DEDICATION

The 2022 Miami Dolphins Media Guide is dedicated to the memories of former wide receiver Marlin Briscoe, tight ends coach George DeLeone, linebacker David Frye, radio analyst Hank Goldberg and quarterback John Stofa, each of whom passed away during the past year.

Briscoe (Sept. 10, 1945 – June 27, 2022) played three seasons (1972-74) with the Dolphins and was a member of both of Miami's Super Bowl championship teams, winning Super Bowl VII and Super Bowl VIII. In his three seasons with the Dolphins, Briscoe totaled 57 receptions for 858 yards (15.1 avg.) and seven touchdowns. Briscoe made history when he became the first Black quarterback to start a professional football game on Oct. 6, 1968 for the AFL's Denver Broncos. He went on to pass for 14 touchdowns that season. Briscoe was a Pro Bowl wide receiver for Buffalo in 1970.

DeLeone (May 9, 1948 – March 1, 2022) spent three seasons (2008-10) in Miami as the team's tight ends coach. In his first season with the team in 2008, the Dolphins went 11-5 and won the AFC East, becoming the first team in NFL history to win at least 10 games after posting only one win the prior season. DeLeone also coached offensive line for the Cleveland Browns from 2014-15 and the San Diego Chargers in 1997. The remainder of his 50-year coaching career came at the collegiate level, including a stint as head coach at Southern Connecticut State University from 1976-79.

Frye (June 21, 1961 – November 15, 2021) played seven seasons (1983-89) as an NFL linebacker, including the final four (1986-89) for the Dolphins. He appeared in 40 games for Miami, recording 2.0 sacks, after signing with the team as a free agent on Oct. 23, 1986. Frye spent his first three NFL seasons (1983-85) in Atlanta after signing as a free agent. He played collegiately at Purdue.

Goldberg (July 4, 1940 – July 4, 2022) was a color analyst on Miami Dolphins radio broadcasts from 1978-91. He was a fixture in the South Florida sports landscape serving as a talk radio host at WIOD and WQAM for more than 25 years. He was also a commentator at WTVJ in Miami from 1983-92. Goldberg began working at ESPN in 1993 and stayed with the network for more than two decades as an NFL reporter and handicapping expert.

Stofa (June 29, 1942 – April 23, 2022) played four seasons (1966-67, 1969-70) with the Dolphins and was a member of the franchise's inaugural team in 1966. He started one game that season, throwing four touchdown passes and leading Miami to a 29-28 win over Houston in the season finale. Stofa was traded to Cincinnati where he became the first Bengal in franchise history in December 1967. He was inducted into the University of Buffalo Athletic Hall of Fame in 1973.

50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE PERFECT SEASON

Fifty years ago, the 1972 Miami Dolphins, led by Hall of Fame Coach Don Shula, went 17-0 and won Super Bowl VII over Washington. It was the first Super Bowl for a franchise that was in just its seventh season of existence and to this day, remains the only unbeaten and untied team in league history.

The Dolphins will honor the 1972 perfect season this year when they host the Pittsburgh Steelers in Week 7 on NBC's Sunday Night Football. The current team will wear throwback uniforms with a special 1972 patch for the nationally-televised game and many events honoring the perfect season will take place that weekend.

THE 1972 DOLPHINS BY THE NUMBERS

1 Miami was No. 1 in the NFL in total offense, total defense, scoring offense and scoring defense that season. They're the only team in NFL history to lead all four categories in the same season.

2 Thousand-yard rushers by Miami as Larry Csonka rushed for 1,117 yards and Mercury Morris rushed for 1,000 yards that season. That makes them one of only seven teams in NFL history to have two 1,000-yard rushers in the same season and the first to do so in a 14-game season.

3 Only three other teams in NFL history have entered the NFL's championship game undefeated. But all lost the title game. They were the 1934 Bears, 1942 Bears and 2007 Patriots.

6 Members of that team were inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame – Buoniconti, Csonka, Griese, Langer, Little, Warfield and Coach Shula.

9 Dolphins selected to the Pro Bowl that season – Anderson, Buoniconti, Csonka, Evans, Little, Morris, Scott, Stanfill and Warfield.

12.2 Points allowed per game by the 1972 Dolphins, which led the NFL that season.

27.5 Points scored per game by the 1972 Dolphins, which led the NFL that season.

211.4 Rushing yards per game by the 1972 Dolphins, which led the NFL that season.

STEPHEN ROSS

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD / MANAGING GENERAL PARTNER

COLLEGE: MICHIGAN

NFL: 15TH SEASON

DOLPHINS: 15TH SEASON

Stephen M. Ross, Chairman and Founder of Related Companies, the most prominent privately-owned real estate firm in the United States, first invested in the Miami Dolphins in February 2008, and in 2009, assumed the responsibilities of managing general partner of both the Miami Dolphins and Hard Rock Stadium. The role is the culmination of one of his long-held dreams -- Ross grew up in South Florida and the Dolphins have been a lifetime passion for him.

Throughout the Dolphins organization, Ross' ethos of building a first-class team on and off the field is etched deep. His $730 million investment in Hard Rock Stadium and its surrounding properties has transformed the iconic venue into a global entertainment destination that showcases the best Miami has to offer. From world-class fare to arts, culture and luxury hospitality, Hard Rock Stadium now delivers an elevated guest experience that is unparalleled in professional sports. As a result of the privately-funded renovation, Hard Rock Stadium attracted and secured Super Bowl LIV – which coincided with the 100th season of the NFL – the 2021 College Football Playoff National Championship, Formula 1 Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix, 2026 FIFA World Cup, major concerts, international soccer matches and a host of world-class events.

On the football side, Ross has demonstrated a steadfast commitment to provide coaches, support staff and players the necessary resources to build a winning team that will compete consistently for championships. He invested $135 million into the state-of-the-art Baptist Health Training Complex, which opened in July 2021. Completed by Moss Construction with interior design by Rockwell Group and architecture by ROSSETTI, the 217,200 square-foot best-in-class venue was meticulously planned to create a contemporary, welcoming training environment for coaches, players, and staff. It includes a 92,200 square foot indoor field, two full natural grass outdoor fields, a two-story weight room with a cardio deck, a state-of-the-art hydrotherapy area, cryotherapy and isolation tanks and much more.

Ross, as a sports entrepreneur, is known for his attention to detail and thinking outside the box. He is responsible for orchestrating El Clásico Miami – the first-ever match between archrivals FC Barcelona and Real Madrid C.F. in North America – which stands as the highest revenue grossing soccer match in U.S. history. When the Miami Open tennis tournament began to explore leaving its long-time home in Key Biscayne, Florida, Ross stepped in to propose hosting the tournament at Hard Rock Stadium, building a custom tennis complex that is now considered one of the best in professional tennis in terms of guest experience and player amenities.

In April 2021, Ross became the Chairman and Owner of the Formula 1 Miami Grand Prix. The circuit is 5.41km, has 19 corners, 3 straights and potential for 3 DRS zones with an estimated top speed of 320km/h. Hard Rock Stadium sits at the heart of the circuit. Ross and Managing Partner of the Formula 1 Miami Grand Prix, Vice Chairman and CEO Tom Garfinkel worked with specialist designers to create a racetrack that will provide great racing and unique fan experiences that are reflective of the diverse and dynamic nature of Miami.

Ross is deeply committed to supporting and uniting the community that supports the Dolphins. Under his stewardship, the Dolphins have raised more than $53.8 million for local cancer research through the Dolphins Challenge Cancer. In June 2020, Ross and the Miami Dolphins Foundation announced a year-long Food Relief Program with a $3 million investment and an additional $1 million from the Lennar Foundation. The initiative provided 1,000 meals each day from Centerplate and minority owned restaurants to local churches, community groups and those in need during the pandemic.

In August 2019, Ross was inducted into the National Football Foundation Leadership Hall of Fame. The prestigious award recognizes the country's most influential individuals who have ascended to the highest levels of success and exhibited the critical leadership qualities that transcend ordinary enterprises.

Furthermore, Ross has used his platform to harness the unifying power of sport to advance race relations across the country through the establishment of the nonprofit Ross Initiative in Sports for Equality (RISE). The organization's efforts have been so impactful that RISE was recognized in 2017 by ESPN's Humanitarian Awards with the Stuart Scott ENSPIRE Award. The award celebrates those who have taken risk and used an innovative approach to help the disadvantaged through the power of sports. Ross' efforts through RISE were honored as they personify the ethos of fairness, ethics, respect and fellowship with others. This also connects to Ross' vision of the Dolphins' FOOTBALL UNITES™ program to effectuate positive social change. Under his leadership, the Dolphins organization actively embraces the diversity and intersections that make up South Florida, working with groups to improve relationships and foster understanding. In February 2020, the Miami Dolphins were honored by the Fritz Pollard Alliance with the Paul J. Tagliabue Award for their leadership in advancing diversity. Ross was among Sports Business Journal's Leaders in Diversity and Inclusive Hiring honorees in March 2021.

In May 2013, Ross pledged to give more than half of his estate to philanthropic causes and charitable organizations, including South Florida-based institutions. The commitment was made through the Giving Pledge, a long-term global initiative that aims to inspire deeper engagement in philanthropy and increase charitable giving globally.

Ross graduated from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree and from Wayne State University Law School with a Juris Doctor degree. He later received a Master of Laws in Taxation from New York University School of Law. In 2004, the University of Michigan renamed its business school the Stephen M. Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan and in 2011, the school awarded him an honorary Doctor of Laws degree at its commencement.

CHRIS GRIER

GENERAL MANAGER
COLLEGE: MASSACHUSETTS
NFL: 28TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: 23RD SEASON

Chris Grier is the general manager of the Miami Dolphins, a title he's held since 2016, and oversees all football operations for the club. The 2022 campaign marks his 23rd season with the franchise, rising from area scout to national scout, director of college scouting and general manager during that time.

Beginning in 2019, Grier was given control of football operations and has since implemented new philosophies to building a competitive team. Utilizing a value-based approach, the Dolphins rebuilt the roster with young, versatile players. Grier also used trades to accumulate Pro Bowl talent and future draft capital. The Dolphins had three first-round picks and two second-round picks in 2020, two first-round picks in 2021 and are scheduled to have two first-round picks, in addition to two third-round picks, again in 2023. A trade of draft picks in 2022 led to the acquisition of six-time Pro Bowl wide receiver Tyreek Hill from Kansas City. Grier also signed three-time Pro Bowl tackle Terron Armstead in the 2022 offseason.

Miami has quickly made strides in the past three seasons since Grier took over football operations. They posted back-to-back winning seasons, going 10-6 in 2020 and 9-8 in 2021. It was the first time the Dolphins had consecutive winning seasons since 2002-03.

In 2021, the Dolphins won eight of their final nine games, including their final six at home. Grier helped construct a defensive unit that featured eight starters drafted by the Dolphins and all 11 starters under the age of 30. The group scored five defensive touchdowns, its most in a single season since 2001. Miami swept New England for the first time since 2000 and had two AFC East sweeps (N.Y. Jets) for the first time since 2016.

Miami's 2021 draft class earned key roles immediately as four players were regular starters as rookies. Wide receiver Jaylen Waddle (first round) broke the NFL's rookie receptions record, a mark that had stood for nearly 20 years, with 104 catches and became the first rookie in Dolphins history to total 1,000 receiving yards. Linebacker Jaelan Phillips broke Miami's rookie sack record and finished second among all NFL rookies in the statistic with 8.5. Safety Jevon Holland was the only player in the AFC in 2021 to have multiple sacks, interceptions and fumble recoveries. Tackle Liam Eichenberg was one of just 10 NFL rookie offensive linemen to start at least 16 games.

Cornerback Xavier Howard (2016, second round) earned his third Pro Bowl selection in 2021 after intercepting five passes and scoring two defensive touchdowns. He became the eighth player in team history to have at least five interceptions in three different seasons. Defensive tackle Christian Wilkins (2019, first round) totaled 89 tackles, which is tied for the most by any NFL defensive lineman since 2013 and is the second-most by a Dolphins defensive lineman since full tackle records began in 1986.

In 2020, the Dolphins won 10 games for just the second time in the past decade despite having the second-youngest roster in the NFL. The five-game improvement from 2019 was tied for the best in the league that season and tied for the third-best in team history. The Dolphins set a team record by starting 10 different rookies that year, including eight in one game in a Week 15 win vs. New England.

With several offseason additions, Grier helped build one of the NFL's best defenses in 2020. Miami led the league in third-down defense (28.8 pct.) and takeaways (29) and finished sixth in scoring (21.1 points allowed per game).

Two of Grier's draft picks – Howard and kicker Jason Sanders (2018, seventh round) earned first-team All-Pro honors in 2020, marking the first time since 2006 (Zach Thomas and Jason Taylor) the Dolphins had two first-team All-Pro honorees in the same season. Defensive tackle Raekwon Davis was named to the PFWA's All-Rookie team after Grier selected him in the second round of the 2020 NFL Draft.

In 2019, the Dolphins steadily improved despite having the youngest roster in the NFL, winning five of their final nine games. Wilkins led all rookie defensive linemen with 56 tackles, the fifth-most by an NFL rookie defensive lineman since 2015.

Grier and his staff also uncovered several undrafted free agents in 2019. Wide receiver Preston Williams was tied for the NFL lead among rookies with 32 receptions at the time he suffered a season-ending injury. Cornerback Nik Needham had 11 passes defended, the second-most among all rookies that season. Running back Patrick Laird finished the season with 204 receiving yards, second among NFL rookie running backs.

From 2016-18, Grier oversaw the draft and both pro and college scouting departments, and was responsible for the acquisition of multiple All-Pro and Pro Bowl players including Howard, Sanders, wide receiver/returner Jakeem Grant, tackle Laremy Tunsil and safety Minkah Fitzpatrick.

The 2018 draft saw Grier and his personnel department net several key contributors. Linebacker Jerome Baker was a third-round pick and finished his rookie season tied for 11th among NFL rookies in tackles (76). Baker quickly took on a leadership role and was elected a team captain in 2019, just his second season in the league. He later became the first Dolphins player since at least 2000 to record 400-plus tackles in his first four seasons in the league.

In 2017, the Dolphins finished the season with 10 rookies on the active roster and four more on injured reserve or non-football illness lists. Miami was one of just three teams to play eight rookies on defense and one of just six to have at least four rookies start games on defense. Six undrafted rookie free agents contributed to the team that season. Defensive tackle Davon Godchaux finished his rookie campaign fourth among all NFL defensive linemen with 40 tackles (26 solo), despite being a fifth-round pick.

In his first draft as general manager in 2016, Grier selected Howard in the second round. In six NFL seasons, Howard has earned a first-team All-Pro nod (2020), been selected to the Pro Bowl three times (2018, 2020, 2021), led the NFL in interceptions in one season (2020), tied for the NFL lead in interceptions in another (2018) and totaled more interceptions since he entered the league than any other NFL player.

The team also drafted running back Kenyan Drake and Grant in 2016, who became just the second rookie duo in team history to combine for a kickoff return and punt return for a touchdown in the same season. In 2020, Grant earned second-team All-Pro honors as a returner.

Grier helped turn more than half the roster over in 2016, as the team entered training camp with more than 45 new players acquired during the offseason. The results were a four-game improvement from the previous season, the fifth-best mark in the NFL. The Dolphins finished 10-6 with a playoff berth, the team's best record and first playoff appearance since 2008.

As the team's director of college scouting (2007-15), Grier was part of a front office that discovered numerous Pro Bowl players. During that time, the Dolphins drafted seven players that combined for 14 Pro Bowl selections with the team. The list includes tackle Jake Long (2008-10), defensive tackle Paul Soliai (2011), punter Brandon Fields (2013), center Mike Pouncey (2013-15), safety Reshad Jones (2015; 2017), wide receiver Jarvis Landry (2015-17) and running back Jay Ajayi (2016).

Grier was also successful at finding value late in drafts. Jones, a fifth-round pick in 2010, was named the team's co-MVP following the 2015 season after he became the first player in team history to record at least 100 tackles, four interceptions and two sacks in a season. Ajayi was also a fifth-round pick (2015) and became the fourth player in NFL history to rush for 200 yards in three games during the same season. Ajayi's 1,272 rushing yards in 2016 were third-most in Dolphins history.

Prior to being the team's director of college scouting, Grier served as an area scout with the club from 2000-02, before being promoted to national scout/assistant director of college scouting in 2003. Miami won the AFC East during his first season with the team.

Grier started with the New England Patriots as an intern in 1994. He joined the club on a full-time basis the following year, serving as a regional scout until he joined the Dolphins in 2000. In 1996, Grier was part of a New England staff that won the AFC Championship. He helped scout several players for a Patriots roster that went on to win Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX.

Grier has worked with several of football's most successful coaches and executives throughout his career and that has helped shape his football philosophy. His father, Bobby Grier, is the former vice president of player personnel for the Patriots and recently retired as a senior personnel advisor with the Houston Texans. Chris has also worked with and learned under Pro Football Hall of Famer Bill Parcells, Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick, Seattle Seahawks Head Coach Pete Carroll and University of Alabama Head Coach Nick Saban.

Grier attended the University of Massachusetts-Amherst where he majored in journalism and played football for two years before injuries ended his career. He spent his final two years there as an undergraduate assistant.

Chris' brother, Michael, played for the Edmonton Oilers, Washington Capitals, San Jose Sharks and Buffalo Sabres of the National Hockey League and is currently the general manager of the Sharks. When Michael was appointed to the position in 2022, he became the first Black general manager in NHL history.

A native of Holliston, Mass., Grier and his wife, Paige, have two sons, Landon and Jackson.

COLLEGE: YALE
NFL: 16TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Mike McDaniel was named the 14th head coach in team history on Feb. 7, 2022.

The 2022 season marks McDaniel's 16th as an NFL coach. He most recently spent five seasons (2017-21) with the San Francisco 49ers where he was the team's run game specialist in 2017 before being promoted to run game coordinator in 2018 and again to offensive coordinator in 2021.

In McDaniel's first season as offensive coordinator, the 49ers finished seventh in the NFL in total offense (375.7 yards per game) and 13th in scoring offense (25.1 points per game) while advancing to the NFC Championship game. San Francisco's offense was balanced, ranking seventh in rushing (127.4) and 12th in passing (248.3). Wide receiver Deebo Samuel recorded 1,405 receiving yards, the most by a 49er since wide receiver Terrell Owens in 2001, and fifth-most in the NFL that season. Samuel's 1,770 scrimmage yards were the most by a 49er since running back Frank Gore in 2006. The San Francisco offense had four players earn Pro Bowl selections – Samuel, fullback Kyle Juszczyk, tight end George Kittle and tackle Trent Williams. Williams also earned All-Pro honors.

McDaniel served as San Francisco's run game coordinator from 2018-20. During that time, the 49ers were fifth in the NFL in rushing, averaging 127.0 yards per game, despite having a different leading rusher in all three seasons.

In 2020, San Francisco had several injuries at the running back position and still finished in the top half of the league with 118.1 rushing yards per game. Running back Jeff Wilson Jr. led the team with 600 yards on the ground despite starting just three games and missing some time on injured reserve. Running back Raheem Mostert had 521 rushing yards in just eight games. Juszczyk and Williams earned Pro Bowl selections and Williams was also named All-Pro.

McDaniel helped the 49ers have one of the league's most effective rushing attacks in 2019 as San Francisco went 13-3, winning the NFC and advancing to Super Bowl LIV. The 49ers had the NFL's second-ranked rushing offense, averaging 144.1 yards per game. Three different running backs rushed for more than 500 yards – Mostert (772), Matt Breida (623) and Tevin Coleman (544). Juszczyk was named to the Pro Bowl at the end of the season.

In 2018, the 49ers had four different backs rush for at least 200 yards. Breida led the way with a career-high 814 rushing yards just a year after he was an undrafted college free agent. His 5.32 yards per carry ranked fourth among all NFL players that season. The 49ers finished 13th in the league in rushing (118.9). Juszczyk was named to the Pro Bowl at the end of the season.

As run game specialist in 2017, McDaniel helped the 49ers rush for 1,662 yards and 15 rushing touchdowns in a season where they were forced to use three different starting quarterbacks due to injury. Running back Carlos Hyde led the way with 938 yards and a career-high eight rushing touchdowns. Juszczyk and tackle Joe Staley earned Pro Bowl selections.

Prior to San Francisco, McDaniel spent two seasons (2015-16) as an offensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons. During his tenure, the Falcons had the second-best total offense (394.9) and third-best scoring offense (27.5) in the NFL. Atlanta's passing attack ranked second (284.5).

The Falcons had the second-best total offense (415.8), third-best passing offense (295.3) and fifth-best rushing offense (120.5). Quarterback Matt Ryan passed for a franchise-record 4,944 yards, which was second in the NFL that season. Wide receiver Julio Jones was second in the league with 1,409 receiving yards. Four different Falcons earned Pro Bowl selections – Ryan, Jones, running back Devonta Freeman and center Alex Mack. Ryan, Jones and Mack also earned All-Pro honors.

The 2015 Falcons offense ranked sixth in passing (273.7) and seventh in total offense (374.1). Jones led the NFL with 1,871 receiving yards, a Falcons franchise record. In his first season as starting running back, Freeman topped 1,000 yards. Freeman, Jones and fullback Patrick DiMarco all earned Pro Bowl selections and All-Pro honors.

McDaniel spent the 2014 season as wide receivers coach for the Cleveland Browns. In his lone season there, wide receiver Andrew Hawkins had a career-high 824 yards. Undrafted rookie Taylor Gabriel had 621 receiving yards, which wound up being the second-highest total in his six-year NFL career. His receiver unit helped quarterback Brian Hoyer post the only 3,000-yard passing season of his career.

McDaniel's first NFL position coach job came in 2013 with Washington when he was promoted to wide receivers. Wide receiver Pierre Garçon had the best season of his 11-year NFL career, leading the NFL with 113 receptions. He totaled career highs in receptions (113) and receiving yards (1,346).

McDaniel spent the 2011-12 seasons with Washington as an offensive assistant. On those staffs, McDaniel worked with current NFL head coaches Matt LaFleur (Green Bay), Sean McVay (L.A. Rams) and Kyle Shanahan (San Francisco).

In 2012, Washington led the league in rushing (169.3) and finished 10-6, winning the NFC East. The team was fourth in scoring offense (27.3) and fifth in total offense (383.2). In 2017, tight end Zach Miller played only eight games before suffering a career-ending injury, totaling 20 receptions for 236 yards (11.8 avg.) and two touchdowns. In addition to Miller, tight ends Dion Sims (15), Dan Brown (13) and Adam Shaheen (12) all had double-digit receptions.

Smith's first NFL coaching job came with the New Orleans Saints from 2010-14. He began as a coaching assistant from 2010-11 and was promoted to offensive assistant/offensive line from 2012-14. During those five seasons, the Saints won at least 10 games on three occasions and made the playoffs three times. During his three seasons as offensive assistant/offensive line (2012-14), the Saints were second in the NFL in total offense (407.2) and fifth in scoring offense (26.6).

In 2014, the Saints spread out their offensive attack to multiple weapons. Quarterback Drew Brees passed for 4,952 yards and joined Ingram, Graham and guard Jahri Evans in the Pro Bowl.

