FORD FAMILY

SHEILA FORD HAMP

PRINCIPAL OWNER AND CHAIR

On June 23, 2020, Sheila Ford Hamp succeeded her mother, Martha Firestone Ford, as Principal Owner and Chair of the Detroit Lions. From 2014-19, Mrs. Hamp served as one of the team's vice chairs during her mother's ownership.

Mrs. Hamp carries the Ford Family's proud legacy that was first established by her father, William Clay Ford, who passed away on March 9, 2014, after serving as the sole owner of the franchise for 50 seasons (1964-2013). Mr. Ford's ownership grew into a deeply-rooted family tradition that now includes multiple generations of the Ford Family.

At the end of the 2020 season, Mrs. Hamp, with the assistance of President and CEO Rod Wood, Chief Operating Officer Mike Disner and Special Assistant to President/CEO and Chairperson Chris Spielman, laid out a clear vision for the organization. With the goal of establishing the Lions as a workplace built on a collaborative culture, the search for new leadership resulted in the arrival of Brad Holmes and Dan Campbell.

Holmes was named executive vice president and general manager on January 14, 2021 after spending 18 seasons with the Los Angeles Rams (2003-20) in a variety of roles, including most recently director of college scouting. That same week, Campbell, a former tight end with 22 years of NFL experience, including 11 as a coach and 11 as a player, was named the team's new head coach. These key hires, born from Mrs. Hamp's vision for a culture of communication, collaboration and innovation, have helped lay a foundation for success across the Lions organization that continued to grow through the 2023 season.

The 2023 season saw Mrs. Hamp's efforts come to fruition, as the team experienced historical success by tying the single-season franchise record for regular season wins (12) and clinching its first division title in 30 years. Celebrating their 90th season in Detroit, the Lions sold out season tickets for the first time ever in Ford Field history, which proved to be monumental as the team hosted multiple playoff games for the first time in the Super Bowl era. The Lions went on to advance to the NFC Championship Game for just the second time in team history.

Her vision for culture-based success was evident as Holmes and Campbell were recognized as two of the best leaders in the NFL. Holmes earned the organization's first Pro Football Writers of America Executive of the Year Award and Campbell was selected as an Associated Press Coach of the Year Finalist for the 2023 season.

After a new head coach and general manager were solidified, Mrs. Hamp helped elevate the Lions to the national spotlight in her second year as Principal Owner and Chair. Through Hamp's vision, the Lions participated in the NFL's premier behind-the-scenes television series Hard Knocks, which provided an inside look at Lions Training Camp through collaboration with NFL Films and HBO. Detroit carried the momentum of the 2022 offseason into the regular season as the Lions won eight out of their final 10 games to close out the year with a 9-8 record, including a 20-16 win over Green Bay in Week 18 that eliminated the Packers from playoff contention.

In 2022, Mrs. Hamp and Wood also unveiled a new organizational leadership structure that included the hiring of two new senior positions in Brian Facchini, Chief Communications and Brand Officer, and Lindsay Versteegen, Chief People and Diversity Officer. The revamped leadership team has since set out to begin establishing long-term goals for the Lions that focus on football and organizational excellence, fan engagement, brand reputation and stadium experience.

Under Hamp's leadership, the Lions organization helped host the 2024 NFL Draft in Detroit. Over the course of three days, Detroit set an all-time attendance record for the Draft as more than 775,000 people made their way to the city to celebrate one of the league's most prominent events.

During her first year as Principal Owner and Chair, Mrs. Hamp created a Culture Task Force that was designed to improve organizational culture through enhanced employee engagement, alignment and openness. The work of the Task Force, which included an employee-wide survey to address areas of improvement, led to Mrs. Hamp establishing various sub-committees that now allow employees to strategize and achieve work solutions together across the Allen Park and Ford Field offices.

Mrs. Hamp's hands-on approach to leading the Lions also extends to the league level. In February 2021, she participated in the NFL's Women's Careers In Football Forum, where she, along with Cleveland Browns Managing and Principal Partner Dee Haslem, led a "From Firsts To The Future" panel discussion with young women about breaking into careers in professional football. She also serves on the NFL's Fan Engagement and Major Events Committee, as well as the NFL Foundation Committee.

At the age of five, Mrs. Hamp, the second of four children, began attending Lions games at Briggs (Tiger) Stadium and Lions Training Camp at Cranbrook School in Bloomfield Hills, Mich. As a teenager, her love of the Lions and knowledge of the game of football would impress many, including then NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle. Now as Principal Owner and Chair, Mrs. Hamp focuses that love, knowledge and commitment to the team that has been part of her family for decades.

Beyond her involvement with the Lions, Mrs. Hamp and her husband, Steve, are very active in numerous community and charitable organizations. She is on the board of the Purple Rose Theatre Company in Chelsea, Mich. Mrs. Hamp also is a Trustee Emeritus of the Board of The Henry Ford. In addition, she is the Chair of the Board for Detroit Lions Foundation, and serves on the boards for the Edsel and Eleanor Ford House and USA Football.

Mrs. Hamp was a member of the ground-breaking group of students who were in the first class of women to graduate from Yale University where she earned her Bachelor of Arts degree. While at Yale, she played varsity tennis and earned Major Y honors during her college career. Following her graduation from Yale, she earned her Master of Arts degree in teaching and early childhood education from Boston University.

Sports have always been an integral part of Mrs. Hamp's life. In addition to her accomplishments as a college tennis player, she competed as a junior tennis player at the national level and won a Michigan state tennis title at age 17. She also coached youth soccer for more than 10 years in her current hometown of Ann Arbor, where she and her husband, Steve, raised their family.

FORD FAMILY

BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND OWNERS/VICE CHAIRS

The unique relationship between the Ford Family and The Detroit Lions...

... goes all the way back to 1934, the very first season the Lions ever played in Detroit, when William Clay Ford attended his first Lions game with his father, Edsel Ford.

In 1963, Mr. Ford would purchase the Lions and become sole owner, and over the past six decades the passion and love Mr. Ford had for the Lions was shared with his wife, Martha, their children and grand-children. Upon Mr. Ford's passing in 2014, the Lions remained in the family as Mrs. Ford assumed majority ownership, and in 2020 she was succeeded by her daughter, Sheila Ford Hamp.

Mrs. Hamp is supported directly by her three siblings, Martha Ford Morse, William Clay Ford Jr. and Elizabeth Ford Kontulis, each of whom respectively serve as owner/vice chair and on the board of directors. All four children are members of the Board of Trustees for the Detroit Lions Foundation.

The vice chairs' involvement with the Lions dates back to when they also attended games during their childhood. Years later, they now remain deeply devoted, along with their mother, to overseeing and governing the Lions with one primary goal in mind -- to bring Detroit a Super Bowl title.

The Ford Family continues the legacy left by Mr. Ford to support the city of Detroit and the state of Michigan with transformative philanthropy, while also establishing the Lions organization as exemplary on and off the field.

OWNER/CHAIR EMERITUS

Following six seasons (2014-19) as the Detroit Lions Owner and Chair, Martha Firestone Ford now serves as Owner/Chair Emeritus and supports her four children - Principal Owner and Chair Sheila Ford Hamp, Owner/Vice Chair Martha Ford Morse, Owner/Vice Chair William Clay Ford Jr., and Owner/Vice Chair Elizabeth Ford Kontulis - in the organizational leadership of the franchise.

Mrs. Ford succeeded her husband, William Clay Ford, who passed away on March 9, 2014, after serving as the sole owner of the franchise for 50 seasons (1964-2013). Following her husband's passing, Mrs. Ford became the fifth principal owner or syndicate group to own and operate the franchise since it moved to Detroit in 1934.

Along with the entire Ford Family, Mrs. Ford appreciates the unwavering support of Lions fans and knows that winning and bringing a Super Bowl title to Detroit remains the team's primary goal. Beyond success on the field, she desires to deliver one of the best fan gameday experiences in all of sports. Under her ownership, the team made significant investments to Ford Field, including a $100 million stadium renovation in 2017.

In addition to her contributions to the football team, Mrs. Ford also has made a positive impact in the community. In June 2016, she was honored with the 2016 Zero Tolerance Award from the Detroit Public Safety Foundation at the annual "Women in Blue" banquet for the team's stance on domestic violence. In January 2019, the Lions announced an initial $600,000 commitment from Mrs. Ford and players toward the launch of Detroit Lions Inspire Change, a new social justice initiative in the City of Detroit that has continued into 2024. Funds generated for the team's social justice initiative focus on three community pillars as determined by the players - Scholarship Funding, Social-Educational Programs and Medical Aid/Health Assistance.

In March 2019 as part of the NFL's celebration of its 100th season, Mrs. Ford starred in the NFL Films production A Lifetime of Sundays, a documentary highlighting the lives of four matriarchs of the NFL family - Mrs. Martha Firestone Ford (Detroit Lions), Mrs. Virginia Halas McCaskey (Chicago Bears), Mrs. Patricia Rooney (Pittsburgh Steelers) and Mrs. Norma Hunt (Kansas City Chiefs). The film debuted at the NFL Annual Meeting before airing on ESPN to a national audience.

Born in Akron, Ohio, Mrs. Ford is the granddaughter of one of America's great automotive industrial icons, Harvey Firestone. She graduated from Vassar College in 1946 with a bachelor's degree. After getting married in 1947, Mr. and Mrs. Ford moved to New Haven, Conn., where Mr. Ford attended Yale. The couple relocated to the Detroit area in 1952 and became active members of the Metro Detroit community.

Mrs. Ford also serves on the board for Detroit Lions Foundation and is an Honorary Trustee on The Henry Ford Health System Board of Trustees. She has held leadership positions with many organizations, including The Merrill Palmer Institute, The University Liggett School, and The Children's Home of Detroit. She was also the founder and longtime board member of The Maple Grove Institute.

Along with her four children, Mrs. Ford also has 14 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

FRONT OFFICE

ROD WOOD

PRESIDENT AND CEO

NFL YEARS: 9

LIONS YEARS: 9

As Detroit Lions Team President and CEO, Rod Wood oversees all football and business operations of the Lions organization and reports directly to Principal Owner and Chair Sheila Ford Hamp. He was originally appointed Team President on Nov. 19, 2015.

Following organizational changes at the end of the 2020 season, Wood and Mrs. Hamp set out to establish a new leadership vision for the Lions. On Dec. 15, 2020, Wood welcomed Lions Legend Chris Spielman to a formal role in the organization as Special Assistant to President/CEO and Chairperson. Together, along with Chief Operating Officer Mike Disner, the group began the process of bringing the right general manager and head coach to Detroit.

The thorough search for the Lions' new leadership tandem resulted in the arrival of Brad Holmes and Dan Campbell. Holmes was named Executive Vice President and General Manager on Jan. 14, 2021 after spending 18 seasons with the Los Angeles Rams (2003-20) in a variety of roles, including most recently director of college scouting. That same week, Campbell, a former tight end with 22 years of NFL experience, including 11 as a coach and 11 as a player, was named the team's new head coach.

With the hiring of Holmes and Campbell, the Lions' improved culture of communication, collaboration and innovation will continue to follow the lead of Wood and Mrs. Hamp's vision toward establishing long-term success on and off the field. The 2023 season proved to be a monumental year as the organization sold out of season tickets for the first time in Ford Field history. The stadium hosted its first two playoff games, welcoming an environment of loyal fans that propelled the Lions to their second all-time appearance in the NFC Championship Game. The homefield advantage proved to be instrumental in the Lions' success with numerous teams labeling Ford Field as one of the loudest environments to play in last season. Ford Field housed a total of 745,930 fans last year and set a new decibel record of 134.3 during the NFC Divisional contest vs. Tampa Bay.

In April 2024, Wood and the Lions leadership team once again helped highlight Detroit on the national stage as the city hosted the 2024 NFL Draft. The Motor City went on to set an attendance record for the event with more than 775,000 fans attending over the course of the three days. A week prior to the Draft, the Lions also debuted new uniforms that now feature home blue, road white and alternate black jersey combinations that provide a modern-classic look to the Lions' on-field performance. The alternate black jersey will be worn with a new blue helmet that features a black leaping lion.

In 2022, Wood and Mrs. Hamp unveiled a new organizational leadership structure that included the hiring of two new senior positions in Brian Facchini, Chief Communications and Brand Officer, and Lindsay Verstegen, Chief People and Diversity Officer. The revamped leadership team has since set out to begin establishing long-term goals for the Lions that focus on football and organizational excellence, fan engagement, brand reputation and stadium experience.

That season, Lions also participated in the NFL's premier behind-the-scenes television series Hard Knocks, which provided an inside look at Lions Training Camp through collaboration with NFL Films and HBO. Detroit carried the momentum of the 2022 offseason into the regular season as the Lions won eight out of their final 10 games to close out the year with a 9-8 record, including a 20-16 win over Green Bay in Week 18 that eliminated the Packers from playoff contention.

In his eight years, Wood has implemented significant changes that range from day-to-day operations to new branding and has done so guided by a mission to improve the team's competitive financial position, fan engagement and overall customer experience. Wood has strengthened the Lions and Ford Field brands with improved business partnerships and more strategic alliances that positively influence business initiatives and provide necessary financial support to the club's football operations.

In February 2017, Wood unveiled plans for the first major renovation to the Detroit Lions' home stadium, Ford Field, since it opened its doors in 2002. The $100 million investment incorporated a complete overhaul of the audio and visual experience that featured new videoboards as well as a new state-of-the-art sound system. The stadium's premium spaces also received a complete makeover with expanded offerings to fans. With the fan game-day experience a primary focus for Wood, his team also implemented a significant upgrade to the stadium's Wi-Fi and oversaw the return of a team cheerleading squad for the first time in four decades.

Off the field, Wood provided support for an initial $600,000 commitment from Mrs. Ford and players in 2018 toward the launch of Detroit Lions Inspire Change, the team's social justice initiative in the City of Detroit. The initiative has since continued through grants to various Metro Detroit organizations and will remain as part of the team's community footprint in 2024.

Additionally, Wood has worked to improve the team's football infrastructure at the Lions' Allen Park practice facility. Over the past five years, the organization has completely renovated and updated the weight room, practice fields and athletic training room, along with other ongoing facility improvements and branding enhancements.

At the League level, Wood was appointed to and serves on the NFL's Investment Committee. For the eight years prior to his appointment as team president, Wood worked closely with the Detroit Lions organization and the Ford Family in his role as President and CEO of Ford Estates.

From 1999 until his appointment at Ford Estates in 2007, Wood was Executive Vice President of Wealth Management for the Wilmington Trust Company in Wilmington, Del., a $400 million operation with 17 offices in eight states. Wood directed the company's entire wealth management business nationally, and he managed the personal trust, financial planning, private banking, investment management, family office services and sales functions for the wealth advisory business of Wilmington Trust.

Prior to joining Wilmington Trust, Wood held an executive position with Comerica Bank where he oversaw 12 offices in four states.

Over the years, Wood has been a member on numerous company and non-profit boards. He now serves on the board of trustees and is an officer for Detroit Lions Foundation. He is also a member of the boards for Business Leaders For Michigan, an organization dedicated to making Michigan a Top Ten state for jobs, personal income and a healthy economy; CATCH, an organization dedicated to improving the quality of life for pediatric patients and their families at Children's Hospital of Michigan and Henry Ford Hospital; the Downtown Detroit Partnership, which includes business, philanthropic and government partners that strengthen the city through strategic initiatives and programs; as well as the Detroit Sports Organizing Corporation.

Wood graduated from Goodrich (Mich.) High School, and earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of Michigan and a graduate degree from the ABA Graduate School of Commercial Banking.

Wood and his wife, Susan, enjoy spending time with their family - including their daughter, Alison, son-in-law, Brett, two grandchildren - Wesley and Merrick, their son, Taylor, and daughter-in-law, Julia.

BRAD HOLMES

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

NFL YEARS: 22

LIONS YEARS: 4

Brad Holmes was named the Lions Executive Vice President and General Manager on Jan. 14, 2021. In his role, he oversees the Lions' football operations and reports directly to Principal Owner and Chair Sheila Ford Hamp and President and CEO Rod Wood.

Holmes joined the Lions after spending 18 seasons with the Los Angeles Rams (2003-2020). In 2013, the Rams elevated Holmes to Director of College Scouting, where he was responsible for overseeing the team's college scouting operations for eight seasons.

Holmes' vision for leading the Lions has so far been founded on a collaborative approach with Head Coach Dan Campbell as the two began reshaping the roster in 2021. Placing an emphasis on players with grit, passion and football character, Holmes has enhanced the Lions roster through precision in every phase of the talent acquisition process as he enters his fourth season as executive vice president and general manager.

Holmes' combination of Draft success and strategic free agent signings built a roster that achieved historic success in 2023. The team finished the season with a 12-5 record, tying the franchise record for the most wins in a single season. The team also clinched a division title for the first time in 30 years and appeared in their second-ever NFC Championship Game, their first since the 1991 season. He was named the PFWA Executive of the Year for the work he did in 2023, becoming the first Detroit Lion to win the award. During the 2024 offseason, Holmes continued to bolster the team's roster by re-signing core players such as QB Jared Goff, T Penei Sewell and WR Amon-Ra St. Brown to long-term contract extensions.

The 2023 rookie class was at the forefront of the Lions' success with the group setting a single-season franchise record for the most touchdowns (22) by rookies. TE Sam LaPorta and RB Jahmyr Gibbs became the first set of rookie teammates to produce at least 10 touchdowns in a season. Both LaPorta and Gibbs were selected to the Pro Bowl and named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. LaPorta was also named AP Second-Team All-Pro after setting an NFL rookie tight end record with 86 receptions and leading all NFL tight ends with 10 touchdown receptions. Gibbs became the third Lions rookie to record 1,000 scrimmage yards and 10 touchdowns in a season, joining Barry Sanders (1989) and Billy Sims (1980). LB Jack Campbell was the only rookie to record 80 tackles, five tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks in 2023, en route to being named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team. DB Brian Branch ranked second among all rookies with three interceptions in 2023 and became the third Lions rookie to produce a pick-six in their NFL debut in franchise history.

Holmes' free agent pickups became integral parts of the 2023 Lions. RB David Montgomery became the second Lions free agent signing to rush for 1,000 yards in their first season with the team. He also rushed for 13 touchdowns in 2023, the most a free agent signing has had in their first season with Detroit and tied for the fourth-most any Lions player has rushed for in a single season. He and Gibbs became the first duo in NFL history to each produce 1,000 scrimmage yards and 10 touchdowns in a season. Holmes also brought back familiar faces in OL Graham Glasgow and LB Jalen Reeves-Maybin. Glasgow started 15 games in 2023, including starts at all three interior offensive line positions. Voted as a team captain, Reeves-Maybin was a staple on special teams, earning a spot in the Pro Bowl and being named AP Second-Team All-Pro.

In 2022, Holmes re-signed key players such as LB Alex Anzalone and WR Kalif Raymond after each produced career-best seasons within their first year in Detroit. Holmes' 2022 draft class echoed his approach of investing in reliable, gritty players with the selection of DE Aidan Hutchinson (first round, second overall) and WR Jameson Williams (first round, 12th overall). Hutchinson finished second in the AP Rookie of the Year vote and concluded the season with 9.5 sacks (most among rookies), three interceptions and two fumble recoveries. His three interceptions tied for the most ever by a Lions defensive lineman in a single season.

Holmes' 2022 draft class was also highlighted by S Kerby Joseph, LB Malcolm Rodriguez and LB James Houston. The Lions' 2022 rookie class set an NFL record for most sacks by rookie players in a single season (20.5) and ranked atop several league categories for 2022 - including second in rookie interceptions (seven) and first in rookie tackles for loss (26). Joseph became the only player to ever intercept QB Aaron Rodgers three times in a regular season career, while Houston finished second on the team in sacks with 8.0.

The first month of Holmes' tenure in 2021 led to a blockbuster trade with the Los Angeles Rams that resulted in the Lions acquiring QB Jared Goff, a 2021 third-round pick and two future first-round draft picks in exchange for QB Matthew Stafford. His first offseason was capped off with one of the NFL's brightest and most productive draft classes, highlighted by the seventh overall pick T Penei Sewell out of Oregon. Sewell started 16 games as a rookie, splitting time between left and right tackle, and became the youngest player in NFL history to start a game at left tackle. WR Amon-Ra St. Brown (fourth round, 112th overall), set the Lions' all-time rookie record for receptions (90) and receiving yards (912), while DL Alim McNeill (third round, 72nd overall) emerged as a foundational piece along the defensive line. That year, Holmes also inked two-time Pro Bowl C Frank Ragnow to a long-term contract extension.

Prior to the Lions, Holmes led the Rams college scouting department and helped the organization capture two NFC West titles en route to three playoff berths and an appearance in Super Bowl LIII. After originally joining the Rams in 2003 as a public relations intern, Holmes transitioned into scouting and spent nearly two decades in a variety of roles within the organization's player personnel department, including NFS scout, area scout, national Combine scout and scouting assistant.

In his previous role, Holmes collaborated with the Rams' personnel directors to improve technological resources and enhance overall scouting procedures. While holding a prominent leadership role in the player personnel department from 2013-20, Holmes helped the Rams achieve a 64-58 record (.524), while having a total of 25 players named to the Pro Bowl during that span. He played an integral role in drafting several key players on the Rams' current roster, including DT Aaron Donald, QB Jared Goff, WR Cooper Kupp and S John Johnson. Holmes was also instrumental in helping the Rams acquire All-Pro CB Jalen Ramsey via trade in 2019.

A Tampa, Fla. native, Holmes graduated cum laude from North Carolina A&T State University in 2002 with a Bachelor of Science in Journalism and Mass Communications and was a four-year letterman for the Aggies at defensive tackle. He was voted team captain and helped A&T win the 1999 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference and Black College Football National Championship.

In 2022, the Chamberlain (Fla.) High School Legacy Alliance recognized Holmes as a distinguished alumnus by naming the new football stadium press box in his honor.

Holmes is the son of Melvin Holmes, who played offensive line for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1971-73, and is also the nephew of former Lions defensive back Luther Bradley (1978 first-round pick). He is married to his wife, Lisa, and together they have two children.

MIKE DISNER

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

NFL YEARS: 18 LIONS YEARS: 6

Mike Disner enters his 18th season in the National Football League and his sixth with the Detroit Lions. In May 2022, he was named the organization's Chief Operating Officer after previously serving as Senior Vice President of Football and Business Administration. In his current role, Disner assumes responsibilities across both the football and business management, overseeing the team's football operations and football administration, as well as leading the Lions' strategy and revenue teams. Disner's leadership has helped establish a supportive and efficient working relationship between the football and business operations that has led to more creative opportunities to enhance the Lions brand.

During the 2021 offseason, Disner worked alongside Principal Owner and Chair Sheila Hamp, President and CEO Rod Wood and Special Assistant to President/CEO and Chairperson Chris Spielman to reshape the culture and leadership of the Lions football operation. The group led a broad search that resulted in the hiring of Lions Executive Vice President and General Manager Brad Holmes and Head Coach Dan Campbell. The newly formed group continues to shepherd a new era of success for the Lions organization. Disner's leadership helped the Lions achieve historic success in 2023. The team finished the season with a 12-5 record, tying the franchise record for the most wins in a single season. Detroit also clinched a division title for the first time in 30 years and appeared in their second-ever NFC Championship Game, their first since the 1991 season.

Disner joined the Lions in 2019 with an extensive background in player contract negotiations and NFL salary cap regulations both at the club and League level. During his first two seasons with the club, he served as vice president of football administration and focused on matters pertaining to the club's salary cap management, player contract negotiations and compliance with the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement. Disner also oversaw the club's analytics efforts and financial strategic planning as it relates to player acquisition and roster construction. In both 2020 and 2021, Disner was honored in The Athletic's "NFL 40 Under 40" list.

Prior to joining Detroit, Disner spent six seasons (2013-18) with the Arizona Cardinals as director of football administration. During his time in Arizona, Disner served as the club's lead contract negotiator and a key member of the Cardinals leadership team overseeing the strategic planning and management of the team's salary cap. Disner's role also included serving as the organization's liaison to the NFL Management Council and overseeing the development of technical and analytical initiatives for both the player personnel department and coaching staff.

While in Arizona, Disner worked on key contract extensions with marquee players such as Carson Palmer, Patrick Peterson, Larry Fitzgerald, Chandler Jones and Tyrann Mathieu. Disner also contributed to the rise of the Cardinals under Head Coach Bruce Arians, where the organization won at least 10 games three straight years after the franchise had accomplished the feat just once in the previous 35 years.

During the 2014 offseason, Disner was selected to Forbes "30 Under 30" list, which honors 30 athletes or executives who are 30 years or younger and making a mark in the sports industry.

Prior to joining Arizona, Disner spent four years working at the National Football League Management Council, serving as labor operations manager (2012) and labor operations coordinator (2009-11). In these roles, Disner reviewed all aspects of player contracts while also managing the salary cap process. During this time his team developed new analytic tools to assist clubs in evaluating salary related decision making.

Disner was instrumental in negotiations that helped cultivate the Rookie Compensation Pool in the League's 2011 Collective Bargaining Agreement, a system that is still used today.

Disner began his NFL career with the New England Patriots in 2007 as a scouting assistant after working as an intern for the Patriots for two summers (2005 and 2006). He was part of New England's personnel staff that helped the team capture the AFC title and an appearance in Super Bowl XLII.

A West Bloomfield, Mich. native, Disner played baseball at Williams College (Mass.) where he earned a degree in Economics. He and his wife, Gail, have two sons, Teddy and Archie.

ALLISON MAKI

CHIEF FINANCIAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER

NFL YEARS: 21

LIONS YEARS: 21

Allison Maki embarks on her 21st season with the Lions and serves as the Chief Financial and Administrative Officer. Maki originally joined the Lions in 2004 as the director of finance and in 2008, she was promoted to vice president of finance, a position she retained for seven years. Maki was named senior vice president of administration and chief financial officer of the club in 2015.

In her role, Maki oversees the team's finance and accounting functions, information technology, and facility operations at both the Allen Park Practice Facility and Ford Field. She assists in the oversight and management of the organization's key business partners, drives long-term facility planning, and serves as the Treasurer for Detroit Lions Charities. Maki has been a presenter at the NFL Women's Career Development Symposium, as well as other local events, and is currently one of only nine female chief financial officers in the NFL. She currently serves as a member of the NFL's Club Technology Advisory Board.

A native of Northville, Mich., Maki began her professional career in 1997 with the accounting firm Ernst & Young LLP. She worked at Ernst & Young for seven years, leaving as a manager to join the Lions in 2004.

Maki is a graduate of Albion College where she majored in economics and management. She currently serves on the Albion College Board of Trustees. In 2019, she received Albion College's Distinguished Alumni Award. Maki also serves on the Henry Ford Health Board Investment Sub-Committee. She is a member of the American Institute of CPAs and the Michigan Association of CPAs.

Allison and her husband, Ryan, reside in South Lyon, Mich., with twins Colin and Kendall and their mischievous Labrador retriever.

JAY COLVIN

CHIEF LEGAL OFFICER

NFL YEARS: 9

LIONS YEARS: 9

Jay Colvin enters his third season as Chief Legal Officer in 2024. He originally joined the Lions in May 2016 as Senior Vice President of Legal Affairs and General Counsel. He manages all legal matters pertaining to the corporate and business activities of the team, and also serves as corporate secretary for the Lions and Detroit Lions Charities.

Prior to coming on board with the Lions, Colvin was a partner at Bodman, PLC law firm where he practiced law for 27 years. While at Bodman, he acted as an advisor and attorney to the Ford Family for 25 years, including representing the Detroit Lions organization. Beginning his career as a certified public accountant, Colvin's areas of specialty at Bodman were estate and tax planning for high-net-worth families, as well as corporate and partnership taxes.

Additionally, Colvin has extensive experience consulting professional athletes on legal and wealth planning throughout their active and alumni careers including structuring business deals, contracts, charitable contributions and the formation and operation of charitable foundations.

