COMMUNITY RELATIONS

SAINTS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Saints Community Relations Department is committed to supporting the charitable efforts of the club's ownership, players, coaches and staff throughout the Gulf South. This dedication to charitable causes and individuals in need was a defining trait of Tom Benson's 33-year tenure as the franchise's Owner and now that legacy carries on under the leadership of Gayle Benson. As a philanthropic force in the community, the club is committed to exercising its core beliefs and basic expectations of every member of the Saints organization, defined by its participation in initiatives that will have a positive and lasting impact in our community.

RESPONDING TO THE COMMUNITY IN TIMES OF CRISES

The relationship between the Saints and its fans is unique in the world of sports. The team has been the recipient of unqualified support from the community since its inception and welcomes the opportunity to give back - particularly in times of crisis. Donating and raising money as well as providing extensive organizational support following several devastating hurricanes, the 2010 Gulf Coast Oil Spill, widespread flooding and tornadoes that affected the region in 2016 and the COVID-19 pandemic from 2020-21, the club most recently faced the challenge of supporting the community following Hurricane Ida that battered the Gulf Coast in August, 2021. Almost immediately following the storm, Mrs. Benson made a donation of $1 million to activate the Saints Gulf Coast Renewal Fund, with over $5 million total being raised. With the assistance of the community leaders, the NFL Foundation and the Greater New Orleans Foundation, nonprofit organizations were identified to be beneficiaries that could address the immediate needs of those impacted throughout Louisiana.

Responding to immediate needs of the community is a priority of the organization. In light of the events involving Buffalo Bills safety Damar Hamlin on Monday Night Football late in the 2022 season, the Saints sprung into action in 2023 and donated over 70 automated external defibrillators (AEDs) to the New Orleans and Jefferson Parish recreation departments, also making sure staff members are trained in their use.

In addition to reacting to real-time issues such as natural disasters, the Saints also will continue its commitment to prioritize efforts that build awareness of and support for issues challenging the Gulf South by working to safeguard and promote our wetlands and energy production, as they are critical to our nation's future economic vitality.

SPECIAL ATTENTION TO YOUTH & EDUCATION

The New Orleans Saints organization believes in the future of the Gulf South, and understands our community's children are our greatest resource and hope for a stronger region. Our Community Affairs and Youth Programs Departments conduct and assist in events and initiatives focusing on the development and education of our children.

Throughout the year, Saints players, Legends, and staff visit schools and various community centers to stress the importance of education, physical fitness, nutrition, leadership development, character building and time management. The club partners with a variety of organizations including (but not limited to) Boys & Girls Clubs, Special Olympics, Boy and Girl Scouts, United Way, Louisiana Children's Museum, American Heart Association, New Orleans Family Justice Center, Second Harvest Food Bank of Greater New Orleans and Acadiana, the Louisiana SPCA, Louisiana High School Athletic Association, Team Gleason, NFL YET Center, Clover New Orleans, Son of a Saint, Teach for America, Youth Empowerment Project, NORD and the Jefferson Parish Recreation Department.

SUPPORT AND IMPACT FOR THE ENTIRE COMMUNITY

While supporting youth and education is a daily focus of the club, significant resources are dedicated to enrich the lives of individuals in other areas of need. For the past seven years, the Saints 50/50 Charity Raffle's season total jackpot has raised over two million dollars, allowing the organization to assist thousands of people across the Gulf South region through the works of benefiting charities. Local and non-profit organizations have received proceeds garnered via fundraisers such as the Saints Kickoff Run Presented by Hancock Whitney. Saints ownership, executives and staff members serve on numerous community organization boards and partner with those entities to assist or co-develop appropriate programs with a plethora of organizations including (but not limited to) the Autism Society of Greater New Orleans and Autism Speaks, CADA of Greater New Orleans, American Heart Association, Second Harvest Food Bank, City Park of New Orleans, Saintsgiving at Dryades YMCA, Toys for Tots, Rebuilding Together New Orleans, American Red Cross, Make-A-Wish, Volunteers of America, United Negro College Fund and Bridge House. Each year, millions of dollars are given back to the community by the Saints through the donation of cash, goods and services, media and sponsorship.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS/ YOUTH SPORTS DEVELOPMENT

Whether through financial support, in-kind donations, charitable appearances or just lending a helping hand, the New Orleans Saints are there to reciprocate the support the club has received from its community for 58 years.

SOCIAL JUSTICE EFFORTS

The Saints have taken an active role in supporting programming events and advocacy efforts to promote social justice since 2018. Saints Ownership, staff and players have worked towards multiple legislative changes, discussing the reduction and elimination of gun violence and supporting programs that empower those impacted by incarceration to successfully re-enter the community.

SAINTS YOUTH SPORTS DEVELOPMENT

The New Orleans Saints Youth Sports Development Department maintains an active presence in the community throughout the year, bringing National Football League excitement to children who may not have the opportunity to experience the thrill of a Saints football game in person. The Saints reach thousands of youth through programs such as the Saints Play Football Experience Camp, the Saints Experience and the Saints/Nike 11-ON annual event/High School 7-on-7 Regional Tournament. The club is also highly involved with all of the NFL's youth football initiatives such as PLAY60, NFL FLAG, and PLAY FOOTBALL MONTH celebrations. Throughout the region, the team hosts Play Football Experiences at local schools. The team's major initiative in 2024 has been establishing a girl's flag football league throughout the New Orleans area.

YOUTH SPORTS DEVELOPMENT

The Saints have continued to champion smarter and safer play for young athletes in partnership with USA FOOTBALL through the Heads Up Football program by hosting Player Safety Clinics, Player/Parent Camps and forums to further educate coaches, parents and players. Across the Gulf Coast, the Saints continue to fully fund Heads Up Football's enrollment fees for every high school in Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi. Also in being committed to keeping young participants safe, in 2024, Head Coach Dennis Allen and many of the team's players donated guardian caps to several local high schools.

The club also honors area high school coaches through the Saints NFL High School Coach of the Week program, which provides $1,000 to each coach's respective football programs. In addition, the Saints collaborate with corporate partners to conduct life skills presentations to high schools throughout the city. Topics such as education, work ethic, leadership, and character as well as post-graduation career opportunities are discussed.

The Sports Development Department is influential in helping to secure thousands of dollars through the NFL Foundation via the Player Matching, Team and Grassroots Grants. Funding received from these grants are distributed to youth and high school football organizations and support field projects throughout the region. The team also partners with John Fayard Moving to donate and deliver practice equipment to a local high school football program in need annually. All these efforts positively impact the growth and direction of football for youngsters in the community.

OWNERSHIP

OWNER

Gayle Benson provides leadership for the New Orleans Saints and New Orleans Pelicans. She succeeds her husband, Tom Benson, who passed away on March 15, 2018, after serving as Owner of the Saints since 1985 and the Pelicans since 2012. The New Orleans native is an accomplished business professional and philanthropist with strong ties to the local community and is dedicated to contributing to the growth and enhancement of the Gulf South region.

Mr. and Mrs. Benson worked together to build model NFL and NBA organizations, housed in state-of-the-art facilities at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center, Caesars Superdome and Smoothie King Center, while making a positive impact in the community.

With the Saints franchise under the guidance of Mr. and Mrs. Benson, the team has reached new heights since 2006, when they entrusted Executive Vice President/General Manager Mickey Loomis to set the direction for the organization, responding by making important coaching hires and continually supplementing and upgrading the roster through the draft, free agency and trades. Since then, the franchise has reached its highest point of success, posting a 184-124 record from 2006-23, featuring 11 winning seasons, nine playoff berths, seven division titles, three NFC Championship appearances and the Super Bowl XLIV title.

In Mrs. Benson's first six seasons of ownership, New Orleans has posted five winning campaigns, three consecutive NFC South division titles (2018-20) and reached the 2018 NFC Championship game. No NFC team has matched the Saints' 33 regular season road victories since 2018. Their 63 regular season wins are first in the NFC during the six-season period. 15 different Saints players have received a combined 32 Pro Bowl selections and nine separate players over the past six seasons have received Associated Press All-Pro honors.

The Caesars Superdome will complete a five-year, $560 million, multiple-phase transformation for the 2024 Saints season, as it retains its standing as one of the world's most iconic multipurpose facilities on the eve of hosting Super Bowl LIX on February 9, 2025. The Caesars Superdome has been sold out on a season ticket basis for every campaign since 2006, with a waiting list of over 73,000 and 182 consecutive sellouts for contests played at the venue through the 2023 campaign. The team's Ochsner Sports Performance Center, one of the most cutting edge practice facilities in the NFL, is in the midst of a one-year project featuring the construction a brand-new cafeteria and renovation of the draft room and weight room.

Following in the footsteps of her husband, who played a significant role in the City of New Orleans hosting five Super Bowls during his ownership and wielded extensive influence and respect among fellow NFL owners with a 25-year tenure as Chairman of the Finance Committee, Mrs. Benson has become instrumental with her leadership in important league issues, serving on the Audit, Business Ventures and Hall of Fame Committees, as well as the Social Justice Working Group. She served as a key voice in securing New Orleans' bid to host Super Bowl LIX, which will mark the 11th time the Crescent City will serve as a host, tying with Miami for the most Super Bowls by a host city. The economic impact of Super Bowl XLVII, played in 2013, which Mr. Benson successfully campaigned for, was $480 million for the greater New Orleans region, not to mention the exposure and charitable contributions that the National Football League makes during Super Bowl week that extends for generations. Mrs. Benson remains committed to bringing future Super Bowls to New Orleans.

Immediately upon Mr. and Mrs. Benson's purchase of the former Hornets franchise from the NBA in 2012, construction began on a state-of-the-art basketball practice facility to house the entire organization together, while also rebranding as the Pelicans. Through agreements with the State of Louisiana upon the 2012 purchase, the Smoothie King Center has seen renovations, featuring a new center-hung HD scoreboard, which debuted in 2015, along with several additional fan upgrades. Through this commitment, NBA All-Star Weekend was awarded to New Orleans in 2014 and 2017, making the city one of just seven current NBA markets to host the mid-season event at least three times. Active in league affairs, Mrs. Benson, serves as a member of the NBA's Labor Relations Committee and was named to the NBA Foundation Board of Directors in 2020. As a board member, she is constantly an advocate for the city of New Orleans and the state of Louisiana. Since her 2020 addition, distributions by the foundation have benefited numerous deserving New Orleans nonprofits.

Mrs. Benson oversaw a significant overhaul of the Pelicans in 2019 when she hired Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations David Griffin and committed to significant upgrades to the Ochsner Sports Performance Center's basketball facilities. Through the support of these organizational improvements by Mrs. Benson, combined with several important player acquisitions through the draft, free agency and trades and the hiring of Head Coach Willie Green, the Pelicans have established a solid foundation, reaching the 2023-24 playoffs.

Community investment and giving back have been hallmarks of Mr. and Mrs. Benson's ownership of the Saints and Pelicans. This tradition continues under Mrs. Benson's stewardship, sharing her late husband's vision and passion for helping others. She has further enriched the New Orleans community through her support to causes in the health and wellness, cancer care, education, arts and faith-based sectors.

As dedicated corporate citizens, the Saints and Pelicans annually put millions of dollars back into the community in financial support, in-kind donations, charitable appearances and donations of goods and services. Mrs. Benson's philanthropic leadership has been recognized far and wide since becoming Owner.

Mrs. Benson has always quickly responded and taken action to conditions that affect the local community adversely. With the COVID-19 pandemic and Hurricane Ida providing multiple challenges to the New Orleans area and its citizens over a two-year period, Mrs. Benson donated over $2 million, partnering with the Greater New Orleans Foundation to assist local organizations and individuals in need to help the region and its residents recover from difficult circumstances. In 2020, utilizing the platform of the Saints and Pelicans to harness the unifying power of sport to advance race relations across both the Gulf South and the country, she formed the Social Justice Leadership Alliance to advocate for issues of change in minority communities.

In 2014, Mrs. Benson was honored by the New Orleans Council for Community and Justice with its Weiss Award, recognizing achievement for exceptional civic and Mrs. Benson began her professional career in 1968 as a manager for a noted New York-based jeweler. She was responsible for overseeing and managing the daily operation of over 40 sales associates. She then branched out into real estate development, which allowed her to successfully integrate her passion for interior design with property management. Her first real estate transaction occurred in 1978 when she purchased a home in New Orleans's Irish Channel and then sold the property eight months later after extensive restoration. She would go on to purchase, manage and eventually sell numerous properties, primarily in the city's Uptown district.

PRESIDENT

DENNIS LAUSCHA

PRESIDENT

Dennis Lauscha, a native New Orleanian, has been a fan of the Saints since he was a young boy. He attended Jesuit High School and received degrees in Business, first from the University of Alabama, followed by an M.B.A. from Loyola University. Starting out his career as a C.P.A.

Lauscha worked for a major global financial services firm before his decades long career with the Saints. He first joined the Saints in 1998 as Treasurer, and as a result of his hard work, loyalty and business acumen, Lauscha rose through the executive ranks to serve as Vice President, Senior Vice President and Executive Vice President before reaching his now esteemed post as President of both the Saints and Pelicans since 2012. In his role, he oversees the club's financial operations, government affairs, marketing, ticket and suite sales, legal, stadium, community affairs, human resources, business intelligence and information technology. He also serves as a representative for both clubs at NFL and NBA Owners meetings.

