LOS ANGELES CHARGERS IMPACT FUND

HELPING FAMILIES THRIVE

The Chargers Impact Fund is committed to helping families thrive in and around Southern California. Alex and Faye Spanos firmly believed that a solid family foundation was critical to success in life. That's why in 1995 they created the Chargers Impact Fund to focus on improving the circumstances of families and their communities.

Over the years, the Fund has awarded more than $12 million in direct community assistance, including more than $6 million to public schools for badly needed physical fitness, nutrition and athletic programs and equipment. Today, in partnership with Chargers fans, volunteers and donors, the Chargers Impact Fund continues to honor Alex and Faye's legacy by helping to build strong support structures for youth, families, and their communities across Southern California.

Looking to the future, the Chargers Impact Fund is also committed to working closely with the Los Angeles Chargers, Head Coach Anthony Lynn and the Team's players to invest in, support and uplift organizations led by and in service to people of color.

IMPACT AREAS

The Chargers Impact Fund has four important pillars which serve as the supports for its mission in Southern California and form the basis for its granting and critical programming.

YOUTH EMPOWERMENT

⚡ Safe Places to Play

Every kid deserves a safe, clean, beautiful place to play. That's why we're building new parks and P.E facilities and refurbishing old ones across Southern California.

⚡ Youth Mentoring

The right mentor can change a life. That's why we're committed to providing guidance and direction to those who need it. We're partnering with programs that connect Southern California's youth with mentors who can help them navigate a path to success.

SUPPORTING FAMILIES

Families come in all shapes and sizes and face unique challenges. We're partnering with nonprofit organizations that provide families with thoughtful programming, resources and guidance to help them thrive. We know raising a family is hard, that's why the Chargers Impact Fund has your back.

ANIMAL WELFARE

Animals provide priceless enrichment. We owe it to them to ensure they're safe, cared for and lead lives full of the love they deserve. So, we're stepping up to make our community more humane for our animal family members.

EMERGENCY RESPONSE

Most disasters can't be stopped, but how we respond can define our future. We're committed to helping provide relief to families and communities during times of crisis. Whether we are faced with a natural disaster, pandemic, or economic recession, we stand ready to help our communities with their critical needs.

CHARGERS IMPACT FUND IN 2019

CHARGERS CHAMPIONS

Chargers Champions, the Foundation's signature program, has provided funds directly to educational institutions to support youth fitness and nutrition since 2000. Chargers Champions awarded $208,000 to eight schools in 2018 and $250,000 to six schools in 2019.

COACH OF THE WEEK

Every week in the high school football season, the Chargers select one deserving head coach from Los Angeles, Orange and San Diego counties to be named Coach of the Week. Each coach is awarded a $1,000 grant from the Chargers Impact Fund for their school's athletic department, is personally recognized on Chargers.com and invited to a home game. 30 coaches were honored in 2019 for their commitment to high school football and dedication to their student athletes.

L.A.C.E.S. CAMP

During the 2019 offseason, the Chargers Impact Fund hosted the first annual Los Angeles Chargers Elite Skills (L.A.C.E.S.) Camp at the team's training facility for local youth football players and enthusiasts. All proceeds from the L.A.C.E.S. camp support the Foundation's initiative to provide access to sports to youth across Southern California.

GOLF INVITATIONAL

In the offseason, the Chargers Impact Fund hosted the second annual Golf Invitational Presented by Children's Hospital Los Angeles. Almost every member of the roster participated in a putting competition or played the links.

50/50 RAFFLE

In the second season of the 50/50 Raffle, the Foundation raised $176,440 with $113,115 benefiting the following nonprofit organizations:

- ⚡ Children's Hospital Los Angeles: $36,600
- ⚡ St. Francis Center: $25,920
- ⚡ American Cancer Society: $23,870
- ⚡ Long Beach VA Hospital: $11,395.00
- ⚡ La Plaza de Cultures del Arte: $11,160
- ⚡ Los Angeles Chargers Charities: $4,170

CHARGERS IN THE COMMUNITY

COMMITTED TO HELPING KIDS ACHIEVE THEIR DREAMS

YOUTH EDUCATION

BOYS & GIRLS CLUBS OF METRO LOS ANGELES

In 2018 the Chargers announced a two-year, $400,000 donation to the Boys & Girls Club of Metro Los Angeles (BGCMLA) to support their mission to enable young people in LA to reach their full potential as productive and responsible citizens. The donation funded facility renovations and educational programming. This investment in youth from some of the region's most consistently under-resourced neighborhoods has provided safe spaces for children to grow and learn for years to come. In 2019 the Chargers coaches, players and front office staff purchased gifts for children from the Watts/Willowbrook and Venice Clubhouses as part of the annual Giving Tree program at Hoag Performance Center.

CHARACTER PLAYBOOK

Since 2017, the Bolts have partnered with Everfi to bring Character Playbook to 8,500 students at 58 schools throughout Southern California. Designed by the NFL, The United Way and Everfi, Character Playbook is a digital in-school program that teaches students how to build healthy relationships, make good decisions and to speak up when they witness questionable activity.

TAKE CHARGE

In 2019, nearly 50 high school football players from 25 different Los Angeles County high schools participated in the Chargers annual Take Charge Character & Leadership summit where they learned about leadership on and off the field from speakers such as General Manager Tom Telesco. Based off the NFLPA curriculum designed for NFL rookies, Take Charge also requires the student athletes who participate to lead a community service project before the start of the fall football season.

YOUTH SPORTS

SUMMER NIGHT LIGHTS

For the second year in a row, the Chargers partnered with the Los Angeles Mayor's Office of Gang Reduction & Youth Development (GRYD) and the GRYD Foundation to keep youth sports free during extended summer hours at all 32 park locations. As part of a three-year, $1.2 million investment in Summer Night Lights, the Chargers donation provides a safe space for children to play in their neighborhoods. The Chargers Street Team held Jr. Chargers Training Camps and various fun interactive activities for kids at several parks during Summer Night Lights.

JR. CHARGERS TRAINING CAMPS

In 2019, the Chargers and the Chargers Impact Fund hosted 104 Jr. Chargers Training Camps for more than 8,000 youth from Los Angeles, Orange and San Diego Counties. Jr. Chargers Training Camps are a fun, recreational way for kids to get outside, be active, and participate in real NFL-style drills with the Chargers Street Team.

⚡ Rookie Play60 Blitz

In 2019, 200 students from Centinela Elementary School in Inglewood, CA took part in the annual Rookie Play60 Blitz with the Chargers' 2019 rookie class and Pro Football Hall of Famer LaDainian Tomlinson. Inglewood Mayor, James T. Butts opened the event, which was held in partnership with volunteers from the Inglewood Police Department.

ALEX SPANOS & OC ALL STAR CLASSICS

The Chargers celebrated the culmination of the high school football season by hosting all-star games in San Diego and Orange County for nearly 200 Southern California high school students. In San Diego, the 30th Annual Alex Spanos All-Star Classic ended in a 44-7 victory for the North team, while the South team won 27-13 in the 61st Annual Orange County All-Star Classic.

YOUTH FOOTBALL TRADITION

During each of the Chargers' home games, a lucky youth football team watches their favorite players warm up from the sidelines, runs out of the tunnel prior to the Bolts and lines up on the sidelines for the national anthem. In the 2019 season, over 180 young athletes took part in the annual Youth Football Tradition.

CLEAT DONATION PROGRAM

Over the past three seasons, the Bolts have outfitted hundreds of young athletes with gently used professional quality cleats and gloves straight from the team's equipment room. Youth and high school football players from Southern California are encouraged to learn more and request cleats online.

PLAYERS IN THE COMMUNITY

COMMUNITY TUESDAY

On most Tuesdays during the regular season Chargers players, legends and Charger Girls participate in various community events throughout Southern California. In 2019, 50 players spent 165 hours with children, cancer patients and survivors, active duty military and veterans, youth football teams and more.

⚡ Tyson Food Distribution

In 2019 the Bolts partnered with Tyson Foods and the Los Angeles Regional Food Bank to continue the tradition of giving back to those in need. Players, Charger Girls and volunteers from Albertsons and Tyson Foods teamed up with Carson High School Football players to distribute 40,000 pounds of protein to the nonprofit partners of the LA Regional Food Bank during Hunger Action Month.

⚡ Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation Halloween Trick or Treat Trail

For the second Halloween in a row, Head Coach Anthony Lynn joined players and Charger Girls to host nearly 150 patients and their families from the Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation. Families dressed in costumes, met players, toured the facility and participated in a "trick-or-treat trail" through Hoag Performance Center.

⚡ WSS Shoe Distribution

Continuing a tradition spanning nearly three decades, the Bolts partnered with WSS to provide shoes to local kids. 300 students from Santa Ana Unified School District joined Chargers players and Charger Girls to pick out a new pair shoes for the holidays.

⚡ Bikes for Kids

Joey Bosa, Uchenna Nwosu, Isaac Rochell, Justin Jones and Michael Badgley surprised over 100 third grade students from Bennet-Kew Elementary School in Inglewood, CA with new bikes, helmets and locks purchased by the team, Los Angeles Chargers Impact Fund and corporate partner California Resources Corporation. 2019 marked the 15th year that the Bolts have partnered with the Bikes for Kids Foundation to surprise local youth.

MY CAUSE MY CLEATS

25 Chargers players designed and wore custom cleats benefitting 22 nonprofits as part of the 2019 My Cause My Cleat campaign. All proceeds collected are sent to the charities that the players represent on their cleats. This past year, Susie Spanos, wife of Controlling Owner - Chairman of the Board Dean Spanos and NFL Foundation Board Member, also designed and sported custom tennis shoes highlighting breast cancer awareness.

COMMUNITY CORNER

Nine players purchased season tickets that they donated to local youth and nonprofit organizations through the Chargers Community Corner program. Designed to provide an opportunity to experience the excitement and thrill of an NFL game for those who would not otherwise have access, this year's program donated tickets to 47 local organizations. Recipients of Community Corner tickets also receive a coupon for a hot dog and soda courtesy of the Spanos Family.

SPECIAL TEAMS

SALUTE TO SERVICE

Alex Spanos proudly served his country as a tail gunner in the United States Air Force from 1942 to 1946. The Chargers know that we owe a debt of gratitude to those who have borne the battle on our behalf, which is why the organization and Spanos family continue this legacy of commitment to our troops.

TAPS

The Bolts honored 25 heroes and their Gold Star families through the Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors (T.A.P.S.), which honors and celebrates the lives of our nation's fallen heroes and their families. 25 Chargers players proudly represented their servicemembers initials on their helmet during the Salute to Service game and met the families during a special tour of the team's practice facility at Hoag Performance Center the Friday before the game.

OPERATION GRATITUDE CARE KITS

The Bolts front office staff partnered with fan club members and active duty service members from LA Air Force Base to pack 500 care kits that were sent to those serving abroad through Operation Gratitude. Each care kit included hygiene items and thank you notes from volunteers.

LONG BEACH VA HOSPITAL VISIT

Chargers players and Charger Girls visited the Long Beach Veterans Hospital to visit more than 100 local veterans and give them each a blanket and beanie.

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS

As part of the NFL's Crucial Catch campaign, the Chargers raise awareness for the importance of early detection while supporting patients, caregivers and survivors of breast cancer. Susie Spanos, breast cancer survivor and wife of Controlling Owner and Chairman of the Board, Dean Spanos, knows firsthand the importance of early detection and continues to lead the team's efforts to ensure local women and men get tested. Spanos was joined by several Chargers breast cancer survivors to fire the cannon to start of the 2019 Crucial Catch game.

HOAG YOGA WORKSHOP

The Chargers partnered with Hoag Hospital to host 30 breast cancer patients and survivors for a yoga class on the field at the team's practice facility, Hoag Performance Center. Susie Spanos, Pro Football Hall of Famer LaDainian Tomlinson, players and Charger Girls joined the patients and survivors for yoga and refreshments.

HUDDLE TO INTERCEPT CANCER

Susie Spanos, Chargers players, Charger Girls and front office staff hosted patients, caregivers and survivors at the NFL Huddle to Intercept Cancer. Centered around cancer awareness and risk reduction, the event included a day of therapeutic activities for patients and survivors and a volunteer component where members of the community gave back to those affected by cancer.

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY SURVIVORS ON GAME DAY

The Chargers celebrated 50 breast cancer survivors through the American Cancer Society at the team's annual Crucial Catch game.

HOMETOWN HERO

During the 2019 season, 13 Hometown Heroes were honored at home games for their bravery and heroism. Each Hometown Hero receives a $1,000 donation to a charity of their choice and a customized jersey.

BEACH CLEAN UP

The Chargers front office staff partnered with fan club members, the Charger Girls and Heal the Bay, an environmental nonprofit, to collect more than 80 pounds of trash at Mothers Beach in Long Beach. Sponsored by Pacifico, the beach cleanup was part of the Chargers' NFL Huddle for 100 campaign, designed to encourage community service.

TRAINING CAMP

WATER FUNDRAISER

Twelve local youth football teams raised over $7,000 for their programs by selling water and Gatorade at Training Camp.

PET ADOPTION

In partnership with Priceless Pet Rescue, the Chargers hosted their first dog adoption event at Training Camp and helped 11 dogs find their fur-ever home.

BACK TO SCHOOL DRIVE

The Chargers hosted a back to school drive over several days in which fans donated 1,247 school supplies that filled 60 backpacks that were donated to Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Los Angeles and Garden Grove.

AMERICAN RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE

In response to an emergency blood shortage, the Chargers teamed up with the American Red Cross to host a community blood drive at Training Camp. 44 Chargers fans – 20 of which were first time donors – donated 43 units of blood, which saved approximately 129 lives.

▶ ALEX & FAYE SPANOS

REMEMBERING ALEX SPANOS

Alexander Gus Spanos, Chargers owner and Spanos family patriarch, was the embodiment of the American dream. Alex's legacy is one of perseverance, compassion, philanthropy and, most of all, a passion for his family – a family that will carry on his spirit for generations to come.

Alex was, quite simply, a force of nature who inspired everyone he encountered, rising from humble beginnings to become an American business icon. He was a devoted husband, loving father, doting grandfather and great-grandfather, celebrated businessman, loyal friend, generous philanthropist and a compassionate man who cared deeply for his community.

Born in South Stockton to Greek immigrants Constantinos "Gus" Spanos and Evanthia Tsopeles Koumentakou in 1923, Alex's tireless work ethic and fearlessness was instilled in him at an early age. When he was eight years old, he began working at his father's bakery, waking up at 4 a.m. to bake bread and pastries before school. He worked 15-hour days for seven days a week through his early adulthood.

While pursuing an engineering degree at Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, his studies were put on hold following the attack on Pearl Harbor. In 1942, Alex left college to enlist in the U.S. Air Force and was stationed at Tarpon Springs, Florida. It was there that he met the love of his life, Faye Papafaklis, who remained by his side for the next 77 years.

Once Alex's military service ended in 1946, he came home to Stockton and enrolled in the University of the Pacific. After going back to work at his father's restaurant making $40 a week, he married Faye in 1948 and the happy couple welcomed their first son, Dean, in 1950.

With another baby on the way and his family struggling to make ends meet, Alex left his father's restaurant and set out to create a catering business of his own. Alex and Faye began making bologna sandwiches at their house and, after taking out an $800 loan to purchase a truck, launched A.G. Spanos Agricultural Catering. Selling sandwiches to local farmers in the San Juan Valley, a mere six months later, he was able to buy a house for his family and pay off his father's debts. By 1951, the 27-year old Spanos had $35,000 to his name.

Alex made more money in the four months after leaving his father's bakery than in the 20 years he worked at the store. This proved to be the first of many daring business ventures Spanos would pursue. By 1956, he had earned enough to comfortably provide for his family, which now also consisted of two daughters, Dea and Alexis, and another son, Michael.

At the suggestion of his accountant, Alex began investing in real estate even though he knew little about the field. Relying on his work ethic and fearless attitude, he earned his first million within a year and come 1960, had established A.G. Spanos Construction. By the mid-seventies the company had grown to become the number one builder of apartments across the nation.

Now firmly established in the business world, Alex began his pursuit of a childhood dream – owning a professional sports team. With football his top passion, on August 1, 1984, dreams became reality when Alex purchased the San Diego Chargers.

Although Alex had a renowned reputation in the real estate and development industry, he had to prove himself all over again in the NFL. He described this part of his life as one that, at times, was filled with heartbreak but ultimately brought him the highlight of his career when the Chargers beat the Steelers to play in Super Bowl XXIX.

Equally passionate about the franchise's impact off the field as much as between the white lines, Alex implemented many Chargers community outreach programs that exist to this day. The Chargers Community Foundation alone – which he created and funded – has donated more than $13 million over the years to support critical causes, individuals in need and organizations supporting the community. In 1994, Alex handed control of the team to his son, Dean. His passion for the Chargers, however, remained fierce as ever, traveling to every game with wife Faye – home or away – until health issues in 2008 made travel too difficult.

Philanthropy was of the utmost importance to Spanos, which is why he made significant contributions to educational institutions, the arts, relief assistance programs, veterans groups and hospitals. Devoutly Greek Orthodox, Alex was deeply proud of his heritage, instilling many of his traditions in the growing Spanos family. From raising funds to rebuild a 140-year-old church to providing relief after a natural disaster, Alex gave back to the Greek community as well. In 2008, he was awarded the Medal of the Commander of the Order of Honor for his humanitarian efforts in Greece by the President of the Hellenic Republic.

While Alex accomplished much over his 95 years, nothing compared to the pride he felt for his family – a major reason he surrounded himself with them at every turn. He involved them in his company at an early age, often crediting them for helping build A.G.

Spanos Companies into the country's largest family-owned construction company. While Alex may be gone, he will never be forgotten. His legacy is sure to be carried on by those who loved him most – his four children, Dean, Dea Spanos Berberian, Alexis Spanos Ruhl and Michael; 15 grandchildren; and 13 great-grandchildren.

REMEMBERING FAYE SPANOS

Faye Spanos was born in 1926 to Greek immigrant parents in Tarpon Springs, Florida. She was by nature, a loving and sweet person who found joy in everything. When she was just 18 years old, she met the love of her life, Alex Spanos, who was in the Air Force and stationed at Drew Field in Tampa at the time. After a long-distance courtship, Alex and Faye married in 1948 in Faye's hometown of Tarpon Springs.

Once married, Faye and Alex settled in Stockton, Calif. and worked side by side in the kitchen at the Roma Lunch Bakery, an establishment owned by Alex's father. The young couple began to build their family as they welcomed their children, Dean, Dea, Alexis and Michael.

As their children grew, so did her husband's success in business. Faye accepted his financial prosperity by opening her heart and home and sharing their good fortune first with their large extended families and then, with their community. As someone who personified kindness, grace and compassion, she and her husband made donations benefitting schools, children, the arts, hospitals and people in need.

Faye taught everyone around her by example, never admonishing, never reprimanding and never raising her voice. Guided by faith, she lived her beliefs every day of her life and treated everyone with the dignity and respect they deserved.

Faye Spanos' name in Greek derives from the Greek word for light. And throughout her life Faye was the light and rock for Alex and for her family. She was a blessing to all who met her and the essence that brought balance, encouragement, faith, support and love to her family.

DEAN A. SPANOS

OWNER AND
CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Under the leadership of Dean Spanos, the Los Angeles Chargers continue to make bold moves that position the franchise for long-term success in the nation's second-largest media market. Thanks to Spanos' senior leadership and strategic direction, the Chargers will open the 2020 season in their iconic, new SoFi Stadium home just months after successfully unveiling new team uniforms and updated branding that helped usher in a new era in the team's storied history.

Spanos has led the team through numerous franchise records and victories. During the 11 seasons from 2004-14, the Chargers won 113 games (playoffs included) – five of which were AFC West championships (2004, 2006-09) – and four playoff games. Only three teams in the NFL won more games during that span.

Named President of the Chargers in early 1994 – the same year the team culminated its most memorable season with an appearance in Super Bowl XXIX – Dean, along with his father Alex Spanos, also secured Super Bowl XXXII (1998) and Super Bowl XXXVIII (2003) for their community, with each event netting in excess of $300 million for the local economy.

In 2015, Spanos handed over the reins of day-to-day leadership to sons A.G. and John. Eldest son A.G. Spanos now serves as President of Business Operations while John Spanos heads up the other side of the business as President of Football Operations.

Dean's leadership is also present throughout the National Football League. As a member of the NFL's Management Council Executive Committee (CEC), he played an integral role in negotiating the NFL's current labor agreement. Spanos also sits on the NFL's Business Ventures Committee – having served as Chairman in 2015 – which has oversight regarding various league commercial activities, including consumer products, sponsorship, events, marketing and new business initiatives. In addition to his current committee work, Spanos also owns previous committee time that includes membership on the NFL's International and Legislative Committees.

Aside from football, Spanos also serves as CEO of the A.G. Spanos Companies, and along with his brother, Michael, oversees all construction operations nationwide.

TRADITION OF GIVING

The Spanos family has a multi-generation commitment to community involvement and is recognized both as one of the NFL's most philanthropic families as well as one of Southern California's most active and caring contributors to local causes. Their financial contributions of more than $15 million and their emotional support for youth, sports, education and our brave men and women in uniform have been a hallmark of their team ownership and legacy.

In March of 2020, in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, Spanos directed an immediate donation of $250,000 to the LA Food Bank to help prepare for what he knew would be a tremendous increase in need. He also directed additional, significant donations to support other regional Food Banks, first responders, the American Red Cross and other non-profits working throughout Southern California to assist people struggling through the pandemic. The Chargers then partnered with KCBS-TV in Los Angeles and iHeart Radio to co-host a fundraiser that ultimately netted more than $1.6 million in donations for LAUSD students most in need, providing them with free meals, supplies and much-needed technology to help maintain their studies from home.

In April 2019, thanks to the generosity of Spanos and the Chargers organization, the Boys & Girls Club of Metro Los Angeles opened their newly renovated multi-sport field and teen center with a press conference and ribbon-cutting hosted by Spanos.

In June of 2018, Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti kicked off the second decade of Summer Night Lights by announcing Spanos and the Chargers' three-year, $1.2 million commitment to the program – which keeps 32 parks across the region open between the hours of 7 pm – 11 pm by adding extended programming during the summer to assist in reducing gang violence. Spanos' funding expands sports programming across all 32 locations – including uniforms for participants, referees and increased access to sports clinics – while ensuring it remains free for all participants. In 2018 Spanos also served as the honorary chair of the Boys & Girls Clubs of America's annual 2018 Pacific Youth of the Year Gala.

The generosity of the Spanos family reaches throughout California and has often extended into other states when needs have arisen. When wildfires struck Los Angeles, Ventura and San Diego Counties in December 2017, the Spanos family stepped up with a $250,000 donation to the American Red Cross – less than three months after committing $500,000 to Hurricane Harvey relief efforts and hosting a food and supply drive in Los Angeles for victims in flood-ravaged areas of Houston, Texas. When wildfires ravaged San Diego County in 2003, and again in 2007, the family made identical $1 million donations to aid affected families and the recovery effort.

Known for his generous backing of youth and high school football, Spanos and the Chargers were honored by National Pop Warner with its prestigious NFL Team of the Year Award in 2015 – a recognition of the team's outstanding support for youth football and cheer at all levels. The Chargers, who were also honored in 2007, are the only NFL team to be so honored twice.

In 2014, the A.G. Spanos Heart and Vascular Center at Mercy General Hospital in Sacramento opened thanks to a lead gift of $15 million from the family, the largest gift Mercy General had ever received. In speaking at the opening, Dean said the family's commitment to Mercy General Hospital was to ensure that no one from the region would ever be turned away from proper care for lack of space or the kind of critical care they needed.

Also in 2014, Spanos pledged $500,000 to the University of California-San Diego to upgrade and expand the existing Alex G. Spanos Training Facility, which was then renamed and opened as the Alex G. Spanos Athletic Performance Center. UCSD is the Chargers' former training camp home, and this gift raised the value of the family's support of the institution to more than $1.6 million.

In 1995, the Spanos family took their commitment to the community a step further by creating The Chargers Community Foundation, now known as the Los Angeles Chargers Impact Fund. Since its inception, the Fund has provided nearly $13 million to support a wide range of services and programs directly benefiting children and families. In 1999, Dean Spanos created the Foundation's largest ongoing program, Chargers Champions, which has provided over $6 million in direct assistance to schools, teachers, and students. The program provides grants to improve fitness, nutrition and athletic programs on school campuses.

Spanos has also been a long-time contributor to many other important charities and organizations working to improve the lives of children and families, including: the Make-A-Wish Foundation; American Cancer Society; Susan G. Komen; Girl Scouts; Special Olympics of Southern California; the Salvation Army; and Huntington's Disease Society.

COMMUNITY HONORS

In appreciation of their ongoing generosity, Dean and Susie Spanos have often been the recipients of numerous accolades. In 2018, the family and the Chargers were honored as Red Cross LA's Humanitarian Organization of the Year and presented with the Mayor's Award from the Association of Corporate Growth (ACG) Los Angeles – both in recognition of the impact they have made in the greater Los Angeles community. The Spanos family was also recognized with the Inaugural Carousel Spirit Award from the Festival of Children Foundation in Orange County.

Among other honors received over the years, the Association of Fundraising Professionals recognized Spanos and the Chargers as San Diego's Outstanding Philanthropic Corporation; the Salvation Army named Dean and Susie their Most Valuable Philanthropists; they received the Huntington's Disease Society of America's top national award - the Harold Leventhal Community Service Award and national Pop Warner's top honor, The Warner Award was bestowed on Spanos for his ongoing commitment to youth football and the Little Scholars education initiative. The San Diego Business Journal presented the family with their Outstanding Community Service Award for family-owned businesses; Dean and Susie received the Herb Klein Spirit of San Diego Award from the San Diego Regional Chamber of Commerce – their highest community honor and the Rotary Club of San Diego's prestigious Heilbron Award was presented in recognition of the team's "pay it forward spirit – giving not only of itself but also its professional expertise to advance the well-being and success of others in the community."

In 2006, President George W. Bush appointed Spanos to the Board of Trustees for the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts and Spanos has the unique distinction of being a second-generation recipient of the renowned Ellis Island Medal of Honor, received 16 years after his father was similarly honored.

BUSINESSMAN AND FAMILY MAN

Dean Alexander Spanos was born in Stockton, Calif. He earned varsity letters in football and golf at Lincoln High School and later received Lincoln High School's Hall of Fame Award, which honors alumni whose contributions and accomplishments are representative of the school. Dean was recognized for his achievements in the areas of business as well as athletics.