Colvin's professional accolades include being listed on The Best Lawyers in America in the Trusts & Estates practice area since 2012 and. He was named a "Top Lawyer" by DBusiness magazine in 2014 and in May 2018, he was named a member of DBusiness magazine's "Top Corporate Counsel." Colvin also serves on the boards of various public charities and private foundations.

Colvin is a graduate of Wayne State University with a B.S. and a J.D., cum laude; Order of the Coif from the Wayne State University School of Law. He is married with three children.

BRIAN FACCHINI

CHIEF COMMUNICATIONS AND BRAND OFFICER

NFL YEARS: 4

LIONS YEARS: 4

Brian Facchini enters his fourth season with the Detroit Lions as Chief Communications and Brand Officer. In his current role, Facchini oversees all aspects of team communication, marketing, brand management, game presentation and community relations. He works closely with Principal Owner Sheila Hamp and President and CEO Rod Wood on communications and brand strategy for the Lions.

In 2024, Facchini led the launch of new Detroit Lions uniforms that feature home blue, road white and alternate black jersey combinations that provide a modern-classic look to the Lions' on-field performance. Facchini also helped lead the organization's efforts surrounding the 2024 NFL Draft in Detroit. The event, which set an event attendance record with more than 775,000 people visiting the city over three days, was a collaborative effort across the team, city and county officials.

During the 2022-23 season the Detroit Lions communications team was the recipient of the Pete Rozelle Award. The award is given annually by the Professional Football Writers of America to the team communications staff that consistently strives for excellence in its dealings with the media.

Prior to joining the Lions, Facchini spent 10 years in various communications leadership roles at Nike Inc. During his time with the global sportswear giant, he led communications efforts across Nike Athletes and Sports Marketing, Nike Global Basketball, and the Jordan Brand. Facchini led strategic communications for the iconic Nike Sports Marketing organization, providing guidance to executives and key global athlete icons as the Senior Director, Global Athletes and Sports Marketing (2021-22). Prior to that he led global communications strategy for Nike Basketball (2016-2021), including the innovative launch of the Nike x NBA partnership and worked closely with key male and female Nike Basketball athletes to promote products and initiatives around the world.

Facchini joined the Jordan Brand in 2011 as Director of Global Communications where he created communications strategy and led all communications for the iconic brand. During a period of unprecedented growth for the brand, Facchini led initiatives around the 30th anniversary of the Air Jordan, global athlete tours and a rebirth of the Jordan Basketball business. He also led communications around Jordan Brand's initial ventures into college football and professional golf.

Facchini began his professional career in the NBA where he held key communications roles for the Oklahoma City Thunder, San Antonio Spurs, and the Portland Trailblazers. He was named Director of Basketball Communications for the Thunder in 2008 and helped the team establish a culture and brand that represented the unique and passionate fan base in Oklahoma. Facchini's team led communications efforts around three future NBA MVPs and both coach and executive of the year winners.

After starting his career as an intern with the Portland Trailblazers in 1997, he held escalating roles with the Blazers before joining the Spurs in 2003. Facchini served as a Basketball Communications Manager with San Antonio, a tenure that saw the team capture the NBA Championship in 2005.

Facchini oversees the Detroit Lions Foundation and currently sits on the board of CATCH Charity for Children, the foundation originally started by legendary Detroit Tigers manager Sparky Anderson.

A Portland, Ore. native, Facchini attended Washington State University and Portland State University with a focus on History. He and his wife Summer have two children, Grace and Lucas.

LINDSAY VERSTEGEN

CHIEF PEOPLE AND DIVERSITY OFFICER

NFL YEARS: 4

LIONS YEARS: 4

Lindsay Versteegen enters her fourth season with the Lions as Chief People and Diversity Officer. In her role, Versteegen leads all People and Inclusion efforts, working closely with organizational leadership to develop people and create thoughtful diversity, inclusion and belonging strategies.

Prior to joining the Lions, Versteegen worked for over a decade in hiring and talent within the technology industry. Before moving to Detroit, Versteegen was Chief People Officer at ShopRunner in Chicago with teams in Philadelphia, New York and Krakow, Poland. In that role, she guided changes that made the workplace one of the most diverse and inclusive in the industry. ShopRunner sold to FedEx at the close of 2020.

Prior to ShopRunner, Versteegen spent four years at Braintree and Venmo where she led Hiring, Talent, and Onboarding for Braintree and Venmo and oversaw the diversity recruitment initiatives, globally, for PayPal.

She is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point with a B.F.A. in Musical Theatre. Versteegen has been a guest lecturer at the University of Chicago Booth School of Business with a focus on Talent Strategy and has spoken locally and nationally on topics related to gender equity and nurturing healthy workplaces including the Grace Hopper Conference in Houston, SXSW in Austin and the Great Places To Work Conference in San Francisco. She currently resides in metro Detroit with her husband, Tony, and their two sons, Vincent and Nicholas and their two cats, Frankie and Studs.

CHRIS SPIELMAN

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO PRESIDENT/CEO AND CHAIRPERSON

NFL YEARS: 4

LIONS YEARS: 4

Chris Spielman re-joined the Lions in a front office role as Special Assistant to President/CEO and Chairperson in 2021. He played an integral role in the hiring of Executive Vice President and General Manager Brad Holmes and Head Coach Dan Campbell and reports directly to President and CEO Rod Wood.

Spielman was originally drafted by the Lions in the second round (29th overall) of the 1988 NFL Draft following an All-American career as a linebacker at Ohio State. He is Detroit's all-time leader in career tackles with 1,138 and led the Lions defense for eight seasons (1988-95), helping the team to four playoff appearances, two NFC Central titles and a berth in the 1992 NFC Championship Game. He earned four Pro Bowl selections (1989, '90, '91 and '94) and was twice named the team's defensive MVP. In 2021, he became the 19th player in franchise history to be inducted into the Pride of the Lions, the team's ring of honor.

Spielman also spent time during his NFL career with the Buffalo Bills (1996-97), setting a team and personal record with 206 tackles during the 1996 season, and Cleveland Browns (1999).

Spielman entered the field of broadcasting at the conclusion of his playing career with FOX Sports in 1999. He joined ESPN in 2001, where he worked primarily on "ESPN College Football Saturday." He returned to FOX in 2016 as a color analyst for NFL games and spent seven years as an analyst for Lions Preseason TV.

A graduate of Washington High School (Massillon, Ohio) and The Ohio State University, Chris is married to his wife, Carrie, and together they share six adult children.

KELLY KOZOLE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, REVENUE

Kelly Kozole, now in her 23rd year with the Lions organization, was named Senior Vice President, Revenue in 2022. Prior to her current role, Kozole served as Senior Vice President of Business Development from 2016-21. She oversees the partnerships, premium, broadcasting, ticketing and events divisions of the Lions organization. Kozole also manages the relationship with the team's food and beverage partner, Levy Restaurants, and the team's retail and e-commerce partner, Fanatics.

Kozole led the effort for several years on behalf of the Lions organization that resulted in the city of Detroit being named the host of the 2024 NFL Draft. Under Kozole's leadership, she coordinated with the NFL, corporate and civic leaders to create the Detroit NFL Draft vision. Detroit's Draft went on to set an NFL event record for attendance as more than 775,000 people ventured to Detroit over the three days.

Under Kozole's tenure, the Detroit Lions business operations have grown exponentially, with a focus on improving the comprehensive Lions fan experience including a rebrand, enhanced gameday and training camp features, the addition of the Detroit Lions Cheerleaders and a $100 million investment in Ford Field. Recently, Kozole led the club's newly established partnership with Reyes Coca-Cola Bottling, establishing Coca-Cola as the Official Soft Drink of the Detroit Lions ahead of the 2023 season. The partnership marked the first time Coca-Cola beverages would be served to Lions fans at the stadium since being sold at the Pontiac Silverdome.

In Kozole's first year as the senior vice president of business development, she concentrated on fan feedback to create the DTE Energy Power Hour as an early arrival incentive with food and beverage specials, new activations around the stadium and giveaways, as well as the improvement of fan and traffic communications, all of which have been recognized as an NFL Best Practice.

Kozole led the unveil of the Lions Nike Vapor Untouchable uniforms after a full rebranding that began with the team introducing an updated logo, new logotype and a new proprietary font in 2017. In that same offseason, the team completed an aggressive timeline of updates to The New Ford Field that included larger videoboards, an upgraded sound system, as well as renovated stadium suites and premium club areas, again with the fan experience in mind.

After joining the Detroit Lions in 2002 as Vice President of Events, Kozole has led DLI Entertainment, the team's entertainment division, for the past 16 years. She has secured and promoted many large-scale shows and events at Ford Field, including 10 sold-out Kenny Chesney concerts, three sold-out Taylor Swift concerts, the 2003 Basketbowl, WrestleMania 23, 2008 NCAA Men's Basketball Regionals, 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four and the 2010 NCAA Men's Ice Hockey Frozen Four. Kozole also implemented and oversees the Quick Lane Bowl, the annual college football bowl game held at Ford Field.

In 2019 Kozole and her husband founded Don't Forget Morgan, a 501 c3 foundation created to help their daughter and other children with the rare disease BPAN. The goal is to raise awareness as well as financial support to begin research to find a cure for this extremely rare genetic disease.

A graduate of Michigan State University, Kozole resides in West Bloomfield, Mich. with her husband and children, Morgan and Connor.

EMILY GRIFFIN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, MARKETING AND BRAND

Entering her third season as Senior Vice President, Marketing & Brand, Emily Griffin oversees all global brand and consumer marketing operations for the Club. Griffin and her team ideate and execute innovative strategies to create new Lions fans, and bring existing fans closer to their team through engaging programming, content, live events and entertainment, retail promotions, and strategic partnerships.

Griffin recently served as co-chair of the marketing committee for the 2024 NFL Draft, which set an event record for attendance as more than 775,000 people ventured to Detroit over the three days. In April 2024, Griffin led the integrated retail launch for the team's new uniforms. Griffin also played a key role in their design - a multi-year project in partnership with the NFL, Nike and Riddell.

Last season, the Lions achieved the NFL's top ranking in Game Entertainment under her leadership. The same year, Griffin led the creation and unveiling of a new monument to Barry Sanders at Ford Field, the first of its kind for a former Lions player or coach. Griffin also spearheaded the NFL's first-ever Women In Football game on September 24, 2023.

In 2017, Griffin was the driving force behind the organization's comprehensive rebrand, which featured an initial launch of new uniforms that were worn through the 2023 season.

Griffin joined the Lions in December 2014 as Digital Media and Corporate Partnerships Strategist, tasked with aligning the team's digital social and mobile platforms, streamlining corporate partner activations in the space, and driving revenue from the club's digital assets. She was promoted to Vice President of Marketing in 2016.

Before entering the NFL, Griffin spent more than three years (2011-2014) with HelloWorld, Inc. (now Merkle) in a variety of roles. Most notably, she was Account Director for the firm's largest client, the Coca-Cola Company, developing and executing successful digital marketing campaigns for their largest sports and entertainment partners.

Griffin began her career with Palace Sports & Entertainment in 2008 as Marketing Coordinator. She spent 3 seasons in the NBA where the Pistons named her 2009 Corporate Marketing Employee of The Year. She was promoted to Account Manager in 2011. While at Palace Sports & Entertainment, Griffin implemented corporate sponsorships for all their portfolio properties.

A native of Southeastern Michigan, Griffin graduated from Hope College in Holland, Mich. with degrees in Communication and Political Science. She and her husband, Payton, were married in 2022.

TODD ARGUST

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, FACILITIES

Todd Argust enters his 11th season with the Detroit Lions in 2024 and third as Senior Vice President, Facilities. Argust was promoted to his current role in 2022, which includes the oversight of facility & security operations at both the Allen Park Training Facility and Ford Field. Argust plays a vital role in managing gameday operations for all Ford Field Events and Training Camp, and was instrumental in helping the Lions achieve the #1 ranking for the 2023 season among all NFL teams for Overall Gameday Satisfaction through the NFL's "Voice of the Fan" surveys.

Argust spent his first eight years with the Lions as the Vice President of Operations after joining the organization in 2014, where he was responsible for facilities, security and operations at Ford Field. Prior to coming to Detroit, he spent 14 years with the Cleveland Browns in Stadium Operations. Before Cleveland, he worked at Three Rivers Stadium in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Argust was the recipient of the Detroit Lions' President Award in 2017 after successfully managing the $100 million renovation of Ford Field. He is a board member for the Detroit Public Safety Foundation. Argust also serves as the NFL's Gameday Operations Designee for Ford Field and represents the organization for the Detroit/Wayne County Stadium Authority.

He has a bachelor's degree in political science from Allegheny College (Meadville, Pa.) as well as a master's degree in sport management from West Virginia University. Argust was an NCAA All-American swimmer in college and has completed multiple long-distance open water swim races over the past 10 years. He resides in Plymouth, Mich., with his wife Elizabeth, and they have four children.

ASHTON MULLINIX

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, STRATEGY AND ANALYTICS

Ashton Mullinix is the Senior Vice President of Strategy and Analytics for the Detroit Lions. For the past 12 seasons, he has served in several different capacities within the NFL at the league and team level.

He started his career working at the NFL headquarters in New York City, where he gained experience in various departments including corporate development, consumer products, and club business development.

After working in the NFL League Office, he transitioned to the Detroit Lions in 2015 to launch the organization's first Business Strategy & Analytics team. In the last 10 seasons, his team has implemented new data-driven processes to better predict business outcomes and improve decision-making throughout the organization. Over the years, his role has expanded and now includes leading the Strategy & Analytics, Premium Services, Membership Services, and Group Sales teams. In his current role, he is involved in many high-profile projects within the organization focused on maximizing revenue, automating processes, and personalizing the fan experience including recently helping lead the launch of the Lion's international expansion through the NFL's Global Market Program.

He completed an MBA from the University of Michigan and is a member of the Board of Directors for the University of Michigan School of Kinesiology. In 2020, he was named to Sports Business Journal's "New Voices Under 30."

MAGGY CARLYLE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL COUNSEL

Maggy Carlyle is Senior Vice President, Legal Affairs & General Counsel with the Detroit Lions. In her role, Carlyle provides legal and strategic counsel across the organization.

Carlyle joined the Lions in 2023 after seven years with the Pac-12 Conference (2016-23) where she served in several roles, most recently as General Counsel and Senior Vice President of Business Affairs. At the Pac-12, Carlyle oversaw legal, sports integrity, security and athlete health matters. She served as advisor and counsel to the commissioner, board of directors and conference executives on commercial transactions, government relations, litigation and strategic planning. Prior to the Pac-12, Carlyle held various legal and operational positions with the San Jose Sharks (2012-16), the San Francisco 49ers (2011-12), NFL Management Council (2010-11), the Kansas City Chiefs (2009-10), and Mizzou Athletics (2005-07, 2008-10).

Carlyle graduated from the University of Missouri with a Bachelor of Journalism degree, cum laude. Following undergrad, she taught special education and English at Broad Street High School in Shelby, Miss. She then returned to the University of Missouri to attend law school, receiving her Juris Doctor from the University of Missouri and a Visiting J.D. from the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law in New York.

Carlyle serves on the board of directors of the Sports Lawyers Association (SLA) and sits on the national commission of the Anti-defamation League (ADL). In 2022, Carlyle was recognized with a Forty Under 40 Award from the Sports Business Journal.

ELLIOTT KESSLER

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE

Elliott Kessler enters his 11th season with the Detroit Lions as the Senior Vice President of Finance. Kessler plays a pivotal role in driving the club's financial strategies and managing the day-to-day financial operations of the Club. He is responsible for overseeing the treasury, payroll and finance functions of the team. Additionally, Kessler manages the club's financial and NFL reporting, the execution of NFL and independent financial audits, tax prep and various budgets. Kessler's journey with the Lions began in 2013 when he joined the club as the Director of Finance and was promoted to Senior Vice President in 2023.

Prior to joining the Lions, Kessler was a Senior Associate in the Assurance practice at PwC Detroit, where he led engagements for a variety of large private companies around the state of Michigan. He is a C.P.A and holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from Michigan State University Eli Broad School of Business and a master's in business administration from Wayne State University School of Business.

He resides in Southeast Michigan with his wife and three children.

DAN CAMPBELL

HEAD COACH

NFL YEARS: 15

LIONS YEARS: 4

On Jan. 20, 2021 the Detroit Lions named Dan Campbell the franchise’s new head coach.

Campbell possesses 26 years of NFL experience, including 15 years as a coach and 11 as a player. Since his first year as the Lions’ head coach, Campbell has helped instill a new culture built on grit, conviction and collaboration on and off the field. Upon arrival, Campbell assembled a proven coaching staff comprised of several former NFL players that have brought a wealth of knowledge and passion to Detroit’s roster.

CAMPBELL’S COACHING BACKGROUND

Detroit Lions	2021-
Head Coach	2021-
New Orleans Saints	2016-20
Assistant Head Coach/Tight Ends	2016-20
Miami Dolphins	2010-15
Interim Head Coach	2015
Tight Ends	2011-15
Coaching Intern	2010

In his third year at the helm, Campbell directed the Lions to a historic season, finishing the regular season with a 12-5 record that tied the single-season franchise record for wins in a season. The team went on to clinch their first division championship since 1993 and advance to their first NFC Championship since 1991. Rooted in a culture based on resilience, Detroit did not lose consecutive games within a single season for the first time since 1972. The team won four prime-time games, their most ever in a single-season, and won multiple playoff games in the same year for the first time in the Super Bowl era.

After claiming the NFC North title, Campbell’s team capitalized on a postseason run built on homefield advantage, leading to the first time the Lions hosted multiple playoff games in the same season. Detroit secured its first playoff win since the 1991 season after beating the Los Angeles Rams, 24-23, in the Wild Card Round, and went on to defeat the Buccaneers, 31-23, in the Divisional Round. Campbell is just the third coach in team history to win multiple playoff games, joining George Wilson (1957) and Buddy Parker (1953).

Campbell’s strong leadership and team performance led him to be named as a finalist for the Associated Press Coach of the Year Award. Within his team’s success were a string of individual accolades, as seven players earned Pro Bowl status (C Frank Ragnow, T Penei Sewell, DL Aidan Hutchinson, LB Jalen Reeves-Maybin, TE Sam LaPorta, WR Amon-Ra St. Brown and RB Jahmyr Gibbs) and five earned AP All-Pro honors (First Team: T Penei Sewell and WR Amon-Ra St. Brown; Second Team: C Frank Ragnow, TE Sam LaPorta and LB Jalen Reeves-Maybin). Additionally, rookie standouts RB Jahmyr Gibbs and TE Sam LaPorta were named finalists for AP Offensive Rookie of the Year. Campbell’s staff continued to earn praise as well, as Offensive Coordinator Ben Johnson was named a finalist for the AP Assistant Coach of the Year Award for the second consecutive year.

In 2022, Campbell’s Lions overcame a 1-6 start to finish 8-2 in the final 10 games of the season. Detroit finished with a 9-8 record overall, capped off by a 20-16 win at Green Bay on Sunday Night Football to eliminate the Packers from playoff contention. Offensively, the Lions ranked in the top five in several League categories in 2022, including total net yards (3rd, 6,460), total touchdowns scored (4th, 54), fewest turnovers (1st, 15), points scored (5th, 453) and 30-point games (T-1st, 8). On defense, the Lions set an NFL record for sacks by rookies (20.5). The Lions' 2022 defensive rookie class also ranked atop several League categories for 2022 - including second in rookie interceptions (7) and first in rookie tackles for loss (26).

Under Campbell's leadership in 2022 four Lions players were named to the Pro Bowl - QB Jared Goff, C Frank Ragnow, T Penei Sewell and WR Amon-Ra St. Brown. Six different players earned NFC Player of The Week Awards (WR Amon-Ra St. Brown, K Michael Badgley, S Kerby Joseph, WR Kalif Raymond, DL Aidan Hutchinson, RB Jamaal Williams), with Raymond also earning AP Second Team All-Pro honors as a punt returner.

With one of the NFL's youngest rosters in 2021, 85 players saw the field for the Lions in Campbell's first season at the helm, which tied for the third most in the NFL behind the Jets (87) and Titans (91). In 2021, 10 different Lions rookies started a combined 66 games, and the Lions featured at least one rookie player on 100 percent of offensive snaps. The leadership from Campbell and the coaching staff resulted in consistent player development, as the Lions finished the season winning three of their final six games of the season - including a 30-12 statement win over the Arizona Cardinals in Week 15 and a 37-30 win over rival Green Bay in Week 18.

In their first three years together, Campbell and Executive Vice President and General Manager Brad Holmes have emphasized building through the Draft as the foundational identity of the team. The pair assembled what became one of the most historically productive Draft classes in franchise history in the 2023 Draft. Jahmyr Gibbs (first round) and Sam LaPorta (second round) became the NFL's first set of rookie teammates to each produce 10 touchdowns in a season. Jack Campbell (first round) and Brian Branch (second round) became regular starters on the defensive side as well.

The 2023 class complemented previous Campbell-Holmes draft selections such as Sewell (first round, 2021), Alim McNeill (third round, 2021), St. Brown (fourth round, 2021), Hutchinson (first round, 2022) and Joseph (third round, 2022) who have emerged as young leaders on the team.

Prior to becoming the head coach in Detroit, Campbell served as the assistant head coach/tight ends coach for the New Orleans Saints from 2016 - 2020. During the span of his five-year coaching tenure with New Orleans, the club captured four NFC South division titles, ranked first in the NFL in points scored (2,361), touchdowns (277), net yardage (31,147) and posted the third-most wins (56) in the League.

In 2019, Campbell helped coach TE Jared Cook to a Pro Bowl berth in Cook's first season with the Saints. Cook established a career-high average for yards per reception (16.4) that season under Campbell, while fellow TE Josh Hill posted a career-high 25 receptions for 226 yards and three touchdowns. During the 2017 season, Campbell's group saw three different players make starts at tight end, while still helping produce the NFL's fifth-best rushing offense.

In 2015, Campbell became the Miami Dolphins' interim head coach following organizational changes, where he took over a 1-3 team that had lost three consecutive contests and immediately helped the team win its first two games under his leadership. The Dolphins finished 5-7 under Campbell that season, including a 20-10 win over the New England Patriots in the season finale. Under Campbell, Miami improved eight spots in the NFL's rushing yards per game rankings and saw five Dolphins selected to the Pro Bowl in 2015. Additionally, QB Ryan Tannehill became the first Dolphins signal-caller to pass for at least 4,000 yards in consecutive seasons since Dan Marino (1984-86). Prior to taking over interim duties with the Dolphins, Campbell was responsible for mentoring Miami's tight ends unit dating back to 2011, after initially joining the Dolphins in 2010 as a coaching intern.

Campbell entered the NFL coaching ranks following an 11-year playing career with the New York Giants (1999-2002), Dallas Cowboys (2003-05), Detroit Lions (2006-08) and New Orleans Saints (2009). A third-round selection by the Giants in the 1999 NFL Draft, the former tight end appeared in 114 total career games (76 starts) and caught 91 passes for 934 yards and 11 touchdowns. He was a member of the Giants team that appeared in Super Bowl XXXV following the 2001 season. In his first year as a player with the Lions in 2006, Campbell posted career-highs in receiving yards (308), yards per reception (14.7) and touchdowns (four).

As the 28th head coach in franchise history, Campbell is also the fifth former Lions player to be named full-time head coach for the team and the first since Joe Schmidt, who played for Detroit from 1953-65 and served as head coach from 1967-72.

A Clifton, Texas native, Campbell attended Texas A&M, where he was a four-year letterman for the Aggies and majored in agricultural development. Campbell and his wife, Holly, have a son, Cody, and a daughter, Piper.

SCOTTIE MONTGOMERY

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/RUNNING BACKS

NFL YEARS: 7

LIONS YEARS: 2

Scottie Montgomery enters his second season as the Lions' assistant head coach/running backs in 2024, his 18th year coaching in either the NFL or college ranks. In his first season in Detroit, the Lions ranked tied-for-first in the NFL in games with a rushing touchdown (16), tied-for-first in rushing touchdowns (27), fifth in rushing yards (2,311) and fifth in rushing average (4.62). Their 27 rushing touchdowns set a single-season franchise record while their 2,311 rushing yards were the fifth-most in a season in franchise history. Detroit also tied a franchise record by producing 14 games with at least 100 rushing yards and a rushing touchdown.

In 2023, Montgomery guided RB Jahmyr Gibbs, a rookie, to a Pro Bowl berth and helped RB David Montgomery produce 1,015 rushing yards and a career-high 13 rushing touchdowns, the most a free agent acquisition has had in their first season with the Lions. Under Montgomery's tutelage, Gibbs and Montgomery became the first set of teammates in NFL history to each produce 1,000 scrimmage yards and 10 rushing touchdowns for a team in the same season. Gibbs (two) and Montgomery (three) combined for five individual 100-yard rushing games in 2023, the first time Detroit had five individual 100-yard rushing games in a season since Pro Football Hall of Fame RB Barry Sanders in 1998. The only other time the Lions had two players log multiple 100-yard rushing games in the same season was in 1936.

Gibbs also joined Sanders and Billy Sims as the only rookies in franchise history to produce a season with 1,000 scrimmage yards and 10 touchdowns and set a franchise rookie record by logging 13-straight games with at least 50 scrimmage yards to start his career. He ranked second in the NFL in 20-yard rushes (10) and was third in rushing average (5.19) among all NFL running backs in 2023. Montgomery tied the single-season franchise record for the most games with 50 rushing yards and a touchdown in a season (10) and became the first Lion to rush for 100 yards and a touchdown in consecutive games since 2004. He ranked third in the NFL in longest rush (75t), third in rushing yards per game (72.5) and tied for fifth in both rushing touchdowns (13) and rushing first downs (59) in 2023.

Prior to joining the Lions, Montgomery spent two seasons (2021-22) as the running backs coach with the Indianapolis Colts. In Indianapolis, Montgomery guided RB Jonathan Taylor to a record-breaking season in only his second year as a pro. Taylor earned a unanimous AP First-Team All-Pro selection and Pro Bowl honors in 2021 as he led the League in scrimmage yards (2,171), rushing yards (1,811) and rushing touchdowns (18). His rushing yards and touchdown marks set single-season franchise records, while he recorded the fewest carries to reach 1,000 rushing yards in team history.

Under his teaching, Montgomery's running backs corps ranked top 10 across the League from 2021-22 in rushing yards (4,406), rushing average (4.7) and rushes of 10+ yards (118). He cultivated one of the most dynamic backfields in the NFL, developing Taylor and RB Nyheim Hines as pass-catching threats. In 2021, the Colts were one-of-three teams to have multiple running backs with at least 40 receptions.

Before his stint in Indianapolis, he served two seasons as Maryland's offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (2019-20). In his first three games in the role, the Terrapins saw unprecedented success as their 159 points scored were the most over any three successive games in program history.

Despite playing only five games due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Montgomery oversaw Maryland RB Jake Funk rushing 60 times for 516 yards (8.6 avg.) in 2020. His rushing average ranked second in the Big Ten while he averaged 129.0 rushing yards per game, the second-best mark in the conference. In 2019, he tutored the rushing tandem of RBs Javon Leake and Anthony McFarland Jr., leading them to become one of two running back duos in the Power Five to both tally at least eight touchdowns.

Prior to his time in College Park, Montgomery spent three seasons (2016-18) as the head coach at East Carolina. His impact was felt immediately as the Pirates put together their second-highest single-season passing attack in school history, averaging 334.7 air yards per game in 2016. Their 5,605 yards of offense (467.1 yards per game) stood as the fourth-highest total in program history.

In 2017, East Carolina's 3,815 passing yards ranked 12th in the FBS and were fifth-most in the school's record books. He also helped Biletnikoff Award finalist WR Zay Jones capture FBS stat titles in receptions (158) and receiving yards per game (145.5). Jones' 399-career receptions are the most in NCAA history.

Montgomery spent two years (2014-15) at Duke in his second stint with the Blue Devils as associate head coach/offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach. He spent the 2013 season overseeing the passing game and wide receivers. In Montgomery's first year as the offensive coordinator in 2014, the offense's 421 points scored finished second-most in single-season program history.

In 2015, Montgomery was one-of-three finalists for the AFCA National Assistant Coach of the Year and earned recognition by Athlon as one of "College Football's 20 Best Coaches Under 40."

