GENERAL
INFORMATION

CHARGERS IMPACT FUND

Nearly 16,000

books have been donated to Southern California students and school libraries since 2020.

Over 900

students from across Los Angeles received food to take home over the weekends throughout the 2023-2024 school year.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

volunteers took part in Bolts Community Crew volunteer opportunities.

333

animals were adopted during Chargers sponsored pet adoptions.

FOOTBALL DEVELOPMENT

youth participated in youth and high school football programming.

Over $300,000

donated or raised to benefit local leagues, school districts and other partnered groups.

Over 2,000

game tickets were donated to youth and high school football groups.

Walter Payton Man of the Year

DERWIN JAMES

Safety Derwin James Jr. was nominated for the second consecutive year as the Chargers Walter Payton Man of the Year Nominee. Regarded as one of the most prestigious honors bestowed at NFL Honors during Super Bowl week each year, the team nominated Derwin in recognition of his outstanding philanthropic work and ongoing support and commitment to the team and Impact Fund's community endeavors.

In 2023 Derwin partnered with Wallis Annenberg GenSpace, a state-of-the-art senior center in Los Angeles, to host the first Derwin's Disco for the center's members. Sharing his deep appreciation for the senior community, James funded and hosted a 70s-themed party that included a light-up dance floor, DJ and games. The 120 GenSpace members in attendance got to dance and mingle with James and went home having experienced an unforgettable afternoon full of dancing, food and fun.

As a former Boys and Girls club member, James is always eager to contribute to the existing programming at clubhouses in Southern California. Since joining the NFL, he has consistently collaborated with Southern California Boys and Girls Clubs to host events such as Thanksgiving meal giveaways and holiday parties where he can personally interact with current club members.

Salute to Service Nominee

MORGAN FOX

For the second year running, Defensive End Morgan Fox was the Chargers' nominee for the annual Salute to Service Award in recognition of his support of military and veteran families and communities. On the field, Fox has supported organizations including Wounded Warrior Project, Merging Vets and Players, One Tribe Foundation, and War Heroes on Water as part of the NFL's My Cause My Cleats campaign. Off the field, Morgan has worked with Wounded Warrior Project for several events and experiences as well as supported the team's work with military veterans and organizations.

About the Chargers Impact Fund

“Believe in yourself. There is nothing you can’t do if you set your mind to it.”
–Alex Spanos

Driven by love of family, gratitude for community and a passion for giving back, Alex and Faye Spanos established the Chargers Impact Fund in 1995 to help people see the best in themselves and achieve their dreams.

Born into a blue-collar family of Greek immigrants, Alex began working in his father’s bakery at age eight. The values of hard work and perseverance – paired with a courageous spirit and what would become trademark unwavering honesty – quickly formed the foundation that drove his success in business. As he grew into a titan of industry, eventually realizing his life-long dream of owning a professional football team, Alex remained convinced that his success was due to the support he received from wife Faye, his family and his community.

Alex and Faye’s gratitude and optimism served as catalysts for what ultimately became a legacy of decades-long philanthropy. The more they gave back, the richer their lives grew – be it through the experiences they had, personal stories they learned or relationships they nurtured.

Though Alex and Faye passed in 2018, their legacy of giving lives on through the work of the Chargers Impact Fund. Modeled after their belief that a solid family foundation, and the ability to lean on each other, is critical to future success, the Impact Fund brings fans, volunteers, players and donors together to create supportive environments in which the next generation can thrive.

LA FOR EVERYONE

VISION

A welcome and caring Los Angeles where everyone feels like part of a community and all things seem possible.

MISSION

We bring people together to empower youth, generate access and create opportunity in under-resourced neighborhoods so today’s dreams can become tomorrow’s reality.

VALUES

Kindness

We believe in the power of kindness to cultivate a connected and compassionate Los Angeles.

Family

“We believe that we are all members of one family, whose common good depends on everyone’s personal involvement.” –Alex Spanos

Service

We partner with leaders on the frontlines of impacted communities. Our work supports these leading organizations.

Optimism

We are a bright spot for our community. We recognize the difficult issues many Angelenos are facing, and we inspire joy and happiness.

Youth Empowerment

We empower the next generation to achieve their dreams through education, mentorship, and sports-based youth development.

Bolt Academy

20 Juniors and Seniors from Inglewood High Schools successfully completed the Impact Fund's third cohort of Bolt Academy, a program run in partnership with Inglewood Unified School District and Brotherhood Crusade – a leading nonprofit building power in South LA for over 50 years. The students received 120 hours of after-school instruction and over 480 hours of work experience with the Chargers by working all home games at SoFi Stadium.

Bolts Book Club

Studies have shown that students who fall behind in reading comprehension before the 3rd grade are likely to struggle academically later in life. The Impact Fund began the Bolts Book Club program in 2020 to help address this issue in Los Angeles and in 2023 partnered with Scholastic and Rhymes with Reason to help create access for students to get free books and boost reading and vocabulary skills.

- Nearly 16,000 books have been donated to Southern California students, school libraries, and nonprofit organizations since 2020.
- In 2023 alone, youth from the Boys & Girls Club of Metro Los Angeles read nearly 780 hours during Bolts Book Club programming.
- 107 students from four Boys & Girls Club of Metro Los Angeles Clubhouses participated in the Impact Fund's partnership with Rhymes with Reason, LLC, which was launched in the summer months to boost reading and vocabulary skills through music lyrics.

Community Advancement

We engage fans, players and partners to foster a sense of belonging through safe places to play and access to basic needs.

Chargers Champions

For over two decades Chargers Champions has provided San Diego and Imperial County schools grants and resources totaling $6 million in funding to assist students, teachers, and communities. In 2023, four schools received grants for physical fitness, nutrition, and athletic programs.

Community Corner

Through the Impact Fund's Community Corner ticket program, Chargers players including Justin Herbert, Derwin James Jr., Morgan Fox and more sponsored over 900 tickets to benefit community and youth-focused nonprofit organizations to attend a home game in a special section of SoFi Stadium. In addition to tickets, recipients received concession vouchers and team promotional items to showcase their fandom.

Bikes for Kids

The Impact Fund continued a 19-year tradition of surprising local elementary school students with brand new bikes in time for the holidays. Chargers Legend's Antonio Gates, Kassim Osgood and Larry English were on hand with the Bikes for Kids Foundation and Pechanga Resort Casino to surprise 100 students at Sunrise Elementary School in Los Angeles with the news that they would be taking home a new bike, helmet, and lock in time for the holidays.

Feeding the Future

Over $52,000 was raised during the inaugural year of the Impact Fund's Feeding the Future Campaign. 300 students across Los Angeles will now be sponsored by the Chargers Impact Fund and the nonprofit Blessings in a Backpack and will receive nutritious meals to take home with them over each weekend throughout the school year.

Over 600 students from 122nd Street Elementary School received a bag of groceries for the weekend as part of a partnership with the nonprofit Blessings in a Backpack.

Community Engagement

Mission Statement

The LA Chargers contribute to a thriving, vibrant Southern California by creating access and opportunities that positively impact the lives of youth, animals and our neighbors.

We use our platform to create joyful and memorable experiences, provide opportunities to serve our thriving communities, and honor and recognize local leaders. The Chargers prepare youth to succeed in life by administering and supporting programs focused on character development, career exploration and education. Because pets can be an important contribution to a thriving family unit, we connect community members to organizations and services to improve their quality of life.

Thriving Neighborhoods

We use our platform to create joyful and memorable experiences, provide opportunities to serve our thriving communities, and honor and recognize local leaders.

Bolts Community Crew

Over 350 members of the Bolts Community Crew participated in Chargers volunteer events and gave over 900 hours to directly support the Southern California community. The Bolts Community Crew is the Chargers' official volunteer platform that seeks to harness the passion of the Bolt Fam to drive impact across Southern California and support the team and Impact Fund's philanthropic endeavors.

Crucial Catch

As part of the NFL's Crucial Catch campaign, the Chargers and Chargers Impact Fund continued to raise awareness for the importance of early detection in the fight against cancer while supporting breast cancer patients, caregivers, survivors and thrivers. A month-long initiative, the team's Crucial Catch efforts are led by Susie Spanos, a breast cancer survivor and the wife of Controlling Owner and Chairman Dean Spanos. Susie knows firsthand the importance of early detection and continues to lead the team's efforts to ensure local men and women get screened for detectable cancers.

- 60 breast cancer survivors and thrivers from the American Cancer Society and Susan G. Komen were honored on the field during the annual Crucial Catch game at SoFi Stadium.
- 30 breast cancer survivors from Hoag Hospital participated in a meditative breathwork class at the Chargers' practice facility.
- 28 under-insured women received free mammograms over the course of two mobile mammography days at Watts Healthcare Corporation.
- 100 families and patients from the Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation attended the annual Halloween Trick-or-Treat Trail and party hosted at the team's practice facility.

Salute to Service

Alex Spanos proudly served our country as a tail gunner in the United States Air Force from 1942 to 1946. The Chargers and Chargers Impact Fund know that we owe a debt of gratitude to those who have borne the battle on our behalf, which is why the organization and Spanos family have continued this legacy of commitment to our nation's troops, veterans, and their families in 2023.

- 5 Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors (T.A.P.S.) families were honored by the Chargers during Salute to Service month and game. The families were invited to the team's headquarters the Friday before the game to meet the team and connect with the players who would wear their fallen loved one's initials during the game. All five families were invited to the game that following Sunday and were honored alongside their fallen Hero at halftime.
- In November, weekly Boots & Bolts visits were conducted with active duty servicemembers, veterans and their families. During the visits, all guests were invited to tour the team facilities, watch a portion of practice and meet players.
- For the second year, the team partnered with U.S. Vets to continue renovating their Long Beach facility. With assistance from Bolts Community Crew volunteers, the Bolts renovated the Long Beach facility's Welcome Center – which serves as a beacon of hope for veterans and provides them with resources they need to enter U.S. Vets' programming.

Youth Development

The Chargers prepare youth to succeed in life by administering and supporting programs focused on character development, career exploration and education.

Career Pathways

The Chargers invited local girls flag high school teams to attend a Career Pathway Panel in honor of Women's History Month. The event featured inspiring women excelling in various fields throughout the sports industry and featured a Q&A session following the conclusion of the panel where the young people could ask questions and receive advice on working in sports.

Ball & YDD

The Chargers partnered with the City of Los Angeles' Youth Development Department (YDD) and Ball Corporation to create a program that focuses on educating youth and promoting recycling practices in Los Angeles. Students were asked to create an event or campaign that promotes and educates their community on aluminum recycling and sustainability practices.

Career Accelerator Program

The team partnered with Liberty Hill Foundation to invite system impacted youth to work and get behind the scenes access at Chargers Training Camp. Each youth also attended post practice career pathway panels to hear from front office staff on their career trajectories and opportunities for employment in the sports industry.

Animal Welfare

Because pets are an important contribution to a thriving family unit, we connect fans and community members to organizations and services to improve their quality of life. Since 2020, the Bolts have strategically partnered with local shelters, rescues and nonprofits to raise awareness for animal welfare causes and initiatives. Through these partnerships, the Chargers have hosted and supported pet adoptions, pet wellness events and spay and neuter clinics.

Pet Adoption

333 dogs from local shelters and rescues found their fur-ever home and were adopted during Chargers sponsored pet adoption events.

Chargers Pup

The Bolts partnered with Paws for Life K9 Rescue to sponsor rescue pup River as the team's third Chargers Pup. Unique to Paws for Life's programming, River was trained by incarcerated individuals inside of California Medical Facility – Vacaville. Throughout her time as a Chargers Pup, River was the face of the team's animal welfare work and attended games and community events to interact with fans and raise awareness for the importance of rescue and service animals. At the close of the 2023 season, River completed training with her incarcerated trainers and is now a service animal for a U.S. Army Veteran.

Pet Wellness Clinics

Through a partnership with the Michelson Found Animals Foundation, the Bolts assisted in funding wellness and hygiene services for 463 pets during a Wellness Clinic at Morningside High School in Inglewood. 500 meals for dogs and cats were distributed at the event with 140 microchips registered to assist local families keep their pets and families together.

Most Valuable Pup of the Game

23 shelter and rescue dogs were featured as the Chargers' Most Valuable Pups of the Game (MVP's) during the 2023 season. The program highlights local adoptable animals and raises awareness for the important work of shelters and rescues throughout Southern California at all home games.

Football Development

Mission Statement

To provide safe, inclusive and educational opportunities for athletes to learn and develop their skills in football, while fostering a sense of family and leadership that extends beyond the field.

VALUES

Family

We believe in bringing people together to create a family-like environment that fosters relations and a sense of community among our players, coaches and families.

Safety

We prioritize the safety and well-being of our athletes, providing the necessary resources and training to ensure a safe and healthy environment for all.

Leadership

We strive to develop strong leaders both on and off the field, instilling values of integrity, accountability, excellence, and teamwork.

Fun

We incorporate games and competition in our programming that teach the game of football through fun and creative ways. We make football accessible and enjoyable for everyone.

Development & Education

All-Star Tackle

273 athletes from high schools in Los Angeles, Orange and San Diego counties participated in the first annual LA City Gridiron Classic, the annual Alex Spanos Classic and the OC All-Star Classic. The support of three high school all-star games continued the team's long-standing support of matchups between the best players in Southern California football before they go to college.

Nike 11-On

800 athletes from 30 local high school football and girls flag programs participated in the Chargers' annual Nike 11-On. The annual high school competition focuses on building transferable life skills while also encouraging team play over individual recognition. The two-day camp was held at the Chargers training facilities where the athletes participated in 7-on-7 drills, team building exercises and heard from Chargers coaches and players.

Jr. Chargers Training Camps

Over 1,500 youth from across Southern California participated in Jr. Chargers Training Camps organized throughout 2023 and 2024. Special sessions of the skills and drills camps were offered for Long Beach students and military children in San Diego as part of the NFL's Play60 initiative, which encourages young people to get physically active for at least 60 minutes a day.

Experiences

Youth Football Tradition

120 local youth flag and tackle football players participated in the Chargers' Youth Football Traditional during home games at SoFi Stadium. This unique game day experience highlights young athletes and gives them the opportunity to run out of the tunnel with the team before the game kicks off.

NFL Network Gameday Visits

200 athletes and coaches from local youth flag and tackle programs appeared on NFL Gameday Morning and participated in segments with the celebrity hosts. This partnership between the NFL, Chargers and NFL Network creates a platform to highlight local Southern California youth football programs and engage them with NFL Legends and talent before Chargers home games.

Training Camp Water Tent

Approximately 125 youth from 12 youth and flag football teams were invited to fundraise at Chargers Training Camp and sell water and Gatorade purchased by the team to fans. All proceeds raised throughout Camp went back to the teams to benefit their programs.

Training Camp Youth Football Day

Over 500 athletes attended the annual Youth Football Day at Chargers Training Camp to represent their team and enjoy an open day at Camp. All attendees were invited to a Chargers preseason game at SoFi Stadium.

Nike Kickoff Classic

75 athletes from Long Beach Poly High School's football team were invited to Chargers team facilities to hear from football operations staff and celebrate their participation in representing the Chargers in the 2023 Nike Kickoff Classic in Oregon.

Support

Coach of the Week

33 coaches from Los Angeles, Orange and San Diego Counties were recognized as the Chargers Coach of the Week during the high school football season. Each coach honored was selected by a fan vote and received a $1,000 from the Chargers and Chargers Impact Fund to go towards their team's football program.

Girls Flag Coach of the Year

12 Girls Flag high school coaches from Los Angeles, Orange and San Diego Counties were nominated to be the Chargers 2023 Girls Flag Coach of the Year Award winners. Three coaches were selected for their contribution to the game and athletes and received a $2,000 donation to their program.

Equipment Donations

Over 2,000 pairs of cleats, 800 gloves, 260 shoulder pads and 300 chin straps were donated to local football programs and student athletes as part of the Chargers' equipment donation program.

Flag Donations

150 flag football start-up kits were donated to local schools and leagues through a partnership with USA Football and GenYouth. All the kits donated went to assisting the youth organizations to start new flag football programs across Southern California.

LaDainian Tomlinson Player of the Year Award

In 2023 the Chargers introduced the inaugural LaDainian Tomlinson Player of the Year Award in collaboration with the National Football Foundation. Modeled after the NFL's Walter Payton Man of the Year Award, the LT Player of the Year award recognized one outstanding player from both girls flag and boys tackle football in Los Angeles. Six finalists were selected out of hundreds of athletes with two recipients selected for $2,500 scholarships in recognition of their academic excellence, athletic success, and service to their community.

Flag Football

Snoop & Housh Flag Football League

Approximately 500 young athletes participated in the inaugural season of the Snoop & Housh Flag Football League. The Chargers and Chargers Impact Fund partnered with Southern California natives Snoop Dogg and NFL veteran T.J. Houshmanzadeh to form the new inclusive league. With two sites in Los Angeles, the league was begun with the goal of giving youth from under-served communities access and the opportunity to build life skills of teamwork, discipline, and hard work both on and off the football field.

San Diego Unified School District Middle School Flag Football League

The Bolts partnered with San Diego Unified School District to assist in implementing a Flag Football League for all district middle schools. Over 1,500 kids participated in the school run league and celebrated the kickoff of the season with Chargers Legend Corey Liuget.

Girls Flag

Opening Weekend, Championship Tournament, All-Star Game

- Over 400 girls from Southern California High School flag teams participated in the Chargers first opening weekend tournament to celebrate the inaugural season as sanctioned CIF sport.
- 500 female athletes representing 20 of the top high school flag football programs in Southern California participated in the Inaugural Girls Flag Football Championship Tournament to celebrate the culmination of the first season of sanctioned play.
- 70 of the top performing female flag football players were selected to participate in the first Girls Flag All-Star game hosted by the Chargers prior to a home game at SoFi Stadium.

Girls Flag College Showcase

265 Girls Flag high school athletes demonstrated their ability in a series of drills and workouts across two Girls Flag College Showcase events put on by the Chargers. 50 of the participating athletes received scholarship offers to join collegiate programs.

Bolts on the Beach

24 teams and 250 female athletes ages 9-17 from across Southern California participated in the team's first flag football tournament on the sand in Huntington.

▶ ALEX & FAYE SPANOS

REMEMBERING ALEX SPANOS

Alexander Gus Spanos, Chargers owner and Spanos family patriarch, was the embodiment of the American dream. Alex's legacy is one of perseverance, compassion, philanthropy and, most of all, a passion for his family — a family that will carry on his spirit for generations to come.

Alex was, quite simply, a force of nature who inspired everyone he encountered, rising from humble beginnings to become an American business icon. He was a devoted husband, loving father, doting grandfather and great-grandfather, celebrated businessman, loyal friend, generous philanthropist and a compassionate man who cared deeply for his community.

Born in South Stockton to Greek immigrants Constantinos “Gus” Spanos and Evanthis Tsopelas Koumentakou in 1923, Alex's tireless work ethic and fearlessness was instilled in him at an early age. When he was eight years old, he began working at his father's bakery, waking up at 4 a.m. to bake bread and pastries before school. He worked 15-hour days for seven days a week through his early adulthood.

While pursuing an engineering degree at Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, his studies were put on hold following the attack on Pearl Harbor. In 1942, Alex left college to enlist in the U.S. Air Force and was stationed at Tarpon Springs, Florida. It was there that he met the love of his life, Faye Papafakis, who remained by his side for the next 77 years.

Once Alex's military service ended in 1946, he came home to Stockton and enrolled in the University of the Pacific. After going back to work at his father's restaurant making $40 a week, he married Faye in 1948 and the happy couple welcomed their first son, Dean, in 1950.

With another baby on the way and his family struggling to make ends meet, Alex left his father's restaurant and set out to create a catering business of his own. Alex and Faye began making bologna sandwiches at their house and, after taking out an $800 loan to purchase a truck, launched A.G. Spanos Agricultural Catering. Selling sandwiches to local farmers in the San Juan Valley, a mere six months later, he was able to buy a house for his family and pay off his father's debts. By 1951, the 27-year old Spanos had $35,000 to his name.

Alex made more money in the four months after leaving his father's bakery than in the 20 years he worked at the store. This proved to be the first of many daring business ventures Spanos would pursue. By 1956, he had earned enough to comfortably provide for his family, which now also consisted of two daughters, Dea and Alexis, and another son, Michael.

At the suggestion of his accountant, Alex began investing in real estate even though he knew little about the field. Relying on his work ethic and fearless attitude, he earned his first million within a year and come 1960, had established A.G. Spanos Construction. By the mid-seventies the company had grown to become the number one builder of apartments across the nation.

Now firmly established in the business world, Alex began his pursuit of a childhood dream — owning a professional sports team. With football his top passion, on August 1, 1984, dreams became reality when Alex purchased the San Diego Chargers.

Although Alex had a renowned reputation in the real estate and development industry, he had to prove himself all over again in the NFL. He described this part of his life as one that, at times, was filled with heartbreak but ultimately brought him the highlight of his career when the Chargers beat the Steelers to play in Super Bowl XXIX.

Equally passionate about the franchise's impact off the field as much as between the white lines, Alex implemented many Chargers community outreach programs that exist to this day. The Chargers Community Foundation alone — which he created and funded — has donated more than $13 million over the years to support critical causes, individuals in need and organizations supporting the community. In 1994, Alex handed control of the team to his son, Dean. His passion for the Chargers, however, remained fierce as ever, traveling to every game with wife Faye — home or away — until health issues in 2008 made travel too difficult.

Philanthropy was of the utmost importance to Spanos, which is why he made significant contributions to educational institutions, the arts, relief assistance programs, veterans groups and hospitals. Devoutly Greek Orthodox, Alex was deeply proud of his heritage, instilling many of his traditions in the growing Spanos family. From raising funds to rebuild a 140-year-old church to providing relief after a natural disaster, Alex gave back to the Greek community as well. In 2008, he was awarded the Medal of the Commander of the Order of Honor for his humanitarian efforts in Greece by the President of the Hellenic Republic.

While Alex accomplished much over his 95 years, nothing compared to the pride he felt for his family — a major reason he surrounded himself with them at every turn. He involved them in his company at an early age, often crediting them for helping build A.G. Spanos Companies into the country's largest family-owned construction company. While Alex may be gone, he will never be forgotten. His legacy is sure to be carried on by those who loved him most — his four children, Dean, Dea Spanos Berberian, Alexis Spanos Ruhl and Michael; 15 grandchildren; and 13 great-grandchildren.

REMEMBERING FAYE SPANOS

Faye Spanos was born in 1926 to Greek immigrant parents in Tarpon Springs, Florida. She was by nature, a loving and sweet person who found joy in everything. When she was just 18 years old, she met the love of her life, Alex Spanos, who was in the Air Force and stationed at Drew Field in Tampa at the time. After a long-distance courtship, Alex and Faye married in 1948 in Faye's hometown of Tarpon Springs.

Once married, Faye and Alex settled in Stockton, Calif. and worked side by side in the kitchen at the Roma Lunch Bakery, an establishment owned by Alex's father. The young couple began to build their family as they welcomed their children, Dean, Dea, Alexis and Michael.

As their children grew, so did her husband's success in business. Faye accepted his financial prosperity by opening her heart and home and sharing their good fortune first with their large extended families and then, with their community. As someone who personified kindness, grace and compassion, she and her husband made donations benefitting schools, children, the arts, hospitals and people in need.

Faye taught everyone around her by example, never admonishing, never reprimanding and never raising her voice. Guided by faith, she lived her beliefs every day of her life and treated everyone with the dignity and respect they deserved.

Faye Spanos' name in Greek derives from the Greek word for light. And throughout her life Faye was the light and rock for Alex and for her family. She was a blessing to all who met her and the essence that brought balance, encouragement, faith, support and love to her family.

DEAN A. SPANOS

CONTROLLING OWNER AND CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Under the leadership of Dean Spanos, the Los Angeles Chargers continue to make bold moves that position the franchise for long-term success in the nation's second-largest media market. Guided by Spanos' strategic direction and expertise in the construction business, the organization opened The Bolt in July 2024 — the first dedicated NFL team training facility and headquarters ever constructed in Los Angeles. The Bolt and the team's iconic SoFi Stadium home, which sits just four miles from the 150,000 square-foot architectural masterpiece, places the Chargers squarely at the intersection of innovation, entertainment and professional sports.

In January 2024, Spanos, along with President of Football Operations John Spanos, oversaw the search that led to the Chargers' hiring of Jim Harbaugh as head coach, bringing the former Bolts quarterback home following a 15-0 season that culminated with a College Football Playoff National Championship as head coach for the University of Michigan. Spanos also hired one of the NFL's top talent evaluators as general manager in longtime Baltimore Ravens personnel executive Joe Hortiz. With these personnel moves, Spanos, who has led the team through numerous franchise records and victories including the team's most recent playoff berth in 2022, is looking to return the Bolts to an era of dominance they enjoyed not long ago. During an 11-season run from 2004-14, the Chargers won 113 games including four playoff victories and five AFC West championships (2004, 2006-09). Only three teams in the NFL won more games during that span.

Named President of the Chargers in early 1994 — the same year the team culminated its most memorable season with an appearance in Super Bowl XXIX — Dean, along with his father Alex Spanos, also secured Super Bowl XXXII (1998) and Super Bowl XXXVII (2003) for their community, with each event netting in excess of $300 million for the local economy.

In 2015, Spanos handed over the reins of day-to-day leadership to sons A.G. and John. Eldest son A.G. Spanos now serves as President of Business Operations while John Spanos heads up the other side of the business as President of Football Operations.

Dean's leadership is also present throughout the National Football League. As a member of the NFL's Management Council Executive Committee (CEC), he played an integral role in negotiating the NFL's current labor agreement. Spanos also sits on the NFL's Business Ventures Committee — having served as Chairman in 2015 — which has oversight regarding various league commercial activities, including consumer products, sponsorship, events, marketing and new business initiatives. In addition to his current committee work, Spanos also owns previous committee time that includes membership on the NFL's International and Legislative Committees.

Aside from football, Spanos also serves as CEO of the A.G. Spanos Companies, and along with his brother, Michael, oversees all construction operations nationwide.

TRADITION OF GIVING

The Spanos family has a multi-generation commitment to community involvement and is recognized both as one of the NFL's most philanthropic families as well as one of Southern California's most active and caring contributors to local causes. Their financial contributions of more than $15 million and their emotional support for youth, sports, education and our brave men and women in uniform have been a hallmark of their team ownership and legacy. Spanos was honored in June 2022 by the Loukoumi Make A Difference Foundation with its Inspiration Award for his commitment to encouraging youth and young adults to serve their communities and follow their career dreams.

In March of 2020, in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, Spanos directed an immediate donation of $250,000 to the LA Food Bank to help prepare for what he knew would be a tremendous increase in need. He also directed additional, significant donations to support other regional Food Banks, first responders, the American Red Cross and other non-profits working throughout Southern California to assist people struggling through the pandemic. The Chargers then partnered with KCBS-TV in Los Angeles and iHeart Radio to co-host a fundraiser that ultimately netted more than $1.6 million in donations for LAUSD students most in need, providing them with free meals, supplies and much-needed technology to help maintain their studies from home.

As 2020 continued and issues surrounding systemic racism sparked national outrage and new types of dialogue, Spanos led the team through tough internal conversations, which resulted in a new partnership with Liberty Hill Foundation to create a Social Justice Mentoring Initiative for the team's players and staff and system-impacted youth. Under his leadership, the Chargers and the Chargers Impact Fund also made a five-year financial commitment to help launch the Alliance — an unprecedented partnership of all 11 sport teams in the LA region who are coming together to level the playing field through sport by providing access and opportunities to youth from consistently under-resourced communities.

In April 2019, thanks to the generosity of Spanos and the Chargers organization, the Boys & Girls Club of Metro Los Angeles opened their newly renovated multi-sport field and teen center with a press conference and ribbon-cutting hosted by Spanos. In June of 2018, Spanos and the Chargers announced a three-year, $1.2 million commitment to the Summer Night Lights program — helping to expand sports programming across all 32 park locations — including uniforms for participants, referees and increased access to sports clinics. In 2018 Spanos also served as the honorary chair of the Boys & Girls Clubs of America's annual 2018 Pacific Youth of the Year Gala.

The generosity of the Spanos family reaches throughout California and has often extended into other states when needs have arisen. When wildfires struck Los Angeles, Ventura and San Diego Counties in December 2017, the Spanos family stepped up with a $250,000 donation to the American Red Cross — less than three months after committing $500,000 to Hurricane Harvey relief efforts and hosting a food and supply drive in Los Angeles for victims in flood-ravaged areas of Houston, Texas. When wildfires ravaged San Diego County in 2003, and again in 2007, the family made identical $1 million donations to aid affected families and the recovery effort.

Known for his generous backing of youth and high school football, Spanos and the Chargers were honored by National Pop Warner with its prestigious NFL Team of the Year Award in 2015 — a recognition of the team's outstanding support for youth football and cheer at all levels. The Chargers, who were also honored in 2007, were the first team in the NFL team to be so honored twice.

In 2014, the A.G. Spanos Heart and Vascular Center at Mercy General Hospital in Sacramento opened thanks to a lead gift of $15 million from the family, the largest gift Mercy General had ever received. In speaking at the opening, Dean said the family's commitment to Mercy General Hospital was to ensure that no one from the region would ever be turned away from proper care for lack of space or the kind of critical care they needed.

