SHAREHOLDERS

- The Green Bay Packers have been a publicly owned, nonprofit corporation since 1923. They were first organized as the Green Bay Football Corp., and then reorganized in 1935 as Green Bay Packers, Inc.
- A total of 5,009,518 shares are owned by 361,311 stockholders — none of whom receives any dividend on the initial investment.
- The corporation is governed by a board of directors and a seven-member executive committee.
- One of the more remarkable business stories in American history, the team is kept viable by its shareholders — its unselfish fans. Even more incredible, the Packers have survived during the current era, permeated by free agency and the NFL salary cap. And, thanks in large part to Brown County's passage of the 2000 Lambeau Field referendum, the club will remain solvent and highly competitive well into the future due to its redeveloped stadium.
- Fans have supported the team financially on several occasions, including five stock sales: 1923, 1935, 1950, 1997 and 2011.
- To protect against someone taking control of the team, the articles of incorporation prohibit any person from owning more than 200,000 shares.

GREEN BAY PACKERS 2020 MEDIA GUIDE

Editor: Tom Fanning

Research: Nate LoCascio, Cliff Christl

Proofreading: John Watters, Nate LoCascio, Jason Wahlers, Jackson Riebel, Cliff Christl

Writing: Tom Fanning, Nate LoCascio, Jason Wahlers, Aaron Popkey, Sarah Quick, Katie Hermsen, Ryan Hoepner, Cliff Christl

Additional editorial, writing, design and research assistance: Autumn Thomas-Beenenga, Melanie Marohl, Cathy Dworak, Bobbi Jo Eisenreich, Peggy Prebelski, Tom Pigeon, Eric Goska, Green Bay Press-Gazette and Milwaukee Journal Sentinel archives and special acknowledgement to previous communications/public relations staff members and interns.

Cover: Designed by Trenea Schepp; TreeHouse Design.

Other photos: Evan Siegle, Vernon Biever, Matt Becker, Harmann Studios, The Associated Press, AP Images, Getty Images, the Stiller-Lefebvre collection (including the Neville Public Museum), Duke Bobber, Tyler Gajewski, Brenda Spaude, Steve Ryan, Keegan Wright, NFL Photos, David Elliott, the Green Bay Press-Gazette, Rick Wood (Milwaukee Journal Sentinel), Cathy Dworak, Bobbi Jo Eisenreich, Daryl Cornick, Mark Phibrick, Tom Hauck, Elkus Manfredi Architects, Wild Blue Technologies and all sports information departments from schools of draft choices and undrafted free agents, recent and years past.

The team wishes to thank the following for their invaluable help in producing this guide: the entire staff at Elias Sports Bureau (including Seymour Siwoff, Steve Hirdt, Santo Labombarda, Alex Stern, Peter Hirdt, Chris Thorn, Frank Labombarda, John Labombarda, Kevin Hines, Ken Hirdt, Tom Hirdt, Randy Robles, Bob Rosen, Rob Tracy, Bob Waterman, Matt Martingale, Todd Betzag, Sal D'Agostino, John Carson, Chris Slowik, Dan Hopard, Dennis Hirdt, John McCarthy, Ben Rosenberg and Jennifer Giacono); Sportradar; STATS LLC; pro-football-reference.com; Brown County Library (Mary Jane Herber); Jostens Corporation (Ken Westland & Bob Skoronski); the NFL communications department (including Mike Signora, Zak Gilbert and Sam Drexler); Paul Spinelli; NFL player personnel (Joel Bussert); NFL Films; the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Pete Fierle and Saleem Choudhry); the Packers Hall of Fame (Tom Murphy); Z.D. Studios (including Jason Albert); Somerville, Inc. (including Melanie Parma); CoSIDA and the sports information departments at its member schools; colleagues at other NFL teams; and Press Pass Ink (Shirley Cleereman).

Most of the historical data covering the Packers' first 50 years from 1919 to 1968 was taken from the team's official records; Packers press books and press guides dating to the early 1930s; interviews with former players, staff members and fans dating to the 1920s; the Brown County Library's local history department; and the pages of the Green Bay Press-Gazette. George Whitney Calhoun, co-founder of the Packers, worked for the paper for 40 years as a telegraph editor, city editor and sports editor and continued to write columns in retirement about Packers history until his death in 1963. For nearly 30 years, from 1919 to 1947, Calhoun also doubled as the Packers' publicist. In addition, he was the team's secretary for nearly 20 years and a member of its board of directors for nearly 35 years.

Additional historical input was derived from the writings of Val Schneider, Art Bystrom, John Walter, Art Daley and Lee Rimmel of the Green Bay Press-Gazette and Bud Lea and several others from the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel and The Milwaukee Journal.

The following books also were used as sources: the annual NFL Record & Fact Book, Total Packers, Total Football II, the NFL Encyclopedia and The Packer Legend by John Torinus. Other valuable information was gleaned from Ron Wolf, Eric Goska, John Maxymuk, Rick Gosselin, David Dolan, Guy Hankel, Joe Cronin, and John Karl and family.

MARK MURPHY

PRESIDENT &
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Mark Murphy, possessor of extensive experience in professional football and sports administration, is in his 13th year as the Packers' President and CEO.

Under Murphy's guidance, the organization continues to rank as one of the NFL's premier franchises, with highly successful operations both on and off the field. On the field, the team has compiled a 129-79-2 overall record (.619), made a team-record eighth consecutive playoff trips from 2009 to 2016, advanced to four NFC Championship games and earned a victory in Super Bowl XLV. Off the field, the club continues to perform well in its business efforts, which allows the organization to support football operations. The fan experience at Lambeau Field, a top priority for the organization, continues to be ranked among the best in sports.

It was a direction both Murphy and the organization envisioned when Murphy was elected by the Packers' Board of Directors as the franchise's 10th Chief Executive Officer on Dec. 3, 2007. He began his work with the organization as president-elect on Jan. 1, 2008, and then formally took over on Jan. 28, 2008.

"I am honored to have been selected and very appreciative of this tremendous opportunity," Murphy said the day of his election. "The Packers are one of the great franchises in all of professional sports, with a rich history and incredible fan support. These are successful times for the Packers. On the field they're performing well, and off the field, they're in great shape, too. I look forward to being a part of that continued success."

Murphy, who holds a law degree and an MBA in finance, brought a unique and highly qualified background to his role as head of one of the NFL's flagship franchises, first drawing from a deep understanding and appreciation of the game that comes from an eight-year playing career with the Washington Redskins. Later, he served a combined 16 years as director of athletics at Colgate University and Northwestern University, and was an assistant executive director of the NFL Players Association and a trial attorney with the U.S. Department of Justice.

In addition to his playing career and work with the NFL Players Association, Murphy had maintained his ties to the NFL through his work on the Commissioner's Player Advisory Committee (1994-2002) as well as the NFL Youth Football Committee (2002-2011). Additionally, his NFL experience includes Super Bowl wins as a player (XVII, 1982) and as a CEO (XLV, 2010), believed to be the first such achievement in league history.

NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, recognizing the unique experience and skills Murphy brought to the NFL as the Packers' CEO, in 2008 appointed him to the NFL's Management Council Executive Committee, the NFL owners' committee whose responsibility was to serve as the bargaining team during negotiations with the NFL Players Association which resulted in a 10-year Collective Bargaining Agreement in 2011, and a new CBA in 2020 that will extend through the 2030 season. The position has allowed Murphy to increase his involvement and contributions at the league level, ensuring the organization has a voice in NFL matters.

"Mark's rare blend of experiences makes him integral to the future of the Packers and the NFL," said Goodell when appointing Murphy. "His accomplishments as an NFL player, his work with the NFLPA, and now his leadership of the Packers, provide a unique perspective to the league and also to the players. He's very effective in discussions with NFLPA executives. Mark is a bright and thoughtful individual who understands what needs to get done to create a system that benefits all sides for years to come. He is very reasonable and wants what's best for fans, the game and players, as we all do."

In 2012, Goodell added to Murphy's NFL-level involvement by naming him to the important Competition Committee, the group composed of team executives and coaches that studies all aspects of the game and recommends rules and policy changes to NFL clubs. Goodell also placed Murphy on the NFL owners' Health and Safety Committee and the College Relations Committee.

Upon joining the Packers, Murphy broadened his knowledge of the franchise, its operations and its standing in the community by meeting with employees, shareholders, fans and members of the Board of Directors, as well as many community groups.

Among his first initiatives was to update the organization's strategic plan, a process involving all the leadership positions of the organization, including the Executive Committee and football operations. The process created core objectives to serve as a backdrop for all key business decisions. In a move to enhance those objectives, Murphy restructured the management of the organization, which included creating a new senior-leadership staff overseeing administration and finance, communications, football operations, human resources, legal, marketing and fan engagement, and sales and corporate partnerships. The structure reflects the growth the organization has experienced in recent years and gives broader coverage across all operations with more people involved on a senior-management level. Likewise in 2018, Murphy restructured the football operation with the head coach, general manager and executive vice president/director of football operations reporting to the president and CEO, a move that has improved communication and collaboration.

Murphy also is directing the organization's master plan involving Lambeau Field, the Lambeau Field Atrium, the practice facilities, and property the organization owns adjacent to the stadium. Lambeau Field and the Atrium underwent a $312 million, five-year expansion and renovation (2011-15) that included a new distributed-audio sound system (2011), two new HD video boards and the new Bellin Health Gate on the north end of the stadium (2012), 7,000 additional seats in the south end zone served by the South Gate (2013), a larger Oneida Nation Gate and new football facilities (2013), the American Family Insurance Gate, a redeveloped Harlan Plaza and new Packers Pro Shop (2014), and a new Packers Hall of Fame and restaurant, 1919 Kitchen & Tap (2015). Additionally, a two-year, $55 million project to renovate Lambeau Field's suites and club seats was completed in 2017. Currently, the club is in a multi-year project to upgrade the stadium's concourses with renovated concessions and enhanced sound systems.

To support the Lambeau Field project, Murphy directed the Packers' fifth stock sale, an effort that netted the organization more than $64 million. More than 268,000 shares were sold during the offering, from Dec. 6, 2011, through Feb. 29, 2012, with more than 250,000 new shareholders joining the Packers' ownership. All stadium improvements were financed without public tax money.

To the west of Lambeau Field, Tittletown has dramatically taken shape over the last couple of years. The 45-acre mixed-used real estate development that was announced in 2015 is building upon the success of the renovated Lambeau Field and complements the vibrant business and hospitality clusters in the area that have experienced enhancement in recent years. Tittletown has become a destination for visitors and residents alike with its public park and plaza a hub of activity year-round, including snow-tubing lanes on Ariens Hill and an ice-skating rink and trail in the winter. Lodge Kohler, a four-diamond hotel; Bellin Health Tittletown Sports Medicine & Orthopedics; and Hinterland Restaurant and Brewery have been successful anchor tenants. Opening in 2019 was TittletownTech, a joint venture between the Packers and Microsoft aimed at driving regional economic growth and job creation by helping businesses transform their operations through technology and digital innovation. The TittletownTech building also houses additional entertainment and commercial properties, including an "eatertainment" concept, The Turn powered by Topgolf Suites, and an experiential Associated Bank branch. Additionally, a residential component, including townhomes and an apartment building, and a five-story office building broke ground in 2019, with the townhomes welcoming their first residents this year.

Among the other initiatives Murphy has directed is the enhancement of the organization's retail operations, including the purchase of a new distribution center for the Packers Pro Shop and the establishment of a customer relationship management (CRM) program, with both efforts upgrading customer service to Packers fans.

Murphy also has worked to increase the number of outside events utilizing Lambeau Field, including Kenny Chesney concerts in 2011 and 2015, a Billy Joel concert in 2017, a Paul McCartney concert in 2019 and LZ Lambeau in May 2010, a welcome back for Wisconsin Vietnam veterans. In September 2016, the Lambeau Field College Classic, presented by Carmex, saw the LSU Tigers play the Wisconsin Badgers in the stadium's first college football game since 1981. Wisconsin is scheduled to return to Lambeau Field in October 2020 to face Notre Dame. Additionally, Murphy has ensured the organization remains a strong community partner, with a charity impact of over $9 million in the past year.

Inside the organization, Murphy continues to grow and develop the team's human resources, with new programs for employees such as leadership development.

The 65-year-old Murphy joined the Packers after 4½ years (2003-07) as director of athletics at Northwestern University. At the Big Ten Conference school, Murphy oversaw a 19-sport program with a $40 million budget and 160 full-time employees. During his tenure, the school won eight individual national championships and three NCAA team titles. Additionally, the university won nine conference team championships and 34 individual Big Ten titles. A total of 49 Wildcats earned first-team All-America distinction. On the football field, the Wildcats participated in two bowl games during Murphy's tenure after playing in just four previous contests in the program's history. In 2006-07, Northwestern finished 30th in the U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup standings with a school-best 626.5 points. The Wildcats ranked among the top 30 in the standings for the last three years of Murphy's tenure and in 2007 finished sixth among Big Ten schools for the third straight year after previously not placing higher than ninth.

The school's athletic success under Murphy was achieved while its student-athletes continued to excel off the field. The NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) data released in October 2007 reported Northwestern's rate at 98 percent, tying it with Notre Dame and Navy for No. 1 in the nation.

Prior to his tenure at Northwestern, Murphy served as director of athletics at Colgate University in Hamilton, N.Y. (1992-2003), the school from which he graduated in 1977. During his 11 years at the helm, the university experienced a renaissance of its football program, going from 0-11 in 1995 to three consecutive appearances in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. In 2003, the year after Murphy's departure to Northwestern, the team made it to the championship game; the achievement of that squad – a non-scholarship program – remains one of Murphy's proudest moments.

Colgate's other teams experienced success as well, with men's basketball, women's soccer, women's volleyball, women's softball and men's ice hockey teams making NCAA tournament appearances. The school also achieved graduation rates among the highest for student-athletes in Division I during Murphy's tenure. A proud alumnus, Murphy had the honor of delivering the address for the university's 2012 graduation ceremony.

A former All-Pro safety for the Washington Redskins, Murphy enjoyed an eight-year career (1977-84) after originally signing with the team as an undrafted free agent in <sup>1</sup>Bogda submitted a letter of resignation Dec. 13, 1957, due to health reasons, but the executive committee rejected it. He died Feb. 22, 1958.

2006. Harlan became chairman of the board, but remained CEO. Less than two weeks later, Jones underwent open-heart surgery. He returned to work for roughly nine months, but took a leave of absence for personal reasons on May 26, 2007. Jones resigned July 20, 2007, and Harlan remained the chief officer of the organization until Jan. 28, 2008.

1977. He was a co-captain from 1980-84, a period that included two Super Bowl teams (1982-83). He enjoyed his finest season in 1983, leading the NFL with nine interceptions and earning consensus All-Pro honors as well as a trip to the Pro Bowl. Murphy was named as one of the Redskins' "70 Greatest Players," as well as one of the "80 Greatest Redskins," and also is a member of the club's 50th Anniversary Team.

Joe Gibbs, the Hall of Fame former coach of the Redskins who led the team during Murphy's 1981-84 seasons, was appreciative of the player's contributions and lauded the Packers' hiring of Murphy.

"Mark meant a lot to the Redskins organization the years he was here and played," Gibbs said. "He was a great person along with being one of the brightest and most competitive people we've had here at the Redskins."

Gibbs had an influence on Murphy as well, as the Packers' CEO attributes much of his leadership style to what he learned from the successful Redskins coach.

"He had many leadership traits that I admired and tried to incorporate into my own leadership style," said Murphy. "He had a very natural way about him with the way he related to people, and he tried to be accessible. He was a very effective communicator, too, as most great leaders are. And when he worked with you, he was very fair and sincere. All those skills and traits fueled his awesome ability to motivate his teams."

A natural leader among his teammates, Murphy served as the Redskins' player representative to the NFL Players Association from 1980-84, including the position of vice president of the players union (1983-84). While a representative, he served on the players' bargaining committee during the 1982 players' strike. Those experiences have served him well in his role on the NFL's Management Council Executive Committee.

During his days with the Redskins, Murphy earned an MBA in finance from American University in Washington, D.C., attending classes full-time in the offseason and evening classes in-season. Upon completion of his playing career in 1985, he joined the NFL Players Association as assistant executive director. While with the NFLPA, Murphy served on the bargaining team, including during the 1987 players' strike, developed the agent-certification system and strengthened the PA's degree-completion and career-counseling programs.

While with the NFLPA, he started work on a law degree from Georgetown University and ultimately finished his studies full-time after leaving the Players Association. Upon receiving his law degree in 1988, he worked at a Washington, D.C., law firm (Bredhoff and Kaiser) before becoming a trial attorney with the U.S. Department of Justice in 1989.

During a four-year career with the Department of Justice, he primarily represented government agencies in trials. Then, in 1992, his alma mater called and he returned to the sports realm.

At ease in public settings and with the media, Murphy enjoyed hosting a weekly radio show during his playing days and later became a sports commentator for National Public Radio (1983-92) and the Anheuser-Busch Radio Network (1986-88), offering his insights into football and sports-related legal issues in general.

Born in Fulton, N.Y., Murphy spent some of his formative years in the Houston area before moving back to the Buffalo-area community of Clarence. He was a three-sport star (football, baseball and basketball) at Clarence Central High School and was named the best all-around athlete in western New York during his senior year. His baseball talents drew attention from major-league scouts. In 2002, he was inducted into the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame in recognition of his achievements both on and off the field. In February 2016, Murphy returned to Clarence Central High School to present a golden football as part of the NFL's 50th Super Bowl celebration.

Murphy and his wife, Laurie, who also is a Colgate graduate, have been involved in the communities in which they've lived. Over the years, the couple has donated their time to numerous organizations, including local schools, the United Methodist Church in Hamilton, N.Y., and the First Congregational Church of Evanston, Ill. Also, while in Chicago, Murphy served on the bid committee for the 2016 Olympics, which eventually were awarded to Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. While at Colgate University, Murphy formed the Hamilton Youth Basketball League and served as its commissioner. Heavily involved in the community while with Washington, Murphy was named the team's "Miller Man of the Year" in 1984 in honor of his work off the field.

In Green Bay, Murphy continues a busy schedule of meeting with fans and shareholders, as well as speaking to a variety of business and community groups. He also has given his time to several community organizations to help their causes, including Big Brothers Big Sisters. Murphy also serves on the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay's council of trustees and co-chaired the school's most recent capital campaign. Additionally, Murphy serves on the advisory board of the Positive Coaching Alliance, an organization created to transform the culture of youth sports to give all young athletes the opportunity for a positive, character-building experience, as well as on USA Football's board of directors.

Mark and Laurie are active supporters of foster-care services in Brown County and have had the pleasure of serving as foster parents in the community. Laurie recently helped establish the JAS (Journey to Adult Success) House in downtown Green Bay for teenagers who age out of foster care. She is also involved in a number of national and local organizations whose missions support hunger relief, as well as housing and education for underserved populations. In addition, Laurie established "Ladies of Lambeau," an inclusive group of women who are associated with the Green Bay Packers. The group hosts an annual hands-on event at Lambeau Field which benefits a variety of nonprofit organizations.

Mark and Laurie have four adult children: Katie, a graduate of Harvard who played basketball for the Crimson and lives in Chicago with her husband, Eugene Kornel, son, Richard, and daughter, Isabelle, and works at Credit Suisse; Emily, a graduate of Middlebury (Vt.) College with a degree in Chinese and a master's in social work from the University of Michigan who lives with her husband, Robert Kraynak, and daughters, Louise, Dorothy and Willa, in Chicago; Brian, a graduate of Amherst (Mass.) College who played football for the Lord Jeffs and now lives in Austin, Texas, where he earned an MBA at the University of Texas and now owns and operates Ranch Hand, a food truck specializing in organic bowls; and Anna, a graduate of Northwestern University who now is in the university's Kellogg Executive MBA program.

Away from work, Mark enjoys playing golf, fishing and participating in various forms of exercise, including bicycling, cross-country skiing and walking.

ED POLICY

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER AND GENERAL COUNSEL

Ed Policy, an executive with significant sports and legal experience, is in his third year as the Green Bay Packers' chief operating officer and general counsel, a position he was promoted to on Jan. 17, 2018, after serving six years as the organization's vice president and general counsel.

Policy, who started with the Packers on Aug. 1, 2012, has an extensive background that includes work in professional football with the Arena Football League and the NFL, and broad legal experience with litigation, sports labor relations, sports facility construction and commercial real estate.

In addition to directing the organization's legal affairs, Policy represents the Packers at the NFL level on legal matters and leads the organization's communications, marketing and fan engagement, sales and business development, security, and development and hospitality departments.

Policy also leads the club's endeavors to develop Titledown, a 45-acre mixed-use real estate development immediately west of Lambeau Field. Titledown is maximizing its unique location to attract visitors, spur regional economic growth, offer amenities to residents and complement the greater Green Bay area's draw as an excellent location to live, work, play and visit on a year-round basis. A chief component of the development spearheaded by Policy is TitledownTech, a joint venture with Microsoft that consists of a venture capital fund, an innovation lab and a new-venture studio.

"Ed's been an outstanding leader for us and has shown tremendous growth in recent years," said Packers President and CEO Mark Murphy. "His work on Titledown has been excellent, and will be invaluable to the organization and community for years to come. I'm confident that Ed will continue to excel in his role."

Policy's professional sports experience includes nine years (2001-09) with the Arena Football League, including a period (2008-09) in which he served as commissioner, president and CEO. He also served as deputy commissioner and president (2006-08), chief operating officer (2004-06) and executive vice president-strategic league development and legal affairs (2001-04). During his tenure with the league, he oversaw all business and operations of the AFL, including strategic development, legal affairs, sales, finance, marketing, broadcasting, digital media, football operations, labor relations, events and human resources.

Policy also served as an executive consultant with the NFL (2009-10), a position in which he advised and assisted NFL senior management in strategic and development matters and also worked with senior executives on special projects within various business areas.

BRIAN GUTEKUNST
GENERAL MANAGER

Entering his 22nd season overall with the Packers and third as the team's general manager, Brian Gutekunst was named to his position on Jan. 8, 2018.

In his two seasons leading the Packers' personnel department, Gutekunst (GOO-tuh-kunst) has maintained an aggressive approach to building the roster, leading to immediate results in 2019. Green Bay finished last season with a 13-3 record on its way to an NFC North crown, the No. 2 seed in the NFC and an appearance in the NFC Championship Game. His roster additions helped lead the Packers to their biggest one-year win improvement in club history (plus-seven wins) in 2019, with 12 of 22 starters in the NFC Championship Game having been acquired by Gutekunst in just two seasons. Overall, 35 of the 53 players on the roster for the NFC title game were his acquisitions.

Gutekunst went to work again this past offseason, signing a trio of veteran free agents (WR Devin Funchess, LB Christian Kirksey and T Rick Wagner) that are expected to make a significant impact in 2020. Funchess spent his first four seasons in the NFL with the Carolina Panthers (2015-18), where he became the first player in team history to post four-plus TD catches in each of his first four seasons in the NFL. He led the Panthers with 21 TD receptions over that span and ranked No. 2 on the team with 2,233 receiving yards. Kirksey played in 73 games with 54 starts for the Cleveland Browns over six seasons (2014-19) and was voted a defensive captain by his teammates for three consecutive seasons (2017-19). According to Sportradar, Kirksey registered the most solo tackles (171) and the second-most tackles (281) in the NFL from 2016-17 (Seattle LB Bobby Wagner, 300) and was the only player in the league to rank in the top five in the NFL in tackles in both 2016 and 2017. Wagner started all 40 games he appeared in at right tackle for the Detroit Lions over the last three seasons (2017-19), and during his three seasons (2014-16) as a starter with Baltimore, helped the Ravens rank No. 3 in the league over that span in sacks allowed (76).

For the third time in as many drafts, Gutekunst made a first-round trade in 2020, swapping pick No. 30 and a fourth-round selection (No. 136) for the Miami Dolphins' pick at No. 26, and used that selection on Utah State QB Jordan Love. Love finished his career at Utah State ranked No. 2 in school history in passing yards (8,600), completions (689) and attempts (1,125), tied for No. 2 in TD passes (60) and No. 3 in completion percentage (61.2) despite playing just three seasons. He also set school career records for total offense (9,003 yards), 300-yard passing games (12) and completions of 80-plus yards (four). As a sophomore in 2018, Love set Utah State single-season records for TD passes (32), passing yards (3,567) and 300-yard passing games (seven). In the second round, Gutekunst fortified the Packers' backfield with the selection of Boston College RB AJ Dillon. A three-time All-ACC first-team selection, Dillon finished as the school's all-time leader in rushing yards (4,238), rushing TDs (38) and all-purpose yards (4,618). He also registered 14 career 150-yard rushing games, the most by any ACC player over the last 20 seasons (Lamar Jackson, 13; Dalvin Cook, 12), and was one of only two FBS players (Wisconsin RB Jonathan Taylor) to finish in the top 15 in the country in rushing yards per game each of the last three seasons (2017-19). In 2019, Dillon earned third-team All-America honors from The Associated Press after setting career highs in rushing attempts (318) and rushing yards

- Named the Packers' 10th general manager in team history on Jan. 8, 2018.
- Built a roster that led Green Bay to a 13-3 record on its way to an NFC North crown, the No. 2 seed in the NFC and an appearance in the NFC Championship Game in 2019.

(1,685), and tying his career best with 14 rushing TDs.

In his second offseason managing the Packers' roster in 2019, Gutekunst secured one the most successful free-agent classes in team history, signing four marquee players and immediate starters in LB Preston Smith, LB Za'Darius Smith, S Adrian Amos and G/T Billy Turner. The group proved instrumental in the Packers' run to the NFC North division title and appearance in the NFC Championship Game, with all four players starting every game (including playoffs) last season.

Preston Smith, originally a second-round pick of the Redskins, came to Green Bay after four seasons (2015-18) with Washington. He was named a Pro Bowl alternate in 2019 after ranking No. 8 in the NFL with a career-best 12 sacks and finishing No. 2 on the team with 29 QB hits and 43 QB pressures. Za'Darius Smith, who was originally selected in the fourth round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens, made his first career Pro Bowl last season as an injury replacement for Chicago Bears LB Khalil Mack. He posted a career-best 78 tackles (44 solo), a career-high and team-leading 13½ sacks (No. 6 in the NFL and tied for No. 5 in a single season in team history), a team-best 51 QB hits and a team-high 65 QB pressures. He also posted four games with two-plus sacks in 2019, tied with Cardinals DE Chandler Jones and Buccaneers LB Shaquil Barrett for the most in the league, and became the first Packer to have four games with two-plus sacks in a season since DE Aaron Kampman in 2006. Additionally, the Smiths became the first duo in NFL history to both register 12-plus sacks in their first season as teammates, the first tandem in team history (since 1982) to both register 12-plus sacks in the same season and only the second duo in Packers history (since 1982) to each have 10-plus sacks in a season (Reggie White, 13.0 and Bryce Paup, 11.0 in 1993).

Amos joined the Packers after four seasons (2015-18) with the Chicago Bears and was named an alternate for the Pro Bowl in 2019 after finishing No. 3 on the team with 87 tackles (64 solo) in his first season with Green Bay. He helped the defense rank No. 9 in the NFL in points allowed (19.6 ppg), the first time the Packers finished in the top 10 in the league in that category since 2010, No. 6 in opponent passer rating (81.1) and tied for No. 7 in takeaways (25). Turner spent time with the Miami Dolphins (2014-16), Baltimore Ravens (2016) and Denver Broncos (2016-18) over five seasons. Originally selected by the Dolphins in the third round (No. 67 overall) of the 2014 NFL Draft, he started all 16 games for the first time in his career in 2019, opening every game at RG for the Packers. He was part of an offense that ranked No. 8 in the NFL in red-zone TD percentage (64.0) and tied for No. 7 in rushing TDs (18), the most by the Packers since 2009 (20), and was a member of a line that helped the Packers register 10 games with two or fewer sacks, tied for No. 9 in the NFL.

Gutekunst entered the 2019 NFL Draft with 10 picks, including two first-round selections, and for the second consecutive draft maneuvered in the first round to get a player he wanted. At No. 12 overall, Gutekunst selected LB Rashan Gary out of the University of Michigan, who twice was honored as an All-Big Ten first-team selection (2017-18). Gutekunst then packaged the No. 30 pick with a pair of fourth-round selections in a trade with Seattle for the No. 21 overall pick that he used on University of Maryland S Darnell Savage. In his rookie campaign in 2019, Savage earned PFWA All-Rookie team honors after starting all 14 games he appeared in and recording 61 tackles (41 solo), a tackle for a loss, a team-high two forced fumbles, two interceptions (tied for No. 2 on the team), seven passes defensed, a QB hit and two QB pressures. He was the only NFL rookie to register multiple INTs and multiple forced fumbles in 2019 (according to Sportradar). In the second round, Gutekunst selected G Elgton Jenkins out of Mississippi State, who played in all 16 games and started the final 14 contests of the season at left guard as a rookie in 2019. He was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team, only the second Packers guard to be selected since 1974 (Daryn Colledge, 2006). Jenkins also helped clear the way for RB Aaron Jones, who posted a career-high 1,084 rushing yards and a career-best 16 rushing TDs, which was tied for the NFL lead in 2019 and was the second most in a season in team history behind only FB Jim Taylor (19 in 1962).

Armed with a league-high 12 selections entering the 2018 NFL Draft, Gutekunst was active. The first round saw him trade the Packers' selection (No. 14) to New Orleans for the Saints' first-round pick (No. 27) and a fifth (No. 147) in 2018, and a first in 2019. Moments later, Gutekunst traded the No. 27 pick, a third (No. 76) and a sixth (No. 186) to Seattle for their first (No. 18) and a seventh (No. 248). With the 18th choice in the first round, Green Bay selected Louisville CB Jaire Alexander. In a matter of minutes, Gutekunst added one of the top cover corners to bolster the Packers' defense, while also keeping an eye on the future with the acquisition of an additional first-round pick. When the draft concluded, Gutekunst had added 11 players to the Packers' roster in his inaugural draft class.

His initial draft class provided the team with immediate returns as it accounted for 50 starts in 2018, the most by the Packers since 2006 (66 starts). Green Bay was one of only five teams in the league to have three rookies start 10-plus games (Alexander with 11; CB Josh Jackson and WR Marquez Valdes-Scantling with 10) in 2018 (Oakland had four, Cleveland, Indianapolis and the N.Y. Giants had three). Additionally, Alexander was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team, becoming just the second Packers CB to be honored since 1974 (Casey Hayward, 2012). In 2019, Alexander was named a Pro Bowl alternate after starting all 16 games and leading the team with a career-high 23 passes defensed.

"We could not be more excited to elevate Brian to the position of general manager," said team President and Chief Executive Officer Mark Murphy at the time of Gutekunst's promotion. "He has earned this opportunity throughout his 19 years with the Packers, proving to not only be a skilled talent evaluator, but a trusted and collaborative leader. His time under the direction of former Packers general managers Ron Wolf and Ted Thompson will undoubtedly serve him well as we work toward our next Super Bowl championship. I am confident that he is the man that will help get us there."

Prior to his promotion, Gutekunst served as Green Bay's director of player personnel (2016-17) and director of college scouting (2012-15) after spending his first 13 seasons with the club as a college scout. He served as an East Coast regional scout for his first two years (1999-2000) before switching to the Southeast region (2001-11).

Possessor of prior professional scouting and college coaching experience upon joining Green Bay on a full-time basis late in 1998, Gutekunst gained his first NFL experience in the summer of 1995 when he assisted the coaching staff of the New Orleans Saints with the offensive line during training camp. Gutekunst's initial exposure to the Packers came in the summer of 1997 when he worked as an intern in the team's scouting department.

His first full-time appointment in professional scouting was in 1998 as a scouting assistant for the Kansas City Chiefs. After one year with the Chiefs, Gutekunst returned to the Packers when he was named a college scout for the East Coast by Wolf on Dec. 30, 1998.

Gutekunst earlier had played two years of college football for the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse. He then became an assistant coach for the team during his final two years at the school (1995-96) after a shoulder injury cut short his playing career. Serving as a linebackers coach during the 1995 season, he helped the school to the Division III national championship as the Eagles finished with an unblemished record of 14-0. Gutekunst has a degree in sports management.

He and his wife, Jen, reside in Hobart with their daughters, Marley, 15, Joie, 14, and Kacey, 9, and son, Michael, 11.

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Russ Ball, entering his 32nd season in the NFL, begins his 13th season in Green Bay and third as the organization's executive vice president/director of football operations after serving 10 seasons as vice president of football administration/player finance.

Named to his current position on Jan. 8, 2018, Ball brings a vast array of experience to the Packers' front office and is highly involved in all team decisions both on and off the playing field. He is responsible for negotiating player contracts and managing the salary cap, in addition to the daily supervision of football-administration departments including equipment, video, logistics and team travel, corporate travel, player engagement, family programs and fields.

"Since joining the Packers in 2008, Russ has proven to be invaluable," said Mark Murphy, Packers President and Chief Executive Officer. "His salary-cap management and negotiating abilities are well known, but he has also provided tremendous leadership throughout football operations and served as a valuable liaison between the football and business sides of the organization. Ball also coordinated different areas of the football operations, and was involved in several other administrative functions with the club.

During his time in New Orleans, Ball also served in a similar capacity with the New Orleans VooDoo of the Arena Football League from 2004-07. He was selected by the Saints to attend the 2005 NFL Managers Program at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business.

NICKNAME ORIGIN

The nickname "Packers" appeared in print for the first time in the Aug. 13, 1919, edition of the Green Bay Press-Gazette. It was the first story written about Green Bay's newly formed football team, which held its organizational meeting two days earlier in the paper's editorial department.

The Indian Packing Co. was the team's sponsor, hence, the Press-Gazette's Aug. 13 story referred to the team as both the "Packers" and the "Indians." On Aug. 15, the Press-Gazette used only the nickname "Packers," and that's who they've been ever since.

It's uncertain who coined the nickname, but it almost certainly was one of two Press-Gazette staff members: Val Schneider, who was writing the paper's sports column at the time, or George Whitney Calhoun, city editor at the time and the football team's co-founder along with Curly Lambeau.

With Indian Packing as a sponsor in 1919 and 1920, and Acme Packing as the sponsor in 1921, the nickname was a natural. But the Packers were expelled from what is now the NFL in January 1922 for using three Notre Dame players in a non-league game against Racine.

Green Bay was readmitted to the league six months later, but disavowed any connection to Acme Packing and stopped calling themselves the Packers. The Press-Gazette used Bays and Blues as alternatives, but fans and out-of-town writers resisted the change and the name Packers endured.

HISTORY OF THE "G"

Before his third season as head coach and general manager of the Packers, Vince Lombardi elected to decorate the team's helmets with a logo that has become one of the most iconic in American sports. Lombardi decided to place a green and white "G" directly above the earholes of the team's mostly gold helmets.

Typical of the times and particularly Lombardi, no big deal was made of the unveiling, either beforehand or after. The "G" was introduced at an intrasquad game played Aug. 5, 1961, at old City Stadium. The game was played there because the field at the Packers' new stadium — now Lambeau Field — had been recently reseeded and wasn't ready for use.

It was understood at the time that the "G" stood for Green Bay and that hasn't changed. Lombardi settled on the "G" before he won his first NFL championship.

As can best be determined, the development and design of the "G" was carried out by a select few in addition to Lombardi: Gerald "Dad" Braisher, the Packers' equipment manager; John Gordon, a part-time assistant to Braisher and an art student at St. Norbert College; and workers at Romo Display Advertising Inc. of Green Bay.

It's uncertain who conceived the logo, but Lombardi and Braisher would have been the likely candidates. Gordon sketched it before Romo took his drawing and turned it into an artistic rendering. But, clearly, it never would have come to be without Lombardi's approval.

The original Packers "G" was shaped like a football, flattening gradually from its height toward the ends. The "G" has been slightly modified in the years since. Today, it is shaped more like an oval, measuring 3.125 inches at its tallest point and five inches at its widest point.

PACKERS HAVE DEMONSTRABLE ECONOMIC IMPACT ON THE COMMUNITY

The Packers are the only franchise in professional sports to be owned and sustained by their fans; the steadfast, unwavering support of the community has been fundamental to the Packers' success over the last century. In the same vein, it's clear the Packers have a quantifiable and tangible economic impact on the Greater Green Bay community, from tourism and taxes to job creation and wage generation.

A 2009 economic impact study commissioned by the Green Bay/Brown County Professional Football Stadium District demonstrated the effects of the Packers on the local economy. The study found that the total economic impact of the Packers and the renovated Lambeau Field on the community was an estimated $281.5 million in 2009, which included the Packers' 10 home preseason and regular-season games that year ($12.3 million each of those weekends). The South End, which opened in 2013, included the addition of approximately 7,000 new seats and now generates a spending impact of approximately $11 million each year. Including the expansion, today's estimated annual economic impact is in excess of $300 million.

Additionally, the Titledown development adjacent to Lambeau Field has helped generate further entertainment and tourism spending, as well as job creation, an economic impact that is expected to grow in future years as the development continues to expand.

NAMES ON THE FAÇADE

The names gracing the east and west façades are among the more awe-inspiring features of Lambeau Field's bowl. The names represent the 26 men who have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame primarily for their years spent with the Green Bay Packers.

Of the 26 names, 23 were players. Earl "Curly" Lambeau and Vince Lombardi were inducted as coaches. Ron Wolf was inducted into Canton in 2015 as a general manager. Safety Bobby Dillon's name will be added to the façade during the 2020 season, following his induction as a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Centennial Class.

Four of the names were charter inductees of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963: Lambeau, Don Hutson, Robert "Cal" Hubbard and John "Blood" McNally.

Hutson, Hubbard and Blood played during the Lambeau era, as did Clarke Hinkle, Mike Michalske, Arnie Herber and Tony Canadeo. The late Dillon played from 1952-59.

Of the 23 players, 12 of them spent their prime playing for Lombardi: Jim Taylor, Forrest Gregg, Bart Starr, Ray Nitschke, Herb Adderley, Willie Davis, Jim Ringo, Paul Hornung, Willie Wood, Henry Jordan, Dave Robinson and Kramer.

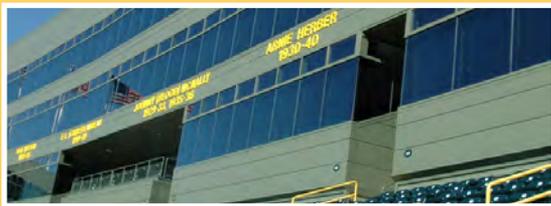

James Lofton's, Reggie White's and Brett Favre's Packers careers were played in later eras.

In deference to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the names appear on the façade as they do on their busts in Canton with nicknames or adopted names included in quotation marks. That's why John "Blood" McNally is listed as he is. While McNally was his given name, he never used it during his playing career, even to sign his contracts. Nor did the name McNally ever appear in a Packers program or press book, or in newspaper coverage of the day. He was simply Johnny Blood, one of the most magical names in sports in the 1920s and 1930s.

The years listed are only the years the players spent with the Packers. Only nine of the inductees spent their entire NFL careers with the Packers: Hutson, Hinkle, Canadeo, Dillon, Starr, Nitschke, Hornung, Wood and Kramer. Lombardi was inducted in Canton only as a coach. That's why the years listed under his name don't include 1968, when he served strictly as Green Bay's general manager.

The names were arranged on the façade in no particular order.

Also gracing the interior walls of the Lambeau Field bowl are the years of the Packers' NFL-record 13 world championships and the team's retired numbers. Brett Favre's No. 4, which was retired July 18, 2015, when he was inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame, was unveiled on the façade next to the five other retired numbers during Green Bay's home game against the Chicago Bears on Thanksgiving, Nov. 26, 2015.

JASON WAHLERS

VICE PRESIDENT OF COMMUNICATIONS

Jason Wahlers, now in his 10th season with the Packers, is entering his third year as vice president of communications, a position to which he was promoted on Jan. 23, 2018.

"I'm really excited for Jason. He has done a great job for us during his seven years here, and is very deserving of this promotion," said Packers President and CEO Mark Murphy at the time of Wahlers' promotion. "He is highly respected throughout the organization and will be a great addition to our Senior Staff."

Wahlers oversees communications while also leading the community outreach and public affairs departments.

"His talent and perspective have been invaluable, and I am excited to have him taking a broader role in the organization."

Wahlers, 42, joined the Packers in July 2011 as the director of public relations. Over his tenure, he has been in charge of the communication for the head coach and general manager as well as directing a staff that serves as the media contact for assistant coaches and the active roster. Wahlers' role also sees him serve as a principal contact for the National Football League and broadcast networks.

Prior to joining the Packers, he worked as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' public relations manager for six years (2005-10), serving as the main media-relations contact for players and assistant coaches in addition to working closely with

OVERTIME PROCEDURES

MODIFIED SUDDEN-DEATH OVERTIME

For the 2010 postseason, the NFL installed a modified sudden-death system to determine the winner when the score is tied at the end of regulation. In 2012, the system was expanded to cover all NFL games, including regular-season and preseason games.

Modified sudden death guarantees each team a possession or the opportunity to possess, unless the team that receives the opening kickoff scores a touchdown on its initial possession.

Possession: Actual possession of the ball with complete control. The defense gains possession when it catches, intercepts or recovers a loose ball.

Opportunity to possess: The opportunity to possess occurs only during kicking plays. A kickoff is an opportunity to possess for the receiving team. If the kicking team legally recovers the kick, the receiving team is considered to have had its opportunity. A punt or a field goal that crosses the line of scrimmage and is muffed by the receiving team is considered to be an opportunity to possess for the receivers. Normal touching rules by the kicking team apply.

REGULAR SEASON

- At the end of regulation time, the Referee will immediately toss a coin at the center of the field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss prior to the coin being flipped.
- Following a three-minute intermission after the end of the regulation game, there shall be a maximum of one 10-minute period. Each team must possess or have the opportunity to possess the ball unless the team that has the ball first scores a touchdown on its initial possession. Play continues in sudden death until a winner is determined, and the game automatically ends upon any score (by safety, field goal or touchdown) or when a score is awarded by the Referee for a palpably unfair act. Each team shall be entitled to two timeouts, and if there is an excess timeout, the usual rules shall apply. A try is not attempted if a touchdown is scored. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.

- If the score is tied at the end of the 10-minute overtime period, the game shall result in a tie.
- Instant Replay: No challenges. Reviews to be initiated by the replay assistant.

POSTSEASON

- At the end of regulation time, the Referee will immediately toss a coin at the center of the field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss prior to the coin being flipped.
- Following a three-minute intermission after the end of the regulation game, play will be continued in 15-minute periods until a winner is declared. Each team must possess or have the opportunity to possess the ball unless the team that has the ball first scores a touchdown on its initial possession. Play continues in sudden death until a winner is determined, and the game automatically ends upon any score (by safety, field goal or touchdown) or when a score is awarded by the Referee for a palpably unfair act. Each team has three timeouts per half and all general timing provisions apply as during a regular game. A try is not attempted if a touchdown is scored. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.
- Instant Replay: No challenges. Reviews to be initiated by the replay assistant.

JON-ERIC SULLIVAN

CO-DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Jon-Eric Sullivan begins his 17th season with the Packers and third as co-director of player personnel. Sullivan spent two seasons (2016-17) as the director of college scouting after being promoted on June 16, 2016. Sullivan previously served as a college scout covering the Central Plains region (2008-11) and the Southeast region (2012-15) after working as the team's National Football Scouting representative to the annual NFL Scouting Combine and authoring evaluations of all prospective seniors in the Southwest region.

Sullivan joined the team's football operations department on July 12, 2004, having previously served as a scouting intern during Green Bay's 2003 training camp.

CO-DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Now entering his 25th season in the NFL, John Wojciechowski begins his ninth season with the Packers and third as the co-director of player personnel after he was promoted on May 25, 2018. He spent the 2017 season as the director of pro personnel after being promoted in June 2017. He joined the team on May 23, 2012, as a college scout.

Prior to coming to Green Bay, Wojciechowski (pronounced woh-jih-cow-skee) spent the previous nine seasons (2003-11) as the Northeast area scout for the Dallas Cowboys.

He came to Dallas after working for the Jacksonville Jaguars for five seasons (1998-2002). During his first three seasons with Jacksonville, Wojciechowski worked as the team's Southeast regional scout for the BLESTO scouting organization. He was promoted to Midwest scout by the Jaguars in 2001.

Wojciechowski's first venture into the NFL player personnel field came with the Pittsburgh Steelers, where he served as a player personnel assistant for two seasons (1996-97). With the Steelers, he evaluated both college and pro players and did quality-control work for the special teams units.

Wojciechowski was a four-year starter at Duquesne at defensive end (1992-95) and a three-year tri-captain. As a senior in '95, he earned first-team All-Metro Atlantic Conference honors and first-team All-America honors from Don Hansen's Football Gazette. He helped lead the Dukes to their first-ever conference championship (7-0 record) and a 10-1 mark overall. The team finished the season with an ECAC Bowl victory over Wagner.

RON WOLF'S STAMP ON PACKERS HISTORY

Ron Wolf arrived in Green Bay on Nov. 27, 1991, with a mandate to rescue the Green and Gold from a quarter-century of mediocrity, an assignment which prompted him to assert, "I was brought here to win."

And win, in the decade to follow, the Packers did – in large part because of his leadership and the "cast" he assembled to execute one of the most electrifying turnarounds in NFL annals ... rewardingly punctuated by Green Bay's first Super Bowl victory in nearly three decades and back-to-back appearances in professional football's ultimate game.

During the history-making process, he made a more profound impact upon the Packers organization than anyone since the revered Vince Lombardi, who arrived in Green Bay with a similar mission 32 years earlier. Over Wolf's 1992-2000 tenure, the Packers compiled the NFL's second-best regular-season record, a 92-52 mark for a .639 percentage, recorded seven straight winning seasons and made six consecutive playoff appearances.

He converted the Green and Gold from perennial also-rans into consistent winners, exemplified by the fact the Packers are tied for the second-best regular-season won-lost record since the 1993 institution of free agency (271-159-2, .630).

Wolf's aggressive stewardship, launched with the hiring of 49ers offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren as head coach and the acquisition of Brett Favre as a franchise quarterback in 1992, is perhaps no better illustrated than by the Packers' immediate, 9-7 turnaround in 1992 – his first year on the job – after the team had been a dismal 4-12 in 1991 and 6-10 in 1990 ... a transformation which brought him recognition as NFL Executive of the Year by Sporting News.

Wolf, reflecting upon the overall record from his perspective on the day he announced his retirement, observed with pardonable satisfaction: "What people said couldn't happen here ... happened here (building a winner in Green Bay) ... I'm proud of that."

A statistical glance at some notable team figures, over the nine seasons before – and after – Wolf took control:

1983-91		1992-2000
57-85-1	W-L-T, Overall	92-52-0
.402	Overall Winning Pct.	.639
31-40-1	W-L-T, Home Games	60-12-0
.438	Home Winning Pct.	.833
321.5	Total Offense/Game	333.8
330.4	Total Defense/Game	301.2

He oversaw the daily operations of the college scouting department and the staff. For the three years (2010-12) prior, Malaspina was a national scout, primarily serving in the Southeast region. SAM SEALE
NATIONAL SCOUT

Sam Seale, a nine-year NFL veteran as a player, heads into his 25th season with the Packers and his third as a national scout. Promoted to his current role on May 25, 2018, Seale spent the 2012-17 seasons as a West regional scout for the Packers.

In 2017, Seale was recognized as the NFC Scout of the Year at the Fritz Pollard Alliance Meeting, which took place during the NFL Scouting Combine.

Seale began his NFL playing career after being picked in the eighth round of the 1984 NFL Draft by the then-Los Angeles Raiders. After one year as a wide receiver (1984) and three seasons as a defensive back/kick returner (1985-87) for the Silver and Black, Seale headed south to play for the then-San Diego Chargers for the next four seasons (1988-91).

After becoming a full-time starter (at cornerback) for the first time in his pro career in 1989, Seale appeared in all 16 games for San Diego in both 1990 and '91. He then returned to the Los Angeles area in 1992 to play one additional season for the Raiders and appeared in one game with the Los Angeles Rams in 1993.

In 121 career games, Seale recorded 11 interceptions, returning one for a touchdown in 1985. He also scored once on a fumble recovery (in 1988 with San Diego).

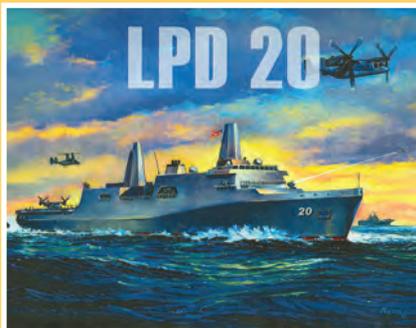

A four-time letterman (1980-83) as a running back for Western State College (Colo.), Seale averaged 5.3 yards per carry as a collegian while leading the team twice in both rushing and receiving. He also earned NAIA All-America honors in track, competing in the 60-, 100- and 200-meter events. The political science major was an All-Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference pick two seasons in football and four times in track. Seale was inducted into the Western State College Hall of Fame in 2002.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Promoted to national scout on May 25, 2018. First joined the Packers in 1995.
- Named the NFL Scout of the Year at the Fritz Pollard Alliance Meeting in 2017.
- A 1984 draft pick by the then-Los Angeles Raiders, spent four seasons each with the Raiders (1984-87) and the then-San Diego Chargers (1988-91).
- A four-year letterman at Western State College (Colo.) at running back, led the team twice both in rushing and receiving. Was inducted into the Western State College Hall of Fame in 2002.

While attending Orange (N.J.) High School, Seale was an all-state performer in football his senior year and in track as a junior and senior. He earned four letters as a running back/defensive back for the football team while also lettering twice in track as a sprinter.

He and his wife, Elizabeth, reside in San Diego and have two sons, Ricky (Sam Jr.), 28, and Samir, 26, and a daughter, Shi-Ann, 21. Ricky is the all-time leading rusher in San Diego prep history and was a four-year letterman (2011-14) at Stanford University.

THE USS GREEN BAY

On July 15, 2006, the U.S. Navy christened a 684-foot warship, and dubbed it the USS Green Bay at a shipyard in the New Orleans area.

Constructed in Avondale, La., at a shipyard owned by Northrop Grumman, it is the second Navy vessel to be called the Green Bay, following a small gunboat that patrolled the seas during the Vietnam era.

The newest USS Green Bay, used to carry troops for rapid deployment, launch and recovery, has become a significant part of the U.S. amphibious fleet.

Former Green Bay Packers quarterback Bart Starr appeared in a video that was played at the July 2006 christening ceremony. And Nancy Croy, principal at Green Bay's Lombardi Middle School – named after Starr's legendary coach Vince Lombardi – traveled to attend the christening as part of the school's relationship with the Navy.

Members of the Packers' front office, including President and CEO Mark Murphy, toured the ship in November 2008 during the team's road trip to New Orleans for a game against the Saints.

Commissioned Jan. 24, 2009, it can carry 360 Navy sailors and as many as 800 Marines. The ship is assigned to the U.S. Pacific Fleet; its home port is at the naval base in San Diego, Calif.

RICHMOND WILLIAMS

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Richmond Williams enters his 13th year with the Packers in 2020 and second as director of pro personnel after being elevated to the position on June 11, 2019. He previously spent two seasons as a pro scout (2017-18) and five seasons as a college scout (2012-16). He also served as the team's National Football Scouting representative to the annual NFL Scouting Combine and authored evaluations of all prospective seniors in the Southwest region. Williams spent the 2007 training camp as a scouting intern with the Packers.

Also in 2007, Williams volunteered as an assistant in the football office at his alma mater, the University of Iowa. His duties included helping coaches plan their recruiting trips and breaking down defensive game film.

Prior to working in the football office, Williams lettered two years as a cornerback for Iowa. He earned the Iowa "Team Leader" award all four years of his career, given by the coaching staff to the player who made high contributions on special teams. In 2006, Williams earned a B.A. in economics, as well as a certificate of entrepreneurship.

LAMBEAU'S TWIN FLAGS

The twin American flags above Lambeau Field enter their 16th season in 2019. The impressively sized flags, 15 feet by 25 feet, were raised May 28, 2004, on Memorial Day weekend that year.

Located on top of the stadium's indoor club seats on the north end of the facility, the flags are the culmination of the desire to improve Lambeau Field's honoring of America, an effort first discussed in Fall 2003, at the end of the stadium's 32-month renovation.

"Once the Lambeau Field redevelopment project was complete and we had our first games in the stadium, we realized the old flag and flagpole appeared a bit small compared to the larger size of the new facility," said Packers then-CEO Bob Harlan.

"We needed something more prominent to appropriately honor our country and decided to upgrade that component of the stadium. We also heard from a few fans that they had trouble locating the flag during the anthem, so this will definitely help in that area, too.

"The new, larger flags are a great way to honor America and the timing worked out for it to be done for Memorial Day weekend."

The flags are positioned atop 72-foot-high flagpoles which are stationed on top of the northeast and northwest corners of the stadium, above the club seats. All told, the flags are flying at 180 feet above ground.

Once the plans were set, the team worked with Kocken and Associates, of De Pere, Wis., on the design and engineering of the project. A major challenge of the design was ensuring both the structure and the flagpoles themselves could withstand the extreme wind load from the two large flags at that height.

Physical preparation for the new flagpoles began months prior with structural work, including reinforcing the area above the ceiling and on the roof with additional steel and concrete to support the extra load.

The two flags fly 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and are illuminated by spotlights at night.

GREEN BAY PACKERS, INC.

Now in their 102nd season of existence and their 100th season in the National Football League, the Green Bay Packers are a team and an organization unique in both structure and accomplishment. They represent – from an organizational standpoint – the only publicly owned franchise in the 32-team NFL. On the field, they have won 13 NFL championships, more than any other franchise.

The Packers have been a community-owned team since 1923 when the Green Bay Football Corporation was founded. After it was forced into receivership in 1933, the franchise was reorganized in 1935 as Green Bay Packers, Inc., which is still operating today.

While the Packers still think of themselves as community-owned, their community has grown since 1923 to reflect their worldwide fan base. There are 5,009,518 shares of stock owned by 361,311 shareholders. A seven-member executive committee elected from a board of directors governs the corporation. The committee directs corporate management, approves major capital expenditures, establishes broad policy and monitors management's performance in conducting the business and affairs of the corporation.

MATT LAFLEUR

HEAD COACH

12th NFL Season | Second Season as Packers Head Coach

Entering his 12th season in the National Football League, Matt LaFleur (la-flew-er) enters his second season in Green Bay after being named the Packers' 15th head coach on Jan. 8, 2019.

In LaFleur's first year leading the team in 2019, Green Bay finished the regular season with a 13-3 record on its way to an AFC North crown and the No. 2 seed in the AFC as he became just the fifth coach in league history to win 13-plus games in his first season as a head coach. He guided the Packers to their biggest one-year win improvement in club history (plus-seven wins) and became the first head coach to lead Green Bay to the playoffs in his first season. LaFleur joined Mike McCarthy as the only head coaches in club annals to lead the team to the NFC Championship Game in their first playoff appearance and he became the first NFL coach to do so since Jim Harbaugh led the 49ers to the NFC title game in 2011.

LaFleur guided the Packers to a 6-0 record in AFC North games in 2019, just the second time that Green Bay went undefeated in the division (2011) since the league went to a divisional format in 1967. He joined Jim Caldwell (2011) and Steve Mariucci (1997) as the only coaches in NFL history to post a perfect divisional record and 13-plus wins in the regular season in their first season as a head coach.

Since his first day addressing the team, LaFleur has emphasized the importance of the ball, both protecting it on offense and taking it away on defense. His emphasis translated into on-field success as the Packers posted a plus-12 turnover differential, tied for No. 3 in the NFL last season and the team's best mark since 2014 (plus-14). Green Bay was No. 2 in the NFL in giveaways with a franchise-record-tying 13, while also leading the league with a team-record nine zero-turnover games in 2019. On defense, the Packers were tied for No. 7 in the NFL with 25 takeaways and tied for No. 3 with 17 interceptions.

Led by LaFleur, the Packers recorded 20-plus points in 13 games during the 2019 regular season, good for No. 5 in the NFL. Green Bay was tied for No. 10 in the NFL in offensive TDs (44) and posted 18 rushing TDs (tied for No. 7 in the NFL), the most by the Packers since 2009 (20).

Green Bay's defense also took a step forward with LaFleur at the helm in 2019 as it allowed 19.6 points per game (No. 9 in the NFL). It marked the first time Green Bay had finished in the top 10 in the league in the category since 2010, which was also the last time the Packers allowed fewer than 20 points per game. The average of 19.6 points per game allowed was a 5.4-point decrease from 2018 (25.0 ppg.), the biggest one-year improvement in scoring defense for the Packers since 1996.

"We are very excited to welcome Matt as the next head coach of the Green Bay Packers," said Packers President and CEO Mark Murphy on the day of LaFleur's hiring. "We found a coach with the background and experience that we think will get us back to playing winning football. We're also excited about the person — he is bright with a great work ethic and a perfect fit for Green Bay and the organization."

LaFleur came to Green Bay after spending two seasons as an offensive coordinator, first with the Los Angeles Rams in 2017 and then with the Tennessee Titans in 2018. He also coached quarterbacks for two seasons with the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16) and four seasons with the Washington Redskins (2010-13). LaFleur got his start in the NFL coaching ranks with the Houston Texans as an offensive assistant in 2008-09.

COACHING BACKGROUND

Years	College/Pro Team	Position Coached
2003	Saginaw Valley State Univ.	Graduate Assistant
2004-05	Central Michigan Univ.	Graduate Assistant
2006	Northern Michigan Univ.	Quarterbacks/Wide Receivers
2007	Ashland Univ.	Offensive Coordinator
2008-09	Houston Texans	Offensive Assistant
2010-13	Washington Redskins	Quarterbacks
2014	Univ. of Notre Dame	Quarterbacks
2015-16	Atlanta Falcons	Quarterbacks
2017	Los Angeles Rams	Offensive Coordinator
2018	Tennessee Titans	Offensive Coordinator
2019-20	Green Bay Packers	Head Coach

During his first 10 seasons in the league, LaFleur was a part of offensive staffs that helped their teams rank in the top 10 in the NFL in total yards seven times (2008-09, 2012-13, 2015-17). In three of those seasons, LaFleur was on a staff that helped its offense finish in the top five in the league in scoring, highlighted by No. 1 rankings in 2016 with the Falcons and in 2017 with the Rams.