The Saints won 11 games and their first-ever road playoff win in 2014, posting an 8-0 mark at home. Brees passed for 5,162 yards and 39 touchdowns, earning a Pro Bowl nod. Graham (first team) and Evans (second team) earned All-Pro honors and Pro Bowl selections and Graham led the NFL with 16 receiving touchdowns that season.

In Smith's first season as offensive assistant/offensive line in 2012, he helped two offensive linemen earn Pro Bowl honors – Evans and tackle Jermon Bushrod. Evans also earned first-team All-Pro recognition. The Saints had two 1,000-yard receivers and four players catch at least 60 passes.

The Saints won at least 10 games and advanced to the playoffs in each of Smith's first two seasons with the club (2010-11) as a coaching assistant.

Smith spent four seasons (2006-09) at Butler, beginning his tenure as offensive line coach (2006) before he was promoted to offensive coordinator/offensive line in 2007. He helped the Bulldogs improve from a 4-7 mark in 2007 to an 11-1 record in 2009.

Smith's first coaching position came as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Miami (Ohio), from 2004-05.

Smith was a captain and three-year starter on the offensive line at Miami (Ohio) from 2001-03. He helped protect quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, who recently concluded an 18-year career with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

He joined the Dolphins after spending five seasons (2017-21) in San Francisco, where he served as assistant head coach/tight ends. He was primarily responsible for developing tight end George Kittle, who arrived in San Francisco as a fifth-round pick in 2017, Embree's first season with the 49ers.

Since entering the NFL in 2017, Kittle has been the second-most productive tight end in the league, totaling 4,489 receiving yards in five seasons. He was named first-team All-Pro in 2019 and earned three Pro Bowl selections following the 2018, 2019 and 2021 seasons.

In 2021, Embree helped the 49ers advance to the NFC Championship game. Kittle was fourth among all NFL tight ends with 910 receiving yards despite missing three games due to injury and was named to the Pro Bowl.

In 2020, Kittle missed half the season due to injury but still caught 48 passes for 634 yards (13.2 avg.). His 634 yards ranked third on the team despite missing eight contests. Two other tight ends totaled at least 200 receiving yards in Ross Dwelley (245) and Jordan Reed (231).

San Francisco won the NFC and advanced to Super Bowl LIV at the end of the 2019 season. The 49ers went 13-3, winning the NFC West. Kittle led the 49ers in receptions (85) and receiving yards (1,053) and was one of three NFL tight ends to top 1,000 receiving yards that season. He set the NFL record for the most receiving yards by a tight end through their first three seasons (2,945). Kittle earned first-team All-Pro honors and was named a starter in the Pro Bowl.

Just a year removed from being a fifth-round pick, Kittle had a record-breaking season in 2018. The second-year tight end caught 88 passes for 1,377 yards (15.7 avg.) and five touchdowns. His 1,377 receiving yards led all NFL tight ends and was the most by a tight end in NFL history at the time. He also set a 49ers tight end franchise record with 88 receptions. Kittle earned second-team All-Pro honors and was selected to the Pro Bowl.

In 2017, Embree mentored Kittle during his rookie season. The young tight end finished third on the team in receiving with 43 receptions for 515 yards (12.0 avg.). Tight end Garrett Celek set a single-season career high with four touchdown receptions.

Embree spent three seasons (2014-16) as tight ends coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

In 2016, the Buccaneers won nine games, posting their first winning season since 2010. Tight end Cameron Brate had the best season so far in his eight-year NFL career, posting career highs in receptions (57), receiving yards (660) and receiving touchdowns (eight). His eight touchdown receptions were tied for the most by an NFL tight end that season. As a unit, Tampa Bay's tight ends caught 11 touchdowns, which was the most by the team's tight ends since 1985.

In 2015, Embree worked with tight end Austin Seferian-Jenkins, who posted a 16.1 yards per catch average. The mark was the second-best of any tight end in the NFL that year behind New England's Rob Gronkowski (16.3, min. 20 receptions).

Embree was the tight ends coach of the Cleveland Browns in 2013. He helped tight end Jordan Cameron total 917 receiving yards, second-most by a tight end in the NFL that season. Cameron earned the only Pro Bowl selection of his career the season he was coached by Embree.

From 2011-12, Embree was the head coach at the University of Colorado-Boulder, where he became the third alumnus in school history to be head coach of the football team.

He served as Washington's tight ends coach in 2010 and worked with tight end Chris Cooley, who finished second among NFL tight ends in receptions (77) and third in receiving yards (849) that season.

Embree's first NFL coaching job came in 2006 when he was named tight ends coach for the Kansas City Chiefs. He spent three seasons (2006-08) there, working with Pro Football Hall of Fame tight end Tony Gonzalez.

In 2008, Gonzalez led all NFL tight ends with 96 receptions for 1,058 yards (11.0 avg.) and 10 touchdowns. Gonzalez also led all NFL tight ends with 99 receptions for 1,172 yards (11.8 avg.) while adding five touchdowns in 2007. It marked the only time in Gonzalez's Hall of Fame career that he had consecutive 1,000-yard campaigns.

Gonzalez earned All-Pro honors and was selected to the Pro Bowl in each of the three seasons he worked with Embree.

Prior to joining the NFL, Embree spent 13 years at the collegiate level. He spent three seasons (2003-05) at UCLA, serving as assistant head coach/wide receivers (2003) and assistant head coach/tight ends (2004-05). He also spent 10 seasons at Colorado (1993-2002), coaching tight ends (1993-94, 1999-2000), defensive ends (1995-98) and wide receivers/kickers (2001-02).

During his collegiate coaching career, Embree mentored two Mackey Award winners, awarded annually to college football's top tight end. At UCLA, Embree helped tight end Mercedes Lewis earn the honor with 741 receiving yards and 10 touchdowns in 2005. At Colorado, Embree developed tight end Daniel Graham, who won the Mackey Award in 2001 after totaling 753 receiving yards and six touchdowns.

His first coaching job was at Colorado in 1991 as a volunteer assistant. He also coached wide receivers/tight ends at Douglas County (Colo.) High School in 1992.

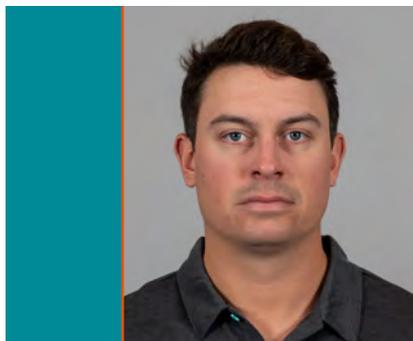

Embree was a sixth-round pick (166th overall) by the L.A. Rams in 1987. He played two seasons (1987-88) at tight end for the Rams, appearing in 13 games, before suffering a career-ending elbow injury in 1989 with the Seattle Seahawks.

Embree lettered four seasons (1983-86) as a tight end at Colorado. He finished his career with 80 receptions, 1,116 receiving yards and five touchdowns, and graduated with a degree in communications in 1987.

A native of Englewood, California, Embree and his wife, Natalyn, have two sons, Taylor and Connor, and one daughter, Hannah. His father, John Embree, played two seasons (1969-70) for the Denver Broncos.

JOSH GRIZZARD

QUALITY CONTROL

COLLEGE: YALE

NFL: SIXTH SEASON

DOLPHINS: SIXTH SEASON

Josh Grizzard joined the Miami Dolphins in 2017 and is in his second stint as a quality control coach. He spent the 2020-21 seasons as wide receivers coach and previously served as a quality control coach from 2017-19.

In 2021, Grizzard mentored wide receiver Jaylen Waddle, who had the most productive rookie season of any pass-catcher in Dolphins history. Waddle set the NFL's rookie receptions record with 104. The mark shattered the previous Dolphins rookie high of 84 set by wide receiver Jarvis Landry in 2014. His 104 receptions ranked third in Dolphins history regardless of experience. Waddle became the first rookie in team history to top 1,000 receiving yards, finishing with 1,015. He became the 22nd NFL rookie and 11th different Dolphins player to have a 1,000 receiving yards in a season.

Grizzard oversaw a receivers unit that had a lot of transition in 2020. Eight different wide receivers caught passes for the Dolphins and five of them set or tied a career high in a major receiving category. Wide receiver DeVante Parker had the second-most productive season of his seven-year NFL career, leading the team with 63 receptions and 793 receiving yards (12.6 avg.). Wide receiver Jakeem Grant had a career-high 36 receptions for 373 yards (10.4 avg.).

As a quality control coach in 2019, Grizzard worked closely with the wide receivers group as Parker compiled one of the best seasons by a receiver in Dolphins history. Parker set career highs in receptions (72), receiving yards (1,202) and receiving touchdowns (9), and his 1,202 receiving yards were the most by a wide receiver in the AFC and ranked fifth among all NFL players. The total was sixth in single-season team history.

In 2018, Grizzard helped the Dolphins offense improve from 24th to ninth in the NFL with a 4.68 yards per carry average. The Dolphins also set an NFL record with three different wide receivers throwing a touchdown in the same season – Albert Wilson, Danny Amendola and Kenny Stills.

Grizzard spent four seasons (2013-16) at Duke where he was a graduate assistant/quality control coach working primarily with the quarterbacks. He was promoted into that role following the 2013 season, when he served as a football operations assistant. Grizzard helped the Blue Devils to their best three-year stretch (2013-15) in school history with 27 total wins, an ACC Coastal division title and three consecutive bowl appearances.

In 2016, he worked with quarterback Daniel Jones and helped the redshirt freshman rank No. 6 in the ACC and lead all conference freshmen with 276.8 yards of total offense per game. Jones went on to be drafted sixth overall by the New York Giants in the 2019 NFL Draft.

In 2015, Grizzard helped first-year starting quarterback Thomas Sirk throw for 2,625 yards and 16 touchdowns while rushing for 803 yards and eight more scores. Sirk became one of just three quarterbacks in ACC history to throw for 2,500-plus yards and rush for 800-plus yards in a single season. His 3,428 total offensive yards were second all-time in single-season school history.

The 2014 Blue Devils featured five All-ACC selections and compiled 421 total points, the second-most in school history. Quarterback Anthony Boone, the winningest quarterback in the history of Duke football, earned All-ACC honors and the team finished in the conference's top five in six offensive statistics.

Grizzard played defensive back at Yale and graduated with a degree in political science. He earned his master's degree in Christian studies from Duke.

Grizzard is a native of Zebulon, North Carolina. His last name is pronounced grizz-ARD.

Henley spent the 2021 season with the Atlanta Falcons as assistant offensive line coach. He worked with a young offensive line – only one starter was over 26 years old – that helped protect quarterback Matt Ryan, who passed for 3,968 yards. The unit also paved the way for running back Cordarrelle Patterson to total a career-high 1,166 yards from scrimmage in his first season as a full-time starting running back.

From 2018-20, Henley was a quality control coach for the Tennessee Titans, where he worked primarily with the offensive line. During his three seasons there, the Titans were second in the NFL, averaging 144.5 rushing yards per game. Tennessee posted winning seasons in all three years, advanced to the AFC Championship game in 2019 and won 11 games and the AFC South in 2020.

In 2020, the Titans were second in rushing offense (168.1), tied for second in total offense (396.4), fourth in scoring offense (30.7) and sixth in fewest sacks allowed (25). Running back Derrick Henry was named NFL Offensive Player of the Year after rushing for 2,027 yards and 17 touchdowns.

The 2019 Titans finished 9-7 but won playoff games at New England and Baltimore to advance to the AFC Championship game. Henry rushed for an NFL-leading 1,540 yards and 16 touchdowns, earning second-team All-Pro recognition and Pro Bowl honors. Tennessee's rushing attack was third in the league (138.9) and its scoring offense ranked 10th (25.1). Quarterback Ryan Tannehill was the NFL's highest-ranked passer (117.5).

In 2018, Henley helped tackle Taylor Lewan earn his third consecutive Pro Bowl appearance. The Titans won nine games despite using multiple quarterbacks. Henry totaled 1,059 rushing yards and 12 rushing touchdowns and the rushing offense was seventh (126.4) in the league.

Henley was the tight ends coach at his alma mater, Yale, from 2015-17. In 2017, Yale went 9-1 and earned its first outright Ivy League championship since 1980. Henley mentored tight end Jaeden Graham, who earned first-team All-Ivy League honors and went on to play for the Atlanta Falcons.

Henley's first coaching position came at Vanderbilt, where he served as offensive/recruiting graduate assistant from 2012-13 and worked with the running backs and wide receivers. He added assistant quarterback coach responsibilities in 2014. Vanderbilt won nine games in back-to-back seasons for the first time in history in 2012-13.

Prior to coaching, Henley worked in sales for IBM and Google. He also worked as a part-time researcher for NBC's Football Night in America.

Henley played wide receiver at Yale from 2002-06, recording 110 career receptions for 1,609 yards (14.6 avg.) and 11 touchdowns. In 2006, as the sole captain of an Ivy League championship team, he led the team in receptions, yards and touchdowns.

LEMUEL JEANPIERRE

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: SOUTH CAROLINA

NFL: 12TH SEASON

DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

2013 (PLAYER)

2013 (PLAYER), 2014 (PLAYER)

Lemuel Jeanpierre (pronounced leh-mew-ELL zhon-pee-AIR) joined the Miami Dolphins in 2020 and is in his second stint as assistant offensive line coach. He was the team's offensive line coach in 2021 and was the assistant offensive line coach in 2020.

The 2022 season marks Jeanpierre's 12th in the NFL – six as a player (2010-15) and six as a coach (2017-22).

In his first two seasons (2020-21) with the team, the Dolphins posted back-to-back winning seasons for the first time in nearly two decades.

In 2021, Jeanpierre oversaw a Dolphins offensive line that featured just one starter over the age of 25 and progressed throughout the season. Miami was 21st in the NFL with 19.0 sacks allowed from Weeks 1-8 but after Week 8, they allowed just 21.0 sacks, which was tied for 13th in the league. The Dolphins also improved their rushing attack by more than 25 yards per game in that span.

In his first season with Miami in 2020, Jeanpierre helped the Dolphins win 10 games for the first time since 2016. He helped mentor an offensive line that had three rookies start a combined 37 games and finish in the top half of the league in sacks allowed (34.0, tied for 15th). Tackle Austin Jackson, guard/tackle Robert Hunt and guard Solomon Kindley made history when they became the first trio of Dolphins draft picks to start a game as rookies together on the offensive line.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Jeanpierre served as the assistant offensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders from 2018-19.

In 2019, Jeanpierre helped the Raiders offensive line limit opponents to just 29.0 sacks. The team had four games where they didn't allow a sack. The 29 sacks allowed were the eighth-fewest in the NFL. The Raiders offensive line also helped running back Josh Jacobs rush for 1,150 yards, becoming the first rookie in team history to have a 1,000-yard rushing season. Two of Oakland's offensive linemen – tackle Trent Brown and center Rodney Hudson – earned Pro Bowl honors.

Jeanpierre's first season with Oakland was in 2018, where he helped mentor a young offensive line that featured two rookie starters – tackle Kolton Miller and tackle Brandon Parker. Miller became the first rookie offensive linemen to start every game for the Raiders since 2011. Parker started 12 consecutive games to end the season. The offensive line helped protect quarterback Derek Carr, who had then-career highs in passing yards (4,049), completion percentage (68.9), completions (381) and yards per attempt (7.3). The Raiders completed 68.7 percent of their passes, breaking the franchise record and ranking fifth in the NFL that season. Hudson and guard Kelechi Osemele were both selected as Pro Bowl alternates.

Jeanpierre earned his first coaching job in 2017 with the Seahawks, where he was hired as an offensive assistant. He focused primarily on the offensive line, where he helped tackle Duane Brown earn his fourth Pro Bowl honor despite not joining the team until Week 9.

Prior to his coaching career, Jeanpierre played six NFL seasons (2010-15) as a center and guard with Seattle, appearing in 63 games with 11 starts. He played in nine postseason games, including Seattle's Super Bowl XLVIII victory over Denver, and helped the Seahawks win three NFC West titles and two NFC Championships in addition to Super Bowl XLVIII. He also spent time with Kansas City (2010) and Detroit (2016).

Jeanpierre began his NFL career as an undrafted college free agent after a collegiate career at South Carolina where he started games on both the offensive and defensive lines.

He was born in Gretna, Louisiana and moved to Orlando, Florida, where he played at Timber Creek High School and earned first-team all-state honors as a defensive lineman. He is of Haitian descent.

Jeanpierre and his wife, Jaylene, have two sons, Isaiah and Kairo, and a daughter, Yana.

The Dolphins had winning records in both seasons, the franchise's first back-to-back winning seasons since 2002-03.

Smith came to Miami with seven years of collegiate experience as a running backs coach – one season at Rutgers (2019), five at Louisville (2014-18) and one at Western Kentucky (2013).

He spent the 2019 season as running backs coach at Rutgers where he helped sophomore running back Isaih Pacheco improve in several statistical categories from the previous season. Under Studesville, the Dolphins saw their rushing attack improve as the 2021 season progressed. Running back Duke Johnson was signed midseason and Studesville was able to get him up to speed quickly. The Miami native posted the only two 100-yard rushing games of his seven-year career in his only two home starts at Hard Rock Stadium, averaging 112 rushing yards in those contests.

In 2020, Studesville helped mentor two young backs in Gaskin and Salvon Ahmed (undrafted in 2020). Gaskin finished 10th in the NFL in scrimmage yards per game (97.2 ypg, min. 10 games) while Ahmed set a Dolphins undrafted rookie record with 122 rushing yards in a Week 15 win vs. New England.

In Studesville's first season in Miami in 2018, he drastically improved the team's running game. Studesville took the Dolphins from 24th in the NFL, averaging 3.86 yards per carry in 2017, to ninth in the statistic, averaging 4.68 yards per carry in 2018.

Prior to his time in Miami, Studesville spent eight seasons (2010-17) as Denver's running backs coach. He was promoted to assistant head coach in 2017.

Studesville was part of the Broncos' Super Bowl 50 victory at the end of the 2015 season. The team averaged nearly 50 rushing yards per game more during the final seven weeks of the season than the first 10, ranking seventh in the league with 135.1 rushing yards in those final seven games.

In 2014, Studesville helped Anderson earn a Pro Bowl selection despite not making his first career start until Week 11. He became just the fifth undrafted running back in NFL history to earn a Pro Bowl selection.

The 2013 Broncos set the league's scoring record with 606 points. Studesville helped Moreno become the first player in Broncos history to post 1,000 yards rushing (1,038) and 500 yards receiving (548). Denver won the AFC Championship and participated in Super Bowl XLVIII.

Studesville's group in 2011 helped the Broncos lead the NFL in rushing, setting a team record with 164.5 rushing yards per game. McGahee tied for the NFL lead with seven 100-yard rushing games and totaled 1,199 rushing yards on the season.

The 2010 season was Studesville's first in Denver and he helped Moreno become the fifth player in team history to record 1,000 yards from scrimmage in each of his first two NFL seasons. He was named the team's interim head coach on Dec. 6, 2010 and served in that capacity for the final four games of the season, becoming the first Black head coach in Broncos history. He earned his first win as an NFL head coach on Dec. 26, 2010 vs. Houston.

From 2004-09, Studesville was the running backs coach for the Buffalo Bills. He added running game coordinator responsibilities in 2008. He coached a 1,000-yard rusher in five of his six seasons in Buffalo, including three straight years to end his tenure there.

Prior to Buffalo, Studesville was the running backs coach for the New York Giants and helped Barber rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons.

Studesville's first NFL stop was the Chicago Bears, where he was an NFL minority coaching fellow during training camp in 1996. He spent four seasons (1997-2000) with the Bears as an offensive quality control coach.

Prior to his NFL coaching career, Studesville was a defensive assistant in the collegiate ranks. He was a secondary coach at Kent State (1995-96) and Wingate (1994). Studesville also spent time as a video assistant at North Carolina (1992-93) and a graduate assistant at Arizona (1991).

Studesville was a defensive back at Wisconsin-Whitewater and graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He earned his master's degree in exercise physiology at Arizona.

Studesville and his wife, Staci, have one daughter, Sydni, and a son, Eric Jr.

Wes Welker joined the Miami Dolphins as wide receivers coach in 2022.

The 2022 season marks Welker's 18th year of NFL experience including 12 as a player and six as a coach, working primarily with the wide receiver position. He's coached or played in four Super Bowls and six conference championships.

Welker spent three seasons (2019-21) as wide receivers coach for San Francisco, helping the 49ers reach two conference championship games and an appearance in Super Bowl LIV. He worked closely with wide receiver Deebo Samuel, who arrived in San Francisco the same year Welker did as a second-round pick (36th overall) in 2019, and developed into the NFL's fifth-leading receiver in 2021 (1,405 yards).

In 2021, Welker coached two 800-yard receivers. Samuel's 1,405 receiving yards were ninth in franchise history and the most by any player other than wide receiver Jerry Rice and wide receiver Terrell Owens. Samuel also rushed for 365 yards and his 1,770 scrimmage yards were the most by a 49er since running back Frank Gore had 2,180 in 2006. He earned first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors. Wide receiver Brandon Aiyuk totaled 826 receiving yards and five touchdowns in his second NFL season. San Francisco won 10 games and advanced to the NFC Championship game.

Injuries plagued the 49ers offense in 2020 but Welker helped Aiyuk record 60 receptions for 748 yards (12.5 avg.) and five touchdowns in his rookie season despite playing just 12 games. His 748 yards were sixth-most by an NFL rookie that season and the most by any rookie that didn't play in all 16 games. It was also the third-most by a rookie in 49ers history. Wide receiver Kendrick Bourne totaled a then career-high 49 receptions and 667 receiving yards (13.6 avg.).

In Welker's first season as a position coach in 2019, he helped the team win 13 games, win the NFC and advance to Super Bowl LIV. Samuel led the team's wide receivers with 57 receptions for 802 yards (14.1 avg.) as a rookie. His 802 receiving yards were fourth-most by a rookie in the league that season and second-most all-time by a 49ers rookie behind Rice's 927 yards in 1985. Wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders was acquired midseason in a trade with Denver and finished third on the team in both receptions (36) and receiving yards (502).

Welker's first coaching job came as an offensive/special teams assistant with Houston from 2017-18.

In 2018, the Texans finished the season with the fifth-most punt return yards (327) in the league and were seventh in kickoff return average (24.4). Wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins had the best year of his career, totaling 115 receptions for 1,572 yards (13.7 avg.) and 11 touchdowns. His 1,572 receiving yards were second in the NFL that season. He earned first-team All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl selection.

In 2017, Welker helped Hopkins and wide receiver Will Fuller V combine for 20 receiving touchdowns, which were the most by any pair of teammates in the NFL that year and most by any pair of Texans teammates in franchise history. Hopkins earned first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors after totaling 96 receptions for 1,378 yards (14.4 avg.) and a franchise-record 13 touchdowns.

Welker played 12 NFL seasons as a wide receiver and returner with San Diego (2004), Miami (2004-06), New England (2007-12), Denver (2013-14) and St. Louis (2015). He appeared in 175 games with 102 starts, totaling 903 career receptions for 9,924 yards (11.0 avg.) and 50 touchdowns. On special teams, he had 183 career kickoff returns for 4,138 yards (22.6 avg.) and one touchdown and 264 career punt returns for 2,584 yards (9.8 avg.).