His first NFL coaching opportunity came with the Pittsburgh Steelers as wide receivers coach from 2010-12, where he mentored WRs Hines Ward, Mike Wallace and Antonio Brown. Under Montgomery's oversight, Wallace earned a Pro Bowl nod in 2011 while Brown was named 2011 Team MVP after becoming the first player in NFL history to amass 1,000-plus yards both receiving and on kick returns. Brown was also named to the 2011 Pro Bowl as a returner.

In his first coaching role at Duke, Montgomery directed the wide receivers at his alma mater from 2006-09. Montgomery played wide receiver for the Blue Devils from 1996-99, pacing the team in receiving for three-straight seasons and earning Team MVP honors in 1998 and 1999.

Montgomery went on to play three seasons with the Denver Broncos from 2000-02 and one season with the Oakland Raiders in 2003.

A Shelby, N.C. native, Montgomery has three sons, Cassius, Moses and Magnus. His wife, Ebony, is a native of Detroit, Mich.

BEN JOHNSON

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

NFL YEARS: 13

LIONS YEARS: 6

Ben Johnson was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2022 after spending three seasons with the Lions in multiple roles on the coaching staff. He came to Detroit in 2019, as an offensive quality control coach, and was heavily involved in the passing game during Lions Head Coach Dan Campbell's first season in Detroit.

"I think Ben's a rock star, man," Campbell said. "He's a young guy, but he's kind of gone a little longer, harder road to get to where he's at. He's been around some really good coaches, now, some guys who have coached some pretty good quarterbacks. Just being around Mike Sherman when I was with him down there (in Miami). Joe Philbin, who was with (Aaron) Rodgers. Then he's with (Adam) Gase, who had (Peyton) Manning and those guys. So he understands quarterback play well. He was with Zac Taylor, who was with me in Miami. We were all together there in Miami. So, he understands it well."

Johnson most recently was a part of a Lions coaching staff in 2023 that helped the club to a 12-5 record, tying the single-season franchise record for wins in a season. The 2023 coaching staff was the club's third coaching staff in team history to win multiple playoff games, and the first coaching staff to do so since 1957. Johnson's offensive leadership was also key to helping Detroit clinch their first Division Championship since 1993 and advance to their first NFC Championship since 1991.

In 2023, Johnson guided the offense to rank near the top of the NFL in several major categories, finishing the season second in passing offense, third in total offense and fifth in both rushing offense and points per game. The club's lethal offensive production was an integral part of Johnson being named a finalist for AP Assistant Coach of the Year for the second consecutive season in 2023.

Headlined by an array of offensive weapons, Detroit's 2023 offense had an impressive blend of highly productive veterans and rookies. Out of the team's seven Pro Bowl selections, five were named from the offense, including two rookies in RB Jahmyr Gibbs and TE Sam LaPorta. In Johnson's offense, LaPorta became only the second Lions tight end in team history to make the Pro Bowl as a rookie. C Frank Ragnow, T Penei Sewell and WR Amon-Ra St. Brown also made the Pro Bowl following stellar offensive performances in 2023.

The effective usage of Gibbs and LaPorta in the offense helped the Lions establish one of the best 2023 draft classes across the NFL. The rookie class combined for 22 touchdowns, the most by a rookie class since the franchise moved to Detroit in 1934. Gibbs (11) and LaPorta (10) became the NFL's first set of rookie teammates to each produce 10 touchdowns in a season. Gibbs' 11 touchdowns tied for the third-most in a season by a Lions rookie while LaPorta's 10 tied for the fifth-most. Under Johnson's coaching, the Lions became the first team since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger to produce a combined 10 rushing touchdowns and 10 receiving touchdowns from a rookie class. The outstanding debut seasons for both Gibbs and LaPorta helped them be named AP Offensive Rookie of the Year finalists.

Johnson's offense in 2023 gained a reputation across the NFL for consistently producing. Detroit tied two single-season NFL records for the most games with a rushing touchdown (16) and the most games with at least one passing and rushing touchdown (16). The club also tied three other teams with the most (14) games with at least 20 points scored. With nine games of at least 30 points, the offense was tied for second in the NFL, while also setting a new franchise record for the most 30-point games.

Goff continues to play the best football of his career in tandem with Johnson's coaching. Goff finished 2023 with the second-most passing yards (4,575) in the NFL, while tying for the third-most 300-yard passing games. Goff was also fourth in the NFL in touchdowns and first in passing first downs. Dating back to the 2022 season, Goff went into the 2023 season with a historic streak of passes without an interception. He finished the 2023 NFL season with the third-longest streak of consecutive passes (383) without an interception in NFL history.

St. Brown has emerged as one of the best wide receivers in the NFL under Johnson's coaching. In 2023, St. Brown had the most 100-yard receiving games with nine, and the most yards after the catch with 677.

The offseason acquisitions of RB David Montgomery and Gibbs helped the Lions continue to be able to effectively run the football at will in Johnson's offense. Montgomery and Gibbs became the first set of teammates in NFL history to produce at least 1,000 scrimmage yards and 10 rushing touchdowns for a team in the same season.

Detroit had 14 games with 100 or more rushing yards and a rushing touchdown in 2023. This tied for the second-most games with 100 rushing yards and a touchdown in the NFL and tied for the single-season franchise record (first set in 1981). Montgomery also recorded a career-best 13 rushing touchdowns in his first season in Detroit, along with a career-high 4.6 yards per carry on the season. While establishing the run week in and week out, Johnson was able to continue to lead a balanced and explosive offense, ranking second in the NFL with 85 plays of 20 or more yards, ranking third with 70 passes of 20-plus yards, and ranking fourth with 15 rushes of 20-or-more yards.

Detroit's offensive production under Johnson in 2022 ranks among some of the best numbers the club has ever registered in a single season as a franchise. The group played a pivotal role in turning the team's record around, winning eight of the last 10 games of the season. The 2022 season marked the first time in franchise history that Detroit accumulated 4,000 passing yards and 2,000 rushing yards in the same season. It also served as the second-best franchise performance in terms of total net yards, total touchdowns scored, points scored and first downs gained. Additionally, in Johnson's first season leading the offense, Detroit recorded its third-most yards per play average in a season and tied for the least number of turnovers the franchise has had in a single season.

Detroit's offense also ranked near the top of the NFL in several major categories, finishing the 2022 season ranked fifth in points per game, fourth in total offense, fourth in red zone efficiency and first in giveaways. The Lions scored 30 or more points in eight games in 2022, tied for the most in the NFL, while establishing a new franchise record for the most 30-point games in a single season. With Johnson's assistance, four players were named to the Pro Bowl including Ragnow, Sewell, St. Brown, and Goff. It marked the first time Detroit had four offensive players in the Pro Bowl since 1971.

Goff was able to experience considerable success within the offense. He was amongst the top QBs in the NFL as Detroit rallied to win eight of the final 10 games while taking exceptional care of the football. Since Week 10 of the 2022 season, Goff was the only NFL quarterback to attempt at least 100 passes and not throw an interception. The streak marked the first time in Goff's career that he went nine-straight starts without an interception. Goff concluded the 2022 season having attempted 324 consecutive passes without an interception, which ranks as the fifth-longest streak in NFL history. Goff also established new franchise records in 2022 in TD/INT ratio (4.14) and interception rate (1.2%) while tying for the best passer rating in team history (99.3).

Under Johnson's guidance, former Lions RB Jamaal Williams reached career milestones within Detroit's offense. The Lions running backs led the NFL in rushing touchdowns among a team's running backs corps in 2022. In the process, Williams set a new franchise single-season record with 17 rushing touchdowns in 2022. The team also ran for 100 or more yards in 13 games in Johnson's first season calling plays. It marked the most games with at least 100 rushing yards since producing 14 games with 100-plus yards in 1997.

In 2020, Johnson helped guide second-year TE T.J. Hockenson to his first-career Pro Bowl after posting 67 receptions for 723 yards (10.8 avg.) and six touchdowns. Hockenson became just the fifth tight end in franchise history to earn Pro Bowl honors and the first since 1999. Among all NFL tight ends, Hockenson ranked in the top five in receiving yards (third), receiving 1st downs (third), and receptions (fourth).

Before joining Detroit, he was promoted to the Dolphins wide receivers coach in 2018 where he helped WR Albert Wilson average the second-most yards after catch (12.9) in the NFL and the fifth-highest yards per target (11.2).

In 2017, Johnson helped WR Jarvis Landry catch a Dolphins franchise record and an NFL-high 112 receptions. Landry also earned Pro Bowl recognition for the third consecutive season and caught a career-high nine touchdown passes.

In Johnson's first season as assistant wide receivers coach in 2016, he helped the Dolphins win 10 games and earn their first playoff berth since 2008. Johnson coached Landry to 94 receptions for 1,136 yards (12.1 avg.) and four touchdowns, earning his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection. Landry's 94 receptions were fourth in single-season Dolphins history and his 1,136 receiving yards were eighth.

From 2013-15 Johnson served as the team's assistant quarterbacks coach and in 2015 was promoted to the tight ends coach during the season. In 2014, Johnson helped QB Ryan Tannehill finish with 4,045 passing yards, joining QB Dan Marino as the only quarterbacks in Dolphins history to surpass 4,000 yards in a season. Tannehill passed for 4,208 passing yards in 2015 and steadily improved his passing yardage in all four of his NFL seasons with Johnson coaching his position.

In 2012, Johnson started with the Dolphins as an offensive assistant coach and helped an offense that finished fourth in the AFC in rushing touchdowns (15).

Johnson joined the Miami Dolphins after spending three years (2009-11) at Boston College. He spent his final season as tight ends coach after spending his first two seasons as a graduate assistant.

Johnson played four seasons as a quarterback at North Carolina and graduated in 2008 with a B.S. in mathematics and a B.S. in computer science. Together, Johnson and his wife, Jessica, have three children - their first child, Emory, a son, Kennedy, and his youngest daughter, Halle.

AARON GLENN

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

NFL YEARS: 11

LIONS YEARS: 4

The 2024 season will serve as Aaron Glenn's 11th in the NFL as a coach, and his fourth season leading Detroit's defense. Glenn has more than 25 years of experience in the National Football League including playing, front office, and coaching experience.

GLENN'S COACHING BACKGROUND

Detroit Lions	2021-
Defensive Coordinator	2021-
New Orleans Saints	2016-20
Defensive Backs	2016-20
Cleveland Browns	2014-15
Assistant Defensive Backs	2014-15

"He's got great vision for putting a plan together," Lions Head Coach Dan Campbell said. "He understands football very well. And when you start talking about his leadership, he's one of these guys, he's special. He's special. He's got it. His ability to communicate, to relate, to push, to grind, to love, demand, he's got it all. He's an outstanding communicator, he's an outstanding teacher. I'm fortunate that he's on staff with me."

Glenn was part of a Lions coaching staff in 2023 that helped the club to a 12-5 record, tying the single-season franchise record for wins in a season. The 2023 coaching staff was the club's third coaching staff in team history to win multiple playoff games, and the first coaching staff to do so since 1957. Glenn's defensive leadership was also key to helping Detroit clinch their first Division Championship since 1993 and advance to their first NFC Championship since 1991.

Fueled by an elite run defense, Glenn's defensive unit was one of the best run defenses in franchise history and the NFL in 2023. The Lions only allowed 100-or-more rushing yards in five games that season, holding opponents to double-digit rushing totals in 12 games. This led the NFL and ranked second in franchise history in any season since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger.

Detroit allowed just 3.7 yards per carry in 2023, the second-fewest yards per carry in the NFL. Their run defense was also the best in the NFL in 2023 on first downs, allowing a paltry 3.37 yards per carry, excluding kneel-downs. Glenn's defense surrendered just five runs of 20-or-more yards, which tied for the second-fewest in the NFL. Since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger, Glenn's 2023 defense allowed the fourth-fewest rushing yards the club has allowed in a season with 1,509.

During his tenure in Detroit, Glenn's defensive prowess continues to be marked by player development. With youth on all three levels of the defense, players continue to see rapid growth within the defense. For instance, Lions S Kerby Joseph totaled four interceptions in the second season of his career in 2023. This marked back-to-back seasons with at least four interceptions to start his young career. Under Glenn's tutelage, Joseph is Detroit's first player since Bobby Watkins (1982-83) to produce at least four interceptions in each of a player's first two career seasons.

Multiple rookies saw promising first-year starts in 2023 under Glenn as well. LB Jack Campbell had a stellar first year in the League. He recorded the second-most tackles by a rookie in 2023 (89) and was tied for first for the most five-plus tackle games amongst all rookies. Meanwhile, rookie DB Brain Branch ranked second among all rookies with three interceptions, one of which he returned for a 50-yard touchdown.

In his first two seasons with Glenn, DL Aidan Hutchinson continues to shine as one of the top defenders in the NFL. Hutchinson's 2023 season saw him lead the NFL in quarterback hits with 23, while also finishing second in the NFL in quarterback hurries (67) and in total pressures (103). Hutchinson also capped off his second season with his first Pro Bowl selection. With the help of Glenn's leadership, Hutchinson owns the most sacks (21.0) by a Lion through two career seasons.

LB Alex Anzalone originally came to Detroit in 2021, also Glenn's first season overseeing the Lions defense. Since joining the Lions in 2021, Anzalone has 19 pass defenses, tied for the fourth-most among all NFL linebackers through the 2023 season. In his three seasons under Glenn's coaching, Anzalone has set single-season career highs in total tackles in three straight seasons. He is just the fourth player in franchise history to record multiple seasons with at least 125 tackles. He is the fourth player to do so in consecutive years since LB Ernie Sims in 2006-07. In 2023, Anzalone set new career highs in total tackles (129) and sacks (3.0), despite missing a game.

In 2022, a highly productive rookie class highlighted Glenn's defense, including Hutchinson, Joseph, LB James Houston and LB Malcolm Rodriguez. The group played a pivotal role in turning the team's record around, winning eight of the last 10 games of the season. In 2022, Detroit's rookies combined for 20.5 sacks, establishing a new NFL record for the most combined sacks from a team's rookie corps. In Glenn's second season as coordinator, Detroit also bested their previous franchise rookie record of 12.0 sacks which existed since 1987. The 20.5 combined sacks from rookies were more than double the second-most, which was produced by the New York Giants with 10.0 sacks from rookies. Additionally, the team's rookie class posted seven interceptions, tied with the Texans for the most by an NFL team's rookie corps in 2022, and served as the most by a Lions' rookie class since 1976.

As one of the most productive rookies of the 2022 season, Hutchinson was named the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Month on two different occasions (November, December/January.) Hutchinson became the first player in franchise history to earn the award twice in one season. He was also named the NFC's Defensive Player of the Week in Week 11. In Glenn's defense, Hutchinson produced the most sacks in the NFL among rookies (9.5) and the second-most by a rookie in franchise history.

In Week 4 against Seattle, Joseph earned his first start with the Lions and finished the season as a starter on defense in the team's final 14 games. Being used in a variety of ways, Glenn helped Joseph earn NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors after posting two interceptions against the Packers in Week 9. Joseph became the first Lions rookie to record two interceptions in a game since 1986. Joseph also became the NFL's first rookie safety to produce a season with four interceptions and two forced fumbles since 2007.

After beginning his rookie campaign on the practice squad, the defensive staff helped Houston develop into a productive pass rusher for the second half of the season. Making his career debut on Thanksgiving in Week 12, Houston generated 2.0 sacks against the Buffalo Bills. He went on to combine for 5.0 sacks in his first four games played with the assistance of Glenn and the defensive staff. Houston also started his career with at least 1.0 sack in each of the first four games of his career, becoming the third player in NFL history to do so. His 8.0 sacks tie for the third-most a Lions rookie has produced in a single season. Houston's tally of at least 1.0 sack in five of his first six career games also tied for the most games with a sack through six-career games played in NFL history.

Rodriguez became Detroit's first rookie selected in the sixth round or later to start in Week 1 of his same draft year since 1987. Under Glenn's leadership, he tied for the NFL rookie lead by producing at least one tackle for loss in eight games in 2022. His eight tackles for loss tied for third among NFL rookies. Despite a young group in 2021, Glenn began his first season in Detroit by helping the team change its identity and narrative. Under his tutelage and extensive history coaching in the secondary, Glenn helped Lions CB Amani Oruwariye set a career-high in interceptions with six.

Prior to Detroit, Glenn was on staff with Lions Head Coach Dan Campbell in New Orleans for five seasons (2016-20), where Glenn was responsible for overseeing the secondary unit.

In 2020, the Saints defense was one of the best in the NFL, finishing fourth in yards allowed per game and fifth in points allowed per game. During his time with the Saints, Glenn's unit was a key contributor to the success of the club's overall defensive accomplishments. With his leadership, Glenn played an integral role in the development of many of the team's top defensive playmakers in the secondary unit such as CB Marshon Lattimore, S Marcus Williams, S Vonn Bell and CB C.J. Gardner-Johnson.

In 2020, New Orleans tied for first in the NFL in interceptions recorded (18), while the defense tied for the third-most (26) total takeaways in the NFL. In 2019, the Saints recorded 13 interceptions, with Glenn's defensive backs accounting for nine of them. By helping develop the defensive secondary to be a versatile group, Glenn's unit also produced seven fumble recoveries, six forced fumbles, and 3.0 sacks in 2019. Additionally, he had a helping hand in the growth of Bell, who totaled five fumble recoveries, the most in the NFL in 2019.

While coaching in New Orleans, Glenn helped Lattimore reach three Pro Bowls in his first four seasons (2017-20), as Lattimore led the team with 14 pass defenses in 2019. With Glenn's assistance, Lattimore continued to experience growth in his second NFL season in 2018. Glenn's defensive backs recorded 12 total interceptions, nine forced fumbles, six fumble recoveries, and 3.0 sacks, while Lattimore led the team with five solo takeaways and added two interceptions in the NFC Divisional Playoff win over the Eagles. After the Saints acquired CB Eli Apple in the middle of the 2018 season, Glenn helped Apple establish himself in the backend of the defense instantaneously. In 10 games played with the Saints, Apple posted three takeaways.

Under Glenn's tutelage, Lattimore generated a historic rookie season in 2017, where he started in 12 games and lead all NFL rookies with a team-high five interceptions. Lattimore also tied the rookie lead with a team-best 18 pass defenses and became the youngest Saints player to be selected to the Pro Bowl and the franchise's first AP Defensive Rookie of the Year.

Prior to his time in New Orleans, Glenn served as an assistant secondary coach with the Cleveland Browns from 2014-15. In his first year in Cleveland, Glenn worked with a secondary unit that earned three Pro Bowl nods in S Tashaun Gipson, CB Joe Haden and S Donte Whitner. The 2014 season marked the first time in team history that the Browns had three defensive backs selected to the Pro Bowl. Cleveland led the NFL in opponent passer rating (74.1), completion percentage (57.1) and pass defenses (99). Additionally, the Browns finished second in the NFL with 21 interceptions, the team's highest total since 2008. They also finished ranked fifth in the League in yards per pass attempt (6.44), fifth in red zone defense (46.3) and ninth in points per game (21.1). The Browns defense was the only one in the NFL to have two players with at least 18 pass defenses, as Haden led the team and finished second in the League with 20, while CB Buster Skrine tied for fourth with 18. During that season, despite missing the final five games, Gipson finished second in the NFL with six interceptions, which were the most by a Brown since 2010.

Prior to Cleveland, Glenn spent two seasons (2012-13) working in the New York Jets front office. He served as a college area scout in 2013 after a season as a pro personnel scout.

Glenn played 15 years in the NFL before joining the personnel and coaching ranks. He was a first-round draft selection (12th overall) by the Jets out of Texas A&M in the 1994 Draft. He started 176 out of his 205 career games played during his time with New York (1994-2001), Houston (2002-04), Dallas (2005-06), Jacksonville (2007) and New Orleans (2008). He earned three Pro Bowl selections during his career, and posted career totals of 661 tackles, 41 interceptions and 167 pass defenses. Glenn scored eight career touchdowns, including six interception returns, a 96-yard kickoff return and a 104-yard return on a missed field goal.

A Humble, Texas native, Glenn earned his bachelor's degree in business management from Texas A&M, where he was a two-time All-American, and left the school as his alma mater's all-time leader in pass defenses in a season (20), season punt-return average (19.9) and punt return yards in a game (131).

In 2003, he established the Aaron Glenn Foundation, which supports education and health initiatives for families and children. Glenn and his wife, Devaney, have a son, Aaron II, and two daughters, Tristen and Rheagan.

DAVE FIPP

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

NFL YEARS: 17

LIONS YEARS: 4

Dave Fipp joined the Lions coaching staff in 2021 as the special teams coordinator after spending eight seasons (2013-20) with the Philadelphia Eagles in the same role. He has spent over 20 seasons coaching between the collegiate and NFL levels.

"I think Fipp is a superstar," Lions Head Coach Dan Campbell said. "He gets his shot in Philly, and I think he's, just from afar, he was always one of the best special teams coaches. So, to be able to get him, the timing was right, and you see what he does. I think it's probably been our most consistent unit out of the three phases. We've got a pretty good core group of guys, but he's been great. I just think he's an outstanding teacher and he's high energy and I think you have to be both to be a good special teams coach."

Entering his fourth season with the franchise in 2024, Fipp's special teams units have continued to be utilized as an integral weapon within Detroit's game plans each week. During the 2023 season, Fipp was a part of a coaching staff that helped the Lions to a 12-5 record, tying the single-season franchise record for wins in a season. The 2023 coaching staff was the club's third coaching staff in team history to win multiple playoff games, and the first coaching staff to do so since 1957. Fipp's work was also key to helping Detroit clinch their first Division Championship since 1993 and advance to their first NFC Championship since 1991. The Lions' opponents started their average drive at their 23.7-yard line, the worst starting field position in the NFL.

Fipp's unit was led by team captain, LB Jalen Reeves-Maybin, who was named to his first Pro Bowl in 2023. During the season, Reeves-Maybin earned an NFC Special Teams Player of the Week award, after he produced four special teams tackles against the New Orleans Saints in Week 13. Under Fipp's coaching, Reeves-Maybin recorded 13 total special teams tackles (nine solo) on the year, tied for the second-most across the League in 2023. Reeves-Maybin became the first Lions special teamer who was not a punter, kicker, kick returner, or long-snapper to make a Pro Bowl.

In 2022, the group played a pivotal role in turning around the team's record, winning eight of the last 10 games of the season. In Fipp's second season leading the group, the special teams unit helped the Lions' offense start their average drive at their 27.0-yard line after kickoffs, the second-best rate in the NFL in 2022. Detroit's 26.1 (yards) kickoff return average ranked third in the NFL in 2022, while leading the NFL with 85.3% of kickoff returns being 20 or more yards. Since Fipp was hired in 2021, his unit has gained a reputation for its creativity. P Jack Fox has converted three fake-punt passes for first downs. Also, since being hired in 2021, Fipp's unit is eight-of-10 (80%) on fake punt attempts. Four of those conversions have come via rushes and the other four have come via passes from Fox and Reeves-Maybin.

In Fipp's first season in Detroit, his unit was among the best in the NFL. Despite all NFL teams being a combined 9-for-56 (16.07%) on onside kick attempts, the Lions were the only team with multiple onside kick recoveries, leading the League with three in 2021. The team's three-of-nine (33.33%) conversion rate marked the most successful onside kick recoveries the Lions have had in a season since at least 1997, when the data began to be tracked.

With Fipp's oversight as special teams coordinator between 2013-19, the Eagles ranked second in the NFL in special teams touchdowns (12) and total blocks (18). During that period, the Eagles returned four kickoffs for touchdowns, four punt returns for touchdowns and four blocked punt returns for touchdowns. Additionally, they registered 11 blocked punts and seven blocked kicks.

The Eagles had many standouts on special teams during the 2019 season. LS Rick Lovato earned his first Pro Bowl selection in 2019 after helping K Jake Elliott reach a career-high 84.6% FG percentage and P Cameron Johnston produce top 10 finishes in gross (46.4, 9th) and net (42.3, 8th) punting averages.

Before his exceptional contributions in 2019, Fipp helped Johnston have a strong 2018 campaign, in which he set single-season team records in both gross (48.2) and net (42.7) punting averages while ranking third and fourth in the NFL respectively. Fipp had a helping hand in guiding Elliott to a memorable rookie season in 2017 when Elliott converted the longest regular-season (61 yards) and postseason (53 yards) field goals in franchise history. Elliott also kicked the longest field goals (42, 46 yards) by a rookie in Super Bowl history that season in Philadelphia's Super Bowl LII victory.

Fipp played an integral role in helping return specialist Darren Sproles, earn two consecutive Pro Bowl berths for the 2014 and 2015 seasons. In 2014, Sproles earned All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors for the first time in his career after leading the NFL in punt return average (13.0), punt return yards (506) and punt returns for touchdowns (two). In addition to helping Sproles' breakout campaign in 2014, rookie K Cody Parkey recorded a historical kicking season amongst all-time Eagles rookies en route to Pro Bowl honors. Parkey (150 points) broke Kevin Butler's NFL rookie record and the Eagles' record for points scored in a single season while finishing second in the League in scoring. LS Jon Dorenbos completed the trifecta for Eagles specialists who earned Pro Bowl honors in 2014, earning himself a bid as well under Fipp's coaching.

Sproles followed up the 2014 season by again earning the crown as the League's leader in punt return yards and touchdowns in 2015. The Eagles special teams unit posted the second-highest punt return average (11.4) in the League and added three touchdowns in 2015.

In Fipp's second season with the Eagles, Fipp's unit ranked first in Rick Gosselin's Dallas Morning News special teams ranking. The Eagles special teams group finished first in the NFL with seven special teams touchdowns during the 2014 season.

Fipp's first NFL experience came with the San Francisco 49ers from 2008-10, where he helped P Andy Lee rank third in the League in gross punting yards (12,069), gross punting average (47.1), and net punting yards (10,147) in that span. Lee earned Pro Bowl honors in 2009 after leading the NFC in gross punting yards (4,711), gross punting average (47.6) and net punting yards (4,056). Fipp went on to work with the Miami Dolphins in a similar position coaching special teams from 2011-12.

Fipp began his coaching career in 1998 as the special teams coordinator at Holy Cross. After two seasons at Holy Cross, he was a graduate assistant at Arizona (2000) before stints at Cal Poly (2001-03), Nevada (2004) and San Jose State (2005-07) working in defensive coordinator roles. Prior to coaching, Fipp began his collegiate playing career at Arizona. A four-year letterman and former walk-on, Fipp played for the Wildcats from 1994-97. He was a leading tackler on special teams as a sophomore in 1995 and started at safety during his final two years with the Wildcats. The Wildcats' defense finished as one of the top defensive units in the Pac-10 Conference and ranked 12th nationally in rushing defense.

Raised in San Diego, Calif., Fipp and his wife, Jenny, have two daughters, Ashlee and Lilly, and a son, Tyler.

J.T. BARRETT

ASSISTANT QUARTERBACKS

NFL YEARS: 3

LIONS YEARS: 3

J.T. Barrett enters his third season with the Detroit Lions, and second as the assistant quarterbacks coach, in 2024.

BARRETT'S COACHING BACKGROUND

Detroit Lions	2022-
Assistant Quarterbacks Coach	2023-
Offensive Assistant	2022

In 2023, he helped QB Jared Goff lead the NFL in passing first downs (227), rank second in passing yards (4,575) and rank fourth in passing touchdowns (30) en route to the team capturing their first division title since 1993 and advancing to their second-ever NFC Championship Game. Goff became only the third quarterback in franchise history to win multiple playoff games, joining QBs Tobin Rote (1957) and Bobby Layne (1952-53).

Barrett originally joined the Lions as an offensive assistant in 2022, marking his first-career coaching role. In 2022, he helped Goff become just the fourth quarterback in franchise history to earn a Pro Bowl berth after Goff completed 382-of-587 passes (65.1%) for 4,438 yards, 29 touchdowns and seven interceptions for a 99.3 passer rating.

