HOME AWAY

DEDICATION

The 2025 Miami Dolphins Media Guide is dedicated to the memories of former defensive tackle Randy Crowder, running back Eddie Hill, team trainer Bob Lundy, running back Mercury Morris, running back Gary Tucker, wide receiver Howard Twilley and running back/wide receiver Tom Vigorito, each of whom passed away during the past year.

Crowder (July 30, 1953 – May 20, 2025) was selected by the Dolphins in the sixth round of the 1974 NFL Draft. The defensive tackle spent three seasons with the Dolphins (1974-76), appearing in 39 games with 25 starts. He was the father of former Dolphins linebacker Channing Crowder, who was also drafted by Miami in the third round of the 2005 NFL Draft and spent five seasons with the team (2005-10).

Hill (May 13, 1957 – Feb. 24, 2025) was a running back acquired by the Dolphins in a trade with the L.A. Rams in 1981. He spent four seasons with Miami (1981-84), appearing in 52 games and recording 52 rushing attempts for 209 yards and one touchdown. In 1982, Hill helped the Dolphins capture the AFC East by completing a 14-yard pass to tight end Bruce Hardy in Miami's Week 8 win against Buffalo. It was the first Dolphins pass completion by a player other than a quarterback since 1974. He helped the Dolphins reach Super Bowl XVII and Super Bowl XIX.

Lundy (March 28, 1936 – Aug. 27, 2024) was the Dolphins' longtime team trainer after joining the team for its inaugural season in 1966 under Head Coach George Wilson and spending almost 30 years with the organization. Lundy was one of the most respected NFL trainers of his time. In his role, he worked closely with team physicians and was responsible for treatment of injuries as well as nutrition and the team's conditioning program. Throughout his career, Lundy looked after some of the greatest players to ever wear the aqua and orange. One of his greatest personal highlights was when Dolphins legendary fullback Larry Csonka thanked him in his Pro Football Hall of Fame induction speech in 1987.

Morris (Jan. 5, 1947 – Sept. 21, 2024) was one of the most prolific running backs in Dolphins history. A two-time Super Bowl champion and a member of the Dolphins 1972 Perfect Team, Morris spent seven seasons with Miami (1969-75) and one with San Diego (1976). He was a third-round selection by the Dolphins in 1969 and produced several record-setting performances with the team, including most rushing yards in a game (197 vs. NE, 1973), most rushing touchdowns in a season (12, 1972) and highest career (5.1) and single-season (6.4, 1973) rushing averages. He also logged the longest run from scrimmage at the time, a 70-yard run against New England in 1973, which he tied weeks later at Cleveland. A three-time Pro Bowler (1971-73), Morris led the NFL in rushing touchdowns in 1972 and in rushing average in 1973.

Tucker (Feb. 19, 1945 – Feb. 4, 2025) was a running back who was drafted by Miami in the fifth round of 1967 NFL Draft. He appeared in four games with the Dolphins in 1968 primarily as a special teams contributor. He recorded 4 rushing attempts for 13 yards (3.3 avg.) in addition to three kickoff returns for 54 yards (18.0 avg.) and five punt returns for 40 yards (8.0 avg.).

Twilley (Dec. 25, 1943 – Feb. 5, 2025) was a founding player for the Dolphins after being selected by Miami in the 12th round of the 1966 AFL Draft. He went on to spend 11 seasons with the team (1966-76) and was a member of Miami's 1972 Perfect Team and a two-time Super Bowl Champion. The wide receiver played 120 career games and recorded 212 passes for 3,064 yards and 23 touchdowns. Twilley caught a 28-yard touchdown pass from Hall of Fame Quarterback Bob Griese during Super Bowl VII, helping the Dolphins cap the NFL's only undefeated season. He was a 1992 College Football Hall of Fame inductee.

Vigorito (Oct. 23, 1959 – May 13, 2025) was drafted by Miami in the fifth round of the 1981 NFL Draft and went on to spend five seasons with the Dolphins (1981-85). A versatile player, Vigorito served as wide receiver, running back and return specialist. He played in 35 games, recording 79 punt returns for 830 yards (10.5 avg.) and two touchdowns, along with 59 receptions for 439 yards (7.4 avg.) with two touchdowns and 54 carries for 215 rushing yards (4.0 avg.) and two touchdowns.

Stephen M. Ross is the CEO and Chairman of Related Ross, Founder and Non-Executive Chairman of Related Companies and Chairman and Managing General Partner of the Miami Dolphins, Hard Rock Stadium and Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix.

In 1972, Ross formed Related Companies, which has grown into one of the most prominent privately owned real estate firms in the United States. Known for developing the neighborhood-defining Hudson Yards in Manhattan, the company was recently named one of the 50 Most Innovative Companies in the World by Fast Company Magazine and boasts more than $60 billion in assets owned or under development across the United States. In 2024, Ross founded and became Chief Executive of Related Ross, which has already become the largest commercial-property owner in downtown West Palm Beach. Focused on continued development and inclusive economic growth across South Florida, Related Ross has attracted a new generation of leaders across finance and technology to The Gold Coast and elicited renewed interest and investment in the region.

Ross first invested in the Miami Dolphins in February 2008 and assumed the responsibilities of managing general partner of both the Miami Dolphins and Hard Rock Stadium in 2009. The role is the culmination of one of his long-held dreams — Ross grew up in South Florida and the Dolphins have been a lifetime passion for him.

Throughout the Dolphins organization, Ross' ethos of building a first-class team on and off the field is etched deep. His more than $1 billion of private investment in Hard Rock Stadium and its surrounding properties – most notably to modernize the stadium from 2015-17 – has transformed the iconic venue into a global entertainment destination that showcases the best Miami has to offer and attracts a talent and event lineup that is unparalleled in professional sports. As a result of Ross' vision and investment, Hard Rock Stadium secured events such as Super Bowl LIV – which coincided with the 100th season of the NFL – as well as the 2021 and 2026 College Football Playoff National Championships, the Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix, 2026 FIFA World Cup, major global concert tours, international soccer matches and a host of world-class events over the past decade.

With football, Ross has demonstrated a steadfast commitment to provide coaches, players and support staff the resources necessary to build a winning team that will compete for championships. He invested $135 million into the state-of-the-art Baptist Health Training Complex, which opened in July 2021. In the annual NFLPA Player Team Report Cards survey, Ross has received the highest ownership grade among all NFL team owners each of the past two years and the Dolphins were ranked first among all 32 teams in both 2024 and 2025, which scores the player experience in a variety of categories. As a result of Ross' investment, the Dolphins received an A-or-higher rating in all 11 categories each year, including first overall in weight room, training room and training staff, food/cafeteria and team travel. The team finished second among all teams in the inaugural survey in 2023. Ross has also invested in the players' personal and professional development off the field, creating and funding the Dolphins Business Combine — a three-day event which allows players to meet with business leaders across a variety of industries and receive training on topics like personal finance, real estate and investments — since 2017.

In 2016, Ross named Chris Grier as general manager and in 2019 gave him full control of football operations. Under Grier's leadership, the team delivered four consecutive winning seasons from 2020-23, marking a first for the franchise in two decades (2000-03). In 2022, Ross selected Mike McDaniel as the team's 11th head coach, who at the time had not received a head coach interview request from another team. Ross identified McDaniel's ingenuity, authentic leadership and innovative thinking as notable traits for a head coach, and in his first two years with the franchise, McDaniel led the team to the playoffs, something Miami had not done in more than 20 years.

Ross has broadened his sports and entertainment portfolio considerably since assuming primary ownership of the Dolphins in 2009, developing what is widely considered one of the most dynamic global operating enterprises in sports and entertainment.

In 2012, Ross established RSE Ventures, a multi-national sports, entertainment and technology investment firm for which he serves as Chairman. That same year, Ross founded global soccer media company Relevent through RSE Ventures. Initially focused on live events, Relevent successfully orchestrated the first-ever El Clásico hosted in North America. The 2017 match between Barcelona and Real Madrid stands as the highest-revenue-grossing soccer match in U.S. history.

Shortly thereafter, Relevent began transitioning its business from event promotion to commercial rights representation. In the years since, it has since grown into the leading and most influential privately-owned commercial partner in soccer worldwide, working with leagues, governing bodies, and other properties to sell media, sponsorship and licensing rights. In 2025, Relevent won a landmark mandate to represent the UEFA men's club competitions — including the UEFA Champions League, Europa League, and Conference League — in the sale of their global media and sponsorship rights for the 2027-2033 cycle. The company's other market-leading partnerships include LALIGA North America, a 20-year joint venture with LALIGA for North and Central America, a 17-year partnership with Bundesliga for the Americas, the Premier League Summer Series event platform in the United States and a media rights, content and marketing partnership with the EFL across the Americas.

Ross also expanded his South Florida sports portfolio beyond the Dolphins and Hard Rock Stadium, adding the Miami Open tennis tournament and the Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix to his growing list of sports and entertainment properties. In 2017, when Miami Open organizers began to explore leaving the tournament's longtime home in Key Biscayne, Florida, Ross stepped in to propose hosting the tournament at Hard Rock Stadium. Two years later, the Miami Open debuted in its new home in Miami Gardens, where Ross had spearheaded and funded the construction of a custom tennis complex that is now considered one of the best in professional tennis in terms of guest experience and player amenities. The tournament, which is one of the sport's most prestigious outside of the four Grand Slams, has consistently delivered record attendance and revenue in the years since.

In April 2021, Ross became the Chairman and Owner of the Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix. As one of the few sports properties with true global appeal — rivaling the likes of the Olympics and World Cup in terms of consumer interest worldwide — Formula 1 represented a significant opportunity for South Florida to draw widespread attention from and become culturally relevant to a massive international sports audience. Ross and Managing Partner of the Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix, Vice Chairman and CEO Tom Garfinkel worked with specialist designers to create a racetrack that provides great racing and unique fan experiences that are reflective of the diverse and dynamic nature of Miami, with Hard Rock Stadium sitting at the heart of the circuit – made possible as a result of Ross' sole ownership of the venue and surrounding property, as well as his private investment to build the FIA Grade One track. The inaugural race was named the Best New Event of 2022 by the Sports Business Journal and the organization was named Promoter of the Year by Formula 1 after just the third edition of the event, while delivering an estimated economic impact of more than $1 billion to the local area. Thanks to Ross' efforts, the Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix has cemented itself as America's premier Formula 1 race and a marquee event at the intersection of sports and culture, with a new extended contract through 2041, making it the longest agreement in the sport.

Following these successes, Ross has taken further steps to realize his ambitions of transforming South Florida into a leading global sports hub. He facilitated the sale of a 13% stake in the Dolphins, Hard Rock Stadium and the Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix to Ares Management funds and Brooklyn Nets owners Joe Tsai and Oliver Weisberg in December 2024, with the raise intended to fuel continued investment into his diverse South Florida-based sports and entertainment portfolio. Ross also played a central role in securing Miami-Dade as a host for the 2026 FIFA World Cup 2026, with the region's matches set to take place at Hard Rock Stadium. The event will showcase South Florida on a global scale and is expected to generate approximately $1.5 billion in economic impact for the community.

Deeply committed to supporting and uniting the South Florida community, Ross routinely leverages the platforms of the Dolphins, Hard Rock Stadium, Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix and Miami Open tennis tournament to make a lasting positive impact in the region. Under his stewardship, the Dolphins have raised nearly $90 million for local cancer research through the Dolphins Cancer Challenge, which is now the largest fundraiser in the NFL. In June 2020, Ross and the Miami Dolphins Foundation announced a year-long Food Relief Program with a $3 million investment and an additional $1 million from the Lennar Foundation. The initiative provided 1,000 meals each day from local minority-owned restaurants to churches, community groups and those in need during the pandemic. Through this program, the Dolphins' Community Restaurant Program was established, which continues to operate for numerous stadium and community events, along with the Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix, allowing local restaurants to showcase on a global stage.

Furthermore, Ross has used his platform to harness the unifying power of sport to advance race relations across the country through the establishment of the nonprofit Ross Initiative in Sports for Equality (RISE). RISE was recognized in 2017 by ESPN's Humanitarian Awards with the Stuart Scott ENSPIRE Award, which celebrates people and organizations who have taken an innovative approach to help the disadvantaged through the power of sports. This also connects to Ross' vision of the Dolphins' FOOTBALL UNITES™ program to effectuate positive social change. Under his leadership, the Dolphins organization actively embraces the diversity and intersections that make up South Florida, working with groups to improve relationships and foster understanding. In February 2020, the Miami Dolphins were honored by the Fritz Pollard Alliance with the Paul J. Tagliabue Award for their leadership in advancing diversity. Ross was among Sports Business Journal's Leaders in Diversity and Inclusive Hiring honorees in March 2021.

In May 2013, Ross pledged to give more than half of his estate to philanthropic causes and charitable organizations, including South Florida-based institutions. The commitment was made through the Giving Pledge, a long-term global initiative that aims to inspire deeper engagement in philanthropy and increase charitable giving globally. He is also the largest single donor to the University of Michigan supporting the Ross School of Business, critical athletic facilities, scholarships, career development programs and faculty recruitment.

Over the years, Ross has received numerous honors for his business, civic and philanthropic activities. In August 2019, Ross was inducted into the National Football Foundation Leadership Hall of Fame. The prestigious award recognizes the country's most influential individuals who have ascended to the highest levels of success and exhibited the critical leadership qualities that transcend ordinary enterprises. He also received the Jackie Robinson Foundation ROBIE Lifetime Achievement Award, which recognizes individuals who have dedicated their lives to promoting equal opportunity and inclusion.

Ross graduated from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree and from Wayne State University Law School with a Juris Doctor degree. He later received a Master of Laws in Taxation from New York University School of Law. In 2004, the University of Michigan renamed its business school the Stephen M. Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan and in 2011, the school awarded him an honorary Doctor of Laws degree at its commencement.

TOM GARFINKEL

VICE CHAIRMAN, PRESIDENT & CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Tom Garfinkel serves as Vice Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Miami Dolphins and Hard Rock Stadium and Managing Partner of the Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix. Since his hire in 2013, Garfinkel has led the business success of the Dolphins and Hard Rock Stadium, highlighted by:

- The initiation, creation and execution of a plan to privately fund a more than $550 million renovation of a 27-year-old stadium, transforming the venue into a global entertainment destination.
- The extension and design of a multi-year partnership with Baptist Health to construct the $135M state-of-the-art Baptist Health Training Complex in Miami Gardens, which opened in July 2021.
- The sale of more than $2 billion in future contractually obligated suite and sponsorship income, including the in-house sale of naming rights for "Hard Rock Stadium."
- Negotiating and securing a 10-year agreement for the Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix to be held at the Hard Rock Stadium campus. Garfinkel led the design and construction of the racetrack and surrounding hospitality, creating innovative new fan experiences at a race venue. The event was named the "Best New Event" of 2022 by the Sports Business Journal, delivered the most-watched F1 race in US history in 2024 and has produced a combined economic impact of more than $1 billion to the local South Florida community in its first three years. The organization was also named the 2024 Promoter of the Year at the annual Formula 1® Promoter Awards, a recognition of the best all-round event of the season with demonstrated excellence in event organization, fan experience and innovation. In May 2025, Formula 1® announced a 10-year extension of the event through 2041, making it the longest contracted race in the sport.
- The winning bid for the 2020 Super Bowl, 2021 and 2026 College Football Playoff National Championship games at Hard Rock Stadium, and the 2026 FIFA World Cup.
- Welcoming global stars such as Taylor Swift, Bad Bunny, Jay-Z and Beyoncé, as well as international boxing and other sellout events.
- The highest grossing soccer event in U.S. history in July of 2017 (El Clasico Miami: Real Madrid vs. Barcelona).
- The growth of the Dolphins Cancer Challenge, which has become the largest fundraiser in the NFL under Garfinkel's leadership, raising more than $90 million for the Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center at the University of Miami in its 15th year. The DCC also fulfilled its $75 million pledge to Sylvester made in 2020 – the largest known philanthropic pledge in sports at the time – more than two years ahead of schedule in 2024.
- The creation of a 30-year partnership with Endeavor to bring the Miami Open tennis tournament to Hard Rock Stadium. The 2019 debut event set record attendance numbers and increased total revenue by nearly 25%. The event has continued to grow and hit record attendance and revenue for the fourth-consecutive year in 2025, including crossing the 400,000 mark for the first time.
- An emphasis on sustainability, including the elimination of 95.4 percent of fan facing single-use plastics in Hard Rock Stadium's food and beverage operation. In 2024, Hard Rock Stadium became one of six NFL stadiums to receive the LEED Gold certification for the overall sustainability of both Hard Rock Stadium and the Miami International Autodrome Paddock Club building, and the first US venue to receive the prestigious FIA Three-Star Environmental Accreditation rating, which is the highest rating achievable for demonstrating best practice in environmental management for Formula 1 venues.
- The creation of the first socially-distanced stadium plan during the COVID-19 pandemic, a safe environment where 13,000 people could attend games and be socially distant and socially present at the same time.
- The organization being honored in February 2020 by the Fritz Pollard Alliance with the Paul J. Tagliabue Award for their leadership in advancing diversity.
- The team receiving the Front Office Sports Best Employers in Sports Award in 2019 and 2020.
- The stadium being recognized across the industry for its diverse calendar of global sports and entertainment events, including the honor of Best Venues by Front Office Sports in 2024 and Venue of the Year by the Sports Business Awards in 2023.

Garfinkel's operating experience includes serving as president and chief executive officer of the San Diego Padres, chief operating officer of the Arizona Diamondbacks and executive vice president of Chip Ganassi Racing's NASCAR, IndyCar and Grand-Am racing teams. Prior to working in sports, Garfinkel held different leadership roles in sales, marketing and branding with Miller Brewing Company and Texaco, Inc.

He also serves on the board of Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center at the University of Miami, the National Football Foundation, the Pro Football Hall of Fame National Advisory Board, the Sports Management Advisory Board and the Ross School of Business Advisory Board at the University of Michigan.

Garfinkel graduated with a bachelor's degree from the University of Colorado, Boulder, and earned his MBA at the University of Michigan. In October 2020, Garfinkel earned the George Norlin Award, which recognizes outstanding CU Boulder alumni who have demonstrated a commitment to excellence in their chosen field of endeavor and a devotion to the betterment of society and their community. Garfinkel was among Sports Business Journal's Leaders in Diversity and Inclusive Hiring honorees in March 2021.

Garfinkel and his wife, Allison, live in Coral Gables with their three sons.

CHRIS GRIER

GENERAL MANAGER
COLLEGE: MASSACHUSETTS

Chris Grier serves as the general manager of the Miami Dolphins and oversees personnel and all football operations for the club. The 2025 campaign marks his 26th season with the franchise, rising from area scout to national scout, director of college scouting and general manager during that time. He was named general manager in 2016 and given full control of football operations in 2019.

The Dolphins have improved under Grier's leadership, posting five winning seasons, including four consecutive from 2020-23, a feat the franchise had not accomplished in more than 20 years. The Dolphins also reached the postseason in back-to-back seasons in 2022 and 2023, a first for the franchise since 2000-01.

In team building, Grier has utilized all avenues to acquire talented players – providing youth, star power and depth to the roster. He has selected 11 players in the first round, seven of whom remain on the 2025 roster. Grier has evaluated and drafted 13 players who have signed contracts valued among the top 10 at their positions, including four of the highest paid, either for Miami or elsewhere. In 2024, this included wide receiver Jaylen Waddle and quarterback Tua Tagovailoa, securing their production for years to come with long-term contract extensions.

Grier has also acquired several impact players via free agency. The 2024 Dolphins free agent class included players such as tight end Jonnu Smith, who had a record season for the team in 2024, and notable starters like center Aaron Brewer, linebacker Jordyn Brooks and decorated defensive tackle Calais Campbell. Grier has also identified and added talent through the waiver wire – such as defensive tackle Zach Sieler, who had consecutive historic seasons for the Dolphins in 2024-25 – and with numerous undrafted college free agents who have gone on to become perennial starters for the club.

Since he took over football operations, Grier has not shied away from trades, making 44 over the past seven years. This includes two trades ahead of the 2025 season to acquire three-time first-team All Pro safety Minkah Fitzpatrick, whom Grier first drafted to the Dolphins in 2018, from the Pittsburgh Steelers in a blockbuster deal, as well as tight end Darren Waller from the Giants. Other notable trades include sending tackle Laremy Tunsil to the Houston Texans for a bevy of picks in 2019, trading for then-six time Pro Bowl wide receiver Tyreek Hill and Pro Bowl linebacker Bradley Chubb in 2022, and acquiring three-time All Pro cornerback Jalen Ramsey in 2023.

In 2024, the Dolphins won six of their last nine games after opening the season with a 2-6 record and improved in nearly every metric over the second half of the year. Tagovailoa led the league with a 72.9 completion percentage, which set a single-season franchise record and was the third-best mark in NFL history. Smith set franchise records by a tight end in receptions (88), receiving yards (884) and receiving touchdowns (8). Running back De'Von Achane, whom Grier selected in the second round of the 2023 NFL Draft, set franchise records in receptions (78) and receiving touchdowns (6) by a running back.

Miami's defense also had success in 2024, finishing fourth in total defense (314.4), marking the second consecutive year the Dolphins delivered a top-10 defensive finish. Sieler led the unit, recording 10-plus sacks (10.0) in back-to-back seasons, becoming the first Dolphin to do so since Cameron Wake (2016-17). Brooks recorded the most tackles (143) by a Dolphin since Pro Football Hall of Famer Zach Thomas. Linebacker Chop Robinson, Miami's first-round selection (21st overall) in 2024, recorded the fifth-most sacks (6.0) by a rookie in franchise history.

On special teams, kicker Jason Sanders had a career year in 2024, with 37 field goals made, including 27 consecutive to close the season, a franchise record. Sanders also made nine-consecutive field goals of more than 50 yards, included several game-winning or game tying kicks, and was the only kicker in the NFL to make at least one field goal in all 17 games.

In 2023, Grier put together a roster that included 10 different players with a combined 33 Pro Bowl appearances, and six of the NFL's Top 100, as voted by the players. The 2023 Dolphins won 11 games for the first time since 2008, led by a historic offensive unit, and advanced to the postseason for the second consecutive year. Miami led the NFL in total offense (401.3) for the first time since 1994 and ranked second in scoring offense (29.2). Miami also had a top 10 defense (10th, 318.3 yards allowed per game) for the first time since 2010.

Several players delivered career seasons for the Dolphins in 2023. Tagovailoa became the first Dolphin to lead the league in passing yards (4,624) since Dan Marino in 1992. Hill became the first Dolphin to ever lead the league in receiving yards (1,799), setting a new single-season franchise record. Running back Raheem Mostert, a free agent signing in 2022, also broke team records for rushing touchdowns (18) and total touchdowns (23). Waddle became the first player in team record books with three straight 1,000-yard receiving seasons. The 2023 campaign also marked the first time in team history the Dolphins had a 4,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season.

Defensively, the Dolphins shattered the team sacks record of 49.0 (1983 and 2005) with 56.0 sacks. Sieler, whom Grier signed to a contract extension shortly before the 2023 season, became the first Dolphins defensive tackle to ever top double-digit sacks (10.0) in a season. In his first full season with the club, Chubb had 11.0 sacks, the most by a Dolphin since 2017 (Cameron Wake). It was the first time Miami had teammates with double-digit sacks in the same season since 2003.

As a result of team success, Miami had six players selected to the Pro Bowl in 2023, tied for second-most in the AFC and fourth-most in the NFL. Three of those selections were first-time Pro Bowl players in Tagovailoa, Mostert and fullback Alec Ingold, whom Miami also signed as a free agent in 2022 and was extended at the start of the 2023 season. Hill was a unanimous first-team All-Pro selection and named to his eighth straight Pro Bowl. Ramsey earned his seventh consecutive Pro Bowl selection despite missing the first seven games of the season due to injury. Miami's sixth Pro Bowl selection was tackle Terron Armstead, whom Grier signed as an unrestricted free agent in 2022.

The 2022 season saw the Dolphins secure a playoff berth for the first time since 2016 after finishing with a 9-8 record. With a talented roster and under new head coach Mike McDaniel, the Dolphins delivered a top 10 total offense for the first time since 1995, ranking sixth (364.5 yards per game). Miami was second in yards per play (6.1) and fourth in passing offense (265.4).

Tagovailoa became the youngest NFL quarterback since Dan Marino in 1984 to lead the league in passer rating (105.5). He also led the NFL in red zone passer rating (112.2), third-down passer rating (130.1) and yards per attempt (8.9).

In Hill's first season with the team, he shattered his career highs and the franchise's single-season records for receiving yards (1,710) and receptions (119), finishing second in the league in both. His 1,710 receiving yards were the most by any player in NFL history in his first season with a new team. He earned first-team All-Pro honors and was selected to his seventh consecutive Pro Bowl.

Waddle also put together one of the best seasons by a receiver in Dolphins history in 2022, catching 75 passes for 1,356 yards and eight touchdowns. His 18.1 yards per catch led the NFL while his 1,356 receiving yards were third in Dolphins history. Hill and Waddle combined for 3,066 receiving yards, which was the third-most by a pair of teammates in a season in NFL history.

Defensively, Miami finished fourth in the league in rush defense (103.0) in 2022. Defensive tackle Christian Wilkins, whom Grier drafted in the first round (13th overall) in the 2019 NFL Draft, recorded a career-high 98 tackles, the most in a season by an NFL defensive lineman since 1994. Linebacker Jaelan Phillips, a first-round pick (18th overall) of Grier's in 2021, led the team in sacks for the second straight season with 7.0. Cornerback Xavien Howard (2016, second round) earned his fourth Pro Bowl selection.

In 2021, the Dolphins won eight of their final nine games, including their final six at home. Grier helped construct a defensive unit that featured eight starters drafted by the Dolphins and all 11 starters under the age of 30. The group scored five defensive touchdowns, its most in a single season since 2001.

Miami's 2021 draft class earned key roles immediately. Waddle broke the NFL's nearly 20-year-old rookie receptions record with 104 catches and became the first rookie in Dolphins history to total 1,000 receiving yards. Phillips broke Miami's rookie sack record and finished second among all NFL rookies in the statistic with 8.5. Safety Jevon Holland was the only player in the AFC in 2021 to have multiple sacks, interceptions and fumble recoveries. Offensive lineman Liam Eichenberg was one of just 10 NFL rookie offensive linemen to start at least 16 games.

Howard earned his third Pro Bowl selection in 2021 and Wilkins totaled 89 tackles, which was tied for the most by any NFL defensive lineman since 2013 before he topped that figure in 2022.

In 2020, the Dolphins won 10 games for just the second time in the past decade despite having the second-youngest roster in the NFL. The five-game improvement from 2019 was tied for the best in the league that season and the Dolphins set a team record by starting 10 different rookies that year.

With several offseason additions, Grier helped build one of the NFL's best defenses in 2020. Miami led the league in third-down defense (28.8 pct.) and takeaways (29) and finished sixth in scoring (21.1 points allowed per game).

Two of Grier's draft picks – Howard and Sanders (2018, seventh round) – earned first-team All-Pro honors in 2020, marking the first time since 2006 (Zach Thomas and Jason Taylor) the Dolphins had two first-team All-Pro honorees in the same season.

In 2019, when Grier was given full control of football operations, the Dolphins steadily improved despite having the youngest roster in the NFL, winning five of their final nine games. Wilkins led all rookie defensive linemen with 56 tackles, the fifth-most by an NFL rookie defensive lineman since 2015.

From 2016-18, Grier oversaw the draft and both pro and college scouting departments. He was responsible for the acquisition of multiple All-Pro and Pro Bowl players including Howard, Sanders, Tunsil, Fitzpatrick and wide receiver/returner Jakeem Grant. Other notable selections included linebacker Jerome Baker – a third-round pick in 2018 who went on to become a team captain and record 500-plus tackles in his first fives seasons in the league – and running back Kenyan Drake.

In his first draft as general manager in 2016, Grier selected Howard in the second round. In his first seven NFL seasons, Howard earned a first-team All-Pro nod (2020), was selected to the Pro Bowl four times (2018, 2020-22), led the NFL in interceptions in one season (2020), tied for the NFL lead in interceptions in another (2018) and totaled more interceptions than any other NFL player in that span.

Grier helped turn more than half the roster over in 2016, as the team entered training camp with more than 45 new players acquired during the offseason. The results were a four-game improvement from the previous season, the fifth-best mark in the NFL. The Dolphins finished 10-6 with a playoff berth, the team's best record and first playoff appearance since 2008.

From 2007-15, Grier served as the team's director of college scouting (2007-15). During that time, the Dolphins won the AFC East in 2008 and drafted seven players that combined for 14 Pro Bowl selections with the team. The list includes tackle Jake Long (2008-10), defensive tackle Paul Soliai (2011), punter Brandon Fields (2013), center Mike Pouncey (2013-15), safety Reshad Jones (2015, 2017), wide receiver Jarvis Landry (2015-17) and running back Jay Ajayi (2016).

Grier was also successful at finding value late in drafts. Jones, a fifth-round pick in 2010, was named the team's co-MVP following the 2015 season after he became the first player in team history to record at least 100 tackles, four interceptions and two sacks in a season. Ajayi was also a fifth-round pick (2015) and became the fourth player in NFL history to rush for 200 yards in three games during the same season. Ajayi's 1,272 rushing yards in 2016 were third-most in Dolphins history.

Prior to being the team's director of college scouting, Grier served as an area scout with the club from 2000-02, before being promoted to national scout/assistant director of college scouting in 2003. Miami won the AFC East during his first season with the team.

Grier began his career with the New England Patriots as an intern in 1994. He joined the club on a full-time basis the following year, serving as a regional scout until he joined the Dolphins in 2000. In 1996, Grier was part of a New England staff that won the AFC Championship. He helped scout many players for a Patriots roster that went on to win Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX.

Grier has worked with several of football's most successful coaches and executives throughout his career, helping shape his football philosophy. His father, Bobby Grier, is the former vice president of player personnel for the Patriots and senior personnel advisor for the Houston Texans. Grier has also worked with and learned under Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Bill Parcells and legendary coaches Bill Belichick, Pete Carroll and Nick Saban.

Grier attended the University of Massachusetts-Amherst where he majored in journalism and played football for two years before injuries ended his career. He spent his final two years there as an undergraduate assistant.

Chris' brother, Michael, is currently the general manager of the NHL's San Jose Sharks. When Michael was appointed to the position in 2022, he became the first Black general manager in NHL history. Before his tenure in front offices, he played for the Edmonton Oilers, Washington Capitals, San Jose Sharks and Buffalo Sabres.

A native of Holliston, Mass., Grier and his wife, Paige, have two sons, Landon and Jackson.

BRANDON SHORE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, FOOTBALL & BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
COLLEGE: ELON
DOLPHINS: 16TH SEASON

Brandon Shore serves as senior vice president of football & business administration for the Miami Dolphins, a role he has held since 2021. The 2025 season marks his 16th year with the club, where he has served in various capacities to now oversee the day-to-day administration of both football and business operations for the organization.

Shore works directly with General Manager Chris Grier and Head Coach Mike McDaniel on all aspects of football operations. He oversees football administration, team and training facility operations, video, football analytics, equipment, athletic training and team security. He also serves as the team's lead negotiator for player contracts, manages the salary cap and club compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement, and acts as the organization's liaison on labor relations and league matters.

In addition, Shore oversees the club's human resources, information technology and business administration departments, as well as the Hard Rock Stadium grounds crew. He also leads the operations for South Florida Sod Farm, which is owned by the Dolphins and produces the natural grass fields for both Hard Rock Stadium and the Baptist Health Training Complex.

Shore has held a variety of roles since joining the team in 2010, including vice president of football administration (2019-20), senior director of football administration (2016-18), senior director of human resources (2015-16), director of human resources (2014-15), senior manager of human resources & football administration, finance & legal affairs specialist (2012-14) and football administration assistant (2010-12). He was recognized on The Athletic's "NFL 40 Under 40" list in 2022.

Shore was born and raised in South Florida. He received a Bachelor of Science degree from Elon University with majors in accounting and business management, and was named the school's Young Alumnus of the Year in 2017. He also holds a Juris Doctorate from the University of Miami School of Law. Shore is a member of the Florida Bar and a licensed Certified Public Accountant.

MIAMI DOLPHINS LOGO HISTORY

On April 25, 2013, the Miami Dolphins unveiled the fifth team logo in the organization's history. The new logo was developed during a creative process spanning more than a year and a half and incorporated input from ownership, members of the organization, former players and the franchise's loyal fans.

Highlighting the evolution is the return to the original aqua and orange color scheme that has come to embody the team and the surrounding Miami area. The iconic elements, the sun and the dolphin, remain prominent and allow the redesigned logo to remain connected to the team's history while representing the constant influence of the South Florida environment and community.

Within the logo, the aqua, along with the marine blue, first introduced in 1997 and now finessed through this process, are inspired by the color of South Florida's Atlantic Ocean; while the orange is representative of the bright South Florida sun. The dolphin's positioning has been refined and now features the moment of most power in the marine mammal's trajectory, right before it breaks the plane of the water. The sun has also been refined to incorporate more rays as well as an overall enhancement to a more bright and vibrant color.

The original logo featured the dolphin jumping in front of a sunburst using the team's base colors (aqua, coral and white). In 1974, the dolphin was repositioned in front of the sunburst and the aqua color was strengthened. In 1989, there was further strengthening of the aqua color and the dolphin's tail was elongated. In 1997, the traditional logo and colors were kept as a base, while the sunburst on the logo was accentuated and the dolphin was strengthened with a stronger definition of its shape. In addition, the sunburst was more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeter, while the dolphin's features were accentuated by navy highlights.

MIKE McDANIEL

HEAD COACH

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP 2016, 2019

Mike McDaniel was named the 11th head coach of the Miami Dolphins on Feb. 7, 2022. The 2025 season marks McDaniel's 19th in the NFL, fourth with the Dolphins and fourth as a head coach.

The Dolphins have made significant strides collectively as a team and across all three units during his tenure as head coach. McDaniel led the team to the postseason in both 2022 and 2023, which marked Miami's first back-to-back playoff appearances in more than 20 years (2000-01). In doing so, McDaniel became just the third head coach in Dolphins history to make back-to-back playoff appearances in his first two seasons, joining Don Shula (1970-71) and Dave Wannstedt (2000-01). The Dolphins also produced a top-10 offense in 2022 (6th, 364.5 yards per game) and 2023 (1st, 401.3 yards per game), and a top-10 defense in 2023 (10th, 318.3 yards allowed per game) and 2024 (4th, 314.4 yards allowed per game).

In 2024, the Dolphins won six of their last nine games after opening the season with a 2-6 record and improved in nearly every metric over the second half of the year. The team was led by its fourth-ranked defense, which was the best mark by the franchise since 2010 and its first top five finish since 2006. The unit finished ninth in run defense (103.7) and was the only team to not allow a 100-yard rusher in 2024. In fact, Miami has not allowed a 100-yard rusher since Week 1 of the 2023 season. That 33-game streak is the longest active streak in the NFL and longest streak in franchise history since a 38-game streak (1970-73).

Defensive tackle Zach Sieler recorded 10-plus sacks (10.0) for the second consecutive season, becoming the first Dolphin to do so since Cameron Wake (2016-17). His 10.0 sacks in 2024 were the second-most among interior defensive linemen in the NFL and tied himself for the most by a defensive tackle in franchise history. His 20.0 sacks from 2023-24 are the most among interior defensive linemen in the NFL during that span. Defensive tackle Calais Campbell became the only player aged 38 or older to record 5-plus sacks (5.0) in franchise history. Linebacker Jordyn Brooks led the team in tackles (143), which were the most by a Dolphin since Pro Football Hall of Famer Zach Thomas (2006).

Offensively, Miami was one of four teams to have three players with 700-plus receiving yards, and the only team to have three players with 75-plus receptions. The offense set a franchise record in team receptions (413) and finished with the fourth-best average time of possession (31:43) in franchise history. Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa led the NFL in completion percentage (72.9) and red zone passer rating (120.2). His completion percentage was the best mark in franchise history and third best in NFL history. Tight end Jonnu Smith had the best season of his career in McDaniel's offense and broke team records by a tight end for receptions (88) and receiving yards (884), which stood since 2004 (Randy McMichael), and receiving touchdowns (eight). Running back De'Von Achane led NFL running backs in receptions and receiving yards, tallied the third-most scrimmage yards (1,499) by a running back in franchise history and became the first Dolphin to record at least 750 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in a single season.

On special teams, kicker Jason Sanders had a career year in 2024, with 37 field goals made, including 27 consecutive to close the season, a franchise record. Sanders also made nine-consecutive field goals of more than 50 yards, included several game-winning or game tying kicks, and was the only kicker in the NFL to make at least one field goal in all 17 games.

In 2023, the Dolphins recorded their first 11-win season in 15 years and led the league in total offense (401.3) for the first time since 1994, with McDaniel serving as the offensive play-caller. The unit also led the league in passing offense (265.5), yards per carry (5.1) and quarterback hits allowed (59), while finishing second in scoring offense (29.2). Tagovailoa led the NFL in passing yards (4,624), something a Miami quarterback had not done since 1992 (Dan Marino). Running back Raheem Mostert (1,012) had his first 1,000-yard rushing season at 31 years old and broke team records for rushing touchdowns (18), which stood since 2002 (Ricky Williams), and total touchdowns (21), which stood since 1984 (Mark Clayton). Wide receiver Tyreek Hill (1,799) had the seventh-most receiving yards in NFL history and broke his own team record set a season prior. Wide receiver Jaylen Waddle (1,014) became the first player in team history to post three consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons. It was the first time in team history that Miami had a 4,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season.

McDaniel helped six Dolphins reach the Pro Bowl – Hill, Tagovailoa, Mostert, fullback Alec Ingold, tackle Terron Armstead and cornerback Jalen Ramsey – something the team had not accomplished since 2002. Tagovailoa became the first Dolphins quarterback to be selected to the Pro Bowl since Dan Marino in 1995. Ingold and Mostert also earned their first career Pro Bowl nods. In addition to his eighth straight Pro Bowl, Hill earned unanimous first-team All-Pro honors.

Miami's defense finished in the top 10 in total defense (10th, 318.3) for the first time since 2010 in McDaniel's second season. The Dolphins posted a team-record 56.0 sacks and defensive tackle Zach Sieler became the first defensive tackle in Dolphins history with double-digit sacks (10.0) in a season. Miami had a sack in all 17 regular-season games and had four interceptions returned for a touchdown, the second-most in single-season team history. The Dolphins had a takeaway in 12 consecutive games to finish the season, including the playoff game.

In his first season at the helm, McDaniel became the fifth coach in Dolphins history to lead his team to the playoffs and just the sixth to post a winning record (9-8) in his first year. Under his leadership, four players earned Pro Bowl selections – Armstead, Hill, linebacker Bradley Chubb and cornerback Xavien Howard. It marked the team's most Pro Bowl selections since 2016. McDaniel led the team to a playoff berth for the first time since 2016 despite starting three different quarterbacks throughout the season.

As the offensive play-caller, McDaniel helped the Dolphins offense finish in the top 10 for the first time since 1995. Miami averaged 364.5 yards per game, which ranked sixth in the league, and 6.14 yards per play, which was second. The Dolphins finished 11th in scoring offense (23.4 points per game), the team's best finish since 2014.

Several players had the best seasons of their career in their first year in McDaniel's offense. Tagovailoa led the NFL in passer rating (105.5), becoming the youngest NFL quarterback to do that since Dan Marino in 1984. He also led the league in red zone passer rating (112.2), third-down passer rating (130.1) and yards per attempt (8.9). Tagovailoa's 3,548 passing yards and 25 passing touchdowns were both career highs.

Hill broke an NFL record for most receiving yards in a player's first season with a new team with 1,710. That mark also broke Miami's single-season franchise record that stood for nearly 40 years (Mark Clayton, 1,389 yards in 1984). Hill's 119 receptions were also a Dolphins record and those two totals ranked second in the NFL in 2022. Hill earned his seventh consecutive Pro Bowl selection.

Another player who thrived in McDaniel's offense was Waddle. In his second NFL season, Waddle caught 75 passes for 1,356 yards and eight touchdowns, leading the league in yards per reception (18.1). His 1,356 receiving yards were third in single-season team history behind Hill and Clayton. Waddle nearly doubled his yards after catch under McDaniel, averaging 6.7 YAC per reception in 2022 compared to 3.5 in 2021.

Hill and Waddle combined for 3,066 receiving yards, which was the third-most by a pair of teammates in a season in NFL history and more than two entire teams had in 2022.

Defensively, Miami ranked fourth in run defense, limiting opponents to 103.0 rushing yards per game. Defensive tackle Christian Wilkins totaled a career-high 98 tackles, the most by an NFL defensive lineman in a season since 1994. Linebacker Elandon Roberts (104) and Sieler (70) also set career highs in tackles.

Prior to Miami, McDaniel spent five seasons (2017-21) with the San Francisco 49ers where he was the team's run game specialist in 2017 before being promoted to run game coordinator in 2018 and again to offensive coordinator in 2021.

In McDaniel's lone season as offensive coordinator, the 49ers finished seventh in the NFL in total offense (375.7 yards per game) and 13th in scoring offense (25.1 points per game) while advancing to the NFC Championship game. San Francisco's offense was balanced, ranking seventh in rushing (127.4) and 12th in passing (248.3). Wide receiver Deebo Samuel recorded 1,405 receiving yards, the most by a 49er since wide receiver Terrell Owens in 2001, and fifth-most in the NFL that season. The 49ers offense had four players earn Pro Bowl selections – Samuel, fullback Kyle Juszczyk, tight end George Kittle and tackle Trent Williams. Williams also earned All-Pro honors.

McDaniel served as San Francisco's run game coordinator from 2018-20. The 49ers ranked fifth in the NFL in rushing in that span, averaging 127.0 yards per game, despite having a different leading rusher in all three seasons.

In 2020, San Francisco had several injuries at the running back position and still finished in the top half of the league with 118.1 rushing yards per game. Juszczyk and Williams earned Pro Bowl selections and Williams was also named All-Pro.

McDaniel helped the 49ers have one of the league's most effective rushing attacks in 2019 as San Francisco went 13-3, winning the NFC and advancing to Super Bowl LIV. The 49ers had the NFL's second-ranked rushing offense, averaging 144.1 yards per game. Juszczyk was named to the Pro Bowl at the end of the season.

In 2018, the 49ers had four different backs rush for at least 200 yards. The 49ers finished 13th in the league in rushing (118.9). Juszczyk was named to the Pro Bowl at the end of the season.

As run game specialist in 2017, McDaniel helped the 49ers rush for 1,662 yards and 15 rushing touchdowns in a season where they were forced to use three different starting quarterbacks due to injury. Juszczyk and tackle Joe Staley earned Pro Bowl selections.

Prior to San Francisco, McDaniel spent two seasons (2015-16) as an offensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons. During his tenure, the Falcons had the second-best total offense (394.9) and third-best scoring offense (27.5) in the NFL. Atlanta's passing attack ranked second (284.5).

In 2016, Atlanta led the NFL in scoring, averaging 33.8 points per game, en route to finishing 11-5 and winning the NFC to advance to Super Bowl LI. The Falcons had the second-best total offense (415.8), third-best passing offense (295.3) and fifth-best rushing offense (120.5). Four different Falcons earned Pro Bowl selections – Ryan, Jones, running back Devonta Freeman and center Alex Mack. Ryan, Jones and Mack also earned All-Pro honors.

The 2015 Falcons offense ranked ranked in the top 10 in passing (273.7) and total offense (374.1). Wide receiver Julio Jones, with whom McDaniel worked closely, led the NFL with 1,871 receiving yards, also a Falcons franchise record. Freeman, Jones and fullback Patrick DiMarco all earned Pro Bowl selections and All-Pro honors.

McDaniel spent the 2014 season as wide receivers coach for the Cleveland Browns. In his lone season there the receivers unit helped quarterback Brian Hoyer post the only 3,000-yard passing season of his career.

McDaniel's first job as an NFL position coach came in 2013 with Washington when he was promoted to wide receivers coach. Wide receiver Pierre Garçon had the best season of his 11-year NFL career, leading the NFL with 113 receptions.

McDaniel spent the 2011-12 seasons with Washington as an offensive assistant. On those staffs, McDaniel worked with current NFL head coaches Matt LaFleur (Green Bay), Sean McVay (L.A. Rams) and Kyle Shanahan (San Francisco).

In 2012, Washington led the league in rushing (169.3) and finished 10-6, winning the NFC East. The team was fourth in scoring offense (27.3) and fifth in total offense (383.2).

From 2009-10, McDaniel served as running backs coach for the Sacramento Mountain Lions of the United Football League, where he worked for former NFL head coach, Dennis Green.

McDaniel was an offensive assistant for the Houston Texans from 2006-08 where he worked under three different offensive coordinators in three seasons – Troy Calhoun (2006), Mike Sherman (2007) and Kyle Shanahan (2008).

His first NFL coaching position came as a coaching intern with the Denver Broncos in 2005.

A native of Greeley, Colorado, McDaniel played wide receiver at Yale, where he graduated with a degree in history. He and his wife, Katie, have one daughter, Ayla.

THE MOST POINTS IN MORE THAN 50 YEARS

The Dolphins had an offensive explosion the NFL had never seen in a Week 3 matchup against Denver on Sept. 24, 2023 at Hard Rock Stadium. Miami scored 70 points and totaled 726 yards on the day. The 70 points were the most in team history, second-most in a regular-season game in NFL history and most by an NFL team since Nov. 27, 1966 (Washington, 72). The 726 total yards were also a team record and the second-most in any game in NFL history (L.A. Rams, Sept. 29, 1951, 735). Miami also broke its franchise single-game rushing record with 350 yards on the ground, thanks in part to running back De'Von Achane's 203 rushing yards in just his second career game. In total, the Dolphins broke or tied 13 franchise records that afternoon and Achane and fellow running back Raheem Mostert scored four touchdowns each.

COACHING STAFF (OFFENSE)

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR COLLEGE: MIAMI (OH)

Frank Smith joined the Miami Dolphins as offensive coordinator in 2022.

The 2025 season marks the 22nd year of coaching for Smith, including 16 at the NFL level and six in the collegiate ranks.

In his third year with Miami in 2024, Smith helped the offense improve steadily throughout the season. Miami was one of only four teams to have three players with 700-plus receiving yards and the only team to have three players with 75-plus receptions. Despite a slow start to the season, the Dolphins consistently maintained offensive control, going three-and-out only 26 times in 182 offensive possessions, which tied for fourth-fewest in the NFL. The Dolphins also ranked fourth in the league in time of possession (31:48).

The Dolphins leaned on their passing attack in the second half of the 2024 season, recording 245 receptions for 2,371 yards (9.6 avg.). Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa led the NFL and set a franchise record in completion percentage (72.9). He also led the league in red zone passer rating (120.2). In a career season, tight end Jonnu Smith set franchise records in receptions (88), receiving yards (884) and receiving touchdowns (8). Running back De'Von Achane's 1,499 scrimmage yards were the third-most by a running back in franchise history. Achane led the league in receptions (78) and receiving yards (592) by a running back while also setting franchise records in receptions and receiving touchdowns (6) in a season by a running back.

In 2023, Smith helped the offense make huge strides and the team reached a second consecutive playoff berth, its first back-to-back trips since 1997-2001. In 2023, the Dolphins offense led the league in total offense (401.3) for the first time since 1994. Miami also led the league in passing offense (265.5), yards per carry (5.1) and quarterback hits allowed (59) and finished the season second in scoring offense (29.9). They led the league in explosive play metrics, including most plays of 10-plus yards (255) and 50-plus yards (12). Despite having the second-most starting offensive line combinations in the league (12), Miami also excelled in protection, allowing the fourth-fewest sacks (31.0) and fewest quarterback hits (59).

That offensive line also blocked for running back Raheem Mostert (1,012), who had his first 1,000-yard rushing season at 31 years old. Mostert's 18 rushing touchdowns and 21 total touchdowns broke team records that had stood since 2002 (Ricky Williams) and 1984 (Mark Clayton), respectively. Wide receiver Tyreek Hill (1,799) had the seventh-most receiving yards in NFL history and broke his own team record set the previous season. Wide receiver Jaylen Waddle (1,014) became the first player in team history to post three consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons. The 2023 season marked the first time in team history that Miami had a 4,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season.

Five offensive players – tackle Terron Armstead, wide receiver Tyreek Hill, fullback Alec Ingold, running back Raheem Mostert and quarterback Tua Tagovailoa – were selected to the Pro Bowl. Hill, Ingold, Mostert and Tagovailoa were all selected as starters, marking the first time since 1984 the Dolphins had four offensive players named as starters. Hill was a unanimous first-team All-Pro selection and was Sporting News' Offensive Player of the Year as selected by his peers.

In Smith's first season as an NFL offensive coordinator in 2022, the Dolphins had a top-10 offense for the first time since 1995, ranking sixth and averaging 364.5 yards per game. Tagovailoa became the youngest NFL player since 1984 (Dan Marino) to lead the league in passer rating (105.5) and Hill shattered the team's single-season records for receptions (119) and receiving yards (1,710). Waddle had 1,356 receiving yards – the third-most in team history – and led the NFL in receiving average (18.1). The Dolphins were the only NFL team to feature a pair of 1,200-yard receivers that season.

The improvement the offense made in Smith's first season in Miami was notable. The Dolphins went from 25th in total offense in 2021 to sixth in 2022. They moved up 11 spots in scoring offense as well, from 22nd to 11th (23.4 points per game). Miami finished with a winning record and earned a playoff berth for the first time since 2016.

Hill and Armstead were both named starters for the AFC team in the Pro Bowl, marking the first time since 1995 that Miami had two offensive players chosen as Pro Bowl starters. Hill also earned first-team All-Pro honors.

Smith spent the 2021 season as run game coordinator/offensive line coach for the Los Angeles Chargers. He helped the Chargers rank fourth in total offense (390.2) and fifth in scoring offense (27.9). It was the most points the Chargers had scored in a season since 2009. The offensive line helped protect quarterback Justin Herbert, who produced the best season by a passer in Chargers history, throwing for a franchise-record 5,014 yards and 38 touchdowns. Running back Austin Ekeler rushed for 12 touchdowns, the most by a Chargers rusher since Hall of Fame running back LaDainian Tomlinson had 12 in 2009. Smith helped develop center Corey Linsley and rookie tackle Rashawn Slater as both earned second-team All-Pro honors and were selected to the first Pro Bowl of their careers.

From 2018-20, Smith served as tight ends coach for the Oakland/Las Vegas Raiders. He worked closely with tight end Darren Waller, who caught 203 passes for 2,416 yards (11.9 avg.) and 12 touchdowns. His 2,416 receiving yards were third-most by an NFL tight end in that span despite being limited to just four games in 2018, his first season with the Raiders. Prior to 2019, Waller had never recorded more than 100 receiving yards in a season until Smith helped him tally back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. A tight end led the team in receiving in all three seasons Smith spent with the Raiders.

In 2020, Waller led all NFL tight ends with 107 receptions. His 1,196 receiving yards were the second-most by a tight end in the NFL that season and second-most by a tight end in Raiders history. He also caught nine touchdown passes. It earned Waller the first Pro Bowl selection of his career.

Waller had his breakout season in 2019, catching 90 passes for 1,145 yards (12.7 avg.) and three touchdowns. Entering the 2019 campaign, Waller's previous career highs were 10 receptions and 85 yards in 2016. His 90 receptions and 1,145 yards were both second among NFL tight ends that season. Foster Moreau led all rookie tight ends with five receiving touchdowns. Raiders tight ends totaled 718 yards after catch, which led all NFL tight end groups.

In Smith's first season with the Raiders in 2018, tight end Jared Cook led the team with 68 receptions for 896 yards (13.2 avg.) and six touchdowns. His 68 receptions and 896 receiving yards were the most in his 13-year career and earned him his first Pro Bowl selection.

Smith was the Chicago Bears' tight ends coach from 2015-17. In 2017, tight end Zach Miller totaled 20 receptions for 236 yards (11.8 avg.) and two touchdowns in eight games. In addition to Miller, tight ends Dion Sims (15), Dan Brown (13) and Adam Shaheen (12) all had double-digit receptions.

Miller had the best season of his career in 2016, totaling career highs in receptions (47) and receiving yards (486). Brown was a late-season waiver claim and made an immediate impact, catching a career-high 16 passes for 124 yards (7.8 avg.) and a touchdown in just six games.

In Smith's first season with the Bears in 2015, he helped tight end Martellus Bennett catch 53 passes for 439 yards (8.3 avg.) and three touchdowns in just 11 games. His 53 receptions were second on the team that season. Miller had a career-high five receiving touchdowns after catching 34 passes for 439 yards (12.9 avg.).

Smith's first NFL coaching job came with the New Orleans Saints from 2010-14. He began as a coaching assistant from 2010-11 and was promoted to offensive assistant/offensive line from 2012-14. During those five seasons, the Saints won at least 10 games on three occasions and made the playoffs three times. During his three seasons as offensive assistant/offensive line (2012-14), the Saints were second in the NFL in total offense (407.2) and fifth in scoring offense (26.6).

In 2014, the Saints spread out their offensive attack to multiple weapons. Wide receivers Kenny Stills (931) and Marques Colston (902) both topped 900 receiving yards, tight end Jimmy Graham led the team with 85 receptions and 10 touchdown receptions and running back Mark Ingram II had 964 rushing yards and nine rushing touchdowns. Quarterback Drew Brees passed for 4,952 yards and joined Ingram, Graham and guard Jahri Evans in the Pro Bowl.

The Saints won 11 games in 2014, posting an 8-0 mark at home and securing their first-ever road playoff win. Brees passed for 5,162 yards and 39 touchdowns, earning a Pro Bowl nod. Graham (first team) and Evans (second team) earned All-Pro honors and Pro Bowl selections and Graham led the NFL with 16 receiving touchdowns that season.

In Smith's first season as offensive assistant/offensive line in 2012, he helped two offensive linemen earn Pro Bowl honors – Evans and tackle Jermon Bushrod. Evans also earned first-team All-Pro recognition. The Saints had two 1,000-yard receivers and four players catch at least 60 passes.

The Saints won at least 10 games and advanced to the playoffs in each of Smith's first two seasons with the club (2010-11) as a coaching assistant.

Smith spent four seasons (2006-09) at Butler, beginnining his tenure as offensive line coach (2006) before he was promoted to offensive coordinator/offensive line in 2007. He helped the Bulldogs improve from a 4-7 mark in 2007 to an 11-1 record in 2009.

Smith's first coaching position came as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Miami (Ohio), from 2004-05.

Smith was a captain and three-year starter on the offensive line at Miami (Ohio) from 2001-03. He helped protect quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, who played 18 seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

A native of Milwaukee, Smith graduated from Miami (Ohio) with a degree in organizational leadership. He and his wife, Nicole, have six children.

BUTCH BARRY

OFFENSIVE LINE
COLLEGE: CENTRAL MICHIGAN
DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

Butch Barry joined the Miami Dolphins as offensive line coach in 2023.

The 2025 season marks Barry's 10th as an NFL coach, primarily working with the offensive line. He also has 14 years of experience in the collegiate ranks.

In 2024, Barry coached an offensive line that blocked for quarterback Tua Tagovailoa, who completed 291-of-399 passing attempts, leading the NFL and setting a new franchise record for completion percentage with 72.9. The Miami offense maintained control and emphasized methodical drives, tying for fourth-fewest three-and-out possessions in the NFL with 26 and ranking fourth in average time of possession (31:43). His group also led the way for running back De'Von Achane who became the first Dolphins player to have at least 750 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in a single season.

In Barry's first season as Miami's offensive line coach in 2023, his group led the NFL in fewest quarterback hits allowed (59), despite starting 12 different offensive line combinations en route to a playoff berth. The 12 different combinations were second-most in the NFL behind the N.Y. Jets' 13. Miami only surrendered 31.0 sacks, good for fourth-fewest in the league. The Dolphins finished the 2023 season leading the NFL in total offense (401.3) and passing offense (265.5), and ranking second in scoring offense (29.2) and sixth in rushing offense (135.8).

The 2023 Dolphins offensive line also blocked for a rushing attack that broke the team record for rushing touchdowns in a season (27). For the first time in team history, the Dolphins had a 4,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season. Barry coached left tackle Terron Armstead to his fifth career Pro Bowl selection.

Barry was Denver's offensive line coach in 2022 where his unit helped block for a rushing attack that gained 1,935 yards. Despite being signed in October and only playing 12 games, running back Latavius Murray rushed for 760 yards, the most he's had in a season since 2017.