In his lone season with the Titans, LaFleur guided the offense to a No. 7 league ranking in rushing (126.4 ypg) as Tennessee registered 11 games with 100-plus rushing yards, tied for No. 2 in the NFL in 2018. Tennessee's ground game was led by third-year RB Derrick Henry, who finished No. 7 in the NFL in rushing yards (1,059) and tied for No. 3 in rushing TDs (12), the most by a Titan since RB Chris Johnson's 14 rushing TDs in 2009. RB Dion Lewis added 517 rushing yards as Tennessee was one of only three teams in the league (Denver and Seattle) to feature both a 1,000-yard back and a 500-yard back in 2018.

Despite missing three full games and parts of others due to injuries, Titans QB Marcus Mariota set a single-season franchise record with a 68.9 completion percentage, good for No. 6 in the league in '18, and posted a career-high average of 7.64 yards per attempt, the top mark by a Titans QB (min. 200 att.) since Steve McNair in 2003 (8.04). In Week 12 at Houston, Mariota completed 22 of 23 passes for 303 yards and two TDs with no INTs, a 95.7 completion percentage that was the second-best single-game mark in NFL history (min. 20 att.) behind only Chargers QB Philip Rivers' 96.6 percentage recorded the previous day vs. Arizona.

Under LaFleur's direction, Tennessee's offense had one of its finest seasons in team history when it came to taking care of the football, finishing tied for No. 7 in the league with 18 giveaways, tied for the third fewest in a season in franchise annals (17 in 2008 and 2019). The Titans set a single-season team record with only six fumbles lost on the season, which was tied for No. 4 in the NFL in 2018. The offense also contributed to the Titans being called for only 82 penalties on the season, the fewest in the league in 2018 and the fewest in franchise history in a 16-game season (since 1978).

Tennessee's offense suffered a significant blow when TE Delanie Walker, who earned Pro Bowl honors in three consecutive seasons (2015-17), sustained a season-ending ankle injury in Week 1 at Miami. The Titans' other tight ends (Jonnu Smith, Anthony Firkser, Luke Stocker, MyCole Pruitt) went on to combine for 750 yards and seven TDs on 63 receptions (11.9 avg.).

As offensive coordinator for the Rams in 2017, LaFleur was part of a staff that helped the team improve its win total by seven games (4-12 to 11-5) as Los Angeles took home the NFC West crown for the first time since 2003. The Rams led the league in scoring with an average of 29.9 points per game, more than doubling their average from 2016 (14.0 ppg) as they became the first team in the Super Bowl era (since 1966) to go from last to first in the NFL in scoring in one season. The Rams also finished in the top 10 in the league in total offense (No. 10, 361.5 ypg), rushing offense (No. 8, 122.1 ypg), passing offense (No. 10, 239.4 ypg) and third-down percentage (No. 9, 41.1).

RB Todd Gurley was named Offensive Player of the Year by The Associated Press after leading the league in yards from scrimmage (2,093) and rushing TDs (13) and ranking No. 2 in the NFL with a career-high 1,305 rushing yards. QB Jared Goff finished in the top 10 in the league in passer rating (No. 5, 100.5), passing yards (No. 10, 3,804), passing TDs (t-No. 5, 28) and interception percentage (No. 5, 1.47). The Rams threw only seven interceptions on the season, the fewest in the NFL in 2017 and tied for the fewest in a season in franchise history (1969).

LaFleur joined the Rams after serving as the quarterbacks coach for the Atlanta Falcons in 2015-16. In 2016, he was a member of an offensive staff that helped the Falcons win the NFC title and set franchise records for total yards per game (415.8), points scored (540), net passing yards per game (295.3) and yards per play (6.7). LaFleur tutored QB Matt Ryan as he set single-season franchise marks for passing yards (4,944), completion percentage (69.9) and TD passes (38) along with an average of 9.26 yards per attempt that ranked No. 1 in league history among QBs with 500-plus attempts. Ryan led the league with a 117.1 passer rating, the sixth highest in a season in NFL history, on his way to being named NFL Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year by AP.

LaFleur spent the 2014 season coaching quarterbacks at the University of Notre Dame, where he helped QB Everett Golson throw for 3,445 yards and 29 TDs, both good for No. 3 in single-season school annals. Golson completed a school-record 25 consecutive passes in a game vs. Syracuse, eclipsing the previous mark of 14 straight held by three different quarterbacks.

From 2010-13, LaFleur served as quarterbacks coach for the Washington Redskins. In 2012, he tutored rookie Robert Griffin III, who became the first QB in team history to win AP Offensive Rookie of the Year and the first Redskins rookie QB to be selected to the Pro Bowl. Washington finished 10-6 on the season, taking home its first NFC East crown in 13 years. Griffin completed 258 of 393 passes (65.6 percent) for 3,200 yards and 20 TDs with just five INTs, and set NFL rookie records for passer rating (102.4), interception percentage (1.27) and rushing yards by a QB (815). The Redskins ranked No. 4 in the league in 2012 in scoring (27.3 ppg), the second-best average in team history (27.7 in 1999), and led the NFL with a franchise-low 14 giveaways on the season.

In 2011, veteran QB Rex Grossman started 13 games and posted career highs for completions (265) and passing yards per game (242.4) under LaFleur's direction. In his first season in Washington, LaFleur helped the Redskins finish No. 8 in the league in passing offense (244.6 ypg), the team's best average since 1999 (245.4 ypg). Veteran QB Donovan McNabb started 13 contests in 2010 and ranked No. 8 in the league with an average of 259.8 passing yards per game.

LaFleur's first NFL coaching experience came with Houston as an offensive assistant in 2008-09, where he was part of a staff that helped the Texans rank in the top five in the league in total offense and passing offense in both of those seasons. In 2009, LaFleur assisted offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Kyle Shanahan with the QBs as the Texans ranked No. 4 in the league in total offense (383.1 ypg), highlighted by a passing game that ranked No. 1 in the NFL (franchise-record average of 290.9 ypg) as QB Matt Schaub led the league and set single-season team records for passing yards (4,770) and completions (396). In 2008, LaFleur assisted wide receivers coach Larry Kirksey as Houston ranked No. 3 in the league in total offense (382.1 ypg) and No. 4 in passing offense (266.7 ypg), with WR Andre Johnson leading the NFL in receptions (team-record 115) and receiving yards (1,575).

In 2007, LaFleur served as the offensive coordinator at Ashland (Ohio) University, where he helped the Eagles score a then-school-record 440 points and average 528.2 yards of offense per game on the way to an NCAA Division II postseason appearance, the team's first since 1997.

LaFleur began his coaching career as an offensive assistant at Saginaw Valley State in 2003 before working as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan in 2004-05. He also coached quarterbacks and wide receivers at Northern Michigan in 2006.

Born Nov. 3, 1979, in Mount Pleasant, Mich., LaFleur played quarterback at Saginaw Valley State (2000-02), where he guided the Cardinals to three straight NCAA Division II playoff appearances and earned second-team All-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference honors in all three seasons. He ranks No. 3 in school history in passing yards (7,699), completions (560) and passing TDs (67). LaFleur began his college career as a wide receiver at Western Michigan (1998-99) before transferring to SVSU.

Following his college career, LaFleur played in the National Indoor Football League for the Omaha Beef in 2003 and the Billings Outlaws in 2004.

LaFleur's younger brother, Mike, is currently the passing game coordinator for the San Francisco 49ers. Their father, Dennis, was a starting linebacker on Central Michigan's 1974 national champion team and went on to be a defensive assistant coach for the Chippewas for 22 seasons (1976-97). Following his time at CMU, Dennis also served as the head coach for four seasons and as an assistant coach for 13 seasons at Mount Pleasant (Mich.) High School.

LaFleur and his wife, BreAnne, reside in De Pere with their two sons, Luke and Ty.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE, PACKERS HISTORY

Phil Bengtson, Vince Lombardi's hand-picked replacement, might have dealt with more pressure in 1970 than anyone who has ever coached the Packers. That season, his third and final as Green Bay's head coach, ended at 6-8, with losses in four of his last five games (all on the road). What's more, Bengtson faced the toughest schedule ever thrown at the Packers. The toughest schedules in team history, based on opponent records at the end of that season:

	W	L	Pct	Packers' finish	Notable opponents
1970	113	74	.604	6-8-0, tied for third, division	Super Bowl V-champion Colts (twice), NFC-champion Cowboys

1933	84	57	.596	5-7-1, third in division	Both NFL title participants (Bears & Giants) twice
1926	79	55	.590	7-3-3, fifth in league	14-1-2 league-champion Frankford Yellow Jackets

CHRIS GIZZI

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COORDINATOR

Seventh Season as NFL Coach | Seventh Packers Season

Chris Gizzi enters his seventh season on Green Bay's coaching staff in 2020 and his second as strength and conditioning coordinator, having been promoted to the position on Feb. 18, 2019, by Head Coach Matt LaFleur.

Originally hired by the Packers on February 7, 2014, Gizzi spent five seasons with the organization (2014-18) as a strength and conditioning assistant. Prior to coming to Green Bay, he spent the 2013 season as an assistant football strength and conditioning coach for the University of North Carolina. Before joining the Tar Heels at the start of the college football season, Gizzi served as a strength and conditioning intern with the Packers during the 2013 offseason and training camp. His first coaching experience came in 1998 when he served as a graduate assistant defensive coach at the Air Force Academy. He also served as a defensive quality control coach at Air Force in 1999.

In his first season as strength and conditioning coordinator, the Packers had 28 players appear in all 16 regular-season games, the most in the NFL in 2019. For Green Bay, it tied the top mark posted by the team over the past 20 seasons (2000-19), matching the number of players to play in all 16 games in 2000 and 2014.

As a player, Gizzi entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Denver Broncos in 1998. A 1997 graduate of the Air Force Academy, the linebacker participated in the Broncos' offseason activities in '98 and '99, but spent both seasons on the reserve/military list while honoring his commitment to the United States military.

Upon completing his military duty in 2000, Gizzi returned to the Broncos and played in all four preseason contests before he was released by the team in the final roster reduction. Gizzi was acquired by the Packers off waivers on the eve of the 2000 regular season and spent time on both the 53-man roster and the practice squad during his first season with the club. The first-year linebacker played in 11 games and ranked fifth on the club with eight special teams tackles.

Gizzi returned to the Packers in 2001 and played in 12 games, making the first and only start of his career in Week 3 at Carolina. Gizzi tallied four tackles (three solo) in the 28-7 win over the Panthers and finished the season with nine tackles (six solo), before he was placed on injured reserve in Week 15.

A two-year starter and three-time letterwinner (1994, 1996-97) at Air Force, Gizzi played in 38 games for the Falcons, finishing his career with 342 tackles (155 solo), including 26 for a loss, and 10 sacks. The standout defender earned back-to-back Western Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year awards in 1996-97, becoming

TITLETOWN: GREEN BAY, WIS.

On Dec. 6, 1961, three days after the Packers clinched the Western Conference title and were assured of playing host to the NFL Championship Game in Green Bay for the first time, civic leaders adopted the nickname "Titetown, U.S.A."

Some 110 men and women from all walks of civic and business life in Green Bay agreed to the idea – the brainchild of Jack Yuenger, the Green Bay Press-Gazette's advertising manager at the time – during a breakfast at the old downtown Beaumont Hotel. Festivities were to start following the Packers' final regular-season game in Los Angeles on Dec. 17.

The group made plans to hang Titetown banners and signs in the downtown area; held a number of events, including a Christmas party for the Packers on Dec. 23 at the Brown County Veterans Memorial Arena; and wrote a song, "Titetown, U.S.A.," to the tune of "Mr. Touchdown."

The community enthusiastically greeted the idea to the point where it still uses the nickname, and the Packers did their part on Dec. 31 by beating the Giants, 37-0, in the first postseason game ever played at what is now Lambeau Field.

NATHANIEL HACKETT

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

12th NFL Season | Second Packers Season

ensive coordinator.

Named to his position on Jan. 16, 2019, by Head Coach Matt LaFleur, Hackett served as the offensive coordinator for the Jacksonville Jaguars for the previous three seasons (2016-18), having initially assumed the role in Week 9 of the 2016 campaign. He also served as the offensive coordinator for the Buffalo Bills for two seasons (2013-14). Hackett's first NFL coaching experience came with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he served as the offensive quality control coach in 2006-07. He also worked as the offensive quality control coach with the Bills in 2008-09.

In Hackett's first season with the Packers in 2019, he helped guide the offense to a No. 2 ranking in the league in giveaways with just 13, which tied the single-season franchise record set in 2014. Green Bay set a team record with a league-best nine games without a turnover. The Packers posted 18 rushing TDs on the season, which was tied for No. 7 in the NFL and was the most by Green Bay since 2009 (20).

Green Bay's rushing attack was led by RB Aaron Jones, who posted a career-high 1,084 rushing yards and a career-best 16 rushing TDs, which was tied for the second in the NFL in '19 and was the second most in team history behind only FB Jim Taylor (19 in 1962). QB Aaron Rodgers led the league in interception percentage (0.70) and tied for the league lead with 12 zero-INT games. Rodgers threw for 4,002 yards and 26 TDs with just four INTs, his second straight season with 4,000-plus passing yards, 25-plus TD passes and four or fewer INTs, the only QB to achieve those totals in a season in NFL history.

In 2018, Hackett helped the Jaguars register back-to-back games with 500-plus yards of total offense for the first time in team history, with 503 yards vs. the N.Y. Jets in Week 4 and 502 yards at Kansas City in Week 5. QB Blake Bortles set a single-season franchise record with three games with 375-plus passing yards, with all three of those performances coming in the first five games of the season. That included his 376-yard effort with four TD passes in Jacksonville's 31-20 win in Week 2 over the eventual Super Bowl champion New England Patriots as the Jaguars racked up 480 total yards of offense, the most allowed by the Patriots all season.

In 2017, Hackett helped the Jaguars lead the league in rushing (141.4 ypg) for the first time in team history on their way to an appearance in the AFC Championship Game. Jacksonville posted a league-best 11 games with 135-plus rushing yards, four more than any other team in '17, and allowed a franchise-low 24 sacks on the season (No. 3 in the NFL). Hackett also guided the offense to a No. 2 ranking in the NFL in red-zone TD percentage (64.0), the top mark posted by the Jaguars in team annals, and a No. 1 league ranking in goal-to-go TD percentage (85.7).

Hackett took over as the offensive coordinator and play-caller for the Jaguars in Week 9 of the 2016 season, and the team improved its rankings in several categories under his direction. In Weeks 9-17, Jacksonville ranked No. 5 in the league in rushing (124.8 ypg) over that span after averaging 72.6 yards per game through Week 8 (No. 30 in the NFL). The Jaguars posted a league-high 112 runs of 4-plus yards in Weeks 9-17 after ranking last in the league with just 38 runs in the first eight weeks. Hackett also helped the offense rank No. 15 in the league in sacks allowed with 34 on the season after the team gave up 51 in 2015.

Under Hackett's tutelage as the quarterbacks coach in 2015, Bortles set single-season franchise records for passing TDs (35), passing yards (4,428), completions (355) and attempts (606). He also set a team record with a passing TD in 15 consecutive games (Weeks 1-7, 9-16) and posted a franchise-record 72 completions of 20-plus yards. Bortles is one of only four QBs in league history (Steve Young, Daunte Culpepper, Rodgers) to post 4,000 passing yards, 35-plus passing TDs and 300-plus rushing yards in a season, and became the youngest to accomplish the feat by doing so at age 23 in '15. Hackett helped Bortles join Dan Marino (48 in 1984) and Matthew Stafford (41 in 2011) as the only QBs in NFL history to throw 35-plus TD passes at age 23 or younger. In 2016, Bortles joined Rodgers (2009-10) as the only QBs in league history to register back-to-back seasons with 3,900-plus passing yards, 20-plus passing TDs and 300-plus rushing yards.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Hackett directed a Bills offense in 2014 that registered an 86.0 passer rating, the top mark by the team since 2002. Buffalo's quarterbacks combined for only 13 interceptions, the third fewest in franchise history to that point, and the offense registered 33 plays of 25-plus yards, the sixth most in the NFL and the most by a Bills team since 2000. WR Sammy Watkins set team rookie records for receiving yards (982), receptions (65) and 100-yard receiving games (four). QB Kyle Orton posted a career-best 64.2 completion percentage, the third-best mark in team history to that point, and a career-high 87.8 passer rating.

In his first season as an NFL offensive coordinator in 2013, Hackett oversaw an offense that ranked No. 2 in the NFL in rushing (144.2 ypg), the best average posted by the Bills since 1992 (152.3 ypg). Buffalo's rushing attack was led by RBs C.J. Spiller (933 yards) and Fred Jackson (890 yards), who became the first duo in franchise history to both register 875-plus rushing yards in the same season and were the lone teammate tandem in the NFL to do so in 2013. QB E.J. Manuel started 10 games and set franchise rookie records for passing TDs (11) and completions (180).

Hackett joined the Bills after three seasons at Syracuse, serving as the offensive coordinator and tight ends/quarterbacks coach in 2011-12 after spending the 2010 season as quarterbacks/passing game/tight ends coach. Under his guidance, the Orange set numerous school records in 2012, including total offense (6,188 yards), yards per game (476.0), passing yards (3,757), TD passes (26), completions (295) and first downs (328). Syracuse featured a 3,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and a 1,000-yard receiver in 2012 for the first time in school history and posted seven games with 500-plus yards of total offense. Hackett tutored QB Ryan Nassib, who finished his career at Syracuse with school records for passing yards (9,190), completions (791) and attempts (1,312) while ranking second in TD passes (70).

Prior to joining Syracuse, Hackett served four seasons as an offensive quality control coach in the NFL, first with the Buccaneers (2006-07) and then with the Bills (2008-09). Before that, he spent three seasons at Stanford University, working as the specialists coach and recruiting coordinator in 2005 and as an assistant to the offensive and defensive coordinators in 2003-04. Hackett began his coaching career at his alma mater, University of California, Davis, in 2003, where he served as assistant linebackers coach.

Hackett was a four-year letterman at UC Davis, where he played linebacker and served as the team's long snapper from 1999-2002. He won the George Beleniz Award in 1998 as the team's Most Outstanding Redshirt and the Aggie Pride award in 2002 as a senior. Hackett was a part of teams that reached the playoffs in all four of his seasons and finished with a combined 41-9 record.

Hackett's father, Paul, coached 42 seasons (1969-2010) at the college and professional levels, most recently as quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders in 2009-10. Paul was the head coach at the University of Pittsburgh (1989-92) and at the University of Southern California (1998-2000) and was offensive coordinator for the Kansas City Chiefs (1993-97) and N.Y. Jets (2001-04).

Born Dec. 19, 1979, in Fullerton, Calif., Hackett is married to Megan. The couple has two sons, Harrison and London, and two daughters, Briar and Everly.

MODERN INSTANT REPLAY "CHALLENGE" SYSTEM, BY THE NUMBERS

After being first introduced in 1999 as a referee replay review to aid officiating, the instant-replay system was extended on a one-year basis in 2000 before being approved for the next three years through 2003. It was later extended on a five-year basis in March 2004, and then finally installed permanently in March 2007.

Plays can either be reviewed by an on-site NFL replay official or on behalf of a coach's challenge. The following is a look at the results of instant replay over the past 19 regular seasons:

SHAWN MENNENGA

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Ninth NFL Season | Second Packers Season

Entering his ninth season as a coach in the NFL, Shawn Mennenga enters his second year with the Packers in 2020 as the club's special teams coordinator.

Named to his position on Feb. 1, 2019, by Head Coach Matt LaFleur, Mennenga (MEN-in-guh) came to Green Bay after spending the 2018 season as the special teams coordinator at Vanderbilt University. He served as the special teams assistant for the Cleveland Browns for the previous seven seasons (2011-17).

In his first season with the Packers in 2019, Mennenga worked with K Mason Crosby, who tied the single-season franchise record for field-goal percentage by connecting on 22 of 24 attempts (91.7 pct.) as he matched K Jan Stenerud's mark set in 1981 (22 of 24). Crosby ranked No. 5 in the league in FG percentage last season, the highest ranking by a Green Bay kicker since Ryan Longwell in 2003 (No. 4). P JK Scott posted 29 punts inside the 20 under Mennenga's direction in '19, which ranked No. 9 in the NFL and was the most by a Packer since P Tim Masthay recorded 30 in 2012. RB Tyler Ervin, who was claimed off waivers from Jacksonville in early December, registered 106 yards on punt returns in the final four games, which was tied for No. 3 in the NFL over that span.

In 2018 at Vanderbilt, Mennenga helped punter Parker Thome rank No. 4 in the Southeastern Conference with an average of 44.9 yards per punt on 51 punts, including 14 punts of 50-plus yards and 19 inside the 20-yard line. Thome's average was tied for the fourth best in a season in school history, and he set a single-game school record by averaging 55.3 yards on three punts in Vanderbilt's win vs. Tennessee.

From 2011-17, Mennenga helped the Browns rank No. 7 in the NFL over that span in punt return average (9.9) and opponent kickoff return average (21.8). Cleveland was the only team in the league to earn at least one AFC Special Teams Player of the Week award each season from 2011-16, picking up seven awards over that span.

In 2017, punter Britton Colquitt set franchise single-season records for net punting average (40.6 yards), topping his own mark set in 2016 (40.3 yards), and punting average (47.6 yards, No. 5 in the NFL). Kicker Zane Gonzalez set a Browns rookie record with 15 field goals, including a 54-yarder in Week 7 vs. Tennessee that was the longest FG by a rookie in team history. As a team, Cleveland finished No. 8 in the NFL in kickoff return average (22.6), with rookie RB Matthew Dayes posting two kickoff returns of 50-plus yards on the season (71, 53).

As a team in 2015, the Browns finished No. 4 in the NFL in punt return average (11.2), with WR Travis Benjamin checking in at No. 3 in the league with an 11.6-yard average. P Andy Lee recorded a punting average of 46.7 yards (No. 8 in the NFL) with a 40.1-yard net average and K Travis Coons set an NFL record with 18 consecutive field goals to start his career, finishing the season with an 87.5 percentage (28 of 32).

In 2014, Mennenga assisted with a special teams unit that finished No. 2 in the league in opposing field position on kickoffs, including 16 stops inside the 20-yard line. The Browns also registered their first blocked punt since 2003, which resulted in a safety as the team rallied from a 25-point deficit at Tennessee in Week 4, scoring 26 unanswered points to defeat the Titans in the largest road comeback win (29-28) in league history.

MIKE PETTINE

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

17th NFL Season | Third Packers Season

Entering his 17th season coaching in the NFL, Mike Pettine begins his third year with the Packers in 2020 as the club's defensive coordinator.

Originally named to his position on Jan. 24, 2018, Pettine was retained by Head Coach Matt LaFleur on Jan. 11, 2019. Pettine (PETT-in) has two years of experience in the league as a head coach (Cleveland, 2014-15) and seven seasons as a defensive coordinator (N.Y. Jets, 2009-12; Buffalo Bills, 2013; Green Bay, 2019). He spent his first seven seasons in the NFL with the Baltimore Ravens (2002-08), serving as the outside linebackers coach for the final four seasons. Pettine also worked as a consultant for the Seattle Seahawks in 2017.

In 2019, Pettine guided a defense that ranked No. 9 in points allowed (19.6 ppg), the first time the Packers had finished in the top 10 in the NFL in the category since 2010 (15.6 ppg, No. 2). It marked Green Bay's biggest one-year improvement in scoring defense (5.4-point decrease from 2018) since 1996 (13.1 ppg after allowing 19.6 ppg in 1995). Green Bay also ranked in the top 10 in the league in '19 in interceptions (17, t-No. 3), takeaways (25, t-No. 7) and opponent passer rating (81.1, No. 6). The Packers were one of only five teams in the NFL to allow fewer than 20 points per game and post 40-plus sacks and 25-plus takeaways last season. Green Bay's defense featured the first duo in team history (since 1982) to post 12-plus sacks each in the same season in LBs Za'Darius Smith (career-high 13.5) and Preston Smith (career-best 12.0).

In his first season with the Packers in 2018, Pettine led a defense that was tied for No. 8 in the league in sacks (44), the most by Green Bay since it posted the same number in 2013. Green Bay's defense featured 16 different players with at least a half-sack last season, the second most in team history (since 1982) behind only the 1987 campaign (strike season) that saw 17 players register a half-sack or more. Pettine guided the Packers to a No. 12 ranking in pass defense (234.5 yards per game) after the team finished No. 23 in the category in 2017. Green Bay's defense also improved to No. 9 in the league in three-and-out percentage (21.9) after checking in at No. 26 in the category in 2017 and No. 8 in the NFL in opponent red-zone scoring percentage (83.9) after ranking No. 32 in '17.

In his first season as Cleveland's head coach in 2014, Pettine led the Browns to their most victories (seven) since 2007 as they led the league in opponent passer rating (74.1) and opponent completion percentage (57.1) and ranked No. 2 in interceptions (21). The Browns engineered four fourth-quarter comebacks on the season, including the largest road comeback in NFL history after the team rallied from a 25-point deficit at Tennessee in Week 4, scoring 26 unanswered points to defeat the Titans, 29-28.

Cleveland's defense made significant improvement in nearly every major defensive statistic that season, including opponent passer rating (No. 16 in 2013 to No. 1 in 2014), takeaways (tied for No. 24 to tied for No. 4), red-zone defense (tied for No. 29 to No. 5), points allowed per game (No. 23 to No. 9) and third-down defense (No. 31 to No. 11). After finishing the 2013 campaign with a minus-8 turnover margin, the Browns posted a plus-6 margin in Pettine's first season, the largest increase by Cleveland in 23 years.

The Browns had four players named to the Pro Bowl for the 2014 season, with S Tashaun Gipson, CB Joe Haden, T

Joe Thomas and S Donte Whitner all earning selections. It marked the first time in team history that three defensive backs were selected to the Pro Bowl, and it was the first time the Browns had three defensive players named to the all-star game since 1995. Cleveland also had three players selected to the Pro Bowl in 2015, with Thomas, TE Gary Barnidge and C Alex Mack all honored.

Prior to joining the Browns, Pettine spent five seasons as a defensive coordinator in the NFL, helping his units finish in the top 10 in the league in total yards allowed and passing yards allowed in all five seasons. In 2013, he helped the Bills rank No. 2 in the league with a franchise-record 57 sacks as they were the only team in the league to have three players (DE Mario Williams, DT Kyle Williams, DT Marcell Dareus) each register 10-plus sacks. All three players and S Jairus Byrd were selected to the Pro Bowl, with Mario Williams and Byrd also earning second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press. Pettine also oversaw the development of LB Kiko Alonso, who was named the 2013 Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Professional Football Writers of America after leading the team with a career-high 159 tackles, two sacks and four interceptions.

Under Pettine's direction, Buffalo ranked No. 1 in the NFL in 2013 in opponent completion percentage (55.3), No. 2 in interceptions (23), No. 3 in opponent passer rating (74.9), No. 4 in passing yards allowed (204.4 ypg) and tied for No. 6 in takeaways (30). The Bills finished No. 10 in the league in total defense (333.4 ypg) in 2013 after finishing No. 22 (362.9 ypg) in 2012.

During Pettine's four seasons with the Jets (2009-12), the defense ranked No. 1 in the NFL over that span in opponent passer rating (71.0), opponent completion percentage (52.6) and passing yards allowed (186.3 ypg), No. 2 in total yards allowed (294.8 ypg) and third-down defense (34.6 percent), and No. 7 in points allowed (20.0 ppg) and takeaways (115).

In 2012, Pettine helped the Jets rank No. 2 in the league in passing yards allowed (189.8 ypg) and opponent completion percentage (53.8), No. 6 in yards per attempt (6.49) and No. 7 in opponent passer rating (78.2). Two members of New York's secondary were selected to the Pro Bowl (CB Antonio Cromartie, S LaRon Landry), with Landry earning Pro Bowl honors for the first time in his career.

In 2011, Pettine guided New York to a No. 3 ranking in opponent passer rating (69.6) as the Jets also finished No. 4 in the NFL in opponent completion percentage (54.2) and No. 6 in yards per attempt (6.73). The Jets were tied for No. 5 in the league with 31 takeaways, marking the third straight season under Pettine that the team forced 30-plus turnovers as the Jets joined the Packers as the only two teams in the league to do so from 2009-11.

Pettine helped the Jets rank No. 1 in the league in opponent completion percentage (50.7) and No. 3 in total yards allowed (291.5 ypg) in 2010 as New York advanced to the AFC Championship Game, highlighted by road wins at Indianapolis and New England in the playoffs. New York's defense also ranked No. 3 in the league that season in rushing yards allowed (90.9 ypg) and yards allowed per carry (3.56).

Pettine made an immediate impact in his first season with the Jets in 2009, guiding the defense to No. 1 overall rankings in total yards allowed (252.3), passing yards allowed (153.7 ypg) and points allowed (14.8 ppg). The average of 14.8 points allowed per game set a franchise single-season record, while the average of 252.3 yards allowed per game was the second-best mark in team history (240.2 ypg in 1968). Pettine's defense gave up 10 or fewer points a league-high seven times in '09, which also set a franchise single-season record. His defense allowed a franchise-low eight passing TDs on the season, the fewest given up by an NFL team in a 16-game season to that point. The Jets also led the league in opponent passer rating (58.8) – the best mark posted by an NFL team since the 2003 Patriots (56.2) – and opponent completion percentage (51.7).

CB Darrelle Revis earned first-team AP All-Pro honors and was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2009-11 under Pettine's guidance, the lone cornerback in the league to receive first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl recognition in each of those seasons. Revis posted career highs in interceptions (six) and passes defended (34) in 2009, finishing as the runner-up in AP Defensive Player of the Year voting to Packers CB Charles Woodson.

Prior to joining the Jets, Pettine spent seven seasons (2002-08) with the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the outside linebackers coach for the final four seasons. He helped Baltimore's defense rank No. 2 in total yards allowed in 2008, No. 6 in 2007, No. 1 in 2006 and No. 5 in 2005. The Ravens were tied for No. 5 in the NFL from 2005-08 with 168 sacks, including a franchise-record 60 in '06. In 2008, LB Terrell Suggs earned Pro Bowl honors after registering eight sacks and a career-high two INTs returned for touchdowns. Suggs and LB Adalius Thomas both earned Pro Bowl recognition under Pettine's direction in 2006, with Thomas recording a career-high 11 sacks as he finished tied for No. 3 among NFL linebackers. Pettine joined the Ravens in 2002, serving as a coaching and video assistant that first season before working as a coaching assistant/quality control coach in 2003 and a defensive assistant in 2004.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Pettine was the head coach at North Penn High School (Lansdale, Pa.) from 1997-2001. He led the school to 45 wins in five seasons, including an 11-2 record in 1999. Pettine also served as the head coach at William Tennent High School (Warminster, Pa.) in 1995-96, taking over a team that had won three games total in the previous three seasons. He led the team to five wins in his first season and a school-record nine victories in 1996. Pettine also spent two seasons coaching at the college level, serving as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh in 1993-94.

Pettine began his coaching career as an assistant to his father, Mike Sr., at Central Bucks West High School in Doylestown, Pa., for five seasons (1988-92). Mike Sr., who coached 33 seasons at the school, retired after the 1999 campaign as the winningest coach in the history of Pennsylvania high school football with a career record of 326-42-4 (.882). Pettine played for his father and earned all-state honors at quarterback and defensive back.

Pettine was a two-year letterman (1986-87) as a free safety at the University of Virginia, leading the team with five interceptions in 1986 and tying the single-game school record for INTs with three vs. North Carolina State that season. He graduated with a degree in economics.

Born Sept. 25, 1966, in Doylestown, Pa., Pettine lives in Green Bay with his wife, Megan. Their combined family includes four daughters, Megan, Katie, Paige and McKenna, and two sons, Ryan and Max.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY ASSISTS PACKERS TO 1961 CHAMPIONSHIP

Vince Lombardi won nine straight postseason games, a streak that began in 1961 during the Berlin Crisis when Paul Hornung, Ray Nitschke and Boyd Dowler were called up to active military duty.

Hornung was ordered to report to Fort Riley, Kan., Nitschke and Dowler to Fort Lewis, Wash.

All three reported by mid-November and were at the mercy of their base commanders as far as getting weekend passes to play football. In the end, Dowler played all 14 games that season, and Nitschke and Hornung each played 12.

In fact, Hornung played enough to be named the NFL's Most Valuable Player.

But with the league's championship game scheduled for Dec. 31, Lombardi was fretting over how much practice time the three would get.

That proved to be no problem for Dowler and Nitschke. They were given 14-day leaves and arrived back in Green Bay on Dec. 22. But Hornung was awarded just a six-day leave that wasn't going to start until Dec. 27, leaving him scant time to practice.

Based on secondhand accounts, the story goes that Lombardi decided to pull some strings. He had President John F.

Kennedy's private phone number at the White House and called him. Kennedy, in turn, called Fort Riley with clear instructions that Hornung be given an earlier release.

Orders were followed and Hornung arrived in Green Bay not only in time for a week of practice, but to escort a date to Green Bay's Charity Ball on Dec. 23.

The Packers ended up beating the Giants, 37-0, and Hornung was named the game's MVP.

The Berlin Crisis was a Cold War confrontation between the United States and the Soviet Union over the occupation of the German capital. At its height in late 1961, there was fear that it could trigger a nuclear war.

LUKE GETSY

QUARTERBACKS/PASSING GAME COORDINATOR
Sixth NFL Season | Sixth Packers Season

Luke Getsy begins his sixth season with the Packers and his first season as quarterbacks/passing game coordinator after being promoted on March 12, 2020.

In his second stint with the team, Getsy was named quarterbacks coach on Jan. 29, 2019, by Head Coach Matt LaFleur, after spending the 2018 season as the offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach at Mississippi State University. He served as the wide receivers coach for the Packers in 2016-17 and offensive quality control coach in 2014-15. Getsy was originally hired by the Packers on Feb. 7, 2014, and then was promoted to wide receivers coach on Feb. 17, 2016.

In 2019, Getsy helped QB Aaron Rodgers earn his eighth career Pro Bowl selection after throwing for 4,002 yards and 26 touchdowns with four interceptions, his second consecutive season with 4,000-plus passing yards, 25-plus passing TDs and four or fewer INTs, the only QB in NFL history to achieve those totals in a single season. Rodgers led the league in interception percentage (0.70), the second-best single-season mark in team history, and tied for the NFL lead with 12 zero-INT games.

In his lone season at Mississippi State in 2018, Getsy helped the Bulldogs rank No. 2 in the Southeastern Conference in rushing offense (223.6 ypg, No. 20 in the nation) and yards per carry (5.66, No. 12 in the nation). MSU rushed for 300-plus yards in four games on the season, the most in the SEC and tied for No. 13 in the FBS. Four different Bulldogs combined for an SEC-best 13 individual 100-yard rushing games, led by QB Nick Fitzgerald (seven). MSU was tied for No. 1 in the FBS in fumbles lost with only three on the season and was tied for No. 3 in the country with just nine total fumbles. The Bulldogs racked up 66 offensive plays of 20-plus yards, the most by the team since 2015 (68).

As wide receivers coach with the Packers in 2016-17, Getsy worked with WR Davante Adams, who was the only player in the NFL with 70-plus receptions and 10-plus receiving TDs in both of those seasons. Adams led the team with 74 catches for a team-high 885 yards (12.0 avg.) and 10 TDs in 2017 on his way to earning Pro Bowl recognition for the first time in his career.

In Getsy's first year as receivers coach in 2016, the Packers were one of two teams in the NFL (New Orleans) to have three wide receivers (Jordy Nelson, Adams and Randall Cobb) with 60-plus receptions and 600-plus receiving yards. After missing the 2015 season due to a knee injury, Nelson was named The Associated Press NFL Comeback Player of the Year after starting all 16 games and leading the team in all three receiving categories with 97 receptions for 1,257 yards (13.0 avg.) and 14 TDs. Adams posted then-career highs with 75 catches for 997 yards (13.3 avg.) and 12 TDs. Nelson led the NFL in receiving TDs (14) and Adams was tied for No. 2 (12) as they became only the second teammate duo in franchise history with 12-plus TD catches each in the same season (Nelson and Cobb, 2014).

In 2015, Getsy assisted with an offense that posted eight zero-turnover games, tied for the best mark (2009) in franchise history to that point (since 1933). In his first season in Green Bay in 2014, he was part of an offensive staff that helped the Packers lead the league in scoring (30.4 ppg) and set team single-season records for first downs (356) and giveaways (13).

Getsy spent the 2013 season coaching wide receivers

LUKE BUTKUS

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

10th Season as NFL Coach | Second Packers Season

Luke Butkus enters his 10th season coaching in the NFL and his second with the Packers. Named assistant offensive line coach on Feb. 7, 2019, by Head Coach Matt LaFleur, Butkus enters his 16th season coaching in either Division I college football or the NFL. He joined the Packers after serving as the offensive line coach for the University of Illinois for three seasons (2016-18), a position he also held for the Fighting Illini in 2012.

Butkus worked with an offensive line in 2019 that paved the way for RB Aaron Jones to rush for a career-high 1,084 yards (4.6 avg.) and 16 TDs, with the TD total tying for the league lead. Butkus assisted in the development of rookie G Elgton Jenkins, who played in all 16 contests and started the final 14 games of the season at left guard. Jenkins was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team, just the second Packers guard to be selected since 1974, and helped Green Bay register 18 rushing TDs, the most by the Packers since 2009 (20). With the help of Butkus, T David Bakhtiari was named to his second Pro Bowl and earned second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press.

In 2018, Butkus coached an offensive line that blocked for the No. 2 rushing attack in the Big Ten (243.0 yards per game, No. 12 in the nation). It was the best average for the Illini since 2010, when they led the conference with an average of 246.1 rushing yards per game. Illinois also ranked No. 2 in the Big Ten (No. 6 in the nation) in average yards per carry with 5.91 in 2018, and its 25 rushing touchdowns tied for No. 5 in the conference.

Butkus tutored OL Nick Allegretti, who developed into a two-time team captain (2017-18) and was twice named All-Big Ten (second-team selection by the media and honorable mention by the coaches in 2018, honorable mention by the coaches and media in 2017). Allegretti played in 47 games, including starts in the final 36 contests of his career, and was selected in the seventh round of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs.

In 2017, Butkus was in charge of one of the youngest units in the country. The Illini started 16 total true freshmen throughout the season, including three on the offensive line, plus one redshirt freshman. The four – Larry Boyd, Vederian Lowe, Alex Palczewski and Doug Kramer – combined for 35 starts as Illinois had a program-record 87 cumulative true-freshman starts.

Between the two stints at his alma mater, Butkus was the assistant offensive line coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars (2013-15). In 2015, Jacksonville's offensive line protected QB Blake Bortles, who finished tied for No. 2 in the NFL with a franchise-record 35 TD passes. Bortles set a team record with an average of 276.8 passing yards per game (No. 9 in the NFL). The Jaguars led the NFL with a franchise-record 80 offensive plays of 20-plus yards.

Butkus served as interim offensive line coach in 2014 and oversaw a unit that helped the Jaguars rank No. 6 in the NFL in yards per carry (4.54), but featured zero players that started for the club in the 2013 season finale. The unit featured two rookie starters – guard Brandon Linder and center Luke Bowanko – and only two players that had more

RYAN DOWNARD

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS

Fifth NFL Season | Third Packers Season

Entering his fifth season in the NFL, Ryan Downard begins his third season with the Packers and his second as the team's assistant defensive backs coach.

Promoted to his current position on Jan. 31, 2019, by Head Coach Matt LaFleur, Downard (DOWN-erd) originally joined the club on Jan. 24, 2018, as the defensive quality control coach. His first NFL experience came in 2014-15 when he served as a defensive assistant with the Cleveland Browns.

Downard's first season working with the secondary in 2019 saw him help oversee a group that helped the Packers rank tied for No. 3 in the NFL with 17 interceptions, their highest total since also recording 17 INTs in 2016. Five members of Green Bay's secondary recorded two-plus INTs last season, the most by the team since it also had five in 2015. CB Kevin King had the best season of his career in 2019, posting career highs in interceptions (five, tied for No. 4 in NFL), passes defended (18) and tackles (59). The Packers ranked No. 6 in the NFL in opponent passer rating (81.1) and No. 4 in opponent completion percentage (59.7).

Downard also assisted in the development of second-year CB Jaire Alexander in 2019 as he was named a Pro Bowl alternate and led the team with 23 passes defended. S Darnell Savage, a first-round pick in 2019, was selected to the PFWA All-Rookie team after posting 61 tackles (41 solo), a tackle for a loss, a team-high two forced fumbles and seven passes defended.

In his first season with the Packers in 2018, Downard was part of a defensive staff that helped Green Bay rank tied for No. 8 in the league in sacks (44), the most by the Packers since they registered the same number in 2013. Green Bay's defense featured 16 different players with at least a half-sack in 2018, the second most in team history (since 1982) behind only the 1987 campaign (strike season) that had 17 players with a half-sack or more. The Packers ranked No. 12 in pass defense (234.5 ypg) in 2018 after the team finished No. 23 in the category in 2017.

Prior to coming to Green Bay, Downard spent two seasons at Bowling Green State, where he served as the safeties coach in 2017 after working as director of football operations in his first season at the school. As safeties coach, he was instrumental in the development of safety Marcus Milton, who tied for the team lead with three interceptions and ranked No. 4 on the team with 60 tackles in his first year after transitioning from cornerback. Downard also oversaw the development of Fred Garth, a junior-college transfer who led the Falcons with 95 total tackles. Garth's 95 tackles ranked No. 8 in the Mid-American Conference in 2017 and No. 1 among full-time defensive backs.

Downard spent the 2014-15 seasons as a defensive assistant with the Browns, serving on the staff of current Packers defensive coordinator Mike Pettine. Downard assisted with Cleveland's defensive backs in 2015 and the defensive line in 2014. In 2014, the Browns led the league

DRAFT-ORDER TIES

Draft-order ties are resolved by the cumulative record of each team's opponents. The team with the weaker opponents receives drafting priority. Within a tied segment, non-playoff clubs are given priority over playoff clubs. For the teams that do make the postseason, there is a reseeding based on how far they go in the playoffs. The losers of the wild-card contests are seeded 21-24 based on their records. The losers of the divisional games are slotted 25-28, and teams losing in the conference championship games are picks No. 29 and No. 30. The Super Bowl loser picks 31st, with the Super Bowl winner picking last at No. 32.

MAURICE DRAYTON

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS
Fifth NFL Season | Third Packers Season

Maurice Drayton is entering his 22nd year in coaching and begins his third season as the Packers' assistant special teams coach in 2020, having been retained by Head Coach Matt LaFleur on Feb. 1, 2019. Drayton came to Green Bay after spending the 2016-17 seasons in the same role with the Indianapolis Colts.

In 2019, Drayton worked with K Mason Crosby, who tied the single-season franchise record for field-goal percentage by connecting on 22 of 24 attempts (91.7 pct.) as he matched K Jan Stenerud's mark set in 1981 (22 of 24). Crosby ranked No. 5 in the league in FG percentage last season, the highest ranking by a Green Bay kicker since Ryan Longwell in 2003 (No. 4). P JK Scott posted 29 punts inside the 20 in '19, which ranked No. 9 in the NFL and was the most by a Packer since Tim Masthay recorded 30 in 2012.

Drayton was a part of a staff that helped Scott record a gross average of 44.7 yards in 2018, the third-best single-season mark (min. 35 punts) in team history behind only Masthay (45.6 in 2011) and Craig Hentrich (45.0 in 1997). Drayton helped the gunners improve from 10 forced fair catches in 2017 to 17 forced fair catches in 2018 (according to coaching stats). In 2019, the gunners improved again with 28 forced fair catches and eight tackles.

Drayton was part of an Indianapolis special teams staff in 2017 that helped rookie P Rigoberto Sanchez finish No. 4 in the NFL in net punting average (42.6) and earn a spot on the PFWA All-Rookie team. In two seasons with the assistance of Drayton, K Adam Vinatieri registered his 19th and 20th 100-point seasons, extending his NFL record. Vinatieri was tied for sixth in the AFC with 29 field goals in 2017.

Drayton's 2016 season in Indianapolis saw him assist P Pat McAfee in earning his second career Pro Bowl selection after he led the league in punting average (49.3), setting a team single-season record. The Colts also ranked fourth in the NFL in kickoff return average (25.1) in Drayton's first season.

Drayton brings 14 years of collegiate coaching experience to Green Bay, including nine total seasons at his alma mater, The Citadel. In 2014-15, Drayton was the assistant head coach/defensive coordinator/cornerbacks coach at The Citadel, where in 2015 he helped the defense set numerous records as the Bulldogs won a share of the Southern Conference championship. The team won six of its conference games that season, tying a single-season program record, and the Bulldogs' nine total wins were the second most in school history. They ranked second in the conference in scoring defense, total defense, rushing defense and sacks in 2015. The program also led the Southern Conference with 31 takeaways, 11 fumble recoveries, 10 passing touchdowns allowed and a 36.5 opponent third-down conversion percentage.

Also in 2015, The Citadel's defense registered 515 interception return yards and five interceptions returned for touchdowns, the most in the FCS. The program's 20 total interceptions ranked third overall in the FCS. Drayton's defense saw DL Mitchell Jeter honored as the Southern Conference's Defensive Player of the Year, and Jeter and CB Dee Delaney earned All-America recognition.

In Drayton's first year as defensive coordinator, Bulldogs DL Justin Oxendine finished with 7½ sacks, the most at The Citadel since 2000.

In 2013, Drayton was a guest coach (defense/special teams) with the Canadian Football League's Montreal Alouettes, and he spent the 2012 season as secondary coach

LOGO HISTORY

1950-53: In their first season after Curly Lambeau's 31-year reign, the "New Packers" introduced a logo that was also present on 1950 stock certificates. It changed colors over the four years, as the team experimented with several uniform combinations.

1954-61: Looking for a fresh look with new coach Lisle Blackbourn, the team unveiled new uniforms and a new mark. The logo located both Green Bay and Milwaukee on a Wisconsin silhouette. The passer wore No. 41.

1959-74: Sideline logo, worn on hats, shirts and jackets by coaches, equipment managers and trainers at both games and practice. Coincided with Vince Lombardi's first season, then retained by Phil Bengtson and Dan Devine.

1961-69: The primary logo during the Lombardi era, used on official Packers stationery and publications. The team won five world championships under the mark. Before the '69 season, after Lombardi's departure to Washington, team letterhead shifted to a helmet logo. The mark still saw use into the '70s, though.

1961-present: First and only helmet logo in team history was first applied to Packers headgear in 1961, Lombardi's third season as coach. After introducing the G, the team immediately won two world titles (1961-62), and five over the mark's first seven years. Borrowed by scores of high schools and colleges.

1993: Commemorative logo, worn on jerseys during '93 season, signifying the team's 75th professional season since its birth in 1919. Wearing logo, team earned first playoff berth in 11 years, kicking off string of six straight postseason trips.

2003: Patch team wore for first two home games of '03 to commemorate rededication of Lambeau Field, following three-year, $295 million renovation.

2006: Commemorative mark recognizing the 10th anniversary of the team's Super Bowl XXXI triumph over the New England Patriots.

2007: Emblem celebrating the 50th anniversary of venerable Lambeau Field, worn on home jerseys and painted in the end zones on the world-famous stadium grass.

2018-19: Logo used from 2018-19 to commemorate the Packers' 100th season as a professional franchise. The emblem was incorporated in numerous ways by the club throughout the year, notably worn as a patch on both home and away jerseys in 2018.

JERRY GRAY

24th Season as NFL Coach | First Packers Season

Entering his 24th season coaching in the NFL, Jerry Gray begins his first year with the Packers in 2020 as the club's defensive backs coach.

Named to his position on Jan. 29, 2020, by Head Coach Matt LaFleur, Gray brings 23 years of NFL coaching experience to the Packers, including eight seasons as a defensive coordinator (Buffalo, 2001-05; Tennessee, 2011-13). In his 21 NFL seasons as a defensive coordinator or a defensive backs/secondary coach, he has helped defenses to top-10 league rankings in scoring defense 10 times, in overall defense nine times and in passing defense 10 times. Gray has worked with defensive backs that have combined for 12 Pro Bowl selections in his 13 seasons coaching the position, with at least one of his players earning Pro Bowl recognition in eight of those seasons. During Gray's time working with the secondary, five different players earned first-team or second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press.

Gray joins the team after spending the past six seasons (2014-19) in the NFC North as the defensive backs coach for the Minnesota Vikings. During his time with Minnesota, he was a part of a defensive staff that helped the Vikings rank in the top 10 in the league in scoring defense for five straight seasons (2015-19), one of only two teams in the NFL to do so over that span (New England). Minnesota ranked No. 2 in the NFL in scoring defense (19.3 ppg), No. 3 in overall defense (319.2 ypg) and No. 4 in passing defense (214.7 ypg) from 2014-19.

In Minnesota, Gray tutored S Harrison Smith, who earned Pro Bowl recognition in five consecutive seasons (2015-19) and first-team All-Pro honors from AP in 2017. Gray also worked with CB Xavier Rhodes, who was selected to the Pro Bowl three times (2016-17, 2019) and earned first-team AP All-Pro honors in 2017 as the Vikings had two defensive backs earn first-team All-Pro recognition in the same season for the first time since 1988.

The 2018 Vikings ranked No. 4 in the NFL in total defense (309.7 ypg), the third straight season finishing in the top five in the league in the category. Under Gray's tutelage, Smith earned second-team All-Pro honors as the team's defensive backs helped the Vikings rank No. 1 in the NFL in third-down defense (30.5 pct.) for the second straight season. In 2017, Minnesota ranked No. 1 in the league in both scoring defense (15.8 ppg) and overall defense (275.9 ypg), the first time the Vikings had done so since 1970. Gray's secondary helped limit opponents to 192.4 passing yards per game (No. 2 in the NFL) in '17, the best mark posted by Minnesota since 1993 (179.4 ypg).

In 2016, Gray's defensive backs helped the Vikings to a No. 6 ranking in scoring defense (19.2 ppg) and No. 3 rankings in overall defense (314.9 ypg) and passing defense (207.9 ypg). Rhodes and Smith both earned Pro Bowl recognition, giving Minnesota its first CB/S duo in the Pro Bowl since CB Audray McMillian and S Todd Scott in 1992. In 2015, the Vikings ranked No. 5 in the NFL in scoring defense (18.9 ppg) and won their first NFC North title since 2009.

That season saw the Titans lead the league in both total defense (238.3 ypg) and passing defense (151.4 ypg), the only time in franchise history that the club led the NFL in both categories. ## THE LAMBEAU LEAP

Defensive back LeRoy Butler's spontaneous gesture after scoring a 1993 touchdown has turned into the team's most prominent modern tradition, emulated by many other NFL players. It also symbolizes the team's unique relationship with its fans. No doubt, the initial Lambeau Leap will go down as one of the most memorable moments of Butler's 12-year career.

Butler's leap took place late in a frigid game vs. the Los Angeles Raiders, Dec. 26, 1993, at Lambeau Field. The touchdown gave the Packers a commanding fourth-quarter lead, en route to a 28-0 shutout that clinched a playoff berth, their first of six consecutive postseason trips.

Chronology of the play:

- QB Vince Evans completes second-down swing pass to RB Randy Jordan, who takes ball to Raiders' 40-yard line.
- Butler forces fumble, recovered by Reggie White at Raiders' 35.
- White returns ball 10 yards before lateraling to Butler, who covers the remaining 25 yards into the end zone and leaps into arms of fans in south bleachers.

JERRY MONTGOMERY

DEFENSIVE LINE

Sixth NFL Season | Sixth Packers Season

Jerry Montgomery begins his sixth season with the Packers in 2020 and third as defensive line coach after spending three seasons (2015-17) as defensive front assistant. He joined the Packers after coaching at the collegiate level for 11 seasons and at the high-school level for two seasons. Originally named to his current position on Jan. 24, 2018, and retained by Head Coach Matt LaFleur on Jan. 31, 2019, Montgomery has been a part of nine teams as either a player or coach that have earned postseason berths.

Under Montgomery's guidance in 2019, DL Kenny Clark earned his first career Pro Bowl nod and matched his career high (2018) with six sacks. Additionally, according to NFL Next Gen Stats, Clark's 49 QB pressures ranked No. 2 in the NFL in '19 among players who played at least 75 percent of their snaps on the interior defensive line, trailing only Rams DT Aaron Donald (69). Clark also ranked No. 2 on the team with a career-high 89 tackles (52 solo), including 11 tackles for a loss.

In 2018, the line contributed to a defense that tied for No. 8 in the NFL with 44 sacks, the most by the Packers since they posted the same number in 2013. In his third season as a pro, Clark was No. 2 on the team with a career-high six sacks despite missing three games due to injury. Named a Pro Bowl alternate, Clark was tied for the team lead with 13 tackles for a loss and led the line with 73 tackles (46 solo).

Montgomery's third season in Green Bay in 2017 saw him help guide DT Mike Daniels, who earned his first Pro Bowl selection while ranking No. 4 on the team with five sacks to go along with a career-high 72 tackles. Clark led the defensive line with 78 tackles, and his 4½ sacks in December were the second most in the NFL among DTs.

Montgomery spent two seasons (2013-14) as the defensive line coach at Oklahoma, where he also played a big role in recruiting, earning Scout.com's Big 12 Recruiter of the Year after the 2014 season. After joining the Oklahoma staff on Feb. 25, 2013, he helped revamp the Sooners' defensive line with young players that included Charles Tapper, a 2013 All-Big 12 first-team selection by the conference's coaches.

In his first season, OU led the Big 12 and ranked No. 10 in the nation in opponent third-down conversions (60). The Sooners also led the Big 12 in total defense (350.2 ypg) and pass defense (212.5 ypg) and ranked second in turnover margin (plus-9), run defense (137.6 ypg) and opponent third-down percentage (33.7).

In his two years at Michigan, the Wolverines posted a 19-7 record and limited opponents to 18.6 points per game, and two of Montgomery's linemen, Mike Martin and Craig Roh, earned second-team All-Big Ten honors. In 2012, the Wolverines earned a berth in the Capital One Bowl and ranked No. 13 among FBS schools in total defense (320.0 ypg). In 2011, Michigan allowed 131.7 rushing yards per game, third best in the Big Ten, and finished 11-2 with a victory in the Sugar Bowl.

Montgomery helped produce three All-Mountain West Conference linemen in two years at Wyoming. In his first season, he guided John Fletcher to an All-MWC first-team selection and Mitch Unrein to All-MWC honorable mention and selection as the 2009 New Mexico Bowl Defensive MVP. In Montgomery's second season, Josh Biezuns earned second-team All-MWC honors.

Montgomery's tenure at Northern Iowa began as a graduate assistant/defensive tackles coach in 2006 and finished with two years (2007-08) as the defensive line coach. The Panthers advanced to the FCS playoffs all three seasons, won the 2008 Missouri Valley Football Conference title and finished with 12 wins in both 2007 and 2008. UNI ranked in the top 10 in total

In two years as defensive line coach at UNI, Montgomery had three all-conference selections both seasons: James Ruffin (first-team All-Gateway and first-team All-MVFC), Mark Huygens (second-team All-Gateway), Jordan Lacy (honorable mention All-Gateway), Everette Pedscleaux (first-team All-MVFC) and Jeremy Robertson (second-team All-MVFC).

Montgomery began his coaching career as a student assistant at Iowa. He was part of a Hawkeye staff that helped Iowa post an 11-2 record and play in the 2003 Orange Bowl. Montgomery continued coaching as an assistant at Iowa City West High School (2003-04) and as the defensive coordinator at North Iowa Community College (2005) while also playing for the Chicago Rush, Colorado Crush and Las Vegas Gladiators of the Arena Football League (2003-05).

Montgomery played defensive tackle for Iowa, starting three of his four years for the Hawkeyes. As a senior in 2001, he helped Iowa tie for a fourth-place finish in the Big Ten, its highest since 1996, and beat Texas Tech in the Alamo Bowl. He played in the Hula Bowl All-Star Game following his senior season and spent the 2002 training camp with the New Orleans Saints.

Montgomery was born Sept. 19, 1979, in Los Angeles, Calif., and raised in Mossville, La. He was named a Street & Smith All-American two straight years at Virgin Valley High School (Mesquite, Nev.) as he recorded 38 career sacks, including 16 as a senior. Montgomery was named the Nevada Player of the Year in 1997 and was also a member of the state-champion basketball team as a junior.

Montgomery and his wife, Natalie, have three sons, Jayden, Tevyn and Jace, and two daughters, Talayla and Havana.

KIRK OLIVADOTTI

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

18th NFL Season | Second Packers Season

Entering his 18th season as a coach in the NFL, Kirk Olivadotti begins his second year with the Packers in 2020 as the club's inside linebackers coach.

Named to his position on Jan. 24, 2019, by Head Coach Matt LaFleur, Olivadotti (ah-luh-vuh-DOT-ee) came to Green Bay after spending 16 seasons with the Washington Redskins (2000-10, 2014-18). He is one of 11 members on the Redskins' assistant coach honor roll, which recognizes coaches with 10-plus seasons of service as an assistant in Washington. Olivadotti served as the inside linebackers coach at the University of Georgia from 2011-13.

His first season in Green Bay saw him lead a group that featured fourth-year LB Blake Martinez, who set the franchise single-season record for tackles (since 1975) with 203 (127 solo), eclipsing LB Nick Barnett's mark of 194 tackles in 2005. Additionally, Olivadotti's linebackers helped Green Bay's defense finish No. 9 in the NFL in points allowed (19.6 ppg.), the first time the Packers had finished in the top 10 in the league in the category since 2010.