Prior to embarking on a coaching career, Barrett spent the 2022 offseason as a quarterback for the Edmonton Elks of the CFL. Before his time in Edmonton, he had stints with the Pittsburgh Steelers (2019-20), Seattle Seahawks (2019) and New Orleans Saints (2018-19).

A native of Wichita Falls, Texas, Barrett played quarterback at Ohio State for four seasons (2014-17). Barrett was a Three-Time Big Ten Quarterback of the Year (2014, 2015-16), Three-Time First-Team All-Big Ten selection (2014, 2015-16) and the 2014 Big Ten Freshman of the Year. He was also a Heisman finalist in 2014.

MARK BRUNELL

QUARTERBACKS

LIONS YEARS: 4

Mark Brunell enters his fourth season as the Lions' quarterbacks coach in 2024. In 2023, he helped QB Jared Goff lead the NFL in passing first downs (227), rank second in passing yards (4,575) and rank fourth in passing touchdowns (30) en route to the team capturing their first division title since 1993 and advancing to their second-ever NFC Championship Game. Goff became only the third quarterback in franchise history to win multiple playoff games, joining QBs Tobin Rote (1957) and Bobby Layne (1952-53). The 2023 season also saw Brunell guide Goff to the single-season franchise record in completion percentage (67.3%) and finish with the third-most completions (407) and third-highest passer rating (97.9) in a season in team history.

BRUNELL'S COACHING BACKGROUND

Quarterbacks	2021-
Episcopal School of Jacksonville	2013-20
Head Coach	2013-20
Providence School (Jacksonville, Fla.)	2012
Assistant Coach	2012

Under Brunell's tutelage over the 2022-23 seasons, Goff strung together two historic NFL streaks. He went 10-straight starts without throwing an interception, tied for the second-longest streak in NFL history, and attempted 383 consecutive passes without throwing an interception, the third-longest streak in NFL history.

In 2022, he helped Goff lead the NFL in touchdown-to-interception ratio (4.14), have the second-lowest interception rate (1.2%), tie for the fifth-most passing touchdowns (29), throw for the sixth-most yards (4,438) and post the seventh-highest passer rating (99.3) en route to a Pro Bowl berth.

Once Brunell concluded his playing career in 2011, he served as the high school head coach and program director at the Episcopal School of Jacksonville (2013-20), was the Team Relations Director of the NFL Legends Community and worked as a sports analyst at ESPN from 2014-16.

After being selected by the Green Bay Packers in the fifth round (118th overall) of the 1993 NFL Draft out of Washington, Brunell embarked on a 19-year NFL career (1993-2011) with the Packers, Jacksonville Jaguars, Washington, New Orleans Saints and New York Jets. He appeared in 193 career games (151 starts) and completed 2,761-of-4,640 passes (59.5%) for 32,072 yards, 184 touchdowns and 108 interceptions for an 84.0 passer rating. He also added 513 rushing attempts for 2,421 yards (4.7 avg.) and 15 touchdowns.

He made three Pro Bowls in his career, led the NFL with 4,367 passing yards in 1996 and left the Jaguars organization as the franchise leader in career passing attempts (3,616), completions (2,184), yards (25,698) and touchdowns (144). As a starter, he led Jacksonville to two AFC Central division titles and four playoff appearances, and guided Washington to the NFC East crown in 2005. He was the fourth player to be enshrined to the "Pride of the Jaguars," Jacksonville's ring of honor.

Brunell served as a backup quarterback and the team's holder on field goals and extra points with the Saints in 2009, helping New Orleans win Super Bowl XLIV, the first championship in franchise history.

He played five seasons at the University of Washington (1988-92) and was part of the 1991 National Championship team. Brunell also appeared in three Rose Bowls, was the MVP of the 1991 Rose Bowl and was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 2015.

A native of Santa Maria, Calif., Brunell is married to his wife, Stacy, and has four children, Caitlin, Jacob, Joseph and Luke. Brunell and Stacy currently reside in Jacksonville, Fla.

DAVID CORRAO

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT/OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

NFL YEARS: 15

LIONS YEARS: 7

David Corrao enters his seventh season with the Lions in 2024, working primarily with the outside linebackers. Corrao spent his first four seasons with Detroit as their Director of Football Research (2018-21) before taking on his current role in 2022.

He returned to the NFL coaching ranks in 2018 after spending 2016 as the defensive coordinator at Northern Michigan, followed by a stint at the University of Mississippi in 2017 as a senior player personnel analyst. Corrao began his coaching career in the high school ranks before serving in assistant coach roles at Syracuse (2000-03), Northeastern (2004) and Mississippi (2005-07). He moved into the NFL coaching realm as a defensive quality control coach with the Miami Dolphins in 2008.

Corrao went on to spend eight seasons (2008-15) with Dolphins, where he worked in various roles on the defensive side of the football. In his third season with Miami, Corrao was named assistant linebackers coach in addition to his role as defensive quality control.

In 2010 when Corrao initially began working with the linebackers, Dolphins LB Cameron Wake earned his first-career Pro Bowl nomination. Corrao went on to help the Miami linebacker corps individually reach single-season career highs during his time working with the group. In 2012, Dolphins LB Kevin Burnett reached a career-high in tackles (110), in addition to LB Karlos Dansby in 2012 (134 tackles) and LB Dannell Ellerbe in 2013 (101 tackles). Corrao's first two seasons (2010-11) with the Dolphins linebackers helped propel the group to account for 45.5 of the team's 80 sacks during that span.

In his last season with Miami, Corrao helped now-Lions Linebackers Coach and former LB Kelvin Sheppard notch a career-high 102 tackles (72 solo) and 13 tackles for loss in 2015.

Corrao joined the Dolphins coaching staff after coaching linebackers at the University of Mississippi in 2007, where he also served as a graduate assistant from 2005-06. At Mississippi, Corrao coached LB Patrick Willis, who went on to become a first-round draft selection by the San Francisco 49ers, the 2007 Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year and Class of 2024 Hall of Fame inductee. Corrao also worked with 2017 Hall of Fame inductee DE Jason Taylor. Prior to Ole Miss, Corrao coached tight ends at Northeastern University in 2004.

Prior to Northeastern, Corrao was on staff at Syracuse where he worked as a graduate assistant from 2000-03, and earned a master's degree in instructional design development and evaluation in 2003. He attended the University of San Diego and was a member of the football team as a freshman in 1992. Corrao went on to earn his bachelor's degree in creative writing from the University of Arizona in 1997. He is a graduate of Trabuco Hills High School in Mission Viejo, Calif.

Corrao and his wife, Trisha, have two daughters, Landry and Shaye, and two dogs, Twyla and Archuccio.

CAMERON DAVIS

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE

NFL YEARS: 3

LIONS YEARS: 3

Cameron Davis enters his third season with Detroit in 2024 as the team's assistant defensive line coach.

From 2022-23, Davis helped DL Aidan Hutchinson notch the most sacks (21.0) by a Lions player through two-career seasons. Under his tutelage, Hutchinson finished the 2023 season ranked first in the NFL in quarterback hits (23) while ranking second in pressures (101) and quarterback hurries (67), per PFF.

In 2022, Davis tutored Hutchinson in his rookie season en route to being named Pepsi Rookie of the Year. He guided Hutchinson (9.5) and LB James Houston (8.0) to rank first and second, respectively, in the NFL for sacks by a rookie. Detroit rookies combined for 20.5 sacks on the season, establishing a new NFL record.

Davis joined the Lions after spending two seasons as the defensive line coach for Lamar University (2020-21). Prior to Lamar, he spent the 2019 season as a graduate assistant coach at Kentucky, where two of his players ranked among the SEC leaders in sacks and tackles for loss.

Before joining the Wildcats, Davis served as a graduate assistant at Rice University (2017-18) and Texas A&M (2016). He originally entered graduate school at the University of La Verne, where he also coached the defensive line and defensive backs for one season each and served as the equipment manager from 2014-15.

From 2013-14, Davis began his coaching career at Diablo Valley College as an assistant defensive line coach. He spent 2012-13 as a public relations intern with the Oakland Raiders.

Davis is a 2012 graduate of Cal State East Bay with a degree in sociology. In 2016, he earned his master's in leadership and management from La Vern. He is married to his wife, BriAnna Davis.

TANNER ENGSTRAND

PASSING GAME COORDINATOR

NFL YEARS: 5

LIONS YEARS: 5

Tanner Engstrand enters his fifth season with the Lions in 2024 and his second as the passing game coordinator.

In 2023, Engstrand helped orchestrate a passing attack that ranked second in the NFL in net passing yards (4,401), tied for fourth in passing touchdowns (30) and was fifth in yards-per-attempt (7.60). Detroit also set franchise records in total net yards (6,712) and total touchdowns scored (58) in 2023.

Under Engstrand's guidance, WR Amon-Ra St. Brown became only the third receiver in franchise history to be named First-Team AP All-Pro after he led the NFL in 100-yard receiving games (nine), ranked second in receptions (119) and was third in receiving yards (1,515) in 2023. QB Jared Goff also led the NFL in passing first downs (227), ranked second in passing yards (4,575) and was fourth in passing touchdowns (30) while leading the team to their first division title in 30 years.

In 2022, Engstrand oversaw the team's tight ends in addition to elevated responsibilities in the team's passing game. Detroit's tight ends combined for 12 touchdown receptions on the season, establishing a new single-season franchise record. The Lions also had three different tight ends produce a multi-touchdown game in 2022, becoming the first team in NFL history to do so.

Engstrand originally joined the Lions coaching staff during the 2020 season after most recently working as the offensive coordinator for the XFL's DC Defenders. Prior to his stint in the XFL, Engstrand was on staff at the University of Michigan (2018-19) as an offensive analyst.

Prior to joining the Wolverines, Engstrand served in a variety of roles at the University of San Diego for more than 10 seasons, including five seasons as the assistant head coach, seven seasons as the offensive coordinator and nine seasons as the quarterbacks coach.

He began his coaching career in 2005 as a graduate assistant at San Diego after playing quarterback for San Diego State between 2003-04 and at Grossmont College from 2000-2002, where he earned first team all-conference and academic All-American honors during the 2002 season. Engstrand earned his bachelor's degree in economics from SDSU in 2005 and also earned his master's degree in business administration from the University of San Diego in 2007.

He is married to his wife, Lauren, and they have one daughter, Paislyn and two sons, Wyatt, and Colton.

HANK FRALEY

OFFENSIVE LINE

NFL YEARS: 10

LIONS YEARS: 7

Hank Fraley enters his seventh season with the Lions and his fifth as the team's offensive line coach in 2024. He originally began his time with the club as the assistant offensive line coach in 2018.

In 2023, Fraley helped the offensive line guide the team to new heights, with the Lions winning their first division title in 30 years and appearing in their second-ever NFC Championship Game. The offensive line was anchored by T Penei Sewell, who became Detroit's second offensive lineman since the 1970

AFL/NFL merger to be named First-Team AP All-Pro. C Frank Ragnow earned Second-Team AP All-Pro honors for the second time in his career and T Taylor Decker became the fourth tackle in franchise history to reach 100-career starts for the team. Sewell also became the first Lions tackle to earn consecutive trips to the Pro Bowl since T Lomas Brown (1990-95) and Ragnow became the third center in franchise history to be named to at least three-career Pro Bowls, all of which have come under Fraley's time leading the room.

Detroit's offensive line also ranked fourth in the NFL in sack percentage allowed (4.8%) in 2023 while guiding the ground attack to a franchise-record 27 rushing touchdowns and the fifth-most rushing yards (2,311) in a season in team history.

In 2022, Fraley once again tutored one of the top offensive lines in the NFL, producing Pro Bowlers in Sewell and Ragnow. The unit allowed only 24 sacks on the year, the second-fewest in the League, while their 3.9% sack-rate was the third-best in the NFL. Under Fraley's guidance, the group anchored an offense that rushed for 2,179 yards, the most for the franchise since 1997 at the time. The team also scored 23 rushing touchdowns, tied for the fourth-most in Detroit single-season franchise history.

In 2021, the Lions added Sewell with the seventh overall pick of the NFL Draft, marking the second offensive lineman (Ragnow) the team had selected in the first round since Fraley was hired by Detroit in 2018. Additionally, under Fraley's leadership, the offensive line adapted to several injuries throughout the season.

After an injury knocked Decker out for the first eight games in 2021, Fraley was instrumental in helping Sewell adjust and start the team's first eight games at left tackle. In Week 1 vs. San Francisco, Sewell became the youngest player in NFL history to start a game at left tackle (20 years and 202 days). Upon Decker's return, Sewell started eight games at right tackle. Sewell allowed only 2.0 sacks over the final 12 games played in his rookie season as he earned a place on the 2021 PFWA All-Rookie Team.

Fraley also helped G Jonah Jackson earn a trip to the Pro Bowl in 2021 and Detroit's offensive line paved the way for nine different players to record a rush of 20-or-more yards, the first time an NFL team has done so since the 1984 Chicago Bears.

In 2020, Fraley guided Ragnow to his first Pro Bowl appearance after Ragnow did not allow a sack or commit a false start in 14 games played.

In the 2019 season, the O-line helped four different running backs accumulate at least 200 rushing yards on the season, which was an NFL-high. In Week 7 of the 2018 season, Detroit's offensive line helped put together a season-best 248 rushing yards at the Miami Dolphins, their most in a game since 1997.

Prior to coming to Detroit in 2018, Fraley served as the offensive line coach at UCLA in 2017. He originally entered the NFL coaching ranks when he was named the assistant offensive line coach for the Minnesota Vikings in 2014, where he worked for three seasons (2014-16). While assisting with the offensive line, Fraley helped the unit produce one of the NFL's top rushing attacks in 2015.

With an offense featuring RB Adrian Peterson, the Vikings offensive line paved the way for Peterson to rush for an NFL-leading 1,485 yards in 2015, while the team finished fourth in overall rushing that season. Minnesota's offensive line finished the 2015 season as the only NFL team to have the same starting offensive line in all 16 games.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Fraley served as the offensive line coach at San Jose State in 2013. He began his coaching career in 2012 when he was named the offensive line coach at the University of San Diego.

A former lineman himself, Fraley played 11 seasons in the NFL after entering the League as an undrafted free agent in 2000 out of Robert Morris. He went on to play with the Philadelphia Eagles (2000-05), Cleveland Browns (2006-09) and St. Louis Rams (2010). As a mainstay along the offensive line, he helped Philadelphia win four-consecutive NFC East titles between 2001-04 and reach four-consecutive NFC title games. The Eagles advanced to Super Bowl XXXIX against New England following the 2004 season.

A standout athlete at Robert Morris, Fraley was an All-Northeastern Conference selection from 1997-99, helping his teams win conference titles each season. He had his No. 75 retired by the school in 2001 and became the first Robert Morris alum to play in the Super Bowl. He was enshrined in the school's Hall of Fame in 2006 and honored by the Northeast Conference in 2010.

Fraley and his wife, Danielle, have four sons, Trent, Mason, Travis and Beau, and one daughter, Scarlett.

SHAUN DION HAMILTON

ASSISTANT LINEBACKERS

NFL YEARS: 3

LIONS YEARS: 3

Shaun Dion Hamilton enters his third season coaching with the Lions and second as assistant linebackers coach in 2024. He originally transitioned into the coaching ranks as part of Detroit’s WCF Minority Coaching Assistantship in September of 2022 after spending the preseason playing linebacker for the team.

HAMILTON'S COACHING BACKGROUND

Detroit Lions	2022-
Assistant Linebackers	2023-
WCF Minority Coaching Assistantship	2022

In 2023, Hamilton helped LB Alex Anzalone become the third player in franchise history to produce a season with at least 125 tackles and 3.0 sacks. Over the 2022-23 seasons, Anzalone produced a franchise record-long streak of 30 games with at least five tackles.

Hamilton also guided LB Jack Campbell to immediate success as a rookie in 2023, with Campbell ranking second among all NFL rookies with 89 tackles. In 2022, Hamilton helped LB Malcolm Rodriguez become Detroit’s first rookie selected in the sixth round-or-later to start in Week 1 of his same draft year since 1987.

Prior to spending two training camps with Detroit (2021-22), Hamilton spent his first three seasons (2018-20) with the Washington Commanders, where he appeared in 46 games (seven starts) and registered 89 tackles (63 solo), nine tackles for loss, 2.5 sacks, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one interception. He was originally drafted by Washington in the sixth round (197th overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft out of Alabama.

A native of Montgomery, Ala., Hamilton played four seasons for the Crimson Tide from 2014-17, helping the team to College Football Playoff National Championships following the 2015 and 2017 seasons. He was named a permanent team captain as a senior in 2017.

While at Alabama, Hamilton earned both his undergraduate degree in business administration and master’s degree in sports management in under four years. He attended Carver High School, where he was named class valedictorian and Alabama Sports Writers Association 6A All-State.

STEVE HEIDEN

TIGHT ENDS

NFL YEARS: 12

LIONS YEARS: 2

Steve Heiden enters his second season as the Lions' tight ends coach and his 12th season as an NFL coach in 2024.

In his first season with the team in 2023, Heiden guided TE Sam LaPorta to a historic rookie season. Under Heiden's tutelage, LaPorta set the NFL record for the most receptions by a rookie tight end (86). Among all-time rookie tight ends in NFL history, LaPorta also ranked first in five-catch games (10), tied-for-second in receiving touchdowns (10) and fourth in receiving yards (889).

LaPorta's production in 2023 also rewrote the team's record books, with LaPorta setting the single-season franchise record for receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns among all-time Lions tight ends. Among all-time Lions rookies, regardless of position, LaPorta produced the most touchdown receptions and the second-most receptions and receiving yards.

LaPorta became the first Lions tight end to ever lead all NFL tight ends in receiving touchdowns in a single season in 2023. He also ranked fourth in receptions and fifth in receiving yards among all NFL tight ends en route to Pro Bowl and Second-Team AP All-Pro honors to cap off his rookie year. He joined Hall of Fame TE Charlie Sanders (1968) as the only rookie tight ends in franchise history to be selected to a Pro Bowl.

Prior to joining the Lions in 2023, Heiden spent a decade coaching in various roles with the Arizona Cardinals offense from 2013-22, leaving the team as one of the longest-tenured assistant coaches in Cardinals history.

He served as the assistant offensive line coach (2018) and assistant special teams/assistant tight ends coach (2013-17) before being promoted to oversee the tight ends in his final four seasons.

In 2021, Heiden helped TE Zach Ertz excel in the Arizona offense after being traded halfway through the season. Despite only playing 11 games with the Cardinals, Ertz caught 56 passes for 574 yards and three touchdowns. He tied the single-season franchise record for receptions by a tight end and became the first tight end for Arizona to record over 500 receiving yards since 2003.

Heiden directed the tight ends in an offense that finished top 10 in total offense, rushing yards per game, rushing touchdowns and offensive touchdowns in 2020. The Cardinals also scored 410 points in 2020, the fifth-most in team history. Heiden tutored TE Dan Arnold as he caught 31 passes for 438 yards and four touchdowns, becoming the first Arizona tight end to have 400 receiving yards and four touchdowns in a season since 1988.

While assisting the tight end group in 2017, Heiden helped TE Ricky Seals-Jones become just the third rookie tight end in franchise history to register at least three touchdown receptions in a season.

As an assistant for both the special teams and tight ends corps, Heiden was a part of the staff that produced multiple top 10 offenses. In 2015, the Cardinals had the top ranked offense in the NFL for the first time in team history and established single-season records for points (489), touchdowns (59), touchdown passes (35), total net yards (6,533), first downs (373) and first downs passing (237).

Heiden originally entered the coaching ranks as tight ends coach at Concordia University in 2012. He transitioned to coaching after playing 11 seasons in the NFL from 1999-2009. Heiden was selected in the third round (69th overall) of the 1999 NFL Draft out of South Dakota State by the San Diego Chargers.

He went on to spend three years (1999-2001) with the Chargers before being traded to the Cleveland Browns, where he spent eight seasons from 2002-09. Over his NFL career, Heiden played 148 games (83 starts) and totaled 201 receptions for 1,689 yards and 14 touchdowns. He holds the Browns' franchise records for most receiving touchdowns by a tight end in a single game after he caught three against Cincinnati in Week 12 of the 2004 season.

A native of Rushford, Minn., Heiden played collegiately at South Dakota State. He earned First-Team All-North Central Intercollegiate Athletic Conference honors as a senior in 1998, and became one of only 29 players in school history to be selected in the NFL Draft.

Alongside his wife, Jessica, Heiden has two daughters, Madison and Presley, and a son, Walker.

JETT MODKINS

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

NFL YEARS: 5

LIONS YEARS: 4

Jett Modkins enters his fourth season as the Lions' assistant special teams coach in 2024 after originally joining the team in 2021.

MODKINS' COACHING BACKGROUND

Detroit Lions	2021-
Assistant Special Teams	2021-
Denver Broncos	2020
Diversity Coaching Intern	2020

Working with Lions Special Teams Coordinator Dave Fipp, Modkins has helped the unit have success in multiple areas. From 2021-23, Detroit was eight-of-10 (80.0%) on fake punt attempts. Four of those conversions came via rushes and four have come via passes.

During the 2023 season, Lions opponents started their average drive at their own 23.7-yard line following kickoffs, the lowest average starting field position allowed in the NFL. The unit was anchored by LB Jalen Reeves-Maybin, who tied for second in the NFL with 13 total special teams tackles and threw for a 31-yard pass on a fake-punt conversion. Reeves-Maybin was named Second-Team AP All-Pro and earned his first-career Pro Bowl nod, becoming the first Lions special teamer (non-punter, non-kicker, non-long snapper) to be selected to the Pro Bowl.

In 2022, the Lions led the NFL with the highest percentage of kickoff returns going for 20-or-more yards (85.3%) and were third in kickoff return average (26.1). Modkins also helped WR Kalif Raymond rank second in punt return average in 2022 (13.2; 10 return minimum) en route to Second-Team AP All-Pro honors.

In Raymond's three seasons under Modkins' tutelage, he ranks second in the NFL in punt return average (11.9) and is third in punt return yards (831).

In 2021, the Lions led the NFL in onside kick recoveries, going three-of-nine (33.33%) on their attempts. Their onside kick conversion percentage marked the most successful rate the team has had in a season since at least 1997, when the data began to be tracked.

Prior to joining the Lions, Modkins spent the 2020 season with the Denver Broncos as the team's diversity coaching intern, assisting with the offense.

His first coaching position came as a defensive volunteer coach with Akron University in 2019.

A native of Chandler, Ariz., Modkins played collegiate football at Glendale (Ari.) Community College and also attended Kent State University. He is the son of Vikings running backs coach/run game coordinator Curtis Modkins.

STEVE OLIVER

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

NFL YEARS: 4

LIONS YEARS: 4

Steve Oliver enters his fourth season with the Lions in 2024 and his second as the team's assistant offensive line coach after originally joining the team as an offensive quality control coach in 2021. Prior to entering the NFL ranks, he spent the first five years of his coaching career at the collegiate level.

In 2023, Oliver helped orchestrate an offensive line that ranked fourth in the NFL in sack percentage allowed (4.8%) while guiding the ground attack to a franchise-record 27 rushing touchdowns and the fifth-most rushing yards (2,311) in a season in team history.

Under Oliver's guidance in 2023, T Penei Sewell became Detroit's second offensive lineman since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger to be named First-Team AP All-Pro. He also became the first Lions tackle to earn consecutive trips to the Pro Bowl since T Lomas Brown (1990-95). Oliver also helped C Frank Ragnow earn Second-Team AP All-Pro honors and earn his third-career trip to the Pro Bowl.

A former offensive lineman for the University of San Diego, Oliver played for the Toreros from 2011-15, was coached by current Lions Offensive Line Coach Hank Fraley during the 2012 season and had Lions Passing Game Coordinator Tanner Engstrand serve as his offensive coordinator for his five-year career. After concluding his playing career, Oliver began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Idaho in 2016 as an offensive assistant, working primarily with the offensive line for two seasons.

During the 2018 spring football season, Oliver was named an assistant coach at Montana State-Northern, serving as the offensive line coach, run game coordinator and recruiting coordinator. He went on to become Idaho's director of operations in 2018 and oversaw the day-to-day operations of the program including team travel, logistics, meal planning and community involvement.

In 2019, Oliver was named Idaho's tight ends coach before returning to his alma mater in 2020 to oversee the tight ends.

He earned his bachelor's degree in finance in 2016. A native of Chandler, Ariz., Oliver is married to his wife, Abby, and together they have a son, Cooper.

JIM O'NEIL

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

NFL YEARS: 12

LIONS YEARS: 1

Jim O'Neil joins the Lions as defensive assistant in 2024 and brings over 12 years of NFL experience to Detroit. Most recently, O'Neil served as Northwestern's defensive coordinator for two seasons from 2021-22.

Prior to the Wildcats, O'Neil spent three seasons (2018-20) with the Raiders. He joined the organization as senior defensive assistant before being elevated to defensive backs coach for the 2019-20 seasons.

O'Neil's unit recorded nine interceptions with two returned for scores in 2019, marking the franchise's first multi-interception touchdown season since 2010. He guided S Erik Harris to career-highs in tackles (68), pass defenses (nine), interceptions (three) and defensive touchdowns (two). O'Neil also developed second-round standout CB Trayvon Mullen, whose 10 pass defenses were the most by a Raiders rookie since CB Charles Woodson had 22 in 1998.

Albany	2001
Assistant Offensive Line and Tight Ends Coach	2001

Prior to the Raiders, O'Neil served as defensive coordinator for the San Francisco 49ers (2016) and the Cleveland Browns (2014-15).

In 2016, O'Neil oversaw a 49ers' defense that improved 13 spots to finish 14th in the NFL in passing defense, allowing just 240.5 passing yards per game. He also tutored rookie DE DeForest Buckner en route to a PFWA All-Rookie season.

During his tenure with the Browns, O'Neil directed a defense that ranked sixth in the NFL in quarterback completion percentage allowed (59.6) and tied for seventh in interceptions (32). In 2014, his unit led the NFL in lowest passer rating allowed (74.1) and completion percentage (33.3), while finishing second in interceptions (21), tied for fourth in takeaways (29) and fifth in red zone defense (46.3). Under his guidance, S Tashaun Gipson, CB Joe Haden and S Donte Whitner earned Pro Bowl honors in 2014.

Before Cleveland, O'Neil worked as the linebackers coach for the Buffalo Bills in 2013. The unit ranked second in the League with a franchise-record 57 sacks, led the League in opponent completion percentage (55.3) and tied for sixth in total takeaways (30). The Bills finished 10th in total defense (333.4 yards per game) after finishing 22nd the year prior. Under O'Neil's tutelage, LB Jerry Hughes set a career-high with 10.0 sacks.

He earned his first NFL coaching position with the New York Jets, spending four seasons with the club from 2009-12. He originally joined as a defensive quality control coach before being promoted to assistant defensive backs for three seasons.

In O'Neil's four seasons, the Jets defense combined to rank first in the NFL in opponent passer rating (71.0), completion percentage (52.6) and passing yards per game (186.3), while yielding the second-fewest yards per game (294.8). They finished in the top 10 each season in opponent passing yards per game, including a League-best mark (153.7) in 2009. In New York, he worked closely with three-time All-Pro CB Darrelle Revis and helped CB Antonio Cromartie and S LaRon Landry earn Pro Bowl honors in 2013. Prior to entering the NFL ranks, O'Neil spent eight years coaching throughout the collegiate level. He spent the 2006-08 seasons at Eastern Michigan as a safeties coach/recruiting coordinator after stints at Towson (2005), Northwestern (2003-04), Pennsylvania (2002) and Albany (2001).

A native of Doylestown, Pa., O'Neil was a three-year starter as a defensive lineman at Towson from 1998-2000 where he received a bachelor's degree in sports management. He also holds master's degrees from SUNY-Albany and Northwestern. He and his wife, Stacy, have two sons Danny and Kellan, and a daughter, Riley.

ANTWAAN RANDLE EL

WIDE RECEIVERS

NFL YEARS: 6

LIONS YEARS: 4

Antwaan Randle El enters his fourth season with the Lions as wide receivers coach in 2024. He joined the Lions in 2021 after spending two seasons (2019-20) as an offensive assistant with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, helping the team capture Super Bowl LV.