In addition to his duties with the Saints and Pelicans, the New Orleans native maintains multiple roles within Mrs. Benson's business enterprises, maintaining a role in the management of her regional automotive dealerships (Best Chevrolet, Cadillac of New Orleans, Infiniti of South Mississippi, Mercedes-Benz of New Orleans, Mercedes-Benz of South Mississippi Mercedes-Benz Sprinter, Porsche New Orleans and Volkswagen of South Mississippi) and three collision centers, Corporate Realty, GMB Racing, and Benson Capital Partners.

Lauscha's collaborative style, financial acumen and long-term view has played a key role as a member of a contingent that has negotiated agreements for both the Saints and Pelicans with the state of Louisiana. These have resulted in long-term lease agreements, continuous improvements to their playing and practice facilities, revitalization of the areas around them and generated revenue for the state without any new taxes for citizens.

In 2009, Lauscha helped negotiate the partnership with the Louisiana Governor and a subsequent extension of the agreement that continues the Saints' long-term commitment to the state. The deal included the purchase and revival of the former New Orleans Centre, which has been transformed into Champions Square and the Benson Tower property adjacent to the Caesars Superdome, with the stadium undergoing extensive renovations and improvements. Since playing a key role in Mr. and Mrs. Benson's purchase of the Pelicans in 2012, Lauscha has helped broker agreements with the state to upgrade the team's playing and practice facilities. Following successful negotiations, the Pelicans have a long-term commitment to the state, and the Smoothie King Center has undergone over $50 million in renovations and improvements.

In 2015, Lauscha helped negotiate an agreement with the state that resulted in $40 million in enhancements for fans of both the Saints and Pelicans. The Caesars Superdome had state-of-the-art video boards added in 2016 in addition to renovated suites and other fan amenities, while a new center-hung HD video scoreboard was installed in the Smoothie King Center. Most recently, Lauscha brokered a $560 million agreement with the state that has resulted in a long-term lease extension for the Saints and a transformation of the Caesars Superdome that will be completed this summer, to keep the stadium among the world's elite sports facilities, including brand new field level suites, which debuted in 2021 and seating, suite, technology and concession upgrades. He has played a key role in finalizing 2021 and 2014 ground-breaking naming rights and sponsorship agreements for both teams' playing facilities with Caesars Entertainment and Smoothie King.

Lauscha was instrumental in the 2003 expansion of the Saints training facility. He later oversaw a renovation and expansion of the facilities and administrative offices for the Saints and Pelicans from 2012-13, while directing the construction of a standalone basketball practice facility. The clubs are now housed on the same site at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center, featuring some of the top practice and administrative facilities in professional sports.

Lauscha has remained committed to attracting major sporting events to New Orleans. He is a key member of the team that actively pursues future Super Bowls and NCAA Basketball Final Four Championships for New Orleans – and was instrumental in landing Super Bowl XLVII, which was played in 2013 and Super Bowl LIX to be played at the Caesars Superdome on February 9, 2025. After Mr. and Mrs. Bensons' 2012 purchase of the Pelicans, the city has hosted NBA All-Star Games in 2014 and 2017.

Active throughout sports and the community, Lauscha currently serves as a member of the Business Council of New Orleans & the River Region, as a board member of the Audubon Nature Institute, Loyola University New Orleans, Greater New Orleans Foundation, and as a trustee of the National World War II Museum. Lauscha has completed terms as board president of the Preservation Resource Center, president of the regional chapter of the Boy Scouts of America, a member of the Blight Transition New Orleans Task Force, the Mayor's Transition Committee, the Super Bowl XLVII Host Committee, the 2014 and 2017 NBA All-Star Game Host Committees, the 2012 NCAA Final Four Host Committee, the Loyola University New Orleans School of Business Visiting Committee, the NBA's Team Advisory Council of Presidents and Team CBA Advisory Committee, the NFL's Ticketing Strategy Working Group, the NFL's 100th Anniversary Committee, the NFL's Sports Betting Committee, the Stuart Hall School Board of Trustees and on the New Orleans Museum of Art Board.

Lauscha's dealings with the Saints and Pelicans, state officials and local organizations have provided an opportunity for community involvement. His professional and charitable work was recognized by New Orleans CityBusiness, when he was selected as one of the 40 Most Influential Members of the Community. The honor is bestowed on those who are laying the groundwork for a better city. In 2010, he was named the Alumnus of the Year by Loyola's College of Business and was named to the 2010 Class of Role Models by the Young Leadership Council. He was honored by the Allstate Sugar Bowl Chapter of the National Football Foundation/College Football Hall of Fame with its 2014 Distinguished American Award. In 2015, Lauscha gave the commencement address to the graduates of the University of New Orleans. In 2016, he was inducted into the Order of West Range for the Pi Kappa Alpha Foundation. He was honored as a 2019 Laureate of Junior Achievement's Greater New Orleans chapter and as Chairman of the organization's 2023 Business Hall of Fame. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

FOOTBALL

MICKEY LOOMIS
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/
GENERAL MANAGER

Responsible for the club's entire football operations, Executive Vice President/General Manager Mickey Loomis enters his 23rd season in his current position and 25th with the New Orleans Saints. He is a veteran of 37 years in the NFL and has been honored with the most prestigious awards presented to a league executive during his time in New Orleans. Yet, the most satisfying achievement of Loomis' career has come in helping mold a roster that has produced many of the franchise's finest moments over the last 17 seasons, including the Super Bowl XLIV championship.

Loomis was promoted to general manager in 2002 and earned the additional title of executive vice president later that year. The departments under his direction include coaching, player personnel and scouting, salary cap management, contract negotiations, athletic training, equipment, video and communications.

In 2006, after being the key figure in the hiring of Head Coach Sean Payton, the signing of QB Drew Brees and essentially rebuilding a team that would advance to the NFC Championship, Loomis was voted the NFL Executive of the Year by Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America. He was also honored by The Sporting News as the George Young Executive of the Year, an award voted on annually by NFL front-office executives and owners.

Loomis has continued to build on the success of 2006, highlighted by 11 winning seasons, nine postseason appearances, seven division titles, three NFC Championship game berths and the Super Bowl victory. Over the past 22 years, he's brought aboard a group of players who have played a key role in New Orleans posting a 203-152 regular season record through a combination of the draft, free agency and trades. He's also presided over the club's ability to retain their core players, re-signing significant contributors to long-term contracts. This makes him just the ninth person in the 105-year history of the NFL to oversee 200 regular season career wins as the official acting General Manager. In 2022, Loomis conducted an extensive coaching search on behalf of the organization to lead the Saints into the future and following the search, Dennis Allen was promoted from defensive coordinator and hired as the Saints' 17th head coach in franchise history.

While his responsibilities have grown during his Saints tenure, Loomis has been a key figure in the highest management circle of the organization since arriving in 2000. Loomis joined the club as director of football administration, a post he held until 2002, handling contract negotiations, managing the salary cap and coordinating different areas of the football operations.

In 2005, Loomis helped steer the club through unprecedented challenges for a National Football League team. He calmly guided the staff and players through a sudden evacuation from New Orleans in the wake of Hurricane Katrina, in addition to several moves of the club's base of operations.

Since 2003, Loomis has overseen several extensive renovations of Saints headquarters that have added an indoor practice facility, new weight room and cafeteria and completely renovated coaches and player personnel offices, meeting rooms, medical/rehab areas and locker rooms, giving the club one of the NFL's top training complexes in the Ochsner Sports Performance Center.

Prior to arriving in New Orleans, Loomis spent 15 years with the Seattle Seahawks, including as executive vice president from 1992-98. He joined the Seahawks in October, 1983, was promoted to vice president/finance in 1990 and to Executive Vice President in 1992. A native of Eugene, Ore., Loomis has a degree in accounting from the University of Oregon and a Master's Degree in Sports Administration from Wichita State University.

Married to Melanie, Loomis has four children: Alex, Katherine, Sam and Lucy.

HEAD COACH

DENNIS ALLEN
HEAD COACH

Dennis Allen enters his third season leading the New Orleans Saints in 2023 after being named the 17th head coach in franchise history on February 8, 2022.

Now in his 29th year in coaching, 23rd in the NFL, including 14 with the Saints, Allen has played for, coached with and learned from some of the best coaches in all of football. He originally was recruited to play at Texas A&M by R.C. Slocum, where he also started his coaching career. In the NFL, he honed his skills serving on the Saints staff of Super Bowl XLIV champion head coach Sean Payton for 12 seasons and for two Super Bowl participants in John Fox and Dan Reeves.

During his 23 years of coaching in the NFL, Allen has worked with 13 players who have combined for 26 Pro Bowl selections and he has also coached two Associated Press NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year winners and three members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Allen's defenses have consistently been among the most productive in the NFL in a number of categories, including scoring defense, total yards allowed and sacks. The team's defensive play-caller since the middle of the 2015 season, the Saints are the only team in the National Football League to rank in the top ten in opponent points per game each of the past four seasons.

In 2023, Allen guided the Saints to win four of their last five games, as the team turned in a 9-8 performance, narrowly missing a playoff berth. New Orleans finished 5-3 at home, winning their last three at the Caesars Superdome and captured their last three divisional contests, including convincing victories over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Atlanta Falcons to close the season.

Ranked eighth in the NFL in opponent points per game (19.2) and ninth in points per game (23.6), the Saints were one of five teams to finish in the top ten in both categories. New Orleans did not surrender a touchdown in four games, third in club history, including a 34-0 shutout at New England on Oct. 8, when the Saints became the only club to have three shutouts in the last three seasons. New Orleans also proved adept at both forcing turnovers and taking care of the ball, improving from -11 in 2022 to +11 in 2023 in turnover ratio, tied for third in the league.

In the final 13 weeks of the season, the offensive line surrendered only 20 sacks, the second-lowest total in the NFL, with center Erik McCoy named to his first Pro Bowl. In his first season in Black and Gold, quarterback Derek Carr completed 375-of-548 passes (68.4 pct.) for 3,878 yards with 25 touchdowns to just eight interceptions and a 97.7 passer rating. Over the last six games, Carr was 131-of-176 (league-best 74.4 pct.) for 1,343 yards with an NFL-best 15 touchdowns, only three picks and a league-high 117.2 passer rating. The passing game was highlighted by further development from the second-year duo of Chris Olave and Rashid Shaheed. Olave led the team with 87 receptions for 1,123 yards and five touchdowns and Shaheed caught 46 passes for 719 yards (15.6 avg.) with five scoring grabs.

In addition to finishing eighth in the NFL in scoring defense, New Orleans ranked first in opponent third down and short percentage (40.7) and passes defended (99), tied for third in interceptions (18), ranked fourth in opponent third down percentage (34.5) and tenth in pass defense (207.3 ypg.). Linebacker Demario Davis, led the team in tackles for the sixth consecutive season with 121 stops, tying a career-high first set in 2022 of 6.5 sacks, as he was selected to his second consecutive Pro Bowl and voted an AP All-Pro for the fifth consecutive season. Up front, defensive end Carl Granderson enjoyed a breakout campaign with a career-high and club-best 8.5 sacks. In the secondary, cornerback Paulson Adebode and safety Tyrann Mathieu tied for the team lead with four interceptions apiece. Adebode also led the team with six total takeaways and ranked third in the NFL with 18 passes defended.

The club's special teams units shined in 2023, finishing second in the NFL in writer Rick Gosselin's annual comprehensive rankings. Shaheed finished third in the NFL in punt return average (13.6), returning a punt 76 yards for a touchdown in Week Three, earning him a Pro Bowl selection and first-team AP All-Pro. The coverage units helped New Orleans finish first in the league in opponent punt return average (5.6), while giving the defense the second-best starting point after kickoffs (24.2).

In his first year as head coach of the Saints in 2002, Allen guided New Orleans through the challenge of significant injuries at virtually every position to win three of their last four games and gave up 20 or fewer points in the final eight contests of the season, ten points apiece in each of the final three contests.

Under Allen's supervision, New Orleans ranked second in the NFL in pass defense (184.4 ypg.) fifth in total defense (314.8 ypg.), tied for fifth in sacks (48), ranked sixth in opponent red zone touchdown percentage (50.0) and ninth in scoring defense (20.3 ppg.). New Orleans posted shutouts in consecutive seasons for the first time since the 1991-92 campaigns. Davis and defensive end Cameron Jordan, who became the franchise's all-time leader in sacks, were named to the Pro Bowl, while Davis earned AP All-Pro honors.

Offensively, New Orleans improved nine or more spots in league rankings in net yards per game and net passing yards per game. The team's top draft selection, Olave, earned PFWA All-Rookie recognition, as he led the team in receiving with 72 receptions for 1,042 yards. Running back Alvin Kamara led the Saints with 1,387 yards from scrimmage. Taysom Hill ranked second on the team in rushing with a career-high 575 yards and team-leading seven rushing touchdowns, adding two receiving scores for a club-best nine total touchdowns, while adding two scoring throws. Tight end Juwan Johnson tied for third at the position in the league with a club-best seven touchdown grabs on 42 receptions for 508 yards.