In 2018, Olivadotti tutored LB Mason Foster, who led Washington with a career-high 131 tackles (81 solo) and added a career-best two interceptions. Olivadotti also worked with LB Zach Brown, who finished No. 2 on the team with 96 tackles (69 solo), including 10 tackles for a loss, a sack and two forced fumbles. Brown led the team with 127 tackles (84 solo) in 2017, the most by a Redskins player since LB London Fletcher in 2012 (139).

In 2016, Olivadotti guided LB Will Compton, who entered the league as an undrafted free agent in 2013, to a career-high 104 tackles (60 solo), five passes defended, two fumble recoveries, a forced fumble and an interception. Foster led the team with 123 tackles (88 solo), while rookie LB Su'a Cravens became the second-youngest player to play in a season opener for the Redskins (21 days, 67 days old).

In 2015, Olivadotti coached a unit that helped the Redskins to an NFC East title despite featuring a rotating cast of players due to injuries. Keenan Robinson and Perry Riley Jr. began the season as the starters on the inside, but with both sustaining injuries, Olivadotti developed Compton into a reliable starter as he ranked No. 2 on the club with 93 tackles (51 solo).

In his first season back in Washington in 2014, Olivadotti helped Robinson shine in his first season as a starter. Despite missing three games, Robinson led the team with 108 tackles (70 solo), including a 14-tackle effort vs. Tennessee in Week 7 that earned him NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors.

At Georgia, Olivadotti coached an inside-linebacker group that featured Alec Ogletree, who was selected in the first round (No. 30 overall) by the St. Louis Rams in the 2013 NFL Draft. Olivadotti was part of a staff that helped the Bulldogs win two SEC titles and 30 games during his three seasons at the school. In 2011, Georgia ranked No. 5 in the nation in total defense (277.2 ypg) and No. 15 in scoring defense (19.2 ppg).

During Olivadotti's initial 11-season stint with the Redskins (2000-10), Washington finished in the top 10 in the NFL in overall defense eight times (2000-02, 2004-05, 2007-09) and allowed 313.1 yards per game over that span (No. 7 in the NFL).

In 2009, Olivadotti tutored a pair of linebackers to their first career Pro Bowls, with Fletcher earning the honor for the first time in his 12 years in the league and Brian Or-

JUSTIN OUTTEN

TIGHT ENDS

Fifth NFL Season | Second Packers Season

Entering his fifth season as a coach in the NFL, Justin Outten begins his second year with the Packers in 2020 as the club's tight ends coach.

Named to his position on Jan. 24, 2019, by Head Coach Matt LaFleur, Outten (OW-ten) joined Green Bay after spending three seasons with the Atlanta Falcons, serving as an offensive intern in 2016 and as an offensive assistant in 2017-18. In all three of his seasons in Atlanta, Outten assisted with the offensive line.

In 2019, Outten saw four of his tight ends (Jimmy Graham, Marcedes Lewis, Robert Tonyan, Jace Sternberger) catch a TD pass (including playoffs), the most by the Packers since four tight ends posted TD receptions in 2010. His tight-end group helped the offense rank No. 2 in the league in giveaways with 13, which tied the single-season franchise record, No. 1 in zero-turnover games (team-record nine) and No. 8 in red-zone TD percentage (64.0). They contributed to an offense that recorded 18 rushing TDs, which was tied for No. 7 in the NFL and was the most by Green Bay since 2009 (20).

During his three seasons with the Falcons, Outten was part of an offensive staff that helped the team rank No. 1 in the league over that span in yards per play (6.26), No. 3 in total offense (389.9 ypg), passing offense (278.5 ypg) and plays of 10-plus yards (730), No. 4 in scoring (27.2 ppg), No. 6 in giveaways (47) and No. 7 in yards per carry (4.45).

In 2018 with Atlanta, Outten helped the Falcons rank in the top 10 in the league in several offensive categories, including third-down percentage (No. 4, 45.3), total offense (No. 6, 389.1 ypg), passing offense (No. 4, 290.8 ypg), scoring (No. 10, 25.9 ppg) and giveaways (t-No. 7, 18). Atlanta also generated 250 plays of 10-plus yards, good for No. 4 in the NFL. C Alex Mack and T Jake Matthews were both selected to the Pro Bowl, the first time since 1983 (T Mike Kenn, G R.C. Thielemann) that the Falcons had a pair of offensive linemen named to the all-star game.

In Outten's first season as offensive assistant in 2017, the Falcons led the league in third-down percentage (44.7 percent), which was the sixth-best mark in team history to that point. Atlanta was tied for No. 3 in the league in sacks allowed with just 24, the top total posted by the Falcons since 2010 (23), and checked in at No. 8 in the NFL in both total offense (364.8 ypg) and passing offense (249.4).

As an offensive intern in '16, Outten was part of a staff that helped Atlanta set franchise records for total offense (415.8 ypg), points scored (540), passing offense (295.3 ypg) and yards per play (6.7) as the Falcons won the NFC title for only the second time in franchise history. Atlanta led the league in plays of 10-plus yards (250) and TDs of 10-plus yards (27) and ranked No. 5 in the NFL in both rushing offense (120.5 ypg) and yards per carry, with an average of 4.58 that was the fourth-best single-season mark in team history.

IMPOSTER

During the 1923 season, the Green Bay Press-Gazette published a major story announcing the Packers had signed Jack "Dollie" Gray, an end who'd received All-America honors at Princeton.

According to participation charts kept by George Calhoun, Gray started his only game played – a 24-3 loss to the Racine Legion at Bellevue Park.

Made suspicious by Gray's performance, Curly Lambeau checked the player's background, only to discover he was an imposter. Lambeau quickly gave the player – whoever he was – his walking papers.

However, because he did play in a game, the Packers still list him on their all-time roster.

BEN SIRMANS

RUNNING BACKS

Ninth NFL Season | Fifth Packers Season

Ben Sirmans enters his ninth NFL season as an assistant coach in 2020 and his fifth with Green Bay as the team's running backs coach. Originally named to his position on Feb. 17, 2016, and retained by Head Coach Matt LaFleur on Jan. 31, 2019, Sirmans previously spent four seasons with the St. Louis Rams (2012-15) after 16 seasons in the college ranks.

In 2019, Sirmans tutored RB Aaron Jones, who had a career-best 16 rushing TDs, which was tied for the most in the NFL last season and was the second most in franchise history behind FB Jim Taylor (19 in 1962). Jones posted a career-high 1,084 rushing yards on 236 carries (4.6 avg.), the first 1,000-yard rusher for the Packers since RB Eddie Lacy in 2014. Jones' 236 attempts were the fewest carries needed by a 1,000-yard rusher in team history since RB John Brockington in 1971 (1,105 yards on 216 carries). Jones (49) and RB Jamaal Williams (39) were the only running-back duo in the NFL to both have 35-plus receptions and multiple receiving TDs in 2019. As a group, Sirmans' backfield combined for the most receptions (101) by Green Bay RBs/FBs since 2006, the most receiving yards (881) since 2005 and the most receiving TDs (eight) since 2003.

Sirmans' third season in Green Bay saw him help guide the Packers to 1,667 rushing yards on 333 attempts, an average of 5.01 yards per carry that was the second-best mark in team history and ranked No. 2 in the league in 2018. Jones led the NFL in yards per carry (5.47) in '18, the first Packer to lead the league in the category since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978. His yards-per-carry average was the second-best single-season mark in team history (min. 100 att.) behind only RB Gerry Ellis (5.49 in 1985), and his career average of 5.02 yards per carry ranks No. 1 in team history among running backs with 400-plus attempts.

In 2017, Sirmans first worked with Williams and Jones as they became the first rookie duo in franchise history to both rush for 400-plus yards in a season. Williams started seven contests and posted a team-high 556 yards rushing, the fourth most by a rookie in team annals. He registered 818 yards from scrimmage, the fourth-best total by a rookie in team history, highlighted by 115-plus yards from scrimmage in three consecutive games (Weeks 12-14), the first Green Bay rookie to do so since Billy Howton in 1952.

Jones played in 12 games with four starts in 2017 and rushed for 448 yards and four TDs on 81 carries, an average of 5.53 yards per carry that was good for No. 6 in franchise single-season history (min. 75 att.). Among RBs with 75-plus attempts, his rushing average ranked No. 2 in the league behind only Saints RB Alvin Kamara (6.07). Jones registered two 125-yard rushing games, matching the franchise rookie record (Brockington, 1971; Lacy, 2013) and tying for No. 4 in the league among all players in 2017.

In his first year with the Packers in 2016, Sirmans guided Ty Montgomery in a transition from wide receiver to running back after injuries to Lacy and James Starks. Montgomery started six games at RB and led the team with 457 yards and three TDs on just 77 carries, ranking No. 1 in the NFL (min. 75 att.) with an average of 5.94 yards per carry. At Chicago in Week 15, Montgomery registered career highs in every rushing category, racking up 162 yards and two TDs on 16 carries (10.1 avg.), the most rushing yards by a Packer since RB Samkon Gado had 171 yards vs. Detroit in 2005.

Sirmans joined the Packers after spending four seasons (2012-15) with the Rams and establishing himself as a strong developer of young backs. In each of his final three seasons in St. Louis, Sirmans coached a rookie RB who led the team in rushing. In 2015, Sirmans tutored first-round pick Todd Gurley, who led all rookies and finished third among all NFL runners in rushing yards with 1,106 yards (4.8 avg.) to become the first Rams rookie to rush for 1,000-plus yards since Hall of Famers Jerome Bettis (1993) and Eric Dickerson (1983). Named Offensive Rookie of the Year by The Associated Press and earning Pro Bowl honors, Gurley was the first rookie in NFL history to rush for 125-plus yards in four consecutive games (finished with five total), and his 566 yards rushing were the most in a player's first four starts in the Super Bowl era.

Under Sirmans' direction in 2014, third-round selection Tre Mason ran for a team-high 765 yards in 12 games and finished second in rushing among all rookies. In 2013, fifth-round pick Zac Stacy started the final 12 games of the season and rushed for 973 yards, the third-highest total by a rookie at that point in team history. In 2012, Sirmans guided veteran Steven Jackson to his eighth consecutive 1,000-yard season as he became just the sixth player in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards in eight or more seasons.

Sirmans spent five seasons (2011-2007) as running backs coach at Boston College, where he mentored the school's No. 3 all-time leading rusher, Montel Harris. In 2011, Harris became the school's career rushing leader and was named the 2011 Atlantic Coast Conference Preseason Player of the Year before a knee injury ended his season prematurely. Harris received first-team All-ACC honors in 2010 after rushing for 1,243 yards on 269 carries (4.6 avg.) and eight touchdowns. Harris finished his junior campaign 126 yards shy of the all-time school rushing record, and was the active ACC rushing leader with 3,600 yards, the most ever recorded by a junior in the ACC.

In 2007, Sirmans helped RB Andre Callender set a BC single-season record for receptions (76), earning him All-ACC second-team honors. Callender led the ACC in yards from scrimmage with 1,709 and set a single-season ACC record for most pass receptions by a running back. The 2007 Eagles began the season 8-0 and ranked No. 2 in the country en route to finishing 11-3, the first BC team to win 11 games since 1940.

Prior to his time at Boston College, Sirmans coached running backs at Michigan State in 2005, where the Spartans finished 20th in the nation in rushing (201.8 ypg). In 2006, he coached special teams as well as the running backs.

Sirmans spent five seasons (2000-04) coaching at Kent State, where he tutored the running backs. In 2001 and 2002, the team ran for 215.0 yards per game, finishing 13th and 15th nationally in rushing production those two seasons. In 2004, Kent State scored 30.5 points per game, the second-highest mark in school history.

Sirmans began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Maine, serving as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator from 1996-1999. As a four-year letterman and starter, Sirmans was a running back under current Iowa head coach Kirk Ferentz for three years (1990-92). He ran for 1,214 yards, earning all-conference and All-New England honors his senior year. He graduated from Maine in 1993 with a degree in physical education, health and recreation.

Sirmans was born Oct. 17, 1970, in East Orange, N.J. He is married to the former Letia Thompson. The couple has a son, Marcus, 11.

In 2016, Smith assisted with a defensive line that helped limit opponents to an average of 19.4 points per game, good for No. 7 in the NFL. He played an instrumental role in the development of Jones, who played in all 16 games with 11 starts and was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. The defensive line also helped the Chiefs rank No. 1 in the league in takeaways (33), No. 5 in red-zone defense (49.1 percent) and tied for No. 6 in TDs allowed (34).

Prior to his arrival in Kansas City, Smith coached at his alma mater, Texas Tech, for three seasons (2013-15). He served as the co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach in 2015 after working as the interim defensive coordinator and outside linebackers coach in 2014. Under his guidance in '14, junior LB Pete Robertson led the Big 12 and was tied for No. 7 in the country with 12 sacks on his way to earning first-team All-Big 12 honors from The Associated Press. Smith served as the co-defensive coordinator and outside linebackers coach in his first season with the Red Raiders in 2013, helping the defense nearly double its takeaway total from the previous season.

Entering his eighth season as a coach in the NFL, Mike Smith begins his second year with the Packers in 2020 as the club's outside linebackers coach. Named to his position on Jan. 25, 2019, by Head Coach Matt LaFleur, Smith came to Green Bay after spending three seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs, having served as outside linebackers coach in 2018 and as the assistant defensive line coach in 2016-17.

In his first season with the Packers, Smith oversaw the most productive pass-rushing duo in the NFL. Signed as free agents in March 2019, LBs Za'Darius Smith (13.5) and Preston Smith (12.0) both posted career-high sack totals as they became the first duo in team history (since 1982) to post 12-plus sacks each in the same season and the first duo in NFL history to both register 12-plus sacks in their first season as teammates. The lone teammate duo in the league with 12-plus sacks each in 2019, Z. Smith ranked tied for No. 1 in the NFL among linebackers with 37 QB hits and tied for No. 2 with 50 total pressures, while P. Smith ranked No. 7 with 23 QB hits and No. 9 with 34 total pressures (according to Sportradar).

Z. Smith's sack total was tied for No. 5 in a season in team history (since 1982), and according to NFL Next Gen Stats, he led the NFL in disruptions (combined total of hurries, pressures or sacks — one per play) in 2019 with 84. Following the season, he was named to his first career Pro Bowl.

Smith's first NFL coaching experience came with the N.Y. Jets, where he worked as a coaching intern for two seasons (2010-11) and the outside linebackers coach in 2012. He also brings four years of coaching experience at the collegiate level, with three seasons at his alma mater, Texas Tech (2013-15), and one season at the University of Hawaii (2009).

In 2018, Smith tutored LB Dee Ford, who was tied for No. 2 among NFL linebackers with a career-high 13 sacks on his way to earning Pro Bowl recognition for the first time in his career. Ford was also tied for the league lead (Texans DE J.J. Watt) with a career-best seven forced fumbles, tied for the second most in a season in franchise history behind only LB Derrick Thomas (eight in 1992).

Smith also coached veteran LB Justin Houston in 2018, helping him register nine sacks and five forced fumbles in 12 games of action. Ford and Houston became the first Kansas City duo to both register five-plus forced fumbles in the same season since DEs Jared Allen and Tamba Hali accomplished the feat in 2006. Ford and Houston joined Broncos LBs Von Miller and Bradley Chubb as the only teammate duo in the NFL in 2018 to both register nine-plus sacks on the season.

Smith's outside linebackers helped the Kansas City defense tie for the league lead with 52 sacks in 2018, the third most in franchise history as the Chiefs led the NFL in the category for the first time since 1990. Kansas City's defense led the league with 23 forced fumbles in '18, the most by the Chiefs since they recorded the same number in 2006.

In 2017, Smith worked as the assistant defensive line coach, helping tutor a line that produced 11½ sacks and 21 tackles for a loss. DL Chris Jones ranked No. 2 on the team with 6½ sacks, three of which came in a Week 2 contest vs. Philadelphia as he became the first Chiefs defensive lineman to record three sacks in a game since 2010. Jones earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for his performance against the Eagles, one that included two forced fumbles and his first career interception.

Smith worked the previous three seasons for the New York Jets, coaching the outside linebackers in 2012 and serving as a coaching intern in 2010-11. In 2012, he was part of a staff that helped the Jets rank No. 2 in the league in passing yards allowed (189.8 ypg) and opponent completion percentage (53.8) and No. 7 in opponent passer rating (78.2). Smith helped tutor LB Aaron Maybin in 2011, who led the Jets with six sacks and four forced fumbles in only 13 games of action. Smith was part of a defensive staff that helped New York rank No. 3 in the league in total defense (291.5 ypg), run defense (90.9 ypg) and yards allowed per carry (3.56) in 2010 as the Jets advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

Smith's coaching career began in 2009 when he served as the linebackers coach at the University of Hawaii, where he tutored LB Blake Soares, who posted a team-high 107 tackles (58 solo) on his way to earning first-team All-Western Athletic Conference honors.

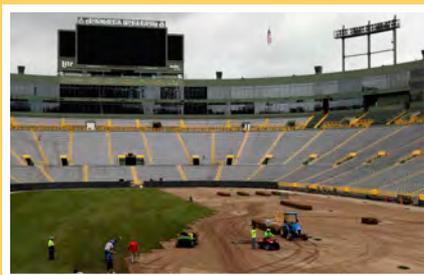

Smith was a four-year letterwinner as a linebacker at Texas Tech, where he was named team MVP and captain as a senior in 2004. At the time of his graduation, he was one of just five Texas Tech players to have appeared in 50-plus career games. He was tied for the team lead with 83 tackles as a senior, earning All-Big 12 honorable mention as he helped lead the Red Raiders to an 8-4 overall record and an upset win over No. 4-ranked California in the Holiday Bowl.

Smith was drafted by the Baltimore Ravens in the seventh round (No. 234 overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft and went on to play from 2005-07 for the Ravens before his career was cut short due to injuries in 2008.

Born Sept. 2, 1981, in Lubbock, Texas, Smith earned a degree in communication studies at Texas Tech. He and his wife, Emily, have two daughters, Kennedy and Finley, and a son, Weston.

MORE ABOUT THE FROZEN TUNDRA

- After normal wear and tear in the time since the playing surface received a makeover in 2007, the Lambeau Field playing surface underwent an offseason facelift prior to the 2018 season that brought an updated technology to the hallowed ground. After 11 seasons of use, the synthetic fibers used to stabilize the sand-based root zone in Lambeau Field had begun to show some wear, and thus prompted the organization to renovate the field.
- In a project that took several months to complete, SISGrass fibers were injected seven inches deep into a 10-inch sand root zone. The type of fiber utilized this time is a polyethylene fiber as opposed to the polypropylene fibers that were previously used. Other improvements include lowering the sand root-zone depth by two inches, from 12 to 10, which brings the heat system tubing slightly closer to the surface to help maximize efficiency and effectiveness. Irrigation plumbing was also redesigned to double the amount of zones for more accurate control of the system.
- The system's main advantage is attributed to a fast-draining, sand-based soil. Approximately 20 million individual stitches that extend above the surface one inch and protrude downward seven inches help stabilize the sand-based root zone when the grass canopy wears thin after Wisconsin's growing season makes it difficult to regenerate the natural grass. The combination of sand, grass and fiber creates an even and safe playing surface that eliminates large chunks of sod from being torn loose, which creates an uneven and unstable playing field. The system also eliminates the need to re-sod worn areas during the season.
- The drainage system installed during the last upgrade between the 2006 and 2007 seasons is still performing well and will remain. A slight crown of .6 percent will continue to exist to assist water and snow runoff when the field is covered with a tarp.

- The concrete apron surrounding the field was recoated with the same rubberized, non-skid material that was previously used. The rubberized path exists for equipment use, including the heavy equipment used for snow-removal operations, but also allows the players a non-skid surface when doing the Lambeau Leap.
- The Packers are the only NFL team to use the system in its stadium and also utilize the technology on its outdoor practice fields. According to Packers fields manager Allen Johnson, the system is popular in many European soccer stadiums, including the stadiums that the NFL plays in during its International Series in England.

ADAM STENAVICH

OFFENSIVE LINE

Fourth Season as NFL Coach | Second Packers Season

Entering his fourth season as a coach in the NFL, Adam Stenavich begins his second year with the Packers in 2020 as the club's offensive line coach.

Named to his position on Jan. 24, 2019, by Head Coach Matt LaFleur, Stenavich (STEN-uh-veech) came to Green Bay after spending two seasons as the assistant offensive line coach for the San Francisco 49ers (2017-2018). Prior to that, he spent six years in the college ranks, including stints as the offensive line coach at San Jose State (2015-16) and Northern Arizona (2014). Stenavich began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Michigan, as a strength and conditioning intern in 2011 before serving as a graduate assistant for the Wolverines for two seasons (2012-13).

In 2019, Stenavich helped guide T David Bakhtiari to second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press, his fourth consecutive season receiving All-Pro recognition, and his second Pro Bowl selection (first as an original selection). Stenavich's line helped the offense to a No. 2 ranking in the league in giveaways with 13, which tied the single-season franchise record set in 2014. The line helped the offense lead the league with a team-record nine games without a turnover and register 18 rushing TDs on the season, which was tied for No. 7 in the NFL and was the most by Green Bay since 2009 (20). The line blocked for RB Aaron Jones, who led the team with a career-high 1,084 yards rushing on 236 carries (4.6 avg.), the first 1,000-yard rusher for the Packers since Eddie Lacy in 2014. Jones had a career-best 16 rushing TDs, which was tied for the most in the NFL in 2019 and was the second most in team history behind only FB Jim Taylor (19 in 1962). Stenavich also tutored G Elton Jenkins last season, who became only the second Packers guard to be selected to the PFWA All-Rookie team since 1974 (Daryn Colledge, 2006).

In 2018, Stenavich helped coach a San Francisco offensive line that cleared the way for second-year RB Matt Breida to rush for 814 yards and three TDs on 153 carries, an average of 5.32 yards per carry that ranked No. 4 in the NFL. His rushing average was good for No. 3 in franchise history among players with 150-plus attempts in a season, trailing only FB Joe Perry (6.06 in 1954) and RB Frank Gore (5.43 in 2006). As a team, the 49ers posted 60 runs of 10-plus yards on the season, good for No. 8 in the league.

San Francisco's line also provided time for the 49ers quarterbacks to throw for 4,247 yards in 2018, the most by the club since 2000 (4,400 yards). Combined with San Francisco's 4,235 passing yards in 2017, it marked the first time that the 49ers registered back-to-back 4,200-yard passing seasons since 1993-95. The line helped protect QB Nick Mullens in '18, who threw for 2,277 yards in his first eight career games (Weeks 9-10, 12-17), the fourth most in the league by a quarterback since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. Despite losing starting QB Jimmy Garoppolo to a season-ending knee injury in Week 3, the 49ers would go on to rank No. 13 in the league in rushing offense and No. 15 in passing offense, one of only eight NFL teams to finish in the top half of the league in both categories in 2018.

In his first season on San Francisco's staff in 2017, Stenavich helped tutor a line that contributed to the 49ers averaging 349.2 yards per game, good for No. 12 in the NFL, including an average of 245.3 passing yards per game (No. 9 in the league). San Francisco racked up 3,925 net passing yards, the most by the team since 2000 (4,239).

The 49ers came on strong in the second half of the season, ranking No. 2 in the league with an average of 400.3 total yards per game in Weeks 10-17 as the club won six of its final seven games.

Stenavich helped coach T Joe Staley, who earned Pro Bowl recognition in 2017. Staley and the line cleared the way for the offense to register runs of 10-plus yards on 13.0 percent of its carries in '17, which ranked No. 5 in the league. Eighth NFL Season | Second Packers Season

Jason Vrable enters his second season with the Packers and his first as wide receivers coach after being promoted to his current position on March 12, 2020. Originally hired as an offensive assistant by Head Coach Matt LaFleur on Feb. 1, 2019, Vrable assisted with the wide receivers last season. He will begin his eighth season as an NFL coach, having six years of experience prior to joining the Packers.

While assisting with the wide receivers in 2019, Vrable worked with WR Davante Adams, who ranked No. 5 in the NFL in receiving yards per game (83.1) and No. 4 in receptions per game (6.9) on his way to earning Pro Bowl honors for the third straight season. Adams led the team with 83 receptions for 997 yards (12.0 avg.) and was tied for the team lead with five receiving TDs despite missing four games due to injury. Vrable also assisted in the development of first-year WR Allen Lazard, who posted 35 receptions for 477 yards (13.6 avg.) and three TDs, with all of his catches coming in the final 11 games.

Vrable arrived in Green Bay after serving two seasons (2017-18) as an offensive assistant for the N.Y. Jets. With the Jets, he worked with WR Robby Anderson, one of only nine WRs in the NFL to register 50-plus catches, 750-plus receiving yards and six-plus receiving TDs in both 2017 and 2018, highlighted by career highs in 2017 (63 catches for 941 yards and seven TDs). Vrable also worked with veteran WR Jermaine Kearse, who posted a team-high 65 receptions for 810 yards (12.5 avg.) in 2017, both career highs, as he and Anderson formed one of only three WR duos in the NFL to both post 60-plus receptions and 800-plus receiving yards in 2017.

Prior to his time with New York, Vrable spent four years with the Buffalo Bills, working as an offensive quality control coach from 2013-15 and then as an assistant quarterbacks coach in 2016. He also assumed the role of interim running backs coach following Anthony Lynn's promotion to offensive coordinator in Week 3 of the 2016 season. For the final 15 weeks of the season, Vrable helped running backs Mike Gillislee (5.71) and LeSean McCoy (5.67) rank No. 1 and No. 2 in the league in yards per carry, respectively, among all qualifying NFL runners. The duo also accounted for 23 total TDs on the season as the Bills ranked No. 1 in the league in rushing offense (164.4 ypg), the team's best rushing average since 1976 (183.3 ypg). Vrable also helped QB Tyrod Taylor earn his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection in 2016 after completing a career-high 269 of 436 passes (61.7 percent) for 3,023 yards and 17 TDs.

Before entering the NFL coaching ranks, Vrable coached at the college level for six years. From 2011-12, he worked at the University of Charleston as the school's offensive coordinator/quarterbacks/running backs coach. Notably, he led a Golden Eagle offense that led the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference in total offense (392.4 ypg) and rushing offense (246.1 ypg) in 2012.

From 2009-10, Vrable worked for Syracuse University as an offensive quality control/assistant to the wide receivers coach (2009) and graduate assistant/assistant to the quarterbacks coach (2010). Vrable helped mentor QB Ryan Nassib, who set the Syracuse single-season record with 202 completions in 2010 and led the Orange to an 8-5 record, including a victory over Kansas State in the inaugural Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium.

EARNING THE HONOR

While the Packers achieved the ultimate team success on the field in 2010, winning the franchise's 13th world championship and fourth Super Bowl, there were also a number of individual accolades that accompanied the collective accomplishment.

When the initial voting for the Pro Bowl was released, five Green Bay players (T Chad Clifton, S Nick Collins, WR Greg Jennings, LB Clay Matthews and CB Charles Woodson) were named to the NFC's all-star team. Following the addition of three alternates (WR Donald Driver, LB A.J. Hawk and CB Tramon Williams), the Packers' list grew to eight players. The eight selections were tied for the third most in team history and were the largest representation the organization had on the Pro Bowl roster since it sent nine in 1967.

Fortunately, though, none of the Packers' selections ever appeared in the game (played Jan. 30, 2011), as they were preoccupied with preparations for the upcoming Super Bowl XLV on Feb. 6.

A look at the most-represented Packers teams in terms of Pro Bowl selections since the game's inception following the 1938 season. The Packers played as a team in the 1939 game and therefore that year isn't included.

PLANE PIONEERS

The Packers were the first NFL team to fly to a road game, but the trip didn't exactly go smoothly. On Nov. 14, 1940, the Packers left Green Bay on a 7 a.m. Milwaukee Road train and headed for Chicago, where they were taken by limousine from the depot to the airport to board two United Airlines planes.

This was a Thursday and they were scheduled to play the Giants in New York on Sunday. The Packers' itinerary called for them to leave Chicago at 12:30 p.m. and arrive at LaGuardia Airport at 4:25 p.m. (CST). When a host of photographers showed up at the runway, takeoff time was delayed slightly as the Packers posed for several pictures, including Cecil Isbell lifting a stewardess off the ground and pretending to throw her to Don Hutson.

Once in the air, things went smoothly until the planes had to land in Cleveland for refueling. With LaGuardia under a heavy fog, the decision was then made to abort the flights. A fleet of taxicabs took the Packers to downtown Cleveland where they ate dinner and sat around a hotel lobby until they could board a New York Central railway sleeper to complete the trip to New York. The Packers finally arrived in New York at 8:30 a.m. on Friday and headed to Central Park to practice.

After losing to the Giants, 7-3, things went better on the trip home. The Packers took off early Monday morning from LaGuardia and landed in Chicago without incident. There they took limousines from the airport to Union Station, where they had an hour wait before catching their train back to Green Bay.

LATE-SEASON SUCCESS

Lambeau Field is historically a difficult place to play once the weather turns, and this tradition of late-season success in Green Bay has continued in recent years. Since 2000, the Packers boast a home record of 40-9 (.816) in regular-season contests played in December and January. In 2019, the Packers went 5-0 during the month of December in route to their first postseason appearance since 2016.

Since 2000, Green Bay owns the league's third-best regular-season record in games played Dec. 1 and later:

SHOVELING SNOW AT LAMBEAU

One of the more recent traditions that has taken hold among Packers fans is answering the call to shovel snow off the Lambeau Field bleachers.

When the team needs help clearing the stands for an upcoming game, it issues a press release or uses social media to alert fans. The Packers provide the shovels and the fans, in turn, provide the muscle (pictured, lower right).

Snowfall during the 2019 season caused the team to put out a call for shovelers on multiple occasions, including both weeks leading up to the Dec. 8 game against Washington and the Dec. 15 game against Chicago. The team also required assistance clearing the bowl and spreading ice melt the morning of the NFC Divisional playoff game against Seattle. Those marked the 32nd, 33rd and 34th occasions that Packers fans have been asked to shovel snow since 2005.

Fans at least 18 years old who arrive early enough often shovel for several hours. Participants receive $12 per hour upon completion of their work.

While shoveling the stands is a more recent development, fans for generations have been eager to help the Packers in times of need.

Prior to the 1965 NFL Championship Game, played in Green Bay on Jan. 2, 1966, about 25 young volunteers helped close to 60 stadium workers shovel and haul away snow off the large tarpaulins that had covered the field (pictured, upper right).

Prior to the game, the Packers also had spread 40 tons of marsh hay over the playing surface to keep it from freezing. That, too, had to be removed.

The nearly five inches of wet, heavy snow that blanketed the turf fell the morning of the game.

The Packers tried using a helicopter to dry out the field and blow snow off the seats, but it didn't work out and the stadium crew wound up trying to clear the seating areas, as well.

NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle was in attendance, but said he never considered calling off the game.

"I think you may be better equipped to handle this sort of thing here than any other place in the league," said Rozelle, directing his remarks to local reporters.

HISTORY OF THE SACK STATISTIC

In 1947, the NFL implemented a new team statistic, yards lost attempting to pass. The new category allowed the league to separate gross yards passing from net yards, to more accurately reflect a team's passing performance. Net passing yards included yards lost by backs tackled on passing plays.

In 1963, Seymour Siwoff, president of the league's official statistical company, the Elias Sports Bureau, made a suggestion. Recognizing the "yards lost attempting to pass" figure needed a complement, he argued for a new category: number of times losing yards attempting to pass. The league agreed, and one of the NFL's top executives, Jim Kensil, first coined the term "sack," which is a dark-ages word, meaning to plunder a captured town. Kensil, who handled NFL public relations among other responsibilities, popularized the term in his stories and publicity materials.

In 1982, convinced by member-team PR directors (many of whom were convinced by their players), Elias and the NFL agreed to make individual sacks an official number. New rules were written, such as only two players can share in a sack.

Today, it's arguably the game's most popular defensive stat. Elias, which also tracks official numbers for MLB, the NBA and the NHL, still has the final word on every challenged sack in the NFL, spending Tuesday or Wednesday in the film room at the league office.

Late in the fourth quarter, chased down Winston and wrapped him up low for a shared 3-yard sack with Matthews...At Carolina (Dec. 17): Tied for second on the team with nine tackles (career-high seven solo) and added a sack and a QB hit. With just under six minutes remaining in the third quarter, fought off a block from C Ryan Kalil to get to QB Cam Newton for a 6-yard sack on third down to force a Carolina punt...Vs. Minnesota (Dec. 23): Posted a career-high two sacks along with six tackles (three solo) and two QB hits. In the first quarter, came around on a stunt and beat G Nick Easton to get to QB Case Keenum for a 9-yard sack on third down, which forced a Minnesota punt. Early in the fourth quarter, was credited with a 2-yard sack as he chased Keenum out of bounds.

Giants (Oct. 9): Recorded the first fumble recovery of his career, scooping up a QB Eli Manning fumble at the New York 33 late in the first half and returning it 2 yards to the 31 after Fackrell knocked the ball out on a sack. The turnover helped set up K Mason Crosby's 44-yard FG as time expired in the first half. Added two tackles (one solo), including a tackle for a loss...Vs. Minnesota (Dec. 24): Made a key takeaway in the second quarter. With just under 10 minutes remaining, dove on a fumbled snap by Easton to give the Packers the ball at the Minnesota 42, field position that led to a 2-yard Jordy Nelson TD catch three plays later. ### PACKERS SPRING MINICAMP HISTORY

Dan Devine coached collegiately for 16 years before Green Bay hired him in 1971. Shortly after his arrival, he implemented a college tradition: spring practice. That April, Devine took his new players to the University of Texas at Arlington and the Packers' first minicamp, where he got his first look at No. 1 draft choice John Brockington. In 1977, the Packers' revolutionary indoor facility allowed spring practice in Green Bay. However, the team migrated to Arizona in '94, so the Don Hutson Center could be finished.

1971 ..... University of Texas at Arlington
1972-76 ..... Saguaro High School, Phoenix
1977-93 ..... Indoor Practice Facility, Green Bay

1994 ..... Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College

DID THE PACKERS EVER PAY A FRANCHISE FEE TO THE NFL?

If the Packers ever paid a franchise fee to get into the NFL, there's no record of it at the Ralph Wilson Jr. Pro Football Research and Preservation Center at the Pro Football Hall of Fame or in the Green Bay Packers' corporate records.

The American Professional Football Association (now the NFL) set a fee of $100 at an organizational meeting on Sept. 17, 1920, according to the official minutes of the meeting. However, no team ever paid it, according to the league's official Record and Fact Book.

The Packers were admitted to the APFA on Aug. 27, 1921, and readmitted June 24, 1922, following a five-month expulsion. Curly Lambeau represented the Packers at the 1922 meeting and J. Emmett Clair at the 1921 meeting.

Over the 10 months between meetings, there was no mention in the league minutes of any change to the original fee of $100 or of the Packers paying a fee, other than a $1,000 forfeit fee in 1922 as a commitment to follow league rules. On July 28, 1923, NFL owners voted to boost the fee to $500.

Almost two decades later, The Milwaukee Journal and The Saturday Evening Post published in-depth histories of the Packers and reported they had paid $250 to get back into the league in 1922. Then, in 1946, Packers co-founder George Calhoun and author Arch Ward both wrote that Lambeau had paid a $50 franchise fee in 1922.

Adding to the mystery is a 1922 franchise certificate awarded to Lambeau and the private Green Bay Football Club with $50 handwritten in the upper left corner. But there's no record of when that notation was made. In fact, when the Green Bay Press-Gazette published a photo of the certificate in 1950, the $50 notation wasn't visible.

In other words, the question of whether the Packers ever paid a franchise fee goes unanswered.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

- 2019 Selected by Green Bay Packers in the second round (44th overall) of '19 NFL Draft, April 26...Signed first contract, May 13.

RIDING BIKES TO PRACTICE

One of the most heartwarming and enduring of the Packers' many great traditions is the bike-riding one during training camp. Since at least the Vince Lombardi era, more than a half-century ago, players have been riding kids' bikes from the locker room at what is now Lambeau Field to the Packers' nearby practice field(s).

So far the earliest evidence of the tradition is a 1961 photo furnished (on right) by Keegan Wright showing Jim Temp (82) and Dan Currie (58) walking to practice while Lamar McHan (46) rides a kid's bike.

The tradition continues today as kids line up outside the stadium hoping to give a player a lift, and then again outside the practice field following practice. It's a tradition that not only has brought immediate joy to kids and players alike, but also led to lasting friendships.

ROOKIES VS. FIRST-YEAR PLAYERS

Rookies are players in their first year of pro football who have not been on another pro football team's roster for any regular-season or postseason games. First-year players are those who have played in other pro sports leagues (Arena Football League, etc.), have participated in previous NFL training camps, or have been on an NFL team's active, inactive or reserve list fewer than six games.

The rule originated when Lawrence McCutcheon, drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in 1972, played only three games his "rookie" season, then rushed for 1,097 yards in 1973. Today, due to McCutcheon and because rosters began expanding around the 1970 NFL-AFL merger (reserve lists formalized, etc.), that year is considered the beginning of the rookie rule. So today, for records purposes, the Packers use 1970 as a separator. From 1921-69, anyone who had yet to play three league games was generally considered a rookie.

PACKERS CHEERLEADERS

The Green Bay Packers once had official cheerleaders, but after the 1988 season the decision was made not to reinstate them. While some Packers fans supported the official cheerleaders, many were opposed or indifferent, at best.

Helping the Packers make the decision to discontinue the program was a television news poll in which fans were generally split over whether they wanted the program to continue.

Bob Harlan, then the Packers' executive vice president of administration, was quoted in an official release Feb. 7, 1989, saying: "In general terms, the poll disclosed there were as many fans who expressed opposition to the return of the cheerleaders as there were those in favor of restoring them. On that basis, we felt the appropriate decision at this time would be to continue without them."

At this time, there are no plans to return to official cheerleaders.

For several years, the team has used cheering squads from two local schools, St. Norbert College in De Pere, Wis., and the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay.

"FULLBACK IS THE POSITION I FEEL I CAN PLAY BETTER."

November 19, 1957

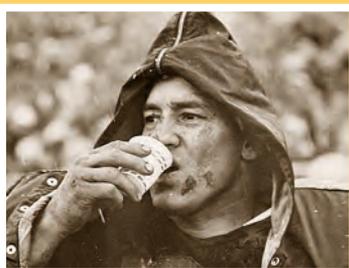

Dear Mr. Vainisi,

Reference to your letter dated November 11, 1957.

I am very much interested in playing professional football. Football is a great sport and I enjoy playing it. Yes, I would be interested in playing with the Green Bay Packers. My military status is 1A Category 4. Yes, I will be able to play pro ball before entering the service. I prefer playing in either the United States or Canada. Fullback is the position I feel I can play better.

Sincerely,

Jim Taylor - Baton Rouge, La.

ous high of 36 by Favre at Chicago on Dec. 5, 1993. Posted 326 yards on 39-of-56 passing with three TDs and no INTs for a 102.2 rating, with all three TD passes coming in the second half. Completed 10-plus passes to three different receivers (Adams, 13; Cobb, 11; Montgomery, 10), becoming just the second QB in NFL history (Patriots QB Drew Bledsoe, Nov. 13, 1994) to accomplish that feat in a regular-season game... At Atlanta (Oct. 30): Threw for 246 yards and four TDs with no INTs on 28-of-38 passing for a 125.5 passer rating. All four of his TD passes were to different players, with three of them (WRs Jeff Janis, Trevor Davis and Allison) recording the first regular-season TD catches of their career. Posted a career-high 60 rushing yards on just six carries (10.0 avg.), the best mark by a Green Bay QB since Majkowski's 88-yard outing at Detroit on Sept. 30, 1990...

Vs. Seattle (Dec. 11): Completed 18 of 23 passes for 246 yards and three TDs with no INTs for a season-best 150.8 passer rating, his fourth straight game with a 100-plus rating. Posted his sixth career playoff game with three-plus TD passes, topping Favre (five) for the franchise mark. Also extended his team playoff record with his fifth career 300-yard game. Including the regular season, brought his streak of consecutive games without an INT to eight. On the final play of the first half, with the Packers facing a fourth-and-2 and no timeouts remaining, rolled out to his right and lofted a Hail Mary pass to Cobb in the back of the end zone for a 42-yard TD pass, his first of three TD passes in the game to Cobb, who tied the single-game NFL playoff record... At Dallas (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Threw for 355 yards and two TDs on 28-of-43 passing, his second straight game with 350-plus passing yards as he joined Brees as the only QBs in NFL history to post back-to-back 350-yard passing games in a single postseason. On Green Bay's final possession, rolled out to his left to spin away from pressure on third-and-20, finding TE Jared Cook near the sideline for a 35-yard completion to the Dallas 33 to set up Crosby's game-winning 51-yard FG as time expired.

Helped lead the Packers back from a 17-point first-quarter deficit for the first time in franchise history. Green Bay also trailed by 20 points midway through the third quarter (20-0), just the third time in team annals that the Packers overcame a deficit of 20-plus points in the second half. With less than a minute remaining in regulation and the Packers trailing, 20-13, rolled out to his left on fourth-and-20 from the Green Bay 4 and found Janis, who had gotten behind CB Justin Bethel, for a 60-yard completion to the Arizona 36. After an illegal-motion penalty on the Packers and an incompleting gave the offense one final play at the Arizona 41, again rolled out to his left, throwing a Hail Mary pass as he went to the ground just before LB Markus Golden could hit him, one that was hauled in by Janis in the end zone as he made the leaping grab over CB Patrick Peterson with no time left on the clock. The reception, along with Crosby's extra point, sent the game into overtime. It marked the first game-winning or game-tying passing TD to end regulation in NFL playoff history.

RODGERS' 2011 A SEASON TO REMEMBER

In what was his fourth year as the starter under center for the Packers in 2011, quarterback Aaron Rodgers turned in one of the finest seasons by any player at the position in the history of the National Football League. Rodgers was voted the Pro Bowl starter for the NFC and earned Most Valuable Player honors from The Associated Press following the season, winning the vote by a nearly unanimous 48-2 margin.

During the regular season, he completed 343 of 502 attempts for 4,643 yards and 45 touchdowns against just six interceptions, netting a cumulative passer rating of 122.5. Rodgers' marks for yardage, touchdowns, completion percentage, yards per attempt and 300-yard games were all new franchise records. Even more impressive was that he accomplished all of that despite appearing in just 15 games (he was rested for the regular-season finale in Week 17).

A look at some of the superlatives from Rodgers' fantastic season:

- 122.5 QB rating set a new NFL record, as did his 13 games with a 100-plus passer rating.
- Joined Tom Brady and Dan Marino as the only three QBs, at the time, to throw three-plus TD passes in a game 10 or more times in a season.

- Set an NFL record with 11 consecutive games with a 110-plus QB rating.
- Became the first QB in NFL history to have more than one season with 500-plus pass attempts and seven or fewer INTs, and also became the first 4,000-yard passer in league annals to throw six or fewer INTs.
- Experienced a torrid stretch over a three-game span in the middle of the season when he became just the second QB in NFL history (Kurt Warner) to record three consecutive games with a 140-plus passer rating.
- With his 408-yard outing in Week 4 vs. Denver, became the first QB in NFL history to register 400 passing yards/four passing TDs/two rushing TDs in a game.

Along with his 121.4 rating at Arizona in the 2009 playoffs and his 122.5 rating at Philadelphia the week before, became the first QB in NFL history to register a 120-plus rating in each of his first three postseason starts. Also became the first QB in NFL postseason history to throw for three-plus TDs in each of his first three playoff starts... Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Closed out his torrid postseason by earning Super Bowl MVP honors with a masterful performance in the world championship game. Completed 24 of 39 passes for 304 yards and three TDs. Joined Montana, Young and Jake Delhomme as the only QBs to that point to throw for 300 yards and three scores with no INTs in a Super Bowl. First TD pass came on a perfectly placed throw to Nelson for a 29-yard score. Threaded a pass into the hands of Jennings for a 21-yard

TD in the second quarter with S Ryan Clark just missing the ball and S Troy Polamalu's hard shot from behind failing to knock it free from the WR's arms. Found Jennings once more in the back right corner of the end zone in the third quarter to extend the lead to 28-17. Perhaps his best throw of the game came on the Packers' clock-killing drive late in the fourth quarter. On third-and-10 from the Green Bay 25, fired the ball to Jennings down the seam just beyond the outstretched arms of CB Ike Taylor, hitting Jennings in stride for a 31-yard gain and a new set of downs. The drive burned 5:19 off the clock and set up a 23-yard Crosby FG to extend the lead to 31-25, forcing Pittsburgh to drive for a TD instead of a game-tying FG.

His 78.3 completion percentage was the second-best single-game performance in team history at the time (min. 35 attempts), trailing only Favre's 79.5 percent on 31-of-39 passing at Minnesota on Nov. 21, 1998... At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Completed 15 of 20 passes for 246 yards, three TDs and no INTs for a

TAKING HIS PLACE AMONG THE GAME'S BEST

Now firmly entrenched in his role as the face of the franchise, QB Aaron Rodgers has gone from solid first-year starter to Pro Bowl starter to Super Bowl Most Valuable Player to two-time NFL MVP, and is widely regarded as one of the game's top signal callers.

- For his career, he has completed 3,913 of 6,061 passes (64.6 percent) for 46,946 yards and 364 touchdowns with only 84 interceptions, for a 102.4 passer rating. The rating ranks No. 1 in NFL history for the regular season (min. 1,500 attempts); he also ranks No. 1 in league annals in TD/INT ratio (4.33, 364/84) and No. 10 in completion percentage (64.6).
- Rodgers earned NFL MVP honors for the first time after a record-breaking 2011 campaign. He led the Packers to a franchise-best 15-win regular season and set team single-season records for TD passes (45), yards (4,643), completion percentage (68.3), yards per attempt (9.25) and passer rating (122.5). His passer rating was also an NFL single-season record, and his 45 TD passes rank sixth in league history.
- In 2014, Rodgers became the eighth player in league annals to win MVP more than once, after leading the NFL in TD/INT ratio (7.60, 38/5) and ranking No. 2 in passer rating (112.2) and yards per attempt (8.43).
- His career interception percentage of 1.39 ranks No. 1 in NFL history among QBs with more than 1,500 attempts.
- Rodgers is the only QB in league history to record a 100-plus passer rating in six consecutive seasons (2009-14), with QB Drew Brees trailing with five consecutive seasons (2015-19).

155.4 passer rating, the second-best single-game rating in franchise history (min. 20 attempts). His fourth straight game with a 110.0-plus passer rating made him only the second QB in team history to accomplish the feat in the same season (Starr, Sept. 18-Oct. 9, 1966)...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Posted a team playoff-record 423 yards and four TDs on 28-of-42 passing with one INT for a 121.4 rating. The four TD passes matched a franchise playoff mark held by Starr (at Dallas, Jan. 1, 1967) and Dickey (vs. St. Louis, Jan. 8, 1983). The yardage total was tied for No. 5 in NFL playoff history at the time, and his 319 yards passing after halftime set an NFL playoff record, eclipsing the previous mark of 274 yards set by Marino (at Buffalo, Dec. 30, 1995). Became only the sixth QB in the Super Bowl era to throw for 400 yards/four TDs in a post-season game, and one of only two signal callers to post 400 yards/four TDs and a rushing TD in a playoff game (Peyton Manning, vs. Denver, Jan. 9, 2005). Completed six passes of 25-plus yards as he helped the team come back from a 21-point deficit in the second half to tie the game, with the longest score coming on a 30-yarder to Jones on fourth-and-5 early in the fourth quarter.

2008: Took over as the starter after waiting patiently for three years for his opportunity behind Favre...Became the first quarterback other than Favre to start a Packers game since Majkowski (Sept. 20, 1992), starting all 16 games and ranking No. 3 in the NFC and No. 6 in the NFL with a 93.8 passer rating...Completed 341 of 536 passes (63.6 percent) for 4,038 yards, 28 TDs and 13 INTs...Was under center for 1,039 of 1,049 (99.1 percent) offensive plays...Ranked No. 4 in the league in both TD passes and passing yards...Became just the fourth QB in team history to surpass 4,000 yards in a season (Favre, Dickey, Majkowski) and only the second in NFL history to throw for 4,000 yards in the first season that he started a game (Warner, St. Louis, 1999)...Ranked No. 3 in the NFL with a 105.8 passer rating on third down, including 14 TDs, which trailed only Rivers' 15...Completed 16 passes of 40-plus yards, tied for No. 1 in the NFL with Brees...Was tied for No. 5 in the league with 48 completions of 20-plus yards...Finished third on the team with 207 rushing yards on 56 carries (3.7 avg.), and tied for the team lead with four rushing TDs...Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Started his first NFL game and completed 18 of 22 passes for 178 yards and a TD with no INTs. His 81.8 completion percentage ranks as the second-best mark in league history by a QB in his first start (min. 20 attempts) to that point behind only former Jacksonville QB Rob Johnson's 83.3 percentage (20 of 24) in 1997. Scored his first career rushing TD on a 1-yard plunge in the fourth quarter to give Green Bay a 24-12 lead...At Detroit (Sept. 14): Posted the first 300-yard passing day of his NFL career and threw three TD passes as he connected on 24 of 38 passes for 328 yards...At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Sprained his right shoulder in the third quarter on a 7-yard scramble as he dove to extend the ball for a first down. On the next series, hit Jennings for a 48-yard TD pass, but then sat out the following series with the injury. Returned for one more series late in the fourth quarter before exiting the game for good. Finished the afternoon 14 of 27 for 165 yards and two TDs, but had a string of 157 consecutive passes without an INT snapped...Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Started despite being limited all week in practice as he recovered from a sprained right shoulder. Recorded the second 300-yard passing game of his pro career as he connected on 25 of 37 passes for 313 yards and three TDs...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Completed 21 of 31 passes for 308 yards and three TDs for a season-high 132.2 passer rating, matching his season best with the three TD passes. With the Lions having just scored a TD to narrow Green Bay's lead to 24-21, connected on a season-long pass when he found Driver deep down the right sideline midway through the fourth quarter for a 71-yard score. The pass also put him over the 4,000-yard mark for the season.

2007: Serving as Favre's backup for the third straight season, he appeared in two regular-season games and completed 20 of 28 passes (71.4 percent) for 218 yards with one TD and no INTs for a 106.0 rating, plus seven rushes for 29 yards (4.1 avg.)...Put together his best preseason as a pro, completing 37 of 59 passes (62.7 percent) with three TDs in four appearances...Vs. Completed 18 of 26 passes for 201 yards and one TD for a 104.8 passer rating, plus had five rushes for 30 yards (6.0 avg.). On the Packers' final drive of the first half, found Jennings for a 43-yard catch-and-run and connected with him again on an 11-yard TD (Rodgers' first TD pass as a pro). In the third quarter, led a 12-play, 69-yard drive that finished with a 1-yard Ryan Grant TD plunge, on the series, completed all six passes for 61 yards, including throws of 22 and 17 yards. In the fourth, led the team's final scoring drive that culminated in a 52-yard Crosby FG. Injured a hamstring the following week in practice and was inactive for the final four regular-season games before recovering to serve as Favre's backup in the postseason...Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Played the final series, but did not attempt a pass.

Completed 4 of 12 passes and had a 6-yard scramble on a third-and-6. Played the second half with a foot injury he sustained toward the start of the third quarter; postgame tests revealed a fracture that caused him to miss the rest of the season. Was placed on injured reserve on Nov. 21.

THE LOMBARDI SWEEP

Vince Lombardi was fond of saying: "Every football team eventually arrives at a lead play. It becomes the team's bread-and-butter play ... My No. 1 play has been the power sweep, sometimes called the Lombardi Sweep." The call in the huddle was Red Right 49, and the play unfolded with the halfback – Paul Hornung (No. 5) when he was in his prime – carrying the ball around right end following his pulling guards, Jerry Kramer (64) and Fuzzy Thurston (63).

Companion plays in Lombardi's offense included the weak-side sweep with the fullback as the ball carrier and also the halfback option pass.

THE COMPENSATORY SYSTEM

The Packers were awarded four compensatory draft selections from the league in 2018, tied for the most in the NFL. Since the first compensatory picks were awarded in 1994, only Baltimore (52), Dallas (43) and New England (43) have received more than the Packers (42).

Under terms of the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement, a team losing more or better compensatory free agents than it acquires in a year is eligible to receive compensatory draft picks.

The number of picks a team receives equals the net loss of compensatory free agents up to a maximum of four. The 32 compensatory choices announced every February or March supplement the original choices in the seven rounds of the NFL Draft.

Compensatory free agents are determined by a formula based on salary, playing time and postseason honors. The formula was developed by the NFL Management Council. Not every free agent lost or signed by a club is covered by this formula.

Teams were previously not allowed to trade compensatories, although they were during the early years of the system. A rule change approved by clubs in 2015 permitted compensatory draft picks to be traded again beginning in the 2017 draft.

Because of that clause, the Packers acquired two compensatory choices in 1994 from San Francisco. In other words, Green Bay has actually drafted 44 compensatory players, but the league only has awarded the team 42.

PACKERS IN THE COLLEGE ALL-STAR GAME

- From 1934-73 and 1975-76, the NFL participated in what was called the College All-Star Game. It kicked off the league's preseason, but it was the most popular game in pro football for many years.
- Chicago's Soldier Field, even when the Bears were playing at Wrigley Field, served as the game's stage for all but two years. Dycbe Stadium in Evanston, Ill., was the site in 1943 and '44. An NFL labor dispute forced cancellation of the 1974 game.
- The Packers played in the game eight times and benefited greatly from the exposure, especially in the Curly Lambeau era. When the Packers and All-Stars drew 84,560 for the 1937 game, the Packers had never played before more than 37,000 fans in an NFL regular-season game. They appeared in the game that summer by virtue of winning the 1936 NFL Championship Game, which drew a crowd of 29,545.

- Up until the time he died in 1965, Lambeau said the Packers' victory in the 1940 College All-Star Game was the biggest of his coaching career. "Maybe this sounds funny for me to say, but I believe pro football, all of pro football, turned the corner in that game," Lambeau said shortly before his death. As coach of the Packers, Lambeau won six NFL championships.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

CHICAGO (AP) — The Green Bay Packers beat the Chicago Bears on Thursday night, 10-3. And while it was ugly on offense, likely in great part due to the lack of action so many regulars on that side of the ball got in the preseason, it was a thing of beauty for the defenders in green, gold and white. On this night, the Packers were the Monsters of the Midway.

There was plenty of noise heading into Soldier Field about Chicago's D, which was dominant in 2018 as the Bears won the NFC North. And it played quite well against Aaron Rodgers and the Pack, sacking Rodgers five times and yielding only 213 yards.

But the Packers were stingier.

The Packers' defense totaled five sacks on a clearly befuddled Mitchell Trubisky. The only turnover of the game was a fourth-quarter pick in the end zone by former Bears safety Adrian Amos.

Green Bay went into the end zone on an 8-yard jump-ball reception by tight end Jimmy Graham — a former college basketball player who boxed out to perfection on the play. That was the difference, thanks to the stingy Packers D.

The game also was marked by sloppy offense and penalties. But the Packers made the fewest mistakes and now lead the league's longest series, 98-95-6. Green Bay has won 16 of the last 19 regular-season meetings, and Rodgers is 17-5.

Chicago's defense hardly slacked, getting five sacks — tying the most it has had against Rodgers. But it could do little with the ball and Trubisky never found his stride. He even was sacked on Chicago's final offensive play.

Mason Crosby made a 39-yard field goal in the final period for Green Bay, while Chicago got a 38-yarder from Eddy Pineauro in the first quarter. Bears fans rejoiced in relief: the last such kick on Soldier Field was Cody Parkey's double-dunk off the goalpost and crossbar that sent Chicago home from the wild-card round.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — All that mattered to Aaron Rodgers on Sunday was that the Packers won.

Rodgers threw two early touchdowns and Green Bay held on for a 21-16 victory over the Minnesota Vikings.

On a day when the Packers honored late Hall of Famer Bart Starr at halftime, Rodgers put on quite a show — particularly early. Rodgers completed nine of his first 10 passes for 134 yards and two touchdowns and had a perfect 158.3 rating through the first quarter. He finished 22 of 34 for 209 yards.

Rodgers and new coach Matt LaFleur experimented with Rodgers wearing a play-calling wristband in the hope that it would speed up the play-calling process and get the offense out of the huddle quicker.

After scoring on each of its first three possessions, Green Bay's offense failed to muster another point. But the hot start was enough to win.

The Packers remained unbeaten under LaFleur after opening the NFL's 100th season with a victory at rival Chicago. They also beat the Vikings (1-1) for the fifth time in the past seven games at Lambeau Field.

Minnesota's Dalvin Cook had a career-high 154 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries. It was the third-year pro's second consecutive game with over 100 yards rushing. Cook also had 37 yards receiving in the loss.

After throwing the ball just 10 times in the opener against Atlanta, Kirk Cousins finished 14 of 32 with 230 yards, a touchdown and two interceptions. Cousins was picked off by Kevin King in the end zone late in the fourth quarter.

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Sept. 22, 2019. Attendance: 78,078. Time: 2:58. Weather: 69° F, Humidity: 93 percent, Wind: S-SW 7 mph.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Aaron Rodgers thought his jersey never looked so clean following a game. The offensive line kept Rodgers upright, the two-time MVP threw for 235 yards and a touchdown, and Aaron Jones tied a career high by running for two scores to lead the Green Bay Packers to a 27-16 victory over the Denver Broncos on Sunday.

The Broncos (0-3) fell to 0-6-1 all-time on the road against the Packers. While Rodgers stayed clean, Joe Flacco did not. Preston Smith matched a career high with three sacks as Green Bay got to Flacco six times and forced three turnovers to lead the Packers (3-0) to the win despite being dominated in time of possession, 35:34 to 24:26. Flacco was 20 of 29 for 213 yards with an interception and no touchdowns.