Spanos continued his golfing career at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, graduating in 1972 with a degree in business administration. He maintains close ties with his alma mater, having served as a regent at the university. An avid golfer post-college, Dean has been on the winning team in five Pro-Am tournaments, including back-to-back wins in 1990 at the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic and the AT&T National Pro-Am at Pebble Beach with partner Hubert Green. He successfully defended his title at the Hope Classic the following year. Spanos' first win came with Green at the 1985 Bing Crosby Pro-Am at Pebble Beach, where he was awarded the "Most Valuable Amateur" trophy for supplying the most help to his professional partner.

Susie Spanos is a spokeswoman for the NFL's annual A Crucial Catch cancer screening campaign and is a breast cancer survivor herself. She was honored as a "Woman of Dedication" by the Salvation Army and was also named the Woman of the Year by the San Diego Leukemia Society for her philanthropic work in the community.

In addition to currently serving as a Board member for the NFL Foundation, Susie has also served as a Board member and supported numerous other charitable organizations including the San Diego Women's Foundation, the board of the Salvation Army and as an advisory member for Las Patronas, one of San Diego's leading non-profit organizations. Susie was a driving force in supporting the Blood Bank's umbilical cord blood program, helping the Chargers' annual blood drive to become one of the most successful in the nation.

Dean and Susie have two sons, A.G. and John, and four grandsons.

MICHAEL A. SPANOS

CO-OWNER AND
VICE CHAIRMAN

Michael A. Spanos is Co-Owner and Vice Chairman of the Los Angeles Chargers, assisting in financial and management matters pertaining to the team. Michael joins his brother – Owner & Chairman of the Board Dean Spanos – in steering the direction of the organization.

Born in Stockton, Calif., he attended Lincoln High School and graduated from the University of the Pacific with a bachelor's degree in business administration. In 1989, Michael was appointed to the Board of Regents at the University of the Pacific, where he served for five years. Michael continues to contribute both his time and resources to the development and support of charitable projects involving youth sports and education. He and his wife, Helen, have five children and reside in Stockton.

As president of the A.G. Spanos Companies, Michael is responsible for the company's planning and development activities around the country. He monitors and oversees the office divisions in states where the company builds and develops. His responsibilities also extend to the areas of property management, land acquisition and preparation of all plans for future direction, growth and construction of the company's multi-family communities and land development activities. From the company headquarters in Stockton, Michael regularly travels across the country to monitor and manage building projects.

A.G. SPANOS

PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Named President of Business Operations for the Chargers in May 2015, A.G. Spanos is responsible for all day-to-day operations, including marketing, sales, communications, digital media and community relations. He also represents the organization at all NFL and ownership meetings.

Previously, Spanos served as executive vice president – chief executive officer from 2011-15, executive vice president – executive officer from 2008-10, and director of marketing programs and business development from 2003-07.

Spanos has guided the Chargers organization through numerous changes over the past several years, notably the team's significant investment in digital media and subsequent emergence as a best-in-class, nationally recognized content creator. Additionally, Spanos worked for nearly three years with the NFL and Nike on the team's brand relaunch and nearly universally praised uniform update/unveiling while also remaining heavily involved in the team's transition to its new SoFi Stadium home prior to the 2020 season.

While the Chargers continue to search for a site to build a permanent new training facility, Spanos led the team's efforts to secure space for training camp and a practice facility in Costa Mesa during the 2017 offseason. The result was a contemporary-looking Hoag Performance Center that provides the Chargers with the latest in technology and equipment, houses most of the team's full-time employees and bears little resemblance to anything temporary.

Throughout all the changes, Spanos has ensured that making a positive impact in the community has remained constant. In 2018 alone, the Chargers were honored as Red Cross LA's Humanitarian Organization of the Year and presented with the Mayor's Award from the Association of Corporate Growth (ACG) Los Angeles – both in recognition of the impact they have made in the greater Los Angeles community. In 2020, The Chargers Community Foundation – established by the Spanos family in 1995 – was renamed The Los Angeles Chargers Impact Fund. To date, the entity has provided nearly $13 million to support a wide range of services and programs directly benefiting children and families.

In 2018, Spanos accepted the James T. Butts Award from the Inglewood Airport Area Chamber of Commerce in honor of his grandfather and Spanos patriarch, the late Alex Spanos. The recognition highlighted Alex Spanos' business leadership and commitment to the community.

Spanos played football as a freshman at Tufts University in Medford, Mass., before returning to California to continue his education at the University of Southern California, where he earned a bachelor's degree in marketing from the Marshall School of Business. In addition to his work with the Chargers, Spanos is currently a board member of the Los Angeles Sports & Entertainment Commission, the Los Angeles Area Chamber of Commerce and the Los Angeles Sports Council & Sports Council Foundation.

Spanos is the eldest son of Owner and Chairman of the Board Dean Spanos and his wife, Susie. A member of YPO-Los Angeles and GenNext in Orange County, he and his wife, Kamri, reside in Laguna Beach with their three sons.

JOHN SPANOS

John Spanos was named President of Football Operations for the Chargers in May 2015 and oversees all football-related functions of the team, including player personnel, coaching, player finance and the salary cap, medical, equipment, video, player engagement and security. He also represents the team at League and Management Council meetings.

The 2020 season will mark Spanos' 25th year in the NFL and his 22nd with the team. Spanos began working for the Chargers in 1995, originally in the football operations department as an assistant. From 1998-2000, he worked on contract negotiations and assisted with managing the salary cap before moving to New York to work in the NFL league office.

From 2001-03 Spanos served two stints in the NFL's Management Council office in New York. In 2008, he was among a select list of NFL executives invited to participate in the NFL's Executive Education Program at the Stanford Business School in Palo Alto, Calif.

He began working full-time as a scout for the Chargers in 2003. Spanos worked his way up through the organization including positions as a pro and college scout (2003-05), assistant director of college scouting (2006-07) and director of college scouting (2008-12).

Spanos' ascension within the organization coincided with one of the most successful eras in franchise history. From 2004-09, the Chargers won 67 regular-season games, good for the third-most in the NFL over that span. The team also won three playoff games during that stretch, reaching 70 total wins from 2004-09, which was fourth-most in the league. The Chargers reached the playoffs five times from 2004-09 and advanced to the AFC Championship Game in 2007. Since 2003, the Chargers have been to the playoffs a total of seven times, claimed five AFC West titles, won 148 games and sported a winning season 10 times.

Named Executive Vice President of Football Operations in 2013, one of his first priorities in that role was the hiring of General Manager Tom Telesco. That year, the team returned to the playoffs for the first time since 2009 and won its first playoff game since 2008.

In early 2017 the duo spearheaded the hire of Anthony Lynn. In 2018, with Lynn at the helm, the Chargers tied for the AFC's best record at 12-4 and reached the divisional round of the playoffs following a wild card victory in Baltimore.

Since his work in the draft from 2003, the results have been overwhelmingly positive. Team cornerstones over that time have included such names as Nick Hardwick, Nate Kaeding, Shawne Merriman, Darren Sproles, Antonio Cromartie, Eric Weddle, Melvin Ingram, Keenan Allen, Melvin Gordon, Joey Bosa, Mike Williams and Derwin James. Since 2013, five of the team's draft picks have gone on to make a Pro Bowl, including three that have played in multiple all-star games.

In addition to Telesco, Spanos also works closely with Executive Vice President of Football Administration/Player Finance Ed McGuire. Together they have managed the salary cap and retained some of the team's top players, negotiating multiple contract extensions for several All-Pro and Pro Bowl players.

Staying true to his scouting roots, Spanos formerly served on the board of directors for National Football Scouting and is an Honorary Member of the University of California-San Diego (UCSD) Athletic Board. Spanos also serves on the NFL's Future of Football Advisory Committee and is a trustee for the NFL Player Benefit Board. In addition to his scouting board roles, Spanos is also a board member for the newly-named Los Angeles Chargers Impact Fund.

In June 2010, Spanos was named one of the "Top 40 Under 40" Greek-Americans by Greek America Magazine. The acknowledgment came in recognition of his achievements in both business and community leadership. He often represents the organization at various team and community events, speaking at the kickoff event for 2018 Summer Night Lights alongside Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti, Head Coach Anthony Lynn and linebacker Uchenna Nwosu, the team's second-round selection in the 2018 NFL Draft.

Spanos was born in Stockton, Calif. He attended The Bishop's School in La Jolla where he lettered in football as a wide receiver and defensive back. He also lettered in golf and basketball and was a member of three CIF championship teams. After Bishop's, Spanos attended Wake Forest University, graduating with a degree in business.

John and his wife, Jodie, and their son, Jack, reside in Corona del Mar.

JEANNE M. BONK

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT —
CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER/
CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

One of the Chargers' longest-tenured executives as well as one of the highest-ranking female executives in the National Football League, Jeanne Bonk was named Executive Vice President – Chief Operating Officer/Chief Financial Officer in May 2016.

Bonk originally joined the Chargers in 1991 as Chief Financial Officer. In 1994, she was promoted to Chief Financial and Administrative Officer, a position she retained for seven years. In 2000, Bonk was named Vice President – Chief Financial Officer and in 2005, was promoted to Executive Vice President – Chief Financial Officer.

Bonk's expertise and leadership have been critical to the ongoing success of the organization in many areas. Paramount among her current duties, she actively manages the team's involvement with SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park.

This past March, Bonk was recognized as a 'Champion of Change,' by the Inglewood Airport Area Chamber of Commerce at the Women Business Leaders Luncheon. She was also nominated by the Orange County Business Journal for the 2019 Women in Business Award. Bonk has also been a presenter and panelist at numerous speaking engagements regarding women in leadership, including at the Chargers Business Alliance in February 2019.

A native of Covina, Calif., Bonk began her professional career in 1983 with the international accounting firm, Price Waterhouse. She worked at Price Waterhouse for eight years, leaving as a senior audit manager to join the Chargers in 1991.

Bonk attended Mater Dei High School in Santa Ana, Calif., before earning a bachelor's degree in business administration and graduating with honors from the University of San Diego in 1983. She majored in accounting and is both a Certified Public Accountant and Chartered Global Management Accountant. Bonk was nominated – and subsequently named a finalist – for the City of San Diego's Chief Financial Officer of the Year Award in 2009 and was also inducted into the Mater Dei High School Ring of Honor in 2011.

Bonk is a member of the American Institute of CPAs, the California Society of CPAs and is also currently a member of the NFL Owners' Audit Committee. She previously sat on the San Diego Humane Society's Audit Committee and the San Diego Diocesan Finance Council. In addition, she previously chaired the Finance Committee of Cathedral Catholic High School for six years.

ED MCGUIRE

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF
FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION/
PLAYER FINANCE

Now in his 33rd NFL season and 23rd with the Chargers, Ed McGuire has worked his way up the football operations staff with the Chargers since joining the team in 1998. Named Executive Vice President of Football Administration/Player Finance in January 2013, McGuire serves as the club's chief negotiator and manages the salary cap while overseeing compliance of NFL and Collective Bargaining Agreement rules. He has been a member of the NFL Player Insurance Trust since 2002.

McGuire's previous roles with the Chargers include Coordinator of Football Operations (1998-00), Vice President of Football Operations (2000-06), Executive Vice President of Football Operations (2007) and Executive Vice President of Football Operations – Assistant General Manager (2008-12).

Throughout his tenure with the Chargers, McGuire has negotiated numerous long-term contracts and contract extensions. In 2004, he negotiated an eight-year contract extension for Hall of Fame running back LaDainian Tomlinson, who earned NFL MVP honors in 2006 and led the league in rushing in back-to-back seasons (2006-07) during the contract. At the time, the deal was the largest contract signed by a running back in NFL history.

McGuire also negotiated Philip Rivers' six-year, $92 million contract extension in 2009 – the largest player contract negotiated in team history – and Rivers' 2015 contract extension. More recently, McGuire has negotiated new contracts and extensions for several key players, including Pro Bowl standouts Keenan Allen, Melvin Ingram III and Casey Hayward Jr.

McGuire joined the Chargers after serving as the Senior Manager of Labor Operations for the NFL's Management Council from 1996-98. He was the league's Manager of Player Personnel from 1991-96 and originally joined the NFL in 1987 as a Player Personnel Analyst. McGuire also worked in the Player Personnel department for the United States Football League from 1984-86.

During his tenure in the National Football League office, McGuire became a leading expert on the NFL's salary cap and Collective Bargaining Agreement, which was created in 1993 between the NFL and the NFL Players Association.

Born in Riverhead, New York, McGuire graduated with a degree in Athletic Administration in 1984 from St. John's University in Jamaica, New York. He played football and baseball at Riverhead High School.

McGuire and his wife, Jane, have two children – son, Kevin, and daughter, Shannon – and reside in Laguna Niguel.

FRED MAAS

CHIEF OF STAFF

Fred Maas is Chief of Staff for the Los Angeles Chargers, overseeing all day-to-day business functions for the team, reporting to President of Business Operations A.G. Spanos. With the team's move into its new SoFi Stadium home complete with the start of the 2020 season, Maas is also tasked with assisting Owner & Chairman of the Board Dean Spanos in the search for a site to build a permanent new training facility.

Maas, who originally joined the Chargers in 2016, previously served as the executive chairman of MRV Systems LLC, a manufacturer of marine robotic vehicles for the oceanographic and defense industries.

Prior to his role at MRV, he was the Chairman and CEO of the San Diego Centre City Development Corporation (CCDC), which oversaw, on behalf of the city, all redevelopment activities for downtown San Diego.

Maas was a principal and served as President and CEO of Black Mountain Ranch, a 4,660-acre property that his partnership acquired in 1988. Then undeveloped land, Black Mountain Ranch is now home to several large-scale residential communities, including Santaluz and Del Sur.

In the 1980s and '90s, Maas served as a partner at Potomac Sports Properties, the exclusive developer of the PGA TOUR Inc. Earlier, Maas represented the TOUR on marketing, regulatory, legislative and tax matters.

Maas has served in a variety of capacities in national, state and local politics over the past 35 years, including stints with Senators Bob Dole and John McCain, Jack Kemp and Governor Mitch Daniels among others. Maas also served as a special advisor to Todd Properties of New Zealand and H.E. Stuart Beck, the late Palauan Ambassador to the United Nations. In 2017, Governor Edmund G. Brown, Jr., appointed Maas as a Commissioner on the California Horse Racing Board.

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Maas graduated cum laude from Syracuse University's College of Law and Hobart College. Maas is admitted to the District of Columbia bar.

Maas has a daughter, Katherine Claire, who resides in Los Angeles.

INFORMATION

LADANIAN TOMLINSON

SPECIAL ASSISTANT

Inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 5, 2017, LaDainian Tomlinson is one of the greatest Chargers of all time and one of the most prolific running backs the NFL has ever seen.

Tomlinson, who begins his fourth season as Special Assistant to Chargers Owner & Chairman of the Board Dean Spanos, also currently serves an analyst on NFL Network.

When not tending to his broadcast duties, Tomlinson focusses his efforts on helping further the Chargers' ongoing commitment to the community and fans through the team's expansive community engagement initiatives and public-facing events.

Tomlinson also serves on the TCU Board of Trustees, which helps TCU carry out its mission by setting policy and developing a long-term institutional strategy. The Board meets twice a year and establishes and promotes the overall strategic direction for the university, hires and evaluates the Chancellor, and takes on issues under the leadership of an annually elected chair.

Tomlinson retired from the NFL in 2012 as the league's fifth all-time leading rusher (13,684 career yards) and its second-most prolific scorer (145 career rushing touchdowns).

The Chargers' first-round pick in the 2001 NFL Draft (fifth overall) out of TCU, Tomlinson and his disarming smile were the face of the Chargers franchise during nine seasons in San Diego (2001-09). He set or tied a total of 28 team records, including marks for career rushing yards, rushing touchdowns in a season and total touchdowns.

Tomlinson is one of the most decorated Chargers in history. Among the more than 100 team and NFL awards that he captured during his career, Tomlinson was named The Associated Press' NFL Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year in 2006. That same year, he was named the Walter Payton co-NFL Man of the Year and the runner-up as the AP Male Athlete of the Year. Tomlinson was a five-time Pro Bowl selection, three-time first-team All-Pro, two-time second-team All-Pro and runner up for AP Offensive Rookie of the Year Award in 2001. Tomlinson was named by his teammates as the Chargers Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year five times.

LaDainian and LaTorsha reside in Colleyville, Texas, with their son, Daylen, and daughter, Dayah.

ANTONIO GATES

LEGENDS AMBASSADOR

The NFL's all-time record holder for receiving touchdowns among tight ends, Antonio Gates enters his first year serving as Legends Ambassador for the team he spent his entire 16-year playing career with.

As Legends Ambassador, Gates will help further the Los Angeles Chargers ongoing commitment to the community and fans through the team's expansive community engagement initiatives and public-facing events. This is not an unfamiliar role for Gates, who has a history of working off the field on behalf of charitable causes – most notably as a supporter of the Lupus Foundation of America to honor the memory of his late sister, Pamela.

Gates also served as the honorary chairman for the Shoot to Cure HD for several years, supporting the Huntington's Disease Society of America. He has also been active in causes to help stop domestic violence, support foster youth and benefit homeless, neglected and abused children.

The Detroit, Mich., native became one of the most prolific tight ends in the NFL despite never playing a down of college football. Originally signed as an undrafted rookie free agent by the Chargers in 2003, Gates ultimately helped redefine the tight end position and concluded his career with 21 career multi-touchdown games – the most by a tight end in NFL history. At the time of his retirement, Gates' 21 100-yard performances stood as the fourth-most by a tight end in the NFL's 100-plus year history.

An eight-time Pro Bowl selection, five-time Associated Press All-Pro and three-time Sporting News first-team All-Pro, Gates is the franchise leader in receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns and ranks second in Chargers history with 220 regular-season games played.

MARK FABIANI

SPECIAL COUNSEL

Mark Fabiani is in his 19th season as the organization's Special Counsel.

Prior to joining the Chargers, Fabiani was the Deputy Campaign Manager for Communications and Strategy for former Vice President Al Gore's 2000 presidential campaign, the closest presidential election in modern history. In addition to serving as the campaign's chief spokesperson, Fabiani was responsible for coordinating the campaign's communications and media strategies and tactics, including the Vice President's post-election Florida vote count effort.

From 1994-96, Fabiani worked as President Bill Clinton's special counsel, providing legal, communications and political counsel to the President and First Lady on allegations and investigations of Whitewater and related matters. Fabiani produced and communicated the legal, legislative and political responses to inquiries from the media, Capitol Hill and investigative agencies. He also served as the White House's principal spokesperson before the national media, appearing regularly on major news shows.

In the 1980s, Fabiani spent four years as deputy mayor of Los Angeles and chief of staff to Mayor Tom Bradley. He managed political strategy, media relations, policy analysis and an executive staff of 129 for the mayor. Fabiani directed day-to-day interaction between the mayor's office and the media, general managers of city departments, the City Council and the city's principal private sector companies and public sector institutions.

A native of Ellwood City, Pa., Fabiani earned a bachelor's degree in philosophy from the University of Redlands before graduating cum laude from Harvard Law School in 1982. He served in senior positions at the United States Department of Justice and the Department of Housing and Urban Development. At the Justice Department, Fabiani was responsible for policy development for the Attorney General and at HUD, he implemented the federal government's Empowerment Zone Initiative for urban revitalization.

Fabiani is currently a partner in the downtown San Diego-based firm, Mark Fabiani & Associates, which provides strategic advice and tactical execution to companies and individuals facing complex financial, marketing, communications and legal challenges.

TOM TELESCO

GENERAL MANAGER

26TH NFL SEASON

8TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

With a keen eye for acquiring talented players, Tom Telesco serves his eighth season as General Manager of the Chargers in 2020.

The Chargers hired Telesco in January 2013. Age 40 the time of his hiring, Telesco became the youngest general manager in team history. Telesco immediately helped the Chargers return to the playoffs in 2013 with a roster that featured 25 players who joined the team prior to or during the season.

His first draft featured 2013 Pepsi Next NFL Rookie of the Year Keenan Allen. In 2017, Allen went on to break the Chargers' single-season receptions record and posted the second-most receiving yards in team history en route to being named the NFL Comeback Player of the Year and earning his first Pro Bowl nod. The receiver then broke his own record for catches in a season in 2019.

Over his six years with the organization, Telesco has drafted four pro bowlers in the first round in Jason Verrett, Melvin Gordon, Joey Bosa and Derwin James. Telesco also has a proven track record with undrafted free agents. His finds have been highlighted by running back Austin Ekeler out of Western State, Pro Bowl special teamer Adrian Phillips, deep-threat and 1,000-yard receiver Tyrell Williams out of Western Oregon and special teams stalwart Nick Dzubnar from Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo.

On top of his draft choices, Telesco has brought in some of the top free agent talents in the NFL. Casey Hayward has blossomed into one of the top corners in the league, making back-to-back Pro Bowls in 2016-17 while offensive tackle Russell Okung and center Mike Pouncey made the Pro Bowl in their first seasons with the team. His 2020 free agency signings include Super Bowl winners Bryan Bulaga, Linval Joseph and Chris Harris Jr., with the latter two earning a combined six Pro Bowl nods.

A native of Buffalo, N.Y., Telesco prepped at St. Francis High School in Athol Springs, N.Y. Days prior to Super Bowl XLVIII in January 2014, which was co-hosted by New York and New Jersey, Telesco was recognized for their accomplishments on the floor of the New York State Senate by Senator Timothy Kennedy.

After graduating from St. Francis, Telesco played wide receiver at John Carroll University in Ohio. He was a starter on the Blue Streaks' 1994 Ohio Athletic Conference Championship team, and two of his teammates at John Carroll were Chris and Brian Polian, sons of Bill Polian, a 2015 inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

While attending John Carroll, Telesco spent four summers (1991-94) as a training camp intern with the Buffalo Bills. At that time, the elder Polian was the Bills' general manager. Polian left Buffalo for Carolina in 1994 and after Telesco graduated from John Carroll with a degree in business management in 1995, Polian hired him to work in the Panthers' scouting department. In 1998, Telesco and Polian moved on to Indianapolis, where Telesco would spend his next 15 NFL seasons as a college scout, pro scout, director of pro scouting, director of player personnel and vice president of football operations. He worked in Indianapolis during Peyton Manning's entire career with the Colts and later part of the team that brought Andrew Luck to the Colts with the first pick of the 2012 NFL Draft. Telesco also was involved in Colts drafts that featured four-time Pro Bowl running back Edgerrin James, five-time Pro Bowl wide receiver Reggie Wayne, Dwight Freeney, a seven-time Pro Bowler as a Colt and two-time Pro Bowl selection, and 2007 NFL Defensive Player of the Year Bob Sanders.

Telesco's tenure in Indianapolis was one of the most successful eras in Colts history. They played in two Super Bowls, including a victory over Chicago in Super Bowl XLII. From 1998-2012, the Colts won 154 regular-season games, eight division titles and they appeared in the playoffs 12 times. Indianapolis set an NFL record with 12 or more wins in seven-consecutive seasons and they won an NFL-record 23-straight regular-season games during the 2008-09 seasons. Their 115 regular-season wins from 2000-09 set a then-league record for wins in a decade.

In 2015 and 2018, Telesco was invited to be a speaker at the NFL's Career Development Symposium in Arizona. The program, attended by nearly 70 coaches and front office executives, was designed to engage aspiring head coach and general manager candidates. Telesco was one of only two active general managers invited to address participants at the symposium. He is also the co-chairman of the NFL General Manager Advisory Committee.

Telesco and his wife, Larah, have a daughter, Elena, and two sons, Thomas and Nicholas.

ANTHONY LYNN

HEAD COACH

29TH NFL SEASON

4TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

On Jan. 13, 2017, the Los Angeles Chargers named Anthony Lynn the 16th head coach in franchise history and the first African-American head coach in team annals. Lynn joined the Chargers after spending the 2015-16 seasons with the Buffalo Bills as the assistant head coach, running backs coach, the positions of offensive coordinator and interim head coach.

The 2019 season was highlighted by record-setting performances and recognition. Keenan Allen and Melvin Ingram III each went to their third-straight Pro Bowl while Joey Bosa went to his second in three seasons. On offense, Allen set a team record for catches in a season (104) and the unit touted a pair of 1,000-yard receivers (Allen and Mike Williams) while Austin Ekeler finished the year with 92 catches for 993 yards and eight touchdowns. Ekeler posted the NFL's 35th 100-yard rushing / 100-yard receiving game in the Chargers' victory at Jacksonville in 2019 on just 12 offensive touches – the fewest in a 100/100 performance in NFL history. In three seasons in Los Angeles, Lynn has compiled a 26-22 regular-season record.

Lynn led the Chargers to their first playoff appearance since 2013 and their best record since 2009 by posting a 12-4 mark in just his second season with the team in 2018. The Chargers led the NFL with seven Pro Bowl selections and were a resilient squad, winning eight-straight road contests. For his efforts in 2018, Lynn was recognized by the Fritz Pollard Alliance with the Paul "Tank" Younger Award and was later tabbed the Coach of the Year by the Los Angeles Sports Council.

In his first season at the helm in Los Angeles, Lynn rallied the team after an 0-4 start to win nine of the final 12 games, including six of the last seven contests. The Chargers finished 9-7 and just missed out on a playoff berth due to a tiebreaker. The nine wins over the 12-game span was the best mark since the team won the last 11 games of the 2009 season. The five-straight home wins were also the best run on home turf since that 2009 season.

Lynn put his imprint on the team in year one. The Bolts turned the ball over just 15 times in 2017 to rank tied for fourth in the NFL after a season in which they were dead last with 35 turnovers. The offensive line led the league in the least amount of sacks allowed with 18 – the first time the Chargers led the league in sacks allowed since in the AFL in 1968.

A native of Celina, Texas, some 40 miles north of Dallas, Lynn was an All-Southwest Conference running back as a collegian at Texas Tech, where he rushed for 1,911 yards and 17 touchdowns on 481 carries. That helped him earn a ticket to the NFL where he signed with the New York Giants as an undrafted free agent in 1992. After being released by the Giants, Lynn signed with Denver in 1993 and appeared in 13 games for the Broncos. In 1994, he suffered a broken leg and spent the year on injured reserve. Lynn moved on to the Bay Area in 1995, spending two seasons with the San Francisco 49ers (1995-96) before concluding his career in Denver (1997-99), where he won back-to-back Super Bowl championships (XXXII and XXXIII) with the Broncos. Lynn hung up his cleats after the '99 season, having played in 83 career games.

