RON RIVERA

HEAD COACH

4TH SEASON IN WASHINGTON

Ron Rivera enters his fourth season as Washington's head coach in 2023.

He was named the 30th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 1, 2020 and led Washington to their first division title since 2015. During the 2020 season Rivera was diagnosed with Squamous Cell Carcinoma (SCC) located in a lymph node and detected from a self-care check. Rivera continued to coach through his treatments and on January 28, 2021, he was declared cancer free. Rivera was selected as the NFC Coach of the Year by the Committee of 101 following the 2020 season.

Through three seasons in Washington, Rivera has accumulated 22 wins and one playoff appearance. His teams have also gone 8-3 in the month of November and oversaw a defense that finished third in the NFL in yards per game and fourth in the NFL in passing yards per game.

Rivera eclipsed 100 total career wins (regular and postseason) with a victory against the Atlanta Falcons in Week 12 of the 2022 season. He became the seventh active head coach to achieve the milestone and the 47th coach over all to accomplish the feat.

A friend of legendary head coach Joe Gibbs, Rivera is a passionate and skilled leader who has earned the respect of his players, coaching staff and the community. He most recently served as the head coach of the Carolina Panthers for nine seasons, where he led the team to three straight divisional titles and an appearance in Super Bowl 50. Rivera was also recognized twice as the NFL Coach of the Year by the Associated Press in 2013 and in 2015 and is the all-time leader in wins for the Panthers franchise.

Rivera inherited a 2-14 Carolina Panthers team as a rookie head coach in 2011 and guided it back to an NFC force with four playoffs appearances since 2013, tied for the second-most playoff berths in the NFC over that six-year period. In that span, the Panthers recorded 58 wins, tied for the most in any six-year period in their franchise history and fifth-most in the NFL.

Hired by the Panthers for his defensive expertise, Rivera did not disappoint as the Panthers put together five top-10 finishes in total defense in seven seasons from 2012-18. Like Rivera, the Panthers' rebound has been steady and solid, starting with six wins in his first season in 2011 and seven victories in 2012 before registering three consecutive division championships starting in 2013 when he earned his first Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year award. Laying a foundation that included back-to-back Rookie of the Year award winners in quarterback Cam Newton and linebacker Luke Kuechly, Rivera blended veteran and young talent into productive units on both sides of the ball.

Rivera helped lead a Panthers team that finished among the league's top-10 rushing offenses, including top-five finishes in 2011, 2015, 2017 and 2018. The Panthers recorded 30 consecutive regular season games with at least 100 rushing yards from Week 6 of 2014 to Week 3 of 2016, the longest streak in the NFL since Pittsburgh tallied 43 from 1974-77.

Carolina's run defense ranked in the top 10 of the NFL in 2013, 2015, 2016 and 2017. Starting in Week 14 of 2016 through Week 1 of 2018, the Panthers went 21 consecutive games without allowing a 100-yard individual rusher, setting a franchise record.

In 2018, Rivera coached two players to All-Pro selections. Panthers running back Christian McCaffrey earned AP All-Pro second-team honors as he helped the Panthers lead the NFL in rushing yards per carry (5.1). McCaffrey also recorded 107 receptions, the most by any running back in a season in NFL history and broke Steve Smith's franchise record for single-season receptions by any player. He ran for 1,098 rushing yards, becoming the third player in NFL history with over 100 receptions and 1,000 rushing yards in the same season. McCaffrey accumulated a franchise-record 1,965 scrimmage yards, ranking third in the NFL.

Linebacker Luke Kuechly earned his sixth-straight Pro Bowl selection and fifth AP All-Pro first-team honor, tied for the most among active players. Kuechly tied for third in the NFL with 20 tackles for loss. In 2017, the rushing attack helped propel the team to an 11-5 record and a Wild Card berth by averaging 131.4 yards on the ground, good for fourth in the league.

In 2015, Rivera was named NFL Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons as his team earned its third consecutive NFC South title and claimed the top seed in the NFC for the first time in Panthers franchise history. The Panthers became just the seventh team in the Super Bowl era to post a 15-1 or better record in the regular season. Carolina started 2015 with 14 consecutive victories, which, combined with four wins to close the 2014 regular season, gave the Panthers an NFC-record 18-game winning streak. Carolina won its second NFC Championship in franchise history, third consecutive NFC South division title and appeared in Super Bowl 50. Carolina finished the season with a franchise-best 17-2 record, including home playoff victories over Seattle in the divisional round and Arizona in the NFC Championship game.

Rivera's Panthers went 12-4 and won the NFC South in 2013, Carolina's first division title since 2008. The Panthers then recovered from a 3-8-1 start in 2014 to win four in a row and capture a second consecutive NFC South crown. Prior to Rivera's arrival, Carolina had never reached the postseason in consecutive years, and no team had captured the NFC South twice in a row.

Rivera arrived in Carolina with a reputation for hard work, attention to detail and preparation. Those were also the qualities he exhibited in his first campaign as the Panthers tripled their win total from the previous season. Rivera did not even meet his team until they reported to training camp and, despite a slow start, held it together to finish with four wins in the final six games.