In 2021, Barry was San Francisco's assistant offensive line coach. He helped the 49ers advance to the NFC Championship game behind a balanced offensive attack. The offense was tied for 11th in the NFL with just 33 sacks allowed while the running game averaged 127.4 yards per game, which ranked seventh. San Francisco led the league in passing yards per play (8.21) and red zone touchdown percentage (66.7). Barry coached three offensive linemen to the Pro Bowl that season as tackle Trent Williams, guard Laken Tomlinson and center Alex Mack all earned selections. Williams also earned first-team All-Pro honors.

Barry was a senior analyst for Green Bay in 2020. The Packers won 13 games and advanced to the NFC Championship game behind NFL MVP Aaron Rodgers, who passed for a career-high 48 touchdowns, and running back Aaron Jones, who rushed for 1,104 yards in just 14 games.

Barry spent the 2019 season as offensive line coach at the University of Miami, where his unit helped block for two 500-yard rushers and seven 300-yard receivers.

From 2015-18, Barry was the assistant offensive line coach for Tampa Bay, his first NFL coaching position. During his four seasons there, the Buccaneers ranked in the top 10 in total offense three times.

In 2018, the Bucs led the league in passing (320.3) and were third in total offense (415.5) despite having multiple quarterbacks start at least seven games.

Barry helped an offensive line for the ninth-ranked offense in the NFL in 2017, when the Buccaneers averaged 363.5 yards per game. Tampa Bay was fourth in passing offense (272.9) and had five 500-yard receivers.

Tampa Bay won nine games in 2016, the organization's first winning season since 2010. The offensive line helped protect quarterback Jameis Winston, who passed for 4,090 yards, which is the second-highest total of Winston's career.

In Barry's first season with the Buccaneers, he helped guard Logan Mankins reach the Pro Bowl in his first season with the team. Tampa Bay finished fifth in total offense (375.9) and rushing offense (135.1) that season. Running back Doug Martin was the NFL's second-leading rusher with 1,402 yards. The offense allowed just 27 sacks, tied for fourth-fewest in the league.

Barry spent five seasons (2010-14) in his second stint at his alma mater, Central Michigan, where he coached offensive line (2014) and tight ends (2010-13). In his first season, the Chippewas ranked third in the Mid-American Conference, averaging 389.8 yards per game. They had top-three passing offenses in the MAC in both 2010 and 2011. In 2011, tight end David Blackburn led all MAC tight ends with 479 receiving yards and five touchdown receptions. Barry previously began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan from 2002-03.

Barry had several other college coaching positions. In 2009, he was the offensive coordinator/offensive line/recruiting coordinator for North Greenville University.

He spent three seasons at Michigan Technological University, serving as offensive line coach (2006) and offensive coordinator/offensive line (2007-08). Barry coached current Dolphins senior passing game coordinator Bobby Slowik, who played wide receiver for the Huskies from 2005-08.

From 2004-05, Barry was the offensive line coach at Southwest Minnesota State.

Barry was a three-year letterman and earned academic All-MAC honors in 2000 as an offensive lineman at Central Michigan. He and his wife, Andrea, have two daughters, Aislin and Bridget, and a son, Finn.

DARRELL

COLLEGE: WISCONSIN

2013 2013, 2014

Darrell Bevell joined the Miami Dolphins as quarterbacks/pass game coordinator in 2022.

The 2025 season marks the 29th year of coaching for Bevell, including 25 years at the NFL level. He has 15 years of experience as an offensive coordinator for four different teams – Minnesota (2006-10), Seattle (2011-17), Detroit (2019-20) and Jacksonville (2021). He's also served as an interim head coach twice – Detroit (2020) and Jacksonville (2021).

Bevell has coached several Pro Bowl quarterbacks throughout his career including Brett Favre, Russell Wilson, Matthew Stafford, Trevor Lawrence and Tua Tagovailoa. He's also called plays for a Super Bowl-winning team when he was Seattle's offensive coordinator during their Super Bowl XLVIII victory.

Since 2022, Bevell has overseen the continued development of quarterback Tua Tagovailoa who led the NFL and set a season franchise record in completion percentage in 2024 (72.9). That mark was also the third-best in NFL history. Bevell helped Tagovailoa excel and become the most efficient passer in red zone situations. He completed 41-of-57 passes (71.9 pct.) for 255 yards, 16 touchdowns and no interceptions in the red zone, good for a 120.2 red zone passer rating that led the league. Tagovailoa is one of just seven quarterbacks to have led the league in each of the following categories: passer rating (2022), passing yards (2023) and completion percentage (2024). He is one of three to do so in the first five years of his career (Kurt Warner/Ken Anderson).

Tagovailoa led the league in passing yards (4,624) in 2023, becoming the first Dolphin to do so since Dan Marino in 1992. His 69.3 completion percentage was the best in a season in Dolphins history. Bevell helped Tagovailoa finish the 2023 season fifth in the NFL in passer rating (101.1), tied for fifth in passing touchdowns (29) and second in yards per attempt (8.3). His 4,624 passing yards were third-best in franchise history and his 29 touchdown passes were fifth-best in franchise history. Tagovailoa helped wide receiver Tyreek Hill set a new franchise record for receiving yards (1,799) which was seventh-best in NFL history. For the first time since 1994, the Dolphins offense also led the league in total offense (401.3).

In a career year, Tagovailoa earned his first Pro Bowl selection and AFC Offensive Player of the Month honor. In September, he became the first Dolphin to win the AFC Offensive Player of the Month since Scott Mitchell in 1993. Tagovailoa also won AFC Offensive Player of the Week following his performance in Week 1 at the L.A. Chargers. He was named the Sporting News NFL Comeback Player of the Year in a vote by the league's players and was a finalist for the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year.

In Bevell's first season in Miami in 2022, he helped Tagovailoa become the youngest player to lead the NFL in passer rating (105.5) since Dan Marino in 1984. Tagovailoa also led the league in third-down passer rating (130.1) and red zone passer rating (112.2). Tagovailoa was one of seven players to lead in all three categories since 1973.

Bevell mentored three quarterbacks who wound up starting multiple games for Miami in 2022 – Tagovailoa, Teddy Bridgewater and Skylar Thompson. That was something the Dolphins had not done since 2007. The group helped Miami finish with a top-10 offense (sixth, 364.5 yards per game) for the first time since 1995 and earn a playoff berth for the first time since 2016. The trio also helped wide receiver Tyreek Hill shatter the single-season franchise records for receptions (119) and receiving yards (1,710).

Bevell was Jacksonville's offensive coordinator in 2021. He also served as the team's interim head coach for the final four games and led the team to a Week 18 victory over Indianapolis that eliminated the Colts from a playoff berth. Bevell worked closely with rookie quarterback Trevor Lawrence, who set a Jaguars rookie record with 3,641 passing yards. The mark ranked 11th in NFL rookie history.

Bevell spent two seasons as offensive coordinator for Detroit (2019-20). He helped the Lions finish with the NFL's 10th-best passing offense in both 2019 (243.8) and 2020 (256.5). The Lions were the only team in the NFL to have four different running backs with at least 200 yards rushing in 2019. Bevell spent the final five games of the 2020 campaign as Detroit's interim head coach.

From 2011-17, Bevell was Seattle's offensive coordinator. He helped the Seahawks earn five playoff berths, win three NFC West titles, two NFC championships and one Super Bowl (XLVIII) in that span. Seattle had eight different players combine for 17 Pro Bowl selections during his seven seasons. Two players earned first-team All-Pro honors. The Seahawks had the NFL's second-best rushing offense (131.9) in that span and Seattle's cumulative passer rating of 95.7 was fourth in the league.

During his final six seasons in Seattle (2012-17), Bevell worked closely with quarterback Russell Wilson, who entered the NFL as a third-round pick (75th overall) in the 2012 NFL Draft. At the time, Wilson had the most wins (65), best passer rating (98.8), third-best interception rate (1.98), fourth-most passing touchdowns (161), fifth-highest completion percentage (64.0) and sixth-most passing yards (22,176) ever by a quarterback in his first six NFL seasons.

Seattle won Super Bowl XLVIII at the end of the 2014 season as Bevell oversaw the best rushing offense in the NFL. The Seahawks averaged 172.6 rushing yards per game, a full 25 yards per game more than any other team in the league. Running back Marshawn Lynch tied for the NFL lead with 13 rushing touchdowns and earned a Pro Bowl selection and second-team All-Pro honors.

Bevell spent five seasons as offensive coordinator for Minnesota (2006-10), where he helped the Vikings win the NFC North twice and advance to the NFC Championship game in 2009. In his tenure, Bevell helped eight different offensive players earn a total of 15 Pro Bowl selections. Two players earned a total of five first-team All-Pro honors. Running back Adrian Peterson (2007) and wide receiver Percy Harvin (2009) both won NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year.

The Vikings were fourth in the NFL in yards per carry (4.51) from 2006-10. They also ranked fifth in total rushing yards (10,646) and rushing touchdowns (84). Bevell was Minnesota's offensive coordinator when they drafted Peterson in 2007. During his four years coaching him, Peterson rushed for at least 1,200 yards and 10 touchdowns each season. Peterson set the NFL's single-game rushing record with 296 yards in 2007.

Bevell's first NFL coaching job came in 2000 when he joined Green Bay as an offensive assistant/quality control. He was promoted to quarterbacks coach in 2003, when he first coached Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterback Brett Favre. In Bevell's first season as quarterbacks coach, Favre led the NFL with 32 touchdown passes. In 2004, the Packers set a then-team record with 4,449 net passing yards and ranked third in the NFL in total offense (397.3).

Bevell coached wide receivers at Connecticut from 1998-99. In 1998, the Huskies advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA quarterfinals and scored a then-school record 461 points.

Bevell's first coaching position came at Westmar University in 1996 as passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach. He moved to Iowa State in 1997 as a graduate assistant.

Bevell was a four-year starting quarterback (1992-95) at Wisconsin. He is still the school's all-time leading passer (7,686 yards) and at one point held more than 20 team and conference records. As a sophomore in 1993, Bevell helped Wisconsin clinch a share of the Big Ten title for the first time since 1962 and win the school's first Rose Bowl on Jan. 1, 1994. His 67.8 completion percentage in 1993 was a Big Ten record until 2010. He was inducted into the University of Wisconsin Athletic Hall of Fame in 2017.

He began his collegiate career at Northern Arizona in 1989. After redshirting one season, Bevell went on a two-year mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Cleveland from 1990-91.

A Yuma, Arizona native, Bevell and his wife, Tammy, have three daughters, Kylie, Morgan and Hailey.

JON EMBREE

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/TIGHT ENDS

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP 2019

Jon Embree joined the Miami Dolphins as assistant head coach/tight ends in 2022.

The 2025 season marks Embree's 34th as a coach, primarily at the tight end position. It's his 17th year coaching in the NFL paired with three years of NFL playing experience and 17 seasons as a college coach.

After a slower start, Miami's offense in 2024 significantly improved in the second half of the season, improving from 28th in scoring efficiency from Weeks 1-9 with 30.2 percent to finishing eighth from Weeks 10-18 with 46.9 percent. Miami's pass game also became a major factor in the team's success in the second half of the season, improving from 23rd in receptions and 29th in receiving yards to second in receptions (245) and fourth in receiving yards (2,371).

Embree mentored veteran Jonnu Smith, a 2024 free agent acquisition, who set single-season franchise records for tight ends in receptions (88), receiving yards (884) and receiving touchdowns (8). Embree coached Smith to finish fourth among NFL tight ends in 2024 in receptions and receiving yards and tie for second in receiving touchdowns. Following the season, Smith earned his first career Pro Bowl selection.

In 2023, the Dolphins won 11 games for the first time since 2008 and earned a playoff berth for the second consecutive season. It was Miami's first back-to-back postseason appearances since 1997-2001. Under Embree's tutelage, tight end Durham Smythe reached career highs in receptions (35) and receiving yards (355). Embree's group contributed to the pass game and protection in an offense that led the league in total offense (401.3) for the first time since 1994. The Dolphins also ranked first in passing offense (265.5), yards per carry (5.1) and quarterback hits allowed (59). The team's 29.2 points per game were good for second in the league.

In Embree's first season with Miami in 2022, the Dolphins won nine games and earned a playoff berth for the first time since 2016. His tight ends contributed to a Miami offense that finished in the top 10 (sixth, 364.5 yards per game) for the first time since 1995. The Dolphins also made a big improvement in scoring offense, moving from 22nd in 2021 to 11th (23.4 points per game) in Embree's first season.

Prior to Miami, Embree coached for five years (2017-21) in San Francisco, where he served as assistant head coach/tight ends. He was primarily responsible for developing tight end George Kittle, who arrived in San Francisco as a fifth-round pick in 2017.

In Kittle's five seasons with Embree, he was the second-most productive tight end in the league, totaling 4,489 receiving yards. He was named first-team All-Pro in 2019 and earned three Pro Bowl selections following the 2018, 2019 and 2021 seasons.

In 2021, Embree helped the 49ers advance to the NFC Championship game. Kittle was fourth among all NFL tight ends with 910 receiving yards, despite missing three games due to injury, and was named to the Pro Bowl.

In 2020, Kittle missed half the season due to injury but still caught 48 passes for 634 yards (13.2 avg.). His 634 yards ranked third on the team despite missing eight contests. Two other tight ends totaled at least 200 receiving yards in Ross Dwelley (245) and Jordan Reed (231).

In 2019, San Francisco went 13-3, winning the NFC West and defeating the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Championship, culminating to an appearance in Super Bowl LIV. Kittle led the 49ers in receptions (85) and receiving yards (1,053) and was one of three NFL tight ends to top 1,000 receiving yards that season. He set the NFL record for the most receiving yards by a tight end through their first three seasons (2,945). Kittle earned first-team All-Pro honors and was named a starter in the Pro Bowl.

Just a year removed from being a fifth-round pick, Kittle had a record-breaking season in 2018. The second-year tight end caught 88 passes for 1,377 yards (15.7 avg.) and five touchdowns. His 1,377 receiving yards led all NFL tight ends and was the most by a tight end in NFL history at the time. He also set a 49ers tight end franchise record with 88 receptions. Kittle earned second-team All-Pro honors and was selected to the Pro Bowl.

In 2017, Embree mentored Kittle during his rookie season. The young tight end finished third on the team in receiving with 43 receptions for 515 yards (12.0 avg.). Tight end Garrett Celek set a single-season career high with four touchdown receptions.

Embree spent three seasons (2014-16) as tight ends coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

In 2016, the Buccaneers won nine games, posting their first winning season since 2010. Tight end Cameron Brate had the best season in his nine-year NFL career, posting career highs in receptions (57), receiving yards (660) and receiving touchdowns (eight). His eight touchdown receptions were tied for the most by an NFL tight end that season. As a unit, Tampa Bay's tight ends caught 11 touchdowns, which was the most by the team's tight ends since 1985.

In 2015, Embree worked with tight end Austin Seferian-Jenkins, who averaged 16.1 yards per catch. The mark was the second-best of any tight end in the NFL that year behind New England's Rob Gronkowski (16.3, min. 20 receptions).

Embree was the tight ends coach of the Cleveland Browns in 2013. He helped tight end Jordan Cameron total 917 receiving yards, second-most by a tight end in the NFL that season. Cameron earned the only Pro Bowl selection of his career the season he was coached by Embree.

From 2011-12, Embree was the head coach at the University of Colorado-Boulder, where he became the third alumnus in school history to be head coach of the football team.

He served as Washington's tight ends coach in 2010 and worked with tight end Chris Cooley, who finished second among NFL tight ends in receptions (77) and third in receiving yards (849) that season.

Embree's first NFL coaching job came in 2006 when he was named tight ends coach for the Kansas City Chiefs. He spent three seasons (2006-08) there, working with Pro Football Hall of Fame tight end Tony Gonzalez.

In 2008, Gonzalez led all NFL tight ends with 96 receptions for 1,058 yards (11.0 avg.) and 10 touchdowns. Gonzalez also led all NFL tight ends with 99 receptions for 1,172 yards (11.8 avg.) while adding five touchdowns in 2007. It marked the only time in Gonzalez's Hall of Fame career that he had consecutive 1,000-yard campaigns.

Gonzalez earned All-Pro honors and was selected to the Pro Bowl in each of the three seasons he worked with Embree.

Prior to coaching in the NFL, Embree spent 13 years at the collegiate level. He spent three seasons (2003-05) at UCLA, serving as assistant head coach/wide receivers (2003) and assistant head coach/tight ends (2004-05). He also spent 10 seasons at Colorado (1993-2002), coaching tight ends (1993-94, 1999-2000), defensive ends (1995-98) and wide receivers/kickers (2001-02).

During his collegiate coaching career, Embree mentored two Mackey Award winners, given annually to college football's top tight end. At UCLA, Embree helped tight end Marcedes Lewis earn the honor with 741 receiving yards and 10 touchdowns in 2005. At Colorado, Embree developed tight end Daniel Graham, who won the Mackey Award in 2001 after totaling 753 receiving yards and six touchdowns.

His first coaching job was at Colorado in 1991 as a volunteer assistant. He also coached wide receivers/tight ends at Douglas County (Colo.) High School in 1992.

Embree was a sixth-round pick (166th overall) by the L.A. Rams in 1987. He played two seasons (1987-88) at tight end for the Rams, appearing in 13 games, before suffering a career-ending elbow injury in 1989 with the Seattle Seahawks.

Embree lettered four seasons (1983-86) as a tight end at Colorado. He finished his career with 80 receptions, 1,116 receiving yards and five touchdowns, and graduated with a degree in communications in 1987.

A native of Englewood, Colorado, Embree and his wife, Natalyn, have two sons, Taylor and Connor, and one daughter, Hannah. His sons also joined the NFL coaching ranks . Taylor most recently served as the running backs coach for the New England Patriots, and Connor is the wide receivers coach for the Kansas City Chiefs. His father, John Embree, played two seasons (1969-70) for the Denver Broncos.

ROB EVERETT

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT
COLLEGE: MICHIGAN
DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Rob Everett joined the Miami Dolphins as an offensive assistant in 2024.

The 2025 season is Everett's second as an NFL coach. He also has five years of experience as a collegiate coach, three as a consultant at the collegiate and professional level and 15 as a high school coach.

Everett worked closely with Miami's offense in his first season with the team. After a slower start, Miami's offense in 2024 significantly improved in the second half of the season, improving from 28th in scoring efficiency from Weeks 1-9 with 30.2 percent to finishing eighth from Weeks 10-18 with 46.9 percent. Miami's pass game also became a major factor in the team's success in the second half of the season, improving from 23rd in receptions and 29th in receiving yards to second in receptions (245) and fourth in receiving yards (2,371).

In 2023, Everett spent the season on the coaching staff at Wisconsin, serving as a senior offensive analyst. Everett assisted on an offensive unit that saw running back Braelon Allen tally 984 rushing yards and 12 rushing touchdowns, both among the top three in the Big 10.

In 2022, Everett joined the staff at North Carolina as an offensive analyst, where he also worked with the quarterbacks. Drake Maye threw for an ACC-leading 4,231 yards and 38 touchdowns and led the team with 698 rushing yards, finding the endzone seven times on the ground. UNC went on to win the ACC Coastal Division that season and Maye was the third overall pick of the 2024 NFL Draft by New England.

Everett spent the 2019-21 seasons as a football consultant for several NCAA and high school teams. He advised on advanced opponent scouting, actionable tackling reports, 3D-simulation training and interactive player assessments aimed to enhance coaching efficiency and player productivity while also serving as a senior advisor for several football technology programs.

In the spring of 2019, Everett joined the coaching staff of the Memphis Express in the Alliance of American Football (AAF). He held a variety of roles in Memphis including tight ends coach and assistant to the defensive coordinator.

From 2016-18, Everett was the defensive coordinator at Bridgewater College. In 2018, he coached a defense that led the conference in total defense (341.0), third-down efficiency (33.8), fewest first downs allowed (17.3) and red zone defense (71.0).

Everett was the defensive coordinator at Westfield High School from 2011-15. During his time there, Westfield posted a 61-8 record and won the 2015 6A Virginia State Championship. In the 2015 state championship season, Everett led a defense that allowed just 12.6 points per game in 15 games.

Prior to his time at Westfield, Everett was the head coach at John R. Lewis High School from 2004-10. In 2009, he led them to a Virginia state quarterfinal appearance.

Everett got his start in coaching at Washington-Lee High School as an offensive line coach in 2002.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, Everett and his wife, Lisa, have two sons, Bo and Joey.

CHANDLER HENLEY

RUN GAME SPECIALIST

Chandler Henley joined the Miami Dolphins in 2022 and was promoted to run game specialist in 2025. He first served as assistant quarterbacks coach from 2022-23 and was promoted to senior offensive assistant in 2024.

The 2025 season marks the 14th year of coaching for Henley, including six at the collegiate level and eight in the NFL.

Over his three seasons with Miami, Henley has helped with the continued development of quarterback Tua Tagovailoa, who led the NFL and set a season franchise record in completion percentage in 2024 (72.9). That mark was also the third-best in a season in NFL history. That season, Henley also helped Tagovailoa become the most efficient passer in red zone situations. The fifth-year quarterback completed 41-of-57 passes (71.9 pct.) for 255 yards, 16 touchdowns and no interceptions in the red zone, good for a 120.2 red zone passer rating that led the league.

Tagovailoa led the league in passing yards (4,624) in 2023, becoming the first Dolphin to do so since Dan Marino in 1992. His 69.3 completion percentage was a franchise-best and he finished the season fifth in passer rating (101.1). His 4,624 passing yards were third in franchise history and his 29 passing touchdowns ranked fifth.

Tagovailoa earned his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2023 and became the first Dolphin to win an AFC Offensive Player of the Month award (September) since Scott Mitchell in 1993. Tagovailoa was named the Sporting News NFL Comeback Player of the Year that was voted on by the league's players.

In Henley's first season with Miami, he helped Tagovailoa lead the NFL in passer rating (105.5). Tagovailoa was the youngest player to do this since Marino in 1984. He also led the league in third-down passer rating (130.1) and red zone passer rating (112.2). Tagovailoa was one of seven players to lead in all three categories since 1973.

Despite injuries forcing Miami to start three different quarterbacks in multiple games for the first time since 2007, the Dolphins finished top 10 in total offense (sixth, 364.5 yards per game). It was Miami's first top-10 offense since 1995. The Dolphins also improved 11 spots in scoring offense, moving from 22nd in 2021 to 11th in 2022 (23.4 points per game). Skylar Thompson, a rookie seventh-round pick, earned his first career win in Week 18 to secure the franchise's first playoff berth since 2016.

Henley spent the 2021 season with the Atlanta Falcons as assistant offensive line coach. He worked with a young offensive line – only one starter was over 26 years old – that helped protect quarterback Matt Ryan, who passed for 3,968 yards. The unit also paved the way for running back Cordarrelle Patterson to total a career-high 1,166 yards from scrimmage in his first season as a full-time starting running back.

From 2018-20, Henley was a quality control coach for the Tennessee Titans, where he worked primarily with the offensive line. During his three seasons there, the Titans were second in the NFL, averaging 144.5 rushing yards per game. Tennessee posted winning seasons in all three years, advanced to the AFC Championship game in 2019 and won 11 games and the AFC South in 2020.

In 2020, the Titans were second in rushing offense (168.1), tied for second in total offense (396.4), fourth in scoring offense (30.7) and sixth in fewest sacks allowed (25). Running back Derrick Henry was named NFL Offensive Player of the Year after rushing for 2,027 yards and 17 touchdowns.

The 2019 Titans finished 9-7 but won playoff games at New England and Baltimore to advance to the AFC Championship game. Henry rushed for an NFL-leading 1,540 yards and 16 touchdowns, earning second-team All-Pro recognition and Pro Bowl honors. Tennessee's rushing attack was third in the league (138.9) and its scoring offense ranked 10th (25.1). Quarterback Ryan Tannehill was the NFL's highest-rated passer (117.5).

In 2018, Henley helped tackle Taylor Lewan earn his third consecutive Pro Bowl appearance. The Titans won nine games despite using multiple quarterbacks. Henry totaled 1,059 rushing yards and 12 rushing touchdowns and the rushing offense was seventh (126.4) in the league.

Henley was the tight ends coach at his alma mater, Yale, from 2015-17. In 2017, Yale went 9-1 and earned its first outright Ivy League championship since 1980. Henley mentored tight end Jaeden Graham, who earned first-team All-Ivy League honors and went on to play for the Atlanta Falcons.

Henley's first coaching position came at Vanderbilt, where he served as offensive/recruiting graduate assistant from 2012-13 and worked with the running backs and wide receivers. He added assistant quarterback coach responsibilities in 2014. Vanderbilt won nine games in back-to-back seasons for the first time in history in 2012-13.

Prior to coaching, Henley worked in sales for IBM and Google. He also worked as a part-time researcher for NBC's Football Night in America.

Henley played wide receiver at Yale from 2002-06, recording 110 career receptions for 1,609 yards (14.6 avg.) and 11 touchdowns. In 2006, he was the sole captain of an Ivy League championship team and led the Bulldogs in receptions, yards and touchdowns.

A native of Littleton, Colorado, Henley graduated with a bachelor's degree in sociology from Yale and earned a master's degree in higher education administration from Vanderbilt. He lives with his wife, Noelle, and step-daughter, Mia.

LEMUEL JEANPIERRE

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE
COLLEGE: SOUTH CAROLINA
DOLPHINS: SIXTH SEASON

2013 (PLAYER) 2013 (PLAYER), 2014 (PLAYER)

Lemuel Jeanpierre (pronounced leh-mew-ELL zhon-pee-AIR) joined the Miami Dolphins in 2020 and is in his second stint as assistant offensive line coach, a position he's held since 2022. He was the team's offensive line coach in 2021 and was the assistant offensive line coach in 2020.

The 2025 season marks Jeanpierre's 15th in the NFL – six as a player (2010-15) and nine as a coach (2017-25).

In his first four seasons with the team, the Dolphins posted four consecutive winning seasons for the first time since 1997-03. Miami earned back-to-back playoff berths from 2022-23, marking the first time the team had consecutive playoff appearances since 1997-2001.

In 2024, Jeanpierre helped coach an offensive line that blocked for quarterback Tua Tagovailoa, who completed 291-of-399 passing attempts, leading the NFL and setting a new franchise record for completion percentage with 72.9. The Miami offense improved significantly in the second half of the season with an emphasis on sustaining longer, methodical drives, tying for fourth-fewest three-and-out possessions in the NFL with 26 and ranking fourth in average time of possession (31:43).

The line also blocked for second-year running back De'Von Achane who became the first Dolphins player to have at least 750 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in a single season.
Following the season, Jeanpierre was also selected as the offensive line coach of the National Team in the 2025 Senior Bowl.

In 2023, Jeanpierre worked with an offensive line room that led the NFL in fewest quarterback hits allowed (59), despite starting 12 different combinations, which was second-most in the NFL, only behind the N.Y. Jets' 13. Miami ranked fourth in the league with 31.0 sacks surrendered. The Dolphins made big strides on offense, finishing the 2023 season as the league leader in total offense (401.3) and passing offense (265.5), second in scoring offense (29.2) and sixth in rushing offense (135.8). It was the first time Miami led the NFL in total offense since 1994. Jeanpierre helped left tackle Terron Armstead earn the fifth career Pro Bowl selection of his career.

As assistant offensive line coach in 2022, Jeanpierre helped the Dolphins finish with a top 10 offense (sixth, 364.5 yards per game), something Miami had not done since 1995. The Dolphins were second in yards per play (6.1) and second in net yards per pass attempt (7.7). Miami's 35 sacks allowed were tied for the ninth-fewest in the league. Tackle Terron Armstead, who was added as an unrestricted free agent in the offseason, was named a starter for the AFC Pro Bowl team in his first season with Miami.

In 2021, Jeanpierre oversaw a Dolphins offensive line that featured just one starter over the age of 25 and progressed throughout the season. Miami improved from 21st in the NFL in sacks allowed from Weeks 1-8 to tied for 13th in the league in the second half of the season. The Dolphins also improved their rushing attack by more than 25 yards per game in that span.

In his first season with Miami in 2020, Jeanpierre helped the Dolphins win 10 games for the first time since 2016. He helped mentor an offensive line that had three rookies start a combined 37 games and finish in the top half of the league in sacks allowed (34.0, tied for 15th). Tackle Austin Jackson, guard/tackle Robert Hunt and guard Solomon Kindley made history when they became the first trio of Dolphins draft picks to start a game as rookies together on the offensive line.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Jeanpierre served as the assistant offensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders from 2018-19.

In 2019, Jeanpierre helped the Raiders offensive line limit opponents to just 29.0 sacks. The team had four games where they didn't allow a sack. The 29 sacks allowed were the eighth-fewest in the NFL. The Raiders offensive line also helped running back Josh Jacobs rush for 1,150 yards, becoming the first rookie in team history to have a 1,000-yard rushing season. Two of Oakland's offensive linemen – tackle Trent Brown and center Rodney Hudson – earned Pro Bowl honors.

Jeanpierre's first season with Oakland was in 2018, where he helped a young offensive line that featured two rookie starters – tackle Kolton Miller and tackle Brandon Parker. Miller became the first rookie offensive linemen to start every game for the Raiders since 2011. Parker started 12 consecutive games to end the season. The offensive line helped protect quarterback Derek Carr, who had then-career highs in passing yards (4,049), completion percentage (68.9), completions (381) and yards per attempt (7.3). The Raiders completed 68.7 percent of their passes, breaking the franchise record and ranking fifth in the NFL that season. Hudson and guard Kelechi Osemele were both selected as Pro Bowl alternates.

Jeanpierre earned his first coaching job in 2017 with the Seahawks, where he was hired as an offensive assistant. He focused primarily on the offensive line, where he helped tackle Duane Brown earn his fourth Pro Bowl honor.

Prior to his coaching career, Jeanpierre played six NFL seasons (2010-15) as a center and guard with Seattle, appearing in 63 games with 11 starts. He played in nine postseason games and helped the Seahawks win three NFC West titles and two NFC Championships in addition to Super Bowl XLVIII. He also spent time with Kansas City (2010) and Detroit (2016).

Jeanpierre began his NFL career as an undrafted college free agent after a collegiate career at South Carolina where he started games on both the offensive and defensive lines.

He was born in Gretna, Louisiana and moved to Orlando, Florida, where he played at Timber Creek High School and earned first-team all-state honors as a defensive lineman. He is of Haitian descent.

Jeanpierre and his wife, Jaylene, have two sons, Isaiah and Kairo, and a daughter, Yana.

JONATHAN KRAUSE

ASSISTANT WIDE RECEIVERS
COLLEGE: VANDERBILT
DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

2014 (PLAYER) 2014 (PLAYER)

Jonathan Krause joined the Miami Dolphins as an offensive assistant in 2024 and was promoted to assistant wide receivers coach in 2025.

The 2025 season marks Krause's fifth year of NFL experience including three as a player and two as a coach after six seasons coaching at the collegiate level.

Krause worked closely with Miami's offense in his first season with the team. After a slower start, Miami's offense in 2024 significantly improved in the second half of the season, improving from 28th in scoring efficiency from Weeks 1-9 with 30.2 percent to finishing eighth from Weeks 10-18 with 46.9 percent. Miami's pass game also became a major factor in the team's success in the second half of the season, improving from 23rd in receptions and 29th in receiving yards to second in receptions (245) and fourth in receiving yards (2,371).

Prior to joining Miami, Krause spent one season at San Diego State as wide receivers coach. In 2023, Krause worked with wide receiver Mekhi Shaw, who earned honorable mention All-Mountain West honors at wide receiver and punt returner.

Krause spent two seasons (2021-22) as wide receivers coach at UNLV. In each of those two seasons, the Rebels had a pair of receivers with at least 40 catches and 500 receiving yards. It marked the first time since 2012-13 that UNLV had done this in consecutive seasons.

In 2022, the Rebels ranked third in the Mountain West in passing offense (215.0) and fifth in scoring offense (26.3). Wide receiver Ricky White recorded 51 receptions for 619 yards (12.1 avg.) and four touchdowns, while wide receiver Kyle Williams totaled 40 receptions for 541 yards (13.5 avg.) and five touchdowns.

In 2021, Krause helped wide receiver Steve Jenkins total 46 receptions for 694 yards (15.1 avg.) and four touchdowns. Williams recorded then-career highs in receptions (42) and receiving yards (601), while adding two touchdowns.

Krause spent three seasons (2018-20) at Oregon as a graduate assistant, working mostly with the wide receivers. During his three seasons, Krause helped Oregon to a 25-9 overall record, a pair of Pac-12 Conference championships and three bowl games, including the 2020 Rose Bowl title.

In 2020, the Ducks ranked fourth in the Pac-12 in passing offense (246.1) and scoring offense (31.3). Krause helped Oregon defeat USC in the conference championship game, earning a trip to the Fiesta Bowl. Under his guidance, wide receiver Johnny Johnson III earned All-Pac 12 honorable mention.

In 2019, the Ducks finished the season ranked fifth in the AP Top 25 Poll following victories in the Pac-12 championship and the Rose Bowl. Krause helped develop a deep group of wideouts in which three different receivers finished the season with at least 30 receptions. Johnson led the team with 57 receptions for 836 yards (14.7 avg.) and seven touchdowns, while wide receiver Jaylon Redd recorded 50 receptions for 465 yards (9.3 avg.) and seven touchdowns. Despite missing the first four games of the season, wide receiver Juwan Johnson totaled 30 catches for 467 yards (15.6 avg.) and four touchdowns.

In 2018, Krause coached wide receiver Dillon Mitchell, who finished his final season at Oregon with 1,184 receiving yards, a single-season program record at the time. He was just the 11th Duck to have a 1,000-yard receiving season in program history. The junior wideout led the Pac-12 in receiving yards and earned second-team All-Pac-12 honors. Mitchell was a seventh-round pick (239th overall) by Minnesota in the 2019 NFL Draft.

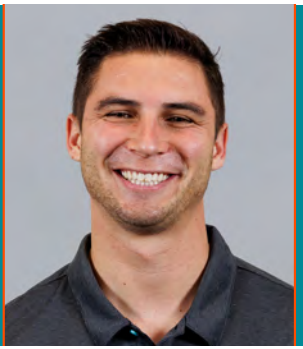

Krause began his coaching career with his alma mater, serving as a volunteer coach with the Commodores following his playing career.

Krause played three NFL seasons as a wide receiver with stops in New England (2014), Philadelphia (2015), Tampa Bay (2016), San Diego (2016) and Tennessee (2016). Krause won Super Bowl XLIX as a member of New England's practice squad at the end of the 2014 season. He played in two games with Philadelphia in 2015, recording two receptions for 11 yards (5.5 avg.) and one solo special teams tackle.

A Pompano Beach, Florida native, Krause finished high school in Snellville, Georgia after one semester in his hometown. He was a four-year letterwinner at Vanderbilt, playing in all 49 games during his career. He graduated with a degree in economics and a minor in computer science.

MAX McCAFFREY

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT
COLLEGE: DUKE
DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

Max McCaffrey joined the Miami Dolphins as an offensive assistant in 2023 after three seasons coaching at the collegiate level.

In 2025, his third season with the team, McCaffrey works closely with the quarterbacks.

In 2024, McCaffrey worked with the running backs. After a slower start in 2024, Miami's offense significantly improved in the second half of the season, improving from 28th in scoring efficiency from Weeks 1-9 with 30.2 percent to finishing eighth in Weeks 10-18 with 46.9 percent. Miami's pass game also became a major factor in the team's success in the second half of the season, improving from 23rd in receptions and 29th in receiving yards to second in receptions (245) and fourth in receiving yards (2,371).

Running back De'Von Achane set franchise records for receptions (78) and receiving touchdowns (6) by a running back in a season. He totaled 1,499 yards from scrimmage (907 rushing, 592 receiving) which ranked fifth-most in franchise history. He became the first Dolphins player to have at least 750 rushing yards and 50 receiving yards in a single season and was the only player in the NFL with 900-plus rushing yards and 550-plus receiving yards in 2024.

In 2023, the Dolphins won 11 games for the first time in 15 years (2008). McCaffrey worked primarily with the wide receivers and helped the offense lead the league in total offense (401.3) for the first time in 30 years (1994). They ranked first in passing offense (265.5) and yards per rush (5.1) and second in scoring offense (29.2). Miami's offensive unit also led the league in explosive play metrics. Their 255 plays of 10-plus yards and 12 plays of 50-plus yards were the best in the NFL and their 46 plays of 25-plus yards were third-best.

McCaffrey spent the previous three seasons (2020-22) at Northern Colorado, where he coached wide receivers in 2020 and was promoted to offensive coordinator/wide receivers in 2021.

In 2022, McCaffrey oversaw an offense that averaged 228.5 passing yards per game, an improvement of more than 60 yards per game from the prior season. Running back Elijah Dotson earned second-team All-Big Sky honors after finishing fourth in the conference in rushing with 928 yards and went on to play for the L.A. Chargers. Offensive lineman Brady Odom (third team) and quarterback Dylan McCaffrey (honorable mention) also earned All-Big Sky honors.

In his first season as offensive coordinator, McCaffrey helped Northern Colorado lead the Big Sky in fewest sacks allowed at 1.18 per game. That mark ranked 15th in the FCS that season. Offensive lineman Grant Stephens (second team) and wide receiver Kassidy Woods (honorable mention) earned All-Big Sky recognition.

McCaffrey began his coaching career at Northern Colorado as wide receivers coach in 2020 but the team did not play that season due to COVID-19.

As a player, McCaffrey appeared in six NFL games as a wide receiver for Jacksonville (2017) and San Francisco (2018). He also spent time on practice squads with New Orleans and Green Bay, and was an undrafted free agent signing with Oakland in 2016.

He played collegiately at Duke, where he led the team in receiving as a senior in 2015 with 52 receptions for 643 yards (12.4 avg.) and five touchdowns.

McCaffrey comes from a football family. His father, Ed, played 13 seasons in the NFL with the N.Y. Giants (1991-93), San Francisco (1994) and Denver (1995-2003) and was a three-time Super Bowl champion, winning one (XXIX) with San Francisco and two (XXXII and XXXIII) with Denver, also earning Pro Bowl honors in 1998. His brother, Christian, is a running back for San Francisco and a three-time Pro Bowl selection (2019, 2022-23). Another brother, Dylan, played quarterback at Northern Colorado and Michigan. His youngest brother, Luke, played wide receiver at Rice and was a third-round pick (100th overall) by the Washington Commanders in 2024. McCaffrey is a native of Castle Rock, Colo., and is married to his wife, Kathleen.

ROBERT PRINCE

WIDE RECEIVERS
COLLEGE: HUMBOLDT STATE
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Robert Prince joined the Miami Dolphins as wide receivers coach in 2025.

The 2025 season marks Prince's 37th as a coach and 18th in the NFL. Along with his NFL experience, Prince also coached at the collegiate level for 17 years and spent two years in the Japanese X League.

Prior to joining Miami, Prince spent three seasons as the wide receivers coach for the Dallas Cowboys (2022-24), where he helped CeeDee Lamb earn three consecutive Pro Bowl selections during that time. Lamb was also named first-team All-Pro in 2023.

In 2021, Prince served as wide receivers coach for the Houston Texans and mentored Brandin Cooks, who recorded a career-high 90 receptions for 1,037 yards and six touchdowns.

Prince spent seven seasons as the wide receivers coach with the Detroit Lions (2014-20), during which the Lions receivers ranked fourth in the NFL in receiving yards (19,749) and seventh in both receptions (1,484) and receiving touchdowns (123). Prince worked with Hall of Famer Calvin Johnson who earned Pro Bowl nods in each of their two seasons together (2014-15). Prince also mentored Kenny Golladay and Golden Tate who each earned Pro Bowl selections in 2019 and 2014, respectively. Johnson and Tate became the sixth duo in Lions history to reach 1,000 yards in the same season in 2014.

In his second stint at Boise State (2011-13), Prince served as wide receivers coach for one season (2011) and offensive coordinator for two seasons (2012-13). As offensive coordinator, Prince oversaw an offense in 2012 that led the team to an 11-2 record and had five offensive players that earned All-Mountain West honors including offensive linemen Matt Paradis and Charles Leno; wide receiver Matt Miller and running back D.J. Harper.

Prior to his return to Boise State, Prince spent one season at Colorado (2010) as pass game coordinator and wide receivers coach.

Prince's NFL resume also includes stops in Seattle as wide receivers coach (2009), Jacksonville as assistant wide receivers coach (2007-08).

His NFL coaching debut came with the Atlanta Falcons, where he served as an offensive assistant (2004-05) and as assistant quarterbacks coach (2006). As assistant quarterbacks coach, he worked with quarterback Michael Vick who totaled 2,474 passing yards and 1,039 rushing yards in 2006. Vick became the first quarterback to ever rush for more than 1,000 yards in a single season and tied an NFL record for yards per rushing attempt with 8.4 (Beattie Feathers, 1934).

In his first two seasons with the Falcons, Prince primarily worked with running backs and tight ends. He helped the Falcons lead the NFL in rushing yards and yards per carry for consecutive seasons in 2004 (2,672 yards, 5.1 yards per carry) and 2005 (2,546 yards, 4.8 yards per carry).

Before his first full-time role with Atlanta, Prince also held internships with San Francisco (2000, 2002) and the Chargers (2001).

From 2001-03, Prince coached in his first stint at Boise State. He served as wide receivers coach from 2001-02 before being promoted to pass game coordinator in 2003.

He joined Portland State as wide receivers coach in 1998 and was promoted to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach and served in that capacity for two seasons (1999-2000).

In 1996, Prince and his family traveled overseas to Japan, where he accepted the offensive coordinator role and coached the Recruit Seagulls of the Japanese X-League for two seasons (1996-97). The Seagulls won the Tokyo Super Bowl and the X-League national championship in his first season.

In his previous collegiate coaching stops, he served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Fort Lewis College (1994-95), wide receivers coach at Sacramento State (1992-93) and three graduate assistant seasons at Montana State (1991) and his alma mater, Humboldt State (1989-90).

His first coaching role was as a track and field coach at Eureka High School in California.

Prince played wide receiver at San Bernardino Valley College (1983-84) and Humboldt State (1985-86). He graduated from Humboldt State in 1990 with a degree with mathematics before going on to earn his master's degree in physical education from the university in 1992. In 2025, he was inducted into the California Community College Hall of Fame.

Prince was born in Okinawa, Japan, where he lived until moving to San Bernardino, Calif. when he was 7 years old. He graduated from San Gorgonio High School, where he lettered in football and track. Prince competes in USATF events and placed first in the 60-meter hurdles at the 2024 USATF Masters Indoor Championships. He and his wife, Susan, have three children: Hayden, Jasmin and Tyson.

ROMAN SAPOLU

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT
COLLEGE: OREGON STATE
DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Roman Sapolu (pronounced sap-OH-lu) joined the Miami Dolphins as an offensive assistant in 2024.

In his first season with the Dolphins and in the NFL, Sapolu worked closely with the offensive line. The unit blocked for quarterback Tua Tagovailoa, who completed 291-of-399 passing attempts, leading the NFL and setting a new franchise record for completion percentage with 72.9. The Miami offense maintained control and emphasized methodical drives, tying for fourth-fewest three-and-out possessions in the NFL with 26 and ranking fourth in average time of possession (31:43).

The line also led the way for running back De'Von Achane who became the first Dolphins player to have at least 750 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in a single season.

Sapolu spent the previous two seasons (2022-23) at Hawai'i, where he coached the offensive line in 2022 and was promoted to co-offensive coordinator/offensive line in 2023. He was named Hawai'i's offensive coordinator in 2024 before joining the Dolphins.

In 2023, the Rainbows ranked third in the Mountain West in passing offense (276.4), passing touchdowns (27) and completion percentage (62.8). Wide receiver Steven McBride recorded 1,024 receiving yards, which ranked fourth in the conference, and six receptions of 50-plus yards, which tied for third in the FBS. McBride earned second-team All-Mountain West honors.

In 2022, Sapolu coached an offensive line that ranked fourth in the Mountain West in fewest sacks allowed (20.0) and helped the offense rank fourth in the conference in passing offense (205.5). Two Rainbow Warriors went on to earn all-conference honors, as offensive lineman Ilm Manning earned first-team All-Mountain West honors, while offensive lineman Micah Vanterpool earned second-team All-Mountain West. Both went on to the NFL, as Manning signed with the San Francisco 49ers as an undrafted free agent and Vanterpool spent part of training camp with the New England Patriots.

Sapolu spent three seasons (2019-21) at Fresno State, where he served as offensive line/run game coordinator for two years (2020-21).

In 2021, the Bulldogs averaged more than 30 points per game and were among the national leaders in various categories, including passing offense (326.7, ninth) and total offense (463.8, 14th). Sapolu coached offensive lineman Alex Akingbulu, who earned first-team All-Mountain West honors his senior year and went on to the NFL where he signed with the Washington Commanders as an undrafted free agent. He also coached offensive lineman Dontae Bull, who went on to be the No. 1 overall pick in the 2023 CFL Draft.

In 2020, the Bulldogs finished in the top 20 nationally in passing offense (356.3, fifth) and total offense (479.3, 17th). Running back Ronnie Rivers led the conference in all-purpose yards per game (163.8) and points scored per game (9.0) with nine touchdowns, earning him first-team All-Mountain West honors. Offensive lineman Syrus Tuitele earned second-team All-Mountain West honors and went on to spend training camp with the Buffalo Bills.

Sapolu first joined Fresno State as an assistant offensive line coach in 2019, and coached Netane Muti, who was a sixth-round pick (181st overall) by Denver in the 2020 NFL Draft.

Sapolu's first full-time coaching job came at Idaho State as offensive line coach in 2018. In his sole season, the Bengals tallied 5,403 total yards, the third-most since their 1981 national championship season. Under his tutelage, Brian Fineanganofo earned first-team Big Sky All-Conference Honors and second-team Phil Steele FCS All-American honors and went on to spend training camp with the Cleveland Browns.

Sapolu spent the summer of 2018 with the San Francisco 49ers as part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship, where he worked with the offensive line.

Sapolu began his coaching career at Nebraska, where he served as a graduate assistant for three seasons (2015-17) and worked primarily with the offensive line.

Sapolu was a four-year letterman (2011-14) at Oregon State as an interior lineman. After his final season was cut short due to injury, Sapolu assisted his position coach for the remainder of the season.

A Huntington Beach, California native, Sapolu graduated from Oregon State with a degree in liberal studies. His father, Jesse, played 14 seasons (1983-97) with the San Francisco 49ers and is a four-time Super Bowl Champion. Sapolu and his wife, Corinne, have three children – Malia, Masina and Manase.

BOBBY SLOWIK

SENIOR PASS GAME COORDINATOR
COLLEGE: MICHIGAN TECH
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Bobby Slowik joined the Miami Dolphins as senior pass game coordinator in 2025.

The 2025 season marks Slowik's 13th season in the NFL, including 12 years of coaching and one year as a video assistant.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Slowik was the offensive coordinator with the Houston Texans for two seasons (2023-24).

In 2024, Slowik oversaw an offense that helped the team to a 10-7 overall record, the AFC South title and the eighth playoff berth in franchise history. In his second season as offensive coordinator, the Texans progressed to the Divisional Round, marking only the second time in franchise history the team did so in back-to-back seasons (2012-13). Quarterback C.J. Stroud completed 336-of-532 passes for 3,727 yards and 20 touchdowns. His 336 completions ranked fifth-most in the AFC in 2024. Within Stroud's first two seasons, he set a franchise record for most passing yards (7,835) and completions (655) in that span while also becoming the first Texans quarterback to record two playoff wins. Three offensive players – tackle Laremy Tunsil, running back Joe Mixon and wide receiver Nico Collins – earned Pro Bowl selections.

In his first year as Houston's offensive coordinator in 2023, Slowik directed an offense that ranked seventh in the NFL in passing yards per game (245.5) and second in pass plays over 25 yards (41). Slowik oversaw the development of Stroud in his rookie season and helped him compose a historic rookie season. Stroud completed 319-of-499 passes for 4,108 yards, 23 touchdowns, five interceptions and a passer rating of 100.8. He totaled 4,557 passing yards including the postseason, which was second-most by a rookie in NFL history. Stroud also led the NFL in pass yards per game (273.9) and was named the PFWA Offensive Rookie of the Year for 2023. The Texans offense maintained possession of the ball, totaling the fewest turnovers by an NFL offense in 2023 (14). The Texans finished 11-8, won their seventh AFC South title and a playoff berth.

Prior to joining the Texans, Slowik spent six seasons (2017-22) with the San Francisco 49ers. He was promoted to passing game coordinator (2022) after serving one season as passing game specialist (2021) and two seasons as an offensive assistant (2019-20). Slowik's first role with the 49ers was on the other side of the ball as a defensive quality control coach (2017-18).

In 2022, Slowik oversaw a passing attack that ranked 13th in yards per game (226.8), fourth in passing yards per play (7.53) and seventh in interception rate (1.76 percent) despite the team starting three different quarterbacks throughout the course of the season. Slowik helped develop seventh-round rookie Brock Purdy, who started five games to finish the season with 1,374 passing yards, 13 touchdowns and a quarterback rating of 107.3.

Slowik coached multiple players who achieved career highs in 2022. Wide receiver Brandon Aiyuk reached career highs in receptions (78), receiving yards (1,015) and touchdowns (8). Tight end George Kittle totaled 11 touchdown receptions en route to a Pro Bowl selection and second-team All-Pro honors.
In 2021, Slowik coached wide receiver Deebo Samuel, who earned his first Pro Bowl selection and first-team All-Pro honors following a season in which he tallied 77 receptions for 1,405 yards (18.2 avg.) and five touchdowns.

After first joining the 49ers staff as a defensive quality control assistant (2017-18), Slowik served as an offensive assistant during the 2019-20 seasons and worked closely with the quarterbacks. In 2019, the 49ers offense ranked first in rushing touchdowns (23), second in points per game (29.9), second in rushing yards per game (144.1) and fourth in total offense (381.1 yards per game). Slowik mentored quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo, who reached several career highs, including passing yards (3,978) and touchdowns (27) in a season.

Slowik's first NFL coaching role came with the Washington Commanders, where he spent three seasons as a defensive assistant (2011-13). He worked closely with linebacker Ryan Kerrigan who earned his first Pro Bowl selection in 2012. In 2011, Slowik worked closely with a defensive unit that ranked fifth in the NFC in total defense with 339.8 yards allowed per game.

Prior to coaching, Slowik began his NFL career with Washington in 2010 as a video assistant. He was responsible for the breakdown of upcoming opponents' film and assisted the department's operations with the coaching and scouting staffs.

Slowik's family has had a history in the NFL. Throughout his NFL coaching career (1992-2013), his father, Bob, served as the defensive coordinator for the Denver Broncos, Green Bay Packers, Cleveland Browns and Chicago Bears, as well as for the Montreal Alouettes in the CFL. His brother, Ryan, has worked with Miami on the other side of the ball since 2022, currently serving as the defensive backs coach and passing game specialist. Slowik's other brother, Steve, is a pro scout for the San Francisco 49ers.

His mother, Carol, was a pioneer in the sport of women's track and field, claiming the National Collegiate and USTFF championship in the 100-meter hurdles in 1976, while holding the World Record in the 60-yard hurdles and owning the American record in both the 50-meter and 60-meter hurdles indoors. She was named All-American multiple times and competed as a member of the USA National Team.

Slowik attended Michigan Tech where he played wide receiver and studied biomedical engineering. He earned All-GLIAC honors in 2008.

ERIC STUDESVILLE

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/RUNNING BACKS
COLLEGE: WISCONSIN-WHITEWATER
DOLPHINS: EIGHTH SEASON

2015 | CHAMPIONSHIP 2013, 2015

Eric Studesville (pronounced STOO-des-vill) joined the Miami Dolphins in 2018 and was named the team's associate head coach/running backs in 2022. He served as co-offensive coordinator/running backs in 2021 and spent the three seasons prior (2018-20) as running backs coach.

The 2025 season marks Studesville's 29th year in the NFL coaching ranks, including 25 at the running backs position. He has been on the coaching staffs of two conference championship teams (2013 and 2015) and won Super Bowl 50 with the Denver Broncos.

Studesville has helped his running backs earn four Pro Bowl selections – Marshawn Lynch (2008), Willis McGahee (2011), C.J. Anderson (2014) and Raheem Mostert (2023), as well one fullback, Alec Ingold (2023). He's also been the position coach for 11 1,000-yard rushing campaigns with McGahee (3), Tiki Barber (2), Lynch (2), Knowshon Moreno (1), Fred Jackson (1), Anderson (1) and Mostert (1).

Studesville began mentoring running back De'Von Achane as a rookie in 2023. In 2024, Achane's second season in the NFL and under Studesville's tutelage, he totaled 907 rushing yards and 592 receiving, becoming the first player in team history to surpass 750 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in a single season. Adding another dimension to the offense, Achane also led all NFL running backs in receptions (78) and receiving yards (592) and his 1,499 yards from scrimmage ranked 12th among all players in the NFL.

Studesville helped the Dolphins post four consecutive winning seasons from 2020-23 for the first time since 1997-03. Miami earned two consecutive playoff berths in 2022-23, the first back-to-back trips to the postseason since 1997-2001.

In 2023, Miami's offense continued to make strides, finishing first in the league in total offense (401.3) for the first time since 1994, first in passing offense (265.5), sixth in rushing offense (135.8), second in scoring offense (29.2) and second in yards per play (6.5). It was the first time since 2009 (fourth) that Miami had a top six finish in rushing offense. Studesville's unit scored 27 rushing touchdowns in 2023, setting a new franchise record (26 in 1972 and 1975).

In Studesville's second season coaching running back Raheem Mostert, Mostert set franchise records for rushing touchdowns (18) and total touchdowns (21). Mostert's 18 rushing touchdowns in a season broke the record set by Ricky Williams in 2002 (16). His 21 total touchdowns were tied for first in the NFL (Christian McCaffrey) and broke another franchise record for most touchdowns in a season set by Mark Clayton (18 in 1984). Mostert was the first Dolphins player to be the sole league leader in rushing touchdowns since Mercury Morris in 1972. At 31 years old, he became the second-oldest player in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards for the first time in his career.

Studesville also tutored Achane as he posted 103 carries for 800 yards as a rookie in 2023. His 7.8 yards per carry was the best single-season rushing average of any running back in NFL history (min. 100 carries). Achane totaled four 100-yard rushing games, tying Karim Abdul-Jabbar's franchise record for a rookie. Achane rushed for 100+ yards in three straight games (Week 3 vs. Denver, Week 4 at Buffalo and Week 5 vs. N.Y. Giants). His 203 rushing yards in Week 3 were the most by an NFL player in 2023.

Miami finished the 2022 season with a top 10 offense (sixth, 364.5 yards per game), something the franchise had not done since 1995. Studesville helped Mostert (891 rushing yards) and Jeff Wilson Jr. (860 rushing yards – 392 of which came with Miami) reach career highs as the Dolphins offense averaged 6.1 yards per play, the second-best mark in the league.

Under Studesville, the Dolphins saw their rushing attack improve as the 2021 season progressed. He quickly onboarded running back Duke Johnson, who was signed midseason, and coached the Miami native as he posted the only two 100-yard rushing games of his seven-year career in his only two home starts at Hard Rock Stadium, averaging 112 rushing yards in those contests.

In 2020, Studesville helped mentor two young backs in Myles Gaskin (seventh round pick in 2019) and Salvon Ahmed (undrafted in 2020). Gaskin finished 10th in the NFL in scrimmage yards per game (97.2 ypg, min. 10 games) while Ahmed set a Dolphins undrafted rookie record with 122 rushing yards in a Week 15 win vs. New England.

In Studesville's first season in Miami in 2018, he drastically improved the team's running game. Studesville took the Dolphins from 24th in the NFL, averaging 3.86 yards per carry in 2017, to ninth in the statistic, averaging 4.68 yards per carry in 2018.

Prior to his time in Miami, Studesville spent eight seasons (2010-17) as Denver's running backs coach. He was promoted to assistant head coach in 2017.

Studesville was part of the Broncos' Super Bowl 50 victory at the end of the 2015 season. The team averaged nearly 50 rushing yards per game more during the final seven weeks of the season than the first 10, ranking seventh in the league with 135.1 rushing yards in those final seven games.

In 2014, Studesville helped Anderson earn a Pro Bowl selection despite not making his first career start until Week 11. He became just the fifth undrafted running back in NFL history to earn a Pro Bowl selection.

The 2013 Broncos set the league's scoring record with 606 points. Studesville helped Moreno become the first player in Broncos history to post 1,000 yards rushing (1,038) and 500 yards receiving (548). Denver won the AFC Championship and participated in Super Bowl XLVIII.