In 2021, his final season as defensive coordinator before being promoted to head coach, Allen's unit boasted two Pro Bowl selections (Jordan and cornerback Marshon Lattimore) and one AP All-Pro selection (Davis), ranked first in the NFL in opponent red zone touchdown percentage (43.5), second in opponent first downs (304) and opponent rushing first downs (84), fourth in scoring defense (19.7 ppg.), opponent net yards per play (5.08) and run defense (93.5 ypg.), seventh in total defense (318.2 ypg.) and eighth in sacks (46). New Orleans' streak of 22 regular season/postseason contests without allowing a 100-yard rusher at the end of the season was the longest in the NFL. With 25 takeaways and a plus-seven turnover ratio, Allen's defense was instrumental in leading the Saints to their fifth consecutive winning season. Allen handled Payton's head coaching duties in a December 19 9-0 win over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as Payton was sidelined due to COVID-19 protocols.

In 2020, the Saints defense boasted one of the league's top units, finishing tied for first in interceptions (18), ranked fourth in opponent net yards per game (310.9) and opponent rushing yards per game (91.3), fifth in opponent net passing yards per game (217.0) and opponent points per game (21.1) and eighth in sacks (45). The 139 points given up on the road by New Orleans were the fewest in the NFL and the third-lowest total by the club since the start of a 16-game regular season schedule in 1978. New Orleans did not allow a 100-yard rusher until Week 14 of the season, marking an NFL record of 55 games (regular season/postseason combined) of not giving up 100 yards to an individual.

The 2019 Saints ranked third in the league in sacks, recording 51 takedowns and finished fourth in run defense at 91.3 yards rushing per game. The sack total was the highest for the Saints since 2001. New Orleans also ranked sixth on third down (34.8 pct.) and 11th in total defense (333.1 ypg.). With two Pro Bowl starter selections on defense – Jordan and Lattimore and one AP first-team All-Pro – Davis – the Saints had two contests where they did not surrender a defensive touchdown for the first time since 2000. Jordan finished with a career-high 15.5 sacks, ranked third in the NFL and tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history, also earning All-Pro honors. Davis filled up the stat sheet with a team-high 111 tackles, four sacks, one interception and a career-high 12 passes defended.

In 2018, the Saints boasted the second-best run defense in the NFL, allowing just 80.2 rushing yards per game and 3.6 yards per carry. The defense also collared 49 sacks, which tied for fifth in the league. The New Orleans defense held its opponents to 20 points or less in ten games in 2018 and had a six-game streak of keeping opponents under 20 for the first time since 2000. Jordan was selected to the Pro Bowl as an AP All-Pro in a season where he posted 12 sacks. Defensive tackle Sheldon Rankins posted eight sacks in a breakout campaign, the most takedowns by a Saints interior defender since 2000. Davis, in his first season with the club, became only the fourth player in Saints history to record 110 tackles and five sacks in a season. Lattimore led the team with five regular season takeaways and added two more in the club's postseason win over Philadelphia.

In 2017, Allen coordinated a Saints defense that finished third in the league in interceptions (20), tied for seventh in sacks (42) and ranked tenth in opponent points per game (20.4 ppg.) after ranking 31st in 2016. Away from home, New Orleans surrendered only 18.3 points per game, tied for sixth in the NFL, with their 146 road points given up tied for the fifth-lowest total by the club since the start of a 16-game schedule in 1978. Allen oversaw a defense that featured first-team All-Pro Jordan who posted 13 sacks and Lattimore, who led rookies with five interceptions and garnered

AP Defensive Rookie of the Year honors, as both defenders earned Pro Bowl trips. Lattimore was the second rookie under Allen's tutelage to capture league Defensive Rookie of the Year honors. Rookie safety Marcus Williams, the club's second round draft pick, joined Lattimore as a PFWA All-Rookie selection, tying for second among league rookies with four picks.

In 2016, a young Saints defensive unit took several strides in the right direction, surrendering only 90.6 rushing yards per game over the final 13 weeks of the season, ranked sixth in the NFL over that period. In fact, New Orleans allowed under 100 yards rushing in eight games on the season, the fewest in a single season since they gave up seven in 2013. Jordan led the team with 7.5 sacks. Linebacker Craig Robertson started all 15 games he appeared in and filled up the stat sheet with a team-high and career-high 131 tackles, one sack, one interception, five passes defended and two fumble recoveries.

After starting the 2015 season as the club's senior defensive assistant, Allen assumed coordinator duties in Week 11. As New Orleans rallied to win three of their final four contests, Allen's unit contributed to finishing strong as the defense surrendered 35.1 total net yards per game below the overall season average, including 25.1 fewer yards per game in stopping the run. New Orleans also held opponents to a season-low 17 points in two of the final four contests. Jordan was selected to his second Pro Bowl, as he recorded double-digit sacks (10) for the second time in his career.

Allen served as the head coach of the Oakland Raiders from 2012-14. In his second season, he guided a team that made significant improvement in several areas. Offensively, the Raiders ranked 12th in the NFL in rushing, improving 16 spots in league rankings from 2012 and sixth in yards per rush (4.6), improving 21 places in league rankings despite starting an NFL-high eight offensive line combinations due to injury. The defense replaced nine starters, yet improved in several categories. The defense recorded 38 sacks, 13 more than 2012, and tied for second in the NFL with 15 different players getting to the quarterback. The rush defense improved five spots from 18th in the NFL in 2012 to 13th in 2013, as they limited opposing offenses to just five runs of 20-or-more yards, tied for the fewest in the league, and kept opponents to less than two yards per carry three times. On special teams, the Raiders moved from the NFL's bottom-third to first overall in opponent gross punting (41.7), ranked third in opponent net punting (37.0) and fourth in opponent kickoff returns (20.4).

Allen coached the first four games of the 2014 season for the Raiders, during which he helped usher in a pair of rookies that went on to enjoy impressive first-year campaigns in Carr and linebacker Khalil Mack. The club's pass defense ranked fourth in the NFL.

In 2011, Allen served as defensive coordinator of the Denver Broncos. He led a defense that helped the Broncos win the AFC West division crown and advance to the AFC Divisional round with an AFC Wild Card game victory. The Broncos improved 12 spots over the previous year in overall defensive ranking and bettered their points allowed ranking eight spots. The defense produced four Pro Bowl selections as rookie linebacker Von Miller joined cornerback Champ Bailey, safety Brian Dawkins and defensive end Elvis Dumervil on the AFC squad. Miller set what was the team's rookie record with 11.5 sacks en route to AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors and Dumervil also thrived under Allen, rebounding from injury to register 9.5 quarterback takedowns. The Broncos' 41 sacks as a team marked the unit's most since 2000.

During Allen's initial five-year tenure in New Orleans, he first served as assistant defensive line coach (2006-07) before being promoted to secondary coach (2008-10).

He was a part of a defensive coaching staff that engineered significant improvement from 2009-10, when the club went 24-8 in the regular season, qualified for the playoffs both times and captured Super Bowl XLIV. Under Allen's direction in 2010, the Saints allowed an NFL-low 13 touchdown passes, while New Orleans ranked fourth in both opponent net yards per game (306.3) and pass defense (193.9 ypg.) and fifth in opponent third down efficiency (34.5 pct.). Safety Roman Harper was selected to his second consecutive Pro Bowl, posting 100 tackles and three sacks, and cornerback Jabari Greer recorded two interceptions with one brought back for a touchdown.

In 2009, Allen tutored a secondary that played a key role in helping the Saints to the club's first Super Bowl victory. A revamped unit accounted for an NFL-high five interception returns for touchdowns and totaled 21 picks with two starters being selected to the Pro Bowl. Opposing quarterbacks managed a meager 68.6 passer rating against the Saints, ranked third in the NFL. Greer returned one pick for a touchdown. Harper led the unit with a career-high 127 tackles and added 1.5 sacks and two forced fumbles while being selected to his first Pro Bowl. Cornerback Tracy Porter picked off quarterbacks Brett Favre and Peyton Manning in the fourth quarter in consecutive postseason contests, with his famous Super Bowl XLIV interception being brought back for a touchdown.

While serving as assistant defensive line coach from 2006-07, Allen helped develop a unit that ranked as one of the defense's strengths. During that stretch, the front four combined for 49.5 sacks, ten forced fumbles and ten recoveries. Defensive end Will Smith was voted to his first Pro Bowl in 2006, posting a club-best 10.5 sacks and three forced fumbles.

Allen joined the Saints after a four-year stint with the Atlanta Falcons, where he spent his final two years as defensive assistant/quality control with an emphasis on working with the defensive line. Over the previous two seasons, he was in charge of defensive quality control while helping tutor the secondary.

Over his last two years in Atlanta, the Falcons' defense was paced by the play of the front four. In 2004, Atlanta led the NFL for the first time in club history with 48 sacks and the unit sent defensive end Patrick Kerney to the Pro Bowl. In 2005 defensive tackle Rod Coleman represented the club in the Pro Bowl and the Falcons notched 37 sacks.

In 2002, Allen's first year with the Falcons, he assisted in coaching the defensive backfield. Atlanta improved to 16th against the pass after ranking 30th the year before, and tied for third in the NFL with 24 interceptions.

Allen worked as the secondary coach for the University of Tulsa (2000-01) before heading to the NFL. Prior to his stint at Tulsa, Allen was on the coaching staff for four years (1996-99) at Texas A&M as a graduate assistant under Slocum, working primarily with the secondary.

A native of Hurst, Texas, Allen earned four letters for Texas A&M as a safety from 1992-95 and started the final 21 games of his career. A highlight was his fourth-quarter interception that clinched an 18-9 victory over Texas in 1993, sending the Aggies to their third-straight Cotton Bowl. He collected Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Week honors after intercepting two passes in a 36-14 win over Oklahoma in 1994.

Allen was signed as an undrafted free agent by the Buffalo Bills and competed in their training camp in 1996. Allen's late father, Grady, played at Texas A&M and was a linebacker for the Falcons from 1968-72. Allen and his wife Alisson have a daughter, Layla and a son, Garrison.

CLANCY BARONE

TIGHT ENDS COACH

Clancy Barone enters his second season as the Saints tight ends coach after leading the unit to a successful 2023 campaign. Barone has 35 years of coaching experience, with his first 17 at the collegiate level and his last 18 in the NFL.

New Orleans is the sixth NFL stop for Barone, having previously coached tight ends or offensive line with the Atlanta Falcons (2004-06), San Diego Chargers (2007-08), Denver Broncos (2009-16), Minnesota Vikings (2017-18) and Chicago Bears (2020-21) and Saints (2023-). As a tight ends coach, Barone has had four players voted to the Pro Bowl with four different teams: the Falcons' Alge Crumpler, the Chargers' Antonio Gates, the Broncos' Julius Thomas and the Vikings' Kyle Rudolph.

The Saints tight ends group was led by Juwan Johnson in 2023, and under Barone's tutelage, he recorded 37 receptions for 359 yards with four touchdowns despite missing four games with a calf injury. Foster Moreau contributed as both a blocker and receiver with 21 grabs for 193 yards and one touchdown, while Jimmy Graham was a valuable red zone target with four touchdown catches.

In his two seasons in Chicago, Barone oversaw high-level performances from veterans, while also developing younger players. In 2021, Cole Kmet posted a career-high 60 receptions for a career-best 612 yards in his second season. In 2020, the Bears returned to the postseason after a one-year absence as Graham led the team with eight touchdown catches, the second-most among NFC tight ends and his most since 2017-on 50 receptions, adding one more scoring grab in the playoffs.

Prior to Chicago, Barone served as the tight ends coach (2017) and co-offensive line coach (2018) with the Vikings. His tight ends were a valuable part of the club's 13-3 season in 2017 that advanced to the NFC Championship, as Rudolph was selected to the Pro Bowl after recording 57 receptions for 532 yards with eight touchdowns.

Prior to his time in Minnesota, Barone spent eight seasons in Denver coaching tight ends (2009, 2011-14) and offensive line (2010, 2015-16). The Broncos won Super Bowl 50 and played in Super Bowl XLVIII against Seattle during his tenure. Thomas was selected to back-to-back Pro Bowls under Barone's supervision from 2013-14, a period when he ranked second in the NFL in touchdown receptions (24), tying for the league lead in 2014 (12).

From 2007-08, Barone coached tight ends for San Diego, as the Chargers captured back-to-back AFC West titles and Gates was selected to the Pro Bowl each season. During Barone's two seasons in San Diego, Gates was tied for the league lead among tight ends in touchdown receptions (17), and was ranked in the top four in receptions (135-fourth) and receiving yards (1,688-third).

COACHING STAFF

In 2004, Barone got the call for his first NFL coaching position as the assistant offensive line coach in Atlanta. The Falcons led the NFL and set franchise records in both yards per rush (5.1) and rushing yards per game (167.0) on their way to an NFC Championship Game berth. The Falcons went 11-5 in the regular season to capture the NFC South title. The 2005 season marked Barone's first as a tight ends coach at any level when he took on that role for the Falcons. Crumpler was selected to the Pro Bowl both seasons under Barone's guidance, first posting a career-high 65 receptions for a career-best 877 yards and five touchdowns in 2005. In 2006, Crumpler posted 56 receptions for 780 yards and a career-high eight touchdowns, ranked second among NFL tight ends.