Rodgers found Marquez Valdes-Scantling on a 40-yard strike on the opening drive and finished 17 of 29. Jones' touchdown runs came from 7 yards and 1 yard out.

Following Valdes-Scantling's first score of the season, Flacco and the Broncos' offense spoiled a 60-yard kickoff return by Dontae Spencer, going three-and-out on their first possession.

Green Bay's new-look defense continued its impressive start to the season. After a sack by Za'Darius Smith, who finished the day with two, fellow newcomer Smith followed with one of his three sacks. Flacco coughed up the ball and Rashan Gary recovered it at the Broncos' 5. Jones ran it in from the 7 and Green Bay took a 17-10 lead into the locker room.

Packers cornerback Jaire Alexander opened the third quarter by recording his first career forced fumble and fumble recovery after stripping Noah Fant on a 4-yard completion. Green Bay took advantage as Rodgers hit tightback Danny Vitale for a 27-yard gain that put the ball on the 1 before Jones ran it in for his second touchdown to make it 24-10. It was Jones' second career multi-touchdown game. The third-year running back also had two rushing touchdowns last season against the Dolphins.

Mason Crosby added a 41-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to make it a two-possession game.

The Packers drafted both Gary and safety Darnell Savage in the first round in April. Savage had his first career interception Sunday, while Gary recorded his first career sack.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The short-handed Philadelphia Eagles promoted Craig James, the second-year undrafted cornerback, to the active roster two days before the prime-time matchup in Green Bay. James responded by making the game-winning play in the 34-27 win over the Packers on Thursday night.

With 25 seconds left, James jumped a quick slant by Marquez Valdes-Scantling and tipped Aaron Rodgers' pass into the end zone where Nigel Bradham collected it and sealed the victory.

Jordan Howard gashed Green Bay for his second career three-touchdown game and the Eagles (2-2) ended a two-game losing streak.

Howard finished with 87 yards on 15 carries and two touchdowns rushing and one receiving. Carson Wentz went 16 for 27 for 160 yards, three scores and no turnovers, and the Eagles rebounded after losing consecutive games by a combined seven points.

Rodgers started 10 for 10 and finished 34 for 53 for 422 yards, two touchdowns and a fumble that set up a short Philadelphia scoring drive.

Davante Adams had a career-high 180 yards on 10 catches for Green Bay, but he wasn't on the field for the Packers (3-1) on the last drive because of a toe injury.

Adams was hurt after making a catch in the fourth quarter that gave the Packers first-and-goal at the 8. Avonte Maddox was called for pass interference on the next play while teammate Andrew Sendejor collided with him. Maddox was carted off the field on a stretcher late in the fourth quarter, which forced coach Doug Pederson to turn to James.

Rodgers had first-and-goal from the 1 after the delay and threw four straight incompletions.

After punting on its first two drives and falling behind 10-0, Philadelphia scored on four straight possessions against a defense that had only given up 35 points through the first three games.

Sacked six times in the previous two games, Wentz managed to stay upright. Zach Ertz had a team-high seven catches for 65 yards, and Alshon Jeffery, who missed all but six snaps over the past two weeks with a calf injury, finished with 38 yards and a touchdown on three catches.

AT&T Stadium, Sunday, Oct. 6, 2019. Attendance: 93,024. Time: 3:31. Weather: Indoors.

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — The "Aarons" were quite comfortable in a 34-24 victory over the Cowboys on Sunday — Aaron Rodgers because he won again at AT&T Stadium nine years after his first victory in the retractable-roof stadium was the 2011 Super Bowl, Aaron Jones because the west Texas kid felt right at home.

Jones had a career-high 182 scrimmage yards — 107 rushing and 75 receiving — and opened the scoring with an 18-yard run after being held in 19 and 21 yards rushing the previous two weeks. His four rushing touchdowns tied a Green Bay franchise record.

Rodgers zipped a sidwinding toss to Robert Tonyan in tight coverage along the sideline to fix one broken play, flipped a left-hander to Tra Carson to rescue another, and helped Green Bay improve to 5-0 at AT&T Stadium.

The first three Green Bay wins over the Cowboys at their 10-year-old stadium were all dramatic, highlighted by Rodgers' improbable 35-yard completion to Jared Cook to set up a winning field goal on the final play of a 34-31 divisional-round playoff win three years ago.

Not quite the same drama this time after the Packers (4-1) built a 31-3 lead, although Dak Prescott (463 yards passing) and Amari Cooper (226 yards receiving) set career highs trying to keep things interesting in the fourth quarter.

The last hope for Dallas ended with 1:41 left when Brett Maher missed his second field goal — a 33-yarder that would have given the Cowboys a shot at an onside kick down seven.

Missing his biggest threat in Davante Adams because of a toe injury, Rodgers threw for 238 yards without an interception — to the delight of a large contingent of Green Bay fans that pulled off several "Go Pack Go" chants without much resistance from the home crowd.

Prescott, on the other hand, matched a career high with three interceptions, although the first was a drop by Cooper on what should have been a big play early.

The Cowboys (3-2) lost their second straight game and dropped into a tie with Philadelphia atop the NFC East after winning their first three, just as the Packers had done.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — It took Mason Crosby 13 seasons to perform his first Lambeau Leap.

The 35-year-old kicker nailed a 23-yard field goal as time expired and jumped into the crowd with a boost from long snapper Hunter Bradley after he finished off a rally for the Green Bay Packers, who benefited from some questionable officiating to edge the Detroit Lions, 23-22, on Monday night.

Aaron Rodgers, in his second straight game without top target Davante Adams, completed 24 of 39 passes for 283 yards and two touchdowns, including a beautiful 35-yard throw to Allen Lazard for the first-year pro's first career score.

Rodgers linked up with Jamaal Williams for the other TD. Williams finished with 104 yards and four catches for 32 yards for Green Bay (5-1), which captured its first win in five tries against its NFC North rival.

The Packers, who are off to their first 3-0 start in the NFC North since 2012, might not have pulled it off if not for two fourth-quarter penalties for illegal hands to the face against Detroit's Trey Flowers, both of them on third down. The first set up Lazard's touchdown, and the second allowed Green Bay to run the clock down to two seconds before Crosby's game-winner. In both cases, replays showed Flowers' hands on the neck or shoulder — not the face — of a Packers lineman.

Matt Prater was good from 26, 22, 41, 51 and 54 yards for the Lions (2-2-1), who fell to 0-2 under Matt Patricia on Monday night. Detroit lost its last Monday night game to the Jets, 48-17, in 2018.

Matthew Stafford finished 18 of 32 for 265 yards and was sacked three times.

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Oct. 20, 2019. Attendance: 78,160. Time: 2:59. Weather: 55° F, Humidity: 74 percent, Wind: SW 6 mph.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The Green Bay Packers gave the rest of the NFL its first true glimpse of what Matt LaFleur's offense can look like with Aaron Rodgers at the helm. And it was scary.

Rodgers had his best game by far under the new Packers coach, throwing for 429 yards and five touchdowns and running for another as Green Bay beat the Oakland Raiders, 42-24, on Sunday.

Rodgers completed 25 of 31 passes to eight different targets and finished with the first perfect passer rating of his career, leading LaFleur's offense to a season high in points.

Even with top target Davante Adams sidelined for the third straight game with turf toe, Rodgers threw for his most touchdowns in a game since Sept. 28, 2015, against the Chiefs.

Derek Carr finished 22 for 28 for 293 yards, two touchdowns and two costly turnovers for the Raiders (3-3), who lost their eighth straight against Green Bay, dating back to 1990. The Packers (6-1) have scored 30-plus points in each of their last five games against the Raiders.

Green Bay took the lead for good on a 2-yard touchdown from Rodgers to Jamaal Williams with 3:27 to go in the first half. The score capped an 11-play, 82-yard drive that took up 8:06 — the Packers' longest drive of the season — and made it 14-0.

Carr put the Raiders in position to retake the lead with a 48-yard completion down the middle to Darren Waller, giving Oakland first and goal at the 3. On second down, as Carr scrambled for the pylon, Blake Martinez forced a fumble and the ball went through the end zone for a touchback.

Rodgers made Oakland pay, finding Jake Kumerow for a 37-yard touchdown to make it 21-10 at halftime.

Rodgers opened the second half with a 59-yard completion to Marquez Valdes-Scantling. Four plays later, Rodgers crossed the goal line on a 3-yard run.

Jimmy Graham got into the action, scoring his third touchdown of the season on a 3-yard pass from Rodgers before the end of the third. Kevin King picked off Carr in the end zone with 8:09 to play. That led to Rodgers' sixth score of the day, a 74-yard pass to Valdes-Scantling, who finished with two catches for 133 yards.

Arrowhead Stadium, Sunday, Oct. 27, 2019. Attendance: 73,558. Time: 3:07. Weather: 54° F, Humidity: 60 percent, Wind: W 5 mph.

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — It was supposed to be a prime-time showdown between the Green Bay Packers and Kansas City Chiefs, division leaders led by two of the most talented and exciting quarterbacks in the NFL.

Aaron Rodgers and the Packers lived up to the billing. Patrick Mahomes never got the chance. Rodgers threw for 305 yards and three touchdowns, two of them to Aaron Jones on a big night for the Green Bay running back, and the Packers held off fill-in quarterback Matt Moore and the rest of the banged-up Chiefs for a 31-24 victory Sunday night.

Jones had seven catches for 159 yards and added 67 on the ground — a big chunk of them in the closing minutes, when the Packers (7-1) sealed their first win at Arrowhead Stadium since Nov. 4, 2007.

The Chiefs (5-3) hoped Mahomes could make a miraculous recovery 10 days after dislocating his kneecap in Denver in time to play. But after the league MVP was limited all week in practice, coach Andy Reid announced Friday his franchise quarterback would be inactive for the game.

It started like most outside the walls of 1 Arrowhead Drive expected, with Rodgers slicing up the defense and Green Bay marching for two quick touchdowns.

But after a shaky start by Moore, the journeyman quarterback found a groove. He led the Chiefs on an 89-yard drive that ended with a 29-yard touchdown pass to Travis Kelce, then found Mecole Hardman on a 30-yard pitch-and-catch to knot the game.

The Chiefs led 17-14 at halftime, raising some eyebrows across the league.

Packers head coach Matt LaFleur made a couple of adjustments, though, and Rodgers and Co. began to move the ball once more. They used a 15-play drive that soaked up more than half the third quarter to get a tying field goal, then got the ball back when LeSean McCoy fumbled on the very next play.

With third down at the 3, Rodgers dropped back and was flushed from the pocket. He rolled to his right and threw a blind pass to the back corner of the end zone, where Jamaal Williams somehow took the ball away from Chiefs linebacker Ben Niemann while tapping both feet inbound.

CARSON, Calif. (AP) — Just when the Los Angeles Chargers' season looked lost, they put together their best game of the year against one of the league's top teams.

Melvin Gordon scored two touchdowns and the defense held Green Bay's Aaron Rodgers to one of his worst outings as the Chargers dominated the Packers on Sunday, winning 26-11.

Green Bay came in as the second-best team in the NFC but had its four-game winning streak snapped to fall to 7-2.

For the first time this year, the Chargers (4-5) looked like a team that won 12 games and made the playoffs last season.

The offense was balanced and moved the ball consistently in Shane Steichen's first game as coordinator, and the defense kept Rodgers and the Packers out of the end zone until midway through the fourth quarter. Michael Badgley kicked four field goals in his first game back from injury.

The running game, which had been held under 40 yards in four straight games, had a season-high 159 yards. Gordon, who came in averaging only 2.5 yards per carry, had 80 yards on 20 carries and Austin Ekeler added 12 carries for 70 yards.

Most of Gordon's carries came in the second half, including a pair of 1-yard TDs off left guard in the third and fourth quarters. He also had the play of the game when he hurdled over Green Bay defensive back Chandon Sullivan during a 16-yard gain in the third quarter.

Philip Rivers completed 21 of 28 passes for 294 yards, and Mike Williams had the first 100-yard receiving day in his three-year career with three receptions for 111 yards.

Defensively, the Chargers pressured Rodgers all day with minimal blitzing and sacked him three times as Rodgers completed 23 of 35 passes. Joey Bosa and Melvin Ingram each had 1½ sacks.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — A matchup featuring two MVP candidates turned into a stage for a third player to make his case to be included in the MVP conversation.

Preston Smith and Green Bay's defense stopped MVP candidate Christian McCaffrey at the goal line as time expired and the Packers defeated the Carolina Panthers, 24-16, on a snowy Sunday at Lambeau Field.

Aaron Jones scored three rushing touchdowns for the second time this season to lead Green Bay (8-2), which improved to 5-2 all-time against the Panthers at home. Jones is the first Packers player since Sterling Sharpe in 1994 with multiple three-touchdown games in a season. Jones is also the first Green Bay running back since Jim Taylor in 1962 with multiple three-rushing-touchdown games in a season. Taylor did it three times that year.

The Panthers got the ball with 2:25 left on their own 11-yard line, trailing by eight. Quarterback Kyle Allen drove Carolina down the field, including completing a 12-yard pass to DJ Moore on fourth-and-10 with 56 seconds left. The Panthers also benefited from an offsides penalty with 13 seconds remaining to convert another fourth down. After Allen threw an incompletoion to McCaffrey, the Packers stopped him just short of the end zone as time expired. A brief replay review upheld the call.

Five of the last six meetings between the two teams now have been decided by eight points or less.

Aaron Rodgers was held out of the end zone, but the two-time MVP completed 17 of 29 passes for 233 yards, including 118 yards to Davante Adams.

McCaffrey had a relatively quiet 108 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries for the Panthers (5-4), who fell to 6-10 all-time against Green Bay. McCaffrey, who entered the day leading the league in yards from scrimmage and touchdowns, also had 33 yards on six catches.

SANTA CLARA, Calif. (AP) — A strip sack on the opening drive that set up a touchdown got the San Francisco 49ers off to a rousing start. A near flawless performance by Jimmy Garoppolo and a dominant performance by the defense finished off Aaron Rodgers and the Green Bay Packers.

Garoppolo threw two long touchdown passes and the San Francisco defense harassed Rodgers into one of the worst performances of his brilliant career, leading the 49ers to a 37-8 victory over the Packers on Sunday.

Garoppolo connected on a 42-yard touchdown strike to Deebo Samuel in the second quarter and a 61-yarder to George Kittle in the third to start this stretch for San Francisco (10-1) off on a high note.

Rodgers lost a fumble on the opening drive on one of the five sacks he took and failed to convert a single third down on 13 tries before getting pulled late in the fourth quarter. He finished 20 for 33 for 104 yards and Green Bay averaged an anemic 1.7 yards per pass play when he was in the game.

San Francisco allowed 198 yards on 70 plays, didn't allow a single completion longer than 15 yards and got a key stop against Aaron Jones on a fourth-and-1 run in the first half when the outcome was still in doubt.

Garoppolo then put it away with the two long touchdowns, part of a day when he went 14 for 20 for 253 yards and most important, committed no turnovers.

He was helped by the return of Kittle, who had six catches for 129 yards in his first game back after missing the past two contests with injuries to his knee and ankle.

The 49ers broke it open late in the first half after forcing the Packers to punt following the two-minute warning. Garoppolo threw a 42-yard TD pass to Samuel to cap a three-play drive that made it 20-0. The Niners then forced a three-and-out and took over at their 48 with 24 seconds left. Garoppolo completed a 22-yard pass to Kittle that set up Chase McLaughlin's 48-yard field goal.

MetLife Stadium, Sunday, Dec. 1, 2019. Attendance: 75,950. Time: 2:56. Weather: 32° F, Humidity: 86 percent, Wind: NE 10 mph.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (AP) — The Green Bay Packers had everything they needed to bounce back from a dismal West Coast performance: Lambeau Field weather on the road, a struggling young opponent and, of course, Aaron Rodgers.

Rodgers threw four touchdown passes in the snow and the Packers (9-3) rebounded from a 29-point loss to San Francisco and beat the New York Giants, 31-13, on Sunday.

Rodgers hit Davante Adams on touchdown passes of 8 and 17 yards, found a wide-open Allen Lazard for 37 yards and capped the performance with a 1-yarder to Marcedes Lewis. The Packers also intercepted rookie Daniel Jones three times, with the picks setting up 10 points. The loss sent the Giants (2-10) to their eighth straight loss, their worst skid since 2004.

Aldrick Rosas added field goals of 27 and 45 yards for New York, which has a 7-21 mark since Pat Shurmur took over last season. A light snow started falling before game time and it quickly covered the field, forcing work crews to shovel the yardage lines during breaks. It also made it look like Wisconsin, and the Packers had no problem in beating New York for the third straight time.

The last time it was in an NFC Wild Card game in January 2017. Rodgers also threw four touchdown passes in that one, a game that started New York on a three-year run that has seen it win 10 games and change coaches and general managers.

The Packers scored the first three times they had the ball, with the first two drives ending on touchdown passes by Rodgers. The first covered 8 yards to Adams and the second was the strike to Lazard on a crossing pattern.

Kevin King, beaten on a Sterling Shepard catch, got revenge quickly, intercepting Jones' pass at the Green Bay 36. It set up a 47-yard field goal by Mason Crosby and pushed the lead to 17-7 early in the second quarter.

On the ensuing possession, the Giants had the ball for 9:31 before settling for a 27-yard field goal by Rosas. He would add a 45-yarder midway through the third quarter to cut the deficit to four points.

Rodgers responded, leading the Packers on a 14-play, 75-yard march. It ended with him taking a quick snap with the Giants having too many defenders on the field and finding Adams in the end zone for a 24-13 lead.

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Dec. 8, 2019. Attendance: 77,296. Time: 2:59. Weather: 37° F, Humidity: 75 percent, Wind: SW 10 mph.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Aaron Jones rushed for a season-high 134 yards and a touchdown on just 16 carries, Aaron Rodgers threw for 195 yards and the Green Bay Packers did enough to beat the Washington Redskins, 20-15, on Sunday.

Jones had his third 100-yard rushing game of the season and hauled in six catches for 58 yards. With less than three minutes left in the game, the third-year running back had more total yards (192) than the Redskins (187).

Dwayne Haskins completed 16 of 27 passes for 170 yards and a touchdown with an interception for Washington (3-10), which was officially eliminated from playoff contention. The rookie quarterback was sacked four times.

Adrian Peterson became just the sixth back in NFL history to reach the 14,000-yard mark, running for 76 yards and a score. He now has 14,036 yards in a 13-year career. Curtis Martin is fifth all-time with 14,101 yards.

Derrius Guise exited after only five carries with a knee injury.

Kenny Clark and Kyle Fackrell combined for a sack of Haskins on Washington's opening drive for an 11-yard loss. Haskins and the Redskins started the day with three straight three-and-outs in the franchise's first-ever December trip to Lambeau Field.

Jones scored from 4 yards out on the Packers' opening drive. It was Jones' 12th rushing touchdown and 15th TD of the season. Rodgers found Robert Tonyan for a 12-yard touchdown on Green Bay's other first-quarter score.

Haskins led Washington on an 11-play, 95-yard drive that was capped by a 2-yard score by Peterson with 3:44 to play in the first quarter. Dustin Hopkins missed the extra point.

Green Bay (10-3) led 14-6 at halftime.

After Mason Crosby's field goal, Hopkins nailed a 52-yarder to cut it to 17-9 before the end of the third.

Crosby was good on a 33-yard attempt with 2:34 to go to seal the win.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Aaron Rodgers' and the Green Bay Packers' wait to see if a longtime foe would help them clinch a playoff spot was a whole lot easier than the lateral-fled final play they had to survive to beat the Chicago Bears in the rivals' 20th game.

With the Packers leading by eight points with just one second remaining, Tramon Williams fell on Jesper Horsted's fumble at the 2-yard line to end Green Bay's 21-13 victory over the Bears on Sunday. A few hours later, the Packers were playoff bound, when the Dallas Cowboys beat the Los Angeles Rams.

With the win, Green Bay (11-3) swept the Bears for the 15th time in the last 26 seasons and the seventh time in 11 seasons. The Packers defeated Chicago, 10-3, in the season opener. Green Bay now leads the series 99-95-6.

The Packers improved to 19-5 against the Bears with Rodgers as the starting quarterback. Rodgers completed just 16 of 33 passes for 203 yards. The two-time MVP entered the day with a 103.2 career passer rating against the Bears, the highest in league history of quarterbacks with at least 250 passes against Chicago. He had a 78.2 rating on Sunday.

Mitchell Trubisky completed his first five pass attempts for the Bears (7-7), but for only 18 yards. Chicago's offense opened the game with three straight punts and a turnover on downs. Trubisky finished 29 of 53 for 334 yards, a touchdown and two interceptions, and the Bears had their three-game win streak end.

The Packers got on the board first on a 29-yard strike from Rodgers to Davante Adams in the first quarter. Adams beat Buster Skrine off the line for his fourth touchdown in the last four weeks. Adams finished with 103 yards on seven catches.

Eddy Piñeiro knocked in a 30-yard field goal late in the first half for the Bears.

The Packers opened the second half with an impressive five-play, 73-yard drive that featured a 34-yard reception to Adams, a season-long 17-yard scamper by Rodgers, and a 21-yard touchdown run by Aaron Jones, his 13th rushing TD of the season.

After another stalled possession by Chicago, Rodgers and Jake Kumerow linked up for a 49-yard gain, Kumerow's longest reception of the season. The play helped set up another score for Jones from 2 yards and the Packers took a commanding 21-3 lead in the third quarter.

U.S. Bank Stadium, Monday, Dec. 23, 2019. Attendance: 67,157. Time: 3:09. Weather: Indoors.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Sporting fresh division-title shirts that few expected them to wear this year, the Green Bay Packers had the message printed across their chests in the jubilant visitors' locker room: "The North is not enough."

With Aaron Rodgers taking a back seat while the ground game and the pass rush led the way, the Packers became NFC North champions for the first time in three years and delivered Minnesota's first defeat at home this season.

Aaron Jones rushed for 154 yards and two second-half touchdowns, Za'Darius Smith had five tackles for loss to lead a stifling performance by the defense, and the Packers beat the Vikings, 23-10, on Monday night.

The Packers (12-3) made Matt LaFleur the 10th rookie coach in NFL history to reach 12 victories, with Green Bay winning for the first time in four tries at U.S. Bank Stadium with a dominant finish after trailing, 10-9, at halftime. Green Bay stayed in position for a first-round bye in the playoffs, and the top seed — with home-field advantage until the Super Bowl — is still in sight.

The Packers stormed back from three first-half turnovers, including the rare interception by Rodgers, to silence the deafening crowd and seal the Vikings (10-5) into the sixth playoff seed. The green-and-gold-clad fans in attendance squeezed some "Go, Pack, Go!" chants in during the ample down time as the Packers took control in the second half.

Kirk Cousins was sacked five times, with a whopping 3½ by Smith, and he threw an interception in the third quarter that set up the first score by Jones, who leads the league with 16 rushing touchdowns. The Vikings had 139 total yards, as Cousins fell to 0-9 in his career in Monday night games.

The Vikings had only seven first downs and never netted a drive longer than 31 yards in this concerning regression. They wasted a fine performance by their defense, which has produced 10 turnovers in the last two games.

DETROIT (AP) — Aaron Rodgers was on the money when Green Bay needed him most. Rodgers threw a short and accurate pass to Aaron Jones, whose 31-yard reception set up Mason Crosby's 33-yard field goal as time expired to lift the Packers to a 23-20 win over the Detroit Lions that earned them a No. 2 seed and a first-round bye.

The Packers (13-3) fell behind the last-place Lions by two touchdowns in the second quarter and didn't lead until Crosby made his second game-winning kick against Detroit this season.

Green Bay won a fifth straight game despite Rodgers struggling for much of the afternoon. Rodgers was 27 of 55 for 323 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. He connected on less than half of his attempts for the second time this season and finished with his second-lowest rating of the year.

The Lions (3-12-1) closed with nine straight losses for their longest losing streak in a season since going 0-16 in 2008. David Blough was 12 of 29 for 122 yards with an interception — and a 19-yard touchdown reception — filling in for Matthew Stafford, who had a season-ending back injury.

Despite playing only for pride, the Lions looked as if they were more motivated to win early in the game against a team with a lot at stake. With nothing to lose, Detroit scored on a trick play midway through the first quarter. Blough handed off to receiver Danny Amendola, who threw back across the field to the rookie quarterback for a TD.

Crosby and Matt Prater made field goals over the last 20 seconds of the first half, leaving the Lions with a 17-3 lead.

Rodgers started to make more accurate passes in the second half, such as a 20-yard TD pass to Davante Adams and a 28-yard pass to Allen Lazard with 5:19 left for another score.

The Packers pulled into a 20-all tie after linebacker Blake Martinez had a sack and interception on consecutive snaps.

Jones, who overcame having his hand stepped on, finished with 100 yards rushing on 25 carries and had 43 yards receiving. Adams had seven receptions for 93 yards and a score.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — This divisional-round win over Seattle was a vintage Aaron Rodgers performance. He helped the Packers pull within a game of the Super Bowl with an array of clutch completions at the most critical of moments.

Rodgers connected with Davante Adams eight times for 160 yards and two touchdowns, Green Bay's spruced-up defense fended off a spirited Seahawks rally, and the Packers held on for a 28-23 victory Sunday night to reach the NFC Championship Game for the third time in six years. Adams set Green Bay's single-game postseason record for receiving yards.

Aaron Jones rushed for 62 yards and two first-half scores for the Packers (14-3), who will travel next weekend to take on top-seeded San Francisco. Rodgers, who went 16 for 27 for 243 yards in his 17th career postseason start, has 38 touchdown passes in the playoffs. That's good for fifth in league history.

Russell Wilson carried the Seahawks (12-6) on yet another comeback, this time from a 21-3 halftime deficit, but the Packers forced a punt shortly before the two-minute warning on the second sack of the game by Preston Smith. That was Green Bay's fifth of the game. The Seahawks never got the ball again.

Rodgers sealed the win with two third-down throws: a 32-yard strike to Adams on third-and-8 with 2:19 left and then for 9 yards to Jimmy Graham on third-and-9 right after the two-minute warning to take down a Seahawks team that has 8-1 on the road this season entering the game.

Racking up 64 yards rushing on seven scrambles and completing 21 of 31 passes for 277 yards, Wilson directed touchdown drives of 69, 84, 79 yards right out of the gate after halftime. Marshawn Lynch finished two of them with scores, and Wilson threw on the run to Tyler Lockett, who had 136 yards on nine receptions, for the other one.

SANTA CLARA, Calif. (AP) — The Packers' season ended just short of the Super Bowl with a playoff loss in the NFC Championship Game to the San Francisco 49ers, 37-20, on Sunday.

Aaron Rodgers completed his first eight passes, but the Packers (14-4) never found an offensive rhythm and had no answers for dynamic running back Raheem Mostert on the other side of the ball.

Rodgers led a scoring drive to begin the second half when he connected with Aaron Jones on a 9-yard touchdown pass. Jones ran for a 1-yard score early in the fourth.

Rodgers finished 31 of 39 for 326 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions with a 97.2 passer rating. His highlight Sunday came with a 65-yard completion to Davante Adams with his team trailing 34-13 in the fourth quarter that set up Jace Sternberger's 8-yard TD reception, the rookie's career first.

That gave Rodgers 40 career playoff touchdown passes, breaking Brett Favre's franchise record of 39. Rodgers' night ended with an interception by Richard Sherman at the 5.

Rodgers went 8 of 8 to start for 66 yards, but the Packers were forced to punt their first two possessions. Rodgers fumbled when sacked by K'Waun Williams for a 15-yard loss their next time and Green Bay punted again — totaling just 18 yards of offense in its first three offensive series. The Packers trailed 27-0 by halftime, gaining only 93 yards.

Rodgers was sacked on his second third-down conversion attempt of the game for a loss of 13 yards. Nick Bosa came at the quarterback again from the right edge.

Mostert was the star of the show after running for a franchise-record 220 yards and four touchdowns. Mostert piled up the most first-half rushing yards (160) of any player in a playoff game since 1963 and the second-most postseason rushing yards in NFL history.

The 49ers (15-3) didn't shy away from what worked, pounding the ball with 42 run plays to eight pass plays. Garoppolo attempted just 4 passes after the first quarter and finished 6 of 8 for 77 yards.

JOHNNY BLOOD

Johnny Blood might still be the most colorful player in the history of the National Football League. That might sound like hyperbole, but how many other players have been the inspiration for a Hollywood movie 70 years after retiring? And Leatherheads, released in 2008 and starring George Clooney, might not have done justice to Blood's eccentricities. Born John Victor McNally, he adopted the name Johnny Blood and used it exclusively throughout his 15-year, Hall of Fame playing career, including seven seasons with the Packers.

ENDING THE SEASON ON A HIGH NOTE

If history is any indicator, a Green Bay winning streak to end the regular season means good things for the coming season. In 2006, the Packers were one of four clubs to finish the regular season with four consecutive victories. It marked the third time that decade the club had ended the season with four consecutive wins, and each following season it earned a playoff berth.

- Since the NFL implemented postseason play, the Packers on 12 occasions have closed a regular season with at least four wins. Green Bay has failed to reach the playoffs in the following season only twice – in 1940 and '42.

HERBER-TO-HUTSON: DID YOU KNOW?

The Packers' Arnie Herber was one of the NFL's first long-bomb passers, and he did it with unusually small hands. At Green Bay West High School, Herber learned he could improve his distance and accuracy by palming the ball, rather than using the laces. His most-feared target, the incomparable Don Hutson, had flat feet, and trainers had to tape them in a special way. That taping job gave Hutson a strange running motion, which totally stumped opponents, because his loping style disguised his true speed.

CARRIED OFF THE FIELD

The Packers won six NFL championships under Curly Lambeau, but it wasn't until four years after his departure that the team's players carried their head coach off the field on their shoulders, joyous in victory.

A beleaguered Gene Ronzani, Lambeau's successor, was lifted off the ground and carried to the entrance of the locker room at Memorial Stadium after the Packers had beaten the Baltimore Colts, 35-24, in a Saturday night game played Nov. 2, 1953. Ronzani was less than a month away from being fired.

Six years later, the Packers carried Vince Lombardi off the field following his first game as head coach of the Packers, a 9-6 victory over the Chicago Bears at what was then called new City Stadium.

The Packers practically made a habit of carrying Lombardi off the field following momentous victories during his glorious reign. They did so at least four more times: after he won his first NFL Championship Game in 1961; after he won his third title against the Cleveland Browns in 1965; after he won his fourth title in Dallas on Jan. 1, 1967; and after he won Super Bowl II, his last game as Packers coach.

Nearly 30 years later, the Packers carried Mike Holmgren off the field following a 35-21 win over New England in Super Bowl XXXI at the Louisiana Superdome.

TWO GREAT DEFENSIVE BACKS, TWO GOOD EYES

Bobby Dillon and Irv Comp, two of the leading interceptors in Packers history, had only two good eyes between them. Dillon, the team's all-time career leader with 52 thefts, played with a glass eye after suffering an accident in childhood. Comp, who holds the single-season franchise record with 10 interceptions in 1943, also was blind in one eye.

NOTE: Total Defense from 1933-49 includes lateral statistics, a category eliminated before the 1950 season. In 1947, the league began charting "yards lost attempting to pass." Passing figures from 1932-46 do not include this number. Totals from 1947-2019 are NET figures; passing totals from 1932-46 are GROSS figures. In 1963, Elias Sports Bureau and the NFL changed "yards lost attempting to pass" to "team sacks." In 1982, Elias officially began keeping individual sacks.

VINCE LOMBARDI TROPHY

The Vince Lombardi Trophy, given annually to the Super Bowl champion, was renamed in honor of the former Packers coach shortly after his death in 1970, before Super Bowl V.

The gesture, made by Commissioner Pete Rozelle, was arguably the greatest tribute in NFL history.

Each trophy, molded and customized every year, is sterling silver and takes 72 man-hours for Tiffany & Company to handcraft in Parsippany, N.J. Three concave sides form a pyramid, which supports a life-size, regulation football. The icon is 22 inches tall, weighs 7 pounds and is valued at more than $10,000. Former Tiffany VP of design Oscar Riedener first sketched the trophy on a napkin in 1966.

THIRTEEN TIMES WORLD CHAMPIONS

The Green Bay Packers have won more championships – 13 – than any other team in National Football League history.

- They won their first three by league standing (1929, 1930 and 1931), and 10 since the NFL's playoff system was established in 1933 (1936, 1939, 1944, 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966, 1967, 1996 and 2010).
- Green Bay also is the only NFL team to win three straight titles, having done it twice (1929-31 and 1965-67).
- In addition, the Packers won the first two Super Bowls (vs. Kansas City in 1966, 35-10, and vs. Oakland in 1967, 33-14), as well as Super Bowls in 1996 vs. New England (35-21) and in 2010 vs. Pittsburgh (31-25).
- Since the league implemented a playoff system in 1933, the Packers have played in the NFL's deciding game 13 times (10 NFL title appearances from 1936-67, three Super Bowls after the 1970 merger). Only the Giants (19) have played for more titles.

SUPER BOWL I

GREEN BAY 35, KANSAS CITY 10

Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, Sunday, Jan. 15, 1967; Attendance: 61,946; Time: 2:37; Weather: 72° F, sunny, hazy

The Packers launched the Super Bowl series by whipping Kansas City's AFL champions, 35-10, behind Bart Starr, Max McGee and a key interception by All-Pro safety Willie Wood.

Vince Lombardi's repeating NFL champions broke open the game with three second-half touchdowns. Wood set up the first, returning an interception 50 yards to the Chiefs' 5, with the Packers up only 14-10. Len Dawson's pass was intended for Kansas City tight end Fred Arbanas.

McGee, replacing Boyd Dowler (injured on the Packers' first series), after having caught only four passes all season, snared seven from Starr for 138 yards and two touchdowns. Elijah Pitts ran for two other scores, one on a 5-yard run in the third quarter, the other on a 1-yard bolt in the final period.

The Chiefs' lone touchdown came on a 7-yard pass from Dawson to Curtis McClinton.

Starr, the game's first MVP, completed 16 of 23 passes for 250 yards and two TDs. The aging McGee caught both scores, 37 yards in the first quarter and a 13-yard catch in the decisive third period.

The Packers collected $15,000 per man and the Chiefs $7,500 apiece — the largest single-game shares in the history of team sports at the time. The game was not a sellout; more than 30,000 seats remained empty.

SUPER BOWL II

GREEN BAY 33, OAKLAND 14

Miami Orange Bowl, Sunday, Jan. 14, 1968; Attendance: 75,546; Time: 2:34; Weather: 68° F; PC, 52% humidity, wind W 14 mph

Acquiring a third straight NFL championship two weeks earlier, the Packers embellished that record-tying parlay by winning a second consecutive Super Bowl. This time, they dispatched the AFL champion Raiders, 33-14, in a game that drew the first $3 million gate in football history.

Bart Starr again was the game's most valuable player as he completed 13 of 24 passes for 202 yards and one touchdown and directed a Packers attack that was in control all the way after building a 16-7 halftime lead.

Don Chandler kicked four field goals (39, 20, 43 and 31 yards), and All-Pro cornerback Herb Adderley returned an interception of a Daryle Lamonica pass 60 yards for a touchdown.

Leading 3-0 at the quarter, the Packers got three Chandler field goals and a 62-yard scoring pass from Starr to split end Boyd Dowler before halftime. They then left the Raiders behind with a 10-point third period, Donny Anderson scoring on a 2-yard run and Chandler with his final field goal.

The game ended Vince Lombardi's nine-year reign as Packers coach. He won six Western Conference championships, five NFL titles and two Super Bowls, a record then unpeached in pro football history.

SUPER BOWL XXXI

GREEN BAY 35, NEW ENGLAND 21

Louisiana Superdome, New Orleans, La., Sunday, Jan. 26, 1997; Attendance: 72,301; Time: 3:21; Weather: (indoors)

Using several momentum-turning big plays, the Packers held off resilient New England to capture their first world championship in 29 years. For Green Bay, the victory also marked its league-high 12th NFL championship as well as its third Super Bowl triumph.

The Packers jumped to an early 10-0 lead. Brett Favre, sensing a Patriots blitz, audibled on Green Bay's second play from scrimmage, hitting late-season pickup Andre Rison on a wide-open post pattern for a 54-yard touchdown pass. On the ensuing New England possession, Doug Evans intercepted Drew Bledsoe at the Patriots' 28, which led to a 37-yard field goal by Chris Jacke.

New England then was able to turn the tide in its favor, however, as Bledsoe took his club on two long drives for touchdowns. The first, which covered 79 yards and culminated in a short pass to Keith Byars, was aided by two long throws to Pats running backs and a 26-yard pass-interference penalty. The second, starting at the New England 43, was spurred by a leaping, 44-yard reception by rookie Terry Glenn. When Ben Coates caught a 4-yard TD pass from Bledsoe, the Patriots momentarily had their only lead of the game and had completed the highest-scoring first quarter in Super Bowl history.

Green Bay rebounded to retake the lead when Favre, seeing Patriots' strong safety Lawyer Milloy at the line of scrimmage in tight coverage on Antonio Freeman, watched Freeman elude Milloy's "bump" and lofted a perfect arcing to Freeman along the right sideline. Freeman, able to outrun New England's late-arriving free safety, covered 81 yards for the longest reception in Super Bowl history at that time. After another Jacke field goal, Favre took advantage of a Mike Prieur interception and escorted his troops on a nine-play, 74-yard march just before halftime that ended when, on a bootleg left, he lunged the ball over the goal line as he was rolling out of bounds.

Taking a 27-14 edge out of the locker room at halftime, Green Bay maintained that lead until late in the third quarter, when the Patriots' Curtis Martin made a magnificent 18-yard run up the middle of the Packers' defense to pull New England to within six points at 27-21.

That margin was short-lived, though, as Desmond Howard returned the ensuing kickoff 99 yards for a back-breaking touchdown (the longest kick return in Super Bowl history at the time), bursting through the center of the Packers' well-blocked wedge, then juking kicker Adam Vinatieri to bolt free. Howard, who had 244 total return yards in the game including key punt runbacks of 32 and 34 yards, was voted the game's most valuable player, becoming the first special teams player to be so honored. A subsequent, successful two-point conversion, where Favre found Mark Chmura along the back of the end zone, gave the Green and Gold an insurmountable two-touchdown lead.

The top-ranked Green Bay defense, which had four interceptions of Bledsoe, was led by Reggie White, who sacked the New England quarterback a Super Bowl-record three times, including twice in a row on the possession immediately following Howard's scoring return.

Favre, playing less than an hour from his hometown of Kiln, Miss., completed 14 of 27 passes for 246 yards and two touchdowns without an interception, while his counterpart, Bledsoe, threw for 253 yards and two scores on 25-of-48 passing.

"This trophy ... this is it. It was named after Vince Lombardi. You play in Green Bay. As important as it is to any other team and any other player, it means more to us.

"Back in July, we set our goals. And I'm so proud of you. You made every single goal. You earned it, you worked for it.

"And before we came out for the second half, what did you do? You locked arms. Do it right now, men. Do it right now.

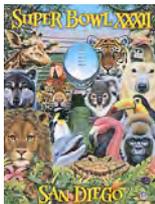

"To the coaches, players, organization, trainers, equipment people, everybody, this trophy is for you, men. Everybody. Everyone had a say in it, everyone got it done. I'm proud of you."

SUPER BOWL XXXII

DENVER 31, GREEN BAY 24

Qualcomm Stadium, San Diego, Calif., Sunday, Jan. 25, 1998; Attendance: 68,912; Time: 3:25; Weather: 67° F; sunny defeat after three triumphs.

Davis, named as the game's most valuable player, averaged 5.2 yards per carry as he rushed for 157 yards and three touchdowns, including the final, decisive score with less than two minutes remaining.

After the opening possession — a 76-yard scoring sequence by Green Bay — it appeared (falsely) that the game might turn into just another rout by the NFC against an over-matched AFC opponent. The Packers easily traversed the field, capping the drive with an arching, 22-yard touchdown pass from Brett Favre to Antonio Freeman at the back of the end zone, Freeman tap-dancing to get his feet down, and Green Bay had a 7-0 lead less than five minutes into the contest.

But the Broncos stormed back, scoring the first three times they had the ball to commandeer a 17-7 advantage. After Davis went over from a yard out for Denver's initial points, the Broncos forced a pair of turnovers in Green Bay territory. First, Favre was intercepted when he prematurely unloaded a pass for Robert Brooks while under a heavy blitz, a miscue which resulted in a 1-yard touchdown run by Broncos quarterback John Elway on a bootleg to the right. Then, after Favre fumbled when hit by Denver safety Steve Atwater on another blitz, the Broncos tacked on a long field goal by Jason Elam.

Green Bay mounted an impressive, 95-yard touchdown drive to consume the latter half of the second quarter and pull to within 17-14. Favre lofted a perfect aerial to tight end Mark Chmura in the back right corner of the end zone just 12 seconds before halftime, a pass which narrowly skirted the fingertips of a leaping defender.

Davis, who had missed the entire second quarter after experiencing migraine-headache symptoms, fumbled on the first play from scrimmage of the second half, an error which turned into a game-tying Ryan Longwell field goal only minutes later.

The Broncos went ahead again late in the third period, when Davis scored his second touchdown of the game to culminate a 92-yard, seven-plus-minute drive. And when, on the ensuing kickoff, Freeman fumbled at his own 22, things looked dire for Green Bay as it stared at a potential two-touchdown deficit heading into the final quarter. But when the Broncos went for the jugular on their first play, free safety Eugene Robinson intercepted Elway in the end zone.

Favre completed three passes to Freeman on the ensuing Green Bay possession, including a 13-yard crossing route for the receiver's second touchdown, which knotted the score at 24 with 13½ minutes remaining. Freeman made nine receptions (for 126 yards) on the day to equal the club's all-time playoff record.

After the Packers failed to take advantage of one fourth-quarter drive which neared midfield, Denver ran the ball down their throat for the game's winning touchdown, a drive which covered 49 yards in only five plays — four on the ground. Davis strolled into the end zone untouched up the middle

Still facing the relentless blitzing which had characterized the play of the Denver defense throughout the game, from his own 30-yard line Favre moved the Packers 39 yards down the field on four straight passes to Dorsey Levens to reach the Broncos' 31 with 42 seconds remaining.

But when his next three throws fell incomplete, including a fourth-down pass intended for Chmura which was knocked down by linebacker John Mobley, the game was Denver's, giving Elway a long-awaited Super Bowl victory after he personally had endured three losses. In the process, the Broncos became just the second wild-card team to capture a Super Bowl.

SUPER BOWL XLV

GREEN BAY 31, PITTSBURGH 25

Cowboys Stadium, Arlington, Texas, Sunday, Feb. 6, 2011; Attendance: 91,060; Time: 3:32; Weather: (indoors)

On the strength of a masterful passing display by quarterback Aaron Rodgers and a series of timely turnovers courtesy of an opportunistic defense, the resilient Packers laid claim to the franchise's fourth Super Bowl title in front of 91,060 fans at majestic Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas. Green Bay became just the second No. 6 seed to win the Super Bowl since the league adopted a 12-team format in 1990, and capped off its string of six consecutive elimination games by again overcoming the loss of key players to injuries, just as it had throughout the 2010 season. Offensively, the Packers opened the game in a four-wide-receiver set intent on spreading out Pittsburgh's attacking 3-4 defense and keeping its vaunted front seven off balance. After the teams traded punts early on, Rodgers led the Packers on an 80-yard scoring drive on the unit's second possession. The quarterback completed 5 of 6 attempts for 63 yards on the series, perfectly placing a 29-yard touchdown in the hands of receiver Jordy Nelson along the right sideline for the game's opening score.

And it wouldn't be long before the Packers built on their early lead. On the first play of the Steelers' ensuing possession, defensive lineman Howard Green bull-rushed his way into the Pittsburgh pocket, batting the arm of quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, whose deep pass down the left sideline fell well short and into the arms of converging Packers safety Nick Collins at the Pittsburgh 37. After securing the interception, Collins weaved his way through would-be tacklers and went airborne at the 3, diving into the end zone to give Green Bay a commanding 14-0 lead with 3:20 remaining in the opening quarter.

After surrendering a 33-yard field goal that made the score 14-3, the Packers defense was the beneficiary of a Roethlisberger mistake on Pittsburgh's next possession when cornerback Jarrett Bush jumped in front of a crossing route intended for receiver Mike Wallace and came down with the interception at the Green Bay 47. Despite receiving news that veteran starting receiver Donald Driver would not return to the game due to an ankle injury, Rodgers and the offense wasted little time taking advantage of the extra possession and the field position that accompanied it. They needed only four plays to cross the goal line, doing so when Rodgers made another of his pinpoint throws, a 21-yard dart to wide receiver Greg Jennings over the deep middle. The quarterback's pass eluded safety Ryan Clark, who had closed tightly on the route, and made the score 21-3.

While the Driver injury was an unquestioned blow to the offense, the defense also suffered a seemingly devastating loss when cornerback Charles Woodson, a playoff captain and the team's leader throughout the postseason, sustained a broken collarbone on the second play of Pittsburgh's final drive of the first half.

Pittsburgh scored its first touchdown of the game five plays after the Woodson injury when Roethlisberger found Hines Ward in the back corner of the end zone from 8 yards out.

The Packers entered the locker room ahead, 21-10, but were forced to regroup in the face of the injuries. Having gone through the painful process of placing 15 players on injured reserve during the regular season, overcoming injuries was a familiar practice for these Packers.

That said, the Steelers built off of the momentum they carried into halftime and came out with a vengeance in the second half. Their first drive ended with an 8-yard touchdown run by Rashard Mendenhall that tightened the score to 21-17.

The Packers, meanwhile, sputtered offensively in the third quarter as Rodgers fell victim to drops and other miscues that inhibited his usual rhythm in the passing game.

With the Steelers driving deeper into Packers territory for the go-ahead score at the start of the fourth quarter, linebacker Clay Matthews made the kind of game-changing play that had defined his young career in Green Bay. On a second-down run to his side, he shot inside of a block by a tight end, and, in concert with defensive end Ryan Pickett, met Mendenhall in the backfield, jarring the ball loose. The fumble was recovered by linebacker Desmond Bishop, and momentum was shifted almost entirely back in the Packers' favor.

Eight plays later, Rodgers found Jennings for an 8-yard touchdown that again made it a two-score game, at 28-17.

Refusing to go quietly, Roethlisberger and the veteran Steelers responded immediately, putting together a seven-play drive of their own that culminated with a 25-yard touchdown pass to Wallace and a successful two-point conversion on an option pitch to wide receiver Antwaan Randle El.

Leading by a narrow 28-25 margin, Rodgers and the offense took over with 7:29 remaining, looking to wind the clock down and put the game out of reach. On third-and-10 from their own 25, Rodgers made one of the most memorable throws in the history of the Super Bowl. The Steelers rushed only three, but even having eight players in coverage wasn't enough to keep Rodgers from connecting with Jennings down the seam for 31 yards, just beyond the fingertips of cornerback Ike Taylor, who had excellent coverage on the play.

The drive resulted in a 23-yard Mason Crosby field goal that extended the lead to 31-25, but also gave Pittsburgh and the dangerous Roethlisberger a chance to drive for the winning score with just under two minutes remaining.

The Packers' defense stood up to the challenge, though, and Roethlisberger's fourth-down pass to Wallace was broken up by cornerback Tramon Williams.

After two kneel-downs by Rodgers, confetti showered the field and the Packers were champions of pro football for a record 13th time. League commissioner Roger Goodell and guest presenter Roger Staubach handed the Vince Lombardi Trophy to Packers President/CEO Mark Murphy, General Manager Ted Thompson and Head Coach Mike McCarthy on a celebratory platform at midfield.

Rodgers was awarded the game's most valuable player honors after completing 24 of 39 attempts for 304 yards and three touchdowns. He became just the fourth quarterback ever to throw for 300-plus yards and three-plus TDs with no INTs in a Super Bowl.

INTERCEPTION RETURNS A WINNING FORMULA IN THE SUPER BOWL

After Packers safety Nick Collins intercepted Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger at Pittsburgh's 37-yard line in front of the Steelers' bench late in the first quarter of Super Bowl XLV, he embarked on a return that would significantly turn the momentum in Green Bay's favor. Collins weaved his way through a host of Steelers on his way to the end zone, going aerial at the 3-yard line and across the goal line to put the Packers ahead by a commanding 14-0 margin early in the game.

Green Bay went on to defeat Pittsburgh, 31-25, for what was the fourth Super Bowl title in the illustrious history of the franchise. Collins became the second Packer and 12th overall player in league history to return an interception for a touchdown in the Super Bowl.

Interestingly, in what is a testament to the evolution of the passing game, there were only four interception touchdowns in the first 20 Super Bowls, and after a 14-year drought, there have been 11 in the last 20 world championship contests. Teams who are the beneficiary of such critical plays are 12-1 in the big game. A closer look at the 15 interception returns for touchdowns and the results of those games:

GREEN BAY PACKERS SUPER BOWL RINGS

First played January 15, 1967, at the Los Angeles Coliseum, the Super Bowl was initiated to match the champions of the then-rival American Football League and National Football League. With a dominating defeat of their counterpart, the AFL's Kansas City Chiefs, by a score of 35-10 in Super Bowl I, the Packers laid the foundation for what would become a tradition of Super Bowl success. Just a year later in Super Bowl II, the Packers emerged with an equally impressive 33-14 conquest of the AFL's Oakland Raiders. Twenty-nine years later, Green Bay made its long-awaited return, appearing in Super Bowl XXXI and beating the New England Patriots, 35-21, making the franchise a perfect three-for-three in the renowned title game. Similar to their first tour in the late 1960's, the Packers returned to the championship game the following year, but suffered defeat at the hands of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXXII.

Ending a hiatus that lasted 13 years, the 2010 Packers fought their way to North Texas for a Super Bowl XLV showdown with the Pittsburgh Steelers. The Packers prevailed, 31-25, in that contest, returning the famed Vince Lombardi Trophy to its rightful home in Green Bay.

In commemoration of those triumphs, each time the Packers went through the process of developing and purchasing a unique, customized ring honoring those within the organization who had contributed to the team's ultimate success.

SUPER BOWL I

above the shield is a ribbon with the scores from the Packers' NFL Championship and Super Bowl victories, the first one reading "Green Bay 34, Dallas 27" in the upper left and the second one "Green Bay 35, Kansas City 10" in the upper right; below the shield is a crown with the three-word inscription "Harmony, Courage, Valor"; on the other side is a ribbon for the person's name, a Green Bay Packers helmet and a football. The top of the ring has "WORLD CHAMPIONS" spanning the upper and "GREEN BAY PACKERS" spanning the lower with the words broken up by a "19" on the left and "66" on the right. Within the white gold insert in the center on the top is a 1.00 point full-cut brilliant diamond. As an interesting anecdote, it is said that the specific nature of the diamond being exactly 1.00 pt. stems from the extremely precise, detail-oriented head coach, Vince Lombardi. Full-cut brilliant diamonds can range in size from .93-1.07 points, but according to those involved with the design, Lombardi demanded that the diamonds all be exactly 1.00 pt. The Packers produced approximately 45 of these rings for players, coaches and select staff members.

CHAMPIONSHIP RING

Designers: Lombardi, Skoronski and Westland.

Features: On one side of the ring is a shield that holds within it a Green Bay Packers helmet and two crowns, one

SUPER BOWL XXXI
CHAMPIONSHIP RING

Designers: Bob Harlan, the Packers' President and CEO, General Manager Ron Wolf, and Head Coach Mike Holmgren teamed with the organization's seven-member executive committee and worked in concert with Jostens representatives Gary Rotherham, John Scarpellini and Charlie Anderson, a championship ring artist, to develop the idea.

Features: The center-top of the ring boasts a raised "G" on a background of diamonds with the words "World Champions" surrounding the logo. One shank (side) features the word "Packers" over the year "1996" above the word "Tradition," while the other shank includes the recipient's name, the Packers logo on a helmet, the team's 1996-97 record (16-3) and the recipient's number or position with the team. The ring contains 115 diamonds totaling 235 points, or 2.35 karats. In a true testament to the expansion of not only the league's roster limits, but also the front office and board of directors, the team produced 165 of the actual championship rings.

In addition to the rings themselves, Jostens designed several different sketches for the Packers, including a women's ring for female staff and coaches' and players' wives. Each married player and coach received a women's ring for his spouse and any single players or coaches received a yellow "G" pendant with 87.5 points of diamonds in it.

honoring the 1966 championship and then another for the 1967 championship. Above the shield are banners commemorating all of the titles that had been won under then-head coach Lombardi: 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966 and 1967. Above those banners is a ribbon similar to the one from the previous year, featuring the scores of the Packers' two victorious championship games that closed out the season. The first is "Green Bay 21, Dallas 17," in remembrance of the historic NFL Championship Game known forever as "The Ice Bowl," and the second reads "Green Bay 33, Oakland 14," from Super Bowl II. Below the shield reads the word "Challenge." The other side of the ring features a ribbon with the person's name, and a large crown that has "NFL" inscribed on one side and "AFL" on the other with the crown sitting on top of the globe to signify the world championships. Below the globe is the inscription "Run To Win." The Packers produced approximately 45 of these rings for players, coaches and select staff members.

SUPER BOWL XLV CHAMPIONSHIP RING

Designers: An organization-led committee featuring Packers' President and CEO Mark Murphy, Executive Vice President and General Manager Ted Thompson, and Head Coach Mike McCarthy, along with Vice President of Football Administration Russ Ball and Vice President of Sales and Marketing Tim Connolly. The committee sought input from veteran players and then initiated the process once again with Jostens, producers of all four of the Packers' Super Bowl rings.

Features: As part of a recurring motif evident in several facets of the modern-day Packers franchise, the Super Bowl XLV championship ring matches first-rate quality with a thoughtful tribute to the organization's rich history and tradition. Presented to players, coaches and members of the organization at a ceremony inside the Lambeau Field Atrium in June 2011, the diamond-studded platinum ring celebrates both the memorable journey and victory in the franchise's fifth Super Bowl appearance, and also some of the historical elements that make the Packers one of the NFL's oldest and most storied teams.

Similar to the XXXI ring, the crest features a raised "G" logo, this time cast in 18-karat yellow gold and set atop a green stone tablet. The theme of paying homage to history is seen front and center as the "G" features 13 diamonds commemorating the team's record 13 world championships. Additionally, the crest is cornered on each end by four marquis-cut diamonds in the shape of footballs, representative of the four Super Bowl wins. Comprising the remaining face of the crest are 92 diamonds, recognizing the 92-year history of the organization.

On one shoulder, the player's last name is emblazoned above a replica engraving of Lambeau Field, beneath which is their jersey number with a circle around it. The encircled number is a tribute to the front of the uniform worn by the 1929 team, winners of the first world championship in franchise history.

The opposite shoulder is topped by the spelled-out "PACKERS" logo above the Vince Lombardi Trophy, named, of course, in honor of the organization's legendary head coach. The coach's name is featured much as it is on the actual trophy, above the NFL shield, along with the letters "XLV."

The inside of the band features two separate inscriptions that make the piece unique.

The first is a listing of scores from the four playoff wins with accompanying logos of the defeated opponents. The first three wins came on the road, as the Packers became just the third team in league history to accomplish the feat and just the second No. 6 seed to win the Super Bowl.

The other inscription commemorates the speech given to the team by veteran cornerback Charles Woodson in the locker room following the NFC Championship Game victory over the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field. In the speech, Woodson, with one finger raised, encouraged his teammates to wholly unify for the coming two weeks that would lead them into Super Bowl XLV. His speech, and the major themes referenced within it, have been immortalized inside the ring with a large number "1" and the words "Mind, Goal, Purpose and Heart" listed vertically next to the number.

The rings were weighed at a reported 116 grams and feature diamonds totaling 3.35 carats.

WOODSON GIVES "ONE" SPEECH FOR ALL TIME

The 2010 Packers became just the third team in NFL history to win three consecutive road playoff games, earning entry into Super Bowl XLV. A team that placed 15 players on injured reserve during the regular season, they continued to defy the odds throughout the playoffs, en route to becoming just the second No. 6 seed ever to win the Super Bowl.

Late in the season and during the playoffs, cornerback Charles Woodson became the team's emotional leader by virtue of his customary excellent performance on the field and his steady guidance off of it. Following the Packers' 21-14 triumph over the Chicago Bears in the NFC Championship Game at Soldier Field, Woodson took to a celebratory platform in the locker room after the team's postgame prayer.

A 13-year veteran who had suffered defeat in Super Bowl XXXVII as a member of the Oakland Raiders, Woodson seized the opportunity to set the agenda for the two weeks that would precede Green Bay's matchup with the Pittsburgh Steelers at Cowboys Stadium in North Texas.

Additionally, Woodson learned before the game that President Barack Obama had said publicly that he would attend the Super Bowl if the Bears were to advance. Knowing that the Super Bowl victor typically travels to the White House following the season, he was able to integrate that theme as well.

What followed is a speech that will forever exist in team lore and was eventually inscribed on the inner band of the team's Super Bowl championship rings:

"I want y'all to think about one thing ... one ... For two weeks, think about one. Let's be one mind, let's be one heartbeat, for one purpose, one goal, for one more game ... one. Let's get it ... And check this, if the President doesn't want to come watch us in the Super Bowl ... Guess what? We'll go see him! Let's get a 'White House' on three ... One-Two-Three [collectively] 'WHITE HOUSE!'"

 Dec. 13 at Polo Grounds, New York

Although New York was not represented in the title playoff, the game was played at the Polo Grounds because George Preston Marshall, upset with Boston support, was shifting his Redskins franchise to Washington, D.C. In front of 29,545, Don Hutson caught a 48-yard touchdown pass from Arnie Herber in the first three minutes, and the Packers never trailed. Green Bay's two second-half scores were set up, respectively, by a 52-yard pass from Herber to Johnny "Blood" McNally and when Lon Evans blocked a punt.