Studesville's group in 2011 helped the Broncos lead the NFL in rushing, setting a team record with 164.5 rushing yards per game. McGahee tied for the NFL lead with seven 100-yard rushing games and totaled 1,199 rushing yards on the season.

The 2010 season was Studesville's first in Denver and he helped Moreno become the fifth player in team history to record 1,000 yards from scrimmage in each of his first two NFL seasons. He was named the team's interim head coach on Dec. 6, 2010 and served in that capacity for the final four games of the season, becoming the first Black head coach in Broncos history. He earned his first win as an NFL head coach on Dec. 26, 2010 vs. Houston.

From 2004-09, Studesville was the running backs coach for the Buffalo Bills. He added running game coordinator responsibilities in 2008. He coached a 1,000-yard rusher in five of his six seasons in Buffalo, including three straight years to end his tenure there.

Prior to Buffalo, Studesville was the running backs coach for the New York Giants and helped Barber rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons.

Studesville's first NFL stop was the Chicago Bears, where he began as an NFL minority coaching fellow during training camp in 1996. He spent four seasons (1997-2000) with the Bears as an offensive quality control coach.

Prior to his NFL coaching career, Studesville was a defensive assistant in the collegiate ranks. He was a secondary coach at Kent State (1995-96) and Wingate (1994). Studesville also spent time as a video assistant at North Carolina (1992-93) and a graduate assistant at Arizona (1991).

Studesville was a defensive back at Wisconsin-Whitewater and graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He earned his master's degree in exercise physiology at Arizona.

Studesville and his wife, Staci, have one daughter, Sydni, and a son, Eric Jr.

DUAL 100-YARD RUSHING GAMES

In the history of the franchise, the Dolphins have had four dual 100-yard individual rushing games and the team is 4-0 in those games. The combination of Larry Csonka and Jim Kiick had two dual 100-yard games, both of which were during the 1971 season. Kiick (20 carries for 108 yards) and Csonka (20-103-1) first accomplished the feat on Sept. 26 at Buffalo. Csonka (20-137-2) and Kiick (17-121) again both surpassed the 100-yard mark on Oct. 24 at the N.Y. Jets. In 1974, Benny Malone (19-104-1) and Don Nottingham (19-102-1) both rushed for 100-plus yards on Oct. 27 at Baltimore. In 1975, Nottingham (21-102-3) teamed up with Mercury Morris (31-125) to both gain 100 yards on Oct. 5 at Green Bay.

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR COLLEGE: NOTRE DAME
DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Anthony Weaver joined the Miami Dolphins as defensive coordinator in 2024. The 2025 season marks Weaver's 21st in the NFL – his 14th as a coach after seven as a player.

Weaver has a proven track record of developing players on some of the league's top defenses. He has helped produce six Pro Bowl players, serving as the position coach for Mario Williams (2013), Kyle Williams (2013), Marcell Dareus (2013), Jadeveon Clowney (2016-18), J.J. Watt (2018) and most recently, Nnamdi Madubuike (2023).

A third-round pick in 2020, Madubuike set career highs in tackles, sacks and tackles for loss in all three seasons he played under Weaver. In 2023, Madubuike totaled 13.0 sacks, leading all NFL defensive tackles. It was tied for the fifth-most sacks by an NFL defensive tackle in a season since 2001. All three of Clowney's career Pro Bowl selections came with Weaver as his position coach.

In his first season with Miami in 2024, Weaver's defense was among the top in the NFL in 2024. The Dolphins finished fourth in total defense (314.4) which was the best mark in franchise history since 2010 (309.3). Their fourth-place finish was also the team's first top-five ranking since finishing fourth in 2006 (289.1).

Weaver oversaw a run defense that finished ninth in the NFL (103.7) and was the only team to now allow a 100-yard rusher in the 2024 season. Defensive tackle Zach Sieler recorded 10.0 sacks, becoming the first Dolphin to post 10-plus sacks in consecutive seasons since Cameron Wake (2016-17). His 10.0 sacks were the second-most among interior defensive linemen in the NFL and tied his own record by a defensive tackle in franchise history. Defensive tackle Calais Campbell became the only player aged 38 or older to record 5-plus sacks (5.0) in franchise history. Linebacker Jordyn Brooks led the team in tackles (143), which were the most by a Dolphin since Zach Thomas (2006).

Weaver spent the past three seasons (2021-23) with the Baltimore Ravens, where he served one year (2021) as run game coordinator/defensive line and two (2022-23) as assistant head coach/defensive line. In Weaver's three seasons in Baltimore, the team allowed 95.3 rushing yards per game, ranking third in the NFL. The Ravens led the NFL in third-down defense (35.5) and red zone defense (47.1) during that span. Weaver also helped lead Baltimore's search for an offensive coordinator in 2023.

In 2023, the Ravens led the NFL in scoring defense (16.5 points allowed per game) and went 13-4, earning the top seed in the AFC playoffs. Baltimore led the NFL with 60.0 sacks, tied for the most in team history. Madubuike's career-high 13.0 sacks ranked ninth in the NFL and were the most at his position.

Baltimore won 10 games and earned a playoff berth in the 2022 season. Defensive end Justin Houston led the team with 9.5 sacks despite being 33 years old. The Ravens finished third in scoring defense (18.5), run defense (92.1) and red zone defense (46.4) while ranking fourth in third-down defense (34.9). The team's 48.0 sacks tied for fifth in the NFL.

In Weaver's first season with Baltimore in 2021, his defensive line helped the Ravens lead the NFL in rushing defense (84.5) and rank third in third-down defense (34.8).

Weaver served as Houston's defensive coordinator/defensive line in 2020 following four seasons (2016-19) as the Texans' defensive line coach. During his five seasons in Houston, the Texans won three AFC South titles and his defensive line produced four Pro Bowls – three from Clowney (2016-18) and one from Watt (2018).

In 2020, Texans linebacker Zach Cunningham led the league in tackles with 163, the most so far in his seven-year career. Houston had 14 different players record at least one full sack.

Houston won the AFC South for the second consecutive season in 2019 and won an AFC Wild Card playoff game over Buffalo. A former fifth-round pick, defensive tackle D.J. Reader had a career-high 52 tackles, which was 14th among all NFL defensive tackles.

In addition to winning the division in 2018, Houston won 11 games and had six Pro Bowl selections. Two of them were coached by Weaver in Clowney and Watt. Watt's 16.0 sacks ranked second in the NFL as he earned first-team All-Pro honors. Clowney's 9.0 sacks were a half-sack shy of his career high.

Clowney also made the Pro Bowl in 2017, when he posted a career-high 9.5 sacks and 21 quarterback hits. Houston's 85 tackles for loss were second-most in franchise history.

In Weaver's first season with Houston in 2016, the Texans led the NFL in total defense (301.3) for the first time in team history. The Texans also led the NFL in first downs allowed (17.0) and ranked second in passing defense (201.6). Clowney earned a Pro Bowl nod and second-team All-Pro honors for the first time in his career as the Texans won the AFC South and an AFC Wild Card game vs. Oakland.

Weaver spent the 2014 and 2015 seasons with Cleveland as defensive line coach. In 2014, the Browns limited opposing passers to the lowest passer rating in the NFL (74.1) and tied for fourth in takeaways (29). Defensive end Paul Kruger had a career-high 11.0 sacks and four forced fumbles in his first season working with Weaver.

In 2013, Weaver was the defensive line coach for Buffalo, where he coached three Pro Bowl defensive linemen in Mario Williams, Kyle Williams and Marcell Dareus. The Bills had a franchise-record 57.0 sacks, 43.0 of which were tallied by defensive linemen. Both Mario Williams (13.0) and Kyle Williams (10.5) totaled double-digit sacks.

Weaver broke into the NFL coaching ranks in 2012 when he was hired as assistant defensive line coach with the N.Y. Jets. Defensive end Muhammad Wilkerson had career highs with 69 tackles and three forced fumbles.

Weaver's first two seasons coaching came at the collegiate level. He spent the 2011 season as linebackers coach at North Texas, where he coached current Ravens defensive coordinator Zach Orr. He was also a graduate assistant at Florida in 2010.

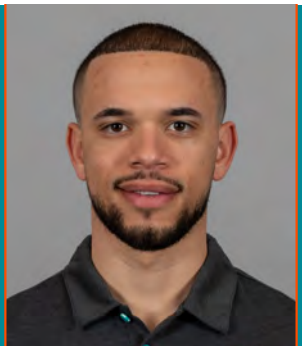

Weaver played seven NFL seasons as a defensive end for Baltimore (2002-05) and Houston (2006-08). He appeared in 103 career games with 98 starts, totaling 260 tackles (203 solo), 15.5 sacks, three interceptions, 21 passes defensed, five forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries. He was a second-round pick (52nd overall) by Baltimore in the 2002 NFL Draft.

Weaver was a four-year starter at Notre Dame, where he was an All-American defensive end. As a senior in 2001, he was voted team captain and Team MVP.

A native of Saratoga Springs, New York, he was inducted into the Saratoga Springs Blue Streaks Hall of Fame in 2010 and the Capital Region Hall of Fame in 2011. He and his wife, Kristin, have two sons, Anthony Jr. and Justus.

MATHIEU ARAUJO

CORNERBACKS COACH
COLLEGE: BRIDGEWATER STATE
NFL: FOURTH SEASON

Mathieu Araujo (pronounced uh-ROO-joh) joined the Miami Dolphins as assistant defensive backs coach in 2022 and was promoted to cornerbacks coach in 2024. The 2025 season marks his fourth as an NFL coach after spending seven years in the collegiate coaching ranks.

In his first three seasons with Miami, Araujo contributed to a defensive unit that consistently improved despite three different defensive coordinators and schemes. Araujo helped the defense achieve a top-10 finish in 2023 for the first time since 2010, ranking 10th in the NFL with 318.3 yards allowed per game. In 2024, Miami finished fourth in total defense, holding opponents to 314.4 yards per game and marking the first top-five finish since finishing fourth in 2006 (289.1).

Araujo has helped mentor cornerback Kader Kohou, who was an undrafted free agent in 2022. In Week 16 of the 2024 season, Kohou picked off San Francisco's Brock Purdy for a game-clinching interception with two minutes remaining in the game. He became one of four undrafted cornerbacks in NFL history to reach 180 tackles and three interceptions in the first three seasons of his NFL career (Chris Harris Jr., Brian Poole and Jacob Lacey).

Araujo also coached two veteran cornerbacks – Jalen Ramsey and Kendall Fuller – who totaled 60 and 50 tackles, respectively, in 2024. Both players have each had seven seasons with at least 50 tackles since they entered the league in 2016, which tied for second-most among cornerbacks in that span.

The Dolphins earned two consecutive playoff berths in 2022-23, the team's first back-to-back postseason appearances since 1997-2001. After missing the first seven games of 2023 due to injury, cornerback Jalen Ramsey made an immediate impact, recording three interceptions and earning his seventh career Pro Bowl selection. Araujo also helped cornerback Xavien Howard to a fourth-straight season with 12-plus passes defensed, making him one of only two players in the NFL to do so from 2020-23.

In Araujo's first season with Miami in 2022, he helped the team earn a playoff berth for the first time since 2016. The Dolphins led the NFL in total defense during the final three weeks of the regular season (245.7 yards allowed per game). As an undrafted rookie, Kohou made an instant impact, leading all undrafted rookies in defensive snaps (852), tackles (72) and passes defensed (10) that season. Howard, who recorded one interception and 12 passes defensed, earned his fourth career Pro Bowl nod.

Araujo spent three seasons (2019-21) at Yale, where he served as defensive backs coach (2019-21) and recruiting coordinator (2020-21). He was promoted to co-defensive coordinator following the 2021 season and shortly after was named assistant head coach/defensive coordinator at the University of Maine before accepting a role with the Dolphins.

In 2021, Araujo helped Yale lead the FCS in third down defense (22.1 pct.). The Bulldogs finished 19th in total defense (326.9), 21st in rushing defense (117.1) and 22nd in defensive pass efficiency (117.4). Araujo mentored defensive back Rodney Thomas II, who became Yale's first NFL draft pick since 2018 when he was selected by Indianapolis in the seventh round (239th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft.

Araujo also spent time with the Houston Texans after being selected for the Bill Walsh Minority Internship during the 2021 offseason.

In Araujo's first season at Yale (2019), he helped the team drastically improve in interceptions from last place in 2018 with three to 11 total interceptions in 2019, which was tied for second in the Ivy League.

Araujo spent two seasons (2017-18) at Boston College where he began his tenure as an intern and was promoted to graduate assistant in 2018. He primarily worked with the defensive backs and helped the Eagles reach bowl games in both seasons. Boston College had 18 interceptions in each of Araujo's two seasons there, which was tied for fifth in the nation in 2018 and tied for 12th in 2017.

At Boston College, Araujo coached three draft picks – safety Will Harris (2019, 81st overall, Detroit), cornerback Isaac Yiadom (2018, 99th overall, Denver) and cornerback Kamrin Moore (2019, 189th overall, New Orleans).

His first coaching position came as wide receivers/running backs coach at Maine Maritime Academy in 2015. In 2016, Araujo served as a graduate assistant at Springfield College, where he worked with the outside linebackers and coordinated the special teams units.

An East Freetown, Massachusetts native, Araujo was a four-year letterman as a defensive back at Bridgewater State. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Bridgewater State and a master's degree in education from Springfield College. He and his wife, Elise, have a daughter, Avery, and a son, Carter.

ALONSO'S PICK-SIX WAS A DEFENSIVE GAME-WINNER

Linebacker Kiko Alonso made the game-winning play in Miami's Week 10 victory at San Diego in 2016, picking off Chargers quarterback Philip Rivers and returning it for a 60-yard touchdown to give the Dolphins a 31-24 lead with 1:01 to play. Alonso's touchdown was the latest a Dolphins player had returned an interception for a touchdown to give Miami the lead since at least 1991. It was the latest any NFL defensive player had given his team a lead since Atlanta's Robert Alford had a 59-yard interception return in overtime to defeat Washington on Oct. 11, 2015.

JOE BARRY

LINEBACKERS/RUN GAME COORDINATOR
COLLEGE: SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA
DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

2002 — 2002, 2018

Joe Barry joined the Miami Dolphins as linebackers/run game coordinator in 2024. The 2025 season marks his 24th in the NFL.

Barry has seven years of experience as an NFL defensive coordinator – three with Green Bay (2021-23), two with Washington (2015-16) and two with Detroit (2007-08) – and has been a part of coaching staffs that have helped teams rank No. 1 in overall defense three times during his career (2002 and 2005 with Tampa Bay and 2020 with the L.A. Rams). He won Super Bowl XXXVII as part of Tampa Bay's staff in 2002 and reached Super Bowl LIII as part of the Rams' staff in 2018.

Throughout his career, Barry has mentored six different players that have combined for 11 Pro Bowl appearances and eight All-Pro selections. He also coached a Hall of Fame linebacker in Derrick Brooks, helping him earn three first-team All-Pro honors (2002, 2004-05) and the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year award in 2002.

In his first season in Miami, Barry tutored linebacker Jordyn Brooks who was added prior to the 2024 season. Brooks led the team in tackles (143) while also adding 3.0 sacks, six passes defensed and two fumble recoveries. His 143 tackles in 2024 were the most tackles by a Dolphins player since Zach Thomas in 2005 (165). Brooks was one of three players in the NFL to have more than 100 tackles, 3.0 sacks, 10 tackles for loss and five passes defensed (Zaire Franklin, Ind.; Nick Bolton, KC). Linebacker Tyrel Dodson led all linebackers in interceptions with three despite joining the team midseason.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Barry spent three seasons (2021-23) as Green Bay's defensive coordinator. In that span, the Packers ranked seventh in the NFL in passing defense (207.6), 11th in scoring defense (21.4) and 12th in total defense (333.3). Green Bay had 68 takeaways, tying for 13th in the league, and had 42 interceptions, tied for 12th. The Packers were penalized on defense just 101 times for 1,027 yards in those three seasons, which ranked 11th.

In 2023, Barry helped the Packers reach the postseason and win an NFC Wild Card matchup at Dallas. Green Bay ranked ninth in passing defense (206.8) and 10th in scoring defense (20.6). Defensive tackle Kenny Clark led the team with nine tackles for loss and tied for the team lead with two forced fumbles, earning his third Pro Bowl selection.

The Packers finished sixth in the NFL in passing defense (197.0) in 2022. It was the team's fewest passing yards allowed per game since 2010. Green Bay picked off 17 passes, including 16 in the final 12 weeks of the season, which led the NFL in that span. The Packers allowed 28 points or fewer in 16 of their 17 games, tied for the most in the league. Cornerback Jaire Alexander led the team with five interceptions and earned his second Pro Bowl selection and second-team All-Pro honors.

In his first season with Green Bay in 2021, Barry helped the Packers tie for sixth in interceptions (18) and finish ninth in total defense (328.2), 10th in passing defense (219.1), and tie for eighth in takeaways (26). Green Bay's 328.2 total yards allowed per game was the team's lowest since 2010 and the 26 takeaways were the team's most since 2014. The Packers won 13 games and the NFC North. Clark earned his second career Pro Bowl nod while linebacker De'Vondre Campbell earned first-team All-Pro recognition.

Prior to Green Bay, Barry spent four seasons (2017-20) with the L.A. Rams as assistant head coach/linebackers. In those four seasons, the Rams ranked second in the league in sacks (192), tied for second in takeaways (104) and interceptions (63), seventh in total defense (329.9) and ninth in scoring defense (21.5). They joined New Orleans and Pittsburgh as the only teams to rank in the top 10 in all five categories during that four-year period. Of the 192 sacks, 91 of them came from Barry's linebackers, which ranked seventh in the league in that span.

In 2020, the Rams led the NFL in both scoring defense (18.5), total defense (281.9) and passing defense (190.7). Their 53.0 sacks were second. Linebacker Leonard Floyd had a career-high 10.5 sacks in his first season with the team as the Rams won 10 games and an NFC Wild Card game.

Linebacker Cory Littleton had a career-high 134 tackles in 2019, which ranked eighth in the NFL and led the team. His 22 passes defensed from 2018-19 led all NFL linebackers during that span and was the most by a linebacker in two seasons since 2014-15, when Carolina's Luke Kuechly had 22.

In 2018, the Rams won 13 games, the NFC West and the NFC Championship, advancing to Super Bowl LIII. Littleton led the team with 125 tackles and had career highs in sacks (4.0) and interceptions (three). His 13 passes defensed led all NFL linebackers that year and were the most by a Rams linebacker in a season since at least 2000.

Barry's first season with the Rams came in 2017, when he helped the team rank fifth in takeaways (28) and fourth in sacks (48). His linebackers totaled five interceptions, tied for the most by a linebacker unit in the league. Linebacker Mark Barron tied for the NFL linebacker lead with three interceptions while linebacker Alec Ogletree was second among linebackers with 10 passes defensed. The Rams won 11 games and the NFC West.

Barry was the defensive coordinator for Washington from 2015-16. In that two-year span, the team ranked third in the league in forced fumbles (39), tied for 10th in sacks (76) and tied for 11th in takeaways (48). Linebacker Ryan Kerrigan was tied for eighth in the NFL with 11.0 sacks in 2016 and linebacker Trent Murphy had a career-high nine sacks. It was the first time since 2009 the Commanders had two players register 9.0-plus sacks in the same season. Kerrigan earned the second Pro Bowl selection of his career.

In 2015, Washington tied for the league lead in forced fumbles (22) and opponent fumble recoveries (15). The team had 26 takeaways in the final 14 weeks of the season, tied for third in the league in that span. Barry improved Washington's scoring defense from 27.4 points allowed per game in 2014 to 23.7 points per game allowed in his first season as defensive coordinator.

From 2012-14, Barry was the linebackers coach for San Diego. The Chargers made the playoffs in 2013, winning an AFC Wild Card game. In 2012 and 2014, San Diego had top 10 total defenses, finishing ninth both seasons. In 2014, linebacker Demorrio Williams had two interception returns for touchdowns, becoming the first Chargers linebacker to do that in a season since 1979.

Barry spent two seasons as linebackers coach at his alma mater, Southern California, from 2010-11. He mentored linebacker Malcolm Smith in 2010, who was a seventh-round pick (242nd overall) with Seattle in 2011 and was named MVP of Super Bowl XLVIII for the Seahawks.

In 2009, Barry coached linebackers for Tampa Bay, his second stint with the team.

Barry's first defensive coordinator role came with Detroit from 2007-08. During those two seasons, the Lions tied for the NFL lead in forced fumbles (47) and led the league in opponent fumble recoveries (34). In 2007, the team was tied for third in the NFL with 35 takeaways and tied for ninth with 37.0 sacks.

From 2001-06, Barry coached linebackers for Tampa Bay. In that span, the Buccaneers led the NFL in passing defense (177.2) and ranked second in scoring defense (17.4), total defense (285.7) and interceptions (123). Tampa Bay posted five consecutive seasons (2001-05) with a top-10 defense, including No. 1 finishes in 2002 and 2005.

Barry spent six years coaching Derrick Brooks, who won NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2002, was a Pro Bowl selection in all six seasons and was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team for the 2000s. Brooks earned three first-team All-Pro honors (2002, 2004-05) working with Barry and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2014.

Barry was part of Tampa Bay's 2002 championship season, winning Super Bowl XXXVII. Brooks became the only linebacker in NFL history to return three interceptions for a touchdown that season. Linebacker Shelton Quarles earned his lone Pro Bowl selection as well.

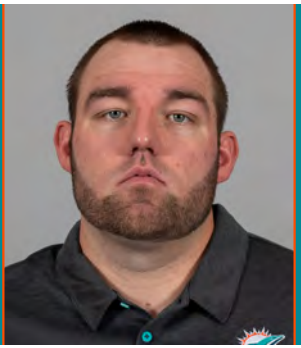

Barry's first NFL coaching job came as a defensive quality control coach with San Francisco in 2000. He also spent a season coaching linebackers at UNLV (1999), three seasons as linebackers/defensive ends coach at Northern Arizona (1996-98), and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant/defensive line at Southern California in 1995.

Barry played linebacker at Michigan from 1989-90 before transferring to USC and lettering there from 1992-93. His father, Mike, coached more than 30 seasons in the college and pro football ranks. His father-in-law, Rod Marinelli, coached 26 years in the NFL.

A Boulder, Colorado native, he and his wife, Chris, have two daughters, Camryn and Lauren, and twin sons, Nick and Sam.

AUSTIN CLARK

DEFENSIVE LINE
COLLEGE: CALIFORNIA

Austin Clark joined the Miami Dolphins as outside linebackers coach in 2020 and was promoted to defensive line coach in 2021.

The Dolphins posted winning seasons in each of Clark's first four years with the team (2020-23). He helped the Dolphins reach the playoffs in 2022, the team's first postseason berth since 2016, and again in 2023, marking the team's first consecutive postseason appearances since 1997-2001. From 2022-24, the Dolphins also had a top-10 run defense.

In 2024, Clark coached defensive tackle Zach Sieler in a career season. In his fourth season under Clark's full tutelage, Sieler was named the 2024 Dan Marino MVP by the South Florida media and led Miami's defense with 10.0 sacks and 13 tackles for loss. His 10.0 sacks tied his own franchise record by a defensive tackle set in 2023 and were the second-most in the NFL by a defensive tackle in 2024. He joined Jason Taylor as one of only two Dolphins players since 2000 to record 10.0-plus sacks, an interception and fumble recovery in consecutive seasons.

Clark also coached 17-year NFL veteran Calais Campbell who signed as a free agent prior to the 2024 season and was an anchor in all 17 games. He totaled 52 tackles (35 solo) which was second among the team's defensive linemen behind Sieler's 55. His 12 tackles for loss also ranked second on the defense behind Sieler's 13. The team voted Campbell the recipient of the Don Shula Leadership Award. Both Campbell and Sieler were also selected as captains by their teammates.

Miami's defense improved from the previous season's top-10 finish despite a change in coordinator, ranking fourth in total defense in 2024, holding opponents to 314.4 yards per game. It marked the team's first top-five finish since 2006. It was also the second consecutive season that the defense had two guys with 10-plus tackles for loss (Sieler/Campbell in 2024, Sieler/Wilkins in 2023).

In 2023, the Dolphins ranked 10th in the league in total defense after allowing just 318.3 yards per game. It was the first time Miami finished a season with a top-10 defense since 2010. The defensive line – highlighted by standout seasons from Sieler and Christian Wilkins – contributed to a defense that led the league in quarterback hits (131), ranked third in sacks (56.0), sixth in yards per rush allowed (3.8) and seventh in rushing defense (97.1). The 56.0 sacks shattered the previous team record of 49.0, and the 3.29 sacks per game average was the best year in franchise history.

Sieler's 10.0 sacks were third-most among all NFL defensive tackles in 2023 and were the most by a defensive tackle in franchise history. He was tied for fifth with Wilkins in tackles (63) and also recorded a 5-yard interception return for a touchdown on Dec. 11, 2023 against Tennessee. In 2022, he recorded a career-high 70 tackles, tied for fifth-most by an NFL defensive lineman. Originally a waiver claim in 2019, Sieler became the first Miami player since 2000 to record multiple sacks in a playoff game. He also returned a fumble for a touchdown in the AFC Wild Card match at Buffalo, the first by a Dolphin in the postseason.

Clark helped develop Wilkins into one of the league's top defensive linemen. In 2023, he recorded a career-high 9.0 sacks, which was fifth-most among all NFL defensive tackles. He totaled 63 tackles in 2023, bringing his career total to 353, which is more than any NFL defensive lineman since he was drafted in 2019. In 2022, Wilkins recorded 98 tackles, which was the most in a season by an NFL defensive lineman since at least 1994. With Wilkins' 89 tackles in 2021, he ranked first and third, respectively, on Miami's single-season tackles chart by a defensive lineman since 1986. Wilkins also had 16 tackles for loss in 2022, tied for the ninth-most in the NFL that season.

The Dolphins finished 2022 ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing defense, allowing just 103.0 rushing yards per game. Miami totaled seven sacks in the AFC Wild Card game at Buffalo, the most in any playoff game that postseason and the most in Dolphins playoff history.

In Clark's first season as defensive line coach in 2021, he helped multiple Dolphins defensive linemen have standout seasons. Wilkins' 89 stops were tied for the most by any NFL defensive lineman since 2013 and were the most by a Dolphins defensive lineman since defensive end Jeff Cross had 93 in 1993. Defensive end Emmanuel Ogbah recorded 12 passes defensed, which were the most by any NFL defensive lineman since 2016, and had career highs in tackles for loss (nine) and quarterback hits (24). As a unit, the Dolphins finished second in the NFL with 121 quarterback hits and fifth with 48.0 sacks, including eight in one game at New Orleans in Week 16. Miami led the NFL with 28 passes batted down at the line of scrimmage.

As outside linebackers coach in his first season with Miami in 2020, Clark helped the Dolphins defense improve from 32nd to tied for 10th in sacks (41.0). Miami also ranked sixth in the league in points allowed (21.1 per game). The Dolphins led the NFL in takeaways (29) and third-down defense (31.2 pct.) en route to winning 10 games for the first time since 2016. The team had three linebackers total at least 5.0 sacks in the same season for the first time in franchise history, as Jerome Baker had 7.0, Kyle Van Noy had 6.0 and Andrew Van Ginkel had 5.5.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Clark spent two seasons (2018-19) as the defensive line coach at the University of Illinois.

In 2019, Clark helped the Fighting Illini finish the regular season 6-6 and earn an invitation to the Redbox Bowl, their first bowl appearance since 2014. The team had several notable wins, including an upset of No. 6 Wisconsin and a come-from-behind victory over Michigan State after trailing by 24 points. It was the largest comeback in school history. Junior Oluwole Betiku Jr. played in just 10 games due to injury but recorded nine sacks, which was tied for seventh in the Big Ten and tied for seventh in school history. He earned third-team All-Big Ten honors despite missing the previous season with an injury.

Clark mentored defensive end Bobby Roundtree in 2018, who led the nation in pass breakups by a defensive linemen with seven. His 7.5 sacks that season ranked sixth in the Big Ten.

Prior to Illinois, Clark spent two seasons (2016-17) at Southern California, where he coached defensive linemen and outside linebackers.

In 2017, Clark and the Trojans won the Pac-12 Conference and posted 46 sacks, tied for the most in the nation. He tutored outside linebacker Uchenna Nwosu, who was a second-round pick in the 2018 NFL Draft (48th overall to Los Angeles Chargers), along with defensive tackle Rasheem Green, who was a third-round pick (79th overall to Seattle). Both players earned first-team All-Pac-12 honors and finished in the top 15 nationally in sacks. Green had 10 (tied for 11th) while Nwosu had 9.5 (tied for 15th).

Clark also mentored defensive tackle Stevie Tu'ikolovatu, who was selected in the seventh round (223rd overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft by Tampa Bay. Tu'ikolovatu earned second-team All-Pac-12 honors as a senior in 2016 and was named the Rose Bowl Game Defensive MVP after the Trojans won the Rose Bowl for the first time since Jan. 1, 2009.

Clark began his post-playing career as a recruiting assistant at his alma mater, California, in 2015, where he helped the team win the Armed Forces Bowl.

He spent six years (2009-14) at California as a defensive tackle, earning an additional year of eligibility due to injury. As a sixth-year senior in 2014, Clark started 11 games, earned honorable mention All-Pac-12 recognition and won the Joe Roth Award, given annually by the school to a player who best exemplifies courage, sportsmanship and attitude.

Clark earned his bachelor's degree in American studies from California.

A Tampa native, Clark played prep football at Plant High School, where he helped his team win the 2008 state championship as a senior. He and his wife, Alyssa, have a son, Bear, and a daughter, Rylee.

KYNJEE' COTTON

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE
COLLEGE: ALABAMA STATE
DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Kynjee' Cotton (pronounced ken-jay) joined the Miami Dolphins as assistant defensive line coach in 2024. The 2025 season marks Cotton's second as an NFL coach following 12 years in the collegiate ranks.

In 2024, Cotton helped coach a unit that anchored Miami's top-five defense. The Dolphins ranked fourth in total defense in 2024 (314.4), marking the first top-five finish since they ranked fourth in 2006. Cotton's unit included two team captains as voted by their teammates – defensive tackles Calais Campbell and Zach Sieler.

Sieler led Miami's defense with 10.0 sacks and 13 tackles for loss, while also totaling 55 tackles (28 solo), one interception, two passes defensed, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. He was voted by the South Florida media as the recipient of the Dan Marino MVP award.

Cotton also helped coach 17-year NFL veteran Calais Campbell, who joined the team as a free agent signing in the 2024 offseason and totaled 52 tackles (35 solo) and 12 tackles for loss through 17 games, second behind Sieler in both categories. Campbell was voted by his teammates as the recipient of the Don Shula Leadership Award.

Prior to joining Miami, Cotton spent one season at LSU as a senior defensive analyst. In 2023, the Tigers finished with a 10-3 record and linebacker Harold Perkins Jr. had three forced fumbles, tied for the most in the SEC. Perkins earned second-team All-SEC honors that season.

Cotton spent one season at Kennesaw State in 2022, where he helped coach defensive lineman Travis Bell, who earned second-team Phil Steele All-ASUN honors. Bell became the first NFL draft selection in school history when he was selected by the Chicago Bears in the seventh round (218th overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft.

Cotton spent three seasons (2019-21) at Samford where he coached defensive ends. In the spring of 2021, Cotton helped Nelson Jordan earn second-team All-Southern Conference honors after leading the team in tackles for loss (7.5) and sacks (4.0).

In 2018, Cotton served as defensive line coach at West Georgia. Cotton spent two seasons (2016-17) as a quality control assistant at North Carolina. Prior to his time in Chapel Hill, Cotton served as the defensive line coach at Birmingham-Southern in 2015. Cotton was a graduate assistant at UAB in 2014 where he worked with the defensive line.

Cotton was a strength and conditioning intern at the University of Alabama during the fall of 2013, where he worked with football, baseball and rowing. Cotton began his coaching career as a student assistant at Alabama State in 2012.

Cotton was a four-year letterman on the defensive line at Alabama State, where he was a team captain and earned second-team All-Southwestern Athletic honors his senior year. He graduated with a degree in physical education.

A Daphne, Alabama native, Cotton is married to his wife, Chatil.

RYAN CROW

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS COLLEGE: BOWLING GREEN

Ryan Crow joined the Miami Dolphins as outside linebackers coach in 2024.

The 2025 season marks his eighth as an NFL coach and second with Miami after spending six seasons (2018-23) with Tennessee. He also spent seven years as a collegiate coach.

In 2024, Crow oversaw the development of rookie linebacker Chop Robinson, who steadily improved over 17 games for a breakout season. He totaled 26 tackles (16 solo), 6.0 sacks, eight tackles for loss, 14 quarterback hits and four passes defensed. His 6.0 sacks and 14 quarterback hits were both the second-most among NFL rookies in 2024. Robinson was named to the 2024 PFWA All-Rookie Team and a finalist for the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year.

In Crow's three seasons (2021-23) as Tennessee's outside linebackers coach, he helped several Titans defenders to some of the best seasons in their career including Denico Autry and Harold Landry III. The Titans finished in the top half of the league in rushing defense all three seasons.

Denico Autry's three seasons with Crow led to three of the four highest sack totals of his 10-year NFL career – 9.0 in 2021, 8.0 in 2022 and a career-high 11.5 in 2023 – when at 33 years old, Autry was the oldest player in the NFL with double-digit sacks that season. Landry totaled 10.5 sacks that season, making the Titans one of just four teams (Jacksonville, Kansas City and Miami) with multiple players with 10.0-plus sacks in 2023.

Despite Landry missing the entire 2022 season and Autry missing five games due to injuries, Crow helped Tennessee's defense lead the NFL in rushing defense, allowing just 76.9 rushing yards per game, and rushing average, allowing just 3.35 yards per carry. Tennessee finished third in third-down defense (34.2).

In Crow's first season as outside linebackers coach in 2021, he helped Landry earn Pro Bowl honors for the first time in his career. Landry totaled a career-high 12.0 sacks and was tied for second on the team with 75 tackles. His 12.0 sacks ranked 10th in the league and were the most by a Titan since 2010 (Jason Babin, 12.5), and he was one of just four NFL players to have 75-plus tackles and 10.0-plus sacks in 2021 (Micah Parsons, Aaron Donald and Cameron Heyward). Autry had 9.0 sacks of his own, tied for 21st in the NFL. Tennessee won 12 games and the AFC South, ranking sixth in scoring defense (20.8) and second in rushing defense (84.6).

Crow was Tennessee's assistant special teams coach in 2020. Kicker Stephen Gostkowski set a franchise record with seven field goals made from 50-plus yards while punter Brett Kern placed 59.5 percent of his punts (22 of 37) inside the 20-yard line, which was the best single-season percentage by an NFL punter since 1991 (min. 30 punts). Tennessee won the AFC South after finishing 11-5.

Crow spent the 2018-19 seasons as a defensive assistant for Tennessee, helping the Titans post winning records in both seasons and advance to the AFC Championship game in 2019. During those two years, the Titans were fifth in scoring defense (19.8). The 2018 team ranked sixth in the league in passing defense (216.9) while the 2019 Titans were eighth in third-down defense (36.3).

In 2017, Crow was a graduate assistant at Ohio State, where he primarily worked with linebackers.

Crow spent three years at Baldwin Wallace, where he was the offensive line coach for one season (2014) and offensive coordinator/offensive line for two seasons (2015-16).

From 2011-13, Crow was at Purdue where he spent one year (2011) as assistant strength and conditioning coach and two years (2012-13) as a graduate assistant working with the offensive line.

Crow was a walk-on linebacker at Bowling Green, where he earned a scholarship and earned his degree in exercise science. He spent the spring of 2011 as a strength intern at Florida.

Crow is a native of Findlay, Ohio.

BRIAN DUKER

PASS GAME COORDINATOR/SECONDARY
DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Brian Duker joined the Miami Dolphins as pass game coordinator/secondary in 2024 after spending the previous three seasons (2021-23) with Detroit.

The 2025 season marks his 10th as an NFL coach working on the defensive side of the ball. He's been part of teams that have won three division titles, made four playoff appearances and had five winning seasons over the past six years.

In 2024, Duker helped Miami's defense finish fourth in total defense, averaging 314.4 yards allowed per game. It was the best mark by a Dolphins defense since allowing 309.3 yards per game in 2010 and Miami's first top-five finish since ranking fourth in 2006 with 289.1 yards allowed per game. Miami's defense also excelled on third downs, holding opponents to 35.9 percent of third down conversions which ranked sixth in the NFL.

Duker oversaw a veteran secondary unit that featured safety Jordan Poyer, who ranked second on the team with 98 tackles (51 solo), and cornerbacks Jalen Ramsey and Kendall Fuller, who totaled 60 and 50 tackles, respectively, and became the only cornerback tandem in the NFL to each have 500-plus career tackles.

In 2023, Duker oversaw an improved Lions defensive backs group. Detroit was one of just four NFL teams (Chicago, N.Y. Jets and San Francisco) to have at least three players with three-plus interceptions. All three players were defensive backs – safety Kerby Joseph (four), safety Brian Branch (three) and cornerback Jerry Jacobs (three). Branch's three interceptions were second among all NFL rookies that season. The Lions won the division for the first time since 1993 and advanced to the NFC Championship game.

Duker was promoted to safeties coach in 2022. He worked closely with Joseph, who led the team with four interceptions despite being a third-round pick (97th overall) just a few months prior. Joseph became the first NFL rookie since 2005 to have at least four interceptions, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery in a season.

Duker's first season with Detroit came in 2021 as a defensive assistant.

From 2018-20, Duker was with Baltimore, where he spent one season (2018) as a defensive staff assistant/coaching analyst and two (2019-20) as defensive coaching analyst. In his three years in Baltimore, the Ravens allowed the fewest points (18.2) in the NFL, allowed the fewest net yards (307.8), tied for fourth in forced fumbles (45) and were fifth in passes defensed (227). Baltimore won two AFC North crowns and made the playoffs all three seasons, winning 35 games. Eight different defensive players earned a Pro Bowl nod.

In 2020, the Ravens ranked seventh in total defense (329.8) and second in scoring defense (18.9). The team won 11 games and an AFC Wild Card matchup at Tennessee. Three different Ravens defenders earned Pro Bowl selections – defensive lineman Calais Campbell, linebacker Matthew Judon and cornerback Marlon Humphrey.

Baltimore ranked fourth in total defense (300.6) and third in scoring defense (17.6) during the 2019 season. The Ravens were stout against both the run and pass, ranking fifth in rush defense (93.4) and sixth in pass defense (207.2). The Ravens went 14-2 in the regular season and earned the AFC's No. 1 seed. Four different defensive players earned Pro Bowl selections – Judon, Humphrey, cornerback Marcus Peters and safety Earl Thomas. Humphrey and Peters also earned first-team All-Pro honors.

The Ravens won the AFC North with a 10-win season in 2018. The team led the NFL in total defense (292.9) after finishing in the top five in rush defense (fourth, 82.9) and pass defense (fifth, 210.0). Baltimore ranked second (17.9) in scoring defense. Defensive tackle Brandon Williams, safety Eric Weddle and linebacker C.J. Mosley all earned Pro Bowl nods.

Duker began his NFL coaching career as a defensive intern with Cleveland in 2015 and as a defensive analyst with San Francisco in 2016.

Duker was at Missouri from 2013-14, serving as a graduate assistant in recruiting in 2013 and defensive quality control in 2014. The Tigers won the SEC East both seasons, totaling 23 wins, which was the most in a two-year span in program history.

His first coaching job was as a defensive graduate assistant at Bryant in 2011.

A Maryland native, Duker earned a bachelor's degree from Towson, where he was a student assistant, and his MBA from Bryant. He and his wife, CJ, have a son, Lawson.

MATT O'DONNELL

ASSISTANT LINEBACKERS COACH
COLLEGE: BROWN
DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Matt O'Donnell joined the Miami Dolphins as a defensive assistant in 2024 and was promoted to assistant linebackers coach in 2025.

The 2025 season marks O'Donnell's fifth year as an NFL coach, primarily working with the defense. He also has nine years of experience at the collegiate level.

In 2024, O'Donnell joined the defensive staff under first-year defensive coordinator Anthony Weaver. Despite a new scheme, Miami's defense bettered their top-10 finish in 2023 and finished fourth in the NFL in total defense in 2024, holding opponents to an average of 314.4 yards per game. It was the team's first top-five finish in total defense since 2006.

The run defense excelled, holding opponents to 103.7 rushing yards per game which was good for ninth in the league. Miami was also the only team to not allow a 100-yard rusher in 2024. In goal-to-go and red zone situations, Miami's defense also shined, ranking second in goal-to-go efficiency (60.0 percent) and fourth in red zone efficiency (49.1 percent).

Prior to joining the Dolphins, O'Donnell spent two seasons (2022-23) on the coaching staff at Brown. O'Donnell served as cornerbacks coach in 2022, before being promoted to recruiting coordinator/defensive line coach at his alma mater in 2023.

O'Donnell was responsible for recruitment efforts in Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, North Carolina, North Dakota, South Carolina, South Dakota and the southern portion of Texas in 2023. Under O'Donnell's guidance, defensive linemen Terrence Lane II and Kyle Philbin both earned All-Ivy honorable mention honors.

In 2022, O'Connell coached cornerbacks Cooper DeVeau and Isaiah Reed, who both earned All-Ivy honorable mention honors after finishing in the top 10 in passes defensed in the conference. DeVeau tied for the second-most passes defensed with 11, while Reed tied for seventh-most with nine.

O'Donnell returned to Duke for a second stint in 2021 as a special teams/defensive analyst, where he assisted the safeties and special teams coaches.

O'Donnell spent three seasons (2018-20) with the Houston Texans. During his tenure, the Texans won back-to-back division titles and earned their fourth appearance in the AFC Divisional Round in franchise history. O'Donnell's first NFL coaching role came as a defensive quality control coach in 2018 and he served as a defensive assistant in 2019. He was named coordinator of football research/defensive assistant in 2020.

In 2020, Texans linebacker Zach Cunningham led the league in tackles with 163, the most in his seven-year career. Houston had 14 different players record at least one full sack.

In 2019, Houston won the AFC South for the second consecutive season and won an AFC Wild Card playoff game over Buffalo. Cunningham led the team with 137 tackles while linebacker Benardrick McKinney totaled 101 tackles, combining for the most by a pair of Texans teammates since 2009.

In 2018, the Texans captured an AFC South title with an 11-5 record, which marked the second-most wins in a season in franchise history and the first season with double-digit wins since 2012. Houston had six Pro Bowl selections, including McKinney, linebacker Jadeveon Clowney and defensive end J.J. Watt.

In his first stint at Duke, O'Donnell spent two seasons (2016-17) as a graduate assistant working primarily with the defense. He worked with a pair of first-team All-ACC selections, one second-team All-ACC pick and five third-team All-ACC selections on the defensive side of the ball.

In 2017, the Blue Devils ranked third in scoring defense (20.2) and fourth in total defense (332.6) across the conference. O'Donnell worked with a defense that had four players earn All-ACC honors, including two first-team selections in linebacker Joe Giles-Harris and cornerback Mark Gilbert.

In 2016, O'Donnell worked with Giles-Harris who earned Freshman All-American honors after producing 107 tackles, 4.0 sacks and one interception. His 107 tackles ranked 10th in the ACC, and he was the only freshman in the conference to break the centennial mark that season.

O'Donnell spent two seasons (2014-15) as a defensive graduate assistant at Southern Mississippi. In 2015, he helped the Golden Eagles return to a bowl game for the first time in four years, following their conference championship appearance.

O'Donnell began his coaching career as a student assistant at Iowa, where he spent two years (2012-13) working with the strength and conditioning staff. In 2013, the Hawkeyes finished with an 8-5 overall record and a trip to the Outback Bowl.

O'Donnell played linebacker at Brown University from 2008-11 and served on the team's leadership committee. He helped the Bears claim the 2008 Ivy League championship title as a freshman and earned All-Ivy honorable mention as a senior after recording 69 total tackles, the second-most on the team.

A Tipton, Iowa native, O'Donnell graduated from Brown with a bachelor's degree in economics and earned a master's degree in sports management from Southern Mississippi. He and his wife, Katie, have two sons, Bennett and Baylor.

SEAN RYAN

SENIOR DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT
COLLEGE: HAMILTON COLLEGE
DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

2007, 2011 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP 2007, 2011

Sean Ryan joined the Miami Dolphins as a defensive assistant in 2024 and was promoted to senior defensive assistant in 2025.

The 2025 season is Ryan's 18th of NFL experience. Ryan won Super Bowl XLII and XLVI as a member of the New York Giants coaching staff.

In 2024, Ryan joined the defensive staff under first-year defensive coordinator Anthony Weaver after spending the majority of his coaching career in offensive roles. Miami's defense improved upon their top-10 finish in 2023 and finished fourth in the NFL in total defense in 2024, holding opponents to an average of 314.4 yards per game. It was the team's first top-five finish in total defense since ranking fourth almost 20 years prior in 2006 (289.1).

The run defense excelled, holding opponents to 103.7 rushing yards per game which was good for ninth in the league. Miami was also the only team to not allow a 100-yard rusher in 2024. In goal-to-go and red zone situations, Miami's defense also shined, ranking second in goal-to-go efficiency (60.0 percent) and fourth in red zone efficiency (49.1 percent).

Prior to joining Miami, Ryan spent one season at South Carolina as an offensive analyst. In 2023, the Gamecocks ranked fourth in the SEC in passing offense (278.0). Ryan worked with wide receiver Xavier Legette, who became only the fifth player in school history to eclipse 1,000 receiving yards in a season. Legette was drafted 32nd overall in the 2024 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers.

Ryan spent two seasons (2021-22) as the quarterbacks coach for the Carolina Panthers.

In 2022, the Carolina quarterbacks were tied for 5th in the NFC with five passes of 50-plus yards. Ryan helped quarterback Sam Darnold post the second-highest yards per attempt in the NFL (8.16) from Week 12 to the end of the regular season.

In 2021, Darnold became the first quarterback in NFL history with five rushing touchdowns in the first four games of the season. Darnold also set the franchise record with three consecutive 300-yard passing games.

Prior to Carolina, Ryan spent two seasons (2019-20) as the quarterbacks coach for the Detroit Lions.

In 2020, the Lions had the eighth-most passing yards in the NFL with 4,397 as a team. Quarterback Matthew Stafford finished with his eighth career 4,000-yard passing season, which was the fifth-most since 2009.

In 2019, Ryan coached Stafford to a league-leading 2,499 passing yards and 19 passing touchdowns through the first eight games of the year before Stafford missed the rest of the season with an injury.

Ryan spent three seasons (2016-18) with the Houston Texans. He was the wide receivers coach in 2016 and the quarterbacks coach from 2017-18.

In 2018, Ryan continued to develop quarterback Deshaun Watson, who ranked sixth in the NFL with a 103.1 passer rating, throwing 26 touchdowns to nine interceptions to earn his first career Pro Bowl honor. The Texans won the AFC South after posting an 11-5 regular season record.

In 2017, Ryan worked with Watson during his rookie season. Watson set an NFL record for passing touchdowns (19) through a player's first seven games before getting injured. After Watson's injury, Ryan helped quarterback Tom Savage throw for 300 yards for the first time in his career Week 13 at Tennessee (12/3/17) to become the eighth quarterback in Texans history to do so.

In his first season with Houston in 2016, Ryan worked with wide receiver Will Fuller V, who recorded 5 receptions for 107 yards (21.4 avg.) and a touchdown to become the first rookie first-round draft pick since 1984 to post 100 yards in a season opener. Houston would go on to win the AFC South and defeat Oakland 27-14 in the AFC Wild Card game.

Before his stint in Houston, Ryan spent nine seasons (2007-15) with the New York Giants, where he helped them to victories in Super Bowl XLII (2007) and Super Bowl XLVI (2011). Ryan held the roles of offensive quality control (2007-09), wide receivers coach (2010-11, 2014-15) and quarterbacks coach (2012-13) during his time in New York.

In 2015, Giants wide receivers combined for 211 receptions for 2,855 yards and 26 touchdowns. Wide Receiver Odell Beckham Jr. was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl after tying the franchise single-season receiving touchdown record with 13. He finished his second season with the third-most receptions (96) and receiving yards (1,450) in a season in team history. In addition, Rueben Randle set a single-season career high with eight receiving touchdowns.

In 2014, Ryan was instrumental in the rapid development of Beckham Jr., who became the first Giants player selected as the AP Offensive Rookie of the Year in the awards history since 1967. In just 12 games, Beckham Jr. had 91 receptions for 1,305 yards (14.3 avg.) and 12 touchdowns, all franchise rookie records. The 12 receiving touchdowns were the second-most by a rookie in NFL history at the time. He became the first wide receiver in NFL history to reach 1,000 yards after missing the season's first three games.

From 2012-13, Ryan worked with quarterback Eli Manning as the quarterbacks coach. In 2012, Manning was selected to his third Pro Bowl after completing 321-of-536 passes (59.9 pct.) for 3,948 yards, 26 touchdowns and a passer rating of 87.2.

In 2011, Ryan helped the wide receiver corps set a franchise record with 4,734 net passing yards. Wide receiver Victor Cruz broke out, hauling in 82 receptions for a franchise-record 1,536 yards (18.7 avg.) and nine touchdowns. Wide receiver Hakeem Nicks had 76 receptions for a career-best 1,192 yards (15.7 avg.) and seven touchdowns. Under Ryan, Cruz and Nicks became the first Giants receivers to have more than 1,000 yards in the same season.

In 2010, Nicks led the Giants with 79 receptions for 1,052 yards (13.3 avg.) and 11 touchdowns. Wide receiver Mario Manningham added 60 catches for 944 yards (15.7 avg.) and nine touchdowns. Ryan guided the duo to be the first pair of Giants with at least nine touchdown receptions in a season since 1967.

As a quality control coach from 2007-09, Ryan oversaw a Giants offense that placed in the top 10 in total offense in consecutive seasons (2008-09).

Prior to the NFL, Ryan was the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator for Harvard in 2006. He helped running back Clifton Dawson, who is the all-time leading rusher in Ivy League history, run for 1,213 yards on 237 carries (5.12 avg.) and 20 TDs in his senior campaign.

Ryan spent three seasons (2003-05) with Columbia. He was the running backs and special teams coordinator in 2003 and 2004 before coaching the quarterbacks in 2005.

In 2005, Ryan played a key role in the growth of quarterback Craig Hormann. In his first season at the helm, Hormann threw for 1,481 yards and seven touchdowns before finishing his career in the top three of most passing yards, most completions and most touchdowns in Columbia history.

In 2004, Ryan helped running back Rashad Biggers gain 770 rushing yards in 10 games. A year earlier, he coached running back Ayo Oluwoloe to 903 rushing yards, the fifth-most in a single season in school history.

Before Columbia, Ryan spent two years (2001-02) at Boston College, working primarily with the wide receivers. The Eagles won bowl games in each of those seasons, beating Georgia in the 2001 Music City Bowl and Toledo in the 2002 Motor City Bowl.

Ryan was the running backs coach at Colgate in 2000, a graduate assistant at Albany in 1998-99 and started off his coaching career at Siena College as the quarterbacks coach in 1997.

A native of Hudson Falls, N.Y., Ryan played defensive back and outside linebacker at Hamilton College, where he graduated and earned his degree in American studies in 1994. He also earned a master's degree in higher education administration from Albany. He and his wife, Jenni, have three daughters; Cecilia, Frances and Lillian.

DeSHAWN SHEAD

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS
COLLEGE: PORTLAND STATE
DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

2013 (PLAYER) 2013, 2014 (PLAYER)

DeShawn Shead (pronounced SHED) joined the Miami Dolphins as assistant defensive backs coach in 2024.

The 2025 season marks Shead's 13th year of NFL experience including eight as a player and five as a coach, working primarily with the defensive backs. Shead won Super Bowl XLVIII as a player with Seattle in 2013.

In 2024, Shead worked primarily with the cornerbacks. Miami finished fourth in total defense, holding opponents to 314.4 yards per game and marking the first top five finish since finishing fourth in 2006 (289.1).

Shead helped tutor cornerback Kader Kohou, who was an undrafted free agent in 2022. In Week 16 of the 2024 season, Kohou picked off San Francisco's Brock Purdy for a game-clinching interception with two minutes remaining in the game. He became one of four undrafted cornerbacks in NFL history to reach 180 tackles and three interceptions in the first three seasons of his NFL career (Chris Harris Jr., Brian Poole and Jacob Lacey).

Shead's unit also included two veterans – Jalen Ramsey and Kendall Fuller – who totaled 60 and 50 tackles, respectively, in 2025. Both players have each had seven seasons with at least 50 tackles since they entered the league in 2016, which tied for second-most among cornerbacks in that span.

Shead began his coaching career in Seattle, where he spent three seasons (2021-23) working with the defensive backs. He first joined the staff as defensive assistant/defensive backs coach in 2021 and was named assistant defensive backs coach in 2022. He was promoted to assistant defensive backs/cornerbacks coach in 2023. In those three seasons, he worked with five Pro Bowl selections, including two that were Pro Bowl picks as rookies.

In 2023, Shead helped coach cornerback Devon Witherspoon, Seattle's first-round draft pick, who tied for fifth in the NFL with 16 passes defensed his rookie season. In Week 4 at the N.Y. Giants, Witherspoon recorded seven tackles, 2.0 sacks and a 97-yard pick-six, earning him NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors. The 97-yard interception return was the second-longest in franchise history, and he became the third rookie since sacks became an official stat in 1982 to record two-plus sacks and a pick-six in a regular or postseason game. Witherspoon went on to win NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month in October and later earned his first Pro Bowl nod.

In 2022, Shead helped the Seahawks clinch a playoff appearance after finishing the season with a 9-8 record. He coached cornerback Riq Woolen, who set a franchise rookie record with six interceptions, which were tied for the most in the NFL that season. In Week 6 vs. Arizona, Woolen recorded five tackles, one fumble recovery and one interception, earning him NFC Defensive Player of the Week. Woolen totaled three interceptions and two fumble recoveries in October, earning him NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month. After a standout season, Woolen was named to the PWFA All-Rookie team and earned the first Pro Bowl nod of his career.

In 2021, Shead began his coaching career with Seattle as defensive assistant/defensive backs coach, where he helped safety Quandre Diggs earn his second consecutive Pro Bowl nod after he recorded a career-high 94 tackles and tied his career-high five interceptions.

Shead played seven seasons as a cornerback with Seattle (2012-17) and Detroit (2018). He appeared in 66 games with 23 starts – 22 at cornerback and one at strong safety. Shead totaled 146 career tackles (108 solo), one sack, two interceptions, 24 passes defensed and three forced fumbles. He also recorded 25 special teams tackles (20 solo), one blocked punt and one special teams forced fumble.

Shead appeared in 10 postseason games with three starts, including two Super Bowls (XLVIII and XLIX). He recorded 11 tackles (seven solo), four passes defensed and five special teams tackles in playoff games, and won Super Bowl XLVIII in 2013.

Shead attended Portland State, where he was a four-year starter in the defensive backfield and appeared in 44 games, registering 211 tackles, 11 interceptions, four forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries and 29 passes defensed. He transitioned from cornerback to safety toward the end of his junior year, earning him second-team All-Big Sky honors that season and first-team All-Big Sky honors his senior year. Shead signed with the Seattle Seahawks as an undrafted free agent in 2012.

A Palmdale, California native, Shead and his wife, Jessica, have three children, Savannah, Carson and Cyrus.

RYAN SLOWIK

DEFENSIVE BACKS/PASS GAME SPECIALIST
COLLEGE: WISCONSIN-OSHKOSH
DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Ryan Slowik joined the Miami Dolphins as senior defensive assistant in 2022. He was promoted to outside linebackers coach in 2023 and again to defensive backs/pass game specialist in 2024.

The 2025 season marks Slowik's 16th year of NFL coaching experience, working primarily on the defensive side of the ball.

In 2024, Slowik oversaw a defensive backs unit that contributed to Miami's top-five finishing defense. The Dolphins finished fourth in total defense, holding opponents to 314.4 yards per game in 2024, their best mark since 2010. Miami also finished top 10 in passing defense, averaging 210.7 passing yards allowed per game and ranking ninth in the league. Miami's defense was successful on third downs, holding opponents to 35.9 percent of third down conversions in 2024, which ranked sixth in the league.

Slowik tutored veteran safety Jordan Poyer, a 2024 free agent acquisition. Poyer led the defensive backs and ranked second on the team with 98 tackles.