Barone's coaching career began in the college ranks, serving 17 years coaching offensive lines at seven institutions. Barone spent the final seven years of his collegiate coaching career serving as offensive coordinator from 1997-2003 at the University of Wyoming (1997-99), University of Houston (2000-02) and Texas State (2003). He also served as the offensive line coach at both Wyoming and Houston and was the assistant head coach for his one season at Texas State.

A native of San Andreas, Calif., Barone attended Red Bluff High School, where he is a member of the school's Hall of Fame. He attended and played on the offensive line first at the University of Nevada and later at Sacramento State University, where he holds a place in the Hornets Athletic Hall of Fame.

JOHN BENTON
OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

John Benton, a 33-year veteran in the coaching ranks, including 19 in the NFL, enters his first season as offensive line coach with the New Orleans Saints. Of the NFL offensive lines he has directed since 2004, Benton's units have finished in the top ten in the league in rushing yards per game seven times.

Benton spent the 2021 and 2022 seasons as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator of the New York Jets. In 2022, Benton's position group showcased their depth and versatility as nine different starters formed seven different combinations, with the Jets improving their win total by three games. Before suffering a season-ending knee injury in Week Seven, rookie running back Breece Hall shined behind the Jets offensive line, carrying 80 times for 463 yards (5.8 avg.) with four touchdowns and catching 19 passes for 218 yards with one touchdown. Entering the starting lineup in Week Five after recovering from an injury, starting left tackle Duane Brown did not give up a sack in 12 contests.

In his first season with the Jets (2021), Benton's group had 11 different players see time, including nine different starters that formed seven different combinations. Improving in the system over the course of the season in both the run and pass game, the line helped pave the way for the Jets to average 5.19 yards per carry, the second-best average in the league over the final eight weeks. In pass protection, the line improved their pressure allowed percentage from 32.4 to 25.6 over Weeks 11 through 18, a top half percentage in that span. The line's depth and versatility was on full display in Weeks 16 & 17, as Benton's group – dealing with injuries and COVID - blocked for consecutive games of 150+ rushing yards and one-or-fewer sacks allowed, only the third team in the league with consecutive such games and the first time the Jets did so in back-to-back weeks since 2015. Over those weeks, only two players, Dan Feeney and Morgan Moses – neither kickoff weekend starters – started and finished both games, while the Jets used ten different linemen and seven different starters. Selected in the first round of the 2021 draft, rookie left guard Alijah Vera-Tucker allowed just two sacks, the second-fewest among all rookies (with 500+ snaps according to Pro Football Focus) and was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. Following the loss of second-year standout left tackle Mekhi Becton in Week One, right tackle George Fant switched to the left side for the remainder of the season and allowed pressure on just 3.2% of his snaps, third-best among all tackles (with 400+ pass block snaps according to PFF) and the best among left tackles. Additionally, Fant finished with the lowest pressure rate allowed of any Jets tackle since 2006. Another second-year free agent signing, Connor McGovern, was graded as PFF's number nine overall center in 2021.

Over Benton's four seasons in San Francisco (2017-20) as the offensive line coach, the 49ers produced the fourth most rushing yards in the league, with top ten rushing offenses in each of his last three seasons, including the league's number one rushing attack in 2019 as they advanced to Super Bowl LIV. Additionally, in his time with San Francisco, three different tailbacks – Raheem Mostert, Jeffrey Wilson and Matt Breida – all averaged over 4.4 yards per carry on at least 200 attempts, one of only two teams in the league with at least three such players. The line protected quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo, as he finished fourth in yards per attempt (8.2), fifth in completion percentage (67.5) and ninth in passer rating (98.6) among signal-callers with at least 25 starts since 2018.

Prior to his time in San Francisco, Benton spent a season in Jacksonville (2016) as an assistant offensive line coach. The Jaguars offensive line allowed 34 sacks, 17 fewer than the previous season.

Benton spent two years with the Miami Dolphins (2014-15) as offensive line coach. In his first season with the Dolphins, running back Lamar Miller and quarterback Ryan Tannehill became the first players in team history to register 1,000 yards rushing and 4,000 yards passing in the same season. Additionally, center Mike Pouncey was a Pro

Bowler in both seasons under Benton, while tackle Brendan Albert was also selected.

The offensive line coach with Houston for eight seasons (2006-13), Benton's line helped pave the way for the Texans to finish top ten in rushing yards in four different seasons, including the 2010 NFL rushing title by Arian Foster (1,616 yards). Foster, a three-time Pro Bowl selection while running behind Benton's lines, averaged 85.8 yards per game, including 94.8 yards per game from 2010-12. Additionally, in Benton's eight seasons with the Texans, he helped produce five of the top ten scoring totals in franchise history, five of the top ten passing seasons and five of the top ten rushing seasons, while three different offensive linemen – Brown, center Chris Myers and guard Wade Smith – each earned their first Pro Bowl selections under him.

Benton's first position in the NFL came as the offensive line coach with the St. Louis Rams (2004-05). The line, anchored by Pro Football Hall of Fame tackle Orlando Pace, blocked for the NFL's fifth-ranked passing attack in 2004 and helped Stephen Jackson rush for the first 1,000-yard season of his career in 2005.

Prior to the NFL, Benton coached 17 years at the collegiate level. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Colorado State (1987-90), before moving on to California University (Pa.) from 1990-94, where he served as offensive line coach/recruiting coordinator. He returned to Colorado State in 1995, spending nine years as offensive line coach (1995-99) and co-offensive coordinator (2000-03).

A four-year starter as an offensive lineman at Colorado State (1983-86), the Durango, Col. native earned honorable mention All-WAC honors during his junior and senior seasons as well as being named conference All-Academic as a senior.

Benton and his wife, Nicole, have two daughters, Gabrielle and Paige.

PLAYING CAREER: Colorado State University, 1983-86.

COACHING CAREER: Colorado State, 1987-90 and 1995-2003; California University of Pennsylvania, 1990-94; St. Louis Rams, 2004-05; Houston Texans, 2006-13; Miami Dolphins, 2014-15; Jacksonville Jaguars, 2016; San Francisco 49ers, 2017-20; New York Jets, 2021-22; New Orleans Saints, 2024.

RICK DENNISON SENIOR OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Rick Dennison brings a wealth of offensive experience to the Saints in 2024 as the club's senior offensive assistant. Entering his 28th season of coaching in the NFL, Dennison has been part of 13 playoff appearances, five division titles, and three Super Bowl victories - XXXII, XXXIII and 50.

COACHING STAFF

Dennison has consistently been a part of winning programs, the teams he has coached for posting a .500 or better record in 20 of his 27 NFL seasons and has been part of 12 seasons of ten or more wins. His 17 seasons in Denver resulted in three Super Bowl titles, eight playoff appearances, four AFC West titles and eight seasons of ten or more wins while only suffering two losing seasons.

Dennison has coached 18 different Pro Bowl players across seven different positions, including six offensive linemen. Of those six, five made their first Pro Bowl appearance under him, while three made all their trips with him as their coach. In Dennison's time as an offensive line coach and offensive coordinator, his rushing offenses have averaged 2,056 yards a season (128.1 ypg.) and 4.4 yards per carry, while producing 14.8 touchdowns a season.

Dennison served as offensive line coach/run game coordinator with the Minnesota Vikings from 2019-20 and as senior offensive advisor in 2021. In 2019, the 28 sacks (12 fewer than the 40 given up in 2018) that the Vikings surrendered was tied for the fifth-lowest total in the NFL and tied for the eighth-lowest total in franchise history, paving the way for a rushing attack that gained 2,133 yards (sixth-most in the NFL). Blocking behind Dennison's offensive line from 2019-20, RB Dalvin Cook ranked first in the NFC and second in the NFL in both rushing yards (3,851) and rushing touchdowns (35) and was selected to the Pro Bowl both seasons. In 2019, Cook (1,135) became the franchise's first 1,000-yard rusher since Adrian Peterson in 2015. Cook's 1,557 rushing yards in 2020 ranked second in the NFL and produced a balanced offensive attack that ranked fourth in the league in net yards per game. Finishing fourth in the NFL in total offense was a 12-spot jump from 2018 and the highest ranking for the club since 2004.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Dennison served on the staffs of the New York Jets (2018), Buffalo Bills (2017), Baltimore Ravens (2014), Houston Texans (2010-13) and two stints with the Denver Broncos (1995-2009, '15-16) in a variety of roles.

In 2018, Dennison's lone season as the Jets offensive line coach/run game coordinator, the group allowed ten fewer sacks (37) than it did in 2017, protecting QB Sam Darnold as he set team rookie records for touchdown passes (17) and gross passing yards per game (220.4)

In 2017, Dennison was offensive coordinator for the Bills, helping a Buffalo offense that ranked sixth in rushing as both RB LeSean McCoy and G Richie Incognito received Pro Bowl recognition. That year the Bills reached the playoffs for the first time in 17 years.

In his return to Denver as the offensive coordinator in 2015, Dennison oversaw the Broncos offense as the team navigated a difficult schedule to finish with a 12-4 record, the AFC West Division title and the No. 1 seed in the AFC. Despite mid-season injury to Hall of Fame QB Peyton Manning, Dennison helped the Broncos go 5-2 in QB Brock Osweiler's first seven career starts before Manning returned in Week 17. The offense went on to commit just three turnovers during the postseason to help secure a World Championship in Super Bowl 50 over Carolina.

Following Manning's retirement, Dennison coached first-year starting QB Trevor Siemian in 2016, a seventh-round draft pick (250th overall) in the 2015 NFL Draft. In 14 games Siemian completed 289-for-486 passes for 3,401 yards with 18 touchdowns and only ten interceptions.

COACHING STAFF

In Dennison's lone season with Baltimore (2014) and only season coaching quarterbacks, Joe Flacco established career-highs in passing yards (3,986—since broken) and touchdown passes (27) and posted a combined eight games with a passer rating above 100.0 while being sacked just 19 times—29 fewer than the previous year.

In Houston (2010-13), where he served as offensive coordinator, Texans running backs produced an NFL-best 29 individual 100-yard rushing performances, including 24 by Arian Foster, who was named an Associated Press All-Pro selection three times in his four years under Dennison. During the 2012 season, seven of Houston's 11 starters on offense were Pro Bowlers.

His first stint as an offensive coordinator came with the Broncos (2006-08). The offense ranked seventh in the NFL (350.5 yards per game) as Dennison oversaw one of just two units in the league to rank in the top ten in both passing and rushing. He previously worked as the offensive line coach (2001-05) and special teams coach (1997-2000). From 2001-05, Denver led the NFL in rushing, averaging 145.6 yards per game and 2,328 yards per season on the ground.

During his tenure as special teams coach in Denver the club won consecutive Super Bowls, topping Green Bay for the Super Bowl XXXII title and following it up in John Elway's final game with a Super Bowl XXXIII victory over Atlanta. Dennison originally joined the Denver staff in 1995 after spending the previous three years coaching at the high school level for Suffield (Conn.) Academy. He worked for two years in Denver as an offensive assistant (1995-96) before being promoted to special teams coach in 1997.

Undrafted out of Colorado State University, Dennison played nine seasons at linebacker for the Broncos, appearing in 128 games (52 starts) and totaling 514 tackles, 6.5 sacks, four interceptions, six forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. He participated in three Super Bowls as a player and was the team's recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award in 1989.

At CSU, he earned three varsity letters and was named a second-team Academic All-American as a senior. Dennison earned two degrees in civil engineering from CSU, first his bachelor's in 1979 and later his master's degree in 1982.

A native of Kalispell, Montana, Dennison attended Rocky Mountain High School in Fort Collins, Col., lettering in football, basketball and baseball.

Dennison and his wife, Shannon, have three sons, Joseph, Steven and Trey, and twin daughters, Abrynn and Allie, as well as three grandsons.

DERRICK FOSTER

RUNNING BACKS COACH

Derrick Foster enters his first season with the New Orleans Saints as running backs coach after the 13-year coaching veteran spent his first three NFL seasons in the same position with the Los Angeles Chargers.

Under the tutelage of Foster, Austin Ekeler totaled 44 regular-season scrimmage touchdowns (20 in 2021, 18 in 2022 and six in 2023), ranking first in the NFL over that span and led the league in his first two seasons. Ekeler added a pair of rushing touchdowns in the 2022 AFC Wild Card Playoff at Jacksonville, making him the seventh player in NFL history to register back-to-back seasons with 20 touchdowns (regular and postseason combined). Ekeler's 228 receptions for 1,805 yards with 14 touchdowns led NFL running backs in catches and receiving yardage over the three-season span under Foster's tutelage, while tying for first in touchdown grabs.

In 2023, despite missing three games with an ankle injury, Ekeler led the Chargers in rushing for the fourth consecutive season with 628 yards and ran for a club-best five touchdowns, adding 51 receptions for 436 yards (8.5 avg.) and one touchdown in the passing game.