Rivera has shined as a coach and player during his 30-plus years in the NFL, serving as defensive coordinator for the San Diego Chargers' top-ranked defense in 2010 and playing linebacker for the Chicago Bears' top-ranked defense and Super Bowl XX championship team in 1985. In 23 seasons as a coach and nine as a player, he has been with teams that have reached the playoffs 19 times, including nine conference championships and three Super Bowls. The mentality of the Chargers defense that Rivera coached and the Bears defense on which he played has stuck with the head coach, and he has transferred it to his teams.

Rivera's character has been influenced by two innovative defensive coordinators. As a player, Rivera was coached by the late Buddy Ryan, the architect of the "46 Defense," which involved blitzing on nearly every down. As a coach, Rivera toiled under the late Jim Johnson, a highly regarded defensive coordinator renowned for his aggressive approach.

Rivera's identity also has been shaped by his family. The son of a U.S. Army officer and the second youngest of four boys, Rivera learned from a young age about chain of command and many of the principles he teaches and expects from his players. "I come from a military family where discipline isn't taught, it's lived. It's expected from day one. I have a philosophy that every player, every coach, everyone who works for this organization, they'll know it day one," Rivera said in his introductory press conference with Washington on Jan. 2.

Rivera worked with the Chargers from 2007-10. He coached inside linebackers before taking over as the team's defensive coordinator midway through the 2008 season. Under Rivera's guidance, the pass defense steadied itself – intercepting nine passes and yielding 229.6 passing yards per game and 11 touchdown passes over the final eight games. Those numbers contrasted to the first half of the season when San Diego notched just seven picks and was victimized for 265.1 yards per game and 14 touchdowns through the air. In Rivera's first full season leading the defense in 2009, the Chargers ranked 16th in total defense and 11th against the pass. Those rankings improved in 2010 as San Diego led the NFL with an average of 271.6 total yards allowed per game and gave up a league-low 177.8 passing yards per game. From 2004-06, Rivera oversaw the Chicago Bears defense, engineering the unit to two top-five finishes in the league. Under Rivera's direction, five different defensive players went to the Pro Bowl: linebacker Lance Briggs, safety Mike Brown, defensive tackle Tommie Harris, linebacker Brian Urlacher and cornerback Nathan Vasher.

In his first season as a defensive coordinator in 2004, Rivera presided over a defense that produced nine more takeaways and 17 more sacks than the previous year and scored a franchise-record and NFC-high six defensive touchdowns. The Bears also thrived on third down and buckled down inside their own 20-yard line, ranking first in the NFL in third-down efficiency (30.5 percent) and topping the NFC in red zone defense (42.6 percent). The following year, Chicago continued to build on the foundation Rivera laid in 2004. The Bears won their first of two consecutive NFC North titles and stood second in the NFL in total defense. In surrendering the fewest points in the league, Rivera's defense went 43 consecutive quarters without allowing more than seven points – the longest streak in the NFL since 1969. During Rivera's last season with the Bears in 2006, the defense paced the NFL with 44 takeaways and finished fifth in the league in total defense and third in scoring defense, helping propel Chicago to the NFC Championship and an appearance in Super Bowl XLI.

Prior to becoming a defensive coordinator, Rivera spent five seasons from 1999-2003 as the linebackers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles, who advanced to the NFC Championship game in each of his final three seasons. Twice during Rivera's tenure with the Eagles, the team finished second in the NFL in scoring defense and in 2001 held all 16 of its opponents to fewer than 21 points – making them just the fourth team in NFL history to do so.

Rivera gained his first coaching experience with the Bears as a defensive quality control coach from 1997-98. He is just the third Latino head coach in NFL history, joining Tom Flores with the Oakland Raiders from 1979-87 and Seattle Seahawks from 1992-94 and Tom Fears with the New Orleans Saints from 1967-70.

Following retirement from his playing career, Rivera went into broadcasting. He covered the Bears and college football as a television analyst for WGN and SportsChannel Chicago for four years from 1993-96.

Selected in the second round of the 1984 NFL Draft by Chicago, Rivera played all nine of his pro seasons with the Bears. Primarily an outside linebacker, he appeared in 149 games with 62 starts (including 12 postseason contests with six starts) and posted 392 tackles, 8.5 sacks, five forced fumbles, six fumble recoveries, nine interceptions and 15 passes defensed. Rivera was a member of six NFC Central division title teams and a Super Bowl XX championship team in 1985.

As a player, Rivera was known for both his skill and determination on the field and his dedication of time and energy to the community. As a result, he was named the Bears' Man of the Year in 1988 and earned the club's Ed Block Courage Award in 1989. He has carried that same community commitment to coaching, sponsoring a bowling tournament to benefit the Ronald McDonald House, USO and Humane Society. He was a finalist for the 2017 Salute to Service Award, an annual award presented to NFL players, coaches, personnel and alumni who demonstrate an exemplary commitment to honoring and supporting the military community.