Also in 2014, Spanos pledged $500,000 to the University of California-San Diego to upgrade and expand the existing Alex G. Spanos Training Facility, which was then renamed and opened as the Alex G. Spanos Athletic Performance Center. UCSD is the Chargers' former training camp home, and this gift raised the value of the family's support of the institution to more than $1.6 million.

In 1995, the Spanos family took their commitment to the community a step further by creating The Chargers Community Foundation, now known as the Los Angeles Chargers Impact Fund. Since its inception, the Fund has provided nearly $13 million to support a wide range of services and programs directly benefiting children and families. In 1999, Dean Spanos created the Fund's largest ongoing program, Chargers Champions, which has provided over $6 million in direct assistance to schools, teachers, and students. The program provides grants to improve fitness, nutrition and athletic programs on school campuses.

Spanos has also been a long-time contributor to many other important charities and organizations working to improve the lives of children and families, including: the Make-A-Wish Foundation; American Cancer Society; Susan G. Komen; Girl Scouts; Special Olympics of Southern California; the Salvation Army; and Huntington's Disease Society.

COMMUNITY HONORS

In appreciation of their ongoing generosity, Dean and Susie Spanos have often been the recipients of numerous accolades. In 2018, the family and the Chargers were honored as Red Cross LA's Humanitarian Organization of the Year and presented with the Mayor's Award from the Association of Corporate Growth (ACG) Los Angeles — both in recognition of the impact they have made in the greater Los Angeles community. The Spanos family was also recognized with the Inaugural Carousel Spirit Award from the Festival of Children Foundation in Orange County. In 2021, Dean and Susie were honored with the Ambassador of Hope Award from Make-A-Wish Orange County and the Inland Empire, celebrating more than 20 years of partnership and support from the Spanos family and Chargers organization. Most recently in January 2023, Spanos was inducted into the National Football Foundation Leadership Hall of Fame at YouTube Theater in SoFi Stadium.

Among other honors received over the years, the Association of Fundraising Professionals recognized Spanos and the Chargers as San Diego's Outstanding Philanthropic Corporation; the Salvation Army named Dean and Susie their Most Valuable Philanthropists; they received the Huntington's Disease Society of America's top national award — the Harold Leventhal Community Service Award and national Pop Warner's top honor, The Warner Award was bestowed on Spanos for his ongoing commitment to youth football and the Little Scholars education initiative. The San Diego Business Journal presented the family with their Outstanding Community Service Award for family-owned businesses; Dean and Susie received the Herb Klein Spirit of San Diego Award from the San Diego Regional Chamber of Commerce — their highest community honor and the Rotary Club of San Diego's prestigious Heilbron Award was presented in recognition of the team's "pay it forward spirit — giving not only of itself but also its professional expertise to advance the well-being and success of others in the community."

In 2006, President George W. Bush appointed Spanos to the Board of Trustees for the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts and Spanos has the unique distinction of being a second-generation recipient of the renowned Ellis Island Medal of Honor, received 16 years after his father was similarly honored.

BUSINESSMAN AND FAMILY MAN

Dean Alexander Spanos was born in Stockton, Calif. He earned varsity letters in football and golf at Lincoln High School and later received Lincoln High School's Hall of Fame Award, which honors alumni whose contributions and accomplishments are representative of the school. Dean was recognized for his achievements in the areas of business as well as athletics.

Spanos continued his golfing career at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, graduating in 1972 with a degree in business administration. He maintains close ties with his alma mater, having served as a regent at the university. An avid golfer post-college, Dean has been on the winning team in five Pro-Am tournaments, including back-to-back wins in 1990 at the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic and the AT&T National Pro-Am at Pebble Beach with partner Hubert Green. He successfully defended his title at the Hope Classic the following year. Spanos' first win came with Green at the 1985 Bing Crosby Pro-Am at Pebble Beach, where he was awarded the "Most Valuable Amateur" trophy for supplying the most help to his professional partner.

Susie Spanos is a spokeswoman for the NFL's annual A Crucial Catch cancer screening campaign and is a breast cancer survivor herself. She was honored as a "Woman of Dedication" by the Salvation Army and was also named the Woman of the Year by the San Diego Leukemia Society for her philanthropic work in the community. As a long-time arts patron, Susie is a member of the Angels of the Arts group for the Segerstrom Center for the Arts, promoting excellence in the performing arts through cultural and social activities. She currently also serves on the Board of the Debbie Allen Dance Academy, a nonprofit studio that furthers the art of dance with a focus on disenfranchised Black and Latino communities.

In addition to leading the Playmakers, comprised of the wives and girlfriends of Chargers football players and coaches, Susie also currently serves as a Board member for the NFL Foundation overseeing the millions of dollars provided by the Foundation into communities across the country. Most recently, as the COVID-19 pandemic raged throughout Southern California, Susie brought together friends and Chargers' talent to host a virtual cooking fundraiser to raise much-needed funds for the Midnight Mission's HomeLight Facility, serving families experiencing homelessness in Inglewood, Calif.

Over the years, Susie has also supported numerous other charitable organizations including the San Diego Women's Foundation, the Salvation Army and Las Patronas. Susie was also a driving force in supporting and growing the San Diego Blood Bank's umbilical cord blood program and helping the Chargers' annual blood drive become one of the most successful in the nation.

Dean and Susie have two sons, A.G. and John, five grandsons and a granddaughter.

INFORMATION

Michael A. Spanos is Owner and Vice Chairman of the Los Angeles Chargers, assisting in financial and management matters pertaining to the team. Michael joins his brother — Controlling Owner and Chairman of the Board Dean Spanos — in steering the direction of the organization.

As president of the A.G. Spanos Companies, Michael is responsible for the company's planning and development activities around the country. He monitors and oversees the office divisions in states where the company builds and develops. His responsibilities also extend to the areas of property management, land acquisition and preparation of all plans for future direction, growth and construction of the company's multi-family communities and land development activities. From the company headquarters in Stockton, Michael regularly travels across the country to monitor and manage building projects.

Born in Stockton, Calif., he attended Lincoln High School and graduated from the University of the Pacific with a bachelor's degree in business administration. In 1989, Michael was appointed to the Board of Regents at the University of the Pacific, where he served for five years. Michael continues to contribute both his time and resources to the development and support of charitable projects involving youth sports and education. He and his wife, Helen, have five children and reside in Stockton.

ALEXIS SPANOS RUHL

OWNER AND
SPECIAL ADVISOR TO THE IMPACT FUND

Alexis Spanos Ruhl has seen first-hand the importance of personal community engagement, whether it be by watching her parent's life-long commitment to philanthropy or through her own charitable endeavors over the past several decades.

As a Board Member for A.G. Spanos Companies, Alexis has taken her passion for service, evolved it into a vital role within the family business and now acts as the primary liaison between the company and the numerous non-profits currently supported by the organization.

Committed to continuing her parent's philanthropic legacy via all avenues, Alexis also plays an active role in shaping the direction and focus of the Los Angeles Chargers Impact Fund. A 501c3 nonprofit foundation founded by her parents, Alex and Faye, in 1995, the Impact Fund strives to continue their legacy of giving through two "impact" areas – Youth Empowerment and Community Advancement.

Alexis also serves in a critical advisory role for the Chargers' Animal Welfare platform, leading the team's community efforts to renovate animal shelters, support service dog training and create additional pet adoption opportunities in Los Angeles. Up North, the San Francisco SPCA's Heart of Gold Society has recognized Alexis for her outstanding leadership in fundraising while she has twice been awarded the "Golden Paw Award" by The Cool Cats and Barking Dogs for her outstanding fundraising efforts on behalf of the Stockton Animal Shelter. Additionally, Alexis has also been recognized by the City of Stockton for her annual efforts to raise critical dollars to benefit Stockton's animal services.

GENERAL
INFORMATION

Named President of Business Operations for the Chargers in May 2015, A.G. Spanos is responsible for all day-to-day operations, including marketing, sales, communications, digital media and community relations. He also represents the organization at NFL and ownership meetings.

Previously, Spanos served as Executive Vice President – Chief Executive Officer from 2011-15, Executive Vice President – Executive Officer from 2008-10, and Director of Marketing Programs and Business Development from 2003-07.

Spanos has guided the Chargers organization through numerous changes over the past several years, notably the team's significant investment in digital media and subsequent emergence as a best-in-class, nationally recognized content creator. Additionally, Spanos worked for nearly three years with the NFL and Nike on the team's brand relaunch and nearly universally praised uniform update/unveiling while also remaining heavily involved in the team's transition to its new SoFi Stadium home prior to the 2020 season.

In July 2024, the organization opened The Bolt, the first dedicated NFL team training facility and headquarters ever constructed in Los Angeles. Spanos worked closely with Chief of Staff Fred Maas on securing the 14-acre site, in El Segundo, Calif., which sits less than four miles from SoFi Stadium, LAX and popular South Bay beaches. The Bolt's extraordinary design, technological prowess, prime location and dynamic event space place the building squarely at the intersection of entertainment and professional sports. It's ability to serve as a destination for television and commercial shoots as well as campaign photoshoots, combined with a third-floor private, members-only club, ensure that The Bolt will be a prime asset in the Chargers' business portfolio. Prior to The Bolt, Spanos led the organization's efforts to secure space for training camp and a practice facility in Costa Mesa during the 2017 offseason.

Throughout these transitions, Spanos has ensured that making a positive impact in the community has remained constant. In 2018 alone, the Chargers were honored as Red Cross LA's Humanitarian Organization of the Year and presented with the Mayor's Award from the Association of Corporate Growth (ACG) Los Angeles – both in recognition of the impact they have made in the greater Los Angeles community. In 2020, The Chargers Community Foundation – established by the Spanos family in 1995 – was renamed The Los Angeles Chargers Impact Fund. To date, the entity has provided nearly $13 million to support a wide range of services and programs directly benefiting children and families. Spanos currently serves as President of the Board for the Impact Fund.

In 2020, he participated in the Inglewood Airport Area Chamber of Commerce's State of the City alongside Mayor James T. Butts while in 2018, Spanos accepted the James T. Butts Award from the same Chamber of Commerce in honor of his grandfather and Spanos patriarch, the late Alex Spanos. The recognition highlighted Alex Spanos' business leadership and commitment to the community.

Spanos played football as a freshman at Tufts University in Medford, Mass., before returning to California to continue his education at the University of Southern California, where he earned a bachelor's degree in marketing from the Marshall School of Business. In addition to his work with the Chargers, Spanos is currently a board member of the Los Angeles Sports & Entertainment Commission and the Los Angeles Sports Council & Sports Council Foundation. In 2023, he was inaugurated as the Chairman of the Board of the Los Angeles Area Chamber of Commerce in a special ceremony at an event on the field of SoFi Stadium and is currently the Immediate Past Chair of the Chamber.

Spanos is the eldest son of Owner and Chairman of the Board Dean Spanos and his wife, Susie. A member of YPO-Los Angeles and Alder in Orange County, he and his wife, Kamri, reside in Laguna Beach with their four sons.

JOHN SPANOS

PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

John Spanos was named President of Football Operations for the Chargers in May 2015 and oversees all football-related functions of the team, including player personnel, coaching, player finance and the salary cap, medical, equipment, video, player engagement and security.

The 2024 season will mark Spanos' 29th year in the NFL and his 26th with the team. Spanos began working for the Chargers in 1995, originally in the football operations department as a seasonal assistant. He assisted the department for five straight summers, assisting with contract negotiations and helping manage the salary cap for the final three.

In the summer of 2001, Spanos worked in New York at the NFL Office's Management Council department — which oversees and enforces the collective bargaining agreement. He returned the following year to help in the same capacity for the 2002 season before returning to California. In 2008, he was among a select list of NFL executives invited to participate in the NFL's Executive Education Program at the Stanford Business School in Palo Alto, Calif.

He began working full-time as a scout for the Chargers in 2003. Spanos worked his way up through the organization, including positions as a pro and college scout (2003-05), assistant director of college scouting (2006-07), director of college scouting (2008-12) and executive vice president of football operations (2013-14). Throughout his time with the club, Spanos has continued to work closely with Executive Vice President of Football Administration/Player Finance Ed McGuire to manage the salary cap and retain some of the team's top players.

Spanos' ascension within the organization coincided with one of the most successful eras in franchise history. From 2004-09, the Chargers won 67 regular-season games, good for the third-most in the NFL over that span. The team also won three playoff games during that stretch, reaching 70 total wins from 2004-09, which was fourth-most in the league. The Chargers won the AFC West five times from 2004-09 and advanced to the AFC Championship Game in 2007.

Named Executive Vice President of Football Operations in 2013, Spanos helped assemble a squad in 2018 that tied for the AFC's best record at 12-4 and reached the divisional round of the playoffs following a wild card victory at Baltimore. Most recently this offseason, Spanos led the search that resulted in the hires of Joe Hortiz as general manager and Jim Harbaugh as head coach, bringing the former Chargers quarterback back into the fold after he led Michigan to a 15-0 record and National Championship.

Spanos has helped the Chargers acquire and retain some of the most prolific talent in football over the last 20 seasons, as the team had 34 players make a combined 82 Pro Bowls over that span — including 17 that have been named to 34 all-star games in the last 10 seasons. In addition to acquiring star players, four players in the last 11 drafts went on to earn Rookie of the Year honors.

Spanos serves as the Chairman of the Board for the National Invitational Camp, which oversees the running of the annual NFL Scouting Combine. He is also a trustee for the NFL Player Benefit Board and a co-chair on the NFL's Future of Football Advisory Committee. He formerly served as the Chairman of the Board for National Football Scouting and is an Honorary Member of the University of California-San Diego (UCSD) Athletic Board. In addition to his scouting board roles, Spanos is also a board member for the Los Angeles Chargers Impact Fund.

In June 2010, Spanos was named one of the "Top 40 Under 40" Greek-Americans by Greek America Magazine. The acknowledgment came in recognition of his achievements in both business and community leadership. He often represents the organization at various team and community events, notably speaking at the kickoff event for 2018 Summer Night Lights alongside Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti.

Spanos was born in Stockton, Calif. He attended The Bishop's School in La Jolla, Calif., where he lettered in football as a wide receiver and defensive back. He also lettered in golf and basketball and was a member of three CIF championship teams. After Bishop's, Spanos attended Wake Forest University, graduating with a degree in business.

John and his wife, Jodie, have two children.

JEANNE M. BONK

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT –
CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

One of the Chargers' longest-tenured executives, as well as one of the highest-ranking female executives in the National Football League, Jeanne Bonk currently serves as Executive Vice President – Chief Operating Officer for the Bolts. She held Chief Financial Officer responsibilities in addition to her COO assignments from May 2016 until December 2022.

Bonk originally joined the Chargers in 1991 as Chief Financial Officer. In 1994, she was promoted to Chief Financial and Administrative Officer, a position she retained for seven years. In 2000, Bonk was named Vice President – Chief Financial Officer and, in 2005, was promoted to Executive Vice President – Chief Financial Officer.

Bonk's expertise and leadership have been critical to the ongoing success of the organization in many areas. Paramount among her current duties, she actively manages the team's involvement with SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park.

In March 2021, Bonk was recognized as a 'Champion of Change,' by the Inglewood Airport Area Chamber of Commerce at the Women Business Leaders Luncheon. She was also nominated by the Orange County Business Journal for the 2019 Women in Business Award. Bonk has been a presenter and panelist at numerous speaking engagements regarding women in leadership, including at the Chargers Business Alliance in February 2019 and the Chargers & Rams Women in Sports & Events in August 2020.

A native of Covina, Calif., Bonk began her professional career in 1983 with the international accounting firm, Price Waterhouse. She worked at Price Waterhouse for eight years, leaving as a senior audit manager to join the Chargers in 1991.

Bonk attended Mater Dei High School in Santa Ana, Calif., before earning a bachelor's degree in business administration with emphasis in accounting and graduating with honors from the University of San Diego in 1983. She is both a Certified Public Accountant and Chartered Global Management Accountant. Bonk was nominated – and subsequently named a finalist – for the City of San Diego's Chief Financial Officer of the Year Award in 2009 and was also inducted into the Mater Dei High School Ring of Honor in 2011.

Bonk is a member of the American Institute of CPAs, the California Society of CPAs and is also currently a member of the NFL Owners' Audit Committee. She previously sat on the San Diego Humane Society's Audit Committee and the San Diego Diocesan Finance Council. In addition, she previously chaired the Finance Committee of Cathedral Catholic High School for six years.

Bonk is married to her husband, Jim.

ED MCGUIRE

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL
ADMINISTRATION/PLAYER FINANCE

Now in his 37th NFL season and 27th with the Chargers, Ed McGuire has worked his way up the football operations staff with the Chargers since joining the team in 1998. Named Executive Vice President of Football Administration/Player Finance in January 2013, McGuire serves as the club's chief negotiator and manages the salary cap while overseeing compliance of NFL and Collective Bargaining Agreement rules. He has been a member of the NFL Player Insurance Trust since 2002.

McGuire's previous roles with the Chargers include Coordinator of Football Operations (1998-00), Vice President of Football Operations (2000-06), Executive Vice President of Football Operations (2007) and Executive Vice President of Football Operations – Assistant General Manager (2008-12).

Throughout his tenure with the Chargers, McGuire has negotiated numerous long-term contracts and contract extensions. In 2004, he negotiated an eight-year contract extension for Hall of Fame running back LaDainian Tomlinson, who earned NFL MVP honors in 2006 and led the league in rushing in back-to-back seasons (2006-07) during the contract. At the time, the deal was the largest contract signed by a running back in NFL history. McGuire most recently negotiated Justin Herbert's multi-year extension, securing the Bolts' record-setting, franchise quarterback as he entered his fourth pro season. At the time, Herbert's deal was the largest contract in NFL history in terms of average annual salary.

In addition to Herbert, McGuire negotiated new contracts and extensions for several key players over the last few years, locking up some of the team's best players for the foreseeable future, including standouts Derwin James Jr., and Joey Bosa.

McGuire joined the Chargers after serving as the Senior Manager of Labor Operations for the NFL's Management Council from 1996-98. He was the league's Manager of Player Personnel from 1991-96 and originally joined the NFL in 1987 as a Player Personnel Analyst. McGuire also worked in the Player Personnel department for the United States Football League from 1984-86.

During his tenure in the National Football League office, McGuire became a leading expert on the NFL's salary cap and Collective Bargaining Agreement, which was created in 1993 between the NFL and the NFL Players Association.

Born in Riverhead, N.Y., McGuire graduated with a degree in athletic administration in 1984 from St. John's University in Jamaica, N.Y. He played football and baseball at Riverhead High. He recently was elected into the Suffolk County (N.Y.) Sports Hall of Fame.

McGuire and his wife, Jane, have two children – son, Kevin, and daughter, Shannon – and reside in Laguna Niguel, Calif.

INFORMATION

Fred Maas is Chief of Staff and Counselor for the Los Angeles Chargers, overseeing all business and legal functions, reporting to ownership.

Maas has overseen a number of significant projects since joining the organization in 2016, most notably identifying a site to build the Chargers permanent training facility and corporate headquarters. The seven-year process culminated in the summer of 2024 with the opening of The Bolt, the first dedicated NFL team training facility and headquarters ever constructed in Los Angeles. The El Segundo-based facility boasts expansive views of the LA Basin – including the Downtown skyline, Griffith Observatory and iconic Hollywood sign – and sits within four miles of LAX, popular South Bay beaches and SoFi Stadium. The Bolt's extraordinary design, technological prowess, prime location and dynamic event space place the building squarely at the intersection of entertainment and professional sports.

Maas also played a central role in overseeing the team's move into its SoFi Stadium home at the start of the 2020 season and was instrumental in helping the organization welcome fans to the venue in 2021 for the first time following the pandemic.

Maas previously served as the executive chairman of MRV Systems LLC, a manufacturer of marine robotic vehicles for the oceanographic and defense industries. Prior to his role at MRV, he was the Chairman and CEO of the San Diego Centre City Development Corporation (CCDC), which oversaw, on behalf of the city, all redevelopment activities for downtown San Diego.

Maas was a principal and served as President and CEO of Black Mountain Ranch, a 4,660-acre property that his partnership acquired in 1988. Then undeveloped land, Black Mountain Ranch is now home to several large-scale residential communities, including Santaluz and Del Sur.

In the 1980s and '90s, Maas served as a partner at Potomac Sports Properties, the exclusive developer of the PGA TOUR Inc. Earlier, Maas represented the TOUR on marketing, regulatory, legislative and tax matters.

Maas has served in a variety of capacities in national, state and local politics over the past 35 years, including stints with Senators Bob Dole and John McCain, Jack Kemp and Governor Mitch Daniels among others. Maas also served as a special advisor to Todd Properties of New Zealand and H.E. Stuart Beck, the late Palauan Ambassador to the United Nations. In 2017, Governor Edmund G. Brown, Jr., appointed Maas as a Commissioner on the California Horse Racing Board.

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Maas graduated cum laude from Syracuse University's College of Law and Hobart College. Maas is admitted to the District of Columbia bar.

Maas has a daughter, Katherine Claire, who resides in New York City.

JOE HORTIZ

GENERAL MANAGER

27TH NFL SEASON | 1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

With a keen eye for acquiring talented players, Joe Hortiz was hired as the 10th General Manager in franchise history. He came to Los Angeles after most recently serving as the director of player personnel for the Baltimore Ravens from 2019-23 after holding a variety of roles while advancing through Baltimore's personnel department.

Hortiz, who helped build Baltimore's Super Bowl XLVII-winning roster, brings 26 seasons of NFL experience to Los Angeles, along with a track record of building complete teams through the draft and free agency. As one of the chief personnel evaluators for the Ravens over the last five seasons, Hortiz helped the organization compile rosters to make the playoffs in four of those seasons and posted a 56-27 record in that span, including a league-best mark of 13-4 in 2023.

Hortiz helped run a Baltimore personnel department for the last five years that drafted five players that went on to earn Pro Bowl recognition. He was part of a staff that traded for linebacker Roquan Smith in 2022 and defensive end Calais Campbell in 2020, as well as signed key pieces like outside linebacker Jadeveon Clowney, wide receiver Odell Beckham Jr., and guard Kevin Zeitler. In his first season as a director of player personnel in 2019, Hortiz helped compile a roster that posted a 14-2 record, the best in franchise history.

In 10 years (2009-18) as Baltimore's director of college scouting, Hortiz's eye for talent was on display, as he oversaw a process that ended up drafting 13 players to combine for 25 Pro Bowls and six Associated Press first-team All-Pro selections. Hortiz had a lasting impact on the organization from 2009-23 after his role expanded, as the Ravens drafted 18 Pro Bowlers and seven AP first-team All-Pros in that time. He helped bring in eventual five-time AP first-team All-Pro and six-time Pro Bowl kicker Justin Tucker as an undrafted free agent in 2012, as well as select some of the top players in the NFL in recent memory, capped by the 2018 draft class that included tight end Mark Andrews and quarterback Lamar Jackson, who earned league MVP honors in his second season.

General Manager 2024

Hortiz got his start with the Ravens as a personnel assistant in 1998, working in that role until he became an area scout for the team from 2001-05. He then became a national scout for three seasons (2006-08), with a focus on the eastern half of the country, helping the team select quarterback Joe Flacco in the first round of the 2008 NFL Draft, who went on to eventually be named Super Bowl XLVII MVP. Hortiz graduated from Auburn University with a bachelor's degree in accounting, working as an undergraduate assistant coach for the Tigers football team from 1995-97.

Hortiz and his wife, Jennifer, have four sons — Joey, Jack, Jameson and Julian.

RECORDS & HISTORY

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Los Angeles Chargers hired Jim Harbaugh as the 19th head coach in franchise history, returning the former Bolts quarterback from the 1999 and 2000 seasons to Southern California. Harbaugh brings with him a winning culture, posting a 144-52 record as a collegiate head coach and a 49-22-1 record as an NFL head coach. In four years, he led the San Francisco 49ers to three-straight NFC Championship Games, including an appearance in Super Bowl XLVII.

Harbaugh rejoined the Chargers after spending the past nine years at his alma mater as head football coach for the University of Michigan. He led Michigan to an 86-25 record along with three-consecutive Big Ten Championships, three-straight appearances in the College Football Playoff and a perfect 15-0 record during his final season in Ann Arbor, Mich., that saw the Wolverines crowned 2023 National Champions.

As head coach for the Wolverines, Harbaugh coached the top defense in the nation, allowing just 291.0 yards per game in that nine-year span. Michigan had a top-five defense in the country five times over those nine seasons, including twice as the top-ranked defense in the nation. His keen eye for talent and ability to develop players was on display at Michigan, as he coached nine eventual first-round NFL Draft selections over his nine-season tenure, including defensive end Aidan Hutchinson (No. 2 in 2022), linebacker Devin Bush (No. 10 in 2019) as top-10 picks.

Harbaugh returned to his alma mater after spending four seasons (2011-14) as the head coach of the San Francisco 49ers, leading the team to a 49-22-1 record and three-consecutive NFC Championship Games, including a victory in 2012 to represent the NFC in Super Bowl XLVII. He was named 2011 NFL Coach of the Year by The Associated Press after his first season with San Francisco, when he led the 49ers to an NFC West division crown with a 13-3 record. That season, the defense led the NFL with 38 takeaways and ranked No. 1 in rushing defense, allowing just 77.3 yards per game on the ground.

Leading the 49ers to the franchise's first NFC Championship crown in over a decade-and-a-half, a game in which San Francisco orchestrated a 17-point comeback, Harbaugh's 2012 unit led the NFC in total defense (294.4 total net yards per game) and passing defense (200.2 net passing yards per game). In 2013, Harbaugh led a resilient group that won each of their final six games to clinch a playoff spot before winning two postseason bouts and appearing in the NFC Championship Game for the third-straight season.

Harbaugh coached 17 players to a combined 30 Pro Bowls with the 49ers — the second-most Pro Bowlers in the NFL in that time. Eight of those players were also recognized as AP first-team All-Pros, including linebackers Patrick Willis (twice) and NaVorro Bowman (three times). Over Harbaugh's four years with San Francisco, the 49ers led the NFL in rushing defense (92.0 yards per game), while ranking No. 2 in scoring defense (17.4 points per game), third in total defense (310.2) and No. 4 with 122 takeaways.

Prior to being a head coach in the NFL, Harbaugh spent four years at the helm at Stanford University (2007-10) and three at the University of San Diego (2004-06). He turned around a Stanford program that went 1-11 in 2006 and led the Cardinal to 29 wins over his four seasons in Palo Alto, Calif., including a 12-win season that culminated in an Orange Bowl victory in 2010. Harbaugh broke into the head coaching ranks at San Diego, leading the Toreros to a 29-6 record in three years.

Harbaugh began his coaching career as the quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders from 2002-03. In his first season with Oakland, the Raiders went to Super Bowl XXXVII, while quarterback Rich Gannon earned MVP honors and was named a Pro Bowler and an AP first-team All-Pro.

In 15 years as an NFL quarterback (1987-2001), Harbaugh played for five organizations, including with the Chargers from 1999-2000. He got his start in coaching while he was still playing in the NFL, working as an unpaid assistant at Western Kentucky from 1994-2001, where his father, Jack, was the head coach. Harbaugh was selected with the 25th overall pick in the 1987 NFL Draft by Chicago and went on to start 140-of-177 career games played, throwing for 26,288 yards and 129 touchdowns. He led the NFL in passer rating in 1995, earning Comeback Player of the Year recognition and a Pro Bowl selection after leading the Colts to an AFC Championship Game appearance. Harbaugh eventually went to the Chargers for two seasons and is one of four Bolts quarterbacks to throw for 400 yards in a single game.

Harbaugh played quarterback at the University of Michigan, finishing his career as one of the most efficient passers in college football history. He posted a 21-3-1 record as a starter for the Wolverines, earning first-team All-American honors and finishing third in voting for the Heisman Trophy in 1986. Harbaugh paced the nation in 1985 in passing efficiency rating, while his career passing efficiency rating ranked as the best in NCAA history for more than 12 years following his time at Michigan.

Harbaugh has long been an advocate and reformer for collegiate student athletes. During his time as the head coach at Michigan, Harbaugh instrumental in helping refine and create change in collegiate athletics to benefit the student athletes. He was a pioneer among collegiate head coaches in calling for changes in transfer portal rules and eligibility, NLI and profit sharing.

A native of Toledo, Ohio, Harbaugh and his wife, Sarah, have two daughters — Addison and Katherine — and two sons — Jack and John. He also has three adult children — Jay, James Jr., and Grace. Harbaugh's son, Jay, is the special teams coordinator for the Seattle Seahawks. He is also the younger brother of Baltimore Ravens Head Coach John Harbaugh, and the brothers are sons of Jack and Jackie Harbaugh.

GENERAL
INFORMATION

Ryan Ficken enters his third season as special teams coordinator with the Chargers in 2024 after turning the unit around to be one of the NFL's best over his first two years in Los Angeles. Over his first two seasons with the Bolts, Ficken coached the unit to convert a league-high 97.2 percent of all of its kicks (field goals and PATs combined) and lead the NFL with a 13.7-yard punt return average.