Ekeler set single-season career-highs in 2022 with 1,637 total yards from scrimmage, 13 rushing touchdowns, 915 rushing yards and 107 receptions. His 107 catches led all running backs, tied for fifth-most in the NFL overall, and were tied for the second-most by a running back in a single season in NFL history. Ekeler also added five touchdown catches, giving him 29 for his career, tying for the most by a running back with a single team in the Super Bowl era (since 1966). He also led the NFL with 843 yards after catch. In the Week Five win at Cleveland, Ekeler set a single-game career-high with 173 rushing yards, the fourth-best rushing performance in the NFL in 2022. Foster helped coach a Chargers offense that ranked third in net passing yards per game (269.6 avg.) and ninth in total net yards per game (359.3 avg.) in the NFL. Ekeler was one of an NFL-record six players on the team to top 500 receiving yards and three touchdown grabs in the same season. The Los Angeles offense paced the NFL with 112 third down conversions and ranked second with 2,542 yards after catch.

In 2021, Ekeler turned in a career year under Foster's tutelage, as he tied for an NFL high with 20 scrimmage touchdowns, becoming the fourth Charger ever to have a share of the league lead in touchdowns for a season. His 20 scrimmage scores tied for the second-most by any Charger in a single season. The season also marked Ekeler's second with eight receiving touchdowns (2019), joining Pro Football Hall of Fame RB Marshall Faulk (2000 and 2001 seasons) as the only running backs in the common draft era (since 1967) with multiple seasons of eight-plus touchdown grabs. Ekeler scored nine touchdowns in prime time games, tying Hall of Fame RB Emmitt Smith (1995) for second-most by any player in a single season in NFL history, trailing only Hall of Fame WR Randy Moss' 11 in 2007 with New England. Foster's coaching helped the offense rank fourth in the NFL in total offense (390.2 ypg.). The unit scored 181 points in the fourth quarter, the second-most in a single season in NFL history. Los Angeles ranked fifth in the league in third-down efficiency (45.2 pct.) and paced the NFL with 22 fourth-down conversions and seven two-point conversions.

Prior to leading the running backs group for the Bolts, Foster spent three seasons at the University of Iowa (2018-20). Under Foster's direction as running backs coach/offensive recruiting coordinator in 2020, sophomore RB Tyler Goodson was named first-team All-Big Ten by both the media and conference coaches after carrying 143 times for 812 yards (5.3 avg.) with seven touchdowns in an eight-game COVID-abbreviated season. He was the first Hawkeyes running back since 2008 to earn all-conference honors.

Foster joined the Hawkeyes after a two-year stint at Samford University (2016-17), where he served as run game coordinator/running backs coach, helping lead the Bulldogs to two-straight FCS playoff appearances. Prior to his time in Homewood, Ala., Foster coached three seasons at Northwestern State (La.) from 2013-15. After coaching the running backs for the Demons 2013, Foster directed the wide receivers from 2014-15, developing some of the top wideouts in program history. In 2014, eventual NFL pass-catcher Ed Eagan, a former Holy Cross High School standout, set the program's single-season receptions record with 73 under Foster's tutelage. In a game against McNeese State, Eagan set a program record with 238 receiving yards on a record-tying 13 receptions. Foster also tutored Bryant Mitchell, who went on to play for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and in the CFL.

In the two years following his playing career, Foster broke into the coaching ranks as an assistant coach at Tennessee (2012), where he helped coach running backs and Valdosta State University (2011), where his focus was to work with both the wide receivers and special teams units.

Foster played running back and wide receiver at Southwest Baptist (Mo.). He started 41-of-44 career game appearances at wideout for the Bearcats and finished his career with 2,062 all-purpose yards. The Goshen, Ala. native graduated in 2010 with a bachelor's degree in sports management and went on to earn a master's degree in public administration from Valdosta State in 2013.

Foster and his wife, Bianca, have two children, Cooper and Brielle.

PLAYING CAREER: Southwest Baptist, 2005-10.

COACHING CAREER: Valdosta State, 2011; Tennessee, 2012; Northwestern State (La.), 2013-15; Samford, 2016-17; Iowa, 2018-20; Los Angeles Chargers, 2021-23; New Orleans Saints, 2024.

PHIL GALIANO

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS COACH

Phil Galiano enters his sixth season with the New Orleans Saints as assistant special teams coach. Galiano is a veteran in the coaching ranks with 24 years of experience, including eight seasons in the National Football League.

Galiano's work with Assistant Head Coach/Special Teams Coordinator Darren Rizzi has made the kicking game an integral part of New Orleans' success. On coverage units, J.T. Gray's 65 tackles rank second in the NFL. The punting game has produced the top three seasons in club history for punts inside-the-20-yard line. Since 2019, the Saints have excelled in the return game. Over the five-season period, the team has been ranked sixth in the NFL in punt return average (10.1), while the coverage units have allowed the third-lowest punt return average (7.0). The special teams units have not given up a touchdown since 2019.

Last season, the Saints boasted one of the NFL's top special teams units, with the unit finishing second in NFL Writer Rick Gosselin's annual rankings. New Orleans finished in the Top 10 in the NFL in 13-of-22 categories, either leading or sharing the lead in five of them and finishing second in two others. New Orleans finished first in the league in opponent punt return average (5.6), while giving their defense the second-best starting point after kickoffs (24.2). Second-year WR/RS Rashid Shaheed was selected as a Pro Bowl starter as a return specialist and as an Associated Press first-team All-Pro punt returner, ranking third in the NFL in punt return average (13.6) with a 76-yard touchdown, the third-longest return in franchise history. The Saints saw key contributions from their youth, as a total of nine rookies or first-year players contributed to the special teams units, including K Blake Grupe, P Lou Hedley and LB Nephi Sewell. Grupe set the club rookie record with 30 field goals, led the team with 130 punts and ranked third in the NFL with 76 touchbacks. Hedley's 31 punts inside-the-20-yard line ranked second in club record books. Sewell recorded five coverage stops and forced a fumble by the punter in Week 14 that was recovered for a touchdown. In a sign of respect for his methods, Galiano was selected by the Senior Bowl to serve as special teams coordinator for the National Team.

The Saints special teams units delivered another productive season in 2022. After a season-ending toe injury suffered by Deonte Harty, Shaheed had a 9.7 average on 20 punt returns as a rookie. Despite missing three contests due to injury, Gray led the Saints with 12 coverage stops. P Blake Gillikin had a team-record 32 punts inside-the-20.

In 2021, Saints special teams ranked fifth in Gosselin's comprehensive special teams rankings for the second consecutive season. Gray received his first career selection as a starter in the league's All-Star Game after leading the NFL with 19 special teams tackles and was also an AP first-team All-Pro. LB Andrew Dowell, in his first full NFL season, tied for fifth in the league with 14 coverage stops and blocked a punt. Galiano helped prepare Gillikin for his first season handling punting duties. 29 of Gillikin's punts were downed inside the 20-yard line, ranked fourth in the NFL. The Saints special teams unit ranked fourth in the NFL in opponent average starting position after kickoffs (24.1-yard line) and eighth in punt return average (10.0).

2020 saw the Saints ranked fifth in Gosselin's annual rankings. They ranked first in opponent punt return average (2.3) and second in opponent kickoff return average (17.2), sixth in kickoff return average (25.4) and ninth in punt return average (10.2), while ranking third in opponent average starting position after kickoffs (23.8-yard line) and ninth in average starting position after kickoffs (25.9-yard line). Despite missing seven games with injuries, wide receiver/return specialist Deonte Harris had a 12.2 punt return average and 27.3 kickoff return average. K Wil Lutz (Week Five) and P Thomas Morstead (Week One) each were named NFC Special Teams Player of the week.

The 2019 season saw special teams rise to first in Gosselin's rankings. The special teams featured standout performances from Harris, Lutz, Morstead and Gray. For the first time in franchise history, two special teams players were selected to the Associated Press All-Pro team (Gray and Harris) and for the second time two were selected to the Pro Bowl (Harris and Lutz). As an undrafted free agent, Harris ranked in the top five in the NFL in both kickoff and punt return average. Lutz set a franchise record by drilling 32 field goals, ranking second in the NFL in scoring (144 points), PATs (48), touchbacks (career-high 74) and third in field goals. Morstead ranked fifth in the NFL in net punting average (43.1) and was named the September NFC Special Teams Player of the Month and twice was selected conference Special Teams Player of the Week. Gray led the Saints with 16 stops, blocked a punt and recovered a fumble on coverage.

In 2018, Galiano was the special teams coordinator and assistant defensive line coach at Penn State. The Nittany Lions were ranked 12th in the country in kickoff return average (24.7) and 23rd in special teams efficiency and gross punt average (44.0). He joined the Nittany Lions in 2017 as a defensive consultant and served as the special teams coordinator for the 2017 Playstation Fiesta Bowl.

In 2016, he was a special teams intern with the Miami Dolphins and served under Rizzi. Miami ranked seventh in Gosselin's special teams rankings and led the National Football League in opponent gross punting average (41.8) and tied for the league lead with four blocked kicks.

Galiano spent eight years at Rutgers over three stints, most recently as special teams coordinator/tight ends coach in 2015 and director of recruiting in 2014. Under Galiano's tutelage in 2015, the Scarlet Knights ranked 12th in ESPN's special teams efficiency ranking, including finishing 19th in the FBS in kick return defense (18.75), 13th in punt return average (13.92) and scoring five special teams touchdowns in 2015.

After 12 years at the college level, Galiano jumped to the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2012-13 as assistant special teams coach. In 2013, Tampa Bay led the NFL in kickoff return defense (18.8 ypr.) and blocked two punts. In 2012, the Buccaneers led the NFL with three blocked punts. Galiano also worked with K Connor Barth, who tied for the league lead in field goals of 40+ yards and P Michael Koenen, who led the league in touchbacks on kickoffs and touchback percentage on kickoffs.

In his second stint with the Scarlet Knights, Galiano coached the defensive line (2011) and tight ends (2010). In 2011, the Rutgers defense finished third in the FBS in forced turnovers (34), eighth in tackles for loss (7.62) and scoring defense (18.31) and 15th in sacks (2.69).

Prior to his second stint at Rutgers, Galiano served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Florida International from 2007-09. At FIU, Galiano helped the Panthers achieve marked improvements on the defensive side of the ball. Between the 2007 and 2008 seasons, FIU jumped up 74 spots in turnover margin, 45 spots in pass efficiency defense, 36 spots in scoring defense, 34 spots in total defense and 25 spots in rush defense. The team also ranked 25th nationally in tackles for loss average, moving up 37 spots.

In his first stop at Rutgers from 2003-06, Galiano began as a defensive graduate assistant in 2003, before he was elevated to linebackers coach in 2004. He spent the 2005-06 seasons coaching the defensive ends. His ends were major contributors on a defensive unit that ranked fourth nationally in 2006. Rutgers' defense was fifth in the NCAA in sacks and tackles for loss per game. The Scarlet Knights defense produced first-team All-America and All-Big East DL Eric Foster, as well as second-team All-Big East DL Jamaal Westerman, both of whom played in the NFL.

Galiano began his coaching career at Dickinson College, where he worked with the outside linebackers in 2000. He spent 2001 as outside linebackers coach at the University of New Haven for Rizzi who served as head coach, before becoming an offensive assistant at Villanova in 2002, working primarily with the tight ends.

A three-year starter at safety for Shippensburg, Galiano served as a tri-captain during his senior campaign. He helped lead the Raiders to consecutive winning seasons (1997-99). The Norristown, Pennsylvania native graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

PETER GIUNTA
SENIOR DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Peter Giunta (pronounced GEN-ta) enters his tenth season as a Saints senior defensive assistant in 2024. He's a 45-year coaching veteran, including 33 years of experience in the NFL with three Super Bowl Championships.

In 2023, Giunta played an integral role in implementing Head Coach Dennis Allen's and Defensive Coordinator Joe Woods' scheme in the secondary along with secondary coach Marcus Robertson and defensive assistant Matt Giordano. As a team, the Saints forced 29 turnovers after recording only 14 in 2022, ranked fourth in the NFL. The team's 18 interceptions, up from seven in 2022, were tied for third in the league, with 16 coming from the secondary. New Orleans led the NFL with 99 passes defended, with three Saints ranked in the top 10. Under the guidance of Giunta, CB Paulson Adebo had a club-best six takeaways and ranked third in the NFL with 18 passes defended. S Tyrann Mathieu tied for the team lead with Adebo with four interceptions, one returned for a touchdown.

In 2022, Giunta worked with a Saints secondary that contributed to the New Orleans defense ranking fifth in the NFL in opponent net yards per game, with a stingy back end responsible for being ranked second in the league in opponent net passing yards per game and being tied for giving up the third-fewest touchdown passes (17) in the league. Giunta worked with veterans, such as S Mathieu, while overseeing the development of second-round pick CB Alontae Taylor. Mathieu started every game, posted a career-high 91 tackles and led the Black and Gold with four takeaways. Taylor played in 13 games with nine starts and led the Saints with 11 passes defended, fourth among rookies.

In 2021, Giunta worked to develop young contributors in the secondary, as well as enhance the performance of veterans. He helped develop third round draft pick Adebo, who was the only Saints defender to open all 17 contests in 2021, while tying for the team lead with three interceptions, second among NFL rookies. CB Marshon Lattimore finished with a career-high 19 passes defended, ranked third in the NFL, while being selected to his fourth Pro Bowl in his first five seasons. New Orleans was tied for sixth in the NFL with 18 interceptions, with 16 of them coming from the secondary. In addition to New Orleans finishing fourth in the NFL in scoring defense (19.7 points per game) and seventh in total defense (318.2 net yards per game), the Saints gave up the third-fewest touchdown passes (20).