Rivera, who lost his brother Mickey to pancreatic cancer in 2015, also serves as a spokesman for the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network. He has twice been the honorary starter for the organization's PurpleStride 5K in Charlotte.

An All-American at the University of California, Rivera finished his career as the school's all-time leader in sacks with 22 and tackles with 336. As a senior in 1983, he set the Bears' single-season record for sacks with 13 and tackles for loss with 26.5.

Born Jan. 7, 1962, in Fort Ord, Calif., Rivera lived in Germany, Panama, Washington and Maryland before his family settled in Marina, Calif. He attended Seaside High School in Seaside, Calif., and was a three-sport star in football, basketball and baseball. Rivera and his wife, Stephanie, have two children, Christopher and Courtney. Stephanie is a former assistant coach for the WNBA's Washington Mystics.

SALUTE TO SERVICE HONOR

Ron Rivera was the recipient of the 2022 Salute to Service Award presented by USAA. The award acknowledges the exceptional efforts by members of the NFL family to honor and support members of the military community. Rivera was the 12th recipient of the distinguished honor. Rivera attributes his success in the face of adversity to his military upbringing and values instilled in him growing up the son of a career U.S. Army warrant officer. Having grown up on military installations, Rivera understands the demands of military life and the sacrifices made by service members and their families. Rivera has been committed to giving back to the military and veteran communities. He consistently connects his teams with service members and military families to recognize their service and sacrifice.

MARTIN MAYHEW

GENERAL MANAGER

7TH WITH WASHINGTON

Martin Mayhew enters his third season as General Manager of the Washington Commanders after being hired by the organization on January 22, 2021.

Mayhew joined Washington with 22 seasons of NFL experience as an executive, including eight seasons as the general manager of the Detroit Lions. He returns to the franchise that he played for from 1989-92 and was a member of the Super Bowl XXVI team.

“Martin is a proven general manager who will bring a wealth of knowledge and experience to the organization,” said Head Coach Ron Rivera. “He will be an integral part of running the daily football operations and will allow me the opportunity to focus more on coaching. He impressed both myself and Mr. Snyder during the interview process and we both believe he will be a tremendous fit here. He is a man of high character and integrity and was part of the rich history and tradition of this great franchise as a member of the Super Bowl championship team in 1991.”

Mayhew spent the previous four season with the San Francisco 49ers, most recently as the club’s vice president of player personnel. He held the position of senior personnel executive for the franchise from 2017-18. Mayhew assisted first-time general manager John Lynch and was a major contributor to a personnel department that was vital in the team’s Super Bowl appearance in 2019.

Prior to joining San Francisco, Mayhew spent the 2016 season as the director of football operations/special projects with the New York Giants. In his role with the Giants, he worked on all aspects of the salary cap, CBA compliance and player contract negotiations.

Prior to his time in New York, Mayhew spent 15 years (2001-15) in the Detroit Lions organization, including the final seven as the team’s general manager. He took over as the general manager following Detroit’s winless season and oversaw the building of a roster that resulted in a 10-win season in 2011 and an 11-win season in 2014.

During Mayhew’s tenure as Lions general manager, he was responsible for the draft selections of Pro Bowlers QB Matthew Stafford, DE Ezekiel Ansah and DT Ndamukong Suh. Suh was a four-time Pro Bowler and three-time First Team All-Pro selection with Detroit and was the 2010 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Mayhew was also responsible for signing WR Golden Tate and S Glover Quin in free agency, both of whom went on to earn Pro Bowl honors in Detroit.

Mayhew first joined the Lions organization in 2001 as the senior director of football administration/staff counsel and was promoted to senior vice president of football administration/staff counsel in 2003. Mayhew was appointed senior vice president and assistant general manager in 2004. In 2008, Mayhew was promoted to general manager.

Mayhew played nine seasons in the NFL and was originally selected by the Buffalo Bills in the 10th round (262nd overall) in the 1988 NFL Draft. During Mayhew’s nine-year career, he appeared in 118 games (107 starts) for Buffalo (1988), Washington (1989-92) and Tampa Bay (1993-96) and notched 473 tackles, 21 interceptions, 1.0 sack and four forced fumbles. He started at cornerback for the Super Bowl XXVI champion Washington Redskins.

Mayhew is a native of Tallahassee, Fla. and graduated from Florida State University with a degree in business management and also holds a law degree from Georgetown University. At Florida State, he lettered in both football and track. Mayhew interned for Washington’s personnel department in 1999 while in law school at Georgetown. He also held labor and legal department internships with the NFL League Office before joining the Detroit Lions.

MARTY HURNEY

EVP OF FOOTBALL/PLAYER PERSONNEL
3RD WITH WASHINGTON

Marty Hurney enters his third season as Executive Vice President of Football/Player Personnel of the Washington Commanders after being hired by the organization on January 22, 2021.

Hurney joined Washington with 29 seasons of NFL experience as an executive and will rejoin the franchise where he started his NFL career as a member of the team’s public relations department.