In 2023, Ficken continued to keep the special teams a strength for the Chargers. His unit averaged 16.0 yards per punt return, setting a single-season franchise record and ranking No. 2 in the NFL. Ficken coached the most disciplined unit in football, as the Chargers had just two penalties on special teams in 2023, the fewest in the NFL. The unit featured kicker Cameron Dicker, who made 31-of-33 field goals (93.9 pct.) last season, tying for the fourth-most made field goals in a single season by a Chargers kicker in history. Along with Dicker making all 35 extra point attempts, the team's 97.1 total kicking percentage (66-of-68) ranked No. 2 in the NFL. Dicker ended the season with a 94.5 career field goal percentage (52-of-55), the best by any kicker in NFL history with at least 50 career attempts.

Meanwhile, rookie wide receiver Derius Davis stepped in as one of the best returners in the NFL. He led all qualified returners with a 16.0-yard punt return average and paced the AFC with 385 punt return yards. Davis earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after taking one of his punt returns for an 87-yard touchdown on Monday Night Football at the New York Jets. Punter JK Scott was also recognized as AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after he set a career high and single-game franchise record with seven punts placed inside the 20-yard line in the Week 13 victory at New England. Scott's 42.3-yard net punting average in 2023 was a career high and surpassed his mark from 2022 (41.5) as the best in a single season by a Charger in over 20 years. Davis (as a return specialist), Scott and long snapper Josh Harris were all named Pro Bowl alternates on special teams.

Ficken coordinated a special teams unit in his first season with the Bolts that led the NFL by allowing just 3.1 yards per punt return, which was the best average allowed by any Chargers team in 50 years. He also oversaw the AFC's top kicking unit, making 31-of-33 field goals (93.9 pct.) despite deploying three different kickers on the year due to injury. The team's 93.9 field goal percentage ranked No. 2 in the NFL in 2022 and led the AFC.

That year, Los Angeles' unit saw three specialists win Special Teams Player of the Week — Dicker, Scott and kicker Dustin Hopkins. The Bolts were the first known team to have two different kickers win the weekly honor in the same season. Dicker was also named the AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for December/January, becoming the third Charger to earn an AFC Player of the Month award in their rookie season. Ficken tutored Dicker to earn All-Rookie honors from the Professional Football Writers of America and set the NFL's rookie single-season field goal percentage record among players with 15 attempts by making 21-of-22 field goals (95.5 pct.). Scott, Harris and wide receiver DeAndre Carter (as a return specialist) were all named Pro Bowl alternates on special teams.

Ficken spent the first 15 years of his NFL career with the Minnesota Vikings, serving as the team's special teams coordinator in 2021 after assisting the unit for the prior eight seasons. He directed a special teams unit that led the NFC and ranked second in the league in kickoff return average (26.5), as kicker Greg Joseph led the conference with 33 made field goals, including a conference-best seven makes of 50-plus yards. Ficken's unit was ranked ninth in the NFL by Pro Football Focus, while punter Jordan Berry's gross average of 46.5 yards per punt ranked the best in franchise history. Under Ficken's guidance, running back Kene Nwagwu led the NFL with two kickoff return touchdowns and was named PFWA All-Rookie as a kick returner. Nwagwu, fullback C.J. Ham and long snapper Andrew DePaola were all named alternates for the Pro Bowl on special teams.

In 2016, Patterson was named to his second Pro Bowl after helping the Vikings pace the NFL with three total return touchdowns. Patterson's 31.7-yard kickoff return average led the league, as he became the first player to own the NFL's top mark in kickoff return average in three separate seasons. Minnesota led the NFL in kickoff return average in back-to-back seasons in 2015-16. Cornerback Marcus Sherels totaled two punt return touchdowns in 2016, tying the NFL lead. Sherels had a 77-yard punt return for a touchdown in 2015, earning him NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in a Week 8 win at Chicago.

In the eight seasons (2013-20) prior, Ficken assisted with a special teams unit that produced seven different players to earn NFC Special Teams Player of the Week. He also helped coach wide receiver Cordarrelle Patterson to be twice named a Pro Bowler at kick returner (2013, '16 seasons) and win NFC Special Teams Player of the Month in September 2013.

Ficken assisted the kickoff coverage to hold opponents to a return average of 20.7 yards, the fourth-best mark in the NFL in 2014. In a Week 13 win over the Panthers, wide receiver Adam Thielen blocked and recovered a punt, returning it 30 yards for a touchdown en route to NFC Special Teams Player of the Week recognition. In Ficken's first season coaching special teams, Patterson was named a first-team All-Pro at kick returner by The Associated Press and received his first Pro Bowl nod as the kick returner after setting Minnesota's single-season franchise records in kickoff return yards (1,393), kickoff return average (32.4) and kickoff return touchdowns (two), leading the NFL in all categories. Patterson's 109-yard kickoff return touchdown in Week 8 remains the longest kickoff return score in NFL history. In the punt return phase, Sherels set the team record with a 15.2-yard-average, ranking second in the NFL. In a Week 7 win at the Giants, Sherels finished the game with a single-game Vikings record of 119 punt return yards.

Ficken helped Minnesota lead the NFL with three fumble recoveries on punt coverage in 2020, as rookie safety Josh Metellus recovered two of the fumbles and led all NFL rookies with nine special teams stops. Running back Mike Boone won NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after forcing one of the fumbles in a Week 4 win at Houston. One season prior, kicker Dan Bailey won the weekly conference award three times as the Vikings kicking unit totaled 121 points (postseason included) and made 22 field goals in a row, the longest streak in the NFL to close out the 2019 season. In 2017, kicker Kai Forbath was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after making a career-high six field goals in the Week 7 win vs. Baltimore. In the NFC Divisional Round victory over New Orleans, Forbath set the franchise record for the longest made field goal in the postseason, connecting from 53 yards out with less than two minutes remaining in regulation.

Before assisting with the Minnesota special teams unit, Ficken coached four seasons (2009-12) for the Vikings as assistant wide receivers coach. He helped Sidney Rice and Percy Harvin III garner Pro Bowl recognition in Ficken's first season at the position. Ficken contributed to Harvin's development, which saw the Florida product win NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year recognition in 2009 after hauling in 60 passes for 790 yards and six touchdowns, moving the chains on 42 of those receptions. That same season, Rice recorded the first 1,300-yard receiving season in franchise history, finishing the campaign with 83 catches for 1,312 yards and eight touchdowns. Harvin went on to lead the Vikings with 71 catches for 871 yards (12.2 avg.) and five scores in 2010, before hauling in a career-best 87 catches for 967 yards (11.1 avg.) and six touchdowns in 2011.

Ficken began his NFL career by serving as the assistant running backs coach for Minnesota for two seasons (2007-08). His first year featured 2007 NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year Adrian Peterson, as Minnesota's run game led the NFL in 2007 with an average of 164.6 yards per game and as Peterson finished with 1,341 yards and 12 scores on the ground, adding Pro Bowl MVP to the trophy case in his first professional season. Peterson set the NFL's all-time single-game rushing record with 296 yards during his rookie season. The following year, Peterson led the NFL with 1,760 rushing yards, earning AP first-team All-Pro recognition and his second Pro Bowl selection.

A native of Centennial, Colo., Ficken broke into the coaching ranks as a defensive assistant (2004-05) and offensive assistant (2006) at UCLA after his playing career at Arizona State. During his time as a graduate assistant at UCLA, Ficken studied comparative education. Ficken played wide receiver two seasons (1998-99) for the Sun Devils and earned his bachelor's degree in business administration. As a player, he received the team's Scholar-Athlete Award and was a member of Gamma Beta Phi, the National Scholastic Honor Society.

Ficken and his wife, Andrea, have two sons, Wyatt and Jonathan, and one daughter, Gianna.

JESSE MINTER

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

5TH NFL SEASON | 1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Jesse Minter enters his first season as defensive coordinator for the Chargers, bringing with him 18 years of coaching experience at both the professional and collegiate level. Minter arrives in Los Angeles after leading and coordinating the country's top-ranked defense in 2023 at the University of Michigan, capping the season with a College Football Playoff National Championship.

Under Minter's leadership, Michigan led the nation in total defense (247.0) and scoring defense (10.4) this past season, allowing just 17 defensive touchdowns over 15 games, the second-fewest by any unit in the country despite playing in two more games than the leader. Adding the responsibilities of interim head coach for the season opener, Minter's leadership and direction guided the eventual National Champions to a victory over East Carolina, securing his first official victory as a head coach.

Minter was a finalist for the Broyles Award in 2022, an honor annually presented to the top assistant coach in college football, after leading a defense that finished top-10 in the nation in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense and defensive pass efficiency, as four Wolverine defenders earned first- or second-team All-Big Ten recognition and three players were drafted, including first-round pick Mazi Smith.

Prior to joining Jim Harbaugh's staff in Ann Arbor in 2022, Minter served as a collegiate defensive coordinator at Vanderbilt (2021), Georgia State (2013-16) and Indiana State (2012-11), with a four-year stretch as an assistant on the defensive staff with the Baltimore Ravens (2017-20) — a period in which the Baltimore's unit ranked as the second-best total defense in the NFL over that four-year span and surrendered a league-low 292.9 yards per game in 2018, his first season tutoring the secondary. During his four seasons in Baltimore, the Ravens secured three postseason berths and back-to-back AFC North Division crowns (2018-19).

Minter's four seasons as defensive coordinator at Georgia State commenced as a period of foundational development, followed by a program-shifting advancement that saw the Panthers become bowl-eligible for the first time in program history in Minter's third season. After earning his first Broyles Award nomination in 2015, Minter led a defense that finished top-25 in the nation in red zone defense, yards per play allowed and defensive pass efficiency in 2016.

Over his four seasons at Indiana State (2009-12), the latter three as the program's defensive coordinator, Minter helped 13 Sycamores defenders earn All-Missouri Valley Football Conference recognition while leading the defense. Minter's unit ranked third in the FBS in scoring defense sixth in total defense in 2012, as the Sycamores secured their third-straight winning season for the first time since the 1960s.

Minter entered the coaching ranks as a defensive intern at the University of Notre Dame in 2006, before serving as a graduate assistant at the University of Cincinnati for two seasons (2007-08), helping coach the linebackers. After the defensive unit lead the nation in takeaways in 2007, the Bearcats won the Big East Conference title in 2008 during his second season and secured an appearance in the Orange Bowl.

Jesse is the son of Rick Minter, who served 10 seasons as head coach at the University of Cincinnati (1994-2003) during his 45-plus-year coaching journey. Rick spent time on Jesse's staff at Michigan and is currently a senior defensive analyst for the Bolts.

A former wide receiver at Division III College of Mount Saint Joseph (2002-05), Minter helped the Lions reach 30 wins during his collegiate playing career, helping the program secure back-to-back Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference titles over his final two seasons.

Minter and his wife, Rachelle, have three children – Millie, Monte and Mac.

GREG ROMAN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

26TH NFL SEASON | 1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

A 25-year NFL coaching veteran, including 10 seasons directing offenses for three different NFL teams, Greg Roman enters his first season in Los Angeles as the Chargers offensive coordinator. He most recently served as offensive coordinator for the Baltimore Ravens, leading one of the league's most prolific units.

Over his four seasons as offensive coordinator in Baltimore, Roman led an offense that ranked among the league's leaders in rushing attack, finishing top-three in total rushing offense all four seasons and producing NFL-best, top-ranking rushing units each of his first two years directing the charge.

In his first season as Baltimore's offensive coordinator, Roman, who was named Associated Press NFL Assistant Coach of the Year, guided the Ravens' offense to rank top in the league in rushing (206.0 yards per game) and second in the NFL in total offense (407.6) in 2019, as quarterback Lamar Jackson was named AP NFL Most Valuable Player behind a league-high 43 total touchdowns, a franchise-record and league-leading 37 passing scores and an NFL quarterback-record 1,206 rushing yards. The Ravens finished the 2019 campaign ranked No. 1 in the league in points per game (33.2), setting a new all-time NFL rushing record with 3,296 yards on the ground as well as the all-time record for average time of possession (34:37) in 16 games, becoming the first team in league history to average over 200 rushing yards and 200 passing yards per game in a season. Baltimore's offense featured tight end Mark Andrews, who led all NFL tight ends with 10 receiving scores, and running back Mark Ingram II, who tied the single-season franchise-record with 15 total touchdowns, as the Ravens recorded a franchise-best regular-season record of 14-2.

Following their run in 2019, the Roman-led offense yet again led the NFL in rushing in 2020 (191.9), totaling the third-most rushing yards in a 16-game regular season in league annals (3,071). The Ravens set a new single-season franchise record with 24 rushing scores, registering an NFL-best six games with at least 200 yards on the ground, with a franchise-record 404-yard output in a Week 17 win at Cincinnati. Baltimore's 24 rushing touchdowns in 2020 also set a new single-season franchise record.

In 2021, the Ravens finished third in the league with a run game that averaged 145.8 yards per game, ranking sixth overall in total offense (378.8). Roman's guidance helped Andrews earn AP First-Team All-Pro status after setting franchise records in receptions (107) and receiving yards (1,361), as Andrews collected his second of three Pro Bowl nods during his four seasons with Roman. Baltimore's 2022 campaign featured season-ending injuries to Jackson and two starting wide receivers. Despite the adversity, the Ravens' offense still ranked No. 2 in the NFL in rushing offense (160.0) with an NFL-high 12 games with at least 150 rushing yards.

Prior to his record-setting tenure in Baltimore, Roman spent six seasons as the offensive coordinator for the San Francisco 49ers (2011-14) and Buffalo Bills (2015-16).

With Roman as offensive coordinator on Head Coach Jim Harbaugh's staff in San Francisco, the 49ers reached in three-straight NFC Championship Games (2011-13) and appeared in Super Bowl XLVII. Over his four seasons coordinating the offense, the 49ers recorded a 44-19-1 regular-season record. In their first season in the Bay Area, the 49ers went 13-3 and won the NFC West Division title, committing a league-low 10 turnovers, tying for the then-fewest in a single season in NFL history. The following season, en route to an NFC Championship and Super Bowl XLVII berth, Roman's offense ranked third in the NFL in both yards per play (5.97) and rushing yards per carry (5.97). In his first career postseason start, quarterback Colin Kaepernick set an NFL postseason record with 181 rushing yards in San Francisco's Divisional Round victory over the Packers. Roman's rushing offenses over his final three seasons each ranked within the top four of the league's top mark, boasting a third-place finish in 2013 with an average 137.6 rushing yards per game, following by a mark of 136.0 rushing yards per game in 2014, ranking fourth-best in the NFL.

In 2015, under Roman's direction, the Bills led the NFL in rushing with an average of 152.0 yards per game, totaling 24 rushing touchdowns of 20-plus yards and 53 explosive rushes, also a league-high. Buffalo sent four offensive players to the Pro Bowl following the 2015 campaign, including quarterback Tyrod Taylor, running back LeSean McCoy and center Eric Wood and guard Richie Incognito.

Roman spent two seasons under Harbaugh at Stanford University (2009-10), serving in the role of associate head coach and assistant head coach in 2010 after joining the Cardinal in 2009 as run game coordinator. A finalist for the Broyles Award in 2010, which is presented annually to the top assistant coach in college football, Roman led a Cardinal offense that helped the program put forth a 12-1 campaign, including a victory over Virginia Tech in the Orange Bowl. The Cardinal posted two victories over top-10 opponents in back-to-back weeks in 2009, No. 8-ranked Oregon and No. 9-ranked USC on the road, scoring over 50 points in each contest. During his time in Palo Alto, Calif., he guided running back Toby Gerhart and quarterback Andrew Luck to Heisman runner-up finishes in 2009 and 2010, respectively.

Entering the coaching ranks as an assistant on the expansion Carolina Panthers in 1995, Roman spent his first seven seasons working in a variety of capacities with the Panthers, aiding in the tutoring of the defensive backs, linebackers, tight ends, running backs and offensive line groups. Following his time in Carolina, Roman was hired by the Texans as the expansion club's tight ends coach in 2002, spending two seasons in that role before transitioning to quarterbacks coach in 2004. In his first season leading the quarterbacks group, Texans signal-caller David Carr totaled a career-high 3,531 passing yards and threw for a career-best 16 touchdowns.

Roman spent two seasons as the assistant offensive line coach with the Ravens (2006-07), helping tutor eventual Hall of Fame tackle Jonathan Ogden, who would be named to two of his 11-straight Pro Bowls over their two seasons together. In 2006, Roman's first season with the Ravens, Baltimore won the AFC North Division with a then-franchise-record 13 wins in the regular season. Roman then spent 2008 as offensive coordinator at Atlantic City High School.

A former all-conference defensive lineman at John Carroll University (1990-93), Roman helped the Blue Streaks claim a share of the 1993 Ohio Athletic Conference title, finishing his collegiate career with 145 tackles, including 20 tackles for loss and 9.5 sacks. Roman earned All-South Jersey recognition as a senior at Holy Spirit High School in Absecon, N.J. A native of Atlantic City, N.J., Roman and his wife, Dana, have three children — Connor, Gregory and Emily Grace.

ANDY BISCHOFF

RUN GAME COORDINATOR/TIGHT ENDS
12TH NFL SEASON | 1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Andy Bischoff brings over three decades of coaching experience from the NFL, CFL and high school football to the Chargers, where he enters his first season as run game coordinator/tight ends coach in 2024. He has a keen ability to develop players and is known for his physical style of run game.

Bischoff comes to Los Angeles after coaching tight ends for the New York Giants from 2022-23. He guided Darren Waller to rank second on the team last season with 52 receptions and 552 yards despite missing five games. In his first season in New York, Bischoff coached rookie Daniel Bellinger to 30 catches in 12 games played and adding a touchdown grab in the Giants' NFC Wild Card victory. Prior to his time in the Big Apple, Bischoff coached tight ends in 2021 for the Houston Texans. That season, he coached Brevin Jordan to catch three touchdowns, ranking second in the NFL among rookie tight ends.

Over a six-season span (2015-20), Bischoff was on the coaching staff for the Baltimore Ravens. His greatest contributions came from 2018-20 working closely with current Chargers Offensive Coordinator Greg Roman to develop a dominant tight end room that included working with Benjamin Watson, Maxx Williams, Nick Boyle, Darren Waller, Kyle Juszczyk, Hayden Hurst, Mark Andrews and Patrick Ricard. During his time in Charm City, the Ravens led all NFL offenses with an average of 141.7 yards per game and made three postseason appearances along with a pair of AFC North titles, while setting the all-time NFL rushing record in 2019. That same year, Boyle, Hurst and Andrews became the first trio of tight end teammates to each have 30 receptions in the same season. He was instrumental in the development of Andrews, who was selected to his first Pro Bowl in 2019 after hauling in 64 receptions for 852 yards (13.3 avg.) and 10 touchdowns. Andrews led all NFL tight ends from 2019-20 with 17 touchdown grabs.

Bischoff spent a pair of seasons in Chicago (2013-14) as tight ends coach/staff coordinator for the Bears. In 2014, he coached tight end Martellus Bennett to a Pro Bowl selection after he led all NFL tight ends with 90 catches and ranked third among tight ends 916 receiving yards. Bennett was the first Bears tight end named an all-star since Hall of Famer Mike Ditka in 1965.

Before his time in the NFL, Bischoff coached five seasons in the Canadian Football League with the Montreal Alouettes (2008-12), helping the team win back-to-back Grey Cups from 2009-10. He was the running backs coach/offensive quality control his first two seasons and then added special teams coordinator responsibilities in 2010 for his final three years in Montreal. Bischoff coached running back Brandon Whitaker to post a career-best 1,381 rushing yards along with 638 receiving yards on 72 receptions in 2011.

Bischoff played college football at the University of South Dakota, serving as a stalwart center for the Coyotes from 1989-92. He earned a bachelor's degree in education from South Dakota before later earning his master's degree in education administration in 1997 from Minnesota State University, Mankato. Bischoff added a post-master's certificate in administration from St. Mary's University in 2006.

After his playing career, Bischoff immediately entered the coaching ranks, getting his start at Cretin-Derham Hall High School in his native St. Paul, Minn., in 1993. He worked as a teacher and coached there for 15 seasons, serving as an offensive line coach, assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. Bischoff helped the Raiders win 168 games and just 11 losses during that time, including an MSHSL State Championship in 1999. He helped coach 18 offensive linemen and three tight ends that went on to earn Division I scholarships.

Bischoff and his wife, Brittany, have two daughters, Makena and Morgan, and a son, Jay.

NAVORRO BOWMAN

LINEBACKERS

9TH NFL SEASON | 1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

A four-time first-team All-Pro linebacker with over 100 career games played, NaVorro Bowman joins the Chargers as linebackers coach in 2024. Following his eight-year NFL playing career, Bowman entered the coaching ranks as a defensive analyst last season at the University of Maryland.

Bowman appeared in 99 regular-season games (84 starts), along with eight postseason starts, for the San Francisco 49ers and Oakland Raiders, spending all eight seasons of his playing career in the Bay Area. The District Heights, Md., native totaled 764 career tackles (557 solo), 48 tackles for loss, 14 sacks, five interceptions, 30 passes defended, seven forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries in the regular season. Bowman totaled seven seasons of action with San Francisco, before being traded to the Raiders during the 2017 season, appearing in Oakland's final 10 games.

Last season, Bowman served as a defensive analyst at Maryland, helping tutor the linebackers while aiding in game-planning and evaluation of the current roster. With a victory over Auburn in the Music City Bowl, the Terrapins clinched their third-straight season with a winning record and a bowl victory.

A third-round selection by San Francisco in the 2010 NFL Draft, Bowman, who primarily served as a special teams contributor as a rookie, went on to start each of his next 73 appearances at linebacker for the 49ers, finishing his tenure top-five all-time in franchise history in total tackles, solo tackles and tackles for loss, despite missing the entirety of the 2014 season due to injury. Bowman was named first-team All-Pro on four occasions, earning Pro Bowl honors on three occasions.

Recipient of the Butkus Award in 2013, which is presented annually to the top linebacker in each level of football, Bowman led the 49ers with 143 tackles (118 solo) — his third-straight season with at least 140 stops defensively — guiding San Francisco to the NFC Championship Game for the third consecutive year. Recipient of the league's NFC Defensive Player of the Month

With less than two minutes remaining in San Francisco's Week 16 win over the Atlanta Falcons on Monday Night Football, Bowman collected an interception off of a deflection and returned the takeaway 89 yards for a touchdown, immortalizing a play now referred to as The Pick at the Stick and securing victory for the 49ers, clinching a playoff spot in what would be the final season, and final touchdown scored, at historic Candlestick Park.

A two-time All-Big Ten selection, Bowman played collegiately at Penn State (2006-09), totaling over 200 tackles for the Nittany Lions. Leading the team in tackles as a junior in 2008, Bowman tied Penn State's bowl game record with five tackles for loss in the Rose Bowl against USC, as he earned first-team All-Big Ten recognition. Bowman graduated from Penn State in just three years with a bachelor's degree in criminal law and justice.

Bowman was selected as Maryland Defensive Player of the Year following his senior season at Suitland High School in Forestville, Md., where he registered 165 tackles, nine sacks and three fumble recoveries, while rushing for over 1,200 yards and 22 touchdowns offensively.

Bowman and his wife, Mikale, have four children — Stoni, Cali, NaVorro Jr. and Navi.

MARCUS BRADY

PASSING GAME COORDINATOR
7TH NFL SEASON | 3RD SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Marcus Brady enters his first season in 2024 as passing game coordinator for the Chargers. He comes to Los Angeles with 15 years of professional coaching experience, including spending the last seven seasons coaching at the NFL level.

Brady most recently was with the Philadelphia Eagles as a senior offensive consultant, helping the offense last season set a single-season franchise record and rank No. 3 in the NFL by posting a 48.0 third-down conversion rate. Brady helped quarterback Jalen Hurts post 38 combined touchdowns in 2023 (23 passing, 15 rushing), becoming the first Eagles signal-caller to record back-to-back season with at least 35 combined touchdowns and setting a single-season franchise record with 4,463 total yards, including a career-high 3,858 through the air.

The offense also featured wide receiver A.J. Brown, who registered the second-most catches (106) and receiving yards (1,456) by any Eagle in a single season in history. Brady first joined the Eagles partway through the 2022 season, helping Philadelphia clinch the top seed in the NFL entering the postseason and defeating San Francisco in the NFC Championship Game to secure an appearance in Super Bowl LVII.

Brady broke into the NFL with the Indianapolis Colts, working his way up to offensive coordinator from 2021-22. In his first season as the offensive coordinator, Brady led one of the top rushing attacks in football, as Indianapolis ranked No. 2 in the NFL in rushing yards per game (149.4) and yards per carry (5.5). The unit was led by running back Jonathan Taylor, who earned Associated Press first-team All-Pro honors after leading the league and setting franchise records with 1,811 rushing yards and 18 scores.

Prior to being the offensive coordinator, Brady was the quarterbacks coach from 2019-20 after his first season with the Colts as assistant quarterbacks coach in 2018. In his second season as quarterbacks coach, Brady helped quarterback Philip Rivers rank inside the top-10 in the NFL with 4,169 passing yards and a 60.8 completion percentage. In Brady's first season with the Colts as assistant quarterbacks coach, he helped instruct quarterback Andrew Luck to throw for 39 touchdowns, ranking No. 2 in the NFL that year, along with 4,593 yards and a career-

Brady began his coaching career in the CFL, winning three Grey Cups over his nine seasons as a coach. He first coached wide receivers with the Montreal Alouettes from 2009-11, helping the team win back-to-back Grey Cups from 2009-10 before becoming offensive coordinator in 2012. He then joined the Toronto Argonauts as offensive coordinator from 2013-17, winning a Grey Cup in his final season before making the jump to the NFL. Brady played quarterback in the CFL seven seasons prior to his CFL coaching career, spending time with the Toronto Argonauts (2002-03), Hamilton Tiger-Cats (2004-05) and Montreal Alouettes (2006-08). For his career, he totaled 3,321 passing yards and 15 touchdown passes, while adding six rushing scores.

A native of San Diego, Calif., Brady played quarterback at Cal State Northridge. He made 43 consecutive starts for the Matadors, setting all-time program records for completions (1,036), passing yards (12,445) and passing scores (109).

Brady and his wife, Sherrie, have two children, Saliyah and Aaden.

JEFF CARPENTER

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL/WIDE RECEIVERS
2ND NFL SEASON | 1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Jeff Carpenter enters his first season with the Chargers in 2024 as offensive quality control/wide receivers coach. He will aid in the offensive staff's daily operations and game prep, while contributing to the development of the receivers.

Carpenter arrives in Los Angeles after most recently working as an analyst at Virginia Tech from 2022-23. Last year, he helped the Hokies offense average nearly 30 points per game and run for 189.8 yards per game, capping the season with a victory over Tulane in the Military Bowl. Before his time in Blacksburg, Va., Carpenter worked as an offensive analyst at Louisiana State in 2021, helping the Tigers defeat a pair of ranked opponents, including No. 15 Texas A&M, to appear in the Texas Bowl.

Prior to Louisiana State, Carpenter coached at his alma mater, Penn State, as an offensive graduate assistant in 2020 and offensive quality control coach from 2018-19. He worked with eventual NFL first-round choice Jahan Dotson in 2020, helping the receiver haul in 52 catches for 884 yards (17.0 avg.) and eight scores. In 2019, Carpenter worked on a staff that coached the Nittany Lions to finish ranked No. 9 by The Associated Press after recording an 11-win season and a victory over Memphis in the Cotton Bowl.

Carpenter served as the quarterbacks coach at Bryant University in 2017, as he helped signal-caller Prince Wilson to set a single-season school record with 3,311 passing yards. Before his time at Bryant, Carpenter spent the 2016 season at Princeton University as a quality control coach, working with the offensive line and helping the Tigers win the Ivy League title.

GENERAL

Steve Clinkscale will enter his first season as defensive backs coach for the Chargers in 2024. A 23-year coaching veteran at the collegiate level, Clinkscale arrives in Los Angeles after spending the last three seasons directing the secondary at the University of Michigan, being promoted to co-defensive coordinator for the last two seasons and leading a defensive backfield that anchored a Wolverines unit that ranked among the nation's best.

Last season, his first as co-defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach, Clinkscale led a unit that served as a stalwart for the top-ranked total defense in college football, allowing just 247.0 total net yards per game en route to a College Football Playoff National Championship and perfect 15-0 season. The Wolverines also led the nation with an average of just 10.4 points allowed per game, permitting just 17 defensive touchdowns in 15 games — the second fewest by any unit in the country despite playing two more games than the leader.

Over the last two years, Clinkscale, under the guidance of Chargers Defensive Coordinator Jesse Minter, the Wolverines ranked No. 2 in the nation in total defense (268.8), earning the program's first berth in the College Football Playoff.

The Wolverines were champions of the Big Ten Conference and appeared in the College Football Playoff in each of Clinkscale's three seasons in Ann Arbor. Over his tenure, two Michigan defensive backs were named All-Americans, as cornerbacks Mike Sainristil and Will Johnson earned first-team All-Big Ten on top of their All-America acknowledgment. Clinkscale's guidance also led to safety Daxton Hill to first-team all-conference honors and an eventual first-round draft selection, as cornerback D.J. Turner, a second-team All-Big Ten honoree was eventually taken in the second round of the annual draft.

Prior to his tenure at Michigan, Clinkscale spent five seasons at the University of Kentucky (2016-20). Leading the defensive backfield, Clinkscale added the title of defensive pass game coordinator from 2020-21. Over his final three seasons in Lexington, the Wildcats' defense ranked top-four in the Southeastern Conference in pass defense, leading the conference in 2019 and 2020. Kentucky's defense posted a conference-best 16 interceptions in 2020, ranking third nationally.

