DANIEL M. SNYDER

CO-OWNER AND CO-CEO

A self-made man and an entrepreneur at heart, Dan Snyder's life is marked by an enduring passion for the people, the team and the community he loves.

Growing up in the D.C. area and attending Washington Football (then named the Redskins) games with his father, Gerald, his youth and young adulthood were shaped and inspired by his devotion to the team. Snyder has put his passion into action since purchasing the team in 1999, consistently leading the franchise to new prominence in the community, the business world and the National Football League. Under his leadership, the team has raised millions of dollars for charitable efforts and maintained its place in the top tier of the world's most valuable sports franchises.

Snyder, 55, continues to be one of the Washington area's most prominent community leaders and philanthropists. Shortly after purchasing the franchise, one of Snyder's first actions was to create the Washington Charitable Foundation in 2000 to bring together the Washington team and its corporate and community partners to make a positive and measurable impact on youth development in the greater Washington, D.C. region. The Charitable Foundation focuses on the areas of education, community outreach and health and wellness and, since its inception, Foundation programs have given back more than $29 million to individuals, groups and organizations in the community and have made an impact on millions of lives.

During the 2019 season, the Charitable Foundation hosted 115+ in-school workshops and special events for children and their families, encompassing a broad spectrum of efforts that included supporting children's literacy efforts for more than 38,000 fourth and fifth graders through the Read Program, and expanding an innovative in-school health and wellness program for seventh graders by serving more than 12,000 children in four local school districts.

This past year, the Charitable Foundation continued the expansion of its Loads of Love program, which installs laundry facilities in schools and non-profit organizations to directly impact children experiencing homelessness or an unstable living situation, at no cost to them or their families. The goal is to remove a barrier for child attendance and participation in programs and sports by providing them a discreet solution to the challenge of having clean clothes. To date, 80+ schools and non-profit organizations in the DMV area have received funding to open their own Loads of Love laundry center.

Snyder's philanthropy has grown beyond the U.S. In the wake of the devastation in the Caribbean caused by Hurricane Matthew in the fall of 2016, Snyder quickly mobilized to deliver emergency supplies to the region. The efforts began with an air delivery to the Bahamas, and, shortly following a win against Baltimore a day later, Snyder enlisted two Washington Football players of Haitian descent to hand-deliver medical supplies straight from the team's training staff to Hospital Bernard Mevs in Port Au Prince, Haiti. Asked on FOX NFL Sunday about his efforts to team up with his players to deliver aid, Snyder said, "What happened in Haiti was obvious. They were in need."

The trips were just the latest instance of Snyder's larger commitment to disaster relief which included substantial aid following the devastating tsunami in Indonesia and Thailand in 2004, and Hurricane Katrina in 2005. Following Snyder's 2016 efforts in the Caribbean, Bahamas Minister of Tourism Obie Wilchcombe said, "This organization led by example mobilizing immediately to bring relief to our people who are in need. It is our hope that other organizations will follow the example set by the [Washington Football team]."

Beyond his work with the Charitable Foundation and his contributions to disaster relief, Snyder has provided significant support to Children's National Hospital and the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC). As a member of the Children's National Hospital Foundation Board of Directors, his support enabled construction of the Snyder Family Emergency Medicine and Trauma Center. He also funded construction of the Daniel M. Snyder and Family Communication Center at the NCMEC. Each day, the Center handles hundreds of calls from around the nation from law enforcement organizations, parents of missing children, runaways seeking help and people responding to the Center's well-known awareness campaigns on behalf of missing children. In May 2014, Snyder and his wife, Tanya, were honored with the Charles B. Wang International Children's Award at the NCMEC's annual Hope Awards Dinner.

In response to the murder of George Floyd in May of 2020 and the subsequent call to action to support the Black community, Snyder donated $250,000 to fund a grassroots effort from the organization to help raise awareness about issues of social injustice in communities in the DMV.

Locally, Snyder made a major impact during the early stages of the COVID-19 pandemic. He worked with the Maryland National Guard to set up a testing site at FedExField for Prince George's County residents, and he donated $100,000 to the Capital Area Food Bank to help underprivileged families during the national health crisis.

Snyder was also the driving force behind Washington Football's donation of $35,000 to benefit the restoration of the historic Ashburn Colored School in Loudoun County following acts of vandalism in the fall of 2016. The single-room schoolhouse, in operation from its opening in 1892 until 1957, served Black students from elementary school through high school. The donation allowed fundraising efforts to exceed their initial target of $100,000.

Snyder's support has also extended to the military community. Under his leadership, the organization created Salute, the team's official military appreciation club, to coordinate the team's decade-long military appreciation initiatives into one comprehensive, year-round platform. This first-of-its-kind program in the NFL serves, supports and thanks the military community by hosting a variety of events, including pre-game parties for military members, re-enlistment ceremonies at both team headquarters and FedExField, military appreciation events and more. Additionally, in February 2016, Snyder partnered with the Gary Sinise Foundation to break ground on a new, specially adapted smart home for Capt. Luis Avila, a veteran and Washington Football fan who was paralyzed during his time in the U.S. Army.

DANIEL M. SNYDER

In 2010, Snyder was honored by Beacon House, a non-sectarian, neighborhood-based organization that supports at-risk youth and families of the Edgewood Terrace community in Washington, D.C., during a community celebration to dedicate the football field at Edgewood Department of Parks and Recreation Center. That same year, Snyder was presented with the Youth For Tomorrow's Distinguished Leader Award in recognition of his years of support for the organization's private, residential school and counseling center in Bristow, Va., which has provided year-round care for more than 900 homeless and at-risk children ages 11-17 from Northern Virginia and the District of Columbia. In announcing the award at YFT's annual Burgundy and Gold Banquet, Hall of Fame Washington Football Coach Joe Gibbs, who is also Founder and Chairman of Youth For Tomorrow, said, "Dan Snyder began his support of the kids at Youth For Tomorrow long before I ever considered returning to coach the team in 2004."

Beyond his charitable efforts, Snyder is prominent in the affairs of the NFL, where his expertise in the fields of marketing and media has been recognized with appointments to the Media Committee, the Business Ventures Committee, the Digital Media Committee (for which he serves as Co-Chair), the International Committee, the Stadium Committee, the Hall of Fame Committee (which oversees the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio) and, separately, as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

The Washington Football team, which continues to be ranked among the world's most valuable sports franchises on Forbes magazine's annual list, remains at the forefront of NFL marketing and business organizations. Since buying the team, Snyder has launched a highly successful retail arm, with several Official Team Stores in Virginia and Maryland, as well as mobile units for home games and other events.

Snyder and Washington Football moved their annual Training Camp to Richmond, VA in the summer of 2013, hosting the team's training sessions at the brand-new Bon Secours Training Center. During the team's inaugural three-week stay, more than 165,000 fans attended walkthroughs and practices. In addition, Washington Football's community outreach included more than 5,000 kids impacted by the Charitable Foundation's Play 60 and cheerleading programs, as well as 200 high school coaches invited to a concussion clinic held by the team.

In June 2012, Snyder and the Washington Football team reaffirmed their commitment to the Commonwealth of Virginia, announcing that the team will retain its corporate headquarters by improving its Loudoun County training facility. In the years since, Snyder and the team have made annual improvements to the Inova Sports Performance Center at The Park, including upgrades to the weight room, athletic training facility, locker room, hydrotherapy stations, media availability areas and in-house cafeteria.

During Snyder's 20 seasons as owner of the team, 27 different Washington Football players have earned a total of 53 Pro Bowl appearances, nine have been named All-Pro and 13 draft picks have been selected to the All-Rookie Team. In addition, five players, Darrell Green, Bruce Smith, Deion Sanders, Champ Bailey and Jason Taylor, have gone on to induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

The team's wholly owned stadium in Landover, Md., FedExField, boasts seating capacity for 82,000 people, and Snyder continues to spearhead efforts to improve the fan experience. Since purchasing the team, Snyder has invested more than $100 million in improvements to the facility, including high-speed escalators to the upper deck, updated signage, more than 1,000 flat-screen TVs in concourses and other areas, as well as the League standard-setting Owner's Club East and Owner's Club West private luxury suites. In 2010, the team installed two new video boards – 30 feet high and 100 feet wide – in each of the end zones at FedExField. The screens feature state-of-the-art high definition LED displays and are triple the size of the previous end zone video displays. The team also enhanced the fan's gameday experience with all-new game clocks, play clocks and other in-stadium video displays.

Over the last several years, Snyder and the entire Washington Football organization have launched efforts to enhance FedExField's guest experience. Among recent successful improvements have been an increase in the number of stadium gates and new parking plans to reduce congestion and welcome fans in and out more efficiently. The team also upgraded Wi-Fi throughout the stadium, created better access to enhanced game day features on the Washington Football team mobile app and provided complimentary access to the Red Zone Channel via NFL Mobile for season ticket members.

Snyder was Founder, Chairman and CEO of Snyder Communications, Inc. and was the youngest CEO of a New York Stock Exchange company at the time. From its launch in 1985, the company grew to a global organization of 12,000 employees with 77 offices in 17 countries and more than $1 billion in annual revenues. The company's client base included 200 of the Fortune 500, to which it provided targeted marketing solutions, including advertising and marketing services. In March 2000, the company was acquired by the French marketing firm Havas for more than $2.3 billion, at the time the largest such merger in the history of the advertising/marketing industry.

Snyder is Founder and Chairman Emeritus of inVentiv Health. Additionally, Snyder is Founder and Managing Member of the Board of Red Zebra Broadcasting, LLC, which operates radio stations in Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia airing Washington Football broadcasts, popular national radio shows and local programming. Snyder is active in a variety of other private business ventures, both as an investor and as an advisor to management. He is a frequent invitee to share his experiences and views with business organizations nationwide, and he is enshrined in the Greater Washington Jewish Sports Hall of Fame.

Snyder and his wife, Tanya, have three children and live in Potomac, MD.

TANYA SNYDER

CO-OWNER AND CO-CEO

Tanya Snyder is a co-owner and co-CEO of the Washington Football Team. She is well-known for her commitment to ensuring the team is a “Champion in the Community” and has recently taken an expanded role in decision-making across the organization. She has become a catalyst for the evolution of the Washington Football Team into a franchise of the future, particularly in the total reinvention of the fan experience.

Early in the Snyders’ ownership of the team, Tanya spearheaded the creation of the Washington Football Charitable Foundation, which formally launched in 2000 and has grown to provide direct, positive impact to more than 178,000 area children each year. As the leader of the “team behind the team,” she has guided the social and community efforts together with the spouses of Washington players and coaches. Tanya doesn’t just talk about the importance of the Washington Football Team contributing to the community, she “walks the walk.” Under her stewardship, the Charitable Foundation held more than 130 events for children in the community annually in recent years.

Those who know Tanya well know that she can be found cheering on participants and giving out high-fives at as many events as possible, including the Welcome Home Luncheon, Harvest Feast presented by Ryan Homes, THINK-PINK!® Breast Cancer Awareness Days at Training Camp and FedExField, as well as the All-Stars Survivors Celebration, Share the Warmth coat giveaway, the team’s Santa Shoppe, and Play 60 fitness events. Tanya is also a champion for the Back-to-School Fair at FedExField, providing more than 500 under-resourced children with everything needed to go back to school ready to learn, including school supplies, books, haircuts, dental services, uniforms and apparel, and much more.

Recognizing the importance of women to the community of fans who support the Washington Football Team, Tanya created the “Women of Washington” (WOW) fan club in 2011. This vibrant group of 135,000 women, one of the largest and most active women’s organizations in the NFL, does extensive work with the foundation and serves as representatives for the team in the local community.

Tanya’s first love is The Washington Football Team, but her advocacy for women and underserved communities doesn’t stop there. Tanya is active with the National Football League programming and NFL platforms, most notably the NFL’s Apparel Campaign for female fans. Perhaps Tanya’s most significant initiative started in October of the 1999 season, when she and Zeta Tau Alpha (ZTA) started the THINK-PINK!® campaign for breast cancer awareness within the NFL.

“It was driven by a simple concept: one ribbon at a time and one fan at a time,” Tanya told the New York Post in 2013. Now, as the campaign enters its third decade, she aims to surpass ten million pink ribbons to fans across all 32 clubs.

As cancer awareness grew into a signature program for the NFL, the “Crucial Catch” campaign was launched to promote early detection and risk reduction. Tanya was a driving force to make cancer awareness one of the league’s primary platforms, but no one could have foreseen just how personal the fight would become. In 2008, just three months after a clear mammogram, Tanya was diagnosed with breast cancer herself. Thanks to her own “Crucial Catch,” Tanya was able to win her battle with cancer and continue her advocacy for cancer awareness and research.

Several organizations have acknowledged Tanya’s many efforts, particularly her impact in Breast Cancer Awareness, including: the Zeta Tau Alpha Foundation with the ZTA THINK-PINK!® Ambassador award in 2008, Men Against Breast Cancer with the 2012 Gloria Heyison Inspiration Award, and the American Cancer Society with “Mother of the Year” honors in 2013. Tanya has also been recognized as an honoree and speaker at such events as the American Cancer Society Cancer Action Network’s breast cancer awareness event on Capitol Hill in 2009 and Maryland

Against Breast Cancer’s Bosom Buddies Annual Ball in 2017.