RANDLE EL'S COACHING BACKGROUND

Detroit Lions	2021-
Wide Receivers	2021-
Tampa Bay Buccaneers	2019-20
Offensive Assistant	2019-20

Under Randle El's guidance in 2023, WR Amon-Ra St. Brown put together a memorable season as he became just the third Lions wide receiver since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger to be named First-Team AP All-Pro. Among all NFL players in 2023, St. Brown ranked first in 100-yard receiving games (nine), tied-for-second in receptions (119), third in receiving yards (1,515) and tied-for-fourth in receiving touchdowns (10). St. Brown also ranked first in the NFL in receiving yards after the catch (677) and was third in receiving first downs (75). In 2023, St. Brown's 100-yard games totals and receptions totals were both the third-most in a single season in team history while his receiving yardage was the fourth-most.

Randle El has played a critical role in St. Brown's historic start to his NFL career since entering the NFL as a fourth-round pick in 2021. Among all NFL players through three-career seasons, St. Brown ranks third in receptions (315), tied-for-third in receiving first downs (191) and eighth in receiving yards (3,588). He joins WR Herman Moore as the only Lions to produce multiple 100-catch seasons and is one-of-five players in NFL history to produce multiple seasons with 100 catches and 1,000 receiving yards through a player's first three-career seasons. He also made the Pro Bowl following the 2022-23 seasons, becoming the first Lions wideout to be selected to consecutive Pro Bowls since Hall of Fame WR Calvin Johnson (2014-15).

While helping the Lions reach new heights in 2023, which included the team's first divisional title in 30 years and the team's second-ever appearance in an NFC Championship game, Randle El helped the Lions' receiving corps rank fifth among all NFL wide receiver units in receiving yards (3,060), fifth in receiving yards after the catch (1,196), fifth in receiving yards after contact (463) and sixth in receiving first downs (146).

In 2022, Randle El oversaw a prolific wide receiver corps that finished top 10 in receptions (383), receiving yards (4,444), receiving first downs (228), receiving touchdowns (29), receptions of over 25 yards (35) and yards after catch (2,217). Under Randle El's direction, the Lions were one of five teams to have six players record over 350 receiving yards. St. Brown became the first wide receiver in franchise history to earn a Pro Bowl selection within a player's first two-career seasons after producing 106 receptions for 1,161 yards (11.0 avg.) and six touchdowns. Over the 2021-22 seasons, St. Brown tied an NFL record by producing at least eight receptions in eight-straight games.

In 2021, Randle El's mentorship helped turn St. Brown into an instant impact rookie. He finished the 2021 season with 90 receptions for 912 yards (10.1 avg), both the most for a rookie in Lions history. In his first NFL season, St. Brown had six-straight games with at least eight receptions, the longest streak in team history and the longest by a rookie in NFL history.

During Randle El's tenure in Tampa, Tampa's offense ranked first in passing yards (9,471) and passing touchdowns (75), second in points scored (950), and third in total offense (12,511).

Working primarily with Tampa Bay's wide receivers, he helped WR Mike Evans post consecutive 1,000-yard seasons and guided WR Chris Godwin (1,333) to his first 1,000-yard campaign in 2019. Evans ranked third in the NFL with 21 receiving touchdowns over the 2019-20 seasons and in that same span, Buccaneers wide receivers produced 55 receiving touchdowns, the most by any team's wide receiver corps.

As a player, Randle El originally entered the NFL as a second-round draft selection (62nd overall) with the Pittsburgh Steelers out of Indiana in the 2002 NFL Draft. In nine years split with Pittsburgh and Washington, he appeared in 143 career games (71 starts) and logged 370 receptions for 4,467 yards (12.1 avg.) and 15 touchdowns along with 438 rushing yards, 323 passing yards and six passing touchdowns. Additionally, Randle El added 4,316 yards and six touchdowns on kickoff and punt returns.

In Super Bowl XL, the only Super Bowl to be played at Ford Field, Randle El threw a 43-yard touchdown to WR Hines Ward in the fourth quarter, the final points in Pittsburgh's 21-10 victory over the Seattle Seahawks. The trick play stands as one of the most iconic plays in Super Bowl history.

He entered the NFL following a noteworthy career at Indiana, appearing on the Hoosiers' basketball and baseball teams in addition to starring on the gridiron. Randle El was the 2001 Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year, left college as the FBS' all-time leading rusher for a quarterback, became the first FBS quarterback to account for 7,000 passing yards and 3,500 rushing yards and was the first FBS player with 40 career passing touchdowns and 40 career rushing touchdowns. The Big Ten's Freshman of the Year Award is named in his honor.

A native of Riverdale, Ill., Randle El was also drafted by the Chicago Cubs in the 14th round of the 1997 MLB Draft.

He is married to his wife, Jaune, and they have six children.

SETH RYAN

ASSISTANT WIDE RECEIVERS

NFL YEARS: 8

LIONS YEARS: 4

Seth Ryan joined the Lions as the team’s assistant wide receivers coach in 2021 after spending the previous four seasons (2017-20) with the Los Angeles Chargers, serving as a coaching intern from 2017-18 and an offensive quality control coach from 2019-20.

Under Ryan’s guidance in 2023, WR Amon-Ra St. Brown put together a memorable season as he became the third Lions wide receiver since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger to be named First-Team AP All-Pro. Among all NFL players in 2023, St. Brown ranked first in 100-yard receiving games (nine), tied-for-second in receptions (119), third in receiving yards (1,515) and tied-for-fourth in receiving touchdowns (10). He also ranked first in the NFL in receiving yards after the catch (677) and was third in receiving first downs (75).

With Ryan’s assistance, the Lions’ receiving corps ranked fifth among all NFL wide receiver units in receiving yards (3,060), fifth in receiving yards after the catch (1,196), fifth in receiving yards after contact (463) and sixth in receiving first downs (146) in 2023.

In 2022, Ryan helped the Lions’ wide receivers finish top 10 in the NFL in receptions (383), receiving yards (4,444), receiving first downs (228), receiving touchdowns (29), receptions of over 25 yards (35) and receiving yards after catch (2,217). He also helped St. Brown earn a Pro Bowl berth as he tied the NFL record for the most receptions (196) within a player’s two-career years.

In his first season with Detroit in 2021, Ryan assisted in multiple aspects of the team’s special teams, working closely with gunners and the wide receiver corps. He also helped develop St. Brown to have a historic rookie season, where he set Lions rookie records with 90 receptions for 912 yards (10.1 avg.). In only his first NFL season, St. Brown had six-straight games with at least eight receptions, the longest streak in team history and the longest by a rookie in NFL history.

During his stint in L.A., Ryan worked primarily with the team’s wide receivers and helped guide WRs Mike Williams and Keenan Allen (three) to 1,000-yard seasons in that span. Allen made the Pro Bowl in all four years working with Ryan and produced a franchise-record 104 receptions in 2019. Allen totaled 403 receptions in that span, the third-most in the NFL, and his 4,780 yards ranked as the sixth-most. He was also one-of-three players to produce three 100-catch seasons in that range.

Ryan was a wide receiver at Clemson from 2013-16 and helped the Tigers win the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship. The Tigers also won two ACC titles, the Orange Bowl and the Fiesta Bowl over his time there.

The son of former NFL Head Coach Rex Ryan, he is married to his wife, Meg.

KELVIN SHEPPARD

LINEBACKERS

LIONS YEARS: 4

Kelvin Sheppard enters his fourth season with the Lions and third season overseeing the entire linebackers unit in 2024. He originally came to Detroit as the outside linebackers coach in 2021.

SHEPPARD'S COACHING BACKGROUND

Detroit Lions	2021-

Outside Linebackers	2021
LSU	2020
Lead Defensive Analyst/Director of Player Development	2020

Since arriving in Detroit, Sheppard has guided eight-year pro LB Alex Anzalone to career seasons in 2022 and 2023. Under Sheppard, Anzalone became just the fourth player in franchise history to record multiple seasons with at least 125 tackles. In 2023, Anzalone also became only the third Lion to post a season with at least 125 tackles and 3.0 sacks.

Sheppard has overseen the development of multiple rookie linebackers who have been proficient in their first seasons with Detroit. In 2023, Sheppard directed first-round selection LB Jack Campbell, who recorded the second-most tackles (89) among all rookies. His five tackles for loss tied for sixth-most by a rookie inside linebacker in team history. In 2022, Sheppard also tutored rookie LB Malcolm Rodriguez who produced eight games with at least one tackle for loss, tied for the most among rookies, and led all rookies with 12 tackles for loss or no gain.

In his first season working primarily with outside linebackers and edge rushers, the club's edge rushers combined for 110 tackles in 2021. The number marked the third-most tackles among an NFL team's edge rushers in Sheppard's first season coaching the group. His unit also combined for 22 tackles-for-loss or no gain, tied for the seventh-most in the NFL among the position group.

In his first season with the Lions, Sheppard also worked closely with DL Charles Harris, previously listed as OLB, a player who joined the team as a 2021 free-agent acquisition. In just one season with Sheppard, Harris notched a career-high 7.5 sacks, earning his way to a contract extension through the 2023 season on March 18, 2022. Harris' 7.5 sacks were the second-most sacks a free agent acquisition has had in his first season in Detroit. His total also tied for the fourth-most sacks a Lions player has had in his first season with the team, while tying for the third-most tackles-for-loss (10) by a Lions linebacker in a single season.

Following his playing career, he joined the LSU football program and served as the team's director of player development under head coach Ed Orgeron in 2020. Sheppard was tasked with helping players with their academic direction, social development, and overall quality of life.

He was originally selected by the Buffalo Bills in the third round (68th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft out of LSU and split eight seasons (2011-18) with the Bills, Indianapolis Colts, Miami Dolphins, New York Giants, and Detroit Lions. He appeared in 107 career games (63 starts) and logged 400 total tackles, 3.0 sacks and two interceptions.

Sheppard appeared in 53 games (30 starts) in his career at LSU (2007-10), finishing in the top-10 in school history with 311 tackles. He was an All-SEC selection and team captain as a senior in 2010. A native of Stone Mountain, Ga., Sheppard has two children; a daughter, Ava, and a son, Miles.

DRE THOMPSON

WCF MINORITY COACHING ASSISTANT/DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

NFL YEARS: 3

LIONS YEARS: 2

Dre Thompson enters his second season with the Lions after joining the team as WCF Minority Coaching Assistant/Defensive Quality Control in 2023.

In his first season with the Lions, Thompson helped rookie DB Brian Branch rank second among all NFL rookies in interceptions (three) while becoming just the third player in franchise history to record a pick-six in their NFL debut. Branch also produced seven tackles for loss on the season, tied for the fifth-most among all NFL defensive backs in 2023 and tied for the most by a defensive back in a season in team history.

Prior to joining Detroit, Thompson spent one season with the Denver Broncos as their Billy Thompson Coaching Fellow.

Before entering the NFL coaching ranks, Thompson served as the cornerbacks coach at the University at Buffalo. With the Bulls, Thompson's unit contributed to a defense that allowed just 221.2 passing yards per game, which ranked fifth in the Mid-American Conference.

Thompson spent two seasons at Campbell University from 2019-20, overseeing the cornerbacks in his second season after being promoted from assistant defensive backs coach.

Preceding his time with the Fighting Camels, Thompson coached three seasons as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Texas A&M, from 2016-18. He was a part of a staff that led the team to three consecutive bowl games. He began his coaching career in 2015 at Missouri, where he served as a graduate assistant.

A two-sport letterwinner for the Aggies, Thompson competed in both football and track and field from 2009-11. He appeared in 25 games as a defensive back for the Aggies over three seasons before using his final eligibility at the University of Memphis in 2012.

While at Texas A&M, Thompson was awarded the 12th Man, an honor given to the player who most exemplified hard work, tireless effort and the Aggie Spirit, representing the entire fan base by being the only player to wear jersey number 12. Thompson is a native of Alief, Texas and has one daughter, Averie.

DESHEA TOWNSEND

PASSING GAME COORDINATOR/DEFENSIVE BACKS

NFL YEARS: 11

LIONS YEARS: 1

Deshea Townsend enters his first season with the Lions in 2024, bringing 24 years of combined NFL coaching and playing experience. Most recently, Townsend spent the 2022-23 seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars in the same role.

Under Townsend's tutelage, the Jaguars defense ranked first in the League with 179 pass defenses from 2022-23. In 2022, Townsend directed two cornerbacks that finished in the top 10 for pass defenses with CB Darious Williams tying for fourth-most (16) and CB Tyson Campbell tying for sixth-most (15). Jacksonville's defense recorded at least 25 takeaways in both seasons of Townsend's tenure, marking the first time the franchise has done so in consecutive years since 2004-05.

Townsend spent three seasons (2019-21) with the Chicago Bears as their secondary coach. In 2021, he led a defensive backfield that finished third in the NFL in passing yards per game (191.6 yards per game) and seventh in first downs allowed (18.7 per game). In 2019, he guided a pass defense that limited opposing offenses to the second-fewest passing yards (222.1) per game. He tutored S Eddie Jackson and CB Kyle Fuller to their second-straight Pro Bowls, while developing rookie CB Jaylon Johnson who finished tied-for-sixth in the NFL with 15 pass defenses in 2020.

Prior to Chicago, Townsend had stints with the New York Giants (2018) and Tennessee Titans (2016-17) working with the defensive backs. In 2018, Townsend tutored Pro Bowl S Landon Collins who finished second among all NFL defensive backs in total tackles (96). In 2017, Titans S Kevin Byard tied for a League-best eight interceptions.

He spent three seasons in the collegiate ranks, leading the cornerbacks group at Mississippi State from 2013-15. In 2014, he helped the Bulldogs defense lead the nation in pass defenses (89) and passes broken up (73) while ranking fifth in interceptions (15). In 2013, Mississippi State ranked fifth in the SEC in passing defense with 205.2 yards allowed through the air.

Townsend earned his first NFL coaching job with the Arizona Cardinals as an assistant defensive backs coach in 2011, a position he held for two seasons. He helped the Cardinals limit opponents to 215.9 net passing yards per game through two seasons. With Townsend's assistance, CB Patrick Peterson earned back-to-back Pro Bowl honors in addition to All-Pro recognition as a rookie.

As a player, Townsend appeared in 191 games (80 starts) for the Pittsburgh Steelers (1998-2009) and Indianapolis Colts (2010). He totaled 428 tackles, 21 interceptions, 15.5 sacks, five forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries and three defensive touchdowns. He is a two-time Super Bowl champion, winning Super Bowl XL and Super Bowl XLIII with the Steelers.

A Batesville, Miss. native, Townsend was a four-year starter and captain as a cornerback for Alabama from 1994-97. He earned three All-SEC honors before entering the NFL as a fourth-round draft selection (117th overall) by the Steelers in the 1998 NFL Draft.

TERRELL WILLIAMS

RUN GAME COORDINATOR/DEFENSIVE LINE

NFL YEARS: 13

LIONS YEARS: 1

Terrell Williams joins the Lions in 2024 as run game coordinator/defensive line coach, bringing 27 years of coaching experience to Detroit. He most recently spent six seasons (2018-23) with the Tennessee Titans overseeing the defensive line, while adding the assistant head coach title in 2023.

From 2018-23, Williams's unit ranked fourth in the NFL with only 10,044 rushing yards allowed over that span. Under his tutelage, DE Denico Autry became the franchise's first player since Jevon Kearse (1999-2001) to record eight-or-more sacks in three consecutive seasons.

In 2022, Williams helped the Titans finish first in the NFL in rushing defense allowed (76.9 rushing yards per game), which was the second-lowest number in franchise history. They also led the League with a 3.4 yards per carry average. In the AFC Divisional Round, Williams helped the Tennessee defense tie the postseason single-game sack record with nine sacks against Cincinnati.

Throughout his time with the Titans, Williams developed 2019 first-round selection DT Jeffery Simmons to become a two-time All-Pro and Pro Bowler. In 2021, Simmons earned Second-Team AP All-Pro honors after setting career-highs in pressures (58), tackles (54), tackles for loss (12), sacks (8.5) and pass defenses (six). In 2020, Williams assisted Simmons in becoming the first player in club history since at least 1999 to post at least five pass defenses, 3.0 sacks and three fumble recoveries in a single season.

Williams also tutored veteran DE Jurrell Casey in Tennessee, helping him earn his fourth and fifth Pro Bowl selections in 2018 and 2019. In Williams's first season with the Titans, the team ranked second in red zone scoring defense (44.7 touchdown percentage), third in points allowed (18.9 per game) and eighth in overall defense (333.4 yards allowed per game).

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, Williams spent three seasons (2015-17) with the Miami Dolphins coaching the defensive line. In his time with Miami, DE Cameron Wake tallied 29.0 sacks, the eighth-highest total by a player over that span. He also worked with All-Pro DT Ndamukong Suh, who totaled the eighth-most sacks (15.5) among defensive tackles in that period.

In 2016, Williams helped the Dolphins to their first playoff berth since 2008, a year in which both Wake and Suh earned Pro Bowl selections. Wake finished third in the AFC and tied for sixth in the NFL with 11.5

sacks.

In his first season with Miami in 2015, Williams assisted Miami in becoming one of just four NFL teams to have three players with at least six sacks - 7.0 by Wake, 6.0 by Suh and 7.5 by DE Olivier Vernon. Vernon finished the year with 36 quarterback hits, the third-most in the NFL, and tied for fourth among all players with 18 tackles for loss.

Williams first entered the full-time NFL ranks as a defensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders from 2012-14. In 2014, the Raiders defense ranked eighth in the NFL in fewest rushing yards allowed per play (3.97) and finished second in the League in stuffs with 54.

Before Oakland, Williams spent 14 years working as a defensive line coach throughout the collegiate ranks. He spent the 2010-11 seasons at Texas A&M, advancing to a bowl game in both years. The Aggies led the nation with 51 sacks in 2011 and finished third nationally with an average of eight tackles for loss per game. In 2010, Williams helped Texas A&M share the program's first Big 12 South crown for the first time in over a decade.

From 2006-09, Williams worked at Purdue and tutored future NFL DL Anthony Spencer, who led the NCAA in tackles for loss and was a First-Team All-American before becoming a first-round pick with the Dallas Cowboys in 2007. Throughout his time with the Boilermakers, Williams developed future NFL players such as the Lions' Cliff Avril, Alex McGee, Mike Neal, Ryan Kerrigan, Kawann Short and Ryan Baker.

Williams coached the defensive line at Akron from 2004-05, helping the Zips win the Mid-American Conference Championship in 2005 and play in the Motor City Bowl, both firsts in program history. Williams also spent two years (2002-03) as the defensive line coach at Youngstown State.

He served on the coaching staff at North Carolina A&T from 1999-2001, where he tutored Lions Executive Vice President and General Manager Brad Holmes, then a defensive tackle for the Aggies. He got his start in coaching working with the defensive line at Fort Scott Community College during the 1998 season. Williams had three summer internships in the NFL during his college coaching tenure. During the summer of 1999, he assisted the Jacksonville Jaguars with the defensive line, and he had a similar role with the Seattle Seahawks in 2007 and with the Dallas Cowboys in 2008.

A native of Los Angeles, Williams played nose guard at East Carolina and helped the Pirates to a Liberty Bowl victory over Stanford in 1995. He transferred to East Carolina from West Los Angeles College and earned a bachelor's degree in communications with a minor in history. He and his wife, Tifini, have two sons, Tahj and Tyson, who passed away in 2012.

MIKE CLARK

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS PERFORMANCE

NFL YEARS: 17

LIONS YEARS: 4

Mike Clark embarks on his 17th NFL season after joining the Lions as the team’s director of sports performance in 2021. His career accolades include being a two-time NFL Strength Coach of the Year (2006, 2010), being inducted into the 2003 USA Weightlifting Hall of Fame as a coach, winning the 1998 Big 12 Conference Strength Coach of the Year, being inducted into the University of Kansas Athletics Hall of Fame in 1996 and being named the College National Strength Coach of the Year in 1993.

From 2019-20, Clark served as the director of performance programming with the U.S. Air Force Special Warfare at the Lackland Base in San Antonio, Texas.

Clark’s most recent coaching position before joining the Lions was as the director of football strength and performance at Trinity University in San Antonio, Texas while also coaching the defensive line during his time there (2017-19).

He leads Detroit’s strength and conditioning efforts along with the team’s nutrition program. Under the direction of Lions Head Coach Dan Campbell, Clark and the performance staff create comprehensive, individualized training programs so players can achieve high success. Clark was part of a 2023 coaching staff that was the club’s third coaching staff in team history to win multiple playoff games, and the first coaching staff to do so since 1957. Clark’s work was also key to helping Detroit clinch their first Division Championship since 1993 and advance to their first NFC Championship since 1991.

Before joining Trinity in 2017, Clark served as the head strength and conditioning coach for the Washington Football Team (2015-16), strength and conditioning coordinator for the Chicago Bears (2013-14), and the head strength and conditioning coach for the Kansas City Chiefs (2010-12) and Seattle Seahawks (2004-09).

In his NFL experience, he helped his teams capture six division championships, helped the Seattle Seahawks reach Super Bowl XL, and helped guide RB Shaun Alexander to NFL MVP honors in 2005.

Before joining the NFL ranks in 2004, Clark spent the 1990-2003 seasons with Texas A&M. He served as the Aggies’ head strength and conditioning coordinator from 1990-1999 before becoming the team’s

PLAYER PERSONNEL

RAY AGNEW, JR.

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

NFL YEARS: 23

LIONS YEARS: 4

Ray Agnew enters his fourth season with the Lions as assistant general manager after joining the team in 2021. Agnew assists and consults Executive Vice President and General Manager Brad Holmes with all functions of the player personnel department. Agnew continues to be a key asset in helping Holmes with roster construction and team building. His influence was an integral asset in the roster construction of the club's 2023 team, that helped the Lions to a 12-5 record on the season. The club's 12-5 record tied the single-season franchise record for wins in a season. The 2023 season was also the third season in club history to have multiple playoff games won, and the first time it occurred in a season for the franchise since 1957. The 2023 roster clinched Detroit's first Division Championship since 1993 and advanced to the club's first NFC Championship since 1991.

Before coming to Detroit, Agnew spent four years as the director of pro scouting with the Los Angeles Rams. He was a member of the Rams scouting staff for 18 seasons, having previously served as the assistant director of pro personnel.

In Los Angeles, Agnew was tasked with evaluating all 32 NFL rosters in preparation for free agency and writing advance scouting reports for upcoming opponents. For the draft, he evaluated all players on the Rams' draft board and prepared grades alongside team need analysis for the draft process. Throughout the year, Agnew was also responsible for the preparation of potential trade scenarios.

Prior to transitioning to the Rams' personnel department, Agnew spent seven years as director of player development/team pastor with the Rams. He served as a spiritual mentor for players and assisted them with life issues.

Before joining the front office, Agnew spent three seasons with the Rams as a defensive tackle (1998-2000) and was a vital contributor on the field and in the locker room as the Rams won Super Bowl XXXIV in 1999. He totaled 11 seasons in the NFL after being selected in the first round (10th overall) of the 1990 NFL Draft by the New England Patriots out of N.C. State. He played for New England from 1990-94 and with the New York Giants from 1995-97 before joining the Rams as an unrestricted free agent. He totaled 157 career games played and recorded 23.5 sacks, six forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries, and one interception.

Agnew currently resides in Birmingham, Mich., with his wife, Katherine. Together, they have three sons who are all involved in the game of football. Ray III is currently a pro scout with the New York Jets, Malcolm is the running backs coach at Stanford and Keenan is a scouting assistant for the Tennessee Titans.

JOHN DORSEY

SENIOR PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE

NFL YEARS: 34 LIONS YEARS: 4

John Dorsey enters his fourth season with the Lions after joining the club in 2021. He brings more than three decades of NFL experience to Detroit and works closely with all areas of the club's player personnel department. Dorsey was a key contributor to the 2023 roster construction that helped the Lions to a 12-5 record. The club's 12-5 record tied the single-season franchise record for wins in a season. The 2023 season was also the third season in club history to have multiple playoff games won, and the first time it occurred in a season for the franchise since 1957. The 2023 roster construction was pivotal in helping Detroit clinch their first Division Championship since 1993 and advance to their first NFC Championship since 1991.

Prior to joining the Lions, Dorsey served as general manager for the Cleveland Browns (2018-19) and Kansas City Chiefs (2013-17). Throughout his time in the NFL ranks, he has helped his teams to 19 playoff berths, 11 divisional titles, three conference championships, and two Super Bowl wins.

In each season from 2015-18, Dorsey selected a rookie who made a Pro Bowl (CB Denzel Ward in 2018, RB Kareem Hunt in 2017, WR Tyreek Hill in 2016, and CB Marcus Peters in 2015). He also selected QB Baker Mayfield (who set a then-NFL rookie passing touchdown record in 2018), QB Patrick Mahomes (2018, 2022 NFL MVP), Pro Bowl TE Travis Kelce and DT Chris Jones (Pro Bowl 2018).

In his first season with the Browns in 2018, Dorsey built a roster that recorded the best turnaround in team history, posting a 7.5 game-win improvement. In two seasons, he also orchestrated trades for Pro Bowl WR Jarvis Landry, former first-round CB Damarious Randall, All-Pro WR Odell Beckham Jr., and Pro Bowl DE Olivier Vernon.

Dorsey's rosters in Kansas City finished with a 43-21 (.672) record, the fourth-highest winning percentage in the NFL during that span. In 2016, the Chiefs went 12-4, won the AFC West title, and finished 6-0 in divisional play. After starting 1-5 in 2015, Kansas City recorded one of the greatest turnarounds in a single season in NFL history as the team won its final 10 regular season games and appeared in the postseason. In his first year with the Chiefs, Dorsey was named the 2013 Executive of the Year by the PFWA after helping the club to an 11-5 record after the team went 2-14 the year before his arrival. Each player selected in the first round from Dorsey's five drafts with Kansas City went on to earn Pro Bowl honors.

Eventually spending 21 years as an executive with the Green Bay Packers, Dorsey entered the NFL ranks as a college scout in Green Bay from 1991-96. He then served as the director of college scouting (1997-98, 2000-11) and director of football operations (2012) for the Packers. He also had a one-year stint with the Seattle Seahawks as director of player personnel in 1999.

After being selected by Green Bay in the fourth round of the 1984 draft, Dorsey appeared as a linebacker in 76 career regular season games. He was named a special teams captain and set the Packers' single-season club record with 35 special teams tackles in 1984.

Dorsey played collegiately as a linebacker at Connecticut and was named the Yankee Conference Defensive Player of the Year in his junior and senior seasons. He earned Division I-AA All-America honors and finished as the conference's all-time leading tackler. He graduated with degrees in economics and political science. A native of Leonardtown, Md., Dorsey is married to his wife, Patricia. Together, they have four children, Bryant, Austin, Catherine, and Jack.

ROB LOHMAN

DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

NFL YEARS: 24

LIONS YEARS: 18

Rob Lohman enters his 18th season with the Lions and was named the club's director of pro scouting in 2019. Lohman worked two seasons (2014-15) as the assistant director of pro personnel before being named the team's assistant director of pro scouting in 2016. He previously spent seven seasons as the team's college scouting coordinator and regional scout.

In his current role, Lohman supervises the pro scouting staff and oversees all pro player evaluation, the advanced scouting process, free agency, and the daily monitoring of player transactional movement in all professional leagues. Lohman was an integral part of helping the Lions construct a 2023 roster that helped the Lions to a 12-5 record, tying the single-season franchise record for wins in a season. The 2023 season was the third season in team history to have multiple playoff games won, and the first time it occurred in a season for the franchise since 1957. The 2023 roster construction was also pivotal in helping Detroit clinch their first Division Championship since 1993 and advance to their first NFC Championship since 1991.

Lohman originally joined the Lions player personnel staff in May 2007 and had a variety of responsibilities in both college and pro scouting, including serving as the team's advance scout during his first season.

Previously, Lohman spent six years with the Houston Texans and was a member of the organization before it began play in the NFL in 2002. From 2004-06, he served as the team's northeast regional scout and was the team's pro administrator from 2002-03. Additionally, in 2003, he handled all team advance scouting duties. Lohman joined the Texans in 2001 as a scouting intern.