“Marty Hurney is an excellent evaluator of talent and someone whom I trust and have worked with in the past,” said Head Coach Ron Rivera. “He knows the amount of hard work it takes to operate a successful personnel department. Marty has a proven track record as a successful scout and general manager and will be a vital part of shaping our roster. Both myself and Mr. Snyder agreed that he would bring an enormous amount of experience to our operation. It is also fitting that Marty started his career here working for the legendary Bobby Beathard. I look forward to collaborating with both Marty and Martin in the years to come.”

Hurney was named the Carolina Panthers General Manager in 2002 and held the position until 2012. He was then brought back as the club’s interim general manager in 2017 and maintained the official role from 2018-2020. During Hurney’s tenure as general manager, the Panthers appeared in the postseason four times, with two NFC South titles, two trips to the NFC Championship game and an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVIII.

Hurney has had a strong number of draft selections in the first round. Most notably, he selected both QB Cam Newton and LB Luke Kuechly in the first round of consecutive drafts in 2011 and 2012. Newton went on to win NFL Rookie of the Year in 2011, NFL MVP in 2015 along with setting nearly every passing and rushing record in franchise history. Kuechly won NFL Rookie of the Year in 2012 and NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2013 and was a seven-time Pro Bowl selection. Carolina was just the fourth team in NFL history to have consecutive players win rookie of the year honors since the awards inception in 1967.

Hurney’s other notable first round selections include DE Julius Pepper (2002), T Jordan Gross (2003), CB Chris Gamble (2004), LB Thomas Davis Sr. (2005), RB DeAngelo Williams (2006), RB Jonathan Stewart (2008), WR DJ Moore (2018) and DE Brian Burns (2019). Peppers was selected to the Pro Bowl nine times, was the NFL Rookie of the Year in 2002 and is the Panthers’ all-time leader in sacks. Gross started at tackle for the Panthers for 11 consecutive seasons, made three Pro Bowls and is the Panthers’ all-time leader in games started. Gamble started at cornerback for the Panthers for nine seasons and is the all-time franchise leader in interceptions. Davis Sr. was selected to three Pro Bowls along with gaining First Team All-Pro honors in 2015 and is the Panthers all-time leader in tackles. Stewart and Williams went on to compile 7,318 rushing yards and 6,846 rushing yards, which is No. 1 and No. 2 in Panthers’ history, respectively. Moore has led Carolina in receiving and posted 1,000-plus receiving yards in consecutive seasons and was selected to the PFWA All-Rookie Team in 2018. Burns ranked No. 4 among rookies in sacks in 2019 and led the Panthers with 9.0 sacks in 2020.

During Hurney’s tenure as Panthers GM, he also had considerable success in free agency and through trades. Hurney executed trades for TE Greg Olsen and long snapper J.J. Jansen who were both Pro Bowlers. Olsen holds the franchise record for receiving yards among tight ends and ranks No. 3 overall in receiving yards in franchise history. He also acquired RB Stephen Davis, QB Jake Delhomme, LB Mark Fields and G Mike Wahle via free agency. All four players were named to Pro Bowls during their time with Carolina. Delhomme ranks second behind only Cam Newton as the franchise’s leader in passing yards and passing touchdowns.

Prior to being named general manager of the Panthers in 2002, Hurney held the position of coordinator of player operations from 1999-2001 and director of football administration in 1998. Before joining the Carolina Panthers organization, Hurney held the role of coordinator of football operations with the San Diego Chargers under Pro Football Hall of Fame and Washington Ring of Fame executive Bobby Beathard.

Hurney began his career as a reporter covering Washington in the 1980s. After developing relationships with Owner Jack Kent Cooke, General Manager Bobby Beathard and Head Coach Joe Gibbs, Hurney joined Washington’s public relations department in 1988.

Hurney is a native of Wheaton, Md. and attended Catholic University in Washington D.C. Before joining Washington’s public relations department, he worked for the Montgomery Journal, Washington Star and Washington Times.

Washington held opponents to a 26:57 time of possession mark, the lowest in the NFL. Del Rio's defense also recorded 15 games allowing 25 or fewer points, the most in the NFL.

In 2021, Del Rio oversaw a defense that featured defensive tackle Jonathan Allen, who set career-highs in sacks (9.0) and quarterback hits (30). Washington's defense allowed the eighth-fewest rushing yards per game and recorded the best defensive tackle team grade in the NFL according to Pro Football Focus.

In 2020, Del Rio helped lead a defense that ranked in the top 10 in total yards per game (6th), passing yards per game (5th), interception rate (8th), redzone percentage (3rd) and total points per game (7th).

Del Rio has accumulated 35 combined seasons of NFL experience, including 24 as a coach and 11 as a player. He has held head coaching roles with the Oakland Raiders, Denver Broncos (interim) and Jacksonville Jaguars. He has also coached 29 players to a total of 57 Pro Bowl selections.

