Baltimore also ranked No. 1 in kickoff return average (27.5), No. 5 in punt return average (10.1) and No. 1 in opponent KOR average (18.6).

- The Ravens finished second in the AFC North with an 8-8 record (4-2 in division play) behind the 11-5 Pittsburgh Steelers…The Ravens entered Game 15 at Pittsburgh with the opportunity to tie for first in the division, but dropped a dramatic 31-27 decision when the Steelers scored the winning TD with 9 seconds left… Baltimore played the NFL's second-most games (12) that were decided by 8 points or fewer…In posting a 6-2 record at M&T Bank Stadium, the Ravens boasted the NFL's No. 1 defense in both points (14.8) and yards allowed (260.3) at home.

- Through the first 12 games, Baltimore's defense ranked No. 1 in the NFL in yards allowed, and the unit finished seventh overall (322.1 ypg). (The Ravens became one of three teams – Den. & Sea. – to rank in the NFL's Top 10 defenses from 2014-16.)…Allowing

89.4 rushing yards per game, the Ravens ranked No. 5 vs. the run…Baltimore's ninth-ranked pass defense (232.8 ypg) tied (KC & SD) to produce the NFL's most INTs (18)…Earning his second Pro Bowl in three seasons, ILB C.J. Mosley helped the Ravens allow the league's ninth-fewest points (20.1 ppg), while free agent acquisition S Eric Weddle was spectacular in registering a team-high 4 INTs (tied with Mosley) and a career-high 13 PD.

- QB Joe Flacco set a single-season franchise record by throwing for 4,317 yards, adding 20 TDs…TE Dennis Pitta produced 729 receiving yards while leading the NFL in catches (86) by a TE. (Pitta also set the Ravens' single-season TE record for receptions.)…Pro Bowl FB Kyle Juszczyk led the league in receptions (37) and receiving yards (266) by a fullback, while also serving as a lead blocker for RB Terrance West (774 yards)…G Marshal Yanda earned his sixth-consecutive Pro Bowl honor, marking the longest active streak among NFL guards, and C Jeremy Zuttah was selected to the All-Star game as an alternate.

- In earning his second Pro Bowl and becoming a unanimous first-team All-Pro selection, K Justin Tucker produced perhaps the greatest season ever by an NFL kicker…Tucker scored a single-season franchise-record 141 points, connecting on 38-of-39 FGs (lone miss was a block) and 27-of-27 PATs…Tucker's 38 FGs ranked first in the NFL, while he was 10-for-10 from 50-plus yards, tying (Blair Walsh, 2012) for the most such kicks in NFL single-season history…Amazingly, an NFL single-season record 24 of Tucker's 38 FGs made came from 40 yards or beyond (he was 24-of-24 on such boots)…LS Morgan Cox earned his second-straight Pro Bowl invitation.

- The Ravens finished third in the highly-competitive AFC North, posting a 5-11 record…It marked just the second time Baltimore did not make the playoffs in Harbaugh's eight seasons…The Ravens had 20 players on Injured Reserve (NFL's second most), including eight key starters (DE Chris Canty, QB Joe Flacco, RB Justin Forsett, TE Crockett Gillmore, T Eugene Monroe, WR Steve Smith Sr., OLB Terrell Suggs and C Jeremy Zuttah)…Baltimore played an NFL-record 14 games decided by 8 points or fewer (tied, 1994 NY Giants) and played an NFL-high (tied, Chicago) seven games decided by 3 points or fewer (4-3 record).

- Despite starting four different QBs (Joe Flacco, Matt Schaub, Jimmy Clausen & Ryan Mallett) for the first time in franchise history, Baltimore posted the then-second-most total net yards (5,749) in team annals…The Ravens also set a franchise record by averaging 266.9 passing yards per game, thanks in part to a unit that allowed the NFL's third-fewest sacks (24)…Leading the O-line was G Marshal Yanda, who earned his fifth-straight Pro Bowl nod…WR Kamar Aiken finished with team highs in catches (75), receiving yards (944) and receiving TDs (5).

- The Ravens boasted the NFL's top overall special teams unit, ranking No. 1 in both senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin's annual comprehensive ratings system and the Pro Football Focus rankings – It was Baltimore's fourth-straight ranking in Gosselin's Top 5…P Sam Koch and LS Morgan Cox (a "need" player) earned their first Pro Bowl honors, with Koch posting a 42.9 net average (second in the NFL) and allowing 5.0 yards per return (the NFL's second-best figure)…The Ravens blocked a kick (2 PATs, 2 FGs and 1 punt) in five-straight contests, a feat that had not been accomplished since 1983 (Atlanta)…Baltimore's 5 blocked kicks in 2015 tied (Oakland) for the NFL's most.

- The Ravens ranked No. 8 in total defense, marking the 11th time the unit finished in the NFL's Top 10 in 13 seasons (2003-15)…In the season's final eight games, Baltimore posted the NFL's No. 2 overall defense and the No. 1 pass defense… Second-year LB C.J. Mosley tallied 116 tackles, 4 sacks and 7 PD, adding 1 FF and a 41-yard FR-TD…OLB Elvis Dumervil, whose leadership was valuable in the absence of OLB Terrell Suggs (Achilles tear), posted a team-high 6 sacks and made the Pro Bowl as an alternate.

- The Ravens produced a 10-6 regular season record, earning their sixth playoff berth in seven seasons…Baltimore, one of three AFC North teams to make the postseason, finished third in the division behind Pittsburgh (11-5) and Cincinnati (10-5-1), but advanced to the Divisional Playoff round after capturing a 30-17 Wild Card victory in the Steel City…The Ravens' bid to reach their fourth AFC Championship game under Harbaugh was cut short in New England, where Baltimore fell to the Patriots, 35-31, after holding two 14-point leads during a thrilling battle.

- The Ravens set single-season franchise records by scoring 409 points and producing 5,838 yards (since broken) of offense… Baltimore gave up just 19 sacks (second fewest in team history), which ranked only behind Denver's 17 as the NFL's fewest allowed…QB Joe Flacco tallied career bests in yards (3,986, since surpassed) and touchdown passes (27), while key free agent addition WR Steve Smith Sr. reached the 1,000-yard receiving milestone for the eighth time in his career (1,065 yards on 79 catches)…WR Torrey Smith posted 11 receiving TDs, the second most in Ravens single-season history…First-time Pro Bowl RB Justin Forsett produced a career-high 1,266 rushing yards (the NFL's fifth most) and led the league in runs of 20-plus yards (a team-record 17); Forsett's single-season franchise-record 5.4 rushing average also ranked as the NFL's No. 1 mark among running backs.

- Led by OLB Terrell Suggs and 2014 Pro Bowl selections OLB Elvis Dumervil and rookie LB C.J. Mosley, Baltimore racked up the NFL's second-most sacks (49, tied with Philadelphia), boasted the No. 2 red zone defense (42.6) and allowed the fourth-fewest rushing yards per game (88.3).

- P Sam Koch produced the NFL's No. 3 gross average (47.4) and No. 1 net average (43.3), setting the Ravens' single-season records for each…Highlighted by his third-career 108-yard KOR-TD, RS Jacoby Jones ranked second in the NFL in KOR average (30.6)…As a team, the Ravens were No. 1 in the league with a 28.3-yard KOR mark.

- For the first time since Harbaugh's 2008 arrival, Baltimore did not make the playoffs, falling one game short with an 8-8 mark and placing third in the AFC North…Baltimore played an NFL-high nine games decided by 3 points or fewer, compiling a 5-4 record in those contests…How close were the Ravens to making the playoffs? They were tied 17-17 near the end of the third quarter in the season-ending loss at Cincinnati, needing a victory to secure what would have been their sixth-straight postseason berth.

- OLB Terrell Suggs (10) and OLB Elvis Dumervil (9.5) combined for 19.5 sacks, with Suggs earning his sixth Pro Bowl invite…NT Haloti Ngata was elected to his fifth Pro Bowl, while CB Lardarius Webb's 22 PD ranked as the NFL's second most.

- WR Torrey Smith tallied 1,128 receiving yards, the second most in single-season team history (Michael Jackson - 1,201 in 1996) and had a career-high 65 catches, posting the NFL's fifth-best yards-per-catch average (17.4)…Undrafted rookie WR Marlon Brown's 7 receiving TDs tied (Torrey Smith, 2011) for the most by a rookie in team history, while he also finished second (Smith, 2011) in catches (49) and receiving yards (524) by a Ravens' rookie…G Marshal Yanda also earned his third Pro Bowl honor.

- Pro Bowl K Justin Tucker set franchise records in FGs made (38) and FGs attempted (41) and produced a then-franchise-record 140 points (tied for sixth in NFL)…Tucker also had 6 FGs of 50-plus yards and kicked 3 game-winning FGs, including a team-record 61-yarder at Detroit.

- The Ravens captured a second-consecutive AFC North title with a 10-6 mark before sweeping four playoff games to win Super Bowl XLVII: 24-9 over the visiting Colts on Wild Card weekend; 38-35 in double overtime at Denver in the Divisional Round; 28-13 at New England in the AFC Championship – shutting out the Patriots, who owned the league's top offense, in the second half; and then topping the 49ers, 34-31, in New Orleans at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome after jumping to a 28-6 third-quarter lead…Showing a resolve that was a hallmark of that championship team, the Ravens overcame a three-game December losing streak and 53 games lost to defensive starters to win the title.

- Baltimore set a then-franchise record by scoring 398 points, averaging the NFL's 10th-most points per game (24.9)…The Ravens scored a team-record 254 points at home, producing the NFL's fourth-best home average of 31.8 ppg…Baltimore also surrendered just 16 give-aways, setting a franchise single-season record low.

- The Ravens' special teams units were spectacular: In addition to posting a league-best (tied, Darius Reynaud) 3 kick return TDs (108- & 105-yard KORs and 63-yard PR), WR/RS Jacoby Jones led the NFL in KOR average (30.7)…Rookie K Justin Tucker, an undrafted free agent signing, made 30-of-33 FGAs (90.9%), producing the second-best success rate in Ravens single-season history and the second-best mark by a rookie kicker in NFL history.

- Six Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: S Ed Reed (ninth), DT Haloti Ngata (fourth), FB Vonta Leach (third), RB Ray Rice (third), G Marshal Yanda (second) and Jones (first).

- En route to winning Super Bowl XLVII, the Ravens produced one of the most electrifying postseasons in NFL history by averaging 410.3 yards of offense per game (134.8 rush & 275.5 pass), scoring 31.0 points per contest and allowing just 22.0…WR Anquan Boldin recorded 22 catches for 380 yards and 4 TDs, while Jones posted a 29.4-yard receiving average (5 for 147), catching TDs of 70 and 56 yards (Jones also had a 108-yard KOR-TD in the Super Bowl.)…With a 3-TD performance vs. the 49ers, QB Joe Flacco threw 11 TD passes in the postseason, tying the NFL single-postseason record shared by Joe Montana (1989) and Kurt Warner (2008)…Flacco finished the Super Bowl 22-of-33 for 287 yards to produce a 124.2 rating (eighth-best mark in SB history) and earned game MVP honors…The Ravens' defense was also stout during the playoffs, registering 10 takeaways (6 INTs and 4 FRs) to produce a +6 turnover differential.

- Producing a second-straight 12-4 record (13-5 overall), Baltimore won the AFC North, sweeping the division for the first time in team history…The Ravens were 6-0 against playoff teams (7-1 including postseason), matching Green Bay as the only clubs to go undefeated in division play and against other postseason qualifiers…In what was a franchise first, the Ravens also went unbeaten at home (9-0 with a playoff win over Houston)…Baltimore earned a 20-13 Divisional Round victory over the Texans, and then fell, 23-20, in a heartbreaking AFC Championship thriller at New England.

- The Ravens' defense, which finished No. 3 in the league in fewest points permitted (16.6) for the fourth-straight year, tied an NFL record for consecutive seasons of being in the Top 3 for points allowed.

- RB Ray Rice produced a career-high and NFL-best 2,068 yards from scrimmage, ranking second in rushing (1,364)…Rice also set a team mark with 15 total TDs…WR Torrey Smith was third among NFL rookies with 841 receiving yards (50 catches); his receptions and yards, plus 7 TDs, set new Ravens first-year standards.

HEAD COACH JOHN HARBAUGH: YEAR-BY-YEAR

- Eight Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: LB Ray Lewis (13th), S Ed Reed (eighth), OLB Terrell Suggs (fifth), DT Haloti Ngata (third), FB Vonta Leach (second), Rice (second), G Ben Grubbs (first) and G Marshal Yanda (first)…Suggs was also named the 2011 Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year, marking the fourth time a Raven has won the honor (Reed - 2004 and Lewis - 2003 & 2000).

- Baltimore tied Pittsburgh for the best record in the division at 12-4, but lost the AFC North on the division-record tiebreaker (5-1 to 4-2)…Baltimore, Indianapolis (a then-NFL record nine in a row) and Philadelphia became the only teams to make the playoffs from 2008-10…The 2010 campaign also marked the first time the Ravens ever earned the postseason three years in a row (the Ravens later extended their record to five years in 2012).

- In the Wild Card game at Kansas City, the Ravens prevailed 30-7…Baltimore then dropped a 31-24 Divisional Round contest at Pittsburgh, which advanced to the Super Bowl…Harbaugh became the first head coach in NFL history to take over a sub-.500 team and then win a playoff game in each of his first three seasons (2008-10).

- Five Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: K Billy Cundiff (first), LB Ray Lewis (12th), DT Haloti Ngata (second), S Ed Reed (seventh) and OLB Terrell Suggs (fourth)…WR Anquan Boldin tallied team highs with 64 catches and 837 receiving yards, while QB Joe Flacco threw 25 TD passes and a career-high passer rating (93.6)…RB Ray Rice finished with 1,776 yards from scrimmage, the NFL's third most.

- After posting a 9-7 record, the Ravens produced their sixth playoff team of the decade (2000-09)…Behind the NFL's ninth-ranked scoring offense (24.4 ppg) and a defense that finished third in total yards (300.5 ypg) and points allowed (16.3 ppg), the Ravens upended the Patriots (33-14) in the Wild Card round, becoming the first road team to win a playoff game at New England since 1978.

- For the first time in team history, Baltimore had a 3,000-yard passer (Joe Flacco - 3,613), 1,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice - 1,339) and 1,000-yard receiver (Derrick Mason - 1,028) in the same season.

- Five Ravens were voted into the Pro Bowl, including LB Ray Lewis (11th), FB Le'Ron McClain (second), DT Haloti Ngata (first), S Ed Reed (sixth) and Rice (first), who tallied the NFL's second-most yards from scrimmage (2,041)…Rookie T Michael Oher, who started all 16 games, finished second for Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year (NFL.com fan vote) and earned All-Rookie team honors.

- In Harbaugh's initial Baltimore season, the Ravens produced an 11-5 record and advanced to the AFC Championship game…Baltimore won the Wild Card game at Miami (27-9) and the Divisional game at the AFC's top-seeded Tennessee Titans, 13-10…Pittsburgh, the eventual Super Bowl champion, stopped the Ravens (23-14) in the AFC title matchup at Heinz Field…This first Harbaugh/Ravens team tied the NFL record (since 1978) for turnarounds by a head coach taking over a sub-.500 team…The Ravens' 2-1 playoff record following that regular season campaign established a new league standard in this same category…With the 13 total victories in 2008, Harbaugh set the NFL record for the most wins ever by a rookie head coach starting a rookie quarterback (Joe Flacco).

- Baltimore's stifling defense ranked No. 2 in the NFL by allowing 261.1 yards per game and was No. 3 in points allowed per game (15.3)…The Ravens also produced an NFL-best 26 INTs, including five returned for touchdowns…S Ed Reed tied his career high (2004) with a league-leading 9 INTs.

- Five players earned Pro Bowl honors: LB Ray Lewis (10th), Reed (fifth), ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (third), OLB Terrell Suggs (third) and FB Le'Ron McClain (first)…Flacco, who became the first rookie QB ever to win two playoff games, was named the Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year (NFL.com fan vote).

MAKING HIS MARK

Entering 2024, John Harbaugh owns the fifth-best winning percentage (.612) among active NFL head coaches (minimum 100 games), compiling a strong 172-109 record (including playoffs).

CHRIS HEWITT

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / PASS GAME COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: CINCINNATI
BORN: 7/22/74, KINGSTON, JAMAICA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 16/13 (3 PLAYING, 13 COACHING)

CHRIS HEWITT enters his 10th season leading Baltimore's secondary, adding the assistant head coach title in 2024. He joined the Ravens as an assistant special teams coach in 2012, a post he held for two years, before earning a promotion to assistant secondary coach in 2014. Hewitt has led Baltimore's secondary since the 2015 campaign, helping the team consistently earn standout defensive rankings. Prior to his Baltimore arrival, Hewitt spent time coaching at the collegiate level, including one year (2003) as Notre Dame's assistant strength and conditioning coach and an eight-year stint (2004-11) at Rutgers.

- With Hewitt at the helm of the secondary (2015-23), Baltimore's defense has ranked at or near the top of the NFL in several categories, including points allowed per game (second – 19.6), yards allowed per game (first – 322.0) and opponent third-down conversion percentage (first – 36.0)...The secondary has also contributed to the NFL's third-ranked opponent passer rating (85.2) and fifth-ranked opponent completion percentage (62.1%).

- Hewitt has coached several Pro Bowl DBs since 2015, when he started leading Baltimore's group, including Kyle Hamilton (2023), Marlon Humphrey (2019-20 & 2022), Marcus Peters (2019), Earl Thomas III (2019) and Eric Weddle (2016-18).

ZACH ORR

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: NORTH TEXAS
BORN: 9/9/92, DESOTO, TX
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 12/11 (3 PLAYING, 8 COACHING)

ZACH ORR enters his eighth year as an NFL coach and first as the Ravens' defensive coordinator after two seasons (2022-23) as the team's inside linebackers coach. Prior to rejoining Baltimore, Orr spent one season (2021) as the Jacksonville Jaguars' outside linebackers coach. He has served in various roles on Baltimore's coaching staff since he transitioned to coaching in 2017, following his retirement from the NFL due to a congenital neck/spine condition. Orr originally signed as a rookie free agent ILB with the Ravens in 2014 and went on to earn second-team All-Pro honors in 2016.

- Over the past two seasons (2022-23), Orr guided ILBs Roquan Smith and Patrick Queen to career years, also helping them become anchors of Baltimore's defense. During this two-season span, the Ravens' unit ranked Top 10 in yards allowed per game (312.8, sixth), rushing yards allowed per game (100.8, fifth), passing yards allowed per game (212.1, ninth), points allowed per game (17.5, second), opponent third-down conversion percentage (35.7%, third), opponent red zone efficiency (43.8%, first) and takeaways (56, fourth).

- The 2023 Ravens' defense became the first unit in NFL history to lead the league in scoring (16.5 ppg), sacks (60) and takeaways (31). ILB Roquan Smith became just the third player in NFL history to register at least 100 tackles and 1 INT in each of the first six seasons of a career (2018-23).

- In 2022, ILBs Roquan Smith and Patrick Queen were one of only two sets of LB teammates to record at least 60 tackles, 1 sack and 1 INT after Week 9, when Smith was acquired by Baltimore (Houston – Christian Kirksey & Christian Harris). Queen registered a career- and team-high 117 tackles, along with career highs in sacks (5) QBHs (14), INTs (2) and PD (6).

- Under Orr's tutelage, Jaguars OLB Josh Allen became the NFL's only player in 2021 to register a FR, INT and sack in the same game, earning AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors (Week 9 vs. Bills).

- In 2020, the Ravens allowed the NFL's second-fewest points per game (18.9) and produced the No. 2 third-down defense (34.0%), also registering a league-high 25 FFs.

MARK DeLEONE

INSIDE LINEBACKERS COACH

COLLEGE: IOWA
BORN: 6/20/87, SYRACUSE, NY
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 11/1

MARK DeLEONE was hired as the Ravens inside linebackers coach in 2024. He joins Baltimore's staff with 17 years of coaching experience, most recently serving as a defensive analyst at the University of Kansas for the past two seasons (2022-23). Before assisting on the Jayhawks' staff, DeLeone spent 10 seasons (2012-21) coaching in the NFL, working with the Detroit Lions (2021), Chicago Bears (2019-20), Kansas City Chiefs (2013-18) and New York Jets (2012) in numerous capacities, including leading inside linebackers for four seasons (2018-21). He joined the NFL ranks after five seasons (2007-11) coaching at the collegiate level.

- During his six seasons (2013-18) with the Chiefs, helped the team earn three AFC West division titles and five trips to the postseason.

- Served as Roquan Smith's ILB coach in Chicago for two seasons (2019-20).

- Worked with two 2011 first-round NFL Draft picks – OL Mike Pouncey (Florida) and DE Adrian Clayborn (Iowa) – during his time in the collegiate coaching ranks.

- In two seasons (2007-08) as a defensive graduate assistant for Iowa, worked with 14 All-Big Ten selections and 22 future NFL players.

- Throughout his career, DeLeone has also been heavily involved with recruiting and has worked at several different football camps as a guest coach.

2022-23: (with University of Kansas) 2023: Helped the Jayhawks secure the program's first bowl game victory in 15 years, defeating UNLV in the 2023 Guaranteed Rate Bowl...Finished the season 9-4 overall, 5-4 in conference play – including a victory over sixth-ranked Oklahoma, the team's first ranked win over a Top 10 team at home since 1984 – and 23rd in the AP poll, the program's first time being ranked in the final AP poll since the 2007 season. 2022: In his first season with Kansas, helped DL Lonnie Phelps earn AP second-team All-Big 12 honors.

2021: (with Detroit) Coached ILBs for one season for the Lions, whose defense was improved in various categories, including a decrease in total yards allowed per game by 40 points from the previous season (419.8)...Also helped LB Jalen Reeves-Maybin become the fourth player in franchise history, and second LB, to produce at least 70 tackles, four passes defensed, four tackles for loss and 2 forced fumbles in a single season.

2019-20: (with Chicago) Led the Chicago Bears inside linebacker room for two seasons, which featured Ravens All-Pro ILB Roquan Smith, who produced triple-digit tackles in both years under DeLeone's tutelage. 2020: Coached Smith to earn second-team All-Pro honors after finishing as the league's only defender to record at least 100 tackles (139) and double-digit tackles for loss (18) with multiple sacks (four) and multiple INTs (two)...His career-high 18 tackles for loss ranked second in the NFL that season, trailing only OLB T.J. Watt's 23. 2019: DeLeone's unit anchored a defense that ranked Top 10 in points allowed (18.6 - fourth), total yards per game (324.1 - eighth), rush yards per game (102.0 - ninth) and pass yards per game (221.9 - ninth).

2013-18: (with Kansas City) Since joining the team in 2013, DeLeone worked with LB Derrick Johnson, helping him break the all-time franchise tackle record in 2015, compiling 1,262 total tackles (993 solo). 2018: In his final season with the Chiefs and first as a main position coach, DeLeone helped the club earned its third AFC West title in six years...He coached LB Anthony Hitchens to a career- and team-high 135 tackles (81 solo) in his first season in Kansas City. 2017: Worked with second-year LB Reggie Ragland as earned more game action, starting 10 of the 12 games he played in, totaling 44 tackles (31 solo) and 4 tackles for loss. 2016: Helped Derrick Johnson earn his fourth-career Pro Bowl nod in 2016. 2015: Served as assistant LBs coach, guiding Tamba Hali, Justin Houston and Derrick Johnson to Pro Bowl berths, marking the third time in franchise history the Chiefs had three linebackers selected to the Pro Bowl in a single season. 2014: Guided Hali to a franchise-record and NFL-high 22 sacks en route to being named the team's MVP. 2013: In his first season with the Chiefs, DeLeone helped his three linebackers (Hali, Houston and Johnson) to the Pro Bowl.

2012: (with New York Jets) Served as a defensive assistant for the Jets in his first NFL coaching role, helping the Jets' defensive unit rank eighth in yards per game (323.4) and second in pass yards per game (189.8)...Worked with CB Antonio Cromartie and S LaRon Landry who both earned Pro Bowl honors in 2012.

2011: (with Temple University) Served as an offensive graduate assistant, helping the team finish 9-4...The Owls defeated Wyoming 37-15 in the New Mexico Bowl that season, marking the program's first bowl victory since 1979.

2010: (with University of Florida) Worked with wide receivers in the spring before helping the offensive line and tight ends in the fall...The Gators saw seven players selected to the All-SEC team en route to their Outback Bowl victory over Penn State.

2009: (with University of New Hampshire) Served as the director of football operations/assistant offensive line, helping the Wildcats to a 10-3 record en route to the Colonial Athletic Association North Championship and a quarterfinal appearance in the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs.

BORN: 1/1/79, TAMPA, FL
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 14/3

GEORGE GODSEY (pronounced GOD-see) is in his 14th NFL season and his third as the Ravens' tight ends coach. Godsey has been an NFL offensive coordinator for two NFL teams – the Miami Dolphins (2021), where he was a co-offensive coordinator, and the Houston Texans (2015-16). He has also held offensive positions with the Dolphins (2019-20), Detroit Lions (2017-18), Texans (2014) and New England Patriots (2011-13). Prior to joining the NFL ranks, Godsey began his coaching career with the University of Central Florida (2004-10).

- In 2023, the Ravens' tight ends unit led the NFL in receiving TDs (12), contributing to the fourth-best scoring offense (28.4 ppg) and the sixth-ranked offense in total yards (370.4 ypg).

- In his first year in Baltimore (2022), Godsey's unit ranked No. 2 in the NFL in receiving yards (1,418), receptions (127) and first downs (76).

- Godsey coached a Miami tight ends unit in 2021 that finished with a league-high 122 catches, while its 1,271 receiving yards were the league's fourth most.

- In 2020, Dolphins tight ends combined to post 91 receptions for 1,061 yards and tied the team's single-season tight end mark with 11 receiving TDs.

- Worked with QB Matthew Stafford while with Detroit in 2018, who completed 66.1% (367-of-555) of his passes for 3,777 yards and 21 TDs.

- The Texans posted three consecutive winning seasons during Godsey's tenure (2014-16) and won the AFC South in both seasons (2015-16) he was offensive coordinator.

- Coached TE Rob Gronkowski from 2012-13 after one season (2011) as an offensive assistant with New England…In 2011, helped guide the Patriots to the AFC's No. 1 seed and advance to Super Bowl XLVI, following a regular season in which the offense ranked among the league's best in several categories, including yards per game (428.0 – second), points per game (32.1 – third) and red zone efficiency (65.3% – second).

2022-23: (with Baltimore) 2023: Coached TEs Mark Andrews and Isaiah Likely to be the league's only sing-team pair of TEs with at least 5 TD grabs each, while also becoming the first TE duo in Ravens history to accomplish the feat...Led by Andrews and Likely, Baltimore's tight end room posted a league-high 12 receiving TDs, contributing to the fourth-best scoring offense (28.4 ppg) and the sixth-ranked offense in total yards (370.4 ypg). 2022: Developed a tight ends unit that posted the second-most receiving yards (1,418), receptions (127) and first downs (76) in the league...TE Mark Andrews earned his third-career Pro Bowl nod, recording 73 receptions (tied for third most among NFL TEs), 847 yards (third most among NFL TEs) and 5 TDs (tied for seventh most among NFL TEs)...Rookie TE Isaiah Likely registered 3 TD (tied for most among NFL rookie TEs) while producing the most receptions (36), most TDs (3 - tied with Andrews) and second-most receiving yards (373) by a rookie TE in Ravens history.

2019-21: (with Miami) 2021: Promoted to co-offensive coordinator/tight ends…Guided a tight ends unit that finished with a league-high 122 catches, while its 1,271 receiving yards were the league's fourth most…TE Mike Gesicki enjoyed a career year, producing single-season bests in receptions (73) and receiving yards (780). 2020: Miami's tight ends combined to post 91 receptions for 1,061 yards and tied the team's single-season tight end mark with 11 receiving TDs…Gesicki led the way with 53 receptions for 703 yards (13.3 avg) and 6 TDs…His 703 yards ranked fourth among TEs in the NFL. 2019: Gesicki caught 5 TDs in the final six games of the season, tying for the second most in the NFL over that span…His 51 receptions and 570 receiving yards were both fifth among AFC tight ends.

2017-18: (with Detroit) Godsey was a defensive assistant responsible for special projects in 2017 and was promoted to quarterbacks coach in 2018. 2018: Worked with QB Matthew Stafford, who completed 66.1% (367-of-555) of his passes for 3,777 yards and 21 TDs despite two of his top receivers – Marvin Jones Jr. and Golden Tate – combining to play in just 16 games for Detroit. 2017: Served as a defensive assistant responsible for special projects, helping the Lions finish third in the NFL in total takeaways (32), fourth in INTs (19) and second in FRs (13).

DOUG MALLORY, 59, brings extensive experience into his first season with Baltimore, where he works alongside assistant head coach/pass game coordinator Chris Hewitt in guiding Baltimore's secondary. A coaching veteran with over 30 years of experience, Mallory most recently served as Michigan's defensive analyst from 2021-23, aiding the Wolverines' 2023 national championship unit that allowed 10.4 points and 247.0 yards per game. Mallory originally joined the NFL ranks as a defensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons in 2015, where he worked with linebackers and defensive backs. He spent his first 26 years in the industry (1988-2013) as a coach at various college programs, including Indiana (1988, 2011-13 & 1994-96), New Mexico (2009-10), LSU (2005-08), Oklahoma State (2001-04), Maryland (1997-2000), Western Kentucky (1990-93) and Army (1989).

- During his tenure as a defensive analyst at Michigan (2021-23), the Wolverines won three Big Ten titles and appeared in three College Football Playoffs, culminating with a National Championship in 2023 — the program's first since 1997.

- With the Falcons in 2016, Mallory helped guide the defensive backs for the NFC South division champions...That season, Atlanta represented the NFC in Super Bowl LI against New England.

- Served as the defensive backs coach for LSU when the Tigers won their third National Championship (2007).

2021-23: (with Michigan) 2023: Helped guide the Wolverines to a 15-0 record and their first national title since 1997, serving as a defense analyst for a unit that ranked No. 1 nationally in yards allowed per game (247.0) and points allowed per game (10.4). 2022: Michigan won its second-consecutive Big Ten title, with the defense ranking Top 10 nationally in rushing (97.9, sixth), scoring (16.1, seventh) and yards (292.1, fifth) per game. 2021: Led defensively by All-American OLBs Aidan Hutchinson and current Raven David Ojabo, the Wolverines earned their first Big Ten title since 2004.