In his second season with the Dolphins in 2023, Slowik's outside linebackers group contributed to a defense that ranked 10th in the league in total defense (318.3). It was Miami's first top-10 defensive finish since 2010. Miami led the league with 131 quarterback hits – improved from 93 in 2022 – and recorded 56.0 sacks, shattering the previous franchise record of 49.0. The 56.0 sacks ranked third in the NFL. The defense also ranked sixth in the league in yards per rush allowed (3.8) and seventh in rushing defense (97.1). The Dolphins won 11 games for the first time since 2008 and reached back-to-back playoff appearances in 2022-23 for the first time since 1997-2001.

Slowik tutored Pro Bowl linebacker Bradley Chubb, who was acquired in a trade in 2022, and accounted for 11.0 of the team's 56.0 sacks in 2023. Chubb tied for first in the league in forced fumbles (six) and had a quarterback hit in 14 of the 16 games he played.

Slowik also coached linebacker Andrew Van Ginkel to a career season. Van Ginkel totaled career highs in several categories including tackles, sacks, passes defensed and special teams tackles. He made several big plays throughout the season, including a defensive stop short of the line to gain to seal the victory in Week 2 at New England, a fumble return to the 3-yard line in Week 3 vs. Denver and a 33-yard pick-six in Week 13 at Washington. Van Ginkel was originally a fifth-round pick by Miami in the 2019 NFL Draft.

In his first season with the Dolphins in 2022, Slowik helped the team win nine games and earn a playoff berth, the franchise's first since 2016. Miami's defense steadily improved throughout the season and finished the year ranked fourth in rushing defense (103.0 yards allowed per game). It was the team's best run defense ranking since 2011, when the team finished third. The Dolphins also led the NFL in total defense (245.7 yards allowed per game) in the final three weeks of the regular season.

Slowik served as outside linebackers coach for Cleveland in 2016. The Browns acquired outside linebacker Jamie Collins Sr. at the trade deadline and Slowik quickly helped Collins become a key contributor. In just eight games for the Browns that season, Collins ranked third on the team with 69 tackles (48 solo). He was tied for third with seven tackles for loss and also contributed 2.0 sacks. He also worked with outside linebacker Joe Schobert, who played in all 16 games as a rookie.

As assistant defensive line coach for the New York Jets in 2015, Slowik helped the team finish second in the NFL in rushing defense (83.4) and third in yards allowed per carry (3.6). Defensive end Muhammad Wilkerson led the team with 12 sacks and earned his first career Pro Bowl selection. Slowik also worked with rookie defensive end Leonard Williams, who finished fifth among NFL rookie defensive linemen with 3.0 sacks that season.

Slowik spent six seasons (2009-14) with the Arizona Cardinals in a variety of defensive assistant coach roles. He was a defensive quality control coach from 2009-11 and was promoted to outside linebackers coach in 2012. He spent the 2013-14 seasons as defensive assistant/defensive backs.

From 2012-14 while serving as a position coach, Slowik helped the Cardinals force 88 takeaways, which was fifth in the league during that span. Arizona also limited opponents to a 35.3 conversion rate on third downs, also fifth in the NFL. The Cardinals posted at least 10 wins in three of his six seasons there.

In 2014, Slowik worked with the defensive backs and two of them – Antonio Cromartie and Patrick Peterson – earned Pro Bowl nods. Arizona finished 11-5 that season, the team's best mark since 1975.

Peterson also earned a Pro Bowl selection in 2013, Slowik's first season working with the defensive backs.

Slowik's first NFL coaching position came with the Denver Broncos where he spent four seasons (2005-08) in a variety of roles. After beginning his tenure as a defensive assistant (2005-06), Slowik was promoted to assistant special teams coach in 2007 and assistant defensive backs coach in 2008.

In 2007, kicker Jason Elam became the first kicker since at least 1970 to convert four walk-off game-winning field goals in the same season.

As a defensive assistant (2005-06) in Denver, Slowik worked closely with the defensive backs. In 2006, cornerback Champ Bailey was the runner-up for NFL Defensive Player of the Year after tying for the NFL lead with 10 interceptions. In 2005, Bailey was named first-team All-Pro and both Bailey and safety John Lynch were selected to the Pro Bowl.

Slowik began his coaching career in 2004 at his alma mater, Wisconsin-Oshkosh, where he served as assistant secondary coach.

He also spent one season (2003) as a personnel intern with the Green Bay Packers.

Slowik played safety at Wisconsin-Oshkosh for three seasons (2001-03). He also played two seasons at Youngstown State (1999-2000).

Slowik's father, Bob, spent 10 seasons as an NFL defensive coordinator for four teams – Chicago (1993-98), Cleveland (1999), Green Bay (2004) and Denver (2007-08). Bob is currently coaching for the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League. Slowik's brother, Bobby, also has coached in the NFL for more than 10 seasons and is currently the senior passing game coordinator for the Dolphins.

A Gainesville, Florida native, Slowik and his wife, Valerie, have a son, Tye, and a daughter, Averie.

CRAIG AUKERMAN

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
COLLEGE: FINDLAY
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Craig Aukerman joined the Miami Dolphins as special teams coordinator in 2025. The 2025 campaign marks Aukerman's 26th season as a coach, 16th in the NFL and eighth as a coordinator.

Aukerman joined the Dolphins after serving with the Los Angeles Rams during the 2024 season as an assistant special teams coach. The Rams achieved a 10-7 record, the NFC West division title and advanced to the Divisional Round of the playoffs.

Aukerman spent seven seasons (2017-23) with the Tennessee Titans where he began as an assistant special teams coach. He was promoted to special teams coordinator in 2018 and assistant head coach/special teams coordinator in 2023. Throughout his tenure with Tennessee, Aukerman helped the Titans reach the postseason in four of seven seasons, winning two AFC South division titles, advancing to the AFC Championship in 2019 and securing the No. 1 seed in the AFC in 2021.

From 2022-23, Aukerman mentored punter Ryan Stonehouse who led the league and set an NFL record with a 53.1 gross punting average as part of his 2022 rookie campaign. Following the 2022 season, Stonehouse was named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team and second-team All-Pro. He finished fourth in the NFL that season and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average.

He coached two Pro Bowl players in punter Brett Kern (2017-19) and long snapper Morgan Cox (2022). Kern led the NFL in both net punting average (44.6) and gross punting average (49.7) in 2017. His 44.6-yard net punting average ranked second in NFL history at the time. He also led the league with 52.7 percent of his punts (39 of 74) placed inside the 20 in 2018 and in 2019 led the NFL in punts inside the 20 (37). Kern led the league again in 2020 with 59.5 percent of his punts (22 of 37) inside the 20 and had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1) in 2021.

Between 2017-21, the Titans ranked 10th in punt return average (8.8 yards per return) and had the fifth-fewest special teams penalties in the NFL (67). Kern ranked second in the NFL with a 42.5-yard net punting average in that period.

In 2018, Aukerman's first season as the Titans' special teams coordinator, the team set a new NFL record for kickoff return average (32.0), becoming the first team in NFL history to average more than 30.0 yards per kickoff return in a season.

Prior to joining the Titans, Aukerman spent four seasons (2013-16) with the San Diego Chargers as an assistant special teams coach (2013-15) and special teams coordinator (2016).

Aukerman's first coaching role in the league came in 2010 as a defensive assistant for the Denver Broncos. He then joined the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2011 in the same capacity before transitioning to special teams with Jacksonville in 2012 as an assistant special teams coach.

Prior to the NFL, Aukerman spent 10 years coaching at the collegiate level. He served as the linebackers coach at Kent State during the 2009 season. He had two stints at Miami of Ohio, as linebackers coach and co-special teams coordinator from 2005-08 and previously as a graduate assistant from 2001-02. Aukerman also spent two seasons as the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at Western Kentucky (2003-04).

His first coaching role was at his alma mater, the University of Findlay, as wide receivers coach in 2000. Aukerman played defensive back and wide receiver for the Findlay Oilers from 1995-98 and was a member of both the 1995 and 1997 NAIA National Championship teams. He was a two-time NAIA All-American in 1997-98 and also earned first-team All-GLIAC defensive honors in 1998. Aukerman was a dual-sport athlete and played baseball in his junior year.

In 2021, Aukerman founded the Aukerman Family Foundation, which is dedicated to positively impacting local youth by providing scholarships to college-bound students and sponsoring programs that strength family relationships through sports. The foundation annually hosts youth football camps in his home state of Ohio.

Aukerman and his wife, Summer, have two sons: Cayden and Bryce.

RONNIE BRADFORD

SENIOR SPECIAL TEAMS ASSISTANT
DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

1998 (PLAYER)

Ronnie Bradford joined the Miami Dolphins as a senior special teams assistant in 2024.

The 2025 season marks his 20th as a coach, including nine in the NFL, following a 10-year playing career.

In his first season with the Dolphins, Bradford helped coach a special teams unit that set franchise records despite rotating through five long snappers throughout the season. He worked heavily with the return game and mentored rookie wide receiver Malik Washington whose kickoff return average was second-best in franchise history (30.7). Washington also had the longest kick return of any rookie in 2024 in Week 18 (67 yards). Bradford also helped coach kicker Jason Sanders who set career highs in field goals made (37), field goals made from 50-plus yards (12) and consecutive field goals made (27). Sanders' 37 field goals were also the second-most in a season in franchise history which surpassed his own record of 36 in 2020.

For his consistent performance throughout the 2024 season, Sanders was twice named AFC Special Teams Player of the Month in November and December/January, becoming only the fourth player in NFL history to earn the award in back-to-back occasions in the same season and the only player to do so twice in his career. Sanders was also named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his five field goals in Miami's Week 16 victory over San Francisco.

Bradford also helped mentor punter Jake Bailey whose gross punt average of 47.1 yards was the fifth-best mark in a season in franchise history. Bailey also served as Sanders' holder and worked closely to align with the five different long snappers that contributed to the kicking operation.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Bradford spent three seasons at Montana (2021-23), where he served as assistant head coach/cornerbacks from 2021-22 and was promoted to defensive coordinator/safeties in 2023. The Grizzlies made the FCS playoffs in all three of Bradford's seasons, including a trip to the FCS National Championship Game in 2023.

In 2023, Bradford helped the Grizzlies go 13-2 and finish the season as the national runner-up. Four players on Bradford's defense earned first-team All-Big Sky honors – defensive lineman Alex Gubner, linebacker Braxton Hill, defensive back Corbin Walker and defensive back Trevin Gradney. Gubner earned Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year. Montana's defense led the Big Sky Conference and ranked third nationally in FCS in scoring defense (14.5).

As assistant head coach/cornerbacks at Montana from 2021-22, Bradford developed cornerback Justin Ford, who transferred to Montana in 2021. Bradford helped Ford become a unanimous first-team FCS All-American and the Big Sky Newcomer of the Year in 2021 after he led all NCAA divisions with nine interceptions and three defensive touchdowns. Ford also earned first-team All-Big Sky honors in 2022.

Bradford spent three seasons at Southern California (2016-18) coaching the secondary.

In 2018, Bradford coached three players who went on to become NFL draft picks in cornerback Iman Marshall, safety Marvell Tell III and safety Talanoa Hufanga. Marshall was a fourth-round pick (127th overall) by Baltimore in the 2019 NFL Draft and Tell was picked in the fifth round (144th overall) by Indianapolis in the same draft. Hufanga was a fifth-round pick (180th overall) by San Francisco in the 2021 NFL Draft. He was first-team All-Pro and a Pro Bowl selection in 2022.

The Trojans led the nation in sacks (46) and won the Pac-12 after going 11-3 in 2017 and winning the Pac 12. USC's 16 interceptions ranked 19th nationally and 13 of them came from defensive backs. Tell earned first-team All-Pac 12 honors.

Bradford coached the Jim Thorpe Award winner in 2016 in cornerback Adoree' Jackson. He also was named Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year and was a consensus first-team All-American. Jackson was the 18th overall pick in the 2017 NFL Draft by Tennessee. Safety Leon McQuay was also drafted, as he was selected in the sixth round (218th overall) by Kansas City. The Trojans won the Rose Bowl that season, finishing 10-3 and ranked No. 3 in the final AP poll.

Bradford was the defensive backs/special teams coordinator at Louisiana Tech from 2013-15. During that time, the Bulldogs blocked eight kicks. In 2015, Louisiana Tech blocked four kicks, which tied for seventh in FBS. The team had three blocked kicks in 2014 and ranked eighth in opposing punt return average (3.14) in 2013. The Bulldogs won bowl games in 2014 and 2015.

While at Louisiana Tech, Bradford coached safety Xavier Woods during his first three collegiate seasons. Woods earned first-team All-Conference USA honors in 2014 and 2015 and was a sixth-round pick (191st overall) by Dallas in the 2017 NFL Draft.

Bradford coached safeties at Memphis in 2011 and was a defensive administrative assistant at California in 2010.

Following his playing career, Bradford spent seven seasons as an NFL assistant coach – six with Denver (2003-08) in a variety of roles and one as defensive assistant in Kansas City (2009).

Bradford began his coaching career as a special teams assistant in Denver in 2003 before being promoted to special teams coach in 2004. In 2007, he moved to assistant defensive backs coach and was promoted to defensive backs coach in 2008.

From 2003-06, while Bradford coached special teams, kicker Jason Elam ranked third in the NFL in points (479) and field goals made (107). From 2007-08, he worked with cornerback Champ Bailey, who earned Pro Bowl selections both years, was a first-team All-Pro selection in 2007 and went on to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2019.

Bradford played 10 NFL seasons as a defensive back with Denver (1993-95), Arizona (1996), Atlanta (1997-2001) and Minnesota (2002). He originally entered the NFL as a fourth-round pick (105th overall) by Miami in the 1993 NFL Draft. Bradford played in 133 career games with 99 starts, totaling 419 tackles (347 solo), 2.0 sacks, 13 interceptions, 64 passes defensed, two forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries. He also appeared in three playoff games with one start. Bradford intercepted a pass from Hall of Fame quarterback John Elway in the first quarter of Super Bowl XXXIII as a member of the Falcons.

Bradford played cornerback at Colorado, where he was a four-year letterman (1989-92) and two-year starter. He earned first-team All-Big 8 honors as a senior in 1992. As a sophomore, he was part of Colorado's 1990 national championship team and blocked a PAT attempt in the final minutes of the Orange Bowl to preserve Colorado's final victory that season. Bradford was elected to the University of Colorado Athletic Hall of Fame in 2024.

A Commerce City, Colorado native, Bradford has three children, Tony, Kaylee and Justin. He graduated from Colorado with a bachelor's degree in communication.

THREE DOLPHINS NAMED PRO BOWL MVP

Three Dolphins have been named Most Valuable Player in the Pro Bowl. The first to do it was kicker Garo Yepremian, who accomplished the feat in the 1974 game, when he kicked five field goals, including a 42-yarder with 21 seconds remaining, lifting the AFC to a 15-13 victory over the NFC. Almost 30 years later, running back Ricky Williams duplicated the achievement, when he rushed for 56 yards and two touchdowns, and forced a fumble on special teams, en route to the AFC's 45-20 triumph in the 2003 contest, following the 2002 season. The most recent Dolphins player named Pro Bowl MVP was wide receiver Brandon Marshall, as he caught six passes for 176 yards and a Pro Bowl-record four touchdowns as the AFC used a second-half surge to beat the NFC, 59-41, in the 2012 Pro Bowl.

DAVE PULOKA

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERFORMANCE
COLLEGE: HOLY CROSS
DOLPHINS: 18TH SEASON

Dave Puloka (pronounced puh-LOH-kuh) joined the Miami Dolphins in 2008 and was promoted to director of player performance in 2025. He is the longest-tenured coach on the Dolphins staff, now in his 18th season, after first serving as assistant strength and conditioning coach from 2008-15 and being promoted to head strength & conditioning coach in 2016.

Puloka oversees all aspects of the players' year-round physical preparation process, which includes strength & conditioning, nutrition and sports science initiatives.

In his first season as head strength & conditioning coach in 2016, he helped the team win 10 games and reach the playoffs for the first time since 2008. He also helped Miami to four straight winning seasons from 2020-23, something the franchise had not accomplished since 1997-2003. The Dolphins earned consecutive playoff berths from 2022-23, marking the team's first back-to-back trips to the playoffs since 1997-2001.

Prior to Miami, Puloka spent the 2007 season as the assistant strength & conditioning coach with the Atlanta Falcons, his first year in the NFL. Puloka served as a graduate assistant strength & conditioning coach at the University of Virginia from 2005-06.

Puloka went to training camp with the Cincinnati Bengals as an undrafted college free agent in 2001. He lettered in football and track at Holy Cross (1997-2000), where he played defensive end. His career totals in football included 19.0 sacks. He served as a team captain on the football team each of his final two years while he was also a first-team All-Patriot League and All-New England performer. Puloka earned his degree in psychology from Holy Cross and his master's degree in exercise physiology from the University of Virginia. In 2025, he was inducted into the Holy Cross Hall of Fame.

Puloka and his wife, Sela, have two children – their son, Noa, and daughter, Lavinia.

DOLPHINS COACHING LONGEVITY

In 2007, former Dolphins secondary coach Mel Phillips wrapped up an impressive 23-year stint as an assistant on the team's coaching staff, a span which began in 1985. Over that time, Phillips served under six of the first seven head coaches in team history. Phillips' 23-year tenure with the club is the second-longest among assistant coaches in team history and third overall, including head coaches.

BRENT CALLAWAY

COLLEGE: NORTH CAROLINA
NFL: FIRST SEASON

Brent Callaway joined the Miami Dolphins in 2025 as strength & conditioning coach.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Callaway served as vice president of performance at EXOS, where he held various roles supporting athlete performance for 17 years (2008-2025). He served as performance director of pro sports from 2017-2022 and performance director of international from 2011-2017. Callaway first joined the organization as a performance manager in 2008. Throughout his time at EXOS, Callaway worked with professional athletes in football, baseball, track and field, tennis, boxing and soccer. He oversaw the organization's NFL Combine preparation program, as well as offseason programs for the NFL, MLB and NBA. Callaway helped prepare more than 500 athletes in the pre-NFL Draft process at EXOS, which yielded more than 50 first-round picks and 20 top-10 picks.

His first role in athletic performance was as sports performance director at Velocity Sports Performance (2003-08).

Callaway was a member of the track and field team at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill (1998-2002), where he earned his degree in exercise and sport science. He and his wife, Caroline, have two children – their daughter, Bailey, and son, Ty.

DOLPHINS FAMILY COMBINATIONS

There have been three father-son coaching tandems in Dolphins history. The most recent was offensive line coach Jeremiah Washburn, who coached alongside his father, Jim Washburn, in 2016. The elder Washburn served as senior defensive assistant/pass rush specialist in 2016. Earlier, both Dave Shula (1982-88) and Mike Shula (1991-92, 2000-02) coached under their father, Don, while Tony Sparano Jr. spent one season (2011) under his father, Tony Sparano, who was head coach of the Dolphins from 2008-11.

Brothers Ryan and Bobby Slowik currently serve on Miami's coaching staff. Ryan is on his fourth season with the Dolphins and is the team's defensive backs/pass game specialist. Meanwhile, Bobby is on his first season as Miami's senior pass game coordinator. They are the third set of brothers to serve on Miami's coaching staff, joining David (1982-88) and Mike (1991-92, 2000-02) Shula, and Judd (2000-05) and Jason Garrett (2005-06). The Slowiks and the Garretts are the only set of brothers to have crossed paths in Miami.

In 2005, DT Randy Crowder (1974-76) and LB Channing Crowder (2005-10) became the third father-son combination to play for the Dolphins in franchise history. They joined the Barbers, which included linebacker Rudy (1968) and fullback Kantroy (1999), and the Grieses, which consisted of Bob (1967-80) and Brian (2003), both quarterbacks. The Crowders were the first father-son tandem to both be drafted by the Dolphins, as Randy was taken in the sixth round in 1974 and Channing was selected in the third round in 2005. In addition, quarterback George Wilson, Jr., played with the Dolphins in 1966 under his father, George, Sr., who was the team's head coach.

MARVIN ALLEN

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER
COLLEGE: TULANE
NFL: 33RD SEASON
DOLPHINS: SEVENTH SEASON

Marvin Allen joined the Miami Dolphins as assistant general manager in 2019. The 2025 season marks his 33rd in the NFL.

Allen assists General Manager Chris Grier in helping oversee the college and pro scouting departments. During his tenure with the team, the Dolphins have built a competitive roster and posted four consecutive winning seasons in 2020, 2021, 2022 and 2023 for the first time since 2000-03.

In 2024, the Dolphins won six of their last nine games after opening the season with a 2-6 record and improved in nearly every metric over the second half of the year. Miami was one of four teams to have three 700-plus receivers and the only team to have three players with 75-plus receptions in the season. Defensively, the Dolphins finished fourth in total defense (314.4), its first top-five finish since 2006.

In 2023, Miami won 11 games for the first time since 2008 and secured a second-consecutive playoff berth (2022-23), something the Dolphins hadn't done since 2000-01. Miami led the NFL in total offense (401.3) for the first time since 1994 and ranked second in scoring offense (29.2). Miami also had a top 10 defense (10th, 318.3 yards allowed per game) for the first time since 2010.

In 2022, the Dolphins finished the season 9-8 and secured a playoff berth for the first time since 2016 and just the third time in the past 20 seasons. For the first time since 1995, the Dolphins finished with a top 10 total offense, ranking sixth in yards per game (364.5), second in yards per play (6.1) and fourth in passing offense (265.4). Allen was selected by the club to participate in the NFL's inaugural Front Office and General Manager Accelerator Program.

The 2021 Dolphins won eight of their final nine games, including their final six at home. Eight of Miami's 11 starters on defense were drafted by the Dolphins and all 11 were under the age of 30. That group scored five defensive touchdowns, the team's most in a season since 2001. The Dolphins also swept New England for the first time since 2000.

In 2020, Miami won 10 games despite having the second-youngest roster in the NFL. The Dolphins set a team record by starting 10 different rookies that season, including eight in one game in a Week 15 win vs. New England. Miami's defense led the league in third downs (28.8 pct.) and takeaways (29) and finished sixth in scoring (21.1 points allowed per game).

In Allen's first season with the Dolphins in 2019, he helped Miami add several rookies who made impacts in their first season. First-round pick Christian Wilkins led all NFL rookie defensive linemen with 56 tackles, the fifth-most by a rookie defensive lineman since 2015. Undrafted wide receiver Preston Williams was tied for the NFL lead among rookies with 32 receptions at the time he suffered a season-ending injury, and undrafted cornerback Nik Needham had 11 passes defensed, the second-most among all rookies that season.

Allen came to Miami from Buffalo, where he spent two seasons (2017-18) as a national scout. He worked extensively on Buffalo's 2018 draft class that helped net the team several key contributors. Quarterback Josh Allen, selected seventh overall, developed into a Pro Bowl quarterback and NFL MVP. Linebacker Tremaine Edmunds, selected 16th overall, led the team in tackles (121) as a rookie and was tied for fourth among all NFL first-year in the statistic.

Allen spent four seasons (2013-16) with the Kansas City Chiefs as their director of college scouting. He helped the team compile a core of young, talented players that played a major role in Kansas City's six consecutive AFC West titles (2016-21) and back-to-back AFC Championships (2019-20). Allen oversaw the college scouting leading up to four drafts (2014-17) and was instrumental in scouting players like quarterback Patrick Mahomes (2017 first round), defensive tackle Chris Jones (2016 second round), wide receiver Tyreek Hill (2016 fifth round), cornerback Marcus Peters (2015 first round), linebacker D.J. Alexander (2015 fifth round) and linebacker Dee Ford (2014 first round).

Allen spent four seasons (2009-12) with Atlanta. He began his tenure there as an eastern regional scout (2009-12) and was promoted to national scout prior to his departure in early 2013. The Falcons achieved consecutive winning seasons for the first time in team history, posting four straight between 2009-12. Allen also played a pivotal role in scouting wide receiver Julio Jones who went on to be selected to seven Pro Bowls and achieved two first-team All-Pro honors.

Allen began his scouting career in New England, where he spent 16 seasons (1993-2008) with the Patriots. The team appeared in four Super Bowls in that span, winning XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX. He spent his final 12 years (1997-2008) with the organization as an area scout.

A graduate of Tulane, Allen was selected in the 11th round (294th overall) of the 1988 NFL Draft by New England. He played four seasons at running back (1988-91), appearing in 37 games and totaling 94 carries for 378 yards (4.0 avg.) and two touchdowns in his career.

ADAM ENGROFF

CO-DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL
COLLEGE: KANSAS STATE
DOLPHINS: 27TH SEASON

Adam Engroff joined the Miami Dolphins in 1999 and was promoted to co-director of player personnel in 2019. In this role, he's been instrumental in building the roster through the team's college scouting process and the draft.

Engroff oversees the team's college scouting department and is responsible for scouting the top prospects throughout the country. He also assists with scouting other NFL teams and free agents.

Engroff previously spent three seasons (2016-18) as director of college scouting, overseeing the team's college scouting department. Prior to that, Engroff spent four seasons (2012-15) as a national scout and was responsible for scouting the entire country. He also spent nine seasons (2003-11) as a regional scout, covering the western portion of the country in the team's scouting system.

Engroff first joined the Dolphins in 1999 in the team's college scouting department. During that time, he performed a myriad of functions, including college scouting and draft preparation.

Prior to his tenure with the Dolphins, Engroff worked in football operations for the Orange Bowl Committee from 1998-99. He also worked for the Prep Recruiting Network from 1997-98, where he scouted high school football players.

A native of Topeka, Kansas, Engroff received his undergraduate degree from Kansas State in 1997. He went on to earn his master's degree in sports administration from Lynn University in Boca Raton, Florida, in 2000.

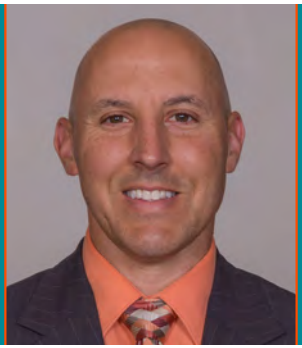

Engroff was a recipient of the 2024 AIQ Game Changer Award, which honors individuals in professional coaching or personnel management for their innovative spirit, strategic insights and significant contributions to the industry.

Engroff and his family were named distinguished recipients of the 2020 Luke Award by the St. Luke's Health Foundation in Boise, Idaho, for their work in establishing AJ's Angels Pediatric Cancer Foundation in memory of his son, AJ, and his battle with a pediatric brain tumor.

Engroff resides in Boise, with his three sons, Austin, Brody and Beau.

DOLPHINS REGULAR SEASON WIN STREAKS AMONG NFL BEST

Since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger, the Dolphins and New England Patriots are the only teams to have two regular season winning streaks of 16 or more games. Miami won 16 consecutive games from 1971-73 (1 in 1971, 14 in 1972, 1 in 1973) and another 16-game streak from 1983-84 (5 in 1983, 11 in 1984). New England had a 21-game streak from 2006-08 (3 in 2006, 16 in 2007, 2 in 2008) and an 18-game streak from 2003-04 (12 in 2003, 6 in 2004). Teams that had one streak of 16 or more consecutive wins since 1970 include Indianapolis' NFL-record 23 consecutive regular season wins from 2008-09 (9 in 2008, 14 in 2009), Carolina's 18-game streak from 2014-15 (4 in 2014 and 14 in 2015) and Pittsburgh's 16-game streak from 2004-05 (14 in 2004, 2 in 2005).

COLLEGE: ST. THOMAS
DOLPHINS: 32ND SEASON

Anthony Hunt joined the Miami Dolphins in 1994 and was promoted to co-director of player personnel in 2019. In this position, Hunt plays a key role in the team's overall roster construction and team-building process.

Hunt works closely with General Manager Chris Grier to continually upgrade the roster through free agent acquisitions, trades, waiver claims and practice squad signings. He assists Head Coach Mike McDaniel and the coaching staff with their weekly preparation for upcoming opponents by providing advance scouting reports during the season.

Hunt is responsible for overseeing the team's pro scouting efforts, which include player evaluations, managing depth charts, organizing tryouts and monitoring transactions around the NFL as well as other professional leagues. Hunt collaborates with football administration and analytics to assess the marketplace and establish contract values heading into the free agency period. He helps the college scouting department with evaluating prospects, attending pro days and identifying team needs leading up to the annual draft.

Hunt previously served six seasons as director of pro personnel from 2013-18. He was a national scout for the Dolphins and oversaw the eastern half of the United States from 2009-12. Hunt covered the Southeast, Southwest, Northeast and parts of the Midwest as a regional scout from 2003-08. He was the club's BLESTO representative in his first few seasons as a scout from 2000-02. Hunt was a scouting assistant from 1996-99 after beginning his career as a personnel intern from 1994-95.

During Hunt's tenure with the Miami Dolphins, he has had the privilege of working with legendary coaches and executives Don Shula, Bill Parcells, Jimmy Johnson and Nick Saban.

A Miami native, Hunt attended Archbishop Curley-Notre Dame High School and graduated from St. Thomas University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in sports administration. He and his wife, Suzy, have two sons, Keaton and Marshall, and a daughter, Jolie.

MATT WINSTON

Matt Winston joined the Miami Dolphins in 2008 and was promoted to director of college scouting in 2022. In this role, he leads the team's college scouting and draft process.

Winston has been promoted several times in his Dolphins tenure. He spent three seasons (2019-21) as the assistant director of college scouting. Winston also spent three seasons as a national scout (2016-18). He was a college scout for five seasons (2011-15), focusing on the Southwest region of the country. From 2009-10, Winston served as a player personnel assistant where he had responsibilities in both the pro and college scouting departments. He began his tenure with the Dolphins as a scouting assistant in 2008.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Winston was the director of football operations at Florida International University in 2007 and worked as a college scouting intern for the Houston Texans in 2006.

Winston completed his bachelor's degree at Texas A&M in economics and earned his MBA from Florida Atlantic University.

A native of Midland, Texas, Winston resides in Frisco, Texas, with his wife and three children.

SENIOR PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE COLLEGE: KENTUCKY

CHAMPIONSHIP 2013

Anthony "Champ" Kelly joined the Miami Dolphins in 2025 as senior personnel executive. The 2025 season marks his 19th in the NFL. In his role, he assists General Manager Chris Grier and Assistant General Manager Marvin Allen on scouting pro and college players across the country.

Prior to the Dolphins, Kelly served as assistant general manager for the Las Vegas Raiders for three years (2022-24), including as interim general manager during the 2023 season.

Kelly joined the Raiders after seven seasons with the Chicago Bears (2015-21). He served as assistant director of player personnel from 2017-21 after spending the prior two seasons as director of pro scouting. During his time with the Bears, Chicago totaled 21 Pro Bowl selections. Kelly helped build a 2018 Bears team that won the NFC North division title for the first time since 2010 and earned eight Pro Bowl selections, which tied for the third most in franchise history.

Kelly began his NFL career in Denver, where he served eight seasons (2007-14) in the Broncos personnel department. He joined the team as a college scout in 2007, was promoted to assistant coordinator of pro and college scouting in 2008, then promoted again to assistant director of pro personnel in 2010. As assistant director of pro personnel, Kelly helped the Broncos reach the postseason in each of his last four seasons with the club (2011-14), winning the AFC Championship game in 2013 and advancing to Super Bowl XLVIII.

Before entering the NFL, Kelly was certified by the NFLPA as a contract advisor. He also served as general manager and wide receivers coach of the Lexington Horsemen of United Indoor Football (UIF) during their 2007 campaign, helping lead the Horsemen to United Bowl III.

A former wide receiver and defensive back at the University of Kentucky (1998-2001), Kelly continued his playing career with the Horsemen from 2003-06 as a defensive standout and was two-time first-team UIF All-Star. He also served as Lexington Christian Academy's offensive coordinator in 2002 and continued that role through his playing career with the Horsemen.

A native of Campbellton, Fla., Kelly graduated with a bachelor's degree in computer science from the University of Kentucky in 2001 and earned a master's degree in business administration in 2003. In addition to his football career, Kelly also worked for IBM in Lexington, Ky., from May 2002 through July 2005 as a software/quality engineer.

Kelly was a member of the 2001 Southeastern Conference "Good Works Team" and earned a postgraduate scholarship for his community work. During his final season with the Horsemen, Kelly received the UIF Man of the Year Award, recognizing his leadership on the field and in the community.

Kelly and his wife, Stephanie, have three daughters, Claire Alaina, Chloe Grace and Caroline Elise. The couple founded Heart Power in 2010, a non-profit corporation that has hosted youth programs in Alabama, Colorado, Florida, Illinois, Kentucky and Las Vegas.

DOLPHINS NO. 1 OVERALL DRAFT PICKS

The Dolphins have had five former No. 1 overall picks play for the team, but only one was selected by the Dolphins. Former No. 1 picks to play for the Dolphins include wide receiver Irving Fryar (1984 by New England), defensive tackles Steve Emtman (1992 by Indianapolis), Dan Wilkinson (1994 by Cincinnati), defensive end Mario Williams (2006 by Houston) and tackle Jake Long (2008 by Miami). This does not include running back Jim Grabowski (drafted in the 1966 AFL Draft by Miami), but signed instead with the NFL's Green Bay Packers or quarterback Bernie Kosar, who was selected as the first overall pick in the 1985 supplemental draft by the Cleveland Browns before joining the Dolphins later in his career.

1 T.D.

COLLEGE: ATLANTIS '97
NFL: 28TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: 29TH SEASON

T.D., the official mascot of the Miami Dolphins, has been a fixture at Dolphins games since the mascot's introduction at the Miami Dolphins' Draft Party on April 19, 1997. T.D.'s charming personality, outstanding sense of humor and ability to relate to young and old alike make him a "Fin"-tastic ambassador for the Dolphins.

T.D. performs at every Dolphins home game engaging with fans and energizing the crowd. T.D. can also be found throughout South Florida at select Miami Dolphins community events.

An 11-time Pro Bowl mascot, T.D. has performed at the Chinese New Year's Day Parade in Hong Kong, was the first mascot to participate in the Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio, and has traveled overseas to meet American troops abroad on five military tours.

When T.D. originally debuted, he had not yet been named. The Dolphins' "Name the Mascot Contest" drew more than 13,000 entries from all 50 states and more than 22 countries. Sara Fernandez of Miami was the first to submit the name "T.D." She won two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII when her submission was selected at the annual Dolphins Awards Banquet on June 4, 1997.

Prior to T.D., the club had "Dolfan Denny" patrol the sidelines on gamedays.

FLIPPER

From 1966-68, a live dolphin was situated in a water tank in the open (east) end of the Orange Bowl. He would jump in the tank to celebrate touchdowns and field goals. Flipper was removed from the Orange Bowl after 1968.

In the 1994 feature film, "Ace Ventura", starring Jim Carrey, the plot involved Snowflake, a fictional live dolphin who did tricks after the Dolphins scored a touchdown and was the basis of the film after he was kidnapped as part of a revenge plot against Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino.

MIAMI DOLPHINS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Miami Dolphins are committed to leveraging the power of sports and entertainment to inspire a healthier, more educated and united South Florida community. Together our players, cheerleaders, alumni, staff and partners are dedicated to being difference-makers in our community.

DOLPHINS CANCER CHALLENGE

Founded in 2010 as the signature health initiative of the Miami Dolphins, the Dolphins Cancer Challenge (DCC) has become the largest fundraiser in the NFL with nearly $100 million raised in support of lifesaving research at Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center. The DCC is the Dolphins' year-round initiative in support of those impacted by cancer. It culminates in an annual fundraiser that features cycling, run and walk events. Returning to the Miami International Autodrome (MIA) facilities, DCC XVI is scheduled for Saturday, February 28, 2026.
Visit www.dolphinscancerchallenge.com to learn more.

FOOTBALL UNITES™

The Miami Dolphins Football UNITES™ program strives to connect the intersections of the community to create a more inclusive South Florida. Founded by the team's late Senior Vice President of Communications and Community Affairs, Jason Jenkins, Football UNITES™ works with a network of community partners and allies to improve relationships, foster understanding and experience culture to ignite positive change. Jenkins, who passed away unexpectedly in 2022, was known for his deep commitment to the South Florida community and his community programming served as a model for the NFL. In honor of his legacy, the Dolphins host the Football UNITES™ Jason Jenkins Days of Service annually in October, where players, executives, staff and corporate partners, alongside his wife and family, take part in community service projects across South Florida to continue the mission he championed.

JUNIOR DOLPHINS

The Junior Dolphins program is part of the organization's year-round initiative to teach the game of football and support youth athletes and coaches in the South Florida community and designated international markets. The Junior Dolphins strive to grow the game in a safe and fun environment with a focus on character development, skill building, and opportunities to play. As stewards of the game, the Junior Dolphins are also committed to growing participation in girls flag football. Through strong community partnerships and strategic resource distribution, the Junior Dolphins help grow the game while building the next generation of Dolphins fans.

SALUTE TO SERVICE

The Miami Dolphins are committed to supporting our nation's veterans, active-duty service members and their families. Through community collaborations and resource donations, the Miami Dolphins aid veterans and military families, while demonstrating a deep appreciation for their service and sacrifice.

MIAMI DOLPHINS FOUNDATION

The Miami Dolphins Foundation is dedicated to promoting education and fostering unity throughout South Florida. Through year-round fundraising and strectegic partnerships, the foundation raises more than $1 million annually to support local organizations. These grants are awarded to groups that share the foundation's mission to create lasting community impact, empower local leaders and support long-term regional growth.

NAT MOORE ENDOWMENT

The Nat Moore Endowment Fund provides youth in Miami-Dade, Broward, Palm Beach and Monroe counties with financial resources to pursue post-secondary education and training that enables employment readiness. In its eighth year under the Miami Dolphins Foundation, both the scholarship and vocational grant programs are designed to bridge the gap between receiving financial assistance and obtaining a degree or vocational diploma. Since its inception, the fund has provided more than 200 students with scholarships and vocational grants in excess of $2.5 million.

COMMUNITY RESTAURANT PROGRAM presented by Amazon

The Miami Dolphins Community Restaurant Program presented by Amazon provides business development, networking, and exposure for local businesses in Miami Gardens and the surrounding community – all while providing fans an array of foods that authentically reflect the culture of Miami. Now in its fifth year with more than 25 participating restaurants, this initiative provides restaurant owners a unique opportunity to showcase their business at a variety of events at Hard Rock Stadium and throughout South Florida.

HARD ROCK STADIUM

347 Don Shula Drive, Miami Gardens, FL 33056 • (305) 943-8000

HARD ROCK STADIUM

Hard Rock Stadium is a global entertainment destination that serves as home to the Miami Dolphins, the Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix, the Miami Open presented by Itaú, University of Miami college football, the Capital One Orange Bowl game, Rolling Loud, Jazz in the Gardens, major concerts, boxing and international soccer. The venue and its amenities make it a prime host of world-class events including six Super Bowls, five BCS/CFP National Championship Games, two World Series, the FIFA Club World Cup 2025™ and the FIFA World Cup 2026™.

The entire multi-purpose, open-air complex is privately financed. It has undergone several renovations in its 39-year history, the largest of which took place from 2015-17 and added a canopy to the structure. Since 2014, Dolphins Chairman of the Board & Managing General Partner Stephen Ross has invested more than $1 billion into the venue and its surrounding property, including the Dolphins' Baptist Health Training Complex, facilities for the Miami Open presented by Itaú tennis tournament and the Miami International Autodrome, which hosts the Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix, Precision Drive Club and other elite motorsports events.

Phase I of the massive modernization project was completed for the 2015 season and updated every seat in the stadium, rebuilt the concourses on the 100 and 300 levels, moved seats 25 feet closer to the field on the north and south sidelines, introduced five new premium spaces and offered guests improved food, enhanced concourses and 16 new restroom facilities throughout the facility. For the 2016 season, Hard Rock Stadium installed a state-of-the-art canopy that keeps as many as 92% of the spectators in the shade and four high-definition video boards. In 2017, the stadium debuted remodeled, modernized suites throughout the venue offering a more intimate club space on the 200 level with improved amenities and fare.

Hard Rock Stadium hosted its first football game in August 1987 and its first regular season Major League Baseball game in April 1993. As a result of the privately-financed modernization and continued development of the property, the venue is now a gathering place for the greatest talent and sports and entertainment events in the world.

HISTORY

Now in its 39th year of operation, Hard Rock Stadium was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds, costing $115 million when it was completed in 1987. The late Dolphins Chairman of the Board & Managing General Partner Joe Robbie led the financing campaign to build "Joe Robbie Stadium." The stadium revolutionized the economics of professional sports when it opened that year. Inclusion of a club level, along with executive suites, helped to finance the construction of the stadium. Season ticket members committed to long-term agreements and in return they received first-class amenities in a state-of-the-art facility.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, then Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase 50% of Joe Robbie Stadium and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to South Florida. That effort was rewarded in July 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise. On Jan. 24, 1994, Huizenga acquired the remaining 50% the stadium to give him 100% controlling interest.

On Aug. 26, 1996, Pro Player, the sports apparel division of Fruit of the Loom, sponsored the renaming of Joe Robbie Stadium as Pro Player Stadium. It became the first sports marketing and product company to entitle a stadium or arena.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium was held on Aug. 16, 1987, when the Miami Dolphins met the Chicago Bears in a preseason battle. The game also marked the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphins franchise. The stadium hosted the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII, on Jan. 22, 1989. It marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a 10-year absence. Subsequent Super Bowls include Super Bowl XXIX (Jan. 29, 1995), Super Bowl XXIII (Jan. 31, 1999), Super Bowl XLI (Feb. 4, 2007) and Super Bowl XLIV (Feb. 1, 2010). Hard Rock Stadium had the honor of hosting South Florida's record 11th Super Bowl in 2020, the 100th anniversary of the NFL.

Major League Baseball officially began in South Florida in the spring of 1993 as the Florida Marlins opened their inaugural campaign as a National League team. On April 5, 1993, the "new" look of Joe Robbie Stadium as a baseball facility was unveiled to the public for the first time as the Florida Marlins earned a 6-3 win over the Los Angeles Dodgers. On Sept. 28, 2011, the Marlins played their final game at the stadium. A crowd of 34,615 watched as the Marlins dropped a 3-1 decision to the Washington Nationals. In all, the Marlins played 1,504 games in the stadium and posted a record of 781-723.

In 1997, the stadium hosted four World Series games between the Marlins and Cleveland, including Game 1 on Oct. 18, 1997, the first World Series game ever played at the stadium, and Game 7 on Oct. 26, 1997, which the Marlins won, 3-2 in 11 innings, to capture their first World Championship.

Before the arrival of the Marlins, the stadium had played host to 13 spring training games that attracted 370,000 fans and paved the way for baseball in South Florida.

The stadium was renamed Dolphins Stadium in January 2005, as part of a major renovation initiated by Huizenga. In April 2006, two high-definition video boards, the largest and second largest in professional sports at that time, were unveiled. A new fascia LED ribbon-board was installed in July 2006.

In 2007, Hard Rock Stadium underwent $250 million in improvements and innovations, adding 360,000 square feet of programmable space, new casual seating and gathering areas throughout the stadium, an all-new club level, refurbished luxury suites, new team merchandise store and other amenities. In 2010, corporate offices were built on the east side of Hard Rock Stadium in order to consolidate the business offices of the Miami Dolphins. "A Perfect Moment In Time" statue honoring Don Shula and the team's undefeated season in 1972 was unveiled and proudly adorns the entrance of the offices.

In 2008, Huizenga sold 50% of the team, stadium and surrounding developable land to Stephen M. Ross, Founder and Chairman of Related Companies. Huizenga remained the managing general partner of the franchise until he sold another 45% of the team and stadium to Ross in January 2009. Ross became managing general partner with a 95% stake of the Dolphins and the stadium while Huizenga retained a 5% share of both and remained a 50% partner in the land.

In one of his first moves to improve the fan experience at the stadium, in May 2009, Ross and celebrated singer songwriter Jimmy Buffett announced Dolphin Stadium would be renamed Land Shark Stadium. The unique branding brought Buffett's Margaritaville and Land Shark themes to enhance the game-day experience. To mark the announcement, Buffett performed three songs and unveiled the new lyrics to his iconic song "FINS," written expressly for the team.

On Jan. 20, 2010, the stadium's name was changed to Sun Life Stadium as the international financial services organization made Miami and South Florida a major part of a multi-city philanthropic endeavor through a comprehensive marketing partnership with the Miami Dolphins and the Miami Dolphins Foundation.

In 2015, Hard Rock Stadium began a multi-phase modernization that introduced all-new seating, rebuilt the 100 and 300-level concourses – moving sideline seats 25 feet closer to the field – added five premium spaces, upgraded concessions and 16 new restrooms. On Aug. 17, 2016, the Dolphins and Hard Rock International announced an 18-year agreement to name the newly renovated venue Hard Rock Stadium.

The final phase of the stadium renovation was completed in 2017, unveiling fully modernized suites and a reimagined 200-level club space design that offers guests a more intimate experience with enhanced amenities and elevated dining options.

On Dec. 20, 2017, Hard Rock Stadium and IMG announced a partnership that would relocate the Miami Open presented by Itaú to Hard Rock Stadium in 2019. The move to Hard Rock Stadium allowed the Miami Open the freedom and flexibility to grow and innovate the event with improved infrastructure, upgraded amenities, expanded space and parking. Construction of the new tennis campus began at the conclusion of the football season in the winter of 2018 and was completed ahead of the 2019 tournament. To date, the campus includes 27 competition and practice courts, a 5,000-seat Grand Stand court, a tennis oasis with the largest video screen of any tennis event as well as a temporary Center Court which seats 14,000 inside Hard Rock Stadium. In the six years of the Miami Open at Hard Rock Stadium, the tournament has grown to record attendance, crossing the 400,000 mark for the first time in 2025.

On April 4, 2021, Formula 1®, South Florida Motorsports and Hard Rock Stadium announced the addition of the Miami Grand Prix to the 2022 FIA Formula One World Championship under a 10-year deal at Hard Rock Stadium. Construction of The Miami International Autodrome came to completion in May 2022 resulting in a brand-new 3.36-mile track surrounding Hard Rock Stadium that includes 19 corners, three straights and an estimated top speed of 320km/h. Hard Rock Stadium hosted its first Miami Grand Prix on May 6 – 8, 2022. In a move to build on the success of the inaugural event and enhance the fan experience, the new permanent 190,000 square foot Paddock Club building was built above the existing team pit garages on the north side of the stadium. The space accommodates over 6,000 guests in premium suites and a luxury rooftop club that overlooks the pitlane and start/finish straight. The Paddock Club and team garages later transform into unique hospitality experiences for all Dolphins home games throughout football season.

On June 16, 2022, FIFA announced that the venue would play host to seven FIFA World Cup 2026™ matches. As one of 16 U.S. cities selected, Miami will be the setting for four group stage games, a Round of 32 match, a quarterfinal and the bronze final. This marks the first time in the tournament's history that World Cup matches will take place in Miami. The tournament is set to begin on June 11, 2026, and will be the first World Cup held across three countries: the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

On Sept. 26, 2024, South Florida Motorsports announced four new circuit layouts at the Miami International Autodrome at Hard Rock Stadium, enhancing the venue's ability to support year-round motorsports activity. Later that year, the organization launched its own drive club called Precision Drive Club, offering members exclusive access to the new configurations and the opportunity to drive their own vehicles with the same quality and prestige associated with Formula 1®. Built entirely on private property, the new layouts also support corporate and private events, reinforcing the venue's role as a dynamic, world-class entertainment destination.

On May 2, 2025, during the Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix, Formula 1® announced a 10-year extension that will keep the race on the calendar through 2041. At the time of the announcement, this made the Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix the longest contracted race in F1 history and highlighted both the event's success and the sport's continued growth in the U.S.

LOCATION

Hard Rock Stadium is located at 347 Don Shula Drive in Miami Gardens, only one mile south of the Miami-Dade Broward County Line. The 265-acre site stands midway between downtown Miami (16 miles) and downtown Fort Lauderdale (18 miles).

WORLD-CLASS EVENTS

Hard Rock Stadium displays its versatility every year by hosting a wide variety of events. Along with Miami Dolphins football, Hard Rock Stadium is home to the Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix, the Miami Open presented by Itaú, University of Miami college football, the Capital One Orange Bowl game, Rolling Loud, Jazz in the Gardens, major concerts, boxing and international soccer matches. The stadium has hosted six Super Bowls (XXIII, XXIX, XXXIII, XLI, XLIV and LIV), the 2010 NFL Pro Bowl, four BCS National Championship Games (2001, 2005, 2009 and 2013) one College Football Playoff National Championship game (2021), the CONMEBOL Copa America 2024™ and the FIFA Club World Cup 2025™. The venue will also play host to the 2026 College Football Playoff National Championship Game and seven matches for the FIFA World Cup 2026™, including the Bronze Final match.

Hard Rock Stadium's largest football attendance came when Alabama defeated Notre Dame in the 2013 BCS National Championship game in front of a record crowd of 81,120. Hard Rock Stadium had the distinction of being the first venue to host the Pro Bowl before the Super Bowl was played, and the first to host the Pro Bowl on the U.S. mainland in 30 years. Major League Baseball's premier event, the World Series, was played at the stadium in 1997 and 2003. The building is recognized throughout the industry as one of the busiest multi-purpose facilities in the world due in large part to Hard Rock Stadium's expertise in hosting big events.

Hard Rock Stadium has hosted numerous world-class international soccer matches, including the International Champions Cup Finals in 2013 and 2014. The facility is the first to host El Clásico Miami, a Relevent Sports soccer match between Real Madrid CF and FC Barcelona hosted for the first time in North America on July 29, 2017. The stadium has hosted the sport's most recognizable clubs including Paris Saint-Germain, Juventus, Manchester United, Barcelona, Inter Miami, Bayern Munich, Chelsea and AC Milan. National teams matches have included international powerhouses Argentina, Brazil, Colombia, Croatia, Ecuador, England, Honduras, Peru, Spain, Venezuela and the USA. The Brazil vs. Colombia match on Sept. 5, 2014, established the highest attendance record (73,429) for a soccer match held in the state of Florida. In 2022, Hard Rock Stadium was named one of 16 stadiums across three North American countries – the United States, Mexico, and Canada to host matches for the FIFA World Cup 2026 including four group stage matches, one round of 32 match, a quarter finals match and the Bronze Final. The world-class venue hosted the CONMEBOL Copa América 2024™, featuring two group stage matches and the tournament final. The stadium hosted eight matches during the FIFA Club World Cup in the summer of 2025, including the tournament's inaugural game between Inter Miami CF and Al Ahly FC, and will host seven matches of the FIFA World Cup 2026™.

Hard Rock Stadium has also hosted the Florida high school class 3A, 4A, 5A and 6A state championship football games in 2005, 2006 and 2007, Monster Jam, lacrosse competitions as well as various festivals and trade shows.

Hard Rock Stadium hosted its inaugural tournament of the 35th edition of the Miami Open presented by Itaú on March 18 – 31, 2019. The 2019 Miami Open set numerous attendance records as 15 of its 24 sessions had higher attendance than the previous records. Overall, the tournament's two-week attendance was 388,734, breaking the old record of 326,131 set in 2012. It also marked the 11th consecutive year the tournament recorded more than 300,000 in total attendance. The tournament has continued its growth each year at Hard Rock Stadium, turning in record attendance again in 2022, 2023, 2024 and 2025. In its 40th edition, the 2025 Miami Open presented by Itaú broke its tournament attendance record with more than 405,000 in total attendance at Hard Rock Stadium and included special celebrations, including honoring tournament founder Butch Buchholz inaugural champions Tim Mayotte and Martina Navratilova on opening day.

The inaugural Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix made its debut May 6 – 8, 2022, boasting the largest attendance for a Hard Rock Stadium event with a record-breaking 242,955 attendees. Located on a brand-new circuit within the complex of Hard Rock Stadium, The Miami International Autodrome in Miami Gardens became the 11th location Formula 1® has raced in the United States since the Championship began in 1950. In collaboration with Formula 1® and South Florida Motorsports, the event works to provide an additional tourist boost and economic impact to local businesses, students and residents of the Miami Gardens community. In its fourth year, the Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix welcomed a sold out crowd of more than 275,000 attendees throughout race weekend from May 2 – May 4, 2025. Hard Rock Stadium and the Miami International Autodrome also hosted Ferrari Racing Days and Formula E: EVO Sessions on the circuit in 2025.

Hard Rock Stadium introduced boxing to its venue for the first time on Feb. 27, 2021, as Saúl 'Canelo' Álvarez defended his WBC, WBA Super and Ring Magazine World Super-Middleweight titles against Avni Yidirim. This event was followed by an exhibition between the 2020 International Boxing Hall of Fame inductee Floyd 'Money' Mayweather and social media sensation Logan 'The Maverick' Paul headlining a SHOWTIME PPV event on June 6, 2021.

Numerous artists have also performed concerts at Hard Rock Stadium, featuring entertainers such as Aventura, Bad Bunny, Black Eyed Peas, Chicago, Coldplay, the Eagles with Jimmy Buffett, Elton John/Billy Joel, Genesis, Gloria Estefan, Guns & Roses, Green Day, Hall & Oates, Jay Z and Beyoncé, Fall Out Boy, Joan Jett and The Blackhearts, Lady Gaga, Madonna, Metallica, Morgan Wallen, Mötley Crüe, New Kids on the Block, NSYNC, Paul McCartney, Pink Floyd, Poison, Post Malone, The Police, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Rod Stewart, the Rolling Stones, Shakira, Taylor Swift, the Three Tenors, The Weeknd, Weezer, World Tour, U2 and The Who. U2's 360 Tour broke the record for highest concert attendance in the stadium's history when a crowd of 75,529 attended the show on June 29, 2011. Hard Rock Stadium broke its attendance record for a music event with Rolling Loud Miami 2021 in which a daily crowd of 75,000 attended the three-day event. Taylor Swift returned to Hard Rock Stadium for The Eras Tour from October 18–20, 2024, setting a new attendance record by welcoming more than 180,000 fans across three sold-out nights.

PLAYING SURFACE

Hard Rock Stadium is equipped with Bermuda 419 grass, which is grown at the South Florida Sod Farm in Loxahatchee, Florida, owned by Stephen Ross. This sod is also used at the Baptist Health Training Complex where the Dolphins practice. The Miami Dolphins are the only known professional sports team in the United States to control the growth, transportation and installation of their own grass. All of the sod used by the Dolphins and Hard Rock Stadium goes through a six-month enhancement process of being harvested and installed on plastic to thicken the sod and toughen the turf to meet the standards of the NFL. Hard Rock Stadium also utilizes eight large oscillating fans to maintain air circulation, reduce disease pressure and assist in drying paint on the field. The mission is to provide the best playing surface in the NFL and for all international events.

SUSTAINABILITY

Throughout its history, Hard Rock Stadium has led the way in innovation, including in efforts towards becoming a more sustainable venue. In 2019, the venue committed to eliminate 95.4% of fan facing single-use plastics in Hard Rock Stadium's food and beverage operation. The venue also utilizes a food recycling programming across its events. In 2024, Hard Rock Stadium became one of six NFL stadiums to receive the LEED Gold v4.1 O+M certification for the overall sustainability of both Hard Rock Stadium and the Miami International Autodrome Paddock Club building, and the first US venue to receive the prestigious FIA Three-Star Environmental Accreditation rating, which is the highest rating achievable for demonstrating best practice in environmental management for Formula 1 venues.

SEATING PRODUCTS

THE 72 CLUB PRESENTED BY BROXEL

The 623 seats in the 72 Club presented by Broxel take the premium seating experience to another level. Located near midfield on the south side of the stadium, it's the most luxurious seating experience in all of South Florida sports and entertainment featuring all-inclusive food, beer, wine, liquor and parking. The seats are also double-padded and have 11 inches more legroom. At any point in-game, guests are able to enjoy sideline field views and a private drink rail, located directly behind the Dolphins sideline, before walking to the private, climate-controlled 72 Club presented by Broxel. The space was designed by the Rockwell Group.

LIVING ROOM BOXES

Hard Rock Stadium has created private four- and six-person boxes known as Living Room Boxes. Located on the 35-yard line on both sides of the 72 Club Seats, the Living Room Boxes feature in-seat wait service and all-inclusive food, beer, wine, liquor and parking. Living Room Boxes are the largest, most comfortable seats in the stadium. These boxes give guests the ability to watch replays and highlights on their own private screens and also provide access to the field-level drink rail and climate-controlled 72 Club presented by Broxel.

BUD LIGHT TOUCHDOWN CLUB & GALLAGHER CLUB

Hard Rock Stadium has some of the closest seats to on-field action in their Field Club Boxes. Located behind each endzone at field level, they also provide access to a private club space. Each space is climate controlled and features all-inclusive food, beer, wine and liquor. These boxes provide the same large seats as the Living Room Boxes and includes premium parking and express lane access.

LEXUS SIDELINE CLUB

The Lexus Sideline Club is a club located between the 30-yard lines on the north side that offers wider, padded seats for fans and an air-conditioned club to enjoy during pre-game and throughout the game. The club was designed by the Rockwell Group.