Lynn jumped right into the coaching ranks in 2000, spending three seasons (2000-02) with the Broncos as an offensive assistant and assistant to special teams. In 2003, he landed his first full-time position gig as the running backs coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars (2003-04). That was followed by similar positions with the Dallas Cowboys (2005-06), Cleveland Browns (2007-08), New York Jets (2009-14) and Bills (2015-16). Lynn carried the additional title of assistant head coach in New York in 2014 and with the Bills for his two seasons there.

Lynn spent the last two seasons (2015-16) with the Bills, including the final 14 games of the 2016 season as their offensive coordinator and the final game of the year as their interim head coach. The Bills led the NFL in both of Lynn's seasons in both rushing yards (2,630 in 2016 and 2,432 in 2015) and rushing touchdowns (29 in 2016 and 19, tie in 2015). The Bills also led the league in average yards per carry (5.3 in 2016 and 4.8, tie in 2015) in each of his two seasons in Upstate New York. More impressively, at his last two coaching stops (New York and Buffalo), his teams combined to rush for 18,218 yards during that span (2009-16), the most combined yards in the NFL over that time period. Also in Week 16 of the 2016 season, as offensive coordinator for the Bills, Lynn led the offense to a franchise-record 589 total yards. The 589 total yards were the second-most in a single game in the NFL that season.

Lynn is married to Stacey Bell Lynn. He has two children, son, D'Anton, and daughter, Danielle. Stacey was a news anchor at WNBC in New York City. D'Anton played football collegiately at Penn State and professionally with the New York Jets and the Canadian Football League's Hamilton Tiger-Cats and currently is the defensive backs coach for the Houston Texans. Danielle studied at the University of Oklahoma and earned her master's degree at the University of North Texas. She is currently the COO of The Lynn Family Foundation and the Process Improvement Specialist at Southwest Hospital in Dallas.

GEORGE STEWART

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/
SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

32ND NFL SEASON

4TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

A longtime NFL assistant coach, George Stewart took over as the Chargers' special teams coordinator and assistant head coach in 2017 after spending the previous 10 seasons as the wide receivers coach for the Minnesota Vikings.

Entering his fourth season with the Bolts, Stewart has coached an AFC Special Teams Player of the Week and the league leader in special teams tackles in each of the past three seasons. Last year, fullback Derek Watt tied for the league lead with 16 tackles on special teams, including five in the team's Thursday Night Football contest in Oakland. Punter Ty Long made his NFL debut in the Week 1 win against Indianapolis, handling kicking and punting duties to earn AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors.

Stewart tutored fourth-round pick linebacker Drue Tranquill to earn All-Rookie recognition as a special teamer from numerous outlets, including the Professional Football Writers of America, Pro Football Focus and Pro Football Journal (first-team selection). Defensive back Desmond King II had the second punt return for a touchdown of his career, becoming the eighth Charger with multiple punt return touchdowns while with the club.

In 2018, safety Adrian Phillips earned his first Pro Bowl appearance and was named a first-team All-Pro from The Associated Press and PFWA as he led the NFL in special teams tackles. Rookie kicker Michael Badgley broke the franchise record with a 93.8 field goal percentage, including a team-record 59-yard field goal. Badgley was named the AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for Week 14 and was named the ProFootballTalk Special Teams Rookie of the Year. Desmond King ranked third in the NFL in punt return average and was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after returning a punt 73-yards for a score in Week 13. King also garnered AP second-team All-Pro honors as a punt returner.

In his first season with the Chargers, punt returner Travis Benjamin was named the AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after totaling 88 return yards, including a 65-yard touchdown in Week 7 against the Broncos. Punter Drew Kaser ranked third in the NFL with a punting average of 48.1 that was also the second-best single-season average in franchise history. Linebacker Nick Dzubnar (21) and running back Austin Ekeler (17) ranked first and second in the league, respectively, in special teams tackles.

A native of Little Rock, Ark., Stewart was a standout guard at the University of Arkansas from 1977-80. The Razorbacks played in four-straight bowl games during his tenure and won the Southwest Conference title in 1979. Stewart, who was named to the Razorbacks' All-Decade Team for the 1970s, earned All-SWC honors as a junior in 1979, and he was a team captain as a senior in 1980. Stewart signed with the Kansas City Chiefs as an undrafted rookie in 1981 but spent the season on injured reserve.

Stewart entered the coaching ranks in 1983 as a graduate assistant at Arkansas, working under then-head coach Lou Holtz. He followed Holtz to the University of Minnesota a year later, taking over as the Golden Gophers' offensive line coach. Under Holtz, the Gophers made a rapid turnaround, finishing 7-5 and beating Clemson in the 1985 Independence Bowl, Minnesota's first bowl victory since the 1962 Rose Bowl. In 1986, Stewart joined Holtz at Notre Dame as linebackers coach. In Stewart's final season in South Bend in 1988, the Irish finished 12-0 and defeated West Virginia in the Fiesta Bowl en route to being crowned national champions.

Stewart spent the first 11 seasons of his NFL career (1989-99) coaching special teams, first in Pittsburgh (1989-91) under the legendary Chuck Noll, and then in Tampa Bay (1992-95), where he also coached tight ends for two seasons, and finally in San Francisco (1996-99) where he worked under both Bill Walsh and George Seifert. Stewart helped Pittsburgh defensive back Rod Woodson earn Pro Bowl honors as a returner three straight years (1989-91), and he saw kicker Mike Husted earn All-Rookie honors in Tampa Bay in 1993.

In San Francisco, one of Stewart's star pupils was Chargers Head Coach Anthony Lynn. For the next 17 years, Stewart coached wide receivers, including three seasons in San Francisco (2000-02), four in Atlanta (2003-06) and 10 in Minnesota (2007-16). In San Francisco, the 49ers advanced to the playoffs five times in Stewart's seven seasons, including a trip to the NFC Championship Game in 1997. Under Stewart's guidance from 2000-02, Hall of Fame wide receiver Terrell Owens was selected to three-straight All-Pro teams and Pro Bowls.

In Atlanta, the Falcons won an NFC South title in 2004 and advanced to the NFC Championship Game.

In Minnesota, Stewart helped wide receiver Percy Harvin earn multiple NFL Rookie of the Year honors in 2009, while fellow wideout Sidney Rice earned a Pro Bowl nod that same season after ranking second in the NFC with 1,312 receiving yards. Harvin, the Vikings' top return man, set a Vikings franchise record with 2,081 total net yards. Stewart also oversaw wide receiver Cordarrelle Patterson's earning of first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl accolades as the NFL's top kick returner as a rookie with Minnesota in 2013. In 2015, Stewart helped wide receiver Stefon Diggs earn All-Rookie honors after becoming the first rookie in franchise history to lead the team in receptions. In his final year with the Vikings in 2016, Patterson was named to his second Pro Bowl after leading the NFL in kickoff return average for a league-record third time in his career. For the first time since 1981, the Vikings had three players top 800 yards receiving, including wide receivers Stefon Diggs and Adam Thielen.

GUS BRADLEY

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

15TH NFL SEASON

4TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Gus Bradley enters his fourth season as the defensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Chargers. His impact on the defensive performance was evident in his three seasons with the Bolts.

He's helped coach four players to be selected to Pro Bowls on the defensive side in his Chargers tenure, including defensive ends Joey Bosa and Melvin Ingram III multiple times. Ingram is one of 15 NFL defensive players to make the Pro Bowl each of the last three seasons.

Bradley coordinated defense in 2019 that finished inside the top-10 for the second time in as many seasons, ranking sixth in total defense and fifth in passing. The 200.3 passing yards-per-game allowed was the fewest since his first season with the Bolts in 2017 and the second-fewest by a Chargers defense since 2010 (177.8). Joey Bosa posted three-straight multi-sack games, including back-to-back games with two-plus sacks, to become the first Charger to do so since 2010. Bosa earned a Pro Bowl nod for the second time while Melvin Ingram was an all-star for the third-straight year.

The defense allowed just one 300-yard passer in 2018, one of just four units to not allow multiple 300-yard passers. The Bolts were No. 9 in the NFL in total defense, rushing defense and passing defense while ranking eighth in scoring defense. Bradley's unit was highlighted by safety Derwin James Jr., becoming the first Chargers rookie to top 100 tackles and earning first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press.

The Chargers saw a huge turnaround on the defensive side of the ball in 2017 as the Bolts ranked third in the league, allowing 17 points-per-game – the best mark by the team since 1992 and nearly a 10 points-per-game improvement from 2016. The 9.4 points-per-game improvement from the previous season is the second-best turnaround in team history. The Chargers also ranked third in the NFL against the pass, were the best in the red zone, posted a plus-12 turnover margin to rank third and were fifth in sacks.

The defensive unit was led by Pro Bowlers Joey Bosa, Casey Hayward and Melvin Ingram. Bosa recorded a career-high 12.5 sacks, which were the most by a Bolts player since 2007. Hayward anchored a secondary that didn't allow a 100-yard receiver until Week 17 en route to his second-straight Pro Bowl nod. Ingram equaled his career-high in sacks with 10.5 and coupled with Bosa the combined 23 sacks were the most by a Chargers duo in the same season since 2006.

Bradley joined the Chargers as defensive coordinator in 2017 after spending the previous four seasons (2013-16) as the head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars.

The Jaguars ranked sixth in the NFL in overall defense in 2016, surrendering just 321.7 yards-per-game, while ranking fifth against the pass (215.2).

Bradley began his coaching career at North Dakota State, spending two seasons (1990-91) as a graduate assistant, followed by a four-year run as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Fort Lewis College (1992-95). For four months (December 1995-March 1996), Bradley also served as the head coach at Fort Lewis.

Bradley returned to North Dakota State in 1996 and spent the next 10 seasons (1996-05) serving in a number of different roles, including defensive coordinator, assistant head coach and linebackers coach.

As NDSU's defensive coordinator in 2005, the Bison led the Great West Football Conference in scoring defense, pass defense, total defense and turnover margin.

In 2006, Bradley landed his first NFL job in Tampa Bay. He spent one season (2006) as a defensive quality control coach and two (2007-08) as the Buccaneers' linebackers coach. Linebacker Derrick Brooks earned Pro Bowl appearances in each of his two seasons working with Bradley.

In 2009, the Seattle Seahawks hired Bradley as defensive coordinator and he helped mold Seattle's defense into one of the league's best. The Seahawks made postseason appearances following two of Bradley's four seasons (2009-12) in the Pacific Northwest. In 2009, the Seahawks posted two shutouts at home for the first time since 1986. In 2011, Seattle's defense ranked ninth in the NFL for just the sixth top10 finish in the club's 36-year history and first since 1997. Three Seahawks defenders – Earl

Thomas, Kam Chancellor and Brandon Browner – were selected to the Pro Bowl. In his final season with the Seahawks in 2012, Seattle set franchise records for fewest points (15.3) and yards-per-game allowed (306.2), the former of which led the NFL. At the end of the 2012 season, Thomas was voted to his second consecutive Pro Bowl, while Richard Sherman earned AP first-team All-Pro honors after leading the team and tying for second in the NFL with eight interceptions.

Bradley was named the head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2013. In his first season, the Jaguars posted a 4-4 mark following the bye week, with three of the wins on the road. In 2014, Jacksonville showed significant improvement in sacking opposing quarterbacks. The Jags raised their sack total from 31 to 45 in his second (2014), a total that ranked sixth in the NFL. The Jaguars led the NFL with 12 sack-fumbles and ranked third with 19 total forced fumbles. In 2015, Jacksonville's offense produced 44 touchdowns, third in team history, and the team scored 376 points, fifth in team annals.

Bradley and his wife, Michaela, have four children; Carter, Anna, Eli and Ella.

SHANE STEICHEN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

10TH NFL SEASON

9TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Shane Steichen enters his ninth season with the Chargers and his first full season as offensive coordinator after taking over midway through 2019.

Steichen began the 2019 campaign as quarterbacks coach, a role he had since 2017, and added offensive coordinator duties for the final eight games of the season. In those games, the offense improved by nearly four points-per-game and over 30 total yards-per-game, ranking No. 5 in total offense over that span. The rushing game also ranked 17th over the back half of the season (112.1 yards-per-game), up from 28th over the first eight games (69.5). Steichen coordinated an offense that saw three 900-yard receivers (Keenan Allen, Mike Williams and Austin Ekeler), including two that had 1,000 yards.

As quarterbacks coach in 2018, Steichen instructed Philip Rivers to a strong start, as he threw two or more touchdowns in the first 12 contests of the season and registered a passer rating over 90 in the first 13 games. Rivers had a record-breaking performance against Arizona as he posted the most efficient game in NFL history, setting all-time marks for single-game consecutive completions (25). His consistency has been unrivaled in franchise history as Rivers has posted 10 seasons with over 4,000 yards passing, 13 with over 3,000 yards and six seasons with 30-plus passing touchdowns.

In his second season with the quarterbacks, the Chargers led the NFL in passing yards per game for the first time since 1985 while Philip Rivers was second in the league with 4,515 yards. Rivers posted his best rating (95.9) since 2013 en route to being selected to his seventh Pro Bowl and second in a row under the tutelage of Steichen. Rivers eclipsed the 50,000-yard passing mark for his career in 2017 while his 4,515 yards were the sixth-best single-season effort in team history.

In Steichen's first season as quarterbacks coach in 2016, Rivers passed for 4,386 yards and tossed 33 touchdowns. It ranks as the sixth-highest single-season yardage total of his career and the eighth-highest in franchise history. Rivers' 33 touchdowns were the second-highest season touchdown total of his career and tied for the second-highest season mark in franchise annals. Rivers also completed a career-high 16 passes of 40 yards or longer, a total that ranked second in the NFL.

2019-Present	Chargers	Offensive Coordinator

A native of Sacramento, Calif., Steichen played quarterback at Oak Ridge High School in El Dorado Hills, Calif. He was named area MVP by the Sacramento Bee in 2002 after leading his squad to conference CIF sectional titles. Steichen went on to play collegiately at Nevada-Las Vegas, where he left as the school's 12th all-time leading passer. He earned a degree in journalism and media studies, and after graduation, spent one season as a student assistant and two as an offensive graduate assistant at UNLV.

Steichen worked as an offensive assistant at Louisville in 2010 before spending 2011-12 as a defensive assistant with the Chargers. He also spent 2013 as an offensive quality control coach in Cleveland, working with the quarterbacks. Because of injuries, three Browns quarterbacks started multiple games that season with each passing for over 300 yards at least once. It marked the first time in franchise history and sixth time in NFL history that ever happened.

From 2014-15, Steichen was an offensive quality control coach for the Chargers, working primarily with the team's wide receivers. In 2014, the Chargers were the only team in the NFL to feature four players with at least 778 yards receiving and four touchdown catches. Three of the four were wide receivers. The same four players each also finished the season with more than 50 catches, just the fourth time in franchise history that a team had four 50-catch players. In 2015, the Chargers were the only team in the NFL with seven players who each had at least 400 yards receiving and three touchdown catches. Four of the seven were again wide receivers.

Steichen and wife, Nina, have a son, Hudson. Steichen's older brother, Sean, was a former punter at Boise State.

KEITH BURNS

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS
23RD NFL SEASON
3RD SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Keith Burns enters his third season as the assistant special teams coach for the Chargers. He spent 2013 as the special teams coordinator for the Washington Redskins and spent six seasons as assistant special teams coach of the Denver Broncos after a 13-year playing career.

He helped coach a unit in 2019 that produced the Week 1 AFC Offensive Player of the Week in first-year punter Ty Long, who made three extra points and a field goal while registering a 46.5-yard net punting average in his career debut. Burns' instruction led to fourth-round rookie linebacker Drue Tranquill to earn All-Rookie recognition as a special teamer from the Professional Football Writers of America.

In his first season with the Chargers, the special teams boasted AP first-team All-Pro Adrian Phillips and second-team All-Pro punt returner Desmond King. Phillips led the NFL in special teams tackles while King ranked third in the league in punt return average. Rookie kicker Michael Badgley set the franchise record with a 93.8 field goal percentage, including a team-record 59-yarder.

From 2007-12, Burns worked with a Broncos unit that accumulated 10 combined punt and kickoff return touchdowns, tied for most in the AFC and second-most in the NFL. Over that period, the Broncos ranked fourth in the AFC and fifth in the NFL in punt return average (10.5 yards per return).

In his final season in Denver in 2012, several specialists set Broncos franchise records under Burns' guidance, as kicker Matt Prater set the single-season team record for scoring by a kicker (133 points) and punter Britton Colquitt broke the team record for net punting average for the second consecutive season (40.2 in 2011, 42.1 in 2012).

Also, return specialist Trindon Holliday led the NFL with a 32.5-yard kick return average in addition to ranking fifth in the league with a 10.8-yard punt return average after being acquired by the Broncos off waivers on Oct. 11.

During his six seasons with the Broncos, five different players totaled eight AFC Special Teams Player of the Week awards.

As a player, Burns was a key member of the Broncos' special teams unit in his 11 seasons in Denver, 10 of which were played under former Redskins Executive Vice President/Head Coach Mike Shanahan.

In those 11 seasons, Burns led or tied for the team lead in special teams tackles seven times. He totaled 186 special teams' stops in 166 career games played as well as 70 defensive tackles, 1.5 sacks, two pass breakups and a forced fumble and helped the Broncos to victories in Super Bowl XXXII and Super Bowl XXXIII.

Burns entered the NFL with Denver as a seventh-round choice (210th overall) in the 1994 NFL Draft after playing collegiately at Oklahoma State.

CHRIS CAMINITI

SENIOR COACHING ASSISTANT

9TH NFL SEASON

2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Chris Caminiti enters his second season as the Senior Coaching Assistant for the Los Angeles Chargers. Caminiti came to the Chargers from UCLA, where he most recently served as an Associate Athletic Director.

Caminiti was promoted to Associate Athletic Director in April of 2016. Caminiti began at UCLA in 2013 when he served as the Special Teams Analyst.

Prior to joining UCLA, Caminiti served stints at the Kansas City Chiefs, the Cleveland Browns, and the New England Patriots.

Caminiti also has had prior coaching experience as the head football coach at Granite Hills High School (El Cajon, Calif.), UNLV, Occidental College, University of San Diego and Cheshire (Conn.) High School.

Caminiti earned his master's degree at Southern Connecticut State University in 1994 and his bachelor's degree in 1992. Chris and his wife, Emerly, have three children.

JAMES CAMPEN

OFFENSIVE LINE
24TH NFL SEASON
1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

James Campen enters his 17th season as an NFL coach and his first for the Bolts, taking over as the offensive line coach for 2020. He comes to Los Angeles after time in Cleveland and Green Bay, coaching eight Pro Bowlers in the process. Campen will coach newly-signed tackle Bryan Bulaga for the 10th year in 2020.

In 2019, Campen served as associate head coach/offensive line for the Cleveland Browns. The Browns line blocked for running back Nick Chubb to rush for 1,494 yards – the most by a Cleveland back since Hall of Fame running back Jim Brown had 1,544 in 1965. Chubb added 278 receiving yards to record the most single-season yards from scrimmage in Browns history (1,772). Campen coached Browns guard Joel Bitonio to his second-straight Pro Bowl selection in 2019, where he started all 16 games at left guard for the fifth season of his career.

Before his stint with the Browns, Campen coached in Green Bay for 15 years (2004-18), returning to Northeast Wisconsin – where he spent five seasons as a player for the Packers. In his time coaching in Green Bay, Campen tutored seven Pro Bowl offensive linemen, including guard Josh Sitton to three in four years. The Packers were the only team in the NFL to have six different offensive linemen recognized as all-stars since 2010, all coming under Campen's instruction (Sitton, Chad Clifton, David Bakhtiari, T.J. Lang, Jeff Saturday and Scott Wells). In 2018, he coached Bakhtiari to first-team All-Pro recognition from The Associated Press.

In his tenure in Green Bay, the Packers averaged the third-most points-per-game in that span (25.5). Campen served as offensive line coach for 11 seasons, in which the Packers offense ranked in the top 10 in scoring offense nine times and total offense eight times. The line protected quarterback Aaron Rodgers to Most Valuable Player recognition in 2011 and 2014, while spurring a run to a win in Super Bowl XLV during Bulaga's rookie season in 2010.

Campen first joined the coaching ranks as a training camp intern for the Packers in 1994 before coaching at his prep alma mater, Ponderosa High School in Shingle Springs, Calif. After serving four seasons as defensive coordinator and coaching the offensive line, he was named head coach and went 29-20-1 over the next five years competing in the Sierra Valley Conference, one of the most competitive high school leagues in the state.

As a player, Campen began his collegiate career at Sacramento City College under the instruction of Jerry Sullivan. Over the two seasons he played for Sullivan, the Panthers lost one game and won a national championship. Campen then transferred to Tulane University for two seasons (1984-85), serving as a team captain for the Green Wave as a senior. He went undrafted in 1987 and signed with the New Orleans Saints, playing in the Big Easy for two seasons before signing with the Packers. He started at center in Brett Favre's first NFL start and protected the Hall of Fame quarterback in two 3,000-yard campaigns. Campen appeared in 67 games with 50 starts for his career, with 61 of those games played and 47 starts coming in Green Bay.

A native of Sacramento, Calif., Campen played offensive line at Ponderosa High, earning two letters in football and three in wrestling. He earned a degree in social science with an emphasis in criminal justice. Campen served as a reserve deputy sheriff in New Orleans and volunteered with the Green Bay Police Department in a similar capacity while playing for the Packers.

DAVID DIAZ-INFANTE

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

12TH NFL SEASON

2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

David Diaz-Infante enters his first year as assistant offensive line coach for Los Angeles, his seventh season as an NFL coach after a six-season playing career in the NFL – which began with the Chargers in 1987.

As an assistant offensive line coach with the New York Jets over three seasons, New York's line paved the way for four running backs to total 600-plus rushing yards. In 2017, Diaz-Infante helped integrate free agent signing Kelvin Beachum at left tackle on a line that protected Josh McCown to record top-five marks in franchise history for completion percentage (67.3 pct.) and passer rating (94.5). He began his tenure with the Jets in the training camp of 2015, serving as a coaching intern. Prior to the Jets, Diaz-Infante spent two seasons in Arizona with the Cardinals from 2013-14 in his first NFL coaching experience.

Diaz-Infante spent time playing in four professional football leagues – the NFL, Canadian Football League, World League of American Football (WLAF) and XFL – the first San Jose State alumnus to do so. Over his NFL career, he won a pair of Super Bowls with Denver as a teammate of Head Coach Anthony Lynn. Diaz-Infante played in 69 games with nine starts in the regular season while appearing in six postseason games. He initially entered as an undrafted free agent with the Chargers in 1987, playing in three games as a rookie. He joined the Broncos in 1995 and appeared in games with Denver from 1996-98 before playing in Philadelphia in 1999 and finishing his playing career in Denver in 2001. Diaz-Infante also played in the WLAF with the Frankfurt Galaxy (1991-92), the Sacramento Gold Miners of the CFL (1993-94) and in the first stint of the XFL with the Las Vegas Outlaws (2001).

Collegiately, Diaz-Infante played at San Jose State and lettered three seasons, helping lay a foundation for one of the greatest turnarounds in program history. As a senior in 1986, he was recognized as honorable mention All-America from The Associated Press, first-team All-West Coast from United Press International and first-team All-PCAA. Diaz-Infante was inducted into the San Jose Sports Hall of Fame in 2006.

After redshirting in 1982 as a linebacker, he moved to guard and started as a redshirt freshman in 1983. After missing 1984 due to injury, Diaz-Infante again was the starter from 1985-86, serving as a captain in his senior season for a seven-win improvement over the previous season – which still ranks in the top-25 turnarounds in Football Bowl Subdivision history.

Diaz-Infante first coached after his rookie season with the Chargers for two years at San Jose State as an offensive assistant. Following his retirement from his playing career, he worked in television as a studio analyst with FSN Rocky Mountain (2003-04) before joining ESPN in 2004. From 2005-08, he served as an analyst for the Broncos radio network.

A native of San Jose, Calif., he was named Central Coast Section Conference Lineman of the year in 1981 at Bellarmine College Prep. He earned a degree from San Jose State in social science. He and his wife, Audra, have a son and a daughter – Dante Antonio and Alexis Maria.

LA'ROI GLOVER

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE

11TH NFL SEASON

2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

La'Roi Glover enters his second season as the assistant defensive line coach for the Los Angeles Chargers. Glover came to the Chargers from the New York Jets, where he spent two seasons in the same capacity.

He helped coach a defensive line that saw defensive ends Joey Bosa and Melvin Ingram III earn Pro Bowl nods while Bosa also earned All-Pro recognition from Sporting News and was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week in the win at Chicago. Glover helped Bosa and Ingram move up the team's all-time sacks list into the top 10, with Ingram finishing the season No. 4 in Chargers history. He also coached Bosa to have three-straight multi-sack games, the first Charger to do so since 2010.

Glover, whose 13-year playing career saw him selected to multiple Pro Bowls and register 83.5 sacks, began his post-playing career as director of player programs with the Rams before entering the coaching ranks with the Jets.

Prior to joining the Jets, Glover spent seven seasons working as the Director of Player Programs for the Los Angeles/St. Louis Rams. In that role, he was responsible for assisting players with their transition into professional football with the development of programs to address off-the-field matters.

Glover spent 13 seasons as a defensive tackle in the league, playing in 193 games, including 191 consecutive to finish his career, for the Oakland Raiders (1996), New Orleans Saints (1997-2001), Dallas Cowboys (2002-05) and St. Louis Rams (2006-08). He amassed 83.5 sacks during his career and was selected to six consecutive Pro Bowl teams, while also receiving All-Pro recognition four times. He was a first-team selection for the 2000s All-Decade team. During the 2000 season, Glover led the league with 17.0 sacks, the second-most in league history among defensive tackles, and was named NFL Alumni Defensive Lineman of the Year as well as NFC Defensive Player of the Year.

Glover is a member of the San Diego State University Hall of Fame, the Breitbard Hall of Fame (established to honor athletes who have excelled athletically in San Diego or who are native San Diegans who have achieved athletic fame elsewhere), the New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame and the inaugural class of the CIFSan Diego Section Hall of Fame.

Glover graduated from San Diego State University with a degree in public administration and later received his MBA at Fontbonne University in 2012. Glover and his wife, Spring, have three children, a son, La'Roi, Jr., and two daughters, Neomie and Sophia.

PEP HAMILTON

QUARTERBACKS

13TH NFL SEASON

1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Pep Hamilton will coach quarterbacks for the Chargers in 2020, his 13th season as an NFL coach. Hamilton comes to Los Angeles after serving as head coach/general manager for the XFL's DC Defenders.