Before entering the NFL ranks, he was a graduate assistant at Syracuse University, where he earned his master's degree in higher education. In 1998, Lohman was a special teams and recruiting assistant at Hofstra.

Lohman graduated from the University of South Carolina, where he earned a bachelor's degree in sports management and worked with the Gamecocks' football program as an undergraduate recruiting assistant.

He and his wife, Mari, have a son, Brenden, and two daughters, Katie and Brynn.

BRIAN HUDSPETH

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

NFL YEARS: 24

LIONS YEARS: 7

Brian Hudspeth enters his 24th NFL season and seventh with the Lions after joining the club in 2018. The 2023 season marked his first season as the team's Director of College Scouting after most recently working as the Assistant Director of College Scouting for one season. Hudspeth originally came to Detroit as a National Scout with the organization.

Prior to the Lions, Hudspeth spent nine seasons as a member of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' personnel department, where he served as a college scout (2009-11, 2014-18) covering the Southwest and Southeast regions. He also worked as a national scout (2012-13) for Tampa Bay, where he was responsible for cross-checking the entire country with an emphasis on the Southern half of the United States.

Hudspeth spent five seasons (2004-08) with the Houston Texans before joining the Buccaneers. He served as a college scout from 2006-08, covering the Southeast and Southwest regions while cross-checking the Mid-Atlantic. Prior to his appointment to that position, he served as a pro and college scouting assistant for Houston from 2004-05. He originally joined the Texans after working for the Atlanta Falcons in the player personnel department for three seasons (2001-03). Working as a scouting intern in 2001, followed by a scouting assistant in 2002, Hudspeth served as a player personnel/football systems analyst through May 2004.

Before joining the NFL, Hudspeth served on the football operations staff at the University of Tennessee from 1998-2001. He was a graduate assistant on the 1998 Volunteers staff that won the first-ever BCS National Championship, 1998 SEC Championship and 1999 Fiesta Bowl with a perfect 13-0 record. As a member of the Volunteers, Hudspeth was also a part of the 2000 Fiesta Bowl and 2001 Cotton Bowl. He arrived at Tennessee after spending the 1996-97 seasons as an intern assistant coach at Petal (Mississippi) High School.

A New Albany, Miss., native, Hudspeth earned his master's degree from the University of Tennessee in 1999 and bachelor's degree from the University of Southern Mississippi in 1997. He is married to his wife, Rose, and the couple has one son, Joseph.

DWAYNE JOSEPH

DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

NFL YEARS: 26 LIONS YEARS: 1

Dwayne Joseph enters his first season with the Lions in 2024, working as the club's Director of Scouting, after spending five seasons with the Las Vegas Raiders as their Director of Pro Personnel. Before the Raiders, Joseph spent four seasons as the Philadelphia Eagles' Director of Pro Scouting.

With the Eagles, Joseph coordinated all aspects of the pro scouting department, including preparation for the free agency signing period, advance scouting of upcoming opponents, management of the NFL waiver wire and evaluation of all players in the NFL and other professional football leagues. He was on staff with the Eagles' Super Bowl LII Championship teams. Prior to joining Philadelphia, Joseph served three years in the Chicago Bears' front office. From 2013-14, Joseph served as the Bears' associate director of pro personnel after originally joining the club as its assistant director of pro scouting in 2012. Before his most recent stint with Chicago, Joseph was a pro scout for the Miami Dolphins from 2004-06 and 2008-2011. He was the Dolphins assistant director of pro personnel in 2007.

Joseph began his post-playing career in 1998 as the Chicago Bears coordinator of player programs. After serving in that role from 1998-2001, Joseph was promoted to director of player development and worked in that capacity until he left to pursue a scouting career with the Dolphins in 2004. During the 2015 offseason, Joseph represented the Bears at the NFL Career Development Symposium for coaches and front-office personnel. In 2005, he attended the NFL-Stanford Program on behalf of the Dolphins, and, in the 2007 offseason, he participated in the NFL Football Operations Personnel Symposium. He most recently participated in the inaugural NFL Ozzie Newsome General Manager Forum in 2021 and the NFL Front Office Accelerator in 2022 and 2023.

A four-year letterman at Syracuse, Joseph signed with the Bears in 1994 as an undrafted free-agent cornerback and appeared in 16 career games for the Bears, making one start and recording 42 tackles and an interception.

He earned a bachelor's degree in human development at Syracuse and also earned a master's degree in education leadership from DePaul University. A native of Miami, Joseph is married and has two sons.

MIKE MARTIN

DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING ADVANCEMENT

NFL YEARS: 23

LIONS YEARS: 4

Mike Martin enters his fourth season with the Lions as the team's director of scouting advancement. In his role, he works with the college and pro personnel staff to enhance the scouting and roster-building processes.

Martin was an integral part of constructing a 2023 roster that helped the Lions to a 12-5 record, tying the single-season franchise record for wins in a season. The 2023 season was the third season in team history to have multiple playoff games won, and the first time it occurred in a season for the franchise since 1957. The 2023 roster construction was also pivotal in helping Detroit clinch their first Division Championship since 1993 and advance to their first NFC Championship since 1991. Before coming to Detroit, Martin most recently served as the southwest area scout for the Carolina Panthers from 2018-20.

He previously spent 11 seasons with the Houston Texans, serving as the team's assistant director of college scouting in 2017, a national scout from 2015-16, and as a college scout from 2007-14. Before joining Houston, he spent four seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, joining the team as a pro personnel assistant in 2003, becoming a pro scout in 2004, and spending the 2005-06 seasons as the southeast region and national combine scout. His first NFL position came as an intern with the Tennessee Titans in 2002.

A finalist for the 2003 Male SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year, Martin played four seasons at Vanderbilt (1999-02) as a defensive back as well as special teams. He graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in human and organizational developmental studies in 2002. In 2003, he earned a master's degree in organizational leadership from Vanderbilt.

He and his wife, Cari, have two children, a son, Maddon, and a daughter, Malone.

DON CORZINE

SENIOR ADVISOR, PLAYER PERSONNEL OPERATIONS/STRATEGIC INITIATIVES

NFL YEARS: 11

LIONS YEARS: 4

Don Corzine enters his fourth season with the Lions as Senior Advisor, Player Personnel Operations/Strategic Initiatives, and his 10th season in the NFL.

Prior to Detroit, Corzine most recently spent nine years as Director of Football Operations for the University of Miami Hurricanes. In his role, he was responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations of the Miami football team including team travel, staff coordination, and budget control. Corzine also served on the Advisory Committee for the College Football Playoff in 2020-2021. DON MUHLBACH

SPECIAL ASSISTANT FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Don Muhlbach transitioned to the Detroit Lions football administration department in 2021 as Special Assistant Football Operations after a storied 17-year playing career with the Lions at long snapper. In his role, he supports the front office and assists with various projects across the team's football, coaching and business operations.

Muhlbach retired from football in 2021 as the second-longest tenured player in Lions history (17 seasons, 260 career games) behind only K Jason Hanson. His 260 career games played tie for 40th in all-time career games played in NFL history, and also rank as the eighth-most a player has played with a single club in NFL history. Muhlbach appeared in every game from the 2010s decade (2010-19), becoming the first player in franchise history to appear in all 160 games in any given decade.

A two-time Pro Bowler (2012, 2018), Muhlbach became the first long snapper in Lions history to earn the recognition. He was named to the Detroit Lions All-Time Team in 2019.

He originally entered the NFL with the Baltimore Ravens as an undrafted rookie free agent out of Texas A&M in 2004 before signing with the Lions midway through the 2004 season.

A native of Lufkin, Texas, Muhlbach played long snapper collegiately for the Aggies in 2003 and earned his BBA in Finance. He and his wife, Alix, have three children, Addison, Jackson and Avery.

SEAN PUGH

CO-DIRECTOR OF PLAYER ENGAGEMENT

Sean Pugh enters his fourth season in the NFL and with the Lions after coming to Detroit in 2021. In his role, Pugh guides players in all aspects of developing life skills, pursuing off-the-field endeavors and engaging in external programming.

Pugh joined the Lions after spending four seasons (2017-2020) with the Purdue University football program. During his time with the Boilermakers, Pugh supported the program in a variety of roles including counseling student-athletes and coaches, leading Bible studies, organizing community service initiatives and working with student-athletes on life skills development.

Prior to his time with Purdue, Pugh worked in a similar role with his alma mater Western Kentucky's football program as the team's character coach from 2008-16. Additionally, he served as a pastor at the Hillvue Heights Church (2010-15), the Western Kentucky campus director of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (2014-16) and as the lead pastor at Church on the Main (2015-16). Pugh originally started working with student athletes in the FCA's training program at Auburn between 2007-08.

A four-year letter-winner as an offensive lineman at Western Kentucky, the Hilltoppers advanced to the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs twice during Pugh's career. He graduated in 2007 with a bachelor's degree in physical education and went on to earn a Master of Theology from Campbellsville University in 2014.

Pugh is married to his wife, TraShana, and together they have four daughters, ShemaYah, ZioniYah, AnaniYah and YashaYah, and one son, Melek.

JESSICA GRAY

CO-DIRECTOR OF PLAYER ENGAGEMENT

Jessica Gray enters her fourth season with the Lions in 2024 as Co-Director of Player Engagement. In her role, Gray provides holistic support to players in developing life skills, pursuing off-the field endeavors and engaging in external programming in addition to overseeing all programming initiatives.

She came to Detroit after spending nine years working within Division I collegiate athletics, most recently serving in a student-athlete development capacity at Texas Tech University. In 2020, she was named Assistant Athletics Director of its J.T. & Margaret Talkington Leadership Academy in 2020 after just one year as Assistant Director of Community & Character Development.

During her time in Lubbock, Gray led programming for the Academy's four pillars of career, character, leadership and wellness. In this role, she was responsible for assisting Red Raider student-athletes from all 17 varsity sports with holistic and professional development, empowerment, life transitions and more.

Prior to Texas Tech, Gray spent time as a Student-Athlete Development Associate for George Washington University in Washington, D.C after serving five years at her alma mater, Temple University. At Temple, she held several positions supporting the student-athlete population including Compliance and Student-Athlete Affairs Coordinator (2014-17) and Compliance and Student Athlete Affairs Assistant (2013-14) for Temple Athletics as well as Graduate Assistant Manager for the Temple Men's Basketball program (2012-14).

Gray graduated from Temple in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in journalism and minor in theater while working as a student manager for Temple Men's Basketball. In 2014, she completed her master's degree in sport business, also at Temple.

Over the last several years, Gray has continuously furthered her education through The Wharton School's Athlete Development Professional Certification Program as well as the NCAA's Dr. Charles Whitcomb Leadership Institute. She also earned a Sports Philanthropy Executive Certificate from the George Washington University School of Business in 2022.

Additionally, Gray was selected to represent the Lions at the 2022 Stanford-NFL "League of Leaders" executive education program. In 2018, she was the recipient of the Commitment Award for Women Leaders in College Sports. She also served as a Heads of Player Engagement representative on the 2023 NFL Player Engagement Rookie Welcome Webinar. Gray was invited to be a speaker at the 2024 Global Elite Sports Conference hosted by RDK Sports in Gold Coast, Australia.

Gray is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. and a proud Philadelphia, Pa. native.

POSITION: Tackle
NFL/LIONS YEARS: 9 / 9
HEIGHT/WEIGHT: 6-7 / 318
HOMETOWN: Vandalia, Ohio
COLLEGE: Ohio State
ACQUIRED: D-1 '16

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ✦ Enters the 2024 season ranked fourth in games played and games started among offensive tackles in franchise history with 112.
- ✦ Is the only offensive lineman in franchise history to produce multiple touchdown receptions, doing so at Seattle (1/2/22) and vs. the L.A. Rams (12/2/18). Since 1950, his 15 receiving yards are the most a Lions offensive lineman has recorded.
- ✦ Started all 15 regular season games in which he appeared and started all three postseason contests in 2023. During the playoffs, he did not surrender a sack, allowed only two quarterback hits and produced a PFF overall grade of 85.8.
- ✦ Started 17 games at left tackle for the Lions in 2022, assisting the offensive line in allowing the second-fewest sacks (24.0) in the League.
- ✦ Posted a PFF pass-blocking grade of 84.0 in 2021, the sixth-highest among all NFL tackles that season. He allowed only five quarterback hits in 298 pass-blocking snaps played (1.6%).
- ✦ In 2021, he helped the Lions top 1,800 rushing yards, 12 rushing touchdowns and maintain a rushing average of at least 4.4 yards per carry in a season for the first time since 1998.
- ✦ Ranked 12th among all NFL tackles with an 82.0 overall PFF grade in 2020. He allowed only eight quarterback hits in 692 pass-blocking snaps (1.2%). His 85.8 PFF pass-blocking grade ranked eighth among all NFL tackles.
- ✦ Helped pave the way for RB Kerryon Johnson to rush for 101 yards in Week 3 vs. New England (9/23/18), marking the first 100-yard rusher by a Lion since 2013.
- ✦ Voted by his teammates for the Eric Andolsek Offensive Lineman of the Year and Mel Farr Rookie of the Year Awards in 2016.
- ✦ Detroit's first-round draft pick in 2016, he became the third Lions rookie offensive lineman (joining T Jeff Backus in 2001 and G Larry Warford in 2013) to start all 16 regular season games since 2000.
- ✦ Produced an 81.9 overall PFF grade as a rookie in 2016, the 16th-highest in the NFL that year.
- ✦ 1-of-11 NFL rookies, and 1-of-5 rookie offensive linemen, to start all 16 games in 2016.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 🦋 NFC Defensive Player of the Week: 2023 (Week 16)
- 🦋 Produced the game-sealing interception in Week 16 at Minnesota (12/24/23), allowing the Lions to clinch their first division title since 1993. He also recorded 2.0 sacks, the most by a defensive back in single-game history for Detroit.
- 🦋 Joined DL Shaun Rogers (2007) as the only players in franchise history to produce a game with 2.0 sacks and an interception. Since the stat was first tracked in 1999, he also was the NFL's first defensive back to produce a game with two pass defenses, 2.0 sacks and an interception.
- 🦋 Converted to safety in 2022 and appeared in 10 games (one start), logging 13 tackles (nine solo), two pass defenses, one tackle for loss and 0.5 sack.
- 🦋 Posted the first sack of his career vs. Chicago (1/1/23).
- 🦋 Posted a game-high five tackles (four solo), a fumble recovery and a pass defense in Week 18 vs. Green Bay (1/9/22).
- 🦋 Made his NFL debut Week 1 vs. San Francisco (9/12/21), where he recorded his first-career fumble recovery.
- 🦋 Joined the Lions as a third-round selection (101st overall) in the 2021 NFL Draft out of Syracuse.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 🦋 AP Second-Team All-Pro: 2020, 2023
- 🦋 Pro Bowl: 2020, 2022, 2023
- 🦋 One-of-three Lions centers to be named to at least three Pro Bowls.
- 🦋 Has only surrendered 2.0 sacks on 1,961 pass-blocking snaps over the last four seasons (2020-24), per PFF.
- 🦋 Anchored an offensive line that only allowed 55 sacks over the 2022-23 seasons, the second-fewest in the NFL during that span.
- 🦋 Started all 15 games played in 2023, allowing only 1.0 sack on 576 pass-blocking snaps, per PFF.
- 🦋 Led all NFL centers with an 88.8 overall PFF grade and a 91.3 PFF run-blocking grade in 2023.
- 🦋 Started in 16 games at center in 2022, anchoring an offensive line that allowed the second-fewest sacks (24.0) in the League.
- 🦋 Earned an overall PFF grade of 86.7 and a run-blocking grade of 90.2 in 2021.
- 🦋 Became only the fourth Lions center to make a Pro Bowl and the first since 1997 in 2020. He was not responsible for a sack, did not commit a false start and only had two penalties on the season.
- 🦋 Assisted the Lions running game as they ran for 248 yards as a team at Miami (10/21/18), the most since 1997.
- 🦋 Helped pave the way for RB Kerryon Johnson to record 101 rushing yards in Week 3 against the Patriots (9/30/18), marking the Lions' first 100-yard rusher since 2013.
- 🦋 Joined the Lions as a first-round pick (20th overall) in the 2018 NFL Draft.

COLLEGE

Played in 42 games for the Razorbacks, holding a key role in the offense as a three-year starter along the interior offensive line and a team captain his senior year.

2017: Started seven games before missing the rest of the season with an ankle injury.

- 🦋 Second-Team All-SEC
- 🦋 Third-Team All-American

2016: Started all 13 games, 12 at center. Helped RB Rawleigh Williams rush for 1,360 yards and QB Austin Allen throw for 3,430 yards on the season.

- 🦋 Second-Team All-SEC

2015: Started all 13 games at guard, helping RB Alex Collins rush for over 1,500 yards.

2014: Appeared in nine games as a true freshman, helping RB Alex Collins and Jonathan Williams rush for over 1,000 yards each.

PERSONAL

- 🦋 Attended Chanhassen (Minn.) High School.
- 🦋 Has his own YouTube channel, Grizzly Man Outdoors, where he and brother, Jack, hunt, fish and explore the outdoors. The pair aspire to have their own fishing show one day.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ✦ AP First-Team All-Pro: 2023
- ✦ Pro Bowl: 2022, 2023
- ✦ 2021 PFWA All-Rookie Team
- ✦ 2021 Pro Football Focus All-Rookie Team
- ✦ Named First-Team AP All-Pro in 2023, becoming the Lions' second offensive lineman since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger to be named First-Team AP All-Pro.
- ✦ Earned a Pro Bowl nod for the second-straight season in 2023, becoming the first Lions tackle to be named to back-to-back Pro Bowls since T Lomas Brown (1990-95).
- ✦ Was named a team captain for the first time in 2023 and started all 17 games on the season.
- ✦ Led all NFL tackles with a 92.8 overall PFF grade in 2023. He also led all tackles with a 95.1 PFF run-blocking grade, the second-highest grade by a tackle since 2008.
- ✦ Played in 38-career games before his 23rd birthday, the second-most games played by an NFL offensive lineman before reaching the milestone. His 38-career starts are the fourth-most by an NFL player before their 23rd birthday.
- ✦ Started in all 17 games for the Lions in 2022, surrendering only 1.5 sacks en route to his first-career Pro Bowl berth.
- ✦ Recorded one reception for nine yards in Week 14 vs. Minnesota (12/11/22) for a first down late in the fourth quarter. It was the third-longest reception by an OL in franchise history and the longest since T Taylor Decker's 11-yard reception in 2018.
- ✦ Had Pro Football Focus' 10th-highest run-blocking grade among all NFL offensive tackles in 2021 (85.3).
- ✦ Started all 16 games in which he appeared in 2021, with his first eight starts coming at left tackle and his last eight coming at right tackle.
- ✦ At 20 years and 338 days old, he became the youngest player to start an NFL game at left tackle when he started vs. the San Francisco 49ers in Week 1 (9/12/21). He also became the second-youngest player to appear in a game in franchise history and the second player in franchise history to start a game before turning 21.
- ✦ Joined the Lions as a first-round selection (7th overall) in the 2021 NFL Draft out of Oregon. He became the second-highest drafted offensive tackle in franchise history and Detroit's youngest first-round pick in the common draft era (20 years and 202 days).

POSITION: Wide Receiver
NFL/LIONS YEARS: 3 / 3
HEIGHT/WEIGHT: 6-1 / 180
HOMETOWN: St. Louis, Mo.
COLLEGE: Alabama
ACQUIRED: D-1b '22

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Appeared in 12 games (10 starts) for the Lions in 2023, producing 24 receptions for 354 yards (14.8 avg.) and two touchdowns along with three rushes for 29 yards (9.7 av.g) and one touchdown.
- In the NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (1/28/24), he rushed for a 42-yard touchdown and caught a three-yard touchdown pass. His 42-yard rushing touchdown was the longest rushing score by a wide receiver in a conference championship game and he became the second wide receiver in NFL history to produce a rushing and receiving touchdown in a conference championship game.
- Recorded a 19-yard rushing touchdown at the Saints (12/3/2023), becoming only the third Lions wide receiver to produce a rushing score of 15-or-more yards since 1990.
- His first two touchdown receptions each came on passes of 40-or-more yards, making him the first Lion since 1998 to have their first two-career touchdown receptions be of 40-plus yards.
- Appeared in six games for the Lions in 2022, recording one reception for 41 yards and one touchdown while adding one rush attempt for 40 yards.
- Logged one catch for a 41-yard touchdown in Week 14 vs. Minnesota (12/11/22), coming on his first-career NFL reception. He became the fourth Lions wide receiver to catch a touchdown within their first two-career NFL games since 1990. His 41-yard reception marks the longest first-career reception by a Lions wide receiver since WR Chris Lacy had a 48-yard catch on Dec. 15, 2019.
- Selected by the Lions in the first round (12th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft out of Alabama.

POSITION: Tight End
NFL/LIONS YEARS: 3 / 3
HEIGHT/WEIGHT: 6-4 / 240
HOMETOWN: Spicer, Minn.
COLLEGE: Minnesota State
ACQUIRED: FA '21

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Became only the second tight end in franchise history to produce a three-touchdown game in Week 16 at Carolina (12/24/22), joining Joseph Fauria, who did so on Oct. 13, 2013 at Cleveland.
- Caught one reception for one yard (1.0 avg.) and one touchdown, the first of his career in Week 9 vs. Green Bay (11/6/22).
- Joined the Lions' practice squad after signing with the Minnesota Vikings as an undrafted rookie free agent following the 2021 NFL Draft.
- Recorded three receptions for 34 yards (11.3 avg.) in his debut season in 2021.

COLLEGE

Played four seasons (2016-19) at Minnesota State-Mankato as a wide receiver, ending his career as the Mavericks' leader in receptions (227), receiving yards (4,297) and receiving touchdowns (54). His 330 career points rank third-best in MSU history.

2019: Started in all 15 games and led the receiving corps with 81 catches for 1,676 yards and 18 touchdowns, all of which set MSU single-season records.

- Named to the All-NSIC First Team and NSIC All-Academic Team, CoSIDA Academic All-American Second Team, D2CCA All-Super Region First Team and Don Hansen All-Super Region Third Team.

2018: Started all 14 games and recorded 66 catches for 1,261 yards and 14 touchdowns, averaging 90.1 receiving yards a game.

- Named to the All-NSIC First Team and the AFCA All-American Second Team.

2017: Started all 14 games and led the receiver room with 51 catches for 861 yards and 15 touchdowns, the most touchdown catches in MSU single-season history.

- Received D2CCA All-Super Region First Team honors and Don Hansen All-Super Region Second Team recognition.

2016: Played in all 11 games for the Mavericks and finished second on the team in receiving yards with 499 on 29 receptions and seven touchdown catches.

2015: Redshirted

PERSONAL

- Attended New London-Spice (Spicer, Minn.) High School where he started two seasons as a wide receiver and the team's kick and punt returner. Registered a school-record 94 receptions for 1,531 yards (16.3 avg.) and 17 touchdowns.
- Named Two-Time All-Conference, Two-Time All-Area and Second-Team All-State in football alongside All-State honors as a member of the track and field team in long jump and high jump.
- Older brother, Brandon, spent time on the Lions' practice squad in 2022.
- Earned his bachelor degree from Minnesota State in biology.
- Married to his wife, Gabriel, and has two sons, Brooks and Decker.

1994	Barry Sanders	PFWA

In 2021, Lions all-time leading WR Calvin Johnson joined RB Barry Sanders as the only players in franchise history to earn first-ballot entry into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Johnson became only the seventh wideout in NFL history to earn enshrinement in his first year on the ballot.

In 1997, RB Barry Sanders was named the NFL's co-MVP alongside Packers QB Brett Favre. He became the third player in NFL history to produce a 2,000-yard season and set an NFL record with 14-straight 100-yard rushing games. This marked the NFL's first tie for MVP since 1960, which was also shared by Lions LB Joe Schmidt. Sanders and Schmidt remain the only Lions to win an NFL MVP award.

Lions RB Billy Sims was the first player in franchise history to be named AP Offensive Rookie of the Year in 1980. As a rookie, Sims tied for the NFL lead with 13 rushing touchdowns and was fifth in rushing yards (1,303). He was named to the Pro Bowl and was a Second-Team AP All-Pro selection.

RB Barry Sanders made the Pro Bowl in all 10 of his NFL seasons. He is one-of-five players in NFL history to make 10-straight Pro Bowls.

K Eddie Murray earned two trips to the Pro Bowl in his career. He was the Pro Bowl's Player of the Game as a rookie in 1981 while helping the NFC to a 21-7 victory. The game marked the first in NFL history to be played in February.

LIONS ALL-PROs

The Associated Press All-Pro Team (First Team) dates back to 1930. In 1951, the AP began designating the All-Pro Team by offense and defense. From 1930-50, positions selected included the following: End (E), Tackle (T), Guard (G), Center (C) and Back (B). This designation represented the offensive and defensive systems of the era as well as the commonality of two-way players. The first year the offensive backfield was separated by Quarterback, Fullback and Half (Running) Back was 1954. The first year the AP designated the defensive backfield by Safety (S) and Cornerback (B or CB in 1963) was 1955. Wide Receiver (WR), also known as Flanker (FL) from 1963-69, were first separated in 1963, having been previously combined as the End (E) position. Punter (P) and Placekicker (PK) were first honored in 1970 and Kick Returner (KR) in 1978.

PLAYERS' ALL-PRO

In 2023, for the second time, NFL players were tasked with voting for the best player at their same position and positions they line up against. The vote was conducted by the NFLPA.

Lions LB Jalen Reeves-Maybin was selected First-Team All-Pro in The Players' All-Pro, the first Lion to be included in the either edition of the team.

He also earned his first Pro Bowl berth in 2023 and was selected to the Second-Team AP All-Pro team, his first inclusion in any All-Pro team.

Lions LB Jalen Reeves-Maybin was named to The Players' All-Pro team in 2023 after tying for second in the League with 13 total special teams tackles. He also converted two fake punts for first downs in 2023, rushing for a first down in Week 1 and throwing for a first down in Week 17.

ALL-TIME TEAM

As part of the team's Fantennial Weekend in celebration of the NFL's 100th season in 2019, the Detroit Lions announced their All-Time Team. Selection of the Detroit Lions All-Time Team was determined by fan voting, in addition to contributions from the Detroit Lions Legends Community, a committee of Lions executives and select members of the media. Players included in the voting for the All-Time Team were selected based on years of service with the team, statistical records, postseason accolades, as well as team honors such as the Pride of the Lions.

PRIDE OF THE LIONS

On Nov. 22, 2009, the Lions unveiled the team's Pride of the Lions, a permanent stadium display honoring the greatest players in team history during a halftime celebration at Ford Field against the Cleveland Browns. The team introduced the 12 members of the Pride of the Lions charter class. The Pride of the Lions is a very prominent feature on the old Hudson's warehouse of Ford Field (south suite levels) that includes the players' jersey numbers, name and years played with the Lions.

CB Lem Barney spent his entire career with the Lions (1967-77). He is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the Lions' All-Time Team and the Pride of the Lions. He was a seven-time Pro Bowl selection and earned two First-Team All-Pro recognitions.

YALE LARY SPECIAL TEAMS MVP

The Yale Lary Award was presented (1981-2016) to the Special Teams MVP. Yale Lary was an All-Pro defensive back and one of the NFL's greatest punters. Along with his 50 interceptions, he became an even more valuable weapon on Detroit's special teams. Lary won NFL punting titles in 1959, 1961 and 1963, missing in 1962 by just 3.6 inches. Lary played in nine Pro Bowls and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1979.

MEL FARR ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

The Mel Farr Award was presented (1997-2016) to the team's outstanding rookie performer. Mel Farr enjoyed one of the finest rookie campaigns in Lions' history. In 1967, Farr led Detroit in both rushing (860 yards on 206 carries) and receiving (39 catches for 317 yards) and tied for the club lead in scoring with six touchdowns. As a result, he was named the Lions' Offensive MVP and was honored as the NFL Rookie of the Year by the Sporting News.