The Snyders have three children and their beloved dog, Tackle. They reside in Maryland. The couple and their charitable endeavors are truly led by their mission to make a difference in their community and in the world for their fans and the National Football League.

RON RIVERA

HEAD COACH

32ND NFL SEASON (25 COACHING/9 PLAYING) // 2ND WITH WASHINGTON

Ron Rivera enters his 25th season coaching in the NFL and his second as Washington's head coach in 2021.

He was named the 30th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 1, 2020 and led Washington to their first division title since 2015. During the 2020 season Rivera was diagnosed with Squamous Cell Carcinoma (SCC) located in a lymph node and detected from a self-care check. Rivera continued to coach through his treatments and on January 28, 2021, he was declared cancer free. Rivera was selected as the NFC Coach of the Year by the Committee of 101 following the 2020 season.

A friend of legendary head coach Joe Gibbs, Rivera is a passionate and skilled leader who has earned the respect of his players, coaching staff and the community. He most recently served as the head coach of the Carolina Panthers for nine seasons, where he led the team to three straight divisional titles and an appearance in Super Bowl 50. Rivera was also recognized twice as the NFL Coach of the Year by the Associated Press in 2013 and in 2015.

Rivera inherited a 2-14 Carolina Panthers team as a rookie head coach in 2011 and guided it back to an NFC force with four playoff appearances since 2013, tied for the second-most playoff berths in the NFC over that six-year period. In that span, the Panthers recorded 58 wins, tied for the most in any six-year period in their franchise history and fifth-most in the NFL.

In 2015, Carolina won its second NFC Championship in franchise history, third consecutive NFC South division title and appeared in Super Bowl 50. Carolina finished the season with a franchise-best 17-2 record, including home playoff victories over Seattle in the divisional round and Arizona in the NFC Championship game.

Hired by the Panthers for his defensive expertise, Rivera did not disappoint as the Panthers put together five top-10 finishes in total defense in seven seasons from 2012-18. Like Rivera, the Panthers' rebound has been steady and solid, starting with six wins in his first season in 2011 and seven victories in 2012 before registering three consecutive division championships starting in 2013 when he earned his first Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year award. Laying a foundation that included back-to-back Rookie of the Year award winners in quarterback Cam Newton and linebacker Luke Kuechly, Rivera blended veteran and young talent into productive units on both sides of the ball.

Rivera helped lead a Panthers team that finished among the league's top 10 rushing offenses, including top-five finishes in 2011, 2015, 2017 and 2018. The Panthers recorded 30 consecutive regular season games with at least 100 rushing yards from Week 6 of 2014 to Week 3 of 2016, the longest streak in the NFL since Pittsburgh tallied 43 from 1974-77.

Carolina's run defense ranked in the top 10 of the NFL in 2013, 2015, 2016 and 2017. Starting in Week 14 of 2016 through Week 1 of 2018, the Panthers went 21 consecutive games without allowing a 100-yard individual rusher, setting a franchise record.

In 2018, Rivera coached two players to All-Pro selections. Panthers running back Christian McCaffrey earned AP All-Pro second-team honors as he helped the Panthers lead the NFL in rushing yards per carry (5.1). McCaffrey also recorded 107 receptions, the most by any running back in a season in NFL history and broke Steve Smith's franchise record for single-season receptions by any player. He ran for 1,098 rushing yards, becoming the third player in NFL history with over 100 receptions and 1,000 rushing yards in the same season. McCaffrey accumulated a franchise-record 1,965 scrimmage yards, ranking third in the NFL.

Linebacker Luke Kuechly earned his sixth-straight Pro Bowl selection and fifth AP All-Pro first-team honor, tied for the most among active players. Kuechly tied for third in the NFL with 20 tackles for loss. In 2017, the rushing attack helped propel the team to an 11-5 record and a Wild Card berth by averaging 131.4 yards on the ground, good for fourth in the league.

In 2015, Rivera was named NFL Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons as his team earned its third consecutive NFC South title and claimed the top seed in the NFC for the first time in Panthers franchise history. The Panthers became just the seventh team in the Super Bowl era to post a 15-1 or better record in the regular season. Carolina started 2015 with 14 consecutive victories, which, combined with four wins to close the 2014 regular season, gave the Panthers an NFC-record 18-game winning streak.

Rivera's Panthers went 12-4 and won the NFC South in 2013, Carolina's first division title since 2008. The Panthers then recovered from a 3-8-1 start in 2014 to win four in a row and capture a second consecutive NFC South crown. Prior to Rivera's arrival, Carolina had never reached the postseason in consecutive years, and no team had captured the NFC South twice in a row.

Rivera arrived in Carolina with a reputation for hard work, attention to detail and preparation. Those were also the qualities he exhibited in his first campaign as the Panthers tripled their win total from the previous season. Rivera did not even meet his team until they reported to training camp and, despite a slow start, held it together to finish with four wins in the final six games.

Rivera has shined as a coach and player during his 30-plus years in the NFL, serving as defensive coordinator for the San Diego Chargers' top-ranked defense in 2010 and playing linebacker for the Chicago Bears' top-ranked defense and Super Bowl XX championship team in 1985. In 23 seasons as a coach and nine as a player, he has been with teams that have reached the playoffs 19 times, including nine conference championships and three Super Bowls. The mentality of the Chargers defense that Rivera coached and the Bears defense on which he played has stuck with the head coach, and he has transferred it to his teams.

Rivera's character has been influenced by two innovative defensive coordinators. As a player, Rivera was coached by the late Buddy Ryan, the architect of the "46 Defense," which involved blitzing on nearly every down. As a coach, Rivera toiled under the late Jim Johnson, a highly regarded defensive coordinator renowned for his aggressive approach.

Rivera's identity also has been shaped by his family. The son of a U.S. Army officer and the second youngest of four boys, Rivera learned from a young age about chain of command and many of the principles he teaches and expects from his players. "I come from a military family where discipline isn't taught, it's lived. It's expected from day one. I have a philosophy that every player, every coach, everyone who works for this organization, they'll know it day one," Rivera said in his introductory press conference with Washington on Jan. 2.

Rivera worked with the Chargers from 2007-10. He coached inside linebackers before taking over as the team's defensive coordinator midway through the 2008 season. Under Rivera's guidance, the pass defense steadied itself - intercepting nine passes and yielding 229.6 passing yards per game and 11 touchdown passes over the final eight games. Those numbers contrasted to the first half of the season when San Diego notched just seven picks and was victimized for 265.1 yards per game and 14 touchdowns through the air. In Rivera's first full season leading the defense in 2009, the Chargers ranked 16th in total defense and 11th against the pass. Those rankings improved in 2010 as San Diego led the NFL with an average of 271.6 total yards allowed per game and gave up a league-low 177.8 passing yards per game. From 2004-06, Rivera oversaw the Chicago Bears defense, engineering the unit to two top-five finishes in the league. Under Rivera's direction, five different defensive players went to the Pro Bowl: linebacker Lance Briggs, safety Mike Brown, defensive tackle Tommie Harris, linebacker Brian Urlacher and cornerback Nathan Vasher.

In his first season as a defensive coordinator in 2004, Rivera presided over a defense that produced nine more takeaways and 17 more sacks than the previous year and scored a franchise-record and NFC-high six defensive touchdowns. The Bears also thrived on third down and buckled down inside their own 20-yard line, ranking first in the NFL in third-down efficiency (30.5 percent) and topping the NFC in red zone defense (42.6 percent). The following year, Chicago continued to build on the foundation Rivera laid in 2004. The Bears won their first of two consecutive NFC North titles and stood second in the NFL in total defense. In surrendering the fewest points in the league, Rivera's defense went 43 consecutive quarters without allowing more than seven points – the longest streak in the NFL since 1969. During Rivera's last season with the Bears in 2006, the defense paced the NFL with 44 takeaways and finished fifth in the league in total defense and third in scoring defense, helping propel Chicago to the NFC Championship and an appearance in Super Bowl XLI.

Prior to becoming a defensive coordinator, Rivera spent five seasons from 1999-2003 as the linebackers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles, who advanced to the NFC Championship game in each of his final three seasons. Twice during Rivera's tenure with the Eagles, the team finished second in the NFL in scoring defense and in 2001 held all 16 of its opponents to fewer than 21 points – making them just the fourth team in NFL history to do so.

Rivera gained his first coaching experience with the Bears as a defensive quality control coach from 1997-98. He is just the third Latino head coach in NFL history, joining Tom Flores with the Oakland Raiders from 1979-87 and Seattle Seahawks from 1992-94 and Tom Fears with the New Orleans Saints from 1967-70.

Following retirement from his playing career, Rivera went into broadcasting. He covered the Bears and college football as a television analyst for WGN and SportsChannel Chicago for four years from 1993-96.

Selected in the second round of the 1984 NFL Draft by Chicago, Rivera played all nine of his pro seasons with the Bears. Primarily an outside linebacker, he appeared in 149 games with 62 starts (including 12 postseason contests with six starts) and posted 392 tackles, 7.5 sacks, five forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries, nine interceptions and 15 passes defended. Rivera was a member of six NFC Central division title teams and a Super Bowl XX championship team in 1985.

As a player, Rivera was known for both his skill and determination on the field and his dedication of time and energy to the community. As a result, he was named the Bears' Man of the Year in 1988 and earned the club's Ed Block Courage Award in 1989. He has carried that same community commitment to coaching, sponsoring a bowling tournament to benefit the Ronald McDonald House, USO and Humane Society. He was a finalist for the 2017 Salute to Service Award, an annual award presented to NFL players, coaches, personnel and alumni who demonstrate an exemplary commitment to honoring and supporting the military community.

Rivera, who lost his brother Mickey to pancreatic cancer in 2015, also serves as a spokesman for the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network. He has twice been the honorary starter for the organization's PurpleStride 5K in Charlotte. An All-American at the University of California, Rivera finished his career as the school's all-time leader in sacks with 22 and tackles with 336. As a senior in 1983, he set the Bears' single-season record for sacks with 13 and tackles for loss with 26.5.

Born Jan. 7, 1962, in Fort Ord, Calif., Rivera lived in Germany, Panama, Washington and Maryland before his family settled in Marina, Calif. He attended Seaside High School in Seaside, Calif., and was a three-sport star in football, basketball and baseball. Rivera and his wife, Stephanie, have two children, Christopher and Courtney. Stephanie is a former assistant coach for the WNBA's Washington Mystics.

RIVERA STRONG

Throughout the 2020 NFL season, the Washington Football Team family supported their head coach by wearing "Rivera Strong" apparel that supported Ron Rivera and his battle with squamous cell carcinoma. Below is a look at how the Washington Football Team came together to support the fight against cancer:

Head Coach Ron Rivera sits in the "Coaches Corner" section of FedExField, a section filled with cardboard cutouts of staff members, fellow coaches and players that have been coached by Rivera over the years.

JASON WRIGHT

PRESIDENT

As President of the Washington Football Team, Jason Wright is responsible for leading the organization's business divisions, including operations, finance, sales, and marketing. In addition to leading a historic transformation of a sports franchise, he is the first Black team president in the history of the NFL and currently is the youngest team president in the League. He is the fourth former NFL player to become president of a team.

Prior to joining the Washington Football Team, Jason was a partner in McKinsey & Company's Washington DC office. His work focused on expanding the value of large, complex organizations through operations and culture transformations. Jason specialized in steering companies through their toughest moments - in crisis and turnaround scenarios. From systemic personnel misconduct to financial distress to COVID-19 response, Jason's tenure at McKinsey supported a range of multi-national, corporation-specific challenges, while also leading the company's global inclusion and anti-racism strategies.

His deep passion for intentional change that profoundly expands opportunities for historically marginalized populations resulted in his work co-founding McKinsey's Black Economic Institute. A research entity that analyzes the racial wealth gap, the Institute today serves as a prominent voice in public discussions regarding racial equity in corporate America. This advocacy, combined with his data- and results-oriented approaches, have been sought out by leading organizations, such as The Greater Washington Partnership, where Jason helps lead its Inclusive Growth Strategy Council as co-chair. The Inclusive Growth Strategy Council is a regional collaborative that dissects and identifies a blueprint for the region to address long-standing gaps in income, services, employment, and access to capital for lower-income populations.

Jason's commitment to faith, family, and community is marked by his service on the Board of Trustees at Union Theological Seminary, where he is helping the institution better equip a changing student body focused on community organizing and social entrepreneurship.

His leadership, passion for community change, and business acumen have been noted nationally and regionally, with Jason being awarded as a "Top 40 under 40" by Black Enterprise magazine, Sports Business Journal's "Best Hire of 2020," and standing as a member of The Economic Club of Washington D.C., where he serves alongside DC-based executives supporting a range of initiatives in the DMV.

Jason spent seven years as a running back in the NFL and was team captain and NFLPA player representative for the Arizona Cardinals during the 2011 NFL lockout. He has a B.A. in psychology from Northwestern University, where he was an Academic All-American student athlete, a two-time All-Big Ten football selection, and the president of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He received his M.B.A. in Operations and Finance with honors, from the University of Chicago-Booth School of Business.

FOOTBALL STAFF SENIOR LEADERSHIP

GENERAL MANAGER

32ND NFL SEASON (9 PLAYING/23 FRONT OFFICE) // 5TH WITH WASHINGTON

Martin Mayhew enters his first season as General Manager of the Washington Football Team after being hired by the organization on January 22, 2021.