As a player, Welker earned two first-team All-Pro honors (2009, 2011), two second-team All-Pro honors (2007-08) and five Pro Bowl selections (2008-12). He was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team in 2004 and appeared in three Super Bowls (XLII, XLVI and XLVIII). He led the NFL in receptions three times (2007, 2009 and 2011) and holds the record for most receptions by an undrafted wide receiver in NFL history (903).

During Welker's three seasons (2004-06) in Miami, he appeared in 46 games with three starts, totaling 96 receptions for 1,121 yards (11.7 avg.) and one touchdown. He also totaled 127 punt returns for 1,232 yards (9.7 avg.) and 166 kickoff returns for 3,756 yards (22.6 avg.) and one touchdown. Welker still holds Dolphins career records for punt returns (tied with Jake Scott and O.J. McDuffie at 127), kickoff returns (166) and kickoff return yards (3,756). He also holds team single-season marks for punt returns (43 in both 2004 and 2005) and punt return yards (464 in 2004).

Welker attended Texas Tech, where he recorded 259 career receptions for 3,019 yards (11.7 avg.) and 21 touchdowns in addition to 79 carries for 456 yards (5.8 avg.) and two touchdowns. He tied an NCAA record with eight punt return touchdowns and won the Mosi Tatupu Award in 2003 for the best special teams player in college football. Sports Illustrated named him to the publication's all-decade team as a punt returner.

An Oklahoma City native, Welker and his wife, Anna, have three children, Carter, Caroline and Jack.

COACHING STAFF (DEFENSE)

JOSH BOYER

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
COLLEGE: MUSKINGUM COLLEGE
NFL: 17TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

2015, 2016, 2018

2007, 2011, 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018

Josh Boyer joined the Miami Dolphins in 2019 and was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2020. He was the team's defensive pass game coordinator/cornerbacks coach in 2019.

The 2022 season is Boyer's 17th in the NFL and his third as defensive coordinator. During his previous 16 years, Boyer's teams have posted 15 winning seasons, 12 division titles, six conference championships and three Super Bowl titles (XLIX, LI and LIII). He has coached on the defensive staff for teams that have finished in the top half of the NFL in scoring defense in 15 of those 16 seasons. In his first two seasons (2020-21) as defensive coordinator, his units finished in the top half of the league in scoring defense.

In 2021, Boyer helped oversee the development of several young players that helped shape a Dolphins defense that was one of the best in the league. All 11 players that started the Week 18 season finale were under the age of 30 and eight of them were drafted by Miami. The Dolphins defense had five total touchdowns, its most since 2001, and held opponents to fewer than 300 passing yards in each of the final 10 games of the season. Miami's 48.0 sacks on the year were one shy of the team record (1983 and 2005) as the Dolphins led the NFL with 91 passes defended and were second with 121 quarterback hits.

Miami had standout seasons from several defensive players in 2021. Defensive tackle Christian Wilkins posted 89 tackles, which was tied for the most by any NFL defensive lineman since 2013 and the second-most by a Dolphins defensive lineman since at least 1986. Defensive end Emmanuel Ogbah had 12 passes defended, the most by an NFL defensive lineman since 2016. Two defensive players – safety Jevon Holland and linebacker Jaelan Phillips – earned PFWA All-Rookie team recognition. Phillips broke the team's single-season rookie record for sacks with 8.5. Cornerback Xavien Howard earned his third Pro Bowl selection.

In his first season as defensive coordinator in 2020, Boyer directed a unit that finished sixth in the NFL in points allowed per game (21.1). Miami led the NFL in takeaways (29) and third-down defense (31.2 pct.) en route to winning 10 games for the first time since 2016. Howard tied the single-season franchise record with 10 interceptions, which were the most by an NFL player since 2007 (Antonio Cromartie, 10). Howard earned first-team All-Pro honors for the first time in his career and his second Pro Bowl selection.

As defensive pass game coordinator/cornerbacks coach in 2019, Boyer helped Miami's pass defense improve significantly throughout the season. The Dolphins allowed 296.3 passing yards per game in their first four games but limited that number to just 251.1 passing yards allowed per game in the final 12 games following the team's Week 5 bye.

Boyer came to Miami after spending 13 years with New England as a coaching assistant (2006-08), defensive backs coach (2009-11) and cornerbacks coach (2012-18). During his tenure, the Patriots won 12 division titles, six AFC championships and three Super Bowls (XLIX, LI and LIII). The team went 162-46 (.779) in the regular season during Boyer's time in New England, the best record in the NFL during that span.

In Boyer's 10 seasons (2009-18) as a position coach for the Patriots, he helped develop five different Pro Bowl selections and five different All-Pro honorees. In that span, the team had the NFL's third-best scoring defense, allowing 19.4 points per game. Opposing passers had a rating of just 84.8 during those 10 seasons, the 10th-best mark in the league.

The 2018 Patriots won Super Bowl LIII thanks in part to a defense that played well against the pass, limiting opposing passers to an 85.4 rating. New England was third in the league in interceptions (18) and the defense, as a whole, was seventh in the NFL in scoring, allowing just 20.3 points per game. Cornerback Stephon Gilmore earned first-team All-Pro honors for the first time in his career and was selected to his second Pro Bowl.

Boyer and the Patriots won Super Bowl LI in 2016. Cornerback Malcolm Butler earned second-team All-Pro honors with a team-leading four interceptions. Logan Ryan led all NFL cornerbacks with 92 tackles (74 solo). New England went 14-2 in the regular season with the league's best scoring defense, surrendering just 15.6 points per game.

New England won Super Bowl XLIX in 2014 as Boyer once again tutored a first-team All-Pro cornerback in Darrelle Revis, in what was Revis' only season with the Patriots. Revis led the team with 14 passes defended and was tied for the team lead with two interceptions, earning the sixth Pro Bowl selection of his career.

In Boyer's first season transitioning to cornerbacks coach in 2012, the Patriots led the NFL in turnover differential (+25), were second in takeaways (41), tied for fifth in interceptions (20) and tied for ninth in scoring defense (20.7).

From 2009-11, Boyer served as New England's defensive backs coach. In 2011, the Patriots won 13 regular-season games, led the AFC in turnover differential (+17) and advanced to Super Bowl XLVI. He helped cornerback Kyle Arrington tie for the NFL lead with seven interceptions that season.

Boyer was a coaching assistant for the Patriots from 2006-08 and was part of the 2007 Patriots team that went 16-0 in the regular season and won the AFC Championship.

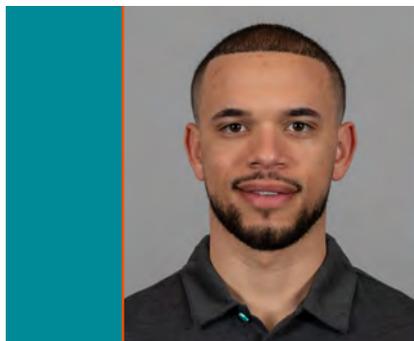

Prior to his time in New England, Boyer held several collegiate coaching positions. He served as defensive coordinator at South Dakota School of Mines and Technology in 2005, was defensive backs coach at Bryant in 2004 and also held graduate assistant roles at Kent State (2002-03) and Dayton (2001). He began his coaching career at King's College (Pa.) as an assistant coach in 2000.

Boyer was a four-year starter at Muskingam College (1996-99) in Ohio. He played wide receiver for three seasons before switching to defensive back as a senior and earning All-Ohio Athletic Conference honors at the position in 1999. He graduated from the school with a degree in physical education and health.

A Heath, Ohio native, Boyer and his wife, Kristi, have one daughter, Kennedy.

MATHIEU ARAUJO

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS
COLLEGE: BRIDGEWATER STATE
NFL: FIRST SEASON
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Mathieu Araujo (pronounced uh-ROO-joh) joined the Miami Dolphins as assistant defensive backs coach in 2022.

The 2022 season marks Araujo's first as an NFL coach after spending seven years in the collegiate coaching ranks. He was named Maine's assistant head coach/defensive coordinator in January 2022 before joining the Dolphins.

Araujo spent three seasons (2019-21) at Yale, where he served as defensive backs coach (2019-21) and recruiting coordinator (2020-21). He was promoted to co-defensive coordinator following the 2021 season prior to moving to Maine.

In 2021, Araujo helped Yale lead the FCS in third down defense (22.1 pct.). The Bulldogs finished 19th in total defense (326.9), 21st in rushing defense (117.1) and 22nd in defensive pass efficiency (117.4). Araujo mentored defensive back Rodney Thomas II, who became Yale's first NFL draft pick since 2018 when he was selected in the seventh round (239th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft by Indianapolis.

In Araujo's first season at Yale (2019), he helped the team total 11 interceptions, which was tied for second in the Ivy League and a big improvement over a last-place finish the previous season when Yale only had three interceptions.

Araujo spent two seasons (2017-18) at Boston College where he began his tenure as an intern and was promoted to graduate assistant in 2018. He primarily worked with the defensive backs and helped the Eagles reach bowl games in both seasons.

Boston College had 18 interceptions in each of Araujo's two seasons there. That mark was tied for fifth in the nation in 2018 and tied for 12th in 2017.

At Boston College, Araujo coached three draft picks – safety Will Harris (2019, 81st overall, Detroit), cornerback Isaac Yiadom (2018, 99th overall, Denver) and cornerback Kamrin Moore (2019, 189th overall, New Orleans).

Araujo also spent time with the Houston Texans after being selected for the Bill Walsh Minority Internship.

His first coaching position came as wide receivers/running backs coach at Maine Maritime Academy in 2015. In 2016, Araujo served as a graduate assistant at Springfield College, where he worked with the outside linebackers and coordinated the special teams units.

An East Freetown, Massachusetts native, Araujo was a four-year letterman at Bridgewater State. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Bridgewater State and a master's degree in education from Springfield College. He and his wife, Elise, have one daughter, Avery.

ANTHONY CAMPANILE

LINEBACKERS

COLLEGE: RUTGERS

NFL: THIRD SEASON

DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

Anthony Campanile (pronounced CAMP-uh-neeel-ee) joined the Miami Dolphins as linebackers coach in 2020.

Campanile has experience coaching multiple position groups on both sides of the ball and served as co-defensive coordinator for Boston College in 2018.

In 2021, Campanile worked with a diverse group of linebackers that were very active rushing the passer. The Dolphins finished with 48.0 sacks, one shy of the team record (1983 and 2005). His linebackers tallied 19.5 of those sacks and two of Miami's top three leaders in sacks (Jaelan Phillips and Jerome Baker) were linebackers. Phillips set a Dolphins rookie record with 8.5 sacks. Baker once again led the team in tackles with 92 and became the first Dolphins player since at least 2000 to total 400-plus tackles in his first four NFL seasons.

In his first NFL season in 2020, Campanile helped the Dolphins finish sixth in the league in points allowed per game (21.1). Miami led the NFL in takeaways (29) and third-down defense (31.2 pct.) en route to winning 10 games for the first time since 2016. For the first time in team history, the Dolphins had three linebackers record at least 5.0 sacks in a season – Baker had 7.0, Kyle Van Noy had 6.0 and Andrew Van Ginkel had 5.5. Baker led the team with 111 tackles (69 solo), his second-straight season with at least 100 stops.

In 2019, Campanile served as the linebackers coach at Michigan. He helped mentor Khaleke Hudson and Josh Uche, both of whom earned second-team All-Big Ten honors for the first time in their careers. Hudson led the team with 101 tackles (45 solo), which ranked fifth in the Big Ten, and was a fifth-round pick by Washington in the 2020 NFL Draft. Uche led the team with 8.5 sacks, which were ninth in the Big Ten, and was drafted in the second round of the 2020 NFL Draft by New England.

Campanile spent three seasons (2016-18) at Boston College, where he coached defensive backs (2016-17) and added co-defensive coordinator responsibilities in his final season there (2018). He helped six of his defensive backs earn All-ACC honors and four of his defensive backs were selected in the NFL Draft.

In 2018, the Eagles were 11th nationally with 26 takeaways. Their 18 interceptions tied for the ACC lead and were fifth in FBS. Defensive back Hamp Cheevers earned first-team All-ACC and third-team All-American honors after tying for the FBS lead with seven interceptions that season.

Boston College's 2017 secondary ranked third nationally in pass efficiency defense (101.8) and 12th nationally with 18 interceptions. Defensive back Lukas Denis earned second-team All-ACC and second-team All-America honors after recording seven interceptions, tied for the second-best mark in FBS. Campanile was named National Defensive Backs Coach of the Year for his efforts that season.

In Campanile's first season at Boston College in 2016, he oversaw a defensive backs unit that helped the Eagles defense rank ninth nationally (314.2 yards allowed per game). The unit was fourth in the ACC in passing defense (205.6 passing yards allowed per game).

Prior to that, Campanile spent four seasons (2012-15) coaching both sides of the ball at his alma mater, Rutgers. He was a defensive assistant in 2012 before moving to the offensive side of the ball in 2013, coaching tight ends (2013-14) and wide receivers (2015).

In 2015, Campanile tutored wide receiver Leonte Carroo, who led the Big Ten and tied for 14th nationally with 10 receiving touchdowns. Carroo earned third-team All-Big Ten honors and was selected in the third round (86th overall) in the 2016 NFL Draft by Miami.

As tight ends coach at Rutgers from 2013-14, Campanile helped develop Tyler Kroft, who was selected in the third round (85th overall) of the 2015 NFL Draft. Kroft earned honorable mention All-America honors and was named first-team All-AAC in 2013.

Campanile began his coaching career as a student assistant at Rutgers in 2005. He spent six years as a high school coach in New Jersey, beginning as an assistant at his alma mater, Fair Lawn High School, in 2006, and then five years (2007-11) at Don Bosco Prep. While there, Campanile coached linebackers (2007-09) and served as offensive coordinator (2010-11). His teams won state titles in both of his seasons as offensive coordinator and earned a No. 1 national ranking in 2011.

Campanile played safety and linebacker at Rutgers from 2001-04, graduating with a degree in history. He and his wife, Tracey, have two daughters, Valentina and Serafina, and one son, Anthony.

DOLPHINS NO. 1 OVERALL DRAFT PICKS

The Dolphins have had five former No. 1 overall picks play for the team, but only one was selected by the Dolphins. Former No. 1 picks to play for the Dolphins include wide receiver Irving Fryar (1984 by New England), defensive tackles Steve Emtman (1992 by Indianapolis), Dan Wilkinson (1994 by Cincinnati), defensive end Mario Williams (2006 by Houston) and tackle Jake Long (2008 by Miami). This does not include running back Jim Grabowski (drafted in the 1966 AFL Draft by Miami), but signed instead with the NFL's Green Bay Packers or quarterback Bernie Kosar, who was selected as the first overall pick in the 1985 supplemental draft by the Cleveland Browns before joining the Dolphins later in his career.

Austin Clark joined the Miami Dolphins as outside linebackers coach in 2020 and was promoted to defensive line coach in 2021.

In Clark's first season as defensive line coach in 2021, he helped multiple Dolphins defensive linemen have standout seasons. Defensive tackle Christian Wilkins totaled a career-high 89 tackles, which were tied for the most by any NFL defensive lineman since 2013. The mark was the second-most tackles by a Dolphins defensive lineman since 1986 and most since defensive end Jeff Cross had 93 in 1993, and ranked second on the team for any player that season. Wilkins also had a career-high 10 tackles for loss. Defensive end Emmanuel Ogbah recorded 12 passes defended, which were the most by any NFL defensive lineman since 2016, and had career highs in tackles for loss (nine) and quarterback hits (24). Defensive tackle Zach Sieler had a career-high 33 tackles. As a unit, the Dolphins finished second in the NFL with 121 quarterback hits and fifth with 48.0 sacks, including eight in one game at New Orleans in Week 16. Miami led the NFL with 28 passes batted down at the line of scrimmage.

As outside linebackers coach in his first season with Miami in 2020, Clark helped the Dolphins defense improve from 32nd to tied for 10th in sacks (41.0). Miami also ranked sixth in the league in points allowed (21.1 per game). The Dolphins led the NFL in takeaways (29) and third-down defense (31.2 pct.) en route to winning 10 games for the first time since 2016. The team had three linebackers total at least 5.0 sacks in the same season for the first time in franchise history, as Jerome Baker had 7.0, Kyle Van Noy had 6.0 and Andrew Van Ginkel had 5.5.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Clark spent two seasons (2018-19) as the defensive line coach at the University of Illinois.

In 2019, Clark helped the Fighting Illini finish the regular season 6-6 and earn an invitation to the Redbox Bowl, their first bowl appearance since 2014. The team had several notable wins, including an upset of No. 6 Wisconsin and a come-from-behind victory over Michigan State after trailing by 24 points. It was the largest comeback in school history. Junior Oluwole Betiku Jr. played in just 10 games due to injury but recorded nine sacks, which was tied for seventh in the Big Ten and tied for seventh in school history. He earned third-team All-Big Ten honors despite missing the previous season with an injury.

Clark mentored defensive end Bobby Roundtree in 2018, who led the nation in pass breakups by a defensive lineman with seven. His 7.5 sacks that season ranked sixth in the Big Ten.

Prior to Illinois, Clark spent two seasons (2016-17) at Southern California, where he coached defensive linemen and outside linebackers.

In 2017, Clark and the Trojans won the Pac-12 Conference and posted 46 sacks, tied for the most in the nation. He tutored outside linebacker Uchenna Nwosu, who was a second-round pick in the 2018 NFL Draft (48th overall to Los Angeles Chargers), along with defensive tackle Rasheem Green, who was a third-round pick (79th overall to Seattle). Slowik served as outside linebackers coach for Cleveland in 2016. The Browns acquired outside linebacker Jamie Collins Sr. at the trade deadline and Slowik quickly helped Collins become a key contributor. In just eight games for the Browns that season, Collins ranked third on the team with 69 tackles (48 solo). He was tied for third with seven tackles for loss and also contributed two sacks. He also worked with rookie outside linebacker Joe Schobert, who played in all 16 games for the Browns.

As assistant defensive line coach for the New York Jets in 2015, Slowik helped the team finish second in the NFL in rushing defense (83.4) and third in yards allowed per carry (3.6). Defensive end Muhammad Wilkerson led the team with 12 sacks and earned his first career Pro Bowl selection. Slowik also worked with rookie defensive end Leonard Williams, who finished fifth among NFL rookie defensive linemen with three sacks that season.

Slowik spent six seasons (2009-14) with the Arizona Cardinals in a variety of defensive assistant coach roles. He was a defensive quality control coach from 2009-11 and was promoted to outside linebackers coach in 2012. He spent the 2013-14 seasons as defensive assistant/defensive backs.

From 2012-14 while serving as a position coach, Slowik helped the Cardinals force 88 takeaways, which was fifth in the league during that span. Arizona also limited opponents to a 35.3 conversion rate on third downs, also fifth in the NFL. The Cardinals posted at least 10 wins in three of his six seasons there.

In 2014, Slowik worked with the defensive backs and two of them – cornerback Antonio Cromartie and cornerback Patrick Peterson – earned Pro Bowl nods. Arizona finished 11-5 that season, the team's best mark since 1975.

Peterson also earned a Pro Bowl selection in 2013, Slowik's first season working with the defensive backs.

Slowik's first NFL coaching position came with the Denver Broncos where he spent four seasons (2005-08) in a variety of roles. After beginning his tenure as a defensive assistant (2005-06), Slowik was promoted to assistant special teams coach in 2007 and assistant defensive backs coach in 2008.

In 2007, kicker Jason Elam became the first kicker since at least 1970 to convert four walk-off game-winning field goals in the same season.

As a defensive assistant (2005-06) in Denver, Slowik worked closely with the defensive backs. In 2006, cornerback Champ Bailey was the runner-up for NFL Defensive Player of the Year after tying for the NFL lead with 10 interceptions. In 2005, Bailey was named first-team All-Pro and both Bailey and safety John Lynch were selected to the Pro Bowl.

Slowik began his coaching career in 2004 at his alma mater, Wisconsin-Oshkosh, where he served as assistant secondary coach.

He also spent one season (2003) as a personnel intern with the Green Bay Packers.

Slowik played safety at Wisconsin-Oshkosh for three seasons (2001-03). He also played two seasons at Youngstown State (1999-2000).

Slowik's father, Bob, spent 10 seasons as an NFL defensive coordinator for four teams – Chicago (1993-98), Cleveland (1999), Green Bay (2004) and Denver (2007-08). Bob is currently coaching for the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League. Slowik's brother, Bobby, is currently the offensive pass game coordinator for the San Francisco 49ers.

COACHING STAFF (SPECIAL TEAMS)

DANNY
CROSSMAN

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
COLLEGE: PITTSBURGH
NFL: 20TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Danny Crossman joined the Miami Dolphins as special teams coordinator in 2019. He also served as assistant head coach in 2021.

The 2022 season marks Crossman's 30th coaching special teams, including 20 seasons in the NFL. He has been a special teams coordinator for 18 seasons with Carolina (2005-09), Detroit (2010-12), Buffalo (2013-18) and Miami (2019-present).

Crossman helped the Dolphins post winning seasons in 2020 and 2021. It was the first time Miami had back-to-back winning seasons since 2002-03.

Crossman has coached kicker Jason Sanders in all but one of Sanders' NFL seasons, helping him become the most accurate kicker in Dolphins history. Sanders enters 2022 converting 100-of-120 career field goal opportunities, good for 83.3 percent. Sanders had the longest active PAT streak in the NFL during Crossman's tenure, converting 69 straight extra points from Dec. 15, 2019 to Nov. 28, 2021, covering 31 games without a miss.

In 2021, Crossman integrated a new punter in Michael Palardy. The free agent signee had one of the best seasons of his career, finishing third in the NFL with 31 punts inside the 20. He ranked fifth in the league with 11 punts inside the 10 and was third with five punts inside the five. Palardy earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors in the Week 13 win vs. the N.Y. Giants after pinning three punts inside the 20 and having a career-long 65-yard punt. The Dolphins also blocked a punt in a Week 12 win over Carolina, as linebacker Duke Riley took the ball off the punter's foot and cornerback Justin Coleman returned it two yards for a touchdown.

Crossman helped the Dolphins win 10 games in 2020 for the first time since 2016. Sanders earned first-team All-Pro honors after tying the franchise points record with 144 that season. His 36 field goals made were the second-most in the league and second-most in Dolphins history. Sanders' 92.3 field goal percentage was a franchise record. He led the NFL with 20 field goals made from 40-plus yards and won two AFC Special Teams Player of the Month and two AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. Punt returner Jakeem Grant finished the year with 330 punt return yards, which ranked second in the NFL. He set the team's punt return touchdown record with his third career punt return score in Week 8 vs. the L.A. Rams. The 88-yard return was the longest in franchise history. According to NFL writer Rick Gosselin's annual special teams rankings, the Dolphins had the seventh-best special teams unit in the NFL in 2020.

Crossman's special teams units had several memorable moments in his first season with Miami in 2019. Sanders earned two AFC Special Teams Player of the Week awards and was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for December, after he kicked 13 successful field goals in the final month of the season. He broke a Dolphins single-game record with seven field goals on Dec. 8, 2019 at the N.Y. Jets. One of Sanders' honors came after he caught a 1-yard touchdown pass from punter Matt Haack on Dec. 1, 2019 vs. Philadelphia. The fake field goal was named the NFL Bridgestone Clutch Performance Play of the Year at NFL Honors and marked the first time since 1964 a player who led his team in punts threw a touchdown to a player who led his team in field goal attempts. Grant had a 101-yard kickoff return for a touchdown on Nov. 17, 2019 vs. Buffalo, making him the franchise record-holder with three career special teams return touchdowns.