In his first season at Kentucky (2016), Clinkscale helped mold a secondary that provided all 13 of the team's interceptions, as all-conference safety and eventual two-time Super Bowl champion Mike Edwards hit the century mark in total tackles and recorded three of interceptions. The following season, Edwards earned his second All-SEC nod.

In 2018, Clinkscale helped Kentucky achieve one of the best seasons in program history, posting a 10-3 record - the best mark for a Wildcats squad since 1977 — and finishing No. 12 in the final AP poll. Under Clinkscale's direction, Edwards claimed his third All-SEC acknowledgement, becoming just the second defensive back in program history to record over 300 tackles in a career, adding 10 interceptions and two takeaways returned for touchdowns. Following the season, Edwards was selected in the third round of the 2019 NFL Draft. Despite Edwards' departure, Clinkscale led his productive secondary unit to rank second nationally in fewest touchdown passes allowed (nine) and third in passing yards allowed per game (167.8) in 2019. Clinkscale also mentored Lonnie Johnson for two seasons (2017-18) at Kentucky before he would go on to be selected in the second round (54th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans.

Clinkscale served three seasons as defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (2013-15), adding defensive coordinator responsibilities in his final season, helping the Bearcats appear in a bowl game following each of his three years. As defensive coordinator in 2015, Clinkscale's unit ranked third in the American Athletic Conference in passing yards allowed per game (216.5).

Prior to coaching the cornerbacks at the University of Illinois in 2012, Clinkscale had a three-year tenure at the University of Toledo (2009-11), where he was special teams coordinator and cornerbacks coach for the Rockets.

Under his direction, Clinkscale's kickoff return unit tanked top-20 in the nation in 2010 (11th) and 2011 (17th), as Eric Page became one of the top returners in the country. Clinkscale helped Page earn All-Mid-American Conference recognition at three different positions in 2010, as he was the only player at the FBS level to return three kickoffs for touchdowns. Page was recognized as a finalist for the Paul Hornung Award as a junior in 2011, which is given annually to the nation's most versatile player. Defensively, Toledo's defense consistently improved as a unit under Clinkscale leading the defensive backfield. Under his direction, the Rockets ranked among the country's leaders in takeaways each of his three seasons. Prior to Toledo, Clinkscale spent 2008 as defensive backs coach at Western Carolina University.

Clinkscale entered the coaching ranks at his alma mater, Ashland University, in 2001, leading the defensive backs over a seven-year tenure (2001-07). Under his guidance, two Eagles earned All-America nods — Devin Conwell and Toure Carter — as Conwell was named 2005 GLIAC Defensive Back of the Year one season after leading all of Division II in solo tackles per game. The Eagles ranked second in all of Division II in scoring defense in 2005.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Clinkscale was a four-year starter and team captain at Ashland (Ohio), capping his playing career by participating in the 2000 Snow Bowl, a Division II All-Star Game. Clinkscale earned his bachelor's degree in sports science with a concentration in therapeutic recreation from Ashland in 2000.

Clinkscale and his wife, Elaine, are parents to six children — Isaiah, Elijah, Zion and Zivon, Brandon Jr. and Carlo Jr.

GENERAL
INFORMATION

Shane Day returns to the Chargers for his third season with the team as quarterbacks coach in 2024. One of the top quarterback gurus in football, he again works with quarterback Justin Herbert, who he coached to a Pro Bowl selection in 2021.

Day worked as a senior offensive assistant with the Houston Texans in 2023, assisting the offense to lead the NFL in fewest giveaways (14) and rank No. 2 with 41 passing plays of 25-plus yards. He also helped quarterback C.J. Stroud be selected to the Pro Bowl and earn Offensive Rookie of the Year honors from The Associated Press and the Professional Football Writers of America. Under Day's tutelage, Stroud eclipsed 4,000 passing yards and threw 23 touchdowns to lead the Texans to an AFC South title and a playoff victory, becoming the first quarterback selected with a top-five NFL Draft pick in over a decade to win a postseason game as a rookie.

In his first stint with the Chargers from 2021-22, Day coordinated the passing attack and coached quarterbacks, helping Los Angeles to a postseason appearance in his second season with the team. He coached Justin Herbert turn in a pair of record-setting seasons for the Bolts, setting all-time franchise marks in passing yards (5,014) passing touchdowns (38) and games with 300-plus passing yards (nine) in 2021 and completions (477) and passing attempts (699) the following season. Herbert was named a Pro Bowler following the 2021 season, starting at quarterback for the AFC, and was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week three times that year. He became the third-youngest player to throw for 5,000 yards in a single season (23 years, 305 days) and is the only player to throw for 5,000 yards and rush for 300 yards in the same season. In the team's Sunday Night Football victory over Pittsburgh in 2021, Herbert threw for 382 yards and ran for 90, becoming the only player ever to top 350 passing yards and 90 rushing yards in a single game.

Day coordinated a passing attack that ranked No. 3 in the NFL from 2021-22 (276.0 net passing yards per game). The unit that finished 2022 as the third-best passing offense in football (269.6) and tied for second in 2021 (282.4). The Los Angeles offense led the NFL in 2021 with 22 fourth-down conversions and seven two-point conversions, while also ranking No. 4 in total offense (390.2 total net yards per game). That season, the unit set single-season team records for first downs (401), passing touchdowns (38) and fewest fumbles (10). The Bolts offense also scored 181 fourth-quarter points in 2021, good for the second-most in a season in NFL history.

With Day's influence on the offense, running back Austin Ekeler led the NFL with 38 touchdowns from 2021-22, while his 13 receiving scores led all running backs. In 2021, Ekeler hauled in eight touchdown catches, joining all of Famer Marshall Faulk (2000 and '01) as the only running backs in the common draft era (since 1967) to post multiple seasons with eight or more receiving touchdowns. Day also coordinated a passing attack that saw the team's single-season receptions record set each year — wide receiver Keenan Allen has 106 catches in 2021, while Ekeler had 107 receptions in 2022. Meanwhile, in 2021, wide receiver Mike Williams registered five go-ahead touchdowns in the fourth quarter or overtime, the most by any player in a single season in NFL history.

Prior to joining the Chargers, Day spent two seasons (2019-20) directing the quarterbacks for the San Francisco 49ers. Over those two years, three different 49ers quarterbacks recorded starts. In 2019, Day coached Jimmy Garoppolo to be named Sporting News Comeback Player of the Year after finishing top-five in the NFL among qualified passers in both touchdown passes (27) and completion percentage (69.1). Garoppolo led San Francisco that season to win the NFC West with a 13-3 record and represent the NFC in Super Bowl LIV. Garoppolo's 102.0 passer rating in 2019 was the best in a season by a 49ers quarterback in over 20 seasons (Hall of Famer Steve Young, 104.7 rating in 1997).

Day returned to the Bay Area after working with the Miami Dolphins for three seasons (2016-18), coaching the team's tight end group. In his first season in South Florida, the team posted 10 wins, winning nine of the team's final 11 games. After losing Pro Bowler Jordan Cameron in Week 3, Day coached Dion Sims to finish the 2016 season with a career-high four touchdown catches. In 2018, Day was tasked with helping transition second-round pick Mike Gesicki to the NFL.

Before his time with the Dolphins, Day was an assistant offensive line coach in Washington. He coached there two seasons (2014-15) under then-offensive coordinator Sean McVay. Day helped coach tackle Trent Williams to a pair of Pro Bowl nods and a second-team AP All-Pro selection following the 2015 season. During his tenure with Washington, Day worked with an offensive front that protected quarterback Kirk Cousins, who led the NFL in 2015 with a 69.8 completion percentage.

Day was a two-sport athlete as an undergraduate at Rhodes College in Memphis, Tenn., playing football and baseball. A letter-winning wide receiver on the football team, Day began as a middle infielder for the Lynx baseball team before finding a contributing role as an outfielder. Day later earned a degree in English from his hometown institution, Kansas State University, in 1999.

After his playing career, Day entered the coaching ranks at the high school level. He worked as a salesman at Sears and as a high school laboratory associate, while doubling as a high school football coach. Day first worked with the wide receivers at Auburn (Wash.) Riverside High in 2001 before coaching quarterbacks and eventually earning the offensive coordinator position.

Day spent the 2006 season as an offensive quality control coach at the University of Michigan, helping tutor eventual NFL quarterback Chad Henne. Day then broke into the NFL, serving in the same capacity for three seasons (2007-09) with San Francisco. In his first stint with the 49ers, Day mainly helped the running backs group in 2007 before focusing on the offensive line for the next two years.

After his time in the Bay Area, Day coached quarterbacks for the Chicago Bears for two seasons (2010-11). His first season saw quarterback Jay Cutler lead the Bears to win the NFC North with an 11-5 record and advance to the NFC Championship. In 25 starts at quarterback under Day, Cutler led the Bears to a 17-8 record in the regular season. Cutler's .680 winning percentage as the starter was the third-best in the conference over that span among quarterbacks with at least 20 starts.

Day left the Windy City to return to the college ranks, coaching quarterbacks from 2012-13 at the University of Connecticut for two seasons. After the team started 0-9 in 2013, Day took over offensive play-calling duties, leading the Huskies to average 33.7 points per game and a 3-0 record in the final three games of the season.

GENERAL
INFORMATION

Mike Devlin enters his first season as the offensive line coach for the Chargers, bringing nearly three decades of NFL experience as a player and coach. He has tutored eight players to be selected to a combined 17 Pro Bowls, including former Jets center Nick Mangold, who Devlin helped coach to seven Pro Bowl nods and a pair of Associated Press first-team All-Pro selections.

Over the last two seasons, Devlin helped tutor an offensive front in Baltimore that helped the Ravens lead the AFC and ranked No. 2 in the NFL over that span in rushing offense, averaging 158.3 yards per game on the ground. Last season, the group protected quarterback Lamar Jackson to be named AP Most Valuable Player for the second time in his career after throwing for 3,678 yards and 24 touchdowns while also adding a team-high 821 yards and five scores on the ground. With the help of Devlin and the offensive line, Baltimore posted a league-best 13-4 record to hold the No. 1 seed in the AFC playoffs.

Devlin joined the Ravens after a six-season tenure as the offensive line coach for the Houston Texans (2015-20). He coached tackle Laremy Tunsil to back-to-back Pro Bowl selections to close out his time with Houston. Devlin tutored an offensive line that protected quarterback Deshaun Watson to be named a Pro Bowler three times, including in 2020 when he recorded career highs in passing yards (4,823) passing touchdowns (33) and passer rating (112.4). In 2018, Devlin's group paved the way for a rushing attack that averaged 126.3 yards per game, ranking fourth in the AFC and No. 8 in the NFL.

Prior to his time in Houston, Devlin spent nine seasons with the New York Jets (2006-14), where he helped coach the team to three playoff berths and a pair of appearances in the AFC Championship Game. He helped Nick Mangold earn six of his seven Pro Bowl career selections during his tenure in The Big Apple. Devlin exclusively coached the New York offensive line for three years (2007, '13-14), while serving as tight ends/assistant offensive line coach in 2006 and from 2008-12.

Devlin tutored the offensive line in 2014 to lead the AFC in rushing offense, averaging 142.5 yards per game. A year earlier, his unit paved the path for the rushing attack to rank No. 6 in the NFL (134.9). While working with the tight ends, Devlin coached Dustin Keller to lead the Jets offense in 2011 with a career-high 65 receptions for 815 yards (12.5 avg.) and five touchdowns. A year earlier, Keller was the first Jets tight end in 25 years to lead the team in receptions.

A graduate of Cherokee High School in Marlton, N.J., Devlin was born in Blacksburg, Va., when his father, John Devlin, was a coach at Virginia Tech during his three decades on the sidelines as a college and professional coach. After graduating from Cherokee High, Devlin played four seasons at the University of Iowa (1989-92), earning Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year and first-team All-American honors following his senior season. He also was recognized as a first-team All-Big Ten recipient in 1991.

Devlin then was selected by the Buffalo Bills in the fifth round (136th overall) of the 1993 NFL Draft, going on to appear in 101 regular-season games, including 27 starts, for the Buffalo Bills (1993-95) and Arizona Cardinals (1996-99). As a rookie, he helped the Bills claim their fourth-straight AFC Championship and appear in Super Bowl XXVIII.

Devlin's first opportunity overseeing an offensive line occurred in 2004 when he led the group at the University of Toledo, spending two seasons coaching the Rockets' offensive front – a stretch in which Devlin's unit helped Toledo claim the Mid-American Conference title in 2004 and tutored eventual third-round pick in the 2005 NFL Draft, tackle Nick Kaczur.

Following his seven-year playing career in the NFL, Devlin immediately joined the coaching ranks as an offensive quality control coach for the Cardinals, working in that role for the 2000 season before being promoted to assistant offensive line coach. He assisted the offensive line from 2001-03, helping the team post a third-down rushing conversion rate of 52.4 percent over that span, good for No. 6 in the NFL.

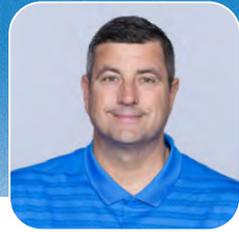

Off of the gridiron, the Devlin family has founded and championed various charitable organizations, including Devlin's Helping Hands and two events that benefit a number of organizations, The Devlin Football Camp and The John S. Devlin Golf Tournament.

Devlin and his wife, Julie, have two sons, Zachary and Matthew, and two daughters, Hallie and Carlie. The couple also has a granddaughter, Isla Kate.

GENERAL
INFORMATION

With 23 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level, leading and teaching some of the best defensive players in college football over the last two decades, Mike Elston joins the Chargers as defensive line coach for his first foray into the NFL in 2024.

Elston arrives in Los Angeles after most recently directing the defensive line at his alma mater, the University of Michigan, helping the unit guide the Wolverines to a CFP National Championship and perfect 15-0 record last season. In 2023, Elston's front helped Michigan defense lead the nation in total defense (247.0) and scoring defense (10.4), allowing just 17 defensive touchdowns over 15 games, the second fewest by any unit in the country despite playing in two more games than the leader.

The former Maize and Blue linebacker returned to Michigan in 2022, helping four Wolverines defensive linemen earn All-Big Ten recognition, as Mike Morris was named Smith-Brown Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year and Mazi Smith, who joined Morris with All-America honors, was later selected in the first round of the 2023 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys. The Michigan defense finished top-10 in the nation in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense and defensive pass efficiency en route to an appearance in the College Football Playoff.

Prior to is time in Ann Arbor, Elston spent 12 seasons at the University of Notre Dame in a variety of capacities, helping the Irish reach 11 bowl games, including two CFP appearances and one BCS National Championship Game berth. Elston tutored 12 eventual NFL Draft selections while at Notre Dame, including five defensive linemen selected from 2019-21.

Elston started his decade-plus tenure in South Bend as special teams coordinator/defensive line in 2010, a post he would hold for two seasons, before serving primarily as the defensive line coach from 2012-14. Elston added the role of recruiting coordinator in 2015, coaching linebackers for two seasons, before returning to lead the defensive line in 2017. He then was Notre Dame's associate head coach from 2017-20, while continuing to direct the defensive line, before advancing to run game coordinator in 2021, his final season with the Irish. Notre Dame reached double-digit wins in each of Elston's final five seasons coaching for the Irish.

As run game coordinator in 2021, Elston helped direct a defense that ranked top-10 in third-down conversion rate (10th) and defensive touchdowns allowed (seventh), as the Irish appeared in the 2022 PlayStation Fiesta Bowl and finished the season ranked eighth in the final AP Poll. One season prior, Notre Dame's defense ranked sixth in the nation in third-down conversion percentage, totaling six straight games of allowing less than 100 yards rushing by the opponent in 2020, paving the way toward the program's second appearance in the College Football Playoff. The Irish's run support was guided by standout efforts from defensive linemen Myron Tagovailoa-Amosa and Kurt Hinish, who joined linebackers Ade Ogundejí and Daelin Hayes as All-Atlantic Coast Conference honorees.

a graduate assistant role, working with the outside linebackers in 1999 and 2000, before landing a full-time position at Eastern Michigan University in 2001. Elston spent three seasons at Eastern Michigan (2001-03), advancing to recruiting coordinator/defensive line over his final two years.

Elston then spent three seasons at Central Michigan University, starting as the Chippewas defensive line coach before being promoted to co-defensive coordinator/defensive line in 2005, before overseeing the special teams units and coaching linebackers in 2006. As co-defensive coordinator/defensive line coach in 2005, Elston's mentorship of Dan Bazuin helped the eventual MAC Defensive Player of the Year lead the nation with 26.5 tackles for loss and secure a conference-record 16 sacks. Coaching the CMU linebackers in 2006, two of his players earned All-Mid-American Conference recognition, as Thomas Keith led the conference in tackles.

Elston helped lead a Notre Dame squad that reached 12 wins for just the second time since 1990 in 2018, as the Irish made their first appearance in the College Football Playoff in his first season as associate head coach/defensive line. His defensive front combined for 23.5 sacks and over 40 tackles for loss in 2018. Elston's guidance and development proved critical in 2015, Elston's first season coaching the linebackers group, as consensus All-American linebacker Jaylon Smith became the only Power 5 linebacker to eclipse 100 tackles in back-to-back seasons. Elston's path also included the development of Stephon Tuitt and Louis Nix III, who were selected in the second and third rounds, respectively, of the 2014 NFL Draft, as the pair became the first tandem of Notre Dame defensive linemen to each be chosen in the top three rounds of the same draft since 1997. Elston's group in 2012 helped the defense remain stout, allowing just four rushing touchdowns – the fewest by any team in the FBS that season.

After his time at Central Michigan, and prior to his tenure at Notre Dame, Elston coordinated the special teams units at the University of Cincinnati for three seasons (2007-09), elevating to assistant head coach in his final season with the Bearcats in 2009. Over his three years at Cincinnati, a Bearcat was named Big East Special Teams Player of the Year, starting with punter Kevin Huber in 2007, followed by returner Mardy Gilyard in back-to-back seasons (2008 and 09). Huber twice earned All-America status (2007 and 2008) after helping the Bearcats unit lead the nation in net punting each season.

After his playing career culminated, Elston remained at Michigan, serving as a student assistant for the Wolverines' 1997 National Championship season, his first step in the coaching profession. After assisting the staff as a video intern in 1998, Elston moved into

A native of St. Mary's, Ohio, Elston played collegiately at Michigan (1993-96). A linebacker for the Wolverines, earning three varsity letters, he helped Michigan accumulate a 35-16 record, including two bowl game victories.

Elston and his wife, Beth, have three daughters – Olivia, Sophia and Isabella.

INFORMATION

Jonathan Goodwin joins the Chargers in 2024 in the capacity of offensive assistant/quarterbacks. A 13-year NFL veteran offensive lineman, which included a Pro Bowl selection in 2009 and a World Championship with a victory in Super Bowl XLIV, Goodwin's decade-plus in the league featured a tenure of blocking and protecting for some of the best offenses in NFL history.

Over his playing career (2002-14), Goodwin started 134-of-211 regular-season and postseason games for the New York Jets, New Orleans Saints and San Francisco 49ers, earning Pro Bowl honors in 2009. After being selected by the Jets in the fifth round of the 2002 NFL Draft, playing four seasons in the Big Apple, Goodwin's next stop was in New Orleans, where he spent five seasons anchoring one of the best offenses in the NFL over a record-setting five-year span (2006-10). At center for the Saints, Goodwin served as the general of an offensive front that, in 2009, led New Orleans to an NFC South Division title and helped pave the way for to defeat the Colts in Super Bowl XLIV, starting every game for the World Champions while earning his first Pro Bowl nod.

Following his five seasons in New Orleans, Goodwin traveled to the Bay Area to serve as a stalwart on Head Coach Jim Harbaugh's offensive line of the San Francisco 49ers, a post he would hold for three seasons (2011-13). Goodwin started every game at center for the 49ers, helping lead San Francisco to three-straight NFC Championship Games and an appearance in Super Bowl XLVII, while placing among the highest-ranking total offenses and rushing offenses in the NFL. Goodwin then returned to New Orleans prior to the 2014 season.

A native of Columbia, S.C., Goodwin was an All-American offensive lineman at the University of Michigan. His brother, Harold, is the assistant head coach/run game coordinator for the Carolina Panthers.

Goodwin and his wife, Alnessa, have four children — Channing, Jace, Kade and Zailey. Channing is a true freshman wide receiver at the University of Michigan.

CHRIS GOULD

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

10TH NFL SEASON | 3RD SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Chris Gould enters his third season as the assistant special teams coach for the Chargers in 2024. He joined the club following seven years (2015-21) with the Denver Broncos, helping Denver claim victory in Super Bowl 50 in his first NFL season.

Gould assisted a turnaround of the special teams unit in his first two seasons with the Bolts. The group led the NFL by averaging 13.7 yards per punt return over Gould's first two years in Los Angeles. In 2023, the unit averaged 16.0 yards per punt return, setting a single-season franchise record and ranking No. 2 in the NFL. The kicking unit saw kicker Cameron Dicker make 31-of-33 field goals (93.9 pct.) and all 35 extra point attempts, posting a 97.1 total kicking percentage (66-of-68) to rank No. 2 in the NFL.

He helped rookie wide receiver Derius Davis step in as one of the best returners in the NFL. He led all qualified returners in 2023 with a 16.0-yard punt return average and earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after taking one of his punt returns for an 87-yard touchdown on Monday Night Football at the New York Jets. Punter JK Scott was also recognized as AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after he set a career high and single-game franchise record with seven punts placed inside the 20-yard line in the Week 13 victory at New England. Scott's 42.3-yard net punting average in 2023 was a career high and surpassed his mark from 2022 (41.5) as the best in a single season by a Charger in over 20 years.

In 2022, Gould helped coach the group to lead the NFL by allowing just 3.1 yards per punt return, the best average allowed by any Chargers team in 50 years. He also assisted with the AFC's top kicking unit, making 31-of-33 field goals (93.9 pct.) despite deploying three different kickers on the year due to injury. The team's 93.9 field goal percentage ranked No. 2 in the NFL in 2022 and led the AFC.

That year, he helped instruct three specialists win Special Teams Player of the Week — Dicker, Scott and kicker Dustin Hopkins. Dicker was also named the AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for December/January and earned All-Rookie honors from the Professional Football Writers of America after setting the NFL's rookie single-season field goal percentage record among players with 15 attempts by making 21-of-22 field goals (95.5 pct.).

Over his seven seasons helping coach Denver's special teams — two as a coaching assistant (2015-16) and five as assistant special teams (2017-21) — Broncos kicker Brandon McManus ranked fourth in the NFL in made field goals (186) and third in field goals from 50-plus yards (32). McManus also won three AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors (Weeks 4 and 6 in 2020, Week 14 in 2021) and AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for October in 2015.

Gould helped develop wide receiver Dontae Spencer as the former CFL All-Star ranked second in the NFL among qualified returners in 2020 with an average of 15.8 yards per punt return. He also worked closely with rookie punter Riley Dixon in 2016, who led all first-year punters with a 41.3-yard net average. The Broncos' coverage unit allowed an average of just 6.8 yards per return in 2016, the seventh-best mark among punt coverage teams in the NFL.

The 11-year coaching veteran broke into the coaching ranks in a special teams quality control role at Syracuse, spending three seasons (2012-14) contributing to the development of the special teams units. He joined the Orange after a three-year (2010-12) career in the Arena Football League. Gould was named Arena League Kicker of the Year after his first season and capped his playing career on a Rattlers team that went on to be ArenaBowl XXV Champions in 2012.

Starting his collegiate career at the University of Virginia (2004-07) as a punter, Gould took over kicking duties for the Cavaliers for his final two seasons. As a sophomore in 2005, his 40.0-yard punt average was the highest mark by a Virginia punter since 2001.

Gould and his wife, Sam, have a son, Asher. The Lock Haven, Pa., native is the younger brother of 18-year veteran kicker Robbie Gould, who ranks No. 8 all-time with 447 made field goals, while his 86.5 career field goal percentage is the best in NFL history among players with at least 450 attempts.

NICK HARDWICK

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

12TH NFL SEASON | 12TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Nick Hardwick, who spent a decade-plus anchoring the offensive line for the Chargers, returns to the club as assistant offensive line coach in 2024.

Hardwick played 11 seasons for the Bolts, starting all 146 career appearances (postseason included) at center for the Bolts, blocked and protected for some of the greatest players in league history, paving the way for numerous memorable Chargers moments and record-setting performances.

A stalwart at center, Hardwick — a third-round draft selection in the 2004 NFL Draft — was a member of five Chargers teams that claimed AFC West Division crowns and appeared in the postseason on six occasions. Hardwick was named to the Pro Bowl in 2006 after leading an offensive front that helped the Bolts secure an AFC West Division title and top seed in the postseason, and was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate each of the subsequent four seasons. He was named the team's Lineman of the Year on three occasions (2011-13) and was selected to the Chargers' 50th Anniversary All-Time Team in 2009.

Hardwick was instrumental in protecting two of the league's top passers of this century, quarterbacks Philip Rivers and Drew Brees, as Hardwick's Pro Bowl recognition in 2006 coincided with Hall of Fame running back LaDainian Tomlinson being named NFL Most Valuable Player after setting the NFL record for most touchdowns scored in a single season in NFL history (31).

As a rookie, Hardwick started all 14 appearances on the offensive line, as Brees was named 2004 NFL Comeback Player of the Year after leading the Chargers to 12 wins and an AFC West Division title. Over his final nine seasons, Hardwick protected Rivers as he went on to lead the Bolts to four division crowns and five playoff appearances over the pairs tenure

Hardwick's second-to-last season with the Bolts saw Rivers earn NFL Comeback Player of the Year after the Chargers won four-straight games to close out the regular season and defeated the Bengals in the AFC Wild Card Round.

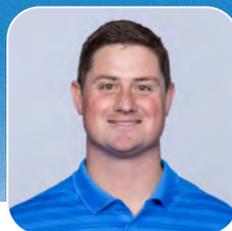

Entering the NFL ranks for the first time as a coach, Hardwick has spent the last two seasons coaching on the staff at Westfield (Ind.) High School. Since retirement, Hardwick has also been heavily involved in the Chargers Legends program, helping to establish the connection and continue the fellowship between Chargers greats over the franchise's 60-plus-year history. Staying close to the team after retiring, Hardwick called Chargers games over the radio airwaves from 2015-17.

A native of Indianapolis, Ind., Hardwick was an All-Big Ten offensive lineman at Purdue University, helping lead the Boilermakers to bowl games following each season of action after initially joining the team as a walk-on.

Hardwick and his wife, Jayme, have two sons, Hudson and Ted.

GENERAL
INFORMATION

Mike Hiestand returns to the Chargers in 2024 as a defensive assistant for his third season with the team and second on the defensive side of the ball. He began his time with Los Angeles as an offensive assistant in 2022 before moving to front seven specialist last season.

In 2023, Hiestand returned to the defensive side of the ball as a front seven specialist, focusing his efforts on assisting with the linebackers. He helped both Eric Kendricks (117) and Kenneth Murray Jr., (107) top 100 tackles on the season. The campaign marked the eighth-consecutive 100-tackle season for Kendricks, the NFL's second-longest active streak. Murray was one of just six NFL players in 2023 to record at least 100 tackles, three sacks, an interception and six tackles for loss.

As an offensive assistant for the Bolts in 2022, Hiestand primarily worked with the offensive line and tight ends. He helped Offensive Line Coach Brendan Nugent and Assistant Offensive Line Coach Shaun Sarrett onboard tackle Foster Sarell and rookie offensive lineman Jamaree Salyer to make starts for the NFL's No. 3 passing offense. Hiestand also worked with Tight Ends Coach Kevin Koger to help the tight ends combine for 83 receptions on the season, the 10th-most by a single tight ends group in the NFL in 2022.

Hiestand joins the staff after three seasons in a support role with the Denver Broncos, contributing to the defensive coaching staff's operation while also serving as assistant to then-Head Coach Vic Fangio. Over his three years in Denver, the Broncos owned the league's top-ranked red zone defense (45.6 pct.) and allowed a rate of just 20.4 points per game, ranking seventh-best in the NFL.

Before his time in the Mile High City, Hiestand coached seven seasons in the collegiate ranks, which was capped by a three-year run as defensive coordinator at Ave Maria University (2016-18). In his final season directing the defense, Ave Maria totaled the most sacks (28) and registered the

WIDE RECEIVERS

19TH NFL SEASON | 1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Sanjay Lal brings 28 years of coaching experience with him to the Los Angeles Chargers, entering his first season with the team as wide receivers coach in 2024.

Most recently, Lal spent the last two seasons (2022-23) as the offensive passing game coordinator/wide receivers coach for the Seattle Seahawks, where he helped orchestrate a passing offense that ranked No. 3 in the NFL in completion percentage (67.1) and red zone scoring (90.8 pct.) over that span. He helped quarterback Geno Smith earn Pro Bowl recognition each of those seasons along with Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year honors in 2022.