From 2015-17, Del Rio was the Head Coach of the Oakland Raiders. In 2016, he guided the Raiders to a 12-4 record, marking the franchise's first 12-win season since 2000. The Raiders earned a postseason berth for the first time since 2002 and landed an NFL-high seven players on the AFC Pro Bowl squad. Del Rio was selected as the recipient of the Maxwell Club's Greasy Neale Professional Coach of the Year Award, becoming the sixth Raiders coach to earn NFL Coach of the Year honors. In addition, he was named the AFC Coach of the Year by Kansas City's Committee of 101.

As defensive coordinator with the Denver Broncos from 2012-14, Del Rio was part of three-straight AFC West titles and helped lead Denver to an AFC Championship and appearance in Super Bowl XLVIII following the 2013 campaign. It marked his second stint under Head Coach John Fox, as the two also spent the 2002 season together in Carolina.

Prior to joining the Broncos in 2012, Del Rio spent nine seasons at the helm in Jacksonville. During his head coaching tenure (2003-11) with the Jaguars, the club ranked sixth in the NFL in yards per game allowed (317.3) and eighth in points per game allowed (20.3).

Under Del Rio, the Jaguars made two playoff appearances in 2005 and 2007, highlighted by the club's first postseason win in eight seasons with a 31-29 road victory against the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 2007 AFC Wild Card Game.

During his lone season as a defensive coordinator with Carolina in 2002, he inherited the NFL's worst defense statistically (371.4 yards per game allowed) and turned it into the league's second-ranked unit (290.4 yards per game allowed). Additionally, the 2002 Panthers squad led the NFL in rushing average against (3.7 avg.) and ranked second in third down efficiency (32.9 percent) and sacks (52).

As linebackers coach for the Baltimore Ravens from 1999-2001, Del Rio tutored a talented group that included Peter Boulware, Ray Lewis and Jamie Sharper. Baltimore's 2000 team set the NFL 16-game record by allowing only 165 points while recording four shutouts and forcing a league-best 49 turnovers. Lewis was named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year and the MVP of Super Bowl XXXV that season after a playoff run in which the defense surrendered just one touchdown in four games.

Del Rio began his coaching career with the New Orleans Saints under Head Coach Mike Ditka, serving as an assistant strength coach in 1997 before moving on to coach the linebackers in 1998.

A veteran of 11 seasons as an NFL linebacker, he was selected in the third round (68th overall) of the 1985 NFL Draft by New Orleans and went on to make the NFL's All-Rookie Team and earn the Saints' Rookie of the Year award.

NATE KACZOR

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

5TH SEASON IN WASHINGTON

Nate Kaczor (pronounced Kat-sir) enters his fifth season as special teams coordinator with Washington in 2023. Prior to Washington, Kaczor held positions with the Jacksonville Jaguars, Tennessee Titans and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

In 2022, Kaczor led a unit that produced two Pro Bowl players including punter Tress Way and special teamer Jeremy Reaves. Way became the first Washington punter since Matt Turk in 1998 to be selected to the Pro Bowl. Way now joins Turk (1996-98) as the only other punter in franchise history to be selected to multiple Pro Bowls. Way punted 83 times and recorded 3,885 yards and pinned 37 punts inside the 20 yard line. Reaves was selected as a primary special teamer for the NFC. It was Reaves' first Pro Bowl selection and the selection marks the first time that Washington has sent a special teamer to the Pro Bowl since Lorenzo Alexander in 2012.

In 2021, Kaczor led a special teams unit that finished with the sixth-most total return yards in the NFL which was the most by the organization since 2015. The unit also allowed 643 kickoff return yards, the seventh fewest in the NFL. Washington punted for an average of 47.4 yards, the seventh-most in the league.

In 2020, Kaczor helped standout punter Tress Way record the highest single season net punting average [44.3] in franchise history. Way broke his own record from 2019 [44.1], also under the direction of Kaczor. Way also set a franchise record for most punting yards in a single game, punting 10 times for 511 yards against the Rams in Week 5. Washington led the league in net punting yards in 2020 with 3,325.

In 2019, Kaczor helped guide punter Tress Way to his first Pro Bowl selection. Way was also named to the Associated Press All-Pro Second Team. Way finished the season No. 2 in net average (44.1) and No. 2 in punt yardage (3,919) and No. 7 in punts inside the 20 yard line (30). Under Kaczor's guidance, Washington ranked No. 4 in the league in kickoff return average (25.2) and No. 5 in kickoff return yardage (833) despite fielding one of the league's youngest rosters.

Under Kaczor's guidance, Steven Sims Jr. (NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Week 12) and Tress Way (NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Week 13) were also the first players in the history of the franchise to receive the honor of NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in consecutive weeks.

During Kaczor's three seasons with Tampa Bay, the Buccaneers were one of the top punt coverage units in the NFL, allowing only 6.6 yards per return, the fourth-lowest mark in the league during that span.