Mayhew joins Washington with 22 seasons of NFL experience as an executive, including eight seasons as the general manager of the Detroit Lions. He returns to the franchise that he played for from 1989-92 and was a member of the Super Bowl XXVI team.

“Martin is a proven general manager who will bring a wealth of knowledge and experience to the organization,” said Head Coach Ron Rivera. “He will be an integral part of running the daily football operations and will allow me the opportunity to focus more on coaching. He impressed both myself and Mr. Snyder during the interview process and we both believe he will be a tremendous fit here. He is a man of high character and integrity and was part of the rich history and tradition of this great franchise as a member of the Super Bowl championship team in 1991.”

Mayhew spent the previous four season with the San Francisco 49ers, most recently as the club’s vice president of player personnel. He held the position of senior personnel executive for the franchise from 2017-18. Mayhew assisted first-time general manager John Lynch and was a major contributor to a personnel department that was vital in the team’s Super Bowl appearance in 2019.

Prior to joining San Francisco, Mayhew spent the 2016 season as the director of football operations/special projects with the New York Giants. In his role with the Giants, he worked on all aspects of the salary cap, CBA compliance and player contract negotiations.

Prior to his time in New York, Mayhew spent 15 years (2001-15) in the Detroit Lions organization, including the final seven as the team’s general manager. He took over as the general manager following Detroit’s winless season and oversaw the building of a roster that resulted in a 10-win season in 2011 and an 11-win season in 2014.

During Mayhew’s tenure as Lions general manager, he was responsible for the draft selections of Pro Bowlers QB Matthew Stafford, DE Ezekiel Ansah and DT Ndamukong Suh. Suh was a four-time Pro Bowler and three-time First Team All-Pro selection with Detroit and was the 2010 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Mayhew was also responsible for signing WR Golden Tate and S Glover Quin in free agency, both of whom went on to earn Pro Bowl honors in Detroit.

Mayhew first joined the Lions organization in 2001 as the senior director of football administration/staff counsel and was promoted to senior vice president of football administration/staff counsel in 2003. Mayhew was appointed senior vice president and assistant general manager in 2004. In 2008, Mayhew was promoted to general manager.

Mayhew played nine seasons in the NFL and was originally selected by the Buffalo Bills in the 10th round (262nd overall) in the 1988 NFL Draft. During Mayhew’s nine-year career, he appeared in 118 games (107 starts) for Buffalo (1988), Washington (1989-92) and Tampa Bay (1993-96) and notched 473 tackles, 21 interceptions, 1.0 sack and four forced fumbles. He started at cornerback for the Super Bowl XXVI champion Washington Redskins.

Mayhew is a native of Tallahassee, Fla. and graduated from Florida State University with a degree in business management and also holds a law degree from Georgetown University. At Florida State, he lettered in both football and track. Mayhew interned for Washington’s personnel department in 1999 while in law school at Georgetown. He also held labor and legal department internships with the NFL League Office before joining the Detroit Lions.

MARTY HURNEY

EVP OF FOOTBALL/PLAYER PERSONNEL

30TH NFL SEASON // 3RD WITH WASHINGTON

Marty Hurney enters his first season as Executive Vice President of Football/Player Personnel of the Washington Football Team after being hired by the organization on January 22, 2021.

Hurney joins Washington with 29 seasons of NFL experience as an executive and will rejoin the franchise where he started his NFL career as a member of the team's public relations department.

"Marty Hurney is an excellent evaluator of talent and someone whom I trust and have worked with in the past," said Head Coach Ron Rivera. "He knows the amount of hard work it takes to operate a successful personnel department. Marty has a proven track record as a successful scout and general manager and will be a vital part of shaping our roster. Both myself and Mr. Snyder agreed that he would bring an enormous amount of experience to our operation. It is also fitting that Marty started his career here working for the legendary Bobby Beathard. I look forward to collaborating with both Marty and Martin in the years to come."

Hurney was named the Carolina Panthers General Manager in 2002 and held the position until 2012. He was then brought back as the club's interim general manager in 2017 and maintained the official role from 2018-2020. During Hurney's tenure as general manager, the Panthers appeared in the postseason four times, with two NFC South titles, two trips to the NFC Championship game and an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVIII.

Hurney has had a strong number of draft selections in the first round. Most notably, he selected both QB Cam Newton and LB Luke Kuechly in the first round of consecutive drafts in 2011 and 2012. Newton went on to win NFL Rookie of the Year in 2011, NFL MVP in 2015 along with setting nearly every passing and rushing record in franchise history. Kuechly won NFL Rookie of the Year in 2012 and NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2013 and was a seven-time Pro Bowl selection. Carolina was just the fourth team in NFL history to have consecutive players win rookie of the year honors since the awards inception in 1967.

Hurney's other notable first round selections include DE Julius Pepper (2002), T Jordan Gross (2003), CB Chris Gamble (2004), LB Thomas Davis Sr. (2005), RB DeAngelo Williams (2006), RB Jonathan Stewart (2008), WR DJ Moore (2018) and DE Brian Burns (2019). Peppers was selected to the Pro Bowl nine times, was the NFL Rookie of the Year in 2002 and is the Panthers' all-time leader in sacks. Gross started at tackle for the Panthers for 11 consecutive seasons, made three Pro Bowls and is the Panthers' all-time leader in games started. Gamble started at cornerback for the Panthers for nine seasons and is the all-time franchise leader in interceptions. Davis Sr. was selected to three Pro Bowls along with gaining First Team All-Pro honors in 2015 and is the Panthers all-time leader in tackles. Stewart and Williams went on to compile 7,318 rushing yards and 6,846 rushing yards, which is No. 1 and No. 2 in Panthers' history, respectively. Moore has led Carolina in receiving and posted 1,000-plus receiving yards in consecutive seasons and was selected to the PFWA All-Rookie Team in 2018. Burns ranked No. 4 among rookies in sacks in 2019 and led the Panthers with 9.0 sacks in 2020.

During Hurney's tenure as Panthers GM, he also had considerable success in free agency and through trades. Hurney executed trades for TE Greg Olsen and long snapper J.J. Jansen who were both Pro Bowlers. Olsen holds the franchise record for receiving yards among tight ends and ranks No. 3 overall in receiving yards in franchise history. He also acquired RB Stephen Davis, QB Jake Delhomme, LB Mark Fields and G Mike Wahle via free agency. All four players were named to Pro Bowls during their time with Carolina. Delhomme ranks second behind only Cam Newton as the franchise's leader in passing yards and passing touchdowns.

Prior to being named general manager of the Panthers in 2002, Hurney held the position of coordinator of player operations from 1999-2001 and director of football administration in 1998.

Before joining the Carolina Panthers organization, Hurney held the role of coordinator of football operations with the San Diego Chargers under Pro Football Hall of Fame and Washington Ring of Fame executive Bobby Beathard.

Hurney began his career as a reporter covering Washington in the 1980s. After developing relationships with Owner Jack Kent Cooke, General Manager Bobby Beathard and Head Coach Joe Gibbs, Hurney joined Washington's public relations department in 1988.

Hurney is a native of Wheaton, Md. and attended Catholic University in Washington D.C. Before joining Washington's public relations department, he worked for the Montgomery Journal, Washington Star and Washington Times.

- Jack Del Rio enters his 23rd season coaching in the NFL and his second as Washington's Defensive Coordinator in 2021 after being named to the position on January 2, 2020.
- In 2020, Del Rio helped lead a defense that ranked in the top 10 in total yards per game (6th), passing yards per game (5th), interception rate (8th), redzone percentage (3rd) and total points per game (7th).
- Del Rio has accumulated 33 combined seasons of NFL experience, including 22 as a coach and 11 as a player. He has held head coaching roles with the Oakland Raiders, Denver Broncos and Jacksonville Jaguars. He has also coached 29 players to a total of 57 Pro Bowl selections.
- From 2015-17, Del Rio was the Head Coach of the Oakland Raiders. In 2016, he guided the Raiders to a 12-4 record, marking the franchise's first 12-win season since 2000. The Raiders earned a postseason berth for the first time since 2002 and landed an NFL-high seven players on the AFC Pro Bowl squad. Del Rio was selected as the recipient of the Maxwell Club's Greasy Neale Professional Coach of the Year Award, becoming the sixth Raiders coach to earn NFL Coach of the Year honors. In addition, he was named the AFC Coach of the Year by Kansas City's Committee of 101.
- As defensive coordinator with the Denver Broncos from 2012-14, Del Rio was part of three-straight AFC West titles and helped lead Denver to an AFC Championship and appearance in Super Bowl XLVIII following the 2013 campaign. It marked his second stint under Head Coach John Fox, as the two also spent the 2002 season together in Carolina.
- Prior to joining the Broncos in 2012, Del Rio spent nine seasons at the helm in Jacksonville. During his head coaching tenure (2003-11) with the Jaguars, the club ranked sixth in the NFL in yards per game allowed (317.3) and eighth in points per game allowed (20.3).
- Under Del Rio, the Jaguars made two playoff appearances in 2005 and 2007, highlighted by the club's first postseason win in eight seasons with a 31-29 road victory against the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 2007 AFC Wild Card Game.
- During his lone season as a defensive coordinator with Carolina in 2002, he inherited the NFL's worst defense statistically (371.4 yards per game allowed) and turned it into the league's second-ranked unit (290.4 yards per game allowed). Additionally, the 2002 Panthers squad led the NFL in rushing average against (3.7 avg.) and ranked second in third down efficiency (32.9 percent) and sacks (52).
- As linebackers coach for the Baltimore Ravens from 1999-2001, Del Rio tutored a talented group that included Peter Boulware, Ray Lewis and Jamie Sharper. Baltimore's 2000 team set the NFL 16-game record by allowing only 165 points while recording four shutouts and forcing a league-best 49 turnovers. Lewis was named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year and the MVP of Super Bowl XXXV that season after a playoff run in which the defense surrendered just one touchdown in four games.
- Del Rio began his coaching career with the New Orleans Saints under Head Coach Mike Ditka, serving as an assistant strength coach in 1997 before moving on to coach the linebackers in 1998.
- A veteran of 11 seasons as an NFL linebacker, he was selected in the third round (68th overall) of the 1985 NFL Draft by New Orleans and went on to make the NFL's All-Rookie Team and earn the Saints' Rookie of the Year award.
- Del Rio was a four-year starter at the University of Southern California, where he earned consensus All-American honors as a senior and was runner-up for the Lombardi Award, given to the nation's best lineman or linebacker. Named co-MVP of the 1985 Rose Bowl, Del Rio recorded 340 career defensive stops, including 58 tackles for a loss. A standout catcher on the USC baseball team, Del Rio was drafted by the Toronto Blue Jays in 1981. He was inducted into the USC Athletic Hall of Fame in May 2015.
- Del Rio was a three-sport star in football, baseball and basketball at Hayward (Calif.) High School. He earned a degree in political science from the University of Kansas while playing for the Chiefs.
- Del Rio and his wife, Linda, have three daughters, Lauren, Hope and Aubrey, and a son, Luke, who also works for Washington as an offensive quality control coach.

2013-15	Special Teams Coordinator	Tennessee Titans
2016-18	Special Teams Coordinator	Tampa Bay Buccaneers
2019-Pres.	Special Teams Coordinator	Washington Football Team

- Nate Kaczor (pronounced Kat-sir) enters his third season as special teams coordinator with Washington in 2021. He will be entering his 14th NFL season and has held positions with the Jacksonville Jaguars, Tennessee Titans and Tampa Bay Buccaneers during his NFL career.
- In 2020, Kaczor helped standout punter Tress Way record the highest single season net punting average [44.3] in franchise history. Way broke his own record from 2019 [44.1], also under the direction of Kaczor. Way also set a franchise record for most punting yards in a single game, punting 10 times for 511 yards against the Rams in Week 5. Washington led the league in net punting yards in 2020 with 3,325.
- In 2019, Kaczor helped guide punter Tress Way to his first Pro Bowl selection. Way was also named to the Associated Press All-Pro Second Team. Way finished the season No. 2 in net average (44.1) and No. 2 in punt yardage (3,919) and No. 7 in punts inside the 20 yard line (30). Under Kaczor's guidance, Washington ranked No. 4 in the league in kickoff return average (25.2) and No. 5 in kickoff return yardage (833) despite fielding one of the league's youngest rosters.
- Under Kaczor's guidance, Tress Way became the first Washington punter since Matt Turk in 1997 to be named to the Pro Bowl. Steven Sims Jr. (NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Week 12) and Tress Way (NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Week 13) were also the first players in the history of the franchise to receive the honor of NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in consecutive weeks.
- During Kaczor's three seasons with Tampa Bay, the Buccaneers were one of the top punt coverage units in the NFL, allowing only 6.6 yards per return, the fourth-lowest mark in the league during that span.
- Punter Bryan Anger was a standout during Kaczor's tenure with the Buccaneers. In his first year with the team, Anger set Buccaneers records for both punts inside the 20 (37) and net punting average (42.7), with both of those ranking in the top five in the NFL in 2016. In the three seasons that Anger spent under Kaczor's tutelage, Anger ranked top 15 in the league in punts inside the 20 and net average while only recording 14 touchbacks.
- Kaczor came to Tampa Bay having spent the previous four seasons with the Tennessee Titans, the final three as the teams' special teams coordinator (2013-15) after being hired as the assistant offensive line coach in his first season (2012). In 2015, the Titans tied for the NFL lead in special teams takeaways, while in 2013 Kaczor's unit ranked third in the league in opponent punt return average and eighth in kickoff return average.
- Kaczor entered the NFL as an assistant special teams coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars, working there from 2008-11. During those four years, Jacksonville had one of the league's top special teams coverage units, allowing the lowest punt return average in the NFL (6.5 avg.) and the eighth-lowest kickoff return average (21.8 avg.). In each of Kaczor's final two seasons, Montell Owens earned Pro Bowl recognition as a special teams player.
- Prior to joining the NFL, Kaczor spent 17 years coaching in college, the final two working as co-offensive coordinator (2007) and tight ends coach (2006) at Louisiana-Monroe. In his only season as co-offensive coordinator, the team ranked second in the Sun Belt Conference in rushing offense and averaged its most points scored since 1993.
- Before his time at Louisiana-Monroe, Kaczor spent two seasons (2004-05) as the co-offensive coordinator/tight ends coach at Idaho and four seasons as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Nebraska-Kearney (2000-03). Kaczor began his coaching career as an offensive assistant at his alma mater, Utah State, working as an offensive assistant for nine seasons (1991-99), helping the team win three conference championships.
- A center at Utah State, Kaczor was a team captain, who earned all-conference honors in 1989. A native of Scott City, Kansas, he and his wife, Angie, have two children, Kaylee and Micah.