2015-20: (with Atlanta) 2020: Helped guide S Keanu Neal to a career-best 9 TFL, while the defense permitted the NFL's sixth-fewest rushing yards per game (104.8). 2019: Assisted on a defense that finished strong following its Week 9 bye, posting the NFL's No. 1 third-down percentage (25.8%), No. 5 goal-to-go percentage (52.9%) and No. 6 red zone defense (42.9%) from Weeks 10-17...The Falcons finished 6-2 over the final eight games of the regular season. 2018: Had a helping hand in the emergence of S Damontae Kazee, who tied for a league-high 7 INTs. 2017: Atlanta ranked in the Top 10 in total defense (318.4 ypg, ninth), scoring (19.7 ppg, eighth) and red zone efficiency (45.8%, fifth)...Helped guide S Keanu Neal to his first-career Pro Bowl. 2016: Atlanta won the NFC South and reached the Super Bowl for only the second time in franchise history...S Keanu Neal made an immediate impact as rookie, posting 105 tackles (72 solo), 2 TFL, 5 FFs, 1 FR and 8 PD. 2015: Served as a defensive assistant and spent time with the linebackers during his first season in Atlanta.

2011-13: (with Indiana) Third stint at Indiana...Mentored DB Greg Heban, who became the first player in Indiana history to lead the team in INTs for three consecutive seasons.

2009-10: (with New Mexico) Served as the Lobos' defensive coordinator, helping guide LB Carmen Messina to second-team All-Mountain West honors in 2010 and first-team honors in 2009.

2005-08: (with LSU) 2008: Promoted to co-defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach...Guided five DBs who became future NFL Draft picks, including S Curtis Taylor (2009), S Chad Jones (2010), CB Patrick Peterson (2011), S Brandon Taylor (2012) and CB Ron Brooks (2012). 2007: Served on an LSU staff that led the program to its third National Championship in program history...Helped mentor 2008 NFL Draft picks CB Chevis Jackson (third round to the Falcons) and S Craig Steltz (fourth round to the Bears)...Steltz earned numerous first-team All-American honors in his first full season as a starter and was one of the three finalists for the Thorpe Award, given to the nation's top defensive back, while Jackson was named a first-team All-SEC performer...Also coached freshman DB Chad Jones to the All-SEC Freshman team...As a unit, the Tigers' defense limited opposing offenses to just 182.7 yards passing per game and registered 23 INTs, a figure that led the SEC and ranked fourth in the nation. 2006: Capped his second year in Baton Rouge with a Sugar Bowl victory...All-American S LaRon Landry was selected as the sixth-overall pick in the 2007 NFL Draft by Washington, becoming the then-highest drafted DB in school history...The Tigers' secondary played a key role on a defense that ranked No. 3 overall (242.8 ypg) and No. 4 in scoring (12.6 ppg). 2005: Mallory's secondary played an integral role on a defense that ranked third overall (266.8 ypg) and permitted the nation's third-fewest points per game (14.2).

2001-04: (with Oklahoma State) 2004: Senior CB Darrent Williams was drafted by the Denver Broncos in the second round (56th overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft after graduating as Oklahoma State's all-time leader in INT-TDs (5). 2003: Guided a secondary that helped the Cowboys earn an appearance in the Cotton Bowl...CB Darrent Williams recorded 6 INTs and a then-school-record 17 PD, en route to earning first-team All-Big 12 honors. 2002: Oklahoma State's defense finished with 73 PD, which then marked the second most in team history. 2001: Oklahoma State posted 14 PD and 3 INTs in its upset victory at reigning champion Oklahoma, who also entered as winners of 19 consecutive contests at home...It marked Oklahoma State's first victory against a ranked opponent since 1998.

TRAVELLE WHARTON

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

COLLEGE: SOUTH CAROLINA
BORN: 5/19/81, GREENVILLE, SC
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 17/1 (10 PLAYING, 7 COACHING)

TRAVELLE WHARTON is in his seventh season coaching NFL offensive linemen and his first as Baltimore's assistant offensive line coach. He most recently served as the O-line coach for the Washington Commanders (2023), being promoted to that role after assisting Washington's unit for three seasons (2020-22). Prior to that, Wharton was the assistant offensive line coach for the Carolina Panthers (2018-19), the same organization for which he spent nine years (2004-11, 2013) blocking during his playing career. He began his coaching career as offensive quality control coach at his alma mater, South Carolina, in 2015, before being elevated to the Gamecocks offensive line coach midway through that season.

- In 2023, under Wharton's leadership, Washington's rushing attack posted the league's seventh-most yards per rush (4.4) and ranked fourth in first downs per rush (27.6%).

- In 2022, Washington's offensive line paved the way for RB Brian Robinson Jr. to become the fifth player in team history to record 5 rushing TDs and 5 receiving TDs in a season.

- Wharton's unit blocked for RB Christian McCaffrey, who led the league in scrimmage touches (403) and yards (2,392), while tying for most scrimmage TDs (19) in 2019.

- As Carolina's assistant offensive line coach in 2018, Wharton's unit helped the offense rank No. 1 in yards per rush (5.1) and No. 4 in rush yards per game (133.5).

- Started 111 of the 115 regular season games he played in with the Carolina Panthers, both of which still mark the third-highest totals by an offensive lineman in franchise history.

2020-23: (with Washington) 2023: The Commanders rushing attack posted the league's seventh-most yards per rush (4.4) and ranked fourth in first downs per rush (27.6%)...The unit also posted the league's fifth-best red zone efficiency mark (63.3%)...The offensive line paved the way for RB Brian Robinson Jr. who became the fifth player in Washington's history to record 5 rushing and 5 receiving TDs in a single season. 2022: Led an offensive line that paved way for the league's 12th-most productive rushing unit (126.1 ypg). 2021: Assisted an offensive line that helped produce Washington's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2018 (RB Antonio Gibson – 1,037)...The run game ranked sixth in the NFC in both rushing yards (2,061) and rushing ypg (121.2). 2020: Helped Washington claim its first NFC East title since 2015 as a part of Ron Rivera's staff, whom he also coached with for the previous three seasons in Carolina...His unit helped rookie RB Antonio Gibson post 11 TDs rushing TDs, the second most by a rookie in franchise history (Alfred Morris 13 in 2012).

2017-19: (with Carolina) 2019: The Panthers ground game averaged 4.7 yards per rush (sixth in NFL) and posted 20 TDs (fourth in NFL)...Wharton's unit blocked for RB Christian McCaffrey, who led the league in scrimmage touches (403) and yards (2,392), while tying for most scrimmage TDs (19). 2018: In his first season as a full-time NFL coach, Wharton's unit helped the offense rank No. 1 in yards per rush (5.1) and No. 4 in rush yards per game (133.5)...The offensive line paved the way for RB Christian McCaffrey to post his first 1,000-rushing yard season (1,098) and 7 TDs. 2017: Assisted with Carolina's 2017 offseason workouts and training camp as part of the NFL's Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship.

2015: (with South Carolina) Began his coaching career in offensive quality control at his alma mater before being elevated to offensive line coach midway through the season.

NFL PLAYER: (2004-13) Selected in the third round (94th overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers and played 10 seasons in the league – nine with the Panthers (2004-11, 2013) and one with the Bengals (2012)...Started 111 of the 115 regular season games he played in with Carolina, both of which still mark the third-highest totals by an offensive lineman in franchise history...Was a starter for each of the Top 3 rushing seasons in Panthers history (2008-09, 2011)...Helped the unit average 5.41 yards per carry in 2011, a mark that led the NFL and set a franchise record.

COLLEGE: Was a four-year letter-winning offensive lineman (2000-03) and appeared in 47 games (45 starts) at LT for South Carolina...Didn't allow a single sack after the second game of his freshman season (2000), a 45-contest streak...Earned second-team All-SEC honors and was named team captain his senior year...Also earned freshman All-America honors and a spot on the All-SEC freshman team.

PERSONAL: The Fountain Inn, SC, native, attended Hillcrest (Simpsonville, SC) HS, earning All-Area and All-State recognition as a senior...Participant of the Shrine Bowl following his senior year...In 2008, he was recognized by the State of South Carolina for being a role model and hero to the Greenville community and for his philanthropy among the youth of South Carolina...Hosted a free, family-run football camp for more than 500 kids each summer near Fountain Inn...Inducted into the Greenville County Schools Hall of Fame in 2017...Participated in the NFL's third-annual Personal Finance Bootcamp, to reinforce his financial fundamentals and model to his four children that learning never ends...He and his wife, Kashema, have three daughters, Gabrielle, Kaelyn and Kelsey, and a son, T.J.

What's next in line of things you want to accomplish?

"I'm happy where I am and I love what I do. I don't feel the need to push for something else. Nothing that's above me interests me enough to have to give up something I love. Yes, it's a lot of work, and there are days when I'm frazzled, but I don't feel the need or pressure to go to a higher position. I'm happy where I am and still find a lot of value in my job."

I like that you are so sure about your role and the value it brings to the organization. So, lastly, what are you most proud of?

"I still get phone calls and texts from people I've worked with -- players, coaches, staff -- either checking in or asking me for help, because they know I'll be able to help them figure out whatever they're missing. It's my reputation that I'm most proud of, because people still want to reach out, talk to or come see me."

MEGAN ROSBURG
ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH / DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

COLLEGE: AMERICAN UNIVERSITY   BORN: 1/9/93, CINCINNATI, OH   EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 3/3

Megan Rosburg assists head coach John Harbaugh in all areas, including football operations, scheduling, communications and staff management. Additionally, she has worked with the defensive line and outside linebackers for the past three seasons, officially adding defensive assistant to her title in 2024. While earning her bachelor's degree in business administration from American University in 2014, she served as captain of the volleyball team, helping lead the Eagles to three Patriot League Championships and the program's first-ever Sweet 16 appearance in the NCAA Division I Tournament (2014). A local phenom, Rosburg prepped at River Hill (Clarksville, MD) HS, where she was named 2010-11's Gatorade Maryland Volleyball Player of the Year, recognizing her outstanding athletic excellence, high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the court. Her brother, Jerad, is a professional hockey player in the NHL, while her sister, Margaret, is a nurse and former volleyball player at St. Louis University. Megan's father is former Ravens special teams coordinator/associate head coach Jerry Rosburg.

NEW YORK TIMES PIECE ON MEGAN ROSBURG

In 2024, Ravens Assistant to the Head Coach/Defensive Assistant Megan Rosburg was the subject of a New York Times profile written by Tashan Reed. Below are excerpts from Reed's piece on Rosburg, which can be found in its entirety at:
https://www.nytimes.com/athletic/5598386/2024/08/05/megan-rosburg-ravens-assistant-coach/

Rosburg, now 31, is one of 12 full-time female coaches in the NFL. Seeing the players galvanize around her message affirmed to Rosburg that they respected her just like any other coach on staff.

"At the end of the day, it's all about the players. Whether you're a female coach or a male coach, your resume is what they do on tape," Rosburg said. "If you can give the players information or give them an advantage to help them win on Sunday, they will trust you, and they will respect you. If you're genuine, and you do things that will help them win and help them prolong their career, it doesn't matter what you look like. … If you're real with them and you can help them, they'll trust you as their coach."

OZZIE NEWSOME

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

COLLEGE: ALABAMA
BORN: 3/16/56, MUSCLE SHOALS, AL
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 47/29 (13 PLAYING, 34 FRONT OFFICE)

OZZIE NEWSOME's legacy is unlike any the game of football has produced. Simply put, "The Wizard" will forever remain in a class of his own.

Flourishing at every point of his football career, Newsome has not just followed a successful path, he has blazed the trail. Known throughout all of sports as a premier leader, Newsome is a Hall of Fame player, the architect of Baltimore's Super Bowl XXXV and Super Bowl XLVII championship teams and an elite personnel evaluator who became the NFL's first African American general manager in 2002.

(In 2019, Newsome's longtime top lieutenant, Eric DeCosta, took over as the Ravens' EVP & GM. However, Newsome maintains a significant role within the organization as its executive vice president.)

"If Ozzie wasn't already in the Hall of Fame as a tight end, they would be putting him in as a general manager," Hall of Fame GM Bill Polian stated.

"Ozzie is special as a person," head coach John Harbaugh states. "Obviously, he's great at what he does – that's proven. He's been great at everything that he's done. If you look at his history, he's a Hall of Famer; he's in every Hall of Fame there is and still counting. For me, it goes beyond that; it goes to who he is as a person – the type of husband he is, the type of father he is, the type of friend he is, confidant, advisor, just all-around good person with a great heart and a strong faith."

Newsome's remarkable football journey began in Leighton, AL, where he first stepped onto the gridiron with the hope of playing college football. That dream turned into a reality when he became a standout at Alabama under Bear Bryant from 1974-77. "Coach Bryant helped me grow up," states Newsome, who has a sideline portrait of the legendary coach and mentor on his office wall. "He pushed me further than I thought I could go, both on and off the field."

In 1978, Cleveland selected Newsome in the first round (23rd overall) of the NFL Draft. Playing 13 years for the Browns, he authored the most productive career for a tight end in the game's history. A three-time Pro Bowler, his 662 receptions for 7,980 yards and 47 TDs stood as NFL records by a TE until Hall of Famer Shannon Sharpe surpassed those marks in 2001 (HOFer Tony Gonzalez now owns the catches and receiving yards marks, while Antonio Gates holds the TDs record).

Following his storied playing days, Ozzie joined Cleveland's front office. His initial non-player position came as an assignment scout in 1991. Two years later, he was promoted to a comprehensive role – assistant to the head coach/offense/pro personnel. "I had to find out which direction my career would go," Newsome explains. "Art [Modell] gave me the opportunity to work with the coaches, and I enjoyed that. At the same time, I increased my experience with the personnel department and decided that's where I wanted my career to head."

In 1994, Newsome was named the Browns' director of pro personnel. Although he continued to help on the field, Ozzie provided detailed studies on other NFL players and recommended which players the Browns should try to acquire. When the franchise moved to Baltimore in 1996, Mr. Modell invited Newsome and promoted him to vice president of player personnel. From that point, Ozzie's reputation as a supreme talent assessor grew quickly.

In the Ravens' first-ever draft, Newsome tabbed T Jonathan Ogden and LB Ray Lewis (fourth and 26th selections, respectively). Combining to produce an amazing 24 Pro Bowl honors, Ogden became the first Ravens' draft choice elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame (2013), while Lewis was enshrined in 2018. Fittingly, the duo joined Newsome, who was inducted into the Hall as a Brown in 1999.

Another top Newsome draft pick, S Ed Reed (2002), received a gold jacket in 2019, giving the Ravens three first-ballot Hall of Famers – all selected by "The Wizard."

Starting with Ogden and Lewis, Newsome consistently

OZZIE NEWSOME CAREER SNAPSHOT

- NFL's First African American General Manager (promoted in 2002)
- Architect of the Ravens' 2000 Super Bowl XXXV & 2012 Super Bowl XLVII Title Teams
- NFL Executive of the Year (2000)
- Pro Football Hall of Fame (Class of 1999)
- State of Alabama Hall of Fame (Class of 1995)
- National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame and NCAA Hall of Fame (Class of 1994)
- 13-Year NFL Tight End with the Cleveland Browns (1978-90)
- Three-Time NFL Pro Bowler (1981, 1984-85)
- Four-Time Cleveland Touchdown Club Offensive Player of the Year (1978, 1981, 1983-84)
- Current Member of Two Major NFL Policy-Making Groups: Competition Committee and Player Care Foundation Board
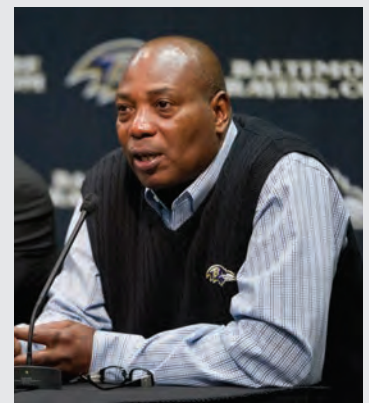

"He and I have always been very different in a lot of ways, but so aligned. It's a special relationship in my life. I've learned a lot of football, but honestly, just a lot more about being a good person. So, I am extremely happy that Ozzie is going to play such a significant role moving forward for this organization."

— Ravens EVP & GM Eric DeCosta on Ozzie Newsome

compiled impressive draft classes for the Ravens. In the team's first 23 drafts (1996-2018) – all led by Newsome – Baltimore tabbed 24 first-rounders who have earned a total of 68 Pro Bowl honors. When the Ravens had a high pick, they didn't miss. Of the eight players chosen in the Top 10 by Baltimore, five (Ogden, OLB Peter Boulware, CB Chris McAlister, RB Jamal Lewis, the 2003 NFL Offensive POTY, and OLB Terrell Suggs, the 2011 NFL Defensive POTY) earned Pro Bowl accolades. Additionally, Baltimore picked in the bottom half of the first round with uncanny success: Lewis was twice named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year; TE Todd Heap (31st) went to two Pro Bowls as a Raven; Reed (24th) was chosen an All-Star nine times and earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2004; QB Joe Flacco (18th) was named Super Bowl XLVII MVP, leading the Ravens to their second World Championship in 2012; LB C.J. Mosley (17th) became the first Ravens rookie to garner Pro Bowl honors following an exceptional 2014 season (and again in 2016-18); and three-time Pro Bowler QB Lamar Jackson (32nd) has twice been named NFL MVP (2019 & 2023).

Amazingly, in the Ravens' brief history with Newsome at the helm, he drafted 25 players who earned Pro Bowl honors in Baltimore. When including 2006 Pro Bowl LB Bart Scott, Pro Bowl K Justin Tucker (2013, 2016 & 2019-23), Pro Bowl LS Morgan Cox (2015-16 & 2019-20) and Pro Bowl FB Patrick Ricard (2019-22), who signed as rookie free agents in 2002, 2012, 2010 and 2017, respectively, Baltimore produced 29 homegrown Pro Bowlers under Newsome's leadership.

In addition to his knack for evaluating talent on the field, Ozzie has also mastered the ability to develop and share insight with scouts who work under him. Over time, Newsome developed the Ravens' methodical and disciplined draft process, one that's foundation is laid years in advance. Now led by DeCosta, the "process" includes 28 members of the scouting department, but also has feedback from Ravens coaches. Much of Baltimore's staff has been with the team since the franchise started in 1996 or has graduated from the "20/20 Club," a group that consists of members who began with the Ravens as young assistants and grew into evaluators with more input. (The term "20/20" refers to hiring "20-year-olds for $20,000." "Actually, the guys started when they were a little older than 20 and for more than $20,000, but that's what we call them," Newsome adds.)

DeCosta and Newsome, who is on the NFL's Competition Committee and the NFL Player Care Foundation Board, encourage all scouts and coaches to have strong opinions, noting specifically that they want to hear what everyone in the room has to say. Because of this philosophy, one of the biggest strengths of the Ravens' personnel team is that "we respect and listen to each other."

"We've been fortunate to have guys who cut their teeth right here in Baltimore, and our methods and philosophies have become engrained," Newsome affirms. "We have had great guys with Phil Savage, 'Shack' [James Harris], George Kokinis, Eric DeCosta and other people who were helping these young scouts along the way. I think that's the secret. It's the way we do things, and the way these guys gravitate to the process of the Baltimore Ravens."

With leadership from Newsome, Baltimore also fosters an environment that breeds standout coaches. By bringing in individuals who embrace the "Raven Way," Baltimore creates a synergy that manufactures success among scouts, coaches and players. As a result, the Ravens have had many assistants move on to become or return as head coaches, both on the collegiate and NFL level: Jim Caldwell (Lions), David Culley (Texans), Jack Del Rio (Jaguars/Raiders), Vic Fangio (Broncos), Kirk Ferentz (Iowa), Thomas Hammock (Northern Illinois), Pat Hill (Fresno State), Hue Jackson (Raiders/Browns), Gary Kubiak (Broncos), Marvin Lewis (Bengals), Mike Macdonald (Seahawks), Eric Mangini (Browns/Jets), Rick Neuheisel (UCLA), Mike Nolan (49ers), Chuck Pagano (Colts), Mike Pettine (Browns), Rex Ryan (Jets/Bills), Jim Schwartz (Lions), David Shaw (Stanford), Mike Singletary (49ers), Mike Smith (Falcons) and Ken Whisenhunt (Cardinals/Titans).

"[Ravens] guys love to play the game, and those are the guys you surround yourself with," states Ryan, who worked with Newsome from 1999-2008. "That's why you have a chance to be successful [in Baltimore]."

GEORGE KOKINIS

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

COLLEGE: HOBART
BORN: 2/27/67, WETHERSFIELD, CT
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 34/28

Now in his 34th NFL season, GEORGE KOKINIS is one of the longest-tenured Ravens in Baltimore's player personnel department. Kokinis, who was promoted to vice president of player personnel in 2024, is GM Eric DeCosta's chief personnel evaluator, overseeing all aspects of college and pro scouting for Baltimore. Kokinis began his NFL career with the Cleveland Browns in 1991, moving with the franchise to Baltimore in 1996. After advancing through the scouting ranks in the early seasons, Kokinis was named the Ravens' director of pro personnel in 2003 and spent six seasons at the post. He was hired to be the Cleveland Browns' general manager in 2009. As a longtime member of Ozzie Newsome's staff, Kokinis returned to the franchise in 2010, bringing a wealth of player personnel experience and knowledge back to Baltimore.

2010-24: (with Baltimore) 2024: Promoted to vice president of player personnel following the NFL Draft...Under DeCosta's leadership, Kokinis oversees all college and pro scouting efforts. 2019: The personnel department made 139 roster transactions that aided in a franchise-best 14-2 season for the Ravens, who earned their second-straight AFC North title...Named director of player personnel by new general manager Eric DeCosta following the NFL Draft. 2010: Re-joined the team as the Ravens' senior personnel assistant.

2009: (with Cleveland) 2009: Named the Browns' general manager on Jan. 26, 2009.

1996-2008: (with Baltimore) 2003-08: Kokinis became the team's director of pro personnel in 2003, overseeing all aspects of the pro football personnel department...In his six years as director, his role included assisting evaluating free agent talent, monitoring waiver wire transactions, and handling contract negotiations for later-round draft picks. 2000-02: Promoted to the Ravens' assistant director of pro personnel in 2000, the year Baltimore won Super Bowl XXXV...Conducted the advance scouting of Ravens opponents and provided reports to the coaches. 1996-99: Was the Ravens' Northeast area scout for four years before moving over to pro personnel...Was among the group of Browns' staffers invited by Art Modell to move to Baltimore with the franchise.

1991-95: (with Cleveland) Began his NFL scouting career with the Browns in 1991 after serving an internship in the team's operations department.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Graduated from Hobart College with a B.A. in psychology and earned his master's degree in sports management at the University of Richmond (1991), while working as a graduate assistant coach for the Spiders' baseball team...He played both football and baseball during his collegiate career, earning ECAC Baseball Player of the Year honors in 1989 as a pitcher for the Statesmen, and was selected to represent the conference in a New York vs. New Jersey All-Star Game played at Yankee Stadium...Kokinis was a two-sport athlete at Wethersfield (CT) HS...George and his wife, Elizabeth, have a daughter, Marissa, a 2021 Vasaar College graduate, and twins, Peter, a sophomore at Washington College, and Ella, a sophomore at Northwestern.

DR. ANDREW TUCKER
CHIEF MEDICAL OFFICER

COLLEGE: WAKE FOREST / SOUTHERN ILLINOIS MEDICAL SCHOOL
BORN: 11/9/60, TERRE HAUTE, IN
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 34/29

DR. ANDREW TUCKER has served as the Ravens' head team physician since 2001, following five seasons (1996-2000) in a role of team physician. In 2021, he was hired by the organization in a full-time capacity to be its first-ever chief medical officer. He has worked closely with Baltimore players since the team's inception, and prior to that, spent five years as the Cleveland Browns' team physician.

Dr. Tucker has accrued nearly 35 years of experience providing primary medical care to professional, collegiate, scholastic and recreational athletes – most recently serving as medical director of the MedStar Health Sports Medicine program at MedStar Union Memorial Hospital.

Reporting to EVP & GM Eric DeCosta for all matters related to player care, Dr. Tucker oversees day-to-day player wellness. Even with his CMO position for the Ravens, he maintains his clinical practice at MedStar.

In addition to his role as the Ravens' CMO, Dr. Tucker has served on several NFL medical committees and most recently was Chair of the NFL Medical Committee, while he's also a past president of the NFL Physicians' Society.

Dr. Tucker's clinical research includes cardiovascular health and screening in athletes and sports concussions in pediatric and adult athletes. He is published in multiple medical journals and has written book chapters on a variety of sports health topics, including concussions, pre-participation examinations, and musculoskeletal injuries and disorders.

Prior to joining MedStar in 2004, Dr. Tucker was the director of primary care sports medicine at the University of Maryland Medical Center and an assistant professor for the Department of Family Medicine at the University of Maryland School of Medicine (1996-2004).

He has also served as a staff physician in the Department of Orthopedics at the Cleveland Clinic Foundation and as an assistant clinical professor at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland.

After receiving his medical degree from Southern Illinois University, he completed two fellowships in sports medicine.

Andrew and his wife, Sheldon, have three children: daughters, Caroline and Sally, and a son, Drew.

MICHELLE ANDRES

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF RAVENS MEDIA

COLLEGE: FURMAN
BORN: 1/21, MADISON, WI
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 19/19

MICHELLE ANDRES, who joined the Ravens in 2006, is in her 19th season with the team after being promoted to senior vice president of Ravens Media in 2015. She leads the franchise's digital media, productions, and strategy and analytics departments.

Andres is responsible for digital fan engagement, including social media, mobile, web, online sales, email, photography and television programming. She also oversees fan-centric digital technology like VR, AR, AI, CTV/OTT and more.

Lastly, Andres leads business intelligence initiatives, including fan research, business analytics and data management.

Prior to working for the Ravens, Andres spent nine seasons with the NBA's Orlando Magic – seven in public relations overseeing corporate communications and government relations and two leading the franchise's newly-formed interactive marketing department.

Andres was a lecturer at Georgetown University's Sports Industry Management Graduate Program for four years (2013-16), teaching sports digital media and enhanced consumer engagement.

A native of Gainesville, FL, Andres earned her master's degree in political campaign management from the University of Florida and her bachelor's degree in political science from Furman University.

BRAD DOWNS

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF MARKETING

COLLEGE: ROBERT MORRIS
BORN: 2/22/77, WILLIAMSPORT. MD
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 23/23

BRAD DOWNS, who is in his 23rd season with the Ravens, was elevated to senior vice president of marketing in 2020. He leads the team's advertising, branding, game entertainment, fan development, promotions and partnership activation efforts. In 2023, Downs also assumed a leading role in "The Next Evolution," which is a three-year upgrades project to significantly enhance the gameday and year-round fan offerings at M&T Bank Stadium.

Under Downs' guidance, the team's youth initiatives were revamped, led by the creation of RISE, a first-of-its-kind youth football platform to encourage participation in the sport and engage with youth through high school football players. In 2023, the Ravens and Under Armour partnered with Frederick County Public Schools (FCPS) to provide grant funding and uniforms for the development of high school girls' flag football programs. The success of this launch has led to partnerships with Baltimore City Public Schools (City Schools), Montgomery County Public Schools (MCPS) and Washington County Public Schools (WCPS) to provide grant funding and uniforms for those high school girls' flag football programs in the fall of 2024.

Under Downs, the Ravens have been widely recognized as a leader in fan engagement, due in large part to the continued success of its Purple fan club for women, in addition to numerous fan affinity programs that cultivate excitement and create top-notch experiences.

The organization's gameday experience has consistently ranked among the NFL's best, with 2023 yielding a No. 3 overall satisfaction score, including the No. 1 spot for game entertainment (according to the NFL's annual Voice of the Fan Survey). Downs also oversees the Ravens' premier pre-game destination, RavensWalk, which has routinely ranked among the league's best for pre-game entertainment outside the stadium.

Prior to joining the Ravens, Downs was a regional marketing manager with Adelphia Business Solutions, where a key part of his role was leading the naming rights partnership of Adelphia Coliseum when it was the name of the Tennessee Titans' home stadium.

In 2016, Downs was named one of Baltimore Business Journal's "40 Under 40" honorees, and in 2017, he was inducted into the Sport Management Hall of Fame at his alma mater, Robert Morris University.

Downs was a longtime board member of the Ravens Foundation, Inc. and currently serves on the board for The Family Tree in Baltimore. He and his wife, Amy, have two sons, Zachary (10) and Carter (8).

BRANDON ETHERIDGE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT / GENERAL COUNSEL

COLLEGE: YALE / HARVARD LAW SCHOOL
BORN: 6/5/85, BALTIMORE, MD
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 11/9

BRANDON ETHERIDGE is in his ninth season as the Ravens' general counsel, following a 2021 promotion to senior vice president. He is responsible for oversight of all legal, compliance and risk management matters for the Ravens. Etheridge also leads the organization's government affairs efforts and plays a significant role in the Ravens' social justice reform work, helping strengthen governmental, law enforcement and community relations. He is a member of the Maryland and D.C. Bar Associations.

Etheridge was instrumental in helping complete the new 2023 stadium lease agreement between the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA) and the Ravens that extended the team's commitment to remain in Baltimore and support investment in M&T Bank Stadium through the end of the 2037 NFL season, with two five-year options to extend.

In 2019, Etheridge advised on legal matters during the three-year, $120 million M&T Bank Stadium improvements project, also coordinating with the Department of Homeland Security to help the stadium secure SAFETY Act designation. In 2018, he was instrumental in the administration and initial distribution of funds for the Ravens' Social Justice Fund.

From 2014-16, Etheridge was part of the NFL Management Council, providing counsel to teams on matters like the Collective Bargaining Agreement, player contracts, discipline and healthcare. He also represented clubs in arbitration proceedings and advised on employment matters.

Prior to his time at the NFL, Etheridge worked from 2011-14 for the international law firm of Covington & Burling in Washington, D.C. He represented numerous clients in the sports industry, including the NFL.

Etheridge earned his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Yale University, where he was also a two-time letterman as an OLB/DE. He then attended Harvard Law School, where he earned a J.D. in 2011. Born in Baltimore and raised in Maryland's Prince George's and Howard Counties, for much of his youth, he attended the McDonogh School, which is located just a few miles from the Ravens' training facility.

In 2014, Etheridge was named to Forbes' "30 Under 30" list as one of the "Sports World's Brightest Young Stars." In 2018, he was honored as a member of the Baltimore Business Journal's "40 Under 40" class, while in 2024 he was tabbed a Sports Business Journal "40 Under 40" honoree.

Etheridge serves on the Board of Trustees for the Baltimore Community Foundation and the McDonogh School. During the COVID-19 pandemic, he was selected by Maryland Attorney General Brian Frosh to serve on the Attorney General's COVID-19 Access to Justice Task Force.