Prior to Miami, Crossman spent six seasons (2013-18) as Buffalo's special teams coordinator. According to Gosselin's rankings, the Bills had the NFL's second-best special teams unit in 2014 and seventh-best in 2017.

MOUNTAINEER SHOT

Miami followed up "The Miami Miracle" in 2018 with "Mountaineer Shot" in 2019, another play that won the Bridgestone Performance NFL Play of the Year award. It marked the first time in league history the same team won consecutive Play of the Year awards.

On Dec. 1, 2019 vs. Philadelphia, the Dolphins were facing a fourth-and-goal from the 1-yard line in the second quarter. The Dolphins shifted out of a field goal formation with punter Matt Haack lined up in a shotgun formation at quarterback. He took the snap from center Daniel Kilgore – whose college team's (Appalachian State) nickname was the Mountaineers, hence the name of the play – and rolled to his left, where he threw a touchdown pass to kicker Jason Sanders.

It marked the first time since 1977 (Denver's Jim Turner) an NFL kicker caught a touchdown pass and the first time since 1964 (San Diego's John Hadl and Keith Lincoln) that a player who led his team in punts threw a touchdown to a player who led his team in extra point/field goal attempts.

NFL: FOURTH SEASON

DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Brendan Farrell joined the Miami Dolphins as assistant special teams coach in 2019.

The Dolphins signed a new punter in 2021 and Farrell helped Michael Palardy have one of the most successful seasons of his career. Palardy had a career-high 31 punts inside the 20, which ranked third in the NFL. In the final nine games, Palardy placed 20 punts inside the 20, eight inside the 10 and four inside the five, winning AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors in Week 13 vs. the N.Y. Giants. The Dolphins also blocked a punt in Week 12 vs. Carolina, as linebacker Duke Riley took the ball off the punter's foot and cornerback Justin Coleman returned it two yards for a touchdown.

In 2020, Farrell helped the Dolphins win 10 games for the first time since 2016. Kicker Jason Sanders set a franchise record by converting 92.3 pct. of his field goals. His 144 total points tied a team record and his 36 field goals were second-most in Dolphins history. Sanders earned first-team All-Pro honors for the first time in his career and won two AFC Special Teams Player of the Month and two AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. Punt returner Jakeem Grant was second in the NFL with 330 punt return yards. NFL writer Rick Gosselin ranked the Dolphins seventh in his annual special teams rankings.

In Farrell's first season with the Dolphins in 2019, Miami's special teams had several standout plays. Sanders earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for December after he kicked 13 successful field goals in the final month of the season. He was also named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week twice, including after the Dec. 1, 2019 game vs. Philadelphia when Sanders caught a 1-yard touchdown pass from punter Matt Haack on a fake field goal. The play was named the NFL Bridgestone Clutch Performance Play of the Year at NFL Honors. Miami's return units also had success as Grant returned a kickoff 101 yards for a touchdown on Nov. 17, 2019 vs. Buffalo. It was Grant's third career special teams return touchdown, which was a new team record.

Prior to Miami, Farrell spent six seasons (2013-18) as a special teams analyst at the University of Alabama. The Crimson Tide won two national championships, played in four national title games, made five appearances in the College Football Playoff and won four SEC crowns during his tenure. Alabama was 78-8 (.907) overall and went 44-4 (.917) in the SEC during the six seasons he was on staff.

Farrell helped the Crimson Tide special teams become one of the top units in the nation. They led the SEC in total special teams metrics in 2013 and 2018, led the nation with six special teams touchdowns in 2015 and were first in FBS in net punting average in 2013 (42.4) and 2014 (44.7). In 2017, punter J.K. Scott was a finalist for the Ray Guy Award, given annually to the nation's top punter, and earned first-team All-SEC honors. Scott was a first-team All-American and also earned first-team All-SEC honors as a freshman in 2014. He went on to become a fifth-round pick (172nd overall) by Green Bay in the 2018 NFL Draft. In 2013, punter Cody Mandell earned first-team All-SEC honors and wide receiver Christian Jones was named SEC Special Teams Player of the Year.

Prior to Alabama, Farrell spent four years (2009-12) at Northwestern State, where he was assistant head coach, special teams coordinator and coached tight ends. In 2012, his punt return unit was third in FCS with an 18.2 average. In 2011, Farrell's special teams units led the Southland Conference in kickoff returns (25.1 avg.) and field goal percentage (100.0 pct.) and ranked second in kickoff coverage (19.9 avg.).

Farrell was on LSU's coaching staff for three seasons (2006-08), where he helped the Tigers win the 2007 BCS National Championship and SEC Championship. As a quality control coach, Farrell worked closely with tight ends and special teams. He helped mentor kicker Colt David and punter Patrick Fisher, who both earned first-team All-SEC honors in 2007.

Farrell was a graduate assistant at Middle Tennessee State from 2004-05 and began his coaching career as special teams coordinator and running backs coach at Wayne State from 2002-03.

Farrell played linebacker and safety for four seasons (1996-99) at Notre Dame, where he double majored in English and history. He earned his master's degree in sports administration at Wayne State.

DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Marvin Allen joined the Miami Dolphins as assistant general manager in 2019. The 2022 season marks his 30th in the NFL.

Allen assists General Manager Chris Grier in helping to oversee the college and pro scouting departments. During his tenure with the team, the Dolphins have rebuilt a competitive roster and posted back-to-back winning seasons in 2020-21, the first time the team had accomplished this since the 2002-03 seasons.

The 2021 Dolphins won eight of their final nine games, including their final six at home. Eight of Miami's 11 starters on defense were drafted by the Dolphins and all 11 were under the age of 30. That group scored five defensive touchdowns, the team's most in a season since 2001. The Dolphins also swept New England for the first time since 2000.

In 2020, Miami won 10 games despite having the second-youngest roster in the NFL. The Dolphins set a team record by starting 10 different rookies that season, including eight in one game in a Week 15 win vs. New England. Miami's defense led the league in third downs (28.8 pct.) and takeaways (29) and finished sixth in scoring (21.1 points allowed per game).

In Allen's first season with the Dolphins in 2019, he helped Miami add several rookies who made impacts in their first season. First-round pick Christian Wilkins led all NFL rookie defensive linemen with 56 tackles, the fifth-most by a rookie defensive lineman since 2015. Undrafted wide receiver Preston Williams was tied for the NFL lead among rookies with 32 receptions at the time he suffered a season-ending injury, and undrafted cornerback Nik Needham had 11 passes defended, the second-most among all rookies that season.

Allen came to Miami from Buffalo, where he spent two seasons (2017-18) as a national scout. He worked extensively on Buffalo's 2018 draft class that helped net the team several key contributors. Quarterback Josh Allen, selected seventh overall, developed into a Pro Bowl quarterback. Linebacker Tremaine Edmunds, selected 16th overall, led the team in tackles (121) as a rookie and was tied for fourth among all NFL first-year in the statistic.

Allen spent four seasons (2013-16) with the Kansas City Chiefs as their director of college scouting. He helped the team compile a core of young, talented players that played a major role in Kansas City's six consecutive AFC West titles (2016-21) and back-to-back AFC Championships (2019-20). Allen oversaw the college scouting leading up to four drafts (2014-17) and was instrumental in scouting players like quarterback Patrick Mahomes (2017 first round), defensive tackle Chris Jones (2016 second round), wide receiver Tyreek Hill (2016 fifth round), cornerback Marcus Peters (2015 first round), linebacker D.J. Alexander (2015 fifth round) and linebacker Dee Ford (2014 first round).

Allen spent four seasons (2009-12) with Atlanta. He began his tenure there as an eastern regional scout (2009-12) and was promoted to national scout prior to his departure in early 2013.

Reggie McKenzie joined the Miami Dolphins in 2019 as senior personnel executive. The 2022 season will mark his 29th in the NFL. In his role, he assists Chris Grier and Marvin Allen on scouting pro and college players across the country.

Prior to the Dolphins, McKenzie spent seven years (2012-18) as the general manager of the Oakland Raiders. He was the organization's first general manager since Al Davis was hired as head coach and general manager in 1963.

In 2016, McKenzie was named the NFL's Executive of the Year by Sporting News, The MMQB and the PFWA (Pro Football Writers Association). He helped construct a Raiders team that went 12-4 in the regular season and made the playoffs. It was the team's first playoff appearance and winning season since they won the AFC in 2002. Oakland led the NFL with seven players selected to the Pro Bowl that season, the team's most since 1991. All seven Pro Bowl selections were acquired during McKenzie's tenure.

DOLPHINS FATHER-SON COMBINATIONS

There have been three father-son coaching tandems in Dolphins history. The most recent was offensive line coach Jeremiah Washburn, who coached alongside his father, Jim Washburn, in 2016. The elder Washburn served as senior defensive assistant/pass rush specialist in 2016. Earlier, both Dave Shula (1982-88) and Mike Shula (1991-92, 2000-02) coached under their father, Don, while Tony Sparano Jr. spent one season (2011) under his father, Tony Sparano, who was head coach of the Dolphins from 2008-11.

In 2005, DT Randy Crowder (1974-76) and LB Channing Crowder (2005-10) became the third father-son combination to play for the Dolphins in franchise history. They joined the Barbers, which included linebacker Rudy (1968) and fullback Kantry (1999), and the Grieses, which consisted of Bob (1967-80) and Brian (2003), both quarterbacks. The Crowders were the first father-son tandem to both be drafted by the Dolphins, as Randy was taken in the sixth round in 1974 and Channing was selected in the third round in 2005. In addition, quarterback George Wilson, Jr., played with the Dolphins in 1966 under his father, George, Sr., who was the team's head coach.

HARD ROCK STADIUM

Hard Rock Stadium is a global entertainment destination that serves as home to the Miami Dolphins, the Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix, the Miami Open presented by Itaú, University of Miami college football, the Capital One Orange Bowl game, Rolling Loud, Jazz in the Gardens, major concerts, boxing, international soccer and is a host of world-class events.

The multi-purpose, open-air complex completed a multi-year renovation fine-tuned to enhance the fan experience. On June 17, 2014, the Miami-Dade County Commission approved a Performance-Based Marquee Event Grant Agreement, which moved forward Hard Rock Stadium's modernization plan. The agreement provides bonus payments to the Miami Dolphins for hosting major events in exchange for Dolphins Chairman of the Board & Managing General Partner Stephen Ross taking financial responsibility for the renovation of Hard Rock Stadium without county assistance. The modernization was privately funded by Ross at an estimated cost of more than $755 million.

Phase I of the project was completed for the 2015 season and changed every seat in the stadium, rebuilt the concourses on the 100 and 300 levels, moved seats 25 feet closer to the field on the north and south sidelines, introduced five new premium spaces and offered guests improved food, enhanced concourses and 16 new restroom facilities throughout the facility. For the 2016 season, Hard Rock Stadium installed a state-of-the-art canopy that keeps as many as 92 percent of the spectators in the shade and four high-definition video boards. Unveiled in 2017 were remodeled, modernized suites throughout the stadium offering a more intimate club space on the 200 level with improved amenities and fare.

Hard Rock Stadium hosted its first football game in August 1987 and its first regular season Major League Baseball game in April 1993. It has been home to six Super Bowls, four BCS National Championships, one College Football Playoff National Championship and was the first stadium to host the NFL Pro Bowl after 30 years of the game being held in Hawaii.

HISTORY

Now in its 36th year of operation, Hard Rock Stadium was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds, costing $115 million when it was completed in 1987. The late Dolphins Chairman of the Board & Managing General Partner Joe Robbie led the financing campaign to build "Joe Robbie Stadium." The stadium revolutionized the economics of professional sports when it opened that year. Inclusion of a club level, along with executive suites, helped to finance the construction of the stadium. Season ticket members committed to long-term agreements and in return they received first-class amenities in a state-of-the-art facility.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, then Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase fifty percent of Joe Robbie Stadium and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to South Florida. That effort was rewarded in July 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise. On Jan. 24, 1994, Huizenga acquired the remaining fifty percent of the stadium to give him 100 percent controlling interest.

On Aug. 26, 1996, Pro Player, the sports apparel division of Fruit of the Loom, sponsored the renaming of Joe Robbie Stadium as Pro Player Stadium. It became the first sports marketing and product company to entitle a stadium or arena.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium was held on Aug. 16, 1987, when the Miami Dolphins met the Chicago Bears in a preseason battle. The game also marked the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphins franchise. The stadium hosted the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII, on Jan. 22, 1989. It marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a 10-year absence. Subsequent Super Bowls include Super Bowl XXIX (Jan. 29, 1995), Super Bowl XXIII (Jan. 31, 1999), Super Bowl XLI (Feb. 4, 2007) and Super Bowl XLIV (Feb. 1, 2010). Hard Rock Stadium had the honor of hosting South Florida's record 11th Super Bowl in 2020, the 100th anniversary of the NFL.

Major League Baseball officially began in South Florida in the spring of 1993 as the Florida Marlins opened their inaugural campaign as a National League team. On April 5, 1993, the "new" look of Joe Robbie Stadium as a baseball facility was unveiled to the public for the first time as the Florida Marlins earned a 6-3 win over the Los Angeles Dodgers. On Sept. 28, 2011, the Marlins played their final game at the stadium. A crowd of 34,615 watched as the Marlins dropped a 3-1 decision to the Washington Nationals. In all, the Marlins played 1,504 games in the stadium and posted a record of 781-723.

In 1997, the stadium hosted four World Series games between the Marlins and Cleveland, including Game 1 on Oct. 18, 1997, the first World Series game ever played at the stadium, and Game 7 on Oct. 26, 1997, which the Marlins won, 3-2 in 11 innings, to capture their first World Championship.

Before the arrival of the Marlins, the stadium had played host to 13 spring training games that attracted 370,000 fans and paved the way for baseball in South Florida.

The stadium was renamed Dolphins Stadium in Jan. 2005, as part of a major plan renovation initiated by Huizenga. In April 2006, two high-definition video boards, the largest and second largest in professional sports at that time, were unveiled. A new fascia LED ribbon-board was installed in July 2006.

In 2007, Hard Rock Stadium underwent $250 million in improvements and innovations, adding 360,000 square feet of programmable space, new casual seating and gathering areas throughout the stadium, an all new club level, refurbished luxury suites, new team merchandise store and other amenities. In 2010, corporate offices were built on the east side of Hard Rock Stadium in order to consolidate the business offices of the Miami Dolphins. "A Perfect Moment In Time" statue honoring Don Shula and the team's undefeated season in 1972 was unveiled and proudly adorns the entrance of the offices.

In 2008, Huizenga sold 50 percent of the team, stadium and surrounding developable land to Stephen M. Ross, Chairman of Related Companies, an international real estate development company. Huizenga remained the managing general partner of the franchise until he sold another 45 percent of the team and stadium to Ross in Jan. 2009. Ross became managing general partner with 95 percent stake of the Dolphins and the stadium while Huizenga retained a five percent share of both and remained a 50 percent partner in the land.

In one of his first moves to improve the fan experience at the stadium, in May 2009, Ross and celebrated singer songwriter Jimmy Buffett announced Dolphin Stadium would be renamed Land Shark Stadium. The unique branding brought Buffett's Margaritaville and Land Shark themes to enhance the game-day experience. To mark the announcement, Buffett performed three songs and unveiled the new lyrics to his iconic song "FINS," written expressly for the team.

On Jan. 20, 2010, the stadium's name was changed to Sun Life Stadium as the international financial services organization made Miami and South Florida a major part of a multi-city philanthropic endeavor through a comprehensive marketing partnership with the Miami Dolphins and the Miami Dolphins Foundation.

On Aug. 17, 2016, the Dolphins and Hard Rock International announced an 18-year agreement to name the newly renovated facility Hard Rock Stadium. As part of the agreement, the iconic lifestyle brand became the official Dolphins' hotel and resort partner, casual dining restaurant partner, hospitality partner and Native American Tribe.

On Dec. 20, 2017, Hard Rock Stadium and IMG announced a partnership that would relocate the Miami Open presented by Itaú to Hard Rock Stadium in 2019. The move to Hard Rock Stadium allowed the Miami Open the freedom and flexibility to grow and innovate the event with improved infrastructure, upgraded amenities, expanded space and parking. Construction of the new tennis campus began at the conclusion of the football season in the winter of 2018 hosting the event in 2019, 2021 and 2022. To date, the campus includes 27 competition and practice courts, a 5,000-seat Grand Stand court, a tennis oasis with the largest video screen of any tennis event as well as a temporary Center Court which seats 14,000 within Hard Rock Stadium.

On April 4, 2021, Formula 1, South Florida Motorsports and Hard Rock Stadium announced the addition of the Miami Grand Prix to the 2022 FIA Formula One World Championship under a 10-year deal at Hard Rock Stadium. Construction of the 5.41km Miami International Autodrome came to a completion in May 2022 resulting in a brand-new circuit surrounding Hard Rock Stadium which includes 19 corners, three straights and an estimated top speed of 320km/h. Hard Rock Stadium hosted its first Miami Grand Prix on May 6 – 8, 2022.

In collaboration with Formula 1 and South Florida Motorsports, the event works to provide an additional tourist boost and economic impact to local businesses, students and residents of the Miami Gardens community.

Hard Rock Stadium introduced boxing to its venue for the first time on Feb. 27, 2021, as Saúl 'Canelo' Álvarez defended his WBC, WBA Super and Ring Magazine World Super-Middleweight titles against Avni Yidirim. ## BAPTIST HEALTH TRAINING COMPLEX

On July 20, 2021, the Miami Dolphins officially cut the ribbon at their new facility at the Baptist Health Training Complex in Miami Gardens, Florida. Located across the street from Hard Rock Stadium, the $135 million complex features a 125,000 square-foot training facility and 92,200 square-foot indoor field, totaling 227,200 square-feet of indoor space and two grass practice fields.

The Baptist Health Training Complex houses a state-of-the-art hydrotherapy area, fuel bar, dedicated recovery area including cryotherapy and isolation tanks, an athletic training room with expansive rehabilitation space, meeting rooms with direct access to the fields, a two-story weight room with a cardio deck, locker rooms, equipment space, dining hall, auditorium, an outdoor practice area with two full natural grass fields, full indoor practice facility, a lobby with a grand staircase, office area, press area, fan amenities and a broadcast area.

The Baptist Health Training Complex not only houses the Dolphins' football operation personnel, but it also serves as the site of the club's preseason training camp and all offseason conditioning programs.

Baptist Health is the official partner of the training complex. The partnership is an extension of a decades-long relationship with the Miami Dolphins, with the entity serving as the Official Sports Medicine Provider as well as the Official Wellness Provider of the Miami Dolphins. Baptist Health also is a proud partner of the Miami Dolphins Foundation working together on a series of initiatives around the health and safety of South Florida students, coaches and parents to grow youth football participation in South Florida.

Work began on the complex in August 2019 by Moss Construction with collaboration from architects ROSSETTI and Rockwell Group.

The complex brings the Dolphins back to Miami-Dade County after their training facility was located in Davie from 1993 until 2021. From 1970 until 1993, the Dolphins held a long-time base at St. Thomas University (formerly Biscayne College) in Miami Gardens.

LEAGUE LEADERS IN FEWEST SACKS ALLOWED

The Dolphins hold NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (10 – 1973, 1982-90) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same category (1982-90). In addition, during the 1988 and 1989 seasons the Dolphins set an NFL record by not allowing a quarterback sack in 19 consecutive games. The streak far outdistanced the previous NFL mark of five straight games, which was accomplished on many occasions. In 1988, Miami set the NFL's single-season sack record by allowing only seven sacks in the 16-game season.

THREE DOLPHINS NAMED PRO BOWL MVP

Three Dolphins have been named Most Valuable Player in the Pro Bowl. The first to do it was kicker Garo Yepremian, who accomplished the feat in the 1974 game, when he kicked five field goals, including a 42-yarder with 21 seconds remaining, lifting the AFC to a 15-13 victory over the NFC. Almost 30 years later, running back Ricky Williams duplicated the achievement, when he rushed for 56 yards and two touchdowns, and forced a fumble on special teams, en route to the AFC's 45-20 triumph in the 2003 contest, following the 2002 season. The most recent Dolphins player named Pro Bowl MVP was wide receiver Brandon Marshall, as he caught six passes for 176 yards and a Pro Bowl-record four touchdowns as the AFC used a second-half surge to beat the NFC, 59-41, in the 2012 Pro Bowl.

TAYLOR HAS THREE TOURS OF DUTY WITH DOLPHINS

When Hall of Fame defensive end/linebacker Jason Taylor played in the season opener on Sept. 12, 2011 vs. New England, he became the first player in team history to have been a member of the Dolphins' roster with three different tours of duty interrupted by stints with other teams (1997-07, 2009, 2011). Since Taylor, there have been seven NFL players that have had three separate stints with the same team: linebacker Josh Byrnes in Baltimore (2011-13, 2019, 2021), linebacker Jamie Collins in New England (2013-16, 2019, 2021), quarterback Brian Hoyer in New England (2009-11, 2017-18, 2020), wide receiver Jordan Matthews in Philadelphia (2014-16, 2018, 2019), wide receiver Deonte Thompson in Buffalo (2014, 2017, 2018), tackle Andre Smith in Cincinnati (2009-15, 2017, 2018-19) and linebacker Karlos Dansby in Arizona (2004-09, 2013, 2017).

THE MIAMI MIRACLE

On Dec. 9, 2018, the Dolphins defeated New England on a 69-yard touchdown with no time remaining, a win dubbed "The Miami Miracle." It was the first time in team history that the Dolphins won a game on a touchdown with no time remaining in the fourth quarter and the 69-yard score was the longest play to win an NFL game with no time remaining in the fourth quarter since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger.

The play began with a pass from QB Ryan Tannehill to WR Kenny Stills. Stills lateraled the ball to WR DeVante Parker, who then lateraled the ball to RB Kenyan Drake. Drake weaved through defenders and picked up a key block from G Ted Larsen before racing to the end zone for the 34-33 victory.

The play went on to win the 2018 Bridgestone Performance NFL Play of the Year.

DOLPHINS WIN THE NFL'S LONGEST GAME

The Dolphins kicked off the 2018 season on Sept. 9 with a 27-20 victory over Tennessee in the longest game played in the NFL since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger at a time of seven hours and eight minutes.

The contest was delayed on two separate occasions due to lightning in the area. The first delay came with 1:11 remaining in the second quarter and lasted one hour and 57 minutes. Following the conclusion of the first half, both teams remained on the field for a halftime duration of three minutes and 30 seconds.

The second delay occurred with 6:57 left in the third quarter and halted play for two hours and two minutes.

At the time of the second stoppage, the Dolphins led 7-3. When play resumed, there was a barrage of scoring as the Dolphins kicked a field goal in the third quarter and both teams scored 17 points each in the fourth quarter, leading Miami to the 27-20 win.

The seven hour and eight minute contest topped the previous NFL record of five hours and 16 minutes in a 2013 game between Chicago and Baltimore.