Scott Turner

Offensive Coordinator

DOB: August 7, 1982 Los Angeles, Calif. 10th NFL Season/2nd Washington

Football Timeline

2002-04	Quarterback	UNLV
2005	Graduate Assistant	Oregon State
2008-10	Offensive Assistant	Pitt

2018-19	Quarterbacks Coach	Carolina Panthers
2019	Interim OC (wks. 14-17)	Carolina Panthers
2020-Pres.	Offensive Coordinator	Washington Football Team

- Scott Turner is entering his second season as the offensive coordinator with Washington after being hired on January 8, 2020. He will be entering his 10th NFL season and has held positions with the Carolina Panthers, Cleveland Browns and Minnesota Vikings during his NFL career.
- Turner highlighted the versatility of the running back room last season. He guided two running backs with 950-plus scrimmage yards in a season for the third time in franchise history, and first since Joe Washington and John Riggins did so in 1983.
- In Turner's offense, running back J.D. McKissic recorded the second-most receptions [80] and fifth-most receiving yards [589] for a running back in a season in franchise history.
- Washington started four different quarterbacks during the 2020 season, combining for the second-most completions in a single season in franchise history [389].
- Under Turner's tutelage, two players amassed 1,000 yards in 2020. Running back Antonio Gibson became the first Washington rookie to gain 1,000 scrimmage yards since Alfred Morris in 2012, as Terry McLaurin became the first Washington wide receiver with 1,000 yards in a season since 2016.
- The offense in Washington took leaps in the second half of last season, registering 2,916 second-half scrimmage yards. It marks the seventh-most in a single season in club history and most since 2016 [3,635], since the stat was officially recorded in 1991.
- Turner came to Washington from Carolina, where he served as quarterbacks coach as well as interim offensive coordinator in 2019.
- In 2018, Turner helped quarterback Cam Newton post a franchise-record 67.9 completion percentage, despite playing through injury. The Panthers finished 10th in the league in net yards [373.3], the second-highest season average in club history.
- Turner served as quarterbacks coach with the Minnesota Vikings from 2014-16, helping quarterback Sam Bradford to set a then-NFL record in completion percentage [71.6].
- In 2014, he assisted Teddy Bridgewater in setting virtually every franchise rookie passing record, and producing the third-best completion percentage [64.6] and seventh-highest passer rating [85.2] in NFL history for a rookie.
- As the wide receivers coach for the Cleveland Browns in 2013, Turner helped Josh Gordon to become the first Browns player in history to lead the NFL in receiving yards [1,646] and became the first player in NFL history with back-to-back 200-yard receiving games.
- In 2013, Turner coached wide receivers for the Cleveland Browns, helping Josh Gordon to the best receiving season in Browns history. Despite appearing in just 14 games, he became the first player in Browns history to lead the NFL in receiving yards [1,646].
- Turner entered NFL coaching with two seasons as offensive quality control coach for the Panthers in 2011 and 2012. The Panthers recorded two of the top four seasons in franchise history in terms of net yards, setting the all-time mark with 389.8 yards per game in 2011 and 360.7 in 2012. Newton was named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year in 2011. His 14 rushing touchdowns broke the NFL record for rushing touchdowns by a quarterback and were just one shy of the NFL record of rushing touchdowns by a rookie.
- Prior to Turner's first stint in Carolina, he spent three seasons at the University of Pittsburgh, two as an offensive assistant and the last as wide receivers coach. Turner made his coaching debut in 2005 as a graduate assistant at Oregon State before serving as the offensive coordinator at South County (Va.) Secondary School from 2006-07.
- A three-year letterman at Nevada-Las Vegas from 2002-04, Turner graduated with a degree in psychology. He served as a reserve quarterback for the Rebels as a junior and senior and played on special teams as a sophomore after being redshirted as a freshman. He earned his college degree in psychology from UNLV in 2006.
- Turner is the son of former NFL Coach Norv Turner. The two previously coached together in Carolina, Minnesota and Cleveland. Turner graduated from Oakton High School in Vienna, Va. when his father was the Head Coach of the Washington Football Team. He and his wife, Robyn, have two children – a son, Harry [6] and a daughter, Rose [4].

2020-Pres	Tight Ends	Washington Football Team

- Pete Hoener enters his 23rd season of coaching in the NFL and his second season as Washington's tight ends coach in 2021.
- In 2020, Hoener played a critical role in the development of TE Logan Thomas, who hauled in the fourth-most receptions in a single season [72] for a tight end in Washington franchise history. Thomas also recorded 670 yards, becoming the first tight end for Washington to record 650-plus yards since Jordan Reed did so in 2016. In Week 15 against the Seahawks, Thomas had 13 receptions for 101 yards. His receptions were the most for a tight end in a game in franchise history, and tied for the second-most among all players in a single game in the club's history.
- Prior to joining Washington, Hoener spent the past nine years as tight ends coach with the Carolina Panthers (2011-19) under current Washington head coach Ron Rivera. Prior to coaching at Carolina, he held coaching roles with the San Francisco 49ers (2005-10), Chicago Bears (2004) and Arizona Cardinals (2002-03).
- Hoener spent nine seasons as Carolina's tight ends coach, overseeing one of the most prominent positions in the offense. Under Hoener's tutelage, TE Greg Olsen became one of the top tight ends in the NFL. Hoener helped Olsen obtain the top five single-season receptions totals and the top four single-season receiving yards totals by a tight end in Panthers franchise history. Olsen's 10 100-yard receiving games are the most by a tight end in Carolina history.
- Along with his NFL experience, Hoener coached 24 years on the college level as an offensive line coach and offensive coordinator. Beginning as a graduate assistant at Missouri in 1975, he then coached the offensive line at each of his next seven stops: Illinois State (1977), Indiana State (1978-84), Illinois (1987-88), Purdue (1989-91), Texas Christian (1992-97) and Iowa State (1998-99).
- Hoener played tight end and defensive end at Bradley, where he earned a degree in physical education. Hoener and his wife, Marianne, have three daughters: Jennifer, Kathleen and Lisa. Last name is pronounced HAY-NER.

- Jim Hostler enters his 22nd season of coaching in the NFL and his second season in Washington. After holding the position of wide receivers coach in 2020, Hostler was promoted to the role of senior offensive assistant following the 2020 campaign.
- In 2020, Hostler assisted multiple receivers in achieving career-highs including second-year wide receiver Terry McLaurin as he became the first 1,000-yard receiver for Washington since 2016, and first to do so in 13 games since 2013. Hostler also assisted wide receiver Cam Sims in setting career-highs in almost every category, helping him register 251 YAC, the most in a single season for an undrafted Washington receiver in franchise history.
- Prior to arriving in Washington, Hostler spent 20 years in the NFL coaching ranks with the Panthers, Packers, Colts, Bills, Ravens, 49ers, Jets, Saints and Chiefs.
- In 2019 with Carolina, Hostler led the Panthers receiving corps to top-10 finishes in receiving yards, receptions, receiving yards per game and receptions per game.
- Hostler developed the Ravens receiving group from 2008-13, which played an integral role in the team's Super Bowl XLVII win. During the 2012 campaign, Baltimore's wideouts registered the second-most receiving yards in a season in franchise history to that point.
- Before joining the NFL coaching ranks, Hostler spent 10 seasons coaching at the college level, including nine seasons (1990-92, 1994-99) in a variety of roles at Indiana University of Pennsylvania. In between stints at IUP, Hostler spent the 1993 season as offensive coordinator at Juniata College.
- A four-year letterman and two-time Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference all-conference selection, Hostler was a standout cornerback at IUP from 1986-89. During his collegiate playing career, he helped the Indians capture two conference titles and make three trips to the PSAC Division II playoffs.
- He earned a bachelor's degree in criminology from IUP in 1989. Born in Pittsburgh, Pa., Hostler attended Bethel Park High School in Pittsburgh. He and his wife, Jen, have three sons, Clint, Grant and Cooper, and a daughter, Attie.

2008-11	Running Backs Coach	Texas A&M
2012-13	Running Backs Coach	North Carolina
2014-Pres.	Running Backs Coach	Washington Football Team

- Randy Jordan enters his eighth season as Washington's running back coach in 2021 after initially being named to the position on January 26, 2014.
- In 2020, Jordan contributed to the development of rookie running back Antonio Gibson and veteran running back J.D. McKissic in both the run and pass game. Under Jordan's tutelage, Gibson rushed for the second-most touchdowns for a rookie in franchise history [11] and became only the second Washington player to rush for 11 touchdowns and record 1,000-plus scrimmage yards in their rookie season [Alfred Morris]. Both running backs finished with over 950 scrimmage yards, only the second time in franchise history two running backs achieved the feat, and the first time since 1983.
- A nine-year NFL veteran as a player from 1993-2002, Jordan appeared in 122 career games with the Raiders and Jaguars. He was the recipient of the NFL Unsung Hero Award and the Ed Block Courage Award in 2001 and served as special teams captain for the Raiders' AFC Championship team in 2002.
- Before joining Washington, Jordan spent two years as the running backs coach at his alma mater, North Carolina. In his first season with UNC in 2012, Jordan's Tar Heels averaged 193.8 rushing yards per game, third-most in the Atlantic Coast Conference and the program's highest average since 1994. That season, he tutored tailback Giovani Bernard to one of the best seasons in UNC history, helping Bernard average 122.8 rushing yards per game, most in the ACC and 11th in the nation.
- Jordan coached running backs at Texas A&M for four seasons from 2008-11. In 2011, the Aggies averaged 199.1 rushing yards per game, fourth-most in the Big 12 Conference, and had two different backs – Cyrus Gray and Christine Michael – finish among the top five in the conference in rushing yards per game.
- Jordan began his coaching career with the Oakland Raiders as a special teams assistant midway through the 2003 season. He played nine years in the NFL as a running back, playing in 122 career games from 1993 through 2002.
- Jordan played running back for the University of North Carolina and earned his bachelor's degree in speech communication in 1993. Jordan and his wife, Romonda, have a daughter, Raven – a volleyball player at the University at Buffalo – and two sons, Jalen and Justin.

Malcolm Blacken

Senior Director Player Development

25th NFL Season/16th Washington

- Malcolm Blacken is entering his second season as Senior Director of Player Development after serving seven seasons as Director of Player Development for Washington. Blacken was named to the elevated position on January 9, 2020.
- Blacken's hiring served to start his third stint with Washington after having previously served as a strength and conditioning coach for Washington on two occasions (1996-2000 and 2010). In his last season in Washington in 2010, Blacken was responsible for assisting with all aspects of the Washington strength and conditioning program.
- In his current role, Blacken guides the development and education of Washington players as it pertains to both their personal and professional lives. His guidance covers topics including but not limited to: financial education; healthy and unhealthy relationships; total wellness and mental health; league policies on substance abuse, performance enhancing drugs and personal conduct; social responsibility; social media; decision making; stress and time management; team history and tradition; and the expectations of being a player in the National Football League.
- In addition, Blacken works hand-in-hand with Washington's Charitable Foundation and was a principal figure in instituting the team's Rookie Community Club, which annually takes the team's rookies and immediately integrates them into the Washington, D.C. area community through a series of service efforts. He also provides assistance with continuing education and offers guidance for players' academic pursuits.
- From 2011-12, Blacken served as Director of Speed, Strength & Conditioning for the University of Colorado. He worked directly with the football program on a day-to-day basis while overseeing the speed, strength and conditioning needs of all 16 of Colorado's varsity programs.
- In between his first two stops in Washington, Blacken spent nine years as the Detroit Lions' strength and conditioning coach from 2001-09. Blacken was an assistant strength coach for the University of Virginia's football program in 1995 and worked with all other sports in the Cavaliers' athletic department as well. For three years (1992-94), Blacken served as the head strength and conditioning coach for George Mason University, where he oversaw the program for all of the university's varsity sports.
- Blacken began his coaching career at the University of South Carolina in 1990-91 as the football program's assistant strength and conditioning coach.
- Blacken graduated from Virginia Tech in 1989 with bachelor's degrees in art and physical education. He was a Hokies running back from 1984-88 and was a four-time letter winner. While at Virginia Tech, Blacken was a two-time winner of the Super Iron Hokie Award (1987-88), which is given yearly to the football program's strongest player at each position.
- Off the field, Blacken is an accomplished artist whose paintings have been displayed across the country. Recently, he participated in the 2016 NFLPA Smocks and Jocks art auction in Houston for Super Bowl LI and the 2019 NFLPA Smocks and Jocks art auction in Atlanta for Super Bowl LIII, with proceeds donated to the retired players fund. More about Blacken's art can be accessed by visiting ArtByMalcolm.com.
- Blacken currently resides in Ashburn, Va., with his wife, Marcy. The couple has two children, Maya and Bo.