SIMON GELAN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF OPERATIONS

COLLEGE: MORGAN STATE
BORN: 3/19/83, COLLEGE PARK, MD
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 15/3

SIMON GELAN, who was promoted to senior vice president of operations in 2024, returned to the Baltimore Ravens for his second stint with the club after rejoining the organization in July 2022. Gelan is responsible for directing the team's day-to-day operations, including at the Under Armour Performance Center, summer training camp and minicamps, team travel, team services, grounds, facility maintenance, and game operations and food operations for players, coaches and staff. Gelan previously spent three seasons (2019-21) as the director of team logistics and business process liaison for the Chicago Bears, where his responsibilities included home game operations, team travel, budgeting and master planning. Gelan also spent nine seasons (2010-2018) with the Cleveland Browns in numerous roles, most recently as the director of football operations. In his first role with Baltimore, Gelan worked for one season (2009) in the operations department. Prior to that, he spent time with the Chicago Bears (2008) and San Francisco 49ers (2007) in their respective equipment departments. In June 2024, Gelan attended "NFL League of Leaders," which is an executive education program at the Stanford Graduate School of Business that brings together leaders from both the clubs and league office to accelerate leadership development among the NFL's senior level talent. A native of College Park, MD, Gelan is a graduate of Morgan State University. He and his wife, Lywanda, have two daughters, Camille and Savannah.

JEFF GOERING

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT / CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

COLLEGE: ROCKHURST (KANSAS CITY, MO)
BORN: 12/29/67, TULSA, OK
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 26/26

JEFF GOERING, who joined the club in 1999, oversees the Ravens' finance and information technology departments. He also works with the team's insurance and risk management matters. In terms of financial operations, Goering leads the strategic planning, budgeting, financial reporting, tax and audit processes. He also serves as the primary financial liaison with the Maryland Stadium Authority, working with various stadium contractors and event promoters. In overseeing the I.T. department, he focuses on matters such as hardware/software applications and network security/infrastructure.

Prior to being named SVP of finance in 2015, Goering served as the Ravens' VP of finance/chief financial officer (2008-14). He was elevated to senior director of finance in 2004 after spending five years as the organization's controller.

Previously, as a PricewaterhouseCoopers senior consultant in Dallas, Goering worked with many sports entities, preparing financial feasibility studies, market assessments and economic impact analyses for proposed new or expanded sports venues.

He received his Master of Science in sports management from the University of Massachusetts in 1998. During that time, he also served as a consultant in the evaluation and preparation of Boston Red Sox salary arbitration cases.

Goering spent a year in the Philippines as a community development volunteer for the Presbyterian Church, USA, in 1995-96. He received a B.S. in business administration from Rockhurst (Kansas City, MO) University.

Jeff, who previously served on the board of the Ravens Foundation, earned his CPA certificate in 1992. He and his wife, Sheryl, have two daughters, Olivia (23) and Carly (21), and a son, Daniel (18).

BAKER KOPPELMAN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF TICKET SALES & OPERATIONS

COLLEGE: GUILFORD (GREENSBORO, NC)
BORN: 2/7/67, BALTIMORE, MD
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 29/29

BAKER KOPPELMAN has been with the Ravens since their 1996 inception. He oversees the team's PSL, season ticket and hospitality sales, ticket operations, ticket distribution, customer service, club level concierge service and upper level programming, and he assists with attracting events to M&T Bank Stadium. In relation to his roles, Koppelman contributes to internal committees tasked with reviewing and improving overall fan experience.

Koppelman has worked in professional sports ticketing operations since 1987, selling Baltimore Orioles tickets at Memorial Stadium during the summer while earning his sports management and economics degrees at Guilford College (Greensboro, NC), where he graduated in 1990.

He worked his way to a full-time position with the Orioles in 1991, helping manage the stadium box office and contributing with the seating relocation from Memorial Stadium to Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1992. He then spent a season with the San Diego Padres in 1995, before returning to his hometown to join the Ravens prior to their inaugural 1996 season.

Koppelman has helped M&T Bank Stadium and the Ravens host a Billy Joel/Stevie Nicks concert (2023), Metallica concert (May 2017), Beyonce's World Formation Tour (June 2016), Billy Joel and One Direction concerts (both July 2015), Jay-Z and Beyonce's On the Run Tour (July 2014), and The Legends of The Summer Tour, featuring Justin Timberlake and Jay-Z (August 2013). Baltimore also hosted a U2 concert in June 2011, Monster Jam in June of 2011-13, a Kenny Chesney concert in 2008, international soccer matches between Chelsea and AC Milan (2009), Manchester City and Inter Milan (2010), Tottenham and Liverpool (2012), Arsenal and Everton (2022), FC Barcelona and AC Milan (2024), and the CONCACAF Gold Cup (2013 and 2015). M&T Bank Stadium has also hosted several premier college football games, including the annual Army-Navy showdown on four occasions (2000, 2007, 2014, 2016) and six NCAA Lacrosse Final Four tournaments (2003, 2004, 2007, 2010, 2011, 2014).

Koppelman is a graduate of St. Paul's School (Baltimore) and was inducted into its Athletic Hall of Fame in 2016 for his contributions as a team manager (football, wrestling and basketball) and a four-year member of the varsity baseball team. He is also a board member of the Baltimore chapter of the American Heart Association. Baker's wife, Reba, is the Ravens' senior director of finance.

ELIZABETH MEARMAN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF PEOPLE, CULTURE & INCLUSION

COLLEGE: MARYLAND, BALTIMORE COUNTY (UMBC)
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 21/21

ELIZABETH MEARMAN joined the Ravens in 2004 and was promoted to senior vice president in 2020. Originally hired as the organization's first-ever director of human resources, Mearman designed, developed and implemented many of the HR methods currently in use for the team. In 2023, she led rebranding efforts to create the Ravens' People, Culture and Inclusion Department, further strengthening diversity, equity and empowerment for the organization's hiring and employee engagement practices.

For the past 20 years, Mearman has been responsible for onboarding, benefits administration, performance management, compensation management, employee relations, organizational development and employee satisfaction. In 2020, she was tasked with leading the Ravens' internal DEIB efforts to enhance team dynamics, productivity and innovation within the organization.

Additionally, Mearman partnered with several other NFL teams to implement the first-of-their-kind NFL human resources meetings. The event has become an annual gathering, where HR leaders from nearly every team meet to discuss HR strategy, develop best practices and tackle issues that are unique to professional sports.

In 2019, Mearman and her team created/hosted the first-ever HBCU Career Combine, and in 2021, they took the Combine virtual when eight NFL teams participated to provide students from HBCU's a look into the world of working in sports.

Prior to the joining the Ravens, Mearman worked five years as an HR manager for the Allegis Group, a private staffing firm in Baltimore, MD. She holds her bachelor's degree in psychology from UMBC and her PHR.

Mearman previously served on the Board of the Ravens Foundation, Inc. and was a longtime member of The One Love Foundation's Regional Advisory Board.

Mearman lives in Millersville with her husband, Joe, their two children, Taylor (6) and Joseph (3), and their three rescue dogs, Sammi, Charlie and Frankie.

KEVIN ROCHLITZ

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT / CHIEF SALES OFFICER

COLLEGE: WYOMING
BORN: 1/5/71, CASPER, WY
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 22/22

KEVIN ROCHLITZ joined the Ravens in 2003 and was named senior vice president/chief sales officer in 2019. He leads the corporate sales department, which includes national and regional partnerships, broadcasting contracts – including WBAL-TV, WBAL Radio and 98Rock – and M&T Bank Stadium suite sales.

In 2023, Rochlitz led negotiations for the substantial 15-year M&T Bank strategic partnership and stadium naming rights extension. In 2024, he helped create and sell the brand-new Blackwing suites at M&T Bank Stadium, featuring 10 individual suites all connected to a private club that provides fans the NFL's most premium gameday experience.

Among other contracts completed by Rochlitz are partnerships with MedStar Health, Safeway, Visa, Coca-Cola, MillerCoors, Anheuser-Busch, Verizon, Southwest Airlines, Maryland Lottery and McCormick. He also led negotiations with sports gaming partners Caesars/Horseshoe Casino, BetMGM and Draft Kings.

In 2022, Rochlitz led the sale of the Advance Business Systems Suite Level at M&T Bank Stadium, while in 2014, he guided a team that completed a 10-year, $60 million partnership extension with M&T Bank, including the continuation of the stadium naming rights and several community-focused programs. In 2012, Rochlitz coordinated a partnership that led to the team's training facility being named the Under Armour Performance Center.

Rochlitz also spent five years as SVP of sales for Mandalay Sports and Entertainment/Mandalay Pictures, owners of the Dayton Dragons and Frisco Rough Riders. He coordinated the new stadium construction and sold naming rights for each venue (Fifth Third Field in Dayton, Ohio, and Dr Pepper Ballpark in Frisco, Texas). From 1996-97, he was one of the youngest assistant athletic directors in NCAA D-I for the University of Miami.

Rochlitz serves on the Syracuse University Sports Management Advisory Board and on the Maryland SPCA Advisory Board. He is also a member of the Signal 13 Foundation with the Baltimore City Police Department.

Named a Baltimore Smart CEO Executive of the Year in 2016, Rochlitz was also chosen to participate in the Leadership Baltimore County program from 2015-16. In 2011, he was selected by the U.S. Department of Defense and Secretary Robert Gates to join the Joint Civilian Orientation Conference to better understand and promote the U.S. military.

Rochlitz earned a degree in marketing from the University of Wyoming, where he sits on the Business Advisory Board. In May of 2021, he was named the Distinguished Alum for the university's College of Business. Rochlitz and his wife, Melissa, have a daughter, Riley (21), who is in her senior year at Wyoming.

CHAD STEELE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF COMMUNICATIONS
COLLEGE: WINTHROP
BORN: 10/11/74, WEST POINT, NY
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 26/23

CHAD STEELE, who is in his 23rd season with the Ravens, oversees the public and community relations departments. Steele is the organization's primary contact and spokesman for the team's communications efforts, and he directs strategic efforts promoting brand communication endeavors in coordination with football and business operations.

Steele and the Ravens' public relations department are three-time recipients of the Pete Rozelle Award (2010, 2012 & 2016), a prestigious annual honor that is voted on by the 300-member Pro Football Writers of America and given to the NFL P.R. staff that consistently strives for excellence in its dealings and relationships with the media. (The Ravens have also been finalists seven other times during Steele's tenure.)

Steele has been invited to assist the NFL's PR operations at six Super Bowls and currently serves as chairperson of the NFL's Football Publicity Committee. He was the first person ever chosen by the league office as a conference PR director for two-consecutive Pro Bowls in Honolulu, HI.

Originally a 1998 season-long intern with the Ravens, he rejoined the team in 2002 following three seasons with the San Francisco 49ers' media relations department. Steele also worked two training camp internships with the Carolina Panthers (1996-97).

Steele, who was selected to attend Stanford University's Executive Education Program for NFL Managers in 2005, was also asked by the NFL league office, along with veteran NFL players and team player development directors, to lead discussions on media professionalism with the 2007 NFL draft class. In May 2016, he was chosen by the University of Maryland to be the keynote speaker at its Communications School graduation.

Steele serves on the boards of the Irvine Nature Center, Sutton Scholars and Stevenson University Brown School of Business and Leadership. In 2024, he was named an Honorary Commander for the 316th Helicopter Wing at Joint Base Andrews.

Steele, who is a 1997 graduate of Winthrop University (business administration), led the Eagles' basketball team as co-captain. He and his wife, Wendy, have a daughter, Dylan (14), and a son, Colton (10).

RICH TAMAYO

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF STADIUM OPERATIONS & GUEST EXP.
COLLEGE: STATE UNIVERSITY AT STONY BROOK
BORN: 5/13/91, QUEENS, NY
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 9/9

RICH TAMAYO is in his ninth season with the Ravens after being promoted to senior vice president of stadium operations and guest experience in 2022, following the retirement of longtime executive Roy Sommerhof. Originally hired as the Ravens' first-ever director of guest experience in 2016, Tamayo oversees all aspects of M&T Bank Stadium, including gameday parking and transportation, security, guest services, custodial services, catering, medical services and stadium maintenance.

In 2023, he assumed a leading role in "The Next Evolution," which is a three-year venue upgrades project to significantly enhance gameday and year-round fan offerings at M&T Bank Stadium.

While serving as the Ravens' director of guest experience, Tamayo was responsible for creating and developing standard-bearing initiatives that ensure the best experiences for fans on gameday.

Under Tamayo's leadership, the Ravens partnered with the Disney Institute to roll out the "Common Purpose and Quality Standards" program to over 2,500 gameday employees. He helped lead the hiring, onboarding and managing of both full-time and gameday team members, while also overseeing the service relationship of all operating partners at M&T Bank Stadium.

During his time in that role, Tamayo was responsible for the creation of the first comprehensive and all-inclusive employee Rewards/Recognition Program. He also created the "Welcome to the Flock" and "Season Kickoff" trainings to greet new and returning gameday team members each year. (Both programs are now considered NFL best practices.) Additionally, Tamayo is a valued contributor to the NFL's Guest Services and Security Committee.

Impressively, in 2019, Tamayo and his team were rated the NFL's No. 1 gameday staff by the league's annual Voice of the Fan survey.

Prior to joining the Ravens, Tamayo spent 14 years working for Disney, holding several positions that focused on maximizing guest experience initiatives.

A native of Queens, NY, Tamayo earned a B.A. in social science from State University at Stony Brook. He and his wife, Ashley, have one son (Zak) and three daughters (Madison, Reagan & McKinley).

THERESA ABATO
VICE PRESIDENT OF SUITE SALES & SERVICE

COLLEGE: COLLEGE OF NOTRE DAME   BORN: 2/26, BALTIMORE, MD   EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 27/27

For 27 NFL seasons, Theresa Abato has been responsible for all aspects of the Ravens' private suite business, including sales, client relations and operations for both Ravens games and third-party events. She manages suite inventory/ticketing, sets revenue/expense budgets and oversees the contracts and fulfillment for 132 suites. Abato, along with her suites team of Hayward Caswell, Jillian Magnotta and Chris Lisle, are committed to reinforcing the first-class standards of the Ravens. Since M&T Bank Stadium's 1998 opening, Abato has been charged with creating and executing the valuable amenities and experiences suite owners receive. She has been instrumental in growing the suite business from 95 season-owned in 1998 to 132 full-season current suite relationships.

MARK BIENVENU
VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL VIDEO OPERATIONS

COLLEGE: WISCONSIN-PLATTEVILLE   BORN: 10/8/71, ROCKFORD, IL   EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 27/25

Mark Bienvenu is in his 25th season with the Ravens. He helps lead the video department, whose primary responsibility is to capture and manage footage of the team's practices and games. The video captured by Bienvenu and his team is used by coaches, players and the personnel department for analytical and strategic purposes. Additionally, the video department oversees classroom technology to allow for effective player and coach meeting sessions. Their team also assists the personnel department with video analysis of college and other professional football leagues, which includes managing thousands of hours of video footage and data. Bienvenu joined the franchise in 2000 after working for the Chicago Bears for two years as the assistant video director. Following his stint in Chicago, he spent four years at Avid Sports – a pioneer in developing digital video tools for sports organizations – in multiple sales and support roles. Bienvenu joined the startup as an original member of the LLC that has since become XOS Digital/Catapult, a leader in digital analytical technology. Upon his arrival at the Ravens, he assisted with the transition from analog videotape to a digital video network, which has become the industry standard. Bienvenu graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Platteville with a degree in broadcast technology management. He resides with his wife, Jo, and dogs, Louie and Artie, in Finksburg, MD. Bienvenu is also the proud stepfather of Christopher (Media, PA) and Nicholas Boggs (Durham, NC).

AARON CLINE
VICE PRESIDENT OF CORPORATE SALES & SUITES

COLLEGE: RANDOLPH-MACON   BORN: 8/1/74, CONCORD, NH   EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 14/14

Aaron Cline is in his 14th season with the Ravens, leading the corporate sales team in securing national and local partnerships. Cline and his team are responsible for acquiring partners on signage at M&T Bank Stadium, suite sales, Ravens digital assets, TV & Radio, events and activations. He has captured new business sales and managed many of the Ravens' key partnerships, including BetMGM, Ford, Frito-Lay, Maryland Lottery, MedStar Health, MolsonCoors, Wawa and others. Prior to joining the Ravens, Cline began his career working in financial services at Legg Mason in Baltimore, followed by a stint with Deutsche Bank Alex. Brown. In 2002, he transitioned into sales at WZBA-FM, and ultimately, into corporate sales with the Baltimore Orioles. He began his Ravens career in 2011 following a year at the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network. Cline is a Board Trustee for the Multiple Sclerosis Society DC/MD Chapter, and previously served on the Board of Directors for Special Olympics Maryland. The Towson, MD, native attended The Boys' Latin School of Maryland. He and his wife, Dana, reside in Timonium, MD, with their three daughters, Kaylee (13), Natalie (11) and Jamie (4).

JOHN CLINE
VICE PRESIDENT OF EVENT OPERATIONS

COLLEGE: EAST STROUDSBURG BORN: 11/20, YORK, PA EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 27/27

John Cline is in his 27th season with the Ravens. A Shrewsbury, PA native, Cline has spent his entire career at the Camden Yards Sports Complex. After completing an internship with the Maryland Stadium Authority in 1997, he was hired by the Ravens in July 1998. Cline helped open M&T Bank Stadium by providing countless tours to stadium partners to familiarize gameday team members with the new facility. Along with set-up and break-down of gameday executions, Cline staffed and managed the Ravens' Guest Services locations. After the terrorist attacks on 9/11/01, Cline was asked to manage the security implementation at M&T Bank Stadium. Working with local, state and federal security partners, measures were implemented and have been updated accordingly under Cline's direction for the last two decades. Cline was an integral part in M&T Bank Stadium becoming LEED-Certified in November 2013. It marked the first existing stadium, at the time, in the U.S. to receive this U.S. Green Building Council Award. M&T Bank Stadium received DHS Safety Act Designation in April 2020 and was awarded the National Center for Spectator Sports Safety and Security (NCS4) 2022 Facility of Merit Award by the National Football League's Security Directors. In addition to the security footprint, Cline is responsible for leading all gameday and stadium event logistics. Cline and his wife, Dana, have two children, Connor (15) and Kennedy (13).

JIM COLLER
VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE

COLLEGE: PENN STATE BORN: 11/30/71, PHILADELPHIA, PA EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 26/26

Jim Coller is in his 26th season with the Ravens. During his time with the organization, Jim has served a variety of roles for the finance department, with responsibilities that have included overseeing day-to-day accounting functions of the team, assisting in the systematization of key financial activities, coordinating third-party audits and serving as a liaison with various team partners. Jim is a proud Penn State Nittany Lion alum and worked as an auditor with KPMG LLP in his native Philadelphia before joining the Ravens. When he is not playing with numbers, Jim enjoys spending time with his family, coaching youth sports and volunteering as treasurer on the PTO board of the local elementary school. He and his wife, Hope, reside in Hanover, PA, with their two boys, Alex and Evan, and dog, Bailey.

HEATHER DARNEY
VP OF COMMUNITY RELATIONS / EXEC. DIR. RAVENS FOUNDATION

COLLEGE: TOWSON BORN: 5/19, BALTIMORE, MD EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 14/14

A Towson University graduate and Baltimore native, Heather Darney is in her 14th season with the Ravens. After working for the Baltimore Orioles for four years in special event management, she joined the Ravens in 2011 to provide oversight of the team's philanthropic initiatives. In her role as vice president of community relations, Darney is responsible for developing, implementing and administering the team's overall strategic charitable outreach efforts. This includes orchestrating over 300 player appearances annually that include hospital and school visits, food, toy and book drives, and fitness, education and literacy events. Additionally, Darney continues to serve as the executive director of the Ravens Foundation, Inc., where she manages and directs all fundraising, grant programs and initiatives executed by the team's charitable arm. Through this dual role, Darney annually manages the distribution of millions of dollars in combined contributions to over 2,000 nonprofit organizations throughout the Baltimore area. In 2019, Darney was named one of Baltimore Business Journal's "40 Under 40" honorees. Darney and her husband, Ed, have two daughters, Ava (10) and Julia (7).

JOAN FENNEKOHL
VICE PRESIDENT OF TEAM TRAVEL

COLLEGE: MILLERSVILLE   BORN: 5/4, COATESVILLE, PA   EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 25/25

Joan (Sieracki) Fennekohl is in her 25th season with the Ravens. She oversees all aspects of team travel, including contracting with hotels, charter aircrafts and buses. Additionally, Fennekohl is responsible for all logistical details related to team travel, including aircraft manifests, catering, hotel room assignments and itineraries. She also oversees the team's commercial travel, which includes events such as the NFL Combine, college pro days, the player offseason program and training camp. A two-time Super Bowl champion, Fennekohl was part of the Ravens' operations team during both their 2000 and 2012 championship victories. Prior to joining the Ravens, her extensive travel background includes work as a corporate travel agent as well as a customer service agent and supervisor for various airlines at BWI Airport. Fennekohl graduated from Millersville University with a bachelor's degree in communications. She resides in Baltimore with her husband, Eric.

PATRICK GLEASON
VICE PRESIDENT OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

COLLEGE: COLORADO   BORN: 7/21/82, DENVER, CO   EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 20/20

Patrick Gleason is in his 20th season with the Ravens, serving as the primary point of contact for player and assistant coach interview requests. He is responsible for the development and execution of all football publicity efforts, also working closely with the organization's digital media, broadcasting and marketing departments. Additionally, Gleason plays a significant role in organizational messaging and communication to Ravens stakeholders. He is part of a Ravens' staff that has earned three (2010, 2012 & 2016) Pete Rozelle Awards, an honor given by the Professional Football Writers of America to the NFL PR team that strives for excellence in its relationships with the media. (The Ravens have also been finalists six other times during his tenure.) Gleason has been invited by the NFL to help direct PR efforts for five Pro Bowls. He originally joined the franchise as an intern in 2005 after graduating from the University of Colorado, where he spent four years working in the sports information office. Gleason currently sits on the board of the Ravens Foundation, Inc. He and his wife, Erin, have two sons, Jackson (6) and Cullen (2).

CHRIS INOUYE
VICE PRESIDENT OF RETAIL AND FOOD & BEVERAGE OPERATIONS

COLLEGE: HOUSTON   BORN: 11/6/70, HOUSTON, TX   EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 12/12

Chris Inouye is in his 12th season with the team and oversees the retail experience and food & beverage operations at M&T Bank Stadium. Serving in a leadership role in the Ravens' strategic partnerships with Fanatics and Levy, Inouye has been responsible for buying, designing, and merchandising products, as well as conceptualizing new food and beverage menus and options. Before joining the Ravens, Inouye spent four years (2009-12) with Aramark at NRG Stadium (Houston, TX) and four years (2005-08) with Facility Merchandising, Inc. at M&T Bank Stadium, working in retail at both locations. He's also guided retail or food and beverage operations at several other venues, including Harry Grove Stadium (Frederick, MD), EagleBank Arena (George Mason University) and Thomas Run Park (Bel Air, MD), and served as the assistant general manager of the Melbourne Reds (former baseball team in the Australian Baseball League) for one season. A Houston, TX, native, Inouye graduated from the University of Houston (1993) with a bachelor's degree in both marketing and finance. He and his wife, Erin Pierce-Inouye, are the proud parents of a Dogo Argentino named Atticus MacArthur.

KATE KASABULA
VICE PRESIDENT OF CLIENT SERVICES

COLLEGE: DUKE   BORN: 3/12, BALTIMORE, MD   EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 22/22

Kate (Kaiser) Kasabula is in her 22nd season with the Ravens. She oversees a team that ensures the execution and fulfillment of all corporate partnerships, totaling over 150 contracts. Kasabula and her team serve as liaisons between partners and internal departments to fulfill assets such as media, hospitality, signage and promotions. During her time with the Ravens, Kasabula has served in various roles within the corporate sales department, both in sales service and as an account executive, and she was a staff member during the Ravens' 2012 Super Bowl season. Prior to the Ravens, she attended Duke University, where she played on the women's lacrosse team. At Duke, Kasabula was a four-time All-American, a Tewaaraton Trophy finalist, given annually to the most outstanding college lacrosse player, and an ACC 50th Anniversary Team selection. Additionally, she earned a silver medal with the United States Women's World Cup Lacrosse Team in 2005. Prior to her collegiate endeavors, Kasabula attended Notre Dame Prep in Towson, MD, and was inducted into its Athletic Hall of Fame in 2010. She was also honored by the US Lacrosse Baltimore Chapter and was inducted into its Hall of Fame in 2014. Kasabula and her husband, Brian, have two children, Connor (11) and Caroline (9).

ASHEESH KINRA
VICE PRESIDENT OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

COLLEGE: CTREC   BORN: 10/16/78, BANGALORE, INDIA   EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 19/4

Asheesh Kinra is in his fourth season with the Ravens after joining the team in June 2021. Prior to moving to Baltimore, he served for 12 years as the vice president of information technology for the Washington Commanders. In that role, he worked with both the Commanders' business and football departments helping to ensure their IT systems were efficient and productive. He also led the rebrand process to acquire the domain and update all technology to the new brand name for the then-Washington Football Team. Kinra also managed IT for former team owner Daniel Snyder's ancillary businesses. In addition to his time with Washington, he has worked in law firms, software security companies, an IT consultant company assisting biotechnology, real estate and financial firms. In June 2022, Kinra attended Stanford University's "NFL League of Leaders," an executive education program that brings together 40 leaders from both the clubs and the league office to accelerate the leadership development of the NFL's senior-level talent at Stanford Graduate School of Business. He currently lives in downtown Baltimore.

ROSS LUCIANO
VICE PRESIDENT OF SECURITY

COLLEGE: IONA   BORN: 7/15/73, YONKERS, NY   EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 2/2

Ross Luciano oversees all security-related matters for the organization, including ownership, players, coaches and staff. He is responsible for security measures taken at the team hotels, serves as a personal security escort, directs security at the team's training facility and provides personal safety/security outside of work-related functions. Luciano also provides education on the NFL's personal conduct policy, as well as training and best practices related to state, traffic and weapons laws. Prior to joining the Ravens, Luciano enjoyed a decorated career in law enforcement that spanned over 25 years. He began as an officer in the New York City Police Department in 1997, a post he held for three years, before spending over 20 years in the United States Secret Service, where he served as a special agent in charge (SAIC) on numerous cases and supervised the protection of four U.S. presidents (George W. Bush, Barack Obama, Donald Trump and Joe Biden). Luciano's focus areas throughout his career in law enforcement also included cyber-enabled financial crime investigations, protective intelligence investigations and top-secret clearance. Born to Dominican parents in New York City, Luciano, a first-generation American, is fluid in both English and Spanish. He was raised in Yonkers, NY, and attended Roosevelt High School. Luciano studied criminal justice at Iona College in New Rochelle, NY, becoming the first in his family to receive a college degree. He and his wife, Mary, have been married for 15 years. The couple has two sons, Ethan (13) and Eliot (11), and two English Bulldogs (Justice & Judge).

ADAM NEUMAN
CHIEF OF STAFF, SPECIAL ADVISOR TO THE PRESIDENT

COLLEGE: YESHIVA UNIVERSITY BORN: 6/3/90, BALTIMORE, MD EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 5/2

Adam Neuman, who joined the club in 2023, serves as strategic counsel and manages all administrative, operational, financial and legal activities for President Sashi Brown, touching almost every area of business within the organization. He plays a leadership role in developing ownership presentations and organization-wide strategic initiatives, constructing annual reports and bridging Baltimore's football operations and corporate strategy. Before joining the Ravens, Neuman served as chief of staff, strategy & operations and deputy general counsel at the Big Ten Conference. In this role, he aided the conference's historic expansion efforts with UCLA, USC, Oregon and Washington, assisted negotiations in the league's record-breaking $8 billion media rights deal with FOX, CBS and NBC, and inspired the development of the Mental Health & Wellness Cabinet for over 10,000 student-athletes. Neuman was recognized in The Athletic's College Sports 40 Under 40 and Modern Counsel's 35 under 35. He was appointed to the Maryland Port Commission as Port Commissioner, serves on the Board of Advisors for Israel Baseball Americas, and teaches a Masters level course in Intercollegiate Athletic Administration at Columbia University. Neuman is a licensed attorney with the State Bar of the District of Columbia, Illinois, Maryland, New York and the United States Supreme Court. Born and raised in Baltimore, MD, Neuman prepped locally at Yeshivat Rambam High School. He attended Yeshiva University for his undergraduate degree, University of Pennsylvania Law School for his Juris Doctor and the Fels Institute of Government at the University of Pennsylvania for his master's degree in public administration.

JAY O'BRIEN
VICE PRESIDENT OF BROADCASTING & GAMEDAY PRODUCTIONS

COLLEGE: LOYOLA (BALTIMORE) BORN: 2/11/83, HELMETTA, NJ EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 21/21

Jay O'Brien leads Ravens Productions, an award-winning team responsible for all brand video and audio, including social and digital video content, in-stadium game presentation, television shows, preseason game broadcasts, podcasts and gameday radio. He also serves as executive producer of the Ravens' gameday production, which was recognized by the NFL's Voice of the Fan survey as the league's No. 1-ranked game entertainment in 2023 and for the top video board content each of the past four seasons. O'Brien was the Ravens' lead to debut the team's Mixed Reality Raven in partnership with The Famous Group in 2019 and received the 2020 Sports Business Award for Best in Sports Technology. He also played lead roles in the Ravens' pioneering partnerships with Skycam and Intel True View to enhance the team's fan experience. O'Brien and Ravens Productions received the team's first-ever national Sports Emmys Award for Outstanding Long Feature for their NFL Network co-production of "The Gift of Gaba" in 2021. More recently, Ravens Productions earned a team-record 11 regional Emmy Awards and 17 nominations in 2024. O'Brien has earned 25 regional Emmy Awards, and in 2017, the Baltimore Business Journal named him to its "40 Under 40" list. In his professional career, he has also produced numerous other live sporting events including the 2023 Army-Navy Game at Gillette Stadium, the 2021 Army-Navy game at MetLife Stadium, Navy football at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, international soccer, Navy-Notre Dame football and ESPN college basketball games. He serves on the Loyola University Communication and Media Advisory Board and previously served on the Ravens Foundation Board. O'Brien earned an undergraduate degree in journalism from Loyola College and a master's in business administration from Towson University and the University of Baltimore. He and his wife, Alex, have a daughter, Siena (9), and a son, Shea (7).

CODY WILLIAMS
VICE PRESIDENT OF STRATEGY & ANALYTICS

COLLEGE: DELAWARE BORN: 3/21/87, GLEN COVE, NY EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 13/13

Cody Williams is in his 13th season with the Ravens and leads a business intelligence team that is responsible for data analytics, insights and strategy for all business functions of the organization. In working closely with internal stakeholders, Williams helps identify and implement data-driven strategies that help achieve business goals. He originally joined the Ravens as a digital media intern in 2012 and is proud to have been a member of the organization during its Super Bowl XLVII championship run. Williams and his wife, Aubrey, have three sons, Connor (6), Keegan (4) and Charlie (2).