BODEGA LOUNGE

A 3,300-square-foot private club located in the east end zone on the Empower Club & Suite Level, the Bodega Lounge is a 144-seat open-air, shared suite experience. It features an all-you-can-eat game day buffet catered by popular Miami eatery Bodega, open bar beverages (beer, wine, soda and a frozen margarita special) and televisions featuring all the day's NFL action. Guests can also enjoy live DJ entertainment on every gameday, adding to the vibrant, high-energy atmosphere.

CORNER TERRACES

The Corner Terraces provide a unique social experience where guests can watch the game from a high-top table and four comfortable swivel chairs. Corner Terraces provide guests the enjoyment of sitting with family or friends without being confined to a row of seats. They also provide access to the climate-controlled club level.

THE NINE

The NINE is the ultimate luxury hospitality experience at Hard Rock Stadium. Designed as nine 20-person open-air suites between the 30-yard lines, they are connected to a private club designed by the Rockwell Group, presenting guests with all-inclusive food, beer, wine and liquor. These suites also include parking, a private entrance and a dedicated game day concierge for a truly unforgettable experience.

EXECUTIVE SUITES

Located on the Empower Club & Suite Level, Hard Rock Stadium's 147 suites offer guests the ultimate setting of luxury and comfort to enjoy any event. Suites vary in size and can seat 10 to 50 guests offering air conditioning with hospital-grade air filters, multi-feed sound systems, mobile device food ordering, touchscreen television remotes, refrigerators and ice-makers. Suite attendants provide personal service in each suite during the games catered by Sodexo Live! with a wide variety of food and beverage options.

THEATER BOXES

Hard Rock Stadium features Theater Boxes on the Empower Club & Suite Level. These 4 to 6-person individual boxes are located in a shared suite environment with inclusive food and beverages including beer, wine, liquor and non-alcoholic drinks as well as parking. This seating product is a perfect option for families or businesses who may not have a need for a full suite but want to enjoy the amenities of the suite experience.

LOGE BOXES

The Loge Boxes are located on the Empower Club & Suite Level in the corner of the end zone and include four suite-style seats and two barstool seats in a shared suite environment. They offer food and beverages including beer, wine and non-alcoholic drinks as well as parking.

WEST END ZONE CLUB

The 10,000-square-foot West End Zone Club at Hard Rock Stadium brings the energy and style of a South Beach nightclub. The space features private cabanas, two fully stocked bars, VIP tables, a dance floor and a live DJ booth, creating a vibrant atmosphere for fans. Overlooking the west end zone, it offers nonstop entertainment before, during and after the game.

DINING

Hard Rock Stadium, together with its hospitality provider Sodexo Live!, share a commitment to bring fresh, diverse flavor to fans across all events. An emphasis is placed on innovative, local cuisine and curating an unparalleled food and beverage experience throughout the facility for all fans. In an effort to enhance the fan experience, eight cashierless concession stands have been introduced at strategic locations in the stadium's busiest areas, offering fans a faster, more seamless way to return to the action.

KIA CONNECTOR

Hard Rock Stadium features the KIA Connector, the first pulse gondola at any stadium in North America, giving fans a bird's-eye view of the stadium and surrounding areas including the downtown Miami skyline. The attraction includes 12 cabins, each holding six people, with glass floors, sustainable wood benches, cup holders and solar powered LED lights. The open-air cabin ride extends 1,625 feet and a roundtrip lasts approximately 20 minutes.

THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl.

In 21 years at the venue, the Dolphins posted a 110-39-3 (.738) regular-season record. In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-42-3 (.736) mark in all games played there.

Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March 1976, so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed.

The Orange Bowl was the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic, Olympic soccer matches and championship boxing matches.

The 2007 season was the final one for the Orange Bowl. The University of Miami, who called the Orange Bowl home from 1937-2007, played its final game there on Nov. 10, 2007, when it dropped a 48-0 decision to the University of Virginia. The final collegiate game at the Orange Bowl occurred on Dec. 1, 2007 when Florida International defeated North Texas, 38-19. The final organized game took place on January 4, 2008 in "The O-D All-American Bowl," a high school all-star game. A "Farewell To The Orange Bowl" celebration was held on Jan. 26, 2008. Approximately 15,000 people watched a team of ex-Miami Hurricanes beat a team of ex-Dolphins, 65-51, in a flag-football exhibition. Demolition began in March of 2008 and was completed in May.

Defensive tackle Calais Campbell who played at the University of Miami and the Miami Dolphins in 2024 became the last Dolphins player to have played at the Orange Bowl before its demolition.

BAPTIST HEALTH TRAINING COMPLEX

On July 20, 2021, the Miami Dolphins officially cut the ribbon at their new facility at the Baptist Health Training Complex in Miami Gardens, Florida. Located across the street from Hard Rock Stadium, the $135 million complex features a 125,000 square-foot training facility and 92,200 square-foot indoor field, totaling 227,200 square-feet of indoor space and two grass practice fields. In 2023, the Miami Dolphins in partnership with Baptist Health unveiled the new Baptist Health Orthopedic Complex as the final installation to the Baptist Health Training Complex. The two-story, 17,000 square foot facility provides the Miami Gardens community and Miami Dolphins players and coaches with first-in-class medical services including Orthopedics, Sports Medicine and Physical Therapy services.

The Baptist Health Training Complex houses a state-of-the-art hydrotherapy area, fuel bar, dedicated recovery area including cryotherapy and isolation tanks, an athletic training room with expansive rehabilitation space, meeting rooms with direct access to the fields, a two-story weight room with a cardio deck, locker rooms, equipment space, dining hall, auditorium, an outdoor practice area with two full natural grass fields, full indoor practice facility, a lobby with a grand staircase, office area, press area, fan amenities and a broadcast area.

The Baptist Health Training Complex not only houses the Dolphins' football operation personnel, but it also serves as the site of the club's preseason training camp and all offseason conditioning programs.

Baptist Health is the official partner of the training complex. The partnership is an extension of a decades-long relationship with the Miami Dolphins, with the entity serving as the Official Sports Medicine Provider as well as the Official Wellness Provider of the Miami Dolphins. Baptist Health also is a proud partner of the Miami Dolphins Foundation working together on a series of initiatives around the health and safety of South Florida students, coaches and parents to grow youth football participation in South Florida.

Work began on the complex in August 2019 by Moss Construction with collaboration from architects ROSSETTI and Rockwell Group.

The complex brings the Dolphins back to Miami-Dade County after their training facility was located in Davie from 1993 until 2021. From 1970 until 1993, the Dolphins held a long-time base at St. Thomas University (formerly Biscayne College) in Miami Gardens.

DOLPHINS HOLD NFL RECORD FOR CONSECUTIVE HOME WINS

The Dolphins own the NFL record for consecutive home games won. Over a four-year stretch from 1971-74, the team compiled 27 straight regular season wins at the Orange Bowl. The streak began in the second home game of 1971, a 41-3 decision over New England on October 17, and ended in the 1975 season-opener, a 31-21 loss to Oakland on September 22. The most recent team to threaten this mark was the Green Bay Packers, who won 25 consecutive regular season contests at Lambeau Field between 1995-98 before dropping a 37-24 decision to Minnesota on October 5, 1998. The Denver Broncos won 24 straight home games from 1996-98.

A PERFECT MOMENT IN TIME

On January 31, 2010, prior to kickoff of the Pro Bowl game played at Hard Rock Stadium, the Miami Dolphins unveiled the "Perfect Moment In Time" statue in honor of Hall of Fame Coach Don Shula. The 10-foot tall bronze sculpture featured Shula riding on the shoulders of Hall-of-Fame linebacker Nick Buoniconti and reserve offensive lineman Al Jenkins after winning Super Bowl VII to complete the Perfect Season. It was unveiled in front of the team's corporate headquarters at the East Gate of the stadium. The event marked the return of the Dolphins front office to Miami-Dade County after 16 years in Broward County. Additionally on that day, the stadium's new address was announced as 347 Don Shula Drive in honor of the head coach's career victory total.

MOUNTAINEER SHOT

Miami followed up "The Miami Miracle" in 2018 with "Mountaineer Shot" in 2019, another play that won the Bridgestone Performance NFL Play of the Year award. It marked the first time in league history the same team won consecutive Play of the Year awards.

On Dec. 1, 2019 vs. Philadelphia, the Dolphins were facing a fourth-and-goal from the 1-yard line in the second quarter. The Dolphins shifted out of a field goal formation with punter Matt Haack lined up in a shotgun formation at quarterback. He took the snap from center Daniel Kilgore – whose college team's (Appalachian State) nickname was the Mountaineers, hence the name of the play – and rolled to his left, where he threw a touchdown pass to kicker Jason Sanders.

It marked the first time since 1977 (Denver's Jim Turner) an NFL kicker caught a touchdown pass and the first time since 1964 (San Diego's John Hadl and Keith Lincoln) that a player who led his team in punts threw a touchdown to a player who led his team in extra point/field goal attempts.

WAKE GAVE MIAMI A WALK-OFF WIN

Defensive end Cameron Wake gave Miami a walk-off win when he sacked Cincinnati quarterback Andy Dalton in the end zone for a safety to score the winning points in the Dolphins' 22-20 overtime win on Halloween 2013. This game marked only the third time in league history that a game in overtime ended on a safety. The other two times occurred when the Minnesota Vikings defeated the St. Louis Rams 23-21 (11/5/89) and when the Chicago Bears defeated the Tennessee Titans 19-17 (11/14/04).

DOLPHINS ARE TRUE GLOBETROTTERS

The Miami Dolphins have been the NFL's globetrotters in their history, having played regular season games in London (five times), Frankfurt and Toronto, as well as preseason contests in London, Berlin, Tokyo and Mexico City.

The Dolphins and Bills took part in the NFL's first-ever regular season game staged in Canada on Dec. 7, 2008 as Miami recorded a 16-3 victory at the Rogers Centre in Toronto. On Oct. 28, 2007, the Dolphins battled the New York Giants at London's Wembley Stadium before a crowd of 81,176 in the first-ever NFL regular season game that was staged outside of North America. Miami returned to Wembley on Sept. 28, 2014, and earned a 38-14 win against Oakland before a crowd of 83,436. The Dolphins made their third regular season appearance in London when the team fell to the New York Jets, 27-14, at Wembley Stadium on Oct. 4, 2015. The Dolphins played their fourth regular-season international game on Oct. 1, 2017 when they fell to the New Orleans Saints, 20-0, at Wembley Stadium in London. The team's most recent appearance in the United Kingdom was a loss to Jacksonville on Oct. 17, 2021 at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium in London. Miami played in the first NFL regular-season game hosted in Frankfurt, the second NFL game ever played in Germany, on Nov. 5, 2023, falling 21-14 to the Super Bowl champion Kansas City Chiefs at Deutsche Bank Park.

From 1986-2003, the NFL held American Bowl games and the Dolphins made four appearances in the preseason series. Miami was 4-0 in those games played on foreign soil, with wins in London (1988), Tokyo (1991), Berlin (1992) and Mexico City (1997). The Dolphins became the first NFL team to win four American Bowl contest as well as the first team to win an American Bowl matchup in each of the three continents in which the games have been played.

The Dolphins will play the NFL's first-ever regular season game in Spain during the 2025 season. Miami will take on the Washington Commanders in Week 11 at the iconic Bernabéu Stadium, home to Spanish soccer team Real Madrid C.F, in partnership with the city of Madrid and Comunidad de Madrid.

TRADING PLACES

When the National Football League rescheduled the Dolphins' home game against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2017 from the season opener to the bye week on Nov. 19 because of the impending arrival of Hurricane Irma, it was not the first time the club had to change a contest's date or venue.

Since 1990, the Dolphins have had to alter the date or venue of a game seven times and are 3-4 in such games. This does not include several games whose dates were changed early in the 2020 season due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The following are games in which the Dolphins have either had to change a date or site on short notice since 1990:

DUAL 100-YARD RECEIVING GAMES

In the history of the franchise, the Dolphins have had 30 dual 100-yard receiving games, 32 including playoffs. Tyreek Hill and Jaylen Waddle have accomplished this seven times in three seasons together, the most by a duo in franchise history. Mark Clayton and Mark Duper are second, combining for four dual 100-yard receiving games together. Overall, Clayton was part of eight such games while Duper was in seven. The Dolphins are 15-15 in regular season games when they have had a pair of 100-yard receivers and 16-16 overall, including playoffs.

OFF THE FIELD

COMMUNITY:

- Established the Ingold Family Foundation with the vision to cultivate environments of inspiration and motivation.
- Leads in advocacy of adoption and foster care through partnerships with AdoptUSKids, ChildNet and The Barker Adoption Foundation.
- Serves as a national spokesperson for AdoptUSKids.
- Has served as a Mission Ambassador for Raise the Future, an organization that supports and exemplifies the mission of finding one caring adult for all youth who are currently experiencing foster care.

- Developed and launched a curriculum around his first published book – "The 7 Crucibles" – to be implemented in Broward County Public Schools, the second-largest school district in Florida. The school athletic programs were onboarded in the training modules based on the book's lessons in personal adversity.
- Through his Ingold Family Foundation, continued his annual programming for youth in his home state of Wisconsin and community in South Florida, including football camps and his designed Money Mini Camps – a workshop dedicated to the advancement of financial literacy and personal development for underprivileged youth.
- Expanded impact with SOS Children's Villages Florida, initiating a season-long "Gifts In Gold" fundraising campaign to provide a new playground for the residential foster care community. Also donated 45 brand-new pairs of shoes for the children in the neighborhood at the start of the school year.

- Served as a motivational speaker and mindset coach for college and high school student-athletes in individual coaching sessions and team settings.
- In July, hosted free football camps for children in his home state of Wisconsin and in Miami.

- Through the Ingold Family Foundation, teamed up with Beyond the Basics Inc., to host a holiday dinner and wish list surprise for children at the SOS Children's Villages Florida, a residential foster care community in Coconut Creek.
- Led several panels and speaking engagements for community members to inspire and connect through overcoming adversity.
- Hosted a free football camp for children in the foster care and adoption community, in collaboration with Children's Home Society of Florida.

2022:
- Earned the Adoption Excellence Award from AdoptUSKids in partnership with the Children's Bureau and the Ad Council for making extraordinary strides on behalf of waiting children and youth in foster care.

PERSONAL:

- PRONUNCIATION: Last name is pronounced INN-gold.
- MAJOR: Personal finance – financial planning.
- Wrote and published his first book – "The 7 Crucibles: An Inspirational Game Plan for Overcoming Adversity in Your Life" – in 2023.

DOLPHINS BEFORE AND AFTER BYES

The Dolphins did not have a game preceding their bye in 1992 or 2017 because their season openers were rescheduled to the bye week due to hurricane threats. Since the NFL first instituted the open week in 1990, the Dolphins are 18-16 in games preceding the bye week. Miami owns an 20-15 record in games following a bye week.

THE MIAMI MIRACLE

On Dec. 9, 2018, the Dolphins defeated New England on a 69-yard touchdown with no time remaining, a win dubbed "The Miami Miracle." It was the first time in team history that the Dolphins won a game on a touchdown with no time remaining in the fourth quarter and the 69-yard score was the longest play to win an NFL game with no time remaining in the fourth quarter since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger.

The play began with a pass from QB Ryan Tannehill to WR Kenny Stills. Stills lateraled the ball to WR DeVante Parker, who then lateraled the ball to RB Kenyan Drake. Drake weaved through defenders and picked up a key block from G Ted Larsen before racing to the end zone for the 34-33 victory.

The play went on to win the 2018 Bridgestone Performance NFL Play of the Year.

CANES CONNECTIONS

Defensive tackle Calais Campbell became the 50th Miami Hurricane to play for the Miami Dolphins in the 2024 season, the most of any college. He joined linebacker Jaelan Phillips and wide receiver Braxton Berrios as the University of Miami alums on the 2024 roster. The first Miami Hurricane to play for the Miami Dolphins was Mike Hudock in 1966. Hudock played 14 games at center for the Dolphins in the franchise's inaugural season. The first Dolphins draft pick from the Hurricanes was linebacker Ed Weisacosky in 1966. He would play 25 games with 17 starts for the Dolphins from 1968-70.

Players are not the only connection between the Hurricanes and Dolphins. Multiple coaches including Jimmy Johnson spent time with both football teams. Johnson served as the head coach for the University of Miami from 1984-89 where he led the Hurricanes to the 1987 National Championship and recorded a 52-9 overall record during his tenure. Johnson would agree to become the head coach of the Dolphins following Don Shula's retirement after the 1995 season. Johnson would lead Miami to the playoffs in three of his four seasons as head coach, ultimately totaling a 36-28 record.

Dolphins great and Pro Football Hall of Famer Jason Taylor currently serves as the defensive line coach for the Hurricanes.

JASON SANDERS' SUPER SEASON

Kicker Jason Sanders had one of the best seasons by a Dolphins placekicker in 2024. Sanders converted 37-of-41 field goal attempts (90.2 pct.), which was the fourth most in the league and the second most in franchise history (Olindo Mare, 1999 – 39). Sanders added 12 field goals from 50-plus yards, which set a franchise record.

Sanders, who is the longest-tenured Dolphin entering the 2025 season, converted his last 27 field goal attempts, the longest such streak in franchise history. He was the only kicker to make a field goal in all 17 games during the 2024 season, while being named the AFC Special Teams Player of the Month twice (November & December/January) and the AFC Special Teams Player of the Week once (Week 16 vs. San Francisco).

As of the end of the 2024 season, he is the most accurate kicker in Dolphins history, converting a franchise record 84.6 percent of his kicks (187-of-221). His 187 career field goals are the second-most by a Miami player while his 826 points are third, trailing only Mare (1,048) and Garo Yepremian (830). He became the fastest player in franchise history to reach the 800-point milestone, doing so in 114 games.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Dolphins have drafted 11 players since 2016 that have won a collegiate national championship. General Manager Chris Grier drafted a player who won a national championship in each of the first seven NFL Drafts he oversaw since becoming general manager in 2016. Miami selected LB Channing Tindall in the third round of the 2022 NFL Draft. He was a member of Georgia's 2021 national championship team. WR Jaylen Waddle (first round) was selected in the 2021 NFL Draft and won the 2020 national title at Alabama. QB Tua Tagovailoa (first round) and DT Raekwon Davis (second round) were selected in the 2020 NFL Draft and were both members of Alabama's 2017 national championship team. Miami also added LS Blake Ferguson in the sixth round of the 2020 NFL Draft, who was part of LSU's 2019 national title team. DT Christian Wilkins was Miami's first-round pick of the 2019 NFL Draft and was part of two national championship teams at Clemson (2016, 2018). S Minkah Fitzpatrick was Miami's first-round pick of the 2018 NFL Draft, and was a member of two national championship teams at Alabama (2015, 2017). In the 2017 NFL Draft, Miami picked two players who won national championships in college – LB Raekwon McMillan, who won the title as a true freshman at Ohio State in 2014, and CB Cordrea Tankersley, who won a national championship as a senior at Clemson in 2016. In the 2016 NFL Draft, the Dolphins selected RB Kenyan Drake in the third round. Drake won two national championships at Alabama in 2012 and 2015. Most recently, Miami selected DT Kenneth Grant in the first round of the 2025 NFL Draft. He was part of Michigan's 2023 national championship team.

1972 DOLPHINS LEAD NFL IN SCORING OFFENSE AND DEFENSE

En route to their perfect 17-0 season, the 1972 Miami Dolphins led the NFL that year in both points scored and points allowed. During the regular season, they averaged 27.5 points per contest while yielding an average of only 12.2. They are one of only 12 teams in NFL history to achieve this feat, and of the other 11, only the 1996 Green Bay Packers went on to win the Super Bowl.

LEAGUE LEADERS IN FEWEST SACKS ALLOWED

The Dolphins hold NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (10 – 1973, 1982-90) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same category (1982-90). In addition, during the 1988 and 1989 seasons the Dolphins set an NFL record by not allowing a quarterback sack in 19 consecutive games. The streak far outdistanced the previous NFL mark of five straight games, which was accomplished on many occasions. In 1988, Miami set the NFL's single-season sack record by allowing only seven sacks in the 16-game season.

DOLPHINS WIN THE NFL'S LONGEST GAME

The Dolphins kicked off the 2018 season on Sept. 9 with a 27-20 victory over Tennessee in the longest game played in the NFL since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger. It took seven hours and eight minutes.

The contest was delayed on two separate occasions due to lightning in the area. The first delay came with 1:11 remaining in the second quarter and lasted one hour and 57 minutes. Following the conclusion of the first half, both teams remained on the field for a halftime duration of three minutes and 30 seconds.

The second delay occurred with 6:57 left in the third quarter and halted play for two hours and two minutes.

At the time of the second stoppage, the Dolphins led 7-3. When play resumed, there was a barrage of scoring as the Dolphins kicked a field goal in the third quarter and both teams scored 17 points each in the fourth quarter, leading Miami to the 27-20 win.

The seven hour and eight minute contest topped the previous NFL record of five hours and 16 minutes in a 2013 game between Chicago and Baltimore.

DOLPHINS NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns. None of those names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than 1,000 different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

Mrs. Robert Swanson with Dolphins founder Joe Robbie.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphins games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame. It ended in a scoreless tie.

DOLPHINS RAN THROUGH THE 1970s

From 1970-79, the Dolphins were the decade's most proficient rushing team. Miami totaled 23,720 rushing yards in the decade, ahead of the second place Dallas Cowboys (23,651 yards), and averaged a decade-best 4.41 yards per carry, ahead of the Buffalo Bills (4.33 avg.). Miami scored 188 touchdowns on the ground in that 10-year period, tied for second with the Cowboys, behind only the Pittsburgh Steelers (192 TDs). Additionally, the Dolphins set a then-NFL record with 2,960 rushing yards (currently No. 8 in NFL history) during the team's "perfect season" of 1972.

FORMULA FINS

On April 4, 2021, South Florida Motorsports and Hard Rock Stadium announced the addition of the Miami Grand Prix to the 2022 FIA Formula One World Championship under a 10-year contract at Hard Rock Stadium, which has since been extended to 2041. Since 2022, drivers, racing teams and Formula 1 fans have flocked to South Florida to take part in one of the most exciting events on the racing calendar. Dolphins players and coaches alike have joined in on the action, enjoying a different atmosphere at their home stadium.

The race consists of 57 laps with a track that totals 3.363 miles, totaling to 191.584 miles to complete the course. In football terms, an offense would need to total 337,188 yards to complete the track.

QB Tua Tagovailoa with Max Verstappen, Red Bull Racing driver and two-time Miami Grand Prix champion.

Through Miami's 59 regular seasons, the team has recorded 296,455 offensive yards, equal to 87.9 percent of the circuit's distance. The Dolphins would be able to complete 50.1 laps of the Miami International Autodrome, just under seven shy of a completed race. The Dolphins have averaged 5,024.7 yards per season and at that continued rate the team is projected to complete all 57 laps in the 2032 season.

BROTHERLY LOVE

In 2006, Renaldo Hill and Ray Hill became the third set of brothers to play for the Dolphins. Ray played with the team from 1998-2000 while Renaldo was a member of the Dolphins from 2006-08. The first set of brothers to play for the Dolphins were the Blackwoods, which included Glenn (1979-87) and Lyle (1981-86), both of whom played safety. In 2003, fullback Obafemi Ayanbadejo and linebacker Brendon Ayanbadejo, each of whom were in their first seasons with the Dolphins, became the second set of brothers to play for the team in franchise history.

The Dolphins also have had three sets of brothers serve on the team's coaching staff. The first set of brothers to have coached with the Dolphins was the Shulas, which included David (1982-88) and his younger brother, Mike (1991-92, 2000-02). Later, Judd Garrett was an offensive quality control coach with the club from 2000-05, while his brother, Jason, was the team's quarterbacks coach from 2005-06. Currently, brothers Ryan and Bobby Slowik serve on Miami's coaching staff. Ryan is on his fourth season with the Dolphins and is the team's defensive backs/pass game specialist. Meanwhile, Bobby is on his first season as Miami's senior pass game coordinator. The Slowiks and the Garretts are the only set of brothers to have crossed paths in Miami.

SEPT. 8, 2024 | MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.
ATTENDANCE: 65,582 | TV: CBS

JACKSONVILLE 17 | MIAMI 20

SCORING SUMMARY

	1	2	3	4	F
Jacksonville	7	10	0	0	17

Kicker Jason Sanders nailed a 52-yard field goal as time expired to secure the Miami Dolphins a 20-17 win over the Jacksonville Jaguars in in this year's season opener at Hard Rock Stadium.

The come-from-behind victory was ignited by a third quarter forced fumble by Jevón Holland, as he stripped Jaguars running back Travis Etienne Jr. just shy of the goal line. The ball was recovered by cornerback Kader Kohou in the end zone and Miami proceeded to score the game's last 13 points to earn the victory.

The turnover set the Dolphins up on their own 20-yard line with 2:19 remaining in the third quarter. On the first play of the drive, quarterback Tua Tagovailoa connected across the middle of the field with wide receiver Tyreek Hill, who outran a pair of Jaguars defenders on his way for the 80-yard score – the longest reception of Hill's career.

Miami tied the game with 4:26 left in the fourth quarter with a 37-yard field goal by Sanders after a 12-play, 73-yard drive. The defense forced another Jaguars' three-and-out, which set up Miami's offense at its own 35-yard line. The Dolphins then traveled 31 yards downfield on seven plays to set up the Sanders game-winning field goal.

Tagovailoa completed 23-of-37 passes for 338 yards and one touchdown, along with a lone carry for 11 yards, while Hill finished with seven receptions for 130 yards and one touchdown. Wide receiver Jaylen Waddle was Miami's second-leading wideout, as he recorded five catches for 109 yards, including a catch-and-run of 63 yards.

The Dolphins' leading rusher was running back Jeff Wilson Jr., who ran for 26 yards on his five fourth quarter carries. Running back De'Von Achane tallied a team-high 10 carries and ran for 24 yards and a score. Achane was most active as a pass catcher, as his seven receptions and 76 receiving yards were both career highs.

Miami's defense, playing its first game under Defensive Coordinator Anthony Weaver, held the Jaguars to 267 total yards and Lawrence to just 12 completions on 21 attempts for 162 yards and was sacked three times. Dolphins defensive tackle Calais Campbell sacked Lawrence on the first play of Jacksonville's opening possession, while linebackers Emmanuel Ogbah and Jaelan Phillips brought him down on consecutive plays in the third quarter.

	1	2	3	4	F
Buffalo	7	17	7	0	31

The Miami Dolphins dropped their first divisional matchup of the season, losing 31-10 to the Buffalo Bills on Thursday Night Football.

In the first possession of the game, Bills cornerback Ja'Marcus Ingram picked off quarterback Tua Tagovailoa on a pass intended for wide receiver Grant DuBose and returned the turnover to Miami's 37-yard line. The Bills engineered a six-play, 37-yard drive that ended on a 17-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Josh Allen to running back James Cook that gave the Bills an early 7-0 lead with 9:49 left in the first quarter.

Miami responded with a touchdown of its own to tie the game at seven apiece. A third-down pass from quarterback Tua Tagovailoa to wide receiver Jaylen Waddle set Miami up with the ball inside Buffalo's 10-yard line, and a second-and-goal, six-yard swing pass to running back De'Von Achane capped off the drive with 3:21 to go in the first.

The Bills' defense continued to respond. On a first-down pass intended for wide receiver Robbie Chosen, cornerback Christian Benford picked off Tagovailoa and returned the interception to the Dolphins' 44-yard line. Buffalo again capitalized off the error, scoring on a 43-yard field goal by kicker Tyler Bass to give the Bills a 10-7 lead.

Buffalo continued to extend its lead, adding two touchdowns in the second quarter. To close out the half and halt Buffalo's 17-point run, kicker Jason Sanders sent a 34-yard kick through the uprights to make it a two-score game, 24-10, at the break.The game-cementing play came with 9:27 left in the third quarter, as Ingram picked off Tagovailoa for a second time near the right sideline and returned the takeaway 31 yards to give the Bills a 31-10 advantage for the remainder of the game.

Tagovailoa completed 17-of-25 passes for 145 yards, a touchdown and three interceptions and ran the ball twice for 17 yards before leaving the game in the third quarter after he was ruled out with a concussion. Quarterback Skylar Thompson entered the game in place of Tagovailoa and completed 8-of-14 passes for 80 yards. Achane's performance was a silver lining for the Dolphins. He ran the ball a career-high 22 times for 96 yards and caught a game-high seven passes for 69 yards and a score. Tight end Jonnu Smith was another bright spot for Miami. He totaled six receptions for 53 yards in what was just his second game with the Dolphins. Running back Jaylen Wright, the 2024 fourth-round pick, also made his NFL debut, running the ball five times for four yards.

Despite the loss, Miami out-gained Buffalo 351-247 in total yards.

	1	2	3	4	F
Seattle	17	0	0	7	24

The Miami Dolphins forced two turnovers and recorded three sacks, but the strong defensive effort was not enough to overcome the Seattle Seahawks in a 24-3 loss on Sunday afternoon at Lumen Field.

Quarterback Skylar Thompson, in his first regular season start since Week 18 of the 2022 season, completed 13-of-19 passes for 107 yards. He left the game in the third quarter and was later ruled out with a chest injury. Quarterback Tim Boyle, making his first appearance with the Dolphins, replaced Thompson and finished 7-of-13 for 79 yards.

Seattle scored on the first drive of the game after quarterback Geno Smith connected with wide receiver Tyler Lockett for a gain of 18 yards to set the Seahawks up in Dolphins territory. Kicker Jason Myers then nailed a 56-yard field goal to give Seattle a 3-0 lead with 10:49 left in the first quarter. After a missed 57-yard field goal by Dolphins kicker Jason Sanders, the Seahawks utilized a blend of their rushing and passing attacks to quickly drive down the field. A four-yard touchdown run by running back Zach Charbonnet put the Dolphins in an early 10-point deficit.

Following a 51-yard punt by Jake Bailey, Miami's defense came up with a key turnover. On third-and-15 from Seattle's five-yard line, Smith – while being pressured by Miami's pass rush – was picked off by cornerback Kader Kohou on a pass that was intended for and tipped into the air by Charbonnet. Starting the following offensive drive on Seattle's six-yard line, the Dolphins were unable to fully capitalize on the field position, settling for a 23-yard field goal. Seattle extended its lead to 17-3 on the last play of the first quarter, as Smith connected with Metcalf downfield for a 71-yard touchdown – the only play of the explosive scoring drive.

The Dolphins recorded their second takeaway of the game with 0:46 left in the third quarter after defensive tackle Zach Sieler intercepted a pass that was tipped by defensive tackle Calais Campbell. Taking over at their own 48-yard line, Boyle led the Dolphins on an 11-play, 50-yard drive to Seattle's two-yard line but came away without points after an incomplete fourth-down pass that was intended for running back De'Von Achane. Both teams were scoreless until the 4:55 mark of the fourth quarter, when Charbonnet crossed the pylon for a second time on a 10-yard run, sealing Seattle's victory.

Achane was the leader of the Dolphins' ground game with 30 yards on 11 carries. Rookie running back Jaylen Wright had his most productive day as a pro, rushing for 17 yards on his two attempts.Wide receiver Tyreek Hill led Miami's pass-catchers with 40 yards on three catches. Wideout Jaylen Waddle posted a team-high four receptions for 26 yards, and receiver Dee Eskridge caught one pass for 30 yards – Miami's longest play from scrimmage – in his Dolphins debut. Eskridge played three seasons for the Seahawks from 2021–23. Safety Jordan Poyer and former Seattle linebacker Jordyn Brooks paved the way for Miami's defense with a team-high nine tackles, while cornerback Jalen Ramsey led all players with a game-high two tackles for loss. Defensive tackle Da'Shawn Hand recorded his first sack as a Dolphin on the first drive of the game, while Sieler and Campbell each added a sack of their own in the second and third quarter, respectively.

	1	2	3	4	F
Tennessee	0	9	10	12	31

What started out as a closely contested game got away from the Miami Dolphins in the second half, as they fell 31-12 to the Tennessee Titans on Monday night at Hard Rock Stadium. Starting in his first game with the Dolphins after being signed off the Baltimore Ravens' practice squad on Sept. 17, quarterback Tyler Huntley completed 14-of-22 passes for 96 yards and ran for a team-high 40 yards and a touchdown on eight carries.

Linebacker Emmanuel Ogbah spearheaded a strong defensive start for Miami with a turnover. Ogbah picked off quarterback Will Levis on a pass intended for wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins. This was Ogbah's second career interception – his first being in Week 3 of the 2023 season

Levis suffered a shoulder injury reaching for the marker on third-and-4 and was questionable to return. Quarterback Mason Rudolph entered the game on the next series and played the remainder of the game for Tennessee. Tennessee scored first, as Rudolph guided the Titans 21 yards downfield to set up a 53-yard field goal by Nick Folk. Folk connected again on a 52-yard field goal giving the Titans a 6-0 lead.

A 12-yard scramble by Huntley put the Dolphins in field goal range and a pair of passes to running back De'Von Achane and Waddle led to a 44-yard field goal by kicker Jason Sanders. Rudolph connected on a 29-yard pass to wide receiver Tyler Boyd, setting up a 47-yard field goal by Folk to give Tennessee a 9-3 lead heading into halftime.

The second half started positively for the Dolphins. A batted down pass by linebacker Jaelan Phillips on third down led to an electric 27-yard punt return by wide receiver Braxton Berrios that started off Miami's offense on the Tennessee 48-yard line. A 56-yard field goal by Sanders, one yard shy of his career long, brought the Dolphins within three with 9:02 left in the third quarter. Miami's momentum was short-lived, as the Titans responded with a five play, 70-yard touchdown drive that was capped off by a seven-yard run by running back Tyjae Spears.

Field goals of 51 and 29 yards by Folk extended Tennessee's lead to 22-6. Miami answered on the following offensive series with a one-yard Huntley touchdown run. An intercepted two-point conversion attempt left the Dolphins trailing by two possessions with less than four minutes remaining in the game. After a failed onside kick attempt, Miami's defense forced Tennessee to punt with 2:42 remaining. Starting the drive on their own eight-yard line, Huntley was flagged for intentional grounding while in the end zone, adding an extra two points to the Titans' lead.

Tennessee scored a touchdown on a four-yard outside run by Pollard, who led all players with a game-high 88 yards on 22 carries.

Led by the running back duo of rookie Jaylen Wright and Raheem Mostert, the Miami Dolphins rushed for 193 yards in their 15-10 win over the New England Patriots on Sunday afternoon at Gillette Stadium.

Wright had his most productive day as a pro, rushing for a career-high 86 yards on 13 carries (6.6 avg.). Mostert also played a pivotal role in pacing Miami's rushing attack, tallying 19 carries for 80 yards (4.2 avg.). The Dolphins' front seven wreaked havoc on the Patriots' offensive line with a total of nine quarterback hits. DT Zach Sieler led the charge, totaling three quarterback hits and a sack, while DT Calais Campbell recorded two. LB Emmanuel Ogbah also made plays in New England's backfield, posting four tackles and a sack. QB Tyler Huntley, making his second start with the Dolphins, completed 18 of 31 passes for 194 yards and an interception. He also ran for seven yards on three carries.

Huntley led Miami to points on the opening possession of the game. An 18-yard pass to WR Tyreek Hill and a pair of completions to TE Jonnu Smith were key to the eight play, 38-yard drive that led to a 54-yard field goal by K Jason Sanders.

Sacks by Ogbah and Sieler forced a Patriots three-and-out, but an interception by CB Christian Gonzalez set New England up in Miami territory. Four plays later, RB Rhamondre Stevenson ran for a 33-yard touchdown run that gave the Patriots a 7-3 lead. Miami's next possession resulted in a 41-yard missed field goal, but the Dolphins defense forced a three-and-out, making New England punt with 12:54 remaining in the second quarter.

After a blocked punt, New England took over at the Miami 23-yard line. Miami's defense forced Patriots K Joey Slye to attempt a 33-yard field goal, which he missed wide right. With less than a minute in the half, WR Braxton Berrios returned a punt 12 yards to the New England 44-yard line. A completion to Smith put the Dolphins just outside of the red zone but a fumbled snap on a 51-yard field goal attempt left Miami trailing 7-3 at halftime.

Both teams traded field goals on their opening drives of the second half. Miami's eight play scoring drive contained a pair of Patriots penalties and a 12-yard run by Wright, which was capped by a 32-yard Sanders field goal. Following another New England three-and-out, the Dolphins continued chipping away at the Patriots' lead, as Sanders knocked through a 47-yard field goal to bring Miami to within one point.

The Dolphins retook the lead late in the fourth quarter as their ground game paved the way for a 15 play, 80-yard touchdown drive that took up 7:36 of game time. Fullback Alec Ingold had what would become the game-sealing score on a three-yard run up the middle. New England had two more opportunities to answer but came up short in Dolphins territory on both instances, one resulting in a fourth-down stop and the other as time expired.

Hill led all players with 69 receiving yards on six receptions. Smith totaled 62 yards on five catches, and WR Jaylen Waddle caught four passes for 46 yards. S Marcus Maye posted a season-high nine tackles and a pass deflection, while LB Jordyn Brooks totaled seven tackles.

Indianapolis	0	3	7	6	16

Despite a strong first half performance, the Miami Dolphins fell to the Indianapolis Colts 16-10 on Sunday afternoon at Lucas Oil Stadium.

Trailing by six with under two minutes left to play, Miami began a promising final drive as passes to TE Jonnu Smith and WRs Tyreek Hill and Malik Washington crossed into Indianapolis territory. A four-yard, third-down scramble by QB Tim Boyle brought Miami to Indianapolis' 41-yard line, but the Dolphins were not able to move the sticks any further.

Boyle entered the game in the third quarter for starting QB Tyler Huntley, who was ruled out with a right shoulder injury. Huntley completed 7-of-13 passes for 87 yards and a touchdown and recorded five carries for 20 yards (4.0 avg.), while Boyle completed 8-of-13 passes for 74 yards. The Dolphins' defense was able to contain QB Anthony Richardson, who completed just 10-of-24 passes for 129 yards and 14 carries for 56 yards.

Miami's offense was effective in both the run and pass game, as TE Jonnu Smith caught seven passes for a game-high 96 yards (13.7 avg.) and a touchdown, while RB De'Von Achane recorded 15 carries for a game-high 77 yards (5.1 avg). RB Raheem Mostert had 11 carries for 50 yards (4.5 avg.), while rookie RB Jaylen Wright totaled five carries for 33 yards (6.6 avg.).

Miami utilized the ground game to set up its aerial attack on the first scoring possession of the game. Six straight runs set up an 18-yard reception by Smith to put Miami in the red zone. Huntley and Smith connected once more with a nine-yard touchdown to finish off the 11-play, 58-yard scoring drive with 5:56 remaining in the first quarter.

The Colts made a valiant effort in responding on their next offensive possession. On the shoulders of its run game, Richardson led Indianapolis 72 yards downfield before a mishandled snap was recovered by DT Zach Sieler. Both Miami and Indianapolis punted the ball away twice before the Dolphins' last offensive possession of the half, which resulted in a 33-yard field goal by K Jason Sanders. Indianapolis answered with a score of its own, as K Matt Gay nailed a 52-yard field goal as time expired, giving Miami a 10-3 lead at halftime.

Indianapolis was first on the board in the second half after a Mostert fumble was recovered by LB Segun Olubi, which led to a seven-yard touchdown run by RB Tyler Goodson to tie the game at 10 a piece with 9:08 remaining in the third quarter. Miami had a promising drive late in the third quarter, but a fumble by FB Alec Ingold gave Indianapolis possession at their own 14-yard line. Miami and Indianapolis both traded punts to close out the third quarter.

The Colts orchestrated a 12-play, 69-yard scoring drive that took over six minutes off the clock to start the fourth quarter. Miami's defense prevented Indianapolis from crossing the pylon, but the Colts still took their first lead of the afternoon after Gay's 22-yard field goal.

The Dolphins had a chance to tie the game on their next drive, but Sanders 54-yard field goal attempt bounced off the left upright with 5:19 remaining in the game. Indianapolis added a 38-yard field goal on the following drive to extend their lead to 16-10.

QB Tua Tagovailoa led a strong game for the Dolphins' offense, but it wasn't enough as the Arizona Cardinals handed the Dolphins a 27-28 loss on Sunday afternoon at Hard Rock Stadium.

Tagovailoa completed 28-of-38 passes for 234 yards and a touchdown, adding 13 yards on three carries. The Dolphins also had success running the football, totaling 150 yards on 25 carries (6.0 avg.). RB De'Von Achane rushed for a season-high 97 yards on 10 carries (9.7 avg.), and adding another 50 yards and a TD through the air. RB Raheem Mostert found the end zone twice on the day and added 19 yards on nine carries (2.1 avg.).

Miami's offense started hot out of the gate, going 10 plays for 64 yards to find paydirt in the opening stanza. Mostert scored on the a one-yard run, giving Miami a 7-0 lead with 10:15 remaining in the first quarter. The Dolphins swiftly shutdown Arizona's opening drive, as CB Jalen Ramsey and DT Calais Campbell batted down a pair of passes by QB Kyler Murray.

Tagovailoa led Miami on another scoring drive in their next offensive possession, capped off by a 53-yard field goal from K Jason Sanders. Arizona responded on their next drive. The Cardinals traveled 70 yards downfield on nine plays to pull within three, cutting the Dolphins lead to 10-7 with 11:28 remaining in the second quarter.

Late in the second quarter, Tagovailoa found Hill for a gain of 30 yards to put the Dolphins in Arizona territory. Sanders knocked down a 25-yard field goal to give the Dolphins a 13-7 lead at halftime.

The Cardinals opened the second half with a career-long 57-yard field goal by K Chad Ryland to narrow the score to 13-10. Miami responded with Achane going for a season-long 47-yard run. He then hauled in a 12-yard touchdown pass from Tagovailoa to stretch Miami's lead to 20-10.

Following a safety for Arizona, Murray was effective, completing 4-of-6 passes for 55 yards and a touchdown to Harrison. RB James Conner was stuffed on two-point conversion, which maintained a narrow two-point advantage for the Dolphins at 20-18 with 2:08 to play in the third quarter. Tagovailoa and Waddle commanded Miami's next scoring drive. The former Alabama standouts set up a second Mostert touchdown.

The Cardinals were not deterred, however. In the final nine minutes of the game, Murray led the Arizona offense on consecutive scoring drives, and the Dolphins offense was unable to find the end zone again. Conner score on a two-yard scamper with 8:47 left in the fourth quarter to narrow the score to 27-25. After a Miami punt, Arizona embarked on their game-winning scoring drive, which took up the final 5:01 of the game and ended with a 34-yard go-ahead field goal by Ryland as time expired.

Buffalo	3	3	14	10	30

Facing a seven-point deficit in the fourth quarter, QB Tua Tagovailoa engineered a crucial 11-play, 81-yard drive, stamping off the drive with a touchdown pass to WR Jaylen Waddle to tie the score at 27-27 with 1:38 remaining. Buffalo found a way to set up K Tyler Bass for a game-winning, 61-yard field goal. Unable to score on the final play of the game, falling to the Bills 30-27 at Highmark Stadium.

Despite the loss, Tagovailoa completed a single-game, career-best 89.3% of his passes. He went 25-of-28 for 231 yards and two touchdownsTagovailoa's favorite target was RB De'Von Achane, catching eight balls for 58 yards (7.3 avg.). WR Tyreek Hill had four receptions for 80 yards (20.0 avg.) and TE Jonnu Smith caught five passes for 46 yards (9.2 avg.). Achane carried the ball 12 times for 63 yards (5.3 avg.) and a score, while RB Raheem Mostert added 56 yards on his 10 carries (5.6 avg.).

Buffalo's first scoring drive was ignited by a 29-yard return by DB Brandon Codrington. Seven plays, Bass nailed a 40-yard field goal to give Buffalo an early 3-0 lead with 6:30 left in the first quarter. Miami answered on its next offensive possession utilizing a blend of the run and pass. Tagovailoa was precise, completing all four of his passing attempts for 32 yards. K Jason Sanders made a 39-yard field goal to tie the game, 3-3.

Bills QB Josh Allen had Buffalo's offense moving, but CB Jalen Ramsey came down with his first interception of the season on a tipped pass intended for rookie wide receiver Keon Coleman. Ramsey's pick led to the Dolphins' longest scoring drive since Week 1 of the 2018 season. Miami powered to a 14-play, 97-yard drive. In the red zone, Tagovailoa found Achane, who took a screen 14 yards to give the Dolphins a 10-3 lead. Buffalo threatened with a touchdown of their own on the following drive, but settled for a 49-yard field goal, as Miami led 10-6 at halftime.

After Miami fumbled the ball on their opening drive of the second half, every possession from either team for the remainder of the game ended in a score. Buffalo answered first with a one-yard touchdown reception by WR Mack Hollins to give the Bills a 12-10 lead. Miami retook the lead after Sanders connected on a 23-yard field goal, but Buffalo responded with a 63-yard touchdown and two-point conversion to give them a 20-13 lead.

Miami tied the game at 20 a piece with an eight-yard rushing touchdown from Achane, but Buffalo gained the advantage once more after a two-yard touchdown reception from tight end Quinton Morris. The Dolphins responded with an 11-play, 81-yard scoring drive to knot the game, 27-27, but the seven-yard touchdown from Waddle would be their final score of the day.

Miami's defense helped secure the 23-15 victory over the Rams by not allowing Los Angeles into the end zone.

The game started off hot for Miami, with QB Tua Tagovailoa connecting with WR Jaylen Waddle twice on the opening drive for gains of 19 and 36. Rookie WR Malik Washington capped off the drive with an 18-yard rushing touchdown, the first of his career, to give the Dolphins an early 7-0 lead. The Dolphins' defense started out just as strongly as their offense, with DT Zach Sieler tackling RB Kyren Williams in the backfield for a loss of 10 yards on the first play. On the next series, rookie LB Chop Robinson notched the second sack of his career, taking down QB Matthew Stafford to force another three-and-out.

The Rams began to pick up momentum on their next possession, but that was quickly halted as LB Anthony Walker Jr. picked off a pass by Stafford after DT Calais Campbell tipped it at the line of scrimmage, giving Miami the ball at their own 46-yard line. The Dolphins capitalized on the turnover, as a 15-yard run by RB De'Von Achane led to a 50-yard field goal by K Jason Sanders to extend Miami's lead to 10-0.

Following another Rams punt, Tagovailoa was picked off by LB Christian Rozeboom, but got the ball back a play later after DT Da'Shawn Hand forced Williams to fumble, which was recovered by CB Kendall Fuller. A strip-sack of Tagovailoa on the following drive led to the Rams' first points of the game with a 34-yard field goal by K Joshua Karty. Los Angeles would score once more as time expired in the second quarter, after an 11-play, 54-yard drive resulted in a career-long 55-yard field goal for Karty to cut Miami's lead to 10-6 at the break.

Coming out of the half, a missed 57-yard field goal attempt by Karty prevented Los Angeles from further chipping into the deficit. Miami capitalized on the field position to extend their lead on the following drive. Tagovailoa found TE Jonnu Smith, connecting on a pivotal on third-and-3, as Smith broke multiple tackles on his rumble to the Rams' one-yard line for a 33-yard gain. On the following play, WR Tyreek Hill caught a 1-yard touchdown pass from Tagovailoa, giving the Dolphins a 17-6 advantage. The Rams tacked on two more field goals while the game was still in reach, but after each score, Miami answered with points of their own.

On Miami's final scoring drive with less than seven minutes remaining in fourth quarter, Tagovailoa found WR Odell Beckham Jr. for a critical third down conversion and then rifled a 17-yard strike to Washington on the next play. Sanders made his third field goal of the day, giving Miami a 23-12 lead.

Karty made a 31-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to eight, but the Dolphins came away with the ensuing onside kick, cementing the win.

QB Tua Tagovailoa's 57-yard touchdown pass to TE Jonnu Smith put the finishing touch on an efficient offensive performance, giving Miami their second straight victory. The Dolphins scored on six of their seven possessions and did not punt or turn the ball over on their way to a commanding 34-19 win over the Las Vegas Raiders.

Tagovailoa completed 28-of-36 passes for 288 yards and three touchdowns for a season-high passer rating of 127.8. Smith led Miami with a career-high 101 receiving yards on six catches and two touchdowns. WR Tyreek Hill had a team-high seven receptions for 61 yards and a touchdown, while WR Jaylen Waddle added two catches for 37 yards. RB De'Von Achane ran for 73 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries and added four receptions for 32 yards.

Tagovailoa got Miami going on the game's opening drive, connecting with Achane for a gain of 17 yards and Hill for a gain of 16 to set the offense up in the red zone. On fourth-and-goal from the one-yard line, Tagovailoa completed a touchdown pass to Smith, giving Miami an early 7-0 lead.

QB Gardner Minshew led the Raiders into the red zone, but Miami held Las Vegas to a 27-yard field goal by K Daniel Carlson on their first posession. K Jason Sanders finished Miami's second drive with a 31-yard field goal to extend Miami's lead to 10-3. On the shoulders of rookie TE Brock Bowers, the Raiders marched down into Miami territory, finishing it off with a second Carlson field goal. His 27-yarder cut Miami's advantage to 10-6 at halftime.

After Las Vegas punted the ball away on their first possession of the second half, Miami strung together a 97-yard, 14-play drive. A 30-yard run by Achane led to an eight-yard touchdown from Tagovailoa to Hill to widen Miami's lead to 17-6. Bowers continued his high-level play into the second half, as his 23-yard catch, run and touchdown to cut Miami's lead to five. Bowers finished with a game-high 13 catches for 126 yards. Tagovailoa orchestrated the Dolphins' subsequent response, completing the drive with a two-yard Achane touchdown run, giving Miami a two-possession advantage.

The Raiders refused to let up, scoring a touchdown on their next drive on a 10-yard swing pass and run from Minshew to running back Ameer Abdullah to bring Las Vegas within five, 24-19. Tagovailoa answered quickly with a 57-yard touchdown strike to Smith and an interception by CB Jalen Ramsey all but sealed the victory for the Dolphins. Sanders knocked through a 46-yard field goal en route to closing out the Dolphins fourth win of the season. DTs Zach Sieler and Calais Campbell, as well as LB Emmanuel Ogbah, each recorded a sack. LB Jordyn Brooks had a game-high 12 tackles, while Ramsey added two pass deflections and five tackles to his statline.

	1	2	3	4	F
New England	0	0	0	15	15

The Miami Dolphins turned in a dominant 34-15 win over the New England Patriots on Sunday afternoon at Hard Rock Stadium, improving to 5-6 on the season ahead of a quick turnaround for a Thanksgiving night game in Green Bay later this week. QB Tua Tagovailoa led the day, completing 29-of-40 passes, throwing for 317 yards and recording his first four-touchdown performance since Week 3 of the 2023 season.

The aerial attack got a boost from WR Jaylen Waddle, who turned in a season-high 144 yards and a touchdown on eight receptions (18.0 avg.). TE Jonnu Smith totaled a team-high nine receptions for 87 yards (9.7 avg.) and a touchdown, and WR Tyreek Hill added five catches for 48 yards (9.6 avg.). RB De'Von Achane had two scores, as he tallied 56 scrimmage yards.

After both teams traded punts on their opening drives, New England rookie QB Drake Maye orchestrated a 12-play sequence that gave the Patriots a chance to strike first but a missed field goal stopped the drive.

Tagovailoa commanded an eight-play, 65-yard touchdown drive. The quarterback connected with Smith on three occasions, finding him for seven yards and the game's first score. This gave Miami a 7-0 lead with – a lead which they would not surrender for the rest of the game.

After rookie LB Chop Robinson's third career sack forced a Patriots three-and-out on the ensuing drive, Miami drove downfield and scored once again. This nine-play, 68-yard drive, which included completions of 14 and 17 yards to Waddle, was capped off by an nine-yard swing pass to Achane, who ran into the end zone to stretch the Dolphins' lead to 14-0. Tagovailoa continued to dominate in the second quarter, leading two more scoring drives, as Achane added another touchdown on an 11-yard pass and K Jason Sanders drilled a 21-yard field goal just before the half. The team entered the locker room with a 24-0 lead, thanks to another strong showing from the defense, who forced three consecutive Patriots three-and-outs in the stanza.

The Dolphins extended their lead in the third quarter, after Miami's defense forced a turnover, leading to the first points of the second half. On a third-and-3 from the 50-yard line, defensive tackle Zach Sieler sacked Maye, forcing a fumble that was recovered by linebacker Jordyn Brooks and returned to New England's 25-yard line. Two plays later, Tagovailoa found Waddle in the end zone for a 23-yard touchdown to give Miami a 31-0 lead with 1:37 left in the third quarter.

Despite Miami's 31-point lead entering the fourth quarter, the Patriots continued to battle. With 13:43 remaining in the game, Maye found tight end Austin Hooper on a fourth-and-15 play to get New England on the board with a 38-yard touchdown. The Patriots continued to chip into the lead, as cornerback Christian Gonzalez scooped up a fumble on a botched Miami handoff two drives later, returning it 63 yards for a touchdown. A converted two-point try by the Patriots brought the lead to within two scores, as the Dolphins held a 31-15 advantage with 10:10 to play.

New England's momentum was short-lived, however, as on their next offensive drive, Maye was picked off by linebacker Tyrel Dodson, who corralled the takeaway with one hand. Sanders nailed the 51-yard field goal that followed, extending Miami's lead back up to three scores and cementing the win.

NOV. 28, 2024 | GREEN BAY, WISC.

MIAMI 17 | GREEN BAY 30

Green Bay	14	10	3	3	30

Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa completed 37-of-46 passes for a season-high 365 yards and two touchdowns, but it wasn't enough to defeat Green Bay on Thanksgiving night at Lambeau Field, as Miami fell 30-17.

Tight end Jonnu Smith continued his streak of high-level play, leading all pass catchers with 10 receptions for 113 yards. Wide receiver Tyreek Hill caught six passes for 83 yards and a touchdown, while running back De'Von Achane added eight receptions for 56 yards and a touchdown to go along with his 14 rushing yards on seven carries.

Miami's defense forced a three-and-out on the game's opening drive, but a muffed punt gave the Packers the ball back in the red zone. On third-and-goal, Green Bay quarterback Jordan Love connected with wide receiver Jayden Reed for the three-yard touchdown to give the Packers an early 7-0 lead with 12:00 left in the first quarter. The Packers widened their lead later in the first.

On the next drive, Green Bay leaned on its ground game to pave the way for another score. Running back Emmanuel Wilson took a third-down carry for 15 yards to set the Packers up with a goal-to-go situation. Running back Josh Jacobs punched in a one-yard touchdown to put the crown on Green Bay's 12-play, 76-yard drive.

Miami's offense responded on their next drive. On a critical fourth down, Tagovailoa found wide receiver Jaylen Waddle for a 16-yard connection, which highlighted a 12-play, 55-yard drive that ended with a 33-yard field goal by kicker Jason Sanders. Love orchestrated Green Bay's next two scoring drives, leading to a 12-yard touchdown catch by Reed and a 46-yard field goal by kicker Brandon McManus which gave the Packers a 24-3 lead at halftime. McManus extended Green Bay's lead 27-3 on their first drive of the second half with a 24-yard field goal.

Facing a large deficit, Miami's offense began to chip away at the Packers' lead. Passes of 13 and 16 yards to Smith and a 16-yard strike over the middle of the field to Waddle created the Dolphins' first red zone opportunity of the game. On first-and-10 at Green Bay's 14-yard line, Tagovailoa completed a screen pass to Achane, who scampered into the end zone for Miami's first touchdown of the game. Tagovailoa completed a high-arching pass to Waddle on the two-point conversion that followed, making it 27-11 with 2:43 remaining in the third quarter.

After Miami's defense forced a punt, Tagovailoa engineered another promising drive that had the Dolphins at the Packers' one-yard line on second-and-goal, but they were unable to reach the end zone on the next three downs.McManus added a 33-yard field goal on Green Bay's next drive to extend their lead to 30-11 with 5:02 remaining

Still fighting late in the game, Tagovailoa led another touchdown drive which was capped by Hill catching a tipped pass in the end zone, bringing the Dolphins within 13 with 1:58 left in the game.

Miami	6	9	0	11	6	32

Trailing 26-23 with 52 seconds left in regulation, WR Malik Washington jumpstarted the pivotal drive with a 45-yard kick return to give Miami possession at their own 45-yard line. QB Tua Tagovailoa connected with WRs Jaylen Waddle and Tyreek Hill for gains of six and 14 yards to set up a 52-yard field goal by K Jason Sanders, his fourth of the afternoon, to send the game into overtime.