Before The NFL

Before joining Washington, Bada played for the Schwäbisch Hall Unicorns of the German Football League. As a defensive end, he helped lead the team to a German title in 2018 and again back to the final in 2019.

Before joining the Unicorns, BAda played for the Ingolstadt Dukes, also in the GFL.

He started his career with his hometown Munich Cowboys in the GFL in 2014.

Player Pathway

Bada competed for an NFL roster spot in 2019 through the NFL's International Player Pathway Program.

Instituted in 2017, the program aims to provide elite international athletes the opportunity to compete at the NFL level, improve their skills, and ultimately earn a spot on an NFL roster.

"Since its creation in 2017, this program has been a part of the league's continuous efforts to strengthen the pipeline of international players in the NFL," said Damani Leech, NFL Chief Operating Officer of International. "We look forward to providing athletes from around the world with the opportunity to showcase their skills as we continue to grow the game globally."

Career Highlights

2020 (WAS)

Became the 16th player in Washington history to register at least four interceptions and 11 passes defended in a season, and first since DeAngelo Hall in 2013.

His four interceptions tied a single-season career-high. His combined eight interceptions from his 2016 and 2020 seasons in Washington are the most for a Washington player in that span.

Fuller intercepted passes in three consecutive games for the first time in his career in Weeks 4-6 and became the first Washington player to notch an interception in three consecutive weeks since London Fletcher did so in 2012.

In Week 4, Fuller had two interceptions and two passes defended. It was his first-career multi-interception game and his first interception since picking off QB Jimmy Garoppolo in Super Bowl LIV.

2019 (KC)

Intercepted Jimmy Garoppolo in Super Bowl LIV to help Kansas City win their first Super Bowl since 1970.

Recorded his only career sack against Oakland, a seven yard sack.

2018 (KC)

Recorded a career-high four passes defended in a win against Baltimore on December 9th.

2016 (WAS)

Made his NFL Debut. Became the fourth brother in his family to appear in the NFL, helping the Fullers join the Browners as only the second set of four brothers to all play in the NFL.

Personal Life

High School - Our Lady of Good Counsel in Olney, Md.

Highlights - As a senior, he was named the Gatorade Player of the Year for the state of Maryland, was selected to the U.S. Army All-American Game and was the U.S. Army All-American Defensive Player of the Year and was named All-Met Offensive Player of the Year by the Washington Post.

Family - His three older brothers also played for Virginia Tech - Vincent, Corey and Kyle. Vincent played seven years (2005-11) for the Tennessee Titans and Detroit Lions. Corey played for the Detroit Lions and the New Orleans Saints (2013-17). Kyle was drafted in the first round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears, where he has played since.

Career Highlights

In his first season with the Titans in 2019, he finished third on the squad with 37 receptions for 374 yards with two touchdowns. After completing his four-year career at Clemson, Humphries signed a rookie free agent deal with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and spent his first four NFL campaigns with the club (2015-18), registering 219 receptions for 2,329 yards and nine touchdowns.

In 2019, Humphries ranked third on the team with 37 receptions in his first season as a Titan.

In 2018, Humphries set career highs in his final season in Tampa Bay with 76 receptions for 816 yards and five touchdowns.

Humphries has recorded two 100-plus receiving games in his career, with his coming on New Year's Eve in 2017 when he posted a career-high 102 yards on seven receptions.

On Nov. 4, 2018, Humphries recorded a single-game high two touchdowns against the Panthers. It was the first and is the only multi-touchdown game of his career.

College

Played in 53 games with 27 starts at Clemson (2011-14) and totaled 127 receptions for 1,097 yards and three touchdowns, 10 carries for 24 yards and one touchdown and 69 punt returns for 476 yards and one touchdown.

When he graduated tied for the fourth-most games played in Clemson school history.

As a senior (2014), was named a permanent co-captain.

Played in 13 games with 12 starts and recorded 30 receptions for 204 yards, five carries for five yards and one touchdown and 31 punt returns for 178 yards and one touchdown.

Personal

High School - Attended Dorman (Roebuck, S.C.) High School and played running back, tailback, quarterback, wide receiver, safety and cornerback in addition to being a kick returner over his four-year career.

Highlights - Notched 34 carries for 178 yards and 11 touchdowns, giving him 15 total touchdowns, and added seven kickoff returns for 155 yards. On defense, collected 32 tackles, nine pass breakups and three interceptions.

2020 (TEN)

Played in seven games with one start at wide receiver and caught 23 passes for 228 yards with two touchdowns. Was inactive for four contests and spent one game on the reserve/COVID-19 list. Placed on injured reserve on Dec. 8 and missed the final four regular season games and the postseason contest. Led the team in receptions once in 2020.

2019 (TEN)

Saw action in 12 games with three starts at wide receiver in his first season with the Titans. He finished third on the squad with 37 receptions for 374 yards with two touchdowns.

2018 (TB)

Played in all 16 games with 10 starts and caught 76 passes for 816 yards and five touchdowns. His 76 receptions and 816 receiving yards are both career-highs and each established new single-season franchise records for an undrafted player.

2017 (TB)

Saw action in all 16 games for the first time in his career and posted 54 receptions for 529 yards with one touchdown.

2016 (TB)

Saw action in 15 games with four starts and collected 55 receptions for 622 yards and two touchdowns. Returned 24 punt returns for 237 yards.

2015 (TB)

Played in 13 games as a rookie and produced 27 catches for 260 yards with a touchdown.

2016 5th Round [152]

Career Highlights

Played in three games in 2020, tallying seven tackles (five solo), 1.5 sacks for a loss of 8.5 yards, four quarterback hits and two tackles for loss.

Recorded 1.5 sacks in Week 1 of 2020 against the Eagles, the fourth time in his career with multiple sacks in a single game.

His 22.0 sacks rank as the fifth-most through a player's first 57-career games in Washington and his 48 quarterback hits rank as the third-most through a player's first 57-career games in Washington.

Tallied four contests with multiple sacks, tied for the fourth-most in a player's first 57-career games in Washington.

College

Played collegiately at Temple from 2012-15, appearing in 44 career games for the Owls.

Posted 118 career tackles (77 solo, 30.0 for loss), 10.0 sacks, eight pass breakups and a forced fumble.

A two-time team captain, started every game in 2015, earning first-team All-AAC honors and being named a third-team All-American by Phil Steele.

Led all Temple defensive linemen with 47 tackles and led the entire defense with 11.0 tackles for loss.

Named second-team All-AAC... Changed his number from No. 95 to No. 9 in keeping with school tradition that dictates single-digit numbers be given to the toughest players on the team.

Personal

High School - Attended Hunterdon Central Regional H.S. in Flemington, N.J.

Highlights - Was a 2011 Newark Star-Ledger second-team all-state selection, a first-team all-state Group 4 honoree, and all-West Jersey honoree.

Community - In 2016, participated in recess events alongside 200 students from various D.C. schools at a Play 60 event. Read class favorites to middle school students and also served as a judge for a touchdown dance committee at Raymond Education Campus in Washington, D.C., and participated in a financial literacy course hosted by eighth grade students at Kenmoor Middle School at Junior Achievement's Finance Park in Hyattsville, Md.

Career Highlights

Selected by the Cincinnati Bengals in the first round (24th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft.

Since 2017, the Bengals have held opposing passers to a 62.8 completion percentage, the seventh-lowest in the NFL during that span.

His 75-yard interception touchdown return in 2017 is the 10th longest interception return touchdown by a cornerback since that season.

During the return, Jackson reached a speed of 21.52 MPH, the fastest speed by a Bengals ball carrier that season and the seventh-fastest league wide.

According to Pro Football Focus, Jackson has recorded a 72.0 coverage grade or higher in three of his first four seasons.

Since 2017, Jackson has tallied three interceptions for 124 yards. His 124 yards are the most by a cornerback with three or fewer interceptions.

College

Started 12 games while appearing in 13 at cornerback in 2015.

Led the nation and set a Houston single-season record with 23 pass breakups ... also led the nation in passes defended with 28, finishing 20th with five interceptions ... finished his career third on the UH career passes broken up chart with 40 despite only playing three seasons.

In 2014, appeared in all 13 games in the 2014 season, making 12 starts at corner ... was second in the league with 10 breakups ... had two interceptions ... tallied 37 tackles, one fumble recovery and a forced fumble

Personal

High School - Attended Wheatley High School in Houston, Tx.

Highlights - Was a star DB as well as WR where he tallied 35 receptions for 626 yards and 10 touchdowns as a junior and senior.

Jackson majored in Sociology at Houston and his hobbies include horseback riding.

2020 (CIN)

On Sept. 17, Jackson intercepted a Baker Mayfield pass deep in Bengals territory and returned it 30 yards to help set up a Bengals TD drive. He posted a season-high six tackles on Nov. 15, 2020 at Pittsburgh. Jackson also logged season-high three PDs on Dec. 6, 2020 at Miami.

2019 (CIN)

Played in 14 games (13 starts), while battling a shoulder injury. Totaled 37 tackles, three PDs and one INT. In Game 2 vs. San Francisco, picked off QB Jimmy Garoppolo and returned it 19 yards. According to NFL's Next Gen Stats, he reached a speed of 21.33 MPH on the runback, good for the second-fastest speed by a Bengal ball carrier in 2019 and 20th-fastest leaguewide. Logged three tackles and a PD at Buffalo. Led team with career-high 10 tackles (eight solo) vs. the N.Y. Jets.

2018 (CIN)

Started all 16 games at CB in first season of action as full-time starter. Totaled 41 tackles and team-high 13 PDs (seventh in AFC). Saw action on 1,063 of 1129 total defensive snaps (94.2 percent), second-most among Bengals defenders.

2017 (CIN)

Played in 15 games with five starts (Games 6 and 13-16) at CB, filling in for injured starter Adam Jones. Totaled 25 tackles, including one sack, and had 14 PDs (tied for the team lead) and one INT. The INT came on Sept. 24 at Green Bay, when he jumped an Aaron Rodgers pass and returned it 75 yards for a TD; it was only the second pick-six of Rodgers' career, and Jackson became just the 14th player in Bengals history to score on his first career INT (the first since DE Carlos Dunlap in 2012). According to NFL's Next Gen Stats, he reached 21.52 MPH on the return, the fastest by a Bengal in '17 and the seventh-fastest by any NFL ball carrier. Recorded a third-quarter sack of Titans QB Marcus Mariota on Nov. 12 at Tennessee.

2016 (CIN)

Suffered torn pectoral muscle tendon in practice on Aug. 1.

Arkansas State

UFA (DET)-'20

Career Highlights

2020 (WAS)

Paired 80 receptions for 589 yards and two touchdowns with 85 rushes for 365 yards and a touchdown this season.

Became the only player in Washington history to surpass 80 receptions and 80 rushes in a single season.

Became the fifth player in Washington history to record at least 350 yards rushing and 550 yards receiving in a season, and was the first to do so since Joe Washington in 1981.

Was targeted 110 times in 2020, the most for a Washington running back in a single season in franchise history. He also led all running backs this season in targets.

His 80 receptions are second-most in a season for a Washington running back in franchise history and his 589 receiving yards are the fifth-most for a Washington running back in franchise history.

He rushed for a touchdown in the postseason for the first time in his career in the Wild Card Round against Tampa Bay.

Ran for a career-high 68 yards on 11 carries, including a season-long 17-yard rush, in Week 14 against the 49ers.

Scored his first touchdown since 2017 in Week 10 against the Lions.

Registered 510 yards after catch this season, the second-most among running backs this season. His 80 receptions and 589 receiving yards were also the second-most among running backs this season.

His 10 receptions in Week 13 tied for the fifth-most by a running back in a game in Washington history.

Tallied 15 games with a reception, the most for a Washington running back since Chris Thompson did so in 2016.

6-0 210 3rd Season

September 15, 1995 (25)

Indianapolis, Ind.

Ohio State University

2019 3rd Round (76)

Career Highlights

Set a franchise record with four 100-plus yard games in his first 16 career games.

McLaurin hauled in 87 receptions for 1,118 yards and four touchdowns in the regular season.. In his first-career postseason contest, McLaurin caught six passes for 75 yards.

McLaurin's 2,037 career receiving yards and 145 receptions both rank second through a player's first two seasons in Washington history.

McLaurin's 2,037 total career receiving yards rank 27th all-time through a player's first two seasons in NFL history.