DICK CASS

PRESIDENT EMERITUS

COLLEGE: PRINCETON / YALE LAW SCHOOL
BORN: 1/13/46, WASHINGTON, D.C.
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 20/20

Following 18 years as the Ravens' team president, DICK CASS retired on April 1, 2022. Throughout his impressive career, Cass made an indelible impression while overseeing all business areas for the Ravens, including finances, budgeting, non-football personnel, corporate sales, operations, communications and business ventures.

When Steve Bisciotti became the team's majority owner in 2004, his first hire was Cass as president. For the nearly two decades after, Cass provided a wealth of business knowledge, legal and negotiating expertise, philanthropic principles, and a calm and consistent leadership style.

Under his direction, Cass helped create the organizational culture for which the Ravens are known today. Most recently, he led the organization through challenges created by the COVID-19 pandemic and worked at the forefront of the team's social justice reform efforts, engaging local and federal legislators to enact policy change. With roots deeply entrenched throughout the Baltimore community, Cass has overseen countless initiatives with the goal of creating better opportunities and circumstances for those most in need. An impactful presence on the board of the Ravens Foundation, Inc., Cass has also served on boards for the Greater Baltimore Committee, Kennedy Krieger Institute and Baltimore Community Foundation.

Understanding the value of creating a world-class gameday experience for Ravens fans, Cass spearheaded multiple M&T Bank Stadium improvement/enhancement projects, reaching investment levels over $200 million. Through these efforts, the Ravens have consistently ranked among the NFL's best in gameday experience, as recognized by the annual Voice of the Fan survey. Cass also led the construction and subsequent expansion, at a total cost of more than $90 million, of the Ravens' Under Armour Performance Center, which continues as one of the NFL's best training facilities.

From 2004-21, Cass helped guide Ravens teams that won five AFC North titles, clinched 10 postseason berths, appeared in three AFC Championship games and won one Super Bowl (XLVII in 2012). During his tenure, Baltimore produced the NFL's fifth-best overall winning percentage (.586), including the league's third-best mark at home (.713).

In 2023, Cass was inducted into the Baltimore Sun's Business and Civic Hall of Fame, honoring the achievements of leaders who have spent their careers working to transform and improve Maryland.

Prior to joining the Ravens, Cass spent 31 years (1972-2003) as a partner at D.C.-based law firm Wilmer, Cutler and Pickering. He served as chairman of the firm's Business Transactions Section and was a member of its Management Committee. Some of his significant contributions to WC&P included: counsel to the Independent Commission of the US Olympics Committee (2003); counsel to the owner of the NBA's Charlotte Hornets during the team's relocation to New Orleans (2002); counsel to Steve Bisciotti in the purchase of the Ravens from the Modell family (2000 and 2004); counsel to the estate of Jack Kent Cooke in the sale of the Washington Commanders to Daniel Snyder (1999); counsel to Dallas Cowboys owner Jerry Jones in the acquisition of the team and Texas Stadium (1980s); and advisor to the NFL in connection with the Collective Bargaining Agreement that brought free agency and a salary cap to the NFL (1992-93).

Born in Washington D.C., Cass graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Princeton in 1968 before graduating from Yale Law School in 1971. He and his wife, Heather, have two children: a daughter, Courtney (Ryland Sumner), and son, Willy (Madelaine), and three grandchildren.

DICK CASS' LASTING IMPACT

Dick Cass (far right) watches practice with owner Steve Bisciotti (left) and EVP Ozzie Newsome (middle). For 18 years, Cass oversaw all business areas for the organization, including finances, budgeting, non-football personnel, corporate sales, operations, communications and business ventures.

Throughout his time with the Ravens, Dick Cass led the organization's commitment to making a positive impact on the Baltimore community. Many of the Ravens' outreach initiatives, including multiple playground builds (above) for local children, were spearheaded by Cass.

2024 Ravens Signature Project

The Ravens moved into their Owings Mills, MD, training facility in mid-October of 2004. The building, which was named the Under Armour Performance Center in June of 2012, features a brick and stone exterior. The fieldhouse is 83,962 square feet and includes a strength-training area and a full-size indoor practice field. The facility's outdoor practice fields and fieldhouse sit on 32 acres. Almost all of the project's physical construction was provided by Baltimore-area companies and workers.

When the 2016 season concluded, the Ravens launched a $45 million project to upgrade and expand the Under Armour Performance Center. The massive construction undertaking was fully completed in the summer of 2018.

Over an 18-month project, the Ravens demolished the facility's original one-story north wing, which housed much of the organization's business operations. A new two-story wing was constructed, increasing the area from 9,095 square feet to 23,000 square feet. That expansion created more space for the business side while also providing additional room to enhance the football team's facilities, including the players' locker room, team auditorium, position meeting rooms, scouting/coaching offices and cafeteria.

The Ravens have held training camp at their facility since 2011, and part of the recent renovation project included purchasing more land that surrounds the UAPC. The added space is used for parking and allows the organization to safely host over 1,000 fans per day during training camp. In all, there are 775 parking spaces at the facility (525 paved and 250 grass spots).

The Under Armour Performance Center's total building measures 232,864 sq. feet.

The Under Armour Performance Center's new north wing (middle right) achieved the prestigious LEED Gold level certification, further recognizing the Ravens' commitment/dedication to sustainability and environmental stewardship.
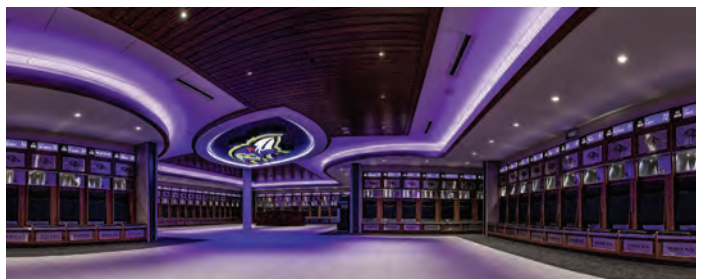

In the spring of 2018, the Ravens renovated player meeting rooms and the team's locker room (new version shown above) as part of the facility's recent overall expansion.

The facility includes an updated full-service kitchen/cafeteria, player support functions, basketball and racquetball courts, TV/radio/podcast studios, plus state-of-the-art requirements for NFL training. Also included at the facility are executive offices, meeting rooms, three outdoor fields and media areas that offer high-speed Internet capability.

"Everything a team needs to help prepare it to win is available to us. Steve [Bisciotti] delivered a first-class, state-of-the-art training facility and office complex."
— Ravens Executive Vice President Ozzie Newsome

The Ravens have a world-class weight room and conditioning and recovery center, providing players everything they need to train at peak performance.

The Ravens have three Bermuda grass fields on the grounds of their training complex at the Under Armour Performance Center in Owings Mills.

The Under Armour Performance Center houses a state-of-the-art production studio the team utilizes for in-house digital and TV broadcasting purposes.

The Ravens' indoor facility has a full, 100-yard field made of Shaw Sports Turf that the team uses for offseason training purposes or when the weather becomes inclement.

RAVENS FOUNDATION

The Ravens Foundation, Inc. is committed to improving, encouraging and enabling the healthy development of youth in Maryland. The foundation focuses on programs that help youth and their families with various needs, including housing, hunger, education, athletics and mentoring.

Charitable Partners – The Ravens Foundation recognizes and gives financial and volunteer support to several Baltimore-area charitable partners, including Dent Education, Leveling the Playing Field, Maryland Book Bank, Next One Up and Weekend Backpacks.

Ravens Youth Football Grant – Alongside Under Armour, the Ravens Foundation provides grants for new football equipment and apparel for football teams in Maryland. Packages include jerseys, cleats, field equipment or heat and heart bundles containing an AED machine support for all teams within the program. Since its launch 15 years ago, the grant has awarded apparel to over 15,000 area children.

Ravens PLAY 60 Grant – Now in its 18th year, the Ravens' PLAY 60 Grant has supported 285 programs and nearly 50,000 youth with over $1.7 million in funding to encourage physical fitness and nutrition education among youth.

Ravens Scholars – For 15 consecutive years, the Ravens have recognized at least five outstanding high school seniors by awarding a $5,000 renewable scholarship ($20,000 over four years) to support each scholar's respective college education. Since 2010, the team has committed over $1.5 million in scholarship funding.

9,533 TICKETS DONATED to local nonprofits, first responders and active / retired military (2023)

PARTNER SUPPORT

In 2023, the Baltimore Ravens worked alongside 30 different sponsors to plan 84 unique activations impacting and supporting the extended Baltimore community. The Ravens work closely with partners to increase corporate and community awareness of the Ravens Foundation, player foundations and local charitable organizations. Through a wide variety of activities and events, the Ravens and various partners make a positive impact in the Maryland area while strengthening ties between the team, their partners and the community. Below, OLB Odafe Oweh announced Jaime Harpster from Padonia International Elementary School as the 2024 recipient of the Touchdown for Teachers award, presented by the Ravens and M&T Bank. The award recognizes and honors local teachers for their leadership, dedication and commitment to education, and for outstanding service to their schools, students and community.

Odafe Oweh

On June 5, 2024, the Baltimore Ravens hosted their annual organization-wide volunteer day to support The Historic Samuel Coleridge-Taylor Elementary School #122 in Baltimore City. The Ravens Foundation, Inc. funded the renovation project, which provided upgrades to the first Baltimore City school built specifically to educate African American children in 1926.

There were over 200 Ravens organization volunteers, including 54 players and the entire 2024 rookie class, who joined representatives from Heart of America and Baltimore City Public Schools. Volunteers came together to transform classrooms, create wellness spaces for teachers, plant trees and paint outdoor murals to enhance the area, refurbish the school's gymnasium and renovate the playground and outdoor courtyard.

Additionally, a neighborhood community center attached to the school underwent a complete transformation. The center was recently re-dedicated in honor of a beloved community civic leader, Theresa Marshburn.

BALTIMORE RAVENS BOYS & GIRLS CLUB

In June of 2024, the Ravens broke ground on the Baltimore Ravens Boys & Girls Club at Hilton Recreation Center. Ravens president Sashi Brown recently announced the combined (Stephen & Renee Bisciotti Foundation and Baltimore Ravens) $20 million donation toward the creation of the center. The team partnered with The Boys & Girls Club of Metropolitan Baltimore (BGCMB), Baltimore City Recreation and Parks, Ravens Legend Torrey Smith's LEVEL 82, Green Street Academy and the surrounding community on this endeavor. Plans for the club include a multi-purpose athletic field with sports lighting, a teen center, activity-and-games and tutoring spaces.

FEMALE LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

The Ravens annually host their L.I.F.T. (Leading and Inspiring Females to Thrive) Conference, a leadership seminar for female student-athletes from local high schools. Freshmen, sophomores and juniors are invited to participate in a day of leadership workshops, guest speakers and a team-building workout at the Under Armour Performance Center (UAPC). Student-athletes who serve as both an "untitled leader" and "unsung hero" for their programs can apply for the event. The day is designed to empower the next generation of female student-athletes and develop their leadership skills, both on and off the field. In 2024, students heard from head coach John Harbaugh and 2006 University of Maryland WBB National Champion and WNBA All-Star, Marissa Coleman.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

Ravens RISE is the team's football outreach program that provides all youth and high school athletes opportunities to "Play Like A Raven." The program offers football clinics and 7-on-7 tournaments throughout the state, Ravens home game ticket donations, monetary donations to area football programs, opportunities to play at M&T Bank Stadium and recognitions including High School Coach of the Week and Year as well as Team Mom of the Year. The Ravens also have made monetary and time investments in Girls Flag Football including hosting annual football clinics and supporting counties across Maryland with grant funding to promote Girls Flag as an official high school sport.

PLAY 60

Each year, the Ravens continue their commitment to prioritizing and promoting healthy nutrition and active lifestyles among today's youth through the NFL PLAY 60 Campaign. The team delivered in-person programming through instructional fitness activities and insight. Through special partnerships with Carroll County Public Schools' Project ACES (Active Children Excel in School) program, and Baltimore and Howard County Public School Systems, the team delivered the PLAY 60 message to more than 199,000+ local youth across the Baltimore metro area. In April, the Ravens recognized 60 local students at the Under Armour Performance Center (UAPC) for going above and beyond through the PLAY 60 rewards program.

BALTIMORE RAVENS LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

The Baltimore Ravens and T. Rowe Price partnered once again to facilitate the High School Leadership Institute. In its fifth year, the program continued its mission to develop and empower high school students to become collaborative leaders. The program has worked with ADDO, a leadership organization, to encourage students to learn valuable leadership lessons, introduce them to local industry leaders, expose them to leadership insights and equip them with tools needed to make an impactful difference in their communities. The 2023 programming included over 100 students from Baltimore County, Baltimore City and other select Baltimore-area high schools as they participated in a customized and unique leadership experience.

MILITARY APPRECIATION

In association with the NFL's Salute to Service Campaign, the Ravens honor veterans and active duty members of the military all year in many ways, including welcoming military members at training camp and practices, hosting an annual youth football camp for children of military members, hosting families from Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors (TAPS) at the Under Armour Performance Center (UAPC) through the team's annual Flags with the Flock event (right) and showing support through care packages, letters and daily communication. At each home game, the Ravens honor groups that include military representatives, first responders, veterans and/or wounded warriors through the CSX Seats for Service program.

SOCIAL JUSTICE EFFORTS

Since 2016, the Ravens have donated nearly $16 million to local organizations promoting social justice, while encouraging players to be at the forefront of change. In addition, the Ravens have contributed $5.2 million toward local scholarship funds, including the Ravens Scholars and Ozzie Newsome Scholarship programs. In 2024, the Ravens partnered with the Baltimore City Police Department to bring Lights On! – a community-driven program with the mission to strengthen police/community relationships to Baltimore. Through the program, when a BPD officer is engaging in a routine traffic stop involving a mechanical violation (e.g. burned out light bulb, broken turn signal), instead of issuing a ticket for the violation, the officer can provide a voucher for free repair at a local repair shop.

HOLIDAY HAPPENINGS

Thanks to Ravens players, thousands of families annually receive support, including food and gifts, during the holidays. The 2023 food distributions and meal services featured the support of 45 players, including Zay Flowers, Lamar Jackson, Keaton Mitchell, Michael Pierce, Ronnie Stanley and Broderick Washington. In December, the Baltimore Ravens and Roquan Smith hosted the team's 18th Annual Holiday Helpers event. Smith treated students from Bridges Baltimore to a holiday shopping spree alongside fellow teammates. Students were joined by 34 players, including Tyler Linderbaum, Trenton Simpson, Brandon Stephens and Justin Tucker, who all served as personal shoppers. In addition, 31 players, including Odafe Oweh, Kyle Van Noy and Marcus Williams, led their own/participated in shopping sprees for local, deserving youth.

— PERSONAL —

- Started the Wiggs Worldwide Foundation to improve the lives of underprivileged youth in his hometown of Atlanta, GA…The organization focuses on building a better future through mentorship…Other community involvement includes participation in Clemson head coach Dabo Swinney's Dabo's All in Team Foundation and the Clemson Food Drive
- As a child, wanted to be like QB Cam Newton…When being a cornerback came into focus, began modeling his cam after CB Richard Sherman
- Found his love of sports as a 4-year-old at Pittman Park in Atlanta, GA
- Was a multi-sport standout athlete in his youth, participating in football, baseball, basketball and track & field

- Credits his mother, Tamika, as a motivating factor in his journey to the NFL…Tamika attended every game, practice and meeting that she could during her son's youth
- Majored in sociology with a focus on business at Clemson

— NOTE THE QUOTE —

"Nate Wiggins is a ridiculous athlete – very, very quick-footed and efficient. He's fast, he's tough, and he's competitive. In our division, we play a lot of really good receivers, and you have to get off the field on third downs. We were blessed [in 2023] to have a lot of depth in the secondary, and it really helped us quite a bit. This is a guy who can come in here and play meaningful football right away for us. We're excited about that."

— EVP & GM Eric DeCosta

DEVONTEZ WALKER

WR

COLLEGE: NORTH CAROLINA
AGE: 23   HOMETOWN: CHARLOTTE, NC
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): ROOKIE   GP/GS (PLAYOFFS): 0/0

— KEY TRANSACTIONS —

- Devontez Walker was selected by the Ravens in the fourth round (113th overall) of the 2024 NFL Draft...Was the first of two Ravens draft picks (CB T.J. Tampa, 130th) in the round

— COLLEGE HONORS —

- Third-team All-ACC (2023)
- First-team All-MAC (2022)

— COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS —

- Appeared in 28 games (18 starts) during his three-year career between North Carolina (2023) and Kent State (2021-22), totaling 1,744 receiving yards and 19 TDs on 104 receptions (16.8 avg)...Added 52 yards and 1 TD on 6 rushes (8.7 avg)
- Awarded ACC WR of the Week (10/16), after posting 132 yards and 3 TDs on 6 receptions (22.0 avg), while adding 19 yards on 2 carries in the 41-31 victory vs. Miami (10/14/23)
- Posted 84 yards on 5 receptions (16.8 avg) – including an OT, game-winning TD catch – for the Golden Flashes in the season finale at Buffalo (11/26/22)

— PERSONAL —

- Ran a 4.36-second 40-yard dash at the 2024 NFL Combine, tied for the fifth-fastest time of the entire event
- Claims Ravens teammate CB Nate Wiggins was "probably the best player" he's ever played against in college
- Denied eligibility by the NCAA five times (due to NCAA rules that wouldn't give eligibility waivers to a double-transfer student) after transferring from North Carolina Central to Kent State and then to UNC in December 2022...Worked on UNC's scout team to stay connected with the team, despite not being able to play for the start of the 2023 season...Was finally deemed eligible on October 5, 2023 (also his mom's birthday) and appeared on the field as a Tar Heel for the first time vs. Syracuse (10/7)
- Originally attended North Carolina Central, but transferred to Kent State when the Eagles' 2020 fall season was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic...Transferred to UNC in 2023 to be closer to his grandmother and family
- Tore his ACL the spring before graduating high school and enrolling in college...Before enrolling in college, Walker worked at the local Bojangles to help pay his rehab bills for a year
- Served as the primary caretaker for his grandmother, Loretta Black, during high school after she had multiple hip and knee operations as well as severe scoliosis...His mother worked two jobs to support the family, so Walker helped administer his grandmother's medicine, cleaned, cooked and ran errands for her

- Has dreamed about being an NFL player since he was four years old

— NOTE THE QUOTE —

"With 'Tez,' you get really a vertical receiver, size and speed. In some ways, he reminds me of a Torrey Smith-type of player – an outside, take-the-top-off, vertical threat with good size, and phenomenal kid, excellent jumping ability."

— EVP & GM Eric DeCosta

2023: (NORTH CAROLINA – 8/6)

- Appeared in the last eight games of the season (six starts) for the Tar Heels, totaling 699 receiving yards and 7 TDs on 41 receptions (17.0 avg), en route to earning third-team All-ACC honors...UNC's offense finished with the seventh-best total offense (491.2 ypg) and 14th-best passing offense (299.2 ypg) in the FBS, both of which ranked first in the ACC
- Registered 29 yards and 1 TD on 2 receptions (14.5 avg.) in the season finale at NC State (11/25)

— PERSONAL —

- Given birth name is Marques Jr….Nickname, T.J., is short for Tampa Jr.
- Grew up in Atlanta, GA, playing multiple sports throughout his childhood, including basketball and football
- Father (Marques Sr.) was a standout basketball player at Barry University in the 1990s, leading the team in scoring and steals…Older sister (Nichel) played college basketball at Western Kentucky and Barry University
- Garnered recruiting interest on the basketball court, too, receiving an offer from James Madison
- Was initially recruited as a WR but focused on defense after a delayed flight forced him to stay at Iowa State an extra day and work out with the DBs
- Georgia head coach Kirby Smart made a late push to sign him after a standout performance in a football camp…Committed to the Cyclones over other programs, as well, including Cincinnati, Maryland, Rutgers, South Florida, Syracuse and Wake Forest
- Majored in communications studies at Iowa State

— NOTE THE QUOTE —

"T.J. Tampa's athleticism at his size stands out. He's long, and he can flip his hips. He can change directions well. He's a former wideout, so I think there is some built-in upside to him. He plays the game smoothly; he doesn't look too stressed. He tackles well, and he's a guy that's going to compete. He's got good makeup, a good mentality, and he's a smart football player."

– Director of College Scouting David Blackburn

- Decided to focus on boxing and skip participation in football during his sophomore and junior years of HS...During that time, competed in junior boxing tournaments all over the region...Due to lack of varsity film, received very few college offers

- Credits his boxing background for the physical and mental toughness he showcases on the field...His footwork, hand-eye coordination and balance were also polished through boxing

— NOTE THE QUOTE —

"Rasheen Ali is an explosive guy. He runs hard, and he finishes his runs. He catches the ball well, he can run routes, and he's a good pass protector. At the Senior Bowl, he was a guy that I noticed very quickly. He got hurt, but during the week at practice, he was very, very explosive, and I think we all took note. He's an interesting kid. He's got a great background, and he's going to be a good player for us."

- Visited the St. Paul's School for an afternoon of fellowship and fun with Next One Up…Rookies and students were divided into three groups, rotating between kickball, silent charades and "anything but football" conversations (2024)

- Participated in the organization-wide Signature Build Day at Samuel Coleridge-Taylor Elementary School…Throughout the day, close to 200 volunteers made up of current and former Ravens players, staff and executives refurbished the school's gymnasium, classrooms, teachers' lounges and hallways…Additionally, volunteers renovated the playground and outdoor courtyard, planted trees and painted outdoor murals to enhance landscaping and enrich the school community (2024)

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- Baltimore is now 11-2 all time (10-2 regular season & 1-0 playoffs) vs. Houston. This includes a 7-0 mark at home.
- Under John Harbaugh (since 2008), Baltimore is 12-4 on Kickoff Weekend, winning seven of its last eight openers. Baltimore is 8-1 when opening the season at home and 13-3 overall in home openers since 2008.
- The defense limited the Texans to 7-of-18 (38.9%) on third down and 1-of-4 (25%) on fourth down, while holding them TD-less on 2 red zone drives.
- RB Justice Hill posted his first-career multi-TD game, punching in two 2-yard rushing TDs. He reached the end zone for the first time since his 2019 rookie campaign.
- Rookie WR Zay Flowers recorded 9 receptions for 78 yards, while adding 2 rushes for 9 yards. Flowers' 9 receptions are the most by a Raven making an NFL debut and the second-most grabs in any game by a Ravens rookie.
- ILB Roquan Smith recorded a game-high 16 tackles (8 solo) and 1 sack (-11 yards). Smith's 16 tackles are also the most by a Raven on a Kickoff Weekend in the team's 28 seasons. He and ILB Patrick Queen (11 tackles & 1 sack) formed the first Ravens duo to each notch at least 10 tackles and 1 sack in the same game.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- This marks the first time two NFL teams have squared off against each other three times in a four-game span (including playoffs) since the 1970 merger.

- Baltimore snapped Cincinnati's seven-game win streak at home (including playoffs). The Ravens now lead the regular season series vs. Cincinnati, 29-26. Under head coach John Harbaugh, Baltimore is 16-15 against the Bengals, with a 6-10 mark in the Queen City.

- QB Lamar Jackson completed 24-of-33 passes for 237 yards and 2 TDs (112.8 rating), while adding 12 carries for 54 yards (4.5 avg.). His second-half totals include 8-of-9 completions for 96 yards and 2 TDs (150.7 rating), as well as 6 rushes for 25 yards.

- RB Gus Edwards (10 carries for 62 yards and 1 TD), QB Lamar Jackson (12 carries for 54 yards) and RB Justice Hill (career-high 11 carries for 41 yards) each recorded at least 40 rushing yards.

- LT Patrick Mekari and C Sam Mustipher started in place of LT Ronnie Stanley and C Tyler Linderbaum, respectively, blocking on an offensive line that didn't permit a sack and created lanes for a rushing attack that totaled 178 yards and 1 TD on 37 carries (4.8 avg.).

- S Geno Stone recorded a goal-line INT, while OLB Jadeveon Clowney tallied his first sack and WR Nelson Agholor registered his first TD reception as a Raven.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- The Colts emerged with a 22-19 win on a 53-yard FG by K Matt Gay in OT. It marked the second-straight Ravens-Colts matchup (also 10/11/21) to be decided in OT.
- S Kyle Hamilton posted career highs in tackles (9 – 7 solo) and sacks (3), adding 1 FF and 1 PD. Hamilton -- at 22 years & 192 days old -- is the youngest defensive back with 3 sacks in a game since 1982.
- Hamilton's 3 sacks mark the most by a Raven since 2020, when Calais Campbell tallied 3 sacks on 10/18/20 at Phi. They also tie (Bennie Thompson on 11/10/96 at Jax.) for the most in a single game by a Ravens DB.
- Hamilton's 3 sacks are the most in a first half by any Ravens player in franchise history. They also tie (Carnell Lake) for the most in a first half by a DB since 1982.
- QB Lamar Jackson completed 22-of-31 passes for 202 yards (88.4 rating), while adding 14 rushes for a team-high 101 yards (7.2 avg.) and 2 TDs. He now owns the only two games in NFL history with 200 passing yards, 100 rushing yards and 2 rushing TDs.
- With his 58th FGM from 50-plus yards during his career, K Justin Tucker tied K Sebastian Janikowski (58) for the second most in NFL history.
- Three Ravens tallied double-digit tackles: LB Roquan Smith (13), LB Patrick Queen (11) and CB Brandon Stephens (11).

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- John Harbaugh reached 150 regular season wins in his career, surpassing Hall of Famer Bill Cowher for the 24th most by a head coach in NFL history.
- Baltimore's offense totaled 296 yards (131 rushing & 165 passing) and 28 points scored, while reaching the end zone on all 4 red zone trips. The Ravens' defense allowed 166 total yards (93 rushing and 73 passing), marking its fewest since 12/2/18 at Atl. (131). Baltimore's 73 passing yards allowed mark its fewest since 1/3/21 at Cin. (48).
- Adding 3 INTs (1 each by DB Brandon Stephens, S Geno Stone and S Kyle Hamilton), the Ravens recorded their sixth-ever defensive performance permitting less than 200 total yards and tallying at least 3 INTs. For Stephens and Hamilton, it marked the first INTs of their respective careers.
- QB Lamar Jackson completed 15-of-19 passes for 186 yards and 2 TDs (142.5 rating), while adding 2 rushing TDs and 27 rushing yards on 9 attempts. It marked his first-career game with at least 2 passing TDs and 2 rushing TDs.
- TE Mark Andrews posted a team-high 5 receptions, 80 receiving yards and 2 TD grabs. Andrews' 9 receiving TDs against the Browns are the most by any Raven against a single opponent in franchise history.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- Baltimore is 3-2 after the first five games of the season for the 14th time in franchise history and ninth time since 2008.
- Twenty-five of the 31 regular season games — including seven consecutive — between Baltimore and Pittsburgh since 2008 have finished as one-score affairs.
- CB Arthur Maulet and DE Brent Urban each recorded a sack, while DT Justin Madubuike and ILB Patrick Queen split a QB takedown.
- OLB Jeremiah Moon posted his first-career FF after knocking the ball loose on a fourth-quarter Pittsburgh punt return. CB Kevon Seymour scooped it up, returning the ball 20 yards to the Steelers' 7-yard line.
- WR Nelson Agholor (64), TE Mark Andrews (65) and WR Zay Flowers (73) each recorded at least 50 receiving yards.
- S Kyle Hamilton recorded 3 solo tackles and 2 TFL. He became the first DB with at least 4 TFL in each his first two NFL seasons since S Jamal Adams (2017-18).
- ILB Roquan Smith posted a game-high 11 tackles (7 solo), while adding 1 PD. He's now recorded double-digit tackles in four of the first five games of the season.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- The Ravens moved the sticks on 8-of-16 (50%) third downs, while the defense permitted just 1 third-down conversion on 9 attempts (11.1%).
- The Ravens racked up a season-high 6 sacks, receiving 2 each from OLB Jadeveon Clowney and DT Justin Madubuike, with OLB Kyle Van Noy and ILB Patrick Queen each chipping in with 1 QB takedown.
- K Justin Tucker finished 6-of-6 on FGAs, connecting from 20, 23, 28, 29, 36 and 41 yards, matching a franchise and personal single-game record he set on 12/16/13 at Det. He became the fifth kicker (also Gary Anderson, Tyler Bass, John Carney and Jeff Wilkins) in NFL history to twice connect on at least 6 FGs in a single game.
- QB Lamar Jackson completed passes to eight Ravens (WR Nelson Agholor, TE Mark Andrews, WR Rashod Bateman, WR Odell Beckham Jr., RB Gus Edwards, WR Zay Flowers, RB Justice Hill & FB Patrick Ricard) and became the second QB in NFL history (Mike Vick – 54) to reach 50 performances with at least 50 rushing yards.
- WR Zay Flowers tallied a team-high 6 receptions for 50 yards and his first-career TD. He joined Ja'Marr Chase (2021), CeeDee Lamb (2020), and Darnay Scott (1994) as the only WRs since the 1970 merger to record at least 50 scrimmage yards in each of the first six games of a career.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- Baltimore recorded 503 total yards, a franchise-record 10 plays of at least 20 yards and scored a TD on 5 of its 6 red zone possessions.
- Baltimore totaled 5 sacks in the victory, receiving 2 from OLB Kyle Van Noy and 1 each from CB Arthur Maulet, DT Justin Madubuike and OLB Odafe Oweh.
- Baltimore's 29 sacks through seven games mark the most in franchise history.
- QB Lamar Jackson completed 21-of-27 passes for 357 yards and 3 TDs, while adding 9 carries for 36 yards and 1 TD, en route to earning his 50th-career victory as the starter.
- Jackson recorded his 50th regular season win in his 68th-career start, marking the fifth-fewest starts by a QB to reach 50 regular season wins in the Super Bowl era. Only Pro Football Hall of Famer Ken Stabler (62 starts), Patrick Mahomes (63), Tom Brady (65) and Pro Football Hall of Famer Roger Staubach (67) reached the mark in fewer starts.
- TE Mark Andrews recorded his ninth multi-TD receiving game, tying TE Todd Heap (nine) for the most such performances by any player in Ravens history.
- RB Gus Edwards posted 64 rushing yards and 1 TD on 14 carries (4.6 avg.), while adding a career-long 80-yard reception. His 144 scrimmage yards marked a career high.
- Edwards' 80-yard reception marks the longest reception by a RB in franchise history.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- Baltimore improved to 6-2 for the eighth time in franchise history (also 2019-21, 2010-12 and 2006) and seventh time under head coach John Harbaugh.
- RB Gus Edwards registered team highs in carries (19), rushing yards (80) and rushing TDs (3), steering a Ravens offense that finished 4-of-4 in the red zone and eclipsed 100 rushing yards for the 24th-straight game. It marked Edwards' first-career game with 3 rushing TDs and the sixth-ever such performance by any Raven in franchise history. He became the first undrafted Raven to accomplish this feat.
- NT Michael Pierce totaled 5 tackles (4 solo), 1 sack-fumble and 1 PD, while making 2 critical fourth-down stops (1 run stuff & 1 PD). Pierce became the first Ravens D-lineman with at least 5 tackles, 1 sack, 1 FF and 1 PD in a single game since at least 2000.
- S Geno Stone and DB Brandon Stephens each recorded 1 INT. For Stone, it marked his third-straight outing with an INT and his fourth pick in the last five games. He became the first Raven since CB Cary Williams (in 2012) to register an INT in three consecutive games, while also matching S Ed Reed's franchise mark of 5 INTs through the Ravens' first eight games of a season (2007).
- TE Mark Andrews posted 4 receptions for 40 yards and 1 TD. He recorded his 40th-career TD grab, becoming the fourth TE since the 1970 merger to reach that figure in the first six years of a career (also Antonio Gates, Jimmy Graham & Rob Gronkowski).
- S Kyle Hamilton tallied a career-high 10 tackles (9 solo), while adding 1 TFL and 1 PD.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- Baltimore's defense permitted 0 TDs, a season-low 151 total yards (123 passing & 28 rushing) and just 6 first downs, holding Seattle to 1-of-12 (8.3%) on third down. The 6 first downs allowed tie for the second fewest in Ravens franchise history.