In 2020, the secondary contributed to the Saints tying for third in the NFL in takeaways (26), first in interceptions (18), ranked fourth in total defense (310.9 ypg.), and fifth in opponent points per game (21.1) and opponent net passing yards per game (217.0 ypg.). Lattimore posted 62 tackles (52 solo), two interceptions and 11 passes defended and was selected to his third Pro Bowl.

COACHING STAFF

In 2019, Saints defensive backs recorded nine interceptions, 2.5 sacks, five forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries. Giunta assisted in the growth of fourth-year S Vonn Bell, who totaled five regular season fumble recoveries – the most in the NFL and added another in the postseason. S Marcus Williams led the team with four interceptions. Lattimore became the first Saints cornerback to be selected to two Pro Bowls, leading the team with 14 passes defended.

In 2018, New Orleans defensive backs recorded ten interceptions, three sacks, nine forced fumbles and six recoveries. Giunta aided in the continued development of Lattimore, who led the team with five takeaways in the regular season, adding two interceptions in the NFC Divisional Playoff win over Philadelphia.

Lattimore enjoyed a breakout campaign in 2017, starting all 13 games he appeared in and leading NFL rookies with a team-high five interceptions and tying for the rookie lead with a club-best 18 passes defended as he was the youngest Saint (21 years old) ever selected to the Pro Bowl and the franchise's first Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year. S Kenny Vaccaro filled up the stat sheet with 60 tackles (48 solo), 1.5 sacks, a career-high three interceptions, seven passes defended and one fumble recovery.

Giunta served as the secondary/cornerbacks coach of the Giants from 2006-14, a period when New York captured two Super Bowl titles. The Salem, Mass. native was at the forefront in the development of several young cornerbacks and was instrumental in the success of numerous veterans.

Former LSU standout Corey Webster developed into an eight-year starter under Giunta's watch and recorded 22 interceptions and four fumble recoveries in the regular season and postseason, including recording three takeaways in the 2007 playoffs all the way to a Super Bowl title. Webster's pick of a Brett Favre pass set up the Giants' game-winning field goal in overtime of the NFC Championship in Green Bay. In 2011, Webster opened all 20 regular season and postseason contests. Aaron Ross, the club's first round draft pick in 2007, was inserted into the starting lineup midway through his rookie campaign and delivered three interceptions, one brought back for a score. Ross returned to the starting lineup in 2011 and finished tied for second on the team to Webster (six) with a career-high four picks. Giunta was instrumental in the development of CB Prince Amukamara, the team's first round draft pick in 2011, who despite missing the last eight games with a biceps injury in 2014, had set a career-high with three interceptions through the first eight contests. In 2009, CB Terrell Thomas led the team with five interceptions, one returned for a touchdown, as New York ranked ninth in opponent net passing yards per game. Thomas was selected to the USA Today All-Joe Team.

Giunta was Kansas City's defensive backs coach from 2001-05. In 2003, S Jerome Woods earned his first career Pro Bowl berth under his guidance, an impressive feat considering the fact that he missed the 2002 campaign with a broken leg. The Chiefs registered 25 interceptions to rank third in the NFL that season, as S Greg Wesley and CB Dexter McCleon paced the team with six picks apiece.

Giunta joined the Chiefs after spending four seasons (1997-2000) with the St. Louis Rams, including the last three as defensive coordinator. Giunta served as the Rams' assistant head coach under Dick Vermeil in 1998-99 after originally joining the staff as defensive backs coach in 1997.

As defensive coordinator, Giunta was responsible for the resurgence in a Rams defense that sparked the club's unexpected run to a world championship in 1999. Those efforts culminated with a 13-3 regular season record and a 23-16 victory over the Tennessee Titans in Super Bowl XXXIV. Giunta's unit led the league in rush defense in 1999, allowing just 74.3 yards per game, while ranking fourth in scoring defense (15.1 ppg.) and sixth in total defense (293.6 ypg.).

The Rams' 1999 defense led the NFC and was second in the NFL with 29 interceptions. CB Todd Lyght tied for the league lead with six picks, earning his initial Pro Bowl berth in the process. St. Louis was also opportunistic, returning nine takeaways (seven interceptions and two fumbles) for touchdowns in 1999. Those turnovers were due in large part to a Rams pass rush, which racked up 57.0 sacks, a figure which tied for the league lead. The sack brigade was headlined by Pro Bowl DE Kevin Carter, who led the NFL with 17.0 takedowns.

Giunta's has established a reputation for getting the most out of defensive backs. In 2000, McCleon intercepted eight passes, a total surpassed only by one player. In Giunta's first season as defensive coordinator in 1998, St. Louis ranked third in the NFL in pass defense, allowing 176.9 yards per game. With Giunta serving as defensive backs coach in 1997 the Rams were second in the league with 25 interceptions, including an NFL-high nine by CB Ryan McNeil.

Prior to his stint with the Rams, Giunta spent two seasons as defensive backs coach for the New York Jets. In 1995, the Jets led the league in opponent net yards passing (171.3 yards per game). Giunta was instrumental in the development of CB Aaron Glenn, who would go on to be a three-time All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection.

Giunta entered the NFL as the defensive backs coach with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1991-94. In 1991, the Eagles defense ranked first in the league in passing defense (150.8 yards per game), rushing defense (71.0 yards per game) and total defense (221.8 yards per game). That marked just the fifth time in NFL history and the first time since 1975 that a single team led the league in all three of those defensive categories. No team has equaled that feat since the 1991 Eagles.

Giunta's ten seasons in the college ranks began at Penn State (1981-83). He was a defensive assistant his first year before coaching the tight ends in his final two seasons. While he was at Penn State, the Nittany Lions won the 1982 National Championship with a 27-23 victory over Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. Penn State won three bowl games during Giunta's tenure.

Following Penn State, Giunta moved to Brown (1984-87), where he coached tight ends and wide receivers before becoming the offensive coordinator (1986-87). He then joined the staff at Lehigh (1988-90), where he was responsible for tight ends and wide receivers.

After a four-year playing career as a defensive back and running back at Northeastern (1974-77), Giunta began his coaching career in Massachusetts, where he was an assistant coach at Swampscott High School from 1978-80.

In 2012, Grantham led a unit that contributed to only Georgia's third 12-win season all-time, as the Bulldogs allowed just 19 points (one touchdown, four field goals) in their last three SEC regular season victories and had a streak of six scoreless quarters. Janocko has 13 years of coaching experience, including 11 in the NFL. He joins the Saints after spending the past two years as quarterbacks coach of the Chicago Bears. In addition to his time in Chicago, Janocko also held several offensive roles in his time with the Minnesota Vikings (2015-21), coached quarterbacks at Mercyhurst University in Erie, Pa. (2014), spent two seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2012-13) and was a graduate assistant at Rutgers University in 2011.

Over the past two seasons, Janocko was instrumental in the development of signal-caller Justin Fields, who completed 419-of-688 (60.9 pct.) passes for 4,804 yards with 33 touchdown passes, while carrying 284 times for 1,800 yards (6.3 avg.) with 12 touchdowns in 28 starts. In Week 14 of the 2023 season, Fields became the second-fastest quarterback in NFL history to reach 2,000 rushing yards in only 36 games and only the third signal-caller with at least 2,000 rushing yards in his first three seasons. In 2023, despite playing in two fewer games than 2022 due to injuries, Fields improved in most major passing categories, completing 227-of-370 (61.4 pct.) passes for 2,562 yards with 16 touchdowns and an 86.3 passer rating, while carrying 124 times for 657 yards with four touchdowns. The Bears improved their victory total from three in 2022 to seven in 2023, as Fields won four of his final six starts.

Fields finished the 2022 season with eight rushing touchdowns and 1,143 rushing yards over 15 starts, becoming one of three quarterbacks in NFL history to rush for 1,000-or-more yards in a single season, joining Lamar Jackson and Michael Vick. In 2021, Janocko helped veteran QB Kirk Cousins throw for 4,221 yards with 33 touchdowns, seven interceptions and a 103.1 passer rating, as he was named to his third Pro Bowl. Cousins' passer rating was fourth-best in the NFL and he was one of only two quarterbacks in 2021 to throw for over 30 touchdowns with fewer than ten interceptions.

With Janocko as his position coach in 2020, first-round draft pick Justin Jefferson had one of the greatest seasons by a rookie receiver in NFL history. Jefferson set a league rookie receiving record with 1,400 yards and became the NFL's first rookie receiver to

In 2019, while assisting the offensive line, the Vikings allowed only 28 sacks, tying them for the fifth-fewest in the NFL. The mark also tied for the eighth-fewest sacks allowed in franchise history. The offensive line paved the way for Dalvin Cook to rush for 1,135 yards, the Vikings' first 1,000-yard rusher since Adrian Peterson did so in 2015.

In 2018, serving as co-offensive line coach with Saints Tight Ends Coach Clancy Barone, the Vikings line protected Cousins, as he set a team record for completions (425), posted the second-best completion percentage mark in team history (70.1%) and threw for what were the second-most yards (4,298) in franchise history.

Serving as assistant offensive line coach in 2017, the Vikings line was pivotal to the team going 13-3, winning the NFC North title and advancing to the NFC Championship Game. The line paved the way for several offensive players to have career years, highlighted by QB Case Keenum. Cook set a team record for rookies with 288 yards in the opening three games of the season, but suffered a season-ending torn ACL injury in the fourth contest. The Vikings jumped from last in the NFL in rushing in 2016 to seventh in 2017 and climbed from No. 28 in total offense to No. 11. Janocko started his Vikings tenure as an offensive assistant from 2015-16.

Janocko arrived in Minnesota after coaching the quarterbacks at Division II Mercyhurst for one season in 2014. His first start in coaching came in 2011, when he was a graduate assistant at Rutgers, working with quarterbacks under Greg Schiano. Janocko's first NFL coaching opportunity came in 2012 when then-Tampa Bay Head Coach Schiano offered him a position to serve as an offensive assistant for two seasons (2012-13).

A three-year letterman at Pittsburgh, Janocko served as a backup quarterback and holder on special teams. Janocko spent his first two seasons as a walk-on before earning a scholarship his final two seasons. LB Andrew Dowell, in his first full NFL season, tied for fifth in the league with 14 coverage stops and blocked a punt. For the first time in franchise history, two special teams players were selected to the AP All-Pro team (Gray and Harty) and for the second time two were selected to the Pro Bowl (Harty and Lutz). An undrafted free agent, Harty ranked in the top five in the NFL in kickoff and punt return average. at Buffalo (Dec. 24) as the field goal unit was rushing onto the field to tie the score and send the contest to overtime. The eventual Dolphins win solidified the team's first playoff berth since 2008. Grant and KR Kenyan Drake each had touchdown returns, becoming the second Dolphins rookie tandem and fourth NFL rookie duo to return a punt and kickoff for a touchdown in the same season. Thomas tied for the NFL lead in special teams tackles (19, including a league-best 16 solo). Walt Aikens scored the first two-point defensive conversion in team history after he returned a blocked PAT for two points. The team finished in the top ten in several additional special teams units including opponents starting field position following a kickoff (tenth/24.4 yard line), own starting field position following a kickoff (eighth/25.3 yard line) and opponent net punting average (third/37.4 yards per punt).

In 2015, WR Jarvis Landry earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his Week One performance, when he returned a punt 69 yards for a touchdown. Landry ranked fourth in the NFL with 356 punt return yards. Matt Darr posted the fourth-best gross punting average (47.6) in team history and earned NFL All-Rookie team honors as his punting average was third in the league. Franks was 13-for-16 in field goal attempts as a rookie. The Dolphins ranked in the top 10 in five special teams categories.

In 2014, Rizzi guided a special teams unit that set the team record with three blocked punts. They also added two blocked field goals, giving Miami five blocked kicks, the most since the team blocked seven in 1977. Explosive plays were not limited to the block units as Landry won October AFC Special Teams Player of the Month when he returned five kickoffs for 178 yards (35.6 avg.), with a long of 54. The 35.6 average kickoff return was the second-highest in the NFL in October and the highest October average in franchise history. Landry finished the season with a 28.1 kick return average, the fourth-highest in the NFL and tops among rookies.

In 2013, for the third-straight season, Dolphins special teams were rated among the top eight units in the NFL based on Gosselin's annual rankings. Miami was one of three teams to remain in the top 10 (along with Baltimore and Seattle) in both the 2013 and 2012 rankings. Additionally, from 2011-13, only Miami and Seattle were ranked in the top 10. Rizzi's units were highlighted by the play of P Brandon Fields, who earned his first Pro Bowl berth. Fields ranked second in the NFL in gross punting average (48.8), second in net average (42.4, which was eighth-best in NFL history at the time), tied for fourth with 33 punts inside the 20-yard line and also recorded the third-longest punt (74 yards) during the season as he was selected to the Pro Bowl.