Lal oversaw a receivers group that featured DK Metcalf, who set the franchise record for the most receiving yards over the first five seasons of a career (5,332) along with being named to the Pro Bowl for the second time in his career in 2023. Lal also was instrumental to the development of Jaxon Smith-Njigba this past season, as the rookie totaled 63 receptions, the second-most ever by a rookie in franchise history. In 2022, Lal helped wide receiver Tyler Lockett register 84 catches for 1,033 yards and nine touchdowns, his fifth-straight season with at least eight touchdown grabs. That year, Metcalf set a career high with 90 receptions, good for the fourth-most in franchise history.

Before he returned to Seattle, where he served as a senior offensive assistant in 2020, Lal coached the wide receivers for the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2021. In his first season in the Pacific Northwest, Lal helped Lockett and Metcalf each top 1,000 yards to lead the Seahawks to an NFC West title. That year, Metcalf was a second-team AP All-Pro and recorded a franchise-record 1,303 yards and 10 touchdown grabs.

Born in London, England, Lal lived in Iran, Kuwait and Mexico throughout his childhood before moving to Plano, Texas, in middle school and, ultimately, Northern California in high school. After graduating from Miramonte High School in Orinda, Calif., Lal walked on as a wide receiver at UCLA in 1989. He then transferred to the University of Washington, playing three seasons for the Huskies (1990-92), contributing to the program's National Championship victory in his first year and helping the squad appear in a pair of Rose Bowls, ultimately being inducted into Washington's Hall of Fame. Lal spent time as a professional player with the Oakland Raiders, St. Louis Rams and the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe.

Lal broke into the coaching ranks at his alma mater, Miramonte High School, working as the school's passing game coordinator/wide receivers coach from 1996-2002. He then spent the next four seasons in Northern California coaching at the college level, working on staff at Los Medanos College (2003), Saint Mary's College (2004) and the University of California (2005-06).

In his first experience as an NFL coach, Lal worked for the Oakland Raiders as assistant wide receivers/quality control coach from 2007-08 before being promoted to wide receivers coach from 2009-11. After his time in Oakland, he spent the next eight seasons as a wide receivers coach with four teams — the New York Jets (2012-14), Buffalo Bills (2015-16), Indianapolis Colts (2017) and Dallas Cowboys (2018-19), helping develop young receivers along the way.

During his final season with the Jets, Lal coached wide receiver Eric Decker to 962 yards and five touchdowns on 74 receptions (13.0 avg.), including a Week 17 performance that saw Decker record single-game career highs with 221 receiving yards and 10 catches. Lal stayed in the Empire State to coach wide receivers for the Buffalo Bills, helping Sammy Watkins eclipse 1,000 yards and catch nine touchdowns in his first season in Upstate New York. Following the Bills, Lal spent the 2017 season with the Indianapolis Colts, coaching a wide receivers room led by T.Y. Hilton, who was named to his fourth-straight Pro Bowl after recording 966 yards and four scores on 57 receptions (16.9 avg.).

Lal then went to the Lone Star state to coach receivers for the Dallas Cowboys from 2018-19, helping the squad to an NFC East title and appearance in the Divisional Playoffs during his first season with the team. Under his tutelage, Amari Cooper was named to the Pro Bowl twice and was twice named NFC Offensive Player of the Week in 2018 after being acquired by the Cowboys via trade. In his second season with Dallas, Lal led a wide receiver group that featured two 1,100-yard receivers in Cooper and Michael Gallup, the first Cowboys pair to do so since 2007. Cooper led Dallas with 79 catches for 1,189 yards and eight touchdowns, while Gallup became the third-youngest Cowboys receiver to hit the century mark in receiving yards in team history.

KIEL MCDONALD

RUNNING BACKS

1ST NFL SEASON | 1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Kiel McDonald enters his first season with the Chargers as the running backs coach, bringing with him over 10 seasons of experience coaching the position. He remains in Los Angeles after spending the last two seasons as running backs coach at the University of Southern California, helping a pair of Trojans earn recognition each year.

Over the last two seasons at Southern California (2022-23), McDonald led a running backs group that produced for one of the country's most efficient and highest-scoring offenses. In his first year with the program, one that saw the Trojans reach 11 wins for the first time in five years, McDonald coached Travis Dye to second-team All-Pacific-12 honors after rushing for 844 yards and nine touchdowns, averaging 6.1 yards per attempt. In 2023, McDonald tutored transfer MarShawn Lloyd to lead the team with 820 yards on the ground and score nine rushing touchdowns, earning honorable mention All-Pac-12 recognition and eventually being selected in the third round of the 2024 NFL Draft.

McDonald joined the Trojans after a five-season stretch at the University of Utah (2017-21), helping the Utes appear in three Pac-12 Championship Games and winning the conference in his final season with the program to secure a Rose Bowl berth. He helped produce the top-ranked rushing offense in the Pac-12 in 2021, coaching Tavion Thomas to first-team All-Pac-12 recognition running for 1,108 yards and a single-season program-record 21 rushing scores. McDonald also coached eventual third-round NFL Draft selection Zack Moss to three-straight 1,000-yard rushing seasons for the Utes from 2017-19. Moss capped that three-year stretch as a first-team All-American and was named the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year in 2019 after posting a single-season program-record 15 touchdown runs.

Prior to his time in the Pac-12, McDonald spent five years at Eastern Washington University (2012-16), working as co-special teams coordinator and running backs coach. He was part of an offensive staff that led the Eagles to four appearances in the FCS Playoffs, including three advancements to the National Semifinals. After inheriting a running back room

McDonald entered the coaching ranks at Gunderson High in San Jose, Calif., in 2009 as a strength and conditioning coach. In 2010, he worked as the defensive backs and strength coach as San Jose City College while also interning with the San Francisco in training camp as part of the Bill Walsh Coaching Fellowship. He then went on to work as a graduate assistant offensive quality control coach at Arizona State in 2011.

A four-sport letterman in football, hockey, baseball and track at Thomas B. Doherty High (Colorado Springs, Colo.), McDonald played cornerback at Sacramento City College (2002-04), Sacramento State University (2005) and the University of Idaho (2006). He graduated from Sacramento State in 2006 with a degree in business communication.

RICK MINTER

SENIOR DEFENSIVE ANALYST
4TH NFL SEASON | 1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

A 45-year coaching veteran, Rick Minter joins the Chargers' staff in 2024 as senior defensive analyst, aiding in the coaching operations of the defensive staff. Over his four decades on the sidelines, Minter has spent a majority of his career leading and coordinating defenses, including a 10-year stretch as head coach.

Minter arrives in Los Angeles after serving on the staff at the University of Michigan over the last two seasons (2022-23), helping his son, Chargers Defensive Coordinator Jesse Minter, lead one of the best units in the country in coordination of the Wolverines' defense.

Last season, Minter, who started the season as a defensive analyst, filled in as linebackers coach over the final six games, helping Michigan claim the College Football Playoff National Championship following a perfect 15-0 season. The Wolverines owned country's top-ranked defense in 2023, leading the nation in total defense (247.0) and scoring defense (10.4), while allowing just 17 defensive touchdowns over 15 games, the second-fewest by any unit in the country despite playing in two more games than the leader.

Arriving in Ann Arbor as a defensive assistant/analyst in 2022, the Wolverines finished top-10 in the nation in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense and defensive pass efficiency in his first season with the program. Under his purview, four Wolverine defenders earned first- or second-team All-Big Ten recognition and three players were drafted, including first-round pick Mazi Smith.

Minter served as Head Coach at the University of Cincinnati from 1994-2003, culminating his time as the program's all-time victories leader (53). Minter led the Bearcats to four bowl games during his tenure, breaking a 40-year bowl drought for the program. Leading the Bearcats on the field, Minter also formed a coaching tree of his own with the staff that supported the program, which included future NFL head coaches John Harbaugh, Mike Tomlin and Rex Ryan, as well as collegiate head coach Jimbo Fisher, Sam Pittman and Joker Phillips. Combined, those six have won over 500 career games during their time as head coaches.

Following his decade at Cincinnati, Minter went on to serve as defensive coordinator at South Carolina (2004), Notre Dame (2005-06) and Marshall (2008-09), before adding interim head coach responsibilities for Marshall, leading the Thundering Herd to a victory in the Little Caesars Bowl following the 2009 season.

Following his time at Georgia State, Minter led the defense at Florida Tech for two seasons (2017-18), then served as the defensive coordinator of the Birmingham Iron of the Alliance of American Football in 2019.

Minter then spent one season as defensive coordinator at Indiana State, serving with his son, Jesse, who was on the staff. The following year, Minter spent two seasons at the University of Kentucky leading the defense of the Wildcats. In his first season in Lexington, Minter helped eventual Super Bowl-champion linebacker Danny Trevathan earn his second first-team All-SEC nod.

In 2020, Minter joined the XFL with the St. Louis Battlehawks as the linebackers coach. Later in 2020, he would join the staff at Southern Miss as the defensive line coach. In 2021, he would join his son, Jesse, as an analyst at Vanderbilt.

In the first NFL experience of his career, Minter coached linebackers for the Philadelphia Eagles for three seasons (2013-15). He helped the Eagles win the NFC East in his first year and coached future Houston Texans Head Coach DeMeco Ryans. Minter then went on to join his son, Jesse, at Georgia State in 2016, where he coached the defensive line. Minter led a unit that served as an anchor for a GSU defense that finished top-25 in the nation in red zone defense, yards per play allowed and defensive pass efficiency.

A native of Texarkana, Texas, Minter began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Henderson State in 1977. He held the same title at Arkansas in 1978 prior to coaching defensive ends at Louisiana Tech and North Carolina State. Minter spent one season (1984) coaching linebackers at New Mexico State before becoming defensive coordinator at Ball State from 1985-91 and Notre Dame from 1992-93.

A Hall-of-Fame outside linebacker at Henderson State, Minter was named first-team All-AIC in 1975 and received honorable mention the following season, helping the Reddies earn three-straight AIC championships (1973-75).

Minter is a father to Josh and Jesse and a grandfather to Millie, Monte, Mac and Cooper.

GENERAL
INFORMATION

Robert Muschamp enters his second season with the Los Angeles Chargers in 2024 as a defensive quality control coach. He will mainly assist the defensive backs group this year on top of his responsibilities helping the scout team prepare each week.

In 2023, Muschamp worked with the outside linebackers, contributing to a room that saw outside linebacker Khalil Mack be named to the eighth Pro Bowl of his career. Mack set a single-season franchise record with a career-best 16.0 sacks and earned recognition as AFC Defensive Player of the Month for November and AFC Defensive Player of the Week in Week 4, where he recorded 6.0 sacks in a victory over the Raiders. For the final three weeks of the 2023 season, Muschamp gained responsibility as the main coach working with the outside linebackers, helping Mack set the single-season franchise record for sacks.

Muschamp came to Los Angeles staff after spending two seasons at the University of Georgia (2021-22), helping the Bulldogs win back-to-back College Football Playoff National Championships as a quality control — defense coach. In 2022, the Bulldogs' defense held opponents to less than 10 points six times, including the 2023 CFP National Championship Game win over TCU, holding the Horned Frogs to just seven points.

Prior to his tenure in Athens, Ga., Muschamp served as a graduate assistant for two seasons (2019-20) at the University of Tennessee, working primarily with the defense. The Volunteers defeated Indiana in the Gator Bowl following the 2019 season, Tennessee's first bowl victory in three seasons.

1ST NFL SEASON | 1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Chris O'Leary joins the Los Angeles coaching staff in 2024 as safeties coach after spending the last six seasons as a defensive coach at the University of Notre Dame, where he developed All-American award-winners and helped the Fighting Irish make a pair of appearances in the College Football Playoff.

O'Leary coached a three players to consensus All-American recognition while with the Fighting Irish — safety Xavier Watts in 2023, linebacker Jeremiah Owusu-Koramoah in 2020 and safety Kyle Hamilton in 2021. In his final three seasons in South Bend, Ind., O'Leary coached the Notre Dame defensive backs as defensive backs/safeties coach after working as a graduate assistant in 2020 and defensive analyst from 2018-19.

Last season, O'Leary was instrumental in helping the Notre Dame defense finish top-10 in the nation in passing yards allowed per game (fourth), red zone defense (second) and total defense (eighth). The unit produced the best season in program history by allowing just 5.4 passing yards per attempt and leading the nation in defensive passing efficiency. O'Leary oversaw the development of wide receiver-turned-safety Xavier Watts, who led the nation with seven interceptions and was named an All-American and the recipient of the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, which annually recognizes the top defensive player in college football.

In his first season coaching the defensive backs in 2020, the unit ranked No. 10 in the nation in takeaways (25) and defensive third-down percentage, as O'Leary's guidance of Kyle Hamilton helped the safety earn consensus All-American recognition after appearing in just seven games. O'Leary also helped safety DJ Brown record a career-best 42 tackles and three interceptions, tying for the team lead in picks.

O'Leary coached as a graduate assistant in 2020 for Notre Dame, working with the 'rover' sub-group of the linebacker position. That year, he helped Butkus Award-winning linebacker Jeremiah Owusu-Koramoah to All-America and Atlantic Coast Conference Defensive Player of the Year honors. The Irish defense led the ACC in scoring defense (19.7 points per game), en route to the program's second appearance in the College Football Playoff. Prior to his time as a

Dylan Roney joins the Chargers in 2024 as a defensive assistant. He comes to Los Angeles after a three-season tenure at the University of Michigan as a graduate assistant, helping Head Coach Jim Harbaugh and the Wolverines to two College Football Playoff berths and win the CFP National Championship following the 2023 season.

Over his three seasons at Michigan (2021-23) as a graduate assistant, Roney worked with the defensive coaching staff in game planning, analysis and day-to-day operations. He helped coach the top-ranked defense in the country in 2023, allowing just 17 touchdowns on the year and averaging 247.0 total net yards allowed and 10.4 points allowed per game. Roney also assisted current Chargers Defensive Line Coach Mike Elston with the Wolverines defensive line, working specifically with the Michigan edge rushers, including eventual No. 2 overall draft choice Aidan Hutchinson during his unanimous All-American season in 2021.

Roney joined the Wolverines after working one season as a defensive analyst at the University of Illinois (2020) and a year as a defensive graduate assistant at Western Kentucky University (2019), primarily working with the defensive line for the Hilltoppers.

2ND NFL SEASON | 2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Phil Serchia enters his second season as an offensive assistant for the Chargers in 2024. He will assist the offensive line again after working with the group in his first season with the Bolts.

In 2023, Serchia helped tackle Rashawn Slater return from missing most of 2022 due to injury to be named a first alternate for the Pro Bowl. Serchia helped offensive lineman Jamaree Salyer transition to start 17 games at right guard after filling in for Slater at left tackle in 2022, while also helping onboard rookie offensive lineman Jordan McFadden to contribute on offense throughout the season and start the final two games of the season at left guard.

Serchia joined the Bolts after spending three seasons as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College from 2020-22, directing a Blue Dragon offense that helped propel the team to a pair of NJCAA National Championship Games in three seasons, including a victory in 2021 to give the program its first national title. Over his three years at Hutchinson, Serchia coached six NJCAA All-Americans and had over 20 Division-I placements, including several at Power-5 programs.

In 2022, Hutchinson led the NJCAA with a scoring average of 44.0 points per game, winning all 11 games en route to their second appearance in three seasons in the NJCAA National Championship Game. The Blue Dragons tied an all-time record with 10 NJCAA All-America selections, including wide receiver Malik Benson's second nod in as many seasons to become the first two-time first-team All-America selection in program history. Under Serchia's direct tutelage, offensive lineman J'onre Reed earned a second-team nomination and offensive lineman Dez'Mond Schuster received honorable mention recognition.

The Blue Dragons ranked second in the NJCAA with a rushing average of 273.6 yards per game in 2021, helping the team win its first NJCAA National Championship. Hutchinson ran the table with an 8-0 record, including a KJCCC crown, and the program's first NJCAA National Championship after a 29-27 win over No. 2 Snow College in Little Rock, Ark. Six members of the 2020-21 Blue Dragon offensive line — Kingsley Ugwu, Aric Harris, Joe Stone, Dennis Wilburn, Brandon Hall and Stevie Young — were named All-Jayhawk

Prior to his time at Hutchinson, Serchia spent five seasons (2015-19) at Texas A&M-Kingsville as the program's offensive line coach and run game coordinator. In his first season with the Javelinas, Serchia coached Bo Villarreal to a second-team All-Lone Star Conference selection, as Don Hansen was selected to the All-Super Region Four third-team class. Serchia's coordination of the run game helped running back Greg Pitre develop into one of the top backs in Division II.

Serchia coached the running backs and tight ends along with serving as special teams coordinator at Adams State University in Alamosa, Colo., from 2013-14 following a two-year coaching tenure at his alma mater, Colorado State University.

A former center at Colorado State, Serchia capped his playing career by helping the Rams earn a victory over Fresno State in the 2008 New Mexico Bowl. Serchia graduated from Colorado State in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in health and exercise science, and also earned a master's degree in educational leadership from Colorado State in 2013.

GENERAL
INFORMATION

A 36-year coaching veteran, Marc Trestman will serve as senior offensive assistant for the Chargers in 2024. Trestman, a three-time Grey Cup-champion Head Coach and two-time CFL Coach of the Year, brings 22 seasons of NFL coaching expertise to Los Angeles.

Trestman has spent the last three-plus decades leading teams and organizations, while specializing on offensive scheme, strategy and execution at all major levels of football. No stranger to the NFL, Trestman has coordinated offenses at five different teams during his coaching tenure in the league. Four of five teams (Cleveland, Arizona, San Francisco and Oakland) made it to the playoffs in his first year serving as the offensive coordinator.

From the beginning of his coaching career, which commenced in 1981 as a volunteer assistant finishing law school and was quickly followed by a National Championship in 1983 as quarterbacks coach at the University of Miami, to his recent ventures, returning to the CFL and winning a Grey Cup as Head Coach of the Toronto Argonauts in 2017, on-field success and off-the-field impact have stood paramount over Trestman's football journey.

After his tenure with Baltimore in 2016, Trestman — who already had two Grey Cup titles in his resume as Head Coach of the Montreal Alouettes — returned to the CFL as Head Coach of the Toronto Argonauts, leading a team that finished last in the league in 2016 to a first-place finish in the East Division in 2017 and, ultimately, a victory over the Calgary Stampeders to win his third Grey Cup. Trestman was named recipient of the Annis Stukus Trophy following the season, earning the second CFL Coach of the Year award of his career.

Trestman's most recent NFL venture occurred in 2015 as offensive coordinator of the Baltimore Ravens, where he directed an offensive unit that totaled the second-most total net yards in team history, despite starting four different quarterbacks under center. Trestman guided a Ravens offense that averaged 266.9 passing yards per game, setting a franchise record, and allowed just 24 sacks over the duration of the regular season, the third-fewest by any team in the NFL.

As Head Coach of the Chicago Bears (2013-14), Trestman's guidance and play calling of the offense helped the unit set single-season franchise records in total net yards (6,109), net passing yards (4,281), passing TDs (32) and passer rating (96.9) in 2013. Quarterback Josh McCown set the single-season Bears record for passer rating (109.0) and completion percentage (66.5), as wide receivers Alshon Jeffrey and Brandon Marshall each totaled over 1,250 receiving yards and received Pro Bowl nods. On the ground, running back Matt Forte ranked second in the NFL with a career-high 1,339 rushing yards, earning his second career Pro Bowl acknowledgment.

Trestman's historic run in the CFL commenced in 2008 when he was named Head Coach of the Montreal Alouettes. Over five seasons with the Alouettes, Trestman led a Montreal club that earned a spot among CFL immortality, winning back-to-back Grey Cups in 2009 and 2010. Trestman's leadership of the championship organization included guiding quarterback Anthony Calvillo to consecutive CFL Most Valuable Player Awards in each of their first two seasons together (2008 and 2009), as Trestman compiled a 59-31 (.656) record, which included four East Division titles. After guiding MVP Calvillo and the Alouettes to the first of two-straight league titles in 2009, Trestman was named the CFL's Coach of the Year.

Before aiding the New Orleans Saints as a consultant in 2007, Trestman spent two seasons as offensive coordinator at North Carolina State (2005-06), helping coach the quarterbacks, as well. Trestman's guidance helped the Wolfpack cap the 2005 season with a win in the Meineke Car Care Bowl. During his time in Raleigh, Trestman helped recruit eventual Super Bowl XLVIII champion Russell Wilson. In 2004, Trestman held the role of assistant head coach of the Miami Dolphins.

Trestman spent three seasons with the Oakland Raiders (2001-03) during a span of success for the club. Initially joining the Raiders as a senior assistant in 2001, Trestman was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2002, where he directed a group that led the NFL in total offense (389.8) and passing offense (279.7), ranking second-best with an average of 28.1 points per game. Under Trestman and then-quarterbacks coach of the Raiders, Chargers Head Coach Jim Harbaugh, quarterback Rich Gannon was named NFL Most Valuable player after leading the league with 4,689 passing yards, en route to an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVII.

As offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach of the Arizona Cardinals (1998-2000), Trestman's guidance of the offense and quarterback Jake Plummer helped franchise reach the playoffs for the first times in nearly two decades (1982), as the organization won their first postseason game in over a half-century (1947). Prior to his time in the desert, Trestman served as quarterbacks coach for the Detroit Lions (1997), as quarterback Scott Mitchell totaled 3,484 passing yards – second-most all-time in franchise history at the time and a playoff appearance.

Trestman called the offense for the San Francisco 49ers for two seasons (1995-96), directing a unit that helped Pro Football Hall of Fame wide receiver Jerry Rice set the all-time NFL single-seasons receiving record with 1,848 yards in 1995, a career-best season with Trestman coordinating the offense for NFL's all-time leading receiver. Coordinating the offense, the 49ers led the NFL with 457 points scored in 1995, winning the NFC West Division. Over his two seasons in the Bay Area, San Francisco's offense ranked third in the NFL in scoring offense (24.9) and sixth in total offense (344.1).

Prior to his record-setting tenure with the 49ers, Trestman, who is a member of the Florida Bar and received his J.D. degree from the University of Miami School of Law, spent two years in municipal bond sales, after coaching the quarterbacks of the Minnesota Vikings (1990-91). While leading the Vikings' quarterbacks room, Rich Gannon, who Trestman would later help propel to a record-setting stretch at the Raiders, improved his passer rating from a 68.9 mark to 81.5 in a two season span.

Trestman, who first coached championship-winning quarterback and Heisman finalist Bernie Kosar in college at Miami, reunited with Kosar at the Cleveland Browns (1988-89), where he coached the quarterbacks group for two seasons before coordinating the offense in 1989, helping the Browns advance to the AFC Championship Game. Trestman's first three seasons in the NFL were served as running backs coach with the Minnesota Vikings (1985-86) and quarterbacks coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987).

The former collegiate quarterback entered the coaching ranks in 1981 at the University of Miami, spending four seasons coaching the Hurricanes. Initially serving as a volunteer assistant while earning his law degree, Trestman was promoted to quarterbacks coach in 1983, leading a group that featured Bernie Kosar who guided Miami to a National Championship.

Trestman, a Minneapolis, Minn., native, played quarterback at the University of Minnesota (1975-77) and Minnesota State University Moorhead (1978), backing up Tony Dungy during his time playing for the Gophers. Following his collegiate career, Trestman spent training camp of the 1978 and 1979 seasons with the Minnesota Vikings. Prior to arriving in Los Angeles, Trestman was the general manager and head coach of the XFL Tampa Bay Vipers until the league was terminated during the 2020 season as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Trestman graduated with a BA in political science from the University of Minnesota, earned his law degree from Miami and is an established author, penning Perseverance: Life Lessons on Leadership in Teamwork in 2007.

Trestman and wife, Cindy, have two daughters – Sarahanne and Chloe.

WILL TUKUAFU

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE

4TH NFL SEASON | 1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Will Tukuafu enters his first season with the Chargers in 2024 as the team's assistant defensive line coach.

Tukuafu joins the Los Angeles staff after spending three seasons with the Seattle Seahawks, working with the defensive line each of the last two years in defensive assistant/defensive line (2023) and quality control – defens (2022) roles. The unit recorded 18.5 sacks, led by nose tackle Jarran Reed (7.0) and defensive end Dre'Monte Jones (4.5). Tukuafu's first season in Seattle in 2021 was spent as a coaching assistant primarily working with the special teams unit. His first coaching experience came as part of the Bill Walsh NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship, where he spent time working with the Atlanta Falcons in Spring 2019 and Denver Broncos during 2019 Training Camp.

Prior to joining the coaching ranks, Tukuafu played seven seasons in the NFL, starting his career with the San Francisco 49ers (2010-13). He spent his final three years in the Bay Area playing under Head Coach Jim Harbaugh. Tukuafu helped the 49ers reach three-straight NFC Championships from 2011-13, seeing action on all three phases in Super Bowl XLVII. He finished his NFL playing career with Seattle, appearing in 30 games for the team from 2014-16, helping the Seahawks during his first season in the Pacific Northwest to their second-straight Super Bowl appearance, contributing on all three phases.

During the 2008 season, he ranked fifth in the Pacific-10 in tackles for loss (17.5) and tied for eighth in sacks (7.5). Tukuafu was named co-captain for his final season at Oregon and was awarded Oregon's Joe Schaffeld Award for the team's top defensive lineman.

A native of Salt Lake City, Utah, Tukuafu earned All-Region recognition as a junior and senior at East High in Salt Lake City, while adding to team MVP honors his final year. He then went on a two-year mission trip to Jamaica. Tukuafu returned to the gridiron at Scottsdale Community College in 2005 and was named All-Western States Football League. He attended Mesa (Ariz.) Community College in 2006.

Tukuafu and his wife, Krystal were married in 2008 and have two daughters, Naiya and Lana and two sons, Kingston and Will II.

BEN HERBERT

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERFORMANCE
1ST NFL SEASON | 1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Ben Herbert enters his first season in 2024 at executive director of player performance with the Chargers, a role that will have him oversee the physiological development of the roster, as well as all strength and conditioning aspects of player performance.

Herbert joins the Bolts after a six-season tenure (2018-23) as director of strength and conditioning at the University of Michigan under Head Coach Jim Harbaugh. In 2023, Herbert added associate head coach responsibilities, helping the Wolverines to a perfect 15-0 record en route to winning their third-straight Big Ten Title and the College Football Playoff National Championship.

Over 21 years in college football, Herbert helped develop and produce 108 eventual NFL Draft picks, including 13 first-round selections, as well as players who were named finalists for the Heisman Trophy. 81 of his student-athletes earned first-team All-Conference honors, while 49 were named All-Americans.

During his time in Ann Arbor, Mich., Herbert trained and developed 35 eventual NFL Draft choices, including seven that were taken in the first round. He helped structure and connect an offensive line that won the Joe Moore Award, an honor given annually to the best offensive line unit in college football, in 2021 and 2022 — the first back-to-back winner in the award's history. The Wolverines won the Big Ten Championship in each of Herbert's final three seasons at Michigan, with the latter two featuring College Football Playoff appearances and the 2023 season culminating with a CFP National Championship Game win over Washington.

Prior to Michigan, Herbert was the head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Arkansas, tutoring a pair of first-team All-Americans and 14 All-Southeastern Conference selections. In total, 17 Razorbacks were selected in the NFL Draft during his tenure.

Herbert began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Wisconsin, where he rose up the ranks over 11 seasons. He was an intern in 2002 before being added to the full-time staff as an assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2003, serving in that role for six seasons. Herbert then was promoted to head strength and conditioning coach for the Badgers in 2009, working as a key figure in Wisconsin's player performance for four years. He directed a strength and conditioning staff that helped the Badgers claim three consecutive Big Ten Championships during his tenure (2010-12).

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Herbert was a four-year letter-winning defensive lineman at Wisconsin (1998-2001). A two-time Rose Bowl champion with the Badgers, Herbert's two sacks in the 2000 Rose Bowl Game tied the program record for most sacks in a bowl game.

In 2015, Herbert was named Master Strength and Conditioning Coach by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association, becoming the youngest coach to ever earn the honor (35 years old).

Herbert and his wife, Kelly, have two children, Charlie and Thomas.

JONATHAN BROOKS

HEAD STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING
8TH NFL SEASON | 8TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

After serving four seasons as an assistant strength coach for the Chargers, Jonathan Brooks enters his fourth season as the team's head strength and conditioning coach in 2024.

Brooks' support to the sports performance staff contributed toward the organization's efforts of optimizing player advancement, development and recovery. With the support of Brooks and the sports performance staff, the Chargers posted a winning record in four of his seven years with the team and, in 2022, the Bolts made their first playoff appearance since the 2018 season.

Prior to joining the Chargers, Brooks was previously a Performance Manager at EXOS in Frisco, Texas. EXOS is a training organization that specializes in sports performance for professional and amateur athletes. During his leadership role, he led a performance team that consisted of strength coaches, physical therapists, dietitians and consultants.

6TH NFL SEASON | 1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Devin Woodhouse enters his first season as head strength and conditioning coach for the Chargers in 2024. He brings 10 years of experience to the Bolts working with both college and professional athletes.

Woodhouse was the assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Michigan working with Head Coach Jim Harbaugh and executive director of player performance Ben Herbert during the 2023 season. His work with the Wolverines aided in the development of the program, resulting in a College Football Playoff National Championship. Prior to his season in Ann Arbor, Woodhouse held the same position at the University of Wisconsin for two seasons (2021-22).

Prior to his college coaching career Woodhouse served as an academy strength and conditioning coach with FC Dallas, where he was responsible for player athletic development from 2019-20.