- Baltimore registered season highs in total yards (515), rushing yards (298) and first downs (29). The Ravens' 515 yards are the seventh most in franchise history, while the 298 rushing yards rank as the fourth most.

- Undrafted rookie free agent RB Keaton Mitchell rushed for a game-high 138 yards and 1 TD on 9 carries (15.3 avg.). His 138 rushing yards are the most in a game by an undrafted Ravens rookie. RB Gus Edwards posted his third-straight game with at least 1 rushing TD and his second-straight game with multiple.

- On his 31st birthday, WR Odell Beckham Jr. recorded a season-high 5 catches for 56 yards and his first TD reception as a Raven.

- With 1 sack, DT Justin Madubuike set a new Ravens record for the longest streak of consecutive games (six) with at least a half-sack. OLB Kyle Van Noy recorded 2 sacks, including 1 sack-fumble, on back-to-back plays late in the second quarter.

- S Geno Stone notched an INT for the fourth game in a row, marking the second-longest streak in franchise history. His 6 picks are the most by a Raven through nine games.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- With a 33-31 defeat to Cleveland on a game-winning FG as time expired, Baltimore dropped to 7-3 on the season and had its winning streak snapped at four games.

- Baltimore led the entire game, including by 14 points in both the first and fourth quarters, until the decisive Browns' 40-yard FG as time expired.

- With a S Kyle Hamilton pick-6 on the Ravens' first defensive series and a 39-yard rushing TD by RB Keaton Mitchell on their first offensive possession, it marked the third time in franchise history that Baltimore posted a TD on its initial defensive-offensive sequence to open a game (also 10/8/17 at Oak. & 11/5/06 vs. Cin.).

- By recording a 39-yard rushing TD to cap Baltimore's first offensive possession, Mitchell became the first player in Ravens history and the NFL's first undrafted rookie since at least 2000 to post rushing TDs of at least 35 yards in consecutive games.

- ILB Roquan Smith posted a team- and career-high 21 tackles (14 solo), becoming the NFL's only player to reach 20 tackles in a single game this season. Smith's 21 tackles are the fifth-highest single-game total in franchise history, with LB Ray Lewis owning each of the Top 4 marks.

- WR Odell Beckham Jr. capped Baltimore's second-half opening possession with a 40-yard TD reception, marking his second-consecutive game with a score.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- The Ravens' defense posted 5 sacks from five different players. OLB Tavius Robinson recorded his first-career QB takedown and became the 14th Raven to register a sack this season. DT Justin Madubuike recorded a full sack for the sixth-consecutive game, setting a record for the longest such streak in Ravens history.

- QB Lamar Jackson completed 16-of-26 passes for 264 yards and 2 TDs (121.3 rating), while adding 54 rushing yards on 9 attempts.

- RB Gus Edwards rushed for a team-high 61 yards on 12 carries (5.2 avg.), scoring 2 ground TDs. He became the third Raven in franchise history to record a rushing TD in five straight games.

- WR Odell Beckham Jr. posted 4 catches for a season-high 116 yards, including a game-long 51-yard grab. WR Zay Flowers recorded 3 catches for 43 yards, including a 33-yard reception on Baltimore's opening drive that gave him the Ravens' record for the most catches (51) in a rookie season, surpassing Torrey Smith's 50 in 2011.

- TE Mark Andrews sustained what could be a season-ending ankle injury in the first quarter.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- Baltimore earned its sixth victory of the past seven games and owns an AFC-best 9-3 record heading into its Week 13 bye.

- The Ravens' defense permitted 10 points and 279 total yards (193 passing & 86 rushing), while registering 4 takeaways (3 FRs & 1 INT) and 3 sacks. DT Justin Madubuike became the first 10-sack Raven since OLB Terrell Suggs in 2017. OLB Jadeveon Clowney posted a fourth-quarter strip-sack that he also recovered, halting a Chargers 19-play, nearly-nine-minute drive at the Ravens 15-yard line.

- Baltimore rushed for 197 yards and 1 TD on 35 carries (5.6 avg.). Five Ravens (RB Keaton Mitchell – 64; QB Lamar Jackson – 39; WR Zay Flowers – 37; RB Justice Hill – 31; RB Gus Edwards – 25) notched at least 25 rushing yards.

- QB Lamar Jackson completed 18-of-32 passes for 177 yards and 1 TD, while adding 39 rushing yards on 11 carries to become the fourth and fastest QB (82 games) in NFL history to reach 5,000 rushing yards.

- WR Zay Flowers posted 5 receptions for 25 yards and 1 TD, while adding a 37-yard rushing score to seal the victory. He became the first Ravens WR ever to reach the end zone through the air and on the ground in a single game.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- Baltimore defeated the Rams, 37-31, in an OT thriller that ended with a WR Tylan Wallace 76-yard walk-off PR. The score marked the NFL's fourth game-winning PR-TD in OT since 1960, with the last actually happening earlier this season (NYJ's Xavier Gipson, 65 yards vs. Buf. on 9/11/23). The other two "walk-off" OT PRTDs in league history occurred in 2011 (Patrick Peterson) and 1995 (Tamarick Vanover).

- Baltimore registered 2 sacks (DT Justin Madubuike & NT Travis Jones) and 8 TFL in today's game, including 6 TFL in the third quarter. Baltimore's 6 TFL in the third quarter tie (10/26/17 vs. Mia.) for the most in a single quarter of a game in franchise history. Meanwhile, the offense totaled 37 points, 449 yards (310 passing & 139 rushing) and 23 first downs (17 via pass & 6 via rush).

- QB Lamar Jackson completed 24-of-43 passes for 316 yards and 3 TDs with 1 INT (92.8 rating), while adding 70 rushing yards on 11 carries. He became the first QB in NFL history with multiple performances of at least 300 passing yards, 3 passing TDs and 70 rushing yards (also 9/18/22 vs. Mia.).With 3 passing TDs, Jackson (18 games) surpassed QB Joe Flacco for the most games with at least 3 passing TDs in franchise history.

- WR Odell Beckham (46 yards), WR Zay Flowers (21 yards) and TE Isaiah Likely (54 yards) each posted a TD grab. Flowers' 21-yarder helped Baltimore regain the lead (29-28) with 1:16 remaining in the fourth quarter. He then hauled in the subsequent two-point conversion to put Baltimore ahead, 31-28.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- Baltimore clinched its 11th playoff berth during head coach John Harbaugh's 16 years at the helm.
- Baltimore rushed for 251 yards and 1 TD on 42 carries (6.0 avg.), eclipsing triple digits in ground yards for the 30th-straight game. The 30-game streak with at least 100 rushing yards ties for the fourth longest of its kind since the 1970 merger.
- The Ravens' defense permitted 7 points and limited Jacksonville to 3-of-13 (23.1%) on third down and 0-for-3 in the red zone.
- With a team-high 4 QBHs and a strip-sack of QB Trevor Lawrence, DT Justin Madubuike tied DE Trey Hendrickson (2021) and DT Chris Jones (2018) for the longest streak of consecutive games (11) with at least a half-sack in NFL single-season history.
- QB Lamar Jackson completed 14-of-24 passes for 171 yards and 1 TD with 1 INT, while adding 12 carries for a team-high 97 yards. With the performance, Jackson tied Mike Vick's record (54) for the most games recording at least 50 rushing yards by a QB in NFL history.
- TE Isaiah Likely posted 5 receptions for a team-high 70 yards and 1 TD, marking his second-consecutive game with a score. RB Keaton Mitchell posted 9 carries for 73 yards (8.1 avg.), while adding 2 receptions for 15 yards, before having to leave the game in the fourth quarter with a season-ending knee injury.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- The Ravens registered their fifth-straight win after beating the 49ers in the third regular season matchup between teams with the best outright record in each conference in December or later since the 1970 merger.

- Baltimore recorded 5 INTs (2 by S Kyle Hamilton and 1 apiece by CB Marlon Humphrey, ILB Patrick Queen and S Marcus Williams) in the game, scoring 17 points off the takeaways. The 5 picks tied (10/14/07 vs. STL) for the most in a single game in franchise history. The Ravens also posted 4 sacks (2 by DE Brent Urban, and 1 apiece by DE/OLB Jadeveon Clowney and OLB Kyle Van Noy).

- After a punt on Baltimore's first possession of the game and a safety on its second, the Ravens scored points on each of their next 7 drives. This ties (11/25/19 at LAR) for the longest Ravens streak since at least 2000 (when data became available).

- QB Lamar Jackson completed 23-of-35 passes for 2 TDs (105.9 rating), adding a team-high 45 rushing yards on 7 attempts (6.4 avg.). With this performance, he set a new career high (3,357) in passing yards, besting his 2019 MVP campaign (3,105).

- S Kyle Hamilton registered 5 tackles (3 solo), 2 INTs and a career-high 3 PD. He became the youngest player in franchise history (22) with a multi-INT performance. He became the first NFL defender with at least 4 INTs and 10 TFL this season. These marks had not been accomplished in a single season since S Tyrann Mathieu in 2015.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- Baltimore recorded 3 sacks (DE/OLB Jadeveon Clowney, OLB Kyle Van Noy & LB Trenton Simpson) to finish the 2023 campaign with 60 QB drops, tying (2006) for the most in single-season franchise history. The Ravens also registered 4 FFs (Clowney, OLB Jeremiah Moon, LB Del'Shawn Phillips & Van Noy), tying for the franchise's most in a single game since at least 2000 (when TruMedia data became available). Baltimore last reached that single-game figure on 10/18/20 at Phi.

- QB Tyler Huntley started at QB in place of Lamar Jackson (rest), completing 15-of-28 passes for 146 yards and 1 TD, while adding 8 rushes for 40 yards.

- With a sack-fumble of QB Mason Rudolph late in the first half, DE/OLB Jadeveon Clowney tied (2019) a career high in sacks (9.5).

- OLB Kyle Van Noy tallied 2 tackles, including a sack-fumble (recovered by DT Broderick Washington) of QB Mason Rudolph at Baltimore's 34-yard line to prevent a potential Pittsburgh scoring drive late in the first half.

- LB Del'Shawn Phillips posted a game- and career-high 13 tackles (8 solo), while also registering his first-career FF (recovered by DB Arthur Maulet). Phillips became the first Raven since LB C.J. Mosley (10/1/17 vs. Pit.) to tally 12+ tackles (13) with at least 1 FF (1) and 1 TFL (1).

- Rookie LB Trenton Simpson posted 5 total tackles, including his first-career sack (-6 yards) that forced a third-and-20 situation.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- Baltimore's defense allowed 3 points and 213 total yards (38 rushing & 175 passing), pitching a second-half shutout for the first time in the postseason since 1/20/13 (AFC title game at NE).

- The Ravens' 3 points allowed by a defense tie for the second fewest in franchise postseason history, behind only their defensive shutout in Super Bowl XXXV (vs. NYG).

- The Ravens' 213 yards allowed are the eighth fewest in franchise postseason history. Permitting just 38 rushing yards vs. the Texans, Baltimore's rush defense registered its fourth-best performance in postseason play.

- Led by QB Lamar Jackson (100 yards & 2 TDs), Baltimore rushed for 229 yards on 41 carries (5.5 avg.). RBs Justice Hill (66 rushing yards), Gus Edwards (40) and Dalvin Cook (23) also contributed to the 229-yard rushing effort that marked Baltimore's third-highest total in franchise postseason history.

- Jackson recorded his third-career 100-yard rushing game in the playoffs, breaking a tie with QB Colin Kaepernick for the most such playoff performances by a QB in NFL history. Jackson also became the first Raven ever to rush and throw for a score in a single postseason contest. It marked the NFL's first-ever performance (regular + postseason) with 100+ rushing yards, 100+ passer rating, 2+ passing TDs and 2+ rushing TDs.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- The Ravens' defense limited Kansas City to just 98 yards in the second half, including 29 on the ground. Baltimore permitted just 3.3 yards per play overall in the second half, also not allowing any points. The Ravens' offense gained 226 yards in second-half play, including 191 passing.

- QB Lamar Jackson was 20-of-37 passing for 272 yards, 1 TD and 1 INT, adding a team-high 54 rushing yards on 8 carries (6.8 ypc). Jackson also caught a pass of his own that was tipped, advancing the catch for a 13-yard gain..

- WR Zay Flowers recorded 5 catches for 115 yards (23.0 avg.), marking the eighth 100-yard receiving game in Ravens postseason history. His 115 yards stand as the third most by a Raven in a single playoff game. Flowers' 30-yard TD reception to tie the game in the first quarter marked the longest TD grab by a rookie in Ravens postseason history.

- ILB Roquan Smith's game-high 16 tackles marked the most by a Raven in postseason play since Hall of Famer Ray Lewis' 17 on 1/12/13 in the Divisional Round at Denver.

- S Kyle Hamilton tallied the game's second-most tackles (11, behind Roquan Smith's 16), including 1 for loss. Hamilton's 9 solo tackles marked a game high.

- P Jordan Stout averaged 50.2 gross yards per punt (5 for 251), including a 66-yarder that flipped the field after Baltimore's first drive. The boot tied (Kyle Richardson on 12/31/00 vs. Den.) for the longest punt in Ravens postseason history.

HISTORY

RAY LEWIS

An emotionally-charged and thrilling six weeks kicked off the Baltimore Ravens' 2012 campaign. Despite playing their first four games in an 18-day span, the Ravens produced a 5-1 record, marking the best start ever under John Harbaugh. Highlighted by a season-opening victory on Monday Night Football against division foe Cincinnati and an exhilarating, last-second triumph over AFC rival New England, the Ravens immediately demonstrated the type of heart and resolve that would allow them to conquer anything in an NFL season.

Climbing to 9-2, Baltimore tied (2006) the then-best record to begin a season in franchise history. Following their Bye Week, the battle-tested Ravens won four-straight games – three of which occurred in hostile road clashes. Though a rash of injuries to key contributors left them shorthanded, the Ravens remained relentless and emerged victorious in hard-fought contests at Cleveland and Pittsburgh. Baltimore's grit was never more on display than in Week 12 at San Diego, when Ray Rice converted a fourth-and-29 catch – later voted "NFL Play of the Year" – to send the game into overtime and help capture the comeback win.

While able to secure the AFC North Title with a decisive victory over the New York Giants in Week 16, the Ravens closed out the regular season by dropping four of their last five games. This stretch included three-consecutive defeats – two by three points – to begin December, all against emerging playoff contenders. Many outsiders perceived the run of losses to be Baltimore's late-season demise, but the Ravens felt otherwise. As each wintry week passed, the team's resilient chemistry never faded, nor did its genuine belief that the best was yet to come.

On Wild Card weekend, before a sellout M&T Bank Stadium crowd that celebrated and saluted Ray Lewis in his final home game, Baltimore pummeled the Colts, 24-9, kick-starting an incredible playoff run. Holding Indy without a touchdown, the Ravens' defense was led by Lewis, who returned to action for the first time since tearing his triceps in Week 6.

"I think we're all appreciative, grateful for the opportunity to be here and to witness this historic moment in sports," head coach John Harbaugh said after the win. "And, it wasn't just about one guy [Lewis]. Nobody understands it more than the one guy we're talking about. It was about a team. It was about a city, a fan base, a great sport, about a great career."

Fresh off an emotional victory over Indianapolis, Baltimore traveled to No. 1 seed Denver for a Divisional Playoff bout. Riding an 11-game win streak, the heavily-favored Broncos had beaten the Ravens, 34-17, in Charm City four weeks prior.

But despite its underdog status, Baltimore approached the game with the brazen attitude of a champion. It was a boldness reinforced by strength gained while facing adversity throughout the season. It was also a resiliency the team had developed and a brotherhood that leaders such as Harbaugh, Lewis, Terrell Suggs, Joe Flacco, Anquan Boldin and Rice had cultivated from Day One.

In what became the fourth-longest game (4:11) in NFL history, the Ravens outlasted the Broncos, 38-35, in double OT, producing an electrifying victory-turned instant classic.

LB Ray Lewis emerges from the M&T Bank Stadium tunnel for the final home intro of his career prior to the Wild Card win over Indianapolis (1/6/13).

WR Jacoby Jones secures QB Joe Flacco's deep pass, connecting for a 70-yard TD to send the Divisional Playoff at Denver (1/12/13) into overtime.

As part of 21 unanswered points by Baltimore, WR Anquan Boldin scores a fourth-quarter TD in the 28-13 AFC Championship victory at New England (1/20/13).

Facing third-and-3 with 31 seconds remaining in regulation, Flacco found Jacoby Jones, who had blazed past defenders down the right sideline, to manufacture an improbable 70-yard touchdown bomb. The crowd-silencing connection cut the deficit to 1, with Justin Tucker then quickly tying the game at 35 to force overtime. Near the end of the extra period, Corey Graham intercepted Peyton Manning, ultimately setting up a 47-yard game-winning field goal by Tucker in double OT and sealing the Ravens' 38-35 win.

"Thanks for bearing witness to one of the greatest football games you're ever going to see," stated Harbaugh after the victory, which sent Baltimore to the AFC Championship for a second-straight season and third time in five years. "That football game did the game of football proud."

Next up was an AFC Title bout with the No. 2 seed Patriots, who just 12 months prior had knocked out Baltimore in the exact same setting. Though the Ravens' hearts were battered following the 2011 playoff loss, the defeat served as an influential lesson and a unifying force. It was an outcome that simultaneously marked the bitter end of a poignant journey, but also some inspiration for a determined 2012 Ravens team.

All season long, as they grinded away for a chance to finish what they had started the year before, the Ravens got what they wanted. And this time, they didn't disappoint.

The Patriots, who owned the NFL's No. 1-ranked and highest-scoring offense, were shut out in the second half by a dominant Ravens "D" that found ways to constantly frazzle Tom Brady and pummel his normally-potent attack. In defeating New England, 28-13, Baltimore clinched a berth in Super Bowl XLVII, seizing the franchise's second conference title.

"Congratulations to our players, to our coaches," Harbaugh said. "[Tonight] was about a football team playing really good football in one of the biggest moments that football has to offer, and that's what I am so proud of as a football coach."

On Feb. 3, 2013, the AFC Champion Ravens battled the NFC Champion 49ers in Super Bowl XLVII. It was the first time in NFL history that two brothers, John and Jim Harbaugh, faced each other as head coaches in a championship game.

"We've seen it all this year," Harbaugh stated before the game. "We've had injuries; we've had adversity; we've had exhilaration; we've had great moments. That's what a season is made of. The team that navigates all these things the best, in the end, will be the one true champion."

And in the end, no team navigated its voyage better than the 2012 Ravens. In what would become a timeless NFL masterpiece – one bursting with drama at every turn – Baltimore defeated San Francisco, 34-31, becoming the NFL's one true champion.

After taking an early 28-6 lead, the Ravens produced a valiant goal-line stand to clinch their second Super Bowl title. Overcoming a feverish 49ers' second-half comeback and a bizarre 34-minute power outage in the third quarter, Baltimore started fast and finished strong, all while entertaining millions of spectators around the globe.

Spurred by Flacco, who was named the game's MVP after completing 22-of-33 passes for 287 yards and three touchdowns, the Ravens capped a remarkable journey – one that will forever live in football lore.
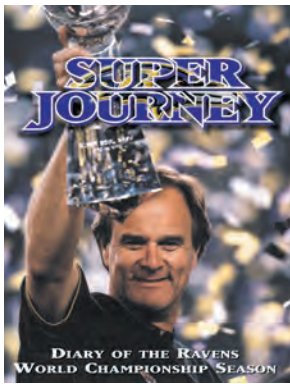

"We've got a lot of resolve. That's why we won the game," stated Harbaugh, who with the victory set an NFL record for most playoff wins (nine) in a head coach's first five seasons. "It wasn't perfect, it wasn't pretty, but it was us."

John Harbaugh hoists the Lombardi Trophy following the Ravens' thrilling 34-31 victory over San Francisco in Super Bowl XLVII (2/3/13).

The young and brash Baltimore Ravens began the 2000 NFL season talking playoffs and ended the year as World Champions, thanks to one of the most dominant defenses in pro football history.

The Ravens' "Super Journey" began with an ominous regular season schedule that included five road games in seven weeks. In the middle of it all was a five-game streak without a touchdown. Thankfully, the drought never divided the team.

The race toward the Lombardi Trophy was not without its hurdles: Ray Lewis rebounded from a trying offseason; Trent Dilfer, now a Raven, returned to Tampa Bay for the Super Bowl; an emotional Jermaine Lewis dedicated a superb performance to the memory of his stillborn son. Still, the team rallied through the season, and it made the hard-fought victory that much sweeter.

The journey was about the coming of age for talented young players like Jamal Lewis, Chris McAlister and Duane Starks. It also belonged to tough veterans like Rod Woodson, Ray Lewis, Rob Burnett, Shannon Sharpe, Matt Stover, Michael McCrary and Jonathan Ogden.

And the journey also belonged to the fans of Baltimore. The fans numbered in the thousands at the downtown sendoff at Harbor Place. Banners and promises hung in the air, and none would be broken.

While the hometown fans would celebrate with seven-straight days of purple pride, the team took off for Tampa for a week of preparation before the ultimate contest. On Sunday, Jan. 28, 2001, the Ravens kept their promise and defeated the New York Giants, 34-7.

Ray Lewis earned Super Bowl XXXV MVP honors, as well as Defensive Player of the Year. The Ravens tied a then-Super Bowl record with four INTs, and their +5 overall turnover margin ranks as the second-best mark in a Super Bowl. The most exciting new record? Perhaps three successive scores on three seesaw plays. The back-to-back kickoff returns for TDs were yet another new record.

Following the game, owner Art Modell lifted the Lombardi Trophy in the air and said: "To the people of Baltimore City, Baltimore County and the State of Maryland, this belongs to you. From the bottom of my heart, thank you."

When the Ravens flew home on that beautiful, blue-sky Monday after the Super Bowl, they heard about the parade scheduled in their honor for the next day. The icy downpour that Tuesday phased no one. Hundreds of thousands of fans ignored the rain and cold and waited for their heroes to ride by on Baltimore's crowded city streets.

Later, the entire organization was invited to the White House in June to meet President George W. Bush.

COLTS HISTORY

12/28/46 - Baltimore was awarded the bankrupt Miami Seahawks franchise of the All-America Football Conference. Re-named Colts via a fan contest.

12/8/49 - AAFC/NFL reached merger agreement. Colts entered the NFL for 1950 season.

12/19/50 - Colts finished 1-11 in their first NFL season with a 15-14 loss to the New York Yanks at Yankee Stadium. The Yanks later became the Baltimore Colts.

1951-52 - No Colts team existed.

12/3/52 - Commissioner Bert Bell challenged Baltimore to sell 15,000 tickets in six weeks to re-enter NFL. The ticket drive reached its quota in four weeks and three days.

10/1/53 - Carroll Rosenbloom headed an ownership group and Baltimore was awarded the Dallas Texans' franchise.

12/28/58 - Colts defeated NYG, 23-17, at Yankee Stadium for the World Championship. That game sparked the emergence of the NFL as a televised sports giant and was later deemed "The Greatest Game Ever Played."

12/27/59 - The Colts won their second-straight World Championship over the Giants, in Baltimore, 31-16.

1/8/63 - Don Shula replaced Weeb Ewbank as head coach.

12/27/64 - Browns beat Colts, 27-0, in Cleveland for NFL title. Art Modell wins first title.

6/8/66 - NFL and AFL announced plans to merge in 1970. Colts, Browns and Steelers later joined AFC in NFL's realignment.

1/12/69 - Jets defeated Colts, 16-7, in Super Bowl III at the Orange Bowl after Joe Namath guaranteed a New York victory.

1/15/75 - Ted Marchibroda named head coach.

4/26/83 - Colts selected John Elway with No. 1 pick in NFL draft, but traded him to Denver for T Chris Hinton, QB Mark Herrmann and Denver's top pick in 1984.

12/18/83 - In the last NFL regular season game in Memorial Stadium (until 1996), the Colts beat the Oilers, 20-10. TE Pat Beach scored the last TD on a 12-yard pass from QB Mike Pagel.

3/28/84 - Colts franchise relocated to Indianapolis.

RAVENS HISTORY

11/6 - Cleveland Browns announced intention to move to Baltimore for 1996 season.

2/9 - NFL approved franchise move.

2/15 - Ted Marchibroda was named the Ravens' first head coach 21 years and one month to the day he was hired by the Baltimore Colts in 1975.

3/29 - Baltimore's NFL franchise was officially named "Ravens" after a Baltimore Sun telephone poll received a record number of calls supporting the name.

4/1 - The Ravens opened their first Owings Mills training facility with start of offseason program.

6/14 - Ravens sold over 50,000 season tickets in 14 days.

9/1 - The Ravens' first-ever regular season game was played before 64,124 fans at Memorial Stadium, the largest crowd in Baltimore professional sports history. QB Vinny Testaverde scored the first TD on a 9-yard run to propel the Ravens to a 19-14 win over the Raiders.

12/22 - The Ravens concluded their inaugural season with a 4-12 record following a 24-21 loss to the Houston Oilers. The Ravens were 4-4 at home and 0-8 on the road. The team sold out all 10 home games, including the two preseason games. Baltimore held a second-half lead in 10 of its 11 final games, but won only two. QB Vinny Testaverde was voted to the Pro Bowl after throwing for 4,177 yards and 33 TDs. WRs Michael Jackson and Derrick Alexander both eclipsed the 1,000-yard receiving mark and combined for 23 TDs.

3/18 - The Ravens and Western Maryland College (now McDaniel College) entered into a five-year agreement to hold training camp at the Westminster, MD, campus.

12/14 - Baltimore defeated Tennessee, 21-19, in the final game at Memorial Stadium. Of the 16 regular season games played by the Ravens at Memorial Stadium, 13 were televised and all were sold out.

12/21 - Baltimore dropped a 16-14 game at Cincinnati to finish the season 6-9-1. T Jonathan Ogden was named consensus All-Pro and voted as a starter to the Pro Bowl. LB Ray Lewis led the NFL in tackles with 210 and was voted first alternate to the Pro Bowl, then selected as a "needs" player by coach Bill Cowher.

2/14 - The Ravens traded for QB Jim Harbaugh (from Ind.), the first of several key offseason acquisitions, including RB Errict Rhett (2/17), FB Roosevelt Potts (2/24) and CB Rod Woodson (2/25).

9/5 - The new NFL Stadium at Camden Yards (later named PSINet Stadium) was the backdrop for an opening gala that included fireworks, a Stevie Wonder/Baltimore Symphony Orchestra concert and a spectacular laser show.

9/6 - The Ravens opened their new NFL Stadium in downtown Baltimore before a host of dignitaries, a packed house and the Steelers. The Ravens lost, 20-13.

1/19 - Brian Billick became the second head coach in Ravens history when he accepted a six-year contract from owner Art Modell. Billick, the highly successful offensive coordinator for Minnesota, directed a Vikings' attack that set a variety of NFL and team records, including the league's single-season then-scoring mark of 556 points in 1998.

1/26 - PSINet Inc., the first and largest independent commercial Internet provider, announced a 20-year partnership to develop a global network for the Ravens. With the agreement, the new facility was named PSINet Stadium.

1/30 - Ravens executive vice president of player personnel Ozzie Newsome was selected for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, along with Lawrence Taylor, Eric Dickerson, Tom Mack and Billy Shaw. Newsome was the NFL's all-time leading tight end in pass receptions until Shannon Sharpe eclipsed the record in 2001.

9/12 - Brian Billick's debut as head coach was spoiled in the season opener, as St. Louis defeated the Ravens, 27-10, in the TransWorld Dome. QB Kurt Warner had his first NFL start.

12/26 - The Ravens recorded their first-ever shutout, a 22-0 win over Cincinnati. The victory completed a perfect December and gave the Ravens a franchise-high eight victories. Five players (LB Peter Boulware, LB Ray Lewis, DE Michael McCrary, T Jonathan Ogden and S Rod Woodson) were named to the Pro Bowl. The Ravens' defense finished second in the NFL (21.3 ppg allowed), and in the team's 6-3 finish, Baltimore outscored opponents, 324-277.

2/22 - The Ravens signed seven-time Pro Bowl TE Shannon Sharpe, an unrestricted free agent who had starred for 10 years with the Denver Broncos. Sharpe caught 552 passes for 6,983 yards and 44 TDs for Denver.

3/27 - NFL owners approved the sale of 49% of the Ravens to Anne Arundel County (MD) business executive Steve Bisciotti. In it, Bisciotti had an option to purchase the remaining 51% for $325 million in 2004.

SEPT. - The Ravens opened the 2000 season with a 16-0 win at Pittsburgh in their last visit to Three Rivers Stadium on 9/3. They won three of their first four games, including a dramatic 39-36 win over Jacksonville (their first win over the Jaguars) and a 37-0 shutout over Cincinnati.

OCT. - Baltimore finished October at 2-3, and did not score a TD during the month. Trent Dilfer replaced Tony Banks at QB on 10/29 vs. Pittsburgh.

NOV./DEC. - Baltimore won its final seven regular season games by a combined score of 193-63. On 11/26, Earnest Byner was the first inductee to the Ravens' Ring of Honor (Ravens won 44-7 vs. Cleveland). On 12/10, Art Modell was honored in pre-game ceremonies for his 40 years of ownership. That day, the Ravens earned their first playoff berth, defeating San Diego, 24-3.