 Dec. 11 at Polo Grounds, New York

The Packers overcame an early 9-0 deficit, spawned by two blocked punts deep in their territory, but could not hold off the Giants in the second half. Early in the second quarter, Green Bay began to close in when Arnie Herber capitalized on a Paul "Tiny" Engelbrechtsen interception by lofting a 40-yard touchdown strike to Carl

Mulleneaux, cutting the Giants' margin to 9-7.

But the Giants converted a midfield fumble by Packers fullback Eddie Jankowski into a 16-7 lead. Green Bay trimmed the margin to two points before the half, when Clarke Hinkle crashed over from the 6-inch line following a 66-yard Cecil Isbell pass to Wayland Becker.

During the opening minutes of the second half, the Packers took their only lead, when an Engelbrechtsen field goal presented them with a 17-16 edge. The Giants, however, stormed back with a 61-yard scoring drive, capped by a 23-yard pass from Ed Danowski to Hank Soar. Soar fought his way over the goal line from the 2, with Hinkle clinging to one leg, for what proved to be the winning touchdown. A (then) playoff-record 48,120 sat in on the proceedings.

 Dec. 10 at State Fair Park, Milwaukee

The Packers gained long-awaited national respect with the first shutout in an NFL title game, 27-0. Despite bitter 35-mph winds, both Arnie Herber and Cecil Isbell passed for touchdowns in securing the team's fifth world championship before 32,279 fans.

Green Bay mounted a 7-0 halftime lead, by dint of a Herber scoring strike to Milt Gantenbein, as the Giants missed on three field goal attempts. The Packers pulled away in the third quarter on a 29-yard field goal by Paul "Tiny" Engelbrechtsen, and a 31-yard TD pass from Isbell to Joe Laws, set up by Laws' 30-yard punt return. The Packers added 10 more points in the fourth quarter on a 42-yard field goal by Ernie Smith and a short scoring run by fullback Eddie Jankowski. Green Bay intercepted the Giants six times and held them to only 164 total yards.

CHICAGO BEARS 33, PACKERS 14

1941 Western Division Playoff
 Dec. 14 at Wrigley Field, Chicago

In a playoff contest necessitated when the two teams finished the year 10-1, each having given the other its lone loss, the Packers fell victim to Chicago's offensive trio of George McAfee, Norm Standlee and Hugh Gallarneau in the 16-degree cold at Wrigley Field.

After the Bears fumbled the opening kickoff, Green Bay grabbed an early 7-0 lead on Clarke Hinkle's 1-yard plunge. But Gallarneau's touchdown on an 81-yard punt return narrowed the gap to 7-6, before Chicago exploded for 24 second-quarter points to essentially settle the issue. The Bears rushed for 277 yards, including McAfee's (then) team-record 119 yards. Standlee ran for 79 and added two touchdowns.

The Bears also held Green Bay's prolific end, Don Hutson, to only one catch for 19 yards.

1944 NFL Championship
 Dec. 17 at Polo Grounds, New York

With peerless pass-catcher Don Hutson employed primarily as a decoy, fullback Ted Fritsch emerged as the offensive hero in the Packers' sixth world title victory.

Fritsch scored both Green Bay touchdowns, a 1-yard run on fourth-and-goal, and a 28-yard pass-and-run collaboration with Irv Comp in the second. Meanwhile,

Ward Cuff scored the Giants' touchdown with a 1-yard plunge on the initial play of the fourth quarter, a drive which saw New York advance past its own 35-yard line for the first time in the game. Joe Laws, the Packers' veteran, 34-year-old all-purpose halfback, set a (then) playoff record with three interceptions, and rushed for 74 yards on 13 carries.

PHILADELPHIA 17, PACKERS 13

 Dec. 26 at Franklin Field, Philadelphia

The Packers couldn't hold a 13-10 fourth-quarter lead, yielding a late surge to the Eagles, who scored the deciding points on a 5-yard burst by Ted Dean.

Green Bay had stopped Philadelphia at its own 4 late in the third quarter, then recaptured the lead on a 7-yard TD pass from Bart Starr to Max McGee. But on the ensuing kickoff, Dean's 58-yard return ignited the Eagles, and led to his game-winning touchdown with 5:21 remaining. Green Bay made a last-ditch effort, driving to the Eagles' 22, but on its final play, Philadelphia's Chuck Bednarik stopped Jim Taylor at the 8 as time expired.

The contest marked the Packers' first title game appearance in 16 years. It would also mark Vince Lombardi's only playoff loss.

Dec. 31 at City Stadium, Green Bay

Paul Hornung, on leave from the Army, tied a (then) playoff record with 19 points, keying the Packers' rout of the Giants in the first title game ever played in Green Bay.

A (then) team-record 39,029 watched the Green and Gold erupt for 24 points in the second quarter. In all, the Packers scored seven times against the NFL's top defensive team, amassing four touchdowns and three field goals. The defense, meanwhile, proved a devastating complement, intercepting four passes and recovering one fumble, while limiting New York to six first downs and 130 total yards.

Two interceptions, by Ray Nitschke and Hank Gremminger, set up the team's second and third touchdowns, while the fumble recovery (by Forrest Gregg) led to Hornung's second field goal. Hornung's final FG came after Jesse Whitenton's interception.

Dec. 30 at Yankee Stadium, New York

In a raw, cyclonic setting (13-degree temperatures and 40-mile-per-hour winds), the Packers led the entire game, a primitive, hand-to-hand struggle. Ray Nitschke, the game's eventual MVP, proved the principal frustration to New York, seeking redemption for a shutout humiliation in the '61 title game. Early in the contest, Nitschke deflected a Giants pass, triggering an interception that blunted the drive at the Green Bay 10. The linebacker also recovered two fumbles, one that led to the Packers' only touchdown, and another that set up a 29-yard field goal by Jerry Kramer, whose trio of three-pointers provided the eventual margin.

The Giants' only TD came after blocking a Max McGee punt in the Green Bay end zone, midway through the third quarter.

PACKERS 13, BALTIMORE 10 (OT)

1965 Western Conference Championship
Dec. 26 at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Don Chandler's game-winning field goal, at 13:39 of sudden death, ended the Packers' first-ever overtime game, and their only such playoff contest until 2003. His 25-yard kick sent Green Bay to the NFL Championship Game, after both the Colts and Packers ended the regular season 10-3-1.

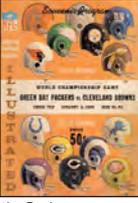

Chandler's first field goal, a game-tying 22-yarder with 1:58 left in regulation, remains controversial. Baltimore loyalists, led by coach Don Shula, claimed it sailed wide right. The kick, which flew high above the upright, actually triggered the league to extend the goal posts' height for the following season.

The Colts, playing without starting quarterback Johnny Unitas (knee) and his backup Gary Cuozzo (dislocated shoulder), used halfback Tom Matte as a fill-in. Matte completed only five passes, but did gain 57 yards rushing.

Baltimore held a 10-0 halftime lead, scoring 21 seconds into the game when linebacker Don Shinnick returned a Bill Anderson fumble 25 yards for a touchdown. Bart Starr, in pursuit, injured his ribs on the play, Green Bay's first from scrimmage.

Zeke Bratkowski replaced Starr for the balance of the afternoon, completing 22 of 39 passes for 248 yards. The Packers moved to within 10-7 in the third quarter when Paul Hornung scored on a 1-yard run, setting the stage for Chandler's heroics.

Jan. 2, 1966, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

After four inches of snow softened the Lambeau surface, the Packers used their running game to rally past Cleveland, and a crowd of 50,777 celebrated the team's third championship in five years.

Paul Hornung (18-105) and Jim Taylor (27-96) amassed 201 yards rushing, helping the Packers overcome an early 9-7 deficit.

Packers defenders, meanwhile, allowed only 50 yards to Cleveland's Jim Brown, the league's leading rusher with 1,544 yards during the year.

In the third quarter, Bart Starr finally settled the see-saw battle, escorting the Packers on a 90-yard, 11-play drive, ending when Hornung scored on a 13-yard sweep around the Browns' right perimeter. Kickers Don Chandler and Lou Groza booted five total field goals.

PACKERS 34, DALLAS 27

1966 NFL Championship
Jan. 1, 1967, at Cotton Bowl, Dallas

Bart Starr, in one of his finest hours, threw four touchdowns, and Tom Brown thwarted a last-minute Cowboys bid, leading Green Bay to its second straight title and fourth in six years.

With 28 seconds left, Brown stunned most of the 74,152 fans when he intercepted Don Meredith's fourth-down pass in the end zone.

The Packers mounted a quick 14-0 lead, after Starr hit Elijah Pitts on a 21-yard touchdown, and rookie Jim Grabowski returned a fumble 18 yards for a score. But an explosive Dallas comeback cut the margin to 21-17 by halftime, and 21-20 after Danny Villanueva's third-quarter field goal. Starr then hit Boyd Dowler and Max McGee with 16- and 28-yard scoring passes, respectively, to provide a cushion against the Cowboys' late surge.

PACKERS VS RAMS

1967 Western Conf. Championship

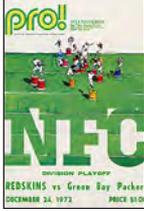

Dec. 23 at County Stadium, Milwaukee
Travis Williams scored two touchdowns, and the Packers weathered three early turnovers, downing the Rams in the first regularly scheduled conference playoff in NFL history.

After L.A. got on the board first with Roman Gabriel's 29-yard scoring pass to Bernie Casey, the Packers responded with 28 unanswered points, in one of Milwaukee County Stadium's more memorable games.

Williams rushed for 88 yards on 18 carries, while Bart Starr threw for 222 yards with one touchdown and set a (then) team record by completing 73.9 percent of his passes (17 of 23). End Carroll Dale caught Starr's scoring toss, one of six catches for 109 yards. The Packers also sacked Gabriel five times, including 3½ by Henry Jordan.

Green Bay's victory kicked off a trio of postseason wins that included the legendary Ice Bowl NFL championship eight days later, and a second straight Super Bowl victory.

1972 NFC Divisional Playoff

Dec. 24 at RFK Stadium, Washington, D.C.

Chester Marcol's 17-yard field goal early in the second quarter put the Packers out front, but late in the same period, Billy Kilmer's TD to Roy Jefferson gave the Redskins a lead they never yielded. Curt Knight kicked three field goals to provide the Redskins' other points before a crowd of 53,140 fans.

John Brockington, the Packers' 1,000-yard rusher, had to settle for 9 yards on 13 carries as the Redskins

1982 NFC First-Round Playoff

Jan. 8, 1983, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

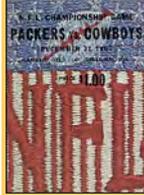

The Packers halted a first-quarter Cardinals drive at the 1, then scored a (then) franchise-record 41 points to open the Super Bowl tournament, following the strike-shortened 1982 season.

Lynn Dickey culminated two long TD drives with passes to John Jefferson and James Lofton. The Packers then capitalized on a pair of St. Louis turnovers, converting each into an Eddie Lee Ivory TD.

Green Bay led 28-9 at half, and 41-9 in the fourth. Dickey (17 of 23, 260 yards, no interceptions) tied a team playoff record with four TD passes. Jefferson (six catches) set a (then) club postseason mark with 148 receiving yards, including a 60-yard TD reception. And, Jan Stenerud kicked a 46-yard field goal, then the longest in team playoff history.

PACKERS 21, DALLAS 17

Dec. 31 at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Bart Starr's game-winning touchdown, a 1-yard dive behind Jerry Kramer and Ken Bowman with 13 seconds remaining, clinched a third straight Green Bay championship and ended the "Ice Bowl." Starr's score, on third down with no timeouts left, climaxed a 68-yard, 12-play drive which began with 4:50 on the clock. In all, 50,861 watched the coldest game in league annals. Kickoff temperature was 13 below zero and the wind chill was minus-46.

Like the year before, the Packers grabbed an early 14-0 advantage. But this time the Cowboys came back, gaining a 17-14 edge on the first play of the fourth quarter, when Lance Rentzel caught a 50-yard touchdown from halfback Dan Reeves. The contest was later voted the greatest game in pro football history.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Even though Super Bowl II had yet to be played, the Packers were anointed as NFL champions following their Ice Bowl victory. In turn, they were recognized as the first three-time champs under the league's playoff system, which had been introduced in 1933. At that point, the NFL and rival American Football League were still operating separately.
- Lambeau Field's underground heating system, Vince Lombardi's pet project, didn't fail due to electrical problems. Moisture built up overnight under a tarp and started turning to ice soon after it was removed. Consequently, the thermostat couldn't be cranked high enough to deal with the severe conditions.

- Quarterback Bart Starr didn't call for a quarterback sneak in the huddle. He called "31 Wedge," which called for the fullback to dive between the center and right guard. Only Starr knew he wasn't going to hand off the ball.
- The UW-La Crosse marching band's halftime show was canceled after 11 members were hospitalized and treated for frostbite following a morning practice.
- Officials couldn't use their whistles to stop play. They froze.

 1982 NFC Second-Round Playoff
Jan. 16, 1983, at Texas Stadium, Irving
 Dallas' late 74-yard touchdown drive ended all Green Bay comeback hopes, in front of 63,972 fans.

The Packers pulled to within four, 30-26, when Mark Lee returned a fourth-quarter interception 22 yards for a touchdown. Green Bay in the second half rolled up 363 yards of total offense and outscored Dallas, 19-17. But despite a (then) team-record 466 overall yards, Green Bay couldn't overcome a slow start and a 20-7 halftime deficit.

Lynn Dickey threw for a (then) team playoff-record 332 yards (19 of 36). Split end James Lofton emerged with 109 yards on five receptions and spiced the Packers' second-half comeback by taking a reverse 71 yards for a TD, matching the NFL's longest postseason run from scrimmage (since broken).

The Cowboys' Dennis Thurman intercepted three passes, returning one 39 yards for a touchdown and another to end the Packers' last-gasp possession in the fourth quarter.

 Brett Favre's 40-yard touchdown pass to Sterling Sharpe in the final minute gave Green Bay one of the most electrifying victories in its rich postseason history.

Favre's pass, a scrambling, across-the-body throw from extreme left to extreme right, found Sharpe wide open in the end zone with 55 seconds remaining. It capped a see-saw battle with the NFC Central Division champion Lions.

Earlier, rookie safety George Teague returned an Erik Kramer interception 101 yards for a touchdown, longest in NFL playoff annals, giving Green Bay a 21-17 lead. Sharpe (five catches, 101 yards) also made the record book, tying an NFL playoff mark with three touchdown receptions.

The Lions' Barry Sanders, returning from a knee injury, ignited the Silverdome crowd of 68,479 with 169 yards rushing.

 The Cowboys' 17-point second-quarter surge overcame an early Packers lead and gave the eventual Super Bowl champions momentum they would not relinquish.

But the Packers held that momentum in the first quarter. They stopped Bill Bates short on a fourth-down fake punt, and capitalized on great field position to score the game's first points, a Chris Jacke field goal.

Brett Favre threw for 331 yards and Sterling Sharpe (six receptions, 128 yards) turned in a second straight 100-yard effort. Dallas' Troy Aikman completed 28 of 37 passes for 302 yards and three touchdown, while Michael Irvin added nine receptions for 126 yards.

PACKERS 16, DETROIT 12
 1994 NFC Wild Card Playoff
Dec. 31 at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Spurred by a classic defensive performance, the Packers outlasted Detroit in Green Bay's first home playoff game since 1982. Coordinator Fritz Shurmur held the NFL's leading rusher, Barry Sanders, to a career-low minus-1 yard on 13 attempts, and limited the Lions collectively on the ground to minus-4 yards (a record that still stands today) — erasing a 31-year-old league playoff record.

Brett Favre directed several long drives, including a 76-yard excursion on the game's opening series, capped by a 3-yard touchdown run by Dorsey Levens. Green Bay, who controlled the ball for 37-plus minutes, played turnover-free throughout, entertaining the 58,125 fans. Chris Jacke added three field goals, including a Packers postseason-record 51-yarder.

The Lions pulled to within 13-10 in the fourth quarter, on Dave Krieg's 3-yard touchdown pass to Brett Perriman, and reached the Packers' 11-yard line on their final drive in the game's closing moments. But the Green Bay defense stiffened, recapturing the ball on downs, before Packers punter Craig Henrich took an intentional safety to run out the day's final seven seconds.

The Packers couldn't overcome a 28-9 halftime deficit, and despite 327 yards of total offense, fell to Dallas' arsenal of offensive superstars in the NFC semifinals.

Trailing only 7-3 in the first quarter, the Packers pinned Dallas deep in its own territory. But Troy Aikman then connected with Alvin Harper on a (then) NFL playoff-record 94-yard touchdown pass. Aikman threw for 337 yards, and three Dallas receivers — Michael Irvin (111), Harper (108) and Jay Novacek (104) — had 100-yard days. Dallas backup Blair Thomas rushed for 70 yards and two scores after replacing Emmitt Smith, who left in the first quarter after aggravating a hamstring injury.

Packers flanker Robert Brooks, moving into the spot usually occupied by an injured Sterling Sharpe, equaled his career best with eight receptions, for a game-high 138 yards.

PACKERS 37, ATLANTA 20

Dec. 31 at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Utilizing a balanced offensive attack, including Edgar Bennett's (then) franchise playoff-record 108 rushing yards, Green Bay toppled the Falcons on a foggy, 30-degree afternoon. The Packers had earned their first NFC Central crown in 23 years.

Jeff George's 65-yard touchdown pass to Eric Metcalf gave Atlanta a 7-0 edge three minutes into the game and stunned the crowd of 60,453. But the Packers quickly regained control, scoring two first-quarter TDs.

Green Bay broke open the game midway through the second period, when rookie Antonio Freeman became the first Packers player to return a kick for a postseason touchdown, taking a punt back 76 yards. Then, with less than one minute left in the first half, Mark Chmura caught a 2-yard touchdown from Brett Favre, capping a 14-play, 85-yard drive, extending the lead to 27-10.

Favre's third TD toss – a perfect, lofting spiral to Dorsey Levens with just under eight minutes left – cemented the issue. Favre completed passes to nine receivers, while Bennett averaged 4.5 yards on the ground, with one TD, on 24 attempts.

DALLAS 38, PACKERS 27

1995 NFC Championship
Jan. 14, 1996, at Texas Stadium, Irving

Green Bay, one win from its first Super Bowl in 28 years, held a fourth-quarter lead before succumbing to the offensive firepower of the eventual league champions.

Emmitt Smith (35-150), behind his massive offensive line, rushed for three touchdowns, ending the Packers' season at Texas Stadium for the third straight year.

After the Packers converted a blocked punt into a field goal, Troy Aikman threw two TD passes to Michael Irvin. Brett Favre answered with two scores of his own – at the time a team postseason-record 73-yard pass to Robert Brooks and a Keith Jackson connection – to vault Green Bay into the lead, 17-14. Dallas added 10 points before halftime, though, to go up 24-17.

Green Bay got the second half's first 10 points, including Favre's 1-yard touchdown pass to Brooks, and held a 27-24 lead at the end of three quarters.

But Smith's talents glistened in the fourth quarter. His two rushing TDs – sandwiched around Larry Brown's drive-killing interception in Dallas territory – gave the Cowboys their third Super Bowl appearance in four years.

PACKERS 27, SAN FRANCISCO 17

1995 NFC Divisional Playoff
Jan. 6, 1996, at 3Com Park, San Francisco

Physically menacing the 49ers offense, Green Bay shocked the defending Super Bowl champions and advanced to the NFC Championship for the first time.

The victory, especially sweet for San Francisco native Mike Holmgren, marked the coach's first game against the club that launched his pro coaching career.

After the Niners blocked a field goal to end Green Bay's opening drive, the Packers defense set the tone for the rest of the game. On San Francisco's first play, Wayne Simmons drilled fullback Adam Walker on a screen pass, forcing a fumble that rookie Craig Newsome returned 31 yards for the day's first points. The Packers then mounted 62- and 72-yard scoring drives on their next two possessions; Brett Favre's touchdown passes to Keith Jackson and Mark Chmura, respectively, gave Green Bay a 21-0 second-quarter advantage.

Favre, the NFL's MVP, completed 21 of 28 passes (75 percent), while Jackson, whose two long receptions over the middle set up Packers scores, caught four for 101 yards. Robert Brooks' four catches totaled 103 yards.

The Packers defense forced four turnovers and battered Steve Young all afternoon, with three sacks and countless knockdowns, forcing him to attempt an NFL playoff-record 65 passes in a futile comeback bid. Meanwhile, San Francisco's receiver nonpareil, Jerry Rice, made 11 receptions but had few yards after the catch.

Green Bay posted the only road victory by an NFC team in the divisional playoffs from 1990-99.

PACKERS 35, SAN FRANCISCO 14

Jan. 4, 1997, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Jump-started by their special teams, specifically two punt returns by Desmond Howard, the Packers took the first step toward an eventual berth in Super Bowl XXXI by eliminating the 49ers for a second straight year. With rain since early morning on a cold and dreary day, the field offered less-than-ideal footing, and deteriorated into a quagmire by game's end. Despite the weather, 60,787 spectators (three no-shows) still showed up.

After the 49ers went three-and-out on their first drive, Howard weaved his way through several defenders for a 71-yard touchdown just 2:15 into the game. Then, midway through the first quarter, Howard broke free on a second punt return, traveling 46 yards before San Francisco tripped him up at its own 7. Moments later, Brett Favre hit Andre Rison on a 4-yard touchdown pass to give Green Bay a 14-0 advantage.

After an Edgar Bennett TD, the 49ers converted two Green Bay special-teams miscues into 14 points, bringing the game back within reach. First, a San Francisco punt bounced off Chris Hayes' leg and the 49ers recovered at the Green Bay 26, setting up a Terry Kirby touchdown catch. Then, when the Packers failed to field a short kickoff to open the second half, San Francisco recovered at the Green Bay 4, and, on the next play, Elvis Grbac's naked bootleg trimmed the Packers' lead to 21-14.

To their credit, the Packers stormed back on their next possession, going 72 yards in 12 plays, a drive capped when Antonio Freeman recovered Bennett's fumble in the end zone.

Neither team gained many yards in the sloppy conditions. Green Bay racked up only 210 yards, including a club postseason-low 71 passing. Bennett was the Packers' workhorse, running for 80 yards and two touchdowns on 17 carries. Steve Young's broken ribs, suffered one week earlier, forced him out after two series and San Francisco managed just 196 total yards.

PACKERS 30, CAROLINA 13

1996 NFC Championship
Jan. 12, 1997, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

The Packers overcame two early deficits to defeat upstart Carolina and earn a berth to their first Super Bowl in 29 years, largely on the strength of Dorsey Levens' 205 yards of offense. It was the first title game in Green Bay since the legendary 1967 "Ice Bowl."

Not quite 10 minutes into the game, linebacker Sam Mills intercepted Brett Favre deep in Green Bay territory, setting up Kerry Collins' 3-yard TD toss to Howard Griffith.

On the first snap of the second quarter, Levens evened the score, out-jumping Carolina's Eric Davis at the right edge of the end zone on a 29-yard touchdown reception. The previous play, Levens had rushed for 35 yards on third-and-1.

Carolina converted a Favre fumble, near midfield, into a field goal, but the Packers stormed back with 10 points in the final minute of the first half. Favre connected with Antonio Freeman for a touchdown on a 6-yard fade with 48 seconds remaining, capping a 15-play, 71-yard drive. When the Panthers then attempted to move downfield, rookie Tyrone Williams made a diving interception at the Packers' 38, which Chris Jacke turned into a 31-yard field goal 10 seconds before halftime.

Late in the third quarter, Edgar Bennett strolled untouched through the middle on a 4-yard touchdown, giving Green Bay a 27-13 lead. Levens set up the score on the previous play, going 66 yards down the right sideline on a perfectly executed screen.

Green Bay put up 479 net yards, a (then) team playoff record. It churned out 201 rushing yards (99 on Bennett's 25 carries, 88 on only 10 attempts by Levens). Levens also made five receptions for 117 yards, and Favre completed 19 of 29 for 292 yards.

While the weather certainly was cold — 3 degrees with a minus-17 wind chill — the storyline before the game was the field, ravaged against San Francisco the previous week, when rainy conditions turned it into a mud pit. The Packers installed an all-new surface days prior to the game, with sod trucked in from Maryland on more than two dozen semis.

The George S. Halas Trophy, symbolic of the National Football Conference Championship, was presented to President Bob Harlan, General Manager Ron Wolf and Head Coach Mike Holmgren in an on-field ceremony following the game.

PACKERS 21, TAMPA BAY 7

Jan. 4, 1998, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

In a hard-fought, defensive struggle — much like their two earlier meetings during the regular season — the Packers' offensive superiority overwhelmed the Bucs on a gray day. Dorsey Levens' (then) team playoff-record 112 rushing yards helped Green Bay maintain control.

The Packers foiled three first-half field-goal opportunities. On the first, Bob Kuberski surged up the middle to block Michael Husted's 43-yard attempt. On the second, Keith McKenzie stuffed Tampa Bay's fake field goal for no gain. Then, on the third, Bucs long snapper Dave Moore sailed the ball over holder Steve Walsh's head.

After Kuberski's block, Brett Favre moved 67 yards for the team's first score, a touchdown pass to Mark Chmura. Rookie Ryan Longwell then hit two field goals, the second set up by a Tyrone Williams interception in Bucs territory.

Tampa Bay, making its first playoff appearance in 15 years, got its only points after intercepting Favre and driving 94 yards for a Mike Alstott touchdown. But the Packers kept the Bucs at arm's length when Levens, who had 88 yards after halftime, punched in a short touchdown run early in the fourth quarter and Favre converted a two-point conversion on a quarterback draw.

Warren Sapp forced two fumbles and sacked Favre three times. The two combatants openly jawed throughout the contest in an intriguing sideshow.

1997 NFC Championship
Jan. 11, 1998, at 3Com Park, San Francisco

Green Bay, in its third straight NFC Championship Game, never allowed the 49ers to get started and advanced to a second consecutive Super Bowl. In the process, the Packers purged San Francisco for a third straight year, the second time at 3Com.

From the outset, on a rain-swept afternoon, the Packers were able to pick on San Francisco's cornerbacks, moving 76 yards on their first possession.

Early in the second quarter, Eugene Robinson stepped in front of a Steve Young pass and weaved across the field 58 yards to the 49ers' 28. Two plays later, Antonio Freeman caught a short slant from Brett Favre, cut back against the grain and broke several tackles for a 27-yard touchdown and a 10-0 Green Bay lead.

Late in the opening half, the 49ers had to settle for a field goal after three straight incompletions from the Green Bay 10. Then, in the waning seconds, Favre connected with Freeman on a 40-yard bomb, to set up the half's final play, Ryan Longwell's 43-yard field goal, against a difficult wind.

Longwell, who attended nearby Cal one season earlier and had been released by the 49ers just before training camp, added his third field goal midway through the fourth quarter, giving Green Bay a more comfortable 13-point lead.

The Packers' defense, which held San Francisco to just 33 rushing yards on 18 overall carries, sacked Young in the fourth quarter four times, twice by Keith McKenzie. When Green Bay sacked Young on fourth down at his own 11 with just under four minutes remaining, the Packers quickly capitalized, scoring after two Dorsey Levens runs.

Levens broke his own, week-old (then) franchise playoff record with 114 rushing yards – the first 100-yard effort followed by the 49ers during the '97 season – and again did much of his work in the second half. Freeman totaled 107 yards on four catches, and punter Craig Hentrich helped Green Bay handily win the field-position battle, depositing all five of his punts inside the 49ers' 20.

Following Levens' score, the Niners' Chuck Levy returned the kickoff 95 yards for San Francisco's lone touchdown, with 2:52 left in the game.

On the field after the game, with a smattering of fans remaining, the George S. Halas Trophy, representative of the National Football Conference Championship, was handed over to the rain-soaked trio of President Bob Harlan, General Manager Ron Wolf and Head Coach Mike Holmgren.

SAN FRANCISCO 30, PACKERS 27

1998 NFC Wild Card Playoff
Jan. 3, 1999, at 3Com Park, San Francisco

Steve Young's touchdown pass to Terrell Owens, in between four defenders with three seconds remaining, ended the Packers' season. The 49ers ended their five-game Green Bay losing streak, a stretch that covered four years, including elimination from the 1995-97 playoffs. The Packers, in the postseason for a team-record sixth consecutive year, went winless in the playoffs for the first time in the span.

After a critical interception, Brett Favre got the ball at his own 11, trailing, 23-20, with 4:19 left. His 47-yard bomb up the left sideline to rookie Corey Bradford put the Packers in scoring range at the 31. Then, four plays later, Favre saw the 49ers stack eight men at the line, audibled and found Antonio Freeman on a sprint-and-go pattern for a 15-yard TD and a 27-23 lead with 1:56 left.

But Young drove 76 yards in the final two minutes, culminating in his game-winning, 25-yard bullet to Owens, who had dropped several passes. Earlier during the controversial drive, rookie Scott McGarrahan appeared to strip Jerry Rice at the Green Bay 41, and Bernardo Harris recovered, but officials ruled Rice down.

Strong running games bolstered both teams. Garrison Hearst ran for 128 of the 49ers' 178 rushing yards, while Dorsey Levens broke his own (then) team playoff rushing mark with 116 yards. Greg Clark's two TD catches each came after Green Bay turnovers. Favre threw for 292 yards and two touchdowns, both to Freeman.

Two Packers icons – all-time sacks leader and future Hall of Famer Reggie White, and head coach Mike Holmgren – saw their Green Bay careers end. Holmgren, 84-42 overall in seven Packers seasons, became the Seahawks' executive VP of football operations/general manager and head coach five days later.

Jan. 13, 2002, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Brett Favre orchestrated four second-half scoring drives, while Mike McKenzie and Tyrone Williams collaborated on a game-turning fourth-quarter interception as Green Bay ended the 49ers' season, 25-15. The win improved Green Bay's all-time record in home postseason contests to 13-0, including 11-0 at Lambeau Field.

Before the 1970 merger expanded the playoff system, NFL teams tied atop their division were pitted in single games for the right to attend the league championship. The Packers played two such games, losing to the Bears in 1941 and defeating the Colts in 1965.

Favre teamed with coaches at halftime to open up the passing game, then threw for 226 of his 269 yards in the final two quarters, steering Green Bay back from a 7-6 deficit. Led by Favre, Green Bay in the second half produced points on four of its first five possessions. The quarterback engineered marches of 72, 81, 49 and 93 yards, fighting off a 49ers rally that had tied the contest, 15-15, with 12 minutes left in regulation.

McKenzie halted an ominous Niners drive halfway through the fourth quarter. The cornerback batted an underthrown pass, like a volleyball, into the hands of a nearby Williams at the Packers' 7. McKenzie had broken up another potential Terrell Owens score earlier in the fourth. After the pick, the Packers drove 93 yards to extend their lead, on Ahman Green's 9-yard TD run.

Inspired by the return of injured starters Nate Wayne and Gilbert Brown, the Packers also held the league's No. 2 rushing offense to only 71 yards on the ground. Brown recorded his first sack since 1997 on the game's first play from scrimmage. Cletidus Hunt kept the Niners off the scoreboard early when he blocked a Jose Cortez field goal attempt in the second quarter.

ST. LOUIS 45, PACKERS 17

Jan. 20, 2002, at Dome at America's Center, St. Louis

St. Louis parlayed eight Green Bay turnovers into 35 points, and ended an outstanding Packers season, 45-17. The Packers suffered the largest margin of defeat in team postseason history.

Brett Favre, in his 16th career postseason game, matched an NFL playoff record with six interceptions. St. Louis returned three INTs for touchdowns, and four of the six picks were tipped either at the line of scrimmage or by the intended receiver. The timing of the first three interceptions combined to put the game out of reach.

Favre's initial interception, early in the first quarter, was a read miscommunication with Bill Schroeder, and Aeneas Williams raced 29 yards for the day's first points. Favre answered by marching 65 yards in five plays, getting a great effort from Antonio Freeman on a 22-yard TD pass, to tie the game, 7-7.

But with St. Louis up, 14-7, in the second period, Kim Herring picked off Favre and returned it 45 yards to the Green Bay 4. Two plays later, Kurt Warner hit James Hodgins on a 4-yard pass to extend the Rams' lead.

The third interception, in the third quarter, all but sealed the win. Tommy Polley grabbed a pass deflected by Grant Wistrom and sprinted 34 yards for a TD, creating a 31-10 St. Louis advantage.

Lost in the eight turnovers, which doubled the Packers' previous 2001 season high, was a strong effort by the Green Bay defense, which limited the league's best offense to its lowest yardage in 21 games. The Packers gave up only two big plays — a 38-yard run by Marshall Faulk late in the first quarter and a 50-yard pass from Warner to Torry Holt. Green Bay also held St. Louis to 13 first downs, its lowest total since the Rams began their offensive explosion in 1999.

The Packers saw a penalty nullify a 95-yard kickoff return, which would have cut the Rams' lead to 21-14 in the second quarter.

ATLANTA 27, PACKERS 7

Jan. 4, 2003, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Undaunted by the storied stadium where his own coach, Dan Reeves, lost in the "Ice Bowl" 35 years before, Michael Vick led Atlanta to a shocking upset before 65,358.

The Packers, the NFL's only 8-0 home team in 2002, had never lost a home playoff (13-0). Brett Favre was without Pro Bowl back Ahman Green (knee) and top receivers Donald Driver (shoulder) and Terry Glenn (concussion) in a futile second-half comeback attempt.

The NFC North champion Packers, who tied for the league's best record and just one week prior had a shot at the NFC home-field advantage, began their offseason much sooner than expected.

Green Bay, without top defender and Pro Bowl safety Darren Sharper (knee), even got a snowstorm but still couldn't corral any momentum. After a Vick touchdown pass gave the Falcons a quick 7-0 lead, Mark Simoneau beat the Packers' protection and blocked Josh Bidwell's punt near Green Bay's end zone. Alter Ulmer smothered the ball for another Atlanta touchdown. Then, Kevin McCadam pushed Tyrone Williams into Green Bay returner Eric Metcalf, and George Layne recovered the muffed punt. Four plays later, T.J. Duckett's TD made it 21-0. The fervent Falcons also stopped the Packers with a goal-line stand.

Favre, who had two interceptions and a fumble, hit Driver with a 14-yard touchdown on the first drive after halftime, but Driver re-injured his dislocated shoulder on the play. It was the 13th straight playoff game in which Favre threw a touchdown pass, tying Dan Marino's NFL record.

PACKERS 33, SEATTLE 27 (OT)

Jan. 4, 2004, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Al Harris returned an interception 52 yards for an overtime touchdown to lift the Packers past the Seattle Seahawks, 33-27.

Harris scored the first defensive touchdown to win an overtime playoff in NFL history. Once he got to the end zone, his teammates tackled him, setting off a wild celebration. Harris answered with a lap around the stadium.

Seattle had tied it with 51 seconds remaining on Shaun Alexander's third 1-yard touchdown run. Then, Packers kicker Ryan Longwell was short on a 47-yard field goal attempt as regulation time expired. Seattle won the coin toss, and quarterback Matt Hasselbeck told the official, "We want the ball, and we're going to score." The Seahawks got the ball, but punted. After Seattle got the ball back, it was Harris who scored on the game's only turnover.

Favre, as usual, thrived in the cold. He set an NFL record by throwing for a touchdown in a 14th straight playoff game and rallied the Packers to a 27-20 lead.

Early on, the Seahawks — who lost, 35-13, in Green Bay the prior October — shut down Ahman Green, who rushed for 1,883 yards in the regular season. But he came on late, particularly on short-yardage plays. After falling behind, 20-13, Green Bay covered 60 yards in 12 plays. Green converted a fourth-and-1 from the 3 before surging into the end zone to tie it with 10:01 left.

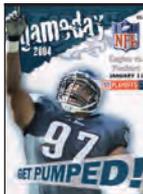

Early in overtime, replay helped the Seahawks when Alex Bannister was ruled to have fumbled. But a video review overturned the call, to cascading boos. The game was even on key calls — and in just about every other way. In the first half, Hasselbeck tried to stop his passing motion and lost the ball at the Green Bay 17. Nick Barnett retrieved it and ran for a touchdown, but Seattle head coach Mike Holmgren challenged the call and won.

Javon Walker's 44-yard reception led to Favre's playoff TD record. Favre's 23-yard laser found Bubba Franks at the goal line as defender Damien Robinson fell down. Favre, who threw for 319 yards, was tied with former Dolphins star Dan Marino for the record of 13 straight games.

Longwell's 27-yarder made it 13-6 at halftime, but Seattle tied it with a 75-yard drive to open the second half. Alexander ran in from the 1 on fourth down after left guard Steve Hutchinson caught a deflected pass on the previous play.

Favre moved into third place in career playoff completions (364) and touchdown passes (31), ahead of John Elway.

PHILADELPHIA 20, PACKERS 17 (OT)

2003 NFC Divisional Playoff
Jan. 11, 2004, at Lincoln Financial Field, Phi.

Brian Dawkins' overtime interception set up David Akers' winning field goal, but the Eagles really advanced to the NFC title game thanks to Donovan McNabb.

With the Eagles trailing, 17-14, and 1:12 left in regulation, he breathed life into his team with a 28-yard completion to Freddie Mitchell on a fourth-and-26. That, in turn, led to a 37-yard field goal by Akers that sent the game into overtime. McNabb threw for 248 yards and two TDs, and rushed for 107 yards.

Duce Staley had two big runs — one for 22 on the Eagles' first play of their final regulation drive and another of 11 yards in overtime to help set up the winning field goal. Staley's contribution was especially needed with the Eagles missing all-purpose running back Brian Westbrook, who scored 13 touchdowns in the regular season but sat out with a torn triceps muscle.

The Packers (11-7) had won seven of their last eight, including three straight since Brett Favre's father died just before Christmas. Green Bay became the second NFL team to play consecutive overtime playoff games, joining the 1987 Browns.

The Packers led, 14-7, at halftime, but the Eagles had the momentum after stopping Ahman Green on fourth down from the 1-yard line late in the second quarter.

Green Bay scored twice in the first quarter on passes of 40 and 17 yards from Favre to Robert Ferguson, the first set up by a McNabb fumble. The Eagles countered midway through the second quarter on McNabb's 7-yard TD pass to Staley. It came one play after a 45-yard completion from McNabb to Todd Pinkston. Philadelphia tied it early in the fourth quarter when McNabb scrambled out of trouble and found Pinkston just inside the right pylon from 12 yards out.

Favre's 44-yard pass to Javon Walker set up Ryan Longwell's 21-yard field goal that gave the Packers a 17-14 lead with 10:21 left in the fourth. Favre's 180 yards passing moved him ahead of Dan Marino into third place on the career playoff yardage list.

MINNESOTA 31, PACKERS 17

Jan. 9, 2005, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Randy Moss caught two touchdown passes and the Vikings rolled to a 31-17 upset victory against the stunned Packers. Green Bay had swept the season series, including a last-second victory at the Metrodome two weeks prior to clinch the NFC North crown and home field for this showdown at Lambeau Field.

Daunte Culpepper threw four touchdown passes and the Vikings picked off four Brett Favre passes.

Minnesota scored on its first three possessions, jumping out to a 17-0 lead in averaging two 34-31 losses to the Packers, who entered the playoffs as the NFC's hottest team.

The Packers lost Pro Bowl receiver Javon Walker and left tackle Chad Clifton to injuries, but pulled to 24-17 on Najeh Davenport's 1-yard plunge with 13:37 left. Then, two costly defensive penalties set up Culpepper's 34-yard touchdown toss to Moss, giving the Vikings a 14-point cushion with 10:18 remaining.

On the first series, Culpepper lofted the ball over Nick Barnett and Moe Williams broke a tackle, scampering 68 yards for a touchdown 1:40 into the game. After the Packers went three-and-out, the Vikings made it 14-0 on Moss's 20-yard TD catch. Antoine Winfield's interception on the next possession set up Morten Andersen's 35-yard field goal that made it 17-0.

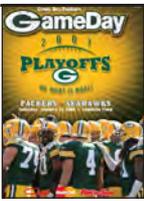

The Packers pulled to 17-10 on Ryan Longwell's 43-yard field goal and Bubba Franks' 4-yard TD catch, and they caught a huge break when Andersen slipped on a 29-yard field goal attempt.

But Walker, who bruised his shin earlier in the second quarter and didn't play after halftime, changed his deep route and Brian Russell intercepted the pass, leading to a Nate Burleson score.

The Packers drove to the Vikings' 8, but Favre was whistled for an illegal forward pass when he scrambled and flung the ball to Walker in the end zone. Then, Longwell missed a 28-yarder.

Favre surpassed No. 2 Dan Marino and No. 3 John Elway on the all-time postseason completions and pass attempts lists, respectively. He also extended his NFL record with a TD pass in a 16th consecutive playoff game.

PACKERS 42, SEATTLE 20

Jan. 12, 2008, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

In near-whiteout conditions that turned Lambeau into a "Winter Wonderland," the Packers overcame an early 14-0 deficit by scoring touchdowns on six consecutive possessions and easily advanced to their first NFC Championship Game since 1997. Running back Ryan Grant fumbled twice in the game's first 69 seconds, setting up both of the Seahawks' early scores. But Grant bounced back to rush for 201 yards and three touchdowns, both franchise playoff records, while Brett Favre was an efficient 18 of 23 for 173 yards and three TDs. Favre's 78.26 completion percentage broke his own single-game Green Bay playoff record.

The Packers had erased the early 14-point deficit by the end of the first quarter with scoring drives of 64 and 69 yards, and then took the lead for good early in the second quarter. On the period's opening play, Atari Bigby's big hit on Seattle tight end Marcus Pollard after a short reception jarred the ball loose, and Aaron Kampman recovered at the Seahawks' 18-yard line. Three plays later, Favre found Greg Jennings on a short 2-yard lob pass for the receiver's second TD of the game to make it 21-14.

The defense limited the Seahawks to just two field goals the rest of the way, and by game's end the Packers had amassed huge advantages in total yards (408-200) and time of possession (34:00 to 26:00).

Grant compiled his 201 yards in less than 3½ quarters, coming out of the game for good with 10 minutes left in the contest. He broke off four runs of 24 yards or longer on the day, including a memorable 43-yard scamper down the left sideline when the snowstorm was at its heaviest late in the third quarter.

N.Y. GIANTS 23, PACKERS 20 (OT)

Jan. 20, 2008, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

On a frigid Sunday evening that featured a game-time temperature of minus-1 and wind chill of minus-23, Lawrence Tynes sent the Giants to the Super Bowl with a 47-yard field goal 2 minutes, 35 seconds into overtime.

The third-coldest contest in NFL championship game history was close throughout, with the Packers overcoming an early 6-0 deficit on a 90-yard touchdown pass from Brett Favre to Donald Driver in the second quarter. It marked the longest play from scrimmage in Green Bay postseason annals.

A 20-yard reception by Driver, whose 141 receiving yards rank as the third most in franchise playoff history, set up a Mason Crosby field goal to give the Packers a 10-6 halftime advantage.

The two teams traded touchdowns on three consecutive possessions in the third quarter, with Ahmad Bradshaw's 4-yard scoring run putting the Giants on top, 20-17. Two plays into the fourth quarter, Favre's pass was intercepted by R.W. McQuarters near the goal line, but on the return Ryan Grant stripped the ball from McQuarters right into the hands of Mark Tauscher at the New York 19-yard line. The Packers capitalized with a game-tying field goal with 11:46 left.

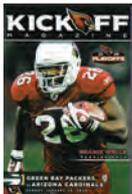

The Giants had two chances to win the game in regulation, but Tynes missed field goal tries of 43 and 36 yards, the latter coming as time expired.

The Packers won the toss for overtime, but on the second play of the fifth period Favre's pass for Driver was intercepted by Corey Webster and returned to the Green Bay 34. Four plays later Tynes got a third shot at a game-winner and delivered.

ARIZONA 51, PACKERS 45 (OT)

2009 NFC Wild Card Playoff
 Jan. 10, 2010, at Univ. of Phoenix Stadium, Glendale

In the highest-scoring postseason game in NFL history, the Packers fell to the Cardinals when quarterback Aaron Rodgers was sacked by Michael Adams and fumbled the ball into the arms of Karlos Dansby, who returned it 17 yards for the game-winning score just 1 minute, 18 seconds into overtime.

The shootout featured Green Bay playoff records of 493 total yards, 423 yards passing from Rodgers and 159 yards receiving from tight end Jermichael Finley. Rodgers also tied team postseason marks with four TD passes and 28 completions. Arizona's Kurt Warner was even better, though, going 29 of 33 for 379 yards and five TDs.

The Packers turned the ball over on two of their first three plays from scrimmage, and the Cardinals capitalized with two touchdowns. That lead was extended to 31-10 early in the third quarter before Green Bay rallied.

The Packers scored touchdowns on five consecutive second-half possessions to tie the game at 45, and the contest went to overtime when Arizona kicker Neil Rackers pulled a 34-yard field goal attempt wide left with nine seconds left in regulation.

Green Bay won the coin toss and got the ball to start the extra session, but on third-and-6 from their own 24, the Packers turned the ball over for a third and fatal time.

PACKERS 21, PHILADELPHIA 16

2010 NFC Wild Card Playoff
 Jan. 9, 2011, at Lincoln Financial Field, Phi.

Trailing by five and looking at a first-and-10 from the Green Bay 27-yard line with 44 seconds remaining in the game, Eagles quarterback Michael Vick went for it all.

Fortunately for the Packers, Tramon Williams was ready.

Locked in coverage against wide receiver Riley Cooper, the cornerback turned and snatched the ball out of the air in the end zone, sealing the victory for Green Bay, and handing Aaron Rodgers the first postseason win of his career.

The Packers' quarterback connected on 18 of 27 passes for 180 yards and three touchdowns, and was aided by a newfound balance forged by the breakout performance of rookie running back James Starks.

Starks, a sixth-round pick who was beset by injuries and appeared in just three games during the regular season, set a franchise rookie postseason record with 123 yards on 23 carries, repeatedly gashing the Philadelphia defense.

The Packers' defense, led by Clay Matthews, Charles Woodson and a host of others, executed an aggressive game plan designed to contain the explosive Vick. They held him to just 33 yards rushing, and Philadelphia's 16 points were the fewest surrendered by Green Bay in a road playoff game since the 1997 NFC Championship Game, the last time the franchise won on the road in the postseason.

PACKERS 48, ATLANTA 21

2010 NFC Divisional Playoff
 Jan. 15, 2011, at Georgia Dome, Atlanta

The Atlanta Falcons entered their divisional-round matchup against the Packers with the No. 1 seed in the NFC, home-field advantage throughout the playoffs, and a well-rested, veteran team set to take the field in front of more than 69,000 fans inside the Georgia Dome.

Green Bay entered with Aaron Rodgers, Tramon Williams and the momentum of having won three consecutive elimination games, and that was all the Packers would need to keep their playoff journey alive.

Just six days after clinching the Wild Card win at Philadelphia with a leaping interception in the end zone late in the fourth quarter, Williams outdid himself in Atlanta. He intercepted Pro Bowl quarterback Matt Ryan twice, the second of which was a virtual backbreaker he returned 70 yards for a touchdown as time expired in the first half. The momentum-changing play extended Green Bay's lead to 28-14 and sucked the life out of what had been a charged home crowd.

While Williams stole the show on defense, Rodgers put on one of the greatest individual performances in NFL postseason history. In a display of passing precision seldom seen on such a big stage, he completed 31 of 36 passes for 366 yards and three touchdowns through the air, also adding one on the ground. His ability to escape pressure, extend plays and deliver accurate throws downfield had the offense in rhythm from the opening gun, and had the Falcons defense searching for answers.

Throughout the game, the Packers compromised the identity Atlanta had established during their 13-3 regular season. The Falcons ranked No. 3 in the NFL in both time of possession and turnover margin during the regular season, but possessed the ball for only 21:41 and committed a total of four turnovers. They also boasted the NFC's leading rusher in standout back Michael Turner, but on this night, he was limited to just 39 yards, matching a season low.

PACKERS 21, CHICAGO 14

2010 NFC Championship
Jan. 23, 2011, at Soldier Field, Chicago

A touchdown-saving tackle by a quarterback, a pair of interceptions by an undrafted rookie, and an interception return for a touchdown by a nose tackle. An improbable script to be sure, but one that played out in the NFC Championship Game at Soldier Field.

In what appeared to be an illustration of him picking up where he had left off the previous week at Atlanta, Aaron Rodgers led a pair of early scoring drives that staked Green Bay to a 14-0 halftime lead.

On the offense's first possession of the second half, Rodgers again led the unit inside the Chicago 10-yard line en route to what would seemingly be an insurmountable three-possession advantage. On third-and-goal, however, the quarterback was uncharacteristically intercepted at the 6 by veteran linebacker Brian Urlacher, who immediately embarked on a long return with most of the offensive players in his wake. Rodgers, the last man to beat, held his angle and dove at Urlacher's legs, tripping him up at the Chicago 45. The tackle ultimately kept the Bears off the scoreboard, as Chicago was forced to punt on the ensuing possession.

The Green Bay defense was once again outstanding in the early going, forcing five punts and an interception on Chicago's six first-half possessions. Rookie cornerback Sam Shields led the way by becoming the first rookie in NFL history to record a sack and an interception in a playoff game, accomplishing the feat on successive Bears possessions to close the first half.

Bears quarterback Jay Cutler was unable to move the ball with any regularity and also suffered a knee injury just before halftime. Following the first drive of the second half, he was replaced because of the injury by backup Todd Collins. The Packers' defense quickly rendered Collins ineffective, and he was benched after two possessions in favor of seldom-used third-stringer Caleb Hanie.

To the surprise of many, Hanie led the Bears on a 67-yard scoring drive at the start of the fourth quarter, tightening Green Bay's lead to 14-7. Two possessions later, Chicago took over at its own 10 and on third-and-5, Hanie was intercepted by nose tackle B.J. Raji, who then lumbered 18 yards for an unlikely albeit memorable touchdown that pushed the score to 21-7.

Refusing to quit, Hanie and the Bears' offense responded quickly, driving 60 yards on four plays, and finishing with a 35-yard touchdown on a catch-and-run by wide receiver Earl Bennett.

After a quick three-and-out by Green Bay, the Bears used 12 plays to get the ball to the Packers' 29-yard line. On a fateful fourth-and-5, Hanie looked deep over the middle but was intercepted by Shields, his second of the game. Green Bay knelted down to run out the clock and the celebration ensued.

The Packers were presented the Halas Trophy inside the visitors' locker room and were set to begin preparations for the franchise's first Super Bowl appearance in 13 years, Super Bowl XLV at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas.

N.Y. GIANTS 37, PACKERS 20

2011 NFC Divisional Playoff
Jan. 15, 2012, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

The Packers had almost forgotten the feeling. After winning six consecutive elimination games to close out the 2010 season as world champions and then storming through the 2011 regular season with a franchise-best 15-1 record, the concept of defeat had become somewhat unfamiliar.

Unfortunately, these Packers picked the wrong day to play their sloppiest game of what had to that point been a fantastic season. Green Bay fell victim to a series of uncharacteristic, costly turnovers and a leaky pass defense that allowed Giants quarterback Eli Manning to throw for 330 yards and three TDs, leading to the elimination of the top-seeded home team in front of a capacity crowd at Lambeau Field.

The two sides traded field goals on their opening possessions, but Manning found wide receiver Hakeem Nicks for a 66-yard touchdown later in the first quarter to put New York on top, 10-3. It wasn't the last time Nicks would haunt the Packers.

The second of the receiver's first-half touchdowns was a far more crushing blow, one that came on the final play of the second quarter when he hauled in a 37-yard Hail Mary throw from Manning amidst multiple Green Bay defenders in the end zone, giving the Giants a 20-10 halftime lead.

The turnover epidemic that had begun to befall the Packers' offense late in the second quarter continued when quarterback Aaron Rodgers was stripped in the pocket on the opening drive of the second half, his first lost fumble of the season. The Green Bay defense stood tall in the third frame however, keeping the Giants off the board and allowing a Mason Crosby field goal to pull the Packers to within a touchdown at 20-13 to start the fourth.

But for a team that set a franchise record with just 14 giveaways in the regular season, it was the turnovers that were the ultimate difference in the game. Running back Ryan Grant fumbled following a reception with the Packers driving near midfield, trailing just 23-13 midway through the final quarter.

The Giants would score a touchdown on the very next play, and then again four minutes later, while also recovering an onside kick attempt, thus silencing any chance of a late Green Bay comeback.

PACKERS 24, MINNESOTA 10

2012 NFC Wild Card Playoff
Jan. 5, 2013, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Having split their two-game divisional series during the regular season, the border rivals squared off in a Wild Card game just six days after they'd met in a Week 17 finale at Minnesota.

It was in that game that a last-second field goal gave the Vikings the victory, earning them a playoff berth as the NFC's No. 6 seed and a trip to Lambeau Field to face the NFC North champion Packers in the opening round of the single-elimination tournament.

Members of a unit that had surrendered a total of 409 yards to All-Pro running back Adrian Peterson in the teams' two December meetings, Packers defenders vowed during the practice week that the explosive ball-carrier would not torment them again.

And they held true to that promise.

Aided by an inactive list that featured Vikings starting quarterback Christian Ponder (who was sidelined by an elbow injury), the defense kept Peterson in check throughout the game, limiting him to just 99 yards on 22 carries (4.5 avg.), his second-lowest rushing total since Week 7 of the regular season.

Offensively for the Packers, Aaron Rodgers led a balanced attack that scored 24 unanswered points after the Vikings opened the game with a field goal on their opening drive.

Fullback John Kuhn scored both rushing and receiving touchdowns to cap drives going into and coming out of halftime, extending the Green Bay lead to 24-3 with 9:25 remaining in the third quarter and making an already uphill climb for the beleaguered Minnesota offense even steeper.

Backup quarterback Joe Webb hadn't attempted a pass during the regular season and was repeatedly pressured by the Packers' attacking front. Linebacker Clay Matthews led the way with two sacks, also forcing and recovering a fumble by Webb late in the third quarter.

Matthews' fumble recovery was part of a three-turnover effort by the Packers, one that also featured an interception by cornerback Sam Shields and the recovery of a muffed punt by linebacker Dezman Moses on special teams.

Webb connected with wide receiver Michael Jenkins for a touchdown with 3:39 remaining in the fourth quarter, but finished the game 11 of 30 passing for 180 yards.

Unfortunately for the Vikings, that wasn't enough to dethrone the division champions on their home field.

Jan. 12, 2013, at Candlestick Park, San Francisco

Cornerback Sam Shields raced down the sideline with a 52-yard interception return for a touchdown on the game's opening drive, and it appeared the Packers might be recapturing their divisional playoff magic. It was just two years earlier, in the 2010 postseason, that the Packers marched into Atlanta against the higher-seeded Falcons and dismantled them on their home field, furthering their momentum en route to the Super Bowl.

But this wasn't 2010, and these were not the Atlanta Falcons. San Francisco quarterback Colin Kaepernick lifted himself off the turf after missing a tackle on Shields, took a deep breath, and went on to deliver a statistically dominating dual-threat performance.

The second-year passer recovered from his early turnover to repeatedly gash the Packers' defense with both his arm and legs during the game. He was particularly deadly carrying the ball, both on scrambles to escape pressure and on read-option plays the 49ers designed to take advantage of his speed and athletic ability.

By game's end, Kaepernick had carried 16 times for 181 yards (11.3 avg.), an NFL record for a quarterback in both the regular and postseason. Following the early INT, he sharpened his precision throwing the ball and finished the game having completed 17 of 31 attempts for 263 yards and two TDs. Several of his throws went in the direction of wide receiver Michael Crabtree, who finished with nine catches for 119 yards (13.2 avg.) and a pair of second-quarter TDs that capitalized on Green Bay turnovers to help San Francisco recover from the initial deficit.

Despite the miscues, the Packers hung tough throughout the first half, answering the 49ers' offense with two 80-yard touchdown drives of their own. They pulled to within three points entering halftime, and a 31-yard field goal by kicker Mason Crosby tied the game at 24-24 with 8:25 remaining in the third quarter.

But it was at that point that the San Francisco offense went into overdrive. On the third play of the ensuing possession, Kaepernick faked a handoff to the inside and bolted off of the right edge, going untouched down the sideline for a 56-yard score.

The 49ers regained possession just two minutes later and traveled 93 yards for another touchdown, this time cashing in on a 2-yard run by Frank Gore on the opening play of the fourth quarter to extend the lead to 38-24.

All told, the 49ers' offense amassed 579 yards and the Packers were unable to ultimately overcome costly turnovers in the divisional round for the second consecutive year, leading to an early postseason exit for a team that appeared to be getting healthy and peaking at just the right time.

SAN FRANCISCO 23, PACKERS 20

Jan. 5, 2014, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Nearly an entire calendar year had passed since San Francisco defeated Green Bay in the 2012 playoffs, yet the Packers and 49ers once again found themselves in familiar territory when January rolled around. Unlike the previous season, when the two teams met at Candlestick Park in the divisional round, the 2013 chapter of this rekindled rivalry was played in frigid temperatures at Lambeau Field.

Although the 2013 Packers faced question marks throughout the season due to an unprecedented number of injuries to key players, the team had always been able to rely on one thing — its resiliency. Only a week earlier, quarterback Aaron Rodgers returned from a broken collarbone to lead a game-winning, fourth-quarter touchdown drive against the Chicago Bears to clinch the NFC North, and the newly healthy team seemed to have adopted a never-say-die attitude that it was hoping to retain throughout the postseason.

When fullback John Kuhn plunged into the end zone from 1 yard out to give the Packers a 17-13 lead early in the fourth quarter, it appeared as if the Packers were destined to continue the resilient trend that they had displayed throughout the season.

However, the lead was short-lived, as a series of big plays on San Francisco's ensuing possession quelled the home team's momentum. Following a 37-yard kickoff return by running back LaMichael James, 49ers quarterback Colin Kaepernick triggered memories of the 2012 NFC Divisional playoff contest, dashing around left end on third-and-4 for a gain of 24 yards to the Green Bay 33. After a defensive holding penalty moved the ball to the Green Bay 28, Kaepernick found tight end Vernon Davis down the seam for the go-ahead score.