McLaurin's 145 receptions rank tied for 19th-most through a player's first two seasons in NFL history.

McLaurin amassed 2,000 career yards against the Eagles in Week 17. He became the second receiver in Washington history to do so in their first two seasons, joining Gary Clark.

McLaurin joined Gary Clark and Charlie Brown as the only three receivers in Washington history to record over 2,000 yards in their first 29-career games.

McLaurin became one of 12 players all-time to register at least 2,000 yards, 145 receptions and 11 touchdowns in their first two seasons in NFL history.

McLaurin reached 1,000-plus yards in a season for the first time in his career in Week 14 of 2020 against the 49ers, becoming the first 1,000-yard receiver for Washington since Pierre Garçon and DeSean Jackson in 2016.

McLaurin became the 11th player for Washington and first since Pierre Garçon in 2013 to reach 1,000 yards through the first 13 games of the season since the 1970 merger.

McLaurin [5] tied Bobby Mitchell [1962-63] for the second-longest streak of 80+ receiving yard games in franchise history in Week 12. Santana Moss [2005] holds the franchise record with six.

McLaurin [12] holds the franchise record for most 80-plus receiving yard games through 29-career contests.

Career Highlights

In Week 12 of the 2018 season vs. Tennessee, RB Lamar Miller ran for 162 rushing yards on 12 carries (13.5 avg.) and caught one pass for five yards (5.0 avg.). He scored on a 97-yard run in the second quarter, which marked the longest run in franchise history and the longest run in the NFL since Miller's 97-yard touchdown run vs. the Jets in Week 17 of 2014. Titans RB Derrick Henry eventually topped Miller with a 99-yard touchdown run in Week 14.

Miller is the first player in NFL history to record multiple touchdown runs of at least 95 yards and owns two of the seven longest runs in NFL history. It also marked the second-longest run in the history of Monday Night Football, trailing Tony Dorsett's 99-yard run (1983). Miller joins Chris Johnson ('09, '12), Ahman Green ('03, '04) and Bo Jackson ('87, '89) as the only players to record two 90-plus yard touchdown runs in NFL history.

Miller became the first Texans player with at least 150 yards rushing and one touchdown in a game since Arian Foster (Week 8 of 2014).

Miller recorded 148 yards on six carries (24.7 avg.) in the first half, which marks the most first half rushing yards in team history and the second-most in the NFL in 2018 (Saquon Barkley, 159, Week 14). Miller notched 51 rushing yards in the first quarter, which are the most rushing yards recorded by a Texans running back in the first quarter since he rushed for 56 yards in the first quarter vs. Jacksonville in Week 10 of the 2016 season.

Was named to his first career Pro Bowl in 2018.

From 2014-18, Miller rushed for 4,905 yards, which was the second-most in the NFL during that span. He also ranked third in carries (1,126) since 2014 and tied for 10th in rushing touchdowns (29). Miller and Steelers WR Antonio Brown are the only NFL players with 1,000 scrimmage yards and five touchdowns in each of those seasons 2014-18.

In 2017, Miller led the NFL in games with at least 50 rushing yards (13), ranked eighth in the AFC in carries (238) and 11th in the AFC in rush yards (888). In 2016, Miller racked up 1,073 rushing yards, which ranked 10th in the NFL. His 268 carries set a single-season career high and his 1,073 rushing yards were the second-highest mark of his career.

Personal

High School - Attended Miami (Fla.) Killian High School

Highlights - Named first-team all-state recognition as a senior.

Led Miami-Dade in rushing with 217 carries for 1,749 yards and 22 touchdowns.

Held a summer job while in high school at what was then called the Miami MetroZoo (it became Zoo Miami in the summer of 2010).

2018 (HOU)

Finished with 973 yards rushing on 210 carries (4.6 avg.) and recorded 25 receptions for 163 yards (6.5 avg.) and one touchdown in 14 games. Selected to his first-career Pro Bowl

Joined Steelers WR Antonio Brown as the only players to record at least 1,000 scrimmage yards and five total touchdowns in each of the last five seasons.

2017 (HOU)

Led the Texans in rushing with 888 yards on 238 carries (3.73avg.) and had 327 receiving yards on 36 receptions (9.1 avg.) Also scored three rushing touchdowns and a single-season career-high three receiving touchdowns, making him the third player in franchise history to produce three rushing and three receiving touchdowns in a season.

Tied for the NFL lead with 14 games producing 55-or-more scrimmage yards.

One of eight players in the NFL with 880-or-more rushing yards and 320-or-more receiving yards.

Joined WR Antonio Brown, WR Julio Jones and RB Frank Gore as the only players to gain 1,200-or-more yards from scrimmage in each of the last four seasons.

2016 (HOU)

Finished 10th in the NFL in rushing yards (1,073), 19th in scrimmage yards (1,261) and 24th in first downs (61).

2015 (MIA)

Started all 16 games. Recorded 194 carries for 872 yards (4.5 avg.) and eight touchdowns. Added 47 receptions for 397 yards (8.4 avg.) and two receiving touchdowns.

2014 (MIA)

Started all 16 games. Recorded 194 carries for 872 yards (4.5 avg.) and eight touchdowns. Added 47 receptions for 397 yards (8.4 avg.) and two receiving touchdowns.

Led the Dolphins in with 216 carries for 1,099 yards (5.09 avg.) and eight touchdowns in 16 games. Added 38 catches for 275 yards and one touchdown.

Led the Dolphins in rushing on 14 occasions during the season.

Became the first Dolphins player to eclipse the 1,000-yard rushing mark since RB Reggie Bush in 2011 and posted the eighth-highest single-season total in Miami history. His 1,099 yards were 10th in the NFL and fifth in AFC. His eight rushing touchdowns were tied for eighth in the NFL and tied for second in the AFC. His 5.09 average per carry was fifth in the NFL and second in the AFC overall and second in the NFL and AFC among running backs.

2013 (MIA)

Played in all 16 games with 15 starts. Led the Dolphins in rushing with 177 carries for 709 yards and two touchdowns. Added 26 catches for 170 yards.

2012 (MIA)

Played in 14 games with one start as a rookie. Recorded 51 carries for 250 yards and one touchdown. Added six receptions for 45 yards.

CURTIS SAMUEL

Wide Receiver

10

5-11 195 5th Season

August 11, 1996 (24)

Brooklyn, N.Y.

Ohio State University

UFA [Car]- '21

Career Highlights

Tallied 39 receptions for 494 receiving yards and eight rushes for 84 rushing yards and accumulated 209 kick return yards in 2018. Scored seven touchdowns on the year, five receiving and two rushing, tied for the most among NFL wide receivers in 2018.

Scored a rushing and receiving touchdown against Tampa Bay (11/4/18), becoming the first Panthers wide receiver to do both in the same game since Keyshawn Johnson in 2006.

Tallied 115 yards receiving, 64 yards rushing and 220 yards of kickoff returns in 2017.

Samuel has recorded 330 rushing yards since 2019, the second-most by a wide receiver during that span.

Samuel has recorded three rushing touchdowns since 2019, tied for the most by a wide receiver during that span.

Samuel is one of two receivers in NFL history to record at least 200 rushing yards and 850 receiving yards in a single-season. He joins Percy Harvin as the only other receiver to accomplish the feat according to Pro Football Reference.

According to Pro Football Focus, Samuel had a 77 percent catch rate on deep targets in 2020, the highest percentage by a wide receiver.

Samuel's performance at Washington in 2020 marked his second game this season (and of his career) with 100+ receiving yards. He previously tallied 105 receiving yards at Kansas City (11/8/2020).

College

Recorded 107 receptions for 1,249 yards and nine touchdowns from 2014-16 at Ohio State. Also added 172 rushes for 1,286 and 15 scores.

Personal

High School - Erasmus Hall in Brooklyn, Ny.

Highlights - Rushed for 1,047 yards and 13 touchdowns as a junior. Was named the NY Daily News City Player in 2012.

Year-by-Year

2020 [CAR]

Played in 15 games recording 77 receptions for 85 yards and three touchdowns. He added 41 rushes for 200 yards and two touchdowns while averaging 4.9 yards a rush.

Samuel reeled in 77 catches on 97 targets. His 79.4 reception percentage was the second-highest by any qualifying wide receiver in 2020.

In Week 8 of the 2020 season, Samuel recorded his third career game with a rushing and receiving touchdown, the second-most such games by a wide receiver in NFL history, trailing only, Jerry Rice (five).

In addition to posting career numbers, Samuel proved to be a reliable target on 3rd downs in 2020. Among all players in 2020 on 3rd downs, Samuel ranked tied for fourth in receptions (28), ninth in receiving yards (348) and tied for 13th for first down receptions (18).

In Week 15 at Washington, Samuel totaled 158 scrimmage yards (106 receiving, 52 rushing), a new single-game career high.

Samuel had two plays of 40+ yards (one receiving and one rushing). Since entering the NFL in 2017, Samuel is 1-of-7 players to have a rush of 40+ yards and a reception of 40+ yards in a single game.

2019 [CAR]

Recorded 54 receptions for career-best 627 receiving yards and team-leading six receiving touchdowns in 2019, to go along with 130 yards rushing and one rushing touchdown.

Career Highlights

Recorded 45 tackles [28 solo], a team-leading 9.0 sacks for 83.0 yards, an interception returned for a touchdown, six passes defended, 20 quarterback hits, 12 tackles for loss and two forced fumbles.

Joined LaVar Arrington as the only two players for Washington to tally at least 9.0 sacks and six passes defended in a season in history.

Became the 11th defensive end in NFL history to record at least 9.0 sacks, six passes defended and an interception touchdown return in a single season.

Became the 15th player in league history to compile at least 16 sacks and eight passes defended through their first two seasons.

His 16.0 sacks are third-most through a player's first two seasons in Washington and his 33 quarterback hits passes Brian Orakpo for the most through a player's first two seasons in Washington.

His six passes defended are tied for the third-most by a defensive lineman in a single season in franchise history and are the most by a Washington defensive lineman since Anthony Lanier also had six in 2017.

Sweat's 83 sack yards are the sixth-most in a single season for a Washington player in history.

Became the third player in Washington history to notch 16-plus sacks in his first two seasons.

Became the second defensive end in Washington history to record three passes defended and a tackle for loss in a single game when he did so in Week 13 against Pittsburgh, joining Anthony Lanier [2017].

Sweat intercepted a pass for a 15-yard touchdown in Week 12 of 2020 against Dallas. It was the first interception of his career, and he became the first player for Washington to do so since Bashaud Breeland on Dec. 10, 2017.

Tallied 12 TFL, tied for the sixth-most among defensive ends in 2020.

Thomas tallied seven 72 receptions for 670 yards and six touchdowns this season, setting career-highs.

Thomas's 72 receptions are fourth-most in a single season for a tight end in Washington franchise history.

Thomas is the first tight end for Washington to record 650-plus yards since Jordan Reed did so in 2016.

Thomas became the third tight end in franchise history to post 70+ receptions, 650+ receiving yards and 5+ receiving touchdowns in a season, joining Jordan Reed [2015] and Chris Cooley [2005].

In Week 15, Thomas had 13 receptions for 101 yards.

Thomas's 13 receptions in Week 15 are the most in a single-game by a tight end in Washington franchise history and tied for the second-most among all players in a single game in the club's history.

Thomas is the 25th tight end in NFL history to tally 13-plus receptions in a single game.

Thomas became the ninth tight end in Washington history to record a game with 100-plus receiving yards and first since Jordan Reed in 2015.

Thomas is the ninth tight end in Washington history to have two games with 90-plus receiving yards in a season.

Thomas became the first tight end in franchise history to complete a pass, connecting on a 28-yard pass to WR Terry McLaurin on Thanksgiving against Dallas.

Thomas's 14.8 receiving average against the Buccaneers in the NFC Wild Card Round was the highest in a single postseason game for a Washington tight end in franchise history (min. 5 receptions).

2014 (ARI)

Thomas became the first NFL quarterback to have his first career completion be for 80-plus yards since Pittsburgh Steelers QB Neil O'Donnell's did so on an 89-yard pass against the San Diego Chargers on Sept. 1, 1991.

5th Season

Year-by-Year

March 6, 1995 (26)

Louisville, KY

Western Kentucky

FA - '21

College

2017: Although he began his final year on The Hill with no offensive statistics, Yelder was one of quarterback Mike White's favorite targets all season. The tight end ranked second on WKU with 52 catches for 688 yards, while leading the Hilltoppers with seven receiving touchdowns. He also added a one-yard rushing score vs. Florida Atlantic, as well as two-point conversions vs. Louisiana Tech (rush) and at UTEP (catch); his 52 points scored led all Hilltopper non-kickers. He capped his stellar season with career-bests of 112 yards and two touchdowns - including a career-long score of 54 yards - vs. Georgia State in the Cure Bowl. Yelder finished fourth nationally in receptions and third in receiving yards among tight ends. His seven touchdown catches is 10th most in a single season in WKU history, while ranking second among tight ends in the program's FBS Era. He recorded at least three catches and 30 receiving yards in 11-of-12 starts.

2016: Yelder appeared in all 14 games as a junior and had one of the defining plays of the season for the Hilltoppers. As one of the team's best athletes, particularly in the vertical jump, Yelder was called on to block field goal attempts and came up with a blocked PAT at Middle Tennessee in the second overtime period. The Hilltoppers scored and converted on the next possession which catapulted them to the top of the East Division and ultimately a Conference USA Championship.