12/24 - The Ravens' defense set a 16-game record by allowing only 165 total points. Baltimore also set an NFL record by allowing only 970 yards rushing. The Ravens finished 12-4 after beating the NY Jets, 34-20, on Christmas Eve. Rookie RB Jamal Lewis rushed for a team-record 1,364 yards in 2000.

12/31 - The Ravens defeated the Denver Broncos, 21-3, in an AFC Wild Card Playoff at PSINet Stadium, the first home playoff game in Baltimore since 1977. Jamal Lewis rushed for 110 yards on 30 carries and scored twice, while the defense allowed Denver's rushing attack only 42 yards on the ground.

1/2 - LB Ray Lewis won NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from The Associated Press.

1/7 - The Ravens scored 14 fourth quarter points to defeat Tennessee, 24-10, at Adelphia Coliseum to advance to the AFC Championship. The go-ahead TD was a 90-yard return by Anthony Mitchell off a blocked FG. Then, Ray Lewis scored on a 50-yard INT return to seal the win.

1/14 - The Ravens traveled to Oakland and defeated the Raiders, 16-3, in the AFC Championship game to advance to Super Bowl XXXV. TE Shannon Sharpe scored on an NFL postseason-record 96-yard pass from Trent Dilfer. The Ravens limited the Raiders to 24 rushing yards.
LB Ray Lewis was named the 2000 NFL Defensive Player of the Year and Super Bowl XXXV MVP after the Ravens' win (34-7) over the New York Giants.

1/28 - The Ravens defeated the New York Giants, 34-7, to capture their first World Championship in Super Bowl XXXV, played at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, FL. Ray Lewis was named Super Bowl MVP and only Ron Dixon's 97-yard KOR for a TD averted a shutout against the Giants. A Super Bowl record was set when three TDs were scored in a span of 36 seconds, including Duane Starks' 49-yard INT return and Jermaine Lewis' 84-yard KOR.

1/30 - Over 200,000 people turned out on a cold, rainy day to attend the Baltimore Ravens' victory parade.

JULY/AUG. - The Ravens opened training camp as defending World Champions with the entire nation watching, as HBO's Hard Knocks: Training Camp with the Baltimore Ravens debuted with the Ravens as the featured team.

9/9 - The Ravens won their 12th-consecutive game and second-consecutive opener with a 17-6 win over the Chicago Bears at PSINet Stadium. On 9/11, the World Trade Center collapsed and the Pentagon was hit, following terrorist attacks.

10/21 - Matt Stover broke the NFL record for most consecutive games with a FG, snapping Fred Cox's old mark of 31, when he booted two three-pointers in a 24-14 loss to the Browns at Cleveland Browns Stadium. Stover's streak ended at 38 games with a missed FGA on 12/16 vs. Pittsburgh.

11/18 - TE Shannon Sharpe became the NFL's all-time leading pass-catching TE (surpassing Ozzie Newsome's mark of 662), when Sharpe caught a 29-yard pass on the fifth play of the game vs. the Cleveland Browns. He finished the 2001 season with 692 career receptions for 8,604 yards, both then-all-time NFL highs for a TE.

12/2 - S Rod Woodson set an NFL record by returning a Peyton Manning INT 47 yards for a TD, his 10th career TD on an INT return, in a 39-27 win over Indy. Woodson's TD snapped a tie with Ken Houston (nine career INT-TDs).

12/23 - RB Corey Dillon of the Bengals rushed for 127 yards, snapping the Ravens' streak of 50 games (including playoffs) of not allowing a 100-yard rusher, the longest streak since the 1989-1992 Eagles kept a 53-game streak. The Ravens scored their third-consecutive home shutout over the Bengals (16-0), the first time in 24 years (1975-77, Oakland over San Diego) that a team had three straight home shutouts over the same opponent.

1/2 - Six Ravens from the 2001 season were selected to play in the Pro Bowl, tying the team mark set in 1998. Selected were LB Ray Lewis, T Jonathan Ogden, DT Sam Adams, RS Jermaine Lewis, TE Shannon Sharpe and S Rod Woodson.

1/7 - The Ravens played a postponed regular season game against Minnesota at Ravens Stadium and defeated the Vikings, 19-3, allowing Baltimore to advance to the playoffs. The game had been scheduled for Monday, 9/17, but was re-scheduled because of the 9/11 terrorist attacks on the United States. The victory gave the Ravens a 10-6 record and clinched a Wild Card spot as the AFC's fifth seed. LB Peter Boulware set a team record with four sacks vs. the Vikings to finish as the AFC's leading sacker with 15.

1/13 - The Baltimore Ravens traveled to Miami and defeated the Dolphins, 20-3, in an AFC Wild Card Playoff game. Baltimore set a playoff team record with 226 rushing yards on 50 carries. The Ravens became the first team in NFL history to win its first five playoff games. Only Joe Gibbs, who won his first six playoff games, surpassed Brian Billick's mark of five (tied with Tom Flores).

1/20 - After five-consecutive playoff wins (including the Super Bowl run in 2000), the Ravens were stopped at Heinz Field with a 27-10 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers in the AFC Divisional Playoff game. The Steelers jumped to a 20-0 first-half lead and stifled Baltimore's offense. Baltimore's only TD came when RS Jermaine Lewis set a then NFL playoff record with an 88-yard punt return for a score in the third quarter.

5/15 - The Ravens and McDaniel College (formerly Western Maryland College) announced a three-year contract extension to keep Ravens training camp in Westminster, MD, through the 2004 season.

9/8 - With the youngest team in NFL history (19 first-year players), the Ravens dropped their first two games at Carolina (10-7) and at home (9/15) vs. the Buccaneers (25-0). A moving tribute was paid to Hall of Fame QB Johnny Unitas prior to the game, and QB Chris Redman, a close friend and admirer, wore black hightops in honor of his hero. Johnny Unitas passed away on 9/11/02.

9/30 - CB Chris McAlister ran into the NFL record books against Denver. With one second remaining in the first half, Broncos K Jason Elam's FGA was short. McAlister caught it in the end zone and returned it 107 yards for a TD – the then-longest play of any kind in league history. The previous record was 106 yards (3 KORs), last accomplished by Roy Green in 1979. Baltimore won 34-23. S Ed Reed blocked the first punt in Ravens history, leading to the Ravens' second TD of the second quarter against the Broncos.

10/20 - QB Johnny Unitas and seven of his Hall of Fame Colts teammates were enshrined into the Ring of Honor at Ravens Stadium in front of a sellout crowd of 69,173 fans. Enshrined with Unitas were: WR Raymond Berry, RB Lenny Moore, DT Art Donovan, DE Gino Marchetti, TE John Mackey, OT Jim Parker and LB Ted Hendricks. A bronze statue of Unitas' likeness was sculpted by local Baltimore artist Frederick Kail and dedicated at Gate A, newly-named Unitas Plaza. In a joint effort, the Baltimore Ravens, Art Modell, the Steve Bisciotti family, and others commissioned the project.

12/29 - The Ravens lost their final game of the season at Pittsburgh (34-31) in a heart-breaking nail-biter. Hopes of a playoff berth ended, as the Ravens finished with a 7-9 record. Three Ravens players traveled to Hawaii for the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden, LB Peter Boulware and first-timer TE Todd Heap.

JAN./FEB. - Ozzie Newsome was named the NFL's first minority general manager. The executive VP and GM promoted three members of his staff: Phil Savage, player personnel director; George Kokinis, pro personnel director; and Eric DeCosta, college scouting director. Former Bears Hall of Fame LB Mike Singletary launched his coaching career when he was hired by the Ravens as the team's LBs coach. Art Modell entered his 43rd (and final) year in the NFL as a franchise owner.

5/6 - Ravens Stadium was re-named M&T Bank Stadium in a press conference held at the stadium. The 15-year, $75 million agreement included naming rights, as well as jointly administered community-based programs. The then-147-year-old M&T Bank was headquartered in Buffalo, NY.

9/2 - The average age of the Ravens was only 25.8 years at roster cutdown. Baltimore had 11 first-year players on the roster (seven rookies) and 11 second-year veterans. The average years of experience was just four. The Ravens were the third-youngest team in the NFL (Cleveland, 24.8 and Chicago, 25.3).

9/14 - Baltimore rolled over the Cleveland Browns, 33-13, at M&T Bank Stadium. In that home opener, RB Jamal Lewis broke a then-NFL record with 295 yards rushing on 30 carries and 2 TDs. In the game at Cleveland (12/21), Lewis rushed for 205 yards, setting the NFL mark for rushing yards in a season versus the same team – 500 yards.

12/18 - A then-team-record eight players were voted to the Pro Bowl (most in NFL, tied with the Chiefs): LB Ray Lewis, S Ed Reed, LB Peter Boulware, T Jonathan Ogden, TE Todd Heap, RB Jamal Lewis, CB Chris McAlister and LB/Special Teamer Adalius Thomas.

12/28 - Art Modell was inducted into the Ring of Honor at M&T Bank Stadium in the final game of the season, a 13-10 OT win over Pittsburgh. Baltimore finished 10-6, winning its first-ever AFC North Division title.

1/3 - The Ravens lost, 20-17, to the Titans in the AFC Wild Card game at M&T Bank Stadium on Gary Anderson's game-winning kick (46-yard FG), with 29 seconds remaining.

2/4 - The late Jim Fassel, former head coach of the NY Giants, was named senior consultant/offense for the Ravens. It marked the first time two Super Bowl head coaches (Brian Billick being the other) were on the same staff.

4/9 - The NFL approved Ravens new owner Steve Bisciotti's purchase of the club.

4/13 - The Ravens and McDaniel College extended their partnership six years to keep training camp in Westminster. The deal included installation of Sportexe Momentum Turf on the college's main athletic field, with both parties sharing costs.

The NFL approved new owner Steve Bisciotti's purchase of the Baltimore Ravens in April 2004.

10/4 - Former Pro Bowl DE Michael McCrary, who retired in 2002, was inducted into the Ravens Ring of Honor at halftime of Baltimore's' Monday Night ABC contest vs. KC. The Chiefs won, 27-24.

10/15 - Ravens moved into their new 200,000-sq.ft. training facility in Owings Mills, MD, during the Bye Week. The new state-of-the-art headquarters became home to over 200 Ravens employees.

1/2 - Finishing the 2004 season with a 9-7 record, the Ravens fell one game short of the playoffs. Baltimore produced a 6-2 mark at M&T Bank Stadium and a 3-5 record on the road. Injuries caused regular starters to miss 53 games, including the entire season for Pro Bowl LB Peter Boulware. Other Pro Bowlers who missed considerable time included: TE Todd Heap (10), RB Jamal Lewis (four), LT Jonathan Ogden (four), and CB Deion Sanders (seven). C Mike Flynn missed the first seven games.

1/7 - S Ed Reed was named the 2004 NFL Defensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press, becoming the second Raven in as many years to win the award. LB Ray Lewis won the award twice (2000, 2003).

1/12 - Jim Fassel and Rex Ryan (1/20) were promoted to offensive and defensive coordinators, respectively. Clarence Brooks (formerly with Miami) replaced Rex Ryan as D-line coach. Chris Foerster (former Miami offensive coordinator) was named offensive line/assistant head coach. Rick Neuheisel was named QBs coach. Fassel's son, John, was hired as an offensive assistant.

1/1 - Baltimore finished 2005 with a disappointing 6-10 record, going 6-2 at home and netting zero wins on the road. The 67 games lost to injured starters were third most in the NFL, with 10 games to Ray Lewis (thigh), six to Ed Reed (ankle) and seven to Kyle Boller (toe). Season highlights included two nationally-televised games, a 48-3 win over Green Bay (12/19) and a 30-23 win against Minnesota (12/25) on Christmas night that knocked the Vikings out of the playoffs. One of the victories was a 16-13 OT win over the eventual Super Bowl Champion Steelers. T Jonathan Ogden was selected to his 10th-straight Pro Bowl appearance.

6/8 - Three-time Pro Bowler and 2003 co-MVP QB Steve McNair joined the Ravens in a trade with Tennessee, in exchange for a 2007 Baltimore draft pick. McNair would go on to start at QB for the Ravens in 2006, and he became just the third player in NFL history to throw for 30,000 career passing yards and rush for 3,500 yards. He joined Hall of Famers Fran Tarkenton and Steve Young in that group.

9/10 - Baltimore shut out Tampa Bay (27-0) in the opener at Raymond James Stadium and posted a second shutout vs. Pittsburgh (also 27-0) on Nov. 26.

10/16 - Head coach Brian Billick took over coordinating the offense after the Ravens lost two in a row, falling to 4-2. Baltimore won five-straight games and four out of the last five contests on the season.

11/5 - Former LB Peter Boulware, who retired in 2006, was inducted into the Ravens Ring of Honor at M&T Bank Stadium in an emotional halftime ceremony. In addition to family and former teammates, he was joined by Steve Bisciotti and Art Modell. Peter's younger brother Michael, a Seahawks' safety, spoke in personal terms to his brother in a pre-recorded message that was shown on the RavensVision video boards. Boulware, genuinely moved, spoke to the crowd of 69,143 Ravens fans. Baltimore defeated Cincinnati, 26-20, and carried a 6-2 record into the second half of the season.

12/22 - Three Ravens were named as starters in the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden, LB Adalius Thomas and S Ed Reed. CB Chris McAlister and LB Terrell Suggs received Pro Bowl nods as reserves. LB Ray Lewis and QB Steve McNair were named as backups, but were replaced [because of injuries] with LB Bart Scott and the Titans' QB Vince Young, respectively.

12/24 - For the first time in Ravens history, Baltimore swept AFC North rival Pittsburgh at Heinz Field, 31-7, after posting an earlier 27-0 shutout on Nov. 26 at M&T Bank Stadium. The Ravens' "D" dominated Pittsburgh in both games, sacking QB Ben Roethlisberger 14 times and intercepting him four.

12/31 - The Ravens finished 13-3, earning the AFC North Division title and a Bye Week prior to the AFC Divisional Playoffs. The Ravens' No. 1-ranked defense was elite: first in points allowed (201, including just 64 [9.1 per game] in the final seven games – 26 teams allowed 300 or more points for the season); first in total defense (264.1 ypg); first in red zone (33.3% TDs allowed); fewest third downs converted (28.8%) and fewest first downs permitted (236); first in turnover margin (+17) and second in takeaways (40 to Chicago's 44); first in INTs (28, including five for TDs); and second in sacks

In 2006, Baltimore swept the Steelers, 27-0 (M&T Bank Stadium) and 31-7 at Heinz Field, for a 58-7 point differential. LB Bart Scott posted 1.5 sacks of QB Ben Roethlisberger.

(60 to San Diego's 61). The offense led the NFL in time of possession (32:49) and sack ratio (+43); the 17 sacks allowed set a franchise record and were No. 2 in the NFL to Indy's 15.

1/13 - In a Divisional Playoff game that provided great angst for Baltimore's loyal fans, the Ravens were on the wrong side of a 15-6 decision vs. Indianapolis. Not a single TD was scored in this kicking contest between Baltimore's Matt Stover and the Colts' Adam Vinatieri.

12/18 - T Jonathan Ogden was named to his 11th-straight Pro Bowl, along with LB Ray Lewis (ninth), S Ed Reed (fourth) and RB Willis McGahee (first).

12/31 - Prompted by a dismal 5-11 season in 2007, Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti, president Dick Cass and GM Ozzie Newsome held a press conference announcing the decision to relieve head coach Brian Billick and his staff of their coaching duties. Despite an injury report that would have paralyzed most teams, the Ravens never quit. In 2007, the number of games missed by starters was 77, up from just 24 in 2006. By the final game, the Ravens had started three different QBs, including rookie Troy Smith. Baltimore had 12 rookies and one first-year player on the roster, which (13) was the third-most in the NFL to close the year. Baltimore started six different rookies, tying four teams for second most in the NFL. Smith posted only one win versus the AFC North, a 27-21 nailbiter vs. Pittsburgh on 12/30.

1/19 - Steve Bisciotti hired his first head coach – and just the third in Ravens history – John Harbaugh, former special teams/defensive backs coach for the Philadelphia Eagles under Andy Reid. Harbaugh's special teams ranked in the Top 10 of special teams rankings every year from 2000-06, including two first-place finishes. From 2000-06, no team had a higher overall ranking (attribution: The Dallas Morning News). Harbaugh was originally hired in Philadelphia by Ray Rhodes in 1998 and was then retained by Reid.

John Harbaugh became the third head coach in franchise history in 2008.

6/12 - T Jonathan Ogden retired after a 12-year NFL career.

9/7 - John Harbaugh won his first game as an NFL head coach with a 17-10 victory over Cincinnati in Week 1 at M&T Bank Stadium. A pair of rookie players started the game on offense: QB Joe Flacco and RB Ray Rice.

9/14 - The Ravens' Bye Week was unexpectedly moved to Week 2 after Hurricane Ike ravaged Texas' Gulf Coast area and forced the postponement of Baltimore's game at Houston until Week 10. Due to this schedule change, Baltimore would play 18-consecutive games, including three in the playoffs, before the season concluded.

10/26 - Longtime Ravens T Jonathan Ogden was inducted into the Ravens Ring of Honor during a win over Oakland just four months after his retirement from football.

12/20 - In the last NFL game to ever be played at the Cowboys' historic Texas Stadium, the Ravens defeated Dallas, 33-24, with FB Le'Ron McClain recording the longest run in Texas Stadium history with a career-long 82-yard TD scamper.

12/28 - With a Wild Card playoff spot on the line, Baltimore closed out the regular season with a 9-2 record to earn a No. 6 seed in the postseason. The Ravens beat Jacksonville in the season finale, 27-7, to earn their fifth-ever postseason appearance. After starting the year 2-3, the Ravens rallied to end the regular season with an 11-5 record to earn second place in the AFC North and a Wild Card Playoff berth. The 11 regular season wins set an NFL record for the most by a rookie QB (Joe Flacco) and a first-year head coach (John Harbaugh) tandem. Including the playoffs, Harbaugh and Flacco ended 2008 with 13 wins, a new NFL rookie benchmark.

1/4 - In the 27-9 Wild Card win at Miami, the Ravens' 4 INTs off Dolphins QB Chad Pennington (who threw only 7 during the regular season) tied for the most in team playoff history. S Ed Reed stole two from Pennington, returning the first pick 64 yards for a TD.

1/10 - The Ravens defeated the top-seeded Tennessee Titans at LP Field, 13-10, getting Joe Flacco his second playoff win – the most for a rookie QB in NFL history. A last-minute, 43-yard field goal by K Matt Stover gave Baltimore the win.

1/18 - In the AFC Championship, Baltimore suffered a narrow 23-14 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers at Heinz Field in a hard-hitting defensive battle, ending the Ravens' playoff run. John Harbaugh solidified himself as one of 12 first-year head coaches in the Super Bowl era to lead his team to the conference championship game.

The Ravens finished the season No. 2 in the NFL with 19 players on IR, the most in team history (at the time). According to Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News, Baltimore lost 64 games by starters.

Baltimore's defense concluded the 2008 season ranked No. 2 in the NFL. In addition to not allowing a 100-yard rusher for the second-straight season (an NFL-best 35 games dating back to 2006), it set three team records: opponent QB rating (60.6), rushing TDs allowed (4) and rushing first downs allowed (58). A league-high 9 INTs by S Ed Reed contributed to the team's NFL top-ranked status for INTs with 26.

2/8 - The Baltimore coaching staff led the AFC squad in the Pro Bowl. Five Ravens were voted into the All-Star game for the 2008 season, including ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (third), LB Ray Lewis (10th), FB Le'Ron McClain (first), S Ed Reed (fifth) and LB Terrell Suggs (third).

1/3 - To cap the 2009 regular season, the Ravens produced their sixth playoff team of the decade (2000-09), which ranked third best (tied with Pittsburgh) in the AFC behind Indianapolis (9) and New England (7).

With a 21-13 win at Oakland (1/3), John Harbaugh and Joe Flacco, who set the NFL record for most wins ever (13, including playoffs) by a rookie head coach starting a rookie QB in 2008, achieved the league mark for clinching the playoffs in their first two seasons by such a tandem.

Harbaugh also became the 10th coach since 1990 to reach the playoffs in his first two seasons as a head coach, while Flacco became the fourth starting QB since the 1970 merger to reach the playoffs in his first two NFL seasons.

The Ravens' "D" finished third in the NFL in total yards (300.5) and third in points allowed (16.3). It was the seventh-straight season Baltimore's defense finished in the NFL's top six.

For the first time in team history, Baltimore had a 3,000-yard passer (Joe Flacco - 3,613), a 1,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice - 1,339) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Derrick Mason - 1,028) in the same season.

1/10 - In the Wild Card game at New England, Baltimore beat the Patriots, 33-14, serving the team its first home playoff defeat since 1978. Baltimore snapped New England's 11-game home playoff winning streak and halted QB Tom Brady's 23-game overall winning streak at home.

The Ravens forced QB Tom Brady into four turnovers (3 INTs and a fumble), finishing the game with a +2 ratio. Baltimore scored 20 points off its 4 turnovers on the day.

Baltimore scored 33 points against the Patriots, the then-second most in Ravens playoff history (34 vs. NYG in Super Bowl XXXV). Twenty-four of the Ravens' points came in the first quarter, tying for the second-most points in the opening quarter of any playoff game in NFL history.

Ray Rice ran for a playoff franchise-record 159 yards and 2 TDs on 22 carries (7.2 avg.), spurring the Ravens' 234-yard rushing output (the then-most in team playoff history).

1/16 - Baltimore fell at Indianapolis in the Divisional game, 20-3. The Ravens held the Colts to 275 net yards (including just 42 rushing), but Baltimore's four turnovers proved too costly.

1/2 - To finish the 2010 season, Baltimore tied Pittsburgh for the best record in the division at 12-4, but lost the AFC North on the division-record tiebreaker (5-1 to 4-2). Baltimore, Indy (a then-NFL record nine in a row) and Philadelphia became the only teams to make the playoffs from 2008-10.

The 2010 campaign also marked the first time the Ravens ever clinched the postseason three years in a row.

This was the third year in a row – the best run in team history – that the Ravens finished third in the NFL in fewest points allowed (16.9 ppg). S Ed Reed missed the first six games of the season rehabbing a hip injury, and despite that, still led the NFL with 8 INTs and 183 INT return yards.

Joe Flacco became the third starting QB since the 1970 merger to make the playoffs in his first three seasons, joining Dan Marino and Bernie Kosar. Flacco posted a Ravens' then-season best 93.6 QB rating and established then-career highs with 3,622 yards and 25 TDs. RB Ray Rice posted 1,776 yards from scrimmage, third most in the NFL, while WR Derrick Mason became the third player in NFL annals to post 11 consecutive seasons with at least 60 catches (Jerry Rice and Tony Gonzalez).

1/9 - In the Wild Card game at Kansas City, the Ravens prevailed 30-7, becoming the only NFL team to win at least one playoff game in each of the last three seasons (2008-10). Harbaugh also became the first head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first three seasons (2008-10).

In the victory, the Ravens set then-franchise playoff single-game records for the following offensive marks: total net yards (390), first downs (26) and passing yards (248). Baltimore's stingy defense allowed just 161.0 yards of total offense. The Chiefs recorded just 53 net passing yards, which set a Ravens' postseason record.

Flacco set Ravens playoff records (since broken) with 25 completions, 265 yards passing and 2 TDs (on 34 attempts), also producing a then-franchise postseason-record 115.4 QB rating. He earned his fourth-career playoff win and tied Dan Marino for the most combined victories (36) by a QB in his first three seasons.

1/15 - After holding a 21-7 halftime lead, the Ravens fell at Pittsburgh in the Divisional Playoff, 31-24. OLB Terrell Suggs (10) became the Ravens' career postseason sacks leader with his 3-sack performance, and Baltimore's 6 total sacks on the night also set a team playoff record.

1/19 - Becoming the team's fifth defensive coordinator, Chuck Pagano was promoted from secondary coach after Greg Mattison left to coach at the University of Michigan.

1/30 - The Pro Bowl was played in Hawaii, with five Ravens earning 2010 All-Star honors: K Billy Cundiff (first), LB Ray Lewis (12th), DT Haloti Ngata (second), S Ed Reed (seventh) and OLB Terrell Suggs (fourth).

2/14 - Harbaugh and the Ravens agreed to a contract extension (with terms undisclosed).

3/4 - The NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement between the clubs and NFL Players Association, which was signed in March of 2006, expired.

3/11 - The NFL Players Association decertified, declaring itself out of the business of representing players. In exchange for giving up rights under union labor law, the players were able to take their chances in court under antitrust law.

3/12 - NFL owners lock out the players – creating the NFL's first work stoppage since 1987.

7/25 - Following an offseason that contained no minicamps, OTAs or workout programs due to the lockout, the NFL Players Association and the league's owners reached an agreement in principle on their 10-year labor deal, creating a new CBA. After a 31-0 vote by the owners to approve the deal on July 21 (the Oakland Raiders abstained), the NFLPA would later ratify the CBA on Aug. 5.

9/11 - Marking the 10th Anniversary of the Sept. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks, the Ravens honored all military and those whose lives have been lost in the home opener against Pittsburgh. Baltimore prevailed, 35-7, in a contest that saw the Ravens force a franchise-record 7 takeaways.

12/24 - With a 20-14 win vs. Cleveland, the Ravens went undefeated at M&T Bank Stadium, matching the Packers and Saints as the only teams to go undefeated at home in 2011. Following the victory, John Harbaugh dedicated the "game ball" to the team's fans for their support during the undefeated home campaign, which marked a franchise first.

WR Torrey Smith's game-winning TD catch at Pittsburgh helped the Ravens go 12-4 in 2011 and sweep the AFC North for the first time in team histor .

1/1 - After a 24-16 victory at Cincinnati, the Ravens became the only NFL team to earn a playoff berth the past four seasons (2008-11), also winning the AFC North by sweeping the division for the first time in franchise history.

The Ravens, producing a second-straight 12-4 campaign, went 6-0 against playoff teams during the regular season, matching Green Bay as the only clubs to go undefeated in division play and against other postseason qualifiers.

QB Joe Flacco, who started every game under head coach John Harbaugh, produced his 44th regular season win as a starter, marking the most ever (at the time) by an NFL QB in his initial four seasons (2008-11).

The Ravens, who finished No. 3 in the league in fewest points permitted (16.6 ppg) for the fourth-straight year, tied an NFL record for consecutive seasons of being in the Top

3 for points allowed. Overall, Baltimore's "D" ranked third in both yards allowed (288.9 ypg) and sacks (48).

Despite playing eight games against defenses ranked in the NFL's Top 8, the Ravens were 12th in scoring (23.6 ppg), seventh in third-down offense (42.4%) and 10th in rushing (124.8 ypg). RB Ray Rice produced a career-high and NFL-best 2,068 yards from scrimmage, ranking second in the league in rushing. Rice also set a team mark with 15 total TDs and was second in the NFL among RBs with a team-high 76 catches (704 receiving yards). Flacco produced his third-consecutive 3,500-yard/20-TD season and was 13 yards shy of his then-career high with 3,610 passing yards (3,622). WR Torrey Smith was third among NFL rookies with 841 receiving yards (50 catches); his receptions and yards, plus 7 TDs, set new Ravens first-year standards.

1/15 - Baltimore earned a 20-13 Divisional Round victory over Houston at home, helping John Harbaugh become the first head coach in NFL history (since the 1970 merger) to win a playoff game in each of his first four seasons (2008-11). The Ravens forced 4 turnovers against the Texans, and for the first time in team history (regular season or playoffs), Baltimore did not commit a single penalty.

1/22 - The Ravens' Super Bowl hopes came to a devastating end in New England with a 23-20 loss in the AFC Championship game. It came down to Baltimore's final drive in the fourth quarter, when the Ravens had a chance to win or tie the game. But, a QB Joe Flacco-to-WR Lee Evans pass fell incomplete, and K Billy Cundiff's last-second 32-yard FG attempt sailed wide left, sealing the victory for New England.

1/29 - Played in Hawaii to honor the NFL's 2011 Pro Bowlers, eight Ravens earned All-Star honors: LB Ray Lewis (13th), S Ed Reed (eighth), OLB Terrell Suggs (fifth), DT Haloti Ngata (third), FB Vonta Leach (second), RB Ray Rice (second), G Ben Grubbs (first) and G Marshal Yanda (first).

2/4 - OLB Terrell Suggs was named the 2011 Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year. It marked the fourth time in 12 seasons that a Raven had earned the prestigious honor: Suggs (2011), S Ed Reed (2004) and LB Ray Lewis (2003 & 2000). Additionally, C Matt Birk was named the 2011 NFL Walter Payton Man of the Year. The award recognizes a player's off-the-field community service as well as his playing excellence.

6/8 - The Ravens and Under Armour, whose global headquarters are located in downtown Baltimore, joined forces in a wide-ranging collaboration that features multiple community-focused initiatives. The 10-year agreement included naming rights for the team's practice facility in Owings Mills, which was renamed the Under Armour Performance Center.

9/6 - Art Modell, whose remarkable 43-year NFL career made him a regular finalist for the Pro Football Hall of Fame, died of natural causes at Johns Hopkins Hospital at the age of 87. As owner of both the Cleveland Browns (1961-1995) and the OLB Terrell Suggs was named the 2011 AP NFL Defensive Player of the Year.

Baltimore Ravens (1996-2003), Modell directed teams that produced 28 winning seasons, 28 playoff games, two NFL Championships (1964 and 2000), three other appearances in NFL title contests (1965, '68 and '69) and four visits (1986, '87, '89 and 2000) to AFC championships.

9/27 - RB Jamal Lewis, the Ravens' all-time leading rusher, was inducted into the team's Ring of Honor during halftime of the Ravens' 23-16 win over Cleveland on Thursday night.

12/26 - For their 2012 season efforts, six Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: S Ed Reed (ninth), DT Haloti Ngata (fourth), FB Vonta Leach (third), RB Ray Rice (third), G Marshal Yanda (second) and RS Jacoby Jones (first).

12/30 - The 2012 Ravens finished with a 10-6 record en route to earning their fifth-straight playoff berth and second-consecutive AFC North title. Under head coach John Harbaugh, Baltimore became the only NFL team to make the playoffs in each of the past five seasons (2008-12). The Ravens, who earned the playoffs in six of the past seven seasons, seized the franchise's fourth-ever division title with a 4-2 mark in AFC North play and an 8-4 conference record.

The Ravens set a then-single-season franchise record by scoring 398 points, averaging the NFL's 10th-most per game (24.9). Baltimore scored a team-record 254 points at home, producing the NFL's fourth-best home average of 31.8 ppg. Baltimore also surrendered just 16 give-aways, setting a then-franchise single-season record low.