The 2012 campaign was built off a strong 2011 season for Dolphins special teams. Gosselin ranked Miami as the NFL's fourth-best special teams unit, making the Dolphins the only team in the NFL to rank in the top five in both 2012 and 2011, following a second place finish in 2011. Fields continued to establish himself as one of the most productive punters in NFL history, leading the league with a 50.2 average, while moving into first place in team history for highest career punting average (46.4), highest-career net punting average (38.7) and second place in NFL history for highest-career punting average (46.4). Marcus Thigpen became the first player in team history to return a kickoff and a punt for touchdowns in the same season. Thigpen also stood alone as the only player in the NFL to rank in the top five in kickoff return average (27.4) and punt return average (12.2). Additionally, Miami became the first NFL team in the last 20 years to block a field goal, block a punt and recover their own onside kick in the same game.

After Rizzi took over the special teams in Week Five of the 2010 season, the Dolphins improved in almost every major statistical special teams category, including net and gross punting average, punt and kickoff return average, average drive start and opponent's gross and net punting average. He led an impressive 2011 campaign by the Dolphins special teams. The Dolphins showed the biggest improvement of any NFL special teams unit from 2010 to 2011 according to Gosselin's annual report. The improvement saw the Dolphins jump from their 2010 ranking of 24th in the NFL to second in 2011. The 22-place advancement was aided by K Dan Carpenter's 13-of-16 in field goals from 40 yards and beyond and Fields' net punting average of 41.1 yards.

Rizzi joined the Dolphins with four years of experience as a college head coach, including 2008 at the University of Rhode Island. Prior to taking over the program at URI, Rizzi was an assistant at Rutgers for the previous six seasons (2002-07), where he headed up the Scarlet Knights' special teams units. He also tutored the team's running backs his first three years and the linebackers his final three. In Rizzi's six years at Rutgers, he coached three players who earned first-team All-Big East honors in special teams including kick returner Nate Jones (2002), kick/punt returner Willie Foster (2005) and punter Joe Radigan (2006). Jones also was named the conference's co-Special Teams Player of the Year in 2002 while Foster was the Big East Special Teams Player of the Year in 2005.

Before his Rutgers stint, Rizzi was head coach at the University of New Haven, where he guided the Chargers to a three-year record of 15-14 from 1999-2001. He was the special teams and linebackers coach at Northeastern University in 1998. JOE WOODS DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Joe Woods enters his second season as the Saints' defensive coordinator in 2024. A 32-year coaching veteran, including the last 20 in the NFL, Woods enters his seventh NFL season as a defensive coordinator.

With Woods' influence in his first season with the club in 2023, the Saints made great strides getting their hands on the football and taking it away. New Orleans ranked 31st in the NFL in 2022 and forced 29 turnovers in 2023, ranked fourth, with CB Paulson Adebo leading the team with six. New Orleans was 5-1 when they forced at least two defensive turnovers in a game. The Black and Gold also increased their interception total from seven to 18, tied for third in the league with Adebo and S Tyrann Mathieu leading the club with four apiece. The team led the NFL with 99 passes defended, with the Saints the only team to have three players ranked in the top ten individually with at least 14, including Adebo with 18, third in the league. The Saints ranked eighth in opponent points per game, tenth in opponent net passing yards per game and fourth in the league in third down defense after tying for 24th a year earlier.

Woods came to New Orleans after serving as defensive coordinator of the Cleveland Browns from 2020-22. In 2022, Woods led a Browns defensive unit that had a constantly-evolving cast of players. Despite the changes, the Browns tied for fourth in the NFL in passes defended (85) and ranked fifth in opponent net passing yards per game (196.2 ypg.) and helped Cleveland win four of its last seven games after a 3-7 start, surrendering 17 points or fewer in five of the contests. In a Week 17 24-10 victory over the Washington Commanders that eliminated Washington from the playoff chase, Cleveland held them to 260 net yards and recorded three interceptions.

Veteran contributors also enjoyed standout campaigns and others made strides as young professionals under Woods' leadership in Cleveland. DE Myles Garrett tied his own team record with 16 sacks, first set in 2021, tied for second-most in the NFL. He became the only player to record 16 takedowns in 2021 and 2022, as he was selected to the Pro Bowl and as an AP second-team All-Pro. S Grant Delpit showed significant growth in his second season, when he led the team in interceptions (four) and tackles (101), as one of only three NFL players to have at least four picks and 100 stops. CB Denzel Ward led the team with five takeaways, including two fumble returns for touchdowns and tied for the team lead in passes defended (15). Rookie CB Martin Emerson Jr. tied Ward for the team lead in pass breakups and a Pro Football Journal All-Rookie, as Cleveland was one of only two teams to have two players with at least 15 passes defended.

Under Woods' supervision in 2021, the Browns finished fifth in the NFL in total defense, marking just the third time since 1970 the team ranked in the top-five and the club's highest finish since 1987, one of just three NFL teams to finish in the top-12 in total defense, run defense and pass defense. Garrett earned first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors with 16 takedowns and Ward earned his second career Pro Bowl selection.

Upon arriving in Cleveland in 2020, Woods helped the opportunistic Browns reach the playoffs for the first time since 2002, as they led the NFL with six red zone takeaways and tied for second with 17 forced fumbles. The Browns were 6-0 when they forced two or more turnovers in a game and 8-1 with at least one takeaway. In the Wild Card Playoff victory at Pittsburgh, the Browns recorded five takeaways, including four interceptions. The club finished ninth in run defense after finishing 30th in 2019, prior to Woods' arrival. Garrett earned first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors as he ranked among the league leaders in strip sacks (tied for second with four), forced fumbles (tied for third with four), fumble recoveries (tied for third with two) and sacks (sixth with 12). Along with DE Olivier Vernon (nine), the Browns were one of just four teams to have a pair of teammates each record at least nine sacks. Ward finished tied for second in the NFL with 18 passes defended, despite only playing in 12 games.

Prior to his tenure in Cleveland, Woods served as defensive backs/pass game coordinator for the Super Bowl LIV finalist San Francisco 49ers in 2019, when they held opponents to 169.2 passing yards per game, ranking first in the NFL in 2019 and the lowest total allowed by an NFL team since 2009. San Francisco also led the league with 21 forced fumbles and finished in the top-eight in nine other major defensive categories.

Woods spent four seasons in Denver from 2015-18, where he served as defensive backs coach his first two seasons and as defensive coordinator his final two.

Under Woods' tutelage in 2018, LB Von Miller and rookie LB Bradley Chubb combined for 26.5 sacks, as Miller's 14.5 were the second-most in a single season in his career and Chubb's 12.0 set the Broncos franchise rookie record. Miller was selected to his fifth consecutive Pro Bowl, as he reached double-digit takedown totals for the fifth consecutive season, also adding four takeaways.

The 2017 Broncos finished third in the NFL in total defense and joined the Minnesota Vikings as the only two teams to rank in the top five in run defense (89.4 ypg.) and passing defense (200.6 ypg.) that season. Woods' defense also held each of its opponents to less than 300 net yards passing. Miller led the team with ten sacks as he was selected to the Pro Bowl and PFW/PFWA All-NFL. LB Brandon Marshall led the team with 106 tackles at inside linebacker and added a career-high three sacks.

Prior to his promotion to defensive coordinator, Woods coached Denver's defensive backs to first-place rankings in the NFL in opponent net passing yards per game allowed in both 2015 (199.6) and 2016 (185.8). The Broncos also held opponents to the lowest completion percentage (57.8), yards per attempt (5.99) and passer rating (74.3) during those two seasons. From 2015-16, the Broncos secondary led the NFL in defensive touchdowns (seven).

Each of Denver's four starting defensive backs made at least one Pro Bowl playing for Woods from 2015-16, including CBs Chris Harris Jr. (2015-16) and Aquib Talib (2015-16), who were also named first-team All-Pro selections in 2016, S T.J. Ward (2015) and S Darian Stewart (2016) also earned Pro Bowl honors while playing for Woods.

In 2014, Woods tutored the Oakland Raiders secondary. He worked with Pro Football Hall of Fame DB Charles Woodson, who led the team with 160 tackles (105 solo) and four interceptions (35 yds.) in his 17th NFL season.

Prior to his season in Oakland, Woods spent eight seasons coaching defensive backs for the Minnesota Vikings (2006-13). The Vikings finished in the NFL's top 10 defenses in four of his first five years with the team, winning consecutive NFC North Division titles from 2008-09 and making an appearance in the NFC Championship game following the 2009 season. In 2013, Woods was instrumental in the development of first-round CB Xavier Rhodes, who appeared in 13 games (six starts) for the club and set a Vikings rookie record with 23 passes defended. CB Antoine Winfield earned all three of his career Pro Bowl selections (2008-10) playing for Woods, recording 14 interceptions and 58 passes defended in his six years with the Vikings.

Woods was brought to Minnesota in 2006 along with defensive coordinator Mike Tomlin, who worked side-by-side with him as a secondary coach in Tampa Bay from 2004-05. With Woods serving as a defensive quality control coach, he assisted Tomlin in coaching a talented secondary led by CB Ronde Barber, who would earn first-team AP All-Pro both seasons and is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2023. In 2005, the Buccaneers boasted the NFL's top defensive unit (277.8 ypg.)—including the league's sixth-ranked pass defense (183.1 ypg.)—while finishing 11-5 and capturing the NFC South Division title. Barber set a team record for most tackles (120) by a cornerback and led the club with five interceptions. Tampa Bay ranked first in the NFL in pass defense (161.2 ypg.) in Woods' first season with the club in 2004 and limited opposing quarterbacks to a 77.2 passer rating. Barber was selected to his second career Pro Bowl after finishing the season as one of just four NFL cornerbacks to record at least three interceptions and three sacks.

Before joining the Bucs, Woods was the defensive backs coach for three seasons

He began his coaching career as a defensive backs coach at Muskingum College (1992) and moved on to become a graduate assistant coach at Eastern Michigan University a year later (1993).

Woods lettered four times as a cornerback and safety at Illinois State, graduating in 1992 with a degree in criminal justice. He was team captain as a senior in 1991 and went on to earn first-team All-Gateway Conference following his final season.

BRIAN YOUNG PASS RUSH SPECIALIST

Brian Young enters his ninth season as the club's pass rush specialist. In his 15th season as a valued member of the New Orleans Saints coaching staff, Young has worked with all of the club's front seven position groups after first breaking into the ranks as a coaching assistant in 2009 following the conclusion of a nine-year playing career and 124 games along the defensive line in the National Football League.

Since 2017, New Orleans' 315 sacks rank fourth in the NFL, 11 different defensive linemen have produced multi-sack games and the defense went an NFL-record 55 regular season and postseason games without allowing a 100-yard rusher between the 2017-20 campaigns. The Saints have ranked in the top ten in sacks five of the last seven seasons.

In the 2023 season, Young helped tutor a pair of young Saints defensive linemen to impressive production. Carl Granderson blossomed under Young's tutelage with a career-high and team-best 8.5 sacks as part of a 78-tackle effort. In 2017, Ireland led a standout draft effort headlined by Lattimore and Kamara, who became the first duo from the same team since 1967 to sweep AP Defensive and Offensive Rookie of the Year and they were the first Saints duo selected to the Pro Bowl as rookies. In 2020, Kamara, the only Saint selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first four campaigns, shattered the club's touchdown record with an NFL-best 21 scores and is the team's all-time leader in total touchdowns and rushing touchdowns. Lattimore has been selected to four Pro Bowls. McCoy has become the anchor of the interior offensive line, receiving his first Pro Bowl selection in 2023.

He replaced almost half the roster, bringing on board 27 new faces, including nine new starters. Eight players he acquired through the draft, free agency and trades accounted for a total of 14 Pro Bowl selections, with Jake Long and Cameron Wake earning AP first-team All-Pro.

Ireland joined Miami after a seven-year stint (2001-07) with the Dallas Cowboys, where he served his last three seasons as the team's vice president/college and pro scouting. He was originally hired as the team's national scout and in four years in that role, his talent evaluation led to the drafting of four Pro Bowl performers. In 2007, the Cowboys went 13-3 and won the NFC East. Of the 53 players on the roster, 38 were acquired over the three years (2005-07) he served as VP/scouting, seven making the Pro Bowl during that time.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Ireland spent four years with the Kansas City Chiefs as an area scout. He served as a National Football Scouting Combine area scout from 1994-1996 and helped coach special teams at the University of North Texas from 1992-1993.

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 3, 1988) - Louisiana Superdome (68,127)

The Vikings spoiled the Saints' playoff debut by racing out to a 21-point lead at halftime and never looking back in a NFC Wild Card Playoff game at the Superdome. New Orleans struck first when QB Booby Hebert found WR Eric Martin for a ten-yard TD pass early in the first quarter, but the Vikings answered with 24 consecutive points. The Saints scored their final points on a 40-yard FG by K Morten Andersen late in the first half. A "Hail Mary" TD pass from QB Wade Wilson to WR Hassan Jones as the second quarter ended pushed the Vikings lead to 31-10. The teams traded FGs in the final quarter, with Andersen drilling a 38-yard kick and Butler connecting from 21 yards out to produce the winning margin. Chicago RB Neal Anderson rushed 27 times for 102 yards and hauled in four passes for 42 yards as the Bears rolled up 365 total yards to the Saints' 193 yards of offense.