On the lone overtime possession, the Dolphins went on an eight-play, 70-yard drive which was capped by a 10-yard touchdown pass to TE Jonnu Smith, sealing Miami's thrilling 32-26 victory.

QB Tua Tagovailoa completed 33-of-47 passes (70.2 pct.) for 331 yards and two touchdowns. WR Tyreek Hill caught a team-high 10 passes for 115 yards (11.5 avg.) and a crucial fourth-down touchdown in the fourth quarter that gave the Dolphins a chance to make it a tie game. WR Jaylen Waddle, who hauled in the two-point conversion that followed Hill's score, totaled a season-high nine catches for 99 yards (11.0 avg.). RB De'Von Achane had six catches for 45 yards (7.5 avg.) to go along with his 24 rushing yards. TE Jonnu Smith added 44 yards and the game-clinching score on three receptions (14.7 avg.), all of which came in overtime.

The Dolphins' passing offense was hot from the jump. Completions of 20 yards to Waddle, 11 yards to T. Hill and 14 yards to Achane created a red zone opportunity for Miami. The second-year back finished off the drive with a two-yard touchdown run, giving Miami a 6-0 lead in the first.

Miami and New York exchanged field goals, giving the Dolphins a 9-3 lead with 14:53 remaining in the second quarter. On New York's next possession, an explosive 35-yard pass from QB Aaron Rodgers to WR Garrett Wilson and a 17-yard touchdown run by RB Isaiah Davis highlighted the six-play, 70-yard scoring drive. Miami answered with a seven-minute drive that ended on a 24-yard field goal by Sanders. Following another Carlson field goal, with 41 seconds left, Tagovailoa engineered a five-play, 31-yard drive that ended with a 57-yard field goal by Sanders, tying his career long, to give the Dolphins a 15-13 lead at halftime.

Coming out of the half, New York's aerial attack was in full force. Rodgers found Wilson downfield for a gain of 42 yards and a three-yard touchdown pass to WR Davante Adams game the Jets a 20-15 advantage. The Jets extended their lead on their next drive, as Carlson nailed a 40-yard field goal to put them up 23-15 heading into the fourth quarter.

Miami's first drive of the fourth quarter was a nine-play, 60-yard drive that ended with Hill's four-yard touchdown reception and Waddle's two-point conversion catch to make it a tie game, 23-23. The Jets took the lead once more after Carlson drilled a 42-yard field goal. With less than a minute remaining, the Dolphins offense orchestrated a drive that sent the game into overtime with Sanders 52-yard field goal.

Miami sacked Rodgers three times, with DT Zach Sieler coming away with two of these takedowns. LB Jordyn Brooks recorded a team-high nine tackles to go along with his sack and pass deflection.

MIAMI 12 | HOUSTON 20

	1	2	3	4	F
Houston	3	10	7	0	20

Miami had one of its best defensive performances of the season on Sunday afternoon, holding Houston's offense to just 181 total yards, but the Dolphins were unable to come out victorious, falling 20-12 to the Texans. Rookie LB Chop Robinson and DT Zach Sieler led the charge, combining for three sacks (1.5 each), six quarterback hits and four tackles.

The Dolphins punted on their opening possession, which led to the Texans scoring on their first drive. A 44-yard field goal by K Ka'imi Fairbairn gave Houston an early 3-0 lead with 7:09 left in the first quarter.

Sieler sparked the next defensive drive. On first-and-10 from the Texans' 38-yard line, Sieler thundered into Houston's backfield, forcing QB C.J. Stroud to throw it away. Two plays later on third-and-3, Sieler made his presence felt once again, bringing down Stroud for his first sack of the game and forcing the Texans to punt.

Miami tied the game following the defensive stop. Tagovailoa, with a 10-yard pass over the middle to TE Jonnu Smith and nine-yard and 13-yard completions to RB De'Von Achane, led the Dolphins on a lengthy, 12-play, 45-yard drive that took up 7:40 of game time. K Jason Sanders sent a 55-yard field goal down the middle of the uprights to tie the game, 3-3, with 11:35 left in the second quarter.

After a three-and-out, the Texans got the ball back after Tagovailoa was strip-sacked by DE Will Anderson Jr., which was recovered by DT Tim Settle Jr. at the Miami 28-yard line. Houston took advantage of the takeaway, as Stroud connected with WR Nico Collins on a six-yard touchdown pass. Miami answered with points of its own on the next possession, as a 10-play, 52-yard drive led to a 36-yard field goal by Sanders to cut Houston's lead to four with 1:57 left in the second quarter.

Both teams traded turnovers on their next drives. Miami obtained possession of the ball after a mishandled snap was recovered by LB Jordyn Brooks, but Houston regained possession after S Calen Bullock intercepted Tagovailoa and returned to the Dolphins' five-yard line. Fairbairn converted a 23-yard chip shot to widen Houston's lead to 13-6 at halftime. The Texans further extended their lead on the opening possession of the second half after putting together a nine-play, 70-yard touchdown drive that was capped by a six-yard touchdown pass from Stroud to Collins.

Down by two scores, Tagovailoa orchestrated Miami's strongest drive of the game. He made several pivotal throws, including a 21-yard pass on 3rd-and-16 to WR Tyreek Hill and a seven-yard strike to the back-right corner of the end zone on fourth-and-two to Smith. This brought the Dolphins within eight with 4:30 left in the third quarter.

After the Dolphins defense forced a three-and-out with 3:03 remaining in the third quarter, Miami's scoring hopes were halted by a cornerback Derek Stingley Jr. interception. The Dolphins defense refused to let up, forcing the Texans to punt on their next two possessions, but it would not be enough as a Stingley Jr. interception finalized the 20-12 contest.

Tagovailoa completed 29-of-40 passes (72.5 pct.) for 196 yards, one touchdown and three interceptions. This was his eighth consecutive game with a completion percentage of 70.0 or better. Smith caught nine passes for 48 yards (5.3 avg.) and a touchdown. Rookie WR Malik Washington had a career day, catching five passes for 52 yards (10.2 avg.). Achane added seven receptions for 35 yards (5.0 avg.) and 12 carries for 41 yards (3.4 avg.).

CB Kader Kohou made the play of the game for the Dolphins defense in Miami's 29-17 win over San Francisco on Sunday evening at Hard Rock Stadium. With the 49ers driving down the field, 49ers QB Brock Purdy was picked off by Kohou.

Three plays later, RB De'Von Achane iced the game on a 50-yard touchdown run that gave him 120 rushing yards and a score on 17 carries (7.1 avg.). He also added a team-high 70 receiving yards on six catches (11.7 avg.) for a season-high 190 total yards.

From the opening kickoff, Miami's defense came to play. The 49ers' first drive ended in a swift three-and-out. A second-down sack by LB Jordyn Brooks led to Miami's second consecutive stop to start the game.

QB Tua Tagovailoa connected with Achane several times en route to Miami's first score, a 44-yard field goal by K Jason Sanders. San Francisco responded with a touchdown on their next drive, embarking on a 10-play, 70-yard drive that was capped off by a 16-yard completion from Purdy to WR Deebo Samuel that gave the 49ers a 7-3 lead with 14:14 remaining in the second quarter.

Miami answered on its next two drives. The next possession was kicked off with a 24-yard completion from Tagovailoa to WR Tyreek Hill. Sanders knocked down a 38-yard field goal. Following a defensive stop, Miami ventured 68 yards downfield on eight plays to notch their first touchdown of the game. RB Raheem Mostert had a catch of 13 yards and a run of 21 yards to set the Dolphins up in scoring position. Tagovailoa finished off the drive with a three-yard touchdown to Hill for the 100th passing touchdown of his career, giving the Dolphins a 13-7 lead. 49ers K Jake Moody converted a 21-yard chip shot that cut the Dolphins' lead to 13-10 heading into halftime.

Starting with the ball to begin the second half, Miami went 34 yards on eight plays with Sanders making a 54-yard field goal. On the 49ers first posession of the second half, a missed 41-yard field goal by Moody. Miami drove to set up Sanders' fourth field goal of the game, this one from 33 yards away.

San Francisco did not back down in the fourth quarter, as they chipped into the Dolphins' lead on a nine-play, 60-yard drive that ended on a two-yard passing touchdown from Purdy to tight end Eric Saubert. The 49ers, down by just two, had a chance to score on their next drive with 9:31 left in the game, but they could only manage 27 yards on four plays and were forced to punt the ball away.

Following the San Francisco punt, Miami stretched their lead to 22-17 with 2:10 left in the fourth quarter on a 48-yard field goal by Sanders.

Tagovailoa completed 22-of-34 passes (64.7 pct.) for 215 yards and a touchdown. TE Jonnu Smith caught all six of his targets for 62 yards. During the game, he set the single-season franchise record for receptions and receiving yards by a tight end. Brooks, DT Zach Sieler and LB Chop Robinson all came away with sacks. Robinson also had a pass deflection on a key third down in the red zone that resulted in a 49ers field goal.

Cleveland	0	3	0	0	3

The Miami Dolphins kept their playoff hopes alive on Sunday afternoon, defeating Cleveland 20-3 at Huntington Bank Field. With the win, the Dolphins climb to 8-8 on the season and are just one game back from the final AFC wild card spot. Miami's defense disrupted Cleveland all game long. The Browns totaled just 276 yards of offense, with QB Dorian Thompson-Robinson completing 24 of his 47 passing attempts (51.1 pct.) for only 170 yards and an interception.

QB Tyler Huntley was dynamic in his fourth start of the season, making plays with both his arm and his legs. He ended the game completing 22-of-26 passes (84.6 pct.) for 225 yards and a touchdown, adding a game-high 52 rushing yards and a touchdown on seven carries (7.4 avg.).

Huntley started out the game strong, completing six of his first seven passes. He led Miami into scoring position on its second drive of the game, with K Jason Sanders nailing a 54-yard field goal to give the Dolphins an early 3-0 lead with 5:46 left in the first quarter. This was Sanders' ninth consecutive made field goal from 50-plus yards away, bringing his season total from such a distance to 12-of-14.

The Browns answered on their next offensive possession, as Thompson-Robinson and RB Jerome Ford led a 14-play, 66-yard drive that took up 7:20 of game time. Cleveland was able to move the ball inside of Miami's 10-yard line, but the defense held strong in the goal-to-go situation, forcing K Dustin Hopkins into a 25-yard field goal.

Punts from both teams maintained the 3-3 stalemate well into the second quarter when LB Tyrel Dodson, who had a game-high 15 tackles on the evening, made a pivotal defensive play for the Dolphins. On a first-and-10 pass intended for WR Jerry Jeudy, Dodson dropped back into coverage and picked off Thompson-Robinson at the 50-yard line. Dodson, a six-year veteran, has recorded both of his two career interceptions over his seven games this season with Miami.

The Dolphins defense made another crucial play later in the second quarter, stuffing RB D'Onta Foreman on fourth-and-1 to retain possession of the ball with 45 seconds left in the first half. Huntley led Miami into field goal position on this quick drive, completing passes of 12, seven and nine yards to rookie WR Malik Washington to set up a 39-yard field goal by Sanders as time expired to extend the lead to 6-3 at halftime.

Huntley continued his precise passing coming out of the break. He completed all four of his passes on Miami's first drive of the second half, with a 16-yard strike to WR River Cracraft presenting the Dolphins with their first trip to the red zone of the game. On the ensuing play, Huntley scrambled past the line of scrimmage and ran 13 yards into the end zone for a touchdown to widen Miami's lead to 13-3 with 11:04 remaining in the third quarter. This was Huntley's second rushing touchdown of the season.

The Dolphins defense continued to make big-time plays throughout the second half, including a strip sack by LB Emmanuel Ogbah that was recovered by DT Da'Shawn Hand, as well as a fourth-down stop in the red zone that preserved Miami's 10-point lead in the fourth quarter.

The offense iced the game with 3:38 left in the fourth, as Huntley connected with TE Jonnu Smith for a seven-yard score that gave the Dolphins a 20-3 lead. The touchdown was Smith's seventh receiving touchdown of the year, tying the single-season record by a Miami tight end. WR Tyreek Hill led the Dolphins with a team-high nine receptions for a game-high 105 yards (11.7 avg.). Washington had four receptions for 41 yards (10.3 avg.).

MIAMI 20 | N.Y. JETS 32

	1	2	3	4	F
N.Y. Jets	0	15	3	14	32

Miami started off their season finale by scoring the first six points of the game, but ultimately fell 32-20 to the N.Y. Jets on Sunday afternoon at MetLife Stadium.

The defense ignited Miami's first scoring drive. On the Jets' first offensive play, S Jevón Holland deflected a pass from QB Aaron Rodgers that was picked off by LB Tyrel Dodson, marking his second interception in the last two games and his third takeaway of the season. K Jason Sanders finished off the ensuing Miami drive with a 26-yard field goal to give the Dolphins a 3-0 lead with 11:46 remaining in the first quarter. Both defenses came away with stops on their next three possessions, which led to Miami's longest scoring drive of the game.

Starting at their own 14-yard line, Miami went 76 yards on nine plays – which included a 61-yard run by RB De'Von Achane – and ended the drive with a 28-yard field goal by Sanders to end the first quarter. The Jets put together a strong second quarter after Miami won the initial 15 minutes of action. Touchdown drives of 79 and 39 yards, both capped off by passes from Rodgers, gave the Jets a 15-6 lead at halftime.

Following a Miami fumble on their opening drive of the second half, the Jets widened their lead to 18-6 with a 20-yard field goal by K Greg Joseph to end a 10-play, 47-yard drive. Down by two possessions, the Dolphins answered with a 14-play, 78-yard scoring drive that took up 7:23 of game time. On this scoring drive, QB Tyler Huntley completed 5-of-7 passes for 53 yards. Achane, who finished the evening with 11 carries for 121 yards (11.0 avg.), ran in the 15-yard rushing touchdown to bring the Dolphins within five of the Jets' lead with 14:12 remaining in the fourth quarter.

Jets	4	2:30	B.Hall 6 yd. pass from A.Rodgers (G.Joseph kick) (9-70, 2:51)	20	32

This began a streak of four consecutive scoring possessions in the final quarter. Following a Jets touchdown, Miami answered with another touchdown of their own. Huntley found TE Jonnu Smith in the end zone for a four-yard score with 5:21 remaining in the fourth. This gave Smith his eighth receiving touchdown of the season, which is the most by a tight end in franchise history. He now holds the single-season franchise record for receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns by a tight end. The Jets extended their lead once more with a nine play, 70-yard touchdown drive that gave New York a 12-point lead with 2:30 left in the game.

On the evening, Huntley completed 25-of-41 passes for 227 yards (61.0 pct.), one touchdown and two interceptions, adding three carries for 16 yards (5.3 avg.). Achane's 121 rushing yards were a season-high and the most he's had in a game since Week 5 of the 2023 campaign. Smith led all pass catchers with a game-high nine receptions for 56 yards (6.2 avg.) and a score. Rookie WR Malik Washington caught four passes for 48 yards (12.0 avg.) and added three kickoff returns for 122 yards (40.7 avg.), including a career-high 67-yard return in the second quarter. DT Zach Sieler ended a very productive 2024 campaign with six tackles, two quarterback hits and 1.5 sacks. DT Calais Campbell recorded a sack of his own, while LB Emmanuel Ogbah added a 0.5 sack.

Fans had a chance to see several of Miami's young players and offseason acquisitions showcase their skills in the team's 20-13 win over the Atlanta Falcons in the preseason opener at Hard Rock Stadium.

Kicker Jason Sanders put Miami up on the scoreboard first with a career-long 58-yard field goal in the first quarter. Sanders's kick tied Caleb Sturgis (2013) for the longest field goal by a Dolphins player in a preseason game dating back to 2000.

Atlanta responded with a field goal of their own for 39 yards by kicker Younghoe Koo and an interception by cornerback Kevin King in back-to-back drives.

The Falcons were able to capitalize on the 29-yard pick return that put Atlanta on the Miami 16-yard line. Four plays later, running back Carlos Washington scored on a 1-yard touchdown run to close the first quarter 10-3 in favor of the Falcons.

Miami quickly responded on the next drive.

The Dolphins ran two plays for a gain of only seven yards before quarterback Skylar Thompson connected with tight end Tanner Conner on a 43-yard pass that put Miami on the Atlanta 25-yard line. Two plays later, rookie running back Jaylen Wright rushed for 16 yards, followed by a 3-yard run at the hands of running back Jeff Wilson Jr. to close the end of the first quarter. Wilson Jr. found the endzone two plays into the second quarter with a 6-yard pass from Thompson that evened the score 10-10. It was Thompson's ninth preseason touchdown pass of his career.

Four drives later, Wright scored his first NFL touchdown with a 6-yard run to close out the first half 17-10 in favor of the Dolphins.

Thompson commanded a Dolphins offense that totaled 181 yards in the first half of the game. Wright and Conner led the team in rushing and receiving, respectively, during the first half. Wright rushed for 40 yards on seven carries, while Conner contributed 49 receiving yards that included a 43-yard reception in the second quarter.

Thompson finished the evening with 8-of-19 passes completed for 95 yards and one touchdown before giving way to fellow quarterback Mike White in the second half of the exhibition game.

Things slowed down for both teams in the second half. Both squads combined for a total 197 yards of offense and one field goal apiece, both of which came in the third quarter.

The Falcons stroke first with a 53-yard field goal by Koo after a five-play drive that went for only 13 yards. The Dolphins responded by driving the football 42 yards in nine plays before settling for a Sanders 46-yarder that brought the score to an eventual final 20-13 in favor of Miami.

Miami finished the evening with 265 yards of total offense. Wright led the team in rushing with 55 yards in 10 carries (5.5 avg.) and one touchdown. Meanwhile Conner, who recorded three receptions, led the team in receiving with 70 yard (23.3 avg.).

Defensively, rookie safety Patrick McMorris led the team with eight total tackles (7 solo) and a pass defensed.

WASHINGTON 6 | MIAMI 13

	1	2	3	4	F
Washington	0	6	0	0	6

Miami fans got a sneak peek of the 2024 Dolphins during this year's second preseason matchup against the Washington Commanders, which featured several of Miami's starters early in the contest.

Miami held Jayden Daniels and the Washington offense to 46 yards and a failed 49-yard field goal attempt in the opening drive of the game.

It didn't take long for Miami to get on the board. With less than five minutes left in the first quarter, starting quarterback Tua Tagovailoa connected on a 13-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver River Cracraft, giving the Dolphins an early 7-0 lead.

Tagovailoa was perfect in his lone appearance of the night, completing five-of-five passes for 51 yards (10.2 avg.) and a touchdown.

The Commanders responded in the following drive with a 46-yard field goal by Riley Patterson, making the score 7-3 to start the second quarter.

Quarterback Skylar Thompson took over signal caller duties during Miami's second drive of the night, which ended on a three-and-out. The Commanders then drove the football 45 yards, but settled on a failed 43-yard field goal attempt—Washington's second failed field goal attempt of the evening.

SCORING DRIVES

TEAM	QTR	TIME	PLAY (EXTRA POINT) (DRIVE INFO)	WAS	MIA
Dolphins	1	4:36	R.Cracraft 13 yd. pass from T. Tagovailoa (J.Sanders kick) (11-61, 6:31)	0	7
Commanders	2	14:09	R. Patterson 46 yd. Field Goal (9-52, 5:27)	3	7
Dolphins	2	7:44	J. Sanders 39 yd. Field Goal (9-46, 2:44)	3	10
Dolphins	3	10:02	J. Sanders 33 yd. Field Goal (9-69, 4:58)	6	13

The Dolphins then went on a 46-yard drive that included a 26-yard reception by running back De'Von Achane from Thompson. Miami made it to the Washington 21-yard line, but failed to find the endzone.

Instead, kicker Jason Sanders extended Miami's lead with a 46 yard field goal to make the score 10-3.

Washington took over with 2:46 left in the first half and quarterback Jeff Driskel led the Commanders offense on a 26-yards, eight-play drive. However, Miami's defense held Washington to a 38-yard field goal to make the score 10-6 and end the half.

Things then slowed down for both team in the third quarter.

Miami moved the ball 69 yards to open the second half but settled on a 33-yard field goal by Sanders, which brought the score to an eventual 13-6 final.

However, the third quarter featured a pair of big plays by second-year running back Chris Brooks and wide receiver Erik Ezukanma.

During Miami's second offensive possession of the half, Brooks took off the right side on a 59-yard run but was stopped 10 yards short of the endzone by Commanders safety Tyler Owens. The run is the longest rush in the 2024 NFL preseason and the Dolphins' longest preseason rush since running back Salvon Ahmed's 65-yard rush vs. Houston in 2023.

Enzukanma then contributed with a 35-yard receptions from quarterback Mike White, who took over Miami's offense in the third drive of the second half.

In all, Miami totaled 288 yards of offense, while Washington put up 340.

Ezukanma led the team in receiving with 65 yards and five receptions (13.0 avg.). He caught two passes for more than 20 yards each—one for 35 yards and another for 24—becoming the second Dolphins player this preseason to have two catches of 20-plus yards in a game. That makes Miami one of only two teams (Chicago) this preseason to have at least two players record two-plus receptions of 20 or more yards in a game.

Meanwhile, Brooks led the team in rushing with 63 yards in five carries (12.6 avg.).

Defensively, safety Marcus Maye led the team with seven tackles (5 solo). Defensive tackles Neville Gallimore, Isaiah Mack and Brandon Pili each recorded 1.0 sack apiece, while safety Mark Perry and linebacker Channing Tindall shared a sack.

The win represented Miami's 10th victory in its past 15 preseason games, and it was Miami's 10th exhibition win against Washington. The Dolphins lead the preseason series 10-5 and have won four of the last five dating back to 1995.

Tampa Bay	7	10	0	7	24

The Miami Dolphins closed the 2024 NFL preseason campaign in Tampa Bay, falling to the Buccaneers 14-24.

The Buccaneers set the tone with two unanswered scoring drives in the first half.

Led by quarterback Baker Mayfield in the first possession of the game, Tampa Bay's offense manufactured a seven-play drive for 70 yards that ended with a four-yard touchdown run by running back Rachaad White.

Quarterback Kyle Trask took over on Tampa Bay's next possession, but the Dolphins defense held the Buccaneers to a three-and-out and kept them out of the endzone for the remaining of the first quarter.

Tampa Bay's first three-and-out gave the Miami special teams unit the opportunity to flash as rookie wide receiver Malik Washington returned the ensuing punt for 28 yards—the longest preseason punt return by a Dolphins player since Jakeem Grant's 34-yard punt return in 2021 at Chicago. ¬

After forcing the Buccaneers to punt in consecutive possessions, Miami took over with 2:47 left in the first quarter and Washington, again, showcased his speed. This time, it was a run up the right side that went for 40 yards before getting pushed out of bounds. Washington's 40-yard run ranked tied for sixth this preseason and was the longest by any wide receiver in the league. It was also the fourth-longest run by a Dolphins player in the preseason since at least 2017.

SCORING DRIVES

Buccaneers kicker Chase McLaughlin connected on a 51-yard field goal to start the second quarter, extending Tampa Bay's lead 10-0.

Washington added a 45-yard kick return to his all-purpose yards following Tampa Bay's field goal. The return tied for seventh in the 2024 NFL preseason and was the longest by a Dolphins player in an exhibition game since at least 2017.

After a Miami drive that ended with turnover on downs, Trask led the Buccaneers offense on another scoring drive in the ensuing possession. Wide receiver Ryan Miller found the endzone on a 10-yard pass from Trask to make the score 17-0.

Quarterback Mike White, who started the game for the Dolphins, led the offense halfway up until the second quarter before giving way to fellow quarterback Skylar Thompson.

Thompson took charge with 6:48 left in the first half and led Miami on a seven-play drive for 70 yards that ended with a 20-yard touchdown pass to tight end Hayden Rucci—the first of his career.

With the game at 17-7, the Dolphins kept the Buccaneers out of the endzone throughout the third quarter, while adding to their tally. Thompson connected on a one-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Kyric McGowan late in the third quarter, closing the gap and making the score 17-14.

Tampa Bay opened the fourth quarter with a scoring drive that ended with a 2-yard touchdown pass from Trask to wide receiver Tanner Knue that would seal the win for the Buccaneers with an eventual 24-14 final score.

Miami totaled 320 yards of offense. Thompson finished the night with 19-of-27 passes completed for 190 yards, two touchdowns and one interception. Defensively the Dolphins allowed 290 yards with linebacker Channing Tindall leading the team with 12 tackles (6 solo) and one QB hurry.

Miami finished the 2024 exhibition campaign with a 2-1 record, defeating Atlanta and Washington in Week 1 and Week 2, respectively, and falling at Tampa Bay in Week 3. The Dolphins now hold a 140-111-4 all-time preseason record.

THE MIAMI SEAHAWKS

The Miami Dolphins are recognized as the first professional sports team in South Florida. However, two decades before the Dolphins became a team, a small football franchise by the name of the Miami Seahawks played in the All-America Football Conference (AAFC) for one season in 1946.

After a league-worst 3-11 season and $400,000 of debt (equivalent to $6 million in 2025), the franchise was seized by the league and relocated to Baltimore where it was renamed the Colts. There were a number of central reasons for the franchise's failures:

1) The team was formed at the 11th hour and the league did not have a draft, meaning Miami had limited time to sign players while other teams had a year.
2) Miami's population at the time was just over 190,000 people, meaning it was the smallest city in the league and struggled to draw fans (a league-worst 9,000 attendance average).
3) The Seahawks faced a grueling schedule which included road games in seven of their first eight games – the Seahawks Head Coach Jack Meagher stepped down after the team's 1-7 start.
4) The Seahawks had major scheduling issues created by hurricanes in the South Florida area.

While the Miami Seahawks history only lasted 14 games, the AAFC was also short-lived. The league folded in 1949 with just three of the seven teams at the time joining the NFL (Baltimore Colts, Cleveland Browns and San Francisco 49ers). While the league only played four seasons from 1946-49, it did play a major role in shaping the future of the NFL. The AAFC, led by the coaching strategies of Browns Head Coach Paul Brown, introduced face masks, advanced offensive strategies and introduction of breaking down film. The league's coast-to-coast geography outpaced Major League Baseball by a decade and the league traveled by plane in contrast to the NFL's usage of trains, while also enlisting a 14-game schedule in comparison to the NFL's 12 games. Perhaps most notably, the AAFC popularized the zone defense, a scheme that would come to flourish in the NFL.

THREE DOLPHINS NAMED NFL MAN OF THE YEAR

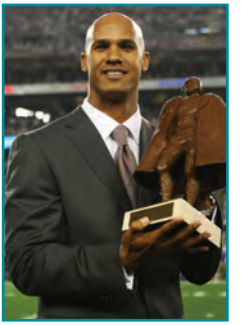

The NFL's Man of the Year award is the highest off-the-field honor attainable by an NFL player. It recognizes players for their excellence both on the field and in their communities.

Center Dwight Stephenson (1985), quarterback Dan Marino (1998) and defensive end Jason Taylor (2007) have each won the award while playing for the Dolphins. Miami is one of only eight teams to have three or more of its players receive the honor since it was instituted by the league in 1970. Kansas City, Chicago and Pittsburgh have had five players win the award, while San Diego and Dallas have had four players. Miami, Cincinnati and Philadelphia each boast three award winners.

TRADING PLACES

When the National Football League rescheduled the Dolphins' home game against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2017 from the season opener to the bye week on Nov. 19 because of the impending arrival of Hurricane Irma, it was not the first time the club had to change a contest's date or venue.

Since 1990, the Dolphins have had to alter the date or venue of a game seven times and are 3-4 in such games. This does not include several games whose dates were changed early in the 2020 season due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The following are games in which the Dolphins have either had to change a date or site on short notice since 1990:

9/7/92, Joe Robbie Stadium	NE	10/18/92, JRS	Hurricane Andrew	Dolphins, 38-17
10/26/97, Pro Player Stadium	Chi.	10/27/97, PPS	World Series	Bears, 36-33, OT

SHULA IS COACH TO HALL OF FAMERS

Hall of Fame and former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula has 15 of his former players enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. This total is tied for the seventh-most players that an NFL head coach has had inducted into the Hall of Fame, trailing only George Halas, who has 27 players enshrined, Vince Lombardi, Paul Brown and Tom Landry, who have 18 players inducted, George Wilson, who 16 players enshrined and tied with Chuck Knox, who also has 15 players inducted. Of this group, seven played for Shula while he was head coach of the Baltimore Colts (1963-69), while eight were on his teams with the Dolphins (1970-95). Additionally, Shula coached three quarterbacks (John Unitas, Bob Griese and Dan Marino) who would go on to the Hall of Fame.

Hall of Famers who played under Shula in Baltimore include DE Gino Marchetti (Class of 1972), WR Raymond Berry (1973), OT Jim Parker (1973), RB Lenny Moore (1975), QB Unitas (1979), LB Ted Hendricks (1990) and TE John Mackey (1992).

The Dolphins contingent includes WR Paul Warfield (1983), FB Larry Csonka (1987), Jim Langer (1987), Griese (1990), G Larry Little (1993), C Dwight Stephenson (1998), LB Nick Buoniconti (2001) and Marino (2005).

June 24	RB David Overstreet is killed in an automobile accident in Winona, Texas.
Oct. 21	WR Nat Moore catches a 19-yard TD pass from QB Dan Marino for the 58th touchdown of his Dolphin career, surpassing Larry Csonka's all-time club record of 57.
Nov. 11	The Dolphins remain the NFL's only unbeaten team as they improve their record to 11-0 (16 straight regular-season wins) with a 24-23 victory over Philadelphia. DE Doug Betters' block of an Eagle PAT with 1:52 remaining in the game seals the win.
Dec. 2	The Dolphins lose a 45-34 decision to the Raiders, but QB Dan Marino breaks the all-time NFL record for TD passes in a season with his 37th. His record-breaking touchdown pass, which came on a four-yard toss to Jimmy Cefalo in the first quarter, was the first of four on the day for Marino as he reached the 40-touchdown plateau. He also shatters Dolphin single-game records for most yards passing (470), most completions (35) and most attempts (57).
Dec. 17	Miami ends the regular season with the best record in the AFC (14-2) following a 28-21 victory over Dallas. WR Mark Clayton catches three touchdown passes to give him 18 for the season as he eclipses the all-time NFL mark in that category. Dan Marino becomes the first-ever NFL quarterback to pass for over 5,000 yards in a season as he ends up with 5,084. The most prolific passing season in NFL history also consists of 48 touchdown passes, 564 attempts, 362 completions and only 17 interceptions for a franchise record passer rating of 108.9. Both Clayton (73-1,389) and WR Mark Duper (71-1,306) surpass prior Dolphin records for receptions and reception yardage in one season.

Sept. 21	Miami suffers a heart-breaking 51-45 overtime loss to the N.Y. Jets in the Meadowlands as Dan Marino reaches 1,500 career attempts to qualify as the NFL's top-ranked passer of all-time. Marino finishes the afternoon 30 of 50 for 448 yards and six TDs. The six TDs are a personal high for Marino and tie the team record held by Bob Griese. Mark Duper (154) and Mark Clayton (174) each have over 100 yards receiving in the game.
Oct. 12	In what was billed as "Marino-Kelly I," the Dolphins and Dan Marino (24 of 41 for 337 yards) defeat the Buffalo Bills and Jim Kelly (20 of 28 for 218 yards, two INTs) 27-14 at the Orange Bowl.
Nov. 24	The N.Y. Jets enter the Orange Bowl with a nine-game winning streak and the league's best record at 10-1. They leave with a 45-3 loss as Lorenzo Hampton rushes for 148 yards and two TDs on 19 carries (7.8 average) including a 54-yard TD run. Hampton's 100 yards snap a streak of 36 regular-season games (41 overall) for Miami without a 100-yard rusher. Marino completes a personal-high 80.6 percent of his passes (29 of 36) for 288 yards and four TDs.
Nov. 25	Less than 24 hours after the memorable 45-3 win over the Jets, General Manager Mike Robbie announces at a press conference that Don Shula has signed a multi-year contract to remain as head coach.
Dec. 14	Dan Marino sets an NFL career record with the seventh 400-yard game of his career as he passes for 403 yards in a thrilling 37-31 overtime win in Anaheim, Calif., over the playoff-bound L.A. Rams. Marino completes 29 of 46 with five TDs, including a 20-yarder to Mark Duper in OT to win the game. Marino is named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts.
Dec. 22	The Dolphins play their final game in the Orange Bowl – a 34-27 loss to the New England Patriots. New England captures the AFC East title with the win. The Dolphins finish 21 years in the Orange Bowl with an impressive 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record. Marino sets NFL single-season records for completions (378) and attempts (623).

Jan. 10	John Offerdahl is named Old Spice NFL Rookie of the Year.
Jan. 20	Tom Olivadotti, an assistant for the Cleveland Browns, is named defensive coach for Miami. He is put in charge of the overall defense with the prime responsibility of pass defense. Chuck Studley is re-assigned as linebackers coach, with prime responsibility of run defense.

Aug. 16	The Dolphins play host to the Chicago Bears in the first game ever played in Joe Robbie Stadium. The date marks the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphin franchise. The Bears put a damper on the festive evening with a 10-3 preseason victory before 63,451. QB Dan Marino (dislocated ring finger on right hand) and LB John Offerdahl (torn right bicep) suffer injuries. Marino is out for three weeks; Offerdahl will miss the first six regular-season games.
Sept. 22	NFL Players Association goes on strike; the Dolphins' home contest with New York Giants (first regular-season game in Joe Robbie Stadium) on September 27 is canceled because of strike.
Oct. 4	The Dolphins' "replacement" team takes the field for the first time, traveling to Seattle to meet the Seahawks. The Dolphins lose, 24-20.
Oct. 11	Miami's replacement team records a 42-0 shutout victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in the first regular season game played in Joe Robbie Stadium. S Liffort Hobley (two interceptions, 55-yard fumble recovery for a TD, four tackles, two passes defensed) is named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts. Don Shula and Joe Robbie are given game balls by the replacement team following the contest in honor of Miami's first win in the new stadium. The next week (October 18), the replacement team loses its last game, 37-31 in overtime, to the N.Y Jets at the Meadowlands.
Oct. 25	After four missed weeks of action (one game cancellation, three replacement games), the regular Dolphin players return to action. Miami loses, 34-31, in overtime at home to the Buffalo Bills. The 21-point comeback by Buffalo is the best ever by an opponent against a Dolphins team at the time.
Nov. 1	Don Shula wins his 250th regular-season game as the Dolphins defeat Pittsburgh 35-24 at Joe Robbie Stadium.
Dec. 30	RB Troy Stradford is named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press

Oct. 9	The Dolphins reverse history by defeating the Raiders, 24-17, at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. It marks Miami's first win ever against the Raiders in their home stadium and the Dolphins' first victory over the Raiders in 10 years. The game is played in 96 degree heat - the warmest game in Dolphins' history.
Oct. 23	Dan Marino records the second-best single-game passing yardage total in NFL history – 521 yards (Norm Van Brocklin holds the single-game record of 554 yards) and completes 35 of a team record 60 attempts, all to no avail as the N.Y Jets defeat the Dolphins, 44-30, at Joe Robbie Stadium.
Oct. 30	Shula Bowl III – Head Coach Don Shula and his assistant head coach and son, David Shula, are on the opposite side of the field of Mike Shula, a coaches' assistant for Tampa Bay, as the Dolphins defeat the Bucs, 17-14, in Tampa Stadium.
Dec. 12	Dan Marino becomes the first quarterback in NFL history to pass for over 4,000 yards four times in a career in the Dolphins' 37-31 win over Cleveland. He also throws for his 193rd career touchdown, setting a new Dolphin record and surpassing the total of former QB Bob Griese, who had previously held the mark. Marino tops the record that took Griese 14 seasons to accomplish in only six-plus seasons. Also, WR Mark Clayton surpasses Nat Moore in the record books as he catches a pass in his 37th consecutive game.

Jan. 25	Former Miami Hurricanes defensive coordinator Dave Wannstedt joins the Dolphins coaching staff as linebackers coach.

Aug. 3	The Dolphins make the longest road trip in team history as they travel 14,912 round-trip miles to Tokyo to battle the Los Angeles Raiders at the Tokyo Dome in American Bowl '91. Miami comes from behind to defeat the Raiders, 19-17, before 51,122 Japanese fans.
Aug. 20	Dan Marino signs a five-year contract extension to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.
Sept. 22	Don Shula captures the 300th win of his coaching career with Miami's 16-13 win over the Green Bay Packers. With career coaching win number 300, Shula joins the immortal George Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more games.
Nov. 10	In Miami's 30-20 win over New England, both Mark Duper and Mark Clayton surpass Nat Moore's team record of 7,547 career receiving yards. Duper is the first to move past Moore with a 17-yard reception in the first quarter, while Clayton passes Moore with a 32-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter.
Nov. 18	During halftime of Miami's 41-27 loss to the Buffalo Bills, former Dolphin great LB Nick Buoniconti is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll, now known as the Ring of Honor.
Dec. 1	Dan Marino sets an NFL record as he goes over 3,000 yards passing in a season for the eighth time in his career in Miami's 33-14 win over Tampa Bay. Marino entered the 1991 campaign with seven such seasons and was tied with Joe Montana for the record.
Dec. 9	Miami defeats Cincinnati 37-13 in Shula Bowl V as Don Shula extends his record to 5-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time, Shula teamed with son Mike, a Dolphins coaches assistant, and was opposed by son David, the receivers coach for the Bengals. In the contest, Dan Marino sets an NFL record by throwing his 20th touchdown pass of the season. It is his ninth season with 20 or more touchdown passes. He entered 1991 with eight such seasons and was tied with Johnny Unitas for the record. Also, Mark Clayton breaks Nat Moore's team record for career TDs (75) and career receiving scores (74) with a 16-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter to give Clayton his 76th career score (75 catch, one punt return) and 75th receiving TD.
Dec. 15	Pete Stoyanovich breaks Garo Yepremian's single-season team record of 28 field goals in Miami's 38-30 loss to the San Diego Chargers. Stoyanovich boots his 29th of the year with a 24-yarder in the first quarter. He would go on to hit on 31 field goals during the 1991 season which tied for the league high with Washington's Chip Lohmiller.

Feb. 3	Hall of Fame DT Joe Greene is named as the Dolphins' defensive line coach.
May 20	Dolphins sign a long-term agreement to build a new training facility at Nova University in Davie, to be ready by the start of the 1993 training camp.
June 1	Charley Winner announces his retirement as Miami's director of player personnel. Winner, who had served 37 years in the NFL as a coach and administrator, originally joined the Dolphins in 1981.
June 4	Tom Heckert is named as the Dolphins' Director of Player Personnel. Heckert had worked the previous three years as Miami's director of college scouting.
June 12	Tom Braatz, a 27-year NFL executive with the Atlanta Falcons and Green Bay Packers, is named as Miami's director of college scouting.
July 17	Don Shula signs a two-year contract extension to continue as the Dolphins' Head Coach through the 1994 season. The extension takes effect at the conclusion of Shula's current contract which expires following the 1992 season.
Aug. 16	The Dolphins travel 9,908 round-trip miles and earn a 31-27 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 60,813 fans at Berlin's Olympic Stadium. The game marks the third time overall and second consecutive season that the Dolphins have traveled abroad to play a preseason contest and the win improves Miami's record to 3-0 in games played on foreign soil.
Aug. 31	Miami's season opening contest, scheduled for September 6 at Joe Robbie Stadium against the New England Patriots, is rescheduled for October 18, the National Football League announces. The date change is made in the aftermath of Hurricane Andrew, which struck the South Florida area on August 25. Both teams originally were off that weekend, based on the NFL's 16-games-over-17-weeks schedule which allows each team one bye during the season. The Patriots and Dolphins had their Open Week on September 6, which marked the beginning of the 1992 regular season.
Sept. 29	The Dolphins dip into the free agent market and sign perennial All-Pro TE Keith Jackson, a week after a federal-court ruling in Minneapolis made a free agent of Jackson, in addition to Garin Veris, Webster Slaughter and D.J. Dozier.
Oct. 4	In a 37-10 win over the Buffalo Bills at Rich Stadium, S Louis Oliver records three interceptions and returns one of his interceptions for a 103-yard touchdown. Oliver's return ties for the NFL's all-time longest interception return with a 103-yard return by San Diego's Vencie Glenn against Denver on November 29, 1987.
Oct. 18	Dan Marino throws four touchdown passes as Miami earns a 38-17 win over the Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium in a game that is rescheduled from September 6 due to the effects of Hurricane Andrew. Marino throws four-or-more touchdowns in a game for the 17th time in his career and ties the all-time NFL record for most career games with four or more touchdown passes with Johnny Unitas.
Nov. 16	During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 26-20 loss to the Buffalo Bills, the 1972 Miami Dolphins team, holders of the only perfect season in NFL history and winners of Super Bowl VII, are honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll, now known as the Ring of Honor.
Dec. 20	The Dolphins clinch the team's second trip to the playoffs in the last three seasons with a 19-17 come-from-behind win over the New York Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins QB Dan Marino throws the 290th touchdown pass of his NFL career and ties Johnny Unitas for second place on the NFL's all-time touchdown pass list.

Dec. 23	Dan Marino is named to his team-record seventh Pro Bowl team. He breaks the former team record of six Pro Bowl appearances which he shared with Bob Griese, Bob Kuechenberg and Jim Langer. In addition, Marino is named as a starter in the NFL's annual all-star game for the fifth time in his career and he ties the team record held by Jim Langer.
Dec. 27	The Dolphins clinch the AFC East title with a 16-13 overtime win over the New England Patriots at Foxboro Stadium. Miami closes the regular season with an 11-5 record and coupled with Buffalo's 27-3 loss at Houston later in the day, the Dolphins win the team's first division championship since 1985. In addition, the win marks the 300th regular season victory of Dolphins' Head Coach Don Shula's coaching career.

Jan. 10	The Dolphins earn a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory is the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the postseason by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on Jan. 2, 1972; a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 16, 1983; and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on Dec. 29, 1984.
Jan. 26	Kim Helton is named the team's offensive line coach. John Sandusky, who served as assistant head coach/ offensive line, remains with the team as assistant head coach and assumes the responsibility of coaching the tight ends. In addition, assistant offensive line coach Dwight Stephenson resigns to pursue his interests in the construction and real estate business.
Jan. 30	Former Dolphins great Larry Little is among a group of five named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The former Dolphins guard becomes the fifth player in Miami history to earn the honor, joining RB Larry Csonka, QB Bob Griese, C Jim Langer and WR Paul Warfield.
Feb. 7	The Dolphin coaching staff leads the AFC to a 23-20 overtime win over the NFC in the Pro Bowl contest played in Honolulu, Hawaii.
Feb. 11	Mike Shula resigns as a coaches assistant and is named as tight ends coach of the Chicago Bears.
Feb. 22	Tony Nathan, who spent the past five years as a coaches' assistant on the Miami Dolphins coaching staff, is promoted to offensive backs coach. In addition, Carl Taseff, who served as the team's offensive backs coach since joining the Dolphins in 1970, will become more active in other areas of the football operation, including personnel scouting and evaluation, and will maintain a continued involvement in various coaching responsibilities.
May 21	Kim Helton resigns as offensive line coach to become head coach at the University of Houston. John Sandusky, who served as offensive line coach from 1976-92, resumes his offensive line coaching responsibilities.
June 1	Rich McGeorge is named as assistant offensive line/tight ends coach of the Dolphins.
June 4	Dolphins hold last practice session at St. Thomas University, which had served as host to team's training facility since July 12, 1970.
July 11	Ribbon cutting ceremonies officially open the Dolphins' new training facility on campus of Nova University in Davie, Fla.
Sept. 12	Dan Marino surpasses the 40,000-yard passing mark during Miami's 24-14 loss to the N.Y. Jets. He joins Fran Tarkenton (47,003), Dan Fouts (43,040) and Johnny Unitas (40,239) as the only quarterbacks to gain 40,000 passing yards. Marino attains the 40,000-yard mark in only 153 regular-season games and accomplishes the feat faster than any QB in league history. The previous record for fastest ascent to 40,000 yards was 168 games by Dan Fouts.
Oct. 10	Scott Mitchell comes off the bench and replaces an injured Dan Marino (torn right Achilles) and throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 24-14 win at the Cleveland Browns. Mitchell enters the game just before halftime and completes 10 of 16 passes for 118 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. Mitchell is named as AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against the Browns. Marino is placed on injured reserve on October 13 and misses the remainder of the season.
Oct. 24	Dan Marino misses his first starting assignment in 145 consecutive non-replacement regular season games as Miami earns a 41-27 win over Indianapolis. The game marks the first-career NFL start at quarterback for Scott Mitchell as he hits on 12 of 19 passes for 190 yards with a touchdown. Mitchell becomes the eighth player to start at quarterback for the Dolphins since Don Shula was named head coach in 1970.
Oct. 31	Don Shula wins the 324th game of his coaching career and ties George Halas for the all-time record for most wins by an NFL head coach as Miami earns a 30-10 win over the Kansas City Chiefs. Shula achieves the coaching milestone in his 31st year (482nd game) of his NFL coaching career as compared to 40 seasons (506 games) for Halas to accomplish the feat. On the field, Scott Mitchell throws for 344 yards and three touchdowns and becomes the first Dolphin quarterback other than Dan Marino to pass for over 300 yards and throw three or more touchdown passes since David Woodley gained 408 yards and threw three scores on October 25, 1981, at the Dallas Cowboys.
Nov. 14	The Dolphins endure another QB injury as Scott Mitchell suffers a separated shoulder during Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia. The win enables Don Shula to record the 325th triumph of his coaching career as he becomes the winningest coach in NFL history surpassing George Halas. In the contest, Doug Pederson replaces Mitchell and enters the game in the third quarter with Miami trailing 14-13. He guides the Dolphins to a pair of field goals and the defense holds the Eagles scoreless in the second half to garner the victory.
Nov. 25	The Dolphins post a come-from-behind 16-14 win over the defending and eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys on Thanksgiving Day on a sleet covered field at Texas Stadium. Miami improves 3-0 on Thanksgiving as the team had posted victories at St. Louis (55-14 on November 24, 1977) and at Dallas (14-7 on November 22, 1973). In the contest, Miami trails 14-13 with just 15 seconds left in regulation and Pete Stoyanovich's 41-yard field goal attempt for the win is blocked by the Cowboys' Jimmie Jones. However, Dallas' Leon Lett attempts to pick up the loose ball and fumbles and Miami's Jeff Dellenbach recovers the ball on the one-yard line with three seconds remaining. Stoyanovich converts on his second chance and boots a 19-yard field goal on the game's final play to win the contest. The win improves Miami's record to an NFL best 9-2, but the team will fail to win another game during the remainder of the season.

Dec. 13	During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 21-20 loss to Pittsburgh, former Dolphin great and Hall of Famer Larry Little is honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll, now known as the Ring of Honor.
Dec. 14	Don Shula is named Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year. He is the first professional coach to receive the honor.

Jan. 24	The trustees of the Miami Dolphins sign a definitive agreement with H. Wayne Huizenga to purchase the Robbie family's interests in the Dolphin franchise. The agreement also includes an option for Huizenga to purchase the Robbies' interest in Joe Robbie Stadium.
Feb. 8	Joel Collier joins the Dolphins as a staff assistant, replacing Carl Taseff.
March 16	John Gamble is named as the Dolphins' strength coach.
March 23	The National Football League clubs approve transfer of the majority interests in the Miami Dolphins from the Robbie family to H. Wayne Huizenga at the annual league meetings in Orlando, Fla.
May 6	Rick Weaver, who had served as play-by-play announcer for the Dolphins since 1970, announces his retirement at the club's annual awards dinner.
June 28	H. Wayne Huizenga's purchase of the Robbie Family's remaining 85 percent of the Miami Dolphins as well as their 50 percent share of the Joe Robbie Stadium is finalized. The closing leaves Huizenga with 100-percent controlling interest of both the Dolphins and Stadium.
July 21	H. Wayne Huizenga announces that he has entered into a new agreement with Head Coach Don Shula that extends through the 1996 season. Under the new contract extension, Shula assumes the position of vice president/head coach, and also becomes a partner of the team.
Sept. 4	After missing the final 11 games of the 1993 season with a torn right Achilles' tendon, Dan Marino returns to action as he throws for 473 yards and five touchdowns to lead the Dolphins to a 39-35 win over the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium. Marino sets an NFL record by throwing for four or more touchdown passes in a game for the 18th time in his career, breaking his tie with Johnny Unitas, and also throws the 300th touchdown pass of his career to join Fran Tarkenton (343 touchdowns) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history with 300-plus career touchdowns.
Oct. 2	Shula Bowl VI makes sports history as it marks the first time in the history of the four major American professional sports (football, baseball, hockey and basketball) that a father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 6-0 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach or player as the Dolphins earn a 23-7 win over the Bengals.
Nov. 27	QB Dan Marino makes history once again with his famous "Clock Play". With the Dolphins trailing the Jets by 18 points in the second half at the Meadowlands, Marino orchestrates a 28-point second-half outburst, including 22 straight to close the contest, as Miami claims a 28-24 victory. All four scores in the second half occur on Marino to Mark Ingram touchdown passes. The game winning points come on first-and-goal with just 22 seconds to play, when Marino approaches the line of scrimmage, appearing poised to clock the ball. However, he takes everyone in the stadium by surprise as he receives the snap, drops back and tosses an eight-yard touchdown pass to Ingram, who ties the Paul Warfield's single-game record of four touchdowns and 24 points, which Warfield achieved against Detroit on December 15, 1973.
Dec. 7	Don Shula suffers a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg and undergoes surgery on the injury on December 9 by Dr. Peter Indelicato and Dr. Dan Kanell. He misses a regular-season practice for the first time in his 25 seasons with the team. Shula returns to practice on December 10 and coaches for the remainder of the season on a golf cart.
Dec. 12	Bernie Parmalee rushes for 127 yards and scores a pair of touchdowns (one rushing and one receiving) as the Dolphins clinch a playoff spot with a 45-28 win over the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins his 318th career regular season game and ties George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Center Dwight Stephenson is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies. The Dolphin Honor Roll is now known as the Ring of Honor.
Dec. 25	The Dolphins earn a 27-20 win over the Detroit Lions and clinch the AFC East title. Miami and the New England Patriots both finish with 10-6 records, however the Dolphins win the division title by virtue of a two-game head-to-head sweep over New England during the 1994 season. Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins the 319th regular season game of his coaching career and surpasses George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Miami plays on Christmas Day for the second time in team history with the only other Christmas game for the Dolphins being the longest game in NFL history as Miami earned a 27-24 playoff win in double overtime at Kansas City on December 25, 1971.
Dec. 27	DT Tim Bowens is named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press. He becomes the first Dolphins player to win the Associated Press' defensive rookie award since A.J. Duhe in 1977.
Dec. 31	Dan Marino throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lives up to its pregame hype. Marino completes 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana counters by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. Marino sets an NFL playoff record as he throws for a touchdown pass in his 11th consecutive post-season game and moves past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak in NFL post-season history.

Jan. 18	Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Line John Sandusky announces his retirement. A veteran of over three decades of NFL coaching (he concluded his 36th season in 1994), Sandusky was one of only two coaches to serve as offensive line coach on a Don Shula coached team. Sandusky was offensive line coach with the Colts (1963-69) and Dolphins (1976-94) under Shula, while Monte Clark coached the offensive line with the Dolphins under Shula from 1970-75.
Feb. 6	Monte Clark is named as the team's offensive line coach. Clark enters his third tour of duty with the Dolphins.
Feb. 9	Dolphins Executive Vice President and General Manager Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract to remain in that capacity through the 1996 season.
May 19	The Miami Dolphins sign a two-year agreement with WCMQ radio (1210 AM) to be the Spanish radio outlet for Dolphins games. WCMQ replaces WQBA radio, which had been the team's Spanish station for the previous 13 seasons.
Sept. 3	The Dolphins open the season with an explosive offensive display in a 52-15 win over the N.Y. Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. The 52 points are the second-highest single-game total in team history (behind 55 points at St. Louis on November 24, 1977). In addition, the game is played in 94-degree weather, making it the warmest home game in team history.
Oct. 1	The Shula coaching family again makes sports history as father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 7-1 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach or player with a 26-23 win at the Bengals.
Oct. 8	Dan Marino passes Fran Tarkenton (3,686 completions) to become the NFL's all-time leader in career pass completions with a six-yard toss to FB Keith Byars during the Dolphins' 27-24 overtime loss at Joe Robbie Stadium.
Nov. 12	Dan Marino becomes the NFL's all-time career passing yardage leader as he jumps past Fran Tarkenton (47,003 career yards) with a 9-yard pass to Irving Fryar in the first quarter of the Dolphins' 34-17 loss to the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium.
Nov. 26	Dan Marino tosses a 6-yard touchdown pass to FB Keith Byars with 1:03 remaining in the first half for his 343rd career scoring pass and becomes the NFL's all-time touchdown pass leader (surpassing Fran Tarkenton's 342 TDs) during Miami's 36-28 loss at Indianapolis.
Dec. 11	G/T Bob Kuechenberg is inducted into the Dolphins Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies of Miami's 13-6 win over Kansas City at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dan Marino breaks the last of Fran Tarkenton's major passing records (6,467 career attempts) with a pass attempt to WR Randal Hill in the fourth quarter. The Dolphins Honor Roll is now known as the Ring of Honor.
Dec. 24	The Dolphins post a 41-22 win at St. Louis to finish the regular season with a 9-7 record. The team clinches a playoff berth for the second consecutive season later in the day as the Denver Broncos come from behind late in the contest to win at Oakland and eliminate the Raiders from playoff consideration. Miami's win marks the 347th and final victory in the illustrious head coaching career of Don Shula.
Dec. 30	Miami's season ends following a 37-22 loss in an AFC First-Round Playoff Contest in Buffalo. The game is an offensive shootout as the teams combine for an NFL postseason record of 1,038 yards. Dan Marino leads the Dolphins by completing 33 of a career-high 64 pass attempts for 422 yards and a pair of scores, while WR O.J. McDuffie sets team playoff records with 11 catches for 154 yards. The game marks the final contest in Head Coach Don Shula's career.

Jan. 5	Don Shula, the winningest coach in the history of the NFL, moves from his role as head coach of the team as he assumes another role within the Dolphins organization. He continues to serve as a partner to Chairman of the Board and Managing General Partner H. Wayne Huizenga and becomes vice chairman of the board of directors in addition to his status as a partner of the team. Shula leaves the sidelines with an overall record 347-173-6 in his 33 years as a head coach, including the last 26 years with the Dolphins (1970-95). He won Super Bowl titles with Miami in 1972 and 1973, posting a combined 32-2 record in those two seasons, and his 1972 team went 17-0, the only undefeated season in NFL annals.
Jan. 11	Jimmy Johnson signs a four-year contract to become head coach of the Dolphins, becoming the third head coach in club history, joining George Wilson (1966-69) and Don Shula (1970-95). Johnson joins the team with one of the most successful coaching records in football on both the professional and collegiate levels before spending the previous two years as an NFL analyst for FOX Sports. He is the first head coach in football history to win both a Super Bowl title (Dallas, 1992 and 1993) and a national collegiate championship (University of Miami, 1987).
Jan. 16	Dolphins Chairman of the Board and Managing General Partner H. Wayne Huizenga announces that Eddie Jones has been named president and chief operating officer of the team, and Jimmy Johnson has been named as the club's general manager/head coach. Jones had spent the last six seasons with the team as the club's executive vice president and general manager.
Jan. 17	The Dolphins name Cary Godette (defensive line), Pat Jones (tight ends) and Bill Lewis (defense nickel package) to the coaching staff.
Jan. 19	Kippy Brown joins the Dolphins coaching staff as running backs coach.
Jan. 24	Bob Ackles is named as the director of football operations.
Feb. 16	The Dolphins name Larry Beightol as assistant head coach/offensive line, replacing Monte Clark. In addition to his coaching the offensive line, Beightol also assumes additional administrative responsibilities involving the entire football staff.
March 1	The Dolphins name Kevin O'Neill as head athletic trainer and Brad Roll as assistant strength and conditioning coach.
Aug. 26	Pro Player, a sports apparel company, enters into a 10-year agreement with Joe Robbie Stadium, home of the Dolphins since 1987, to re-name the stadium Pro Player Park. The deal is worth $2 million annually over the term of the contract.