The Ravens' special teams units were spectacular. In addition to posting a league-best (tied, Darius Reynaud) 3 kick return TDs (108- & 105-yard KORs and 63-yard PR), RS Jacoby Jones led the NFL in KOR average (30.7). Rookie K Justin Tucker made 30 of 33 FGAs (90.9%), producing the then-second-best success rate in Ravens single-season history and also the then-second-best mark by a rookie kicker in NFL history.

Harbaugh became just the third coach in NFL history (since 1970 merger) to guide his team to the postseason in each of his first five seasons (2008-12), joining Bill Cowher and Chuck Knox. "Harbs" also became the first head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons.

1/2 - LB Ray Lewis announced that he would retire at the end of the Ravens' playoff run, closing one of the greatest careers in NFL history. "I talked to my team today," Lewis said. "I talked to them about life in general. And everything that starts has an end. For me, today, I told my team that this will be my last ride."

1/6 - Before a sellout M&T Bank Stadium crowd that celebrated and saluted LB Ray Lewis in his final home game, the Ravens held the Colts without a touchdown, winning 24-9 in the 2012 Wild Card Playoff. Lewis, in his 17th and final season, finished with 13 tackles and 1 PD in his first game since tearing his triceps on Oct. 14.

1/12 - In what became the fourth-longest game in NFL history, the Ravens outlasted the Broncos, 38-35, in double overtime of the 2012 Divisional Playoff at Denver, producing a thrilling victory that will go down as one of the greatest wins in franchise history. Rookie K Justin Tucker's 47-yard field goal in the second overtime period sent Baltimore into the AFC Championship for the second-straight season. The Ravens tied the contest at 35 with :31 remaining in regulation on a remarkable QB Joe Flacco-to-WR Jacoby Jones 70-yard TD bomb, spurring the incredible comeback.

1/20 - The Ravens earned a trip to their second Super Bowl in franchise history, defeating the No. 2-seeded Patriots, 28-13, in the AFC Championship at New England. The Ravens' defense shut out the NFL's No. 1-ranked and highest-scoring offense in the second half, and QB Joe Flacco threw 3 TDs in leading Baltimore to victory.

2/1 - In a ceremony held in New Orleans two days before Super Bowl XLVII, Jonathan Ogden, an 11-time Pro Bowler and the Ravens' first-ever draft pick (fourth overall in 1996), was announced as a 2013 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee.

2/3 - For the first time in any of the four major pro sports, two head-coaching brothers (John and Jim Harbaugh) faced each other in a championship game. After taking an early 28-6 lead, the Baltimore Ravens needed a goal-line stand to clinch their second World Championship, defeating the San Francisco 49ers, 34-31, in Super Bowl XLVII in New Orleans, LA, at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. The Ravens' "D" delivered the critical stand late in the fourth quarter, overcoming a furious second-half comeback and a 34-minute power outage.

With a 3-TD performance vs. the 49ers, QB Joe Flacco threw 11 TD passes in the postseason, tying the NFL single-postseason record shared by Joe Montana (1989) and Kurt Warner (2008). Flacco and Montana did not throw an INT during those respective postseasons. Flacco finished the game 22-of-33 for 287 yards to produce a 124.2 rating.

In 2012, Flacco also became the first starting QB in NFL history (since 1970 merger) to make the playoffs in each of his first five seasons. Also winning at least one playoff game in each of those postseasons, he compiled nine playoff victories, which tie (Tom Brady) for the most among QBs in the first five seasons of a career.

The Ravens produced one of the most electrifying postseasons in NFL history. Averaging 410.3 yards of offense (134.8 rush & 275.5 pass), Baltimore scored 31.0 points per game while allowing just 22.0. WR Anquan Boldin recorded 22 catches for 380 yards and 4 TDs, while WR Jacoby Jones posted a 29.4 receiving average (5 for 147), catching TDs of 70 and 56 yards. (Jones also had a 108-yard KOR-TD in the Super Bowl.)

The Ravens' defense registered 10 takeaways (6 INTs and 4 FRs), helping produce a +6 overall turnover differential during their playoff run. The unit also posted 9 sacks in four playoff games, including 4.5 by OLB Paul Kruger.

2/5 - Baltimore celebrated the Ravens' Super Bowl XLVII Championship as thousands of fans lined the streets of Charm City and completely filled M&T Bank Stadium for a celebration. Fans also gathered at City Hall and cheered when the Ravens arrived to kick off the parade route with the franchise's second Lombardi Trophy.

6/5 - As guests of President Barack Obama, the Ravens visited The White House and were honored for winning Super Bowl XLVII. Said the President: "Now, I imagine there were times last year when these players were the only ones who knew that they'd make it here to show off this trophy. Because, during the year, they lost player after player to injury; they dropped four of their last five regular season games. In the playoffs, they trailed Denver by a touchdown with 70 yards and less than a minute to go. ... And then, in the Super Bowl, just when it looked like they had the momentum, the lights went out for a half hour. ... But these Ravens always pulled through."

8/3 - T Jonathan Ogden, an 11-time Pro Bowler and the Ravens' first-ever draft pick (fourth overall in 1996), was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame during a ceremony in Canton, OH. Ogden was presented by Ravens GM and executive VP Ozzie Newsome. Stated Ogden: "[The Ravens were] a new team, and we were new to the city [in 1996]. We were all rookies together. I watched us grow, myself as a player and the fans as an NFL city from infancy to one of – if not the best – football towns in the National Football League, with undoubtedly the best and most passionate fans that I've ever seen, and I want to thank you guys for being that."

9/22 - LB Ray Lewis, the Ravens' all-time leading tackler and second-ever draft choice, was inducted into the team's Ring of Honor during halftime of the 30-9 win over Houston.

12/8 - In a remarkable and most-memorable contest that set NFL records for the most points scored (36) in the last 2:05 of a game and most lead changes (six) in a fourth quarter, the Ravens found a way to beat the Vikings, 29-26. In the span of 121 seconds late in the game, 36 points were scored, including the winning TD by Baltimore with 4 seconds left. That score came when Joe Flacco, who led the game-winning, 5-play, 80-yard drive, hit rookie WR Marlon Brown with a 9-yard TD strike. This wild battle started with a near-blizzard snowfall that made it difficult for QBs to find receivers beyond the line of scrimmage.

12/27 - For their 2013 season production, four Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: DT Haloti Ngata (fifth), OLB Terrell Suggs (sixth), K Justin Tucker (first) and G Marshal Yanda (third).

12/29 - For the first time since 2008 – the year the Ravens hired John Harbaugh – Baltimore did not make the playoffs, coming one game short with an 8-8 mark and placing third in the AFC North after falling 34-17 in the finale at Cincinnati. Tied 17-17 near the end of the third quarter of the game, Baltimore needed only that win to clinch a postseason berth.

WR/RS Jacoby Jones posted a 108-yard KOR-TD to open the second half of Super Bowl XLVII. Jones also added a 56-yard TD catch during the game, helping set a Super Bowl single-game record for most combined yards (290).

1/27 - Gary Kubiak was hired as the team's offensive coordinator following the departure of Jim Caldwell, who was named Detroit's new head coach.

5/21 - M&T Bank and the Ravens announced a 10-year, $60 million extension of their partnership, which includes the continuation of naming rights to M&T Bank Stadium and an array of community-focused programs, including a new initiative focused on helping at-risk children in Baltimore.

10/12 - QB Joe Flacco became the fastest player in NFL history (since 1970 merger) to toss 5 TDs (16 minutes and 3 seconds into the game) in the 48-17 victory at Tampa Bay. The Ravens' offense gained 475 yards vs. the Bucs, with the 48 points scored marking the most in Ravens road game history.

10/19 - TE Todd Heap, the Ravens' all-time leader in receiving TDs (41), was inducted into the team's Ring of Honor during halftime of the 29-7 win over Atlanta.

12/23 - For their 2014 season production, four Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: OLB Elvis Dumervil (fourth), RB Justin Forsett (first, originally voted a first alternate), LB C.J. Mosley (first, becoming the first Ravens rookie to earn the distinction) and G Marshal Yanda (fourth).

12/28 - Beating the Browns 20-10, the Ravens produced a 10-6 regular season record en route to earning their sixth playoff berth in seven seasons. The Ravens set then-single-season franchise records by scoring 409 points (including a team-best 206 on the road) and producing 5,838 yards of offense. QB Joe Flacco posted career bests in yards (3,986) and touchdown passes (27). Baltimore tallied the NFL's second-most sacks (49, tied with Philadelphia) and boasted the No. 2 red zone defense (42.6), also allowing the league's sixth-fewest points per game (18.9). P Sam Koch produced the NFL's No. 3 gross average (47.4) and No. 1 net average (43.3), setting the Ravens' single-season records for each.

1/3 - Behind an offensive line that included two rookie starters (LT James Hurst and RG John Urschel), the Ravens won, 30-17, at the host Steelers in a Wild Card matchup, producing their NFL-best 10th playoff victory since 2008. Baltimore's defense was stout, holding Pittsburgh out of the end zone for three quarters and sacking QB Ben Roethlisberger five times. The win marked Baltimore's first-ever playoff triumph in the Steel City and gave the Ravens their 10th all-time postseason road victory, tying Green Bay (existing since 1919) for the most in pro football history.

1/10 - In a tense Divisional battle at New England, the Ravens' bid to play in their fourth AFC Championship game in seven seasons came to an abrupt end in Foxborough with a narrow 35-31 defeat to the Patriots. New England erased two 14-point Baltimore leads to win the contest, becoming the first team in NFL history to accomplish the feat.

1/20 - Marc Trestman was hired as the team's offensive coordinator following the departure of Gary Kubiak, who was named Denver's new head coach.

7/28 - Constellation and the Ravens announced an agreement to construct a 375-kilowatt (DC) solar generation project at the team's headquarters and training facility in Owings Mills...The roof-mounted solar power system expanded the current energy services relationship...Constellation owns and operates the solar power system, while the Ravens finance the electricity generated by the solar panels from Constellation under a 20-year power purchase agreement...The solar power system went into full operation on May 26, 2016.

8/5 - The Ravens announced fan experience and gameday enhancements at M&T Bank Stadium, including a $6.5 million investment in an expansive Wi-Fi system, a revolutionary 3-D video system called freeD that shows replays from every possible angle and new safety measures to ease entry into the stadium and ensure top-of-the-line security for everyone.

8/18-21 - Leading up to their second preseason game at Philadelphia, the Ravens traveled to the City of Brotherly Love for three days of practice at the NovaCare Center against the host Eagles.

9/13-10/26 - Starting with a season-opening loss at Denver, five of Baltimore's first seven games of the 2015 campaign were on the road, with the Ravens dropping close contests at the Broncos, at Oakland, at San Francisco and at Arizona...The last time an NFL team opened the season playing five of its first seven games on the road was in 2000...That team – 16 years prior – was the eventual Super Bowl XXXV-winning Ravens...Following the Sept. 13 game at Denver, the Ravens traveled to San Jose, CA, where they stayed and practiced for an entire week at San Jose State leading up to a Week 2 matchup with the Raiders in Oakland...Baltimore also held the Saturday pre-game walk-through at Stanford University.

11/22 - S Ed Reed, the Ravens' all-time leader in interceptions (61) and NFL's all-time record-holder in INT return yards (1,590), was inducted into the team's Ring of Honor during halftime of the 16-13 win over St. Louis.

12/22 - For their 2015 season production, four Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: LS Morgan Cox (first, who was selected in January as a "need" player), OLB Elvis Dumervil (fifth, who was added as an alternate in January), P Sam Koch (first) and G Marshal Yanda (fifth)...Each player represented the Ravens in Hawaii on Jan. 31, 2016.

Legendary safety Ed Reed, who ranks first in NFL history with 1,590 INT return yards, was inducted into the Ravens Ring of Honor in 2015.

1/3 - The Ravens concluded their 5-11 season with a 24-16 defeat at Cincinnati...Baltimore played an NFL-record 14 games decided by 8 points or fewer (tied, 1994 NYG) and posted a season-high (tied, Chi.) seven games decided by 3 points or fewer (4-3 record)...Baltimore had 20 players on Injured Reserve (the NFL's second most), including eight starters, with 12 starters missing a combined 71 games... Additionally, the Ravens played four different starting QBs (Joe Flacco, Matt Schaub, Jimmy Clausen & Ryan Mallett) for the first time in franchise history.

1/16 - Ted Marchibroda, former head coach of the Baltimore Colts and the first head coach in Baltimore Ravens history, passed away peacefully at his home in Virginia at the age of 84...Marchibroda spent 12 seasons as an NFL head coach, including time with the Baltimore Colts (1975-79), Indianapolis Colts (1992-95) and Baltimore Ravens (1996-98).

Stated Ravens GM Ozzie Newsome: "Ted is a founding father of the Ravens. He was a tremendous competitor and a tough man with a gentle soul. In a way, he set the Ravens' path. He wanted players who owned what he called 'a football temperament.' Those are players who love all aspects of the game – the mental part, lifting weights, practice and the physicality. That eventually became what we now call 'Playing Like a Raven.' Ted taught me more about football. He was classy in every way."

3/18 - CB Tray Walker, a 2015 fourth-round draft selection, passed away following a serious motorbike accident in Southeast Florida...Walker was involved in the accident on March 17...On March 26, approximately 45 members of the Ravens organization – teammates, coaches and front office staff – joined Walker's family and friends at the 93rd Street Community Baptist Church to celebrate his life.

Said John Harbaugh: "Tray was a young man with a good and kind heart. He was humble and loved everything about being part of the Ravens' team. He loved his teammates, the practice and the preparation, and that showed every day. He was coachable, did his most to improve and worked to become the best. I'll never forget that smile."

5/10 - For the first time since 2002, the Ravens returned to natural grass on the playing field of M&T Bank Stadium... Baltimore grounds crews removed the artificial Shaw Sports Turf in February and began laying sod in the stadium in early May.

"To me, [playing on grass is] Baltimore," John Harbaugh stated. "It epitomizes what Baltimore is all about, the history of football in Baltimore. A Baltimore football team should be playing on a grass field, ultimately. It's a recognition of that. I like the grass. I think it's the AFC North, it's the Baltimore Ravens – it just seems right."

9/17 - At the age of 65, Clarence Brooks, the Ravens' longest-tenured assistant coach, passed away at a hospital in Weston, Fla., following a battle with esophageal and stomach cancer...The beloved Brooks – referred to by most as "C.B." – originally joined the organization in 2005 and served 11 seasons as defensive line coach...The following day (9/18), Baltimore played at Cleveland and rallied from 20 points down to beat the Browns, 25-20.

11/6 - With the Ravens' 21-14 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers, head coach John Harbaugh (81) surpassed Brian Billick (80) for the most regular season wins by a head coach in team history.

11/10 - Baltimore debuted an all-purple uniform as part of the NFL's "Color Rush" game for the Week 10 matchup against the Cleveland Browns...The Ravens won, 28-7, in a game that was played on Thursday Night Football at M&T Bank Stadium...Unlike the purple jerseys the Ravens typically wear, the Color Rush uniforms (shown on WR Steve Smith Sr. below) displayed gold numbers and stripes on the pants.

WR Steve Smith Sr. seen above in the Ravens' all-purple "Color Rush" uniforms for the 11/10/16 game vs. Cleveland, which the Ravens won, 28-7.

12/20 - For their 2016 season production, seven Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: LS Morgan Cox (second, who was selected in January as a "need" player), FB Kyle Juszczyk (first), LB C.J. Mosley (second), K Justin Tucker (second), S Eric Weddle (fourth, who was added as an alternate in January), G Marshal Yanda (sixth) and C Jeremy Zuttah (first, who was added as an alternate in January)...These players represented the Ravens in Orlando on Jan. 29, 2017.

1/1 - For the 12th time in the past 14 seasons, the Ravens boasted a Top 10 defense and became one of three teams – Den. & Sea. – to finish ranked in the NFL's Top 10 in each of the past three years (2014-16)...The Ravens' defense ranked seventh overall (322.1 ypg) after the team played its final game of the season at Cincinnati (27-10 defeat) on New Year's Day.

Additionally, WR Steve Smith Sr. played in the final game of his storied 16-year NFL career, capping one of the greatest runs by a receiver in league history...Smith Sr. finished with the seventh-most receiving yards (14,731) in NFL history and with 1,031 receptions (12th in league annals).

Producing arguably the best season ever by a kicker, All-Pro K Justin Tucker connected on 38 of 39 FGAs (lone miss was a block), posting the then-fifth-best percentage in NFL single-season history...In addition to making 35-straight FGs at one point (tied for the fifth-best streak ever at the time), Tucker's 38 FGs ranked No. 1 in the league, while an NFL single-season record 24 of his 38 FGs came from 40 yards or beyond.

1/13 - David Modell, the son of Art, passed away after battling cancer for almost two years. Modell, 55, served as president of the Ravens from the team's beginning in 1996 through the Super Bowl XXXV championship in 2000 and continued in that capacity until 2004. From the selection of the team name and colors, to the move to M&T Bank Stadium in 1998, to the hiring of Brian Billick, David coordinated the efforts as team president. His fingerprints are still present on many of what have become Ravens favorites and traditions.
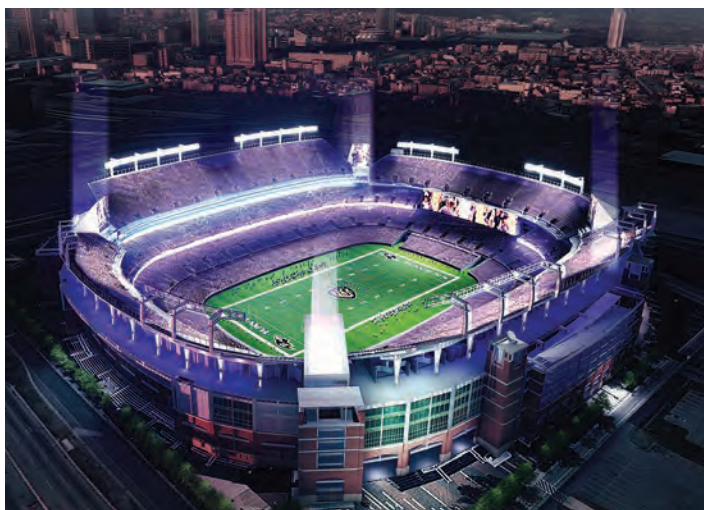

In January of 2017, the Ravens announced a three-year, $120 million self-funded investment that will enhance the fan experience at M&T Bank Stadium, including the addition of new 4K ultra-high definition video displays.

1/31 - The Ravens announced a three-year, approximately $120 million self-funded investment that enhanced the fan experience at M&T Bank Stadium...Improvements included new 4K ultra-high definition video displays, escalators and elevators to the upper deck, a new sound system, upgraded kitchen facilities and club level enhancements...In January, the Ravens also launched a $45 million construction project to upgrade their Owings Mills training facility (the Under Armour Performance Center).

JULY/AUG. - Due to renovations and construction at the Under Armour Performance Center, for just the second time in team history, the Ravens did not have fans attend training camp...The other occurrence came in 2011 following the NFL lockout...However, Baltimore still held three free and open stadium practices for fans to attend in 2017 (two at M&T Bank Stadium and one at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium in Annapolis).

9/23 - The Ravens, playing in their first-ever international game, lost, 44-7, to the Jaguars in front of 84,592 fans at London's Wembley Stadium...It marked the third-largest crowd to ever watch a Ravens' game.

10/26 - In front of a national audience on Thursday Night Football, the Ravens notched the franchise's 200th victory (regular season & playoffs combined) with a dominating 40-0 performance vs. Miami at M&T Bank Stadium.

11/19 - Baltimore posted its third shutout of the season and first-ever win at historic Lambeau Field by defeating the Packers, 23-0...The Ravens became the first team to register three shutouts in a single season since the 2003 Patriots and recorded their 13th overall in franchise history (most in the NFL, tied with NE, since their 1996 inception).

12/19 - For their 2017 season production, three Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: LB C.J. Mosley (third), OLB Terrell Suggs (seventh) and S Eric Weddle (fifth)...These players represented the Ravens in Orlando on Jan. 28, 2018.

12/31 - Winning six of its last nine games, Baltimore finished second in the AFC North with a 9-7 record in 2017, falling one game short of earning a playoff berth (lost on tiebreaker) for the seventh time in John Harbaugh's 10-year tenure.

All the Ravens needed to make the 2017 playoffs was a home win over Cincinnati in Week 17 (Dec. 31)...However, Baltimore's hopes were dashed when the Bengals produced a 49-yard touchdown pass on fourth-and-12 with just 44 seconds remaining to earn a hard-fought, 31-27 victory that closed out the Ravens' season in heartbreaking fashion.

The Ravens produced NFL bests in INTs (22), takeaways (34) and shutouts (3 – the most in a season since the 2003 Patriots)...Baltimore's +17 turnover differential ranked No. 1 in the NFL, while its defensive passer rating (72.4) and 5 defensive TDs (tied with Det. & Phi.) were each second best.

Over the season's last nine games, Baltimore scored the NFL's second-most points per contest (29.4)...During this span, the Ravens also ranked No. 1 in fewest giveaways (5) and No. 2 in sacks allowed (10).

Football Outsiders tabbed Baltimore's special teams as the NFL's No. 1 overall unit in 2017...The Ravens' ranking was the NFL's eighth highest in a season since 1986...In the annual ST report from senior writer Rick Gosselin, Baltimore finished No. 4 and has ranked in the Top 5 for six-straight seasons.

1/9 - Don "Wink" Martindale was hired as the Ravens' new defensive coordinator following the retirement of Dean Pees.

1/21 - Ravens TE Benjamin Watson, Panthers TE Greg Olsen and Texans DE J.J. Watt were named the three finalists for the prestigious 2017 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award. (Watt was eventually named the winner on Feb. 3.)

2/3 - In a ceremony held in Minneapolis the night before Super Bowl LII, Ray Lewis, a 13-time Pro Bowler and the Ravens' second-ever draft pick (26th overall in 1996), was announced as a 2018 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee.

2/13 - It was announced that the Ravens and Bears would play on Aug. 2 in the annual Hall of Fame Game to kick off the 2018 Pro Football Hall of Fame Enshrinement Week in Canton, OH.

5/17 - The Ravens introduced their new Flock Friendly Fare, dramatically reducing pricing on gameday concessions to further enhance the fan experience at M&T Bank Stadium.

In total, 21 of the most popular menu items were reduced, creating up to 53 percent savings on a single item and a 33 percent average price reduction.

"We constantly ask our fans for feedback, and the price of concessions has regularly been discussed," Ravens president Dick Cass stated. "We listened, and we have made adjustments. This price reduction, along with the $120 million we've invested in stadium enhancements over the last three years, will make our gameday experience better."

Of all the items receiving reductions, 12 included food options, while nine beverage items reduced in cost. The menu also included a $5 domestic beer (12 ounces) option for the first time ever.

7/12 - The Ravens announced an enhanced ticketing process, providing fans a simple, smart and secure way to enter games at M&T Bank Stadium...Beginning in 2018, traditional paper tickets were no longer used. Instead, the following two options were implemented:

Ravens season ticket holders received a PSL Owner Season Ticket card – much like a credit card – to enter the stadium. Or, fans could now access tickets via their smartphone by using the Ravens Mobile App.

8/2 - For the first time in team history, the Ravens played in the annual Pro Football Hall of Fame game in Canton, OH... Baltimore bested the Bears, 17-16, just two nights prior to LB Ray Lewis' Hall of Fame induction.

8/4 - LB Ray Lewis, a 13-time Pro Bowler and the Ravens' second-ever draft pick (26th overall in 1996), was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame during a ceremony in Canton, OH. Lewis was presented by his daughter, Diaymon.

Stated Ravens longtime GM/EVP Ozzie Newsome, who drafted Lewis in 1996: "For 17 years, we could point to No. 52 and tell the other players: 'Follow his lead. Practice like Ray practices. Prepare like Ray prepares. Be a great teammate like him.' It was our privilege to have him as a Raven. We are all better for having him here. His play on gamedays speaks for itself. Even in that small group who have the honor of being a Hall of Famer, Ray stands out. When you talk about the great players of all time, no matter position, he is among the greatest of the great."

8/6-9 - Prior to their second preseason game vs. the Rams, Baltimore hosted Los Angeles for several joint practices at the Under Armour Performance Center.

8/17-20 - Leading up to their third preseason game at Indy, the Ravens traveled to the Hoosier State for three days of practice at Grand Park Sports Campus in Westfield, IN.

10/14 - The Ravens dominated the Titans in a 21-0 shutout at Nissan Stadium...Baltimore's "D," under first-year coordinator Don Martindale, set a team record with 11 sacks...Tennessee produced just 106 total yards, marking the second fewest ever allowed by a Ravens' defense (this figure included 51 net passing yards, which set a new single-game Baltimore record at the time)...Baltimore also became the first team since the 1934 Lions to not allow a TD after halftime in each of its first six games of a season.

Baltimore produced a franchise-record 11 sacks during a 21-0 shutout of the Titans in Tennessee (Oct. 14).

11/18 - In a 24-21 home win over Cincinnati, Baltimore produced the then-fifth-most rushing yards (267, tied) in franchise history....Rookies QB Lamar Jackson (117) and RB Gus Edwards (115) each rushed for over 100 yards, marking the first time in NFL history that a team had a rookie QB & RB each surpass 100 rushing yards in a game (Jackson's 117 also stand as the most in league history by a QB in his starting debut)...Filling in for injured Joe Flacco (hip), Jackson completed 13 of 19 passes for 150 yards, 0 TDs and 1 INT.

12/12 - The Ravens announced a series of significant projects that, beginning in 2024, enhance the gameday and year-round fan experience at M&T Bank Stadium...The stadium enhancements provide opportunities for fans to enjoy new experiences on gameday, while also enriching elements that are currently enjoyed...In addition to substantial developments on the exterior plaza areas, every level of the venue receives renovations – thus completely transforming the stadium experience for all.

12/17 - DT Justin Madubuike posted a strip-sack and team-best 4 QBHs in the, 23-7, playoff-clinching win at Jacksonville, tying DE Trey Hendrickson (2021) and DT Chris Jones (2018) for the longest single-season streak of consecutive games (11) with at least a half-sack in NFL history.

12/31 - QB Lamar Jackson completed 18-of-21 passes for 321 yards and 5 TDs (158.3 rating) in the 56-19, No. 1 seed-clinching win vs. Miami…Jackson tied (QBs Tom Brady, Peyton Manning, Ben Roethlisberger, & Kurt Warner) for the most games (three) with a perfect passer rating (min. 15 pass attempts) in NFL history…Jackson also surpassed 800 rushing yards in a season for the third time (also 2019-20) in his career, breaking Michael Vick's record (two) for the most such seasons reaching that mark by a QB in NFL history.

1/3 - An AFC-high seven Baltimore Ravens were voted to the Pro Bowl for their standout performances during the 2023 season…S Kyle Hamilton (first), ILB Roquan Smith (second) and K Justin Tucker (seventh) were named AFC starters, while QB Lamar Jackson (third), C Tyler Linderbaum (first), DT Justin Madubuike (first) and ILB Patrick Queen (first) were also selected to represent the conference's All-Star squad…G Kevin Zeitler (first) was later named a replacement.

1/6 - Producing the NFL's best regular season record (13-4), the 2023 AFC North Champion Ravens earned a No. 1 playoff seed for the second time (also 2019) in franchise history.

Baltimore became the first team in league history to finish a season ranking No. 1 in points allowed (16.5 ppg), sacks (60) and takeaways (31, tied w/ NYG).

Baltimore also ranked No. 4 in scoring (28.4 ppg) and No. 6 in total yards (370.4), averaging a NFL-high 156.5 rushing ypg.

1/28 - The Ravens hosted their first AFC Championship in franchise history, falling to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Chiefs, 17-10…It also marked the first conference championship played in Baltimore since the Colts hosted the Raiders on 1/3/71.

2/1 - Zach Orr was named Baltimore's defensive coordinator following Mike Macdonald's hiring as head coach in Seattle…Orr played linebacker for the Ravens (2014-16) and transitioned to coaching in 2017 after his career was cut short due to a congenital neck/spine condition…Prior to becoming D.C., Orr served as Baltimore's inside linebackers coach for two seasons (2022-23).

2/8 - QB Lamar Jackson was named league MVP for the second time (also 2019) in his career after becoming the first QB in NFL history with multiple seasons (also 2019 MVP campaign) reaching the incredible 3,000 passing/800 rushing milestone…Jackson became the 11th player in NFL history to win multiple MVP honors, joining Peyton Manning (five), Aaron Rodgers (four), Tom Brady (three), Jim Brown (three), Brett Favre (three), Johnny Unitas (three), Patrick Mahomes (two), Joe Montana (two), Kurt Warner (two) & Steve Young (two)…Only Jackson, Mahomes, Favre & Brown have been named league MVP multiple times at age 27 or younger.

3/8 - The Ravens agreed to terms on a four-year contract extension with DT Justin Madubuike…Madubuike started all 17 games for Baltimore in 2023, producing career bests in tackles (56), sacks (13), tackles for loss (12), quarterback hits (33) and forced fumbles (two), en route to earning his first Pro Bowl nod and second-team All-Pro honors.

3/13 - The Ravens agreed to terms on a two-year deal with four-time Pro Bowler and 2020 Offensive Player of the Year RB Derrick Henry.

RB Derrick Henry signed with the Ravens after rushing for 1,167 yards and 12 TDs on 280 carries (4.1 avg.), en route to his fourth-career Pro Bowl in 2023.

3/19 - The Ravens extended their current TV and radio agreements with Hearst Television's WBAL-TV, WBAL NewsRadio 1090 AM/101.5 FM and 98Rock (WIYY 97.9 and 97.9 HD 2)…The properties will remain the official broadcast partners for the Baltimore Ravens through the 2030 season.

4/5 - The Ravens and Orioles joined forces to donate $10 million to the Baltimore Community Foundation's Key Bridge Emergency Fund, with each organization contributing $5 million, respectively.

4/18 - The Ravens announced plans to launch the Baltimore Ravens College Track Center, targeted to open in the fall of 2025…The new academic center helps Baltimore City Public School students advance through high school, college and into the workforce.

4/22 - The Ravens and Under Armour partnered with Baltimore City Public Schools (City Schools), Montgomery County Public Schools (MCPS) and Washington County Public Schools (WCPS) to provide grant funding and uniforms for the development of high school girls' flag football programs in the fall of 2024…It follows a successful year of girls' flag football in Frederick County Public Schools (FCPS), growing the programs statewide from 10 schools in 2023 to 51 in 2024.

4/30 - As part of their ongoing efforts to ensure M&T Bank Stadium remains a world-class NFL and entertainment venue, the Ravens announced the introduction of new permanent seat licensed (PSL) field-level seats, beginning in 2024.

6/6 - Boys & Girls Clubs of Metropolitan Baltimore officially broke ground on the Baltimore Ravens Boys & Girls Club at Hilton Recreation Center…The project turns the once vacant West Baltimore Hilton Recreation Center into a 30,000 square foot beacon of hope, energy and impact, reaching more than 2,000 kids and teens…It is expected to open in the fall of 2025.