He led the Defenders to a 3-2 record, including a win in the first shutout for the league, a 27-0 victory over the New York Guardians in Week 2. Hamilton coached former Chargers quarterback Cardale Jones to throw for 499 yards and four touchdowns in the 2-0 start while completing 62 percent of his passes.

Before the XFL, Hamilton spent two seasons under Jim Harbaugh at the University of Michigan. After serving as assistant head coach/passing game coordinator in 2017, he was passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach the next season. As quarterbacks coach, the team's touchdown-interception ratio improved from 9:10 to 24:9. The Wolverines went from having no quarterbacks pass for 1,000 yards in 2017 to Shea Patterson throwing for 2,600 yards and 22 touchdowns in a 10-3 season.

Hamilton coached for the Cleveland Browns in 2016 after spending 2013-15 with the Indianapolis Colts. He coordinated Colts offense in 2014 that ranked No. 1 in passing offense (305.9 yards-per-game) and third in total offense (406.6), setting single-season franchise records for passing yards (4,894) and total net yards (6,506). Quarterback Andrew Luck, who earned Pro Bowl nods in both 2013 and 2014, passed for career highs in yards (4,761) and touchdowns (40) during the 2014 season. Luck set a team record with eight-straight 300-yard performances.

Hamilton also served as a tutor to Luck in college, coordinating the offense and coaching quarterbacks for Stanford from 2011-12. In 2012, the Cardinal went 12-2 and running back Stephan Taylor finished as the school's all-time leader in career rushing yards (4,212) while tying the school record with 44 total touchdowns. In Luck's final year in college in 2011, Hamilton coached the eventual first-overall selection to finish second in Heisman Trophy voting and winning Pacific-12 Offensive Player of the Year honors. The offense scored a school-record 561 points on the season, ranking seventh in the nation with 43.2 points-per-game. As wide receivers coach in 2010, the team set a school record with 32 receiving touchdowns.

From 2007-09, Hamilton coached quarterbacks for the Chicago Bears. He worked with Jay Cutler in 2009 after the team acquired Cutler via trade to set single-season franchise records for completions (336) and passing attempts (555). Hamilton spent 2006 as an offensive assistant/quarterbacks coach for the San Francisco 49ers when Alex Smith became the first quarterback in team history to take every offensive snap during a season.

Before San Francisco, Hamilton spent time with the New York Jets as offensive assistant/quarterbacks (2004-05) and offensive quality control (2003). In 2004, he coached Chad Pennington to complete 65.4 percent of his passes – second-best in team history at the time – and lead the Jets to a playoff victory.

Hamilton began his coaching career at his alma mater, Howard University, where he served as quarterbacks coach from 1997-2001, adding the role of offensive coordinator for his final three seasons. He got his first taste of NFL coaching by working as a summer coaching intern for the Kansas City Chiefs in 2000 and the Washington Redskins in 2001.

A quarterback for Howard University, Hamilton won the school's scholar-athlete award in 1995 and '96 before earning his business degree in 1997.

ADDISON LYNCH

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS

3RD NFL SEASON

3RD SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Addison Lynch enters his third season with the Los Angeles Chargers, his first as the assistant defensive backs coach. He spent the 2018-19 campaigns as quality control for defense after spending the previous seven years in the collegiate ranks.

Over the past two seasons, Lynch worked in practice drills primarily with linebackers coach Richard Smith while helping defensive coordinator Gus Bradley with team presentations and film breakdown of upcoming opponents. He coached Bolts 2018 rookie standout safety Derwin James Jr., at Florida State, easing the transition for the first-team All-Pro.

Lynch came to Los Angeles after six seasons under the tutelage of Jimbo Fisher as a quality control assistant at Florida State. He helped coach the Seminoles to six bowl games, including five straight New Year's Six bowl appearances. Lynch worked on the staff that won the final BCS National Championship over Auburn

A native of Boston, Mass., Lynch played safety for Bryant University from 2007-11. He earned his degree in Business Administration with an emphasis in marketing.

TEVIN MCDONALD

ALEX G. SPANOS
COACHING FELLOW

2ND NFL SEASON

1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Tevin McDonald joins the Los Angeles Chargers as the Alex G. Spanos Coaching Fellow for the 2020 campaign, mainly assisting with the defensive backs. He most recently served as a quality control coach at his alma mater, Eastern Washington University.

As a quality control coach at Eastern Washington, McDonald worked with the defensive backs and linebackers. Over his two seasons with the Eagles, the defense picked off 34 passes – the second-most in the Big Sky Conference over that span. Eastern Washington's 22 interceptions in 2018 ranked third among Football Championship Subdivision teams that year and were the most by an Eagles defense since recording 26 in 2010.

McDonald entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2015, signing with the Oakland Raiders out of camp. After his lone season with the Raiders, McDonald played for the BC Lions of the Canadian Football League, where he was a teammate of current Chargers punter Ty Long.

McDonald rounded out his collegiate career with two seasons at Eastern Washington after transferring from UCLA. He played 23 games for the Eagles, totaling 121 tackles (80 solo), four interceptions and nine passes defended. McDonald also had a sack, four tackles for loss, four forced fumbles and two recoveries, earning third-team All-American and first-team All-Big Sky honors as a senior. In two seasons with the Bruins,

McDonald was named a Freshman All-American by multiple outlets and recorded 135 tackles (100 solo) in 27 games played. He also registered four interceptions, nine passes defended, a forced fumble and five tackles for loss.

A native of Fresno, Calif., McDonald is the son of six-time All-Pro and Super Bowl-winning safety Tim McDonald. His brother, T.J., played safety at Southern California and was a third-round selection of the Rams in 2013, playing most recently for the Dolphins in 2018.

McDonald played three prep seasons at Edison High in Fresno, Calif., where his father coached. He was part of a CIF Central Section championship team in 2009, earning third-team all-state as a senior.

PHIL McGEOGHAN

WIDE RECEIVERS

11TH NFL SEASON

3RD SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Phil McGeoghan enters his third year with the Los Angeles Chargers as the wide receivers coach after coming to the organization from the Buffalo Bills.

In 2019, McGeoghan tutored a group that set team records and had two 1,000-yard receivers. Wide receiver Keenan Allen was named to his third Pro Bowl and broke his own team record for single-season catches with 104, while wide receiver Mike Williams led the NFL with a 20.4-yard receiving average (min. 30 receptions). The duo each had 1,000 receiving yards on the year, marking the first Chargers teammates to accomplish the feat since 2009. McGeoghan tutored a total of seven receivers to catch a pass, six of which started at least one game.

The receivers flourished under McGeoghan in 2018. Allen put together another solid season, earning his second-straight Pro Bowl bid. Allen finished the season with 97 catches, 1,196 yards and six touchdowns. On top of Allen's consistency, second-year pro Williams took a giant leap forward under the guidance of McGeoghan. Williams hauled in 43 passes for 664 yards and registered 11 total touchdowns, including 10 through the air. Williams became the first Chargers receiver since 1996 to have 10 or more scrimmage touchdowns. Wide receiver Tyrell Williams also made an impact, totaling 41 receptions for 653 yards and five touchdowns. Both Tyrell and Mike Williams averaged over 15 yards per reception to rank in the top-15 in the league.

In his lone season with the Bills, McGeoghan helped the franchise make their first playoff appearance in 18 years.

Before returning to the NFL, he spent the 2016 season as the wide receivers coach at East Carolina. McGeoghan coached senior wide receiver Zay Jones to a season with 158 receptions or 1,746 yards (11.1 avg.) and eight TDs while also coaching senior receiver Jimmy Williams (818 yards and eight TDs on 45 catches) and junior wideout Quay Johnson (58 receptions for 563 yards and three TDs) to stellar seasons.

His first job in the NFL came with the Miami Dolphins, where he spent four seasons working with their receivers. He served as the assistant wide receivers coach before being promoted to wide receivers coach in the middle of the 2015 season. One of the highlights was wide receiver Jarvis Landry posting a single-season franchise record with 110 receptions in 2015.

Prior to the Dolphins, McGeoghan worked as the wide receivers coach at South Florida for three seasons. He came to USF after one year with Naval Academy Prep, where he was the offensive coordinator. His first coaching job was in 2007 when he spent one season at his alma mater as the University of Maine's wide receivers and tight ends coach.

McGeoghan played four years in the NFL with the New Orleans Saints, Denver Broncos, Oakland Raiders and New York Jets at various positions. He also spent a year playing in NFL Europe for the Berlin Thunder.

At Maine, McGeoghan starred as a wide receiver for the Black Bears, finishing his career fourth in career receiving yards (2,343) and fifth in receptions (161) in school history. In the classroom, he earned Academic All-America honors and was recognized as an Arthur Ashe Jr. and Dean Smith Sport Scholar. McGeoghan also served in a leadership capacity as UM's student-athlete president.

McGeoghan is from Agawam, Mass. He earned his bachelor's degree in marketing from Maine.

RON MILUS

DEFENSIVE BACKS

21ST NFL SEASON

8TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Ron Milus enters his eighth season with the Bolts reunited with cornerback Chris Harris Jr., who chose to sign with Los Angeles in free agency. Milus was Harris' first-ever NFL coach, kickstarting the development of the four-time Pro Bowler.

In 2019, Milus tutored a position group that saw safety Rayshawn Jenkins start all 16 games at free safety and lead the team in interceptions. Casey Hayward Jr., picked off a pair of passes, earning second-team All-Pro honors from Pro Football Focus. It marked the fifth season of Hayward's career with multiple interceptions, giving him 13 since joining the Bolts in 2016.

Milus coached a Pro Bowl player in eight-consecutive seasons when safety Derwin James Jr., was voted a starter following the 2018 campaign. James added first-team All-Pro and All-Rookie accolades while Milus also coached Desmond King II to second-team All-Pro recognition. King earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for his performance in a Week 9 win at Seattle, where he had a 42-yard pick-six. Milus was part of a defensive coaching staff that oversaw a pass defense that ranked No. 9 in the NFL in 2018.

With the Bolts in 2017, Milus coached cornerback Casey Hayward to his second-straight appearance in the Pro Bowl. Hayward ranked second in the NFL with 22 passes defended and added four interceptions. The Chargers ranked fourth in the league with 18 total interceptions with 14 coming from his defensive backs. The team did not allow a 100-yard receiver until Week 17 of the season.

In 2016, Hayward led the NFL with a career-high seven interceptions. Hayward went on to become the first Chargers defender to capture the NFL's interceptions crown outright since 2007. With Hayward leading the way, the Chargers led the NFL with 18 picks, and the team recorded at least one takeaway in 15 of 16 games. The Chargers had 11 different players record at least one interception in 2016, most in the NFL by any one team and the most by a Chargers squad since 2004.

Prior to Hayward, former safety Eric Weddle earned Pro Bowl invitations in both 2013 and '14 and cornerback Jason Verrett earned all-star honors in 2015. During Milus' first year with the Chargers in 2013, the defense recorded 10 interceptions in the final nine games of the season, playoffs included, after intercepting just four in the season's first nine games. In 2014, the Chargers ranked fourth in the NFL in pass defense. In 2015, Verrett led the team in interceptions and passes defended.

A native of Tacoma, Wash., Milus was a cornerback and return specialist at the University of Washington in the mid-1980s. He moved into coaching in 1988, starting at his alma mater, Tacoma's Lincoln High School. That led to a graduate assistant position at Washington and then ultimately a seven-year stint as the Huskies' defensive backs coach. Washington made two Rose Bowl appearances during Milus' tenure and led the nation with 22 interceptions in 1993.

Milus moved on to the NFL in 2000, joining the Denver Broncos as defensive backs coach. In his first season, the secondary racked up 21 interceptions, its highest total since 1987. A year later in 2001, cornerback Deltha O'Neal made the Pro Bowl after tying for third in the NFL with nine interceptions. Milus spent three seasons in Denver before splitting time between Arizona, the New York Giants, St. Louis and Carolina. He returned to Denver for a second stint in 2011.

In 2012, the Broncos led the NFL in fewest yards allowed-per-pass play. They ranked second in total defense and third in pass defense en route to winning the AFC West with a 13-3 record, earning the top seed in the AFC playoffs. Cornerback Chris Harris Jr., returned two of his three interceptions for touchdowns and veteran corner Champ Bailey was selected to the Pro Bowl for the 12th time in his career. Milus and wife, Sandra, have two sons - Ryan and Bobby.

QUALITY CONTROL/DEFENSE
2ND NFL SEASON
2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Ryan Milus enters his second season with the Los Angeles Chargers. Milus moves to quality control/defense after spending his first year as an intern in the Alex G. Spanos Coaching Fellowship.

In his new role, Milus will work in practice drills primarily with the linebackers while helping defensive coordinator Gus Bradley with team presentations and film breakdown of upcoming opponents. Last season, he worked with the defensive backs, helping father and defensive backs coach Ron Milus along with former assistant defensive backs coach Chris Harris.

Milus entered the NFL after two seasons as an assistant coach working with the cornerbacks at Weber State. Weber State advanced to the FCS Playoffs in both of his seasons. The Wildcats also won back-to-back Big Sky Conference titles in 2017 and 2018, the first time in school history.

In 2018, the Wildcats repeated as Big Sky champions, and again advanced to the FCS Quarterfinals and were ranked as high as third in the nation, the highest ranking in school history. Cornerback Keilan Benjamin earned first-team honors and cornerback Parker Preator earned third-team All-Big Sky honors.

He helped coach Weber State to one of the best defenses in the country. In 2017, WSU finished in the top 10 in the country in interceptions, turnovers gained and red zone defense. The Wildcats led the Big Sky in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense, interceptions, pass efficiency defense and red zone defense. Senior Taron Johnson was a consensus All-American selection and was named the Big Sky Defensive MVP.

Milus, a native of Tacoma, Wash., graduated from Hamilton High School in Chandler, Ariz. He then attended Arizona State University where he excelled as a track and field star with the Sun Devils.

He was a three-time All-American sprinter at ASU and finished second in the NCAA Championships in the 60 meters. He was twice a runner-up finisher in the 100 meters at the Pac-12 Championships. He qualified for the U.S. Olympic Trials in the 100 meters and also twice competed at the U.S. Championships.

He graduated from Arizona State in 2014 with a degree in Business Tourism.

Following graduation, he competed professionally in track and field and made the finals of the U.S. Indoor Championships.

He spent the 2016 season coaching football at his alma mater Hamilton High School, where he coached the secondary.

He is the son of Ron Milus, who is currently the defensive backs coach of the Los Angeles Chargers.

MARK RIDGLEY

RUNNING BACKS

9TH NFL SEASON

9TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Mark Ridgley enters his ninth season with the Chargers and his first as running backs coach after spending the last two seasons assisting the offensive line.

In his second season as assistant offensive line coach, Ridgley coached young players up to speed to play significant time due to injuries as tackle Trey Pipkins III, center/guard Scott Quessenberry and tackle Trent Scott started 21 combined games. In 2018, the line posted a top-10 finish in sacks allowed. Center Mike Pouncey was named to the Pro Bowl in his first season with the Chargers. The line provided time for quarterback Philip Rivers to post over a 90 rating in 14 games and created the holes for the team to rank seventh in the NFL in yards-per-rush.

After spending two seasons as a special assistant to the head coach/offense working with the Chargers' running backs, Ridgley was promoted to quality control coach for the offense in 2016 and was an offensive assistant in 2017.

In 2016, running back Melvin Gordon had a breakout year, pacing the squad with 12 total touchdowns, including 10 rushing. He fell just three yards shy of a 1,000-yard season as his 997-yard tally ranked 13th in the NFL. Showing good hands out of the backfield, Gordon tacked on an additional 419 yards receiving to finish the season with 1,416 yards from scrimmage, good for 10th in the entire league.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Ridgley earned a degree in economics from the University of Pittsburgh while working as a student manager for the Panthers' football team. Ridgley began his career as an academic graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh before accepting a position as the defensive graduate assistant at Central Michigan University.

Ridgley and wife, Casey, married in 2015.

ALFREDO ROBERTS

TIGHT ENDS

23RD NFL SEASON

4TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Former NFL tight end Alfredo Roberts is in his fourth season with the Chargers. Serving as tight ends coach this year, he tutored running backs for Los Angeles the past three seasons. A two-time Super Bowl Champion and two-time National Champion, Roberts coached two players to Pro Bowl selections and tight end Dwayne Allen to All-Rookie honors in 2012.

As running backs coach for the Bolts, Roberts instructed running back Austin Ekeler in 2019 to record one of the most prolific receiving seasons by a running back in team history, catching 92 passes for 993 yards and eight touchdowns – ranking second, second and first in team annals by a running back, respectively. Ekeler posted the NFL's 35th 100-yard rushing / 100-yard receiving game in the Chargers' victory at Jacksonville in 2019 on just 12 offensive touches – the fewest in a 100/100 performance in NFL history. Roberts coached fullback Derek Watt to earn recognition as a second alternate for the Pro Bowl.

Roberts coached Melvin Gordon III in 2018 to his second Pro Bowl as he posted 1,375 scrimmage yards for his third-straight campaign with at least 1,300 yards from scrimmage while Watt was a third alternate for the Pro Bowl.

In his first season as a running backs coach in 2017, Roberts coached Gordon to become the first Chargers rusher since 2013 to amass over 1,000 yards when he totaled 1,105 yards on the ground. Gordon ranked fourth in the NFL in scoring among non-kickers (72 points). His 1,581 yards from scrimmage were the fifth-most in the league and the most by a Chargers rusher since 2007.

Roberts came to the Chargers after serving as an offensive assistant at Carmel (Ind.) High School, where he helped assist instruction of several offensive positions. In his lone season advising the team, the Greyhounds finished the season on a six-game winning streak to win the 6A State Championship.

As tight ends coach in Indianapolis for four seasons (2012-15), he tutored Dwayne Allen and Coby Fleener to become the first pair of tight ends in NFL history to each have eight-plus touchdown catches in a single season, doing so in 2014. In his Colts tenure, Roberts tutored Allen, Fleener and Jack Doyle.

2017-19	Chargers	Running Backs
2020-Present	Chargers	Tight Ends

In 2012, Colts tight ends combined to total 74 receptions for 825 yards and five touchdowns. Allen started all 16 games in his first season and led NFL rookie tight ends with 45 receptions for 521 yards, earning All-Rookie recognition in the process. His reception total also set a new franchise record for a Colts rookie tight end. Fleener competed in 12 games (10 starts) and compiled 26 receptions for 281 yards and two touchdowns. His reception and receiving totals were the fifth-most by a Colts rookie tight end in history.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Roberts graduated from the University of Miami, where he was a member of two national championship teams as a tight end. The first came under Howard Schnellenberger in 1983, which also was the school's first national championship, and the second came in 1987 under Jimmy Johnson. Roberts played on five bowl teams for the Hurricanes, including two Orange Bowls, two Fiesta Bowls and one Sugar Bowl.

Roberts was an eighth-round pick by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 1988 NFL Draft. He spent three seasons with the team before joining the Dallas Cowboys in 1991. Roberts was part of two Super Bowl championship teams in Dallas under the guidance of Johnson in 1992 and '93. Roberts played in every game for five consecutive seasons until his career ended in 1994 following foot and knee injuries. He finished his career with 50 catches for 476 yards and two touchdowns in 82 career games, playoffs included.

Roberts began his coaching career in 1998 as a member of the inaugural coaching staff at Florida Atlantic University. He spent the first two years recruiting to establish the inaugural season in 2000 when he started coaching the tight ends. Roberts coached tight ends for two seasons (2000-01) before coaching the wide receivers for his last season with the Owls.

In 2003, Roberts accepted his first NFL coaching position as the tight ends coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars (2003-06), coaching tight end Marcedes Lewis as a rookie. It was followed by similar posts with the Cleveland Browns (2007-08) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2009-11).

In Roberts' first season with the Browns, tight end Kellen Winslow II had his first Pro Bowl season after catching 82 passes for a career-high 1,106 yards and five touchdowns. Winslow followed Roberts to Tampa Bay, and in three seasons together there, Winslow caught 218 passes for 2,377 yards and 12 touchdowns. During their first season in Tampa Bay (2009), Winslow's 77 catches and 884 yards set the franchise's single-season marks for a tight end.

Roberts and his wife, Angel, have twin sons, Avery and Austin, and one daughter, Alyssa. Alyssa is a sophomore at Long Beach State and Avery is a graduate of Florida Atlantic University. Austin spent a season with the chargers after graduating from UCLA as a three-year letter winner.

SETH RYAN

QUALITY CONTROL/OFFENSE

4TH NFL SEASON

4TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Seth Ryan enters his second season as quality control/offense, mainly working with wide receivers coach Phil McGeoghan. He spent the two seasons prior as a coaching intern, spending most of his time also working with the wide receivers.

Last season, Ryan assisted the receivers group to register two 1,000-yard receivers (Keenan Allen and Mike Williams) while Keenan Allen set a single-season team record with 104 catches en route to his third-straight Pro Bowl nod.

Ryan played wide receiver at Clemson, where he was a member of the 2016 national championship team. Clemson won two ACC titles, the Orange Bowl and the Fiesta Bowl over his time with the Tigers.

Ryan is the son of former Jets and Bills head coach Rex Ryan. Ryan recently married Meg Moran and the couple resides in Newport Beach, Calif.

RIP SCHERER

SENIOR COACHING ASSISTANT

9TH NFL SEASON

3RD SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Veteran coach and former collegiate head coach Rip Scherer enters his third season with the Chargers and his first as a senior coaching assistant after guiding the tight ends for the past two years. In 2019, he coached Hunter Henry to set single-season career highs in receptions (55) and receiving yards (652) while registering the first 100-yard performance of his career.

Scherer returned to the NFL after stints at Colorado and UCLA. Scherer returned to the field in 2016 as senior associate head coach in charge of UCLA's tight ends. He had been working in the UCLA athletic administration since June of 2013, with oversight of the football program as one of his primary duties.

Scherer went to UCLA in the summer of 2013 after serving two seasons as the assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach at the University of Colorado. In all, he has been coaching 40 years with 37 years of full-time coaching experience (29 in college and eight in the pros).

Scherer worked the 2009-10 seasons for the Carolina Panthers, where he was the quarterbacks coach after spending the previous four campaigns (2005-08) with the Cleveland Browns. Prior to that, he had logged time at 11 different schools, from coast-to-coast, in just over three decades in the collegiate ranks.

At Carolina under head coach John Fox, Scherer was integral in the development of quarterback Matt Moore, who led the Panthers to a 4-1 record while starting the last five games of the 2009 season and registering a 104.9 quarterback rating after veteran Jake Delhomme sustained an injury. With injuries taking their toll on the 2010 stable of quarterbacks, Scherer and the Panthers used four different quarterbacks under center throughout the season.

In Cleveland, he served as the quarterbacks coach under head coach Romeo Crennel all four seasons from 2005-08, the final two adding assistant head coaching duties to his responsibilities. In his time there, he helped develop Derek Anderson, who was selected to the 2007 Pro Bowl after throwing for 3,787 yards and 29 touchdowns as the Browns boasted the No. 8 offense in the NFL in terms of scoring and passing yards-per-game.

He entered the professional ranks after he had coaching stints in the ACC, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-10 and SEC, including two stops as a collegiate head coach at James Madison and Memphis. Prior to joining the Browns, he was an assistant coach at Southern Mississippi (under head coach Jeff Bower) in 2003-04 where he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He held the same title at Kansas (under head coach Terry Allen) for the 2001 season.

He went to Kansas from Memphis, where he served as head coach from 1995-2000. He coached the Tigers to the school's first-ever win over Tennessee, 21-17, with the Volunteers ranked No. 6 at the time in 1996 and quarterbacked by Peyton Manning, a victory that was tabbed the "Upset of the Year" in college football by several news organizations (Memphis had been 0-15 against the Vols in its history). Prior to coaching at Memphis, he was the head coach at James Madison University in Harrisonburg, Va., from 1991-94, during a time when the Dukes set or tied over 140 school records. He helped them to a 10-3 record in 1994 and 29-19 record over his four seasons at the helm.

Scherer was also the offensive coordinator at Arizona (Dick Tomey), Alabama (Bill Curry) and Georgia Tech (Bill Curry). He was in Tucson from 1988-90, the first season as the director of football operations and then the offensive coordinator the final two years. Prior to that, he was the offensive coordinator at Alabama in 1987 and Georgia Tech in 1986, where he was on staff from 1980-86, first as the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator in 1980-81 and running backs coach and run game coordinator from 1982-84. He was also an assistant athletic director at Georgia Tech in 1985 before returning to the field the next season.

He started his coaching career at Penn State under coach Joe Paterno as a graduate assistant in 1974-75 and then moved to North Carolina State (Bo Rein), where he was the quarterbacks coach in 1976 before moving on to Hawai'i as the running backs coach in 1977-78 (Dick Tomey). He coached the quarterbacks at Virginia in 1979 (Dick Bestwick) before going to Georgia Tech. Scherer earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from William & Mary in 1974, where he lettered three times at QB under coach Lou Holtz from 1971-73.

Scherer was born August 3, 1952, in Pittsburgh, Pa., and graduated from Toms River (N.J.) South High School, where he lettered in football. He is married to the former Michele Ragone, and the couple has three children, Scott (who played quarterback under his dad at Memphis), Melanie and Ryan (who played wide receiver at Penn State). His father, Rip Sr., was a long-time high school football coach in Pittsburgh.

DAN SHAMASH

ASSISTANT TIGHT ENDS

12TH NFL SEASON

4TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Dan Shamash begins his fourth season with the Chargers and his 12th season in the NFL. He will serve as assistant tight ends coach in 2020 after working as an offensive assistant last year.

He will continue to primarily work with the tight ends, a position group that he has assisted with for the past two seasons. Shamash helped coach tight end Hunter Henry to return from an injury that kept him out of the entire 2018 regular season to set single-season career highs in receptions and receiving yards despite missing four games.

In 2017, Shamash assisted with the team's receivers on the field and in the classroom, helping in the league's No. 1 passing attack and the No. 4 overall offensive unit. In 2017, wide receiver Keenan Allen tallied career highs with 102 receptions for 1,393 yards and added six touchdowns. He set a then-franchise single-season record for receptions and his receiving yardage output ranked second in team history. Allen ranked fourth in the NFL in receptions and third in receiving yards. He finished 10th in the NFL with 1,402 yards from scrimmage.