Punter Bryan Anger was a standout during Kaczor's tenure with the Buccaneers. In his first year with the team, Anger set Buccaneers records for both punts inside the 20 (37) and net punting average (42.7), with both of those ranking in the top five in the NFL in 2016. In the three seasons that Anger spent under Kaczor's tutelage, Anger ranked top 15 in the league in punts inside the 20 and net average while only recording 14 touchbacks.

Kaczor came to Tampa Bay having spent the previous four seasons with the Tennessee Titans, the final three as the teams' special teams coordinator (2013-15) after being hired as the assistant offensive line coach in his first season (2012). In 2015, the Titans tied for the NFL lead in special teams takeaways, while in 2013 Kaczor's unit ranked third in the league in opponent punt return average and eighth in kickoff return average.

Kaczor entered the NFL as an assistant special teams coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars, working there from 2008-11. During those four years, Jacksonville had one of the league's top special teams coverage units, allowing the lowest punt return average in the NFL (6.5) and the eighth-lowest kickoff return average (21.8). In each of Kaczor's final two seasons, Montell Owens earned Pro Bowl recognition as a special teams player.

Prior to joining the NFL, Kaczor spent 17 years coaching in college, the final two working as co-offensive coordinator (2007) and tight ends coach (2006) at Louisiana-Monroe. In his only season as co-offensive coordinator, the team ranked second in the Sun Belt Conference in rushing offense and averaged its most points scored since 1993.

Before his time at Louisiana-Monroe, Kaczor spent two seasons (2004-05) as the co-offensive coordinator/tight ends coach at Idaho and four seasons as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Nebraska-Kearney (2000-03). Kaczor began his coaching career as an offensive assistant at his alma mater, Utah State, working as an offensive assistant for nine seasons (1991-99), helping the team win three conference championships.

A center at Utah State, Kaczor was a team captain, who earned all-conference honors in 1989. A native of Scott City, Kansas, Kaczor is an avid college basketball fan and he and his wife, Angie, have two children, Kaylee and Micah, who had a stint as a pitcher in the Colorado Rockies organization.

In his first season with the Bears in 2020, Castillo navigated an offensive line group that featured six different starting combinations throughout the season and still produced a 1,000-yard rusher in David Montgomery. Montgomery's 1,070 rushing yards ranked fifth in the NFL, and he went on to record three 100-plus yard performances. Castillo developed two first year players who were both undrafted free agents from Notre Dame in 2019, Sam Mustipher and Alex Bars, into key starters on the line over the last six weeks of the season. Mustipher started seven games at center and Bars started six games at right guard, one at left guard, and one at center.

Castillo served as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator with the Buffalo Bills from 2017-18. Under his watch, the Bills' rushing attack ranked in the top 10 both seasons. Buffalo finished sixth in the NFL and second in the AFC with 126.1 yards per game in 2017 and fifth in the NFL with 124.0 yards per game on the ground in 2018.

In 2010, the Eagles finished first in the NFC and fifth in the NFL with 145.2 yards per game on the ground. During his 13 seasons as the offensive line coach in Philadelphia, five different players earned nine Pro Bowl honors including three-time selection tackle Tra Thomas (2001-02, 2004), guard Shawn Andrews (2006-07) and tackle Jason Peters (2009-10). He finished his Eagles tenure as the team's defensive coordinator in 2011-12.

Castillo earned a bachelor's degree in health/kinesiology in 1986 and a master's in education administration in 1990 from Texas A&I (now Texas A&M-Kingsville), where he was a three-year letterman (1978-80) at linebacker for the Javelinas.

Following college, Castillo spent two seasons (1984-85) with the USFL's San Antonio Gunslingers as a linebacker before moving to the coaching ranks. FOOTBALL ANALYTICS COORDINATOR

Doug Drewry is entering his fourth season with Washington as the team's Football Analytics Coordinator.

Drewry grew up in Alexandria, Va. where his dad introduced him to the Washington franchise in September 1991. He was hooked for life after that Super Bowl Season.

Drewry grew up going to RFK games, has traveled to countless road games, and has only missed one game in the last 33 years (for his inconsiderate big brother's wedding).

Drewry majored in Economics at the University of Virginia and has his MBA from the University of North Carolina. He worked as a consultant and in finance for a dozen years before making the move to Football Analytics.

Doug, his wife Gillian, and his two daughters still currently reside in Old Town, Alexandria, Va.

Beyond coding, you'll find her geeking out over the latest tech trends and passionately cheering for my favorite football team.

MY CAUSE MY CLEATS

Darrick Forrest chose to collaborate with Everytown Community Safety Fund for their "End Gun Violence" campaign based in the DMV area.

"Several Commanders players spoke this week about their collective decision to use their platform to advocate against gun violence. Safety Darrick Forrest will wear cleats dedicated to the cause for Sunday's game against the Giants at MetLife Stadium, according to The Washington Post."

Everytown is the largest gun violence prevention organization in the country that aims to build awareness about the complexities of gun violence in America so that every person—policymakers, volunteers, cultural influencers, business leaders, and more—can learn about the issues and become part of the solutions.

COMMANDER CALLOUTS

- Entering his first NFL season after being drafted by Washington in the third round (97th Overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft.