6/20 - The Ravens and Fanatics, a global digital sports platform and leading provider of licensed sports merchandise, announced a long-term extension and expansion of their existing partnership…A cornerstone of this new deal is a significant capital investment to enhance and innovate the overall retail footprint in and around M&T Bank Stadium for fans shopping on gamedays and beyond.

DRAFTED: 1996, 26th Overall: Ravens Second-Ever Draft Choice

CAREER SNAPSHOT

Ray Lewis, a 2018 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee and 13-time Pro Bowler, was the Ravens' second-ever draft choice (26th overall in 1996). Lewis helped guide the Ravens to two Super Bowl titles during his career, capturing the Lombardi Trophy in 2000 and 2012.

Following the 2012 campaign, Lewis, who will be forever known as the greatest linebacker of his generation and one of the best defensive players in NFL history, retired after 17 seasons. Here is a brief look at his storied pro career:

- In 2000, Lewis led a defense that established a 16-game single-season record for fewest points (165) and fewest rushing yards allowed (970), recorded four shutouts (one shy of the post-1970 merger record), and finished first league-wide in six key defensive categories.
- Was the second player in NFL history to win both NFL Defensive Player of the Year and Super Bowl MVP awards (2000)...DT Harvey Martin of Dallas won Defensive Player of the Year in 1977 and was co-MVP of Super Bowl XXII with DT Randy White.
- Is the only player in NFL history with at least 40 career sacks and 30 career INTs (41.5 sacks and 31 INTs).
- Posted a franchise-record 2,643 career tackles, including a single-season team-best 225 stops in 2003.
- Led the Ravens in tackles in 14 of his 17 seasons, registering at least 150 stops 11 times.
- Returned 3 of his 31 INTs for TDs.
- Had a team-record and career-high 25 tackles at NYG (9/14/97).
- Posted seven career 20-tackle games.
- Is second only to Jack Ham (53) in takeaways by a LB in NFL history with 50 total (31 INTs and 19 FRs).

PERENNIAL PRO BOWLER

WALTER PAYTON MAN OF THE YEAR

The Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award recognizes an NFL player for his excellence on and off the field. The award was established in 1970 and then renamed in 1999 after the late Hall of Fame Chicago Bears running back, Walter Payton. Each team nominates one player who has had a significant positive impact on his community. In 2011, Ravens C Matt Birk (left) won the prestigious NFL honor.

Note: The all-time alphabetical roster lists the last-known in-season jersey number worn by a player. The roster includes every year a player was on the team, whether active, IR or PUP list. Additionally, if a player was on the Ravens' 53-man roster at any time, he appears. (However, the roster does not include players who solely spent time on the practice squad or in training camp.)

The all-time numerical roster on the following pages lists all of the jersey numbers worn by a Raven in a game. An example would be NT Kelly Gregg, who wore both 73 and 97 jerseys.

Shutout Fast Fact:
- The Ravens have posted the NFL's second-most shutouts (14) since their 1996 inception, trailing only the Patriots (15). This mark includes four opponent "blankings" in 2000 and three in 2017. Baltimore's four shutouts in 2000 are the most since the 1976 Steelers produced an NFL-record five such performances. No team since the 2017 Ravens has produced more than two shutouts in a single season.

2024 PRIMETIME NOTES

- The Ravens are scheduled to play five primetime games (Thursday at Kansas City, Sunday vs. Buffalo, Monday at Tampa Bay, Thursday vs. Cincinnati & Monday at Los Angeles Chargers) in 2024, tying (2011 & 2021) for the most in franchise history.

- Baltimore's primetime slate begins with the NFL's season-opening kickoff at Kansas City – featuring QB Lamar Jackson (2019 & 2023) and QB Patrick Mahomes (2018 & 2022) – marking the first time in NFL history that multiple-time league MVPs will square off in Week 1.

- Under John Harbaugh (since 2008), the Ravens are a league-best 39-17 (.696) in primetime games (entering 2024). Their 20-3 (.870) mark at home in primetime also ranks No. 1 since 2008, while Baltimore's 19-14 (.576) record on the road in primetime stands fourth.

- Entering 2024, QB Lamar Jackson has led the Ravens to a 16-4 record when starting behind center in primetime. His .800 winning percentage as a starter in primetime contests ranks No. 1 among active quarterbacks.

PRESEASON FAST FACTS

- The Ravens are 71-34 all time in preseason play, posting a 44-14 preseason record under head coach John Harbaugh (2008-23).

- The Ravens were victorious in 24 straight preseason contests from 2015-23, surpassing Vince Lombardi's 1959-1962 Green Bay Packers' previous record of 19 straight preseason wins.

- Baltimore outscored its opponent 561-280 (+281) during the streak, winning the turnover battle 41-25 (+16).

- During the streak, 14 QBs threw passes for Baltimore, while 43 different Ravens reached the end zone.

ATTENDANCE RECORDS

The Ravens played in Memorial Stadium from 1996-97 and PSINet Stadium from 1998-2001. In 2002, the facility was known as Ravens Stadium. In 2003, the stadium was re-named M&T Bank Stadium. Capacity was increased in 2007 to 71,008 from previous marks of 70,107 and 69,084. In 2018, with the addition of the Bud Light Touchdown Club, official capacity was reduced to 70,705. Capacity now stands at 70,765.

GAMEDAY

M&T BANK STADIUM

M&T Bank Stadium is where NFL excitement begins any given gameday. And that's because Baltimore Ravens home games and M&T Bank Stadium have become synonymous with winning.

Since earning their first Super Bowl title in 2000, the Ravens have posted an impressive home record of 139-55, marking the NFL's third-best winning percentage (.716).

Located at the south point of Camden Yards, M&T Bank Stadium stands as a premier NFL sports facility and world-class entertainment venue. Fans – proud of their Baltimore heritage – enjoy the latest technology, including stunning 4K ultra-high definition displays on the RavensVision video boards, a high-density Wi-Fi network, state-of-the-art concourse designs and LED Sports Lights. Combined with these exclusive amenities, the game's excitement gives fans, friends and families an opportunity to enjoy the day together. With a capacity of 70,765, this impressive structure draws its distinctive design from the best of Baltimore's architecture.

Originally built in 1998 at a cost of $220 million, the stadium has 132 suites and 8,196 club seats. HOK architects designed both Oriole Park at Camden Yards and the Ravens' home. The latter was completed in less than two years and funded through a combination of proceeds generated from debt service paid by lottery proceeds, the sale of tax-exempt revenue bonds and the Ravens.

M&T BANK STADIUM ENHANCEMENTS

In December 2023, the Baltimore Ravens announced "The Next Evolution," a three-year (2024-26) transformative renovation project at M&T Bank Stadium. These upgrades will enhance the gameday experience and provide year-round offerings for all fans, ensuring "The Bank" as one of the top sports and entertainment venues in the world.

In 2019, the Ravens completed self-funded enhancements to the fan experience at M&T Bank Stadium. Demonstrating a continued commitment to create an exceptional gameday atmosphere, the improvements included new 4K ultra-high definition video displays, escalators and elevators to the upper deck, a new sound system, upgraded kitchen facilities, a redesigned club level, updated suites and LED Sports Lights.

In 2015, the Ravens completed a two-year series of projects to upgrade Wi-Fi capabilities, replay technology, LED video displays, concession stands, concourses and security measures.
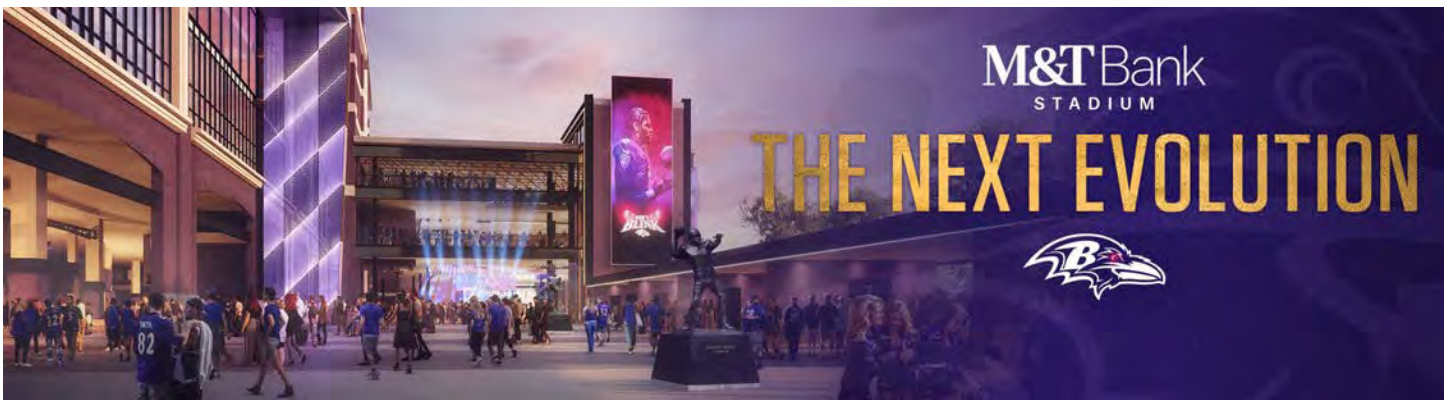

2024-26 PROJECTS: "THE NEXT EVOLUTION"

In addition to substantial developments on the exterior plazas, every level of the venue has undergone or will undergo renovations – thus completely transforming the stadium experience for all and ensuring that M&T Bank Stadium remains a world-class NFL and entertainment venue well into the future.

Learn more about each of the projects below:

The Gatehouse: A gateway to M&T Bank Stadium, the Gatehouse offers two levels of social space for fans to experience before, during and after every home game.

(Completion: 2024)

The Blackwing: Guests of M&T Bank Stadium will soon enjoy the best game-action view in the building from the most luxurious accommodations available.

(Completion: 2024)

North Plaza: Serving as the Grand Entrance to M&T Bank Stadium, the revitalized North Plaza will feature two large structures flanking the gates.

(Scheduled Completion: 2025)

Upper Concourse: Concourses on the Upper Level of M&T Bank Stadium will expand in multiple areas, providing fans in "The Perch" additional space.

(Scheduled Completion: 2025)

Field Seats: Field Seat PSLs at M&T Bank Stadium offer a novel experience and point of view that only a select few season ticket holders can have on gameday.

(Scheduled Completion: 2024)

South Club: An ultra-premium field-level club with unique team access, the South Club will offer a lounge-like atmosphere to South Club seat holders, as well as individual and corporate members.

(Scheduled Completion: 2025)

North Club: This elevated club experience at field level offers guests, both with seats and memberships, convenient access from the main concourse.

(Scheduled Completion: 2025)

West End Zone Club: This field-level space offers a new club experience to fans who want to add a premium option to their gameday through an End Zone Club membership.

(Scheduled Completion: 2025)

West End Zone Suites: Suite holders can take in the game from two rows of seating directly on the field in the west end zone of M&T Bank Stadium.

M&T BANK STADIUM

2017-19 PROJECTS: PHASE ONE

Phase One of the the M&T Bank Stadium enhancements project was completed prior to the 2017 season. These improvements included the following:

RavensVision: Two dramatic, 4K ultra-high definition video displays doubled the width of the stadium's previous standard HD boards. The new boards, measuring approximately 200 feet wide and 36 feet high, feature one of the highest resolution and clearest picture of any stadium video display in the United States.

Ribbon Displays: The addition of four LED ribbon boards on the Club Level and Suite Level fascia measured a combined 2,373 feet with almost three times the pixel resolution over the previous ribbon boards.

Production Technology: The Ravens expanded the audio/video control room and installed 4K cameras, lenses and control equipment. An investment was also made in 11 manned cameras and additional robotic cameras. The Ravens also became the first team to have a permanently installed SkyCam.

2017-19 PROJECTS: PHASES TWO & THREE

Phases Two and Three of the M&T Bank Stadium enhancements project were completed prior to the 2019 season. These improvements included the following:

Escalators & Elevators: Escalators and elevators to the 500 level were installed to improve crowd flow and ensure convenience for fans accessing seats in the upper level.

Suites & Video Boards: New suites were built into each open notch of the stadium's upper bowl. Large 4K ultra-high definition video boards, measuring approximately 33 feet wide and 44 feet high, were installed atop each of the four suites, providing fans with additional in-game content, NFL highlights/scores, statistics and fantasy information.

Club Level: All concessions stands and bar/lounge areas on the stadium's club level received upgrades. These developments enhanced the area's general design/comfort, audio/visual capabilities, quality of service and food options.

Kitchen Facilities: The stadium underwent kitchen renovations to include new equipment, improving the quality of food and providing more options at concessions stands throughout the entire venue.

Sound System: A new sound system in the seating bowl was installed prior to the start of the 2018 NFL season.

LED Sports Lights: The top of the stadium was furnished with LED Sports Lights, providing more energy efficiency and the capability to instantly switch between on and off.

2013-15 PROJECTS

As part of a two-year investment in 2013, the Ravens began a series of projects to upgrade Wi-Fi capabilities, replay technology, LED video displays, concession stands, concourses and security measures.

Wi-Fi: In 2015, the Ravens installed Wi-Fi access for fans at M&T Bank Stadium. Almost 800 access points and antennas, both inside and outside the venue, were added.

The Wi-Fi at M&T Bank Stadium is presented by Verizon.

Replay Systems: In 2015, the Ravens installed the capability to show 360-degree replays with a newly-implemented and upgraded Intel freeD system. By using 38 cameras placed around the stadium, fans can view angles of action previously impossible to see. The Ravens were the first NFL franchise capable of providing 360-degree shots. The technology won a Sports Emmy Award for best in Technical Achievement from Super Bowl 50.

Video Boards: Two LED high-definition video boards, measuring more than 8 feet high and 30 feet wide, were installed at the concourse entrances of gates A and D. (Approximately 60 percent of fans enter gate A for all stadium events.) The high-definition boards have split-screen capabilities and display a variety of content, ranging from in-game action, highlights, NFL scores, stats, welcome messaging and video.

Four new LED boards, measuring 18 feet high and 18 feet wide, were installed on the sides of the two HD video boards in the stadium's inner bowl. Another four large LED screens, each measuring 6 feet tall and 22 feet wide, were added to the upper level concourse.

Additionally, four new LED ribbon boards were installed to connect fully around the entire middle seating bowl. The east/west board measures 2.5 feet high and 96 feet wide, while the north and south boards are each 3.5 feet high and over 650 feet long

Concessions: Concession stands were upgraded with all new equipment to provide quicker service, higher-quality foods and expanded selections displayed on digital menu boards.

Additionally, 34 points of sale were added to speed up the checkout process, allowing fans to return to their seats in a more timely manner.

Concourses: In 2013 and 2014, all concourses were redesigned with a "Ravenized" theme, influenced by the brick and steel look of M&T Bank Stadium's exterior and buildings on the Camden Yards complex. These features include support columns wrapped in brick, purple accent lighting and enhanced directional signage throughout each of the venue's concourses.

RAVENSVISION BOARDS

• In 2017, the Ravens made an investment to create a more immersive gameday experience for their fans. Designed and created by Prismview, a Samsung Electronics Company, the RavensVision ultra-HD 4K video screens each measure 36 feet high and 201 feet wide. Each display is the equivalent of a 2,448-inch flat panel television. It would take over 1,000 40-inch flat screen TVs to equal one of these giant LED (light emitting diode) displays. Each display has extreme contrast face plastics combined with over 6 million individual LED pixels providing brilliant images in bright sunlight and during night events.

• The high definition resolution allows for some of the best graphics and game action video in the league, live game highlights from around the NFL, instant replays, scores, statistics, plus player updates and features.

• The two giant screens are made up of modular LED panels – 13 inches wide by 6.5 inches tall. Each of these premium LED modules contain 512 pixels, spaced only 10mm - 0.39" - apart. Due to the massive size of these displays, these panels were assembled from 50 sections. Each display weighs in at an amazing 76,500 pounds.

SEATING

• At 1.6 million square feet and with a seating capacity of 70,765, the stadium is substantially larger than Oriole Park at Camden Yards to the north.

• ADA seating is located on every level.

• The 8,196 club seats at M&T Bank Stadium offer extra-wide comfort, plus VIP parking, access to the club lounges serving specialty foods, fully-staffed bars, concierge services and scenic views of downtown Baltimore.

• Each of the stadium's 132 suites feature upscale lounge furniture, a private kitchen, high-definition TVs, Wi-Fi, a private restroom, VIP parking and personal catering. Many other exclusive amenities and events are also available to suite owners.

TRANSPORTATION, PARKING & TAILGATING

• Located at 1101 Russell Street, M&T Bank Stadium is surrounded on all sides by the following elevated roadways: I-95 and the Hamburg St. bridge to the north; I-95 and I-395 (plus Light Rail line) to the east; the Ostend St. bridge to the south; and the Russell St. viaduct to the west.

• Fans can easily access the stadium using mass transit. The Light Rail has a drop-off point located directly outside Gate B and the transit system has stops within walking distance.

• Parking in stadium lots is limited to permit holders, but downtown garages are available for gameday parking, just a short walk away. Parking in offsite lots can be reserved in advance with SpotHero at www.baltimoreravens.com/stadium/directions-parking.

• Suggested areas for exiting guests to possibly pick up a rideshare provider include north of the stadium (past Oriole Park), south of the stadium (Horseshoe Casino) and east of the stadium (Federal Hill). For more information, visit: www.baltimoreravens.com/stadium/rideshare.

• Tailgating is welcomed in select lots at M&T Bank Stadium. For complete Tailgate Lot information, call the Ravens' Ticket Office at (410) 261-7283.

STATUES

• In October 2002, after the passing of iconic QB Johnny Unitas, the Ravens erected a statue (left) of the Colts' legend outside Gate A. The piece was sculpted by local artist Frederick Kail, who was commissioned by a grassroots group that included donations from the Steve Bisciotti family, the Art Modell family, the Baltimore Orioles and numerous others. One of the signature elements of the bronze work is the famous black high tops – John's favorite football shoe. Many Ravens fans touch the left shoe of the statue for good luck prior to every game.

• In 2014, the Ravens unveiled in this plaza area a second statue (left) – one of former LB Ray Lewis, another Baltimore icon and perhaps the greatest defender in NFL history. Original PSL season ticket holders also have the opportunity to locate their names etched in one of two PSL Walls of Honor. These names are a tribute to the great Ravens football fans who have supported the team that has brought Baltimore and Maryland two Super Bowl Championships (2000 and 2012).

RENEWED LEASE

The Ravens renewed their lease at M&T Bank Stadium on Jan. 4, 2023, keeping them in Baltimore playing home games at "The Bank" through at least the end of the 2037 NFL season. The agreement between the Ravens and Maryland Stadium Authority, providing opportunities to expand the economic impact of games and other year-round activities at the stadium, was presented to the Maryland Board of Public Works and received unanimous approval. The deal also includes two five-year options to extend the lease beyond 2037. Through funds from state-issued bonds, the lease agreement paves the way for significant M&T Bank Stadium enhancement projects over the next several years.

M&T BANK STADIUM NAMING RIGHTS

On April 20, 2023, M&T Bank and the Ravens announced an extension to their strategic partnership for another 10 years beyond the current contract that was set to expire after the 2027 season. The latest agreement, which comes almost 20 years to the day after the organizations originally entered a partnership, extends their collaborate efforts through 2037.

Just like the initial agreement in 2003 and extension in 2014, the latest deal ensures a partnership that reaches far beyond putting the bank's name on the stadium. It includes an array of joint community-focused programs and additional investments to provide financial literacy education to Greater Baltimore students.

"When I first met [former M&T regional president] Bob Sadler in 2003, it quickly became apparent that M&T Bank is a special organization and that we could be tremendous partners," said Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti. "From that moment, I knew we were aligned in the objective to serve our community, and it was clear that this wouldn't be a short-term partnership. Their commitment is so much deeper than the name on a stadium. They have impacted countless individuals and organizations with exceptional compassion, and I couldn't be happier with our relationship. We take great pride in our collaboration with M&T Bank, because our efforts are built on mutual respect and a meaningful connection to the community."

Along with several joint initiatives, such as Honor Rows and Touchdown for Teachers (see next page), employees of M&T Bank and the Ravens have rolled up their sleeves together to volunteer in communities throughout Baltimore during the past two decades. Those projects have included neighborhood landscaping and beautification, stream clean-ups, food drives, school supply distribution, playground construction and more. In 2019, M&T and the Ravens partnered with the Boys & Girls Clubs of Baltimore to renovate the Webster Kendrick Club at Callaway Elementary School in Baltimore. In 2022, more than 100 volunteers from M&T and the Ravens picked thousands of pounds of potatoes at First Fruits Farm in Baltimore County for distribution to food banks and pantries throughout Central Maryland and parts of Pennsylvania and Virginia. More than 100 employees from both organizations also have participated in Earth Day clean-up activities over the past several years, including the most recent projects in support of the Sandtown - Winchester community on April 17 and April 22, 2024 (see next page).

"The partnership between M&T and the Ravens has worked so well for so long because the organizations share similar values of integrity, determination and teamwork and a common mission to make Baltimore better," said Augie Chiasera, M&T Bank's regional president for Greater Baltimore. "We take a lot of pride in seeing the M&T Bank name on our football team's stadium. It's a symbol of our commitment to serve the Baltimore community."

M&T BANK PARTNERSHIP

HONOR ROWS

Since 2003, M&T Bank and the Baltimore Ravens have honored over 15,000 young people from a range of organizations, recognizing their outstanding volunteer work. For each Ravens home game, 100 young people receive tickets, Honor Rows T-shirts, a pre-game on-field visit and official in-game recognition on the RavensVision HD video screens.

TOUCHDOWN FOR TEACHERS

The Touchdown for Teachers program recognizes local teachers for outstanding service to their schools and communities. Three finalists are chosen annually based on their involvement in the school or community, degree of positive impact and demonstrated commitment to education. In 2024, the grand prize was awarded to Jaime Harpster (below), a fourth-grade teacher from Padonia International Elementary School.

In the classroom, Harpster is known for her commitment to the school, students and their families, as well as fostering an inclusive environment for students from various cultures. As an example, she took a Spanish for educators' class to help her not only communicate with students in the classroom, but also to learn more about them outside of the learning environment. Harpster took her passion for diversity and obtained her master's degree in English for Speakers of Other Leagues (ESOL). Outside of the classroom, she runs three extracurricular clubs and has also led Earth Day cleanups and paint nights to bring students and families together. Additionally, she has worked with local food pantries to support students at the school, while also starting her own collections to help them afford yearbooks and clothing for winter concerts.

Harpster received $5,000 in grant funds, payable to her school, a school visit by OLB Odafe Oweh, Ravens Cheerleaders and Poe and a customized Ravens jersey. The other finalists each received a personalized Ravens jersey and $1,000 in grant funds, payable to their schools. All grant funds are jointly provided by M&T Bank and the Ravens.

2024 EARTH DAY CLEAN-UP

On Earth Day, the Ravens and M&T Bank hosted a significant volunteer event in support of the Sandtown – Winchester community (below). Alongside Constellation, Baltimore's Empact Art and Lafayette Square Community Development Corporation, approximately 130 volunteers representing all five organizations took part in a neighborhood cleanup and restoration event in the Lafayette Square community. Volunteers engaged in the restoration of the surrounding parks and participated in several other outdoor beautification projects, including trash pickup, painting, mosaic making, street cleaning, gardening, weeding and tree planting.

FINANCIAL FITNESS ACADEMY

With an increase in financial vulnerabilities affecting local youth, the Baltimore Ravens, M&T Bank and EVERFI from Blackbaud (EVERFI) have collaboratively developed the "Financial Fitness Academy" (below) to provide financial education to Maryland students in grades 4-6. The opportunity to understand effective money management acts as a catalyst in narrowing the bridge between students of various socioeconomic classes throughout the state of Maryland. This program will continue the ongoing efforts of these organizations to empower youth as they get closer to embarking upon life-changing financial decisions.

M&T BANK STADIUM: THE GOLD STANDARD

LEED GOLD RECOGNITION

In 2013, the Ravens, in partnership with the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA), earned a LEED-certified Gold designation for M&T Bank Stadium from the U.S. Green Building Council (USGBC). The venue then received LEED Gold re-certification in 2019.

LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) strives to deliver energy- and water-efficient, healthy, environmentally-friendly, cost-savings buildings, homes and communities.

M&T Bank Stadium became the first existing outdoor professional sports facility in the United States – including all NFL and Major League Baseball stadiums – to receive USGBC's Gold rating. A LEED certification is recognized across the globe as the premier mark of achievement in green building.

SAFETY & SECURITY RECOGNITIONS

In June of 2022, M&T Bank Stadium received the National Center for Spectator Sports Safety and Security (NCS4) Facility of Merit Award. The Facility of Merit Award recognizes a facility that has performed above and beyond normal operations to demonstrate an innovative approach to enhancing safety and security.

M&T Bank Stadium was recognized for its leadership in addressing safety and security issues as part of the 2022 National Sports Safety and Security Conference & Exhibition from June 28-30 in Orlando, FL.

In April 2020, the Ravens announced that M&T Bank Stadium had been recognized by the United States Department of Homeland Security (DHS) with a SAFETY Act Designation, acknowledging excellence in gameday security practices.

The Ravens received the SAFETY Act Designation for the M&T Bank Stadium Security Program, a comprehensive program that includes the screening of visitors and packages, emergency plans, threat assessments, physical and electronic security equipment, and trained personnel. The security program applies to the entire stadium property, including the seating bowl and suites, gates, loading dock, inner and secondary perimeters, field, locker rooms, utility and mechanical systems, and command center.

SUSTAINABILITY FACTS FOR M&T BANK STADIUM

- All construction associated with M&T Bank Stadium's improvement projects from 2017-19 was designed using LEED standards.

- The 2019 change from metal halide sports lights to LED sports lights reduces energy consumption by 50%.

- The stadium's efficient irrigation system and adaptive vegetation reduces 30% of its potable water for outside irrigation.

- All purchases for M&T Bank Stadium follow the Sustainable Purchasing Policy to include recycled, renewable and Energy Star-labeled products for the building.

- The stadium implements a "Green Cleaning" program that improves air quality and reduces waste with green cleaning products and materials.

- Electricity at the stadium was reduced from 15,952,984 kilowatt hours in 2005 to 10,881,579 in 2012.

- The electricity savings of 5,071,405 kilowatt hours can heat about 440 homes for a year.

- Installation of waterless urinals & water-efficient restroom fixtures reduces water consumption by 43% and saves over 3 million gallons of water per year.

- 10% of Ravens fans use the MTA Light Rail service to travel to and from games, and another 2% use buses through the "Ravens Ride" program.

- 38% of M&T Bank Stadium staff use alternative transportation to work, contributing to the stadium's carbon footprint reduction of 123,070 metric tons of greenhouse gas emissions per year.

- 71% of regularly-occupied spaces have access to outdoor views of Baltimore.

- The stadium is 27% above the national average in energy efficiency.

- The stadium recycles 31% of its regular waste.

- Environmentally-friendly operations and maintenance programs are used in all pest, landscape and hardscape management.

IN-GAME ENTERTAINMENT

MASCOT POE

The gameday experience at M&T Bank Stadium wouldn't be complete without fun-loving mascot Poe and his brothers, Edgar and Allan! Along with gameday, fans can find Poe at community events and bringing his school assembly to area elementary schools. To book Poe to fly to your next function, please visit: www.baltimoreravens.com/fans/mascots.

BALTIMORE RAVENS CHEERLEADERS

The Ravens' Cheerleaders are the NFL's longest-tenured co-ed squad, with over 50 athletes across both a dance and stunt team. The squad spends time in the community, appearing at numerous events each season and supporting U.S. military efforts by traveling overseas to entertain troops. To learn more about the team or schedule an appearance, visit: www.baltimoreravens.com/cheerleaders.

BALTIMORE'S MARCHING RAVENS

Baltimore's Marching Ravens (formerly the Colts' Band), in its 77th year of continuous operation, is comprised of over 150 members. Current band leader John Ziemann directed the Colts' Marching Band, which evolved into the Ravens' musical ensemble. BMR is deeply involved in the Baltimore community, appearing at several parades and events each year. For information on these dynamic performers, visit: www.baltimoreravens.com/fans/marching-ravens.

LIVE RAVENS

The Ravens' live mascots, Rise and Conquer, live at the Maryland Zoo in Baltimore. These important birds formerly appeared at home games and a number of different Ravens events thoroughout the calendar year but are currently unable to travel due to the Avian Flu. Fans can meet other Zoo animals on RavensWalk before each home game. For more information, please visit: www. baltimoreravens.com/fans/mascots.

M&T BANK STADIUM PLAYING SURFACE

In May of 2016, the Ravens switched from artificial turf to natural grass at M&T Bank Stadium. As former team president Dick Cass stated, "The players really wanted to play on grass, and that was a key consideration." Baltimore had natural grass in the stadium when it first opened in 1998, but the Ravens changed to an artificial turf from Sportexe Momentum Turf for the 2003 season, and then replaced that with a newer Shaw Momentum 51 turf prior to the start of 2010. The Ravens now play on this new strain of grass, developed on a sod farm in North Carolina, that is a mixture of Bermuda and some rye. Officials believe it is more robust than what was previously played on in the stadium. The Ravens also use special artificial lights/lamps to keep grass growing where the field is shaded, particularly during the winter months.

GAMEDAY BROADCAST TEAM

All Ravens games can be heard on 98Rock WIYY (97.9 FM), WBAL 1090 AM/101.5 FM, ESPN 630 AM (Washington, D.C.), baltimoreravens.com and in the Ravens mobile app (when fans are in Baltimore). This radio network broadcasts each game with affiliates spanning four states – Maryland, Kentucky, Pennsylvania and West Virginia – and Washington, D.C. The Spanish radio broadcast of all Ravens games can be heard on Tico Sports.

In 2024, all three of the Ravens' preseason games will be called on TV by Sandusky, the "Voice of the Ravens," with Woodson providing color analysis and CBS Sports' Evan Washburn (seen at right with Sandusky & Woodson) handling sideline reporting duties.

The Emmy Award-winning preseason TV broadcasts and pre-game shows are produced by Ravens Productions, led by coordinating producer Matt Brevet, producer Andy Bock and director Lou Kusserow. They regularly air on WBAL-TV (Baltimore), WJLA (Washington, D.C.), WGAL (York/Lancaster/Harrisburg, Pa.), WWCW (Roanoke, Va.), WUPV (Richmond, Va.), WTVZ-TV (Norfolk, Va.), and WMDT (Delmarva area). Broadcasts are also simulcast on all radio affiliates (listed below).

Due to the Olympics coverage on WBAL-TV, the Ravens' 2024 preseason opener (Aug. 9 vs. Phi.) will air locally on WMAR-TV.