Sept. 1	The Dolphins defeat the New England Patriots, 24-10, at Pro Player Park, in Jimmy Johnson's debut as head coach. Of the three head coaches in team history, Johnson is the only one to record a victory in his initial game. Also, rookie RB Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushes for 115 yards and a TD on 26 carries in Miami's victory over the Patriots, the first Dolphin rookie since Sammie Smith on November 5, 1989, against Indianapolis to rush for 100 yards. He also becomes the first player in Dolphins history to rush for 100 yards in his NFL debut.
Sept. 10	Pro Player Park is re-named Pro Player Stadium.
Oct. 27	QB Dan Marino plays in his 191st regular season game, against Dallas at Pro Player Stadium. In the process, he breaks Bob Kuechenberg's club career record for regular season games played of 190. The game is witnessed by 75,651 fans, the highest attendance figure in Pro Player Stadium history. The previous high was 75,129 for Super Bowl XXIII between San Francisco and Cincinnati on January 22, 1989. The former record for a Dolphins game was 73,080 for a November 20, 1995 contest against San Francisco.
Oct. 29	WQAM Radio (560 AM) signs a five-year contract for broadcast rights to the Dolphins, Florida Marlins and Florida Panthers. Dolphins football will be aired on WQAM beginning in the 1997 season and through the year 2001. The Dolphins' flagship station had been WIOD Radio since the team's inception in 1966.
Oct. 31	At the NFL fall meetings in New Orleans, the league awards the 1999 Super Bowl to the city of Miami. The game will be played at Pro Player Stadium.
Nov. 10	A 36-yard completion to O.J. McDuffie in the second quarter puts quarterback Dan Marino over the 50,000-yard mark for his career, the first quarterback in NFL history to reach that plateau. His eight-yard completion to Fred Barnett in the second quarter is the 4,000th completion of Marino's career, also making him the first quarterback in league history to achieve that feat. These accomplishments occur in a 37-13 victory over Indianapolis at Pro Player Stadium.
Nov. 25	At halftime of a 24-17 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers on Monday Night Football at Pro Player Stadium, former Head Coach Don Shula is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll, now known as the Ring of Honor.

Jan. 14	Miami Dolphins unveil a modified team logo and new uniforms for the 1997 season. The basic logo and team colors remain the same. The sunburst on the logo is more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeters, while the dolphin's features are accentuated by navy highlights. The home and road jerseys added a script "Dolphins" below the collar, and several subtle accents were added to the uniform to highlight and strengthen the team's traditional colors.
Jan. 25	Former Head Coach Don Shula (1970-95), the NFL's all-time winningest coach with 347 victories, is selected for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.
March 11	At the NFL spring meetings in Palm Desert, Calif., the league approves limited cross ownership, finalizing H. Wayne Huizenga's controlling-interest of the Dolphins.
March 21	Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract extension, which runs through 1998, to remain as the team's president and chief operating officer.
April 17	Les Koenning is named as an offensive assistant.
April 18	The Dolphins unveil the first "official" mascot in team history during a press conference at the team's training facility. He makes his public debut on April 19 at the team's Draft Day party at Pro Player Stadium.
June 3	Doug Blevins is named as the team's kicking coach.
June 4	"T.D." is picked as the name of the Dolphins official team mascot, it is announced at the team's annual Awards Banquet. Sarah Fernandez and her two sons, Nelson and Vincent, win the "Name the Mascot" contest, and receive two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII in San Diego.
July 26	Don Shula becomes the sixth former Dolphin to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.
Aug. 4	The Dolphins travel to Mexico City and earn a 38-19 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 104,629 fans at Estadio Guillermo Canedo. The attendance is the most to ever witness a Dolphins game, surpassing the previous high of 103,667 that saw Miami's 27-17 loss to Washington in Super Bowl XVII on January 30, 1983, in the Rose Bowl. The game marks the fourth time overall that the Dolphins have travelled abroad to play a preseason contest and the win improves Miami's record to 4-0 in games played on foreign soil. Miami's previous American Bowl games had been in London (1988), Tokyo (1991) and Berlin (1992). The Dolphins became the first NFL team to win four American Bowl contests, and they also became the first team to win an American Bowl matchup in each of the three continents in which the games have been played.
Aug. 31	The Dolphins defeat the Indianapolis Colts, 16-10, at Pro Player Stadium in their 1997 season-opener. It's the Dolphins' first-ever regular season game in the month of August. It also marks their sixth consecutive opening-day victory.
Oct. 5	The Dolphins defeat the Kansas City Chiefs, 17-14, at Pro Player Stadium, marking the 300th victory in franchise history, including playoffs. The Dolphins become the second team from the old AFL to reach the 300-win plateau. The Oakland Raiders were the first.
Dec. 22	In the season finale against New England at Pro Player Stadium, left tackle Richmond Webb starts his 110th consecutive regular season game, a new Dolphins record. His 109 straight starts were tied with Jim Langer. The Patriots win the game, 14-12, giving New England the AFC East title. A win by the Dolphins would have made them AFC East champions, but instead they enter the playoffs as a Wild Card team where they must go on the road to face the Patriots the following week, a 17-3 Dolphins loss on December 28.

Jan. 24	Former Dolphins C Dwight Stephenson (1980-87) is among a group of five who are elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Feb. 11	Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson announces changes to the team's coaching staff: Kippy Brown, the Dolphins' running backs coach for the last two years, is named as offensive coordinator, replacing Gary Stevens; Larry Seiple, formerly the club's wide receiver coach, handles the quarterbacks; Joel Collier, a defensive assistant since 1994, coaches the running backs; Robert Ford, tight ends coach with the Dallas Cowboys since 1991, takes over as Miami's wide receivers coach; and Randy Shannon, an assistant at the University of Miami (Fla.), serves as a defensive assistant on the staff.
March 23	Jimmy Johnson signs a one-year contract extension to remain the Dolphins' general manager and head coach through the year 2000. Johnson originally signed a four-year contract with the club on January 21, 1996.
Aug. 1	C Dwight Stephenson becomes the seventh former Dolphin to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He is inducted along with Anthony Muñoz, Mike Singletary, Tommy McDonald and Paul Krause.
Nov. 29	In a 30-10 victory over the New Orleans Saints at Pro Player Stadium, quarterback Dan Marino throws three touchdown passes, all to O.J. McDuffie. The second one, a seven-yard strike in the fourth quarter, the 400th TD pass of Marino's career, the first QB in NFL history ever to reach that plateau.
Dec. 21	The Dolphins record a 31-21 victory over the Denver Broncos at Pro Player Stadium in front of an ABC Monday Night Football audience. The win is Miami's 34th on Monday night, as they surpass Oakland as the winningest team in MNF history.
Dec. 27	In a season-ending 38-16 loss to the Falcons in Atlanta, WR O.J. McDuffie catches five passes for 82 yards. His second reception of the afternoon, a 28-yard catch in the second quarter, is his 87th of the season, surpassing Mark Clayton (86 in 1988) as the Dolphins' single-season reception leader. McDuffie finishes the year with an NFL-high 90 receptions, the first Dolphin ever to lead the league in this category.

Jan. 2	The Dolphins defeat the Buffalo Bills, 24-17, in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at Pro Player Stadium. It represents Miami's first playoff win since December 31, 1994, when they posted a 27-17 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in a First-Round contest at Pro Player Stadium.
Jan. 14	Dave Wannstedt, head coach with the Chicago Bears from 1993-98, is named the Dolphins' assistant head coach.
Jan. 21	Paul Boudreau is named offensive line coach.
March 2	Eddie Jones signs a three-contract to remain as the team's president and chief operating officer.
Sept. 13	The Dolphins defeat the two-time defending Super Bowl champion Denver Broncos, 38-21, in a season-opening Monday night game at Mile High Stadium. The win was the 300th during the regular season in Dolphins history.
Oct. 10	The Dolphins set a franchise record by posting 25 fourth-quarter points, and in the process erase a pair of nine-point deficits to earn a 34-31 triumph over the Colts at the RCA Dome. QB Dan Marino throws a pair of touchdowns in the final period, including a 2-yard strike to Oronde Gadsden with 27 seconds to play, lifting Miami to victory. It marks the 35th time in Marino's career that he has led the Dolphins back from a fourth-quarter deficit for a win.
Oct. 17	Dan Marino completes an 8-yard pass to Tony Martin in the first quarter against the New England Patriots at Foxboro Stadium. The completion, the first and only one of the game for Marino, puts him over the 60,000-yard passing plateau for his career, the only quarterback in NFL history to attain that mark. Marino leaves the game following the next series with a shoulder injury, forcing him to miss the next five contests. Damon Huard relieves Marino with the Dolphins trailing 7-0. After his first attempt is picked off and returned for a touchdown by Ty Law, Huard goes on to complete 24 of 42 passes for 240 yards with two touchdowns in leading the Dolphins to a 31-30 victory. The game-winning points occur on a 5-yard TD pass to Stanley Pritchett with 23 seconds remaining in the game. The Dolphins become the first team in NFL history to win back-to-back road games when trailing by seven or more points after the third quarter.
Dec. 5	Former WR Nat Moore becomes the 12th member of the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies against the Indianapolis Colts at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphin Honor Roll is now known as the Ring of Honor.
Dec. 12	K Olindo Mare accounts for two field goals against the Jets at the Meadowlands. His first field goal of the game, a 24-yarder, was his 32nd of the season, breaking Pete Stoyanovich's club single-season records of 31, which Stoyanovich had set in 1991.
Dec. 21	CB Sam Madison, K Olindo Mare and LB Zach Thomas are named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad, the first selection for all three. Madison becomes the first cornerback in team history to be voted to the Pro Bowl squad.
Dec. 27	K Olindo Mare boots a 37-yard field goal against the Jets in a Monday night game at Pro Player Stadium. The field goal was his 38th of the season, as he became the NFL's single-season field goal leader, surpassing John Kasay, who had amassed 37 field goals with Carolina in 1996. Mare would finish the season with 39 field goals.

Jan. 9	The Dolphins defeat the Seattle Seahawks, 20-17, in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at the Kingdome, the final football game at the stadium. The win is Miami's first road playoff victory since they defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1972 AFC Championship Game at Three Rivers Stadium. QB Dan Marino completes 17 of 30 passes for 196 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions in the victory, in which he guides a late drive that leads to the game-winning touchdown with 4:48 remaining.
Jan. 15	The Dolphins drop a 62-7 decision to the Jacksonville Jaguars in an AFC Divisional Playoff game at ALLTEL Stadium. The contest is the final one in the playing career of QB Dan Marino and coaching career of Jimmy Johnson.

Jan. 24	Jim Bates is named defensive coordinator, replacing George Hill. Clarence Brooks is named defensive line coach, replacing Cary Godette.
Feb. 1	Chan Gailey, the head coach with the Dallas Cowboys from 1998-99, is named offensive coordinator. Randy Shannon, a defensive assistant with the Dolphins from 1998-99, is promoted to linebackers coach.
Feb. 7	Mike Shula, the offensive coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1996-99, re-joins the Dolphins as quarterbacks coach, replacing Larry Seiple. Shula previously had served as an assistant on Miami's coaching staff from 1991-92. Judd Garrett is named as an offensive assistant, and Robert Nunn is named as a defensive assistant.
Feb. 10	QB Dan Marino, the Dolphins' first-round draft choice in 1983 and the NFL's all-time leading passer, voids the final two years of his contract, thus becoming a free agent.
Mar. 13	Dan Marino announces his retirement from professional football.
Apr. 14	The Dolphins unveil Dan Marino's permanent encased locker at the team's Nova Southeastern University training facility, the first of its kind in club history.
May 3	The Dolphins name Rick Spielman as vice president-player personnel.
June 12	Huizenga Holdings, Inc., the private company that represents many of the non-publicly traded business interests of the Huizenga family, announces that it retained the investment banking firm of Morgan Stanley Dean Whitter to explore strategic alternatives regarding the financial structure of the Miami Dolphins and Pro Player Stadium. Alternatives include the potential of additional investors in the team and the stadium, as well as naming rights for the stadium.
Aug. 21	The portion of N.W. 199 Street in front of Pro Player Stadium is re-named "Dan Marino Boulevard." The new address for the Dolphins' home becomes 2269 Dan Marino Boulevard.
Aug. 23	More than 50,000 fans show up at Pro Player Stadium for the public tribute to Dan Marino. The night's festivities include appearances by the five other members of the famed quarterback "Class of '83" – John Elway, Jim Kelly, Todd Blackledge, Tony Eason and Ken O'Brien – as well as former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula and former Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw. The band "Hootie and the Blowfish" provide the musical entertainment, while the four-hour event concludes with a fireworks display.
Sept. 3	Jay Fiedler opens at quarterback in the Dolphins' season-opener against Seattle at Pro Player Stadium. Fiedler is the first quarterback to start on opening day for the Dolphins other than Dan Marino since 1983. Fiedler completes 15 of 24 passes for 134 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions in the Dolphins' 23-0 win, the third shutout victory on opening day in franchise history and the first since 1983.
Sept. 17	The Dolphins defeat the eventual Super Bowl champion Baltimore Ravens, 19-6, in a game that was played through a steady rain at Pro Player Stadium. At halftime of the game, former quarterback Dan Marino has his jersey No. 13 retired, the second Dolphin ever to receive that honor. He also becomes the 13th member of the Dolphin Honor Roll, now known as the Ring of Honor.
Dec. 24	The Dolphins earn a 27-24 victory over the Patriots on Christmas Eve at Foxboro Stadium to claim the 12th AFC East title in club history and the first since 1994. Thirty-five minutes following the apparent conclusion of the game, both teams are summoned back onto the field after it is determined that three seconds still remain with the Patriots having the ball at their own 40. Michael Bishop's final pass attempt of the game falls incomplete at about the Dolphins' 25.
Dec. 30	The Dolphins erase a 14-0 third-quarter deficit by scoring 23 of the next 26 points en route to a 23-17 overtime win against the Colts in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at Pro Player Stadium. It marks the second-largest comeback win in Dolphins postseason annals. The winning points are scored on a 17-yard run by running back Lamar Smith with 3:34 to play in the first overtime. It caps a day in which Smith set an NFL playoff record with 40 rushing attempts. His 209 rushing yards is the second-highest figure in NFL playoff history and the most-ever by a Dolphin (regular season or postseason) at the time.

Jan. 15	Keith Armstrong is named special teams coach and Tony Wise is hired as offensive line coach.
Jan. 27	Former LB Nick Buoniconti, who anchored Miami's "No-Name" defense, leading the Dolphins to two straight Super Bowl victories, becomes the eighth former Dolphin to be elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, and the first defensive player.
Feb. 2	Head Coach Dave Wannstedt signs a one-year contract extension through the 2003 season.
Mar. 1	Bob Sanders is named linebackers coach, replacing Randy Shannon, who became the defensive coordinator at the University of Miami.
May 9	Vice President of Player Personnel Rick Spielman signs a one-year contract extension through the 2003 season. In addition, Ron Labadie is promoted to director of college scouting, after serving as the Dolphins' Midwest scout since 1990. Tom Braatz, the team's director of college scouting since 1992, is named as a scout, and John Crea is named as the Dolphins' Midwest area scout.
June 4	George Paton is named director of pro personnel.
Aug. 4	Former LB Nick Buoniconti is inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the eighth Dolphin and first defensive player to earn that honor.
Sept. 13	In the wake of the September 11 terrorist attacks, the NFL announces that it will cancel games for the weekend of September 16-17. The Dolphins game against the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium is re-scheduled for Sunday, January 6.
Dec. 10	The Dolphins earn a resounding 41-6 victory over the Indianapolis Colts on a Monday night at Pro Player Stadium, the last game that these two teams would play as AFC East opponents, prior to realignment in 2002. For the Dolphins, it is their 36th victory on Monday Night Football, as they surpass San Francisco as the winningest team in MNF history.
Dec. 16	The Dolphins are handed a 21-0 shutout by the San Francisco 49ers at 3Com Park. Coupled with their 24-0 loss to the Jets at Pro Player Stadium on November 18, it marks just the third time in franchise history and the first time since 1970 that the Dolphins suffer two shutout losses in the same season.
Dec. 22	Playing their third game in 13 days, the Dolphins drop a 20-13 decision to the New England Patriots in the last regular season game ever played at Foxboro Stadium.

Dec. 30	With a 21-14 win over Atlanta at Pro Player Stadium, the Dolphins clinch their fifth playoff appearance in a row, as they become the only NFL team to reach the postseason in each of these five years, a span ranging from 1997-01.

2002

Jan. 28	Bryan Wiedmeier is promoted to executive vice president and chief operating officer and Rick Spielman is promoted to senior vice president – football operations/player personnel.
Feb. 5	The Dolphins name Norv Turner as their assistant head coach/offensive coordinator.
Feb. 13	Head Coach Dave Wannstedt signs a one-year contract extension through the 2004 season.
March 14	The Dolphins and WQAM Radio sign a new two-year contract for the station to continue to serve as the team's flagship through 2003.
June 5	At the team's annual Kickoff Banquet, President Eddie Jones announces that former RB Larry Csonka will have his uniform jersey No. 39 retired during halftime ceremonies of the Dolphins' December 9 game against Chicago at Pro Player Stadium. Csonka will become the third player to receive this honor, joining QB Bob Griese (No. 12 on May 6, 1982) and QB Dan Marino (No. 13 on September 17, 2000).
Sept. 8	The Dolphins record their 11th consecutive opening day victory with a 49-21 decision over the Detroit Lions at Pro Player Stadium. Making his Dolphins debut, RB Ricky Williams rushes for 111 yards and two touchdowns on 20 carries, the fifth-highest rushing total by a player in his initial appearance as a Dolphin.
Sept. 22	The Dolphins snap an eight-game losing streak to the Jets with a convincing 30-3 win at Pro Player Stadium. The victory also marks the Dolphins' 17th straight at home during the regular season in the months of August/September. Ricky Williams rushes for 151 yards and a touchdown on 24 attempts, becoming the first player in team history to amass three straight 100-yard rushing games. Coupled with his 132-yard effort the previous week at Indianapolis, his two-game rushing total of 283 yards sets a new Dolphins record, surpassing the old mark of 273, which had been held by Bernie Parmalee since 1994. Williams will go on to break this two-game record three subsequent times during the course of the season.
Oct. 13	In their first of four prime-time appearances of the year, the Dolphins register a 24-22 win over the Denver Broncos in their first-ever visit to INVESCO Field at Mile High. Jason Elam's 55-yard field goal with 45 seconds to play gives Denver a 22-21 lead. Olindo Mare counters with a 53-yarder with six seconds remaining to lift the Dolphins to the victory. It marks the first time in NFL history that a kicker from each team has accounted for a field goal of 50 yards or longer with less than a minute to play in a game.
Nov. 24	Ricky Williams establishes a new club single-season standard with his sixth 100-yard rushing game of the season with a 143-yard, two-touchdown effort in a 30-3 victory over San Diego at Pro Player Stadium. He breaks the old mark of five, which was first set by Delvin Williams in 1978.
Dec. 1	Ricky Williams further etches his name into the Dolphins' record book when he rushes for 228 yards and two touchdowns on 27 carries in a 38-21 loss to the Bills in Buffalo. This single-game total surpasses the previous record of 209 yards, set by Lamar Smith in a 2000 First-Round Playoff victory over Indianapolis. In the process, Williams also surpasses Delvin Williams' club single-season record of 1,258 yards, achieved in 1978. In addition, with Williams overtaking the 1,200-yard rushing mark, the conditional third-round draft choice in 2003 that the Dolphins sent to the Saints in the trade for Williams on March 8, now becomes a second-round pick.
Dec. 9	In a 27-9 victory over the Chicago Bears in a Monday night game at Pro Player Stadium, Ricky Williams becomes just the third player (fourth time) in NFL history to amass back-to-back 200-yard rushing games, as he runs for 216 yards and two touchdowns on 31 carries. He joins Hall of Famers O.J. Simpson (1973, 1976) and Earl Campbell (1980) as the only players to achieve this feat. His two-game rushing total of 444 yards is the fourth-most in NFL annals, while his 587 yards over the three-game span is third-most in league history. In the process, he breaks his own club record with his fourth consecutive 100-yard rushing performance. It also represents his fourth straight game with a pair of rushing scores. His total for the game gives him 1,500 yards for the season, as the second-round draft choice that the Saints get from the Dolphins as part of the trade now becomes a first-rounder in '03. At halftime of the game, former FB Larry Csonka has his jersey No. 39 retired, just the third Dolphin ever to receive that honor, joining QBs Bob Griese (No. 12) and Dan Marino (No. 13).
Dec. 21	Jason Taylor is credited with 1.5 sacks as he ties Bill Stanfill's club single-season record for sacks with 18.5, during the game against the Vikings at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome. Taylor also extends his streak of consecutive games with a sack to eight. That streak will come to an end in the season finale the following week as he is shut out by the Patriots. Taylor's sack total leads the NFL in 2002, as he becomes the first Dolphin ever to achieve that feat.
Dec. 29	Ricky Williams rushes for 185 yards and two touchdowns on 31 attempts against the Patriots in Miami's first-ever visit to Gillette Stadium. His second score of the game occurs on a 14-yard run in the second quarter, his 16th rushing score of the season and establishes a new Dolphins single-season record for rushing touchdowns, surpassing the previous mark of 15 set by Karim Abdul-Jabbar in 1997. Williams also finishes the year as the team's single-season leader for rushing yards (1,853), attempts (383), 100-yard rushing games (10) and total yards from scrimmage (2,216). His rushing yardage total also leads the NFL in 2002, as he becomes the first Dolphin ever to earn that distinction.

Feb. 2	Ricky Williams rushes for 56 yards and two touchdowns on 11 attempts, catches three passes for 18 yards while also forcing a fumble on special teams in the AFC's 45-20 victory over the NFC in the Pro Bowl in Honolulu. For his efforts, Williams is named the game's MVP, just the second Dolphin ever to win that honor, joining K Garo Yepremian who came away with the award in the 1974 game.
Feb. 13	The Dolphins name Glenn Pires as assistant defensive line coach.
May 2	Tom Braatz, a veteran of 38 seasons as an NFL front office executive, announces his retirement. Chris Grier, the team's southeast college scout the past three years, is promoted to national scout.

May 9	QBs Coach Mike Shula, who played quarterback at the University of Alabama from 1983-86, is introduced as the school's head coach.
Oct. 27	The Dolphins record a 26-10 victory over the San Diego Chargers in a Monday night game at Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe, Arizona. The game originally was scheduled to be played at Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego, but is moved because of wildfires that devastate Southern California. After arriving in San Diego Sunday evening, the Dolphins board a flight to Phoenix the morning of the game, at approximately 11:00 a.m. (PT).
Nov. 23	In a Sunday night game against Washington at Pro Player Stadium, the Dolphins don orange jerseys in a 24-23 win over Washington. It is the first time in franchise history that the Dolphins have worn a jersey color other than white or aqua.
Nov. 27	The Dolphins improve their Thanksgiving Day record to 4-1 with a 40-21 victory over the Dallas Cowboys at Texas Stadium. The Dolphins wear their "throwback" jerseys, commemorating the 30th anniversary of the 1973 team that captured the club's second straight Super Bowl title.
Dec. 15	At halftime ceremonies against the Philadelphia Eagles at Pro Player Stadium, former wide receivers Mark Duper and Mark Clayton become the 14th and 15th members of the Dolphins Honor Roll, now known as the Ring of Honor.
Dec. 21	In a 20-3 win over the Buffalo Bills at Ralph Wilson Stadium, DE Jason Taylor registers three sacks, and in the process becomes the Dolphins' all-time sack leader, surpassing Bill Stanfill, whose mark of 67.5 had stood since 1976.
Dec. 29	Chairman of the Board and Managing General Partner H. Wayne Huizenga announces that the Dolphins will restructure their football operations for the 2004 season, including the search for a general manager who will be responsible for all personnel matters on both the professional and college levels, as well as the makeup of the Dolphins roster. Head Coach Dave Wannstedt is given a two-year contract extension through the 2006 season.

Jan. 12	Rick Spielman is promoted to general manager from senior vice president-football operations/player personnel, a position in which he had served since 2002. He first joined the club as vice president-player personnel since 2000. In addition, Dan Marino is named senior vice president/football operations.
Jan. 26	Joel Collier is promoted to offensive coordinator from running backs coach. He takes over the spot which became vacant when Norv Turner was named head coach with he Oakland Raiders. Marc Trestman is named assistant head coach/quarterbacks. Miami native Jerry Sullivan is appointed wide receivers coach.
Feb. 2	Bernie Parmalee is promoted to running backs coach from assistant special teams/offensive assistant, while Chris Foerster is named tight ends coach after handling that same position with the Indianapolis Colts each of the previous two seasons.
Feb. 3	Dan Marino resigns as senior vice president/football operations, saying, "I knew it would involve a significant lifestyle change but after further reflection, it became clear that those adjustments were ones that my family and I are not prepared to make at this time. As a result, I have decided that it would not be in the best interests of either my family or the Miami Dolphins to assume the role as the team's senior vice president of football operations."
May 10	Head Coach Dave Wannstedt announces several adjustments to the coaching staff for the 2004 season. Chris Foerster, who was hired earlier in the offseason to coach the team's tight ends, was named offensive coordinator. Joel Collier will return to coaching the running backs, a position that he had held since 1998. Bernie Parmalee, who had been named running backs coach in the offseason following two years as an offensive assistant, will tutor the Dolphins' tight ends. These changes were necessitated because of health-related reasons on the part of Collier.

The last time the Dolphins won consecutive games trailing by 14-plus points in a second half was a three-game streak from Sept. 14-28, 1980. The Dolphins were down 14-0 and won 17-14 vs. Cincinnati on Sept. 14, trailed 17-3 and rallied back to a 20-17 win at Atlanta on Sept. 21 and down 16-0 vs. New Orleans and came back to a 21-16 win on Sept. 28.
Nov. 5	LS John Denney plays in his 200th NFL game against the Oakland Raiders, having played in every game since making his NFL debut on Sept. 11, 2005. He becomes one of just three Dolphins to appear in 200 games with the team, joining QB Dan Marino (242) and DE Jason Taylor (204).
Dec. 11	The Dolphins record a 27-20 win over the defending Super Bowl champion New England Patriots at Hard Rock Stadium. Miami holds the Patriots to zero third-down conversions (0-11). It's the first time in the Bill Belichick-era a New England offense was held without a third-down conversion. With the victory, the Dolphins defeat both Super Bowl participants from the previous season after Miami also defeated Atlanta in Week 6. The only other season the Dolphins have done this is 1993, when they beat the defending AFC champion Buffalo Bills on Sept. 26 and the Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 25.
Dec. 31	WR Jarvis Landry records nine receptions against Buffalo and totals 112 receptions for the 2017, which leads the NFL and breaks his own single-season franchise record of 110 that he set in 2015. He joins O.J. McDuffie (90 receptions in 1998) as the only Dolphins to lead the NFL in that category.

Jan. 19	The Dolphins announce changes to their coaching staff. The team hires Dowell Loggains as offensive coordinator and Jeremiah Washburn as offensive line coach. Additionally, the following staff members have changed titles: Shawn Jefferson will be assistant head coach/offense, Ben Johnson will now serve as wide receivers coach and Clyde Christensen will be director of football and player development.
Jan. 31	The Dolphins announce they have hired Eric Studesville as run game coordinator/running backs coach, Kris Kocurek as defensive line coach and Tony Oden as defensive backs coach.
Feb. 9	Renaldo Hill is named assistant defensive backs coach. Hill, who played safery with the team from 2006-08, will be the 10th person to both play and coach with the Dolphins.
April 19	The Dolphins re-sign T Vernon Carey, WR Chris Chambers, DE Jeff Cross, LB/DE A.J. Duhe, P Brandon Fields and DT Paul Soliai. Each player signs a one-day contract and officially retire as members of the Dolphins. The players combined to play 46 seasons for the Dolphins, totaling 681 games played and five Pro Bowl selections.
July 10	Six former players are named to the team's Walk of Fame this season: S Dick Anderson, WR Mark Clayton, WR Mark Duper, T Jon Giesler, LB John Offerdahl and DE/LB Jason Taylor. The six combined to earn 22 Pro Bowl selections, seven first-team All Pro nods, won seven AFC Championships and two Super Bowl titles. The group collectively played 61 seasons for the Dolphins, appearing in 828 games with 741 starts.

Sept. 9	As a result of two separate delays due to lightning in the area, the Dolphins' 27-20 win against the Tennessee Titans at Hard Rock Stadium's official game time of seven hours and eight minutes marks the longest game in NFL history since the merger in 1970, per the Elias Sports Bureau. The previous longest game in league history was a 2013 Bears-Ravens matchup in Chicago that lasted five hours and 16 minutes. The first delay comes with 1:11 remaining in the second quarter and lasts one hour and 57 minutes. Following the conclusion of the half, both teams remain on the field for a halftime of three minutes and 30 seconds. The second delay occurs with 6:57 left in the third quarter and halts play for two hours and two minutes. Play resumes again at 6:55 p.m.
Sept. 16	The Dolphins improve to 2-0 on the season with a 20-12 win against the New York Jets at MetLife Stadium, In the game, RB Frank Gore records an 8-yard run in the third quarter to surpass Hall of Famer Curtis Martin for fourth place on the NFL all-time rushing leaders chart.
Sept. 23	Miami's 28-20 win against the Oakland Raiders at Hard Rock Stadium improves the team's record to 3-0. In the contest, WR Albert Wilson finds a streaking WR Jakeem Grant Sr. on a trick play for a go-ahead 52-yard touchdown with 7:18 remaining in the game. The play marks the longest touchdown pass by a non-quarterback in Dolphins history. With a 74-yard touchdown reception later in the fourth quarter, Wilson becomes the first Dolphins player to throw and catch a touchdown pass in the same game was WR Mark Clayton against Buffalo in 1983. According to Elias Sports Bureau, Wilson becomes the fourth player in NFL history to record a passing and receiving touchdown of 50-plus yards in the same game. The three previous players to accomplish the feat are David Patten in 2001, Tom Tracy in 1960 and Jimmy Conzelman in 1923.
Oct. 7	With his 70-yard punt return touchdown at the end of the first half of Miami's game at the Cincinnati Bengals at Paul Brown Stadium, WR Jakeem Grant Sr. becomes the first player in Dolphins history to score a touchdown via reception, kickoff return and punt return in the same season. Grant returned a kickoff 102 yards against Tennessee in the season opener and had a pair of touchdown receptions, including one for 52 yards, against Oakland in Week 3. Grant also becomes the second player in league history (Dante Hall, 2003) with a 100+ yard kickoff-return touchdown, 70+ yard punt-return touchdown and 50+ yard touchdown catch in a single season.
Oct. 14	Rookie K Jason Sanders hits a 47-yard field goal as overtime expires to give the Dolphins a 31-28 win against the Chicago Bears at Hard Rock Stadium. RB Frank Gore rushes for 101 yards and becomes just the fifth NFL player since the merger in 1970 to rush for 100+ yards at the age of 35 or older. Additionally, WR Albert Wilson catches six passes for 155 yards. Wilson tied the game twice in the fourth quarter with a pair of touchdowns – one for 43 yards and one for 75 yards. His 150 receiving yards in the fourth quarter are the third-most in the fourth quarter of an NFL game since 1991.
Nov. 4	With a 7-yard run in the third quarter, RB Frank Gore surpasses Hall of Fame RB Barry Sanders to move into sixth place in NFL history in career scrimmage yards during Miami's 13-6 win against the New York Jets at Hard Rock Stadium. He finishes the game with 20 rushing attempts for 53 yards and one reception for 6 yards, increasing his total career yards from scrimmage to 18,204.
Dec. 9	On a thrilling final play, the Dolphins get the ball into the hands of RB Kenyan Drake, who weaves through New England defenders for 52 yards and scores the winning touchdown in a 34-33 victory against the New England Patriots at Hard Rock Stadium in a game known as the "Miami Miracle." Trailing 33–28 with 7 seconds remaining in regulation, the Dolphins have the ball at their own 31-yard line. QB Ryan Tannehill throws a pass over the middle that is caught by WR Kenny Stills, who laterals the ball to the right side of the field that is caught by WR DeVante Parker at midfield. Parker then tosses the ball to Drake, who runs the ball 52 yards for a touchdown to win the game. The total game-winning play encompasses 69 yards, which is the longest play to win an NFL game with no time remaining in the fourth quarter since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger. It is the first time in team history that the Dolphins win a regular season game with a walk-off game-winning touchdown. The play goes on to win the Bridgestone Performance Play of the Year Award at the 8th Annual NFL Honors Award Show on Feb. 2, 2019.
Dec. 18	CB Xavien Howard is selected to start for the AFC team in the 2019 Pro Bowl. It is the first Pro Bowl selection of Howard's career. His selection extends Miami's streak to 21 consecutive seasons with a defensive player elected to the Pro Bowl.
Dec. 31	The Miami Dolphins announce that General Manager Chris Grier will oversee football operations reporting directly to Chairman of the Board and Managing General Partner Stephen Ross. The team will immediately conduct a search for a new head coach that will report to Grier. In addition, Head Coach Adam Gase has been relieved of his duties and Executive Vice President of Football Operations Mike Tannenbaum has been reassigned within the organization.

Jan. 29	Marvin Allen joins the organization as an assistant general manager. The team also announces the following promotions: Ron Brockington to senior national scout, J.P. Correia to player personnel scout, Adam Engroff and Anthony Hunt to co-directors of player personnel, Brandon Shore to vice president of football administration and Matt Winston to assistant director of college scouting.
Feb. 4	Brian Flores is named the 13th head coach in franchise history. Flores joins the Dolphins after spending 15 years with the New England Patriots organization, where he helped the franchise win four Super Bowls – XXXIX, XLIX, LI and LIII.

Feb. 15	The Miami Dolphins announce senior level additions to the organization with the marketing, partnerships and ticketing departments. Steve Mullins is named vice president of corporate partnerships; Laura Sandall is named vice president of marketing; Moni Gerbini is promoted to the role of vice president of ticket sales; and Jamie Weinstein is promoted to vice president of membership and premium service.
Feb. 18	Mike Judge is named quality control coach.
Feb. 22	Long-time NFL executive Reggie McKenzie is named as a senior personnel executive. McKenzie joins the Dolphins after spending the previous seven years (2012-18) as the general manager of the Oakland Raiders.
July 13	Assistant Head Coach/Quarterbacks Jim Caldwell takes a leave of absence to address health issues.
July 29	The Dolphins promote analyst Dave DeGuglielmo to offensive line coach.
Sept. 8	In the season opener against the Baltimore Ravens at Hard Rock Stadium, QB Ryan Fitzpatrick becomes the first player in NFL history to throw a touchdown pass for eight different teams after his 6-yard touchdown pass to WR Preston Williams in the second quarter. Williams, who joined the Dolphins as an undrafted college free agent, becomes the second undrafted rookie in team history to score in a season opener. He joins WR Andre Brown, who caught an 8-yard pass from QB Dan Marino on Sept. 10, 1989 vs. Buffalo.
Oct. 20	QB Ryan Fitzpatrick becomes the 46th player in NFL history to pass for 30,000 yards in his career. He accomplishes the feat while completing 23-of-35 passes (65.7 pct.) for 282 yards and one touchdown against the Buffalo Bills at New Era Field.
Nov. 3	In Miami's 26-18 win against the New York Jets art Hard Rock Stadium, QB Ryan Fitzpatrick earns his first win as starting quarterback of the Miami Dolphins. He has now won a start for his seventh different NFL team – an NFL record.
Nov. 15	The Dolphins' 1972 Perfect Season team is named the greatest team in the 100-year history of the NFL as part of "NFL 100 Greatest."
Nov. 17	WR Jakeem Grant Sr. takes a kickoff back 101 yards for a touchdown against the Buffalo Bills at Hard Rock Stadium. The score is the second via kickoff of Grant's career and his fourth special teams return touchdown. He also has two punt returns for touchdowns. His four special teams return TDs sets a Dolphins record, breaking the mark of three set by WR Ted Ginn Jr. (2 kickoff returns and 1 punt return), RB Freddie Solomon (1 kickoff return and 2 punt returns) and RB Mercury Morris (3 kickoff returns).
Dec. 1	Trailing 28-14 in the third quarter, Miami overcomes a 14-point second-half deficit to defeat the Philadelphia Eagles, 37-31. Facing fourth-and-goal from the 1-yard line in the second quarter, P Matt Haack throws a touchdown to pass to K Jason Sanders to give the Dolphins a 14-13 lead. The play, known as "Mountaineer Shot," goes on to win the Bridgestone Performance Play of the Year Award at the 9th Annual NFL Honors Award Show on Feb. 1, 2020.
Dec. 8	K Jason Sanders boots seven field goals against the N.Y. Jets at MetLife Stadium, breaking the single-game franchise record of six set by Olindo Mare on Oct. 17, 1999 at New England. He becomes the eighth player in NFL history to kick at least seven field goals in a game.
Dec. 22	QB Ryan Fitzpatrick throws for 419 yards and four touchdowns in Miami's 38-35 overtime win against the Cincinnati Bengals at Hard Rock Stadium. He joins Dan Marino as the only quarterbacks in team history to throw for 400 yards and four touchdowns in a regular-season game. Marino did it seven times, the last on Sept. 4, 1994 vs. New England.

Jan. 20	The Dolphins announce the promotion of Josh Boyer to defensive coordinator and the hiring of the following assistants: Chan Gailey as offensive coordinator, Robby Brown as quarterbacks coach, Austin Clark as outside linebackers coach, Curt Kuntz as assistant defensive backs coach and Steve Marshall as offensive line coach.
Feb. 20	The Dolphins announce the hiring of Gerald Alexander as defensive backs coach, Anthony Campanile as linebackers coach and Lemuel Jeanpierre as assistant offensive line coach. The team also announces the promotion of Karl Dorrell to assistant head coach/wide receivers and Josh Grizzard to assistant wide receivers coach. Rob Leonard will move to assistant defensive line coach.
March 10	The Dolphins announce Josh Grizzard is being promoted to wide receivers coach.
April 23	For the first time in franchise history, the Dolphins select three players in the first round of an NFL draft. Miami uses those picks to select QB Tua Tagovailoa (5th overall), T Austin Jackson (18th) and CB Noah Igbinoghene (30th). Overall, this marks the sixth time the Dolphins have used multiple first-round picks in the same draft, having selected two players in the first rounds of the 1992, 1989, 1976, 1968 and 1966 drafts.
May 4	Don Shula, the winningest coach in the history of the National Football League and the coach of the league's only perfect season, passes away. Born on Jan. 4, 1930 in Grand River, Ohio, Shula was 90. Shula's record as head coach of the Dolphins (1970-95) and before that as head coach of the Colts (1963-69) is unmatched in the NFL. In 1995, he concluded his 33rd season as an NFL head coach and his 26th season as head coach of the Dolphins. He fashioned a career record of 347-173-6 (.665), including a regular season mark of 328-156-6 (.676). Shula won Super Bowl titles in 1972 and 1973, one of only six coaches in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls. His 1972 team went 17-0, recording the only perfect season in NFL annals. On July 26, 1997, Shula capped an illustrious career with a unanimous election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.
Sept. 24	QB Ryan Fitzpatrick completes 18-of-20 passes (90.0 pct.) in Miami's 31-13 prime-time win at the Jacksonville Jaguars. Fitzpatrick breaks the team's all-time record for completion percentage in a game with a minimum of 20 attempts. The previous record of 85.0 pct. (17-of-20) was set by QB Chad Pennington on Sept. 21, 2008 at New England.
Oct. 11	The Dolphins travel west and earn a 43-17 win at the San Francisco 49ers. The last time the Dolphins scored at least 43 points in a road game was on Sept. 21, 1986, when they lost in overtime at the N.Y. Jets, 45-51. At the time, it tied for the sixth-most points in a road game in team history.
Oct. 18	The Dolphins record their first shutout since the 2014 season with a 24-0 win over the New York Jets at Hard Rock Stadium. It's the 27th regular-season shutout in Dolphins history and third of the Jets.

Nov. 1	The Dolphins score touchdowns on on offense, defense and a special teams return in a 28-17 win over the L.A. Rams at Hard Rock Stadium. It marks the first time since Nov. 1, 2009 (at N.Y. Jets) that the Dolphins scored touchdowns in all three facets of the game. In fact, the Dolphins had all three in the first half against the Rams and it's the first time since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970 the Dolphins have done all three in the first half of a game.
Nov. 15	The Dolphins defeat the L.A. Chargers by a 29-21 score at Hard Rock Stadium as QB Tua Tagovailoa becomes the first rookie quarterback in Dolphins history to win his first three starts.
Nov. 29	The Dolphins defense records two interceptions and three sacks as Miami defeats the N.Y. Jets, 20-3, at MetLife Stadium. The Dolphins held the Jets to just three total points in the two games against them in 2020, after posting a 24-0 shutout in Week 6. According to Elias Sports Bureau, the three total points allowed is the fewest by an NFL team in two meetings against the same opponent since 2009 when the Ravens allowed just three total points in two games against Cleveland. The three points allowed is the second-fewest by the Dolphins against an AFC East opponent in one season. Miami shutout the Baltimore Colts in both games played against them in 1972.
Dec. 6	The Dolphins improve to 8-4 on the season with a 19-7 win over the Cincinnati Bengals at Hard Rock Stadium. QB Tua Tagovailoa ties a team record (with Jay Fiedler in 2000) by not throwing an interception in five consecutive starts. Tagovailoa becomes just the third NFL quarterback in the Super Bowl era to not throw an interception in his first five career starts (min: 100 pass attempts), joining QB Dak Prescott (2016) and QB Kyle Allen (2018-19).
Dec. 20	The Dolphins recorded their ninth win of the 2020 season with a 22-12 win over the New England Patriots at Hard Rock Stadium. With the win, the Dolphins have posted a winning season for the first time since 2016 and just the second time since 2008. The Dolphins defense limited New England to just 12 points, all coming on field goals. It is the third time the Dolphins haven't allowed a touchdown in a game in 2020. The last time the Dolphins did this was 2011 (at Kansas City, vs. Washington, vs. Buffalo).
Dec. 21	CB Xavien Howard is selected to start for the AFC team in the 2021 Pro Bowl for the second time in his career. He was also a starter for the AFC team following the 2018 season. Howard would go on to finish the 2020 season with 10 interceptions, which led the NFL and were tied for the most in a single-season in team history (Dick Westmoreland, 1967).
Dec. 26	The Dolphins record their 10th win of the season and the 200th regular-season road win in team history with a come-from-behind 26-25 win at the Las Vegas Raiders before a national prime-time audience. The Dolphins took the lead twice in the final three minutes of the game and scored three times in the final five minutes. With just 19 seconds left and no timeouts on his own 25 yard-line, QB Ryan Fitzpatrick was facemasked as he completed a 34-yard pass to WR Mack Hollins. The added penalty set up a 44-yard field goal that K Jason Sanders converted to win the game.

Jan. 19	Lemuel Jeanpierre is promoted to offensive line coach. Jeanpierre had spent the 2019 season as the Dolphins' assistant offensive line coach.
Jan. 23	Charlie Frye is named quarterbacks coach.
March 11	The Dolphins announce that they have promoted Danny Crossman to assistant head coach/special teams coordinator, George Godsey to co-offensive coordinator/tight ends and Eric Studesville to co-offensive coordinator/running backs. Other promotions include Charles Burks to cornerbacks coach, Austin Clark to defensive line coach, Shawn Flaherty to assistant offensive line coach, Mike Judge to assistant tight ends coach and Rob Leonard to outside linebackers coach.
July 20	The Dolphins unveil the team's new state-of-the-art Baptist Health Training Complex. Located at 20000 NW 27th Avenue in Miami Gardens, the best-in-class venue was meticulously planned to create a contemporary, welcoming training environment for players, coaches and staff. The facility was built by Moss Construction with interior design by Rockwell Group and architecture by ROSSETTI. It boasts a 125,000 square-foot training facility and 92,200 square foot indoor field for a 217,200 square foot complex and replaces the team's Baptist Health Training Facility at Nova Southeastern University, which housed the Dolphins in Davie from 1993-2021.
Sept. 12	Miami opens the 2021 regular season with a win at Gillette Stadium against the Patriots. It's just the team's second victory at New England since 2009. CB Xavien Howard made a game-saving play when he stripped Patriots RB Damien Harris inside the 10-yard line with 3:35 left in a one-point game. The Dolphins offense was able to run out the clock to preserve the win.
Oct. 2	The Dolphins hold a Celebration of Life for legendary coach Don Shula at Hard Rock Stadium. This is the first public ceremony honoring Coach Shula since his passing on May 4, 2020 and featured remarks from the Shula family with panel discussions from several Dolphins alumni.
Nov. 11	The Dolphins win their second game in five days after defeating Baltimore, 22-10, on Thursday Night Football in front of a crowd of 65,948, which at the time was the fourth-highest crowd at Hard Rock Stadium since the venue was modernized in 2015. Miami had beaten Houston on the previous Sunday, Nov. 7. It was the first time Miami had won two games within five days since 2009. CB Xavien Howard forced a fumble, recovered it and had a 49-yard touchdown return in the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach.
Nov. 28	Miami wins its fourth game in a row in a 33-10 effort over Carolina at Hard Rock Stadium. The Dolphins defense held Carolina passers to a 13.4 rating, which was the lowest in an NFL game this season (min. 15 attempts) and the lowest by a Dolphins opponent since Sept. 21, 2003 (Buffalo, 10.3). LB Jaelan Phillips becomes the first Dolphins rookie since 1992 (Marco Coleman) to have 3.0 sacks in a game.
Dec. 5	In a 20-9 win vs. the N.Y. Giants, LB Jaelan Phillips breaks the Dolphins' single-season rookie sack record (8.5). WR Jaylen Waddle catches his 86th pass of the season, also a team rookie record.
Dec. 15	The NFL announces the Dolphins have been granted access to three Internatonal Home Marketing Areas (IHMA) across Brazil, the United Kingdom and Spain. This initiative allows clubs access to international territories for marketing, fan engagement and commercialization as part of an important, long-term, strategic effort to enable clubs to build their global brands while driving NFL fan growth internationally.

Dec. 19	RB Duke Johnson earned his first start for his hometown team and posted the first 100-yard performance of his career in a 31-24 home win vs. the N.Y. Jets. Johnson played at Miami Norland High School and the University of Miami before embarking on his NFL career.
Dec. 22	CB Xavien Howard is once again selected to start for the AFC team in the 2022 Pro Bowl, his second consecutive selection. He was also a starter for the AFC team following the 2018 and 2020 seasons. Howard is just the second Dolphins cornerback to be selected as a Pro Bowl starter on three occasions, joining CB Sam Madison (1999-2001).
Dec. 27	The Dolphins become the first team in NFL history to win seven games in a row after having a seven-game losing streak in the same season. Miami's 20-3 win over New Orleans on Monday Night Football gives them an 8-7 record going into the final two games of the season. WR Jaylen Waddle records 10 receptions, tying Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice's record for most catches by a rookie in a Monday Night Football game. He also surpasses WR Chris Chambers (883) for the most receiving yards in Dolphins history by a rookie.

Jan. 2	TE Mike Gesicki has four receptions for 51 yards (12.8 avg.) at Tennessee, which moves him into third place on Miami's all-time tight end receiving yards chart. He finished the contest with 2,233 career receiving yards, moving ahead of TE Anthony Fasano (2,211).
Jan. 9	WR Jaylen Waddle catches five passes for 27 yards (5.4 avg.) and one touchdown in Miami's season-ending win vs. New England. It gives Waddle 104 receptions on the season, breaking the NFL record for most receptions by a rookie, which was held by WR Anquan Boldin (101) since 2003. It's the highest-attended game (66,514) at Hard Rock Stadium since the stadium was modernized in 2015.
Jan. 10	The Miami Dolphins announce that Head Coach Brian Flores has been relieved of his duties.
Feb. 7	The Miami Dolphins announce the hire of Mike McDaniel as the 14th head coach in franchise history. McDaniel joins the team from San Francisco, where he spent five seasons (2017-21) and was most recently the team's offensive coordinator in 2021. The 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship game in McDaniel's only season in the role.
Feb. 18	The Dolphins announce their coaching staff for the 2021 season, under Head Coach Mike McDaniel: Frank Smith (offensive coordinator), Matt Applebaum (offensive line), Darrell Bevell (quarterbacks/passing game coordinator), Jon Embree (assistant head coach/tight ends), Josh Grizzard (quality control), Chandler Henley (assistant quarterbacks), Lemuel Jeanpierre (assistant offensive line), Mike Person (offensive assistant), Aldrick Robinson (offensive assistant), Kolby Smith (offensive assistant), Eric Studesville (associate head coach/running backs), Wes Welker (wide receivers), Josh Boyer (defensive coordinator), Mathieu Araujo (assistant defensive backs), Anthony Campanile (linebackers), Austin Clark (defensive line), Steve Ferentz (assistant linebackers), Steve Gregory (safeties), Derrick LeBlanc (assistant defensive line), Sam Madison (cornerbacks/pass game specialist), Ty McKenzie (outside linebackers), Ryan Slowik (senior defensive assistant), Patrick Surtain (defensive assistant), Danny Crossman (special teams coordinator), Brendan Farrell (assistant special teams) and Dave Puloka (head strength and conditioning).
March 23	The Dolphins execute a trade with the Kansas City Chiefs that brings six-time Pro Bowl WR Tyreek Hill to Miami. Hill is just the second wide receiver in NFL history to earn a Pro Bowl selection in each of his first six NFL seasons, joining WR A.J. Green. The Dolphins send five draft picks to Kansas City, including a first- and second-round pick in 2022. The last time Miami traded a first-round pick for a player was in 2002, when they sent two first-round picks and a fourth-round pick to New Orleans for RB Ricky Williams.
Sept. 11	The Miami Dolphins open the season with a 20-7 victory over the New England Patriots at Hard Rock Stadium. It's the first win of Mike McDaniel's head-coaching career and the fourth consecutive time Miami defeated New England. Miami's first touchdown of the season came on a scoop-and-score with a strip-sack from S Brandon Jones that LB Melvin Ingram recovered and ran two yards into the end zone.
Sept. 18	The Dolphins trail by 21 points in the fourth quarter and come back to beat the Ravens, 42-38, in Miami's largest fourth quarter come-from-behind road win in franchise history. QB Tua Tagovailoa passed for 461 yards and six touchdowns, including four touchdowns in the fourth quarter. Miami became the first team in NFL history to have a player record 400+ passing yards and 5+ passing TDs (Tagovailoa) in the same game as two teammates recording 170+ receiving yards and 2+ receiving TDs (Tyreek Hill and Jaylen Waddle).
Oct. 23	The Miami Dolphins honor the 50th anniversary of the 1972 Perfect Season with a weekend's worth of festivities for the living members of the team and their families. The weekend was capped off by a thrilling 16-10 victory over Pittsburgh on Sunday Night Football. CB Noah Igbinoghene intercepted QB Kenny Pickett in the end zone with 25 seconds remaining to preserve Miami's six-point win.
Nov. 1	The Dolphins make two trades in the same day, acquiring Pro Bowl LB Bradley Chubb from Denver for draft picks and RB Chase Edmonds, and RB Jeff Wilson Jr. from San Francisco in exchange for a future draft pick.
Nov. 27	Miami defeats Houston, 30-15, marking the fourth consecutive game the Dolphins scored 30+ points. The Dolphins improve their record to 8-3, the team's best 11-game start to a season since 2001.
Dec. 21	T Terron Armstead, WR Tyreek Hill and CB Xavien Howard are all named to the Pro Bowl Games roster. It's Hill's seventh selection, becoming just the second wide receiver (A.J. Green) in NFL history to earn seven consecutive Pro Bowl bids. Howard is selected for the third consecutive year and the fourth time overall, which is tied for 16th in Dolphins history. It's Armstead's fourth selection and first with Miami.

Jan. 8	K Jason Sanders converts a 50-yard field goal with 18 seconds left to send the Dolphins to the postseason for the first time since 2016. Due to injuries, the Dolphins turned to rookie QB Skylar Thompson, a seventh-round pick, to start the must-win game and Thompson responded by completing 20-of-31 passes for 152 yards in the victory.
Jan. 19	The Dolphins announced they have parted ways with Defensive Coordinator Josh Boyer, Safeties Coach Steve Gregory, Outside Linebackers Coach Ty McKenzie and Assistant Linebackers Coach Steve Ferentz.
Jan. 30	LB Bradley Chubb is added to the Pro Bowl roster

2023
Feb. 9	LB Zach Thomas is elected as a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2023. Thomas becomes the Dolphins' 11th Hall of Fame member and just the third on the defensive side of the ball, joining his teammate DE/LB Jason Taylor and LB Nick Buoniconti.
Feb. 15	Vic Fangio is named defensive coordinator.
March 10	The Dolphins announce their coaching staff for the 2023 season, under Head Coach Mike McDaniel: Frank Smith (offensive coordinator), Ricardo Allen (offensive assistant), Butch Barry (offensive line), Darrell Bevell (quarterbacks/passing game coordinator), Jon Embree (assistant head coach/tight ends), Josh Grizzard (quality control), Chandler Henley (assistant quarterbacks), Lemuel Jeanpierre (assistant offensive line), Mike Judge (offensive assistant), Max McCaffrey (offensive assistant), Kolby Smith (offensive assistant), Eric Studesville (associate head coach/running backs), Wes Welker (wide receivers), Vic Fangio (defensive coordinator), Mathieu Araujo (assistant defensive backs), Kenny Baker (assistant defensive line), Anthony Campanile (linebackers), Austin Clark (defensive line), Steve Donatell (defensive assistant), Renaldo Hill (passing game coordinator/secondary), Joe Kasper (safeties), Sam Madison (cornerbacks/pass game specialist), Ryan Slowik (outside linebackers), Danny Crossman (special teams coordinator), Brendan Farrell (assistant special teams), Dave Puloka (head strength and conditioning), Adam Lachance (assistant strength and conditioning).
March 15	The Dolphins acquire six-time Pro Bowl CB Jalen Ramsey in a trade with the L.A. Rams. Ramsey was a three-time first-team All-Pro selection (2017, 2020-21) and won Super Bowl LVI with the Rams. In exchange, the Dolphins traded tight end Hunter Long and a 2023 third-round draft pick.
Aug. 5	LB Zach Thomas is enshrined in Canton, Ohio as part of the Hall of Fame Class of 2023. Thomas delivered the first speech of the ceremony and put on gold jacket No. 370.
Sept. 10	The Dolphins total 536 yards and 36 points in a Week 1 victory at the L.A. Chargers. The 536 total yards are the sixth-most in team history and most ever in a Dolphins season-opener. QB Tua Tagovailoa passed for 466 yards, the fifth-most in franchise annals and the fourth-most in a Week 1 game in NFL history. WR Tyreek Hill's 215 receiving yards are the third-most in a Week 1 game in NFL history and the fourth-most in any game in Dolphins history.
Sept. 24	The Dolphins post their biggest offensive output in franchise history with a 70-20 win over Denver. Miami's 70 points are a franchise record, the most by any NFL team in a single game since 1966, and tied for the third-most in NFL history. The Dolphins totaled 726 yards, which was second-most in a game in NFL history and the most since 1951. Miami broke or tied 13 team or individual records in the contest, including the single-game rushing record with 350 rushing yards. RB Raheem Mostert and RB De'Von Achane had four touchdowns each. The victory gives the Dolphins a 3-0 start for the second consecutive season.
Oct. 8	Miami improves to 4-1 with a 31-16 victory over the N.Y. Giants. The Dolphins defense totaled seven sacks, tied for the ninth-most in a game in team history. Miami's 14 quarterback hits were the most by the team in a single game since 2013. RB De'Von Achane rushed for 151 yards, becoming the first Dolphins player to post three consecutive 100-yard rushing games since 2016 (Jay Ajayi). Achane scored his seventh touchdown, becoming just the second player in NFL history to have seven touchdowns in his first four career games. Miami's 524 total yards mark the third time they've topped 500 total yards in just five games during the 2023 season.
Oct. 15	The Dolphins defeat Carolina, 42-21, to begin the season 5-1 for the first time since 2002. WR Tyreek Hill had 163 receiving yards, giving him 814 for the season, which ranked second-most by any NFL player in the Super Bowl era through a team's first six games of a season.
Oct. 29	Miami posts a 31-17 win over New England in what would be the final meeting between the two teams with Bill Belichick leading the Patriots. QB Tua Tagovailoa earns his sixth straight win over New England, becoming the only quarterback in the Belichick era (2000-23) to post six wins against the Patriots, let alone doing so without a loss. WR Tyreek Hill totals 112 receiving yards in the game, becoming the first NFL player since 1961 to top 1,000 receiving yards in a team's first eight games of a season. CB Jalen Ramsey made his Dolphins debut, after missing the first seven games due to injury, and records the 20th interception of his career.
Nov. 5	The Dolphins play their first regular-season game in the country of Germany, when they fall 21-14 to Kansas City at Deutsche Bank Park in Frankfurt. The Dolphins defense limits Kansas City to just 267 total yards and 174 passing yards, the Chiefs' lowest outputs in each category in nearly two years.
Nov. 24	Miami wins the NFL's first ever Black Friday game on Prime Video with a 34-13 victory at the N.Y. Jets. S Jevón Holland records the third-longest interception return for a touchdown in franchise history when he picks off a Hail Mary pass at the 1-yard line on the final play of the first half and weaves his way through the Jets offense for a 99-yard touchdown. Miami limited the Jets to just 29 rushing yards, the Jets' fewest in a game since 2006. It was also the second time Miami recorded at least seven sacks in a game that season, something Miami had not done since 1998.
Dec. 3	The Dolphins pick up a 45-15 win at Washington. The 30-point margin of victory is Miami's largest in a road game since 1978. It's Miami's first 9-3 start since 2001 and guarantees the Dolphins a winning season for the fourth consecutive year. WR Tyreek Hill totals 157 receiving yards and two touchdowns, becoming the first player in NFL history to post five games with at least 150 receiving yards and a receiving touchdown in the same season.
Dec. 11	DT Zach Sieler intercepts a pass from Tennessee QB Will Levis and returns it five yards for a touchdown in the first quarter to give Miami a 7-0 lead, a game the Dolphins eventually lost 28-27. It marked the third consecutive week Miami had a pick-six, a first in franchise history.
Dec. 17	Miami secures its 300th home win in franchise history with a 30-0 shutout of the N.Y. Jets. It marks Miami's eighth consecutive home win over the Jets and gives the Dolphins a 30+ point victory for the third time in the 2023 season. RB Raheem Mostert broke two longstanding team records on the same play with a two-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. He finished the contest with 20 total touchdowns and 18 rushing touchdowns, both single-season franchise highs. At 31 years old, Mostert became the second-oldest player in NFL history to score at least 20 touchdowns in a season (John Riggins, 34). The Dolphins allowed just 103 total yards, which was the second-fewest yards allowed by Miami in a game in franchise history.