ERIC ANDOLSEK OFFENSIVE LINEMAN AWARD

Eric Andolsek Award was presented (1997-2016) to the team's outstanding offensive lineman. Eric Andolsek was emerging as one of the top young guards in the NFL when he was killed tragically in an off-season accident in 1992. He started every game from 1989-91, making his 50th consecutive start in his final contest, the 1991 NFC Championship Game. He was named to the USA Today's All-Pro Team that year, his first such honor as a Lion.

JOE SCHMIDT LEADERSHIP AWARD

Joe Schmidt Award was presented (1997-2016) to the player who has displayed outstanding leadership, drive and achievement on the field and in the locker room. Schmidt was named All-Pro in eight of his 13 seasons (1953-65), earning 10 consecutive trips to the Pro Bowl. He served as captain of the Lions for nine seasons. Schmidt was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1973.

MIKE UTLEY SPIRIT AWARD

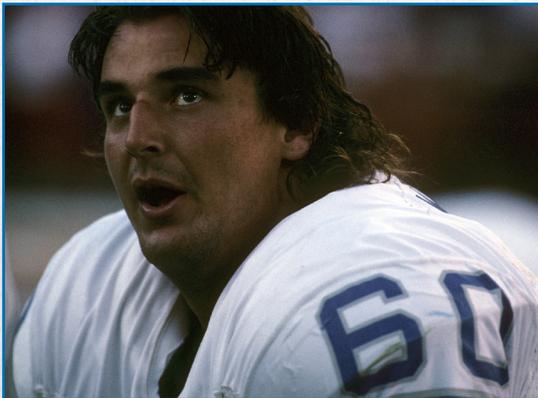

Mike Utley Award was presented (1997-2016) to the player who exhibited tremendous spirit, desire, dedication and work ethic. Utley suffered a career-ending neck injury which left him paralyzed on Nov. 17, 1991; Minutes after the injury, Utley flashed his teammates a “thumbs up” sign as he was wheeled from the field, a gesture that galvanized a team that went on to win its next seven contests and advanced to the NFC Championship game.

CHUCK HUGHES MOST IMPROVED PLAYER AWARD

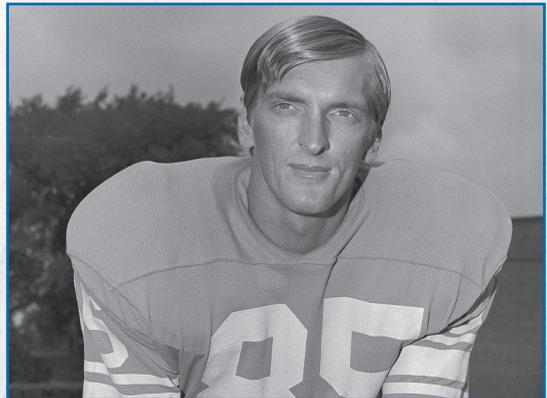

Chuck Hughes Award was presented (1997-2016) to the player who, because of hard work and determination, showed significant development and improvement during the past year. Chuck Hughes, a Lions reserve wide receiver, played two seasons with the Lions (1970-71); Hughes is the only NFL player to have died during action on a football field, having suffered a fatal heart attack during Detroit’s game against Chicago on October 24, 1971.

HISTORY

Detroit welcomed the Lions in 1934, but it was not the area's first look at professional football. In 1920, the Detroit Heralds were a charter member of the American Professional Football Association, which was the original name of the present NFL, but the club folded after two years. The Detroit Panthers appeared in 1925, but also folded after two seasons. In 1928, the Detroit Wolverines were formed, but they failed after just one year.

In 1930, the then-10-year-old National Football League added a franchise from Portsmouth, Ohio, called the Spartans. After four seasons, the team was purchased for $7,952.08 by a group headed by Detroit radio executive George A. Richards and moved to the Motor City.

Playing in the University of Detroit Stadium before crowds that averaged 16,000, the new Detroit Lions won the NFL Championship in only their second year (1935). Under the leadership of Coach "Potsy" Clark and stars like Hall of Famer "Dutch" Clark, Ernie Caddel, George Christensen, "Ace" Gutowsky, Glenn Presnell and "Ox" Emerson, the early Lions established pro football in Detroit.

In 1940, Chicagoan Fred Mandel bought the club. Lions' stars of that era included Hall of Famers Bill Dudley and Alex Wojciechowicz, John Green, Byron "Whizzer" White, Frank Sinkwich and "Camp" Wilson. The team was sold eight years later to a group of local businessmen under the leadership of Edwin J. Anderson. The Detroit syndicate controlled the club until 1964, when William Clay Ford became the sole owner for a price of $4.5 million.

The Lions dominated the NFL in the 1950s with four division titles and three league championships. Under the direction of head coach Buddy Parker, the team won back-to-back world crowns in 1952-53, defeating Cleveland on both occasions. Stars of those powerful teams were Hall of Famers Bobby Layne, Jack Christiansen, Doak Walker and Lou Creekmur, as well as Les Bingaman, Cloyce Box, Leon Hart and Bob Hoernschemeyer. The Detroit-Cleveland battles of the era were classic confrontations between two giants of the blossoming NFL.

Since their last title in 1957 under the coaching of George Wilson, the Lions have continued searching for the league's top spot. Such performers as Joe Schmidt, Vale Lary, Dick "Night Train" Lane, John Henry Johnson and Lem Barney have been elected to the Hall of Fame. Outstanding players such as Wayne Walker, Mike Lucci, Nick Pietrosante, Roger Brown, Terry Barr, Mel Farr, Charlie Sanders, Dexter Bussey, Billy Sims and Doug English have also taken their places in the annals of pro football in Detroit.

In 1967, Schmidt began the first of six seasons as head coach of the Lions. His 1970 team made the playoffs, (first postseason trip since '57) but lost in the first round to Dallas by the baseball-like score of 5-0.

Prior to the 1975 season, the Lions moved into a new, domed stadium in Pontiac, Mich., a suburb located 30 miles north of Detroit. The Silverdome was, at one time, the world's largest air-supported domed structure and seated over 80,000 spectators under a fiberglass roof.

William Clay Ford speaks after formally assuming control of the Lions in January of 1964.

The Lions played at the Silverdome from 1975-2001. The venue also hosted many notable teams and events, briefly serving as home of the Detroit Pistons (1978-88) and becoming the first enclosed stadium to host a World Cup game in 1994.

Monte Clark took control of all football operations as head coach in 1978. Under Clark's direction, the Lions narrowly missed playoff berths in 1980-81, before qualifying in 1982 – the Lions' first playoff appearance since 1970. Detroit captured the NFC Central Division crown in 1983, but stumbled in the first round of the playoffs with a 24-23 loss at San Francisco.

Darryl Rogers took over for Clark in 1985 but was replaced on an interim basis by his defensive coordinator Wayne Fontes in November 1988 after Rogers' teams had posted a combined 18-40 record. Fontes was officially named the franchise's 18th head coach on December 22, 1988.

The Lions "Restored the Roar" in 1991, winning a franchise-record 12 regular season games. Riding a tide of emotion after guard Mike Utley's paralyzing neck injury, Detroit defeated Dallas, 38-6, in the Lions' first Silverdome playoff contest. The victory gave the Lions a berth in the NFC Championship Game, where Detroit fell to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins.

Wayne Fontes served as the Lions' full-time head coach from 1989-96 after a five-game stint as interim head coach in 1988. He led Detroit to a franchise-record 12 wins in 1991 and four winning seasons overall.

The Lions finished 10-6 in 1993 en route to capturing the NFC Central Division title, and earned a Wild Card playoff bid in 1994. The 1995 Lions featured the NFL's top-rated offense and won their final seven games to earn a third straight playoff berth. Herman Moore set an NFL record with 123 catches, and he and Brett Perriman became the first teammates to each total over 100 catches in the same season. The receiver tandem also set the NFL record for most receiving yards in a season. Quarterback Scott Mitchell set team passing records for yards (4,338), completions (346) and touchdowns (32).

In 1996, running back Barry Sanders captured his third NFL rushing title with a dramatic 175-yard outburst on the final Monday night of the season in San Francisco. The Lions, however, finished a disappointing 5-11 in '96 and following the season, Fontes was replaced as head coach by former San Diego Chargers' head coach, Bobby Ross. Fontes, who was the head coach for more than eight full seasons, finished his career as the team's all-time leader among head coaches in both wins (67) and games coached (138).

Ross was named the 19th head coach in team history January 13, 1997, and led the club back to the playoffs in his inaugural year at the helm with a 9-7 record. That season, Sanders, who was inducted into the Hall of Fame in August 2004, continued his storybook career by becoming only the third player in league history to record 2,000 yards rushing in a single-season (2,053) and he reeled off an NFL record 14 consecutive 100-yard outings to finish the season.

Barry Sanders remains the only player in NFL history to record at least 1,100 rushing yards in each of the first 10 seasons of a player's career.

The Lions closed out the 1990s reaching the playoffs for the sixth time in the 10-year span, which is a franchise record for playoff appearances during a decade. Detroit's playoff berth in 1999 marked the second time in Ross' first three years as head coach that he led the Lions into the postseason. The last Lions' head coach to accomplish that feat was Buddy Parker in 1952-53 during his second and third seasons at the helm.

After playing nine games into the 2000 season and compiling a 5-4 record, Ross resigned as head coach on November 6 and was immediately replaced by Gary Moeller. Moeller guided the team to a 4-3 record over the last seven games, but narrowly missed the playoffs with a loss to the Chicago Bears in the season finale. Following the season, William Clay Ford named Matt Millen president and CEO, and he assumed control over team operations. On Jan. 25, 2001 Gary Moeller was replaced as head coach by former San Francisco 49ers offensive coordinator Marty Mornhinweg.

On April 1, 2002, Detroit relocated the team's day-to-day operations into the new $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility in Allen Park. The new complex featured outdoor and indoor practice fields, spacious training and meeting rooms and even the team's own broadcast studio.

A new era in Lions' history dawned as Ford Field, the team's $500 million downtown Detroit stadium, opened its doors in August 2002. The 65,000-seat stadium sparkled as its retro and innovative features glistened in the national spotlight as the premiere sports and entertainment complex. The Lions played the first game at Ford Field Aug. 24, 2002 in a preseason tilt against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The inaugural regular season game was played between the Lions and the Green Bay Packers on Sept. 22, 2002.

The Lions returned to the City of Detroit in 2002 for the first time since playing home games at Tiger Stadium in 1974. Ford Field hosted Super Bowl XL following the 2005 season.

In January 2003, Mornhinweg was fired after two seasons and former San Francisco 49ers Head Coach Steve Mariucci was tabbed the new Lions' head coach February 4.

For the first time since the Lions placed the Leaping Lion logo on the players' helmets in 1961, Detroit announced a major addition to the team's uniform on April 23, 2003. The Lions' classic uniform was enhanced with black trim on the logo, jerseys and pants, along with black shoes and black facemasks. In April 2005, the team introduced an alternate black jersey that would be worn through 2007.

On Nov. 28, 2005, Steve Mariucci was relieved of his duties as head coach and Defensive Coordinator Dick Jauron was named interim head coach for the remaining five games.

In 2006, the Lions hired Rod Marinelli as the team's 24th head coach, a position he would hold through 2008.

In 2007, the Lions selected WR Calvin Johnson out of Georgia Tech with the second overall pick of the Draft. He embarked on an accomplished career which saw him join RB Barry Sanders as the only players in franchise history to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in their first year on the ballot in 2021.

Calvin Johnson retired from the NFL following the 2015 NFL season. He left the Lions as the record-holder in every major receiving category.

In 2008, the Lions commemorated the franchise's 75th season in Detroit. Just a handful of NFL teams have been around as long as the Lions, a franchise that spans several generations of fans over the years. Detroit has called three different stadiums home with nearly 1,400 players seeing action on a given gameday and numerous coaches strolling the sideline. That history is rich with great players who have donned the uniform – the Lions are one of only nine teams to have at least 18 Pro Football Hall of Fame players don their respective uniforms – and with traditions like the "Honolulu Blue and Silver," the leaping Lion logo, the "Roaring 20's" and the team's annual Thanksgiving Tradition.

In 2009, for the first time in franchise history, the team entered the season with a new president, Tom Lewand, a new general manager, Martin Mayhew, and a new head coach, Jim Schwartz, hired Jan. 16, 2009. In that same year, the Lions introduced a new logo and new brand, along with new team uniforms that featured the first significant change to the Lions logo since it was introduced in 1961.

Schwartz labeled the 2011 season upon its conclusion as not a great year, but an important one. Perhaps most notably, 2011 will be remembered for the “comeback” as the Lions returned to the playoffs for the first time since 1999 and set NFL records with four comeback wins of 13+ points, three comeback wins of 17+ points and two back-to-back 20+ point comeback wins. The Lions set several team records, including points (474) and yards (6,337), as well as individual records. Perhaps the two biggest stars leading the Lions in 2011 were QB Matthew Stafford, named AP Comeback Player of the Year, and All-Pro WR Calvin Johnson.

In 2012, the season was highlighted by Johnson’s remarkable performance as he broke the NFL record for receiving yards in a single season. He finished with 122 receptions for 1,964 yards, breaking Jerry Rice’s previous record of 1,848 yards in 1995. One season later in 2013, Stafford became the Lions all-time leader in career passing yards, breaking the previous record of 15,710 yards held by Hall of Fame QB Bobby Layne that stood for 55 years. Stafford reached this feat in only 55 career games, while Layne accomplished his mark in 97 games. He became the first Lions QB to reach 17,000 career passing yards.

Matthew Stafford is the Lions’ leader in every major passing category and set numerous NFL records with his passing production.

After five seasons with the team (2009-13), Schwartz was dismissed as head coach on Dec. 30, 2013.

A new era for Lions football began Jan. 14, 2014 with the introduction of Jim Caldwell as the team’s new head coach. Caldwell arrived in Detroit after leading the Indianapolis Colts to the Super Bowl as a head coach and won Super Bowls with both the Colts and the Baltimore Ravens.

On March 9, 2014, Lions Owner and Chairman William Clay Ford passed away at the age of 88. Mr. Ford purchased the team on Jan. 10, 1964 and owned the team for 50 years. With his passing, ownership of the Lions organization was passed to his wife, Martha Firestone Ford, as she succeeded her late husband as Owner and Chairman of the Board for the franchise.

Caldwell led the Lions to an 11-5 record the ensuing season and a berth in the NFC Wild Card game, becoming just the third coach in team history to lead the Lions to the playoffs in his first year with Detroit. He also became one of only four coaches to lead the Lions to 11+ wins in a season.

Martin Mayhew and Tom Lewand were relieved of their duties on Nov. 5, 2015. Rod Wood was hired as team president on Nov. 19, 2015, as the Lions went on to finish the season 7-9, winning six of the team’s final eight games of the 2015 season.

On Jan. 8, 2016, Bob Quinn was named Lions Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager following 16 seasons with the New England Patriots. In Quinn’s first season at the helm, the Lions posted a 9-7 record en route to a berth in the playoffs for the second time in three years. In doing so, Quinn also became the Lions’ first general manager to guide the team to the playoffs in his inaugural season since Nick Kerbawy in 1952.

Jim Caldwell was relieved of his duties following the final game of the 2017 season as the Lions finished 9-7 for a consecutive year. Matt Patricia was named the new head coach of the Detroit Lions on Feb. 5, 2018, bringing more than 20 years of coaching experience in the college and professional ranks, including 14 consecutive seasons (2004-17) with the New England Patriots.

On June 23, 2020, Sheila Hamp assumed the role of Principal Owner and Chairman after her mother, Martha Firestone Ford, transitioned to Chairman Emeritus after six seasons as the team’s principal owner.

On Nov. 28, 2020, the Lions relieved Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager Bob Quinn and Head Coach Matt Patricia of their duties.

On Jan. 14, 2021, the Lions named Brad Holmes the team’s new Executive Vice President and General Manager. Holmes spent the previous 18 seasons with the Los Angeles Rams, ultimately ascending to the team’s director of college scouting.

The Lions named Dan Campbell as the team’s new head coach on Jan. 20, 2021. Campbell played 11 seasons as an NFL tight end and spent 11 seasons as an assistant NFL coach before assuming the role of head coach. He became the fifth former Lions player to be named a full-time head coach for the club.

On March 17, 2021, the Lions traded QB Matthew Stafford to the Los Angeles Rams in exchange for QB Jared Goff and three future draft picks. This marked the first time in NFL history that two former No. 1 overall picks have been involved in a trade together.

On Jan. 8, 2023, the Lions defeated the Packers, 20-16, on Sunday Night Football to conclude the 2022 season with a 9-8 record. This was the third time in NFL history that a team started a season 1-6 and finished the year with a winning record. It marked the first winning season for Detroit since going 9-7 in 2017.

The 2023 season was a historic year for the Lions, with the team reaching several new heights. Detroit finished with a 12-5 record, tying the franchise record for the most wins in a season, en route to winning their first division title in 30 years. By winning their first-ever NFC North title, the Lions hosted the Rams in the Wild Card Round in the first-ever playoff game at Ford Field. After defeating the Rams, the Lions beat the Buccaneers in the Divisional Round at Ford Field before falling to the San Francisco 49ers on the road in the NFC Championship Game. The Lions also set a franchise record by winning 21 games over the 2022-23 seasons, their most victories in any two-season span.

Jared Goff led Detroit to their first playoff win since Jan. 5, 1992 when the Lions beat the Rams, 21-20, in the first-ever playoff game at Ford Field on Jan. 14, 2024. He is only the third quarterback in franchise history to win multiple postseason games.

HISTORICAL TRADE OF NO. 1'S

On March 17, 2021, the Detroit Lions traded QB Matthew Stafford to the Los Angeles Rams in exchange for QB Jared Goff, a 2021 third-round draft pick, a 2022 first-round draft pick and a 2023 first-round draft pick.

This marked the first time in NFL history that former No. 1 overall picks were dealt in the same package for one another. Stafford went first overall to Detroit in 2009 out of Georgia and Goff went first overall to Los Angeles in 2016 out of California.

Stafford left the Lions as the team's all-time leader in all major passing categories, made one Pro Bowl and was voted the AP Comeback Player of the Year in 2011.

Goff left the Rams as a two-time Pro Bowl quarterback who guided L.A. to three playoff berths and an appearance in Super Bowl LIII.

Stafford's return to Ford Field came in the Wild Card Round of the playoffs following the 2023 season, coincidentally the first playoff game the stadium has ever hosted. Goff and the Lions came out victorious over the Rams, 21-20, in the second matchup between the teams since the trade.

The two teams will kick off the 2024 season with a Week 1, Sunday Night Football showdown in the third game of the series since the trade.

1,000-YARD RUSHERS

NAMING THE LIONS

When the team moved to Detroit from Portsmouth, Ohio in 1934, the organization settled on the name that would be uttered in Detroit and all around the League to this very day. After deciding to be known as the Lions, (staying consistent with the jungle cat image of the city's baseball team, the Tigers) two lion cubs were given to the team by John Millen of the Detroit Zoo. Their names were "Grid" and "Iron." They accompanied the team to all of their games.

➤ The previous Detroit professional football teams were known as the Heralds, Panthers and the Wolverines.

HOMES OF THE DETROIT LIONS

In 2002, the Lions moved into their current home, Ford Field, in downtown Detroit. It marked the team's return to the city for the first time since 1974.

GRIDIRON HEROES

As the new pro football franchise took root in Detroit, owner G.A. Richards called for an original fight song to be written for the Lions. In the late 1930s, Wayne State University director of bands Graham T. Overgard, who was also the Lions' director of entertainment, penned the lyrics and music for "Gridiron Heroes – The Victory Song of the Detroit Lions."

The song has become one of the NFL's oldest and most popular, and it is still played after each Lions' score.

[Verse]

Hail the colors Blue and Silver let them wave.
Sing the song and cheer the Gridiron Heroes brave,
Fighting for fame, winning the game.
Dashing to victory as they go.

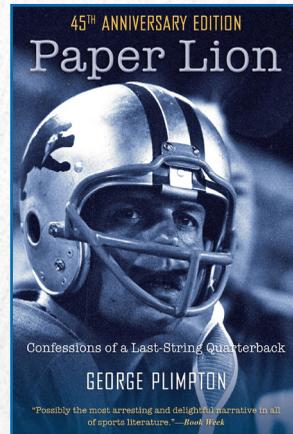

[Chorus]

Forward down the field,
A charging team that will not yield.
And when the Blue and Silver wave,
Stand and cheer the brave.
Rah, Rah, Rah!
Go hard win the game.
With honor you will keep your fame
Down the field and gain,
A Lion victory!

PAPER LION

Filming of the George Plimpton book, "Paper Lion," began in early 1968. Alan Alda starred as Plimpton, the Sports Illustrated feature writer who masqueraded as a quarterback with the Lions during training camp. The world premiere was held Thursday, Oct. 3, 1968, at the Adams Theatre. The film introduced Lauren Hutton to the silver screen, and featured actual members of the Detroit Lions, including coach Joe Schmidt, Alex Karras, John Gordy, Mike Lucci, Pat Studstill and Roger Brown.

- The 2003 season marked the 40th anniversary of George Plimpton's visit to Lions' training camp when he began writing the original script for his book. 2017 was also the 35th anniversary of the "Paper Lion" movie release.
- The Detroit Lions reunited most of the cast in 2003 with a "Paper Lion" reunion that was held in September. Forty players, including Plimpton and Karras, rekindled friendships that formed during their experience together in the 1960s.
- The reunion turned out to be the final chapter of Plimpton's life as he passed away days later (September 26, 2003) at the age of 76.

IN MEMORIAM

Several members of the Detroit Lions served in World War II and made the ultimate sacrifice for their country in the fight against fascism.

- Lt. Charles Behan was killed by Japanese machine gun fire on Okinawa, May 18, 1945.
- Sgt. Alex Ketzko was killed in France with Patch's Seventh Army, Dec. 23, 1944.
- Lt. Chet Wetterlund was killed flying a Navy Hellcat on night patrol along the New Jersey coast, Sept. 5, 1944.

DECADE OF DOMINANCE

Only a handful of great teams over the years in the NFL can claim the title of dynasty. One of those great teams was the Detroit Lions in the 1950s when the franchise captured world championships three times in a six-year span. Winning three championships in six years has occurred only 10 times by eight different teams in the history of the NFL.

- Detroit won back-to-back titles in 1952 and 1953 and became the third team since the beginning of NFL Championship games in 1933 to win championships in consecutive years.
- Overall since 1933, back-to-back titles have occurred just 15 times. Including 1954, the Lions appeared in the NFL title game four times in a six-year period.

DEEPLY ROOTED IN TEXAS

The Detroit Lions have a deep history of outstanding players who have Texas roots. Five players on the Lions' All-Time Team played college football in the Lone Star State, including: QB Bobby Layne (Texas), S Yale Lary (Texas A&M), RB Doak Walker (Southern Methodist), G Harley Sewell (Texas) and DT Doug English (Texas). Layne, Lary and Walker are all members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

- Joining those stars on the franchise's All-Time Team are Texas prepsters CB Dick "Night Train" Lane (Austin), who is also a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, and RB Billy Sims (Hooks).

➤ Layne, Lane, Lary and Walker are all members of the Pride of the Lions charter class.

Texas roots go back even deeper with Layne and Walker who grew up only a few blocks apart in Dallas, Texas, and were childhood friends. Both players started in the backfield at Highland Park High School in 1943. After stints in the military during World War II, Layne went to Texas University while Walker played for rival Southern Methodist University. The two were reunited when they joined the Lions in 1950.

- That connection was revisited when the Lions drafted QB Matthew Stafford with the first overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft. Stafford also is from Highland Park, Texas and went to the same high school as Layne and Walker.

THE ORIGINAL DETROIT LIONS OFFICES

Where were the first offices of the Detroit Lions located? Shortly after the club's move from Portsmouth, Ohio, Lions owner G.A. Richards, who also owned radio station WJR, set up Head Coach George "Potsy" Clark with a temporary office in room 2107 of the Fisher Building, in downtown Detroit.

- Since 2002, the Lions have operated out of the team's headquarters in Allen Park, with portions of the organization's business operations housed in the old Hudson's warehouse portion of Ford Field.

LIONS TRAINING CAMP LOCATIONS

Since their first training camp in 1934, the Lions have trained at 10 different sites during the preseason.

LONGEST TENURED COACHES

Lions Defensive Assistant Don Clemons retired in February 2012 after serving 27 seasons on the Lions coaching staff, the most by any coach in franchise history. Clemons has served at least 10 years more than any coach who has ever worked for the Lions.

It was, legend says, a typically colorful, probably chilly, November day in 1622 that Pilgrims and Native Americans celebrated the new world's bounty with a sumptuous feast.

They sat together at Plymouth Plantation (they spelled it Plimouth) in Massachusetts, gave thanks for the goodness set before them, then dined on pumpkin pie, sweet potatoes, maize, cranberry sauce, turkey and who knows what else.

Actually, fish was just as predominant a staple. And history books say pumpkin pie really debuted a year later. But regardless of the accuracy of the details, that's how Thanksgiving Day is seen by Americans – except Detroiters.

They may have most of the same images as everyone else, but with a new twist that began in 1934.

That's when Detroiters and their outstate Michigan compatriots found themselves at the dawn of an unplanned behavior modification, courtesy of George A. "Dick" Richards, owner of the city's new entry in the National Football League: The Detroit Lions. - Larry Paladino, Lions Pride, 1993

Four generations of Detroiters have been a proud part of the American celebration of Thanksgiving. The relationship between Detroit and Thanksgiving dates back to 1934 when owner G.A. Richards scheduled a holiday contest between his first-year Lions and the Chicago Bears. Some 80 years later, fans throughout the State of Michigan have transformed an annual holiday event into the single greatest tradition in the history of American professional team sports. Indeed, if football is America's passion, Thanksgiving football is Detroit's passion.

The game was the brainchild of Richards, the first owner of the Detroit Lions. Richards had purchased the team in 1934 and moved the club from Portsmouth, Ohio to the Motor City. The Lions were the new kids in town and had taken a backseat to the baseball Tigers. Despite the fact the Lions had lost only one game prior to Thanksgiving in 1934, the season's largest crowd had been just 15,000.

The opponent in 1934 was the undefeated, defending World Champion Chicago Bears. The game would determine the champion of the Western Division. Richards had convinced the NBC Radio Network to carry the game coast-to-coast (94 stations) and additionally, an estimated 26,000 fans jammed into the University of Detroit Stadium while thousands more disappointed fans were turned away.

The game was the NFL's first on a national broadcast.

In 2009, the Lions Thanksgiving Day game against Green Bay marked the NFL's 75th anniversary of the first NFL national game broadcast. Graham McNamee was the announcer for NBC Radio for that historic game in 1934.

Despite two Ace Gutowsky touchdowns, the Bears won the inaugural game 19-16, but a classic was born. Since 1934, 84 games have been played with the Lions holding a 37-45-2 record in the series. And each game, in its own way, continues to bring back memories of Thanksgiving, not only to Lions fans, but to football fans across the nation.

THANKSGIVING DAY FACTS

- The series began Nov. 29, 1934 when Detroit played host to the Chicago Bears. In the first Thanksgiving Day game, the Lions were defeated by the Bears 19-16.
- A total of 84 games have been played with the Lions owning a 37-45-2 record in the annual holiday classic.
- More than 4 million fans have witnessed the Lions' 83 Thanksgiving Day games. The total attendance for the first 84 games is 4,758,521 an average of 56,649 fans per game. For the first time in team history, there were no fans in attendance for the team's 2020 Thanksgiving game, due to COVID-19 restrictions.
- Detroit had won on Thanksgiving Day from 2013-16, marking the team's longest streak in the holiday classic since winning four-straight from 1997-2000.
- The Lions have played 24 different teams since the first Thanksgiving Day game. The most common opponent has been the Green Bay Packers, who the Lions played in 2023 for the 22nd time in the Thanksgiving series. Their second most common opponent is the Chicago Bears (18 times).
- The two highest scoring games were a 44-40 Packers' win in 1986 and a 52-35 romp over Green Bay in 1951.
- The lowest scoring game was a 12-0 Philadelphia win in the 1968 "Mud Bowl."
- Fourteen times in the series has a game been decided by three points or less, with the Lions' record standing at 5-7-2 in those meetings.
- The most lopsided game was a 45-3 Lions win over Pittsburgh in 1983.
- Seven shutouts have been recorded, but only one by the Lions (20-0 over the Bears in 1979).
- Three Thanksgiving Day games have gone into overtime. The first came in 1980 when the Bears' David Williams returned the opening kickoff of OT for a 95-yard touchdown. At the time, the game marked the shortest overtime game in NFL history (21 seconds). The second overtime game occurred in 1998 when the Lions defeated the Steelers 19-16 on a 42-yard Jason Hanson field goal in a game that will be remembered for the controversial coin toss before overtime began. The third occurred against the Houston Texans in 2012 in a game categorized by back-and-forth possessions and two missed field goals from each side, with Houston K Shayne Graham pulling out a 32-yarder for the win.