2015: Yelder saw action in the final four games of the season, primarily on special teams coverage and as a reserve tight end.

2014: Yelder did not see any action this year on The Hill.

2013: Yelder redshirted his first season on The Hill.

2020 (KC)

Played in 14 games with one start. Had seven receptions for 36 yards. Appeared in one postseason game.

2019 (KC)

Played in nine games and made one start. Tallied three receptions for 50 yards. Recorded a reception for 11 yards in the postseason.

2018 (KC)

Played in three games with the Chiefs.

Personal

High School - Attended Souther HS in Kentucky.

Highlights - Played basketball up until his junior season.

6-5

2nd Season

April 14, 1999 [22]

Upper Marlboro, Md.

Ohio State University

2020 1st Round (2)

Career Highlights

2020 (WAS)

Young's 7.5 sacks finished tied for third-most in franchise history for sacks by a rookie, tying team-mate Ryan Kerrigan. His 10 tackles for loss mark is second-most for a rookie in franchise history beyond Orakpo's 13 in 2009.

Young's four forced fumbles finished tied for most for a Washington rookie and his three fumble recoveries are the most for a rookie season in franchise history.

Young's four passes defended finished tied for the most for a rookie defensive end in franchise history. He is the third defensive end to do so in their rookie season and first since Preston Smith in 2015.

Young's 12 quarterback hits in 2020 were fourth-most for a rookie in the club's history.

Young tallied seven games with at least one full sack, the most in a rookie season in franchise history.

Young registered three games with a sack and a fumble recovery this season, the most games doing so in a season for a Washington player in franchise history.

Young is the first player in Washington history to record two games in a single season with a forced fumble, fumble recovery and a sack, doing so in Weeks 14 and 16.

Young is the second rookie in franchise history to post at least 7.0 sacks and 10 tackles for loss, joining Brian Orakpo [2009]. He is the only rookie in the league this season to reach that mark.

Young has the most forced fumbles in a rookie season for Washington since Ryan Kerrigan also had four in 2011.

Young is the first player in Washington franchise history to record at least two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries in the month of December in a single season.

Became the first player in Washington history to record two games with at least one fumble recovery, forced fumble, a sack and a pass defended since the stats were first recorded in 1999. Became the fourth player and first rookie in NFL history to record at least two games with at least one fumble recovery, forced fumble, a sack and a pass defended since the stats were first recorded in 1999, joining Khalil Mack [6], Jason Taylor [4] and Julius Peppers [2].

IMPORTANT DATES

The Start - July 9, 1932

George P. Marshall headed a group (Vincent Bendix, Jay O'Brien, Dorland Doyle) that bought a National Football League franchise in Boston. They contracted to play in Braves Field, home of the National League Baseball team, and were called "The Braves."

The Name

The Boston Gridders moved to Fenway Park, home of the American League Red Sox, and "The Braves" became "The Redskins."

The Franchise - Feb. 13, 1937

The Washington Redskins were officially born as the National Football League approved the transfer of the Boston Redskins franchise to Washington, D.C., and a new history began.

The Band - Aug. 9, 1937

The famed Redskins Band was founded and it was the first of its kind.

First Victory - Sept. 16, 1937

The First Game! The Franchise's Thursday night opener drew 19,941 fans to flood-lighted Griffith Stadium. Riley Smith scored on a 60-yard interception return, while the team added two field goals and an extra point to make the final score - Washington 13, Giants 3.

First Title - Dec. 5, 1937

Ten thousand fans stomped up Broadway behind the brass band following the franchise's first title. In the game, Sammy Baugh completed 11-of-15 passes, while Cliff Battles had touchdown runs of 75 and 76 yards as the team routed the Giants, 49-14, for the Eastern Championship.

World Champs! - Dec. 12, 1937

Freezing weather, frozen field and the icy-nerved Bears couldn't stop Sammy Baugh (center below). He completed 17-of-33 passes for 335 yards and three touchdowns. Wayne Millner (right), the all-time Notre Dame great, finished with nine catches for 160 yards, including 77- and 55-yard touchdowns.

Westward Ho! - Aug. 2, 1939

Washington set forth on their first coast-to-coast football training trip. Training site: Eastern State Normal School in Cheney, Wash.

Zero Hour - Oct. 1, 1939

Washington and the NY Giants battled in the mud and rain as the outcome wound up being a scoreless tie, the only scoreless tie in Washington history.

Record Pass - Oct. 15, 1939

From the kick formation and standing deep in the end zone, Frank Filchuck flipped a pass to Andy Farkas who went all the way for the touchdown. It was the longest pass play in National Football League history, 99 yards.

East Champs - Dec. 1, 1940

Miniature-sized Davey O'Brien of the Eagles completed 33 passes in 60 attempts, but Washington won 13-6 to clinch the Eastern Championship.

73-to-Ohhh! - Dec. 8, 1940

Despite Washington gaining the same number of first downs as the Bears in the World Championship Game at Griffith Stadium, the team lost 73-0.

California - Aug. 18, 1941

Washington brought pro football on a large scale to California for the first time. They established training quarters in San Diego at Brown Military Academy.

Title Escapes - Nov. 23, 1941

There were 50 seconds to go in the Eastern Championship Game and Washington held a 13-10 lead, but the Giants managed to score a field goal and a touchdown to win, 20-13.

Only Loss - Sept. 27, 1942

The Giants are unable to convert a first down, gained only ONE yard rushing and completed just ONE pass — but it was good for a touchdown. They then captured another touchdown on an interception and Washington suffered their only 1942 defeat, 14-7.

World Champs! - Dec. 13, 1942

The Bears took an early lead on an errant pass from center, but Sammy Baugh's 85-yard quick kick set them back on their heels. Wilbur Moore then made a vital interception and followed with a sensational catch for a 38-yard touchdown. Andy Farkas capped the victory by carrying the ball 10 of 12 times on an 80-yard touchdown drive. Score: 14-6.

Runner Up - Dec. 26, 1943

Sam Baugh suffered a concussion early, tackling Sid Luckman on a punt return and the Bears went on to win the NFL title, 41-21.

To a T - July 30, 1945

Washington abandoned their double-wing formation and adopted the T-formation.

East Champs - Dec. 9, 1945

Washington had two straight shutouts, the first coming against the Steelers, 24-0, on Dec. 2 and the team defeated the Giants, 17-0, en route to an Eastern title.

One Point Shy - Dec. 16, 1945

In subzero weather, Washington lost the world title to the Rams, 15-14, on freakish plays. Baugh's pass from the end zone hit the goal-post for a safety (no longer allowed); and Bob Waterfield's try-for-point hit the crossbar and bounced over.

Charity Game - Sept. 6, 1946

The inaugural Washington-Rams game benefiting the Los Angeles Times Charities, Inc. drew 68,188 to Memorial Coliseum and netted the Times Boys Club $96,711.23.

High Note - June 13, 1947

The Redskins Band performed at the Philadelphia Inquirer's Famed Festival of Music alongside Whiteman, Waring and the Philharmonic.

Champs Trumped - Nov. 23, 1947

Fans cheered on Sam Baugh who thanked them with six touchdown tosses, routing the previous-champion Cards, 45-21.

OVERTIME GAMES

In 1974, the NFL established overtime to decide regular season games. Since then, Washington has compiled a 25-16-2 record in overtime games.

Nov. 2, 1975 - RFK Stadium
Washington 30, Dallas 24

Ken Houston returned a Roger Staubach interception 14 yards, and Billy Kilmer scored the winning touchdown after 6:34 of overtime action.

Nov. 16, 1975 - Busch Stadium
St. Louis 20, Washington 17

The Cards scored with 20 seconds remaining on a catch by Mel Gray to force overtime. St. Louis won the coin toss and marched to set up a 37-yard Jim Bakken field goal to win after seven minutes of play.

Nov. 23, 1975 - RFK Stadium
Oakland 26, Washington 23

George Blanda's 27-yard field goal decided the contest after 7:13.

Sept. 27, 1976 - Veterans Stadium
Washington 20, Philadelphia 17

Mark Moseley's 29-yard field goal won the Monday night game with 12:49 elapsed in overtime.

Nov. 12, 1978 - RFK Stadium
Washington 16, New York Giants 13

Washington won on Moseley's 45-yard field goal after 3:32 elapsed.

Nov. 15, 1981 - Giants Stadium
Washington 30, New York Giants 27

Moseley kicked a 49-yard field goal on the game's final play to force overtime and a 48-yard field goal to win with 3:44 elapsed.

Sept. 12, 1982 - Veterans Stadium
Washington 37, Philadelphia 34

Washington sent the game into overtime on a 48-yard field goal by Moseley with :01 to play. Moseley won the game with a 26-yarder.

Nov. 2, 1986 - RFK Stadium
Washington 44, Minnesota 38

Jay Schroeder engineered a four-play, 63-yard drive ending with a Gary Clark 38-yard touchdown pass.

Dec. 26, 1987 - Metrodome
Washington 27, Minnesota 24

Ricky Sanders' 51-yard touchdown reception from Doug Williams with less than two minutes remaining tied the score at 24. Ali Haji-Sheikh kicked the 26-yard game-winning field goal after Sanders' 36-yard kickoff return in overtime.

Dec. 17, 1988 - Riverfront Stadium
Cincinnati 20, Washington 17

Jim Breech connected from 20 yards out seven minutes into sudden death.

Nov. 4, 1990 - Pontiac Silverdome
Washington 41, Detroit 38

Chip Lohmiller's 34-yard field goal 9:10 into overtime capped the Washington comeback that equalled the team's greatest in history. Down by 21 points in the third quarter and 17 points entering the fourth, Jeff Rutledge's 12-yard run tied the game with :18 seconds remaining.

Nov. 3, 1991 - RFK Stadium
Washington 16, Houston 13

Darrell Green intercepted a Warren Moon pass which set-up Lohmiller's 41-yard field goal 5:01 into overtime moving Washington to a 9-0 record. The Oilers tied the game with less than two minutes in regulation and had a chance to win after Brian Mitchell fumbled the kickoff, but Ian Howfield's 33-yard attempt sailed wide left.

Oct. 16, 1994 - RFK Stadium
Arizona 19, Washington 16

Arizona scored the tying touchdown with :19 left in regulation. Arizona's game-winner was set up by Terry Hoage, who intercepted a Heath Shuler pass and returned it 12 yards to the 23. Peterson kicked the game-winning 29-yard field goal.

Oct. 8, 1995 - Veterans Stadium
Philadelphia 37, Washington 34

Down 10 points in the 4th quarter, Gus Frerotte guided the team back with a touchdown pass to Henry Ellard and Eddie Murray's 46-yard field goal tied it up with :52 left. In OT, Washington stalled on its opening drive and the Eagles' Gary Anderson won the game with a 35-yard field goal.

Oct. 22, 1995 - RFK Stadium
Washington 36, Detroit 30

Trailing 30-27, Eddie Murray's 39-yard field goal tied it with :04 to play. Darrell Green's seven-yard interception return of a Scott Mitchell pass for a touchdown 3:41 into overtime ended the game.

Nov. 10, 1996 - RFK Stadium
Arizona 37, Washington 34

In one of the most bizarre games in Washington history, the team led by 14 points in the fourth quarter only to squander the lead. The Cardinals won the coin toss and drove to the Washington 15, only to have Kevin Butler miss. Scott Blanton booted the apparent 38-yard game-winner, but a holding penalty forced a retry from 48 that went wide left. Arizona then missed a 29-yarder that was negated because the Redskins were offside. Butler's third attempt was good from 32 yards.

Nov. 24, 1996 - RFK Stadium
San Francisco 19, Washington 16

San Francisco's William Floyd's 1-yard touchdown run tied the game in regulation. After winning the coin toss in overtime, the 49ers' Jeff Wilkins hit a 38-yard field goal to win.

Sept. 14, 1997 - Jack Kent Cooke Stadium
Washington 19, Arizona 13

In the inaugural game at Jack Kent Cooke Stadium, Washington won with 13:24 left in overtime when Gus Frerotte, sidestepping a heavy rush, threw a 40-yard strike to a leaping Michael Westbrook in the end zone. The winning points were set up two plays earlier when rookie defensive end Kenard Lang forced and recovered a fumble on the Washington 35-yard line.

Nov. 23, 1997 - Jack Kent Cooke Stadium
Washington 7, NY Giants 7

In overtime, Washington turned the ball over three times, but the defense forced two punts and the Giants missed a 54-yard field goal. With under two minutes remaining, Washington drove to the Giants 36-yard line, but a 54-yard field goal attempt fell short with 11 seconds left in overtime.

Sept. 12, 1999 - FedExField
Dallas 41, Washington 35

Dallas stopped the club's first overtime drive and then scored on a 76-yard bomb from Troy Aikman to Rocket Ismail.

Nov. 28, 1999 - FedExField
Washington 20, Philadelphia 17

Brett Conway's game-winning 27-yard FG was set up by a 48-yard kickoff return by James Thrash, which opened the overtime period. The Eagles never had the ball.