COLLEGE PERFORMANCE

- Stromberg (6-4, 313) played in 46 games with 44 starts at the University of Arkansas from 2019-22. He became the fourth Arkansas player to win the SEC's Jacobs Blocking Trophy, given annually to the league's best offensive lineman. He was named First Team All-SEC by the Associated Press, Coaches, PFF and USA Today and did not allow a sack or a hit on the quarterback according to PFF, allowing only four sacks over his four seasons.
- In 2022, Stromberg started all 12 games in his senior season to finish his streak of 25 straight with 44 overall starts in his career. He was named Honorable Mention All-America by Pro Football Focus and helped Arkansas to have one of the most productive offenses in program history with the Razorbacks gaining 6,128 yards to become just the third offense in school history to eclipse 6,000 yards and rank second all-time in total offensive yards.
- His junior year, he started all 13 games at center and blocked for an offense that led all Power 5 schools in rushing, averaging 227.8 yards per game. He was named Second Team All-SEC (AP) and Third Team All-SEC (PFF, Phil Steele).
- In 2020, Stromberg played in nine games with eight starts and saw action in 628 offensive snaps, fourth most on the team and third most among offensive linemen. His freshman year he played in all 12 games with 11 starts at left and right guard.

Stromberg signed an NIL deal while in Arkansas with AgUp Equipment, which specializes in John Deere products, which according to their website is "your source for new & used tractors, combines, cotton pickers, sprayers and implements."

DRAFT NIGHT

Getting a call from an NFL team is a once-in-a-lifetime experience for a college player, but for Stromberg, Head Coach Ron Rivera had to contact him through someone else's phone.

Stromberg had gotten a new phone, and for some reason, it would not receive certain calls. Rivera obviously didn't know that at the time, so he was naturally surprised when someone not named Ricky Stromberg picked up his call before Washington was on the clock. General Manager Martin Mayhew reached out to Stromberg's agent, who provided the phone number for Stromberg's father.

"Everyone in my family was hanging out and my dad ran out of his room screaming 'Washington is on the phone!'" Stromberg said on 106.7 The Fan. "I didn't know they had called the wrong number, but I talked to them through his phone."

IMPORTANT DATES

The Start - July 9, 1932

George P. Marshall headed a group (Vincent Bendix, Jay O'Brien, Dorland Doyle) that bought a National Football League franchise in Boston. They contracted to play in Braves Field, home of the National League Baseball team, and were called "The Braves."

The Name

The Boston Gridders moved to Fenway Park, home of the American League Red Sox, and "The Braves" became "The Redskins."

The Franchise - Feb. 13, 1937

The Washington Redskins were officially born as the National Football League approved the transfer of the Boston Redskins franchise to Washington, D.C., and a new history began.

The Band - Aug. 9, 1937

The famed Redskins Band was founded and it was the first of its kind.

First Victory - Sept. 16, 1937

The First Game! The Franchise's Thursday night opener drew 19,941 fans to flood-lighted Griffith Stadium. Riley Smith scored on a 60-yard interception return, while the team added two field goals and an extra point to make the final score - Washington 13, Giants 3.

First Title - Dec. 5, 1937

Ten thousand fans stomped up Broadway behind the brass band following the franchise's first title. In the game, Sammy Baugh completed 11-of-15 passes, while Cliff Battles had touchdown runs of 75 and 76 yards as the team routed the Giants, 49-14, for the Eastern Championship.

World Champs! - Dec. 12, 1937

Freezing weather, frozen field and the icy-nerved Bears couldn't stop Sammy Baugh (center below). He completed 17-of-33 passes for 335 yards and three touchdowns. Wayne Millner (right), the all-time Notre Dame great, finished with nine catches for 160 yards, including 77- and 55-yard touchdowns.

Record Pass - Oct. 15, 1939

From the kick formation and standing deep in the end zone, Frank Filchock flipped a pass to Andy Farkas who went all the way for the touchdown. It was the longest pass play in National Football League history, 99 yards.

East Champs - Dec. 1, 1940

Miniature-sized Davey O'Brien of the Eagles completed 33 passes in 60 attempts, but Washington won 13-6 to clinch the Eastern Championship.

Despite Washington gaining the same number of first downs as the Bears in the World Championship Game at Griffith Stadium, the team lost 73-0.

Only Loss - Sept. 27, 1942

The Giants are unable to convert a first down, gained only ONE yard rushing and completed just ONE pass — but it was good for a touchdown. They then captured another touchdown on an interception and Washington suffered their only 1942 defeat, 14-7.

World Champs! - Dec. 13, 1942

The Bears took an early lead on an errant pass from center, but Sammy Baugh's 85-yard quick kick set them back on their heels. Wilbur Moore then made a vital interception and followed with a sensational catch for a 38-yard touchdown. Andy Farkas capped the victory by carrying the ball 10 of 12 times on an 80-yard touchdown drive. Score: 14-6.