SHULA IS COACH TO HALL OF FAMERS

Hall of Fame and former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula had 15 of his former players enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. This total of 15 is tied for the sixth-most players that an NFL head coach has had inducted into the Hall of Fame, trailing only George Halas, who had 26 players enshrined, Vince Lombardi, who had 18 players inducted, Paul Brown, who had 17 players enshrined, Tom Landry, who had 16 players enshrined and tied with Chuck Knox, who also had 15 players enshrined. Of this group, seven played for Shula while he was head coach with the Baltimore Colts (1963-69), while eight were on his teams with the Dolphins (1970-95). Additionally, Shula coached three quarterbacks (John Unitas, Bob Griese and Dan Marino) who would go on to the Hall of Fame, tying Halas (Paddy Driscoll, Sid Luckman and George Blanda) for the most at that position.

Hall of Famers who played under Shula in Baltimore include DE Gino Marchetti (Class of 1972), WR Raymond Berry (1973), OT Jim Parker (1973), RB Lenny Moore (1975), QB Unitas (1979), LB Ted Hendricks (1990) and TE John Mackey (1992).

The Dolphins contingent includes WR Paul Warfield (1983), FB Larry Csonka (1987), Jim Langer (1987), Griese (1990), G Larry Little (1993), C Dwight Stephenson (1998), LB Nick Buoniconti (2001) and Marino (2005).

DOLPHINS NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns. None of those names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than 1,000 different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphins games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame. It ended in a scoreless tie.

The Miami Dolphins came into Foxboro and pulled out a thrilling 17-16 win over their AFC East rival New England Patriots in the 2021 season opener. This was the Dolphins' first season-opening victory since 2018 and they now lead the all-time series against the Patriots, 58-54.

The Dolphins started fast on their opening drive, going the length of the field on 10 plays for 80-yards capped by a 3-yard touchdown run by quarterback Tua Tagovailoa.

New England answered with 10 points before kicker Jason Sanders connected on a 48-yard field goal in the closing seconds of the half to tie things up 10-10.

The Dolphins continued their fast start on opening drives in the second half with rookie wide receiver Jaylen Waddle catching his first NFL touchdown on a three-yard pass from Tagovailoa, pushing the Dolphins lead to 17-10. Waddle ended his first career game with four catches for 61 yards and the one score.

After two made field goals by the Patriots, the Dolphins red zone defense came up big with a forced fumble and recovery by cornerback Xavien Howard to preserve the victory.

Offensively, Tagovailoa went 16-of-27 passing for 202 yards with two total touchdowns (one passing and one rushing) and one interception. wide receiver DeVante Parker led all receivers with four catches for 81 yards.

Defensively, Miami forced two turnovers, extending their turnover streak to 23 games – the longest active streak in the NFL. Linebacker Jerome Baker led all players with 12 total tackles (eight solo).

The Miami Dolphins fell to the Las Vegas Raiders, 31-28, in a hard-fought overtime contest.

The Dolphins' defense started strong in the first quarter, as the unit prevented the Raiders offense from finding a rhythm and created another takeaway with an interception by linebacker Elandon Roberts that was returned for an 85-yard touchdown. That interception extended the Dolphins defensive takeaway streak to 25 games and was the first pick-six for the Dolphins since Week 17 of the 2019 season.

After a fourth-down defensive stop, the Dolphins' offense was able to put points on the board when running back Malcolm Brown ran for a 24-yard touchdown, which extended the lead to 14-0 in the first quarter.

However, the Raiders scored 25 unanswered points until the Dolphins answered with a 46-yard field goal by kicker Jason Sanders in the fourth quarter with 5:17 remaining which brought the score to 25-17.

On fourth-and-8 and down by eight points in regulation, quarterback Jacoby Brissett converted on a pass to wide receiver DeVante Parker to extend the drive. Brissett later found the end zone, punching it in on a fourth-and-goal run. On the next play, Brissett converted on a two-point conversion to wide receiver Will Fuller to tie the game at 25 at the end of regulation.

The Dolphins' offense received the ball with 6:28 remaining in overtime the Dolphins and needed a field goal to extend or a touchdown to win the game.

Kicker Jason Sanders converted on a 50-yard field goal to tie the game at 28-28. Unfortunately, the Dolphins were unable to finish the comeback as Las Vegas converted on a field goal with no time remaining in overtime to seal a 31-28 Raiders win.

On the day, Brissett completed 32-of-49 passes for 215 yards and ran for 37 yards and one rushing touchdown. Tight end Mike Gesicki (10 catches for 86 yards) and rookie wide receiver Jaylen Waddle (12 catches for 58 yards) both had 10-plus receptions, marking the first time in franchise history two players had double-digit receptions in the same game.

MIAMI 17

The Miami Dolphins hosted the Indianapolis Colts in a Week 4 showdown at Hard Rock Stadium. The game was a part of a Celebration of Life for Don Shula as former players, coaches and fans honored the memory of the Dolphins' legendary coach.

Miami started fast with the special teams unit extending the team's NFL longest takeaway streak to 26 games after a muffed punt was recovered by long snapper Blake Ferguson. After the takeaway, the Dolphins scored the first points of the game with a 38-yard field goal by kicker Jason Sanders giving the Dolphins a 3-0 lead after the 1st quarter.

In the second quarter, the Dolphins gave up a rushing touchdown and went into halftime trailing the Colts, 7-3.

The Dolphins had two costly turnovers in the second half, which made it difficult to gain momentum and led to Indianapolis extending its lead to 20-3.

The Dolphins' first red zone appearance did not come until the fourth quarter. Miami made that appearance count, scoring a touchdown from a one-yard pass from Brissett to tight end Mike Gesicki, trimming the lead to 20-10. The Dolphins scored once more in the fourth quarter on a three-yard touchdown reception by wide receiver DeVante Parker from Brissett.

On the day, Brissett completed 20-of-30 passes for 199 yards and two touchdowns. Parker led all receivers with 77 yards.

MIAMI 20	JACKSONVILLE 23

The Miami Dolphins traveled to London, England to face their upstate rival Jacksonville Jaguars at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium. The Dolphins lost a spirited contest, 23-20, on a 53-yard field goal from Jacksonville kicker Matthew Wright as time expired in the 4th quarter.

On the Dolphins opening possession, the team drove the length of field and wasted no time scoring on a 6-yard touchdown reception from quarterback Tua Tagovailoa to wide receiver Jaylen Waddle. On that drive, the Dolphins also went a perfect 3-for-3 on third downs.

Miami ended the first quarter with a 7-3 lead and the offense went a perfect 4-for-4 on third-down conversions in the opening frame. The Dolphins added to their lead with a 33-yard field goal and a 24-yard field by kicker Jason Sanders in the second quarter and entered halftime with a 13-10 lead.

Jacksonville responded with an early third quarter touchdown to take its first lead of the game, 17-13. With the Jaguars attempting to extend their lead in the third quarter, the Dolphins defense forced a turnover on downs, denying the Jaguars on converting a fourth-and-1 attempt.

The Dolphins offense responded to the turnover on downs with back-to-back completions to tight end Mike Gesicki, first on a 34-yard toss, which was then followed by a 20-yard strike. On the drive, Tagovailoa went a perfect 6-for-6 for 83 yards, completed a pass to five different receivers and capped the seven-play drive off with a 2-yard touchdown pass to Waddle for a 20-17 lead.

After a field goal by the Jaguars, the score was tied 20-20 with 3:40 left in the game. On a crucial fourth-and-1 attempt, the Dolphins failed to convert the first down with running back Malcolm Brown being stopped short of the sticks, ultimately causing the Dolphins to turn the ball over on downs, leading to Wright's game-winning kick.

On the day, Tagovailoa went 33-of-47 for a season-high 329 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Waddle added 10 catches for 70 yards and two touchdowns.

BUFFALO 26

The Miami Dolphins traveled to Highmark Stadium to face the Buffalo Bills, falling 26-11 in a Week 8 matchup.

Miami started off the game on defense and forced Buffalo to punt on their first possession.

On the Dolphins' first offensive drive, the team was able to drive the ball down field but failed to score points as kicker Jason Sanders missed a 36-yard field goal attempt.

The Bills capitalized on the missed opportunity and scored the first points of the game on a 57-yard field goal from kicker Tyler Bass to go up 3-0 at the end of the first quarter.

The Dolphins tied things up in the second quarter with a 51-yard field goal from Sanders.

Unfortunately, a costly mistake came in the closing minutes of the second quarter when tight end Mike Gesicki went in motion and the snap hit him, resulting in a fumble and ending a potential scoring drive.

In the third quarter, the Dolphins deficit grew to 10-3 after an 8-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Josh Allen to wide receiver Gabriel Davis.

In the final frame, Allen connected on a 9-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Stefon Diggs, extending Buffalo's lead to 17-3.

After the score, the Dolphins rebounded and put together an 11-play, 70-yard touchdown drive which was capped by a 1-yard touchdown run by quarterback Tua Tagovailoa. On that drive, Tagovailoa connected with Gesicki on a 40-yard-deep pass on fourth-and-6, which extended the drive prior to the touchdown. Tagovailoa and Gesicki connected again on a two-point conversion following the touchdown, closing the deficit to 17-11.

The Bills scored an additional nine points with a field goal and a 7-yard touchdown run by Allen, as the Dolphins lost 26-11.

On the day, Tagovailoa completed 21-of-39 passes for 205 yards and one interception. He also rushed for one touchdown.

Wide receiver DeVante Parker returned from injury and led all Dolphins receivers with eight catches for 85 yards. His performance moved him into sixth place on the team's all-time receiving yards chart and eighth place on the team's all-time receptions list.

The Miami Dolphins returned home to face the Houston Texans, notching their first home victory of the season, winning 17-9 at Hard Rock Stadium.

The Dolphins turned to quarterback Jacoby Brissett to be the signal caller on the day as quarterback Tua Tagovailoa was unable to start the game due to injury.

Miami's defense started strong, creating a turnover on their first defensive possession of the game with an interception by rookie safety Jevon Holland. That interception was the first of his career and gave the Dolphins a great opportunity to seize an early lead.

Miami went down the field in 12 plays for 75 yards and scored the first points of the game on a 6-yard touchdown run on a direct snap to running back Myles Gaskin.

In the second quarter, the Texans cut into the lead with two field goals, trimming Miami's lead to 7-6.

Kicker Jason Sanders connected on a 42-yard field goal to give the Dolphins a 10-7 lead in the closing minutes of the first half.

On the next defensive possession, defensive end Emmanuel Ogbah sacked quarterback Tyrod Taylor setting up the Dolphins defense to obtain their second interception of the game, this time from linebacker Jerome Baker.

Following the interception, it took the Dolphins only four plays to score on a touchdown pass from Brissett to wide receiver Mack Hollins to give the Dolphins a 17-6 lead going into halftime.

In the third quarter, the Dolphins defense forced Taylor to throw his third interception of the game, this time to cornerback Justin Coleman.

In the final frame, the Dolphins only allowed one field goal and had a crucial fumble forced by safety Eric Rowe recovered by safety Brandon Jones en route to the victory.

On the day, Brissett completed 26-of-43 passes for 244 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions. Wide receiver Jaylen Waddle led all receivers with a game-high eight catches for 83 yards. The first-year player leads all rookie receivers with 56 receptions on the season. Ogbah led all defensive players with 2.5 sacks in the game.

BALTIMORE 10

In a prime-time matchup under the lights, the Miami Dolphins defeated the Baltimore Ravens, 22-10, in front of their enthusiastic fans at Hard Rock Stadium.

The Dolphins were outstanding in the first half. They did not allow the Ravens to convert a third down attempt prior to halftime, forcing Baltimore to go 0-for-6 on third-down attempts in the first half.

In the closing minutes of the half, quarterback Jacoby Brissett led the offense down the field by completing a 52-yard pass to a wide open wide receiver Isaiah Ford. That drive was capped off with a 22-yard field goal by kicker Jason Sanders to give the Dolphins a 6-3 lead going into halftime.

In the third quarter, Brissett went down with a knee injury and that set up quarterback Tua Tagovailoa to enter the game. Tagovailoa had been questionable to play with a finger injury on his throwing (left) hand.

To close out the third quarter, Tagovailoa completed a 35-yard pass to wide receiver Jaylen Waddle.

Scoring in the fourth quarter picked up with a 39-yard field goal by Sanders, extending the Dolphins' lead to 9-3.

Following the field goal on the next defensive possession, cornerback Xavier Howard scooped and scored a 49-yard fumble return that he forced. That score extended the Dolphins' lead to 15-3.

After pinning the Ravens to the 1-yard line on a 47-yard punt by punter Michael Palardy, the Ravens drove down the field and completed the 99-yard drive with a touchdown to trim the Dolphins lead to 15-10.

On the next possession, the Dolphins put the finishing touches on the game with a 64-yard completion from Tagovailoa to wide receiver Albert Wilson. Tagovailoa finished the 6-play, 75-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown run to give Miami a late two-score lead.

Cornerback Justin Coleman sealed the win by intercepting a pass from Ravens quarterback Lamar Jackson with 43 seconds remaining in the game.

On the day, Brissett was 11-of-23 for 156 yards prior to his injury. Tagovailoa went 8-of-13 for 158 yards and rushed for one touchdown. Wilson led all receivers with four catches for 87 yards.

MIAMI 33

The Miami Dolphins put all three phases of the game together in their return to Hard Rock Stadium, defeating the Carolina Panthers, 33-10.

Miami's special teams made a quick impact, with linebacker Duke Riley blocking a Carolina punt that was returned two yards by cornerback Justin Coleman for a quick score. The Panthers quickly answered back with a 1-yard rushing touchdown by quarterback Cam Newton to tie the game at 7-7.

In the second quarter, the Dolphins defense stepped up as they forced Newton to throw an interception on back-to-back possessions, first to safety Jevon Holland and then to cornerback Xavier Howard.

Following the second interception by Newton, Dolphins quarterback Tua Tagovailoa connected with wide receiver Jaylen Waddle on a 9-yard touchdown to give the Dolphins a 14-7 lead.

Later in the quarter, running back Myles Gaskin rushed for a 3-yard touchdown on a direct snap to give the Dolphins a 21-7 lead.

With the Dolphins threatening again at the end of the half, a fumbled snap recovered by Carolina put the Panthers in position to hit a 41-yard field goal going into halftime. The Dolphins led 21-10 at the break.

In the second half, Gaskin scored his second rushing touchdown on the day on another 3-yard direct snap, extending the Dolphins lead to 27-7.

Kicker Jason Sanders connected on field goals from 33 and 46 yards in the fourth quarter to close out Miami's scoring for the day.

Defensively, the Dolphins were stellar as they recorded a whopping 5.0 sacks and three interceptions. Rookie linebacker Jaelan Phillips led all defensive players with 3.0 sacks, tying a franchise rookie record.

On the day, Tagovailoa went 27-of-31 for 230 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions. Gaskin led all running backs with 16 carries for 49 yards and two touchdowns. Waddle recorded nine receptions for 137 yards and one touchdown, surpassing 100 yards receiving for the first time in career. He had 119 yards at halftime, becoming the first Dolphins rookie to ever total 100-plus receiving yards in the first half of a game.

The Miami Dolphins faced the New Orleans Saints in a pivotal Week 16 matchup at the Caesars Superdome, winning their seventh straight game by the score of 20-3 on Monday Night Football.

After punting on their opening offensive possession, the Dolphins defense wasted no time getting the scoring going with a 28-yard interception returned for a touchdown by cornerback Nik Needham created off a tipped pass from linebacker Andrew Van Ginkel. Later in the first quarter, kicker Jason Sanders converted on a 48-yard field goal to give the Dolphins a 10-0 lead.

In the second quarter, the Saints scored on a 38-yard field goal by kicker Brett Maher to cut the Dolphins lead to 10-3.

In the second half, the Dolphins defense picked up where they left off, forcing the Saints to punt following a three-and-out on their opening second-half possession.

Later in the game, the Dolphins defense recorded two sacks on the same possession, which gave the offense the opportunity to put points on the board.

Tagovailoa rebounded from the interception and led the team on a 9-play, 84-yard drive which featured a big 40-yard completion to Hollins. The drive was capped off by a 1-yard touchdown reception by wide receiver Jaylen Waddle to give the Dolphins the 17-3 lead.

In the final game, the Dolphins scored again on a 34-yard field goal by Sanders to extend the lead to 20-3. Safety Brandon Jones intercepted New Orleans quarterback Ian Book to close the page on the Saints. It was the first win for the Dolphins against the Saints since 2005 and the 43rd all-time Monday Night Football victory in franchise history.

Tagovailoa finished the game 19-of-26 for 198 yards with one touchdown and one interception. Waddle led all receivers with 10 receptions for 92 yards and one touchdown. His performance broke the Dolphins rookie record for receiving yards in a season (Chris Chambers, 883, 2001). His 10 receptions also tied wide receiver Jerry Rice's rookie record for most receptions in a Monday Night Football game.

Defensively, the Dolphins had 8.0 sacks in addition to the two interceptions. Defensive end Emmanuel Ogbah led all defensive players with 2.0 sacks. The Dolphins held New Orleans to 0-for-12 on third-down opportunities and just 81 passing yards on the night.

Tennessee	7	10	0	17	34

The Miami Dolphins fell to the Tennessee Titans at Nissan Stadium, 34-3. In cool and rainy conditions, the contest started slow with both teams punting on the first four possessions of the game.

The first score came when Titans quarterback Ryan Tannehill completed a 1-yard touchdown pass to tight end Geoff Swaim late in the first quarter to give the Titans the early 7-0 lead.

The following offensive possession for the Dolphins came with a costly mistake when quarterback Tua Tagovailoa fumbled on an attempted pass that led to a Titans field goal.

On the next drive, Miami was able to get on the scoreboard when kicker Jason Sanders connected on a 39-yard field goal, trimming the lead to 10-3. Following the field goal, Titans running back D'Onta Foreman scored on a 21-yard run to extend Tennessee's lead to 17-3 going into halftime.

In the second half, the offensive woes continued as neither team scored in the third quarter.

The Dolphins were unable to get anything going offensively, turning the ball over on downs on two consecutive drives. Tagovailoa was intercepted on the following drive and Tennessee capitalized, scoring 17 unanswered points in the fourth quarter.

On the day, Tagovailoa was 18-of-38 for 205 yards and one interception. Gesicki led all pass catchers with four receptions for 51 yards and moved into third place among tight ends in Dolphins career receiving yardage.

The Miami Dolphins defeated the New England Patriots, 33-24 in the season finale at Hard Rock Stadium.

It didn't take long for the Miami Dolphins offense to put points on the board as the team went down the field and scored in 13 plays on their first offensive possession. Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa went a perfect 7-of-7 passing for 53 yards and capped the drive off with a 7-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Jaylen Waddle.

On the drive, Waddle broke the NFL rookie reception record previously held by wide receiver Anquan Boldin (101) set back in 2003. Waddle finished the season with 104 receptions.

The Dolphins also scored on New England's first possession when cornerback Xavier Howard intercepted Patriots quarterback Mac Jones and returned it 37 yards for a touchdown to extend the lead to 14-0.

The Dolphins added to their lead in the second quarter with a 30-yard field goal from kicker Jason Sanders to make it 17-0.

Later in the second quarter, the Patriots cut into the Dolphins lead on a 15-yard touchdown run by running back Brandon Bolden, trimming the score to 17-7.

In the third quarter, Patriots kicker Nick Folk made a 43-yard field goal to make it a one-score game at 17-10. Following the field goal, it took the Dolphins offense just eight plays – and two crucial defensive penalties – to score again as running back Duke Johnson finished the drive on a 1-yard touchdown run to make the score 24-10.

In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins scored on a 49-yard field goal by Sanders and the Patriots scored two touchdowns, closing the Dolphins lead to a field goal.

With less than 10 seconds remaining, punter Michael Palardy pinned the Patriots inside their own two-yard line. New England attempted a 98-yard play with multiple laterals but it was stopped when Dolphins linebacker Sam Eguavoen recovered a fumble in the end zone to make the final score 33-24.

Tagovailoa completed 15-of-22 passes for 109 yards with one touchdown. Johnson led all running backs with a career-high 117 rushing yards. Waddle had five catches and one touchdown and became the first Dolphins rookie to have a 1,000-yard season, finishing with 1,015 yards.

Defensively, the Dolphins forced three turnovers and Howard, who was selected as a Pro Bowl starter this year, recorded his 27th career interception.

MIAMI DOLPHINS LOGO HISTORY

On April 25, 2013, the Miami Dolphins unveiled the fifth team logo in the organization's history. The new logo was developed during a creative process spanning more than a year and a half and incorporated input from ownership, members of the organization, former players and the franchise's loyal fans.

Highlighting the evolution is the return to the original aqua and orange color scheme that has come to embody the team and the surrounding Miami area. The iconic elements, the sun and the dolphin, remain prominent and allow the redesigned logo to remain connected throughout the team's history while representing the constant influence of the South Florida environment and community.

Within the logo, the aqua, along with the marine blue, first introduced in 1997 and now finessed through this process, are inspired by the color of South Florida's Atlantic Ocean; while the orange is representative of the bright South Florida sun. The dolphins' positioning has been refined and now features the moment of most power in the marine mammal's trajectory, right before it breaks the plane of the water. The sun has also been refined to incorporate more rays as well as an overall enhancement to a more bright and vibrant color.

The original logo featured the dolphin jumping in front of a sunburst using the team's base colors (aqua, coral and white). In 1974, the dolphin was repositioned in front of the sunburst and the aqua color was strengthened. In 1989, there was a further strengthening of the aqua color and the dolphin's tail was elongated. In 1997, the traditional logo and colors were kept as a base, while the sunburst on the logo was accentuated and the dolphin was strengthened with a stronger definition of its shape. In addition, the sunburst was more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeter, while the dolphin's features were accentuated by navy highlights.

TRADING PLACES

When the National Football League rescheduled the Dolphins' home game against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2017 from the season opener to the bye week on Nov. 19 because of the impending arrival of Hurricane Irma, it was not the first time the club had to change a contest's date or venue for a variety of reasons.

Since 1990, the Dolphins have had to alter the date or venue of a game seven times, and the Dolphins are 3-4 in such games. This does not include several games whose dates were changed early in the 2020 season due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The following are games in which the Dolphins have either had to change a date or site on short notice since 1990:

ORIGINAL DATE, VENUE	OPP.	NEW DATE, VENUE	REASON	RESULT
9/7/92, Joe Robbie Stadium	NE	10/18/92, JRS	Hurricane Andrew	Dolphins, 38-17

DOLPHINS ARE TRUE GLOBETROTTERS

The Miami Dolphins have been the NFL's globetrotters in their history, having played regular season games in London (five times) and Toronto as well as preseason contests in London, Berlin, Tokyo and Mexico City.

The Dolphins and Bills took part in the NFL's first-ever regular season game staged in Canada on Dec. 7, 2008 as Miami recorded a 16-3 victory at the Rogers Centre in Toronto. On Oct. 28, 2007, The Dolphins also battled the New York Giants at London's Wembley Stadium before a crowd of 81,176 in the first-ever NFL regular season game that was staged outside of North America. Miami returned to Wembley on Sept. 28, 2014, and earned 38-14 win against Oakland before a crowd of 83,436 and made its third regular season appearance in London when the team fell to the New York Jets, 27-14, at Wembley Stadium on Oct. 4, 2015. The Dolphins played their fourth regular-season international game on Oct. 1, 2017 when they fell to the New Orleans Saints, 20-0, at Wembley Stadium in London. The team's most recent appearance in the United Kingdom was a loss to Jacksonville on Oct. 17, 2021 at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium in London.