Shamash came to the Chargers after spending three seasons (2014-16) as the defensive quality control coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars, working with a unit that jumped to sixth in the NFL in total defense (321.7 yds/game). From 2012-13, Shamash served in the role of quality control to the head coach in Tampa Bay, where he assisted then-head coach Greg Schiano in football aspects ranging from situational football and game management to daily practice, squad meetings and research projects.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Shamash spent two seasons (2009-2010) with the Cleveland Browns working as an offensive assistant coach, where he was an assistant to the offensive line (2009) and assisted with the tight ends in 2010. The Browns ranked third in the NFL in offensive penalties in both seasons. Shamash worked directly with offensive coordinator Brian Daboll in preparation for daily practice scripting, scheduling and game planning, while assisting rookie and practice squad players within the offense. On top of his offensive responsibilities, Shamash worked with head coach Eric Mangini on studying situational football.

In 2009, Shamash was part of a Browns team that won four consecutive games and an offense that recorded three straight 100-yard rushing games to finish the 2009 season, including 351 yards at Kansas City in a Week 16 victory. First-round selection (26th overall) center Alex Mack was named to the All-Rookie Team while left tackle Joe Thomas was named to the All-Pro Team. In 2010, Shamash worked with tight end Ben Watson, who led the AFC in receptions by tight ends with 68 catches (fifth in the NFL), and Evan Moore, a practice squad player in 2009 who had a breakout season (20.1 yards-per-catch).

Shamash began his NFL career as an intern in the special events and game operations department with the New York Jets in 2008 at the same time he was working as a defensive assistant at Columbia University. A native of New York, N.Y., Shamash earned his undergraduate degree from Carnegie Mellon University in 2008. He played four years for the Tartans at inside linebacker, helping CMU to an 11-1 record in 2006 – the winningest season in school history. Shamash and his wife, Cassie, have one daughter, Liana.

GIFF SMITH

DEFENSIVE LINE

10TH NFL SEASON

4TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Long-time defensive line coach Giff Smith heads into his fifth season coaching the position for the Chargers. Smith coached four players (Joey Bosa, Jurrell Casey, Melvin Ingram III and Kyle Williams) to a total of eight Pro Bowl selections and defensive tackle Kyle Williams to second-team All-Pro honors in 2010 from The Associated Press.

In season four with the team, Smith's instruction helped defensive ends Joey Bosa and Melvin Ingram III move higher on the team's all-time sacks list – Bosa finishing the season ranked eighth with 40 career sacks and Ingram finishing ranked No. 4 with 49 sacks. Bosa posted his third double-digit sack campaign with 11.5 and was named to his second Pro Bowl while Ingram went to his third, all five of which were under the tutelage of Smith. In addition to the all-star nod, Bosa earned All-Pro recognition from Sporting News and All-AFC from the Professional Football Writers of America.

Smith coached the line in 2018 to post 27.5 of the team's 38 sacks, including five defensive linemen to post multiple takedowns. In the Week 5 victory against Oakland, Ingram became just the second player in NFL history to have a sack, an interception and a rushing attempt in a single game, joining Jets linebacker Mo Lewis, who did so in 2000. Smith coached a defensive line in 2018 that had eight players post a sack.

In 2017, the duo of Bosa and Ingram became one of the fiercest tandems in the NFL, combing for 23 sacks and leading the league in pressures en route to their first Pro Bowl selections. Bosa set a career-high with 12.5 sacks to rank seventh in the league while Ingram equaled a career-best with 10.5 sacks. Bosa set an NFL record with 19 sacks in his first 20 career games. The defensive line recorded 36 of the 43 sacks on the season for the Chargers. The 43 sacks were tied for fifth in the NFL and were the most by the team since 2010. The line helped disrupt opposing quarterbacks to rank third in the league in fewest passing yards allowed and buckled down in the red zone to pace the NFL in red zone defense.

2014-15	Titans	Defensive Line
2016-Present	Chargers	Defensive Line

The Chargers' defensive line performed beyond admirably in Smith's first season in 2016. As a unit, the Bolts boasted the NFL's 10th-ranked rush defense. The Chargers held nine of their 16 opponents to less than 100 yards on the ground and recorded the NFL's second-highest percentage of tackles for loss. Bosa captured NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors after leading the Chargers and all NFL rookies with 10.5 sacks. Despite playing in just 12 games, Bosa also led the Chargers in tackles for loss and quarterback pressures. As a unit, the Chargers defensive line accounted for nearly half (16) of the team's 35 sacks on the season.

A native of Mableton, Ga., Smith was a three-time All-America defensive end at Georgia Southern. He was a team captain as a senior and a part of three NCAA I-AA national title teams (1986, '89-90) for the Eagles.

Smith launched his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arkansas (1991-93) and Georgia (1994-95) before spending three seasons (1996-98) coaching wide receivers and the secondary at Georgia Southern. He went on to coach the defensive line for five seasons (1999-03) at Tulane before taking over as the defensive line coach at Georgia Tech in 2004. In 2007, the Yellow Jackets led the nation in sacks (47) and ranked second in tackles for loss. One of Smith's top players was defensive tackle Joe Anoa'i, a first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference pick in 2006, who is now known as Roman Reigns and won World Wrestling Entertainment's (WWE) heavyweight championship in April 2016. Three additional linemen who played for Smith at Georgia Tech went on to play in the NFL – Michael Johnson, Vance Walker and Derrick Morgan.

Smith moved to the NFL in 2010, taking over as the defensive line coach for the Buffalo Bills. He spent three seasons in Buffalo (2010-12), during which time defensive tackle Kyle Williams was selected to the first two Pro Bowls of his career and defensive end Mario Williams had a 10.5-sack season.

Prior to joining the Chargers, Smith spent two years (2014-15) coaching the defensive line in Tennessee. In 2014, Smith helped the Titans implement a 3-4 scheme, and defensive tackle Jurrell Casey posted a career-high 13 tackles for loss. In 2015, the Titans racked up 39 sacks, tied for 12th in the league. The defensive line accounted for 13.5 of those sacks, including a team-high-tying seven by Casey, who was selected to his first-career Pro Bowl following the season.

Smith and his wife, Jennifer, have two children, Ava and Sam. In 2000, Smith was inducted into the Georgia Southern Athletic Hall of Fame.

RICHARD SMITH

LINEBACKERS

32ND NFL SEASON

4TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

A former defensive coordinator for the 2016 NFC Champion Atlanta Falcons, Richard Smith departed the Peachtree State after Super Bowl LI, returning to his native Los Angeles to join the Chargers as linebackers coach in 2017. Smith is one of the Chargers' most-experienced coaches with over 30 years of NFL coaching under his belt.

In 2019, Smith was reunited with linebacker Thomas Davis Sr., who he coached with Carolina for two seasons. Under Smith's tutelage, Davis led the team with 112 tackles while fourth-round rookie Drue Tranquill finished second on the squad with 75 tackles. The year prior, Smith coached 2018 fourth-round pick Kyzir White to be an opening day starter, recording an interception before being lost to a knee injury. The linebacker group was instrumental to the defense's improvement against the run in 2018, as opponents averaged nearly 30 fewer rushing yards-per-game than the season before.

In his first season with the Chargers, Smith oversaw a position group that saw six different players make starts. Three linebackers intercepted passes on the season, including a 59-yard pick-six by Corey Toomer in a Week 11 win vs. Buffalo. Smith helped acclimate players to the scheme of defensive coordinator Gus Bradley due to his keen insight into the defense working under Bradley's protégé, Dan Quinn, for the previous two years.

Smith spent two seasons with the Falcons (2015-16). In his first year, Atlanta's defense improved from 32nd to 16th in total defense and, in his second season, his unit helped carry the Falcons to a date with New England in Super Bowl LI. One player who excelled under Smith was outside linebacker Vic Beasley, who racked up 19.5 sacks from 2015-16, including a league-leading 15.5 in 2016.

Smith is a former offensive lineman who played at Rio Hondo Junior College in California from 1975-76 before transferring to Fresno State (1977), where he helped the Bulldogs to the Pacific Coast Athletic Association title. Following his playing career, Smith transitioned into coaching, returning to Rio Hondo to coach the offensive line for two seasons (1979-80). That led to stints at Cal State-Fullerton (1981-83), California (1984-86), and Arizona (1987) before he landed his first NFL job with the Houston Oilers in 1988.

Smith coached in Houston from 1988-92, handling special teams, while also assisting with the tight ends, linebackers, and offensive line. During his time with the Oilers, Smith worked closely with Pro Football Hall of Fame offensive lineman Bruce Matthews. From 1993-96, Smith coached special teams and linebackers for two seasons for the Denver Broncos. One of the players he coached on special teams was Anthony Lynn.

From 1997-02, Smith served as the linebackers coach in San Francisco. During his six seasons in the Bay Area, four 49ers linebackers earned Pro Bowl acclaim – Ken Norton, Jr., Lee Woodall, Winfred Tubbs and Julian Peterson. Smith spent the 2003-04 seasons as the assistant head coach and linebackers coach in Detroit.

In 2005, Smith landed his first post as a defensive coordinator with the Miami Dolphins. That year, Miami finished the season ranked second in the NFL with 49 sacks. That led to a three-year stint as the defensive coordinator for the Houston Texans (2006-08). Smith's defense in Houston produced two Pro Bowl and two second-team Associated Press All-Pro performers in outside linebacker DeMeco Ryans and defensive end Mario Williams.

Smith left Houston in 2009 and spent the next six seasons coaching linebackers, including two in Carolina (2009-10) and four in Denver (2011-14). During his time in Carolina, the Panthers had one of the NFL's top overall defenses and they collected the third-most takeaways in the NFL. Linebacker Jon Beason also earned Pro Bowl honors in 2009.

In Denver, Smith coached on four straight playoff teams, including a 2013 squad that won the AFC title and faced Seattle in Super Bowl XLVIII. Cumulatively during his four seasons in Denver, the Broncos ranked third in the league in rushing defense, fourth in third down defense and seventh in total defense.

Smith helped develop linebacker Von Miller, who has become one of the NFL's most dominant defenders. In 2011, Miller was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year and selected as a Pro Bowl starter after tying Denver's franchise rookie record with 11.5 sacks. In 2012, Miller set a team record with 18.5 sacks en route to being named first-team All-Pro and runner-up for NFL Defensive Player of the Year. In 2014, Miller was selected to the third Pro Bowl of his career after leading the Broncos and ranking sixth in the NFL with 14 sacks.

Smith has four children – Morgan, Aimee, Whitney and Travis – and is married to wife, Renee.

JOHN LOTT

HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

22ND NFL SEASON

4TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

John Lott enters his fourth season as the head strength and conditioning coach for the Los Angeles Chargers. Lott returned to the NFL after serving as the strength and speed development coordinator for the Arizona Cardinals.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Lott previously was the strength and conditioning coach with the Cleveland Browns (2005-06) and came into the NFL with the New York Jets (1997-2004) under Hall of Fame head coach Bill Parcells.

A native of Denton, Texas, Lott has earned a reputation as one of the NFL's most demanding strength and conditioning coaches, consistently challenging the players with off-the-field preparation both during the season and off-season. Lott ran the bench press station at the NFL Scouting Combine from 1998-2004 and was recognized in February of 2009 at the combine as the Cybex Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society. He also was honored as the 2001 Powermag All-NFL Team Top Strength Coach by Power Magazine.

During his first season in Arizona, Lott was responsible for overseeing the redesign of the team's weight room. The weight room was completely made over during a six-week span at the cost of several hundred thousand dollars to update equipment and the overall look.

Lott's programs stress Olympic movements, as well as strength and speed development, and he has also devised strict individual in-season programs to help the players increase their overall stamina and endurance.

He played for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1987 under Hall of Fame head coach Chuck Noll and went to training camp with the New York Jets in 1988. Lott was a standout offensive lineman at North Texas where he earned four varsity letters and was named All-Conference twice and All-America his senior year. He was twice voted "Most Dedicated" and was a three-time team captain by his teammates. He graduated as the strongest man in school history.

After his football career, Lott was the first full-time head strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater, University of North Texas. Lott then was named the first full-time head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Houston. On top of putting together programs for every collegiate team on campus, Lott worked with the Santa Monica Track Club that featured some of the top names in track and field, including Carl Lewis and Leroy Burrell. He worked with the track club through the Barcelona and Atlanta Olympics, a stretch that showcased six world records, two 100-meter world records and four 4x100-meter relay world records. In addition to his duties with the Santa Monica Track Club, Lott worked with the Indonesian and Japanese national track programs. He also individually trained Frank Rutherford of the Bahamas. Rutherford became the first Bahamian track athlete to earn a medal in the Olympic games, winning bronze in the triple jump at Barcelona in 1992.

Lott earned his bachelor's degree in Corporate Fitness in 1988 with minors in Biology and Kinesiology, and later earned his master's in Physical Education from Crescent City Christian College in 1990. He served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Texas in 1988. He also appeared in a minor role in the film Necessary Roughness, which was shot on the North Texas campus.

Outside of the weight room, Lott has made a huge impact across the globe. For seven years he hosted the Get Your Mind Right with Coach John Lott Football Camps. All the proceeds went to the African Bible College in Malawi, Africa. Through the camps, a football stadium, weight room and basketball arena were built. The proceeds also provided over 2,500 nets to help prevent the spread of Malaria, 30,000 pairs of shoes, and two safe houses for young women were built. Also, three water wells and a farm were constructed and donated to the Chapampa Tribe.

He also started the Texas Health Resources John Lott Invitational Celebrity Golf Tournament. The inaugural year of the tournament was cancelled this year due to the COVID-19 pandemic. It will be held at the Denton Country Club in Denton, Texas. Proceeds from the event over future years will benefit research on heart disease, which claimed the lives of Lott's mother, father and eldest sister.

Lott and his wife, Kim, have a son, Jasper Ryan, and a daughter, Kaitlyn Grace.

JONATHAN BROOKS

EXPERIENCE: 8TH NFL SEASON
8TH YEAR WITH CHARGERS

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ▶ Three-time Pro Bowl selection (2017-19 seasons) and was named Comeback Player of the Year in 2017 by The Associated Press, the Professional Football Writers of America and Sporting News.
- ▶ Named All-AFC at WR by the PFWA following his 2019 performance.
- ▶ Posted two of the three 100-catch seasons in Chargers history, registering 104 last season to break his own single-season team record of 102 set in 2017.
- ▶ Earned Offensive Rookie of the Year honors from the PFWA and Sports Illustrated while earning Sporting News Rookie of the Year and PFWA All-Rookie recognition in 2013 after a 71-catch season for 1,046 yards (14.7 avg.) and eight touchdowns.
- ▶ In votes by fans in 2013, was chosen as the Pepsi Next Rookie of the Year and was a four-time Pepsi Next Rookie of the Week selection (Weeks 6, 12, 15 and 17).
- ▶ In 2017, became the first player in NFL history to post three consecutive games with 10-plus receptions, 100-plus receiving yards and at least one touchdown catch (Week 11 vs. Buffalo, Week 12 at Dallas and Week 13 vs. Cleveland).
- ▶ With an interception in Week 16 of 2017, became the first player in NFL history to have 90-plus catches and an interception in the same season, while also becoming just the third player to record 1,000-plus receiving yards and an interception in the same season, joining Hall of Fame WRs Don Hutson (1942) and Randy Moss (2009).
- ▶ In 2016, became the first player in NFL history with 12-plus catches in three of a team's first six games in a season (Week 1 vs. Detroit, Week 3 at Minnesota and Week 6 at Green Bay).
- ▶ Registered eight-plus catches in each of the first three games of 2019, becoming the 12th player in NFL history to do so.
- ▶ Sits inside the top 10 in Chargers history with 524 receptions (fifth), 6,405 receiving yards (sixth) and 34 touchdown catches (tied-10th).
- ▶ Ranks tied with WR Gary Garrison and Hall of Fame WR Charlie Joiner for No. 3 in team annals with 23 career 100-yard receiving performances.
- ▶ Set team rookie records in 2013 with five 100-yard receiving games and 71 catches (LaDainian Tomlinson, 59 receptions in 2001).
- ▶ In the 2013 AFC Divisional as a rookie, posted a 142-yard, two-touchdown performance, marking the first two-touchdown catch playoff game by a Charger since Hall of Fame TE Kellen Winslow (Jan. 9, 1983) did so in an AFC Wild Card victory at Pittsburgh, while his 142 yards tied TE Keith Jackson (1988) for the second-most by a rookie in a playoff game in NFL history.
- ▶ Coupled with RB Austin Ekeler in 2019, became the second-ever set of Chargers teammates to each have 80-plus catches in the same season and the first set to each have 90-plus.
- ▶ In 2019, became part of the first trio of teammates with Ekeler and WR Mike Williams to each have 900-plus receiving yards in the same season since New England accomplished the feat in 2014.
- ▶ With Williams last year, the pair became the first Chargers teammates to each have 1,000-plus receiving yards in the same season since 2009.
- ▶ Recorded seven 100-yard performances in 2017, ranking as the most in a season by a Charger since 1980.
- ▶ Through the first eight games in 2015, registered 67 catches for 725 yards (10.8 avg.) and four touchdowns, the third-most receptions midway through a season in NFL history, before suffering a season-ending kidney injury.
- ▶ Posted five touchdown catches over three games in 2013, tying the most by a Chargers WR in a three-game stretch since 1996.
- ▶ Posted back-to-back 100-yard performances twice in 2013, a feat that hadn't been accomplished by a Chargers rookie since WR Don Norton did so in 1960.
- ▶ Started three-of-four career postseason games, registering 14 catches for 275 yards (19.6 avg.) and three touchdowns.

BEYOND THE BOLT

Allen was featured in a public service announcement, 'Dance Like a Dad,' in 2019. The ad was launched by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Administration for Children and Families (ACF), along with the National Responsible Fatherhood Clearinghouse and the Ad Council. He shows off his dance moves with his family to encourage fathers to play an active role in the lives of their children.

In April 2016, Allen co-hosted a two-day football camp for youth from the Kaiserslautern Military Community at Ramstein Air Base in Ramstein, Germany, with Buffalo WR Andre Roberts. It was Allen's first visit to Europe. Allen and Roberts visited the USO's Warrior Center, signed autographs at Ramstein Air Base, visited the Landstuhl Regional Medical Center and spent time at the USO's Deployment Center for Active Duty Troops.

Allen is a majority stakeholder in the company Zen Enterprises, which manufactures Zen Sports Balm, a product that is used to relieve aches and pains associated with muscles and joints, especially for individuals suffering from arthritis, backaches, strains, sprains and bruises. Zen Enterprises' products are available in the United States and the company began expanding business to China last year.

An incredible self-motivator, Allen taught himself how to play golf while rehabbing from a torn ACL in the 2016 season opener. He played in the Chargers Invitational each of the past two years to raise money for the Chargers Community Foundation. In addition to golf, Allen taught himself how to play the piano from YouTube videos after he was motivated to learn from seeing his friend perform.

quarter, had a 24-yard catch-and-run on second-and-six on the second offensive play of the game for the AFC... Later in the drive, ran a comeback-route on the left sideline on third-and-six for an 11-yard gain, beating the coverage of CB Darius Slay.

2018: Selected to his second Pro Bowl...Appeared in 16 games with 14 starts at WR, posting 97 catches for 1,196 yards (12.3 avg.) and six TDs...Became the first Charger to post back-to-back 1,000-yard receiving seasons since WR Vincent Jackson in 2008-09...Set a team record with a 65-game multi-catch streak...Registered three 100-yard contests to reach 21 for his career, moving into a tie with TE Antonio Gates for the fifth-most in Chargers history...Brought his career receiving yardage total to 5,206, moving past Jackson (4,754) and WR Tony Martin (4,184) for No. 9 in career receiving yards in team history...Moved to sixth in Chargers history in career receptions with 420, passing WR Gary Garrison (404) RB Ronnie Harmon (377), WR Anthony Miller (374) and Wes Chandler (373)...Increased his career total to 28 TD catches, passing WR Don Norton for 12th in team annals...With 14 receptions for 148 yards (10.6 avg.) and a TD against Pittsburgh, recorded his fourth game since the start of 2017 with 10-plus catches, 100-plus receiving yards

DRAFT 1 - 2016

EXPERIENCE: 5TH NFL SEASON

5TH YEAR WITH CHARGERS

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ▶ Two-time Pro Bowl selection (2017, '19 seasons) and was named All-AFC by the Professional Football Writers of America in each of those two seasons while earning All-Pro recognition last year from Sporting News.
- ▶ As a rookie in 2016, was named Defensive Rookie of the Year by The Associated Press and PFWA and was twice recognized as NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month (October and December).
- ▶ Named AFC Defensive Player of the Week last year for his performance in the Week 8 win at Chicago – 12 tackles (eight solo), two sacks and six tackles for loss.
- ▶ Awarded Pepsi Rookie of the Week (Week 7 of 2016) in a fan vote, All-Rookie by PFWA and Chargers Co-Lineman of the Year in 2016.
- ▶ Registered 19 sacks in the first 20 games of his career, topping LB Aldon Smith (18.5) for the most in a player's first 20 career games in NFL history.
- ▶ Set single-season career highs in 2017 in tackles (99), solo stops (61), assisted tackles (38), sacks (12.5) and forced fumbles (four).
- ▶ Moved to No. 8 in Chargers history in career sacks with 40.0, passing DEs Burt Grossman and Chris Mimmis (38.0 each).
- ▶ Last year, started all 16 games to post 92 tackles (59 solo), 11.5 sacks, a career-high 21.5 tackles for loss and a forced fumble.
- ▶ Had at least 10 sacks in three of his first four seasons, trailing only DE Dwight Freeney, Hall of Fame LB Derrick Thomas and Hall of Fame DE Reggie White (all did so in each of their first four seasons).
- ▶ In 2017, combined with DE Melvin Ingram to total 23 sacks between them and rank as the No. 2 sack duo in the NFL.
- ▶ Last season, had three-straight multi-sack games, including back-to-back games with two-plus sacks, the first Charger to do so since LB Kevin Burnett in 2010.
- ▶ Became the first Chargers rookie since LB Shawne Merriman in 2005 (10.0 sacks) and just fifth in team history since 1982 to record double-digit sacks, joining Merriman, DE Chris Mims (1992), DE Burt Grossman (1989) and DE Leslie O'Neal (1986).
- ▶ Closed out his rookie season with at least a half-sack in each of the team's final six games, the longest stretch by a Charger since 2001.

BEYOND THE BOLT

A strong supporter of funding for research to find a cure for pediatric cancer, Bosa penned an article to Sports Illustrated about the cleats he wore for the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats initiative in 2017. The cleats he donned for the Dec. 3 home game against the Browns were designed by Sean, a friend that Bosa made when visiting the MD Anderson Cancer Center in Houston while playing for Ohio State. They were designed gold, the color for pediatric cancer, and on the side, they said, 'Children Deserve #MoreThan4.' Sean had opened Bosa's eyes about how only four percent of all money raised for cancer research goes to pediatric cancer, inspiring the slogan on the cleats. Bosa made those cleats flash on the highlight reels that week – leading the team with seven solo tackles, three tackles for loss and a strip-sack in the fourth quarter to force a turnover.

In each of the past two seasons, Bosa participated with patients and their families from the Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation for Halloween at Hoag Performance Center. Players were placed at stations along a trick-or-treat trail throughout the facility, interacting with the children and their families as they passed by. The night also included a photo booth, arts & crafts, spooky snacks and a family-friendly movie.

Bosa hosted Caleb Jones-Moreno, a patient at Children's Hospital Los Angeles at Hoag Performance Center in December 2019, playing a game of Madden with Caleb and presenting the 11-year old with two tickets to Super Bowl LIV. The two initially met when Bosa was doing a hospital visit in September.

In the 2019 offseason, Bosa appeared as an extra in the final season of 'Game of Thrones.' He flew to Belfast, Northern Ireland, to film. "It was a lot of work and time. It was freezing cold in Belfast in the middle of the night," Bosa said. "I love the writers. Thanks for having me out there."

Bosa's family has long been part of the NFL. He and his brother, Nick – who was selected second overall by San Francisco in the 2019 NFL Draft – are the newest members of the family to put on shoulder pads at the professional level. Their cousin, Jake Kumerow, entered the league in 2015 and is currently on the Green Bay roster. Joey and Nick's father, John, was taken No. 16 overall in 1987 by Miami. Eric Kumerow is John Bosa's brother-in-law and Jake's father. He was a first-round pick of the Dolphins one year after John. Joey and Nick's grandfather, Palmer Pyle Jr., played at Michigan State before being drafted by the Baltimore Colts. Their great-uncle, Mike, was a center for Chicago for nine seasons.

BEYOND THE BOLT

A biology major at Virginia Tech, Facyson participated in STEM on the sideline at Tustin (Calif.) High in March 2019. Students at the event engineered and built science and technology projects, including a pinball machine, a guitar and a vending machine. Facyson encouraged students to get involved in STEM programs and stay involved through their high school years.

Facyson was one of five players to be involved with the team's Bikes for Kids initiative in December 2018. 150 students at Cesar Chavez Elementary in Long Beach, Calif., wrote a short essay on the most influential person in their lives, with a handful of winners receiving bicycles and helmets. Facyson, K Michael Badgley, WR Geremy Davis, CB Michael Davis and WR Artavis Scott surprised the students and revealed that all 150 students would be receiving bikes and helmets courtesy of the Los Angeles Chargers and California Resources Corporation.

BEYOND THE BOLT

Feeney raised awareness for Multiple Sclerosis through the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats initiative in 2018. The cleats he wore were auctioned to raise funds for the National MS Society to fund a cure for MS. He was first introduced to the National MS Society in recent years when his sister joined the staff in Chicago. "Over the last two years, I have become aware of all the good things they do from fundraising and programs to help individuals and families affected by this disease," Feeney said. "My hope in showcasing the Society for the My Cause, My Cleats campaign is to bring awareness to this disease and be part of the fight to end MS forever."

BEYOND THE BOLT

Off the field, Ingram is a rap musician. One of his songs, 'Pops,' is a tribute to his late father, George Melvin Ingram Jr., who died of a heart attack in 1998. Ingram's father predicted that his infant son would one day play in the NFL. Most recently, Ingram released an EP in June called 'State of Mind.'

Ingram promoted his foundation, 'Mission Possible,' which he founded in 2015, through the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats initiative this past season. Mission Possible provides inner-city and low-income youth with additional educational opportunities and resources. The foundation provides resources to youth in Ingram's hometown, San Diego and Los Angeles. The foundation hosted its fifth-annual Family Fun Day in June 2018, providing free food, outdoor games, prizes and activities at Hamlet (N.C.) Memorial Park. Ingram's older sister, Monique, described the importance of giving back to the community by saying, 'A lot of people don't get to see a [professional] football player in this town, so I love that he likes to come back and interact with the people of the community.' In 2016, Mission Possible had a celebrity waiter dinner that raised more than $120,000.