He broke into the NFL by spending five seasons contributing to the staff of the Kansas City Chiefs. Originally joining the club as an intern for the 2014-15 seasons, Woodhouse was promoted to a full-time capacity in 2016, working as an assistant strength and conditioning coach over the next three seasons. Over his five seasons in Kansas City, he helped the Chiefs clinch four postseason berths and win three-straight AFC West crowns, appearing in an AFC Championship Game his final season with the team.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

CHAD ALEXANDER

ASSISTANT
GENERAL MANAGER
26th NFL SEASON
1st SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Chad Alexander enters his first season as assistant general manager for the Chargers in 2024, overseeing the team's pro and college scouting departments on a day-to-day basis. He most recently served as the director of player personnel for the New York Jets from 2019-23. There, he helped draft Garrett Wilson and Sauce Gardner, who became the second pair of teammates in NFL history to win Offensive and Defensive Rookie of the Year in the same season.

Prior to his time with the Jets, Alexander spent 20 seasons with the Baltimore Ravens (1999-2018), working alongside Chargers General Manager Joe Hortiz as the organization claimed two World Championships during their tenure together. Alexander joined the organization in 1999 as a player personnel assistant, advancing to the roles of area scout and pro scout before being promoted to assistant director of pro personnel in 2009, a position he would hold until 2018.

During his tenure as assistant director of pro personnel, the Ravens selected 13 players in the annual draft that combined to amass six Associated Press first-team All-Pro selections and 25 Pro Bowl nods. Alexander helped the Ravens select quarterback Lamar Jackson, who has gone on to become a two-time AP Most Valuable Player.

Prior to embarking on his NFL career, Alexander worked at Power of Relationships in Minneapolis, Minn., which provides support to elementary-level students with behavior disorders. A fullback and defensive end at Wake Forest, Alexander lettered twice as a member of the Demon Deacons. Alexander has four children — Morgan, Nicholas, Chloe and Charlotte — and is the son of Hubbard Alexander, who won three Super Bowls as a coach with the Dallas Cowboys.

LOUIS CLARK

SENIOR DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL
28th NFL SEASON
9th SEASON WITH CHARGERS

In May 2016, the Chargers hired Louis Clark as senior director of pro personnel. He most recently held the same position for the Philadelphia Eagles.

Clark originally joined the Eagles in 2013 as a pro scout after previously holding the position of director of pro personnel with the Jacksonville Jaguars. He spent 16 seasons in the Jaguars' player personnel department as a college scout, assistant director of pro personnel and director of pro personnel.

Prior to beginning his scouting career, Clark served as the running backs and special teams coach of the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe in 1996. He also coached with the St. Louis Rams in 1996, assisting the wide receivers during training camp.

A native of Tupelo, Miss., Clark graduated from Mississippi State with a degree in educational psychology. He played wide receiver in Starkville, Miss., from 1983-86 and was selected by the Seattle Seahawks in the 10th round of the 1987 NFL Draft. Clark played seven seasons in the NFL, including six with the Seahawks and one with the Green Bay Packers, before retiring after the 1993 season.

Clark's brother, Dave, was a first-round selection of the Cleveland Indians in 1983 and enjoyed a 13-year playing career in Major League Baseball before coaching another 14 seasons.

DENNIS ABRAHAM

DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING
30th NFL SEASON
25th SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Dennis Abraham coordinates the procurement of players during free agency, while also scouting and evaluating players in the NFL, Canadian Football League, USFL and XFL. During the season, in addition to his role in player personnel, Abraham handles advance scouting of upcoming opponents.

Abraham spent five years in the personnel department for the Buffalo Bills, helping prepare the defensive game analysis for the coaches. He also served as the Bills' training camp coordinator from 1998-2000.

A native of Akron, N.Y., Abraham attended Akron Central High School, competing in football, basketball and baseball. He then played center and tackle at Baldwin-Wallace College in Berea, Ohio, graduating in 1993 with a degree in sports management. In 2012, Abraham was inducted onto the Wall of Fame at Akron Central.

Abraham and his wife, Amy, have two sons, D.J. and Dustyn.

KATIE SYLVAN

ADMINISTRATION
12th NFL SEASON
3rd SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Katie Sylvan enters her third season with the Chargers after joining the club as the director of football administration in March 2022. She comes to Los Angeles after a nine-year tenure working on behalf of the National Football League with the NFL Management Council, which represents the NFL and its clubs in negotiations with the NFL Players Association. During her time with the Management Council, she served as an expert in matters pertaining to the salary cap and NFL player contracts, and she also served as an instrumental part of the team that negotiated and executed the 2020 Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Sylvan got her start in the NFL in 2013 through the league office's junior rotational program, where she worked in labor finance and broadcasting. Following the two-year program, Sylvan started in the NFL Management Council, where she most recently served as director of labor operations (2021-22), and previously served as senior manager of labor operations (2019-21), manager of labor operations (2016-19), and coordinator of labor operations (2015-16).

Sylvan graduated from Harvard University in 2013 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in East Asian Studies. While at Harvard, she played on the varsity women's golf team, during which time she was named Ivy League Rookie of the Year and first-team All-Ivy League. She earned a Juris Doctor from Fordham Law School in 2022 while working for the league office and is licensed to practice law in California.

COREY KRAWIEC

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL STRATEGY
12th NFL SEASON
1st SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Corey Krawiec enters his first year as director of player personnel strategy for the Chargers in 2024. He oversees the organization's efforts with strategy and data analysis for the personnel and coaching staff.

Krawiec spent the last 10 seasons with the Baltimore Ravens, providing research and insight to the Pro Scouting, College Scouting, and Salary Cap departments. He began with the Ravens in 2013 as player personnel/analytics assistant before being promoted to manager, player evaluation & analytics in 2017. His models and analysis helped Baltimore claim three AFC North Division titles, six postseason berths and an appearance in the AFC Championship Game this past season.

He comes to the Chargers with a diverse portfolio of professional sports experiences. Prior to his tenure with the Ravens, Krawiec served as an analytics consultant for an NHL team, where he developed innovative player evaluation metrics and automated reports that helped identify market trends and inefficiencies. He also served as a Hockey Operations Intern for the Stanley Cup-champion Chicago Blackhawks during the club's cup-raising 2009-2010 season. During his season with the Blackhawks, Krawiec reported to the General Manager, participating in NHL Draft meetings, presenting reports and analysis, and aiding with player contract operations. Before his time with the Blackhawks, he spent the summer of 2008 as a Ticket Operations intern with the Chicago Bears. His start in professional sports came in college, when he worked as an usher for the Chicago Cubs.

A graduate of Loyola University Chicago in 2008, Krawiec also received his MBA in business leadership and analytics from the Mendoza School of Business at the University of Notre Dame in 2012.

SENIOR SCOUTING EXECUTIVE
24th NFL SEASON
11th SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Kevin Kelly enters his first season as a senior scouting executive after spending three years as the senior director of college scouting and his first nine seasons with the team as the director of college scouting.

Kelly joined the Chargers in 2013 from the New York Jets, where he spent the 2012 season as a personnel scout. He spent three seasons (2009-11) as an area scout with the Indianapolis Colts and eight seasons as an area scout with the Cleveland Browns (2001-08).

Kelly began his collegiate career as a linebacker at the University of Miami in 1983 when the Hurricanes won the national championship. In 1984, he transferred to Indiana where he played until 1987, captaining the Hoosiers' 1987 Peach Bowl team. Kelly earned a bachelor's degree in economics and a master's in sports marketing and management.

After graduating, Kelly spent 12 seasons coaching before becoming a scout. He started as a defensive graduate assistant at Indiana (1989-92) before coaching the defensive line at Lake Forest College in 1993, linebackers at John Carroll University in 1994, defensive coordinator at Case Western University in 1995 and head coach at St. Viator High (Arlington Heights, Ill.) from 1996-2000.

Kelly and his wife, Allison, have two sons, Ryan and Payton, and a daughter, Abigail.

JAMES MACPHERSON

James MacPherson joined the Chargers front office in 2014. He played quarterback at Wake Forest University from 1998-2002 under Jim Caldwell and Jim Grobe before going to training camp with the Indianapolis Colts in 2003, learning from Tony Dungy behind Peyton Manning. While playing for the Demon Deacons, MacPherson was named the 2002 Seattle Bowl MVP. He played in the Arena Football League 2 with the Green Bay Blizzard in 2006, and in the Arena Football League with the Georgia Force in 2007 and the Grand Rapids Rampage in 2008 — playing for Bob Landsee, Doug Plank and Steve Thonn along the way.

MacPherson jumped into coaching full-time in 2009 as the quarterbacks coach at Pima Community College in Tucson, Ariz., on the staff of Pat Nugent. From 2010-12 he worked in the United Football League, splitting time between the Florida Tuskers and the Sacramento Mountain Lions — coaching with Jay Gruden, Dennis Green and Turk Schonert — before returning to Pima in 2013.

MacPherson graduated from Wake Forest with a degree in business. As a senior in 2002, he was selected to the ACC's All-Academic Team, as well as the American Football Coaches of America's Good Works Team. He is the president and founder of Santa's Helpers, Inc., a nonprofit that provides toys and clothes to low-income youth in Southern Arizona.

JUSTIN SHERIDAN

20th SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Chris Hobbs enters his 20th season with the Chargers and his ninth season scouting the West.

From 2013-15, Hobbs was the team's combine area scout, representing the Chargers at the National Scouting Combine.

A former executive assistant-player personnel, he scouted NFL practice squad players, NFL special teams, prospects from the AFL and

CFL. Hobbs helped coordinate free agent and top-30 pickups as well as setting up the War Room for the NFL Draft. He also entered pro day information into the team's system for APT, assisted the video department during games taking still photos, and he is a group leader at the NFL combine for defensive linemen.

Hobbs spent his first two years with the Chargers full time in the business department and spent 2002-03 interning for football operations under Ed McGuire during the season and interned for equipment during training camps.

Born in Hollywood, Calif., he attended North Hollywood High and graduated from University of the Pacific with a degree in sports management and a minor in business.

Hobbs married the former Angeline Geronimo in June 2015, and the couple has a son, Theodore Lucas.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKER | OHIO STATE
6-5 | 280 LBS | FORT LAUDERDALE, FLA.
ACQUIRED: DRAFT 1 — 2016
EXPERIENCE: 9TH NFL SEASON
9TH YEAR WITH CHARGERS

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ▶ Ranks No. 3 all-time on the team's career sacks list (since 1982) with 67.0 sacks, surpassing 60 for his career in the 2022 regular-season finale at Denver.
- ▶ Eclipsed 50 career sacks in his 67th regular-season game played, becoming the fastest Charger to reach 50 sacks in history.
- ▶ Registered 19 sacks in the first 20 games of his career, topping LB Aldon Smith (18.5) for the most in a player's first 20 career games in NFL history.
- ▶ Led the NFL from 2021-22 with eight strip-sacks, including a league-leading seven in 2021 to tie for the most in a single season since 2010.
- ▶ With 10 career strip-sacks on third down, leads all NFL players since he entered the league in 2016.
- ▶ Posted at least 10 sacks in three of his first four seasons, trailing only Hall of Fame DE Dwight Freeney, Hall of Fame LB Derrick Thomas and Hall of Fame DE Reggie White (all did so in each of their first four seasons).
- ▶ In 2016, became the first Chargers rookie since LB Shawne Merriman in 2005 (10.0 sacks) and just fifth in team history since 1982 to record double-digit sacks, joining Merriman, DE Chris Mims (1992), DE Burt Grossman (1989) and DE Leslie O'Neal (1986).
- ▶ Closed out his rookie season with at least a half-sack in each of the team's final six games, the longest stretch by a Charger since 2001.

A strong supporter of funding for research to find a cure for pediatric cancer, Bosa penned an article to Sports Illustrated about the cleats he wore for the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats initiative in 2017. The cleats he donned for the Dec. 3 home game against the Browns were designed by Sean, a friend that Bosa made when visiting the MD Anderson Cancer Center in Houston while playing for Ohio State. They were designed gold, the color for pediatric cancer, and on the side, they said, 'Children Deserve #MoreThan4.' Sean had opened Bosa's eyes about how only four percent of all money raised for cancer research goes to pediatric cancer, inspiring the slogan on the cleats. Bosa made those cleats flash on the highlight reels that week — leading the team with seven solo tackles, three tackles for loss and a strip-sack in the fourth quarter to force a turnover.

Over the past three seasons, Bosa participated with patients and their families from the Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation for Halloween at Hoag Performance Center. Players were placed at stations along a trick-or-treat trail throughout the facility, interacting with the children and their families as they passed by. The night also included a photo booth, arts & crafts, spooky snacks and a family-friendly movie.

In the 2019 offseason, Bosa appeared as an extra in the final season of 'Game of Thrones.' He flew to Belfast, Northern Ireland, to film. "It was a lot of work and time. It was freezing cold in Belfast in the middle of the night," Bosa said. "I love the writers. Thanks for having me out there."

Bosa's family has long been part of the NFL. He and his brother, Nick — who was selected second overall by San Francisco in the 2019 NFL Draft — are the newest members of the family to put on shoulder pads at the professional level. Their cousin, Jake Kumerow, entered the league in 2015 and spent time in his career with the Cincinnati Bengals, New England Patriots, Green Bay Packers, Buffalo Bills and New Orleans Saints. Joey and Nick's father, John, was taken No. 16 overall in 1987 by Miami. Eric Kumerow is John Bosa's brother-in-law and Jake's father. He was a first-round pick of the Dolphins one year after John. Joey and Nick's grandfather, Palmer Pyle Jr., played at Michigan State before being drafted by the Baltimore Colts. Their great-uncle, Mike, was a center for Chicago for nine seasons.

BEYOND THE BOLT

Gilman and the Chargers joined forces with the other professional sports teams in Los Angeles to support and donate to the Maui wildfire relief efforts in 2023. A native of Hawaii, Gilman called for financial support for the Maui community, saying "In the wake of recent events in Maui, the images, videos and stories of the past few days have struck a deeply personal chord with me. Maui isn't just a place on the map; it's a part of my homeland, my connection to Hawaii. My heart resonates with the resilience of the people who lost their homes while also stepping up for their neighbors in need."

"Hawaiians represent a rich tapestry of culture, family, and values that embody the spirit of Aloha. And it's our privilege to share the warmth of Aloha with the world. I implore everyone to embrace the Aloha spirit, to extend your hand in solidarity with Maui. Whether through donations, acts of kindness or spreading love far and wide, let's join together in making a difference."

In 2022, Gilman participated in the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats initiative, choosing to highlight youth education and Aha Punana Leo. "Emphasizing the importance of living Hawaiian language now and beyond is why I chose Aha Punana Leo. I chose this cause to highlight indigenous cultures, specifically Hawaiian culture and the Hawaiian language."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ▶ Ranks No. 3 in NFL history (min. 1,000 attempts) with an average of 277.8 passing yards per game.
- ▶ In 2021, became the first player ever to throw for over 5,000 yards and rush for at least 300 yards in a single season, also setting a single-season team record as the first 5,000-yard passer in Chargers history.
- ▶ Became the only player in NFL history to begin a career with three-straight seasons of 4,000-plus passing yards.
- ▶ Joined Hall of Fame QB Peyton Manning as the only players in NFL history to begin a career with three consecutive seasons of at least 25 passing touchdowns.
- ▶ Set all-time records for completions (1,316), passing yards (14,089), combined touchdowns (102) and 300-yard passing games (22) through the first three seasons of a career.
- ▶ Reached 1,000 career completions in his 38th game, faster than any player in NFL history.
- ▶ His 1,339 completions set records for the most ever by a player in their first 50 career games and the most by any player before turning 25-years-old.
- ▶ With 382 passing yards and 90 rushing yards against Pittsburgh on Sunday Night Football in 2021, became the only player ever to top 350 passing yards and 90 rushing yards in a single game.
- ▶ In the 2022 regular-season finale at Las Vegas, completed all six passing attempts on fourth down — making it the only known performance by a quarterback to convert six fourth downs through the air.
- ▶ Set all-time records for completions (839), passing yards (9,350), passing touchdowns (69) and combined touchdowns (77) through the first two seasons of a career.
- ▶ Earned Offensive Rookie of the Year honors from The Associated Press, becoming the 10th QB ever and just the second Charger to win the award (RB Don Woods, 1974), while also earning Rookie of the Year, Offensive Rookie of the Year and All-Rookie (QB) by the Professional Football Writers of America.
- ▶ Set NFL rookie records for passing touchdowns (31), total touchdowns (36), pass completions (396), most 300-yard passing games (8) and most three-plus passing touchdown outings (6).
- ▶ Eclipsed 30 TD passes as a rookie in the season finale at Kansas City, becoming the youngest player in history to have 30 passing scores in a single season, doing so at 22 years, 299 days old.
- ▶ Named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month for both October and November, posting a 122.2 passer rating in October — the best by a rookie quarterback in October (min. 50 att.).
- ▶ Registered three game-winning drives in the fourth quarter or overtime in a row in 2020, tying the longest such streak by a rookie quarterback in the Super Bowl era (since 1966).
- ▶ Set rookie Monday Night Football records with four passing scores at New Orleans in 2020, including three in the first half.
- ▶ Threw a TD in each of his first 10 career games, the second-longest streak to start a career in NFL history.

GENERAL
INFORMATION

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ▶ A three-time Pro Bowl selection (2018, '21-22 seasons), including as a rookie in the 2018 season after receiving the most votes at FS in the AFC and be the first Chargers rookie to be named a starter in the Pro Bowl since 2005 (LB Shawne Merriman).
- ▶ Named a first-team All-Pro by The Associated Press at safety following his rookie season, the first Chargers rookie to earn the recognition in over 20 seasons (P Darren Bennett, 1995).
- ▶ A two-time second-team All-Pro selection from AP (defensive back in 2018 and at safety in 2022).
- ▶ Recognized in 2018 by The Associated Press as a first-team All-Pro at safety and a second-team All-Pro at defensive back, joining CB Desmond King II (first-team defensive back and second-team punt returner in 2018) as the first Chargers in history to be named an AP All-Pro at two positions in the same season.
- ▶ Twice (2018, '22) named All-AFC from the Professional Football Writers of America, and also was a PFWA All-NFL and All-Rookie selection in 2018.
- ▶ Named AFC Defensive Player of the Month for November 2022 after becoming the first player in a decade and only defensive back in at least 30 years to have 30 tackles, multiple sacks, an interception and a forced fumble in a single November.
- ▶ In 66 regular season starts over five seasons (2018-23), he has compiled 497 tackles (323 solo), 11.5 sacks, 24 tackles for loss, eight interceptions, 32 passes defended, five forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.
- ▶ Registered 372 tackles in his first 50 career games, the most tackles by a defensive back within the first 50 games of a career in at least the last 30 years.
- ▶ Is one of eight players, and the only defensive back, since the turn of the century to post 350 tackles, five interceptions and nine sacks within the first 50 games of a career.
- ▶ Reached 300 career tackles in 41 games, faster than any defensive back in 30 years.
- ▶ With 118 tackles in 2021, became the first defensive back and eighth player since at least 2000 to record 100-plus stops after missing the entire previous season due to injury.
- ▶ Added 115 tackles in 2022 to join former Cowboys LB Sean Lee and former Browns LB D'Qwell Jackson as the only players since 2000 to have consecutive 100-tackle seasons after missing an entire year due to injury.
- ▶ Became the first defensive back in NFL history to register three sacks in the first four games of his professional career.
- ▶ Set a Chargers rookie record in 2018 with 109 tackles (79 solo), becoming the first-ever Bolts rookie with at least 100 tackles.

BEYOND THE BOLT

An avid gamer of EA Sports' Madden franchise, James played in a Madden 20 tournament in April to help raise money for COVID-19 relief efforts. He defeated fellow Charger Keenan Allen in the first round, former Philadelphia Eagle DeSean Jackson in the semifinals and won the tournament over former Kansas City Chief Tyreek Hill in the championship. James kept Hill out of the end zone in the championship in a 54-3 victory. By winning, a donation was made for the pandemic relief efforts in James' name.

After being selected by the Chargers 17th overall in the 2018 NFL Draft, James' mother wrote him a letter congratulating him on his accomplishments, bringing the safety to tears. "She sacrificed a lot for me to be here," he said. Less than three months later, he was able to hold up his end of a life-long promise: Buying his mother, Shanita Russell, her dream house. James announced the purchase on July 2, 2018, on Instagram, captioning a photo of him and his mother in front of the house, "Today was a special day. Bought my Momma her dream house I always promised her since I was a kid. I don't think there is anybody more deserving in the world than her."

OUTSIDE LINEBACKER | BUFFALO
6-3 | 269 LBS | FORT PIERCE, FLA.
ACQUIRED: TRADE (CHI) — 2022
EXPERIENCE: 10TH NFL SEASON
2ND YEAR WITH CHARGERS

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ▶ Named a Pro Bowler eight of the last nine seasons, including six-straight from 2015-20, and is one of four players since he entered the NFL in 2014 to be named an all-star with three different teams.
- ▶ Recognized as an Associated Press first-team All-Pro three times (2015, '16, '18), along with second-team AP All-Pro honors in 2020.
- ▶ Earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2016 from AP and the Professional Football Writers of America after totaling 11 sacks, 14 tackles, five forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.
- ▶ Made his Bolts debut in a home victory against Las Vegas in the 2022 season opener by posting 3.0 sacks, becoming just the seventh player since the sack became an official statistic in 1982 to have 3.0 or more sacks when making a debut with a team.
- ▶ Since entering the NFL in 2014, ranks second in the NFL with 101.5 sacks, while his 23 strip-sacks rank No. 2 and his 30 forced fumbles rank tied for the most among all defensive players.
- ▶ In the 150th regular-season game of his career, he eclipsed 100.0 career sacks in the second quarter on a nine-yard takedown. He was the sixth active player and 43rd in NFL history since sacks began being tracked in 1982 to reach that mark.
- ▶ In 2023, he collected a career-high 17.0 sacks - ranking fourth in the NFL that season. His 17.0 sacks also match the single season record by a Charger (Shawne Merriman, 2006) since the individual sack began being tracked in 1982.
- ▶ Reached double-digit sack figures in four-straight seasons (2015-18), one of just six active players since the turn of the century to record 10-plus sacks in at least four-straight seasons.
- ▶ A member of the NFL 2010s All-Decade Team, which recognized the league's best players and most impactful performers over the 10-year span.
- ▶ In the first half of his first game as a member of the Bears, registered a sack, an interception returned for a touchdown, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery, becoming the first player since the quarterback sack became an official statistic in 1982 to record those figures in one half of an NFL game.
- ▶ After being traded to Chicago prior to the start of the 2018 season, went on to lead the NFL with six forced fumbles and earn first-team AP All-Pro honors for the third time in four seasons.
- ▶ Became the first player in NFL history to be named AP first-team All-Pro at two different positions (DE and LB) following the 2015 season after ranking second in the NFL with 15 sacks, one shy of the Raiders' single-season record.
- ▶ Earned PFWA All-Rookie Team recognition in 2014 after registering 16 tackles for loss for the Raiders, also finishing third in NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year voting.

BEYOND THE BOLT

Bringing a leadership presence to the Bolts in his first season with the team, Mack began taking teammates to dinner on Friday nights during the season to build chemistry and camaraderie. Dinners grew to include offensive players as well as defense and was attributed to being a key component in how close the team came together and powered through to earn a playoff berth in 2022.

BEYOND THE BOLT

With a passion for cooking, Ogbonnia worked on his craft throughout his time at UCLA. Over the years, he started a tradition to supply a home-cooked, from scratch Thanksgiving meal for any players that couldn't return home for the holiday. From ribs and cornbread to roasted duck and stuffing, and from cheesecake to cinnamon rolls, Ogbonnia's culinary work was legendary among his teammates. He refines some of his mental skills for on-field use in the kitchen – work ethic and attention to detail. In November 2021, Ogbonnia told the Los Angeles Times that he enjoys working on meticulous recipes, saying “Things that require complexities, things that are extremely detailed. I think I'm kind of like that on the field.”

GENERAL

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ▶ Compiled 655 tackles (444 solo), 6.5 sacks, 51 tackles for loss, five interceptions, 14 passes defended, four forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries and seven special teams tackles in 108 career games (88 starts). Has also started three playoff games and tallied 17 tackles (11 solo) and one tackle for loss.
- ▶ Recorded season highs in tackles (154), solo tackles (102) and assisted tackles (52) in 2021 with Las Vegas.
- ▶ Named AFC Defensive Player of the Week and was voted as the Castrol Edge Clutch Performer of the Week for his efforts in a Week 7 overtime win against the Falcons in 2016. He registered seven tackles (six solo), two tackles for loss and an interception that set up a late fourth quarter game-tying field goal while adding a tackle for loss in overtime on fourth-and-one to give the ball to the offense on the Atlanta 43-yard line.
- ▶ Eclipsed 300 career tackles in 2019 by recording 68 on the season, his highest season total since 2016, and added the third interception of his career.
- ▶ Finished fifth on the team in 2018 with 64 tackles (41 solo) in nine starts despite missing the second half of the season on injured reserve with a knee injury.
- ▶ Led the team in 2016 with 80 tackles (54 solo), two sacks, the first interception of his career and a forced fumble, setting a career high with 11 starts.
- ▶ Was just five tackles shy of being the first Chargers rookie with a 100-tackle season in 2015, finishing second on the team with 95 tackles (72 solo) while adding a pair of sacks, nine tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

GENERAL
INFORMATION

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ▶ Over five seasons with the Bolts, appeared in 69 games and made 41 starts (four at left tackle, 20 at right tackle).
- ▶ Started all 17 games at right tackle in 2023.
- ▶ Started 14 games in 2022 on a line that finished the season as the NFL's No. 3 passing offense and ninth-ranked total offense.
- ▶ Became the second-ever player drafted out of Sioux Falls, joining P Brian Hansen — who was drafted in the ninth round (237th overall) by New Orleans in the 1984 NFL Draft.
- ▶ In the second quarter of Week 2, he caught a two-point conversion from QB Justin Herbert as an eligible receiver. He became just the second NFL offensive lineman to haul in a two-point conversion in at least the last 60 years (Giants T Andrew Thomas in 2020).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ▶ Since entering the NFL in 2018, has appeared in 83 career regular-season games with the Packers, Jaguars and Chargers, registering a 44.7-yard gross average on 346 punts (40.1-yard net avg.).
- ▶ In his first season with the Bolts, provided enough hangtime on punts for the punt unit to hold opponents to a league-best 3.1 yards per punt return, the best single-season return average allowed by a Chargers team since 1971.
- ▶ Posted career highs in gross (463) and net (42.3) punting averages as well as punts landing inside the 20-yardline (30) and his career-long punt of 83 yards in 2023.
- ▶ Held on a Chargers field goal operation in 2022 that had zero blocked kicks, making 31-of-33 field goals (93.9 pct.), the second-best field goal percentage in the NFL despite deploying three different kickers on the year.
- ▶ Tabbed a 41.5-yard net punting average last in 2022, while pinning opponents inside the 20-yard line 28 times, which was the most by a Chargers punter in a single season since P Mike Scifres did so 30 times in 2013.
- ▶ Over three seasons with the Green Bay Packers, ranked No. 1 in franchise history with a career gross average of 44.6 yards per punt (min. 150 punts).
- ▶ Punted in all 16 regular-season games for the Packers in 2020, posting a 45.5-yard gross average — the third-best single-season mark in team history (min. 35 punts) — helping Green Bay reach its second-straight NFC Championship Game.
- ▶ Accounted for 29 punts downed inside of the opponent's 20-yard line in 2019, the most by any Packers punter in a single season since 2012.
- ▶ Became the first punter in Packers history to register a punt of 58-plus yards in each of his first three NFL games, becoming the first NFL punter to do so since Washington's Tress Way in 2014.
- ▶ Selected by the Packers in the fifth round of the 2018 NFL Draft, becoming the first Alabama punter selected in an NFL Draft since 1995.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

1960 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME HOUSTON OILERS 24, LOS ANGELES CHARGERS 16 SUNDAY, JAN. 1, 1961 - JEPPESEN STADIUM (HOUSTON, TEXAS)

The American Football League's first championship game took place Jan. 1, 1961 between Eastern Division champion Houston Oilers and Western Division champion Los Angeles Chargers in Jeppesen Stadium, home of Eastern titlists. Outcome: Houston 24, Los Angeles 16. In 50 degree weather with 70 percent humidity due to week-long rains, Chargers took on Oilers before live crowd of 32,183 and television audience of approximately 45 million viewers. Ben Agajanian kicked field goals of 38 and 22 yards to give Chargers 6-0 first quarter lead. In second quarter, Houston's George Blanda hit Dave Smith on 17-yard touchdown pass, added conversion and kicked 18-yard field goal. Agajanian kicked 27-yard field goal with five seconds left in half to make score Houston 10, Los Angeles 9 at half. In third quarter, Blanda completed seven-yard touchdown pass to Bill Groman and kicked conversion. Chargers responded when Paul Lowe slanted over from two-yard line and with Agajanian's conversion score was Houston 17, Los Angeles 16, at end of three quarters. In fourth quarter, Blanda and Billy Cannon teamed up on 88-yard pass-run touchdown play to conclude scoring. Player of game honors went to Cannon, with Blanda and Lowe deadlocked vote behind. Lowe's total yardage on day was 271 yards compared to Cannon's 259. Inability of Chargers to take ball in for touchdowns early in game, setting for three first-half field goals on each occasion, and several bad breaks late in game proved to be difference.