From 1986-2003, the NFL held American Bowl games and the Dolphins made four appearances in the preseason series. Miami was 4-0 in those games played on foreign soil, with wins in London (1988), Tokyo (1991), Berlin (1992) and Mexico City (1997). The Dolphins became the first NFL team to win four American Bowl contests, and they also became the first team to win an American Bowl matchup in each of the three continents in which the games have been played.

A PLAYERS' COACH

The Dolphins hired three former players to their 2022 coaching staff and they will become the 12th, 13th and 14th people to have both played and coached with the Dolphins. Wes Welker played wide receiver for Miami from 2004-06 and is currently the team's wide receivers coach. Sam Madison was a four-time Pro Bowl cornerback for the Dolphins from 1997-2005 and is currently Miami's cornerbacks/pass game specialist. And Patrick Surtain was a three-time Pro Bowl cornerback for Miami from 1998-2004 and is currently a defensive assistant for the team. The first to have achieved this was Bob Matheson, who was a linebacker from 1971-79 before going on to serve with the staff from 1983-86. The others are Larry Seiple (P/RB/TE, 1967-77; Coach, 1988-99), Tony Nathan (RB, 1979-87; Coach, 1989-95), Dwight Stephenson (C, 1980-87; Coach, 1992), Bernie Parmalee (RB, 1992-98; Coach, 2002-04), Jeff Dellenbach (T/C, 1985-94; Coach, 2004), Terry Robiskie (FB, 1980-81; Coach, 2007), James Saxon (RB, 1992-94; Coach, 2008-10), Bryan Cox (LB 1991-95; Coach 2011), Renaldo Hill (S, 2006-08; Coach 2018) and Gerald Alexander (S 2011; Coach 2020-21). In addition, while not seeing action in a game, Jason Garrett served as the team's third-string quarterback for five games in 2004 before joining the coaching staff from 2005-06 as the team's quarterbacks coach.

His 150 receiving yards in the fourth quarter are the third-most in the fourth quarter of an NFL game since 1991.
- Nov. 4 With a 7-yard run in the third quarter, RB Frank Gore surpasses Hall of Fame RB Barry Sanders to move into sixth place in NFL history in career scrimmage yards during Miami's 13-6 win against the New York Jets at Hard Rock Stadium. He finishes the game with 20 rushing attempts for 53 yards and one reception for 6 yards, increasing his total career yards from scrimmage to 18,204.
- Dec. 9 On a thrilling final play, the Dolphins get the ball into the hands of RB Kenyan Drake, who weaves through New England defenders for 52 yards and scores the winning touchdown in a 34-33 victory against the New England Patriots at Hard Rock Stadium in a game known as the "Miami Miracle." Trailing 33-28 with 7 seconds remaining in regulation, the Dolphins have the ball at their own 31-yard line. QB Ryan Tannehill throws a pass over the middle that is caught by WR Kenny Stills, who laterals the ball to the right side of the field that is caught by WR DeVante Parker at midfield. Parker then tosses the ball to Drake, who runs the ball 52 yards for a touchdown to win the game. The total game-winning play encompasses 69 yards, which is the longest play to win an NFL game with no time remaining in the fourth quarter since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger. It is the first time in team history that the Dolphins win a regular season game with a walk-off game-winning touchdown. The play goes on to win the Bridgestone Performance Play of the Year Award at the 8th Annual NFL Honors Award Show on Feb. 2, 2019.

- Oct. 20 QB Ryan Fitzpatrick becomes the 46th player in NFL history to pass for 30,000 yards in his career. He accomplishes the feat while completing 23-of-35 passes (65.7 pct.) for 282 yards and one touchdown against the Buffalo Bills at New Era Field.

- Dec. 1 Trailing 28-14 in the third quarter, Miami overcomes a 14-point second-half deficit to defeat the Philadelphia Eagles, 37-31. The play, known as "Mountaineer Shot," goes on to win the Bridgestone Performance Play of the Year Award at the 9th Annual NFL Honors Award Show on Feb. 1, 2020.
- Dec. 8 K Jason Sanders boots seven field goals against the N.Y. Jets at MetLife Stadium, breaking the single-game franchise record of six set by Olindo Mare on Oct. 17, 1999 at New England. He becomes the eighth player in NFL history to kick at least seven field goals in a game.
- Dec. 22 QB Ryan Fitzpatrick throws for 419 yards and four touchdowns in Miami's 38-35 overtime win against the Cincinnati Bengals at Hard Rock Stadium. Marino did it seven times, the last on Sept. 4, 1994 vs. New England.

2020

- Jan. 20 The Dolphins announce the promotion of Josh Boyer to defensive coordinator and the hiring of the following assistants: Chan Gailey as offensive coordinator, Robby Brown as quarterbacks coach, Austin Clark as outside linebackers coach, Curt Kuntz as assistant defensive backs coach and Steve Marshall as offensive line coach.

2020

Feb. 20	The Dolphins announce the hiring of Gerald Alexander as defensive backs coach, Anthony Campanile as linebackers coach and Lemuel Jeanpierre as assistant offensive line coach. The team also announces the promotion of Karl Dorrell to assistant head coach/wide receivers and Josh Grizzard to assistant wide receivers coach. Rob Leonard will move to assistant defensive line coach.
March 10	The Dolphins announce Josh Grizzard is being promoted to wide receivers coach.
April 23	For the first time in franchise history, the Dolphins select three players in the first round of an NFL draft. Miami uses those picks to select QB Tua Tagovailoa (5th overall), T Austin Jackson (18th) and CB Noah Igbinoghene (30th). Overall, this marks the sixth time the Dolphins have used multiple first-round picks in the same draft, having selected two players in the first rounds of the 1992, 1989, 1976, 1968 and 1966 drafts.
May 4	Don Shula, the winningest coach in the history of the National Football League and the coach of the league's only perfect season, passes away. Born on Jan. 4, 1930 in Grand River, Ohio, Shula was 90. Shula's record as head coach of the Dolphins (1970-95) and before that as head coach of the Colts (1963-69) is unmatched in the NFL. In 1995, he concluded his 33rd season as an NFL head coach and his 26th season as head coach of the Dolphins. He fashioned a career record of 347-173-6 (.665), including a regular season mark of 328-156-6 (.676). Shula won Super Bowl titles in 1972 and 1973, one of only six coaches in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls. His 1972 team went 17-0, recording the only perfect season in NFL annals. On July 26, 1997, Shula capped an illustrious career with a unanimous election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.
Sept. 24	QB Ryan Fitzpatrick completes 18-of-20 passes (90.0 pct.) in Miami's 31-13 prime-time win at the Jacksonville Jaguars. Fitzpatrick breaks the team's all-time record for completion percentage in a game with a minimum of 20 attempts. The previous record of 85.0 pct. (17-of-20) was set by QB Chad Pennington on Sept. 21, 2008 at New England.
Oct. 11	The Dolphins travel west and earn a 43-17 win at the San Francisco 49ers. The last time the Dolphins scored at least 43 points in a road game was on Sept. 21, 1986, when they lost in overtime at the N.Y. Jets, 45-51. At the time, it tied for the sixth-most points in a road game in team history.
Oct. 18	The Dolphins record their first shutout since the 2014 season with a 24-0 win over the New York Jets at Hard Rock Stadium. It's the 27th regular-season shutout in Dolphins history and third of the Jets.
Nov. 1	The Dolphins score touchdowns on offense, defense and a special teams return in a 28-17 win over the L.A. Rams at Hard Rock Stadium. It marks the first time since Nov. 1, 2009 (at N.Y. Jets) that the Dolphins scored touchdowns in all three facets of the game. In fact, the Dolphins had all three in the first half against the Rams and it's the first time since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970 the Dolphins have done all three in the first half of a game.
Nov. 15	The Dolphins defeat the L.A. Chargers by a 29-21 score at Hard Rock Stadium as QB Tua Tagovailoa becomes the first rookie quarterback in Dolphins history to win his first three starts.
Nov. 29	The Dolphins defense records two interceptions and three sacks as Miami defeats the N.Y. Jets, 20-3, at MetLife Stadium. The Dolphins held the Jets to just three total points in the two games against them in 2020, after posting a 24-0 shutout in Week 6. According to Elias Sports Bureau, the three total points allowed is the fewest by an NFL team in two meetings against the same opponent since 2009 when the Ravens allowed just three total points in two games against Cleveland. The three points allowed is the second-fewest by the Dolphins against an AFC East opponent in one season. Miami shutout the Baltimore Colts in both games played against them in 1972.
Dec. 6	The Dolphins improve to 8-4 on the season with a 19-7 win over the Cincinnati Bengals at Hard Rock Stadium. QB Tua Tagovailoa ties a team record (with Jay Fiedler in 2000) by not throwing an interception in five consecutive starts. Tagovailoa becomes just the third NFL quarterback in the Super Bowl era to not throw an interception in his first five career starts (min: 100 pass attempts), joining QB Dak Prescott (2016) and QB Kyle Allen (2018-19).
Dec. 20	The Dolphins recorded their ninth win of the 2020 season with a 22-12 win over the New England Patriots at Hard Rock Stadium. With the win, the Dolphins have posted a winning season for the first time since 2016 and just the second time since 2008. The Dolphins defense limited New England to just 12 points, all coming on field goals. It is the third time the Dolphins haven't allowed a touchdown in a game in 2020. The last time the Dolphins did this was 2011 (at Kansas City, vs. Washington, vs. Buffalo).
Dec. 21	CB Xavier Howard is selected to start for the AFC team in the 2021 Pro Bowl for the second time in his career. He was also a starter for the AFC team following the 2018 season. Howard would go on to finish the 2020 season with 10 interceptions, which led the NFL and were tied for the most in a single-season in team history (Dick Westmoreland, 1967).
Dec. 26	The Dolphins record their 10th win of the season and the 200th regular-season road win in team history with a come-from-behind 26-25 win at the Las Vegas Raiders before a national prime-time audience. The Dolphins took the lead twice in the final three minutes of the game and scored three times in the final five minutes. With just 19 seconds left and no timeouts on his own 25 yard-line, QB Ryan Fitzpatrick was facemasked as he completed a 34-yard pass to WR Mack Hollins. The added penalty set up a 44-yard field goal that K Jason Sanders converted to win the game.

2021

Jan. 19	Lemuel Jeanpierre is promoted to offensive line coach. Jeanpierre had spent the 2019 season as the Dolphins' assistant offensive line coach.
Jan. 23	Charlie Frye is named quarterbacks coach.
March 11	The Dolphins announce that they have promoted Danny Crossman to assistant head coach/special teams coordinator, George Godsey to co-offensive coordinator/tight ends and Eric Studesville to co-offensive coordinator/running backs. Other promotions include Charles Burks to cornerbacks coach, Austin Clark to defensive line coach, Shawn Flaherty to assistant offensive line coach, Mike Judge to assistant tight ends coach and Rob Leonard to outside linebackers coach.

- July 20 The Dolphins unveil the team's new state-of-the-art Baptist Health Training Complex. Located at 20000 NW 27th Avenue in Miami Gardens, the best-in-class venue was meticulously planned to create a contemporary, welcoming training environment for players, coaches and staff. The facility was built by Moss Construction with interior design by Rockwell Group and architecture by ROSSETTI. It boasts a 125,000 square-foot training facility and 92,200 square foot indoor field for a 217,200 square foot complex and replaces the team's Baptist Health Training Facility at Nova Southeastern University, which housed the Dolphins in Davie from 1993-2021.
- Sept. 12 Miami opens the 2021 regular season with a win at Gillette Stadium against the Patriots. It's just the team's second victory at New England since 2009. CB Xavier Howard made a game-saving play when he stripped Patriots RB Damien Harris inside the 10-yard line with 3:35 left in a one-point game. The Dolphins offense was able to run out the clock to preserve the win.
- Oct. 2 The Dolphins hold a Celebration of Life for legendary coach Don Shula at Hard Rock Stadium. This is the first public ceremony honoring Coach Shula since his passing on May 4, 2020 and featured remarks from the Shula family with panel discussions from several Dolphins alumni.
- Nov. 11 The Dolphins win their second game in five days after defeating Baltimore, 22-10, on Thursday Night Football in front of a crowd of 65,948, which at the time was the fourth-highest crowd at Hard Rock Stadium since the venue was modernized in 2015. Miami had beaten Houston on the previous Sunday, Nov. 7. It was the first time Miami had won two games within five days since 2009. CB Xavier Howard forced a fumble, recovered it and had a 49-yard touchdown return in the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach.
- Nov. 28 Miami wins its fourth game in a row in a 33-10 effort over Carolina at Hard Rock Stadium. The Dolphins defense held Carolina passers to a 13.4 rating, which was the lowest in an NFL game this season (min. 15 attempts) and the lowest by a Dolphins opponent since Sept. 21, 2003 (Buffalo, 10.3). LB Jaelan Phillips becomes the first Dolphins rookie since 1992 (Marco Coleman) to have 3.0 sacks in a game.
- Dec. 5 In a 20-9 win vs. the N.Y. Giants, LB Jaelan Phillips breaks the Dolphins' single-season rookie sack record (8.5). WR Jaylen Waddle catches his 86th pass of the season, also a team rookie record.
- Dec. 15 The NFL announces the Dolphins have been granted access to three International Home Marketing Areas (IHMA) across Brazil, the United Kingdom and Spain. This initiative allows clubs access to international territories for marketing, fan engagement and commercialization as part of an important, long-term, strategic effort to enable clubs to build their global brands while driving NFL fan growth internationally.
- Dec. 19 RB Duke Johnson earned his first start for his hometown team and posted the first 100-yard performance of his career in a 31-24 home win vs. the N.Y. Jets. Johnson played at Miami Norland High School and the University of Miami before embarking on his NFL career.
- Dec. 22 CB Xavier Howard is once again selected to start for the AFC team in the 2022 Pro Bowl, his second consecutive selection. He was also a starter for the AFC team following the 2018 and 2020 seasons. Howard is just the second Dolphins cornerback to be selected as a Pro Bowl starter on three occasions, joining CB Sam Madison (1999-2001).
- Dec. 27 The Dolphins become the first team in NFL history to win seven games in a row after having a seven-game losing streak in the same season. Miami's 20-3 win over New Orleans on Monday Night Football gives them an 8-7 record going into the final two games of the season. WR Jaylen Waddle records 10 receptions, tying Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice's record for most catches by a rookie in a Monday Night Football game. He also surpasses WR Chris Chambers (883) for the most receiving yards in Dolphins history by a rookie.

- Jan. 2 TE Mike Gesicki has four receptions for 51 yards (12.8 avg.) at Tennessee, which moves him into third place on Miami's all-time tight end receiving yards chart. He finished the contest with 2,233 career receiving yards, moving ahead of TE Anthony Fasano (2,211).
- Jan. 9 WR Jaylen Waddle catches five passes for 27 yards (5.4 avg.) and one touchdown in Miami's season-ending win vs. New England. It gives Waddle 104 receptions on the season, breaking the NFL record for most receptions by a rookie, which was held by WR Anquan Boldin (101) since 2003. It's the highest-attended game (66,514) at Hard Rock Stadium since the stadium was modernized in 2015.
- Jan. 10 The Miami Dolphins announce that Head Coach Brian Flores has been relieved of his duties.
- Feb. 7 The Miami Dolphins announce the hire of Mike McDaniel as the 14th head coach in franchise history. McDaniel joins the team from San Francisco, where he spent five seasons (2017-21) and was most recently the team's offensive coordinator in 2021. The 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship game in McDaniel's only season in the role.
- Feb. 18 The Dolphins announce their coaching staff for the 2022 season, under Head Coach Mike McDaniel: Frank Smith (offensive coordinator), Matt Applebaum (offensive line), Darrell Bevell (quarterbacks/passing game coordinator), Jon Ebbie (assistant head coach/tight ends), Josh Grizzard (quality control), Chandler Henley (assistant quarterbacks), Lemuel Jeanpierre (assistant offensive line), Mike Person (offensive assistant), Aldrick Robinson (offensive assistant), Kolby Smith (offensive assistant), Eric Stutesville (associate head coach/rushing backs), Wes Welker (wide receivers), Josh Boyer (defensive coordinator), Mathieu Araujo (assistant defensive backs), Anthony Campanile (linebackers), Austin Clark (defensive line), Steve Ferentz (assistant linebackers), Steve Gregory (safeties), Derrick LeBlanc (assistant defensive line), Sam Madison (cornerbacks/pass game specialist), Ty McKenzie (outside linebackers), Ryan Slowik (senior defensive assistant), Patrick Surtain (defensive assistant), Danny Crossman (special teams coordinator), Brendan Farrell (assistant special teams) and Dave Puloka (head strength and conditioning).
- March 23 The Dolphins execute a trade with the Kansas City Chiefs that brings six-time Pro Bowl WR Tyreek Hill to Miami. Hill is just the second wide receiver in NFL history to earn a Pro Bowl selection in each of his first six NFL seasons, joining WR A.J. Green. The Dolphins send five draft picks to Kansas City, including a first- and second-round pick in 2022. The last time Miami traded a first-round pick for a player was in 2002, when they sent two first-round picks and a fourth-round pick to New Orleans for RB Ricky Williams.

THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl.

In 21 years at the venue, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record. In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark in all games played there.

Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March 1976, so that Prescription Athletic turf could be installed.

The Orange Bowl was the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic, Olympic soccer matches and championship boxing matches.

The 2007 season was the final one for the Orange Bowl. The University of Miami, who called the Orange Bowl home from 1937-2007, played its final game there on Nov. 10, 2007, when it dropped a 48-0 decision to the University of Virginia. The final collegiate game at the Orange Bowl occurred on Dec. 1, 2007 when Florida International defeated North Texas, 38-19. The final organized game took place on January 4, 2008 in "The O-D All-American Bowl," a high school all-star game. A "Farewell To The Orange Bowl" celebration was held on Jan. 26, 2008. Approximately 15,000 people watched a team of ex-Miami Hurricanes beat a team of ex-Dolphins, 65-51, in a flag-football exhibition. Demolition began in March of 2008 and was completed in May.

OAKLAND 21

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raiders right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphins kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

KANSAS CITY 24 (2OT)

Garó Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphins' 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the touchdown.

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to a poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphins linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2 1/2 minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

S Jake Scott

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated Washington, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Washington running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. Washington finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards – the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff – to make it 21-16.

MIAMI 27

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards, respectively, powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled to within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 42 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

MINNESOTA 7

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphins' six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphins' 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphins turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphins quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oilers 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

WR Duriel Harris

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steelers 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter.

RB Tony Nathan

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Chargers quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Chargers tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphins 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked – a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

NEW ENGLAND 13

MIAMI 28

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphins QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

ORANGE BOWL

SAN DIEGO 13

MIAMI 34

The Dolphins choked off the famed Chargers offense and won 34-13. The Dolphins defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards – 203 yards below its league-leading average - while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphins defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards – their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphins offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphins QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Chargers kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Chargers' 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphins rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

MIAMI 14

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season – two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season – but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

WASHINGTON 27

Washington, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – Washington took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Washington 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

SEATTLE 27

TE Dan Johnson

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphins rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

MIAMI 31

The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphins 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

WR Mark Duper

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers, 45-28, in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SAN FRANCISCO 38

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play – Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphins' deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upheld their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play – 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

FB Ron Davenport

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fued Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

1985 – AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

ATTENDANCE: 74,978

NEW ENGLAND 31

MIAMI 14

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph, in what would be the final NFL postseason game at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

QB Dan Marino and TE Dan Johnson

Head Coach Don Shula

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. Including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal. Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on Dec. 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line with 3:28 left in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphin 34 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

QB/WR/RB Jim Jensen

The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 28 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals - from 24 and 22 yards - to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half. The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second touchdown of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard touchdown pass.

Miami cornerback Troy Vincent recorded a pair of interceptions and quarterback Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory was the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972 in the Orange Bowl, a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 16, 1983 in the Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on December 29, 1984 in the Orange Bowl. Overall, the Miami defense totaled four interceptions (also safety Louis Oliver and linebacker Bryan Cox), a forced fumble (by cornerback Stephen Braggs), a fumble recovery (by linebacker Dwight Hollier) and a sack (by defensive end Jeff Hunter). The Dolphins held the Chargers to just ten first downs (three rushing and seven passing), 202 yards of total offense (70 rushing and 132 passing) and three of 15 on third down conversions. The Chargers' 15 possessions ended in seven punts, four interceptions, twice on downs, once on a lost fumble and once at the end of the first half. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to take a 21-0 lead at the half. Miami's 21 points in the second quarter was the most scored by the Dolphins in any quarter of a playoff game in team history. The previous team high for points in a quarter was 20 points which was scored by Miami in the second quarter against San Diego on January 6, 1983. Miami opened the scoring following a Vincent interception which gave the team possession on San Diego's 48-yard line. Marino led the Dolphins on a nine-play, 48-yard drive which was capped-off as Marino tossed a one-yard scoring pass to fullback Tony Paige. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 later in the period as the team again gained possession of the ball following a Vincent interception and drove 37 yards and scored on a nine-yard connection from Marino to tight end Keith Jackson. Miami scored the final points of the first half as Marino again connected with Jackson and the tight end made a diving 30-yard reception in the end zone for the score. Jackson became just the fourth player in team history to record two touchdown receptions for the Dolphins in a playoff contest. Miami and San Diego played to a scoreless third quarter before the Dolphins scored the game's final ten points in the fourth quarter. Miami increased its lead to 24-0 early in the final stanza as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored the final points of the game as running back Aaron Craver scored on a 25-yard run to increase the margin to 31-0.

The Miami Dolphins suffered five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team dropped a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Game before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Buffalo opened the scoring midway through the opening period as defensive end Bruce Smith sacked Miami quarterback Dan Marino and forced a fumble which was recovered by Bills linebacker Darryl Talley on the Dolphins' 47-yard line. Buffalo scored off the takeaway as Steve Christie converted on a 21-yard field goal. Miami tied the score at 3-3 later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich converted on a 51-yard field goal attempt. The Bills took a 10-3 lead early in the second period as quarterback Jim Kelly threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to running back Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, Marino's pass attempt was batted in the air by Buffalo defensive end Phil Hansen and intercepted by Hansen on the Dolphins' 17-yard line. The Bills increased their lead to 13-3 as Christie kicked on a 33-yard field goal. Buffalo took a 20-3 lead early in the third quarter by capitalizing on another Miami turnover as kick returner Mike Williams fumbled the second half kickoff and Buffalo's Carwell Gardner recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 25-yard line. The Bills scored four plays later as running back Kenneth Davis ran into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown. Buffalo increased its lead to 26-3 as Christie hit on a pair of field goals from 21 and 31 yards. Miami closed the score to 26-10 as Marino connected with wide receiver Mark Duper on a 15-yard touchdown pass. With the TD pass, Marino extended his streak to ten consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes which is tied with the Raiders' Ken Stabler (1973-77) for the NFL's all-time record for consecutive post-season games with a touchdown pass. In addition, Duper's touchdown reception was his fifth post-season touchdown catch and broke the team's playoff record for career touchdown receptions. Duper was tied with wide receiver Paul Warfield (four TDs on 34 career playoff catches) and tight end Bruce Hardy (four TDs on 26 catches). Buffalo closed the scoring later in the period as Christie converted his fifth field goal of the game with a 38-yarder.