Dec. 26, 1999 - 3Com Park
Washington 26, San Francisco 20

Washington overcame a 10-point fourth quarter deficit to win their ninth game of the year and clinch the NFC East. Brad Johnson's QB sneak from the 1-yard line with 3:28 left in regulation sent the game into the extra period. On the opening drive, Johnson connected with Larry Centers for a 33-yard TD.

OVERTIME GAMES

Oct. 1, 2000 - FedExField Washington 20, Tampa Bay 17

Tampa Bay forced the overtime when Martin Gramatica connected on a 42-yard field goal as the regulation clock fell to 0:00. 10:51 into the extra period, Deion Sanders ignited the crowd with a 57-yard punt return, setting up the game winning 20-yard field goal by Michael Husted.

Oct. 21, 2001 - FedExField Washington 17, Carolina 14

Placekicker Brett Conway kicked a 23-yard field goal in overtime to seal Washington's first victory of the season and the first under Marty Schottenheimer, 17-14. Washington forced overtime by overcoming a 14-point deficit in the fourth quarter thanks to a 67-yard interception return for touchdown by LaVar Arrington and an 85-yard touchdown pass from Tony Banks to Rod Gardner.

Sept. 21, 2003 - FedExField New York Giants 24, Washington 21

With less than five minutes left in regulation, Washington overcame a 21-10 deficit to send the game into overtime. The Giants won the toss and drove downfield from their own 6-yard line. Kicker Matt Bryant connected on a 29-yard field goal to cap off New York's first scoring drive since the second quarter and seal the 24-21 victory.

Oct. 2, 2005 - FedExField Washington 20, Seattle 17

With a chance to win the game at the end of regulation with 0:01 left on the clock, Seattle kicker Josh Brown missed a 47-yard field goal, sending the game into overtime. After winning the coin toss, Washington went on a 5:31 drive that culminated with a Nick Novak 39-yard field goal to seal Washington's victory over the Seahawks.

Nov. 27, 2005 - FedExField San Diego 23, Washington 17

San Diego running back LaDainian Tomlinson scored a 32-yard touchdown run with 3:37 remaining to tie the game at 17. With 0:35 remaining, Washington had an opportunity to take the lead with a 53-yard field goal but the ball sailed wide right. In overtime, San Diego ran two plays that culminated in a 41-yard touchdown run, again by Tomlinson to seal the victory.

Oct. 1, 2006 - FedExField Washington 36, Jacksonville 30

Jacksonville sent the game into overtime with 0:06 on the clock when kicker Josh Scobee connected on a 41-yard field goal. Washington won the coin toss and proceeded to take the ball 80 yards on three plays for the game-winning score. Quarterback Mark Brunell connected with wide receiver Santana Moss for a 68-yard touchdown pass to seal the win.

Dec. 24, 2006 - Edward Jones Dome St. Louis 37, Washington 31

Washington kicker Shaun Suisham nailed a field goal with 1:15 remaining in regulation to tie the score at 31 and send it into overtime. St. Louis came back in overtime and, six minutes into the extra time, running back Steven Jackson took a handoff 21 yards for the game winning touchdown.

Sept. 9, 2007 - FedExField Washington 16, Miami 13

In overtime, Washington won the coin toss and elected to receive. Running backs Clinton Portis and Ladell Betts combined for 46 rushing yards and quarterback Jason Campbell completed a key third-down pass to tight end Chris Cooley, keeping the drive alive. As soon as Washington got into field goal range, kicker Shaun Suisham nailed the 39-yard field goal to seal the victory.

Nov. 4, 2007 - Meadowlands Washington 23, New York Jets 20

Jets kicker Mike Nugent connected on a 30-yard field goal with 0:15 left in regulation to tie the game at 20-20 and send the game into overtime. Washington running back Clinton Portis bulldozed his way down the field in overtime, setting up the game-winning 46-yard field goal by kicker Shaun Suisham.

Dec. 6, 2009 - FedExField New Orleans 33, Washington 30

Saints quarterback Drew Brees drove 80 yards at the end of regulation to tie the game at 30-30. In overtime, the Saints marched down the field setting up an 18-yard field goal by kicker Garrett Hartley to seal the victory.

Sept. 19, 2010 - FedExField Houston 30, Washington 27

After holding the Texans on the first possession of overtime, Washington drove to the Houston 34-yard line, but kicker Graham Gano pushed a 52-yard attempt wide right. On the ensuing drive, Neil Rackers connected on a 35-yard field goal to give Houston the win.

Oct. 10, 2010 - FedExField Washington 16, Green Bay 13

LaRon Landry intercepted an Aaron Rodgers pass on Green Bay's second overtime possession and Washington drove 24 yards to set up a game-winning 33-yard field goal by kicker Graham Gano in the team's Week 5 win against the eventual Super Bowl champions.

Nov. 21, 2010 - LP Field Washington 19, Tennessee 16

After missing a potential game-winning field goal at the end of regulation, Graham Gano redeemed himself in overtime, capping off a 10-play, 57-yard drive with a 48-yarder on the club's first overtime possession to secure a 19-16 road win.

Dec. 26, 2010 - EverBank Field Washington 20, Jacksonville 17

A 20-yard touchdown run by Jacksonville quarterback David Garrard in the final three minutes of regulation helped the Jaguars force overtime. Jacksonville won the toss and elected to receive, but on their third offensive play of overtime, cornerback Kevin Barnes intercepted Garrard, setting up Graham Gano for a 31-yard game-winning field goal.

Nov. 20, 2011 - FedExField Dallas 27, Washington 24

Washington quarterback Rex Grossman lofted a perfect fade to receiver Donté Stallworth in the corner of the end zone with 14 seconds remaining in regulation to force overtime. Washington missed a 52-yard field goal attempt on the first possession of overtime, and Dallas responded as kicker Dan Bailey hit a 39-yard field goal above the right upright for a Dallas victory.

Dec. 9, 2012 - FedExField Washington 31, Baltimore 28

Baltimore took an eight-point lead with less than five minutes to play, but Washington quarterbacks Robert Griffin III and Kirk Cousins led a 13-play, 88-yard drive to tie the game at 28-28. Cousins, in place of an injured Griffin III, threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to Pierre Garçon and followed it with a two-point conversion on a quarterback draw. In overtime, Washington forced the eventual Super Bowl champion Ravens to go three-and-out, and after a 64-yard punt return by rookie Richard Crawford, kicker Kai Forbath hit a 34-yard game-winning field goal.

Nov. 3, 2013 - FedExField Washington 30, San Diego 24

Leading 24-21 on Homecoming Weekend, the team's defense faced first-and-goal from its own 1-yard line with 21 seconds re-maintaining. After stopping Danny Woodhead on first down, Washington forced two Philip Rivers incompletions and forced the Chargers to settle for a game-tying 19-yard field goal by Nick Novak. Washington took the ball on the first possession of overtime and promptly drove 78 yards in 10 plays, winning the game on fullback Darrel Young's team-record-tying third rushing touchdown of the day.

Oct. 27, 2014 – AT&T Stadium Washington 20, Dallas 17

Led by quarterback Colt McCoy in his first start with the team, Washington earned their first overtime win against the rival Cowboys since Nov. 2, 1975. On Monday Night Football, McCoy completed 25-of-30 passes for 299 yards, including engineering a nine-play, 58-yard drive culminating in a 40-yard Kai Forbath field goal on overtime's first possession. Rookie cornerback Bashaud Breeland batted away a fourth down pass on the ensuing Cowboys possession, giving the team a 20-17 win.

Oct. 11, 2015 – Georgia Dome Atlanta 25, Washington 19

Washington trailed by three with 24 seconds remaining in regulation. Quarterback Kirk Cousins led the Redskins 46 yards in four plays, and kicker Dustin Hopkins hit a then-career-long 52-yard field goal with no time remaining to force overtime with the teams tied at 19-19. Washington received the ball to start overtime, but on the seventh play of the drive, wide receiver Ryan Grant slipped in his route, allowing Falcons cornerback Robert Alford to intercept a Cousins pass and race 59 yards down the right sideline for the game-winning touchdown.

Oct. 30, 2016 – Wembley Stadium Washington 27, Cincinnati 27

In Washington's first game in London, Washington and Cincinnati treated an international audience to a back-and-forth game that featured five lead changes. Trailing 27-24 with 3:15 remaining, quarterback Kirk Cousins engineered a 10-play, 45-yard drive to set-up kicker Dustin Hopkins for a game-tying 40-yard field goal with 1:07 remaining in regulation. In overtime, Hopkins pulled a potential game-winning 34-yard field goal wide left. Washington forced a fumble on the Bengals' ensuing possession, and a potential Hail Mary pass for the Redskins on their next drive sailed out of bounds, resulting in the team's second tie of the overtime era.

Nov. 19, 2016 – Mercedes-Benz Superdome New Orleans 34, Washington 31

A battered Washington squad led the eventual NFC North champion Saints, 31-16, with under six minutes remaining in New Orleans, but the Saints engineered touchdown drives of 75 yards and 87 yards and converted a two-point conversion to send the game to overtime at 31-31. After a Washington three-and-out to open the extra period, the Saints drove 51 yards to set up Wil Lutz's game-winning 28-yard field goal.

Dec. 22, 2019 – FedExField NY Giants 41, Washington 35

In a game that looked like it was going to get out of hand early, Washington outscored the New York Giants 14-0 in the fourth quarter to force overtime. New York won the coin toss and elected to receive and QB Daniel Jones led an 11 play, 66 yard drive that was capped with a three yard touchdown pass to TE Kaden Smith to seal the victory. The loss sealed Washington's fate finishing last in the NFC East, but guaranteed the team the No. 2 overall selection in the 2020 NFL Draft.

OVERTIME RECORDS

Washington's .591 all-time winning percentage in overtime games (including postseason play) ranks third among all NFL teams entering 2021.

CREDENTIAL POLICY

The Washington Football Team grants credentials and media access based on merit as guided by the priorities listed below. Because of the limited space available at Inova Sports Performance Center and FedExField, these priority guidelines are intended to facilitate the most efficient use of space for working media covering the Washington Football Team and the NFL.

Full credential request policies are detailed below. For more information about obtaining media credentials, please contact Jessie Johnson at 703-726-7077 or by e-mail at Jessie.Johnson@washingtonfootball.com.

Note: Throughout the duration of the 2021 season, the Washington Football Team will be abiding by the guidelines and protocols agreed upon by the NFL and NFLPA regarding the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Washington Football Team prioritize outlets in the following order:

1. Broadcast partners, including television and radio personnel responsible for live broadcasts of Washington Football Team games.
2. Local beat reporters who cover the team on a daily basis for large-scale local outlets, including newspapers, wire services, radio stations and television affiliates that cover Washington and the NFL on a regular basis.
3. Large-scale national outlets, including national newspapers, magazines, television stations, websites and more.
4. Washington, D.C. metro area community publications and stations.
5. Out-of-town community outlets on specific assignment to cover Washington personnel of unique interest to the outlet's market (e.g.: a player's hometown newspaper).
6. Blogs, internet radio and other independent outlets, whose merit and credential consideration is subject to the discretion of Washington Public Relations.
7. Policies for visiting scouts are handled separately in accordance with the 2021 Scouting Policy as distributed to all NFL teams prior to the season.

The following guidelines will be observed in granting access:

1. Season credentials will be reserved for organizations that provide consistent and substantial coverage of the Washington Football Team. Please be advised that a season media credential does not guarantee working space in media work areas.
2. With the exception of seasonally credentialed Washington beat reporters who produce daily on-site reports, all credentials at both locations are approved and issued on a daily and/or game-by-game basis.
3. Passes and credentials are transferable within the same media outlet for use by those serving an editorial function with proper notice and approval by Washington Public Relations. Passes used by any member of a credentialed outlet without specific editorial assignment or by non-working members of the organization are subject to revocation and will affect all future credentialing decisions by Washington Public Relations for that outlet.
4. As the result of limited work space, credentials will not be issued to freelance writers or photographers without a specific assignment received in writing by the assigning organization.
5. Credentials may be issued: a) to online entities that are affiliated with a national or regional media organization; or, b) to online entities that host a website that regularly and substantially reports on the National Football League or the Washington Football Team, and employs for that website at least one full-time permanent employee who writes a substantial majority of all material posted on the site. Priority for these sites will be based on potential audience at the discretion of Washington Public Relations.
6. Washington personnel may deny or revoke credentials without notice and an individual shall surrender his/her credential upon request for: noncompliance with the priorities or guidelines set out in this policy; noncompliance with health, safety, or security directives issued regarding Washington events; and for conduct for which there are reasonable grounds to believe violate state or federal law, or constitute a breach of professional ethics. Any organization that wishes to contest a denial or revocation may: a) request Washington Public Relations provide a written rationale for the denial or revocation; b) submit a written response to that rationale to the Washington Public Relations Department.

7. Washington Public Relations reserves the right to change this policy at any time.

8. If a credential is not picked up and/or used on game day, future credential requests may not be granted.

MEDIA PORTAL/MEDIA GUIDE/TWITTER

The Washington Football Team's Public Relations department has a media website (<https://washington.1rmg.com/>) designed to serve the needs of all media members who cover the organization. The site contains the annual media guide and weekly game guides including stats, rosters, personnel bios and much more. Media can also access the media website by visiting WashingtonFootball.com and clicking on "Media Guide" located under the Press Room tab. Washington's official PR Twitter can be found at @Wash_PR.