1961 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME HOUSTON OILERS 10, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 3 SUNDAY, DEC. 24, 1961 - BALBOA STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The 1961 American Football League Championship game in San Diego's Balboa Stadium was carbon copy of previous season's title game in that Houston Oilers beat San Diego Chargers 10-3. On Jan. 1, 1961, Oilers edged Chargers, 24-16, in Houston's Jeppesen Stadium. Live audience of 29,556 fans and nationwide television audience estimated in vicinity of 40 million viewers witnessed monument to defensive football at its best. Crowd at stadium was limited because game was played on Christmas Eve and game was telecast into Los Angeles area and many San Diegans received LA's ABC affiliate, Channel 7. Oilers scored on 46-yard field goal by George Blanda midway through second quarter and added clincher, 35-yard touchdown pass by Blanda to Billy Cannon, late in third quarter. Chargers only scoring came on 12-yard field goal early in final period. Indication of evenness of ballgame is that both clubs had total net offense of 256 yards.

1963 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 51, BOSTON PATRIOTS 10
SUNDAY, JAN. 5, 1964 - BALBOA STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

Before 30,127 in Balboa Stadium and 30 million more on national television, Keith Lincoln ran, caught and passed like no other athlete ever has in professional title match as Californians crumbled Boston Patriots, 51-10. Chargers offense produced 610 yards. Lincoln accounted for 349 of them in virtuoso performance that included touchdown sprint of 67 yards, touchdown reception of 25 yards, 206 yards gained rushing, 123 gained pass receiving and 20 gained passing. Lincoln's heroics were mightily abated by others on San Diego team that played with brilliance. It was powerhouse show by team that had failed in two previous tries to win AFL title. But Patriots, with league's proudest defensive outfit, were no match for San Diegans. Splendidly prepared by Sid Gilman to combat Boston's almost constantly rushing linebackers, Chargers scored on their fourth scrimmage play, as well as their sixth and 10th. Patriots' ground attack suffered after fullback Larry Garron incurred head injury midway through second period. Garron later returned to game but remained in it only briefly.

1964 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
BUFFALO BILLS 20, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 7
SUNDAY, DEC. 26, 1964 - WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM (BUFFALO, N.Y.)

Lou Saban sent his Buffalo Bills out for post-Christmas gift after three lean years and one near miss in American Football League. Bills found what they were looking for and wrapped up defending champion San Diego Chargers, 20-7, for AFL Championship before 40,242 howling hometown fans. Chargers started out as if they meant to repeat their 51-10 conquest of Boston Patriots in 1963 title game. They boomed from their own 20 in four plays with payoff 26-yard strike from retiring quarterback Tobin Rote to tight end Dave Kocourek. Keith Lincoln's PAT at 2:16 of first period was last time San Diego got on scoreboard. Disaster soon struck visitors when Lincoln was forced out of action with broken rib on "the tackle heard around world" by Buffalo linebacker Mike Stratton. Coupled with absence of Lance Alworth, injury to Lincoln left Chargers offense impotent. Buffalo forged to 13-7 half-time lead on field goals from 12 and 17 yards by rookie ace Pete Gogolak and four-yard touchdown run by halfback Wray Carlton. Bills tallied again in final quarter on sneak by quarterback Jack Kemp.

1985 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
BUFFALO BILLS 23, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 0
SUNDAY, DEC. 29, 1985 - BALBOA STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

It was same two teams that met in 1964 Championship game with scene shifting from East to West Coast. But there obviously was no hometown advantage for San Diego Chargers. Coach Lou Saban's Buffalo Bills found 59-degree weather much to their liking in San Diego's Balboa Stadium, rolling to 23-0 victory before 30,361 downhearted fans. San Diego's offensive unit was unable to generate any type of serious attack after first quarter and Jack Kemp-led Bills broke loose in second period. Kemp teamed with end Ernie Warlick for initial score, 18-yard pass play capping 60-yard run. Just 2:20 later, Bills struck again on 74-yard punt return by Butch Byrd and at half-time, Buffalo was ahead 14-0. In second half, Chargers were able to contain Buffalo's ground game and Kemp's passing, but couldn't stop talented toe of placekicker Pete Gogolak. His soccer-style kicks connected twice in third quarter from 11 and 39 yards and once more in final period from 32 yards.

1979 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS
HOUSTON OILERS 17, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 14
SATURDAY, DEC. 29, 1979 - SAN DIEGO STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The Chargers 1979 season, featuring one of best teams in franchise history, ended in disappointment as Bolts fell to Houston Oilers, 17-14, in Divisional Playoff game at San Diego Stadium. Chargers were rolling early and took 7-0 lead on Clarence Williams' one-yard touchdown on Bolts first offensive possession of game. But Houston scored 10 unanswered points in second quarter and led at half, 10-7. On opening drive of third quarter, San Diego reclaimed lead when Lydell Mitchell scored on eight-yard run for 14-10 lead. Houston came back later in quarter as Mike Renfro caught 47-yard touchdown pass from Gifford Nielsen and Oilers jumped back out to 17-14 lead. Chargers tried to fight back in fourth quarter, but two Dan Fouts interceptions proved costly and Houston upset Chargers and eliminated them from playoffs.

GENERAL INFORMATION

1980 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS
SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 20, BUFFALO BILLS 14
SATURDAY, JAN. 3, 1981 - SAN DIEGO STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

Quarterback Dan Fouts connected with Ron Smith on 50-yard touchdown pass with 2:08 remaining in fourth quarter for game-winning score. Fouts completed pass on 3rd-and-10 with Chargers trailing 14-13. With win Chargers advanced to American Football Conference Championship Game against Oakland. Fouts completed 27 of 37 passes for 314 yards and two touchdowns, 20th 300-yard game of his career. San Diego's defense held Buffalo to 97 yards rushing. 50-yard, game-winning touchdown catch was longest of Smith's career. Down 14-3 at half, momentum changed in third quarter with Chargers going 70 yards in four plays for touchdown on first series. Chuck Muncie ran for 18 yards, then Charlie Joiner caught 45-yard pass and two plays later, Joiner capped off drive with nine-yard scoring reception, making score 14-10. Down 14-13 after field goal. Chargers started their final drive at Buffalo 31-yard line with 3:59 to play. Passes to Mike Thomas and John Jefferson put ball at midfield, setting stage for Fouts' game-winner to Smith.

1980 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
OAKLAND RAIDERS 34, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 27
SUNDAY, JAN. 11, 1981 - JACK MURPHY STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

Oakland took 28-7 lead in first half and then held off late San Diego bid to beat Chargers for American Football Conference championship. On third play from scrimmage, Raiders quarterback Jim Plunkett had pass bounce off hands of his intended receiver Kenny King and into grasp of Raymond Chester, who took pass in for 65-yard score. San Diego's initial drive was halted when John Jefferson slipped on wet turf and Dan Fouts' pass zipped into hands of defender Lester Hayes. Chargers tied score minutes later on 48-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner but Oakland retaliated with 76-yard scoring drive, aided by Plunkett pass to Cliff Branch for 48 yards and pass interference penalty. By end of first quarter, Oakland led 21-7, and two quarterbacks had combined for 314 yards passing. Oakland later scored on three-yard run by Mark Van Eeghen, making score 28-7. San Diego scored near end of first half on eight-yard pass from Fouts to Joiner. In third quarter, Rolf Benirschke kicked field goal and Chuck Muncie scored from six yards to narrow Raiders' lead to 28-24. Oakland then marched 68 and 37 yards to set up two Chris Bahr field goals while running 10-38 off clock. Trailing 34-24 Chargers drove for field goal from Benirschke that left them one touchdown behind with 6:52 to play, but Oakland controlled ball for final 6:25 and held on for victory.

1981 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS
SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 41, MIAMI DOLPHINS 38 (OT)
SATURDAY, JAN. 2, 1982 - ORANGE BOWL (MIAMI, FLA.)

The Chargers traveled to Miami's Orange Bowl to face AFC East Division champion Miami and won epic struggle, 41-38, on 29-yard Rolf Benirschke field goal at 13:52 mark of first overtime period. San Diego jumped out to early 24-0 lead, only to have Dolphins close gap under direction of substitute quarterback Don Strock. Score was 24-17 at halftime and in second half Dolphins knotted score at 24 and again at 31 before assuming their first lead, 38-31, on 12-yard run by Tony Nathan. But late in fourth quarter after Dolphin turnover, Dan Fouts threw eight-yard TD pass to James Brooks with 58 seconds left in regulation to tie game, 38-38. With four seconds left Dolphins had chance to win but Miami's 43-yard field goal try was blocked by Kellen Winslow, sending game into overtime. In OT Benirschke missed 27-yard attempt and Uwe Von Schamann had another attempt blocked, this time by Leroy Jones. Ultimately, Chargers' game-winning drive was highlighted by receptions of 20 and 29 yards by Wes Chandler and Charlie Joiner, respectively. Fouts set division playoff passing records for completions, attempts and yards, as did Winslow with 13 catches. Chandler had 56-yard punt return for touchdown for Chargers, first-ever punt return for touchdown in AFC divisional playoff game. Chargers broke total 15 divisional playoff team records and tied two others.

1981 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
CINCINNATI BENGALS 27, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 7
SUNDAY, JAN. 10, 1982 - RIVERFRONT STADIUM (CINCINNATI, OHIO)

The Chargers lost to Cincinnati in AFC Championship game on coldest day in NFL history. Temperature in Cincinnati dipped to nine-degrees-below-zero with wind chill factor measuring 59-below zero. Cincinnati won coin toss and elected to kick off, forcing San Diego to go into wind in first quarter. Bengals moved ahead 10-0 before teams switched directions in second period and Chargers scored on their first possession on 33-yard screen pass from Dan Fouts to Kellen Winslow and Cincinnati led 17-7 at halftime. Chargers were statistical leaders in first half, but three turnovers inside Bengals' 33-yard line proved costly. San Diego turned ball over to start third quarter leading to another Cincinnati score, and three-yard touchdown pass from Ken Anderson to Don Bass culminated 8:08 drive in final period to clinch Bengals victory. Wes Chandler led all receivers with six catches for 79 yards and Chuck Muncie led all rushers with 23 carries and 94 yards.

GENERAL INFORMATION

1982 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFFS
SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 31, PITTSBURGH STEELERS 28
SUNDAY, JAN. 9, 1983 - THREE RIVERS STADIUM (PITTSBURGH, PA.)

The Chargers, fifth-seeded AFC team in Super Bowl Tournament, played opening round of playoffs on road for first time, facing AFC's fourth-seeded team, Pittsburgh. After falling behind 14-3 in first quarter, Chargers took 17-14 lead at halftime on 18-yard James Brooks touchdown run and 10-yard scoring pass from Dan Fouts to Eric Sievers. With 14:10 remaining in game, Fouts threw eight-yard touchdown strike on fourth down to Kellen Winslow to move San Diego within four points at 28-24. And with 3:59 left to play, San Diego mounted its game-winning drive and Fouts hit Winslow on screen pass that he carried 12 yards for touchdown and victory. Workhorse of Chargers' offense was Chuck Muncie, who gained 126 yards on 25 attempts. It was Muncie's third-straight 100 yard performance and second-straight against leetle's number one rated run defense. Fouts threw for 333 yards against Steelers, his fifth career 300-yard effort in playoffs.

1992 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS
SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 17, KANSAS CITY CHIEFS 0
SATURDAY, JAN. 2, 1993 - JACK MURPHY STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

San Diego defeated Kansas City Chiefs, 17-0, in AFC Wild Card playoffs in San Diego's Jack Murphy Stadium. It marked first shutout in history of Wild Card games. It was also first shutout by Chargers over Kansas City and first time Chiefs were shut out in non-strike game since 1985. Two defensive powerhouses battled to scoreless first half. Chargers gained 130 total yards to Chiefs' 122 yards in half, but were sacked four times for 47 yards in losses. San Diego scored first when Marion Butts dashed up middle career-long 54 yards for touchdown. On Chiefs first play of their next possession, tipped pass by Blaise Winter was intercepted by Leslie O'Neal to set up field goal. Up 10-0 in fourth quarter, Chargers put together 11-play, 91-yard drive and culminated series with five-yard scoring plunge by Steve Hendrickson. Chargers gained 192 yards on ground, their second-most productive effort of season. Defense harassed Chiefs passing game causing two interceptions and sacking Dave Krieg seven times to tie season high. But Grossman had two-and-a-half sacks and O'Neal and Shawn Lee each had two.

1992 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS
MIAMI DOLPHINS 31, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 0
SUNDAY, JAN. 10, 1993 - JOE ROBBIE STADIUM (MIAMI, FLA.)

The Chargers history-making season ended with 31-0 loss to Miami Dolphins in Joe Robbie Stadium. Intermittent downpours and soggy field slowed both teams early as each squad was forced to punt on their first four series. Second quarter proved disastrous for San Diego; Stan Humphries was intercepted three times with each leading to Dolphins touchdown and 21-0 halftime lead for Miami. San Diego also suffered fumble snap on punt attempt in period. Chargers could not get on track in second half either, as Miami charged up 10 more points and forced two more San Diego turnovers. Chargers' defense was on field most of game (37:08). Junior Seau recorded personal-best 19 tackles. Dolphins special teams put Chargers in poor field position on several occasions, including punts, which pinned San Diego's offense back on its own five, six, four and 15-yard lines.

1994 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS

SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 22, MIAMI DOLPHINS 21

SUNDAY, JAN. 8, 1995 - JACK MURPHY STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The Chargers advanced to AFC Championship Game with 22-21 victory over Miami Dolphins in front of San Diego-record home crowd of 63,381 fans. Win moved Chargers to AFC title round for only third time in team history and first time since 1982. Dan Marino threw three first-half touchdowns and Dolphins led 21-6 at half. San Diego's offense came alive and dominated third quarter. Chargers took opening drive of second half and marched 15 plays to Dolphins' one-yard line before losing ball on downs. But on Miami's first play from scrimmage, Reuben Davis stopped Bernie Parmalee in end zone for safety to make score 21-8. San Diego took ensuing kick and Natrone Means finished 54-yard drive with 24-yard scoring run, breaking several tackles along way and Dolphin lead was trimmed to 21-5. Teams traded possessions through fourth quarter before Stan Humphries hit Mark Seay for what would prove to be game-winning touchdown. But before that could happen, Marino moved Dolphins to San Diego's 30-yard line with 35 seconds left and positioned Pete Stoyanovich for 48-yard field goal attempt, but kick sailed wide right. San Diego dominated game's time of possession, controlling ball 39:20 compared to Miami's 20:40. Another factor was San Diego's running game, which rolled up 202 of team's 466 total yards. Means rushed for personal best 139 yards and Humphries completed 20 of 26 attempts in second half.

1994 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

SUNDAY, JAN. 15, 1995 - THREE RIVERS STADIUM (PITTSBURGH, PA.)

The Chargers advanced to Super Bowl for first time in franchise history with stunning 17-13 upset victory over heavily-favored Pittsburgh Steelers in Three Rivers Stadium. San Diego started game slowly and Pittsburgh led Dolphins 10-3 at end of first half, while outgaining San Diego in total yardage, 229 to 46. Steelers opened second half with field goal to extend lead to 13-3. Later in quarter, Stan Humphries connected with Al Pupunu on 43-yard touchdown strike to close gap to 13-10. Score remained as such until late in fourth quarter when Humphries threw another 43-yard touchdown pass, this one to Tony Martin, and Colts claimed their first lead of game at 17-13. Pittsburgh took ensuing kickoff and drove to Chargers' nine-yard line with two minutes left in game, but San Diego's defense stopped Steelers on downs, including dramatic pass defense on fourth down by linebacker Dennis Gibson that sealed victory and silenced Three Rivers crowd.

SUPER BOWL XXIX
SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS 49, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 26
SUNDAY, JAN. 29, 1995 - JOE ROBBIE STADIUM (MIAMI, FLA.)

The Chargers were no match for high-powered San Francisco offense as 49ers scored early and often en route to handing San Diego 49-26 defeat. Steve Young passed for four first-half touchdowns as 49ers jumped out to 28-10 lead at halftime. Barrage continued in second half and Young finished night with 325 yards and six touchdown passes. Chargers' offense was forced to play catch-up most of game, and as result, quarterback Stan Humphries passed 49 times, completing 24 for 275 yards with one touchdown, but two interceptions proved costly. Natrone Means became youngest player in Super Bowl history to score touchdown when 22-year-old dived over 49ers' defense for a one-yard scoring plunge in first quarter. Chargers rookie Andre Coleman tied Super Bowl record for longest kickoff return when he went 98 yards for touchdown in third quarter. Following kickoff return, Humphries passed to Mark Seay for first two-point conversion in Super Bowl history. Later, after 30-yard Humphries to Tony Martin touchdown pass late in fourth quarter, Humphries completed his second two-point conversion of game, this time to Alfred Pupu. Linebackers Dennis Gibson and Junior Seau led Chargers with 11 tackles apiece, while Seau added sack. Raylee Johnson paced Chargers with two sacks.

GENERAL INFORMATION

2004 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS
NEW YORK JETS 20, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 17 (OT)
SATURDAY, JAN. 8, 2005 - QUALCOMM STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The Chargers' 2004 postseason came to early end as in 20-17 overtime loss to New York Jets in Wild Card Playoff Game at Qualcomm Stadium. Sellout crowd of 67,536 braved elements as Drew Brees led furious fourth quarter comeback during which Chargers outscored New York 10-0 to send game into overtime. Given new life by roughing-the-passer penalty on what appeared to be San Diego's last play of game, Brees found Antonio Gates in end zone for one-yard touchdown pass with 11 seconds left to send game to extra period. It was only second overtime playoff game in team history. Both teams traded possessions in extra period before Nate Kaeding's game-winning attempt from 40 yards sailed wide right, opening door for New York to drive down and kick game winner with five seconds left in overtime. Keenan McCardell scored game's first touchdown on 26-yard catch. He was initially ruled out of bounds, but San Diego challenged call and ruling was reversed. It was McCardell's sixth-career touchdown catch in postseason. Brees opened game by completing his first eight passes and on McCardell touchdown drive, he was 5 of 5 for 61 yards and touchdown. He finished night 31 of 42 (73%), setting team playoff record for completion percentage.

2006 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS
NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS 24, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 21
SUNDAY, JAN. 14, 2007 - QUALCOMM STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The Chargers' record-breaking season came to end in heart-breaking fashion when New England Patriots overcame eight point deficit in fourth quarter to defeat Chargers, 24-21, in AFC Divisional Playoff game before record crowd of 68,810 in San Diego. After sluggish start by both teams, San Diego took 14-3 lead in second quarter on touchdown runs by LaDainian Tomlinson and Michael Turner, but Bolts defense gave up late score and Patriots trailed only 14-10 at half. New England added field goal in third quarter to climb within point, but Chargers drove 83 yards in nine plays early in fourth and took 21-13 lead when Tomlinson scored from three yards out. Game appeared to be all but over when Marlon McCree intercepted Tom Brady on following drive, but Patriots' Troy Brown stripped McCree during runback and Patriots recovered. Five plays later, Reche Caldwell caught four-yard touchdown pass and Pats tied it up on successful two-point conversion. Chargers got ball back with chance to reclaim lead but instead went three-and-out and New England took 24-21 lead on 31-yard field goal with 1:10 left in quarter. Chargers rallied one last time, but Nate Kaeding's 54-yard field goal attempt with just few seconds left came up short and Patriots escaped with win.

2007 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS
SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 17, TENNESSEE TITANS 6
SUNDAY, JAN. 6, 2008 - QUALCOMM STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The Chargers won their first playoff game since 1995 on cool day with intermittent rain showers before capacity crowd at Qualcomm Stadium. Bolts overcame slow start and 6-0 deficit at half to rally and outscore Titans 17-0 in third and fourth quarters to win game. 17-6. Chris Chambers and Vincent Jackson became first pair of Chargers to each record more than 100 yards receiving in playoff game since 1983 as Chambers went for 121, while Jackson tallied career-high 114, including touchdown catch that proved to be eventual game winner. Nate Kaeding field goal to open third quarter made score 6-3 and after defensive stop, Philip Rivers tossed 25-yard TD pass to Jackson for 10-6 lead. Tennessee drove deep into San Diego territory on their next drive, but Rob Bironas pushed 38-yard field goal wide to left and Chargers made them pay. Rivers engineered 12-play, 72-yard drive and LaDainian Tomlinson scored from one yard out on fourth-and-one play to put game away. Chambers 39-yard catch on 3rd-and-10 play set up score. Late in game Tennessee was stymied in its comeback effort by three-and-out and Drayton Florence interception. Titans finished their year 10-7, while Chargers advanced to face Indianapolis in AFC Divisional Playoff round.

2007 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS
SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 28, INDIANAPOLIS COLTS 24
SUNDAY, JAN. 13, 2008 - RCA DOME (INDIANAPOLIS, IND.)

The Chargers advanced to AFC Championship game in New England with 28-24 win in final-ever game at RCA Dome. Contest included multiple lead changes that were sparked by handful of reserves who were forced into action after key starters were sidelined with injuries. Down 7-0, Philip Rivers threw interception and Colts drove to Chargers' 17-yard line, but Antonio Cromartie forced fumble by Marvin Harrison to end threat. Chargers capitalized, tying game on touchdown pass from Rivers to Vincent Jackson. Late in second quarter, Cromartie snagged his second takeaway when slightly overthrown Peyton Manning pass went off Reggie Wayne's fingertips. Cromartie returned interception 89 yards for what appeared to be go-ahead score, but holding call during return brought play back to midfield and teams went to locker room with Indy up 10-7. Chargers scored on their opening possession of second half and took their first lead at 14-10, Indianapolis then drove to Chargers' four, but rookie safety Eric Weddle intercepted pass intended for Kenton Keith. On last play of third quarter, Rivers tossed his third touchdown pass of day, short screen that Darren Sproles took 56 yards to house, but euphoria of 21-17 lead was temporarily dampened as Rivers left game with sprained right knee suffered on play. With Rivers out, LaDainian Tomlinson also battling sore knee and Colts retaking lead 24-21, backups Billy Volek and Michael Turner were called on to carry load. And they delivered with Volek giving Chargers lead one final time on one-yard quarterback sneak with 4:54 remaining. Colts had two late tries to reclaim lead, but Bolts defense buckled down with two stops on downs, including one at Chargers' seven yard line and another that started far down field thanks to 66-yard punt by Mike Scifres as Chargers held on for victory.

2007 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

SUNDAY, JAN. 20, 2008 - GILLETTE STADIUM (FOXBOROUGH, MASS.)

Despite playing with torn ACL in his right knee, Philip Rivers started and played entire game. Contest was played in subfreezing weather with kickoff temperature of 23 degrees and wind-chill factor of nine degrees. Chargers were doomed by their inability to score touchdowns inside red zone, instead settling for four Nate Kaeding field goals. NFL rushing champion LaDainian Tomlinson, who was suffering from strained MCL in his left knee, tried to go, but was unable to complete game. Chargers struck first following Tom Brady interception. Chargers were also hurt by turnovers as second-quarter interception thrown by Rivers resulted in TD and 14-6 lead for Pats. Chargers made another run at Patriots in third quarter, intercepting Brady on opening drive. It would lead to one of game's most critical plays. After turnover, Chargers drove to New England's four, but on 3rd-and-1, Michael Turner was tackled for two-yard loss by former Bolt Junior Seau and Chargers had to settle for another field goal. New England made Chargers pay three series later as Wes Welker caught six-yard pass from Brady and Patriots extended their lead to 21-12. After San Diego punt, New England took ball with 9:13 to play in fourth quarter and killed entire clock, overcoming 2nd-and-18 early in drive. With win, Patriots advanced to Super Bowl XLII to face New York Giants.

2008 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS

SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 23, INDIANAPOLIS COLTS 17 (OT)

SATURDAY, JAN. 3, 2009 - QUALCOMM STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The San Diego Chargers' miracle season of 2008 stayed alive as Bolts rallied from 17-14 fourth quarter deficit behind outstanding defensive effort and legs of Darren Sproles to defeat Indianapolis Colts, 23-17, in overtime in Saturday night home playoff game at Qualcomm Stadium. After trailing 7-0 and 10-7, Chargers rallied and led 14-10 at half. In third quarter, Colts caught Chargers off-guard while substituting defenders and made them pay with 72-yard TD pass from Peyton Manning to Reggie Wayne. San Diego's defense settled down though and did not allow Colts any more points. Key defensive stand late in fourth quarter, fueled by Tom Dobbins' sack of Manning at Colts' one-yard line, allowed offense time for one final drive in regulation. Philip Rivers drove Bolts to Colts' eight-yard line and Nate Kaeding's field goal from 26 yards out tied game with 31 seconds left. San Diego won coin toss in overtime and Rivers led offense on 11-play, 75-yard march that ended with 22-yard touchdown run by Sproles to win game in overtime. Sproles finished night with 328 all-purpose yards, third-most ever by player in NFL playoff game. Dobbins' sack that enabled Bolts to begin comeback was first of his career.

2013 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS
SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 27, CINCINNATI BENGALS 10
SUNDAY, JAN. 5, 2014 - PAUL BROWN STADIUM (CINCINNATI, OHIO)

The Chargers defeated the Cincinnati Bengals, 27-10, in the AFC Wild Card Playoffs at Paul Brown Stadium for their first postseason victory since Jan. 2009. It was the Chargers' first-ever playoff win over the Bengals. In earning the victory, the Chargers outperformed the Bengals in two key areas. The Bolts racked up a season-high four takeaways with two interceptions and two fumble recoveries, and they rushed for a season-high 196 yards. Cincinnati led at the half, 10-7, but the Chargers completely dominated the game on defense in the second half, pitching a shutout as the Bolts outscored the Bengals 20-0. Cincinnati's first six drives of the second half ended with a punt after a third-down sack, a fumble, two interceptions and two drives that ended on downs. A seventh ended with the clock reaching 0:00. And in addition to the four takeaways, the Chargers' defense recorded three sacks, five tackles for loss and eight passes defensed.

2013 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS
DENVER BRONCOS 24, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 17
SUNDAY, JAN. 12, 2014 - SPORTS AUTHORITY FIELD (DENVER, COLO.)

The Chargers' storybook season came to an end on Jan. 12 in the AFC Divisional Playoffs at Denver's Sports Authority Field as the Broncos defeated the Bolts, 24-17, to eliminate San Diego from the AFC Playoffs. Weather was a factor early in the game as winds at kickoff were blowing across the field at 17 mph with gusts up to 27 mph. Despite the unfavorable conditions, the Chargers didn't go down without a fight, rallying from a 17-point deficit to get within seven points late in the fourth quarter. Down 24-7 with 8:12 left in the fourth quarter, the Chargers scored a touchdown, recovered an onside kick and kicked a field goal to get within seven points at 24-17. That would be as close as the Chargers would get, however, as Denver took possession with 3:55 remaining in the game and converted two first downs, including a 3rd-and-17, to run out the clock and advance to the AFC Championship Game.

2018 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS

LOS ANGELES CHARGERS 23, BALTIMORE RAVENS 17
SUNDAY, JAN. 6, 2019 - MGT BANK STADIUM (BALTIMORE, MD.)

The Threes and D. That's what the Los Angeles Chargers used to defeat the Baltimore Ravens 23 in Sunday's AFC Wild Card Round from MGT Bank Stadium. Rookie kicker Michael Badgley converted on five field goals, while Los Angeles' defense forced two turnovers, sacked quarterback Lamar Jackson seven times and held Baltimore to 229 yards of total offense -- the fewest allowed in postseason team history. Badgley set a single-game postseason team record for made field goals and points. Chargers Defensive Coordinator Gus Bradley featured seven defensive backs on the field for much of the game. Later in the quarter, the rookie kicker converted from 53 yards out to increase the Chargers' lead to 6-0. Badgley added his third field goal in the second quarter, a 40-yarder off a Phillips interception of Jackson. His fourth was a 34-yarder as time expired in the second quarter to put Los Angeles up 12-0 at halftime.

2022 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS 31, LOS ANGELES CHARGERS 30
SATURDAY, JAN. 14, 2023 - TIAA BANK FIELD (JACKSONVILLE, FLA.)

The Los Angeles Chargers lost to the Jacksonville Jaguars, 31-30, in Saturday's AFC Wild Card Round game from TIAA Bank Field. The Bolts forced five first-half turnovers, including four interceptions — three of which were picked by Asante Samuel Jr. With the defensive start, Los Angeles got out to a 20-point lead entering halftime. Jacksonville returned in the second half as quarterback Trevor Lawrence threw four touchdowns and ran for a two-point conversion before leading the Jaguars on a game-winning drive capped by kicker Riley Patterson's 36-yard field goal as time expired. The Chargers finished with 360 yards of total offense. Quarterback Justin Herbert went 25-of-43 for 273 yards and a touchdown and an interception. Running back Austin Ekeler ran in a pair of scores in the first quarter, while tight end Gerald Everett caught a touchdown and totaled 109 receiving yards on six catches.

Aug. 14 — The first meeting about the new proposed football league is held in Chicago with representatives of six teams, including Los Angeles entry headed by Barron Hilton.