BEYOND THE BOLT

An outspoken advocate for social justice, Jackson engaged local community and political leaders in dialogue on topics including police reform and social justice. He participated in numerous marches advocating for police reform, including a few with multiple teammates. Jackson began his involvement in social justice at Northwestern, where he worked with the student-athlete group, 'Engage,' which focused on diversity inclusion and social justice.

Jackson was active early in the COVID-19 pandemic this offseason. He began by donating 4,000 meals to the Los Angeles Regional Food Bank. Jackson also participated in the team's telethon fundraiser in partnership with KCBS, the Los Angeles CBS affiliate.

In September 2018, Jackson participated in the team's annual shoe distribution with WSS in Los Angeles. Chargers players, Charger Girls and staff were paired with 450 students from the 10 elementary schools in Inglewood Unified School District. Each student picked out a new pair of shoes and a backpack for the upcoming school year.

BEYOND THE BOLT

An avid gamer of EA Sports' Madden franchise, James played in a Madden 20 tournament in April to help raise money for COVID-19 relief efforts. He defeated fellow Charger Keenan Allen in the first round, Philadelphia's DeSean Jackson in the semifinals and won the tournament of Kansas City's Tyreek Hill in the championship. James kept Hill out of the end zone in the championship in a 54-3 victory. By winning, a donation was made for the pandemic relief efforts in James' name.

After being selected by the Chargers 17th overall in the 2018 NFL Draft, James' mother wrote him a letter congratulating him on his accomplishments, bringing the safety to tears. "She sacrificed a lot for me to be here," he said. Less than three months later, he was able to hold up his end of a life-long promise: Buying his mother, Shanita Russell, her dream house. James announced the purchase on July 2, 2018, on Instagram, captioning a photo of him and his mother in front of the house, "Today was a special day. Bought my Momma her dream house I always promised her since I was a kid. I don't think there is anybody more deserving in the world than her."

RECORDS & HISTORY

GENERAL INFORMATION

BEYOND THE BOLT

In March 2020, Jenkins hosted 30 underprivileged kids from his hometown of St. Petersburg, Fla., on an all-expenses paid trip to Disneyworld's Magic Kingdom. The group had chaperones and fast passes for the day and listened to speakers from the community. The kids were chosen from email submissions on why they were deserving of the experience with Jenkins.

Along with DE Joey Bosa and NT Damion Square, Jenkins participated with patients and their families from the Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation for Halloween at Hoag Performance Center in October 2018. The players were placed at stations along a "trick-or-treat trail" throughout the facility, interacting with the children and their families as they passed by. The night also included a photo booth, arts & crafts, spooky snacks and a family-friendly movie.

Jenkins grew up in a big family, one of 18 children – 11 girls and seven boys. He once shared a room with three brothers, they would alternate daily who would sleep on the bed and who would sleep on the floor. Jenkins credits his upbringing for shaping his work ethic, determination and competitive edge, saying "I liked growing up in a big family. It was never boring. We always had to fight for stuff because there was so many of us."

DRAFT 5 - 2017

EXPERIENCE: 4TH NFL SEASON

4TH YEAR WITH CHARGERS

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ▶ Recognized in 2018 by The Associated Press as a first-team All-Pro at DB and a second-team All-Pro at PR, joining S Derwin James (first-team S and second-team DB in 2018) as the first Chargers in history to be named an AP All-Pro at two positions.
- ▶ Named AFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 9 at Seattle) and AFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 13 at Pittsburgh) in 2018, recording a pick-six at Seattle and a punt return for a touchdown at Pittsburgh.
- ▶ His interception return for a touchdown and punt return for a touchdown in 2018 made him the first player since 2011 and seventh since 2000 to do so in a single season.
- ▶ Added a punt return for a touchdown in the home game against Denver last season, making him the eighth player in history with multiple punt return scores while with the Chargers.
- ▶ With four sacks as a rookie in 2017, became the first DB to post at least 3.5 sacks as a rookie and the second-ever to have four (Bill Bates, 1983)
- ▶ Became just the sixth player in NFL history and second DB ever to post multiple pick-sixes and at least four sacks over the first two seasons of his career (S Roy Williams, 2002-03).
- ▶ Was one of five defenders in 2017 (Cincinnati DE Carlos Dunlap, New Orleans DE Cameron Jordan, Washington LB Ryan Kerrigan and Indianapolis LB John Simon) to post a pick-six and three-plus sacks.
- ▶ Recorded a 33-yard punt return in the 2018 AFC Wild Card at Baltimore to set a Chargers postseason record for longest punt return.
- ▶ Set a single-game career high with 2.5 sacks in the win at Miami last year, good for the second-highest single-game total by a DB in team annals (Rodney Harrison, three sacks in 1998 season opener).

BEYOND THE BOLT

King started a foundation, King Kares, in 2017. The goal of the foundation is to provide financial support to underprivileged families in the Detroit area. King has hosted a pair of free youth football camps in Detroit. After establishing itself, King Kares will expand its operations to Eastern Iowa and Southern California, following in the path of King's career. This past May during the COVID-19 pandemic, he and the foundation delivered 100 meals to medical professionals at Placentia-Linda Hospital in Placentia, Calif. Additionally, this past Thanksgiving King and the foundation provided 400 ready-to-cook meals to children and their families of Boys & Girls Clubs in the area. Most recently, King Kares held a backpack giveaway in Detroit on July 18th, where recipients received the backpacks filled with notebooks, pencils, football gear and other supplies.

BEYOND THE BOLT

In June 2017, Nwosu joined Head Coach Anthony Lynn at Lou Costello Recreation Center for the rollout of Summer Night Lights for the program's 11th season. It provides programs in 32 parks across Los Angeles, keeping the parks open between 7 and 11 p.m. in the summertime to give youth a safe, constructive environment to enjoy their summers. Nwosu, a Carson native, helped announce the Chargers' three-year, seven-figure commitment to supporting the program and expanding the sports programming to all 32 locations.

Nwosu volunteered in September alongside teammates, Carson High football players and employees from Albertsons and Tyson Foods to distribute 40,000 pounds of protein to non-profit partners of the Los Angeles Regional Food Bank during Hunger Action Month.

Just before the holidays this past year, Nwosu joined teammates to surprise over 100 third-grade students at Bennet-Kew Elementary in Inglewood, Calif., with a new bike, helmet and lock. It marked the team's 15th year partnering with the Bikes for Kids Foundation to surprise deserving students with new bikes. Nwosu was joined by K Michael Badgley, DE Joey Bosa, DT Justin Jones and DE Isaac Rochell.

BEYOND THE BOLT

Pouncey participated in the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats initiative in 2018. He donned cleats that were designed to create awareness of the efforts of the Team Pouncey foundation, which was created by him and his twin brother, Maurkice. Team Pouncey has provided more than $10 million in impact to at-risk youth through grants and programs. The foundation promises to inspire children and enable them to realize their potential to build a better future through community events, charitable giving, grants and other programs.

On June 29, 2019, Mike and Maurkice Pouncey held their ninth-annual "Team Pouncey 2 Of A Kind Football Camp and Cheer/Dance Clinic" at their alma mater, Lakeland (Fla.) High. The camp is free for children ages 7-14 and teaches local children fundamental football skills with an emphasis on good sportsmanship, academic success, respect and leadership. The 2020 camp was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

This offseason, Rochell founded Local Human, a philanthropic apparel brand that works with local foster centers, charities, causes and campaigns. It utilizes apparel sales to donate a shirt for every shirt sold to foster centers in the area, which typically cannot accept used clothing. Additionally, proceeds from apparel sales goes to local charities and campaigns. These have included COVID-19 relief, the United Negro College Fund, Campaign Zero and the National Fair Housing Alliance.

Rochell started a social media effort and non-profit in 2018, See You On Sunday, which encourages not utilizing social media on Saturday to foster a healthy social media environment. TE Hunter Henry and other teammates have embraced the efforts, taking time to engage with friends and family or embrace newfound and existing hobbies.

Rochell joined teammates in 2018 to partner with the Los Angeles Dodgers at 9/11 Meal Pack Day for the Los Angeles region, where over 300,000 meals were packed. Part of a larger event across the country, 9/11 Meal Pack Day turns a day of tragedy into a day of coming together to fight hunger.

BEYOND THE BOLT

Square founded a non-profit with his wife, Brandi, called Hip 2B Square. The foundation provides mentorship for at-risk youth, bill-pay assistance, and hygiene and socioeconomic assistance to displaced, impoverished and homeless families. The foundation teamed up with the Hudson and Hundreds Foundation in Houston, Texas, and the Browns Kids Foundation in Dallas, Texas, for Hurricane Harvey relief. Hip 2B Square and its partners provided housing, food, transportation and financial assistance to displaced families along with school and medical supplies.

Along with DE Joey Bosa and S Rayshawn Jenkins, Square participated with patients and their families from the Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation for Halloween at Hoag Performance Center in October 2018. The players were placed at stations along a "trick-or-treat trail" throughout the facility, interacting with the children and their families as they passed by. The night also included a photo booth, arts & crafts, spooky snacks and a family-friendly movie.

BEYOND THE BOLT

Taylor used his foundation to donate $25,000 to the Virginia Peninsula Foodbank in March 2020 during the early stages of the COVID-19 pandemic. The donation bought a truckload of nutritious food for those experiencing food insecurity. The foodbank thanked Taylor, saying, "Tyrod's compassion and concern for his hometown community and his extraordinary commitment to helping those in need will enable our neighbors experiencing difficulties and disruptions in their lives to enjoy nourishing food they might otherwise be unable to obtain. We thank him for his dedication to making people's lives happier, healthier and more hopeful."

In 2017, Taylor was recognized by Sports Illustrated in its Fashionable 50 awards for the most fashionable athletes. He was dubbed the most consistent, able to easily transition from three-piece suits to street-style looks. Kesha McLeod, a stylist and brand consultant, described Taylor's fashion, saying, "When it comes to style, he can be completely versatile in every moment."

Started the Tyrod Taylor Foundation to give back to the youth in his home state of Virginia. The foundation funds youth sports leagues and organizes an annual football and life skills camp. Taylor promoted the foundation by wearing cleats designed with its logo for the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats initiative in 2018.

BEYOND THE BOLT

Tillery ran drills and interacted with over 100 campers at the inaugural Los Angeles Chargers Elite Skills (L.A.C.E.S) Camp. It was held at Hoag Performance Center by the Los Angeles Chargers Impact Fund to help local youth develop skills needed to help reach the peak of their athletic ability. All proceeds from the camp benefit the Fund's goal of providing sports access and opportunities to kids across Southern California.

Visited Homeboy Industries with the other defensive rookies last year as part of a day of service. The rookies toured the headquarters, spoke with staff and took a class learning to make tamales. Homeboy Industries provides hope, training and support to formerly gang-involved and previously incarcerated men and women, allowing them to redirect their lives and become contributing members of the community.

Tillery participated in the team's annual show distribution with WSS last season. Chargers players, Charger Girls and staff were paired with students from elementary schools in Santa Ana Unified School District. Each student picked out a new pair of shoes as part of the distribution.

2019 GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1 RECAP - CHARGERS 30, COLTS 24 (OT)

Austin Ekeler has been a solid backup to Melvin Gordon in the Los Angeles Chargers' backfield the past two seasons.

In the season opener, Ekeler showed that he has what it takes to be a starter and won't be overlooked any longer after his performance on Sunday as the Chargers defeated the Indianapolis Colts 30-24 in overtime.

With Gordon holding out for a new contract, Ekeler had a career-best 154 yards from scrimmage. He also scored three touchdowns, including the winner on a 7-yard run with 5:01 remaining in overtime to cap off an eight-play, 75-yard drive.

The Chargers' running game was effective, averaging six yards per carry with four rushes over 10 yards. Justin Jackson had six carries for 57 yards, with most of his work coming in the first half.

Rivers, who made his 209th consecutive start to pass Peyton Manning for the third-longest streak among NFL QBs, completed 25 of 34 passes for 333 yards. It was the fifth time Rivers has thrown three or more TD passes in an opener.

Ekeler opened the scoring with a 1-yard reception in the first quarter. He then went 55 yards on a screen pass on Los Angeles' first drive of the third quarter to extend its lead to 24-9. Ekeler shed attempted tackles by Darius Leonard and Pierre Desir before motoring up the right sideline.

Indianapolis responded with 15 straight points to force overtime. Marlon Mack, who had 25 carries for 174 yards, brought the Colts within 24-16 with a career-long 63-yard scamper up the left sideline midway through the third quarter. They tied it with 48 seconds remaining when Jacoby Brissett hit T.Y. Hilton for their second scoring connection of the day. Hilton caught the ball at the Chargers 19, made Adrian Phillips miss and then extended the ball over the pylon before going out of bounds. The Colts tied it when Mack ran it in on the 2-point conversion.

Allen had eight receptions for 123 yards, including a 28-yard score in the second quarter on which he outmuscled Rock Ya-Sin in the end zone. Rivers stepped up in the pocket and lofted it up so Allen could make a play on a 50-50 ball.

WEEK 2 RECAP - LIONS 13, CHARGERS 10

Despite Austin Ekeler's second consecutive strong performance and a strong showing by their run defense, the Los Angeles Chargers lost to the Detroit Lions, 13-10, in Week 2.

Ekeler, who caught the game-winning touchdown in overtime in Week 1 against the Colts, followed up his 154-total yard performance with 133 total yards Sunday, including a touchdown where the 5-foot-9 running back jumped over four Lions defenders.

Ekeler, in tandem with Justin Jackson who had 59 yards rushing on seven carries total, created problems for the Lions defense. But their performance was not flawless, as Ekeler fumbled the ball at the Lions' 1-yard line midway through the third quarter.

Ekeler wasn't the only Charger racking up yards, as quarterback Philip Rivers connected with wide receiver Keenan Allen all afternoon to the tune of eight receptions for 98 yards.

One of those plays came in the closing moments of the first half when Rivers threw deep to a diving Mike Williams for a 47-yard completion, setting up a 39-yard Ty Long field goal with time expiring in the half.

Williams, who didn't practice Wednesday or Thursday and was a game-time decision for Sunday's game, had three receptions for 83 yards.

The Chargers had multiple opportunities to extend their lead, but holding penalties called back touchdowns from Ekeler and Jackson in the third quarter.

After the Chargers defense limited the Lions to six points through the first three quarters thanks to interceptions from Casey Hayward Jr. and Rayshawn Jenkins, Lions quarterback Matthew Stafford connected with Kenny Golladay for a 31-yard touchdown to take the lead in the fourth quarter.

The Chargers only allowed 94 yards rushing and 3.4 yards per carry on the afternoon.

Linebacker Thomas Davis Sr. led the defense with 12 tackles, upping the 36-year-old's total to 26. It marked the first time Davis Sr. has had back-to-back games with 10-plus tackles since 2015.

WEEK 5 RECAP - BRONCOS 20, CHARGERS 13

The Los Angeles Chargers' comeback attempt against the Denver Broncos fell short, as L.A. lost, 20-13, in its first divisional game of the season. The Bolts scored 10 unanswered points to come within a touchdown, but it wasn't enough to overcome the Broncos' early 17-point advantage.

On their first drive of the game, the Broncos took a 7-0 lead after a 4-yard touchdown run by running back Phillip Lindsay and an extra point by Brandon McManus. Lindsay rushed for 114 yards on 15 carries in the game, also recording 33 yards receiving. The opening drive totaled 75 yards on seven plays and took just 3:54 to complete.

After the Chargers failed to score on their opening possession, the Broncos scored their second touchdown on as many drives, courtesy of a 70-yard pass from quarterback Joe Flacco to wide receiver Courtland Sutton, who finished with 92 yards receiving on four catches. After the successful extra point, Denver led 14-0 with 4:58 to play in the first quarter.

On the ensuing Broncos possession, McManus was accurate on a 40-yard field goal, increasing the Denver advantage to 17-0 with 5:17 remaining in the first half. The field goal capped an eight-play, 40-yard drive.

After the Bolts went three-and-out to start the second half, they forced the Broncos to punt for the first time of the afternoon.

On the next Denver possession, the Chargers forced a three-and-out for the first time in the game, with the play of the drive being a sack by first-round pick defensive tackle Jerry Tilley on second down.

With 3:44 left in the third quarter, Chargers linebacker Kyzir White intercepted Flacco at Denver's 7-yard line.

The Chargers forced a three-and-out for a second consecutive defensive stand. On fourth down, defensive back Desmond King returned the punt 68 yards into the end zone to put the Bolts on the board.

On the following Broncos drive, a third-down sack by defensive end Joey Bosa set up a 54-yard field goal by McManus, which hooked wide left, keeping the score 17-7 in favor of Denver.

The Chargers then marched down the field in just 2:08, with their four-play, 29-yard drive culminating in a successful 45-yard field goal by McLaughlin, the first made field goal of his NFL career. This cut the Bolts deficit to a single score at 17-10, with 6:52 remaining on the game clock.

The Bolts then marched down the field for a successful 32-yard kick by McLaughlin with 15 seconds left, but Los Angeles failed to recover the onside kick, ending the Chargers' comeback hopes.

WEEK 6 RECAP - STEELERS 24, CHARGERS 17

The Los Angeles Chargers lost to the Pittsburgh Steelers by just a touchdown, 24-17, on Sunday night at home, despite scoring the final 17 points of the game.

On the team's first play from scrimmage, Philip Rivers found Hunter Henry for a 19-yard reception, the tight end's first catch since injuring his knee in a Week 1 victory over the Colts. Henry caught eight passes on nine targets for 100 yards receiving and two touchdowns on the night.

The pass also marked Rivers' 4,652nd completion, moving the veteran pass injured Steelers quarterback Ben Roethlisberger for sole possession of seventh place in all-time completions. The drive ended in a punt, however.

On the ensuing Bolts drive, Rivers fumbled on an attempted backward pass that Steelers linebacker Devin Bush recovered and ran nine yards for a touchdown. After an extra point, the Steelers led 7-0 with 11:01 remaining in the first quarter.

The next Chargers possession was interrupted by a Bush interception on a deflected pass. Seven plays and 40 yards later, the Steelers scored a touchdown on a 12-yard run by running back James Conner. The extra point increased Pittsburgh's advantage to 14-0 with 4:29 to play in the first.

The Steelers put together a 14-play, 86-yard drive on their next drive, which culminated in a 26-yard touchdown pass from Devlin Hodges to James Conner. Chris Boswell's extra point extended the Pittsburgh lead to 21-0 with 6:34 left in the first half.

The Bolts responded with a long drive of their own that featured two consecutive receptions by Mike Williams that went for first downs.

On the first drive of the second half, the Steelers had first goal on the Chargers' 2-yard line, but L.A. made a strong goal-line stand, limiting Pittsburgh to a 20-yard Boswell field goal. The possession took 6:48 off the clock and brought the score to 24-0 with 8:12 remaining in the third quarter.

Los Angeles got on the board with a 38-yard field goal by McLaughlin with 14:00 to play in the game. The kick concluded an 11-play, 71-yard drive.

On the next possession, Rayshawn Jenkins picked off Hodges for the Miami product's second interception of the season. After intercepting the pass, Jenkins ran the ball eight yards to the Chargers' 30-yard line.

Rivers then engineered an efficient 10-play, 70-yard drive that took just 3:23 and resulted in a 5-yard Hunter Henry touchdown reception.

The Chargers marched down and compiled another efficient scoring drive, advancing 79 yards on eight plays in 2:24. The culminating play was a 10-yard pass from Rivers to Henry for the tight end's second touchdown of the game with 1:29 left to play.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Los Angeles Chargers fell to the Tennessee Titans, 23-20, Sunday, despite having two opportunities for a go-ahead touchdown on the Titans' 1-yard line in the final minute.

Tennessee kicker Cody Parkey attempted his first field goal as a Titan, hitting a 45-yarder with 6:06 to play in the first quarter. The drive spanned nine plays and 42 yards and gave Tennessee a 3-0 advantage.

On the ensuing Chargers drive, four plays later, kicker Chase McLaughlin's 29-yard field goal evened the score, 3-3, with two seconds left in the opening quarter.

The Chargers then put together a 94-yard drive ending with a 1-yard touchdown pass to the left from Rivers to a wide-open Melvin Gordon.

The Titans then responded with an efficient eight-play, 86-yard scoring drive that culminated in an 8-yard bullet-pass touchdown from Tannehill to wide receiver Corey Davis. Parkey's extra point knotted the game at 10 apiece with 26 seconds to go in the half.

The Titans took the lead on their next possession, a 14-play, 85-yard drive that spanned 7:09 and ended in a 5-yard touchdown pass from Tannehill to wide receiver Tajae Sharpe in the back of the end zone. After Parkey doinked the extra point off of the right upright, Tennessee held a 16-10 advantage over Los Angeles with 13:11 to play in the contest.

The Bolts responded with a career-long 50-yard field goal by McLaughlin with 10:55 on the game clock.

The Titans then put together a seven-play, 75-yard drive, culminating in an 11-yard Derrick Henry touchdown run to the left with 6:39 remaining in the game. Parkey's successful extra point extended the Tennessee lead to 23-13. To go with his touchdown, Henry ran for 90 yards on 22 carries Sunday.

Just five plays later, Austin Ekeler, lined up out-wide to the right, stutter-stepped and beat his defender for a 41-yard touchdown reception on a perfect pass from Rivers.

On fourth and inches near midfield, the Titans went to it on a Tannehill sneak and failed to convert.

With 2:39 left in the game and trailing by a field goal, the Bolts took over possession.

On a third and four, Rivers found Williams for a first-down conversion that put the Chargers into field-goal range.

On the next play, the Bolts quarterback hit Ekeler for 19 yards to move the ball to the Titans' 16-yard line.

Rivers connected with Ekeler, who was tackled a half-yard shy of the end zone. After a false start, Gordon was initially ruled to have scored a touchdown, but the call was overturned.

Gordon then fumbled to end the Bolts' hopes of a victory.

WEEK 8 RECAP - CHARGERS 17, BEARS 16

The Chargers beat the Chicago Bears, 17-16, Sunday as Eddie Piñeiro missed a field goal with time expiring, his second missed field goal of the game.

Philip Rivers was intercepted by cornerback Kyle Fuller, with the Bears taking over at L.A.'s 24. Chicago advanced to the 4-yard line, but did not get any farther, settling for a successful 22-yarder by Piñeiro with 14:45 left in the second quarter.

The next time the Bears got into the red zone, advancing to the Chargers' 9-yard line, the Bolts defense made Chicago settle for a field goal again. Piñeiro's successful 25-yarder made the score 6-0 with 4:16 to go in the half.

On the Bolts' next drive, Rivers found wide receiver Mike Williams for a 19-yard connection, moving the ball to the Bears' 19 yard-line. Melvin Gordon then scored the Chargers' first points of the day on a 19-yard touchdown run, culminating a four-play, 75-yard drive.

The Bears advanced all the way to the Chargers' 1-yard-line on their next possession, but the Bolts made another goal-line stand. Running out of time, Bears quarterback Mitchell Trubisky spiked the ball with one second left. Piñeiro then converted a 19-yard field goal with time expiring, giving the Bears a 9-7 halftime lead.

On the Bears' first drive of the second half, running back David Montgomery scored a 4-yard rushing touchdown with 8:08 to go in the third quarter. After Piñeiro nailed the extra point, the Bears led 16-7.

Rivers then engineered a 14-play, 73-yard scoring drive that took 7:29. The possession culminated in a successful 20-yard field goal by McLaughlin, cutting the Bolts deficit to 16-10 with 42 seconds left in the third quarter.

Chargers cornerback Casey Hayward picked off Trubisky on the Bears' next possession, ran 37 yards to the Chicago 20-yard-line.

The Bears took over possession, still leading 16-10, at the Chargers' 42 with 10:53 left in the fourth quarter.

Four plays later, defensive tackle Damion Square forced a Trubisky fumble that was recovered by Melvin Ingram in the defensive end's first game back from injury.

On third down for the Bolts, Rivers' 11-yard pass to tight end Hunter Henry fell inches shy of a first down, forcing the Chargers to punt.

Trubisky then evaded pressure and ran for 11 yards to advance his team to the Bolts' 21. The Bears then knelted to set up a game-winning field goal with time expiring. However, Piñeiro missed the 41-yard attempt with no time on the clock, preserving a 17-16 Bolts victory.

WEEK 9 RECAP - CHARGERS 26, PACKERS 11

The Chargers defeated the Green Bay Packers, 26-11, leading wire-to-wire against a team that entered with a 7-1 record and limiting their opponents to 184 total yards. Defensive ends Joey Bosa and Melvin Ingram combined for three sacks and six QB hits, and Michael Badgley went 4-for-5 from field goal range in his season debut.

Philip Rivers was efficient, and the Chargers' running game was impressive, racking up 159 yards and two touchdowns on 38 carries.

To open the game, the Chargers picked up six first downs, advancing 84 yards on 15 plays. The 8:04 drive culminated in a 29-yard field goal by Badgley, the kicker's first of the season since returning from a groin injury. The kick gave the Chargers a 3-0 lead with 6:56 left in the first quarter.

Badgley turned the next drive into three more points by nailing a 40-yard field goal, his second field goal of the contest. The five-play, 37-yard drive ended with the Bolts leading 6-0 with 1:04 remaining in the opening quarter.

The Bolts then forced a Packers punt for the fourth-consecutive time in the game, which led to another productive Chargers possession. The 13-play, 76-yard drive was capped by Badgley's third field goal of the game, a 34-yarder, with time expiring in the half.

The Chargers then put together another scoring drive, featuring a highlight-reel 16-yard run by Melvin Gordon, in which he hurdled a defender. Gordon finished with 80 yards rushing on 20 carries and two scores.

The eight-play, 52-yard possession culminated in a fourth successful field goal by Badgley, giving the Bolts a 12-0 advantage with 9:46 left in the third quarter.

Later, linebacker Drue Tranquill tipped Packers punter J.K. Scott's punt, which allowed the Bolts to start their drive at the Green Bay 27.

It took six plays for the Chargers to score their first touchdown of the afternoon, a 1-yard run by Gordon with 3:56 to go in the quarter.

The ten-play, 75-yard possession took 5:14 off the clock and ended in Gordon's second-consecutive touchdown of the game, another 1-yard score. The play came on fourth down, with Chargers head coach Anthony Lynn electing to go for the touchdown.

Badgley converted the extra point to increase the Chargers' lead to 23 points at 26-3 with 10:32 remaining in the contest.