WR Irving Fryar

Dan Marino threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 69,757 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game was billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lived up to the pregame hype. Marino completed 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana countered by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. The first half was an offensive shootout which was tied at 17-17 with neither team being forced to punt. Kansas City opened the scoring as Montana tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Derrick Walker. Miami answered the score on its first possession as Bernie Parmalee scored on a one-yard run. The Chiefs came right back to close the first quarter scoring at 14-7 as Montana threw a short pass to fullback Kimble Anders who turned the play into a 57-yard catch and run for the touchdown. Miami cut the score to 14-10 early in the second quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 40-yard field goal. Kansas City upped its lead to 17-10 later in the quarter as Lin Elliott booted a 21-yard field goal. The Dolphins closed the first half scoring as Marino tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ronnie Williams. The scoring pass set an NFL record as it marked Marino's 11th consecutive post-season game with a touchdown toss. He moved past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak of playoff games with a touchdown pass in NFL history. The Dolphins dominated the second half and outscored the Chiefs by a 10-0 margin. Miami took its first lead of the ballgame at 24-17 on the first drive of the third quarter as Marino and Irving Fryar connected on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Miami increased its lead to 27-17 on a 40-yard field goal late in the third period. The Dolphins forced a pair of turnovers by the Chiefs in Miami territory to preserve the win. First, cornerback J.B. Brown intercepted a Montana aerial on the goal line to stop a drive and then safety Michael Stewart forced and recovered a fumble by Marcus Allen on the Dolphins' 34-yard line.

Natrone Means rushed for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest before a crowd of 63,381 at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego had the first scoring threat of the game as they drove down to Miami's 26-yard line, but Miami's Marco Coleman forced a fumble by Means to stop the drive. Following the takeaway, the Dolphins opened the scoring as Dan Marino capped a nine-play, 79-yard drive with an eight-yard scoring pass to tight end Keith Jackson. The Chargers closed the score to 7-3 on their next possession as John Carney booted a 20-yard field goal. Prior to the field goal attempt, San Diego had a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' six-yard line but the Miami defense stiffened and held the Chargers out of the end zone. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-3 on their next possession as Marino and Jackson connected again in the end zone for a nine-yard touchdown pass. Jackson's two touchdown receptions in the contest tied Miami's all-time single-game playoff record, which was accomplished five previous times. San Diego answered the touchdown with another field goal as Carney connected on a 21-yard effort. Once again, San Diego had a first-and-goal on Miami's six-yard line and the Dolphin defense limited the Chargers to a field goal. Miami closed the first half scoring as Marino threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Mike Williams with just 27 seconds left in the first half to take a 21-6 lead. San Diego opened the third quarter with a long drive which was halted when Means was held for no gain on a fourth-and-one play from Miami's one-yard line and the Dolphins took possession of the ball. However, on Miami's first play following the goal line stand, Dolphins running back Bernie Parmalee was tackled in the end zone for a safety to bring the score to 21-8. Following a free kick by Miami's John Kidd, the Chargers got the ball on their own 46-yard line and drove for a 24-yard touchdown run by Means to cut the score to 21-15. Miami had the ball for just one play — the safety by Parmalee — in the entire third quarter. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Marino drove the team down to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with just eight seconds remaining was wide right.

WR O.J. McDuffie

The Buffalo Bills cruised out to a 24-0 halftime lead en route to a 37-22 victory in an AFC First Round Playoff game in front of 73,103 fans at Rich Stadium. The contest proved to be the last game for Don Shula as head coach of the Dolphins. The Bills, led by running back Thurman Thomas' 158 yards, grounded out an AFC Playoff record 341 rushing yards, breaking the old mark of 318 set by the San Diego Chargers against Boston in 1963. Miami quarterback Dan Marino tied an NFL postseason record, with Bernie Kosar while he was a member of the Cleveland Browns in 1986, with 64 passing attempts and completed 33 (tied for second-highest in NFL postseason) of them for 422 yards (third-highest in NFL postseason). The two teams set an NFL postseason record with 1,038 combined total net yards, breaking the old mark of 1,036 by the Dolphins and the San Diego Chargers in an overtime game in 1981. The Bills took an early 7-0 lead when Thomas scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Buffalo kicker Steve Christie put the Bills ahead 10-0 with a 48-yard field goal. Buffalo needed just four plays to go 68 yards and took a 17-0 advantage when fullback Darick Holmes ran 21 yards for a touchdown with 9:54 left in the half. On the Dolphins' next possession, they drove to the Buffalo 40-yard line but Marino was hit by Bills defensive end Phil Hansen as he threw and the tipped ball was intercepted by linebacker Marlo Perry. It took Buffalo just 49 seconds to make the score 24-0 as Kelly connected with Steve Tasker on a 37-yard touchdown pass. The Bills added to their lead in the third quarter by driving 55 yards on ten plays and extended their lead to 27-0 when Christie booted a 23-yard field goal late in the third quarter. Miami got on the board when they took the ball on their next possession and drove 67 yards on nine plays and made the score 27-7 when Marino hit wide receiver O.J. McDuffie on a five-yard touchdown pass. The Bills increased their lead to 34-7 when they culminated a 61-yard drive with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tim Tindale with 9:31 remaining in the game. The Dolphins cut the lead to 34-14 on their next possession as Marino connected with wide receiver Randal Hill on a 45-yard touchdown to close out a seven-play, 68-yard drive. The Bills answered with an eight-play, 44-yard drive that saw Christie kick a 42-yard field goal to make the score 37-14. Miami then took its next possession and marched 73 yards on eight plays and cut the lead to 37-22 when running back Terry Kirby ran one-yard for the score and a two-point conversion from Marino to McDuffie was good. The Dolphins then attempted an outside kick and safety Michael Stewart recovered at the Buffalo 49-yard line. However, Miami's last threat of the game was stopped when Marino was intercepted by Bills cornerback Ken Irvin at Buffalo's 13-yard line with 1:51 left in the game. McDuffie set a club postseason record (tied with nine others for sixth-highest all-time in NFL postseason) with 11 receptions for 154 yards (a new Dolphin postseason record, surpassing Mark Duper's 148 yards vs. Pittsburgh in 1985).

NEW ENGLAND 17

The New England Patriots recorded their third win of the 1997 season over the Dolphins, and their fourth straight over Miami dating back to 1996, by holding Miami to just a field goal in their 17-3 triumph in a first-round playoff game at Foxboro Stadium. The loss was the Dolphins' third straight in the postseason. New England held Miami to 162 yards of total offense, the lowest total in the 32-game postseason history for the Dolphins, below a 176-yard performance against Washington in Super Bowl XVII. In addition, the three points scored by the Dolphins equalled the fewest points scored by the team in a playoff game with a 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI. Overall, New England forced three Miami turnovers, while the Patriots did not commit any miscues and 14 of New England's 17 points resulted from a Dolphins turnover. The Patriots sacked Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino four times on the day and Marino was held without a touchdown for the first time in 14 career playoff games. The Dolphins got to the Patriots' 39 late in the first quarter, but were stopped on third and fourth-and-one. The Patriots had an opportunity to take a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter, but Adam Vinatieri missed wide left on a 48-yard field goal attempt. Three plays later, Chris Slade intercepted a Dan Marino pass and returned it 22 yards to the Dolphins' 29. That led to a 24-yard touchdown pass from Drew Bledsoe to Troy Brown three plays afterward, on third-and-five, 4:33 into the second quarter. New England took over at its own 40 with 2:16 left in the first half and drove to the Dolphins' 30 before Vinatieri missed wide right on a 47-yard field goal try with 30 seconds on the clock. On the second play of the second half, Todd Collins picked off a Marino pass and brought it back 40 yards for a touchdown. The Patriots extended their lead to 17 points with 1:58 left in the third quarter when Vinatieri capped a 15-play, 67-yard drive with a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins got their only points of the game nine seconds into the fourth quarter, on an Olindo Mare 38-yard field goal. Miami had gained possession at the Patriots' 43 after a Corey Harris 40-yard kickoff return and a ten-yard tripping penalty on the Patriots. Harris recovered the ensuing onside kick, and the Dolphins took over at their own 44. On the next play, however, Chris Canty stripped the ball from Marino and Slade recovered at the Dolphins' 41. Miami got into New England territory on each of its last two possessions – getting as far as the 45 and 43 – but were stopped on fourth down on each occasion.

The Dolphins recorded their first playoff win since the 1994 season, snapping a three-game losing streak in the postseason with a 24-17 win in an AFC First-Round Playoff game over the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium. Doug Flutie connected with Eric Moulds for a 65-yard completion on the game's first play from scrimmage, but Terrell Buckley stripped the ball and Brock Marion returned the fumble 17 yards to the Dolphins' 29-yard line. That led to a 16-play, 57-yard drive which used 8:23 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 31-yard field goal. Miami made it a 6-0 game on Mare's second field goal of the afternoon, from 40 yards out, 4:24 into the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 66-yard drive that consumed 6:22 of the clock. Mare attempted an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that was recovered by the Bills' Dan Brandenburg. Three plays later, Buffalo took its first lead of the game when Thurman Thomas ran it in from one-yard out, two plays after Flutie and Moulds combined for a 37-yard completion to the Dolphins' five-yard line. Buffalo got to the Dolphins' six-yard line with 24 seconds remaining in the first half, but Marion picked off a Flutie pass and returned it 19 yards. A personal foul penalty on the Bills put the Dolphins at their own 35. Dan Marino then completed a 52-yard pass to Oronde Gadsden who then lateraled the ball to O.J. McDuffie, putting the Dolphins at the Bills' nine-yard line. Mare, however, hit the right upright on a 26-yard field goal attempt as time expired in the half. The Dolphins regained the lead at 13-7 on Karim Abdul-Jabbar's three-yard touchdown run with 2:32 left in the third quarter. Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 21 yards on the 52-yard drive, which was accomplished in 12 plays and saw the Dolphins connect on three third down conversions. Stanley Pritchett punched it in for the two-point conversion. Buffalo answered less than two minutes later with a 32-yard touchdown pass from Flutie to Moulds which tied the game at 14 with 48 seconds left in the third quarter. Miami got the ball back and embarked on a 17-play, 77-yard drive that ended with Mare's third field goal of the game, from 23 yards out, 5:15 into the fourth period. Four plays afterward, Jerry Wilson forced the ball loose from Andre Reed after a reception and Terrell Buckley recovered, returning it six yards to midfield. The Dolphins capitalized off that turnover when Marino connected with Lamar Thomas for an 11-yard scoring strike on third-and-seven with 3:32 remaining in the game, capping the eight play drive. The Bills took over at their own 20 and got to the Dolphins' 15-yard line before Steve Christie connected on a 33-yard field goal with 1:33 left in the game. Kurt Schulz recovered the ensuing onside kick for Buffalo, giving them possession at their own 31 with 1:30 to play. The first play of the drive was a 30-yard completion from Flutie to Moulds, putting the Bills at the Dolphins' 39-yard line. From there, Buffalo converted three consecutive third downs, giving them a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' five-yard line with 17 seconds remaining. Trace Armstrong then sacked Flutie, forcing the ball loose, which was recovered by Shane Burton to preserve the victory. Moulds finished the game with an NFL playoff record 240 receiving yards.

DENVER 38

Miami failed to score a touchdown in its second straight road playoff game, as they dropped their seventh consecutive postseason road game overall, with a 38-3 loss to the Broncos at Mile High Stadium. After stopping the Dolphins on the first series of the game, the Broncos took over at their own eight and embarked on a 14-play, 92-yard drive that used 7:56 of the clock and ended with a Terrell Davis one-yard touchdown run with 5:55 left in the opening quarter. Davis ran for 38 yards on seven carries on the drive, and John Elway completed five of six passes for 48 yards. Denver took a two-touchdown advantage before the first quarter was over when Davis scored on a 20-yard run with 1:02 remaining in the opening period. The touchdown came three plays after Elway connected with Ed McCaffrey for a 33-yard completion to the Dolphins' 33-yard line. Miami answered with an 11-play, 76-yard drive that consumed 5:55 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 22-yard field goal, 4:53 into the second quarter. Dan Marino completed six of seven passes for 55 yards on the march. Denver scored a touchdown on their third consecutive series when Derek Loville ran it in from 11 yards out with 4:39 left in the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 87-yard drive that used 5:28 of the clock. As a team, the Broncos rushed for 62 yards on the drive, including 47 yards by Davis. Davis broke loose for a 62-yard run to the Dolphins' 18-yard line on the first play of the second half, leading to a Jason Elam 32-yard field goal four plays afterward. Denver opened a 28-point advantage 1:37 into the fourth quarter when Elway combined with Rod Smith for a 28-yard touchdown strike. The Broncos finished off the scoring when Neil Smith recovered an Oronde Gadsden fumble following a reception and rumbled 79 yards for a touchdown.

In the last game ever played at the Kingdome, the Dolphins recorded their first road playoff win since 1972 with a 20-17 triumph over the Seattle Seahawks. The Seahawks' second possession of the game started at the Dolphins' 47 after Miami was forced to punt from its own four-yard line. From there, Seattle needed eight plays before Jon Kitna connected with Sean Dawkins for a nine-yard touchdown pass on third-and-three, with 6:18 to play in the first quarter. The score marked the second third-down conversion on the drive for the Seahawks. Kitna and Mike Pritchard hooked up for a pair of completions on the drive, totaling 29 yards. Brock Marion returned the ensuing kickoff 47 yards to midfield. The Dolphins then moved 37 yards in seven plays, leading to an Olindo Mare 32-yard field goal with 2:05 remaining in the opening quarter. The Seahawks re-gained their seven-point advantage with 45 seconds left in the first half on Todd Peterson's 50-yard field goal, which capped an eight-play, 49-yard drive that used 3:45 of the clock. The Dolphins took over at their own 40 on the opening possession of the second half after Peterson's kickoff went out of bounds. Led by Dan Marino, who completed all six of his passes, totaling 56 yards, Miami embarked on a ten-play, 60-yard drive that consumed 6:05 of the clock and ended with a one-yard touchdown pass from Marino to Oronde Gadsden on third-and-goal. The touchdown pass was the 31st for Marino in his playoff career, moving him past Terry Bradshaw into sole possession of second on the NFL's all-time postseason list. The key play on the march was a 27-yard completion from Marino to O.J. McDuffie on third-and-seven from the Seattle 46. Charlie Rogers took the ensuing kickoff and raced 85 yards for a touchdown to give Seattle the lead once again. The Dolphins pulled to within four points on Mare's 50-yard field goal with 2:22 to play in the third quarter, culminating a six-play, 32-yard drive in which Autry Denson rushed for 25 yards. The ensuing onside kick was recovered by Miami's Shawn Wooden, and the Dolphins took over at their own 42. Although they could not take advantage of that opportunity, Tom Hutton's punt that followed pinned Seattle at their own six. Down by four points with 9:09 to play, Miami gained possession at their own 15. On the third play of the series, they faced a third-and-17 from their own 8 when Marino hit Tony Martin for a 23-yard completion. From there, Miami marched the length of the field in just eight more plays, the final one being a two-yard TD run by J.J. Johnson with 4:48 to play in the game. Two plays prior to the score Marino connected with Gadsden for a 24-yard completion on third-and-10 from the Seahawks 29, giving them a first-and-goal from the 5. Seattle went three and out on their next series, and a Terrell Buckley interception with 23 seconds remaining ended any Seattle comeback hopes. The Dolphins dominated the second half of the game, as they gained 230 yards while holding Seattle to just 32 yards over the final 30 minutes of the game. Miami registered a club playoff record six sacks on the afternoon, including three by Trace Armstrong, who was named NFL Defensive Player of the Week for the Wild Card Round of the playoffs.

JACKSONVILLE 62

The Dolphins allowed the most points in club history and suffered their worst defeat ever as well. The Jaguars took a 7-0 lead on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith on the first series of the game, 4:28 into the contest. A 41-yard completion from Brunell to Smith to the Dolphins' 22 was the key play on the 73-yard drive, in which Jacksonville converted all three of their third down attempts, including the touchdown. On the next play from scrimmage, Aaron Beasley intercepted a Dan Marino pass and Jacksonville took over at the Dolphins' 41. From there, the Jaguars moved 14 yards, setting up a Mike Hollis 45-yard field goal, with 6:19 to play in the opening quarter. The Jaguars scored for the third time in as many possessions when Fred Taylor broke loose for a 90-yard touchdown run with 3:46 remaining in the first quarter. On the following play from scrimmage, Tony Brackens stripped the ball from Marino, Brackens recovered and went 16 yards for the score. On the first play of the second quarter, Jacksonville scored again on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Brunell to Taylor on third-and-14. The Jaguars gained possession at the Dolphins' 21 on their next series after Corey Chamblin blocked a Tom Hutton punt. That led to a James Stewart 25-yard TD run three plays later. Hollis added a 28-yard field goal 1:51 prior to the half. That score came five plays after Carnell Lake recovered a J.J. Johnson fumble at the Dolphins' 30. Miami got its first points of the game three seconds before halftime when Marino and Oronde Gadsden combined for a 20-yard TD pass, on third-and-10. Jay Fiedler connected with Jimmy Smith for a 70-yard touchdown pass, 2:57 into the third quarter, giving Jacksonville 48 points on the afternoon, marking the most points that Miami had ever given up in the postseason. Fiedler fired his second touchdown pass of the day with 6:19 to play in the third quarter when he hit Alvis Whitted for a 38-yard scoring pass. Jacksonville finished the scoring with a Chris Howard five-yard touchdown run 4:23 into the fourth quarter, one play after Donovin Darius recovered an Autry Denson fumble.

RB Lamar Smith

The Miami Dolphins recorded the second-largest comeback win in team playoff history as they rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to earn a 23-17 overtime win against the Indianapolis Colts at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins faced a fourth-and-six from the Colts' 39 on their first possession of the game, but could not convert. The Colts took over and marched 47 yards in seven plays, en route to a Mike Vanderjagt 32-yard field goal. The Dolphins made it to the Colts' 33 late in the first quarter, but on third-and-14, Chad Cota intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass in the end zone. Vanderjagt lined up to attempt his second field goal in as many series, but the run by holder Hunter Smith on the fake was short of the first down. On the next play from scrimmage, Chad Bratzke intercepted a Fiedler pass and returned it four yards to the Dolphins' 25. That led to a seven-play, 17-yard drive that culminated with a Vanderjagt 26-yard field goal. Fiedler suffered his third interception in as many series three plays later when Cota picked off his second pass of the day, giving the Colts the ball at the Dolphins' 18. Two plays later, Peyton Manning connected with Jerome Pathon for a 17-yard score. That was followed by a Manning to Ken Dilger pass for the two-point conversion. The Dolphins had a chance to put their first points on the board with 31 seconds left in the first half, but Orlando Mare missed wide right on a 38-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins opened the second half with a two-yard scoring run by Lamar Smith, 6:51 into the half. The Dolphins cut the lead to four points 4:37 into the fourth quarter on a 38-yard field goal by Mare, which capped a nine-play, 53-yard drive. The Colts answered with a nine-play, 45-yard march which ended with a Vanderjagt 50-yard field goal. The Dolphins took over at their own 20 with 4:55 to play in the game, and marched the length of the field in 14 plays towards the game-tying score, a nine-yard touchdown pass from Fiedler to Jed Weaver on third-and-goal, with 34 seconds remaining in the game. Fiedler threw for 52 yards on the drive, as he completed six of 10 passes while also rushing three times for 15 yards. The Colts got into field goal position 5:44 into the overtime period, but Vanderjagt missed wide right on a 49-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins took over at their own 39, and on the third play from scrimmage, they got into Colts territory at the 48 on a six-yard completion from Fiedler to Jeff Ogden on third-and-three. Eight plays later, Smith gave the Dolphins their third straight victory in the first round of the playoffs on a 17-yard touchdown run with 3:34 left in overtime. Smith's 40 attempts represented a new NFL playoff single-game best. His yardage figure was the second-most ever in an NFL postseason contest.

The Miami Dolphins suffered the first shutout in the team's playoff history with a 27-0 loss to the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders got on the board first 3:34 into the contest when Tory James intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass and returned it 90 yards for a touchdown, the longest interception return ever against the Dolphins in the postseason. The Raiders opened a ten-point lead with 4:52 to play in the first quarter on a Sebastian Janikowski 36-yard field goal. Janikowski converted his second field goal in as many offensive series when he hit from 33 yards out, 6:24 into the second quarter. The Raiders took a 20-point advantage with 1:53 to play in the first half on a six-yard touchdown pass from Rich Gannon to James Jett on third-and-four. The drive began at the Dolphins' 43 after Charles Woodson recovered a Lamar Smith fumble that was forced by Tory James. The final points of the day were scored on the Raiders' first possession of the second half when Tyrone Wheatley ran it in from two yards out, culminating a 12-play, 54-yard drive that used 6:50 of the clock.

The Dolphins dropped their first home playoff game since January 17, 1993, snapping a three-game home playoff win streak. Tim Russel stripped the ball from Jermaine Lewis on the game's opening kickoff and Tommy Hendricks recovered at the Ravens' 24-yard line, leading to an Olindo Mare 33-yard field goal four plays later. The score remained that way until the third play of the second quarter when Terry Allen scored on a four-yard run, culminating a 17-play, 90-yard drive in which Baltimore ran the ball 12 times totaling 61 yards, led by Allen, who rushed for 27 yards on four carries. With just more than a minute remaining in the first half, Jamie Sharper recovered a Travis Minor fumble at the Dolphins' 41-yard line. The Ravens were unable to capitalize, however, as Matt Stover's 40-yard field goal attempt as time expired hit the left upright. Baltimore extended its lead to 11 points with 1:20 to play in the third quarter when Elvis Grbac hit Travis Taylor in the end zone for a four-yard touchdown pass on third-and-goal, capping an 11-play, 99-yard drive. The key play was a 45-yard completion from Grbac to Taylor on third-and-one from the Ravens' 10-yard line. Peter Boulware stripped the ball from Jay Fiedler on a sack on the third play of the fourth quarter, and Boulware recovered at the Dolphins' 37-yard line. That resulted in a Matt Stover 35-yard field goal six plays afterward. Stover added his second field goal in as many series with a 40-yarder with 2:01 to play in the game. That three-pointer came 11 plays after a Duane Starks interception after the Dolphins had made it to the Ravens' 42-yard line. Baltimore rushed for 49 yards on eight attempts on the scoring drive.