Aug. 22 — Second meeting of proposed football league is held in Dallas with the announcement that the league will be known as the "American Football League" (AFL).

Oct. 14 — Frank Leahy, former Notre Dame football coach, is named general manager of the Los Angeles team.

Oct. 28 — General Courtney of Hollywood wins a trip to Mexico City and Acapulco for his efforts in submitting the name "Chargers" into the name-the-team contest. The organization likes the name, Chargers, because "Charge" is what fans yell at USC games in the Coliseum.

Jan. 7 — Sid Gillman signs three-year contract to serve as the team's first head coach.

March 20 — Chargers Owner Barron Hilton unveils the Chargers first uniforms at a cocktail party at his residence in Santa Monica, Calif. The uniforms are blue and gold with a lightning bolt on the side of the helmets and trousers. Hilton chose the lightning bolts because he associates a "Charge" of lightning with a lightning bolt. He also likes the bolts that are on the helmets of the Air Force Academy football team but wants something slightly different. He has the "Charger Bolt" designed to be different and places them on the uniforms. QB Jack Kemp and T Ron Mix model the uniforms.

April 9-12 — A total of 207 tryout candidates are reduced to three. The three candidates receive invites to training camp after a four-day tryout in Burbank, Calif.

July 1 — General Manager Frank Leahy resigns due to health issues.

July 8 — Chargers open their first training camp at Chapman College in Orange, Calif.

July 9 — Sid Gillman assumes the role of general manager in addition to his head coach duties.

Aug. 6 — RB Paul Lowe returns opening kickoff 105-yards for a touchdown as Chargers defeat the Titans of New York, 27-7 at the L.A. Coliseum in their first preseason game (crowd attendance: 27,778).

Sept. 10 — Chargers overcome a 20-7 deficit in the fourth quarter to defeat Dallas, 21-20 at the Coliseum in the first-ever AFL regular-season game (crowd attendance: 17,724).

Dec. 10 — Chargers defeat Denver in a 41-33 victory at the Coliseum to clinch their first AFL Western Division title.

Dec. 23 — Hilton accepts the invitation to visit San Diego for possible relocation from Los Angeles.

Jan. 1 — At Houston's Jeppesen Stadium, the Houston Oilers defeat the Chargers, 24-16, for the AFL Championship (crowd attendance: 32,183).

Jan. 6 — Civic leaders from the Greater San Diego Sports Association attract major-league sports following Hilton's visit to San Diego.

Feb. 10 — The AFL gives Hilton formal approval to relocate the Chargers to San Diego.

May 1 — Workers begin enlarging the Chargers future home, Balboa Stadium. The addition of an upper deck increases capacity from 23,000 to 34,000.

July 22 — Chargers open training camp at the University of San Diego.

Aug. 6 — Chargers defeat Houston, 27-14, in the first preseason game at Balboa Stadium (crowd attendance: 12,304).

Nov. 19 — Chargers defeat Dallas, 24-14, and clinch their second AFL West Division title. CB Charlie McNeil records the club's 43rd pass interception of the season, a professional record.

Dec. 17 — Against Boston at Balboa Stadium, CB Dick Harris intercepts Babe Parilli's pass to record the team's 49th interception of the season, setting a new professional record.

Dec. 24 — Houston defeats the Chargers, 10-3, at Balboa Stadium in the second-straight home matchup in the AFL Championship (crowd attendance: 29,556).

Jan. 7 — West defeats East, 47-27, at Balboa Stadium in the first AFL All-Star Game which features 11 Chargers players and coaches.

Sept. 16 — RB Keith Lincoln returns a 103-yard kickoff return vs. the Titans of New York. It is the first regular-season kickoff return touchdown in team history.

Jan. 13 — DE Earle Faison is named Outstanding Defensive Player as the West defeats East, 21-14, in the AFL All-Star Game at Balboa Stadium (crowd attendance: 27,641).

April 30 — Owner Barron Hilton and his father, Conrad, sell one-third of their interest in the Chargers to San Diego businessmen John Mabee, George Perricano, Kenneth Swanson and James Copley, and Los Angeles businessman M.L. Bengston.

July 10 — Chargers open training camp at Rough Acres Ranch, 60 miles East of San Diego.

Oct. 20 — FL Lance Alworth posts a career-high of 232 receiving yards and two touchdowns in the 38-17 victory over Kansas City.

Nov. 23 & 24 — The AFL postpones all games following the Nov. 22 assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Dec. 22 — RB Paul Lowe rushes for 183 yards and two touchdowns as Chargers clinch the third AFL West title with a 58-20 victory over Denver. Eight Chargers score during the game.

The offense is powered by RB Austin Ekeler's four scrimmage touchdowns (two rushing, two receiving). Ekeler is the first back in over a decade to have multiple touchdowns receiving and multiple touchdowns rushing in a single game (Maurice Jones-Drew, 2011).

Nov. 28 — WR Keenan Allen reaches 700 career regular-season receptions in his 111th game, tying former Steelers WR Antonio Brown as the fastest to do so in NFL history.

Dec. 22 — The Chargers have six players selected to the Pro Bowl — WR Keenan Allen, OLB Joey Bosa, QB Justin Herbert, S Derwin James Jr., C Corey Linsley and rookie T Rashawn Slater — with the last five being selected as starters, tying for a league high. Herbert becomes the first Chargers quarterback slated to start a Pro Bowl since Hall of Famer Dan Fouts in the 1984 Pro Bowl, while Slater becomes the first rookie tackle in the NFL to be named an all-star since the 2013 Pro Bowl.

Dec. 26 — WR Keenan Allen eclipses 95 receptions for the fifth-straight year, giving him sole possession of the second-longest streak of 95-catch seasons in NFL history (Antonio Brown, six seasons).

Jan. 2 — With two touchdown passes, QB Justin Herbert reaches 35 passing scores on the year to set the single-season franchise record. In his 31st career game, Herbert eclipses 800 completions to become the fastest player in NFL history to reach that mark. Following the game, the NFL announces Los Angeles' Week 18 game at Las Vegas is flexed to NBC's Sunday Night Football.

Jan. 9 — On Sunday Night Football, the Chargers face off with the Raiders in NFL Network's best game of the 2021 regular season. The Bolts convert six fourth-down attempts, the most in an NFL game in at least 40 seasons. QB Justin Herbert completes the best season by a quarterback in franchise history setting single-season team records for completions (443), passing yards (5,014), passing touchdowns (38) and 300-yard performances (nine). RB Austin Ekeler scores twice to total six scrimmage touchdowns on SNF during the season, tying a single-season SNF record. Ekeler ends the season ranked No. 1 in the NFL with 20 scrimmage touchdowns, including nine in primetime, ranking second in a single season NFL history. Meanwhile, WR Keenan Allen breaks his previous team record for catches in a season, totaling 106 on the year.

Feb. 6 — QB Justin Herbert becomes the first Chargers quarterback to start a Pro Bowl since Hall of Famer Dan Fouts in the 1984 Pro Bowl. Herbert is named the game's Offensive MVP, becoming the first Charger named Pro Bowl MVP since Fouts in the 1983 Pro Bowl.

March 16 — The Chargers acquire six-time Pro Bowl OLB Khalil Mack in a trade with the Chicago Bears. The 2016 NFL Defensive Player of the Year and three-time first-team All-Pro from The Associated Press is reunited with Chargers Head Coach Brandon Staley, who was his position coach with the Bears in 2018.

April 28 — The Bolts move their draft war room to the team's locker room at SoFi Stadium for Day 1 of the 2022 NFL Draft. The team also hosts DraftFest for fans at the stadium, with a program that is hosted by OLB Chris Rumph II and features appearances from QB Justin Herbert, WR Keenan Allen, S Derwin James Jr., TE Gerald Everett, EDM DJ/violinist/singer Esther Anaya and legendary rap icon Snoop Dogg.

May 18 — The Chargers break ground to begin construction of the team's permanent training facility and corporate headquarters in El Segundo, Calif. The ceremonies are hosted by Matt "Money" Smith and feature remarks from Owner and Chairman of the Board Dean A. Spanos, City of El Segundo Mayor Pro Tem Chris Pimental and President of Continental Development Corporation Richard Lundquist. Other attendees include Owner and Vice Chairman Michael Spanos, Owner and Special Advisor to the Impact Fund Alexis Spanos Ruhl, Los Angeles Kings President, Alternate Governor Luc Robitaille, Los Angeles Lakers Controlling Owner & President Jeanie Buss, General Manager Tom Telesco, Head Coach Brandon Staley, QB Justin Herbert, S Derwin James Jr., and Chargers front office staff.

Aug. 17 — The Bolts sign All-Pro S Derwin James Jr. to multi-year extension.

Sept. 15 — Los Angeles plays in the first Thursday Night Football game of the 2022 season, facing off with the Chiefs in Kansas City. It is the first NFL game exclusively broadcast on Amazon Prime.

Oct. 17 — In an overtime victory over Denver on Monday Night Football, QB Justin Herbert eclipses 1,000 career completions. He does so in his 38th career game, faster than any player in NFL history.

Oct. 23 — DT Jamal Williams is inducted as the 40th member of the Chargers Hall of Fame.

Dec. 18 — QB Justin Herbert surpasses 4,000 passing yards on the season, becoming the first player ever to begin a career with three consecutive seasons of 4,000-plus passing yards.

Dec. 19 — Los Angeles hosts its Inaugural Celebrity Flag Football Game — The Battle of the G.O.A.T.s — at SoFi Stadium, featuring numerous celebrities and athletes, including Hall of Fame WR Terrell Owens and Los Angeles Dodgers OF Mookie Betts, with the proceeds of the event benefiting the Los Angeles Chargers Impact Fund.

Dec. 21 — A pair of Chargers — S Derwin James Jr., and OLB Khalil Mack — are selected to represent the Bolts at the 2023 Pro Bowl Games.

Dec. 26 — The Bolts clinch a playoff spot for the first time since 2018 following a 20-3 victory at Indianapolis on Monday Night Football. The defense allows zero conversions on third down and totals seven sacks, the eighth time that has happened in the NFL in 30 seasons.

Jan. 1 — QB Justin Herbert throws two touchdowns in a New Year's Day victory over the Rams to tie Hall of Fame QB Dan Marino for the most combined touchdowns through the first three seasons of a career (100). RB Austin Ekeler eclipses 100 receptions on the season, becoming the sixth running back ever to do so.

Jan. 8 — QB Justin Herbert surpasses Hall of Fame QB Dan Marino for the most combined touchdowns in the first three seasons of a career (102). Herbert also reaches 25 touchdown passes on the season, joining Hall of Fame QB Peyton Manning as the only players to begin a career with three consecutive seasons with 25-plus passing touchdowns. RB Austin Ekeler reaches 107 receptions on the season, setting a then-team record.

Jan. 14 — CB Asante Samuel Jr., picks off three passes in the first half of the AFC Wild Card matchup, becoming the only player in NFL history to pick off three passes in a postseason debut. His three interceptions are the most in a single postseason game in 20 years, while his six passes defended on the day are the most in a single postseason game in over 15 years.

April 27 — The Bolts take the draft war room on location for the second consecutive year, making selections from the renowned Westfield Century City. The team also hosts a draft party at the venue, with a program including former Chargers and Hall of Famers Dan Fouts, Charlie Joiner and Kellen Winslow to celebrate the induction of late Head Coach Don Coryell to the Pro Football Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2023 in August. Other appearances include Hall of Fame RB LaDainian Tomlinson, QB Justin Herbert, WR Keenan Allen, CB Michael Davis, S Derwin James Jr., G Zion Johnson, LB Eric Kendricks and CB Asante Samuel Jr.

July 26 — The Bolts sign Pro Bowl QB Justin Herbert to multi-year extension.

Aug. 5 — Former Head Coach Don Coryell, the architect of the modern passing game and 'Air Coryell' Chargers offenses of the late 1970s and early 1980s, is inducted into Pro Football Hall of Fame as the 11th Charger enshrined in Canton, Ohio.

Sept. 10 — The Chargers retire the jersey numbers for Hall of Fame WR Charlie Joiner (No. 18) and Hall of Fame TE Kellen Winslow (No. 80) during a halftime ceremony celebrating the induction of Hall of Fame Coach Don Coryell into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Sept. 24 — QB Justin Herbert leads the Bolts to a fourth quarter come-behind win in Minnesota, becoming the seventh player in NFL history to register 40 completions, 400 passing yards, three touchdowns and zero interceptions in a single game. WR Keenan Allen turns in a career day, setting personal bests in receptions (18) and receiving yards (215), with the 18 catches setting a franchise record. Allen adds a touchdown pass, becoming the first player in NFL history with 15 catches, 200 receiving yards and a touchdown pass in a single game. The game marks the third of Allen's career with at least 15 receptions, setting the record for the most 15-catch performances in NFL history.

Oct. 1 — OLB Khalil Mack records a single-game franchise-record 6.0 sacks in the team's home win over the Raiders. His performance ties for the second-most sacks in a single game in NFL history and makes him one of two players (Hall of Fame LB Derrick Thomas) to have multiple performances of five or more sacks in a career.

Oct. 29 — The Chargers defeat Chicago at SoFi Stadium on Sunday Night Football, 30-13. RB Austin Ekeler reaches 30 career receiving touchdowns, the most by any running back with a single team in the Super Bowl era (since 1966).

Dec. 10 — TE Antonio Gates is inducted as the 41st member of the Chargers Hall of Fame in a halftime ceremony. WR Keenan Allen reaches 900 career receptions in his 139th regular-season game, doing so faster than any player in NFL history. Allen sets a new single-season team record with 108 receptions on the season.

Dec. 15 — Brandon Staley and Tom Telesco are relieved of their duties as head coach and general manager. Outside Linebackers Coach Giff Smith is named Interim Head Coach, while Director of Player Personnel JoJo Wooden is named Interim General Manager.

Dec. 21 — A pair of Chargers — WR Keenan Allen and OLB Khalil Mack — are selected to represent the Bolts at the 2024 Pro Bowl Games.

Jan. 7 — OLB Khalil Mack records a nine-yard sack against Kansas City, giving him a career-high 17.0 sacks on the season to tie LB Shawne Merriman (17.0 in 2006) and DE Leslie O'Neal (17.0 in 1992) for the single-season franchise record.

Jan. 24 — Los Angeles hires Jim Harbaugh as the 19th head coach in franchise history, welcoming home the former Chargers quarterback. Harbaugh re-joins the Bolts coming off a 15-0 record and National Championship as the head coach at his alma mater, the University of Michigan.

Jan. 30 — Joe Hortiz is hired as Chargers General Manager following a 26-year tenure with the Baltimore Ravens. One of the NFL's top player evaluators, Hortiz was the director of player personnel for Baltimore from 2019-23 and in his time with the Ravens, helped build a team that won a pair of Super Bowls.

March 15 — The Bolts trade WR Keenan Allen to Chicago.

April 25 — Los Angeles selects T Joe Alt at No. 5 overall, becoming the fifth player ever selected fifth overall by the Bolts. He becomes the 23rd Notre Dame player drafted by the Chargers and the highest-drafted Fighting Irish offensive lineman in 50 years.

June 11 — The Chargers hold a Play 60 camp and walkthrough on base at Camp Pendleton. The Bolts are welcomed by 5,000 service members and their families, signing autographs and taking pictures following the walkthrough with those in attendance.

July 2 — Alex & Faye Spanos, the Patriarch and Matriarch of the Spanos Family, are inducted together into the Chargers Hall of Fame.

July 8 — The Bolts unveil the team's Walk of Fame, which leads into the entry of The Bolt, the state-of-the-art training facility and headquarters. Each member of the Chargers Hall of Fame is honored with a plaque recognizing their years of service to the franchise, while also denoting those that are members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame or have their uniform number retired by the team.

July 11 — After two years of construction, the Chargers open The Bolt, the first dedicated NFL team training facility and headquarters ever constructed in Los Angeles. Media members flock to the venue for all-access tours of the facility, which boasts expansive views of the LA Basin — including the Downtown skyline, Griffith Observatory and iconic Hollywood sign — and sits within four miles of LAX, popular South Bay beaches and SoFi Stadium. The Bolt's extraordinary design, technological prowess, prime location and dynamic event space place the building squarely at the intersection of entertainment and professional sports.

July 24 — The Chargers host the first training camp at the team's iconic new headquarters and practice facility, The Bolt.

Thursday Night Football games in Weeks 13-17 are subject to change.

This season, "flexible scheduling" for Sunday Night Football may be used up to twice between Weeks 5-10, and in the NFL's discretion during Weeks 11-17; for Monday Night Football in the NFL's discretion in Weeks 12-17; and for Thursday Night Football it may be used up to twice between Weeks 13-17. During these Flex Scheduling Windows, the games initially scheduled for Sunday Night Football (on NBC), Monday Night Football (on ESPN or ABC), and Thursday Night Football (on Amazon Prime Video) are tentatively scheduled and subject to change. Only Sunday afternoon games (or those listed as TBD) are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, Monday night, or Thursday night, in which case the initially scheduled Sunday/Monday night game would be moved to Sunday afternoon. Sunday afternoon games may also be moved between 1:00 p.m. and 4:05 p.m. or 4:25 p.m. ET.

CHARGERS RADIO NETWORK

As the Chargers' flagship English-language radio partner, iHeartMedia Los Angeles will again air all regular season and postseason Chargers games on ALT 98.7 — Los Angeles' New Alternative — complete with a two-hour pregame and one-hour postgame show.

Additionally, specially designated regular and postseason games will be simulcast on AM570 LA Sports. Throughout the season, players, coaches and Chargers personalities will appear in regularly-scheduled segments Monday through Friday on AM570 LA Sports and other iHeartRadio affiliates.

MATT "MONEY" SMITH

PLAY-BY-PLAY

Matt "Money" Smith enters his eighth season handling the play-by-play duties for the Chargers broadcast team. A fixture in Los Angeles sports for more than two decades, Smith is a co-host of the Petros & Money Show on AM 570. He was a fantasy football analyst on the NFL Network's NFL

Fantasy Live show and also was regularly featured as part of NFL.com's coverage of the NFL Draft, the NFL Scouting Combine and the Super Bowl.

Additionally, Smith has handled play-by-play for Compass Media Network's coverage of NFL games for over 10 years, NCAA football and NCAA basketball and has also done television play-by-play for the Pac-12 Network and the NFL on FOX. From 2005-09, Smith hosted AM 570's Los Angeles Lakers pregame, halftime and post-game shows, and he was part of the National Association of Broadcasters Hall of Fame morning program 'Kevin and Bean' on KROQ 106.7 FM in Los Angeles from 1995-2005.

DANIEL JEREMIAH

ANALYST

Jeremiah, a former NFL scout who spent a combined eight seasons with three NFL teams prior to joining the NFL Network in 2012, continues to partner with radio play-by-play announcer Matt "Money" Smith and sideline reporter Shannon Farren as the color analyst on ALT 98.7's Chargers game broadcasts.

A 2000 graduate of Appalachian State, where he was a three-year starter at quarterback, Jeremiah began his NFL career as a personnel assistant with the Baltimore Ravens scouting department in 2003 and was promoted to area scout in 2005. Moving to the Cleveland Browns as a National Scout prior to the 2007 season, most recently he served as a West Coast scout for the Philadelphia Eagles from 2010-12.

Currently a regular contributor on NFL.com and NFL Mobile, offering an Xs-and-Os look at players, teams and trends, the El Cajon, Calif., native also plays a vital role on various NFL Network programs such as NFL Total Access and Path to the Draft and is the co-host of the Move the Sticks Podcast with Bucky Brooks.

SHANNON FAREN

SIDELINE REPORTER

Shannon Farren hosts The Gary and Shannon Show on KFI Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. — 2 p.m. Before the show debuted in 2015, she spent 15 years reporting on news and sports in Sacramento, Seattle and Los Angeles.

Shannon has won awards from the Radio and Television News Association of Southern California and the Associated Press including Best Sports Reporting, Best Spot News Coverage, Best Feature Reporting and Best Use of Sound. She can be seen on NBC4's Going Roggin. Last year was her third season working the sidelines for the Chargers.

CHARGERS PRESEASON TELECAST

CBS Los Angeles enters its fourth year as the exclusive local television home of Chargers preseason football games in Los Angeles.

NOAH EAGLE

PLAY-BY-PLAY

Noah Eagle enters his third season handling the play-by-play duties for the Chargers preseason contests. He calls college football for NBC on Big Ten Saturday Night in primetime and was formerly the play-by-play voice for the Los Angeles Clippers. Eagle has hosted shows on a variety of channels on Sirius XM and works for the Tennis Channel including coverage of the 2020 French Open. He also served as an announcer for the 2024 Paris Olympic Games, SEC football on CBS and college basketball on FS1.

Eagle held the same role for NFL coverage on Nickelodeon for two seasons (2020-21) on Wild Card Weekend. The inaugural game totaled over 2 million viewers, marking the network's most-watched program among total viewers in nearly four years. Eagle received critical acclaim and the broadcast was recognized with a national Emmy award.

A 2019 graduate of Syracuse University, Eagle is the son of CBS NFL play-by-play broadcaster and fellow Syracuse graduate Ian Eagle. The elder Eagle also calls NBA and college basketball games on CBS, TNT and TBS, Brooklyn Nets games on the YES Network and works with the Tennis Channel calling the French Open.

Noah Eagle joins Hall of Famer Dan Fouts in the booth for Chargers preseason games. Fouts called NFL games with Eagle's father, Ian, on CBS for 10 years (2010-19).

DAN FOUTS

ANALYST

Dan Fouts, Pro Football Hall of Famer and former All-Pro quarterback, returns to the preseason booth for the Chargers.

Before his return to CBS, Fouts worked for ABC from 1997 to 2008 as an analyst alongside Keith Jackson. He served as play-by-play announcer for ABC's coverage of Pac-10 college football (2006-2007). Before that, Fouts spent two years working with Al Michaels and Dennis Miller as an analyst on ABC's Monday Night Football.

Fouts' 32-year broadcasting credits include the Super Bowl, Pro Bowl, Rose Bowl, Sugar Bowl, Aloha Bowl and the NFL Playoffs. In 1998 he and broadcast partner Brent Musburger had cameos in the hit film "The Waterboy," starring Adam Sandler.

Fouts played 15 seasons with the Bolts, where he was a six-time Pro Bowl selection. His years as pilot of the "Air Coryell" offense led him to retire with 42 team records and eight NFL records. His 43,040 total passing yards ranked No. 2 in NFL history at the time. Fouts earned NFL and AFC Player of the Year honors in 1982, and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1993, his first year of eligibility. Fouts currently serves on the Hall of Fame's Advisory Committee and is one of the first inductees to serve as a voter for Hall of Fame eligibility. He also served on a blue ribbon panel of former and current players, coaches, executives and media members to select the NFL's All-Time team in celebration of the league's 100th season.

JAIME MAGGIO

SIDELINE REPORTER

Jaime Maggio has over a decade of experience as a television sports broadcaster. A two-time Emmy winner, you'll find Maggio anchoring in the studio for CBS Los Angeles (CBS-2 and KCAL-9) or roaming the sidelines of Chargers, Rams, Lakers, Clippers, Dodgers and Angels games. She's also worked the sidelines for the NBA Playoffs on

TNT and filled in on FS1 national shows, including Undisputed and The Herd with Colin Cowherd. Maggio previously worked on NFL Network, NFL on FOX, MLB on TBS, and Spectrum SportsNet covering the Lakers, Dodgers, Galaxy and Sparks.

Maggio attended Mary Star of the Sea high school in San Pedro, then graduated the University of California, Santa Barbara with a degree in Communications, and earned Deans Honors. She was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority.

She is an avid yoga practitioner, dog person and travel enthusiast. She firmly believes in the importance of philanthropy and makes frequent blood donations to the American Red Cross. Maggio has also lectured at Pepperdine, USC and Syracuse.

CHARGERS EN ESPAÑOL

In 2020, Que Buena 105.5/94.3 FM (KBUE) was announced as the new flagship Spanish-language radio broadcaster of the Chargers. It is owned and operated by Estrella Media, and will broadcast all preseason, regular season and postseason Chargers games, including pre and postgame shows. Throughout training camp and the regular and postseason, players, coaches and Chargers personalities will appear in regularly scheduled segments.

ADRIAN GARCIA-MARQUEZ

PLAY-BY-PLAY

Garcia-Marquez enters his fifth-straight season in the Chargers booth after also serving as the team's Spanish-language play-by-play announcer in 2008. Like his partner, Francisco Pinto, he has been a fixture in the Southern California sports landscape for more than 20 years. The San Diego native began his career in baseball in 1999 as the host of the San Diego Padres Pregame Show for the team's Spanish radio flagship K1040 AM.

Garcia-Marquez spent six seasons as "La Voz de Los Lakers" on television where he won an Emmy Award for 'Live Sports Coverage', two NBA 'Best Live Call' Awards, and three Southern California Sports-Broadcaster Association Awards for best 'TV Play by Play.' He also serves as the principle play-by-play voice for FOX Deportes' coverage of the NFL and Premier Boxing Champions as well as MLB, College Football and Liga MX broadcasts.

Garcia-Marquez has also served as the play-by-play announcer for Super Bowl LIV and the World Series on six occasions.

FRANCISCO PINTO

ANALYST

A native of Concepcion, Chile, Pinto will continue to lend his talents in the radio booth to serve as color analyst for the Chargers Spanish-language radio team. Pinto's long, illustrious career in television and radio spans over 20 years, and he is a popular on-air personality in Los Angeles.

He won the 2012 and 2015 NBA Broadcasting Award for Best Live Call and a 2013 LA Area Emmy Award for Live Sports Coverage for the contest between the Lakers and Raptors on December 8 of that year. Prior to joining the Lakers broadcast team, Pinto spent 12 years with KMEX-TV, Univision's LA affiliate, where he was a sports anchor for seven years before switching to news and becoming a host on the station's morning newscast, Primera Edición.

Pinto has covered many of the biggest sporting events in the world, including two World Cups (2002 and 2006) and several NBA Finals, Super Bowls, World Series and world title boxing matches.

SOFI STADIUM

COMMUNITY

SoFi Stadium is the crown-jewel of Los Angeles and stadiums around the world. The venue is the centerpiece of Hollywood Park, a nearly 300-acre sports and entertainment destination in Inglewood, Calif. Capacity for the state-of-the-art stadium is 70,000 and expandable up to 100,000, with more than 260 luxury suites and 13,000 premium seats.

FRONT OFFICE

On February 13, 2022, SoFi Stadium hosted its first major sporting event in Super Bowl LVI. The College Football Playoff National Championship and WrestleMania were also held at the venue in 2023, while the stadium will be the site of the Opening and Closing Ceremonies of the 2028 Olympic Games. Hollywood Park is 3.5 times the size of Disneyland Park and, when completed, will feature retail, office, hotel, residential and recreational space.

Towering 122 feet above the field and providing the best experience for fans is The Infinity Screen – the largest videoboard ever created for a sports venue. The dual-sided board is the first-of-its-kind, weighing in at 2.2 million pounds and 120 yards in length. The Infinity Screen is the only 4K end-to-end videoboard in a sporting venue, features 80 million pixels and provides the largest graphics control system ever seen. The structure also features more than 260 speakers attached to the videoboard.

GENERAL
INFORMATION

Providing protection just 70 feet above the videoboard is an Ethylene Tetrafluoroethylene (ETFE) canopy, making SoFi Stadium is the world's first-ever indoor-outdoor stadium. The canopy features 46 mechanical panels that can open to release hot air, promoting passive air circulation throughout the building. Constructed with 17.8 miles of cables, the canopy's 3.6-million-pound wire frame cable net system is the first of its kind in the United States and the largest on the planet. Adjacent to the stadium and sitting under the same roof canopy is the 2.5-acre American Airlines Plaza and the 6,000-seat YouTube Theater.

SoFi Stadium is the fifth home stadium for the Chargers in history, and the first with a turf playing surface. The Bolts registered the first victory at their new home in a 39-29 win over Jacksonville in 2020, where eventual Rookie of the Year Justin Herbert became the first rookie in history to register a victory when posting for 300-plus passing yards, three passing touchdowns and a rushing score while throwing no interceptions.

MEDIA INFORMATION

GAME-DAY MEDIA PARKING: Media attending Chargers home games have been assigned reserved areas to park at SoFi Stadium. All parking will be distributed electronically. As a reminder, parking is limited and is being provided as a courtesy.

MEDIA ENTRANCE: All credentialed media must enter through southeast media gate between entries 10 & 11 near Media Will Call and are subject to search procedures. Please be prepared to open all cases and bags for inspection by SoFi Stadium security personnel. All items will be inspected and tagged for security purposes. Please make sure bags are identifiable and limit carry-in items to only what is necessary. Please remove any security tags from prior games.

CHARGERS MEDIA SITE

Chargers.com/media is available to assist media with coverage leading up to each game of the 2024 season. The media site contains digital copies of all press materials. Credential requests on the site must be submitted by the sports director, sports editor or photo editor to be considered.

PRESS BOX

Media can access the press box by entering SoFi Stadium through the Southeast media gate. Once on the concourse, turn left and walk along the concourse around the South end zone until reaching elevators in the Southwest corner of the stadium. Take the elevators up to level 7 to access the press box.

TICKET INFORMATION

For information, call the Chargers' ticket office at 1-877-CHARGERS or visit chargers.com/tickets.