One Point Shy - Dec. 16, 1945

In subzero weather, Washington lost the world title to the Rams, 15-14, on freakish plays. Baugh's pass from the end zone hit the goal-post for a safety (no longer allowed); and Bob Waterfield's try-for-point hit the crossbar and bounced over.

Washington quarterback Rex Grossman lofted a perfect fade to receiver Donté Stallworth in the corner of the end zone with 14 seconds remaining in regulation to force overtime. Washington missed a 52-yard field goal attempt on the first possession of overtime, and Dallas responded as kicker Dan Bailey hit a 39-yard field goal above the right upright for a Dallas victory.

Dec. 9, 2012 - FedExField Washington 31, Baltimore 28

Baltimore took an eight-point lead with less than five minutes to play, but Washington quarterbacks Robert Griffin III and Kirk Cousins led a 13-play, 88-yard drive to tie the game at 28-28. Cousins, in place of an injured Griffin III, threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to Pierre Garçon and followed it with a two-point conversion on a quarterback draw. In overtime, Washington forced the eventual Super Bowl champion Ravens to go three-and-out, and after a 64-yard punt return by rookie Richard Crawford, kicker Kai Forbath hit a 34-yard game-winning field goal.

OVERTIME GAMES

Nov. 3, 2013 – FedExField Washington 30, San Diego 24

Leading 24-21 on Homecoming Weekend, the team's defense faced first-and-goal from its own 1-yard line with 21 seconds remaining. After stopping Danny Woodhead on first down, Washington forced two Philip Rivers incompletions and forced the Chargers to settle for a game-tying 19-yard field goal by Nick Novak. Washington took the ball on the first possession of overtime and promptly drove 78 yards in 10 plays, winning the game on fullback Darrel Young's team-record-tying third rushing touchdown of the day.

Oct. 27, 2014 – AT&T Stadium Washington 20, Dallas 17

Led by quarterback Colt McCoy in his first start with the team, Washington earned their first overtime win against the rival Cowboys since Nov. 2, 1975. On Monday Night Football, McCoy completed 25-of-30 passes for 299 yards, including engineering a nine-play, 58-yard drive culminating in a 40-yard Kai Forbath field goal on overtime's first possession. Rookie cornerback Bashaud Breeland batted away a fourth down pass on the ensuing Cowboys possession, giving the team a 20-17 win.

Oct. 11, 2015 – Georgia Dome Atlanta 25, Washington 19

Washington trailed by three with 24 seconds remaining in regulation. Quarterback Kirk Cousins led the Redskins 46 yards in four plays, and kicker Dustin Hopkins hit a then-career-long 52-yard field goal with no time remaining to force overtime with the teams tied at 19-19. Washington received the ball to start overtime, but on the seventh play of the drive, wide receiver Ryan Grant slipped in his route, allowing Falcons cornerback Robert Alford to intercept a Cousins pass and race 59 yards down the right sideline for the game-winning touchdown.

Oct. 30, 2016 – Wembley Stadium Washington 27, Cincinnati 27

In Washington's first game in London, Washington and Cincinnati treated an international audience to a back-and-forth game that featured five lead changes. Trailing 27-24 with 3:15 remaining, quarterback Kirk Cousins engineered a 10-play, 45-yard drive to set-up kicker Dustin Hopkins for a game-tying 40-yard field goal with 1:07 remaining in regulation. In overtime, Hopkins pulled a potential game-winning 34-yard field goal wide left. Washington forced a fumble on the Bengals' ensuing possession, and a potential Hail Mary pass for the Redskins on their next drive sailed out of bounds, resulting in the team's second tie of the overtime era.

Nov. 19, 2016 – Mercedes-Benz Superdome New Orleans 34, Washington 31

A battered Washington squad led the eventual NFC North champion Saints, 31-16, with under six minutes remaining in New Orleans, but the Saints engineered touchdown drives of 75 yards and 87 yards and converted a two-point conversion to send the game to overtime at 31-31. After a Washington three-and-out to open the extra period, the Saints drove 51 yards to set up Wil Lutz's game-winning 28-yard field goal.

Dec. 22, 2019 – FedExField NY Giants 41, Washington 35

In a game that looked like it was going to get out of hand early, Washington outscored the New York Giants 14-0 in the fourth quarter to force overtime. New York won the coin toss and elected to receive and QB Daniel Jones led an 11 play, 66 yard drive that was capped with a three yard touchdown pass to TE Kaden Smith to seal the victory. The loss sealed Washington's fate finishing last in the NFC East, but guaranteed the team the No. 2 overall selection in the 2020 NFL Draft.

Dec. 4, 2023 – MetLife Stadium Washington 20, NY Giants 20

Coming out of halftime tied at 13, the Commanders and the Giants battled in the second half. The Giants thought they were going to walk away with a win until Jahan Dotson caught a 28-yard touchdown pass from Taylor Heinicke with 1:45 left in the fourth quarter to tie the game at 20. Neither team could score in overtime and Giants kicker Graham Gano missed a 58-yard field goal to end the game in a tie.