SAINTS 27 PHILADELPHIA EAGLES 24

NFC Divisional Playoff (Jan. 13, 2007) - Louisiana Superdome (70,001)

RB Deuce McAllister set a team playoff record with 143 rushing yards, leading the Saints to a come-from-behind victory over Philadelphia in the NFC Divisional Playoffs. McAllister, making his first NFL postseason appearance, rushed for one touchdown and caught another. New Orleans took the early lead after a pair of field goals, but Philadelphia struck on a 75-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter. The Saints responded with a lengthy drive capped by a four-yard TD burst by RB Reggie Bush, but the Eagles took a lead into halftime after an 80-yard touchdown drive. Philadelphia RB Brian Westbrook shook loose for a 65-yard touchdown run to open the second half, giving the Eagles a 21-13 advantage. But McAllister put the Saints ahead by capping the next two drives with a five-yard scoring run and an 11-yard touchdown reception. Philadelphia added a field goal in the final quarter, but the Saints forced a punt on the Eagles' final possession, and the offense picked up a key first down to run out the clock and preserve the victory.

CHICAGO BEARS 39 SAINTS 14

NFC Conference Championship (Jan. 21, 2007) - Soldier Field (61,817)

In the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game, after trailing 16-0 the Saints sliced the Bears' lead to two points and were behind by only four early in the fourth quarter, but four turnovers proved too difficult to overcome. A fumble led to Chicago's first field goal late in the first quarter, and another fumble on the ensuing kickoff added another three-pointer for the Bears a few minutes later. Chicago would drive for a field goal in the second quarter to go ahead 9-0 and march for a TD on its next drive to take a 16-0 lead. The Saints would get on the scoreboard when WR Marques Colston hauled in a 13-yard touchdown with 51 seconds remaining in the first half. Chicago's lead shrunk to 16-14 when RB Reggie Bush scored on an 88-yard TD early in the second half. But QB Drew Brees was flagged for intentional grounding in the end zone for a safety later in the third quarter, and the Bears wore down the Saints in the fourth quarter following a pair of New Orleans turnovers and after the Saints failed to convert on two fourth-down attempts.

NFC Divisional Playoff (Jan. 13, 2019) - Mercedes-Benz Superdome (73,027)

Facing a defending Super Bowl champion in the postseason for the first time since 2000, the Saints knocked off the early rust of a 14-0 first quarter deficit to score 20 unanswered points for the remaining scoring in the contest. On the first play from scrimmage, a long pass attempt by QB Drew Brees intended for WR Ted Ginn Jr. was intercepted by Eagles CB Cre'Veon LeBlanc. Philadelphia QB Nick Foles then engineered a seven-play, 76-yard drive that ended with a 37-yard TD pass to WR Jordan Matthews. Philadelphia and New Orleans then traded touchdowns and K Will Lutz drilled a 45-yard field goal with six seconds left in the first half to put the Saints within four points. In the third quarter, New Orleans pulled to a 17-14 lead on a two-yard TD pass from Brees to WR Michael Thomas on an 18-play, 92-yard drive. Behind 20-14, Foles brought the Eagles close to scoring territory late in the fourth quarter, but CB Marshon Lattimore's second interception sealed the win.

SAINTS 21 CHICAGO BEARS 9

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 10, 2021) - Mercedes-Benz Superdome (3,000)

Drew Brees threw a pair of touchdown passes to WR Michael Thomas and RB Latavius Murray and the Saints defense held the Bears to only nine points and 239 total net yards, the lowest opponent totals in the team's playoff history. The Saints led 7-3 entering the third quarter, when after forcing a punt and consumed 7:29, while driving to the Bears eight-yard line. After Murray rushed for two yards, Brees then found the running back on a six-yard touchdown to give New Orleans a 14-3 lead. After forcing a three-and-out, Brees engineered a 15-play, 64-yard drive that took 8:51 and ended with a three-yard rushing TD by RB Alvin Kamara. The Saints then forced another three-and-out and drove to the one-yard line on the next drive, where a fourth-and-one Brees dive did not reach the end zone with 2:19 left in the fourth quarter. Although Bears QB Mitchell Trubisky connected on an 19-yard touchdown to TE Jimmy Graham as time expired, the gritty effort would be enough for New Orleans to advance to the divisional round.

JIM FINKS

PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

BORN: 8/31/27 DIED: 5/8/94

COLLEGE: TULSA '49

PLAYER: 1949-55

GENERAL MANAGER: 1964-93

SAINTS PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER: 1986-93

YEAR INDUCTED: 1995

On July 29, 1995, an illustrious career as a football administrator was capped when Jim Finks was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Finks' posthumous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of significant accomplishments.

Finks was named president/general manager of the Saints on January 14, 1986 by Owner Tom Benson. As Benson's first major hire since purchasing the team in 1985, Finks brought with him a portfolio of success as a player, coach, scout and administrator that had spanned 37 years in sports.

Much like his prior stints as general manager with the Minnesota Vikings and Chicago Bears, Finks' final stop would also be a success. Hiring head coach Jim Mora and picking impact players in guard/tackle Jim Dombrowski, running backs Dalton Hilliard and Rueben Mayes and linebacker Pat Swilling in his first draft, a franchise that had not achieved a winning season in 20 years logged a 12-3 mark in 1987, second-best in the NFL and go on to their first-ever playoff game. Finks' presence was apparent and recognized as he was named The Sporting News NFL Executive of the Year.

Under Finks' leadership, the Saints would continue to have success, winning their first division title in 1991 as the NFC West championship flag flew in New Orleans for the first time. However, shortly after his final draft in 1993, where he mined a future Pro Football Hall of Fame selection in tackle William Roaf, Finks would be forced to resign due to a valiant fight with lung cancer that would claim his life on May 8, 1994. Overall from 1986-92, the Saints would win 60 percent of their regular season games and enjoy a streak of six consecutive non-losing years. Over that period, only two other NFL teams had the same accomplishment.

Prior to coming to New Orleans, Finks served as general manager of the Chicago Bears from 1974-83, where he constructed one of the NFL's most dominating teams. Before his departure, Finks would acquire 19 of the 22 starters for a Bears team that compiled a 15-1 record in 1985 and crushed New England in Super Bowl XX. During his 10-year tenure in Minnesota, Finks hired then-unknown Bud Grant as head coach and the Vikings followed with a string of five NFC Central crowns and two Super Bowl appearances.

The Salem, Ill. native played quarterback at Tulsa University and was a 12th round selection of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1949. Finks played defensive back until 1952, when he became the Steelers' starting quarterback and went to the Pro Bowl. After retiring as an NFL player following the 1955 season, he served as an assistant coach for two seasons before beginning his career as an administrator as the general manager of Calgary of the Canadian Football League in 1958.

RICKEY JACKSON
LINEBACKER

BORN: 3/20/58
COLLEGE: PITTSBURGH
NFL: 1981-95
SAINTS: 1981-93
YEAR INDUCTED: 2010

One of the most productive linebackers in National Football League history, Rickey Jackson served as the linchpin of one of the most dominant linebacker corps the league has ever seen. He became the first player to have spent the majority of his career with New Orleans to have been selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

The Pahokee, Fla. native had an outstanding college career at Pittsburgh and was picked in the second round (51st overall) by the Saints in the 1981 NFL Draft. Jackson appeared in 227 regular season games, starting 225 during 15 NFL seasons, 13 of with the Saints. With 115 sacks as a Saint, he was the club's all-time leader until the end of the 2022 season. Jackson led the club in takedowns six times. He missed only two contests out of a possible 229 regular season games in his career.

Jackson finished his career with 128 sacks, (his eight sacks in his rookie season of 1981 are not included since sacks did not become an official statistic until 1982) ranked tenth all-time in NFL history. He is also the franchise's all-time leader in fumble recoveries with 26.

As a show of respect by opposing coaches and players for his dominating pass rush abilities and sideline to sideline play, Jackson was named to the Pro Bowl six times (1983-86, 1992-93) in his career, tied for the third-most by a Saint. He was an All-Pro selection six times (1984-87, 1992-93). After failing to post a winning campaign in the franchise's first 18 seasons, Jackson's Saints did not have a losing season in his final seven campaigns with the club from 1987-93, qualifying for the playoffs four times during this period.

Jackson would close out his NFL career with San Francisco from 1994-95, earning a championship ring as part of the Super Bowl XXIX winners. Jackson retired as a Saint in 1996. He was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame in 1997 and to the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 1999. In 2013, he was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Ring of Honor and in 2016 was named to the franchise's All-50th team.

One of the most accomplished tackles in National Football League history, William Roaf was the anchor of the Saints offensive line for nine seasons. Coming out of Louisiana Tech in 1993, Roaf was picked by the Saints with the eighth overall choice in the 1993 NFL Draft.

The Pine Bluff, Ark. native was immediately inserted by head coach Jim Mora into the starting lineup at right tackle, where he would start every contest and was selected to several All-Rookie teams. The 6-5, 312-pounder moved to the left side in his second season where he was named a Pro Bowl starter and Associated Press first-team All-Pro, which would begin a 12-year stretch as one of the most dominant left tackles in NFL history.

During his nine seasons with the Saints, Roaf was named to the Pro Bowl seven consecutive times (1994-2000), the second-most appearances ever by a Saint. Following a trade to the Kansas City Chiefs in 2002, he would be selected four more times, totaling 11 total selections, tied for the most nominations by a tackle in league history with Anthony Munoz and Jonathan Ogden. He also was an eight-time AP All-Pro selection, with four selections from each club. Overall, Roaf started all 189 regular season games and three postseason contests he appeared in for the Saints and Chiefs.

Roaf received one of football's highest honors as he was named to the NFL's All-Decade teams of the 1990's and 2000's, voted on by the Pro Football Hall of Fame selection committee. He was a first-team selection for the 1990's squad and a second-team choice on the 2000's roster, making him one of only 16 players since the AFL-NFL merger to be named to two All-Decade rosters. Additionally, Roaf was named to the Saints Hall of Fame in 2008 and is a member of the Louisiana and Arkansas Sports Hall of Fames. In 2013, he was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Ring of Honor. In 2014 he was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame and in 2016 was named to the franchise's All-50th team.

One of the most decorated kickers in NFL history, Andersen became only the second exclusive placekicker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The NFL's all-time scoring leader until the 2018 season played in an NFL-record 382 games during his 25-year career with five teams.

The Copenhagen, Denmark native was a Saints scoring weapon for 13 seasons after being selected by New Orleans in the 1982 NFL Draft in the fourth round (86th overall) out of Michigan State. During his Saints career, Andersen was named to the Pro Bowl four consecutive times and six-times overall (1985-88, 1990,1992) and was named a first team AP All-Pro selection five times (1985-88,1992). He finished his Saints career as the club's all-time leader in scoring with 1,318 points, in field goals made with 302 and 25 consecutive field goals made. Andersen went on to play eight seasons for the Falcons (1995-2000, 2006-07) and became Atlanta's all-time scoring leader, earning Pro Bowl and AP All-Pro selections in 1995. In the 1999 NFC Championship game, he made a game-winning kick in overtime to beat Minnesota 30-27. Andersen spent the 2001 season with the Giants, the 2002-03 campaigns with the Chiefs and the 2004 season with the Vikings.

Andersen's illustrious career would break almost every NFL kicking and scoring record. In his 25 seasons, he became the NFL's all-time leader in scoring with 2,544 points, in games played with 382 appearances, in field goals made with 565, achieved NFL records with 22 seasons with 90+ points and scored in an NFL record 360 straight games. The seven-time Pro Bowler and six-time All-Pro hit 22 game winning kicks in the final two-minutes or less, with seven of them taking place in overtime.

Andersen received one of the greatest honors in football as he was named to the NFL's All Decade teams of the 1980's and 1990's, voted on by the Pro Football Hall of Fame selection committee. The "Great Dane" was named a first-team selection for both the 1980's team and 1990's roster, making him one of only 16 players since the AFL-NFL merger to be named to two All Decade teams. Andersen is a member of the Saints Hall of Fame (2009), the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame (2011), the Saints Ring of Honor (2015) and the club's All-50th team (2016).

During his tenure, the Saints were ranked in the top four in the NFL in opponent net yards per game three times (1987, 1991-92) and in scoring defense three times (1988, 1991-92), including ranking first in both 1991 and 1992. In four postseason contests, he also added 35 tackles (27 solo) and one sack.

Mills was selected to the Saints Hall of Fame in 1998 and the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 2001 and posthumously the club's All-50th Team (2016) and Ring of Honor (2021).

Following the conclusion of his Saints career in 1994, Mills played three more seasons for the Carolina Panthers from 1995-97, producing 331 tackles, ten sacks and seven interceptions, summing up his career totals to 1,265 stops, 20.5 quarterback takedowns and 11 interceptions. 1967 EXPANSION DRAFT

Held Feb. 10, 1967

In what became the foundation of New Orleans' first team, the Saints selected 42 players in an expansion draft, using the same procedures as in the formation of the Atlanta Falcons in 1966. The Falcons were exempted from the expansion draft in 1967, thus leaving 14 teams from whom the Saints selected players. The procedures that were in place for the Saints were as follows: Each of the other 14 NFL teams froze 29 players from its 40-man roster, leaving 11 players available to be selected. The Saints chose one player from those 11 remaining on each team. Then, each team froze two additional players, leaving eight on each list, from which the Saints chose two more.