GENERAL INFORMATION

WEEK 10 RECAP - RAIDERS 26, CHARGERS 24

The Chargers lost to the Raiders, 26-24, in a back-and-forth game in the Bolts' final trip to Oakland. In the loss, Melvin Gordon rushed for 108 yards on 22 carries and a touchdown, with 71 of these yards coming in the first half.

Philip Rivers passed for two scores and 207 yards but threw three interceptions, while Melvin Ingram recorded two sacks, two QB hits and seven tackles.

The Chargers advanced to the Raiders' 33 yard-line on the opening drive of the game before Rivers got intercepted by safety Erik Harris, who ran the ball 59 yards to the L.A. 31.

On the ensuing series, defensive end Ingram sacked Derek Carr on third down, forcing the Raiders to settle for a 40-yard field goal.

Five plays later, Harris intercepted Rivers for a second time, this time for a 56-yard pick-six. With the extra point, Oakland jumped out to a 10-0 advantage with 6:02 remaining in the quarter.

On the 16th play of the possession, Rivers threw a 2-yard touchdown pass to tight end Hunter Henry in the back of the end zone.

The 77-yard, 8:14 drive featured three third-down conversions and a fourth-down conversion. Kicker Michael Badgley's extra point cut the Chargers deficit to 10-7 with 8:24 to go in the first half.

On the first play of the Chargers series, Rivers perfectly placed a pass to Gordon for a 25-yard gain to the Raiders' 24. Four plays later, Gordon bullied his way into the end zone for a 3-yard touchdown run up the middle.

On the Raiders' drive, they too went for it on fourth-and-one and converted on a 3-yard run up the middle by rookie fullback Alec Ingold. Five plays later, Ingold struck again, catching a 9-yard touchdown pass from Carr for his first career NFL score. After the extra point, Oakland went back ahead, 17-14, with 20 seconds until halftime.

Oakland began the second half with a scoring drive that culminated in a 22-yarder by Carlson, extending the Raiders advantage to 20-14 with 11:33 left in the third.

Badgley finished the drive with a 27-yard field goal to cut his team's deficit to three points, 20-17, with 25 seconds left in the quarter. The 74-yard drive took the Bolts 3:31 to complete.

On the 12th play of the drive, Rivers handed the Chargers the lead with a six-yard touchdown pass to Austin Ekeler, the running back's sixth receiving score of the season and ninth TD overall.

The Raiders then stormed back with an 18-yard rushing touchdown by Jacobs. The score gave Oakland a 26-24 lead, but Carlson's extra point sailed wide right with 1:02 left in the contest.

WEEK 11 RECAP - CHIEFS 24, CHARGERS 17

The Chargers were defeated by the Kansas City Chiefs, 24-17, on Monday Night Football in Mexico City, despite recording 438 total yards and limiting Patrick Mahomes to 182 yards passing and a single touchdown.

On the opening series, the Chargers moved the ball efficiently, with Rivers throwing for 68 yards on a perfect 4-for-4. A 37-yard reception by Austin Ekeler brought the Chargers to the Chiefs' 12-yard line, but the Bolts were forced to settle for a 27-yard field goal by Michael Badgley.

On the sixth play of the Chargers drive, Rivers was intercepted by safety Tyrann Mathieu, who brought the ball to the Bolts' 6-yard line. On the following play, running back LeSean McCoy promptly ran the ball into the end zone. After the Harrison Butler extra point, the Chiefs took a 7-3 lead with 8:45 remaining in the half.

The Chargers' ensuing drive featured a 26-yard reception by Mike Williams and an 18-yard run by Ekeler.

Badgley capped the nine-play, 67-yard drive with his second field goal of the game, a 26-yarder that cut the Bolts deficit to 7-6 with 5:01 left in the quarter.

On the ensuing drive, Chargers linebacker Thomas Davis pushed a mid-air Travis Kelce out of bounds to force an incompleton on a third-down pass from Mahomes, making the Chiefs settle for a field goal attempt. After Butler made the 41-yarder, the Chiefs took a 10-6 lead with 1:43 remaining in the half.

Down the other end of the field, Rivers completed four passes to his running backs for 57 yards. After a pair of L.A. penalties, Rivers' 14-yard pass to Ekeler brought the Bolts back into field goal range. With no timeouts remaining in the half, the Chargers rushed to the line and Rivers was able to spike the ball with one second left.

Badgley capitalized on the opportunity, drilling the 49-yard attempt with time expiring in the half. At halftime, the Chargers trailed by a point, 10-9.

With 4:56 left in the third, Mahomes found Kelce in the end zone for a 23-yard touchdown. Butler's extra point made the score 24-9.

The next score of the game came when Rivers completed a 7-yard touchdown pass to Allen with 1:44 to go in the quarter.

The TD was followed by a successful 2-point conversion pass from Rivers to Hunter Henry in the back of the end zone.

In the loss, Ekeler caught eight passes for 108 yards, while Rivers threw for 353 yards and a touchdown but also had four interceptions.

Jenkins' pick of Mahomes marked just the second interception thrown by the NFL's reigning Most Valuable Player this season. Mahomes' 72.6 passer rating in the game was also the second-worst of the star's 26-game career.

WEEK 13 RECAP - BRONCOS 23, CHARGERS 20

The Chargers fell to the Broncos, 23-20, Sunday in Denver. The AFC West clash was filled with drama in the final moments, ending on a field goal with time expiring by Brandon McManus.

After the Bolts' first drive ended in a punt, Drew Lock threw his first career touchdown on a one-handed 25-yard diving snag by wide receiver Courtland Sutton. The extra point gave the Broncos a 7-0 lead with 4:33 in the first quarter.

Denver then got the ball back four plays later after Philip Rivers was intercepted by defensive end Dre'Mont Jones. The Broncos turned the takeaway into points, as Lock threw a second touchdown to Sutton, a 5-yarder, with 16 seconds remaining in the quarter. McManus tacked on the point after to extend Denver's lead to 14-0.

Kicker Michael Badgley capped the possession with a 30-yard field goal to cut the Bolts' deficit to 11 points at 14-3 with 9:27 in play in the half.

After the Bolts forced the Broncos' second three-and-out of the game, Troymaine Pope muffed the punt, and Denver recovered on the Chargers' 24-yard line. The Bolts defense then limited Denver to a 31-yard field goal that increased the Broncos' lead back to 14 points, 17-3, with 5:32 in the half.

Beginning at his own 23-yard line with 52 seconds left in the half, Rivers hit a wide-open Mike Williams for a 52-yard reception, Williams' third 50-plus-yard and fifth 40-plus-yard reception of the season.

On Rivers' next pass, he floated a short pass to Ekeler that the running back ran in for a 30-yard touchdown.

It took the Chargers just three plays and 22 seconds to travel 77 yards on the drive. Badgley added the extra point to bring the Bolts within seven at 17-10.

To begin the fourth quarter, Ekeler caught an 11-yard pass, which was then followed by an 11-yard run by running back Melvin Gordon.

Two plays later, Rivers hit a wide-open Allen, who flipped into the end zone for a 36-yard touchdown with 12:18 to play in the contest.

On the Broncos' second play of their drive, Lock committed his first career turnover on a diving interception by linebacker Denzel Perryman, his first pick of the season.

Denver then took the lead, 20-17, with a 52-yarder by McManus, with 4:31 remaining on the game clock.

With fourth and inches, Lynn elected to go for a game-tying field goal, and Badgley rewarded his coach's confidence with a perfect game-tying 46-yard field goal with 14 seconds left in regulation.

On the Broncos' first play after the kickoff, the Chargers committed defensive pass interference on a deep ball, which led to a game-winning 53-yard field goal with time expiring.

WEEK 15 RECAP - VIKINGS 39, CHARGERS 10

The Chargers lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 39-10, Sunday at home.

The Vikings opened the scoring with a touchdown on the first drive, a 1-yard pass from Kirk Cousins to tight end Irv Smith Jr. After Dan Bailey missed the extra point, the Vikings led 6-0 with 9:10 left in the first quarter.

On the ensuing Bolts drive, Philip Rivers found Mike Williams twice for 58 total yards, leading to a successful 41-yard field goal by Michael Badgley.

The Chargers then forced a punt, taking over at their own 4-yard line, but Melvin Gordon fumbled on the second offensive play of the series. The Vikings recovered the fumble on the Bolts' 11, but the Chargers held them to a field-goal attempt. To begin the second quarter, Bailey converted the 26-yarder to bring the Vikings' advantage to 9-3.

The Bolts responded with a ten-play, 75-yard drive that culminated in a 2-yard touchdown lob from Rivers to Williams.

On third-and-seven on L.A.'s 26, Chargers safety Jaylen Watkins broke up a pass from Cousins to Smith in the end zone to prevent a touchdown. Bailey then converted a 44-yard field goal to give the Vikings back the lead, 12-10, with 4:17 remaining in the second quarter.

The Bolts advanced to the Vikings' 26 before Danielle Hunter strip-sacked Rivers and Ifeadi Odenigbo picked up the ball and ran it 56 yards into the end zone. Bailey's extra point made it a 19-10 Vikings lead.

On the first play of the second half, Gordon fumbled after catching a short pass, with Hunter recovering for the Vikings. The L.A. defense limited Minnesota to three points on the series, however, on a successful 38-yarder by Bailey. The Vikings led 22-10 with 12:37 left in the third quarter.

Directly after a 46-yard pass from Cousins to wide receiver Stefan Diggs, running back Mike Boone rushed up the middle for an 8-yard touchdown. Bailey's extra point handed the Vikings a 32-10 advantage with 10:25 left in the contest.

On the first play of the Chargers' drive, Henry fumbled after catching a Rivers pass, and the Vikings recovered. After the Bolts' fifth turnover of the game, it took the Vikings three plays to score again, Boone's second touchdown of the game, a 2-yard run. Minnesota now led, 39-10, with 8:45 to play.

In the loss, wide receiver Keenan Allen eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark on the season, his third-straight year doing so. He led the Bolts in receiving on the day with 99 yards on nine receptions.

Rivers also reached a milestone, recording his seventh consecutive season of at least 4,000 yards passing, accumulating 307 yards passing and a touchdown while throwing three interceptions and losing a fumble.

WEEK 16 RECAP - RAIDERS 24, CHARGERS 17

The Chargers lost to the Raiders, 24-17, in their home finale despite two touchdowns from running back Melvin Gordon.

After the Chargers went three-and-out on their opening drive, the Raiders struck first on a 56-yard touchdown pass from Derek Carr to wide receiver Hunter Renfrow. After Daniel Carlson's extra point, Oakland led 7-0 with 10:57 remaining in the first quarter.

In the final minute of the quarter, the Bolts recorded their first first down of the game on a five-yard run to the right by running back Austin Ekeler.

Ingram recorded another sack on the Raiders' next series, giving him 1.5 for the game and 49.0 in his career.

On the next Oakland possession, defensive end Joey Bosa tallied the Bolts' third sack of the game with 6:05 to play in the half, forcing a punt.

With 1:57 left in the half, Gordon capped an eight-play, 78-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown run.

The Raiders stormed back with an 11-play, 75-yard drive that took just 1:46 and culminated in a 3-yard Carr touchdown scramble. Carlson's PAT allowed Oakland to reclaim a seven-point lead, 14-7.

To begin the second half, the Raiders put together a long scoring drive. The 75-yard series took 8:49 off the clock and gave the Silver and Black a 21-7 lead. DeAndre Washington scored the touchdown on a 5-yard rush to the left.

On fourth and two at the Raiders' 46-yard-line, the Bolts went for it, picking up 10 yards on a sweep to Gordon. Two plays later, Rivers found Keenan Allen for an 18-yard play that advanced the Chargers to the Oakland 1.

Gordon scored his second TD of the game on the next play, and Badgley followed with an extra point.

That cut the deficit back to seven points, 21-14, with 1:04 remaining in the third quarter.

The drive spanned 10 plays, 83 yards and 5:07.

On the Raiders' next series, Carlson made it a two-possession game by drilling a 48-yard field goal with 8:33 left in the contest.

Los Angeles crept within a touchdown, 24-17, after Badgley converted a 27-yarder with 1:29 in the game.

Chargers kicker Ty Long's ended kick attempt was recovered by the Raiders, who won the game with a 13-yard run by Washington.

WEEK 17 RECAP - CHIEFS 31, CHARGERS 21

The Chargers lost to the Kansas City Chiefs, 31-21, in the Bolts' final game of the season despite Mike Williams eclipsing 1,000 yards receiving on the season and Keenan Allen setting a Chargers single-season reception record.

After the Chiefs kicked off to start the game, Kansas City registered two tackles for loss on the Chargers' seven-play drive, causing the Chargers to punt.

In the Chiefs' first drive of the game ended with a third down tackle by linebacker Drue Tranquill, causing the Chiefs to go for a 40-yard field goal attempt by kicker Harrison Butker. The kick was converted successfully, putting the Chiefs up 3-0.

On the Bolts' ensuing drive, two critical catches by wide receiver Mike Williams helped bring the Bolts to the Chiefs' 12-yard line on third-and-10. Quarterback Philip Rivers then found Keenan Allen in the far left corner of the end zone for a Chargers touchdown. After kicker Michael Badgley converted the extra point, the Chargers found themselves leading 7-3. The touchdown catch was the 34th of Allen's career, tied for 10th in team history with Malcolm Floyd.

The Chiefs would take advantage of big plays, as Mahomes found Mecole Hardman for a 30-yard pass, then connected with Demarcus Robinson for a 24-yard touchdown pass on the very next play. Butker made the extra point and Kansas City would take a 10-7 lead.

In the first play of the second half, Mahomes would look for Tyreek Hill on a short right pass, only to be intercepted by Chargers cornerback Michael Davis, who would evade multiple tackles after the catch bringing the Chargers to the Chiefs' 21-yard line.

Two plays later, running back Melvin Gordon would secure a 5-yard rushing touchdown, and after Badgley made another extra point, the Chargers regained the lead, 14-10.

The Chargers' lead would be short-lived after Mecole Hardman completed a 104-yard kick return touchdown. After the extra point, the Chiefs took back the lead, 17-14.

After a Chargers punt, Damien Williams shook off multiple Bolts for an 84-yard rushing touchdown, and after a successful extra point, the Chiefs extended their lead to 24-14.

Head Coach Anthony Lynn elected to go for it on fourth down for the third time, keeping a drive alive that ended with an 8-yard short pass to tight end Hunter Henry for a touchdown. Mahomes and the Chiefs bounced back on the next drive with the final touchdown.

Mike Williams would reach the 1,000-yard receiving plateau. Williams joins Allen as the first duo of Chargers to reach that mark since 2009. Ekeler would fall seven yards short of the 1,000-yard receiving mark.

Allen also had multiple milestones of his own. He reached 104 catches on the season, the most single-season receptions by a Charger in franchise history.

2018 AFC Wild Card Playoffs

Los Angeles Chargers 23, Baltimore Ravens 17
Sunday, Jan. 6, 2019 - M&T Bank Stadium (Baltimore, MD)

The Threees and D. That's what the Los Angeles Chargers used to defeat the Baltimore Ravens 23-17 in Sunday's AFC Wild Card Round from M&T Bank Stadium. Rookie kicker Michael Badgley converted on five field goals, while Los Angeles' defense forced two turnovers, sacked quarterback Lamar Jackson seven times and held Baltimore to 229 yards of total offense -- the fewest allowed in postseason team history. Badgley set a single-game postseason team record for made field goals and points. Chargers Defensive Coordinator Gus Bradley featured seven defensive backs on the field for much of the game. Later in the quarter, the rookie kicker converted from 53 yards out to increase the Chargers' lead to 6-0. Badgley added his third field goal in the second quarter, a 40-yarder off a Phillips interception of Jackson. His fourth was a 34-yarder as time expired in the second quarter to put Los Angeles up 12-0 at halftime.

2013 AFC Divisional Playoffs
Denver Broncos 24, San Diego Chargers 17
Sunday, Jan. 12, 2014 - Sports Authority Field (Denver, CO)

The Chargers' storbybook season came to an end on Jan. 12 in the AFC Divisional Playoffs at Denver's Sports Authority Field as the Broncos defeated the Bolts, 24-17, to eliminate San Diego from the AFC Playoffs. Weather was a factor early in the game as winds at kickoff were blowing across the field at 17 mph with gusts up to 27 mph. Despite the unfavorable conditions, the Chargers didn't go down without a fight, rallying from a 17-point deficit to get within seven points late in the fourth quarter. Down 24-7 with 8:12 left in the fourth quarter, the Chargers scored a touchdown, recovered an onside kick and kicked a field goal to get within seven points at 24-17. That would be as close as the Chargers would get, however, as Denver took possession with 3:53 remaining in the game and converted two first downs, including a 3rd-and-17, to run out the clock and advance to the AFC Championship Game.

2013 AFC Wild Card Playoffs
San Diego Chargers 27, Cincinnati Bengals 10
Sunday, Jan. 5, 2014 - Paul Brown Stadium (Cincinnati, OH)

The Chargers defeated the Cincinnati Bengals, 27-10, in the AFC Wild Card Playoffs at Paul Brown Stadium for their first post-season victory since Jan. 2009. It was the Chargers' first-ever playoff win over the Bengals. In earning the victory, the Chargers outperformed the Bengals in two key areas. The Bolts racked up a season-high four takeaways with two interceptions and two fumble recoveries, and they rushed for a season-high 196 yards. Cincinnati led at the half, 10-7, but the Chargers completely dominated the game on defense in the second half, pitching a shutout as the Bolts outscored the Bengals 20-0. Cincinnati's first six drives of the second half ended with a punt after a third-down sack, a fumble, two interceptions and two drives that ended on downs. A seventh ended with the clock reaching 0:00. And in addition to the four takeaways, the Chargers' defense recorded three sacks, five tackles for loss and eight passes defensed.

GENERAL INFORMATION

2009 AFC Divisional Playoffs
New York Jets 17, San Diego Chargers 14
Sunday, Jan. 17, 2010 - Qualcomm Stadium (San Diego, CA)

The No. 5 seed New York Jets upset No. 2 seed Chargers. San Diego's defense opened game with four straight three-and-outs, not allowing Jets first down until 8:11 remained in second quarter. Stephen Cooper set up Chargers' first touchdown of game, forcing three-and-out with four-yard tackle for loss on 3rd-and-4. On ensuing drive, Kris Wilson caught 13-yard touchdown pass for 7:0 lead. Antonio Gates helped set up TD with brilliant one-handed 23-yard reception to 16. Quentin Jammer had solid afternoon, breaking up third-down pass in second quarter to force punt and intercepting another in third quarter. Paul Oliver provided pressure and hit on Jets' quarterback Mark Sanchez on interception and Steve Gregory, in coverage, tipped pass that Jammer picked off. Jacob Hester got his hand on late fourth-quarter punt by Jets, contributing to just 26-yard punt. On ensuing possession, Philip Rivers scored TD on one-yard sneak with 2:20 left. Vincent Jackson, who had game-high 111 yards receiving, set up Rivers TD with 12-yard catch to one on 3rd-and-7.

2008 AFC Divisional Playoffs
Pittsburgh Steelers 35, San Diego Chargers 24
Sunday, Jan. 11, 2009 - Heinz Field (Pittsburgh, PA)

The Chargers' run through AFC Playoffs came to abrupt end in Pittsburgh as Steelers dealt Chargers 35-24 setback on cold and snowy day in Steel City. Chargers staked out to early lead on long touchdown catch by Vincent Jackson and led or were tied for most of first half, but game's momentum changed before and right after halftime. Down 10-7, Pittsburgh drove 66 yards for touchdown just before halftime, giving them their first lead of night at 14-10. Steelers got ball first coming out of locker room and drove 77 yards for another score that extended lead to 21-10. Darren Sproles' 63-yard kickoff return gave ball to Chargers at Pittsburgh's 23-yard line, but Philip Rivers' first-down pass was tipped and intercepted by Steelers. Though replays showed ball appeared to hit ground, play without instant replay challenge and Pittsburgh maintained possession. Chargers' defense held and forced punt, but punt inadvertently hit unknowing Eric Weddle and Steelers recovered and took over at Chargers' 23. Again Chargers defense would hold, stopping Pittsburgh on downs at one, but with Bolts offense unable to get out of shadow of its own goal line, Steelers got ball again in San Diego territory and 49 yards later, Steelers scored to take 28-10 lead. San Diego managed pair of late touchdowns, including 62-yarder by Sproles, who finished game with 274 all-purpose yards, but Pittsburgh held Bolts at bay and held on for win.

2008 AFC Wild Card Playoffs
San Diego Chargers 23, Indianapolis Colts 17 (OT)
Saturday, Jan. 3, 2009 - Qualcomm Stadium (San Diego, CA)

The San Diego Chargers' miracle season of 2008 stayed alive as Bolts rallied from 17-14 fourth quarter deficit behind outstanding defensive effort and legs of Darren Sproles to defeat Indianapolis Colts, 23-17, in overtime in Saturday night home playoff game at Qualcomm Stadium. After trailing 7-0 and 10-7, Chargers rallied and led 14-10 at half. In third quarter, Colts caught Chargers off-guard while substituting defenders and made them pay with 72-yard TD pass from Peyton Manning to Reggie Wayne. San Diego's defense settled down though and did not allow Colts any more points. Key defensive stand late in fourth quarter, fueled by Tim Dobbins' sack of Manning at Colts' one-yard line, allowed offense time for one final drive in regulation. Philip Rivers drove Bolts to Colts' eight-yard line and Nate Kaeding's field goal from 26 yards out tied game with 31 seconds left. San Diego won coin toss in overtime and Rivers led offense on 11-play, 75-yard march that ended with 22-yard touchdown run by Sproles to win game in overtime. Sproles finished night with 328 all-purpose yards, third-most ever by player in NFL Playoff game. Dobbins' sack that enabled Bolts to begin comeback was first of his career.

2007 AFC Championship Game
New England Patriots 21, San Diego Chargers 12
Sunday, Jan. 20, 2008 - Gillette Stadium (Foxborough, MA)

Despite playing with torn ACL in his right knee, Philip Rivers started and played entire game. Contest was played in subfreezing weather with kickoff temperature of 23 degrees and wind-chill factor of nine inside. Chargers were doomed by their inability to score touchdowns in red zone, instead settling for four Nate Kaeding field goals. NFL rushing champion LaDainian Tomlinson, who was suffering from strained MCL in his left knee, tried to go, but was unable to complete game. Chargers struck first following Tom Brady interception. Chargers were also hurt by turnovers as second-quarter interception thrown by Rivers resulted in TD and 14-6 lead for Pats. Chargers made another run at Patriots in third quarter, intercepting Brady on opening drive. It would lead to one of game's most critical plays. After turnover, Chargers drove to New England's four, but on 3rd-and-1, Michael Turner was tackled for two-yard loss by former Bolts Junior Seau and Chargers had to settle for another field goal. New England made Chargers pay three series later as Wes Welker caught six-yard pass from Brady and Patriots extended their lead to 21-12. After San Diego punt, New England took ball with 9:13 to play in fourth quarter and killed entire clock, overcoming 2nd-and-18 early in drive. With win, Patriots advanced to Super Bowl XLIII to face New York Giants.

2007 AFC Divisional Playoffs
San Diego Chargers 28, Indianapolis Colts 24
Sunday, Jan. 13, 2008 - RCA Dome (Indianapolis, IN)

The Chargers advanced to AFC Championship game in New England with 28-24 win in final-ever game at RCA Dome. Contest included multiple lead changes that were sparked by handful of reserves who were forced into action after key starters were sidelined with injuries. Down 7-0, Philip Rivers threw interception and Colts drove to Chargers' 17-yard line, but Antonio Cromartie forced fumble by Marvin Harrison to end threat. Chargers capitalized, tying game on touchdown pass from Rivers to Vincent Jackson. Late in second quarter, Cromartie snagged his second takeaway when slightly overthrown Peyton Manning pass went off Reggie Wayne's fingertips. Cromartie returned interception 89 yards for what appeared to be go-ahead score, but holding call during return brought play back to midfield and teams went to locker room with Indy up 10-7. Chargers scored on their opening possession of second half and took their first lead at 14-10. Indianapolis then drove to Chargers' four, but rookie safety Eric Weddle intercepted pass intended for Kenton Keith. On last play of third quarter, Rivers tossed his third touchdown pass of day, short screen that Darren Sproles took 56 yards to house, but euphoria of 21-17 lead was temporarily dampened as Rivers left game with sprained right knee suffered on play. With Rivers out, LaDainian Tomlinson also battling sore knee and Colts retaking lead 24-21, backups Billy Volek and Michael Turner were called on to carry load. And they delivered with Volek giving Chargers lead one final time on one-yard quarterback sneak with 4:54 remaining. Colts had two late tries to reclaim lead, but Bolts defense buckled down with two stops on downs, including one at Chargers' seven yard line and another that started far down field thanks to 66-yard punt by Mike Scifres as Chargers held on for victory.

2007 AFC Wild Card Playoffs
San Diego Chargers 17, Tennessee Titans 6
Sunday, Jan. 6, 2008 - Qualcomm Stadium (San Diego, CA)

The Chargers won their first playoff game since 1995 on cool day with intermittent rain showers before capacity crowd at Qualcomm Stadium. Bolts overcame slow start and 6-0 deficit at half to rally and outscore Titans 17-0 in third and fourth quarters to win game, 17-6. Chris Chambers and Vincent Jackson became first pair of Chargers to each record more than 100 yards receiving in playoff game since 1983 as Chambers went for 121, while Jackson tallied career-high 114, including touchdown catch that proved to be eventual game winner. Nate Kaeding field goal to open third quarter made score 6-3 and after defensive stop, Philip Rivers tossed 25-yard TD pass to Jackson for 10-6 lead. Tennessee drove deep into San Diego territory on their next drive, but Rob Bironas pushed 38-yard field goal wide to left and Chargers made them pay. Rivers engineered 12-play, 72-yard drive and LaDainian Tomlinson scored from one yard out on fourth-and-one play to put game away. Chambers 39-yard catch on 3rd-and-10 play set up score. Late in game Tennessee was stymied in its comeback effort by three-and-out and Drayton Florence interception. Titans finished their year 10-7, while Chargers advanced to face Indianapolis in AFC Divisional Playoff round.