Trailing 20-17, Rodgers once again drove the Packers deep into 49ers' territory, but the drive stalled at the San Francisco 6 and the Packers were forced to settle for a Mason Crosby field goal that knotted the score at 20-20.

Needing only a field goal to send his team to the divisional round, Kaepernick took the field with just over five minutes remaining in regulation and set his sights on his third straight victory over the Packers. After completing an 11-yard strike to wide receiver Michael Crabtree, Kaepernick took a shotgun snap on second-and-10 from the San Francisco 31 and nearly committed a devastating error. Looking to his left, Kaepernick rifled a pass to receiver Anquan Boldin, who was in the midst of running a short out route to the left sideline. Rookie cornerback Micah Hyde, who had lined up as the nickel corner to cover Boldin in the slot, timed his jump perfectly and leapt in front of Kaepernick's pass, only to have the ball slip through his fingers, providing the 49ers' offense with a second chance.

That was all San Francisco needed, as Kaepernick completed a 17-yarder to Michael Crabtree on the following play and drove his team the rest of the way to set up a game-winning field goal attempt from the Packers' 15. Veteran kicker Phil Dawson drilled the kick as time expired and the Packers' season ended earlier than the Lambeau faithful had hoped.

PACKERS 26, DALLAS 21

Jan. 11, 2015, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Green Bay earned a bye in the postseason after winning their fourth consecutive NFC North title with a 12-4 record. The Packers finished 8-0 at home during the regular season for the 13th time in franchise history and the second time under Head Coach Mike McCarthy.

The Packers welcomed the longtime NFC rival Dallas Cowboys, who also finished an NFL-best 12-4, to Lambeau Field for the first time in the postseason since the 1967 NFL Championship, most commonly known as the "Ice Bowl."

Both teams entered the game after home victories over the Detroit Lions. Green Bay in Week 17 to win the division and Dallas in the Wild Card round. Each team also had a quarterback who overcame injuries during the season and finished in the top two in the NFL in passer rating.

The Packers and Cowboys exchanged touchdowns in the first quarter. Green Bay started it off with a 10-play, 60-yard drive that ended with Aaron Rodgers moving around the pocket on his injured calf to find Andrew Quarless for a score from 4 yards out. Dallas responded on the following drive, going 62 yards in 12 plays as Tony Romo connected with FB Tyler Clutts for a 1-yard touchdown.

On the next drive, Jeremy Mincey recovered a Rodgers fumble at the Dallas 36-yard line and three plays later Romo found Terrance Williams on a 38-yard touchdown pass to go up, 14-7. After a Packers punt, the Cowboys drove to the Green Bay 27-yard line where they faced a third-and-1. A botched shotgun snap caused Romo to take a 5-yard loss and forced Dallas to attempt a 50-yard field goal that was blocked by Datone Jones and gave the Packers the ball at their own 40-yard line with 29 seconds left in the half. Rodgers completed three passes in four plays to travel 38 yards and set up a 40-yard field goal attempt. Mason Crosby converted it as time expired, cutting Dallas' lead to 14-10 at halftime.

After Green Bay stalled on the opening drive of the second half, the Packers defense came up big. Julius Peppers leaped to force a DeMarco Murray fumble that Jones recovered at the Cowboys' 44-yard line. Fueled by a 29-yard run by Eddie Lacy, the Packers reached the Dallas 12-yard line before settling for a 30-yard field goal to pull within one point. On the ensuing drive, the Cowboys used a mix of pass and run plays to drive 80 yards in six plays, with Murray finishing it off with a 1-yard touchdown run to take a 21-13 lead. Rodgers led the Packers right back down the field, completing four passes, including a 26-yarder to Randall Cobb and a 46-yard touchdown to Davante Adams on third-and-15 to get back within one point.

The Green Bay defense finished the third quarter with a Nick Perry sack of Romo, and then on the first play of the fourth quarter, Perry teamed with Mike Daniels to sack Romo to force a third-and-23 that Dallas did not convert. After a punt, Rodgers stayed hot, driving the Packers 80 yards with seven completed passes that included finding Richard Rodgers for a 13-yard score. After a failed two-point attempt, Green Bay was up, 26-21, with 9:10 left in the fourth quarter.

Following the kickoff, Murray recorded a 30-yard run to the Dallas 48-yard line. The Cowboys continued to the Packers' 32-yard line, where they faced a fourth-and-2 with just under five minutes to play. Romo launched a pass down the left sideline, where Sam Shields was covering Dez Bryant, who leaped to grab the ball on a play that was initially ruled a catch at the 1-yard line. After the Packers challenged, it was ruled incomplete since Bryant did not maintain possession through the ground. Green Bay ran off the remaining 4:06 by converting two third downs with a 26-yard completion to Adams and a 12-yard diving catch by Cobb.

SEATTLE 28, PACKERS 22 (OT)

2014 NFC Championship
Jan. 18, 2015, at CenturyLink Field, Seattle

Green Bay made its second trip of the season to Seattle after opening at the defending Super Bowl champions in Week 1. It marked the Packers' third NFC Championship Game appearance in the past eight years (2007 and 2010).

The Packers opened the game by driving all the way down to the Seahawks' 29-yard line, but the drive stalled, and on third down Richard Sherman intercepted Aaron Rodgers in the end zone. Green Bay's defense would pick their MVP quarterback up by forcing a turnover three plays later when Ha Ha Clinton-Dix intercepted Russell Wilson, giving the offense the ball back at the Seattle 19-yard line. It took the Packers just two plays to go 18 yards, but runs by John Kuhn and Eddie Lacy were stuffed and Mason Crosby connected from 18 yards out to give Green Bay a 3-0 lead. On the ensuing kickoff, Brad Jones forced and Morgan Burnett recovered a fumble by Doug Baldwin at the Seahawks' 23-yard line, but the Packers would once again have to settle for a field goal to take a 6-0 lead after making it down to the 1-yard line.

After a three-and-out by Seattle, the Packers would take over at their own 44-yard line, and a mix of pass and run fueled a seven-play, 56-yard drive that was capped with a Rodgers-to-Randall Cobb 13-yard touchdown. Up 13-0 entering the second quarter, Green Bay's defense again did not let Seattle gain a first down and Micah Hyde returned a Jon Ryan punt 29 yards to the Seattle 33-yard line. It was the third and final time in the game that the Packers would start a drive inside Seattle territory, and just like the previous two, Green Bay would settle for a field goal, this time from 40 yards to take a 16-0 lead with just under 10 minutes to play in the second quarter. The teams combined for three turnovers on the next three drives: an interception by Clinton-Dix that gave Green Bay the ball at their own 32-yard line, an interception by Byron Maxwell that was returned five yards to the Seattle 31-yard line, and an interception by Sam Shields in the end zone. Clinton-Dix became just the third rookie (Joe Laws, Shields) and sixth player in team history to record two interceptions in a postseason game, while Shields registered his fifth career postseason interception, the most in franchise history.

The second half opened with three-and-outs by both teams before Seattle would get on the board for the first time. After driving to the Packers' 19-yard line in 10 plays, the Seahawks faced a fourth-and-10. Seattle punter/holder Ryan took the snap and rolled to his left, where he lofted a pass to Garry Gilliam for a 19-yard touchdown, cutting Green Bay's lead to nine points.

Both teams stalled on drives late in the third quarter and the fourth started with a 32-yard run by James Starks to the Seattle 43-yard line. The Seahawks defense again stood up in their own territory and forced the Packers to settle for a 48-yard field goal to go up, 19-7. Green Bay's defense responded by forcing Seattle to punt from the 50-yard line with seven minutes to play. After a three-and-out, Green Bay punted and the Seahawks took over on their own 46-yard line. On the next play, Burnett intercepted Wilson, returning it 4 yards to the Packers' 43-yard line. Three runs by Lacy did not earn a first down and a 30-yard punt by Tim Masthay left Seattle with the ball at their own 31-yard line with 3:52 to play. The Seahawks used a total of 12 offensive plays and one recovered outside kick to tally 15 points and take a 22-19 lead with 1:25 left in the fourth quarter. Rodgers completed three passes and scrambled for 12 yards to set up Crosby for a 48-yard field goal to tie the game at 22 with 11 seconds left.

Seattle won the toss in overtime and Wilson found Jermaine Kearse for an over-the-shoulder 35-yard touchdown on their opening drive to win by six.

PACKERS 35, WASHINGTON 18

2015 NFC Wild Card Playoff
Jan. 10, 2016, at FedExField, Landover

Green Bay made the postseason for the 31st time in franchise history and set a record by making its seventh consecutive appearance (2009-15). The Packers traveled to face the NFC East champion Washington Redskins, who had won their final four regular-season games. It was the second consecutive year Green Bay faced the winner of the NFC East division, having defeated the Dallas Cowboys, 26-21, at Lambeau Field, in the Wild Card round of the 2014 playoffs.

The game did not start out well for the Packers as they punted on their first drive, saw Aaron Rodgers sacked for a safety by Preston Smith on the second drive and punted on their final two drives of the first quarter. After the safety, Washington started at its own 45-yard line and drove down to have first-and-goal on the Green Bay 1-yard line after a DeSean Jackson touchdown was overturned on replay. The Packers defense stuffed Alfred Morris on first down and tackled him for a loss of a yard on second down. After a delay-of-game penalty on third down, Kirk Cousins threw an incomplete pass on third-and-7, forcing a Dustin Hopkins 25-yard field goal to put Washington up, 5-0.

The Redskins finished the first quarter and started the second quarter on a seven-play, 64-yard drive that was fueled by two 20-plus-yard receptions by Jordan Reed, including a 24-yard touchdown. After a Hopkins extra point hit the right upright, Washington led, 11-0. Green Bay's offense came alive in the second quarter, scoring on all three drives, including touchdown drives of 75 and 60 yards. A 43-yard Mason Crosby field goal after Mike Neal forced and recovered a fumble on a sack of Cousins at the Green Bay 39-yard line came between a 12-yard Rodgers touchdown pass to Randall Cobb and a 10-yard touchdown connection from Rodgers to Davante Adams, giving Green Bay a 17-11 lead at halftime.

Washington responded on the opening drive of the second half, traveling 73 yards in nine plays with Cousins running in from 3 yards for a touchdown to take an 18-17 lead. The Packers marched back down the field on the ensuing drive. After Green Bay threw the ball on five of the first six plays, it ran the ball on the final five plays, with Eddie Lacy recording a 30-yard run to the Washington 4-yard line and James Starks taking it into the end zone on the next play to go up by six points. The Packers forced a three-and-out on the Redskins' next possession and started a drive that carried over into the fourth quarter. It saw Green Bay mix run and pass to travel 76 yards in 10 plays with Lacy punching it in from 2 yards out and Rodgers finding Jared Abbrederis for the two-point conversion to take a 32-18 lead.

The Packers would hold the Redskins scoreless on their final four drives, turning them over on downs on all four, in part due to Green Bay recording four of the six sacks it had in the game over that span. The Packers' six sacks tied for the second most in a postseason game in franchise history (since 1963). Neal (2.0) and Nick Perry (2.5) led the pass rush against Washington and became the first duo in team playoff history to both record two-plus sacks in a postseason game.

Crosby would be responsible for the final score of the game, a 29-yard field goal that made it 35-18 with just under five minutes to play. Green Bay's offense was led by the running game as Lacy (63 yards and a touchdown) and Starks (53 yards and a touchdown) became the first Green Bay duo to both record 50-plus rushing yards and a rushing touchdown in a playoff game in franchise history.

ARIZONA 26, PACKERS 20 (OT)

Jan. 16, 2016, at University of Phoenix Stadium, Glendale

Nearly three weeks after losing at Arizona, 38-8, Green Bay returned to face the Cardinals in the divisional round. It was the first postseason meeting since Arizona got the better of the Packers in a 51-45 overtime thriller at University of Phoenix Stadium in a 2009 Wild Card playoff.

For the second straight week, the Packers found themselves down early after their first two drives were three-and-outs that resulted in punts. Green Bay's defense forced the Cardinals to a three-and-out and a punt on the opening drive of the game, but Arizona found success on its second drive, marching 42 yards in 11 plays with Carson Palmer connecting with Michael Floyd from 8 yards out to take a 7-0 lead.

The Packers' last drive of the first quarter carried over into the second quarter and after 17 plays and 85 yards traveled, Mason Crosby hit a 28-yard field goal to pull within four. The drive proved to be costly as the Packers lost Randall Cobb for the game due to a chest injury he suffered on a diving 51-yard catch that would be nullified due to offsetting penalties. Green Bay would stop Arizona near midfield on the ensuing drive and after a punt, take over at its own 13-yard line. The Packers embarked on another 17-play drive, going 71 yards and once again getting a Crosby field goal, this time from 34 yards out. The Packers' two long drives gave them an 17-26 to 12-24 advantage in time of possession after two quarters, but they trailed, 7-6.

The second half began with each team turning the ball over. Aaron Rodgers was intercepted by Rashad Johnson at the Green Bay 48-yard line, and three plays later, Palmer was picked off by Ha Ha Clinton-Dix at the Green Bay 19-yard line. On the ensuing drive, Eddie Lacy recorded a 61-yard run to the Arizona 8-yard line, the second longest in franchise postseason history behind only James Lofton's 71-yard TD run at Dallas on Jan. 16, 1983. Green Bay would cash in two plays later when Rodgers found Jeff Janis for an 8-yard touchdown to put Green Bay up, 13-7. Arizona responded with a 10-play, 74-yard drive that ended with a Chandler Catanzaro 28-yard field goal to pull the Cardinals within three points.

After Green Bay failed to make a first down on its next drive, Arizona drove down to the 10-yard line, and on the second play of the fourth quarter, Damarious Randall intercepted Palmer in the end zone. After the Packers' ensuing drive stalled at their own 43-yard line, the Cardinals took over at their own 20-yard line following a Tim Masthay punt. Arizona used a mix of pass and run in a 14-play, 80-yard drive that was capped off with a touchdown when a Palmer pass that was intended for Larry Fitzgerald was deflected to Floyd in the end zone, putting Arizona up, 17-13, with 3:44 to play in the game. Green Bay failed to record a first down on four plays, giving the ball back to Arizona on the Packers' 25-yard line with just 2:38 remaining. Following two runs and an incomplete pass, Catanzaro recorded a 36-yard FG to put Arizona up by seven.

With 1:55 left in the game, Green Bay took over at its own 14-yard line. The first three plays of the drive involved two incompletions and a Dwight Freeney sack, leaving the Packers with a fourth-and-20 from their own 4-yard line. With 55 seconds left on the clock, Rodgers found Janis for a 60-yard completion to the Arizona 36-yard line. An illegal-motion penalty and incomplete pass left Green Bay 41 yards away from the end zone with five seconds remaining. On the final play of regulation, Rodgers launched a pass that Janis would leap to catch in the end zone, combining with a Crosby extra point to send the game into overtime.

Arizona won the coin toss, chose to receive, and used two passes from Palmer to Fitzgerald, 75 yards on the first play and 5 yards on the third play of the drive, to score a touchdown and win the game, 26-20.

PACKERS 38, N.Y. GIANTS 13

2016 NFC Wild Card Playoff
Jan. 8, 2017, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

The Green Bay Packers earned a home postseason game by capturing their fifth division title in the last six seasons and set a franchise record with their eighth consecutive playoff berth.

The Wild Card round brought a rematch with a New York Giants team that Green Bay beat, 23-16, at Lambeau Field in Week 5.

As in the first meeting, the Giants' first two scores were field goals while the Packers' were touchdowns, resulting in a 14-6 advantage for Green Bay entering halftime. It would have been a one-point margin at the half, but Aaron Rodgers found Randall Cobb on a Hail Mary that covered 42 yards to end the second quarter.

The second half began with both teams punting and then the Packers being stopped on third and fourth down from their own 42-yard line when they failed to pick up a yard.

A couple plays later, New York brought the game to 14-13 with a big play of its own, a 41-yard touchdown pass from Eli Manning to Tavarres King.

Green Bay responded on the following drive with Rodgers completing a 13-yard pass to Jared Cook, a 20-yard pass to Davante Adams and a 30-yard touchdown to Cobb. The four-play drive traveled 63 yards in 2:23 to put the Packers up by eight points late in the third quarter.

Green Bay's defense responded by forcing a three-and-out, and Micah Hyde returned the ensuing punt 23 yards to the New York 37-yard line. The good field position led to a Mason Crosby field goal from 32 yards and put the Packers up, 24-13, entering the fourth quarter.

The Packers offense helped put the game out of reach, scoring touchdowns on its first two drives of the fourth quarter to make it 38-13.

Green Bay would not give up a point in the fourth quarter while forcing a punt and two turnovers: a forced and recovered fumble by Clay Matthews on a sack of Manning and an interception by Damarious Randall that he returned 78 yards in the final minute of the game.

PACKERS 34, DALLAS 31

Jan. 15, 2017, at AT&T Stadium, Arlington

The Packers faced the Cowboys in the divisional round for the second time in three years, previously beating Dallas, 26-21, at Lambeau Field in the 2014 postseason.

It was Green Bay's first postseason game at Dallas since the 1995 NFC Championship Game, a 38-27 Cowboys victory.

For the second week in a row, the Packers faced a team it played during the regular season. In Week 6, Dallas beat Green Bay, 30-16, at Lambeau Field. The Cowboys got off to a fast start in that matchup, taking a 17-6 lead into the half. In the divisional contest, the Packers got off to a hot start, scoring touchdowns on their first three possessions to go up, 21-3, midway through the second quarter.

Green Bay's last two drives of the first half resulted in punts, while Dallas used a touchdown and a field goal on its final two drives to pull within eight points at halftime.

The Packers answered on the opening drive in the third quarter, going 75 yards in six plays as Aaron Rodgers finished the drive with a 26-yard pass to Jared Cook and then a 3-yard pass to Cook for a touchdown.

On the ensuing drive, the Cowboys marched down to the Green Bay 19-yard line, but on second-and-1, Micah Hyde jumped a short pass for Cole Beasley, intercepting Dak Prescott and running 18 yards to the 39-yard line.

Dallas returned the favor on the next drive, as Jeff Heath intercepted a deep pass from Rodgers on the Cowboys' 14-yard line and returned it 27 yards to the Dallas 41. The Cowboys' following drive would lead into the fourth quarter and result in a 6-yard touchdown pass from Prescott to Jason Witten to pull Dallas to within eight points.

The Cowboys defense forced a three-and-out on the next drive. After going 59 yards in 10 plays on its previous drive, Dallas marched 80 yards in 11 plays, with Prescott finding Dez Bryant for a 7-yard touchdown and then Prescott running in the two-point conversion to tie the game at 28 with just over four minutes to play.

The teams would go back and forth over the final few minutes. First, Green Bay drove 37 yards in 10 plays and Mason Crosby connected from 56 yards to put the Packers up three with just over a minute and a half on the clock.

Prescott then led Dallas 42 yards in six plays and Dan Bailey tied the game with a 52-yard field goal with 35 seconds left.

With 12 seconds on the clock, Green Bay faced a third-and-20 from its own 32-yard line. Rodgers bought some time, rolled to his left and found Cook, who tiptoed on the sideline to complete a 35-yard play that gave the Packers the ball at the Dallas 32-yard line with three seconds on the clock. Crosby connected from 51 yards as time expired to give the Packers a 34-31 victory.

ATLANTA 44, PACKERS 21

2016 NFC Championship
Jan. 22, 2017, at Georgia Dome, Atlanta

The Packers played in their seventh NFC title contest since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. It was Green Bay's fourth NFC Championship Game appearance in the previous 10 seasons (2007-16), the most in the NFC over that span.

It was the Packers' second trip to Atlanta on the season, having lost, 33-32, back in Week 8. Unlike the previous two games where Green Bay defeated a team they faced in the regular season, the Packers would come up short.

The Falcons took control of the game right away, scoring three touchdowns and a field goal on five first-half possessions. Green Bay had success moving the football on its first two possessions, but missed a 41-yard field goal and lost a fumble that was recovered by Atlanta in the end zone for a touchback.

A punt and an interception on the next two drives left the Packers trailing, 24-0, at halftime.

A 73-yard touchdown on a short pass from Matt Ryan to Julio Jones on the Falcons' first possession of the second half brought the lead to 31-0. The teams exchanged a couple of touchdowns on the way to a 44-21 Atlanta victory.

PACKERS 28, SEATTLE 23

Jan. 12, 2020, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

The Green Bay Packers captured the team's first division title since 2016 with a 13-3 regular-season record that also secured them a bye and the No. 2 seed in the NFC. Head Coach Matt LaFleur was the first coach in franchise history to lead his team to the postseason in his first season.

The Packers welcomed a familiar foe to Lambeau Field for the divisional round, facing the Seattle Seahawks for the sixth consecutive season (2014-19) in either the regular and/or postseason.

Green Bay came out strong with a 23-yard run from Aaron Jones on the first offensive play. In all, the Packers drove 75 yards in eight plays with Aaron Rodgers finding Davante Adams for a 20-yard score to take a 7-0 lead.

The next two possessions for each team resulted in punts and then the Seahawks put together a six-play, 32-yard drive to set up a 45-yard field goal from Jason Myers to cut the lead to four points in the final minute of the first quarter.

Green Bay answered with two 1-yard rushing TDs from Jones on its next two drives to go up, 21-3.

First, the Packers went 75 yards in nine plays on a drive that was kick-started with Rodgers completing three consecutive passes, 18- and 15-yards to Adams and an 8-yarder to Marquez Valdes-Scantling that brought Green Bay from its own 36-yard line to the Seattle 23-yard line. After an illegal block above the waist by Elgton Jenkins sent the Packers back 10 yards, Green Bay used four runs from Jones, as well as two Seattle penalties, to get seven more points.

After a 50-yard field goal attempt from Myers went wide right, the Packers took over on their own 40-yard line. Late-season pickup Tyler Ervin ran 18 yards on Green Bay's first play of a drive that used seven run plays and three pass plays to go 60 yards and put the Packers up 18 heading into halftime.

Both teams would trade scores on the first three possessions of the second half. First, Seattle used 10 plays to go 69 yards and Marshawn Lynch found the end zone from a yard out to cut the Packers' lead to 11 points.

Facing a third-and-six on the ensuing drive, Rodgers connected with Jimmy Graham for 27 yards, and then two plays later Rodgers found Adams for a 40-yard TD and Green Bay was up, 28-10. Adams' two TD receptions gave him six for his career in the post-season as he moved into a tie for No. 2 in team playoff history (WR Greg Jennings) behind only WR Antonio Freeman (10).

The Seahawks would answer with another long drive, going 84 yards in 12 plays with Russell Wilson finding Tyler Lockett for a 7-yard TD and the Green Bay lead was again cut to 11 points.

After a three-and-out by the Packers that went into the fourth quarter, Seattle marched 79 yards in nine plays and Lynch scored again from a yard out to make it 28-23 with just under 10 minutes to play.

Green Bay did not score on its next possession, but did use up almost five minutes of clock before punting to Seattle. The Seahawks had the ball with just under five minutes to play, but couldn't get a drive going and punted after five plays.

The Packers had the ball with a five-point lead and 2:32 left in the game. On third-and-8, Rodgers found Adams for a 32-yard gain. Green Bay faced another long third down, this time needing 9 yards, and Rodgers connected with Graham for a first down and the Packers would go on to run the clock out and win, 28-23.

Adams set a single-game franchise playoff record with 160 receiving yards on eight catches (20.0 avg.) and also became the first player in team history to register 150-plus receiving yards and two-plus TD catches in a postseason game.

SAN FRANCISCO 37, PACKERS 20

Jan. 19, 2020, at Levi's Stadium, Santa Clara

The Packers played in their eighth NFC title contest since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger and their third since 2014 (2014, 2016), the most in the NFC over that span. It also was the sixth conference championship on the road for Green Bay since 1970, tied for the third most in the NFL over that span (Dallas Cowboys, nine / New England Patriots, seven).

This was just the second time the Packers had been a part of a postseason game featuring two teams that both won 13-plus regular-season games. The other instance was at the 49ers in the 1997 NFC Championship when both teams posted 13-3 regular-season records.

Green Bay traveled to play San Francisco for the second time, having previously lost a late-November game, 37-8. Once again the 49ers jumped out to an early lead. After the Packers forced San Francisco to punt on its first possession, the 49ers would score on their final five possessions of the first half (three TDs and two field goals) to hold a 27-0 lead halfway through the game. The first-half surge by San Francisco was fueled by a rushing attack that racked up 185 yards and three TDs on 22 carries (8.4 avg.).

The Packers tried to claw their way back in the second half, scoring TDs on their first three possessions. First, Aaron Rodgers found Aaron Jones from 9 yards out to cap off an 11-play, 75-yard drive, then Jones punched it in from the 1-yard line to finish a 10-play, 75-yard drive and on the third possession, Rodgers connected with Jace Sternberger on an 8-yard strike.

The 49ers had scored on their first possession of the second half, so they had a 34-20 lead and the ball with 8:10 left in the fourth quarter. San Francisco would go 49 yards in 10 plays to get three more points with Robbie Gould connecting from 42 yards out while using just under five minutes of clock.

Green Bay's next possession resulted in an interception and the 49ers would run out the clock in their 37-20 win.

PACKERS IN THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The Green Bay Packers have 26 individuals in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, including Class of 2020 inductee Bobby Dillon. The Packers' total is second only to that of the Chicago Bears, who have 30 enshrinees. The Pittsburgh Steelers (24) and Washington Redskins (22) are next, followed by the New York Giants (21).

Four of the Packers' inductees were charter members of the Hall in 1963.

In addition, five other players who played briefly for Green Bay – defensive end Len Ford, linebacker Ted Hendricks, guard/coach Walt Kiesling, kicker Jan Stenerud and safety Emlen Tunnell – have their busts displayed in the Hall of Fame. Biographies of the Packers' 26 HOF inductees follow:

1963 — EARL L. "CURLY" LAMBEAU

Founder, Coach (1919-49)

Co-founded the Packers in 1919 and served as the team's head coach through the 1949 season. Won six NFL championships, tying him with George Halas and Bill Belichick for the most ever. He also was the first NFL head coach to make the forward pass an integral part of his team's offense. One of only seven coaches in NFL history to win more than 200 regular-season games (Don Shula, Halas, Tom Landry, Marty Schottenheimer, Belichick, Andy Reid). In addition to his 29 NFL seasons as Packers head coach, he also coached the Chicago Cardinals (1950-51) and Washington Redskins (1952-53). His overall regular-season record was 226-132-22 (.631). Also played halfback for the Packers from 1919 through 1929 in a Notre Dame Box offense and was one of the NFL's most prolific passers in the pre-stats era of the 1920s. Named to the NFL All-Decade Team for the 1920s. Given name was Earl Louis Lambeau. Born April 9, 1898, in Green Bay. Died June 1, 1965, at age 67. Lambeau Field named in his honor on Sept. 11, 1965.

1963 — ROBERT "CAL" HUBBARD

Tackle (1929-33, 1935)

Purchased from the New York Giants prior to the 1929 season, he played an integral role in the Packers winning a record three straight NFL championships from 1929-31. Stood 6-foot-2, weighed 253 pounds and was considered a behemoth in his day. Played both offense and defense in pro football's Iron Man Era and stood out on both sides of the ball. Was an official NFL All-Pro choice in each of the first three years (1931, '32, '33) such selections were made. Selected to the NFL's 50th Anniversary Team in 1969 and 75th Anniversary All-Time-Way Team in 1994. Played for the Giants (1927-28, 1936) and Pittsburgh Pirates (1936). Only inductee in both the pro football and baseball halls of fame. Elected to baseball's hall in 1976 as an umpire. Given name was Robert Calvin Hubbard. Born Oct. 31, 1900, in Keytesville, Mo. Died Oct. 17, 1977, at age 76.

1963 — DON HUTSON

End (1935-45)

Although he played in Curly Lambeau's Notre Dame Box offensive system and mostly lined up tight to the tackle, he had no peers in his day as a receiver. Held 19 NFL records when he retired. Led the NFL in pass receptions eight times and led it in scoring five times. Winner of the Joe F. Carr Trophy, the NFL's official MVP award, in 1941 and '42. Named to the Official NFL All-Pro team in 1936 and from 1938-42. Named on the first six Associated Press All-Pro teams from 1940-45. Chosen to the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team and All-Time-Way Team in 1994 and was the split end on the 50th Anniversary Team in 1969. Also intercepted 30 passes as a defensive back the last six years of his career and shared placekicking duties from 1940-45. Once scored a league-record 29 points in a quarter. Named to three Pro Bowls. Born Jan. 31, 1913, in Pine Bluff, Ark. Died June 26, 1997, at age 84.

1963 — JOHNNY "BLOOD" MCNALLY

Halfback (1929-33, 1935-36)

Born John Victor McNally, he adopted the name Johnny Blood and used it exclusively throughout his pro football career. An elusive runner and receiver, he was one of NFL's first big-play threats. Caught 10 TD passes in 1931 before the league kept stats, but it remained an unofficial record for 12 years. Played on four NFL championship teams with the Packers (1929-31, 1936). Named to the NFL's All-Decade Team for the 1930s. Also played for the Milwaukee Badgers (1925), Duluth Eskimos (1926-27), Pottsville Maroons (1928) and Pittsburgh Pirates (1934, 1937-38). One of the most colorful players in NFL history, he was nicknamed "The Vagabond Halfback." Born Nov. 27, 1903, in New Richmond, Wis. Died Nov. 28, 1985, at age 82.

1964 — CLARKE HINKLE

Fullback (1932-41)

A tough, bruising, powerful runner and a comparatively hard-hitting linebacker in the NFL's Iron Man Era, when players played both offense and defense. His battles with Bronko Nagurski of the rival Chicago Bears were legendary. He and Nagurski were the NFL's All-Decade fullbacks for the 1930s. Retired as the NFL's all-time leading rusher with 3,860 yards. A member of the NFL's official All-Pro team four times (1936-38, 1941). Named to the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time-Way Team in 1994 as a fullback, linebacker and kicker. Played on NFL championship teams in 1936 and '39. Born April 10, 1909, in Toronto, Ohio. Died Nov. 9, 1988, at age 79.

Signed with the Packers as a free agent when the New York Yankees folded before the 1929 season. Michalske played with the Yankees in 1926 in the short-lived American Football League and for two years (1927-28) in the NFL prior to Green Bay. Named to the NFL's All-Decade Team for the 1920s. Led the NFL in passing in 1932, '34 and '36. Member of the Packers' 1930-31 title teams, but teamed with Don Hutson to star on the 1936 and '39 champs. Played only halfback in Packers' Notre Dame Box system, but was inducted into the Hall of Fame and chosen as a quarterback on the NFL's All-Decade Team for the 1930s. Played for the New York Giants (1944-45) and faced the Packers in the '44 NFL Championship Game. A Green Bay native and football and basketball star at Green Bay West High School. Overall record was 105-35-6, a glittering .750 winning percentage, including his one season in Washington (1969). Regular-season record was 96-34-6. Postseason record, entirely in Green Bay, was 9-1. Served as Packers general manager in 1968, but was inducted as a head coach. Hired by Packers after serving as assistant coach with the New York Giants (1954-58). A durable, all-purpose halfback, he was a hard runner, an accomplished blocker, a capable passer and a good receiver. Also played defense early in his career. Spent the 1945 season in the service during World War II. Played college football at Gonzaga, where he acquired the nickname "Grey Ghost." Born May 5, 1919, in Chicago. Died Nov. 29, 2003, at age 84.

1976 — JIM TAYLOR

Hard-edged, hard-nosed runner who typically dished out more punishment than he took. Rushed for more than 1,000 yards in five straight seasons from 1960-64. Spent his final season in 1967 with the New Orleans Saints. When he retired from the NFL, he ranked second to the great Jim Brown in all-time rushing yards with 8,597. Finished his career with the Dallas Cowboys in 1971, where he won a sixth NFL title and third Super Bowl. Born Oct. 18, 1933, in Birthright, Texas. Died April 12, 2019, at age 85.

Named All-Pro by The Associated Press five times and was a five-time Pro Bowl selection while with the Packers. Started on six NFL championship teams, including five in Green Bay, and played in four of the first six Super Bowls, including two with Dallas. Led the Packers in kickoff returns each season from 1960-64 and averaged 25.7 yards over his career. Born June 8, 1939, in Philadelphia.

1981 — WILLIE DAVIS

Defensive End (1960-69)

Excelled as a pass rusher before the NFL kept tabs on sacks or he'd likely be the Packers' all-time leader. Unofficially, it is estimated that he had more than 100 career sacks, maybe more than 120. Also a highly respected team leader who served as defensive captain of the Packers' 1966 and 1967 NFL championship teams — winners of Super Bowls I and II. In all, started on five NFL championship teams. Named to the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. Named All-Pro by The Associated Press five times and selected to five Pro Bowls. Holds the all-time Packers record for career fumble recoveries with 21. Started NFL career with Cleveland Browns (1958-59). Born July 24, 1934, in Lisbon, La. Died April 15, 2020, at age 85.

1981 — JIM RINGO

Center (1953-63)

Undersized at 6 feet, 2 inches tall and at most 232 pounds, but cat-quick at executing difficult cut blocks. Offensive captain of Vince Lombardi's first two NFL championship teams in 1961 and '62. Also played for Philadelphia (1964-67). Chosen for NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. Named to two Pro Bowls before Lombardi arrived in Green Bay, five more under Lombardi and three with the Eagles. Named All-Pro by The Associated Press six times with the Packers. Highly durable performer, once held NFL record for most consecutive games played (183), including 126 with Green Bay. Born Nov. 21, 1931, in Orange, N.J. Died Nov. 19, 2007, at age 75.

1986 — PAUL HORNING

Halfback (1957-62, 1964-66)

Called by Vince Lombardi "the greatest player I've ever coached" during a 1967 speech. One of the most versatile players in pro football history, he won the NFL scoring title three consecutive years (1959-61). Set a league record by scoring 176 points in 1960 (12-game season). Record stood for 46 years until broken by LaDainian Tomlinson over 16 games in 2006. Named NFL's Associated Press MVP in 1961 and also MVP of the 1961 NFL Championship Game. Lombardi viewed him as his biggest playmaker and best clutch player. As the starting left halfback, he was the ball carrier in the heyday of Lombardi's signature power sweep. Named All-Pro at halfback by The Associated Press in 1960 and 1961. Named to the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. Doubled as the Packers' kicker from 1958-62 and again in '64. Scored 760 career points. Bonus choice — or the first player selected overall — in the 1957 NFL Draft. Played college football at Notre Dame, winning Heisman Trophy in 1956. Born Dec. 23, 1935, in Louisville, Ky.

1989 — WILLIE WOOD

Safety (1960-71)

Played college football at USC in the one-platoon era, doubling as a quarterback and defensive back, and virtually had to beg for an NFL tryout. Signed with the Packers as a rookie free agent and started at free safety on five NFL championship teams. Named All-Pro by The Associated Press five straight years from 1964-68. An eight-time Pro Bowl selection. Named to the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. One of two safeties chosen on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary Team in 1990. Broke open a close contest in third quarter of Super Bowl I, intercepting a Len Dawson pass and returning it 50 yards to the Kansas City Chiefs' 5. Had 48 career interceptions. Led the NFL in interceptions in 1962 with nine. Also led the league in punt returns in 1961 with a 16.1-yard average. Born Dec. 23, 1936, in Washington, D.C. Died Feb. 3, 2020, at age 83.

1995 — HENRY JORDAN

Defensive Tackle (1959-69)

Raised havoc with his quickness, especially as a pass rusher, on Vince Lombardi's five NFL championship teams. Named All-Pro by The Associated Press five straight seasons (1960-64). Also selected to play in the Pro Bowl four times. Originally a fifth-round draft choice of the Cleveland Browns; came to Green Bay in 1959 trade. Played for the Browns (1957-58). Unofficially had 3½ sacks in the 1967 Western Conference Championship Game win over the Los Angeles Rams. Born Jan. 26, 1935, in Emporia, Va. Died Feb. 21, 1977, at age 42.

2003 — JAMES LOFTON

Wide Receiver (1978-86)

Big, fast, gifted receiver who could run any route and probably could have starred in any system. Excelled as a deep threat. First Packers player without direct ties to either Curly Lambeau or Vince Lombardi to be inducted in Canton. Caught 530 passes for 9,656 yards and averaged a sensational 18.2 yards per catch in his nine seasons with the Packers. Also played for the L.A. Raiders (1987-88), Buffalo (1989-92), the L.A. Rams (1993) and Philadelphia (1993). In 16 NFL seasons, posted 764 receptions for 14,004 yards and an 18.3-yard average. Yardage total was the NFL career record at the time. Chosen for seven Pro Bowls and named All-Pro by The Associated Press twice while playing for the Packers. Named to NFL's 1980s All-Decade Team. Recorded 50-plus receptions in a season nine times. First NFL player to score a touchdown in the 1970s, '80s and '90s. Born July 5, 1956, in Fort Ord, Calif.

2006 — REGGIE WHITE

Defensive End (1993-98)

Nicknamed "Minister of Defense" while playing at the University of Tennessee, he arguably became the most dominant defensive end in NFL history when considering production against both the run and the pass. At the time of retirement, his 198 sacks were an NFL record, as were his 12 seasons with 10-plus sacks. Only player to record 10-plus sacks in nine consecutive seasons. Played six of his 15 NFL seasons with Green Bay and registered 68½ sacks, No. 3 in the NFL over that span. Named Defensive Player of the Year by The Associated Press in 1998. Named to the Pro Bowl in all six of his Packers seasons and selected AP All-Pro twice. In the Packers' Super Bowl XXXI win over New England, set a Super Bowl record with three sacks. Began his pro career with the USFL's Memphis Showboats (1984-85) before entering the NFL. Also played for the Philadelphia Eagles (1985-92) and the Carolina Panthers (2000). During eight seasons with Philadelphia, posted more sacks (124) than games played (121). A landmark free agent when he signed with Green Bay in 1993. The next year he was selected for the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team. Also chosen to the NFL's All-Decade teams for the 1980s and '90s. Elected to 13 straight Pro Bowls. Born Dec. 19, 1961, in Chattanooga, Tenn. Died Dec. 26, 2004, at age 43.

2013 — DAVE ROBINSON

Linebacker (1963-72)

At 6 feet, 3 inches tall and 245 pounds and with 4.6 speed in the 40, he was the prototypical outside linebacker. Excelled at holding up the tight end at the line and nullified Hall of Famers John Mackey and Mike Ditka in the 14 games he faced them. Made three big plays that spelled the difference in three of the biggest games of Vince Lombardi's three-year title run. Plays included a game-changing 87-yard interception return in a do-or-die 1965 regular-season victory at the Baltimore Colts; a smothering pressure against Dallas quarterback Don Meredith that saved the Packers in the 1966 NFL Championship Game; and a critical blocked field goal in a 1967 playoff victory over the Los Angeles Rams. Named to the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. Named Associated Press All-Pro in 1967 and 1969. Three-time Pro Bowl selection. Registered 21 interceptions during his 10 seasons with Green Bay. His 12 interceptions from 1965-67 were the most in the league among linebackers. Also played for Washington (1973-74). Born May 3, 1941, in Mount Holly Township, N.J.

2015 — RON WOLF

Orchestrated one of the most remarkable rebuilding efforts in NFL history following a Packers drought of 24 years. Under his leadership from 1992-2000, the Packers were tied for the second-best regular-season record in the NFL (92-52, .639), while recording seven consecutive winning seasons (1992-98) and six straight playoff appearances (1993-98). Made three key transactions early in his time in Green Bay: hiring Mike Holmgren as head coach, trading for quarterback Brett Favre and signing defensive end Reggie White. The moves helped the Packers win three consecutive NFC Central Division championships (1995-97) and back-to-back NFC titles (1996-97). From 1992-2000, the Packers were 65-12 (.844) at Lambeau Field during the regular season and playoffs, the best home record in the NFL over that span. Began his NFL career as a scout for the Oakland Raiders in 1963 and spent 23 seasons with the franchise over three separate tenures as the Raiders posted winning records in all but six of those years. In 1975, was hired by the expansion Tampa Bay Buccaneers as general manager. Born Dec. 30, 1938, in New Freedom, Pa.

2016 — BRETT FAVRE

Quarterback (1992-2007)

The ultimate iron man among NFL quarterbacks. All-time record-breaker. The savior, so to speak, of a franchise that had been mired in a nearly 25-year funk. Favre was all of the above during a career that might have been unmatched in Packers history. Started a remarkable 253 straight games before moving on to the N.Y. Jets (2008) and Minnesota Vikings (2009-10), where he extended his NFL record for quarterbacks to 298 games. When he retired, he held the all-time league record for almost every major passing category, including attempts, completions, yards and touchdowns. Acquired in a trade after spending his rookie year with Atlanta (1991), Favre joined the Packers at a time when they had made only two postseason appearances in 24 years. In his 16 years as a starter, Green Bay made the playoffs 11 times, highlighted by a victory in Super Bowl XXXI. Born Oct. 10, 1969, in Gulfport, Miss.

2018 — JERRY KRAMER

Guard (1958-68)

One of the pulling guards on maybe the most famous play in NFL history, Vince Lombardi's power sweep, Kramer also became one of the most decorated linemen in league annals. He was the only guard selected to the NFL's 50th Anniversary Team in 1969, one of two guards on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary Team chosen in 1990 and a five-time All-Pro selection by The Associated Press. Kramer was the starting right guard on Lombardi's five NFL championship teams in Green Bay and also the placekicker on the 1962 title team. In Lombardi's power sweep, Kramer was almost always the onside guard and led the left halfback around the right side. He also was the lead blocker on Bart Starr's game-winning quarterback sneak in the Ice Bowl. Born Jan. 23, 1936, in Jordan, Mont.

2020 — BOBBY DILLON

Safety (1952-59)

The epitome of a great player who played for mostly bad teams, he still holds the Packers' career record for interceptions with 52. Didn't play for a winner until his final season, but was a four-time Pro Bowl selection and a four-time All-Pro choice by The Associated Press. Played right safety, usually the free safety on most plays, but especially in the days of five-man defensive fronts, his assignment was to cover the best receiver one-on-one. Led the Packers in interceptions in seven of his eight seasons and three times intercepted nine passes in what were then 12-game seasons. When Vince Lombardi took over as coach in 1959, he labeled him "the best in the league" among defensive backs and one of three untouchables on his roster. Lost his left eye when he was 10 years old as a result of an accident and played with a glass eye. Born Feb. 23, 1930, in Pendleton, Texas. Died Aug. 22, 2019, at age 89.

THE ORIGINAL PACKERS

The Packers were born on Aug. 11, 1919. Founded by local football star Curly Lambeau and newspaperman George Whitney Calhoun, they were sponsored by the local Indian Packing Co. The original Packers played 11 games, mostly against other semipro teams from Wisconsin and Michigan's Upper Peninsula. They finished 10-1 and outscored their opponents, 565-12.

The team played in an open area of Hagemeister Park with no fence or bleachers. It also had a distinctly local flavor. Of the 25 players who appeared in at least one game, 17 had played football at either Green Bay East High School or Green Bay West. Three others were born in the Green Bay area. One player appeared in only one game and was listed in the lineup only by a last name, Bradlee, and no other details are known about him.

The Packers also played a semipro schedule in 1920, going 9-1-1, before joining what is now the National Football League in 1921.

PACKERS HALL OF FAME, GREEN BAY

The Packers Hall of Fame, located in the Lambeau Field Atrium, owns a unique place in sports history. When it opened on July 1, 1967, in temporary quarters in the Brown County Veterans Memorial Arena, it was the first hall of fame devoted to one team.

William Brault, who was head of Green Bay's visitor bureau at the time, was the driving force behind its creation and its tremendous growth over its first 25 years. Nine years after the hall opened, it moved into a permanent home next to the arena. Then-President Gerald R. Ford dedicated the new building on April 3, 1976.

On Sept. 4, 2003, Bart Starr and Ron Wolf rededicated the Packers Hall of Fame when it moved into the Lambeau Field Atrium. The Hall was renovated again and reopened on the main floor of the Atrium on Aug. 21, 2015. For nearly two years in between, it was set up in temporary quarters in the Neville Public Museum. The latest version of the Hall covers 15,000 square feet over two floors.

To date, 162 individuals – players, coaches and contributors – have been enshrined. Al Harris and Charles Woodson were scheduled to be inducted in 2020, but due to the COVID-19 pandemic, their induction was postponed until 2021. The first induction banquet was held in 1970.

The Hall of Fame originally opened in the Brown County Arena's concourse, and the plan was to stay open for roughly two months during training camp. But those best-laid plans went awry when right from the start Packers fans shattered projected attendance totals.

The Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame, Inc., is a corporation separate from the football team, organized and operated for purposes permitted for tax-exempt status under 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. All revenue is dedicated and invested only for such purposes. Donation of memorabilia is tax-deductible.

Note: Players are listed at positions that were part of the game's normal terminology when they played.

Prior to 1950, most players played both offense and defense. In the case of linemen, including ends, they usually played the same position on both sides of the ball. Backs were listed as quarterbacks, halfbacks and fullbacks, but were often interchangeable on offense, especially in Curly Lambeau's Notre Dame Box system. On defense, some backs would line up as linebackers and others in the backfield, depending on whether the scheme called for a seven-, six- or five-man line.

Since 1950, positions have been classified as offense or defense. But some positions have undergone name changes. Ends on offense were renamed wide receivers and tight ends over the course of the 1960s and halfbacks became running backs in the late 1960s. Also, there were periods where the names of certain positions differed on depth charts, in playbooks and on all-pro teams.

SELECTED AS STARTERS IN BOLD

OTHER PRO BOWL NOTES

- Years represent the season for which the player was selected, not the year the game was played. Other than in 1940 and 1942, the Pro Bowl has been played in January or February following the regular season. The first game was played following the 1938 season.
- The first five games pitted the NFL champion against the Pro All-Stars. Starting with the game that followed the 1950 season through the one played following the 2012 season, the game matched the stars of each conference. In the games that followed the 2013-15 seasons, the league changed to an unconfereced format in which players were assigned to teams through a draft and starters were selected by the Pro Bowl coaching staffs. The league returned to a traditional AFC vs. NFC format for the Pro Bowl following the 2016 season.
- The game was not held from 1943-49.

PRO BOWL

- The NFL is the only pro sports league that combines all-star voting by fans, players and coaches.
- NFL players and coaches usually cast their Pro Bowl ballots in Week 15.
- Matt LaFleur and the communications department conduct voting, asking that (1) players not vote for their own teammates, and (2) offensive players and coaches vote for defensive players, and vice versa.
- The consensus ballots of fans, players and coaches each count one-third toward determining the 86-man Pro Bowl roster.
- Fan voting is used to break any tie.
- The NFL became the first professional league to offer online voting, in 1995.
- According to the current Collective Bargaining Agreement, each Pro Bowl player on the winning team earns $74,000; each Pro Bowl player on the losing team earns $37,000.

MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL

- On Monday Night Football for a 28th consecutive season, the Packers make one appearance in 2020.
- The Packers own the NFC's longest MNF appearance streak – 28 seasons (1993-2020). In the NFL, only Denver (29, 1992-2020) now has a longer streak.
- Prior to the current 28-year string, Green Bay didn't appear for six straight years, 1987-92.
- Brett Favre and Robert Brooks own the MNF record for longest pass completion, a 99-yard touchdown strike at Chicago on Sept. 11, 1995 (Packers franchise record, tied NFL record).
- The Packers are 34-32-1 in the regular season on MNF.

THE MIDWEST SHRINE GAME

- Green Bay plays host to the Cleveland Browns on Aug. 22 in the 71st annual Upper Midwest Shrine Game, one of the NFL's longest team traditions.
- Each season, the Packers donate a percentage of the gate to the Shriners Hospitals for Children.
- The Shriners' facilities provide specialized medical services, helping children with birth defects and other health-care needs, regardless of a family's ability to pay.
- To date, the series has raised more than $4 million.

THE BISHOP'S CHARITIES GAME

- In 1961, the Diocese of Green Bay approached Vince Lombardi about playing a second charitable contest in Green Bay (the Shrine game was already a fixture in Milwaukee).
- Lombardi, a devout Catholic, agreed to the contest. The original contract gave the Packers, their opponent and the church each one-third of the gate receipts.
- During the 1970s, the Packers and the church changed the contract so the diocese would receive a flat donation, rather than a percentage.
- For more than 30 years, the church handled many of the game's business-related tasks, including game-program and advertising sales, using a network of volunteers covering 14 northeastern Wisconsin counties. The Packers assumed many of those tasks beginning in 1994.
- To date, the series has raised more than $3.8 million.
- In 2020, the Packers host the Arizona Cardinals on Aug. 15 in the 60th annual contest.

BIRTH OF A TEAM, AND A LEGEND

The Green Bay Packers, arguably the most storied franchise in the National Football League, were organized on Aug. 11, 1919, in the dingy second-floor editorial rooms of the old Green Bay Press-Gazette building, located on Cherry Street in downtown Green Bay.

Never imagining what might become of the semipro football team being formed that day, nobody documented who was there or how many were on hand. There had been no announcement of the meeting beforehand, and the Press-Gazette provided no details about it the day after.

Whether a full complement of players attended or if it was simply a small gathering of the team's prime movers was never made clear. Nor was it spelled out if much of the preliminary work had been completed beforehand or if the meeting itself triggered a rapid-fire chain of events.

Whatever the case, the Press-Gazette in its Aug. 13 edition revealed that the Indian Packing Co. would sponsor the team and referred to it for the first time as the "Packers." The paper said home games would be played at Hagemeister Park, listed 38 prospective candidates for the team, mostly former standouts at Green Bay East and West high schools; and noted full uniforms would be provided to up to 20 players.

"It will be the strongest aggregation of pigskin chasers that has ever been gathered together in this city," the Press-Gazette proclaimed.

A second meeting was held at the Press-Gazette on Aug. 14, three days after the initial one, and nearly 25 players were in attendance. Curly Lambeau was elected captain of the team, and George Whitney Calhoun was named manager.

Lambeau was a former star at East High School and played on Coach Knute Rockne's first team at the University of Notre Dame in 1918. Back home after dropping out of school in December, Lambeau was working for Indian Packing at the time. Calhoun, great-grandson of Daniel Whitney, founder of the city of Green Bay, was city editor at the Press-Gazette.

The story handed down for decades was that the impetus for the initial meeting was a chance encounter at a downtown street corner between Lambeau and Calhoun. In his 1985 book about the history of the Packers, longtime executive committee member and onetime Calhoun colleague John Torinus changed the setting to a conversation over a glass of beer.

Whether it's mostly urban legend or if there's a true story in there somewhere will remain a mystery for the ages. Too much time has passed. But Lambeau and Calhoun have long been regarded as the Packers' co-founders and there's little or no evidence to dispute that.

The first season, the Packers won 10 games and lost one against opponents representing mostly nearby towns in northeastern Wisconsin and Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

The team conducted most of its practices that first year on a field next to the Indian Packing plant at the end of Morrow Street, but it played its eight home games at Hagemeister Park on an open field with no fence or bleachers. Calhoun "passed a hat," as did others, to collect spare change and help cover expenses.

The Packers again played an independent schedule against mostly neighboring towns the next year and again dominated the competition, finishing 9-1-1.

Better yet, their financial outlook improved considerably.

C.M. "Neil" Murphy, a local typewriter salesman, was named business manager in July, and he organized a committee to build a fence around the Hagemeister playing field so the Packers could charge admission.

Thanks to the support of Indian Packing, the local Association of Commerce, local contractor Ludolf Hansen and fans who provided volunteer labor, construction of the fence began in late August and was completed before the first game in late September.

By mid-October, two large sections of bleachers were erected so fans would no longer have to stand along the sidelines to follow the action.

JOINING THE NFL

On Aug. 27, 1921, the year-old American Professional Football Association awarded a franchise to the Acme Packers of Green Bay during a league meeting in Chicago.

The Acme Packing Co., based in Chicago, had purchased Indian Packing eight months earlier. Less than a year later, the APFA would change its name to the National Football League.

Green Bay was now in the big leagues — sort of.

Most of the APFA's 21 members that second year were located in small hotbeds of football rather than big cities — places like Canton, Ohio, Hammond, Ind., and Rock Island, Ill.

Then again, compared to Green Bay, maybe those were big cities.

Green Bay was the smallest city in the league when it joined in 1921 other than Tonawanda, N.Y., which played one game on the road and folded. And except for a brief period in the mid- to late 1920s, Green Bay has remained the smallest city ever since.

Green Bay's population was 31,017, based on the 1920 U.S. Census. Not only was it the smallest city in the league, it was smaller than six other cities in Wisconsin, including Superior and Oshkosh.

MEN WHO INFLUENCED THE PACKERS' INFANCY

- Near "Curly" Lambeau: Co-founder, first team captain, first star. Played from 1919-29 and was head coach through the 1949 season. Took control of the franchise in early 1922 and convinced other owners to allow Green Bay back into the league after it had been expelled for violating a league rule.
- George Whitney Calhoun: Co-founder and team's first manager in 1919. Set the schedule and passed the hat at home games that year. Also served as manager of the 1918 city team. Wrote about the Packers for the Green Bay Press-Gazette, where he worked for more than 40 years, at the same time he was serving the team in various capacities. He was secretary of the Packers into the 1940s, publicity director until 1947 and a member of the board of directors until his death in 1963.
- Frank Peck: President of Indian Packing Co. in 1919 and 1920, when it sponsored the Packers. Credited with giving Lambeau $500 to buy uniforms and get the team started.
- C.M. "Neil" Murphy: Business manager of the Packers in 1920. Led the effort to build a fence around Hagemeister Park so the Packers could charge admission and make money.
- John & J. Emmett Clair: Brothers who ran Acme Packing Co. and the Packers in 1921, the team's first year in the NFL. J. Emmett represented Green Bay at the league meeting when it was granted a franchise in August 1921.
- Andrew B. Turnbull: Business manager and one of the owners of the Press-Gazette when he took a lead role in creating the Green Bay Football Corp. and rallying local businessmen to buy stock in the team in 1923. Served as the Packers' first president from September 1923 to June 1928.

THE FIRST NFL GAME

After playing independently for two seasons, the Packers were admitted to the American Professional Football Association in 1921. A year later, the APFA changed its name to the National Football League.

The Packers played their first official league game Oct. 23, 1921, at Green Bay's Hagemeister Park, and beat the Minneapolis Marines, 7-6.

Late in the fourth quarter, the Marines fumbled a punt at their 35-yard line and Packers end Dave "Jigger" Hayes recovered. Three plays later, with the crowd yelling, "Throw a forward," Buff Wagner made a nearly impossible catch of a Curly Lambeau pass at the Marines' 14-yard line. After the Packers barely picked up a first down, fullback Art Schmaehl took a direct snap and bulled his way for a 4-yard touchdown. Lambeau's extra point proved decisive, but the crowd was already celebrating.

"Cushions were flying in the air while soaring hats were as thick as Green Bay flies on a July night," George Calhoun wrote in his game story.

PACKERS FIRSTS

Game, Win—Sunday, Oct. 23, 1921, 7-6 victory over

Minneapolis Marines, Hagemeister Park, Green Bay.

Loss—Oct. 30, 1921, fell 13-3 to Rock Island Independents, Hagemeister Park.

Touchdown—Fullback Art Schmaehl, 4-yard run, vs.

Minneapolis, Oct. 23, 1921.

Touchdown Pass—Curly Lambeau to Bill DuMoë, 35 yards (fake kick) vs. Hammond Pros, Nov. 13, 1921, Hagemeister Park.

Point After Touchdown—Curly Lambeau with Cub Buck holding, vs. Minneapolis, Oct. 23, 1921, Hagemeister Park.

No doubt to those who lived through it and also through the lens of history, it's almost incomprehensible that the Packers survived. Their 2018 season was their 100th, but until they were nudging toward 50 they were perpetually on their deathbed.

Take their first league season, for example.

The Packers pulled off a major coup when they signed lineman Howard "Cub" Buck, a veteran of the famous Canton Bulldogs. They won their inaugural league game against the Minneapolis Marines on Oct. 23, 1921. They were able to book games with the formidable Chicago Staleys (Bears) and Chicago Cardinals. And they finished with a winning record, 3-2-1.

But then scandal nearly doomed all that they had accomplished. On Dec. 4, 1921, in a non-league game against Racine billed as a battle for the state championship, the Packers used three Notre Dame players, with college eligibility remaining, under assumed names—and got caught. Less than two months later, Green Bay was booted from the league, albeit not for long.

Thanks to Lambeau's persistence and the impression Green Bay had made on other club owners during its first season, the Packers were reinstated at the next meeting in June.

Before their first league season was more than a week old, the Packers had cut ties with the debt-ridden Acme Packing Co., and were run for the rest of that season by J. Emmett Clair and his brother, John M. Clair, who had been an officer with Acme. In 1922, Lambeau and Calhoun headed a small group that organized the private Green Bay Football Club and took control of the franchise.

Plagued by limited resources and terrible weather, the new owners barely survived their first season.

A game against Columbus in early November was played in a driving rain and resulted in a loss of $1,500 when the total rainfall for the day fell three one-hundredths of an inch short of the amount needed for the Packers to collect on their rain insurance. On Thanksgiving, a 12-hour rainfall ruined what was supposed to be Booster Day, contributing to a sparse crowd for a non-league game against Duluth and another financial disaster.

Club officials nearly canceled the game, but were persuaded to play by Andrew Turnbull, one of the owners of the Press-Gazette.

Nearly 25 years later in a three-part series, Calhoun wrote that Nov. 30, 1922, "marked a turning point in the history of the Packers." He said Turnbull promised that if club officials went ahead and played their game that day, he would get Green Bay's business community to rally behind the team once the season ended.

True to his word, Turnbull led the effort to create the nonprofit Green Bay Football Corporation before the start of the next season. The Packers were now a community-owned team. Their investors were their fans.

THE IRON MAN ERA

With an improved financial outlook, Lambeau was in position to expand his recruiting efforts and bolster his roster. Over the course of the 1921 and 1922 seasons, the Packers underwent a transformation where they replaced most of their local talent with players from big-time colleges or other pro teams.