Note: Prior to 1972, a team's winning pct. was calculated using wins and losses, disregarding ties. (Ex: Detroit's record in the 1960s was 2-6-2 and their winning pct. was .250, two wins/two ties + six losses). Since 1972, ties have been calculated in winning pct. as half-a-win.

*MR: Several players, most recent 1934-1947: The first uniform donned by the Detroit Lions included a blue jersey with gleaming silver numerals, silver pants and a silver helmet. The shoes were black. The shade of blue used for the jersey became known as 'Honolulu' blue.

1948: Alvin 'Bo' McMillin joined the Lions after having success as a college coach at Indiana University. Soon after his arrival, McMillin changed the colors of the Lions' uniforms with the new colors resembling those of his Hoosier teams. The organization retained Honolulu blue and silver as their official colors.

- The jersey was scarlet with white numbers and the pants were white with a thin black stripe between two thin scarlet stripes. The helmets were black. All the players wore leather helmets that season due to the league's ban on plastic helmets.
- The team had a second, all-black uniform, which would be worn only for certain important games that McMillin particularly wished to win. The jersey was black with white numbers and the pants were black with a thin scarlet stripe between two thin white stripes.
- The two uniform sets ended up being worn in four different combinations (scarlet/white; black/black; scarlet/black; black/white).

1949: The Lions returned to wearing their Honolulu blue and silver uniforms at home but continued to wear combinations of the scarlet and white uniforms and the all-black uniforms on the road. The team changed the color of their helmet to blue and some players went back to wearing plastic helmets after the NFL lifted the ban on plastic headgear from the previous season.

1950-55: After wearing five different combinations of scarlet, white, black, silver and Honolulu blue in the previous two seasons, the Lions went back to wearing the traditional Honolulu blue and silver uniforms at home and on the road. For most of the 1950 season, the team wore blue helmets but went back to wearing silver helmets for the 1951 season. During the early 50's, the NFL did not allow the Lions to wear silver helmets for night games because of their resemblance to the white ball under the night lights. They spray-painted their helmets blue for night games. Also, in 1951, the Lions wore the Detroit 250th Anniversary patch on their left sleeve. The patch was also worn by the Red Wings and Tigers.

1956: This was the first season that the Lions added their uniform numbers to the arm sleeves. Some players, like Lions Hall of Fame LT Lou Creekmur, were unhappy with the change - claiming that it made it harder to get away with holding.

1957-60: The Lions began wearing separate colored uniforms on the road on a permanent basis in 1957. The jersey was white with three blue stripes, one thick between two thin stripes, on the sleeves. The numbers were blue and the helmet and pants remained silver.

- They wore a white jersey on at least one other occasion in a previous season. On Oct. 24, 1954, the Lions wore a similar white uniform in a game at San Francisco which they lost, 37-31, to the 49ers.

1961-67: In 1961, William Clay Ford's first season as the team's president, there were some significant uniform changes. The helmet remained silver with a grey facemask but now had the leaping-lion logo as well as two vertical blue stripes running from the back to the front. The pants also had two vertical blue stripes. Three silver stripes, one thick between two thin, were added to the arm sleeves of the home jersey. The away jersey remained the same.

- During the mid-60s, many players cut off part of the sleeves-giving appearance of only one or two stripes.

1968-69: 1968 was the first year the Lions had a white stripe between the two blue stripes on the helmet. The Lions and the rest of the league wore the NFL 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder in 1969.

1970-71: Last names were added to the back of the players' jerseys in silver lettering and white trim was added to the Leaping Lion logo on the helmet in 1970.

- For the second half of the 1971 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve on their home and away jerseys, in honor of wide receiver Chuck Hughes. Hughes died of a heart attack with 62 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter against the Chicago Bears on Oct. 24, 1971.

1972: The Honolulu blue home jersey had white trim on the silver numerals and the white jerseys had silver trim on blue numerals for the first time in 1972. It was also the first year that there was a white, vertical stripe between the two blue stripes on the pants.

- The Lions tweaked the striping on the arm-sleeves for that season as well. The home jerseys had the one thick silver stripe between two thin white stripes and the away jersey had the one thick blue stripe between two thin silver stripes.

1973-75: Detroit changed back to the three silver stripes - one thick between two thin - on the sleeves of the Honolulu blue home jersey, except now they had white trim. The away white jersey had three blue stripes, one thick between two thin, and they had silver trim.

- For the 1974 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve of their home and away jerseys, in honor of Head Coach Don McCafferty who died of a heart attack during training camp.
- 1974 was also the season that the Lions started wearing white shoes.

1976-79: In 1976, the players' numbers were added to the back of the helmet.

1980-81: The Lions changed the dull silver stripes and trimming on their uniforms to a shimmering silver glitter. This only lasted two seasons because of complaints by other teams about the glare.

1982-97:

- 1982: The Lions changed the color of the numbers on their home jerseys, making them white with silver trim.
- 1983: The Lions wore a 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder. The Lions changed their facemask from silver/grey to Honolulu blue.

- 1991: The team wore a patch honoring Russ Thomas, a former player and General Manager for the Lions, who had recently passed away. For their final seven games (five regular season, two postseason), each player had a white circle decal with a blue number '60,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of RG Mike Utley. Utley suffered a spinal cord injury in a game against the Los Angeles Rams on Nov. 17, 1991. The small NFL shield was added to the 'V' of the neck.

- 1992: They wore a black circle decal with a white number '65,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of LG Eric Andolsek, who was killed a few months prior to the season.

- 1993: The Lions wore a 60th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder.

- 1994: The Lions wore throwback jerseys for the 1994 season while the NFL was celebrating their 75th anniversary. This version of the uniform was intended to replicate the jersey worn by the Lions in 1935, which was the season that the team won their first world championship. Several players wore a black circle decal with a white number '50,' on the back right side of the helmet in honor of former Lions' LB Toby Caston.

1999: The Lions returned to wearing silver pants (with white stripe between two blue stripes) on the road.

2000-02: In 2000, the Lions moved the numbers that were on the sleeves up to the shoulders.

- The Lions wore a patch commemorating the first game at Ford Field September 22, 2002 against the Green Bay Packers.

2003: The home jersey has a thick silver stripe between two thin blue stripes with white trim and two thin black stripes. The numbers are white with silver trim and outside black trim. The away jersey has a thick blue stripe between two thin silver stripes with white trim and two thin black stripes. The numbers on the away jersey are blue with silver trim and outside black trim.

- The helmet has one vertical white stripe between two blue stripes and two thin black stripes on the outside. The Leaping Lion has white trim and outside black trim and the facemask is black.
- The pants have one vertical thick white stripe between two blue stripes and two thin black stripes.

2005: The Lions introduced a new black alternate jersey featuring Honolulu Blue numbers with silver and white trim. The alternate jersey can be worn in as many as two regular season games and one preseason game.

2008: To commemorate the Detroit Lions 75th Season, the team wore a patch on the home and away jerseys. Additionally, the Lions wore the franchise's classic "throwback" uniform sans 75th Season patch for two games.

2009-13: On April 20, 2009, the Detroit Lions unveiled a new comprehensive brand that included a new logo and new uniforms. As part of the new comprehensive brand, the Lions also introduced a new logotype and a new proprietary font, "NFL Lions." Later in 2012, the NFL launched its new partnership with Nike in April of that year. The Lions uniform featured the Nike logo but also the new Nike Elite 51 technology. The collar changed from black and silver piping to a solid blue.

Designed and engineered from the inside out, the Nike Elite 51 uniform focused on creating a system where the baselayer, padding, jersey and pant work in concert. New innovations included integrating Nike Flywire Technology into the neckline to reduce weight and provide lockdown fit over pads, increasing sleeve articulation for better range of motion, and integrating new four-way stretch fabrication to provide a streamlined shrink-wrap fit.

2014: Detroit Lions players wore a uniform patch from 2014-16 honoring late team owner William Clay Ford. Mr. Ford, who passed away March 9, 2014, purchased the Lions in Nov. 1963 and officially became sole owner of the team Jan. 10, 1964. The Lions introduced the patch beginning with the regular season opener (September 8) on Monday Night Football at Ford Field when Detroit defeated the New York Giants, 35-14.

2017 NIKE RE-BRAND

Feb. 1, 2017: The Lions once again updated the team's logo and typeface as part of a rebranding initiative that also included four new uniform options. The updated logo and typeface included the removal of black from the brand identity, emphasizing the team's class color combination of Honolulu blue and silver that has been synonymous with the Detroit Lions since 1934.

HOME HONOLULU BLUE JERSEYS

The Lions home jerseys remained Honolulu Blue, a color first established in 1934.

- The numerals were developed and customized specifically for the Lions uniform based on the team's logotype. They were silver, trimmed in anthracite - officially 'dark steel grey.'
- The sleeves featured a silk-screened wide horizontal silver stripe, inside two smaller silver stripes. The wide stripe was stenciled with 'LIONS' on the right sleeve and 'WCF' was featured in front of blue and silver vertical bars on the left sleeve in honor of the team's previous owner, William Clay Ford, Sr.

ROAD WHITE JERSEYS

The road jerseys were the traditional "road whites," with blue numerals trimmed in dark steel grey. Sleeves were similar in style to the home uniforms except the striping was Honolulu blue.

- The right sleeve featured 'LIONS' screen-printed in white and the left sleeve featured the initials WCF.

COLOR RUSH JERSEY

The color rush jerseys were dark steel grey (anthracite) colored with white numerals trimmed in Honolulu Blue.

- Sleeves were similar in style to the away uniforms with the Honolulu Blue striping.
- This marked the first grey uniform in franchise history.

UNIFORM VARIATION

The Lions deviated from their primary home and away looks during their previous uniform iteration (2017-23), often mixing and matching jerseys and pants to create a monotone combination.

The first time Detroit wore a blue-on-blue combo (blue uniform with blue pants) was vs. Pittsburgh on Oct. 29, 2017.

The Lions introduced white pants for the first time at Green Bay on Sept. 20, 2021, donning their first white-on-white combo (white uniform with white pants).

DETROIT'S RECORD WITH A MONOTONE COMBO (2017-23)

All-Blue: 9-5 (7-5 regular season; 2-0 postseason)

All-White: 6-4-1 (6-3-1 regular season, 0-1 postseason)

All-Grey Color Rush: 6-6

In 2023, including the postseason, Detroit went 13-2 when wearing a monotone combination.

UNIFORM FACTOIDS

During the uniform iteration spanning from 2017-23, the Lions added some unique wrinkles into their jersey history.

On Oct. 14, 2019, the Lions wore blue uniforms at Lambeau Field for the first time in a Monday Night Football matchup. The last time Detroit wore blue in Green Bay was on Sept. 30, 1956 at City Stadium.

On Nov. 17, 2019 vs. Dallas, the Lions wore white uniforms in a home game for the first time since doing so vs. Oakland on Nov. 26, 1970. This marked only the third time in team history the team has donned a white uniform at home.

In 2023, the Lions accompanied their all-grey color rush uniforms with a blue alternate helmet, going 2-0 with that combination. This was the first time the Lions wore a blue helmet since the 1950s.

A MODERN CLASSIC

- On April 18, 2024, the Lions unveiled new uniforms during a Lions Loyal Member exclusive event at Ford Field. The Lions leadership team set out to reestablish Honolulu Blue by working with Nike to adopt a richer tone of the unique color that harkens back to an earlier era. True silver has also made its way back into the uniform, featured in various outlines and stripe elements, as well as in the team's traditional pant. Outside of the conventional colors, the team also brought black back into their uniforms, with a black jersey featuring Honolulu Blue lettering encased in a silver outline and an all-black alternate pant option.
- Inspired in part by Ford's reimagination of the Bronco, the SUV served as a muse for the team in taking a classic look and creating a sharper interpretation for the modern era. The Lions and Nike Design teamed up on their new primary jersey to create a fresh take of the uniforms worn by the early 90s teams. The striping across various pieces of the uniform were also inspired by the sleek design commonly seen on the iconic Mustang. Rooted in Detroit, the uniforms draw the connection between the team and the hardworking, passionate community the Lions represent.

NEW HELMETS

- Primary (Blue & white jersey): The team will continue to wear their classic silver helmet with the leaping Lion in redefined Honolulu Blue and trimmed in white on the side of the helmet. The updated look will feature a blue and white stripe that ties to the jersey sleeves. A blue facemask has been introduced as an additional reference to early 90s teams. The helmet also features a permanent helmet sticker that pays homage to William Clay Ford, showing the classic WCF mark featuring a pair of iconic Ford stripes on the back left of the helmet.

- Alternate (Black jersey): The team's alternate helmet, which was introduced leading into the 2023 season, now features a black leaping Lion trimmed in silver on the matte blue shell. The leaping Lion is complimented by a black and silver stripe that runs the length of the helmet, as well as a black facemask.

- Classic: The Lions will continue to embrace their classic look in an all-silver helmet paired with their classic jersey. The team will have the option of matching the helmet with a silver facemask or providing some contrast with their new blue facemask.

NEW UNIFORM ELEMENTS

- PRIMARY (HOME & ROAD): Both primary uniforms feature all three of the team's classic colors. The jerseys also feature a patch under the inside back collar that pays homage to William Clay Ford, the team's longtime owner who secured the team's future in the Motor City. Inspired by Mr. Ford's classic style, the patch mimics a custom suit label and uses the WCF logo with iconic stripes above his penned signature. Both primary jerseys can be paired with either a silver pant option that features blue and white striping down the leg or three unadorned pant options - silver, blue or white.
- Home (Primary): The home jersey features a redefined Honolulu Blue with a classic white number font encased in silver borders and reimagined shoulder striping. The inside collar of the jersey is inscribed with "ONE PRIDE," acknowledging the team's passionate fans that pack Ford Field each home game.

- Alternate (Classic): The Lions' closet will continue to feature a classic uniform as a nod to the late 50s teams that dominated the early era of professional football. The redefined blue is the only change the team made to the classic uniform as they will still feature classic numbers in silver with no outline. The jersey will be paired with silver stripe-less pants and blue socks.

- Road (Primary): The road jersey presents in classic white with blue numbers encased in silver outlines and shoulder striping in blue and silver. The inside collar of the white jersey is trimmed in Honolulu Blue as a nod to not only the Lions gritty style of play but an homage to the work ethic that built Detroit into an iconic American city. The back of the collar features a "313" wordmark and for the first time in team history, the Lions will wear "DETROIT" across their chest on the road.

- Alternate (Black): The black jersey features blue classic numbers wrapped in a silver outline on a black background and striping in blue and silver on the sleeves. The "LIONS" wordmark will lay across the chest and "MOTOR CITY" is inscribed on a blue trim inside the back color. The black jersey can be paired with either an all-black pant or the team's blue pant.

FRANCHISE TAG HISTORY

The franchise tag was first introduced in 1993, when the NFL's free agency and salary cap era began. Franchises are eligible to select up to one pending unrestricted free agent with the franchise tag, which is a one-year contract that guarantees a predetermined salary for players.

The salary amount is set by averaging the top five salaries by position for the previous league year, or if it's higher, 120% of a player's salary the previous season.

Detroit has rarely used the franchise tag since its implementation.

Year	Pos.	Player	Tag Value
2018	DE	Ezekiel Ansah	$17.10 million
2011	DE	Cliff Avril	$10.6 million
2007	DT	Cory Redding	$6.78 million
2006	T	Jeff Backus	$6.98 million
2000	DE	Robert Porcher	$4.25 million
1995	T	Lomas Brown	$2.70 million
1993	T	Lomas Brown	$2.58 million

Lomas Brown received the franchise tag in two of the first three seasons of its creation. He remains the only Lion and one of the only players in NFL history to receive the tag twice from the same team.

GETTING AGGRESSIVE

From March 17, 2021 through July 1, 2024, Lions Executive Vice President and General Manager Brad Holmes has executed 21 different trades.

Of his 21 trades, six have included Detroit directly acquiring players and three have included Detroit exclusively trading away players. The other 12 trades have all been pick swaps during the four NFL Drafts Holmes has been at the helm.

Lions QB Jared Goff, acquired in the first trade executed by Holmes, signed an extension through the 2028 season on May 16, 2024.

LIONS ALL-TIME TEAM

In 2019, in commemoration with the NFL's 100th season, the Detroit Lions unveiled a 39-man roster as its All-Time Team.

Below is a breakdown of Detroit's All-Time Team:

QB: Dutch Clark, Bobby Layne, Matthew Stafford

RB: Barry Sanders, Billy Sims, Doak Walker

FB: Nick Pietrosante, Cory Schlesinger

TE: Charlie Sanders

WR: Gail Cogdill, Calvin Johnson, Herman Moore

T: Lomas Brown, Lou Creekmur

G: Gover Emerson, Harley Sewell, Dick Stanfel

C: Ed Flanagan, Kevin Glover, Alex Wojciechowicz

DE: Al "Bubba" Baker, Robert Porcher

DT: Roger Brown, Dough English, Alex Karras

LB: Mike Lucci, Joe Schmidt, Chris Spielman

CB: Lem Barney, Jimmy David, Dick "Night Train" Lane, Dick LeBeau

S: Bennie Blades, Jack Christiansen, Don Doll, Yale Lary

K: Jason Hanson

LS: Don Muhlbach

KR/PR: Mel Gray

Lions TE Charlie Sanders was the lone tight end to make Detroit's All-Time Team.

Years in parenthesis indicate season player wore uniform number (some players appear multiple times). Players listed in chronological order when jersey worn.

SPREADING AWARENESS

On March 18, 2021, the Ford Field vaccine clinic was officially announced at a press conference at the stadium. Speakers at the press conference included Lions President and CEO Rod Wood, Michigan Governor Gretchen Whitmer, Lieutenant Governor of Michigan Garlin Gilchrist II, Henry Ford Health System President and CEO Wright Lassiter III, FEMA representative Kevin Singh and more.

2021 VACCINATION CLINIC INFORMATION

Beginning on March 24, 2021 and running for 56 consecutive days (eight weeks), Ford Field administered 276,479 COVID-19 vaccine shots. The clinic was a collaborative effort between FEMA, the Department of Defense, the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services, Michigan State Police, the City of Detroit, the Detroit Lions, Ford Field and Meijer. The clinic ran through May 17.

Vaccine appointments began at 8 a.m. and concluded at 8:30 p.m. daily at a time where coronavirus cases and hospitalizations were surging in Michigan. Ford Field accommodated nearly 800 translations in 24 languages and assisted those with disabilities. On some nights during Ramadan, the stadium stayed open longer for those who were fasting. This marked the state's largest on-site inoculation effort.

Other clinic-related information includes:

- The U.S. Air Force sent workers from 26 different bases across the U.S. to administer shots to Metro Detroit residents.
- Ford Field delivered between 5,000 and 7,000 shots a day throughout its operation.
- The stadium offered two-dose options of Moderna and Pfizer along with the one-dose Johnson & Johnson shot.
- Appointments and walk-ins were both accepted as a means of receiving a shot.
- Ford Field also held blood drives simultaneously with the vaccine clinic.
- The NFL and partners donated large amounts of PPE, hand sanitizer, medical supplies and food and beverage to clinic workers.
- 99.9% of the site's vaccine allotment was administered and the leftover was reallocated to other sites.

Whitmer took her initiative a step further on April 6, receiving her first dose of the COVID-19 vaccine at Ford Field along with her daughter and several students. This coincided with the state lowering the age needed to receive a vaccine to 16. Lions Legend Lomas Brown was also at Ford Field to urge youth to receive their vaccines, with his daughter also receiving her vaccine that day.

2009 MEN'S NCAA FINAL FOUR

The 2009 Men's Basketball Final Four finalized a process that included six years of planning with the ultimate goal of delivering a Final Four like no other, and the NCAA, Ford Field and the City of Detroit did just that. The cornerstone to the championship at Ford Field was the center stadium court and seating configuration that included customized risers and, for the first time, designated student sections. On the court, the Final Four featured Michigan State defeating Connecticut, 82-73, and North Carolina defeating Villanova, 83-69 in the semifinals. In the Championship, North Carolina beat Michigan State, 89-72, to claim the NCAA title.

The weekend kicked off as the Final Four Friday drew a record crowd with nearly 30,000 in attendance. The games were expected to establish new records, and they delivered. The National Semifinals set an all-time record with 72,456 fans, and the National Championship upped that amount when it drew 72,992. Overall, 145,378 fans attended the Final Four, which also set a new record.

Although the primary focus of Final Four weekend was on the student athletes, the festivities surrounding the event livened up downtown Detroit. The ancillary events, like Hoops City, also drew record crowds over the five-day period. The NCAA and the Detroit Local Organizing Committee worked together on several community outreaches, which included a new legacy program. In the Detroit community, new early learning and literacy centers were opened. All of this was made possible by the vision of Ford Field and the NCAA to take this event to new levels. In the end, the Final Four generated an estimated $30-50 million impact on the city of Detroit.

2008 MIDWEST REGIONALS

Midwest Regionals, which included the Sweet Sixteen and Elite Eight rounds, were held March 28 and 30 in downtown Detroit for the first time, and both sessions set new preliminary rounds attendance records with 57,028 and 57,563 respectively for each session. A record of 114,591 was also established for both sessions. The excitement for the Midwest Regional was evident when 50,000 tickets were sold prior to the announcement of the 65-team tournament. Teams in the regional included Kansas (1 seed), Wisconsin (3), Davidson (10 seed) and Villanova (12 seed). Davidson upset Wisconsin, 73-56, in the first game and Kansas defeated Villanova, 72-57, in the second game. The regional title was claimed by Kansas with a win over Davidson, 59-57, in a game that came down to the final seconds. The previous attendance record for a single regional game was 42,519. That mark was set at the Michigan State vs. Kentucky game in St. Louis' Trans

QUICK LANE BOWL

In 2013, the Detroit Lions entered into a six-year partnership with the Big Ten Conference and ACC to host a bowl at Ford Field. The inaugural game was played December 26, 2014 as Rutgers defeated North Carolina, 40-21.

The Lions also entered into a multi-year agreement with Ford Motor Company's Quick Lane Tire & Auto Center designating Quick Lane as title sponsor for the annual bowl game.

The Detroit Lions are now the only NFL team to own, host and operate a college football bowl game.

SUPER BOWL XL RECAP

In 2006, Ford Field and Metro Detroit sparkled as the international sports community converged for the NFL's championship game.

"Much changed for the city of Detroit in 25 years since the Super Bowl was played there last," said former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue. "The energy of the city and the revival of downtown Detroit are evident. Detroit was a wonderful host and the hospitality exceeded expectations."

"From the media center and NFL headquarters at GM World Headquarters and the Renaissance Center, to the NFL Experience at Cobo Center, to the events at some of downtown's historic theatres, to the game at Ford Field, our fans, teams, business partners and media enjoyed their Super Bowl experience in Detroit."

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

The 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four reached new heights in 2009 as Ford Field served as the host site for one of the year's biggest sporting events. It capped off two years of setting new standards for the men's basketball championships, which included attendance records for the Final Four, National Championship and preliminary rounds.

NCAA HOCKEY

In 2010 Ford Field elevated collegiate hockey to an all-time level when it hosted the NCAA Men's 2010 Frozen Four. In an area that shows great support annually for college hockey and several Division I programs in the state of Michigan, Ford Field, which was the largest stadium ever to host the Frozen Four, proved the ideal venue to provide access to more fans of college hockey's version of the Final Four than ever before.

For both the National Semifinals and National Championship, the crowds that gathered set new NCAA records and new world records for an indoor hockey game. Overall, approximately 19,000 more fans experienced the Frozen Four weekend than ever before. The first night of the Frozen Four, the National Semifinals, commenced as Ford Field established a new attendance record of 34,954. Wisconsin defeated Rochester Institute of Technology 8-1 and Boston College upended Miami 7-1. In the National Championship game, Boston College claimed the NCAA title by shutting out Wisconsin in front of a record crowd of 37,592. In total, 72,546 fans watched the Frozen Four at Ford Field.

LOOK AT THE PAST

On Nov. 16, 1999, a new era in Detroit Lions' history began when the team officially launched the construction of its new downtown Detroit stadium. In 2002, the Lions and the city of Detroit unveiled one of the most impressive sports and entertainment venues ever built.

The Lions' downtown home is an incomparable 64,500-seat facility that includes a giant glass wall, revealing the picturesque Detroit skyline, and the old Hudson's Warehouse, originally built in 1920. The massive project encompasses a total of 1.85 million square feet of development.

The old Hudson's Warehouse, a major cornerstone of Ford Field, houses most of the stadium luxury seats, pressbox, restaurants, food courts, lounge areas, banquet facilities, entertainment venues and commercial space. The inclusion of the warehouse into the stadium project allows the sightlines at Ford Field to be among the very best in the NFL. In fact, even the locker room facilities have been built in the basement of the seven-story historic Detroit structure.

Detroit played its first home preseason game at Ford Field Saturday, Aug. 24, 2002 against the Pittsburgh Steelers. Almost one month later, the Lions celebrated the inaugural regular season game at Ford Field Sunday, Sept. 22 when they played host to their long-time divisional rival, the Green Bay Packers. The 2002 home opener marked the return of the Lions to downtown Detroit for the first time since 1974.

Following this grand opening event and the Lions' first regular season game, Ford Field's first concert was in October headlined by the rock-and-roll legends, the Rolling Stones. At Super Bowl XL, the Rolling Stones returned to headline the NFL's halftime show.

Not only has Ford Field impressed the NFL owners, but it has also made an impact on the NCAA to name the stadium the site of the 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four. Ford Field also hosted the Men's Basketball Midwest Regional Finals in 2008. In addition to the men's basketball championship, the NCAA returned in 2010 as Ford Field presented the Men's Hockey Frozen Four.

In April 2007, Ford Field expanded its portfolio when it hosted one of the biggest sports entertainment events of the year when the WWE's Wrestlemania extravaganza rolled into town. The event set a Ford Field record with 80,103 in attendance and it was the second-highest tally in the 23-year history of the event behind Wrestlemania III (93,173) held at the Pontiac Silverdome. Wrestlemania 23 at Ford Field included fans from 23 different countries, including all 50 states and nine Canadian provinces. Wrestlemania was the highest grossing one-day live event in WWE history, and holding the event at Ford Field helped pump an estimated $25 million into the local economy.

Besides events like the NCAA Final Four, Midwest Regionals and Frozen Four, Ford Field has also hosted prominent motorsports events, including the Monster Jam monster truck series and the AMA Amp'd Mobile Supercross series.

Ford Field began as a construction phenomenon on multiple fronts, and is now a crowning jewel of new stadiums in the NFL and Detroit's downtown entertainment district. The stadium's impact will continue to grow as Ford Field plays host to football games, sports and entertainment events, trade shows and concerts.

A STAR IN THE MAKING

Taylor Swift performed the National Anthem at the Lions Thanksgiving game in 2006 at just 16 years old.

While returning to Ford Field for her most recent concert in the city in 2023, she told the crowd, "The first time that I ever sang at Ford Field was in 2006 at a Lions game singing the National Anthem. I was 16-years old and it was like, the biggest place I had ever seen in my life. I was absolutely losing it. So nervous. Freaking out. And now we're back on "The Eras Tours."

Since her National Anthem performance, Swift has performed five shows over four different tours at Ford Field.