2006 AFC Divisional Playoffs
New England Patriots 24, San Diego Chargers 21
Sunday, Jan. 14, 2007 - Qualcomm Stadium (San Diego, CA)

The Chargers' record-breaking season came to end in heart-breaking fashion when New England Patriots overcame eight point deficit in fourth quarter to defeat Chargers, 24-21, in AFC Divisional Playoff game before record crowd of 68,810 in San Diego. After sluggish start by both teams, San Diego took 14-3 lead in second quarter on touchdown runs by LaDainian Tomlinson and Michael Turner, but Bolts defense gave up late score and Patriots trailed only 14-10 at half. New England added field goal in third quarter to climb within point, but Chargers drove 83 yards in nine plays early in fourth and took 21-13 lead when Tomlinson scored from three yards out. Game appeared to be all but over when Marlon McCree intercepted Tom Brady on following drive, but Patriots' Troy Brown stripped McCree during runback and Patriots recovered. Five plays later, Richie Caldwell caught four-yard touchdown pass and Pats tied it up on successful two-point conversion. Chargers got ball back with chance to reclaim lead but instead went three-and-out and New England took 24-21 lead on 31-yard field goal with 1:10 left in quarter. Chargers rallied one last time, but Nate Kaeding's 54-yard field goal attempt with just few seconds left came up short and Patriots escaped with win.

2004 AFC Wild Card Playoffs
New York Jets 20, San Diego Chargers 17 (OT)
Saturday, Jan. 8, 2005 - Qualcomm Stadium (San Diego, CA)

The Chargers' 2004 postseason came to early end as in 20-17 overtime loss to New York Jets in Wild Card Playoff Game at Qualcomm Stadium. Sellout crowd of 67,536 braved elements as Drew Brees led furious fourth quarter comeback during which Chargers outscored New York 10-0 to send game into overtime. Given new life by roughing-the-passer penalty on what appeared to be San Diego's last play of game, Brees found Antonio Gates in end zone for one-yard touchdown pass with 11 seconds left to send game to extra period. It was only second overtime playoff game in team history. Both teams traded possessions in extra period before Nate Kaeding's game-winning attempt from 40 yards sailed wide right, opening door for New York to drive down and kick game winner with five seconds left in overtime. Keenan McCardell scored game's first touchdown on 26-yard catch. He was initially ruled out of bounds, but San Diego challenged call and ruling was reversed. It was McCardell's sixth-career touchdown catch in postseason. Brees opened game by completing his first eight passes and on McCardell touchdown drive, he was 5 of 7 for 61 yards and touchdowns. He finished night 31 of 42 (738), setting team playoff record for completion percentage.

Super Bowl XXIX
San Francisco 49ers 49, San Diego Chargers 26
 Sunday, Jan. 29, 1995 - Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

The Chargers were no match for high-powered San Francisco offense as 49ers scored early and often en route to handing San Diego 49-26 defeat. Steve Young passed for four first-half touchdowns as 49ers jumped out to 28-10 lead at halftime. barrage continued in second half and Young finished night with 325 yards and six touchdown passes. Chargers' offense was forced to play catch-up most of game, and as result, quarterback Stan Humphries passed 49 times, completing 24 for 275 yards with one touchdown, but two interceptions proved costly. Natrone Means became youngest player in Super Bowl history to score touchdown when 22-year-old dived over 49ers' defense for a one-yard scoring plunge in first quarter. Chargers rookie Andre Coleman tied Super Bowl record for longest kickoff return when he went 98 yards for touchdown in third quarter. Following kickoff return, Humphries passed to Mark Seay for first two-point conversion in Super Bowl history. Later, after 30-yard Humphries to Tony Martin touchdown pass late in fourth quarter, Humphries completed his second two-point conversion of game, this time to Alford Pupu. Linebackers Dennis Gibson and Junior Seau led Chargers with 11 tackles apiece, while Seau added sack. Raylece Johnson passed Chargers with two sacks.

1994 AFC Championship Game

San Diego Chargers 17, Pittsburgh Steelers 13

Sunday, Jan. 15, 1995 - Three Rivers Stadium (Pittsburgh, PA)

The Chargers advanced to Super Bowl for first time in franchise history with stunning 17-13 upset victory over heavily-favored Pittsburgh Steelers in Three Rivers Stadium. San Diego started game slowly and Pittsburgh led Bolts 10-3 at end of first half, while outgaining San Diego in total yardage, 229 to 46. Steelers opened second half with field goal to extend lead to 13-3. Later in quarter, Stan Humphries connected with Al Pupunu on 43-yard touchdown strike to close gap to 13-10. Score remained as such until late in fourth quarter when Humphries threw another 43-yard touchdown pass, this one to Tony Martin, and Bolts claimed their first lead of game at 17-13. Pittsburgh took ensuing kickoff and drove to Chargers' nine-yard line with two minutes left in game, but San Diego's defense stopped Steelers on downs, including dramatic pass defended on fourth down by linebacker Dennis Gibson that sealed victory and silenced Three Rivers crowd.

1994 AFC Divisional Playoffs

San Diego Chargers 22, Miami Dolphins 21

Sunday, Jan. 8, 1995 - Jack Murphy Stadium (San Diego, CA)

The Chargers advanced to AFC Championship Game with 22-21 victory over Miami Dolphins in front of San Diego-record home crowd of 63,381 fans. Win moved Chargers to AFC title round for only third time in team history and first time since 1982. Dan Marino threw three first-half touchdown passes and Dolphins led 21-6 at half. San Diego's offense came alive and dominated third quarter. Chargers took opening drive of second half and marched 15 plays to Dolphins' one-yard line before losing ball on downs. But on Miami's first play from scrimmage, Reuben Davis stopped

Bernie Parmalee in end zone for safety to make score 21-8. San Diego took ensuing kick and Natrene Means finished 54-yard drive with 24-yard scoring run, breaking several tackles along way and Dolphin lead was trimmed to 21-15. Teams traded possessions through fourth quarter before Stan Humphries hit Mark Seay for what would prove to be game-winning touchdown. But before that could happen, Marino moved Dolphins to San Diego's 30-yard line with 35 seconds left and positioned Pete Stoyanovich for 48-yard field goal attempt, but kick sailed wide right. San Diego dominated game's time of possession, controlling ball 39:20 compared to Miami's 20:40. Another factor was San Diego's running game, which rolled up 202 of team's 466 total yards. Means rushed for personal best 139 yards and Humphries completed 20 of 26 attempts in second half.

GENERAL INFORMATION

1992 AFC Divisional Playoffs

Miami Dolphins 31, San Diego Chargers 0

Sunday, Jan. 10, 1993 - Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

The Chargers history-making season ended with 31-0 loss to Miami Dolphins in Joe Robbie Stadium. Intermittent downs and soggy field slowed both teams early as each squad was forced to punt on their first four series. Second quarter proved disastrous for San Diego. Stan Humphries was intercepted three times with each leading to Dolphins touchdown and 21-0 halftime lead for Miami. San Diego also suffered fumble snap on punt attempt in period. Chargers could not get on track in second half either, as Miami chalked up 10 more points and forced two more San Diego turnovers. Chargers' defense was on field most of game (37:08). Junior Seau recorded personal-best 19 tackles. Dolphins special teams put Chargers in poor field position on several occasions, including punts, which pinned San Diego's offense back on its own five, six, four and 15-yard lines.

1992 AFC Wild Card Playoffs

San Diego Chargers 17, Kansas City Chiefs 0

Saturday, Jan. 2, 1993 - Jack Murphy Stadium (San Diego, CA)

San Diego defeated Kansas City Chiefs, 17-0, in AFC Wild Card playoffs in San Diego's Jack Murphy Stadium. It marked first shutout in history of Wild Card games. It was also first shutout by Chargers over Kansas City and first time Chiefs were shut out in non-strike game since 1985. Two defensive powerhouses battled to scoreless first half. Chargers gained 130 total yards to Chiefs' 122 yards in half, but were sacked four times for 47 yards in losses. San Diego scored first when Marion Butts dashed up middle career-long 54 yards for touchdown. On Chiefs first play of their next possession, tipped pass by Blaise Winters was intercepted by Leslie O'Neal to set up field goal. Up 10-0 in fourth quarter, Chargers put together 11-play, 91-yard drive and culminated series with five-yard scoring plunge by Steve Hendrickson. Chargers gained 192 yards on ground, their second-most productive effort of season. Defense harassed Chiefs passing game causing two interceptions and sacking Dave Krieg seven times to tie season high. Burt Grossman had two-and-a-half sacks and O'Neal and Shawn Lee each had two.

1982 AFC Divisional Playoffs
Miami Dolphins 34, San Diego Chargers 13
Sunday, Jan. 16, 1983 - Orange Bowl (Miami, FL)

San Diego and Miami met for second-straight year in playoffs with Dolphins turning outcome around, winning 34-13. Game matched San Diego, with league's top offense averaging 450.4 yards game, versus Miami and NFL's top defense, allowing 256.9 yards game. Miami took 24-0 lead in second quarter as San Diego did year before in first quarter. San Diego tightened score on 28-yard touchdown pass from Dan Fouts to Charlie Joiner and one-yard touchdown run by Chuck Muncie, but it wasn't enough as Dolphins marched on to victory.

1982 AFC Wild Card Playoffs
San Diego Chargers 31, Pittsburgh Steelers 28
Sunday, Jan. 9, 1983 - Three Rivers Stadium (Pittsburgh, PA)

The Chargers, fifth-seeded AFC team in Super Bowl Tournament, played opening round of playoffs on road for first time, facing AFC's fourth-seeded team, Pittsburgh. After falling behind 14-3 in first quarter, Chargers took 17-14 lead at halftime on 18-yard James Brooks touchdown run and 10-yard scoring pass from Dan Fouts to Eric Sievers. With 14:10 remaining in game, Fouts threw eight-yard touchdown strike on fourth down to Kellen Winslow to move San Diego within four points at 28-24. And with 3:59 left to play, San Diego mounted its game-winning drive and Fouts hit Winslow on screen pass that he carried 12 yards for touchdown and victory. Workhorse of Chargers' offense was Chuck Muncie, who gained 126 yards on 25 attempts. It was Muncie's third-straight 100 yard performance and second-straight against league's number one defense. Fouts threw for 333 yards against Steelers, his fifth career 300-yard effort in playoffs.

GENERAL INFORMATION

1981 AFC Championship Game
Cincinnati Bengals 27, San Diego Chargers 7

Sunday, Jan. 10, 1982 - Riverfront Stadium (Cincinnati, OH)

The Chargers lost to Cincinnati in AFC Championship game on coldest day in NFL history. Temperature in Cincinnati dipped to nine-degrees-below-zero with wind chill factor measuring 59-below zero. Cincinnati won coin toss and elected to kick off, forcing San Diego to go into wind in first quarter. Bengals moved ahead 10-0 before teams switched directions in second period and Chargers scored on their first possession on 33-yard screen pass from Dan Fouts to Kellen Winslow and Cincinnati led 17-7 at halftime. Chargers were statistical leaders in first half, but three turnovers inside Bengals' 33-yard line proved costly. San Diego turned ball over to start third quarter leading to another Cincinnati score, and three-yard touchdown pass from Ken Anderson to Don Bass culminated 8:08 drive in final period to clinch Bengals victory. Wes Chandler led all receivers with six catches for 79 yards and Chuck Muncie led all rushers with 23 carries and 94 yards.

1981 AFC Divisional Playoffs
San Diego Chargers 41, Miami Dolphins 38 (OT)

Saturday, Jan. 2, 1982 - Orange Bowl (Miami, FL)

The Chargers traveled to Miami's Orange Bowl to face AFC East Division champion Miami and won epic struggle, 41-38, on 29-yard Rolfe Benirschke field goal at 13:52 mark of first overtime period. San Diego jumped out to early 24-0 lead, only to have Dolphins close gap under direction of substitute quarterback Don Strock. Score was 24-17 at halftime and in second half Dolphins knotted score at 24 and again at 31 before assuming their first lead, 38-31, on 12-yard run by Tony Nathan. But late in fourth quarter after Dolphin turnover, Dan Fouts threw eighty-two TD pass to James Brooks with 58 seconds left in regulation to tie game, 38-38. With four seconds left Dolphins had chance to win it but Miami's 43-yard field goal try was blocked by Kellen Winslow, sending game into overtime. In OT Benirschke missed 27-yard attempt and Uwe Von Schamann had another attempt blocked, this time by Leroy Jones. Ultimately, Chargers' game-winning drive was highlighted by receptions of 20 and 29 yards by Wes Chandler and Charlie Joiner, respectively. Fouts set division playoff passing records for completions, attempts and yards, as did Winslow with 13 catches. Chandler had 56-yard punt return for touchdown for Chargers, first-ever punt return for touchdown in AFC divisional playoff game. Chargers broke total 15 divisional playoff team records and tied two others.

1980 AFC Championship Game
Oakland Raiders 34, San Diego Chargers 27
Sunday, Jan. 11, 1981 - Jack Murphy Stadium (San Diego, CA)

Oakland took 28-7 lead in first half and then held off late San Diego bid to beat Chargers for American Football Conference championship. On third play from scrimmage, Raiders quarterback Jim Plunkett had pass bounce off hands of his intended receiver Kenny King and into grasp of Raymond Chester, who took pass in for 65-yard score. San Diego's initial drive was halted when John Jefferson slipped on wet turf and Dan Fouts' pass zipped into hands of defender Lester Hayes. Chargers tied score minutes later on 48-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner but Oakland retaliated with 76-yard scoring drive, aided by Plunkett pass to Cliff Branch for 48 yards and pass interference penalty. By end of first quarter, Oakland led 21-7, and two quarterbacks had combined for 314 yards passing. Oakland later scored on three-yard run by Mark Van Eeghen, making score 28-7. San Diego scored near end of first half on eight-yard pass from Fouts to Joiner. In third quarter, Rolf Benirschke kicked field goal and Chuck Muncie scored from six yards to narrow Raiders' lead to 28-24. Oakland then marched 68 and 37 yards to set up two Chris Bahr field goals while running 10:38 off clock. Trailing 34-24 Chargers drove for field goal from Benirschke that left them one touchdown behind with 6:52 to play, but Oakland controlled ball for final 6:52 and held on for victory.

1980 AFC Divisional Playoffs
San Diego Chargers 20, Buffalo Bills 14
Saturday, Jan. 3, 1981 - San Diego Stadium (San Diego, CA)

Quarterback Dan Fouts connected with Ron Smith on 50-yard touchdown pass with 2:08 remaining in fourth quarter for game-winning score. Fouts completed pass on 3rd-and-10 with Chargers trailing 14-13. With win Chargers advanced to American Football Conference Championship Game against Oakland. Fouts completed 22 of 37 passes for 314 yards and two touchdowns, 20th 300-yard game of his career. San Diego's defense held Buffalo to 97 yards rushing. 50-yard, game-winning touchdown catch was longest of Smith's career. Down 14-3 at half, momentum changed in third quarter with Chargers going 70 yards in four plays for touchdown on first series. Chuck Muncie ran for 18 yards, then Charlie Joiner caught 45-yard pass and two plays later, Joiner capped off drive with nine-yard scoring reception, making score 14-10. Down 14-13 after field goal, Chargers started their final drive at Buffalo 31-yard line with 3:59 to play. Passes to Mike Thomas and John Jefferson put ball at midfield, setting stage for Fouts' game-winner to Smith.

1964 AFL Championship Game
Buffalo Bills 20, San Diego Chargers 7
 Sunday, Dec. 26, 1964 - War Memorial Stadium (Buffalo, NY)

Lou Saban sent his Buffalo Bills out for post-Christmas gift after three lean years and one near miss in American Football League. Bills found what they were looking for and wrapped up defending champion San Diego Chargers, 20-7, for AFL Championship before 40,242 howling hometown fans. Chargers started out as if they meant to repeat their 51-10 conquest of Boston Patriots in 1963 title game. They boomed from their own 20 in four plays with payoff 26-yard strike from retiring quarterback Tobin Rote to tight end Dave Kocourek. Keith Lincoln's PAT at 2:16 of first period was last time San Diego got on scoreboard. Disaster soon struck visitors when Lincoln was forced out of action with broken rib on "the tackle heard around world" by Buffalo linebacker Mike Stratton. Coupled with absence of lance Alworth, injury to Lincoln left Chargers offense impotent. Buffalo forged to 13-7 halftime lead on field goals from 12 and 17 yards by rookie ace Pete Gogolak and fourth-year tuckdown run by halfback Wray Carlton. Bills tallied again in final quarter on sneak by quarterback Jack Kemp.

1963 AFL Championship Game
San Diego Chargers 51, Boston Patriots 10
 Sunday, Jan. 5, 1964 - Balboa Stadium (San Diego, CA)

Before 30,127 in Balboa Stadium and 30 million more on national television, Keith Lincoln ran, caught and passed like no other athlete ever has in professional title match as Californians crumpled Boston Patriots, 51-10. Chargers' offense produced 610 yards. Lincoln accounted for 349 of them in virtuoso performance that included touchdown sprint of 67 yards, touchdown reception of 25 yards, 206 yards gained rushing, 123 gained pass receiving and 20 gained passing. Lincoln's heroics were mightily abated by others on San Diego team that played with brilliance. It was powerhouse show by team that had failed in two previous tries to win AFL title. But Patriots, with league's proudest defensive outfit, were no match for San Diegans. Splendidly prepared by Sid Gilman to combat Boston's almost constantly rushing linebackers, Chargers scored on their fourth scrimmage play, as well as their sixth and 10th. Patriots' ground attack suffered after fullback Larry Garron incurred head injury midway through second period. Garron later returned to game but remained in only briefly.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

GENERAL INFORMATION

1961 AFL Championship Game Houston Oilers 10, San Diego Chargers 3 Sunday, Dec. 24, 1961 - Balboa Stadium (San Diego, CA)

The 1961 American Football League Championship game in San Diego's Balboa Stadium was carbon copy of previous season's title game in that Houston Oilers beat San Diego Chargers 10-3. On Jan. 1, 1961, Oilers edged Chargers, 24-16, in Houston's Jeppesen Stadium. Live audience of 29,556 fans and nationwide television audience estimated in vicinity of 40 million viewers witnessed monument to defensive football at its best. Crowd at stadium was limited because game was played on Christmas Eve and game was telecast into Los Angeles area and many San Diegans received LA's ABC affiliate, Channel 7. Oilers scored on 46-yard field goal by George Blanda midway through second quarter and added dinner, 35-yard touchdown pass by Blanda to Billy Cannon, late in third quarter. Chargers only scoring came on 12-yard field goal early in final period. Indication of evenness of ballgame is that both clubs had total net offense of 256 yards.

1960 AFL Championship Game Houston Oilers 24, Los Angeles Chargers 16 Sunday, Jan. 1, 1961 - Jeppesen Stadium (Houston, TX)

The American Football League's first championship game took place Jan. 1, 1961 between Eastern Division champion Houston Oilers and Western Division champion Los Angeles Chargers in Jeppesen Stadium, home of Eastern titlists. Outcome: Houston 24, Los Angeles 16. In 50 degree weather with 70 percent humidity due to week-long rains, Chargers took on Oilers before live crowd of 32,183 and television audience of approximately 45 million viewers. Ben Agajanian kicked field goals of 38 and 22 yards to give Chargers 6-0 first quarter lead. In second quarter, Houston's George Blanda hit Dave Smith on 17-yard touchdown pass, added conversion and kicked 18-yard field goal. Agajanian kicked 27-yard field goal with five seconds left in half to make score Houston 10, Los Angeles 9 at half. In third quarter, Blanda completed seven-yard touchdown pass to Bill Groman and kicked conversion. Chargers responded when Paul Lowe slanted over from two-yard line and with Agajanian's conversion score was Houston 17, Los Angeles 16, at end of three quarters. In fourth quarter, Blanda and Billy Cannon teamed up on 88-yard pass-run touchdown play to conclude scoring. Player of game honors went to Cannon, with Blanda and Lowe dead-locked vote behind. Lowe's total yardage on day was 271 yards compared to Cannon's 259. Inability of Chargers to take ball in for touchdowns early in game, settling for three first-half field goals on each occasion, and several bad breaks late in game proved to be difference.

CHRONOLOGY

Aug. 14 – The first meeting about the new proposed football league is held in Chicago with representatives of six teams, including Los Angeles entry headed by Barron Hilton.

Aug. 22 – Second meeting of proposed football league is held in Dallas with the announcement that the league will be known as the "American Football League" (AFL).

Oct. 14 – Frank Leahy, former Notre Dame football coach, is named general manager of the Los Angeles team.

Oct. 28 – General Courtney of Hollywood wins a trip to Mexico City and Acapulco for his efforts in submitting the name "Chargers" into the name-team contest. The organization likes the name, Chargers, because "Charge" is what fans yell at USC games in the Coliseum.

1960

Jan. 7 – Sid Gillman signs three-year contract as Chargers' first head coach.

March 20 – Chargers Owner Barron Hilton unveils the Chargers first uniforms at a cocktail party at his Santa Monica residence. The uniforms are blue and gold with a lightning bolt on the side of the helmets and trousers. Hilton chose the lightning bolts because he associates a "Charge" of lightning with a lightning bolt. He also likes the bolts that are on the helmets of the Air Force Academy football team but wants something slightly different. He has the "Charger Bolt" designed to be different and places them on the uniforms. QB Jack Kemp and T Ron Mix model the uniforms.

April 9-12 – A total of 207 candidates are reduced to three. The three candidates receive invites to training camp after a four-day tryout in Burbank, Calif.

July 1 – General Manager Frank Leahy resigns due to health issues.

July 8 – Chargers open their first training camp at Chapman College in Orange, Calif.

July 9 – Sid Gillman assumes dual roles of head coach and general manager.

CHARGERS RADIO NETWORK

As the Chargers' flagship English-language radio partner, iHeartMedia Los Angeles will again air all regular season and postseason Chargers games on ALT 98.7 – Los Angeles' New Alternative – complete with a two-hour pregame and one-hour postgame show.

Additionally, specially designated regular and postseason games will be simulcast on AM570 LA Sports as part of the partnership extension.

Throughout the regular and postseason, players, coaches and Chargers personalities will appear in regularly-scheduled segments Monday through Friday on AM570 LA Sports.

ALT 98.7 will also feature Chargers content during select throughout the year while Chargers/iHeartMedia Los Angeles experiential sweepstakes will be promoted across the iHeartMedia family of media.

MATT "MONEY"
SMITH

PLAY-BY-PLAY

Matt "Money" Smith enters his fourth season handling the play-by-play duties for the Chargers broadcast team. A fixture in Los Angeles sports for more than two decades, Smith is a co-host of the Petros & Money Show on AM 570. He is also a fantasy football analyst on the NFL Network's NFL Fantasy Live show and is regularly featured as part of NFL.com's coverage of the NFL Draft, the NFL Scouting Combine and the Super Bowl. Additionally, for the past eight years, Smith has handled play-by-play for Compass Media Network's coverage of NFL games, NCAA football and NCAA basketball and has also done television play-by-play for the Pac-12 Network and the NFL on Fox. From 2005-09, Smith hosted AM 570's Los Angeles Lakers pregame, halftime and post-game shows, and he was part of the National Association of Broadcasters Hall of Fame morning program 'Kevin and Bean' on KROQ 106.7 FM in Los Angeles from 1995-2005.

DANIEL JEREMIAH

ANALYST

Jeremiah, a former NFL scout who spent a combined eight seasons with three NFL teams prior to joining the NFL Network in 2012, continues to partner with radio play-by-play announcer Matt "Money" Smith and sideline reporter Shannon Farren as the color analyst on ALT 98.7's Chargers game broadcasts. A 2000 graduate of Appalachian State, where he was a three-year starter at quarterback, Jeremiah began his NFL career as a personnel assistant with the Baltimore Ravens scouting department in 2003 and was promoted to area scout in 2005. Moving to the Cleveland Browns as a National Scout prior to the 2007 season, most recently he served as a West Coast scout for the Philadelphia Eagles from 2010-12. Currently a regular contributor on NFL.com and NFL Mobile, offering an Xs-and-Os look at players, teams and trends, the El Cajon, CA native also plays a vital role on various NFL Network programs such as NFL Total Access and Path to the Draft and is the co-host of the Move the Sticks Podcast with Bucky Brooks.

SHANNON FARREN

SIDELINE

Shannon Farren hosts The Gary and Shannon Show on KFI Monday thru Friday, 10a-2p. Before the show debuted in 2015, she spent 15 years reporting on news and sports in Sacramento, Seattle and Los Angeles. Shannon has won awards from the Radio and Television News Association of Southern California and the Associated Press including Best Sports Reporting, Best Spot News Coverage, Best Feature Reporting and Best Use of Sound. She can be seen on NBC4's Going Roggin. Last year was her third season working the sidelines for the Chargers.

CHARGERS EN ESPAÑOL

Que Buena 105.5/94.3 FM was announced as the new flagship Spanish-language radio broadcaster of the Chargers earlier this year. It is owned and operated by Estrella Media, and will broadcast all preseason, regular season and postseason Chargers games, including pre and postgame shows. Throughout training camp and the regular and postseason, players, coaches and Chargers personalities will appear in regularly scheduled segments.

ADRIAN GARCIA-MARQUEZ

PLAY-BY-PLAY

Garcia Marquez returns to the Chargers booth after serving as the team's Spanish-language play-by-play announcer in 2008. Like Pinto, he has been a fixture in the Southern California sports landscape for more than 20 years. The San Diego native began his career in baseball in 1999 as the host of the San Diego Padres Pregame Show for the team's Spanish radio flagship K1040am. Garcia Marquez spent six seasons as "La Voz de Los Lakers" on television where he won an Emmy Award for 'Live Sports Coverage', two NBA 'Best Live Call' Awards, and three Southern California Sports-Broadcaster Association Awards for best 'TV Play by Play.' He also serves as the principle play-by-play voice for FOX Deportes' coverage of the NFL and Premier Boxing Champions as well as MLB, College Football and Liga MX broadcasts. Garcia Marquez has also served as the play-by-play announcer for Super Bowl LIV and the World Series on five occasions.

FRANCISCO PINTO

ANALYST

A native of Concepcion, Chile, Pinto will lend his talents in the radio booth to serve as color analyst for the Chargers Spanish-language radio team. Pinto's long, illustrious career in television and radios spans over 20 years, and he is a popular on-air personality in Los Angeles. He won the 2012 and 2015 NBA Broadcasting Award for Best Live Call and a 2013 LA Area Emmy Award for Live Sports Coverage for the contest between the Lakers and Raptors on December 8 of that year. Prior to joining the Lakers broadcast team, Pinto spent 12 years with KMEX-TV, Univision's LA affiliate, where he was a sports anchor for seven years before switching to news and becoming a host on the station's morning newscast, Primera Edición. Pinto has covered many of the biggest sporting events in the world, including two World Cups (2002 and 2006) and several NBA Finals, Super Bowls, World Series and world title boxing matches.