As a result, they were highly competitive on the field from the beginning and, in turn, able to establish a firm foothold within the league. In 1927, when the NFL decided to cut its franchises almost in half and eliminate many of its smaller cities, Green Bay survived.

Then, before the 1929 season, it hit the jackpot.

The Packers signed three players off other NFL teams—halfback Johnny Blood, and linemen Cal Hubbard and Mike Michalske—who would lead them to three straight NFL championships and later be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

To this day, the 1929-31 and 1965-67 Packers are the only teams to have won three straight NFL titles. The 1929-31 Packers did it when the championship was determined by league standings. The 1965-67 Packers did it under the league playoff system, which was implemented in 1933.

THE HUTSON PERIOD

While the Packers were in the process of winning the 1931 championship, they also were blindsided by what could have been a catastrophic event. In their second game, against the Brooklyn Dodgers, a local fan, Willard J. Bent, injured his back when a section of bleachers at City Stadium collapsed, and he fell nearly 10 feet to the ground.

Bent sued the Packers and was awarded roughly $5,000 following a trial in February 1933. With the country in a deep depression, the Packers' insurance company went into bankruptcy before the claim could be adjusted, and the Green Bay Football Corp. went into receivership while it appealed the case in court.

Somehow the Packers survived the proceedings long enough to be saved, once again, by two seminal events.

The first was the creation of a new corporation, The Green Bay Packers, Inc., in January 1935 following a second stock sale. That corporation remains in existence today, although "The" was removed from the name in 1997.

SOLID FOOTBALL, SHAKY FINANCES, 1919-33

- The Packers enjoy a successful first season, winning 10 of 11 games, but the lack of an enclosed playing field prevents them from charging admission. The old minor league baseball park at Hagemeister had been torn down in late spring 1918. Thus, the Packers play their eight home games in 1919 on an open field with no fence or bleachers.
- All goes well on the field in the Packers' first season in what is now the NFL, but the Green Bay Press-Gazette reports a year later that the Clair brothers, who ran the team and the Acme Packing plant in Green Bay, lost $3,800 over the course of the 1921 season.
- On Dec. 4, 1921, the Packers play Racine in a non-league game and pay three players from the University of Notre Dame to play under assumed names. The Packers get caught and get kicked out of the league in January 1922. Owners vote Green Bay back into the league six months later, but all teams are now required to post a $1,000 guarantee against using college players, a hefty sum for Curly Lambeau's group to pay now that they no longer have a packing plant sponsoring them.
- A driving rain limits attendance to about 1,500 for a game on Nov. 5, 1922, against the Columbus Panhandles—the Press-Gazette reports a team needs to draw close to 3,000 just to break even—and leaves the Packers $3,400 in debt six games into their NFL schedule. The Packers have rain insurance, but total rainfall falls three one-hundredths of an inch short of the amount needed to collect. That said, their 3-0 victory is huge. The Columbus owner is league president Joe Carr, and the Panhandles, in existence since 1907, are one of the most established teams in pro football.
- Fans organize Booster Day for Nov. 30, 1922, and it ends with a victory over Duluth in a non-league game at Hagemeister Park. But the game is another financial disaster due to another rainstorm. The crowd falls short of 1,500.
- While little Green Bay is emerging as a strong contender on the field, the 22-team NFL is working to eliminate franchises located in smaller cities as it looks forward to the 1927 season. With that in mind, the league's franchise guarantee is bumped from $1,500 to $2,500. Members of the Packers board and local businessmen meet at the Green Bay Press-Gazette and support club president Andrew Turnbull's pitch to come up with the money to keep Green Bay in the league.
- A local fan pays $1 for a ticket to the Packers' game against Brooklyn on Sept. 20, 1931, injures his back when a set of bleachers collapses at City Stadium, and sues. In February 1933, a jury awards Willard J. Bent roughly $5,000 in damages, and the Packers' insurance company is bankrupt and can't pay. The Packers have won three straight NFL titles from 1929-31, but the Green Bay Football Corp. is forced into receivership in August 1933 to protect its assets.

The other was the signing of Don Hutson less than a month later. According to lore, Hutson actually signed two contracts, one with the Packers and the other with the Dodgers, but was awarded to the Packers by league president Joe Carr. Carr supposedly settled the dispute based on the times postmarked on the packages containing the contracts mailed by the two clubs.

In his second game as a pro, Hutson caught an 83-yard touchdown pass from Arnie Herber that gave the Packers a 7-0 victory over the Chicago Bears. When he retired 11 years later, Hutson owned 19 NFL records and had revolutionized what was then the position of offensive end.

With money in the bank and Hutson shredding defenses like no other player in the game, the Packers would win three more NFL titles under Lambeau: in 1936, 1939 and 1944.

But when Hutson retired following the 1945 season, hard times followed. The Packers became perennial losers for the first time, and they encountered one financial crisis after another.

The war between the NFL and the newly formed All-America Football Conference left them financially strapped and unable to sign their No. 1 draft picks in 1946 and 1947.

By Thanksgiving Day 1949, the Packers had to play an intrasquad game to raise enough money to finish the season. They drew 15,000 fans to City Stadium despite cold, blustery weather and raised approximately $50,000, enough to pay the freight for their final three road games.

Meanwhile, the Packers also were losing money on their training quarters at Rockwood Lodge, located along the bay about 15 miles northeast of Green Bay, and Lambeau was immersed in a power struggle with several members of the board of directors.

Fortuitously for the Packers, the well-insured Rockwood was destroyed by fire Jan. 24, 1950. The other problems came to a head when Lambeau resigned a week later, ending his 31-year association with the franchise, to become head coach of the Chicago Cardinals.

RONZANI REGIME

Within a week after Lambeau's departure, the Packers hired Gene Ronzani, a former player and assistant coach with the Bears, to succeed him. Then, before the end of April, the Packers launched a third stock drive.

The stock sale would raise more than $100,000 and put the franchise back on firmer footing. On the field, the losing prevailed and with two games remaining in the 1953 season, Ronzani was forced to resign.

BLACKBOURN TAKES OVER

The Packers hired Verne Lewellen, a local attorney and one of the stars of their 1929-31 championship teams, as general manager, and plucked Lisle Blackbourn from Marquette University to become their head coach as part of a reshuffling of the organization in the winter of 1954.

The Packers compiled a disappointing 17-31 record during Blackbourn's four years as coach, but they also secured their future during that period by building a new, football-only stadium and drafting what would be the nucleus of future championship teams.

On April 3, 1956, voters approved a referendum to fund construction of the stadium. It was dedicated on Sept. 29, 1957, and officially named Green Bay City Stadium. It was renamed Lambeau Field in 1965.

On Blackbourn's watch, the Packers also drafted Forrest Gregg, Bart Starr, Paul Hornung, Jim Taylor and Ray Nitschke, all future Pro Football Hall of Famers.

Despite his shortcomings as a coach, Blackbourn had a keen eye for talent – Vince Lombardi would hire him as a scout – and an able, young personnel director in Jack Vainisi, who had been hired by Ronzani and would play a part in luring Lombardi to Green Bay.

Vainisi

MCLEAN MOVES UP

After Blackbourn was fired following a 3-9 finish in 1957, likeable Ray "Scooter" McLean, backfield coach of the Packers since 1951, was hired as his replacement.

McLean lasted one season. He submitted his resignation under fire on Dec. 17, 1958, following a 1-10-1 finish, the worst in Packers history.

THE LOMBARDI ERA

The Packers' search for McLean's replacement lasted more than a month. Lambeau moved back to Green Bay and applied for the general manager post. Forest Evashevski, a highly successful coach at the University of Iowa, was brought to Green Bay for an interview, but declined the job. Other candidates were considered, as well.

Finally, at 3 p.m. on Jan. 28, 1959, Packers president Dominic Olejniczak announced that Vince Lombardi had accepted a five-year deal to become the team's coach and general manager. Six days later, Lombardi was officially introduced at a press conference at Green Bay's Hotel Northland where he declared, "I want it understood that I'm in complete command."

Although Lombardi had been backfield coach of the New York Giants for eight years, he was relatively unknown in a sports world much different than today. Television was still in its infancy, pro football was largely viewed as a second-rate sport and few, if any, assistant coaches were household names.

As a result, a popular question in Green Bay at the time was: "Who the hell is Vince Lombardi?"

It didn't take long for people to find out.

In his first season, Lombardi went 7-5 and was named NFL Coach of the Year. In 1960, the Packers captured the Western Conference, only to lose to Philadelphia in the title game. That would be the last time Lombardi's Packers lost an NFL Championship Game.

They won five world titles in 1961, '62, '65, '66 and '67, including Super Bowls I and II. Over nine years, they compiled a glittering 98-30-4 record (.766) and won nine of 10 postseason games.

The Packers would be recognized as the Team of the '60s and as one of the great dynasties in NFL history. Lombardi would be glorified as one of the game's greatest coaches and be posthumously honored by having the Super Bowl trophy named after him.

BENGTSON PERIOD

Following the third consecutive title in 1967, Lombardi turned over the head-coaching duties to Phil Bengtson and one year later announced that he was leaving Green Bay to become coach/GM of the Washington Redskins. Bengtson coached the Packers from 1968-70, compiling a 20-21-1 record. He resigned in December 1970.

THE DEVINE DAYS

Dan Devine, one of the nation's most successful college coaches, succeeded Bengtson as head coach and general manager in January 1971. After settling for a 4-8-2 record during his first year, Devine and the Packers appeared on the road to new heights when 1972 produced a 10-4 record and the team's first Central Division title since 1967. But the Packers' Super Bowl hopes dissolved in the second half of 1973 and they slipped to 5-7-2. They continued their regression in 1974, going 6-8, and Devine resigned.

FIRST QUARTERBACKS

Adolph Kliebhan was the starting quarterback in the Packers' first NFL game, played against the Minneapolis Marines on Oct. 23, 1921. Curly Lambeau would replace him by the second quarter, if not earlier, and it would be the first and last game of Kliebhan's NFL career.

Why he started is anybody's guess.

The Packers played four non-league games prior to facing the Marines, and Kliebhan appeared in three, filling in at quarterback, fullback and right halfback. But he didn't play the week before against Beloit.

Art Schmaehl started at quarterback in the Packers' second league game, against Rock Island, before Lambeau started the final four. Lambeau had started at right halfback in the four non-league games and then at fullback against Rock Island.

In 1922, the Packers signed Charlie Mathys, a Green Bay native who had played for the Hammond Pros in 1921. Mathys would start every game at quarterback over the next three seasons and maintain a hold on the job until partway through 1926. Lambeau would start 46 of 67 games from 1922-27, but mostly at right halfback, before his playing time would drastically diminish in 1928.

In 1927, the Packers signed Red Dunn, who had led the Chicago Cardinals to the 1925 NFL championship, and he would quarterback them through the 1931 season, winning three more NFL titles.

Future Pro Football Hall of Famer Arnie Herber would move into the lineup on a regular basis in 1932, playing mostly right halfback in Lambeau's revised Notre Dame Box offense and taking the Packers' passing game to new heights.

Dunn was the last of the Packers' quarterbacks in the Notre Dame Box to call signals, pass and run. Thereafter, Lambeau used his quarterback as a blocking back until he finally switched to a variation of the T-formation in 1947.

ceed Devine, and the executive committee complied by awarding him a three-year contract as head coach and general manager, Dec. 24, 1974. Starr asked for "the prayers and patience of Packer fans everywhere ... We will earn everything else."

Starr had only one season of experience as a coach – he was Devine's quarterback coach in 1972 – and things didn't turn out as he and Packers fans had hoped. He was handcuffed by a disastrous trade for aging quarterback John Hadl, which was agreed to by Devine just before the trade deadline of his final season. Having given up five prime draft picks in the Hadl deal, the Packers finished 4-10, 5-9 and 4-10 again in Starr's first three seasons. They raised hope with an 8-7-1 finish in 1978, but then couldn't get over the hump.

Over five more seasons, the Packers enjoyed only one winning record, a 5-3-1 finish in the strike-shortened 1982 season. Green Bay made the playoffs that year and beat the St. Louis Cardinals in a home playoff game, but when the Packers went 8-8 in 1983, Starr was fired the day following a disappointing 23-21 loss at Soldier Field to the rival Chicago Bears.

THE GREGG ERA

The Packers replaced Starr with another beloved player from the Lombardi era. On Dec. 24, 1983, Forrest Gregg, a former Starr teammate and one of the premier offensive tackles in football history, became the Packers' ninth head coach. Gregg had led Cincinnati into Super Bowl XVI following the 1981 season and his 19-6 record over the 1981-82 seasons was the best in pro football.

He started out with back-to-back 8-8 seasons as he tried to mold the roster in his own tough-guy image, but he went 4-12 and 5-9-1 in his final two years and resigned (Jan. 15, 1988) to become head coach at his alma mater, Southern Methodist University.

INFANTE SIGNS ON

On Feb. 3, 1988, after interviewing a host of candidates and having his preferred choice, Michigan State coach George Perles, accept the job and then back out, executive vice president of football operations Tom Braatz hired Lindy Infante as Gregg's successor. Infante, who had been the Cleveland Browns' offensive coordinator, was considered a shrewd play-caller, but except for a 10-6 finish in 1989, his teams largely struggled on offense and he was fired after four seasons.

By then, Braatz also had been fired and replaced by Ron Wolf, who was given the title of general manager and complete control over the Packers' football operation. Wolf was hired Nov. 27, 1991. Braatz had been hired prior to Gregg's final season as coach in a power-sharing arrangement and was fired one week before Wolf was hired.

The front-office overhaul was executed by Bob Harlan, who had been named president of the Packers prior to the 1989 season after serving the team for 18 years in several administrative roles. Harlan had joined the Packers when Devine was coach and general manager and had witnessed each coaching hire in the years since finish with a worse record than his predecessor.

In the 24 seasons since Lombardi had stepped down as coach, the Packers had finished with a winning record five times and qualified for the playoffs only twice. Harlan was determined to put an end to the drought.

Wolf began the process Dec. 22, 1991, by firing Infante.

THE HOLMGREN ERA

Wolf named Mike Holmgren, offensive architect of San Francisco's four-time Super Bowl champions, to succeed Infante, Jan. 11, 1992. Holmgren, sought by five other clubs, received a five-year contract. Next, Wolf traded for quarterback Brett Favre, who had played little in his rookie season with Atlanta. But Wolf had rated Favre much higher than most NFL scouts while he was still working for the New York Jets and confidently rolled the dice. Not only hadn't the Packers won in 24 years, but their quarterback situation had been less than desirable for most of that time, as well.

Three games into the Wolf-Holmgren Era, Favre led the Packers to a stunning, last-minute victory over the Cincinnati Bengals at Lambeau Field. The next week, he made his debut as a starter and the Packers were headed in the right direction for the first time in a quarter-century. In 1992, the Packers surprised the NFL with a 9-7 finish. Holmgren became only the third head coach in team history to register a winning record in his first season, and it was punctuated by a six-game winning streak, the team's longest since 1965.

Holmgren guided the Packers into the playoffs in 1993, forging a second-straight 9-7 record. They also won their first playoff game in 11 years on a "Hail Mary" Favre-to-Sterling Sharpe pass in the final minute that eliminated Detroit, 28-24. They then fell at Dallas, 27-17, in the divisional round.

The Packers reached the playoffs again in 1994 and '95, only to be eliminated on two more occasions by the Cowboys. But the Favre-led Packers were on the upswing. After finishing 9-7 for a third straight time in 1994, they improved to 11-5 and won their first NFL Central Division title since 1972. They also advanced one more round in the playoffs, losing to Dallas in the NFC Championship Game in 1995 after getting bounced in the divisional round the year before. Two highlights of those seasons were holding the incomparable Barry Sanders to minus-1 yard on 13 attempts in a 16-12 playoff victory over Detroit at Lambeau Field following the 1994 season, and formally dethroning the defending Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers in their own stadium, 3Com Park, 27-17, in a 1995 NFC Divisional playoff.

Putting nearly three decades of disappointment emphatically behind them, the Packers rewarded their long-patient faithful in 1996. Shunting aside eight of their first nine foes, they swept to a 13-3 record and their second straight division championship. Then, they captured their first NFL title since 1967, dispatching New England, 35-21, in Super Bowl XXXI at the Louisiana Superdome.

Displaying impressive consistency on both sides of the ball, they documented their superiority, outscoring three opponents 100-48 in a postseason sweep. Appropriately, the first two wins were before their Lambeau loyalists – a 35-14 divisional triumph over the 49ers and a 30-13 win over the upstart Carolina Panthers in the NFC title game.

In winning a 12th NFL championship, extending their own league record, the Packers joined an elite group of teams with three or more Super Bowls (Dallas, San Francisco, Pittsburgh, Oakland and Washington).

The Packers thus entered 1997 with an opportunity to win back-to-back Super Bowls for a second time – and came breathtakingly close to achieving their objective. Sweeping to a second consecutive 13-3 mark, they smothered the 49ers on a soggy, rain-swept afternoon in San Francisco, 23-10.

In a seesaw affair, Super Bowl XXXII in San Diego found the Packers trailing Denver at halftime, 17-14. Hopes of a repeat were high, however, when Favre engineered an 85-yard drive, knotting the contest, 24-24, early in the fourth quarter. But the Broncos later scored with only 1:45 remaining and a last-minute Packers drive fell short when Favre's pass for tight end Mark Chmura fell incomplete in the Denver 20, with only 28 seconds left, sealing the Broncos' 31-24 win.

A third straight Super Bowl trip, a realistic goal at the outset, eluded the Packers in 1998, their 80th season. Historic accomplishment, however, did not, as they advanced to the playoffs for the sixth year in a row, a team record, while posting a seventh consecutive winning season. They set another team record by stretching their Lambeau Field winning streak to 25 games – the second longest in NFL history – before falling to the Minnesota Vikings on Oct. 5. They finished 11-5, equaling another team standard by posting a double-digit victory total for the fourth consecutive year (11-5 in 1995, 13-3 in both 1996 and 1997). The only other time Green Bay had strung together four seasons of 10-plus wins was 67 years earlier – Lambeau's triple NFL champions of 1929-32 (12-0-1 in 1929, 10-3-1 in 1930, 12-2 in 1931 and 10-3-1 in 1932).

In the wake of these considerable achievements, the Packers' season came to a dramatic and painful end in an NFL Wild Card game at San Francisco, when a 27-23 lead abruptly dissolved into a 30-27 49ers victory. Steve Young's 25-yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens sealed the game with just three seconds left.

Only five days later, Holmgren resigned to become head coach and director of football operations for the Seattle Seahawks.

THE RHODES SEASON

Moving swiftly, Wolf tabbed Ray Rhodes, former Eagles head coach and Green Bay defensive coordinator, as the Packers' 12th head coach, Jan. 11, 1999. The Packers launched 1999 under Rhodes in breathtaking fashion, winning three of the first four games in the last minute. Fate, however, suddenly stopped smiling as Green Bay (8-8) missed the playoffs for the first time since 1992, ending seven straight winning seasons. Saying the Packers lacked the needed toughness and fire, Wolf relieved Rhodes soon after the season finale.

THE SHERMAN TENURE

After searching more than two weeks, Wolf surprised many NFL observers by naming Mike Sherman as the Packers' 13th head coach, Jan. 18, 2000. As recently as the 1997-98 seasons, Sherman had served as the Packers' tight ends/assistant offensive line coach. Sherman finished 9-7, but out of the playoffs his first season. Soon thereafter, on Feb. 1, 2001, Wolf retired as the team's executive vice president and general manager, and Harlan quickly named Sherman to replace Wolf. Sherman became the first head coach with the GM title since Starr in 1980.

Wolf's impressive nine-year tenure included 101 total victories (including eight in the playoffs) and the NFL's best regular-season record (83-45) since the 1993 advent of free agency.

Sherman returned the Packers to the playoffs in 2001 and again in 2002, when they tied for the league's best record at 12-4. But they lost in the second round of the playoffs in 2001 and the first round in 2002.

In 2003, the Packers appeared destined to reach the NFC Championship Game, if not the Super Bowl, when they won their final four regular-season games, including an inspiring 41-7 victory over Oakland engineered by a heavy-hearted Favre following the death of his father. The following week, Green Bay captured an improbable division title in the last two minutes of the season, when Arizona upset Minnesota and the Lambeau Field crowd broke the news to the Packers.

But Donovan McNabb led the Philadelphia Eagles to a come-from-behind, 20-17 overtime win to end an emotional Packers run in the divisional playoffs.

Not to be forgotten, the 2003 season included changes to three of the most-revered records in Packers history (Gregg's 33-year-old consecutive-games streak, broken by Favre; Taylor's 41-year-old season rushing record, surpassed by Ahman Green; and Hutson's 58-year-old career scoring mark, eclipsed by Ryan Longwell).

The Packers won a third straight NFC North title when Sherman in 2004, but lost to Minnesota in a Wild Card playoff at Lambeau.

On Jan. 14, 2005, Harlan restructured the team's football operations, naming Ted Thompson general manager, with full authority over football decisions. Harlan said he based the decision on his belief in a preferred structure – separate individuals for the GM and head-coach positions.

The Packers crumbled to a 4-12 mark in 2005 and Thompson dismissed Sherman.

He made the announcement on Jan. 2, 2006, saying it was time for a new face to lead the team.

THE MCCARTHY ERA

Thompson underwent an intensive nine-day search to tab Mike McCarthy the franchise's 14th head coach (Jan. 12, 2006).

McCarthy guided the Packers to a four-game winning streak to close his first season as head coach with an 8-8 record in 2006, finishing percentage points behind the Giants for the NFC's last postseason spot.

The NFL's youngest club carried that momentum into 2007, winning its first four games and ultimately tying the then-franchise record for regular-season victories with a 13-3 mark.

With Joe Philbin taking over as offensive coordinator, Ryan Grant emerging at midseason as a feature back, and Favre enjoying a brilliant final season in Green Bay, the offense finished second in the league, its highest ranking since 1983.

Grant then posted franchise playoff records of 201 rushing yards and three touchdowns in a 42-20, snow-filled NFC playoff triumph over Seattle at Lambeau.

In the third-coldest game in NFL championship history, with a temperature of minus 1 and wind chill of minus 23 at kickoff, Green Bay fell at home, 23-20, in overtime to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship Game.

In 2008, the torch was passed to Aaron Rodgers from Favre, who retired in March with virtually every significant NFL passing record, un-retired in July and was traded to the New York Jets during the first week of training camp. Rodgers became just the second quarterback in league history to pass for more than 4,000 yards in his first season as a starter.

On defense, the team set a franchise record with seven touchdowns, including six on interception returns, leading to Pro Bowl berths for three-fourths of the starting secondary in Nick Collins, Charles Woodson and Al Harris. But the team lost seven games by four points or less and finished with a 6-10 record.

That led to a series of changes on the coaching staff, most of them on defense, as McCarthy hired Dom Capers as his new defensive coordinator. The players responded in 2009, climbing all the way to No. 2 in the league in yards allowed and No. 1 against the run for the first time in team history, setting a franchise record for the fewest rushing yards allowed per game (83.3).

That defensive prowess was highlighted by Woodson winning NFL Defensive Player of the Year, rookie Clay Matthews leading the team in sacks, and Collins joining both as Pro Bowl honorees. Combined with another dynamic season on offense, in which the team set a new franchise record for points (461), the Packers won seven of their final eight regular-season games to finish 11-5 and earn an NFC Wild Card playoff berth.

Rodgers earned his first Pro Bowl nod and threw for a Green Bay postseason-record 423 yards and record-tying four TDs as he rallied the Packers from a 21-point second-half deficit but came up short, dropping a 51-45 overtime heartbreaker in Arizona, the highest-scoring postseason game in NFL history.

The team got out to a 3-1 start in 2010, but injuries to key players mounted. By season's end, the Packers would place 15 players on the season-ending injured list.

Despite the injuries, the Packers never blinked. Defensively, the Packers ranked No. 2 in the NFL in scoring defense at 15.0 points per game. Matthews, who racked up 13½ sacks, was voted a Pro Bowl starter and a consensus first-team All-Pro and was named the league's defensive player of the year by various publications. In the secondary, Woodson set career highs in tackles and forced fumbles, becoming the team's emotional leader throughout. His counterpart at corner, Tramon Williams, led the team with six interceptions, earning his first bid to the Pro Bowl, where he was joined by Collins, who was chosen for the third consecutive year.

The Packers became the first team since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970 to never trail a game by more than seven points over an entire season. They finished with a 10-6 record and secured the sixth and final seed in the NFC's playoff bracket.

The Packers won the Wild Card game at Philadelphia by a score of 21-16. The following week they traveled to Atlanta and beat the top-seeded Falcons, 48-21, on the strength of a near-flawless display of quarterbacking by Rodgers (31 of 36 for 366 yards and three TDs).

For the NFC championship, the Packers beat their division rival, the Chicago Bears, 21-14, as the defense forced three Chicago turnovers.

The Super Bowl pitted the Packers against the AFC champion

Pittsburgh Steelers. The Packers stormed out to a 21-3 lead in the first half, with two touchdowns coming off the arm of Rodgers and one on an interception return by Collins. Under circumstances reflective of the entire season, the Packers were forced to overcome injuries, as veteran stalwarts Driver and Woodson were both ruled out of the game late in the first half.

The Steelers fought their way back, but a forced fumble by Matthews at the start of the fourth quarter led to another Rodgers touchdown pass. Forcing a turnover on downs on Pittsburgh's final drive, the Packers won the franchise's fourth Super Bowl, 31-25.

Despite no offseason program and an abbreviated training-camp schedule due to the work stoppage, the Packers recorded a franchise-best 15-1 record in 2011, becoming just the sixth team in NFL history to reach the 15-win plateau, and when combining the start of 2011 with the six wins that closed out 2010, the 19-game winning streak was the longest in team history and second longest in league annals.

Rodgers earned the league's Most Valuable Player award and consensus first-team All-Pro honors from almost every major publication after posting an NFL-record 122.5 cumulative passer rating.

In the postseason, Green Bay lost to the eventual Super Bowl champion New York Giants in the divisional round, 37-20.

In 2012, the club recovered from a 2-3 start to win nine of the final 11 games and back-to-back NFC North titles. Matthews became the first player in franchise history to be named to the Pro Bowl in each of his first four seasons in the league.

After winning the Wild Card matchup with the division-rival Minnesota Vikings, the Packers fell, 45-31, to San Francisco.

The Packers welcomed the 2013 campaign and an upgraded facility that was highlighted by the addition of 6,700 new seats.

Despite being beset by injuries to key players, including losing Rodgers for seven games due to a broken collarbone, Green Bay won the division for the third straight year after beating the Bears in Week 17.

The Packers' season would end at Lambeau Field in the Wild Card game, as San Francisco kicked a game-winning 33-yard field goal as time expired.

After road losses in two of the first three games of the 2014 season, the Packers won 11 of the final 13 games to finish 12-4, including 8-0 at home. Green Bay's fourth consecutive division title was led by Rodgers, who earned NFL MVP honors from AP for the second time in his career.

The Packers' home success during the regular season continued with a 26-21 win over the Dallas Cowboys in the divisional round. The season came to an end the following week in Seattle after the Seahawks rallied in the final minutes of the fourth quarter to beat the Packers, 28-22, in overtime.

In 2015, the Packers started 6-0 for just the fourth time since 1945. Green Bay honored Favre by unveiling his name and retired No. 4 during halftime of the Packers' first home Thanksgiving game since 1923. The Packers had an up-and-down last 10 games to finish with a 10-6 record and the No. 5 seed in the postseason.

After a 35-17 victory at Washington, Green Bay faced the Cardinals nearly three weeks after losing at Arizona. After a back-and-forth game, Rodgers heaved a pass to the end zone that WR Jeff Janis leaped to grab and the game went into overtime. For the second consecutive year, Green Bay's season would end on the first possession of overtime as Arizona went 80 yards in three plays to score a touchdown and win, 26-20.

The offseason saw Favre elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

After starting the 2016 season 3-1, the Packers dropped five of the next six games to sit at 4-6. A road Monday night victory at Philadelphia started a six-game winning streak that was the longest by the Packers to end a regular season since 1941 (nine games).

The NFC North-champion Packers beat the New York Giants at home, 38-13, in the Wild Card round and used two 50-plus-yard field goals from Mason Crosby in the final minutes to win, 34-31, at Dallas. Green Bay appeared in an NFC-leading fourth NFC Championship Game since 2007, but lost, 44-21, at Atlanta.

Green Bay opened the 2017 season with a 4-1 record, marking the fourth time under McCarthy that the Packers won at least four of their first five games. In Week 6, the season changed as the Packers lost Rodgers to a collarbone injury that would only allow him to play in one more game the rest of the season. Brett Hundley would step in to lead the Packers.

After three consecutive losses dropped Green Bay to 4-4, Hundley would lead the Packers to wins in three of the next five games. With playoff hopes still alive, Rodgers returned in Week 16, but the Packers fell seven points short of the Panthers. Hundley finished out a season that ended with a 7-9 record.

The offseason brought a slew of changes. Thompson transitioned to a role as senior advisor to football operations while Brian Gutekunst was named general manager and Russ Ball was promoted to executive vice president/director of football operations. McCarthy also revamped his coaching staff with numerous changes, including welcoming back Joe Philbin as offensive coordinator and hiring Mike Pettine as defensive coordinator.

The 2018 season started with a come-from-behind victory over the Bears that was fueled by a hobbled Rodgers.

Green Bay's 100th season would be the last for McCarthy. After going 3-7-1 in the next 11 games, the Packers parted ways with McCarthy and named offensive coordinator Philbin as interim head coach. Green Bay finished 2-2 in the final four games for an overall record of 6-9-1.

THE LaFLEUR ERA BEGINS

On Jan. 8, 2019, Matt LaFleur was named the 15th head coach in franchise history. He brought 10 years of coaching in the NFL and 17 overall to Green Bay, having previously served as an offensive coordinator in 2017-18 (Tennessee Titans, 2018; Los Angeles Rams, 2017) and a quarterbacks coach for seven years (Atlanta Falcons, 2015-16; Notre Dame, 2014; Washington Redskins, 2010-13).

The Packers not only brought in a new coach in 2019, but Gutekunst also added veteran LBs Za'Darius Smith and Preston Smith as well as S Adrian Amos and G/T Billy Turner, who would all become key contributors.

Green Bay came out strong as LaFleur joined Vince Lombardi as the only head coaches in franchise history to win their first three NFL games. After a loss to Philadelphia in Week 4, the Packers reeled off four straight wins and LaFleur became the 19th NFL head coach and the first since Jim Harbaugh in 2011 to win at least seven of his first eight games.

The Packers fell on the road in two of the next three contests to the Los Angeles Chargers and San Francisco 49ers, but responded by winning their final five games to secure a 13-3 record and the No. 2 seed in the NFC. It tied the third-longest winning streak to end a regular season in team history as LaFleur led the biggest one-year win improvement in franchise annals (plus-seven wins).

Green Bay won its first NFC North title since 2016 and finished 6-0 in the division for just the second time (2011) since the league went to a divisional format in 1967. LaFleur became the first coach in franchise history to lead his team to the postseason in his first season and the first head coach in team history to lead the Packers to a division title in his first season.

The Packers defeated the Seattle Seahawks in the divisional round, 28-23, to advance to their eighth NFC title contest since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger and their first since 2016. That would be as far as Green Bay would go as the Packers lost, 37-20, to the 49ers in the NFC Championship Game.

RB Aaron Jones enjoyed a breakout season, registering a franchise-best 23 total touchdowns (including playoffs). T David Bakhtiari and Rodgers were original selections to the Pro Bowl and WR Davante Adams, DL Kenny Clark and Z. Smith were named to the Pro Bowl as injury replacements. It was the most Pro Bowlers for the Packers since five were selected in 2015.

14 TIMES WORLD CHAMPIONS?

The Packers won their first three NFL championships (1929-31) based on the league's final standings. In 1933, the league divided its 10 teams into two divisions and the two winners faced each other to settle the championship.

In 1932, there was an unofficial championship game won by the Chicago Bears, 9-0, over the Portsmouth Spartans. Had the NFL counted ties then like they do now, the Packers would have won a fourth straight title.

Since 1972, ties have counted as a half-win. From 1921-71, ties weren't included in a team's winning percentage.

In 1932, the Chicago-Portsmouth game was counted in the final standings. But had ties counted as a half-win, there would have been no need for an extra game.

EARL LOUIS "CURLY" LAMBEAU

Curly Lambeau, a native of Green Bay who first made a name for himself as a star football player at Green Bay East High School, was the guiding force behind the creation of the Green Bay Packers and their improbable survival in the National Football League. Maybe Lambeau's senior class prophecy best explains why he was able to not only persevere but also succeed beyond anyone else's dreams:

"When I get thru (sic) with athletics I'm going out and conquer the rest of the world," Lambeau proclaimed in his school annual.

After graduating from East in 1917, Lambeau waited a year before enrolling at the University of Notre Dame, where he started at fullback as a freshman on Knute Rockne's first team. Shortly after the season ended, Lambeau dropped out of school, fell ill with tonsillitis and eventually returned to Green Bay, where he took a job with the Indian Packing Co.

As fall approached, Lambeau's only real option for continuing his football pursuits was to join a citywide team. Something Green Bay had fielded off and on going back to 1895. Together with George Whitney Calhoun, city editor at the Green Bay Press-Gazette who had managed the 1918 city team, they took a lead role in organizing a new, more formidable one.

The first meeting was held Aug. 11, 1919. The second was held Aug. 14, where Lambeau was named captain and Calhoun, manager. Lambeau was 21 years old at the time, and most of his teammates were like him — young, former standouts at either East or West high school.

Indian Packing sponsored the semipro team, and to no one's surprise, Lambeau turned out to be its first star, leading the Packers to a 10-1 record against an independent schedule. In 1920, the Packers again played mostly teams from other Wisconsin and Upper Michigan towns, and Lambeau led them to a 9-1-1 record.

Following the 1920 season, Acme Packing Co. of Chicago purchased Indian Packing, and Lambeau persuaded John and J. Emmett Clair, who were running the plant in Green Bay, to pursue a franchise in what was then the year-old American Professional Football Association. The Clairs agreed and Acme was awarded a franchise Aug. 27, 1921.

From the beginning, thanks in large part to Lambeau's prowess as a passer and all-around back, the Packers were competitive on the field even against the league's best. In the Packers' first league game, Lambeau led a come-from-behind, 7-6 victory over the Minneapolis Marines. The biggest play was a late pass to Buff Wagner that set up the winning touchdown.

In 1922, the APFA became the NFL, and the Packers continued to lure better players — some from big-time college programs, some with pro experience — and steadily improved.

They were 3-2-1 the first year. In their third year, they climbed to 7-2-1. In 1929, they compiled a 12-0-1 record, still the best in Packers history, and won their first of three straight NFL championships.

The Packers faced a greater struggle off the field trying to survive financially, but Lambeau nurtured the franchise in some of those areas, as well. Both charming and persistent, he was a persuasive recruiter at a time when there was no college draft and all players were free to sign with any team. It also helped that he had a keen eye for talent.

One of only six NFL coaches to win 200 or more regular-season games, he also won a record six NFL championships, tying him with George Halas of the Chicago Bears and Bill Belichick of the New England Patriots.

The three straight titles from 1929-31 were decided by the final standings. Under the NFL's playoff system, adopted in 1933, Lambeau won three more in 1936, 1939 and 1944. To this day, more than 90 years later, only twice have teams won three straight NFL crowns: Lambeau's Packers and Vince Lombardi's 1965-67 Packers.

Six of Lambeau's players also have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame: Cal Hubbard, Mike Michalske, Johnny "Blood" McNally, Arnie Herber, Don Hutson and Tony Canale.

Even though Green Bay was the NFL's smallest city from the start, Lambeau endured only one losing season from 1921-47. The Packers finished 5-7-1 in 1933.

But the end was a bitter pill for Lambeau to swallow. After the great Don Hutson retired following the 1945 season, the troubles and rancor within the organization grew exponentially.

The 1946 purchase of Rockwood Lodge, a training quarters located 15 miles northeast of Green Bay, was draining the franchise financially. City Stadium, the Packers' home field since 1925, was structurally and economically obsolete.

Lambeau stubbornly resisted switching from his Notre Dame Box offense to a variation of the T-formation until 1947. He was spending his off-seasons in California as pro football was becoming more of a year-round business, something that had become a sore point with the franchise's board of directors. "Lambeau's gone Hollywood," groused board members and fans alike.

On top of it all, there was a new league to contend with, the All-America Football Conference. The price of draft picks and veteran players was shooting skyward as the Packers' finances were dwindling.

In 1948, Green Bay finished with a losing record, 3-9, for only the second time in 28 years. The 1949 season was worse. Lambeau decided to play more of an advisory role and coach from the press box following an opening-day loss to the Chicago Bears, and the Packers dropped to 2-10. They also were forced to play an intrasquad game on Thanksgiving Day to raise enough money to hit the road for their final three games.

The discontent grew. Before the end of the season there was a movement afoot among Lambeau's enemies on the board to oust him as coach and general manager. He survived a contentious meeting on Nov. 30, 1949, where his future was debated for nearly four hours. But he was losing his power struggle.

On Feb. 1, 1950, Lambeau resigned to become coach of the Chicago Cardinals. In less than two seasons with the Cardinals and two others with the Washington Redskins (1952-53), his record was 17-28-1.

Lambeau died of a heart attack June 1, 1965, at the age of 67. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame as a charter member in 1963.

LAMBEAU AT A GLANCE ...

- Born April 9, 1898, in Green Bay. His father, Marcel, helped with the construction of both the Indian Packing Co. and the fence and bleachers at Hagemeister Park.
- In the fall of 1917, Lambeau planned to play at the University of Wisconsin and the school was anticipating that he'd be a key member of the freshman team, but he never practiced or enrolled at the school.
- In his one season at the University of Notre Dame, Lambeau started in the same backfield as George Gipp.
- From 1919-21, at the same time he was shepherding and playing for the early Packers, Lambeau coached Green Bay East High School. His star player was Jim Crowley, who later coached Vince Lombardi at Fordham University after gaining fame as one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen."
- The only coaches in NFL history who have won more regular-season games than Lambeau are Don Shula, George Halas, Bill Belichick and Tom Landry.
- The only coaches in NFL history to win as many championships as Lambeau are Halas and Belichick. They each won six.

DONALD MONTGOMERY HUTSON

There's no better testament to Don Hutson's dominance in pro football than the 1946 National Football League Record and Rules Manual. Nearly a full page was devoted to the 19 league records Hutson held when he retired following the 1945 season. At the time, he held eight career records, four single-season records, one game record and six miscellaneous records.

Hutson not only held those benchmarks, he literally obliterated the previous records in the process.

He was the NFL's all-time leading scorer with 825 points. Future Pro Football Hall of Fame halfback Ken Strong was second with 422. Hutson's 105 career touchdowns was another of his scoring records. Former Packers halfback Verne Lewellen was second with 50.

Hutson was the NFL's all-time leading receiver with 488 receptions. Jim Benton was next with 190. Hutson also held the record for most receiving yards with 7,991. Again, Benton was second with 3,309 yards, or not even half of Hutson's total.

No player before or since has statistically dominated the game the way Hutson did from 1935 to 1945.

A native of Pine Bluff, Ark., and a product of the University of Alabama, Hutson signed with the Packers in February 1935. That was the year before the first NFL draft and Hutson was free to sign with any team in the league.

The story often told by Curly Lambeau was that he scouted Hutson in the Rose Bowl and that the Alabama star signed two contracts — one with the Packers and another with John "Shipwreck" Kelly, a minority owner of the Brooklyn Dodgers — and league president Joe Carr awarded him to Green Bay based on the postmarks on the two envelopes mailed to his office. Lambeau wasn't at the Rose Bowl and the NFL office has no record of Brooklyn submitting a second contract, so only Lambeau and Hutson would have known if there was any truth to the story.

But what's beyond doubt is that Hutson couldn't have landed with a team more suited to his skills. The Packers under Lambeau were pro football's pioneers of the forward pass.

They only became more prolific with Hutson, and more successful. They had won three NFL championships before Hutson's arrival and they would win three more during his 11-year career.

Hutson set the tone in what essentially served as his coming-out party. On the first offensive play of his second pro game, he ran a fly pattern and caught an 83-yard touchdown pass from Arnie Herber as the Packers beat the rival Bears, 7-0.

Hutson would go on to lead the NFL in receptions eight times and in receiving yards seven times. He would lead it in scoring five times. He was named the league's official MVP in 1941 and 1942. He was named to either the official NFL or The Associated Press all-pro team, or both, nine times.

Teammates and opponents alike were in awe of his abilities as a pass receiver. In 2000, Bernie Scherer, another of the Packers' ends from 1936 to 1938, said, "Don Hutson was the Jerry Rice of his era."

"He was the best I've ever seen."

I don't like to compare players then with players now. But he was head and shoulders above the ones in that era," said Bulldog Turner, legendary center and linebacker for the Chicago Bears.

The rules of the game for most of Hutson's career forced players to play both offense and defense. For that reason, most ends were tall and strapping, or short and stocky. They had to be formidable blockers and play defensive end in a seven-man front.

Hutson was no different, at least until near the end of his career.

He normally lined up a yard from the left tackle in the Packers' Notre Dame Box offense, although Lambeau would put in special plays and split him out at times. Defensively, Hutson at 6 feet, 1 inch tall and 183 pounds, played on the line for most of his first four seasons.

As a result, he was a liability as both a blocker and defender.

But he was a nonpareil as a receiver.

That's why his legacy has stood the test of time. Along with dominating the game as a receiver, he revolutionized the position. He was a specialist and a playmaker when that meant he was one-of-a-kind, not one of many.

Starting in 1939, when the Packers added blocking back-defensive end Larry Craig, Hutson also was able to move into the secondary on defense. Over his final six seasons, he intercepted 30 passes. Hutson also kicked extra points from 1940 to 1945.

Upon retirement, his No. 14 was the first retired by the Packers, and he also was one of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's charter inductees.

Donald Montgomery Hutson, born Jan. 31, 1913, in Pine Bluff, Ark., died June 26, 1997, at the age of 84.

HUTSON AT A GLANCE ...

- Hutson was the first Packers player to have his number retired. His No. 14 was retired in 1951. He also was a charter inductee in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963 and in the Packers Hall of Fame in 1970.
- When Hutson played, he was listed as an end. To call him a wide receiver would be a misnomer. While he might have been a forerunner of today's wideouts, he normally lined up a yard from the left tackle in Curly Lambeau's Notre Dame Box offense.
- Hutson benefited greatly when the Packers added Larry Craig in 1939. Up to that point, Hutson had to double as an offensive and defensive end at 6 feet, 1 inch tall and 183 pounds. Craig, whose nickname was "Superman," played blocking back on offense and shifted to end on defense, allowing Hutson to move into the secondary and take less of a beating.
- While Hutson has been credited with running anywhere from 9.5 to 9.7 in the 100-yard dash, he was actually described as having "deceptive speed" during his pro career and probably ran closer to a 10-flat. As a senior, he finished second in the 220-yard dash in the Southeastern Conference meet, but he never placed in the top three in the 100. Jesse Owens' winning time in the 100 in the 1935 NCAA Track & Field Championships was 9.8.
- Hutson averaged 60 catches and 951 yards in the four seasons from 1942 to 1945, when hundreds of other NFL players were away at war, compared to averages of 39 receptions and 642 yards in his other eight seasons.

VINCENT THOMAS LOMBARDI

Nearly five decades after his death, Vince Lombardi remains one of the most recognizable sports figures of all time.

His name graces the Super Bowl trophy. His likeness can be seen in a 14-foot statue at Lambeau Field. A flamboyant and captivating figure, he has been the subject of a Broadway play, an HBO documentary and and it wasn't because of an electrical problem. Moisture had built up overnight under a tarp and started turning to ice soon after the tarp was removed. Consequently, the thermostat couldn't be cranked up high enough to deal with the severe conditions.

With 13 seconds left, Bart Starr's 1-yard touchdown plunge gave the Packers a come-from-behind 21-17 victory.

Lombardi retired as head coach after the season, but retained his general manager's duties for one more year.

Ultimately, Lombardi was bored being "out of action" and in 1969 accepted the head-coaching position with the Washington Redskins, a team that hadn't had a winning season in 13 years. In Lombardi's first and only season in Washington, the Redskins went 7-5-2.

Shortly after Lombardi's 1970 death, before Super Bowl V, commissioner Pete Rozelle made what remains arguably the greatest tribute in league history, naming the Super Bowl championship trophy the Vince Lombardi Trophy.

In August 2003, before the rededication of a renovated Lambeau Field, the Packers unveiled statues of Lombardi and team founder Curly Lambeau in what is now the Robert E. Harlan Plaza outside the Lambeau Field Atrium. Each statue is 14 feet high atop a four-foot base and two-foot steps.

Lombardi was named head coach of the Packers when he was 45 years old. Along with serving as an assistant with the New York Giants, he also had been a college assistant at Fordham and Army. He also played collegiately at Fordham, where he was a member of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite."

Vincent Thomas Lombardi, born June 11, 1913, in Brooklyn, N.Y., died of cancer Sept. 3, 1970, at the age of 57.

In his nine seasons as head coach of the Packers, Lombardi won five NFL championships, including victories in Super Bowls I and II. His regular-season record of 89-29-4 calculates to a remarkable .754 winning percentage, and his postseason record was an even more remarkable 9-1.

And yet, Lombardi's name wasn't always so recognizable.

On Dec. 17, 1958, Ray "Scooter" McLean resigned under fire following a 1-10-1 season, the worst in Packers history. The search to replace him took exactly six weeks. At the time, Lombardi had been running the New York Giants' offense for five years. During that period, the Giants had won the 1956 NFL championship and lost the memorable 1958 title game to the Baltimore Colts in overtime. But Lombardi's title was simply backfield coach, and he wasn't well known outside NFL circles.

What's more, Lombardi had never been a head coach anywhere but St. Cecilia High School in New Jersey.

He certainly wasn't a household name in Green Bay. So when club president Dominic Olejniczak recommended him to the executive committee, member John Torinus replied, "Who the hell is Vince Lombardi?"

So did many fans. But it didn't take long to find out.

Olejniczak announced at 3 p.m. on Jan. 28, 1959, at a press conference at the Hotel Northland, that Lombardi had accepted a five-year contract as coach and general manager. Lombardi arrived in Green Bay on Feb. 2 and was introduced at a press luncheon at the Northland the next day.

It was there that he declared, "I want it understood that I'm in complete command." Just as emphatically, he also stressed, "I've never been associated with a loser and I don't expect to be now."

The Packers' board of directors officially followed through on its promises to Lombardi at an April 28 meeting when it reduced the executive committee from 13 to seven members and streamlined the administrative operation.

By then, Lombardi was well on his way to changing the culture of the organization and making a lasting impression on his players. That first offseason, he and his assistants spent countless hours watching film of the previous year's games. He summoned players for individual and small-group meetings, one of which led to the trade of the team's biggest star, receiver Billy Howton.

Lombardi ordered walls to be knocked down and carved out a nice office for himself as part of a remodeling project at the team's office building on Washington Street. He settled on retaining St. Norbert College as the team's headquarters for training camp. He changed the uniforms to a design that, for the most part, is still in use today.

Lombardi's offense was basic and methodical. His signature play was the Power Sweep, now often referred to as the Lombardi Sweep. It consisted of the halfback — normally Paul Hornung for much of Lombardi's time in Green Bay — following pulling guards Jerry Kramer and Fuzzy Thurston.

Lombardi was famous for his pursuit of perfection, often dedicating long hours of film study or practice to just one element of one play.

His first season was a stunning success. He used many of the same players from that 1-10-1 team of 1958 and finished 7-5 in 1959, winning unanimous coach of the year honors. His first game was a 9-6 victory over the Chicago Bears in new City Stadium — later renamed Lambeau Field — and when it was over, the players carried their coach off the field in triumph.

In 1960, the Packers won the Western Conference title, going 8-4. That brought Lombardi to his first NFL Championship Game, which the Packers lost, 17-13, to the Eagles at Franklin Field.

It didn't take long for Lombardi to earn redemption, however. In 1961, after an 11-3 season, the Packers demolished his former team, the Giants, 37-0, winning the team's first title since 1944.

His teams went on to capture four more NFL crowns: in 1962, 1965, 1966 and 1967. Green Bay also won the first two Super Bowls after the 1966 and 1967 titles, respectively. In Lombardi's final game as Green Bay head coach, the Packers defeated Oakland, 33-14, in Super Bowl II at the Orange Bowl in Miami.

But the Packers' 1967 season isn't remembered for that Super Bowl. Instead, the 1967 campaign is remembered for the NFL title against Dallas, perhaps the most famous game in football history, now commonly referred to as the "Ice Bowl." The Lambeau Field temperature at kickoff that day (Dec. 31, 1967) was minus-13, with the wind chill dipping to minus-46.

Lombardi had heating coils installed underneath the Lambeau Field turf prior to the season and had proudly shown them off the day before the game. But on a day when they were dearly needed, they didn't work

LOMBARDI AT A GLANCE ...

- Born June 11, 1913. Grew up in the Sheepshead Bay neighborhood of Brooklyn.
- Hoped to become a priest and enrolled at Cathedral College of the Immaculate Conception following eighth grade. Four years later, Lombardi transferred to Brooklyn's St. Francis Prep, where he played one season of high school football.
- Enrolled at Fordham University in the fall of 1933, where he played under Jim Crowley, who had played high school football at Green Bay East under Curly Lambeau. As a senior in 1936, Lombardi started at right guard on Fordham's celebrated "Seven Blocks of Granite" front line.
- Wellington Mara, late owner of the New York Giants and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, was a classmate at Fordham. They graduated together in the spring of 1937.
- After Fordham, Lombardi played some pro ball for the Brooklyn Eagles and some semipro football for the Wilmington Clippers. He enrolled in Fordham's law school in 1938, but lasted only a semester.
- Accepted a teaching position at St. Cecilia High School in Englewood, N.J., in the fall of 1939. Got the job when former Fordham teammate and now football coach Andrew Palau asked him to be his line coach. Lombardi's starting salary was $1,700. He also coached basketball, and taught physics, chemistry and Latin.
- Became head football coach at St. Cecilia in 1942. In five seasons with the Saints, his teams compiled a 32-game unbeaten streak, including a 25-game winning streak.
- Coached as an assistant at Fordham (1946-48) and at Army (the United States Military Academy) under legendary Earl "Red" Blaik from 1949-53. Backfield coach of the New York Giants, 1954-58.
- Carried off the field at least five times by his players. The first time was his first game with the Packers, the 1959 opener against Chicago; the last time was his last game, Super Bowl II.

GREEN BAY'S SIX RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

The Green Bay Packers formally retired Brett Favre's No. 4 on Saturday, July 18, 2015, in conjunction with his induction into the Packers Hall of Fame. His retired number was formally unveiled on Thursday, Nov. 26, 2015, at a Thanksgiving night game vs. the Chicago Bears. The retirement of No. 4 marked only the sixth time in the history of the franchise that the team formally removed a uniform number from circulation.

The last player who had his number retired was Reggie White, whose No. 92 was retired in the 2005 home opener. The gesture was not spurred by White's premature death in December 2004. In fact, then-Packers CEO Bob Harlan had met with White three months before he passed away and told him of the team's plans to retire the number during the '05 season. Favre's number joined the retired numbers displayed on the green façade of Lambeau Field's north end zone.

Like Favre, the five previous players to have their number retired by the Packers are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. There is no evidence that Tony Canadeo, one of those five, was ever honored at a public ceremony.

The team's five known number-retirement dates:

SHAREHOLDER HISTORY & FINANCIAL HISTORY

Of all the things that make the Green Bay Packers and their story incredible and unique, the most significant is simply this: The team is literally owned by its fans.

Presently, 361,311 people, representing 5,009,518 shares, can lay claim to a franchise ownership interest.

Shares of stock include voting rights, but the redemption price is minimal, no dividends are ever paid, the stock cannot appreciate in value, and there are no season-ticket privileges associated with stock ownership. No shareholder is allowed to own more than 200,000 shares, a safeguard to ensure that no one individual is able to assume control of the club.

Fans took ownership of the franchise in 1923.

The Indian Packing Corporation was the team's first sponsor in 1919 and 1920. Frank L. Peck, president of Indian Packing, put up the money the first year to buy uniforms and other equipment. The team wore Indian Packing's "Council" brand emblem on its jerseys in 1920 and was run by a group led by C.M. "Neil" Murphy as business manager. Joe Deloye as secretary and Frank Jonet as treasurer. In both seasons, the Packers operated as a semipro team, playing mostly against opponents from other Wisconsin cities and Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

The Acme Packing Co. of Chicago purchased Indian Packing following the completion of the 1920 season, and through John and J. Emmett Clair, applied for a franchise in the fledgling American Professional Football Association the following August. The Clairs, who were running the Acme plant in Green Bay, had title to the team during the 1921 season.

The APFA revoked the franchise in January 1922 as a penalty for the Packers using college players under assumed names in a non-league game against Racine at the end of the 1921 season.

At its June meeting, six months later, the APFA changed its name to the National Football League, and Green Bay was readmitted thanks to the persistence of Curly Lambeau. Lambeau was awarded the franchise only after the Clair brothers finally agreed to surrender rights to it. They had moved back to Chicago, but there was concern for a period of time that they might relocate the franchise there.

Lambeau and three others – George Whitney Calhoun, Nathan Abrams and Joseph Ordens – formed a corporation called the Green Bay Football Club that ran the Packers in 1922. But it suffered heavy losses in its one season due to lack of resources and bad weather.

That was when Andrew B. Turnbull, civic leader and one of the owners of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, stepped forward and led the effort to create the Green Bay Football Corporation.

The first stock sale was launched Aug. 20, 1923. Shares were sold for $5, although anyone purchasing five shares also received a box-seat ticket for all home games. Turnbull, Lee Joannes and local attorney John Kittell had signed the first articles of incorporation six days earlier. The state of Wisconsin affixed its official seal to them Aug. 23.

The first meeting of stockholders of the Green Bay Football Corp. was held Sept. 17, 1923, at the Brown County Courthouse. Fifteen board members were elected, and they, in turn, chose a five-man Executive Committee.

Turnbull was named president; Kittell, vice president; and Joannes, secretary and treasurer. Dr. W.W. Kelly and George DeLair were elected at-large members.

The Green Bay Football Corporation continued to run the franchise until Aug. 15, 1933, when it went into receivership. Frank Jonet, who had previously audited the corporation's books, was appointed the receiver. The corporation's financial problems stemmed largely from a lawsuit brought by Willard Bent, a fan who fell from the stands at a game at City Stadium in 1931 and was awarded close to $5,000 in damages. The so-called Hungry Five, along with Jonet, ran the franchise while it was in receivership. However, the minutes of a special NFL meeting held in February 1933 stated that title to it was actually transferred into Joannes' name.

The Hungry Five included Joannes, who had been elected president of the corporation in 1930; attorney Gerald Clifford, who had been elected to the Executive Committee the same year; Turnbull, Kelly and Lambeau.

The Packers emerged from receivership in January 1935 and reorganized as The Green Bay Packers, Inc., the community-owned company that remains active today, although the word "The" was dropped in 1997 when the articles of incorporation were amended.

There now have been five stock drives since the Packers became community owned in 1923. (See chart on next page for details.)

The second sale, in 1935, made it possible for the Packers to reorganize following more than 16 months in receivership. The third,

EVENTS THAT HELPED TO STABILIZE PACKERS FINANCIALLY, 1920-66

- Building a fence at Hagemester Park, 1920 — After playing on an open field and passing a hat to collect money in their first season, the Packers needed to find a way to charge admission in order to survive. C.M. "Neil" Murphy was named business manager in July 1920 and led the effort to get a fence built around the playing field at Hagemester Park. "... it was entirely due to his ability as an executive that the team prospered," the Green Bay Press-Gazette wrote two years later in its first review of Packers history.
- A.B. Turnbull's support, 1922-23 — When Curly Lambeau and George Whitney Calhoun were debating whether to go ahead with a game against Duluth on Thanksgiving Day 1922, with rain pouring down and a big financial loss all but a certainty, Turnbull prodded them to play. And if they did, he vowed to get the business community to rally around the team before the next season. Turnbull, one of the owners of the Press-Gazette, fulfilled his promise and led the effort to organize the Green Bay Football Corp. prior to the start of the 1923 season.
- Decision to play games in Milwaukee, 1933 — Moving a home game to Borchert Field that season allowed the team to tap into a larger market, expand its territory beyond the NFL's traditional 75-mile radius and thwart efforts to establish a competing pro franchise in Milwaukee. The Packers played home games in both Green Bay and Milwaukee from 1933-94.
- Court decision to appoint receiver, 1933 — The Packers petitioned for a friendly receiver as litigation over a lawsuit involving a fan who fell from the stands at City Stadium proceeded. Henry Graess, Brown County circuit judge, appointed local accountant Frank Jonet receiver. Jonet had ties to the Packers going back to 1919.
- Second stock drive, 1934-35 — Twenty-five business and industrial leaders agreed in December 1934 to raise $10,000 to "Save the Packers." Weeks later, the Packers had met their goal through a second stock sale and were reorganized as the Green Bay Packers, Inc.
- NFL's initiation of college draft, 1936 — Kept small-market teams such as the Packers competitive with big-city opponents.
- Decision to invest in war bonds, 1940s — Money in reserve carried team despite losses of at least $25,000 in 1943 alone, as World War II depleted rosters.
- Intrasquad game, Thanksgiving 1949 — Packers brought old-timers back, drawing 15,000 to City Stadium, earning close to $50,000.
- Third stock drive, 1950 — After Lambeau's departure, team raised more than $100,000.
- Bert Bell's push for league-wide TV package, 1950s — With help from Congress, Commissioner Bell laid the groundwork for CBS-TV deal that allowed all teams, large-market and small-market, to share revenue and was in place by the 1961 season. In 1966, Commissioner Pete Rozelle signed first NFL TV package, with CBS and NBC, giving Packers more than $1 million.