The Dolphins dropped their third straight playoff decision, and their second in a row to the Ravens. Miami took a 3-0 lead on their opening series of the game when Dan Carpenter connected on a 19-yard field goal. The Ravens knotted the score on their ensuing series when a Matt Stover 23-yard field goal capped an 11-play, 59-yard drive. The key play was a 31-yard completion from Joe Flacco to Todd Heap, giving the Ravens a first-and-goal from the 4. The Ravens claimed their initial lead of the afternoon when Ed Reed intercepted a Chad Pennington pass and weaved his way 64 yards for a touchdown. Baltimore added three points, 16 seconds before the half on a 31-yard field goal by Stover. The score came four plays after Flacco connected with Derrick Mason for a 31-yard hookup to the Dolphins' 17. The Ravens opened a 17-point advantage 7:27 into the second half on an 8-yard TD run by Le'Ron McClain. The Dolphins tallied their first touchdown of the day 1:51 into the fourth period on a 2-yard TD pass from Pennington to Ronnie Brown, two plays after Pennington and Davone Bess combined for a 45-yard completion to the Ravens' 5. The PAT was blocked. Flacco finished the scoring on a 5-yard TD run with 3:53 remaining in the contest, as he crossed the goal line three plays after Willis McGahee broke loose for a 48-yard run to the Dolphins' 4.

2016 - AFC WILD CARD

PITTSBURGH 30

QB Matt Moore

The Dolphins' magical 2016 season came to a disappointing end. The Dolphins quickly fell behind 14-0 and could never recover in a 30-12 loss against the Pittsburgh Steelers in a first-round playoff game at Heinz Field. Antonio Brown and Le'Veon Bell each scored two touchdowns for the Steelers, who racked up 219 yards of offense in the first quarter alone. Brown ended Pittsburgh's first two possessions with touchdown catches of 50 and 69 yards. Bell set a Steelers postseason record with 169 rushing yards. Damien Williams scored the Dolphins' only touchdown on a 4-yard reception with 5:57 left in regulation. Andrew Franks kicked two first-half field goals. The Dolphins committed turnovers on three consecutive possessions, spanning the second and third quarters, the last of which led to Bell's second touchdown after cornerback Tony Lippett tried to time a jump over the center to block a field goal attempt but instead was offside to give Pittsburgh a first down. Matt Moore, making his fourth consecutive start in place of an injured Ryan Tannehill, completed 29 of 36 passes for 289 yards and one touchdown, but he lost two fumbles and threw an interception. Moore also was sacked five times after being sacked only once in his three starts in the regular season. He left the game for one play in the second quarter after taking a big hit from linebacker Bud Dupree that drew a roughing-the-passer penalty but returned to finish the game. After burning the Steelers for 204 rushing yards in the Dolphins' 30-15 victory at Hard Rock Stadium on Oct. 16, Jay Ajayi was held to only 33 yards on 16 rushing attempts Sunday before leaving the game with a shoulder injury late in the fourth quarter.

THE 200-YARD MAN

Running back Jay Ajayi rushed for 200 yards in three contests in 2016, including back-to-back games in Week 6 and Week 7, becoming one of only four players to accomplish that feat in NFL history. Two of his 200-yard games came against the Buffalo Bills while the other was vs. the Pittsburgh Steelers. Ajayi joined O.J. Simpson (1973 and 1976), Earl Campbell (1980) and Ricky Williams (2002) as the only players in NFL history to rush for 200-plus yards in consecutive games. He is one of just five NFL players to ever rush for 200 yards at least three times in the same season. The others to do so are Campbell (1980, four times), Simpson (1973, three times), Tiki Barber (2005, three times) and Derrick Henry (2020, three times). Ajayi rushed for 420 yards in two games against Buffalo in 2016, the fifth-highest rushing total against one team in a single season, trailing Jamal Lewis (500 vs. Cleveland in 2003), Simpson (469 vs. New England in 1973), Derrick Henry (462 vs. Houston in 2020) and LaDainian Tomlinson (430 vs. Oakland in 2003).

THREE DOLPHINS NAMED NFL MAN OF THE YEAR

The NFL's Man of the Year award is the highest off-the-field honor attainable by an NFL player. It recognizes players for their excellence both on the field and in their communities.

Center Dwight Stephenson (1985), quarterback Dan Marino (1998) and defensive end Jason Taylor (2007) have each won the award while playing for the Dolphins. Miami is one of only eight teams to have three or more of its players receive the honor since it was instituted by the league in 1970. Kansas City and Chicago have had five players win the award, Pittsburgh and San Diego both have had four players, while Miami, Cincinnati, Dallas and Philadelphia each boast three award winners.

DOLPHINS IN THE HALL OF FAME

DON SHULA

INDUCTED: 1997 // BORN: 1/4/30 // DIED: 5/4/20
COLLEGE: JOHN CARROLL
PLAYER: 1951-57 // ASSISTANT COACH: 1960-62
HEAD COACH: 1963-95 // DOLPHINS HEAD COACH: 1970-95
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: DAVID AND MIKE SHULA

On July 26, 1997, Don Shula capped an illustrious career when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, following his election into that shrine on Jan. 25, 1997, his first year of eligibility. Shula's unanimous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of record-setting accomplishments.

For 25 years, from Jan. 5, 1996 until his death in 2020, Shula served as Vice Chairman of the Miami Dolphins. In total, he spent 50 seasons with the Dolphins, a tenure that started when he was named head coach of the club in 1970. He was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium on Nov. 25, 1996, and was inducted in the Dolphins Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011.

Shula's record as head coach of the Dolphins (1970-95) and before that as head coach of the Baltimore Colts (1963-69) is unmatched in National Football League history. In 1995, he concluded his 33rd season as an NFL head coach and his 26th season as head coach of the Dolphins. He owned a career record of 347-173-6 (.665), including a regular season mark of 328-156-6 (.676), and was the winningest coach in NFL history.

On Nov. 14, 1993 in Philadelphia, when the Dolphins defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 19-14, Shula won his 325th career game, moving him past the immortal George Halas (324-151-31) and setting an NFL record for most career victories, a mark once thought to be unreachable. Shula's 328 regular season wins also is an NFL record, surpassing Halas' former NFL mark of 318 regular season victories. Shula, Halas and New England's Bill Belichick are the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more career games, as Shula recorded his 300th career win on Sept. 22, 1991, with a 16-13 triumph over Green Bay in just his 29th year as an NFL head coach, as compared to 36 seasons for Halas to accomplish that feat. Belichick did it in 25 years.

In addition, Shula won Super Bowl titles in 1972 and 1973, one of only six coaches in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls. His 1972 team went 17-0, recording the only undefeated season in NFL annals. He was one of only two coaches (along with Belichick) to appear in six or more Super Bowls, and was one of only two coaches (along with Buffalo's Marv Levy) to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73). He also advanced to the Super Bowl with the Dolphins in 1982 and 1984, as well as in 1968 as head coach of the Baltimore Colts.

A remarkable 20 times in 33 seasons, Shula's teams reached the playoffs. His teams won at least 10 games 21 times in those 33 years, and he suffered only two losing seasons (6-8 in 1976 and 6-10 in 1988) in that span. He averaged more than 10 wins per season in his career (347 wins in 33 years as a head coach), and he was the youngest coach to win 100, 200 and 300 games.

During Shula's tenure with the Dolphins, from the time he replaced George Wilson on Feb. 18, 1970 to become the franchise's second-ever head coach through his final season in 1995, his winning percentage of .658 (257-133-2) during that time was the best record in all of professional sports. The Dolphins either won or shared first place in the AFC East 15 times in the 26 years under Shula, and reached the playoffs 16 times. His ultimate achievement was the NFL's only unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972, capped by a 14-7 win over Washington in Super Bowl VII. He won a second consecutive Super Bowl title in 1973, defeating the Minnesota Vikings 24-7 in Super Bowl VIII, and compiled an overall record of 32-2 in those back-to-back seasons, a two-year mark that has yet to be surpassed.

Before joining the Dolphins, Shula spent seven years (1963-69) as head coach of the Colts. In that span, he compiled a record of 73-26-4 (.728) and advanced to the playoffs four times, including two appearances in the NFL Championship Game, in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, respectively. He became the youngest head coach (33 years old) in the history of the NFL when he was named the Colts' head coach in 1963.

Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach in Baltimore after serving three years (1960-62) as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions, with the team going 26-13-1 in that period. Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959) before joining the Lions.

Shula broke into the NFL as the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951. He was involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons. In college, he was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula also contributed to the growth of the NFL off the field by serving from 1975 through 1995 (including the last two years in that span as co-chairman along with George Young of the New York Giants) on the league's influential Competition Committee, which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules to make the game more open and exciting, and to improve player safety.

In addition to his own election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Shula was selected to present five other members for induction into the Hall (Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer, Larry Little and Dwight Stephenson), including two (Csonka and Langer) on the same day. Shula was one of six individuals (along with Al Davis, Paul Brown, Tom Landry, Marv Levy and Edward DeBartolo) to present five or more inductees into the Hall.

On Nov. 20, 2019, Shula was named as a coach on the National Football League's 100th Anniversary All-Time Team.

Shula was further honored on Jan. 31, 2010, when NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell announced the establishment of a new league award – “The Don Shula NFL High School Coach of the Year Award” – which honors high school football coaches that display the integrity, achievement and leadership that Coach Shula exemplified throughout his NFL career. The Don Shula Award winner is recognized at the Super Bowl and receives $10,000 and his high school football program is awarded $15,000.

In addition, on that same day the Dolphins unveiled the “Perfect Moment in Time” statue in honor of Coach Shula. The 10-foot sculpture depicts Coach Shula raised upon the shoulders of two players, Nick Buoniconti and Al Jenkins, and captures the perfect moment in time immediately after the Dolphins completed their undefeated season in 1972. The statue adorns the entrance of the Dolphins' corporate headquarters at Hard Rock Stadium, and that office bears the address of “347 Don Shula Drive” to reflect the total number of victories Shula amassed during his career.

Along with his football responsibilities, Shula always gave considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to many area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. Shula was also active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, the United Way and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helped fund a $1 million chair in the University's Department of Philosophy. On Sept. 27, 2003, John Carroll University showed its appreciation for Shula's support of the school by naming its new stadium Don Shula Stadium. Shula also received honorary doctorate degrees from John Carroll, St. Thomas University, the University of Miami and Florida Atlantic University.

Because of his success on the football field and his long-time civic and charitable service, Shula received countless prestigious awards recognizing his contributions, including the 1993 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year Award and the 1994 Horatio Alger Award. In addition, along with Ken Blanchard, in 1995 Shula co-authored “Everyone's A Coach,” a highly acclaimed book that outlines the application of their managerial philosophies for business and personal success. Shula personified those business principles himself, serving as an equity partner in two highly successful undertakings, Shula Enterprises, Inc. along with Don Shula's Steakhouse, LLLP.

Shula's oldest son, David, and his wife, Leslie, have three sons, Danny, Christopher and Matthew. David served as the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 1992-96, and when Don Shula's Dolphins played David Shula's Bengals on October 2, 1994 and October 1, 1995, both at Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, it marked the only two times in the history of professional sports that a father and son faced each other as head coaches. David currently is the wide receivers coach at Dartmouth. His son, Chris, is the pass game coordinator/defensive backs coach for the Los Angeles Rams. He won Super Bowl LVI with the team and is a third-generation Shula to coach in the NFL, following his father and grandfather.

Shula's other son, Mike, currently is an assistant coach for the Buffalo Bills. He spent two seasons (2020-21) as quarterbacks coach for the Denver Broncos and the previous two seasons (2018-19) as offensive coordinator for the New York Giants. Mike also spent seven years with the Carolina Panthers as the team's offensive coordinator (2013-17) and quarterbacks coach (2011-12). He joined the Panthers after serving four years as the quarterbacks coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars (2007-10). He spent four seasons (2003-06) as the head coach at the University of Alabama and led the Crimson Tide to a Cotton Bowl win and a 10-2 record in 2005. He had rejoined the Dolphins' staff as quarterbacks coach in 2000 after serving the four previous seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers; he also spent the 1991-92 seasons as a coaches' assistant under his father in Miami. Mike and his wife, Shari, have three daughters, Samantha, Brooke and Ryan.

Mike and David Shula presented their father for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1997, becoming the first pair ever to present a Hall of Famer for induction.

Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has five children: Alex, Lindsey, Tyler, and twins Calvin and Carly. Another daughter, Sharon, resides in New York, while youngest daughter, Annie, lives and works in Broward County.

His widow, Mary Anne, serves as Chairman of the Board for Shula Steak Houses, LLLP, and continues to be very active in charitable and community affairs. The couple visited U.S. soldiers stationed in Iraq and Afghanistan as part of a USO tour to raise troop morale. They were married on Oct. 15, 1993.

Shula passed away on May 4, 2020, at the age of 90. The Dolphins held a public celebration of his life at Hard Rock Stadium on Oct. 2, 2021, featuring remarks from the Shula family and several Dolphins alumni.

DON SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula passed the immortal George Halas to become the winningest coach in NFL history when he registered victory number 325 in Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia on Nov. 14, 1993. Shula concluded coaching with a career record of 347-173-6 (.665). On Dec. 25, 1994, in Miami's 27-20 win over Detroit, Shula won the 319th regular season game of his career and broke the NFL record for most regular season coaching wins by Halas (318 wins). Shula owned a 328-156-6 (.676) regular season record. In 1991, Shula joined Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches with 300 or more career wins. Shula accomplished his milestone 300th career win with a 16-13 triumph over the Green Bay Packers on Sept. 22, 1991. Shula won the 300th regular-season game of his coaching career with a 16-13 overtime win at New England on Dec. 27, 1992.

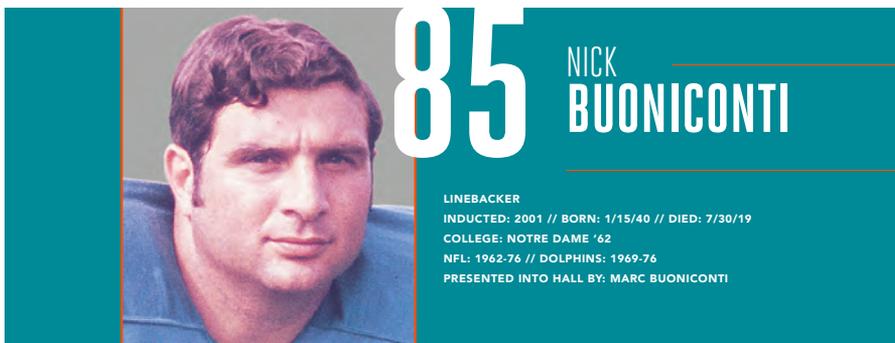

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on Sept. 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joined Hall of Fame coaches Curly Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club.

He earned an AFL championship ring as a member of the 1966 Chiefs organization. Beathard served as a scout for the Atlanta Falcons from 1968-71. In 1972, Beathard was named director of player personnel for the Dolphins, where he served with the team through the 1977 season. In 1978, Washington named Beathard general manager. During his tenure in Washington, he helped lead the team to three Super Bowls and two championships. After a year as a studio analyst with NBC in 1989, Beathard joined the Chargers as general manager. ## JIMMY JOHNSON

COACH/EXECUTIVE

PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: TROY AIKMAN

YEAR INDUCTED: 2020
DOLPHINS: 1996-99

Jimmy Johnson's NFL coaching career included five seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (1989-93), with whom he won two Super Bowl titles, and four years with the Miami Dolphins (1996-99).

In those four seasons in Miami, the Dolphins went to the playoffs three times and won two postseason games, defeating the Buffalo Bills in the 1998 season and the Seattle Seahawks the following year. Johnson's record of 36-28 (.563) is third-best in terms of winning percentage among the Dolphins' 13 head coaches, behind only Shula's .659 and the .575 posted by Johnson's successor, Dave Wannstedt.

Johnson also was instrumental in putting together one of the top defenses in the NFL, with the draft selections of Zach Thomas in 1996, Sam Madison and Jason Taylor in 1997 and Patrick Surtain in 1998. Taylor was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2018 and Thomas was a finalist for the Class of 2020. With those four players leading the way, the Dolphins defenses were third and fifth in fewest yards allowed in Johnson's final two years and in the top 10 the following five seasons.

Twenty-three years after Don Shula was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Johnson joined him and made the Dolphins are one of seven franchises with multiple modern-era coaches in the Hall of Fame, along with Washington Commanders, Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts, Dallas Cowboys, Kansas City Chiefs, Pittsburgh Steelers, Oakland/Las Vegas Raiders and the St. Louis/Los Angeles Rams.

COACH/EXECUTIVE YEAR INDUCTED: 2013

PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: GEORGE MARTIN

Bill Parcells served the Miami Dolphins in an executive capacity, but he is best known for his success as a head coach in the NFL. In his 19 years as a head coach in the league, he experienced just five losing seasons. Four times he took struggling teams and turned them into winners. He won two Super Bowls, and his teams finished in either first or second place in their division 11 times.

Parcells spent almost three full seasons (2008-10) as the Executive Vice President of Football Operations of the Dolphins. He had an immediate impact, inheriting a 1-15 team and turning them around his first year, leading the Dolphins to an 11-5 record in 2008 along with the AFC East leading the Dolphins to a 10-game turnaround was tied for the biggest improvement in NFL history.

Parcells had the most success as head coach of the New York Giants. He took over that position in 1983, inheriting a Giants team that had just one winning season in its previous 10 years. After a 3-12-1 season in his first year, the Giants made the postseason as a wild-card team the next two years. In 1986, however, the Giants finished 14-2 and capped the year with a victory over the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXI. And in 1990 the team captured its second Lombardi Trophy with a dramatic 20-19 victory over the Buffalo Bills in Super Bowl XXV. Parcells took over as head coach of the New England Patriots, and in 1996 he led them to a berth in Super Bowl XXXI. After that he moved to the New York Jets, and in 1998 he guided them to a 12-4 record and advanced to the AFC championship game. His final stint as a head coach in the NFL came with the Dallas Cowboys from 2003-06. He led the team to playoff appearances twice during that tenure.

Overall Parcells spent 26 seasons as a coach and executive in the NFL. He compiled an overall coaching record of 172-130-1 in the regular season and 11-8 in the playoffs. He was named NFL Coach of the Year in 1986 and 1994 and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: SYDNEY SEAU

Junior Seau played three years (2003-05) as a linebacker for the Dolphins, but is best known as a perennial Pro Bowl performer for 13 seasons with the San Diego Chargers and also spent his last four years in the NFL as a member of the New England Patriots. During his 20-year career, he recorded 56.5 sacks along with 18 Interceptions and was known for his leadership and his passionate style of play.

Seau was acquired by the Dolphins on April 16, 2003 from the Chargers in exchange for a 2004 fifth-round draft choice. During his tenure in Miami, Seau teamed with Jason Taylor, Zach Thomas and others to form the nucleus of one the strongest defensive units in the NFL. In 2003, his first season with the Dolphins, he started 15 games and finished second on the team with 133 tackles, the ninth time in his career he recorded 100 or more tackles in a season. He also added 3.0 sacks. He proved to be a key addition to a defense that allowed only 90.8 yards rushing per game, the fifth-best mark in the NFL, as the Dolphins became the only team in the league not to permit an individual 100-yard rusher. In 2004 he started the first eight games of the season, recording 68 tackles and a sack before being placed on injured reserve with a torn right pectoral muscle he injured on Nov. 1 at the New York Jets. At the time of the injury he was averaging eight tackles a game and ranked second on the team in tackles. Limited by injuries in 2005, Seau only played in seven games with the Dolphins (including five starts) and had 43 tackles and one sack before being placed on injured reserve on Nov. 24 with an Achilles tendon injury. He was released by Miami on March 6, 2006. In two of his three years with the Dolphins (2003-04) his teammates voted him the recipient of the Don Shula Leadership Award.

During his 13 years in San Diego (1990-2002), Seau was voted to 12 consecutive Pro Bowls, becoming just the fourth player since 1970 to be selected 10 or more straight times to the Pro Bowl. He recorded 100 or more tackles in eight of his seasons in San Diego and was selected the Chargers' Most Valuable Player six times. Seau was selected to the NFL 100 All-Time Team in 2019. He was named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1992 by UPI and also was named to the All-Decade Team of the 1990s by the Pro Football

Hall of Fame. In 1994 he led the Chargers to a berth in Super Bowl XXIX, the franchise's only Super Bowl appearance, and in the AFC Championship Game that season against the Pittsburgh Steelers he recorded 16 tackles despite playing with a pinched nerve in his neck. That same year he was named the NFL Man of the Year for his philanthropic efforts, and he was a constant and active contributor to his community throughout his career.

Following his tenure in Miami, Seau spent his final four seasons (2006-09) in the league with the New England Patriots. In 2007, he recorded 74 tackles and 3.5 while playing in all 16 games for Patriots' AFC Championship team that went undefeated in the regular season before losing to the New York Giants in Super Bowl XLII. Seau retired following his final season with the Patriots in 2009, and he died on May 2, 2012 in San Diego at the age of 43. ## DOLPHINS SEND 192 PLAYERS TO PRO BOWL

Since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, the Dolphins have sent a total of 192 players to the Pro Bowl, including Xavien Howard following the 2018, 2020 and 2021 seasons. Over the course of those 52 seasons, 103 offensive players, 80 defensive players and nine special teams players have been chosen. The position that has been represented the most is wide receiver, which has occurred on 21 occasions, including the 2017 season when wide receiver Jarvis Landry was selected. The only seasons since 1970 that the Dolphins did not have a player selected to the Pro Bowl were 1980, 1997 and 2019.

PRESEASON TELEVISION

WFOR CBS4 returns as the preseason home of the Dolphins for the 26th consecutive season and will broadcast all three of Miami's preseason contests.

Dolphins Hall of Fame defensive end/linebacker Jason Taylor will once again serve as an analyst for Dolphins preseason broadcasts. He'll be joined by Steve Goldstein calling play-by-play, and Kim Bokamper, who will continue to serve as the sideline reporter.

Taylor is a first-ballot Hall of Famer, becoming just the second Dolphins defensive player (Nick Buoniconti) to be elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He finished his career with 139.5 sacks, which was sixth-most in NFL history at the time of his retirement following the 2011 season. Taylor's nine defensive touchdowns are the most in NFL history by a defensive lineman or linebacker. He was named the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year in 2007 and earned three first-team All-Pro selections (2000, 2002 and 2006) and six Pro Bowl nods (2000, 2002, 2004-07).

It will be Taylor's third season on the preseason television crew after he joined the broadcast team in 2019 (there were no preseason games in 2020). Taylor also serves as a defensive analyst for the University of Miami football team.

Goldstein has been the television play-by-play voice of the Florida Panthers since 2007 and is in his second season calling Dolphins preseason games. He has covered four Winter Olympics for CBS Radio/Westwood One, including hockey play-by-play at the 2014 Sochi and 2010 Vancouver games. Additionally, Goldstein has covered numerous Super Bowls and Stanley Cup Finals for Westwood One and the US Open for USTA, ESPN and the Tennis Channel.

A familiar voice in South Florida, Goldstein is currently an anchor for WFOR CBS4 and hosted pre- and post-game shows for the Miami Dolphins Radio Network from 1995-2004 and 2012-15. He's also hosted morning shows on AM 560 Sports WQAM and 940 WINZ.

Bokamper began his career with the Miami Dolphins in 1976 as the team's first round draft pick. During his 10 years with the Dolphins, he played both linebacker and defensive end, earning Pro Bowl recognition in 1980 as a linebacker. In addition to his sideline duties, Bokamper hosts the "The Mike McDaniel Show" each week, the "Dolphins Weekly Live" pregame show and the "5th Quarter Postgame Show" following each game.