Jonet

in 1950, saved the Packers when they were facing nearly $90,000 in debt. The fourth was launched in late 1997. It added 105,989 new shareholders and supported the Lambeau Field redevelopment project. With the NFL backing the plan, the previous 1,940 shareholders overwhelmingly voted to amend the articles of incorporation on Nov. 13, 1997. The vote authorized the Packers to sell up to one million shares to raise funds for capital improvements, and existing stockholders received a 1,000-to-1 split on their original shares. Fans immediately were able to call a special toll-free number, or tap into the team's website for information on how to buy the 400,000 shares made available to the public. In the first 11 days, roughly one-third – or $7.8 million – of the total amount transacted was sold. Orders came in at a rate of 3,500 per day during this early period, generating about $700,000 each day.

Shares of stock were purchased by citizens from all 50 states, in addition to fans in Guam and the U.S. Virgin Islands. More than half (53.6 percent) of the shares were bought by Wisconsin residents.

The fifth sale was launched in December 2011 and saw more than 250,000 people purchase over 269,000 shares. In an overwhelming response, fans purchased more than 185,000 shares in the first two days alone. By late December, the team made an additional 30,000 shares available beyond the initial 250,000 to accommodate demand. Proceeds were directed toward the 2011-2013 expansion of Lambeau Field.

For the first time, fans in Canada were able to purchase shares – 2,000 did so – and approximately 99 percent of all shares were purchased online.

Today, an annual meeting of shareholders is held in July, an event that returned to Lambeau Field in 2006. The shareholders elect a board of directors to run the corporation. The board, in turn, elects a seven-member Executive Committee, consisting of a president, vice president, treasurer, secretary and three members at large. The president is the only officer who receives compensation.

Shares of stock cannot be resold, except back to the team for a fraction of the original price. Limited transfer of shares (i.e., to heirs and relatives) is permissible.

Based on the original "Articles of Incorporation for the (then) Green Bay Football Corporation," if the Packers franchise is sold, after the payment of all expenses, any remaining funds will go to the Sullivan-Wallen Post of the American Legion in order to build "a proper soldiers' memorial." This stipulation was enacted to ensure that the club remained in Green Bay and that there could never be any financial enhancement for the shareholder. The beneficiary was changed from the Sullivan-Wallen Post to the Green Bay Packers Foundation on the basis of a shareholder vote at the November 1997 meeting.

PACKERS STRUGGLE FOR SURVIVAL: FINANCIAL UPS & DOWNS, 1919-57

$276	Paid to each player at the end of the 1920 season, the Packers' second year of play as an independent team. Checks for that amount were given to the players at a team banquet at De Lair's Café in downtown Green Bay following the season. Thanks to business manager Neil Murphy's efforts to build a fence around the playing field at Hagemester Park, allowing them to charge admission, the Packers showed a profit of $6,049.53.
$100	Original franchise fee set Sept. 17, 1920, at a meeting of the American Professional Football Association, which would become the NFL two years later. While it has been written that the fee was reduced to $50 in 1921 when the Packers joined the league, no such motion was ever recorded in the league minutes. If the Packers ever paid a franchise fee, a record of it has yet to be found.
$3,800	Amount the Green Bay Press-Gazette reported that the Clair brothers, John and J. Emmett, lost during the 1921 season, the Packers' first in what became the NFL. The Clair brothers ran both the Acme Packing Co. and the football team.
$1,000	Guarantee Packers had to post to rejoin the NFL in 1922 after being booted out following the 1921 season for using college players under assumed names in a non-league game against Racine. Each NFL team was required to post that amount before the start of the season as a guarantee against violations of league rules.
$147.74	Reported loss of the Green Bay Football Corporation in 1923, its first season of existence. Receipts totaled $35,315.69. Expenses totaled $35,463.43, including $12,253.50 for player salaries.
$4,989	Verdict awarded in 1933 to Willard J. Bent who fell from stands at City Stadium in 1931 and sued team. The total award was actually $5,544.10, but it was decreased 10 percent because of plaintiff's contributory negligence. Fan's fall sent Packers into receivership. Local accountant Frank Jonet said years later that when he was appointed receiver, the judge handed him $76.18 in cash and unpaid bills amounting to more than $15,000.
$12,100	Amount raised through the sale of stock in 1935 allowing the franchise to emerge from receivership and reorganize as the Green Bay Packers, Inc. Frank Jonet, the receiver, would later say that the Packers settled their indebtedness for about $8,000, leaving them with roughly $4,000 to start the 1935 season.
$32,000	Amount Packers paid in 1946 for Rockwood Lodge, a training quarters they hoped would alleviate their housing problems for players. The board of directors also approved $8,000 worth of additional improvements. Also, the Packers' Executive Committee approved the purchase of five pre-fabricated cottages located next to the lodge at a cost of $3,500 each, or a total of $17,500.
$90,000	Loss the Packers were facing, according to club president Emil Fischer, when they announced November 14, 1949, that they would have to play an intrasquad game on Thanksgiving Day to save the franchise.
$75,000	Amount paid by insurance company to Packers after Rockwood Lodge burned to ground in January 1950.
$104,137.50	Funds raised by third Packers stock drive in the spring and summer of 1950.
$12,990.49	Packers' net profit from operations in 1950.
$32,000	TV money received by the Packers in 1953, allowing them to show a profit of $29,267. The team was paid $12,000 for its Thanksgiving Day TV appearance against Detroit and $20,000 as its share of the league contract.
$611,276.68	Total ticket sales for 1957 season, the Packers' first in new City Stadium or what is now Lambeau Field. It was a spike of $62,000 from the previous year. The Packers played three home games in their new stadium and three others plus a preseason game in Milwaukee.

ALL-TIME GREEN BAY UNIFORM NUMBERS

1925-2019

▶ With help from the Pro Football Hall of Fame, which provided game programs dating back to 1925 (when the team first printed uniform numbers), the Packers constructed this list.

▶ Players who wore multiple numbers during their Packers tenure are denoted with an asterisk (*).

▶ All players in this section are believed to have played in at least one league game in the corresponding number. Players who were listed on a numerical program roster but did not play that season were omitted.

▶ The team invites anyone who can provide further evidence, using the same criteria, to contact the communications department.

DID YOU KNOW ...

In 1952, the National Football League established a system for numbering players, with a vague exemption for "nationally known players." A year later, such players as Otto Graham (60 to 14) changed their jerseys to conform to the system. According to the mandate, quarterbacks and kickers were numbered 1-19, running backs and defensive backs 20-49, centers and linebackers 50-59, defensive linemen, guards and tackles 60-79 and receivers 80-89. Today, quarterbacks, punters and kickers are numbered 1-19, running backs and defensive backs 20-49, centers 50-79, offensive guards and tackles 60-79, wide receivers 10-19 and 80-89, tight ends and H-backs 40-49 and 80-89, defensive linemen 50-70 and 90-99, and linebackers 40-59 and 90-99.

PRACTICE SQUAD, 1989-2019

In 1989, the NFL created a five-player developmental squad. The league changed the name to practice squad in 1990. Players can leave a practice squad for another team only if they join the 53-man roster of another NFL club. In 2004, the NFL expanded the squad from five to eight players, and again in 2014 from eight to 10 players. The 418 players who've spent time on Green Bay's developmental/practice squad:

HALLOWED GROUND

One of the most revered stadiums in the country, Lambeau Field this year is hosting its 64th season of football.

A year-round destination venue enjoyed by Packers fans in a variety of ways on a daily basis, it underwent a dramatic facelift from 2000-03 that added a host of new amenities and attractions, carrying the glorious tradition and history of the Packers forward in the “like-new” Lambeau Field. Building upon that success, the venerable stadium underwent a five-year expansion and renovation (2011-15) that saw the debut of the South End in 2013, a new section which closed the south end-zone structure and features approximately 7,000 new seats, including premium seating as well as sponsor and partner areas. Additionally, the stadium’s main premium seating areas were updated in a two-year, $55 million renovation project that was fully complete at the start of the 2017 season.

Featuring the only true “retro” look in the entire league, Lambeau Field through the redevelopment and recent expansion has maintained its heart – the original seating bowl. The same hallowed ground where many of the NFL’s greatest moments have transpired continues to exist, a setting in which current players will create incredible memories in future years. Even with the changes over the years, Lambeau maintains its nostalgic and intimate feel with totally unobstructed sightlines. Permeated by history, tradition and mystique, the view from inside can be awe-inspiring.

What was once just a football stadium that fans could use only 10 days during the season is today a Packers cultural center that can be enjoyed throughout the year. Within the five-story Lambeau Field Atrium, located on the stadium’s east side, is the Packers Pro Shop; corporate meeting and event facilities for 25 to up to 1,200 people; the Packers Hall of Fame; and a restaurant, 1919 Kitchen & Tap (see pages 594-595 for a full listing of the Atrium dining, entertainment and retail options).

Historic Lambeau Field is the longest continuously occupied stadium in the league – 15 years more than the next-closest venue, Arrowhead Stadium in Kansas City, at 49 years. In pro sports as a whole, only the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park (109 seasons) and the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field (107 seasons) have longer active home-field tenures.

HUMBLE BEGINNINGS

The stadium that enjoys iconic status today had very humble beginnings.

Originally built at a cost of $960,000, an amount shared equally by the Packers Corporation and the city of Green Bay, the facility was financed by way of a bond issue that received 2-to-1 voter approval in a municipal referendum conducted April 3, 1956.

Located in southwest Green Bay, surrounded on three sides by the village of Ashwaubenon, Lambeau Field originally was built on farmland, purchased for $73,305. The stadium’s original architect, Somerville Inc., favored the current site because it was sloped, making it perfect to build a bowl.

Dedicated as Green Bay City Stadium on Sept. 29, 1957 – a day that 32,132 fans saw Green Bay topple the hated Chicago Bears, 21-17 – attendees included Vice President Richard Nixon and NFL Commissioner Bert Bell. In 1965, the facility was renamed Lambeau Field following the death of E.L. “Curly” Lambeau, the Packers’ co-founder and first coach.

SEATING EXPANSIONS: 1961-95

Prior to the 2003 redevelopment, seven seating additions – all paid for by Green Bay Packers Inc. – increased Lambeau’s capacity from its original 32,154 to 38,669 in 1961, to 42,327 in 1963, to 50,852 in 1965 and to 56,263 in 1970. Construction of 72 initial suites in 1985 moved capacity to 56,926, and a 1990 addition of 36 boxes and 1,920 theater-style club seats changed the number to 59,543. The seventh seating addition, a $4.7 million project in 1995, put 90 more suites in the previously open north end zone, for the first time giving the stadium the feel of a complete bowl and upping capacity to 60,890.

MAJOR UPGRADES NEEDED

Even with Lambeau Field’s numerous smaller-scale changes and improvements through the years, the stadium was becoming outdated in the 1990s with other new NFL stadiums coming online.

As a publicly owned team, the Packers must generate a significant amount of income from their home to remain competitive. Challenges with capacity, as well as the need for updated suites plus more club seats, restrooms and concessions, made redevelopment a necessity.

Faced with these challenges, the organization went to work in October 1999, assembling a plan to protect 80 years of Packers history and ensure the club’s continued viability. After several feasibility studies and with overwhelming support for renovation, as opposed to building a new stadium, the redevelopment plan was determined as the proper course of action. Unveiled in January 2000, the plan ultimately won voter approval that September with the hard work of people committed to preserving Green Bay’s unique franchise.

“Our fans overwhelmingly asked us to save Lambeau Field,” then-President/CEO Bob Harlan said. “This plan accomplishes that while giving the Packers an economic base to build for the future in Green Bay. We want this to be the No. 1 destination in Wisconsin. We’re going to build a stadium that the rest of the National Football League wished it had.”

Included in the redevelopment were more than 11,600 additional seats (the stadium’s eighth addition), including roughly 6,600 more bowl seats, which increased Lambeau’s capacity to 73,094 at the time. More than 4,000 of the seats were available for use during the 2002 season with construction ongoing, and capacity fluctuated between 65,290 and 66,110 as the season progressed.

The main concourse, previously so narrow in some places that it had become a safety problem, also was expanded significantly in 2002. And a new, upper concourse, complete with concession stands and restrooms, that increases the ease with which fans can move through the facility, fully debuted in 2003 with the project's completion after partial use in 2002.

Concession stands and restrooms were greatly expanded as well. Concession points of sale increased to 281 on the main and upper concourses alone, up from 186. The 2003 project dramatically increased the availability of women's and men's restrooms.

The centerpiece of the redeveloped stadium is the Lambeau Field Atrium, a 376,000-square-foot, five-plus-story structure on the east side. Molson Coors, through a sponsorship that extends through the 2022 NFL season, is a partner with the Packers in the Atrium and is the sponsor of the area's main entrance gate, the Miller Lite Gate. Welcoming fans is a glass wall, facing Lombardi Avenue, measuring more than 180 feet long and 80 feet high. Additionally, in July 2002, all of the team's administrative and football-operations offices also relocated to within the Atrium.

Just outside the Atrium is the Robert E. Harlan Plaza, named in honor of the former team CEO (1989-2008). In the space are bronze statues of team founder Curly Lambeau and legendary coach Vince Lombardi. Sculpted by Julie Rotblatt-Amrany (Lombardi) and Omri Amrany (Lambeau) of the Fine Art Studio of Rotblatt-Amrany in Highland Park, Ill., each statue is 14 feet tall and sits atop three feet of steps and a four-foot base. Benches throughout the area make the plaza a great place to sit and soak up the majesty of Lambeau Field.

The Packers' football facilities – a vital element in attracting players in today's ultra-competitive NFL – also were enhanced greatly by the stadium's redevelopment, debuting in time for the 2002 season. The centerpiece of these quarters is a breathtaking, 64-by-120-foot, football-shaped locker room with 64 stately wooden lockers. Another 38 lockers can be found in an adjoining, auxiliary locker room.

The football facilities also feature a much larger athletic training room with all of the latest therapy pools, as well as a permanent X-ray machine, individual position meeting rooms with theater-style seating, a 150-plus-seat team auditorium, a basketball court with a parquet wood floor, and a racquetball court.

In 2018, the stadium lights were updated to a new system featuring LED lights that use 60 percent fewer kilowatts, enhanced glare control and greater color rendition for spectators and broadcasts.

- Referendum passed by Brown County voters Sept. 12, 2000.
- $160 million in bonds from half-cent sales tax in Brown County.
- $9.1 million for stadium infrastructure improvements from the state of Wisconsin.
- $125.9 million from the Packers, the city of Green Bay and the NFL...One-time seat-user fee ($1,400 for seven-game "Green Package" ticket holders, $600 for three-game "Gold Package" ticket holders) in 2001...Proceeds contributed from the 1997-98 stock sale and an NFL loan...Additionally, the club pledged to cover any project cost overruns in consideration of its authority to direct the design of the building and stadium construction.

can seat in excess of 250 media members for a playoff game – positioned along the sidelines – debuted in 2002. In 2003, the press box was renamed “The Lee Remmel Press Box” in honor of the late former newspaper sportswriter, Packers public relations director and team historian who had more than 60 years of close association with the organization.

Overall, the project took 32 months to complete and was completed on time – and on budget – with the Packers remaining in Green Bay to play all of their games.

FINANCING THE 2000-03 REDEVELOPMENT

A portion of the 2003 project’s $295 million financing came in the form of a half-cent sales tax in Brown County – where the Packers make their estimated nearly $300 million annual economic impact – that supported more than $160 million in bonding. Voters approved the support by county-wide referendum on Sept. 12, 2000. (The tax ended on Sept. 30, 2015.) The state of Wisconsin approved funding of an additional $9.1 million for stadium-infrastructure improvements. The Packers, the city and the NFL contributed $125.9 million from a one-time seat user fee ($1,400 for seven-game “Green Package” ticket holders, $600 for three-game “Gold Package” ticket holders, in 2001), proceeds from the 1997-98 stock sale and an NFL loan. And, the club pledged to cover any project cost overruns in consideration of its authority to direct the design of the building and stadium construction.

The Packers’ contribution to the project ranked as the fifth highest in NFL history at that point. Tommy Thompson, Wisconsin governor at the time, signed into law enabling legislation May 13, 2000, in a ceremony held on the playing field. Later, on Jan. 3, 2001, the Green Bay/Brown County Professional Stadium District Board approved a new Lambeau Field 30-year lease agreement between the district, the Packers and the city of Green Bay. A groundbreaking ceremony, involving then-Governor Scott McCallum, area dignitaries and Packers officials and players, subsequently was held May 19, 2001.

TEAM BENEFITS FROM NEW REVENUE STREAMS

The Lambeau Field Atrium, with its many attractions, created an “entertainment district” at the legendary stadium, a concept pioneered at venues like Camden Yards in Baltimore and Progressive Field in Cleveland.

Revenue generated from the Packers Pro Shop, the Packers Hall of Fame, 1919 Kitchen & Tap, the Atrium eateries and Lambeau Field events is essential to the Packers’ long-term survival. In just the first year, with only the new Pro Shop open and several gate sponsorships sold, the Packers’ NFL revenue ranking for the fiscal year 2002-03 jumped to 10th, up from 20th the prior year. The strong financial performance continued during the ensuing fiscal years as all elements of the redeveloped stadium came online; the club’s NFL revenue ranking has continued to be in the second quartile, allowing the team to continue delivering on its promise to the community

2011-15 EXPANSION AND RENOVATION FINANCING

- Total cost: $312 million for two phases; no funding from public tax money.
- The first phase, including the south end-zone expansion, sound and video upgrades, cost $146 million and was funded by the Packers ($64 million from the organization’s fifth stock sale), an NFL loan ($61 million) and a contribution from the stadium district ($21 million).
- The second phase, including the Atrium renovations, cost $166 million and was funded by the Packers ($111 million through traditional financing) and an NFL loan ($55 million).

and its fans – turning profitability into the preservation of the franchise and the stadium. The redevelopment’s economic impact on the area has been positive as well; roughly 68 percent of the Lambeau Field events department’s bookings come from outside Brown County, bringing in additional business to the Green Bay area. The Atrium already has events booked out several years in advance.

THE PLAYING SURFACE

In 2018, the Packers renovated Lambeau Field’s playing surface, which had last been upgraded in 2007. The field’s sand root-zone stabilizing fibers were in need of replacement due to regular wear and tear of the field. The project called for the removal and replacement of the 12 inches of sand root zone, as well as the underlying pea gravel. The bottom subgrade level consisting of compacted clay and drain tile was left intact, as it is still in excellent condition. The project also allowed the organization to make slight adjustments to the field itself, including re zoning the irrigation system to allow better control and raising the pea-gravel layer two inches. On the second layer from the bottom, new tubing for the heating system was installed on the gravel layer, bringing it two inches closer to the surface to help maximize the system's efficiency and effectiveness. Root-zone sand was then installed at a depth of 10 inches rather than the previous 12 inches. Kentucky bluegrass sod was installed, and once established, synthetic fibers from SISGrass were stitched into the profile at a depth of seven inches, with three-quarters-of-an-inch spacing between fibers. The fibers are polyethylene, replacing the polypropylene fibers that had been utilized since 2007. A slight crown of .6 percent continues to exist to assist water and snow runoff when the field is covered with a tarp. Additionally, the apron surrounding the field was recoated with the same rubberized, non-skid material that was used previously. A new system of grow lights also debuted in 2018 to further enhance the surface and extend the growing season into the cooler months.

2011-15 EXPANSION AND RENOVATION

The 2011-15 expansion and renovation of Lambeau Field and the Atrium, a $312 million project, began in 2011 with the installation of a distributed-audio system that delivers sound more consistently and evenly throughout the stadium bowl. The 2012 season featured new high-definition video boards in the end zones with displays four times larger than the old versions, as well as a new Bellin Health Gate on the north end of the stadium with an accompanying North Loft, a popular rooftop viewing platform located just beneath the scoreboard. The South End (opened in 2013) is served by the South Gate with escalators and elevators to service the five levels of seating. The multiple sections feature amenities not previously available in Lambeau Field, from viewing platforms in the general seating areas for watching the action on the field, to indoor-outdoor suite configurations and inclusive meal arrangements in the premium and partner areas. Atrium renovation work included a larger Oneida Nation Gate with plaza (2013), a new east gate – the American Family Insurance Gate – with a 50-foot Lombardi Trophy replica, a new Packers Pro Shop and a redone Harlan Plaza with a new statue – “The Lambeau Leap” – that allows visitors to replicate the fan-favorite touchdown celebration (2014). The final Atrium components, completed in 2015, are a new Packers Hall of Fame and a new restaurant, 1919 Kitchen & Tap, on the main floor of the Atrium. Enhanced internet connections also were added in 2015 in the stadium and Atrium through upgrades in cellular and Wi-Fi systems.

Other fan-experience enhancements included a new concession-sales system (2012), further reducing the time fans are out of their seats, and another 30 points of sale (2013). The recent expansion also increased the number of men's and women's restrooms.

In terms of seating capacity, the ninth addition brought approximately 7,600 new seats online for the 2013 season, putting capacity at 80,735. With the debut of standing-room-only areas in 2014, capacity of Lambeau Field now stands at 81,441, second only to New York's MetLife Stadium (82,500).

The football facilities also received an upgrade during the recent renovations. The main component is the Conditioning, Rehabilitation and Instructional Center (CRIC), which includes an indoor, 35-yard field that can be used for a variety of activities, including team walk-throughs, strength and conditioning work, and rehabilitation exercises for injured players. The new football facilities, located underneath and adjacent to the Oneida Nation Gate, also include a weight room, team dining area, player resource and development area and player lounge. The athletic-training facilities also were enhanced with expanded treatment space and additional hydrotherapy pools.

In addition to the stadium and Atrium projects, premium-seating areas recently underwent a two-year, $55 million renovation project, which included the installation of operable windows in the suites and updated furniture and décor in

- 1990: Team spent $8.263 million to erect 36 new suites and 1,920 club seats in south end zone; construction added 2,617 total seats and capacity increased to 59,543.
- 1995: Packers spent $4.7 million to enclose north end zone with 90 more suites; added 1,347 seats to increase capacity to 60,890.

Renovation/Redevelopment

- 2001-03: The $295 million project added 12,032 seats, pushing capacity to 73,094.
- 2014: The $146 million South End expansion in 2013 and addition of standing-room-only areas in 2014 raised capacity by 8,341 to put it at 81,441.

ORIGINAL CONSTRUCTION

- Proposal: Momentum to build a new stadium started building in 1954. Fred Leicht, chairman of the Packers' grounds committee and a member of the Executive Committee since 1935, played a lead role in pushing for a new 32,000-seat stadium.
- Referendum: Passed April 3, 1956 (11,575 to 4,893), while community leaders continued debate over a site.
- Site: In late April 1956, the Packers hired an engineering company to study proposed locations. The company in July 1956 recommended the corner of Highland (now Lombardi) Avenue and Ridge Road.
- Land: The city council purchased farmland owned by Victor and Florence Vannieuwenhoven in August 1956 for $73,305.
- Contract: Awarded early in 1957, with groundbreaking as soon as weather permitted.
- Time: No longer than nine months, in time for the 1957 opener.
- Cost: $960,000 in municipal bonds; the Packers Corporation paid $634,700 in interest and principal.

LEGENDS ADORN THE FAÇADE

Also prominent within the stadium are the names of the 25 Packers players, coaches and contributors elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. The late Bobby Dillon, a safety for the Packers from 1952-59, will become the 26th name added to the façade this season, in honor of his Hall of Fame enshrinement in 2020. The Packers' 13 NFL championship seasons (south scoreboard) and six retired jersey numbers (north end zone) are displayed in the stadium as well. Favre's No. 4, which was retired July 18, 2015, during the Packers Hall of Fame induction banquet, was formally unveiled on the north end-zone façade during a halftime ceremony on Nov. 26, 2015.

HOME-FIELD ADVANTAGE

Lambeau Field is among the NFL's toughest places to play. Green Bay holds a 161-52-2 (.753) regular-season record at Lambeau since 1992, plus a 12-5 mark in the playoffs, for an overall record of 173-57-2 (.750). In the midst of nearly four full seasons at home without a defeat – prior to a 1998 Monday night loss to Minnesota, their last setback at Lambeau had come in the 1995 season opener – the Packers established the NFL's second-longest home winning streak (25). Only the Miami Dolphins (1971-74) have won more consecutive regular-season home games (27).

BUCKET-LIST DESTINATION

The NFL's longest-tenured venue, Lambeau easily ranks as one of the most recognized and envied locales in all of sports, a fact recognized in 1999 when Sports Illustrated named it the eighth-best facility in the world to watch sports – and the lone NFL stadium to make the magazine's "Top 20" list. In 2007 the club-seat common areas. All updates were complete by the beginning of the 2017 season.

The 2011-15 renovation project, not including the updates to the suites and club seats, cost $312 million, with no funding coming from public tax money. The first phase, including the South End expansion, sound and video upgrades, totaled $146 million and was funded by the Packers ($64 million from the organization's fifth stock sale), an NFL loan ($61 million) and a contribution from the stadium district ($21 million). The stadium district's user fee was updated in 2013 and set at $2,100 for the "Green Package," and $900 for the "Gold Package." The second phase, including the Atrium renovations, totaled $166 million and was funded by the Packers ($111 million through traditional financing) and an NFL loan ($55 million). In 2018, the team began a three-year concourse-renovation project to further enhance the fan experience. The first phase, which was complete for the 2018 season, included concourse audio upgrades and new grab-and-go concession stands. The next phase included upgrades to the club-level concession stands and kitchen, additional grab-and-go locations and a new fan common area on the upper concourse, which were complete for the 2019 season. Ahead of the 2020 season, more grab-and-go concession stands were added in both the lower and upper concourses.

THE LAMBEAU BOWL

One of Lambeau's special characteristics is its classic seating bowl, now exclusive to Green Bay. The bowl design, common in many traditional college football stadiums, remains virtually untouched since the $295 million stadium renovation in 2003. Did you know ...

- The original architectural firm, Somerville Inc., favored the Lambeau construction site because it sloped, perfect for building a bowl.
- The bowl's outstanding sightlines are generally credited to Dick Gustafson, who worked closely with John Somerville during the design phase.
- Some of Gustafson's inspiration came from Michigan Stadium in Ann Arbor, where he went to college.
- Despite seating more than 62,713 (including an additional 6,601 from the recent renovation), the bowl still offers

- the NFL's highest percentage of great seats. Somerville credits that intimacy to the fact that the stadium was the first in the world designed exclusively for pro football.
- The original stadium district instructed Somerville to design a facility that could easily expand, and allow for off-season construction projects to be completed by August.
- The original wooden bleachers remained in place for 12 seasons. Workers replaced them with the now-iconic aluminum benches before the 1969 season.

and 2009, SI.com rated Lambeau Field as the No. 1 stadium experience in the NFL, as did ESPN The Magazine in 2009 and 2011-16. USA Today in 2015 also ranked it No. 1, calling it "the NFL's only historic gem, the only one that would appear on a sports bucket list." In 2017, FoxSports.com also named Lambeau Field the best stadium in the NFL, describing it as "the undisputed king of NFL stadiums," and Sporting News in 2018 deemed it the No. 1 NFL stadium and "part museum, part mecca, all classic." Thousands of fans polled through SeatGeek in 2019 ranked Lambeau Field the best atmosphere in the NFL, and Forbes in 2020 named Packers fans the most passionate fans in sports.

LAMBEAU HOSTS COLLEGE SPORTS, CONCERTS, COMMUNITY EVENTS

Large-scale stadium events have included the Frozen Tundra Hockey Classic in February 2006, a Wisconsin Badgers-Ohio State Buckeyes matchup that drew 40,890 fans, the fourth-largest hockey crowd at the time. Two Kenny Chesney concerts (2011, and 2015 with Jason Aldean), a 2017 Billy Joel concert and a 2019 Paul McCartney concert each attracted more than 45,000 music lovers to the stadium. The Lambeau Field College Classic, presented by Carmex®, featuring LSU and Wisconsin in 2016, brought college football back to Lambeau Field and two passionate fan bases to Green Bay. The events were a financial boon to the local economy, with $3 million (hockey), $5 million (each concert) and $13 million (college football) impacts. College football will return once again with a game between Notre Dame and Wisconsin planned for Oct. 3, 2020. On the community front, the Atrium has regularly hosted free events. "Spooktacular Fun," a family Halloween event, takes place in October. Festival of Lights, a holiday-themed event in December, features a visit from Santa Claus and a 40-foot tree with 10,000 lights. Later in winter, the Atrium welcomes "Project Play 60" – a day focused on kid-friendly physical activity. More than 20,000 residents enjoy the Atrium during these days.

IMPROVEMENTS TO OTHER FACILITIES

In the two decades prior to the start of the 2003 redevelopment project, the Packers organization itself had spent more than $50 million on improvements to the stadium, the previous club administration building and training facilities, including construction of the original indoor practice structure in 1982 and its replacement, the Don Hutson Center, in 1994 at a cost of nearly $4.7 million. In 2019, the Don Hutson Center was renovated with new artificial turf (FieldTurf) with an updated field-marking layout that features a full-sized field. The team's two outdoor practice fields, Clarke Hinkle Field and Ray Nitschke Field, were last updated in 2006 and 2009, respectively, and are currently undergoing renovations to match the turf at Lambeau Field. As part of the renovations, a heating system has been installed under Hinkle Field to keep the ground from freezing late in the season and afford the team the opportunity to practice outside. Nitschke Field also has a seating facility, erected in 2009, for fans attending training-camp practices.

STADIUM OWNERSHIP

Lambeau Field today is owned by the city of Green Bay, the Green Bay/Brown County Professional Football Stadium District and the Green Bay Packers. The stadium is operated by the Packers under a three-party lease with a primary term that runs through 2031. Retirement of the city's original $960,000 debt from the stadium's initial construction in 1957 was celebrated at a mortgage-burning ceremony in May 1978.

TICKETS AND WAITING LIST

Sold out since 1960 and on a season-ticket basis since 1961 (350 consecutive regular-season games, not including replacement games, at the start of the 2020 season), Lambeau was not the Packers' only regular-season home until 1995. The team maintained two separate ticket packages after moving all games to Green Bay, eliminating four annual dates at Milwaukee County Stadium.

"Gold" ticket holders (made up primarily of former Milwaukee season patrons) have a three-game package consisting of the annual Midwest Shrine preseason contest plus the second and fifth regular-season home games each year. "Green" season customers (made up of original Green Bay ticket holders) have a seven-game package consisting of the annual Bishop's Charities preseason game and the remaining six regular-season contests.

The block of additional seats in 2003 helped the Packers remove roughly 3,600 names from their season-ticket waiting list — which at the start of the 2020 season had more than 141,000 names on it — between both ticket packages. The 7,000-plus new seats in 2013 helped the Packers remove another 5,000 names from the list. Additionally, Brown County residents without season tickets have a chance to purchase four tickets each year through the Brown County Ticket Drawing, with 2,500 bowl tickets available for residents for each game. Disabled-accessible seats also increased dramatically through both projects, rising from 56 to 756 in 2003, and to 876 currently.

OTHER HOMES OF THE PACKERS, 1919-94

HAGEMEISTER PARK

The Packers maybe gained more cachet than one might expect of a first-year semipro football team in 1919, but the setting for their home games had a purely sandlot, pickup-game flavor.

There was no fence, no bleachers, no frills.

They simply played on an open field in Hagemeister Park (pictured below), a large public park located where Green Bay East High School and old City Stadium stand today and connected to Joannes Park.

There had been a ballpark in Hagemeister when Green Bay fielded a minor-league baseball team from 1905-14, but it was torn down in the spring of 1918. That version was referred to as the League Ballgrounds or the W-I Ballpark. The latter was a derivative of the name of the minor league – Wisconsin-Illinois – that Green Bay was a part of from 1908-14.

Throughout the summer of 1919, local sports advocates bemoaned the absence of a ballpark in a city the size of Green Bay and worried that it might prevent East and West high schools from playing home games or, worse yet, fielding teams.

It was under that cloud that the Packers were formed. Yet they somehow managed to survive.

Their only way of making money was for co-founder and manager George Whitney Calhoun, with the help of others, to pass a hat during games. Fans walked the sidelines following the ball, even edging onto the field at times, and those who didn't would pull their Model-Ts up close to the action and watch from their front seat.

The next year, local typewriter salesman C.M. "Neil" Murphy took over as business manager of the Packers and led the effort to build a fence around the field. After getting approval and support from the property owners and others, Murphy invited fans to show up on a Saturday morning with hammers in hand and help build it.

But once the season ended, the contract called for the fence and bleachers to be torn down and the lumber to be returned to the Indian Packing Co. In the spring of 1921, the ballpark was rebuilt on the same spot, with the same lumber and the same design.

When the Packers were admitted to the American Professional Football Association in August of that year, seating was expanded to about 3,500. The Packers played their games there that season and again in 1922.

BELLEVUE

When the Hagemeister ballpark was torn down in the spring of 1923 to make way for a new East High School, Bellevue Park (pictured above) was built across the East River on property owned by Hagemeister Products Co. (formerly Hagemeister Brewery). The ballpark was rushed to completion for the city's amateur baseball team and used by the Packers in 1923-24.

It's best remembered as the site of the first Packers-Bears game played in Green Bay on Oct. 14, 1923. The Packers also were tough to beat at Bellevue, compiling a 9-2-1 record.

But the seating capacity was no more than about 3,300, parking was inadequate and fans grumbled that it was located too far from downtown.

CITY STADIUM

One of the reasons Hagemeister Park was chosen as the site for East High was because of the space available for athletic fields. The school opened in 1924, and City Stadium (pictured below in 1946 and left) was finished the following year.

The Packers played there for 32 seasons and won six of their 13 NFL championships during that period, but never played a postseason game there.

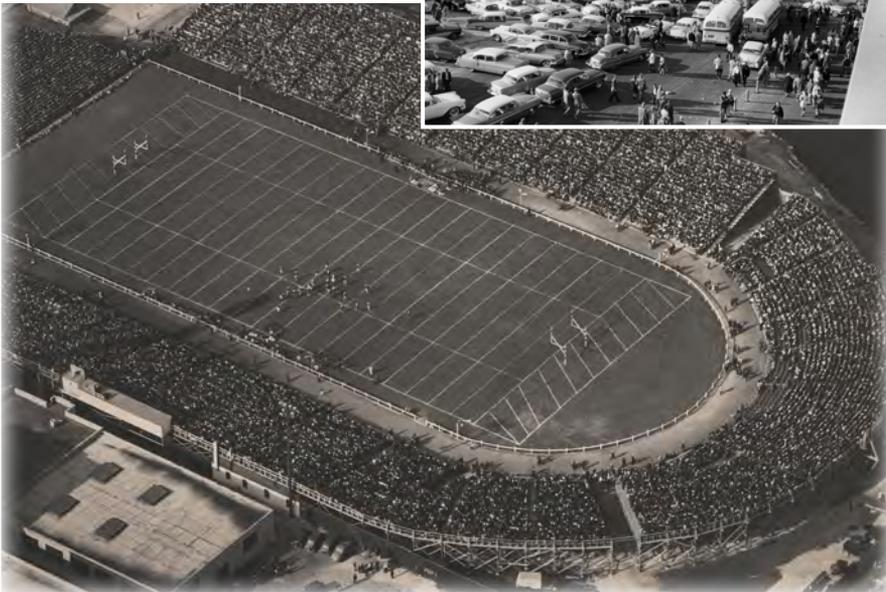

The first game was an exhibition against the Iron Mountain All-Stars played Sept. 13, 1925, and Curly Lambeau was the star. The first NFL game was played a week later against the Hammond Pros.

The Packers played their last game there Nov. 18, 1956, and rookie quarterback Bart Starr made his first pro start. The game featured nine future Pro Football Hall of Famers, including Starr and fellow rookie Forrest Gregg.

In all, 90 players in the Hall of Fame, including 12 Packers, played in either a regular-season or preseason game there.

When City Stadium opened, it had seating for roughly 5,700. Its peak capacity was nearly 25,000.

Its most distinctive feature might have been a 400-foot-long, 12-foot-high and 17-inch-thick sandstone entranceway built in 1940 along the west end facing Baird Street. But other than the wall, City Stadium was made of wood and had become outdated well before the Packers abandoned it for Green Bay City Stadium, or what is now Lambeau Field, in 1957.

MILWAUKEE

State Fair Park, for 18 seasons, and County Stadium (pictured above in 1994 and below in 1993), for 42 seasons, were the Packers' primary homes in Milwaukee over the 62 straight years (1933-94) that they played there.

Even though the Packers weren't based in Milwaukee, fans there embraced them as their own. As a result, when the Packers stopped playing at an aging County Stadium following the 1994 season, they determined that Milwaukee ticketholders should be offered their same allotment each year for two designated regular-season games played at Lambeau Field.

THE PACKERS' SEVEN OTHER HOMES, 1919-94

GREEN BAY

■ Hagemeister Park, 1919-22...Large public park along the banks of the East River. The Packers played here on an open field in 1919. Fans helped build a fence around the playing field so the Packers could charge admission in 1920, but the small wooden ballpark was torn down following the season. In the spring of 1921, a look-alike was built on the same spot and with the same lumber to serve Green Bay's amateur baseball team. When the Packers were admitted in late August to what is now the NFL, seating was enlarged to about 3,500. The Packers played here for two seasons.

■ Bellevue Park, 1923-24...When the ballpark at Hagemeister was torn down in May 1923 to allow for construction of East High School, Bellevue Park was built in less than three weeks with the same lumber. It was rushed to completion to accommodate the local amateur baseball team. The land was owned by the Hagemeister Products Co. (formerly Hagemeister Brewery) and was located at what was then the end of Main Street... Site of the first Packers-Bears game played in Green Bay.

■ City Stadium, 1925-56...The Packers played here for 32 seasons...It was made almost entirely of wood and expanded several times to reach peak capacity of roughly 25,000...Curly Lambeau starred in the first game here; Bart Starr made his first pro start in the last...Twelve Packers and 90 members, in all, of the Pro Football Hall of Fame played here in a regular-season or preseason game.

MILWAUKEE

■ Borchert Field, 1933...The Packers played one home game here in 1933. They played a non-league game here against Racine in 1921, one road game a year against the Milwaukee Badgers from 1922-26 and a non-league game against the Milwaukee Eagles in 1927...Named Athletic Park prior to 1928...Located on a city block bordered by Burleigh, Chambers, 8th and 7th streets.

■ State Fair Park, 1934-51 (below, inset, in 1941)...Located in West Allis within the Wisconsin State Fairgrounds...In 1939, the Packers played host to an NFL Championship Game for the first time and selected State Fair Park as the site over City Stadium, triggering an outcry in Green Bay.

■ Marquette Stadium, 1952...Home to Marquette University football until the school dropped the sport following the 1960 season.

LAMBEAU FIELD ATRIUM

Key to making Lambeau Field a year-round destination venue is the 376,000-square-foot Lambeau Field Atrium, more than five stories high on the east side of the stadium.

Included within the Lambeau Field Atrium are a number of dining, entertainment and retail options for Packers fans of all ages. Free wireless-internet access is available at the Atrium, too, for guests who want to use the internet while visiting a restaurant or taking part in a corporate event or meeting. The Atrium underwent a renovation, completed in August 2015, that enhances every visitor's experience.

PACKERS HALL OF FAME — The Packers and the Packers Hall of Fame Inc., a nonprofit corporation independent of the Packers, together host this special place. The Hall closed in late 2013 as part of the Atrium renovation project and reopened in August 2015 in a brand-new space located on the first and second floors of the Atrium. A tribute to the greatest story in sports, the new facility's design includes use of the latest technology, in addition to a treasure trove of artifacts, as a means to educate and inspire visitors about the rich history of the Packers, as well as the teams of today. From the team's beginnings with Curly Lambeau to the dominating era of Vince Lombardi, the Hall takes visitors on a journey that includes all 26 Packers in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, 13 world championships, including four Super Bowls, and the 162 members of the Packers Hall of Fame.

LAMBEAU FIELD STADIUM TOURS

— Highlighted by a walk through the team tunnel to the hallowed ground of Lambeau Field, stadium tours allow fans to experience the Packers' history-rich facility firsthand and see several behind-the-scenes areas. Outstanding photo opportunities avail themselves throughout each tour. Tour tickets are available online 30 days prior to a given date. Tickets are sold on a first-come, first-served basis for each day's available tours. A popular attraction, stadium tours saw more than 123,000 visitors during the 2019-20 fiscal year.

Public access to the inside of Lambeau Field is available only through a tour. The stadium-tour hotline is 920-569-7513, and schedules and tickets are available online at packershofandtours.com.

Historic Lambeau Field stadium tours appear on the itineraries of sports fans and visitors from all over the world, some of whom visit Lambeau Field and Packers training camp as their family's summer vacation.

1919 KITCHEN & TAP — Inspired by the local community and the rich history of the Green Bay Packers, the gastropub is a tribute to the year the team was organized and is located on the Atrium's main floor. Featuring industrial, yet warm and rustic finishes, the restaurant has copper beer lines and exposed brick, to complement Lambeau Field's welcoming, comfortable atmosphere. The interior also includes several nods to Packers history. The restaurant offers a menu full of innovative approaches to old favorites, highlighting locally sourced ingredients to ensure the freshest seasonal foods. Guests enjoy a bar with 80 beer taps, featuring a wide variety of selections, as well as an open-concept kitchen, which allows visitors to see and hear their food being prepared. An outdoor seating area is also available.

ATRIUM EATERIES — Two eateries located within the Lambeau Field Atrium will be open roughly 50 days per year for special events and on gamedays. They are:

- GOIN' DEEP PIZZA — This Italian eatery offers individual fresh-baked pizzas and creative pasta dishes.

- MEAT PACKING COMPANY — A restaurant concept developed exclusively for Lambeau Field; overstuffed sandwiches, giant bratwursts and delicious desserts are featured on the menu.

LAMBEAU FIELD EVENTS — Whether it's an intimate meeting for five or a gathering for 1,000, Lambeau Field can accommodate a variety of events with unique space, an extraordinary staff and exceptional all-around excellence. The Lambeau Field Events Team (920-569-7515) can assist with any function with catering provided by Delaware North, a global leader in hospitality. The Lambeau Field Atrium hosted more than 890 events — including several wedding receptions — during the 2019-20 fiscal year, welcoming more than 100,000 guests to the facility. Roughly 53 percent of the department's bookings come from outside of Brown County.

The Johnsonville Tailgate Village is a vibrant gameday and event space in the parking lot on the east side of the stadium.

PACKERS PRO SHOP — Owned and operated by the Packers, the Packers Pro Shop is not only a shopping destination, but also a Packers experience. The 21,500-square-foot store, which opened in July 2014, is double the size of the previous store and located in the lobby level spanning the entire north side of the Atrium. Two entrances welcome visitors, one with a six-foot scaled replica gameday helmet, the other with a 50-foot replica Lombardi Trophy. Inside, thousands of Packers items await, from clothing to special, unique items. The experience includes a wall of video monitors and extensive jersey and hat sections, among other design features.

OTHER ATRIUM EVENTS

In addition to the dining, entertainment, retail and special-event options, the Lambeau Field Atrium hosts a number of football-themed events, as well as community gatherings and activities each year.

COMMUNITY EVENTS — An obvious destination for football-related events and generally taking in Packers lore, the Lambeau Field Atrium also hosts a number of community events each year that draw thousands of people. Project Play 60, a March event, focuses on getting kids out of the house to enjoy non-strenuous physical activity. Spooktacular Fun, held in October, is a Halloween event that features interactive and entertaining activities, including sing-along music, magic, miming, clowns and jugglers. Festival of Lights, a holiday-themed event in December, features a visit from Santa Claus, cookie decorating, choirs and a 40-foot tree with 10,000 lights. In addition to those regularly scheduled events, other gatherings have been held from time to time, including community send-offs for Green Bay's 127th National Guard Unit in 2005, 2009 and 2019.

FROZEN TUNDRA HOCKEY CLASSIC — From Feb. 10-12, 2006, Lambeau Field hosted the Frozen Tundra Hockey Classic, featuring the Wisconsin Badgers vs. the Ohio State Buckeyes. Among the weekend's highlights were a community skate, picture-taking with the Stanley Cup and Vince Lombardi trophies, autographs with the Badgers hockey team, and youth hockey sessions. The action culminated with a 4-2 Badgers victory in front of 40,890 fans, with the weekend bringing in nearly $3 million to the local economy.

LZ LAMBEAU — Lambeau Field hosted a "Welcome Home" weekend for Wisconsin's Vietnam veterans, Vietnam-era veterans and their families, May 20-22, 2010. Over the three days, 70,000 people took in speakers, exhibits, music and premiere segments from Wisconsin Public Television's Wisconsin Vietnam War Stories documentary. The weekend was presented in partnership with the Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs, the Wisconsin Historical Society, Wisconsin Public Television and statewide veterans organizations.

CONCERT TOURS — On June 11, 2011, Lambeau Field hosted its first major concert since the redevelopment was completed in 2003. More than 45,000 fans packed the stadium to take in Kenny Chesney, along with the Zac Brown Band, Billy Currington and Uncle Kracker. Chesney made a return visit on June 20, 2015, this time with Jason Aldean and others, and played to more than 50,000. On June 17, 2017, Lambeau Field welcomed legendary musician Billy Joel, who performed for more than 43,000 for his first-ever concert in Green Bay. Most recently, iconic musician Paul McCartney performed to a sold-out crowd on June 8, 2019. The concerts, all held during weekends, attracted a wide variety of music fans of all ages to the Green Bay area and each made an impact of nearly $5 million in the area.

WISCONSIN-LSU FOOTBALL — On Saturday, Sept. 3, 2016, the stadium went collegiate, hosting the Lambeau Field College Classic, presented by Carmex®, between the LSU Tigers and the Wisconsin Badgers. The contest marked the first college football game at the historic stadium since Nov. 19, 1983, when the St. Norbert College Green Knights defeated the Fordham University Rams, 18-9. The game had an economic impact of more than $13 million, with fans from both contingents traveling to the area for the week and weekend of the game. In a thrilling finish, Wisconsin defeated LSU, 16-14, in front of a crowd of 77,823. College football will return to Lambeau Field once again Oct. 3, 2020, as the University of Wisconsin faces the University of Notre Dame in the Irish's first appearance at Lambeau Field. The matchup is the first of a two-game neutral-site football series that will also see the two teams meet at Soldier Field in Chicago on Sept. 25, 2021.

TITLETOWN DEVELOPMENT

Located just west of Lambeau Field, Titletown is the Packers' mixed-use, community development with a multi-acre stretch of park space, activities and events year-round, and daily recreation no matter the season.

The development, currently on nearly 45 acres of land, builds upon the success of Lambeau Field's major redevelopment in 2003 and the Atrium renovation in 2015. Titletown aims to maximize its unique location to attract visitors, spur regional economic growth, offer amenities to residents and complement the greater Green Bay area's draw as an excellent location to live, work and play.

TITLETOWN

Titletown offers daily fitness and recreation activities, programs, and festivals throughout the year, with live music, family-friendly holiday events and a variety of options for fun-seeking visitors from near and far. A unique Play 60-themed playground and regulation-size athletic field are popular destinations, and during the colder months, Ariens Hill at Titletown offers tubing and the plaza becomes an ice rink for skating and ice biking.

The development also offers various spaces to rent for private events, including weddings, showers, meetings and birthday parties. During the 2019-20 fiscal year, Titletown hosted more than 150 events, with more than 6,000 attendees.

COMMON OPPONENTS WITHIN DIVISION

At the NFL Spring Meeting on May 22, 2001, in Rosemont, Ill., NFL owners unanimously approved realignment, coinciding with the Houston Texans' 2002 debut. The 32-team league calls for a harmonic scheduling rotation, in comparison with awkward formulas used in previous seasons. Each team within a division now plays 14 common opponents, as follows:

- Each team plays home and away against its three division opponents (six games).
- Each team plays the four teams from another division within its conference on a rotating three-year cycle (four games).
- Each team plays the four teams from a division in the other conference on a rotating four-year cycle (four games).
- Each team plays a pair of intraconference games based on the prior year's standings (two games), i.e., first-place teams in a division will play against the first-place teams from another division within the same conference, etc. (two games).

PACKERS RADIO NETWORK

Wayne Larrivee and Larry McCarren enter their 22nd season of broadcasts together across the Packers Radio Network in 2020. Though both are veteran broadcasters, the two were paired for the first time in 1999 to bring the color and excitement of Green Bay Packers football to fans throughout Wisconsin, Upper Michigan and two more-distant states. They surpassed Jim Irwin and Max McGee for the most regular-season and postseason games broadcast for the Packers with 313 at the 2018 season opener against Chicago.

Larrivee, who grew up as a fan of the Packers in his native Lee, Mass., enters his 43rd consecutive year broadcasting NFL games, having joined Green Bay's broadcast team after 14 seasons as the radio voice of the Chicago Bears (1985-98) on WGN and WMAQ Radio in Chicago. Earlier, he had done play-by-play of Kansas City Chiefs games for seven years (1978-84) on KCMO Radio in Kansas City. Known for his thorough preparation and his moderated, yet enthusiastic, call of the action, Larrivee's more-recent credits also include play-by-play for Big Ten Conference football and basketball for the Big Ten Network and NCAA basketball for Westwood One.

Highly decorated, the 65-year-old Larrivee was named Illinois Sportscenter of the Year in 1997 and is a seven-time winner of the Silver Dome Award, presented by the Illinois Broadcasters Association, for best radio football play-by-play. He is also a four-time winner of a Midwest Emmy for Chicago Bulls basketball play-by-play. In May 2011, he was honored as Communicator of the Year by the Wisconsin Chapter of the Public Relations Society of America.

A 1977 graduate of Emerson College in Boston, he received the school's Alumni Achievement Award in June 2005 and was inducted into the Emerson College Hall of Fame in June 2018. In 2012, the college appointed him to its alumni association board of directors. Larrivee has also done play-by-play of Chicago Bulls basketball on WGN-TV from 1991-2008, Chicago Cubs baseball, University of Iowa football, Quad Cities (Iowa) Angels minor league baseball, University of Missouri basketball and Kansas City Kings basketball games.

McCarren first joined the team's broadcasts in 1995, working his first four seasons with Irwin and McGee. Inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame in 1992, he also is a favorite among television viewers in northeast Wisconsin. After 27 years, he retired from Green Bay television and joined the Green Bay Packers' digital department as their sports analyst. McCarren has been voted Wisconsin Sportscenter of the Year four times (1994, 1996, 2002, 2007) by the National Sportscenter and Sportswriters Association. In June 2016, McCarren was inducted into the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame.

An iron man at center for the Packers for 12 seasons (1973-84), McCarren played in 162 consecutive games – the sixth-longest streak in team history – helping him earn the nickname "Rock." He was voted to the Pro Bowl in 1982 and 1983. Earlier, he had been a co-captain at the University of Illinois as both a junior and senior. McCarren, 68, originally is from Park Forest, Ill.

WTMJ, which has been broadcasting the team's games since November 1929, continues its long-standing role as the flagship station of the Packers Radio Network.

The Packers Radio Network is made up of 50 stations in four states.

NFL TRANSACTION INFORMATION

WAIVERS

The waiver system is a procedure by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by a club to other clubs in the League. During the procedure, the 31 other clubs either file claims to obtain the players or waive the opportunity to do so – thus the term “waiver.” Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based on the inverse of won-and-lost standing. The claiming period is 24 hours from the first business day after the Super Bowl through the conclusion of the regular season. If a player passes through waivers unclaimed, he becomes a free agent. All waivers are no recall and no withdrawal. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from the beginning of the waiver system each year through the trading deadline, any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit is not subject to the waiver system if the club desires to release him. After the trading deadline, such players are subject to the waiver system.

ACTIVE/INACTIVE LIST

The Active/Inactive List is the principal status for players participating for a club. It consists of all players under contract who are eligible for preseason, regular-season and postseason games. Teams are permitted to open training camp with no more than 90 players under contract and thereafter must meet a mandatory roster reduction prior to the season opener. Teams will be permitted an Active List of 47 players (or 48 players if teams carry eight offensive linemen) and an Inactive List of five or six players to complete their 53-player rosters for each regular-season and postseason game. Teams also are permitted to establish Practice Squads of up to 12 players who are eligible to participate in practice, but these players remain free agents and are eligible to sign with any other team in the league.

- Sept. 5 . . . . . Roster reduction to 53 players
 Sept. 6 . . . . . Teams establish a Practice Squad of up to 12 players

In addition to the squad limits described above, the overall roster limit of 90 players remains in effect throughout the regular season and postseason. The overall limit is applicable to players on a team's Active, Inactive and certain Exempt lists, players on the Practice Squad, and players on the Reserve List as Injured, Physically Unable to Perform, Non-Football Illness/Injury, or Suspended by Club.

RESERVE LIST

The Reserve List is a status for players who, for reasons of injury, retirement, military service or other circumstances, are not immediately available for participation with a club. Except for three players who must be Designated for Return, players on Reserve/Injured are not eligible to practice or return to the Active/Inactive List in the same season that they are placed on Reserve. Players in the category of Reserve/Retired, Reserve/Did Not Report, Reserve/Exclusive Rights, and players who were placed in the category of Reserve/Left Squad in a previous season may not be reinstated after a club's Week 13 game. No reinstatement may occur in the last four weeks of the regular season through the postseason.

NFL TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

The following procedures will be used to break standings ties for postseason playoffs and to determine regular-season schedules. Note: Tie games count as one-half win and one-half loss for both clubs.

TO BREAK A TIE WITHIN A DIVISION

If, at the end of the regular season, two or more clubs in the same division finish with the best won-lost-tied percentage, the following steps will be taken until a champion is determined:

TWO CLUBS

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games between the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
5. Strength of victory in all games.
6. Strength of schedule in all games.
7. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
8. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
9. Best net points in common games.
10. Best net points in all games.
11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
12. Coin toss.

THREE OR MORE CLUBS

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after one or more clubs are eliminated during any step, tie-breaker restarts at Step 1 of two-club format. If three clubs remain tied after a fourth club is eliminated during any step, tie-breaker restarts at Step 1 of three-club format.)

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games between the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
5. Strength of victory in all games.
6. Strength of schedule in all games.
7. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
8. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
9. Best net points in common games.
10. Best net points in all games.
11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
12. Coin toss.

TO BREAK A TIE FOR THE WILD CARD TEAM

If necessary to break ties to determine the two Wild Card clubs from each conference, the following steps will be taken:

- A. If all the tied clubs are from the same division, apply division tie-breaker.
- B. If the tied clubs are from different divisions, apply the following steps:

TWO CLUBS

1. Head-to-head, if applicable.
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
4. Strength of victory in all games.
5. Strength of schedule in all games.
6. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
7. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
8. Best net points in conference games.
9. Best net points in all games.
10. Best net touchdowns in all games.
11. Coin toss.

THREE OR MORE CLUBS

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after one or more clubs are eliminated during any step, tie-breaker restarts at Step 1 of two-club format. If three clubs remain tied after a fourth club is eliminated during any step, tie-breaker restarts at Step 2 of three-club format.)

1. Apply division tie-breaker to eliminate all but highest-ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to Step 2. The original seeding within a division upon application of the division tie-breaker remains the same for all subsequent applications of the procedure that are necessary to identify the two Wild Card participants.
2. Head-to-head sweep (apply only if one has defeated each of the others or one club has lost to each of the others.)
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
5. Strength of victory in all games.
6. Strength of schedule in all games.
7. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
8. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
9. Best net points in conference games.
10. Best net points in all games.
11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
12. Coin toss.

When the first Wild Card team has been identified, the procedure is repeated to name the second Wild Card (i.e., eliminate all but the highest-ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to Step 2). In situations where three teams from the same division are involved in the procedure, the original seeding of the teams remains the same for subsequent applications of the tie-breaker if the top-ranked team in that division qualifies for a Wild Card berth.

OTHER TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

1. Only one club advances to the playoffs in any tie-breaking step. Remaining tied clubs revert to the first step of the applicable division or Wild Card tie-breakers. As an example, if two clubs remain tied in any tie-breaker step after all other clubs have been eliminated, the procedure reverts to Step 1 of the two-club format to determine the winner. When one club wins the tie-breaker, all other clubs revert to Step 1 of the applicable two-club or three-club format.
2. In comparing records against common opponents among tied teams, the best won-lost-tied percentage is the deciding factor since teams may have played an unequal number of games.
3. To determine home-field priority among division titlists, apply Wild Card tie-breakers.
4. To determine home-field priority for Wild Card qualifiers, apply division tie-breakers (if teams are from the same division) or Wild Card tie-breakers (if teams are from different divisions).
5. To determine the best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed, add a team's position in the two categories, and the lowest score wins. For example, if Team A is first in points scored and second in points allowed, its combined ranking is "3." If Team B is third in points scored and first in points allowed, its combined ranking is "4." Team A then wins the tie-breaker. If two teams are tied for a position, both teams are awarded the ranking as if they held it solely. For example, if Team A and Team B are tied for first in points scored, each team is assigned a ranking of "1" in that category, and if Team C is third, its ranking will still be "3."

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES FOR SELECTION MEETING

1. Clubs not participating in the playoffs shall select in the first through 18th positions in reverse-standings order.
2. The Super Bowl winner shall select last and the Super Bowl loser will select next-to-last.
3. The losers of the Conference Championship games shall select 29th and 30th based on won-lost-tied percentage.
4. The losers of the Divisional playoff games shall select 25th through 28th based on won-lost-tied percentage.
5. The losers of the Wild Card games shall select 19th through 24th based on won-lost-tied percentage.

If ties exist in any grouping except (2) above, such ties shall be broken by strength of schedule. If any ties cannot be broken by strength of schedule, the divisional or conference tie-breakers, if applicable, shall be applied. Any ties that still exist shall be broken by a coin flip.

LEE REMMEL PRESS BOX

The Packers in 2003 permanently named the new Lambeau Field press box after team historian and longtime public relations director Lee Remmel. Remmel's 62-year association with the team began as a sportswriter in 1945 before he moved into the team's front office in 1974.