Dec. 24	The Dolphins clinch their second consecutive playoff berth with a last-second win vs. Dallas. K Jason Sanders converted five field goal attempts, including the game-winner from 29 yards out as time expired, to help secure the win. Sanders made a single-game franchise-record three 50+ yard field goals. WR Jaylen Waddle surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the season, becoming the first player in franchise history to post three consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons. QB Tua Tagovailoa became the third quarterback in team annals to surpass 4,000 passing yards in a season. It was the first time in Dolphins history that Miami had a 4,000-yard passer (Tagovailoa), 1,000-yard rusher (Raheem Mostert) and two 1,000-yard receivers (Tyreek Hill and Waddle) in the same season. The Dolphins also broke the team's single-season sacks record by recording their 52nd sack of the year.
Dec. 31	WR Tyreek Hill totals 76 receiving yards in a loss to Baltimore. The total gives him 1,717 for the season, breaking the single-season franchise record he set the prior year in 2022 (1,710). He becomes the first player in NFL history to top 1,700 receiving yards in multiple seasons. RB De'Von Achane tops 100 rushing yards for the fourth game of the year, tying the Dolphins rookie record set in 1996 (Karim Abdul-Jabbar).

Jan. 3	Six Dolphins players are named to the AFC roster for the 2024 Pro Bowl games – T Terron Armstead, WR Tyreek Hill, FB Alec Ingold, RB Raheem Mostert, CB Jalen Ramsey and QB Tua Tagovailoa. The last time the Dolphins had at least six players initially selected for the Pro Bowl was following the 2002 season. Tagovailoa was picked to start for the AFC team and become the first Dolphins quarterback to be selected to the Pro Bowl since Dan Marino in 1995. Hill's selection was his eighth – every year of his NFL career.
Jan. 7	Miami loses the season-finale vs. Buffalo but sets several marks in the process. The team broke its franchise record for rushing touchdowns in a season with its 27th on a second-quarter run by RB De'Von Achane. QB Tua Tagovailoa finishes the year as the league's passing yards leader with 4,624 yards, becoming the first Dolphins player to do so since Dan Marino in 1992 (4,116). His 4,624 passing yards rank third in Dolphins history. WR Tyreek Hill became the first Dolphin to lead the league in receiving yards with 1,799. RB De'Von Achane surpasses the 100 carry minimum to break the NFL record for highest rushing average in a season by a running back (7.8).
Jan. 13	The Dolphins drop their AFC Wild Card game at Kansas City by a score of 26-7. With a kickoff temperature of -4 degrees, it is the coldest game played in Dolphins history and the fourth-coldest game played in NFL history. The wind chill at kickoff was officially -27 degrees.
Jan. 24	The Dolphins announced they have parted ways with Defensive Coordinator Vic Fangio.
Feb. 3	Anthony Weaver is named defensive coordinator.
July 28	The Dolphins agree to terms with QB Tua Tagovailoa on a four-year contract extension. The contract is the largest in franchise history.
Aug. 2	WR Tyreek Hill is announced as the No. 1 player in the NFL as voted on by the players in the NFL's yearly Top 100 poll. Hill became the first wide receiver to be voted the No. 1 player in the NFL in the Top 100's 14-year history. Seven other Dolphins were voted to the list, including CB Jalen Ramsey (No. 25), QB Tua Tagovailoa (No. 36), RB Raheem Mostert (No. 60), LB Bradley Chubb (No. 62), WR Jaylen Waddle (No. 63), S Jordan Poyer (No. 65) and T Terron Armstead (No. 67).
Sept. 8	K Jason Sanders converts a 52-yard game-winning field goal in the season opener versus Jacksonville. The Dolphins overcame a 17-7 second half deficit behind a key forced fumble by S Jevón Holland and 80-yard touchdown pass from QB Tua Tagovailoa to WR Tyreek Hill. The win marked Miami's fourth consecutive season with a victory in Week 1.
Oct. 17	DT Tim Bowens (1994-2004) is inducted into the team's Ring of Honor. He becomes the 28th player to be inducted and the first since DT Manny Fernandez in 2014.
Nov. 17	The Dolphins defeat the Las Vegas Raiders 34-15, marking the 500th regular season victory in franchise history. The Dolphins were led by TE Jonnu Smith who caught six passes for 101 yards and two touchdowns. Smith became the first Dolphins tight end since the 1970 AFL-NFL Merger to record 100 receiving yards and two receiving touchdowns in a game.
Nov. 24	Miami plays its 300th regular season game at Hard Rock Stadium, taking down the New England Patriots 34-15. QB Tua Tagovailoa threw for 317 passing yards and four scores, earning AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the third time of his career.
Nov. 28	The Dolphins return to action on Thanksgiving Day for the first time since 2011 and the eighth time in franchise history at Green Bay.
Dec. 8	Led by a heroic drive from QB Tua Tagovailoa and TE Jonnu Smith, Miami wins its first overtime game since 2019, 32-26. Smith had zero catches in regulation, but caught three passes for 44 yards and a touchdown in overtime to defeat the N.Y. Jets.
Dec. 11	Dolphins announce sale of limited interest to Ares Management for continued investment into South Florida and the Ross Sports and Entertainment portfolio. Ares acquires a 10-percent stake in the organization and its assets while Brooklyn Nets owners Joe Tsai and Oliver Weisberg will jointly hold three-percent.
Dec. 22	TE Jonnu Smith records six catches and 62 receiving yards in the Dolphins 29-17 victory over San Francisco, breaking the franchise records for receptions and receiving yards by a tight end.

Jan. 5	TE Jonnu Smith catches his eighth touchdown of the season in the Dolphins regular season finale against the N.Y. Jets, breaking the franchise record for touchdown receptions by a Dolphins tight end. Smith ended the season with 88 receptions, 884 receiving yards and eight touchdowns, setting franchise records for each of the categories at the tight end position.
Jan. 9	K Jason Sanders is named the AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for the second consecutive month (November, December/January). He ended the season converting a career-high 37-of-41 field goal attempts (90.2 pct.) – the second-most field goals in a season in franchise history – which included a streak of 27-straight field goals without a miss, the longest streak in franchise history.

Jan. 10	The Dolphins announced they have parted ways with Special Teams Coordinator Danny Crossman and Wide Receivers Coach/Pass Game Specialist Wes Welker.
Jan. 17	The NFL announced that the Miami Dolphins will play as the designated home team for the NFL's first-ever regular season game played in Spain. The game will be played at the iconic Bernabéu Stadium, home to Spanish soccer team Real Madrid C.F, in partnership with the city of Madrid and Comunidad de Madrid.
Jan. 23	Dolphins LB Chop Robinson is named a finalist for the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year after being named to the PFWA All-Rookie First Team just two days prior.
Jan. 27	TE Jonnu Smith is named to the 2024 Pro Bowl Games roster after his record breaking campaign. Smith, who replaced Kansas City TE Travis Kelce as an alternate, became the first Dolphins tight end to reach the Pro Bowl since Keith Jackson in 1993.
Jan. 29	Dolphins announce the hiring of Craig Aukerman as special teams coordinator and Robert Prince as wide receivers coach for the 2025 season.
June 30	Dolphins announce a trade agreement with Pittsburgh in which Miami acquires S Minkah Fitzpatrick and a 2027 fifth-round selection in exchange for CB Jalen Ramsey, TE Jonnu Smith and a 2027 seventh-round pick. Fitzpatrick is five-time Pro Bowler and a three-time first-team All-Pro selection.
July 7	Dolphins acquire Pro Bowl TE Darren Waller and a 2027 conditional seventh-round pick in a trade with the New York Giants. In exchange, the Dolphins traded a 2026 sixth-round selection.

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raiders right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphins kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

MIAMI 27 | KANSAS CITY 24 (2OT)

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 – AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

JAN. 2, 1972 | MIAMI, FLA.
ORANGE BOWL
ATTENDANCE: 78,939

BALTIMORE 0	MIAMI 21

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphins' 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

DALLAS 24 | MIAMI 3

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the touchdown.

CLEVELAND 14	MIAMI 20

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to a poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphins linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2 1⁄2 minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated Washington, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Washington running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. Washington finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

CINCINNATI 16	MIAMI 34

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards – the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff – to make it 21-16.

OAKLAND 10	MIAMI 27

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards, respectively, powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled to within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 42 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

MINNESOTA 7 | MIAMI 24

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphins' six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

MIAMI 26 | OAKLAND 28

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphins' 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

HOUSTON 17 | MIAMI 9

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphins turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphins quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oilers 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

MIAMI 14 | PITTSBURGH 34

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steelers 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter.

SAN DIEGO 41 | MIAMI 38 (OT)

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Chargers quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Chargers tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphins 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked – a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

NEW ENGLAND 13 | MIAMI 28

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphins QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 – AFC SECOND ROUND

JAN. 16, 1983 | MIAMI, FLA.
ORANGE BOWL

SAN DIEGO 13 | MIAMI 34

The Dolphins choked off the famed Chargers offense and won 34-13. The Dolphins defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards – 203 yards below its league-leading average - while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphins defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards – their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphins offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphins QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Chargers kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Chargers 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphins rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

JAN. 23, 1983 | MIAMI, FLA.

N.Y. JETS 0	MIAMI 14

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season – two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season – but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

MIAMI 17 | WASHINGTON 27

Washington, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – Washington took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Washington 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 – AFC DIVISIONAL

SEATTLE 27 | MIAMI 20

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphins rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

SEATTLE 10 | MIAMI 31

The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphins 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

JAN. 6, 1985 | MIAMI, FLA.

PITTSBURGH 28	MIAMI 45

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers, 45-28, in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

MIAMI 16 | SAN FRANCISCO 38

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play – Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphins' deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play – 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

CLEVELAND 21	MIAMI 24

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

NEW ENGLAND 31 | MIAMI 14

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph, in what would be the final NFL postseason game at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

KANSAS CITY 16 | MIAMI 17

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. Including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal. Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on Dec. 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line with 3:28 left in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphin 34 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

MIAMI 34 | BUFFALO 44

The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 78 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals – from 24 and 22 yards – to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half. The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second touchdown of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard touchdown pass.

SAN DIEGO 0	MIAMI 31

Miami cornerback Troy Vincent recorded a pair of interceptions and quarterback Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory was the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972 in the Orange Bowl, a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 16, 1983 in the Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on December 29, 1984 in the Orange Bowl. Overall, the Miami defense totaled four interceptions (also safety Louis Oliver and linebacker Bryan Cox), a forced fumble (by cornerback Stephen Braggs), a fumble recovery (by linebacker Dwight Hollier) and a sack (by defensive end Jeff Hunter). The Dolphins held the Chargers to just ten first downs (three rushing and seven passing), 202 yards of total offense (70 rushing and 132 passing) and three of 15 on third down conversions. The Chargers' 15 possessions ended in seven punts, four interceptions, twice on downs, once on a lost fumble and once at the end of the first half. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to take a 21-0 lead at the half. Miami's 21 points in the second quarter was the most scored by the Dolphins in any quarter of a playoff game in team history. The previous team high for points in a quarter was 20 points which was scored by Miami in the second quarter against San Diego on January 6, 1983. Miami opened the scoring following a Vincent interception which gave the team possession on San Diego's 48-yard line. Marino led the Dolphins on a nine-play, 48-yard drive which was capped-off as Marino tossed a one-yard scoring pass to fullback Tony Paige. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 later in the period as the team again gained possession of the ball following a Vincent interception and drove 37 yards and scored on a nine-yard connection from Marino to tight end Keith Jackson. Miami scored the final points of the first half as Marino again connected with Jackson and the tight end made a diving 30-yard reception in the end zone for the score. Jackson became just the fourth player in team history to record two touchdown receptions for the Dolphins in a playoff contest. Miami and San Diego played to a scoreless third quarter before the Dolphins scored the game's final ten points in the fourth quarter. Miami increased its lead to 24-0 early in the final stanza as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored the final points of the game as running back Aaron Craver scored on a 25-yard run to increase the margin to 31-0.

BUFFALO 29 | MIAMI 10

The Miami Dolphins suffered five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team dropped a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Game before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Buffalo opened the scoring midway through the opening period as defensive end Bruce Smith sacked Miami quarterback Dan Marino and forced a fumble which was recovered by Bills linebacker Darryl Talley on the Dolphins' 47-yard line. Buffalo scored off the takeaway as Steve Christie converted on a 21-yard field goal. Miami tied the score at 3-3 later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich converted on a 51-yard field goal attempt. The Bills took a 10-3 lead early in the second period as quarterback Jim Kelly threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to running back Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, Marino's pass attempt was batted in the air by Buffalo defensive end Phil Hansen and intercepted by Hansen on the Dolphins' 17-yard line. The Bills increased their lead to 13-3 as Christie kicked on a 33-yard field goal. Buffalo took a 20-3 lead early in the third quarter by capitalizing on another Miami turnover as kick returner Mike Williams fumbled the second half kickoff and Buffalo's Carwell Gardner recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 25-yard line. The Bills scored four plays later as running back Kenneth Davis ran into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown. Buffalo increased its lead to 26-3 as Christie hit on a pair of field goals from 21 and 31 yards. Miami closed the score to 26-10 as Marino connected with wide receiver Mark Duper on a 15-yard touchdown pass. With the TD pass, Marino extended his streak to ten consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes which is tied with the Raiders' Ken Stabler (1973-77) for the NFL's all-time record for consecutive post-season games with a touchdown pass. In addition, Duper's touchdown reception was his fifth post-season touchdown catch and broke the team's playoff record for career touchdown receptions. Duper was tied with wide receiver Paul Warfield (four TDs on 34 career playoff catches) and tight end Bruce Hardy (four TDs on 26 catches). Buffalo closed the scoring later in the period as Christie converted his fifth field goal of the game with a 38-yarder.

KANSAS CITY 17 | MIAMI 27

Dan Marino threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 69,757 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game was billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lived up to the pregame hype. Marino completed 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana countered by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. The first half was an offensive shootout which was tied at 17-17 with neither team being forced to punt. Kansas City opened the scoring as Montana tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Derrick Walker. Miami answered the score on its first possession as Bernie Parmalee scored on a one-yard run. The Chiefs came right back to close the first quarter scoring at 14-7 as Montana threw a short pass to fullback Kimble Anders who turned the play into a 57-yard catch and run for the touchdown. Miami cut the score to 14-10 early in the second quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 40-yard field goal. Kansas City upped its lead to 17-10 later in the quarter as Lin Elliott booted a 21-yard field goal. The Dolphins closed the first half scoring as Marino tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ronnie Williams. The scoring pass set an NFL record as it marked Marino's 11th consecutive post-season game with a touchdown toss. He moved past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak of playoff games with a touchdown pass in NFL history. The Dolphins dominated the second half and outscored the Chiefs by a 10-0 margin. Miami took its first lead of the ballgame at 24-17 on the first drive of the third quarter as Marino and Irving Fryar connected on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Miami increased its lead to 27-17 on a 40-yard field goal late in the third period. The Dolphins forced a pair of turnovers by the Chiefs in Miami territory to preserve the win. First, cornerback J.B. Brown intercepted a Montana aerial on the goal line to stop a drive and then safety Michael Stewart forced and recovered a fumble by Marcus Allen on the Dolphins' 34-yard line.

Natrone Means rushed for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest before a crowd of 63,381 at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego had the first scoring threat of the game as they drove down to Miami's 26-yard line, but Miami's Marco Coleman forced a fumble by Means to stop the drive. Following the takeaway, the Dolphins opened the scoring as Dan Marino capped a nine-play, 79-yard drive with an eight-yard scoring pass to tight end Keith Jackson. The Chargers closed the score to 7-3 on their next possession as John Carney booted a 20-yard field goal. Prior to the field goal attempt, San Diego had a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' six-yard line but the Miami defense stiffened and held the Chargers out of the end zone. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-3 on their next possession as Marino and Jackson connected again in the end zone for a nine-yard touchdown pass. Jackson's two touchdown receptions in the contest tied Miami's all-time single-game playoff record, which was accomplished five previous times. San Diego answered the touchdown with another field goal as Carney connected on a 21-yard effort. Once again, San Diego had a first-and-goal on Miami's six-yard line and the Dolphin defense limited the Chargers to a field goal. Miami closed the first half scoring as Marino threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Mike Williams with just 27 seconds left in the first half to take a 21-6 lead. San Diego opened the third quarter with a long drive which was halted when Means was held for no gain on a fourth-and-one play from Miami's one-yard line and the Dolphins took possession of the ball. However, on Miami's first play following the goal line stand, Dolphins running back Bernie Parmalee was tackled in the end zone for a safety to bring the score to 21-8. Following a free kick by Miami's John Kidd, the Chargers got the ball on their own 46-yard line and drove for a 24-yard touchdown run by Means to cut the score to 21-15. Miami had the ball for just one play — the safety by Parmalee – in the entire third quarter. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Marino drove the team down to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with just eight seconds remaining was wide right.

The Buffalo Bills cruised out to a 24-0 halftime lead en route to a 37-22 victory in an AFC First Round Playoff game in front of 73,103 fans at Rich Stadium. The contest proved to be the last game for Don Shula as head coach of the Dolphins. The Bills, led by running back Thurman Thomas' 158 yards, grounded out an AFC Playoff record 341 rushing yards, breaking the old mark of 318 set by the San Diego Chargers against Boston in 1963. Miami quarterback Dan Marino tied an NFL postseason record, with Bernie Kosar while he was a member of the Cleveland Browns in 1986, with 64 passing attempts and completed 33 (tied for second-highest in NFL postseason) of them for 422 yards (third-highest in NFL postseason). The two teams set an NFL postseason record with 1,038 combined total net yards, breaking the old mark of 1,036 by the Dolphins and the San Diego Chargers in an overtime game in 1981. The Bills took an early 7-0 lead when Thomas scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Buffalo kicker Steve Christie put the Bills ahead 10-0 with a 48-yard field goal. Buffalo needed just four plays to go 68 yards and took a 17-0 advantage when fullback Darick Holmes ran 21 yards for a touchdown with 9:54 left in the half. On the Dolphins' next possession, they drove to the Buffalo 40-yard line but Marino was hit by Bills defensive end Phil Hansen as he threw and the tipped ball was intercepted by linebacker Marlo Perry. It took Buffalo just 49 seconds to make the score 24-0 as Kelly connected with Steve Tasker on a 37-yard touchdown pass. The Bills added to their lead in the third quarter by driving 55 yards on ten plays and extended their lead to 27-0 when Christie booted a 23-yard field goal late in the third quarter. Miami got on the board when they took the ball on their next possession and drove 67 yards on nine plays and made the score 27-7 when Marino hit wide receiver O.J. McDuffie on a five-yard touchdown pass. The Bills increased their lead to 34-7 when they culminated a 61-yard drive with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tim Tindale with 9:31 remaining in the game. The Dolphins cut the lead to 34-14 on their next possession as Marino connected with wide receiver Randal Hill on a 45-yard touchdown to close out a seven-play, 68-yard drive. The Bills answered with an eight-play, 44-yard drive that saw Christie kick a 42-yard field goal to make the score 37-14. Miami then took its next possession and marched 73 yards on eight plays and cut the lead to 37-22 when running back Terry Kirby ran one-yard for the score and a two-point conversion from Marino to McDuffie was good. The Dolphins then attempted an onside kick and safety Michael Stewart recovered at the Buffalo 49-yard line. However, Miami's last threat of the game was stopped when Marino was intercepted by Bills cornerback Ken Irvin at Buffalo's 13-yard line with 1:51 left in the game. McDuffie set a club postseason record (tied with nine others for sixth-highest all-time in NFL postseason) with 11 receptions for 154 yards (a new Dolphin postseason record, surpassing Mark Duper's 148 yards vs. Pittsburgh in 1985).

MIAMI 3 | NEW ENGLAND 17

The New England Patriots recorded their third win of the 1997 season over the Dolphins, and their fourth straight over Miami dating back to 1996, by holding Miami to just a field goal in their 17-3 triumph in a first-round playoff game at Foxboro Stadium. The loss was the Dolphins' third straight in the postseason. New England held Miami to 162 yards of total offense, the lowest total in the 32-game postseason history for the Dolphins, below a 176-yard performance against Washington in Super Bowl XVII. In addition, the three points scored by the Dolphins equalled the fewest points scored by the team in a playoff game with a 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI. Overall, New England forced three Miami turnovers, while the Patriots did not commit any miscues and 14 of New England's 17 points resulted from a Dolphins turnover. The Patriots sacked Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino four times on the day and Marino was held without a touchdown for the first time in 14 career playoff games. The Dolphins got to the Patriots' 39 late in the first quarter, but were stopped on third and fourth-and-one. The Patriots had an opportunity to take a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter, but Adam Vinatieri missed wide left on a 48-yard field goal attempt. Three plays later, Chris Slade intercepted a Dan Marino pass and returned it 22 yards to the Dolphins' 29. That led to a 24-yard touchdown pass from Drew Bledsoe to Troy Brown three plays afterward, on third-and-five, 4:33 into the second quarter. New England took over at its own 40 with 2:16 left in the first half and drove to the Dolphins' 30 before Vinatieri missed wide right on a 47-yard field goal try with 30 seconds on the clock. On the second play of the second half, Todd Collins picked off a Marino pass and brought it back 40 yards for a touchdown. The Patriots extended their lead to 17 points with 1:58 left in the third quarter when Vinatieri capped a 15-play, 67-yard drive with a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins got their only points of the game nine seconds into the fourth quarter, on an Olindo Mare 38-yard field goal. Miami had gained possession at the Patriots' 43 after a Corey Harris 40-yard kickoff return and a ten-yard tripping penalty on the Patriots. Harris recovered the ensuing onside kick, and the Dolphins took over at their own 44. On the next play, however, Chris Canty stripped the ball from Marino and Slade recovered at the Dolphins' 41. Miami got into New England territory on each of its last two possessions – getting as far as the 45 and 43 – but were stopped on fourth down on each occasion.

BUFFALO 17	MIAMI 24

The Dolphins recorded their first playoff win since the 1994 season, snapping a three-game losing streak in the postseason with a 24-17 win in an AFC First-Round Playoff game over the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium. Doug Flutie connected with Eric Moulds for a 65-yard completion on the game's first play from scrimmage, but Terrell Buckley stripped the ball and Brock Marion returned the fumble 17 yards to the Dolphins' 29-yard line. That led to a 16-play, 57-yard drive which used 8:23 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 31-yard field goal. Miami made it a 6-0 game on Mare's second field goal of the afternoon, from 40 yards out, 4:24 into the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 66-yard drive that consumed 6:22 of the clock. Mare attempted an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that was recovered by the Bills' Dan Brandenburg. Three plays later, Buffalo took its first lead of the game when Thurman Thomas ran it in from one-yard out, two plays after Flutie and Moulds combined for a 37-yard completion to the Dolphins' five-yard line. Buffalo got to the Dolphins' six-yard line with 24 seconds remaining in the first half, but Marion picked off a Flutie pass and returned it 19 yards. A personal foul penalty on the Bills put the Dolphins at their own 35. Dan Marino then completed a 52-yard pass to Oronde Gadsden who then laterated the ball to O.J. McDuffie, putting the Dolphins at the Bills' nine-yard line. Mare, however, hit the right upright on a 26-yard field goal attempt as time expired in the half. The Dolphins regained the lead at 13-7 on Karim Abdul-Jabbar's three-yard touchdown run with 2:32 left in the third quarter. Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 21 yards on the 52-yard drive, which was accomplished in 12 plays and saw the Dolphins connect on three third down conversions. Stanley Pritchett punched it in for the two-point conversion. Buffalo answered less than two minutes later with a 32-yard touchdown pass from Flutie to Moulds which tied the game at 14 with 48 seconds left in the third quarter. Miami got the ball back and embarked on a 17-play, 77-yard drive that ended with Mare's third field goal of the game, from 23 yards out, 5:15 into the fourth period. Four plays afterward, Jerry Wilson forced the ball loose from Andre Reed after a reception and Terrell Buckley recovered, returning it six yards to midfield. The Dolphins capitalized off that turnover when Marino connected with Lamar Thomas for an 11-yard scoring strike on third-and-seven with 3:32 remaining in the game, capping the eight play drive. The Bills took over at their own 20 and got to the Dolphins' 15-yard line before Steve Christie connected on a 33-yard field goal with 1:33 left in the game. Kurt Schulz recovered the ensuing onside kick for Buffalo, giving them possession at their own 31 with 1:30 to play. The first play of the drive was a 30-yard completion from Flutie to Moulds, putting the Bills at the Dolphins' 39-yard line. From there, Buffalo converted three consecutive third downs, giving them a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' five-yard line with 17 seconds remaining. Trace Armstrong then sacked Flutie, forcing the ball loose, which was recovered by Shane Burton to preserve the victory. Moulds finished the game with an NFL playoff record 240 receiving yards.

MIAMI 3 | DENVER 38

Miami failed to score a touchdown in its second straight road playoff game, as they dropped their seventh consecutive postseason road game overall, with a 38-3 loss to the Broncos at Mile High Stadium. After stopping the Dolphins on the first series of the game, the Broncos took over at their own eight and embarked on a 14-play, 92-yard drive that used 7:56 of the clock and ended with a Terrell Davis one-yard touchdown run with 5:55 left in the opening quarter. Davis ran for 38 yards on seven carries on the drive, and John Elway completed five of six passes for 48 yards. Denver took a two-touchdown advantage before the first quarter was over when Davis scored on a 20-yard run with 1:02 remaining in the opening period. The touchdown came three plays after Elway connected with Ed McCaffrey for a 33-yard completion to the Dolphins' 33-yard line. Miami answered with an 11-play, 76-yard drive that consumed 5:55 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 22-yard field goal, 4:53 into the second quarter. Dan Marino completed six of seven passes for 55 yards on the march. Denver scored a touchdown on their third consecutive series when Derek Loville ran it in from 11 yards out with 4:39 left in the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 87-yard drive that used 5:28 of the clock. As a team, the Broncos rushed for 62 yards on the drive, including 47 yards by Davis. Davis broke loose for a 62-yard run to the Dolphins' 18-yard line on the first play of the second half, leading to a Jason Elam 32-yard field goal four plays afterward. Denver opened a 28-point advantage 1:37 into the fourth quarter when Elway combined with Rod Smith for a 28-yard touchdown strike. The Broncos finished off the scoring when Neil Smith recovered an Oronde Gadsden fumble following a reception and rumbled 79 yards for a touchdown.

MIAMI 20 | SEATTLE 17

In the last game ever played at the Kingdome, the Dolphins recorded their first road playoff win since 1972 with a 20-17 triumph over the Seattle Seahawks. The Seahawks' second possession of the game started at the Dolphins' 47 after Miami was forced to punt from its own four-yard line. From there, Seattle needed eight plays before Jon Kitna connected with Sean Dawkins for a nine-yard touchdown pass on third-and-three, with 6:18 to play in the first quarter. The score marked the second third-down conversion on the drive for the Seahawks. Kitna and Mike Pritchard hooked up for a pair of completions on the drive, totaling 29 yards. Brock Marion returned the ensuing kickoff 47 yards to midfield. The Dolphins then moved 37 yards in seven plays, leading to an Olindo Mare 32-yard field goal with 2:05 remaining in the opening quarter. The Seahawks re-gained their seven-point advantage with 45 seconds left in the first half on Todd Peterson's 50-yard field goal, which capped an eight-play, 49-yard drive that used 3:45 of the clock. The Dolphins took over at their own 40 on the opening possession of the second half after Peterson's kickoff went out of bounds. Led by Dan Marino, who completed all six of his passes, totaling 56 yards, Miami embarked on a ten-play, 60-yard drive that consumed 6:05 of the clock and ended with a one-yard touchdown pass from Marino to Oronde Gadsden on third-and-goal. The touchdown pass was the 31st for Marino in his playoff career, moving him past Terry Bradshaw into sole possession of second on the NFL's all-time postseason list. The key play on the march was a 27-yard completion from Marino to O.J. McDuffie on third-and-seven from the Seattle 46. Charlie Rogers took the ensuing kickoff and raced 85 yards for a touchdown to give Seattle the lead once again. The Dolphins pulled to within four points on Mare's 50-yard field goal with 2:22 to play in the third quarter, culminating a six-play, 32-yard drive in which Autry Denson rushed for 25 yards. The ensuing onside kick was recovered by Miami's Shawn Wooden, and the Dolphins took over at their own 42. Although they could not take advantage of that opportunity, Tom Hutton's punt that followed pinned Seattle at their own six. Down by four points with 9:09 to play, Miami gained possession at their own 15. On the third play of the series, they faced a third-and-17 from their own 8 when Marino hit Tony Martin for a 23-yard completion. From there, Miami marched the length of the field in just eight more plays, the final one being a two-yard TD run by J.J. Johnson with 4:48 to play in the game. Two plays prior to the score Marino connected with Gadsden for a 24-yard completion on third-and-10 from the Seahawks 29, giving them a first-and-goal from the 5. Seattle went three and out on their next series, and a Terrell Buckley interception with 23 seconds remaining ended any Seattle comeback hopes. The Dolphins dominated the second half of the game, as they gained 230 yards while holding Seattle to just 32 yards over the final 30 minutes of the game. Miami registered a club playoff record six sacks on the afternoon, including three by Trace Armstrong, who was named NFL Defensive Player of the Week for the Wild Card Round of the playoffs.

MIAMI 7 | JACKSONVILLE 62

The Dolphins allowed the most points in club history and suffered their worst defeat ever as well. The Jaguars took a 7-0 lead on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith on the first series of the game, 4:28 into the contest. A 41-yard completion from Brunell to Smith to the Dolphins' 22 was the key play on the 73-yard drive, in which Jacksonville converted all three of their third down attempts, including the touchdown. On the next play from scrimmage, Aaron Beasley intercepted a Dan Marino pass and Jacksonville took over at the Dolphins' 41. From there, the Jaguars moved 14 yards, setting up a Mike Hollis 45-yard field goal, with 6:19 to play in the opening quarter. The Jaguars scored for the third time in as many possessions when Fred Taylor broke loose for a 90-yard touchdown run with 3:46 remaining in the first quarter. On the following play from scrimmage, Tony Brackens stripped the ball from Marino, Brackens recovered and went 16 yards for the score. On the first play of the second quarter, Jacksonville scored again on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Brunell to Taylor on third-and-14. The Jaguars gained possession at the Dolphins' 21 on their next series after Corey Chamblin blocked a Tom Hutton punt. That led to a James Stewart 25-yard TD run three plays later. Hollis added a 28-yard field goal 1:51 prior to the half. That score came five plays after Carnell Lake recovered a J.J. Johnson fumble at the Dolphins' 30. Miami got its first points of the game three seconds before halftime when Marino and Oronde Gadsden combined for a 20-yard TD pass, on third-and-10. Jay Fiedler connected with Jimmy Smith for a 70-yard touchdown pass, 2:57 into the third quarter, giving Jacksonville 48 points on the afternoon, marking the most points that Miami had ever given up in the postseason. Fiedler fired his second touchdown pass of the day with 6:19 to play in the third quarter when he hit Alvis Whitted for a 38-yard scoring pass. Jacksonville finished the scoring with a Chris Howard five-yard touchdown run 4:23 into the fourth quarter, one play after Donovin Darius recovered an Autry Denson fumble.

INDIANAPOLIS 17 | MIAMI 23 (OT)

The Miami Dolphins recorded the second-largest comeback win in team playoff history as they rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to earn a 23-17 overtime win against the Indianapolis Colts at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins faced a fourth-and-six from the Colts' 39 on their first possession of the game, but could not convert. The Colts took over and marched 47 yards in seven plays, en route to a Mike Vanderjagt 32-yard field goal. The Dolphins made it to the Colts' 33 late in the first quarter, but on third-and-14, Chad Cota intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass in the end zone. Vanderjagt lined up to attempt his second field goal in as many series, but the run by holder Hunter Smith on the fake was short of the first down. On the next play from scrimmage, Chad Bratzke intercepted a Fiedler pass and returned it four yards to the Dolphins' 25. That led to a seven-play, 17-yard drive that culminated with a Vanderjagt 26-yard field goal. Fiedler suffered his third interception in as many series three plays later when Cota picked off his second pass of the day, giving the Colts the ball at the Dolphins' 18. Two plays later, Peyton Manning connected with Jerome Pathon for a 17-yard score. That was followed by a Manning to Ken Dilger pass for the two-point conversion. The Dolphins had a chance to put their first points on the board with 31 seconds left in the first half, but Olindo Mare missed wide right on a 38-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins opened the second half with a two-yard scoring run by Lamar Smith, 6:51 into the half. The Dolphins cut the lead to four points 4:37 into the fourth quarter on a 38-yard field goal by Mare, which capped a nine-play, 53-yard drive. The Colts answered with a nine-play, 45-yard march which ended with a Vanderjagt 50-yard field goal. The Dolphins took over at their own 20 with 4:55 to play in the game, and marched the length of the field in 14 plays towards the game-tying score, a nine-yard touchdown pass from Fiedler to Jed Weaver on third-and-goal, with 34 seconds remaining in the game. Fiedler threw for 52 yards on the drive, as he completed six of 10 passes while also rushing three times for 15 yards. The Colts got into field goal position 5:44 into the overtime period, but Vanderjagt missed wide right on a 49-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins took over at their own 39, and on the third play from scrimmage, they got into Colts territory at the 48 on a six-yard completion from Fiedler to Jeff Ogden on third-and-three. Eight plays later, Smith gave the Dolphins their third straight victory in the first round of the playoffs on a 17-yard touchdown run with 3:34 left in overtime. Smith's 40 attempts represented a new NFL playoff single-game best. His yardage figure was the second-most ever in an NFL postseason contest.

MIAMI 0	OAKLAND 27

The Miami Dolphins suffered the first shutout in the team's playoff history with a 27-0 loss to the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders got on the board first 3:34 into the contest when Tory James intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass and returned it 90 yards for a touchdown, the longest interception return ever against the Dolphins in the postseason. The Raiders opened a ten-point lead with 4:52 to play in the first quarter on a Sebastian Janikowski 36-yard field goal. Janikowski converted his second field goal in as many offensive series when he hit from 33 yards out, 6:24 into the second quarter. The Raiders took a 20-point advantage with 1:53 to play in the first half on a six-yard touchdown pass from Rich Gannon to James Jett on third-and-four. The drive began at the Dolphins' 43 after Charles Woodson recovered a Lamar Smith fumble that was forced by Tory James. The final points of the day were scored on the Raiders' first possession of the second half when Tyrone Wheatley ran it in from two yards out, culminating a 12-play, 54-yard drive that used 6:50 of the clock.

BALTIMORE 20 | MIAMI 3

The Dolphins dropped their first home playoff game since January 17, 1993, snapping a three-game home playoff win streak. Twan Russell stripped the ball from Jermaine Lewis on the game's opening kickoff and Tommy Hendricks recovered at the Ravens' 24-yard line, leading to an Olindo Mare 33-yard field goal four plays later. The score remained that way until the third play of the second quarter when Terry Allen scored on a four-yard run, culminating a 17-play, 90-yard drive in which Baltimore ran the ball 12 times totaling 61 yards, led by Allen, who rushed for 27 yards on four carries. With just more than a minute remaining in the first half, Jamie Sharper recovered a Travis Minor fumble at the Dolphins' 41-yard line. The Ravens were unable to capitalize, however, as Matt Stover's 40-yard field goal attempt as time expired hit the left upright. Baltimore extended its lead to 11 points with 1:20 to play in the third quarter when Elvis Grabc hit Travis Taylor in the end zone for a four-yard touchdown pass on third-and-goal, capping an 11-play, 99-yard drive. The key play was a 45-yard completion from Grbac to Taylor on third-and-one from the Ravens' 10-yard line. Peter Boulware stripped the ball from Jay Fiedler on a sack on the third play of the fourth quarter, and Boulware recovered at the Dolphins' 37-yard line. That resulted in a Matt Stover 35-yard field goal six plays afterward. Stover added his second field goal in as many series with a 40-yarder with 2:01 to play in the game. That three-pointer came 11 plays after a Duane Starks interception after the Dolphins had made it to the Ravens' 42-yard line. Baltimore rushed for 49 yards on eight attempts on the scoring drive.

BALTIMORE 27 | MIAMI 9

The Dolphins dropped their third straight playoff decision, and their second in a row to the Ravens. Miami took a 3-0 lead on their opening series of the game when Dan Carpenter connected on a 19-yard field goal. The Ravens knotted the score on their ensuing series when a Matt Stover 23-yard field goal capped an 11-play, 59-yard drive. The key play was a 31-yard completion from Joe Flacco to Todd Heap, giving the Ravens a first-and-goal from the 4. The Ravens claimed their initial lead of the afternoon when Ed Reed intercepted a Chad Pennington pass and weaved his way 64 yards for a touchdown. Baltimore added three points, 16 seconds before the half on a 31-yard field goal by Stover. The score came four plays after Flacco connected with Derrick Mason for a 31-yard hookup to the Dolphins' 17. The Ravens opened a 17-point advantage 7:27 into the second half on an 8-yard TD run by Le'Ron McClain. The Dolphins tallied their first touchdown of the day 1:51 into the fourth period on a 2-yard TD pass from Pennington to Ronnie Brown, two plays after Pennington and Davone Bess combined for a 45-yard completion to the Ravens' 5. The PAT was blocked. Flacco finished the scoring on a 5-yard TD run with 3:53 remaining in the contest, as the he crossed the goal line three plays after Willis McGahee broke loose for a 48-yard run to the Dolphins' 4.

MIAMI 12 | PITTSBURGH 30

The Dolphins' magical 2016 season came to a disappointing end. The Dolphins quickly fell behind 14-0 and could never recover in a 30-12 loss against the Pittsburgh Steelers in a first-round playoff game at Heinz Field. Antonio Brown and Le'Veon Bell each scored two touchdowns for the Steelers, who racked up 219 yards of offense in the first quarter alone. Brown ended Pittsburgh's first two possessions with touchdown catches of 50 and 69 yards. Bell set a Steelers postseason record with 169 rushing yards. Damien Williams scored the Dolphins' only touchdown on a 4-yard reception with 5:57 left in regulation. Andrew Franks kicked two first-half field goals. The Dolphins committed turnovers on three consecutive possessions, spanning the second and third quarters, the last of which led to Bell's second touchdown after cornerback Tony Lippett tried to time a jump over the center to block a field goal attempt but instead was offside to give Pittsburgh a first down. Matt Moore, making his fourth consecutive start in place of an injured Ryan Tannehill, completed 29 of 36 passes for 289 yards and one touchdown, but he lost two fumbles and threw an interception. Moore also was sacked five times after being sacked only once in his three starts in the regular season. He left the game for one play in the second quarter after taking a big hit from linebacker Bud Dupree that drew a roughing-the-passer penalty but returned to finish the game. After burning the Steelers for 204 rushing yards in the Dolphins' 30-15 victory at Hard Rock Stadium on Oct. 16, Jay Ajayi was held to only 33 yards on 16 rushing attempts Sunday before leaving the game with a shoulder injury late in the fourth quarter.

MIAMI 31 | BUFFALO 34

DT Zach Sieler

The Miami Dolphins gave the Buffalo Bills all they could handle, but their division rivals prevailed, 34-31 in a four-hour thriller. With a chance for Miami to retake the lead in the fourth quarter, the Bills' defense stopped a fourth-and-6 to effectively end the game.

The Dolphins overcame a 17-point first-half deficit and pulled within three points after trailing 34-24 going into the fourth quarter. Running back Jeff Wilson Jr. finished a 75-yard drive with a one-yard rushing touchdown, but it was not enough.

Miami's defense was exceptional, forcing three turnovers and a team playoff record seven sacks. Rookie quarterback Skylar Thompson went 18-of-45 for 220 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions. Tyreek Hill led all Dolphins receivers with 69 yards on seven receptions.

On Buffalo's opening possession, the Dolphins' defense produced a crucial fourth-down stop, but the Bills scored on their next three offensive drives – including a six-yard receiving touchdown by tight end Dawson Knox and a 12-yard rushing touchdown by running back James Cook.

After allowing 172 yards in the first quarter, the Miami defense gave up just three points and recorded two interceptions in the second. Miami then scored 17 points in just over seven minutes to erase a 17-0 deficit.

Miami's first scoring drive began with Thompson's 20-yard strike to tight end Durham Smythe. Facing third-and-19 at the Bills' 35, Thompson extended the drive with a 20-yard pass to receiver Tyreek Hill. Kicker Jason Sanders made a 40-yard field goal to get Miami on the board.

On Buffalo's ensuing possession, Allen threw his first career postseason interception at home. Cornerback Xavien Howard picked off Allen's deep ball and returned it 49 yards. Sanders nailed a 48-yard field goal to narrow the gap to 17-6. Sanders then hit a 37-yard field goal with 1:15 remaining in the half after a 50-yard Cedrick Wilson Jr. punt return.

The Bills regained possession, but Allen threw his second interception of the game to safety Jevón Holland, who came up with the pick after cornerback Kader Kohou broke up the pass to receiver Cole Beasley. Seconds later, Thompson threw his first career postseason touchdown pass to tight end Mike Gesicki. Hill caught the two-point conversion and Miami had tied it at 17, but the Bills made a 39-yard field goal for a 20-17 lead at the break. Buffalo's lead would not last long. On the Bills' first possession in the third quarter, safety Eric Rowe sped past the offensive line and stripped Allen. Defensive tackle Zach Sieler scooped up the ball and ran it five yards into the end zone to give the Dolphins their first lead of the game at 24-20. It was the first fumble return for a touchdown in Dolphins playoff history.

Buffalo regained momentum by scoring two touchdowns to take a 34-24 lead going into the fourth quarter. Allen found Beasley for a 6-yard score following Thompson's interception deep in Miami territory, before throwing a 23-yard touchdown pass to Gabe Davis with 2:07 left in the third. The Dolphins fell three points short of overcoming another double-digit deficit. Miami ended the season with its first postseason appearance since 2016.

MIAMI 7 | KANSAS CITY 26

The Miami Dolphins season came to a close at Arrowhead Stadium with a 26-7 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs in the coldest game in both franchises' history. With a kickoff temperature of -4 degrees and a wind chill of -27, it was the fourth-coldest game played in NFL history.

Miami showed its big-play ability on offense early in the second quarter with a 53-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Tua Tagovailoa to wide receiver Tyreek Hill, but otherwise struggled to move the ball against a Chiefs defense that finished the regular season ranked second in the NFL in total defense, scoring defense and sacks.

The Dolphins defense managed to hold Kansas City to just two touchdowns and kept the Chiefs lead to single digits for almost three and a half quarters.

The Dolphins could not claw back, however, as the offense finished just 1-for-12 on third down.

Hill led Miami in receiving with five catches for 62 yards (12.4 avg.) and scored the team's lone touchdown.

Despite allowing an 11-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Patrick Mahomes to wide receiver Rashee Rice on the Chiefs' first drive of the night, Miami's strong red zone defense from that point on kept the game within reach.

Down 13-7 with a chance to end the first half with a score and begin the second half with the ball, the Dolphins came up empty after a false start and a sack pushed the offense back 10 yards and forced a punt.

It was the first of three consecutive punts for Miami's offense from the end of the first half to the start of the third quarter. Those three drives gave the Chiefs an opportunity to extend their lead and they took full advantage.

Harrison Butker kicked his third field goal of the game with 18 seconds left in the first half and his fourth field goal on Kansas City's first drive of the second half. The Chiefs then followed up that 13-play scoring drive to start the half with a 14-play touchdown drive - both of which went for 69+ yards and took up a combined 12:33 of game clock - to open up a 26-7 lead and come away with the victory.

Rice and tight end Travis Kelce saw 22 of Kansas City's 34 targets and accounted for 201 of Mahomes' 262 passing yards.

Tagovailoa was 20-of-39 for 199 passing yards, one touchdown and one interception in his playoff debut while linebacker Duke Riley finished with a co-game-high 10 tackles.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, HARD ROCK STADIUM

Hard Rock Stadium has not only been host to championship sporting events, the venue has also served as a backdrop to some of the most popular films of the past quarter century. Those motion pictures shot at the stadium include Ace Ventura: Pet Detective, which starred Jim Carrey and Courteney Cox and featured Dolphins great Dan Marino as himself; Marley and Me, starring Owen Wilson and Jennifer Aniston; the Oliver Stone-directed Any Given Sunday starring Al Pacino, Jamie Foxx and Dennis Quaid, and Rock of Ages, in which the scene filmed at the stadium included actors Tom Cruise, Julianne Hough and Russell Brand.

Hard Rock Stadium served as a backdrop to an episode of the television show Seinfeld titled The Label Maker in which Jerry and Newman attend Super Bowl XXIX. Additionally, parts of the opening of the HBO television series Arli$$ were shot on the field during a Dolphins game. Hard Rock Stadium also played a role in episodes of television shows Man Caves, with former NFL defensive tackle Tony Siragusa and Designing Spaces, the Big Game Bubba Burgers edition.

Many commercials for popular brands were also filmed at Hard Rock Stadium.

DON SHULA'S COACHING LONGEVITY

Former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula is one of only six head coaches in NFL history to have coached the same team for 20 or more consecutive seasons. Shula (1970-95) completed 26 seasons with the Dolphins. Green Bay's Curly Lambeau (1921-49) and Dallas' Tom Landry (1960-88) share the record with 29 seasons each, while New England's Bill Belichick (2000-23) spent 24 seasons at the helm of the Patriots. Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll (1969-91) and the N.Y. Giants' Steve Owen (1931-53) coached 23 years with their teams.

DOLPHINS IN THE HALL OF FAME

DON SHULA

INDUCTED: 1997 // BORN: 1/4/30 // DIED: 5/4/20
COLLEGE: JOHN CARROLL
PLAYER: 1951-57 // ASSISTANT COACH: 1960-62
HEAD COACH: 1963-95 // DOLPHINS HEAD COACH: 1970-95
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: DAVID AND MIKE SHULA

1972, 1973 — 1971, 1972, 1973, 1982, 1984

On July 26, 1997, Don Shula capped an illustrious career when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, following his election into that shrine on Jan. 25, 1997, his first year of eligibility. Shula's unanimous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of record-setting accomplishments.

For 25 years, from Jan. 5, 1996 until his death in 2020, Shula served as Vice Chairman of the Miami Dolphins. In total, he spent 50 seasons with the Dolphins, a tenure that started when he was named head coach of the club in 1970. He was enshrined on the Dolphins Ring of Honor at Hard Rock Stadium (formerly known as the Honor Roll), on Nov. 25, 1996, and was inducted in the Dolphins Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011.

Shula's record as head coach of the Dolphins (1970-95) and before that as head coach of the Baltimore Colts (1963-69) is unmatched in National Football League history. In 1995, he concluded his 33rd season as an NFL head coach and his 26th season as head coach of the Dolphins. He owned a career record of 347-173-6 (.665), including a regular season mark of 328-156-6 (.676), and was the winningest coach in NFL history.

On Nov. 14, 1993 in Philadelphia, when the Dolphins defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 19-14, Shula won his 325th career game, moving him past the immortal George Halas (324-151-31) and setting an NFL record for most career victories, a mark once thought to be unreachable. Shula's 328 regular season wins also is an NFL record, surpassing Halas' former NFL mark of 318 regular season victories. Shula, Halas, Bill Belichick and Kansas City's Andy Reid are the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more career games. Shula recorded his 300th career win on Sept. 22, 1991, with a 16-13 triumph over Green Bay in just his 29th year as an NFL head coach, as compared to 36 seasons for Halas to accomplish that feat. Belichick did it in 25 years and Reid in 26.

In addition, Shula won Super Bowl titles in 1972 and 1973, one of only seven coaches in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls. His 1972 team went 17-0, recording the only undefeated season in NFL annals. He was one of only three coaches (along with Belichick and Reid) to appear in six or more Super Bowls, and was one of three coaches (along with Reid and Buffalo's Marv Levy) to reach the Super Bowl three in straight seasons (1971-73). He also advanced to the Super Bowl with the Dolphins in 1982 and 1984, as well as in 1968 as head coach of the Baltimore Colts.

A remarkable 20 times in 33 seasons, Shula's teams reached the playoffs. His teams won at least 10 games 21 times in those 33 years, and he suffered only two losing seasons (6-8 in 1976 and 6-10 in 1988) in that span. He averaged more than 10 wins per season in his career (347 wins in 33 years as a head coach), and he was the youngest coach to win 100, 200 and 300 games.

During Shula's tenure with the Dolphins, from the time he replaced George Wilson on Feb. 18, 1970 to become the franchise's second-ever head coach through his final season in 1995, his winning percentage of .658 (257-133-2) during that time was the best record in all of professional sports. The Dolphins either won or shared first place in the AFC East 15 times in the 26 years under Shula, and reached the playoffs 16 times. His ultimate achievement was the NFL's only unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972, capped by a 14-7 win over Washington in Super Bowl VII. He won a second consecutive Super Bowl title in 1973, defeating the Minnesota Vikings 24-7 in Super Bowl VIII, and compiled an overall record of 32-2 for a .941 winning percentage in those back-to-back seasons, a two-year mark that has yet to be surpassed.

Before joining the Dolphins, Shula spent seven years (1963-69) as head coach of the Colts. In that span, he compiled a record of 73-26-4 (.728) and advanced to the playoffs four times, including two appearances in the NFL Championship Game, in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, respectively. He became the youngest head coach (33 years old) in the history of the NFL when he was named the Colts' head coach in 1963.

Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach in Baltimore after serving three years (1960-62) as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions, with the team going 26-13-1 in that period. Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959) before joining the Lions.

Shula broke into the NFL as the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951. He was involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons. In college, he was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula also contributed to the growth of the NFL off the field by serving from 1975 though 1995 (including the last two years in that span as co-chairman along with George Young of the New York Giants) on the league's influential Competition Committee, which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules to make the game more open and exciting, and to improve player safety.

In addition to his own election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Shula was selected to present five other members for induction into the Hall (Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer, Larry Little and Dwight Stephenson), including two (Csonka and Langer) on the same day. Shula was one of seven individuals (along with Al Davis, Paul Brown, Tom Landry, Marv Levy, Edward DeBartolo and Jerry Jones) to present five or more inductees into the Hall.

On Nov. 20, 2019, Shula was named as a coach on the National Football League's 100th Anniversary All-Time Team.

Shula was further honored on Jan. 31, 2010, when NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell announced the establishment of a new league award – "The Don Shula NFL High School Coach of the Year Award" – which honors high school football coaches that display the integrity, achievement and leadership that Coach Shula exemplified throughout his NFL career. The Don Shula Award winner is recognized at the Super Bowl and receives $10,000 and his high school football program is awarded $15,000.

In addition, on that same day the Dolphins unveiled the "Perfect Moment in Time" statue in honor of Coach Shula. The 10-foot sculpture depicts Coach Shula raised upon the shoulders of two players, Nick Buoniconti and Al Jenkins, and captures the perfect moment in time immediately after the Dolphins completed their undefeated season in 1972. The statue adorns the entrance of the Dolphins' corporate headquarters at Hard Rock Stadium, and that office bears the address of "347 Don Shula Drive" to reflect the total number of victories Shula amassed during his career.

Along with his football responsibilities, Shula always gave considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to many area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. Shula was also active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, the United Way and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helped fund a $1 million chair in the University's Department of Philosophy. On Sept. 27, 2003, John Carroll University showed its appreciation for Shula's support of the school by naming its new stadium Don Shula Stadium. Shula also received honorary doctorate degrees from John Carroll, St. Thomas University, the University of Miami and Florida Atlantic University.

Because of his success on the football field and his long-time civic and charitable service, Shula received countless prestigious awards recognizing his contributions, including the 1993 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year Award and the 1994 Horatio Alger Award. In addition, along with Ken Blanchard, in 1995 Shula co-authored "Everyone's A Coach," a highly acclaimed book that outlines the application of their managerial philosophies for business and personal success. Shula personified those business principles himself, serving as an equity partner in two highly successful undertakings, Shula Enterprises, Inc. along with Don Shula's Steakhouse, LLLP.

Shula's oldest son, David, and his wife, Leslie, have three sons, Danny, Christopher and Matthew. David served as the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 1992-96, and when Don Shula's Dolphins played David Shula's Bengals on October 2, 1994 and October 1, 1995, both at Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, it marked the only two times in the history of professional sports that a father and son faced each other as head coaches. David retired from coaching in 2024 after serving as wide receivers coach at Dartmouth from 2018-2023. His son, Chris, is the defensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams. He won Super Bowl LVI with the team and is a third-generation Shula to coach in the NFL, following his father and grandfather.

Shula's other son, Mike, is the offensive coordinator at South Carolina. Prior to the Gamecocks, he was an assistant coach with the Denver Broncos (2020-21) and the Buffalo Bills (2022-23). Mike also spent two years with the New York Giants as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach (2018-19), and seven years with the Carolina Panthers as the team's offensive coordinator (2013-17) and quarterbacks coach (2011-12). He joined the Panthers after serving four years as the quarterbacks coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars (2007-10). Mike Shula spent four seasons (2003-06) as the head coach at the University of Alabama and led the Crimson Tide to a Cotton Bowl win and a 10-2 record in 2005. He had rejoined the Dolphins' staff as quarterbacks coach in 2000 after serving the four previous seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers; he also spent the 1991-92 seasons as a coaches' assistant under his father in Miami. Mike and his wife, Shari, have three daughters, Samantha, Brooke and Ryan.

Mike and David Shula presented their father for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1997, becoming the first pair ever to present a Hall of Famer for induction.

Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has five children: Alex, Lindsey, Tyler, and twins Calvin and Carly. Another daughter, Sharon, resides in New York, while youngest daughter, Annie, lives and works in Broward County.

His widow, Mary Anne, serves as Chairman of the Board for Shula Steak Houses, LLLP, and continues to be very active in charitable and community affairs. The couple visited U.S. service members stationed in Iraq and Afghanistan as part of a USO tour to raise troop morale. They were married on Oct. 15, 1993.

Shula passed away on May 4, 2020, at the age of 90. The Dolphins held a public celebration of his life at Hard Rock Stadium on Oct. 2, 2021, featuring remarks from the Shula family and several Dolphins alumni.

DON SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula passed the immortal George Halas to become the winningest coach in NFL history when he registered victory number 325 in Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia on Nov. 14, 1993. Shula concluded coaching with a career record of 347-173-6 (.665). On Dec. 25, 1994, in Miami's 27-20 win over Detroit, Shula won the 319th regular season game of his career and broke the NFL record for most regular season coaching wins by Halas (318 wins). Shula owned a 328-156-6 (.676) regular season record. In 1991, Shula joined Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches at the time with 300 or more career wins. Shula accomplished his milestone 300th career win with a 16-13 triumph over the Green Bay Packers on Sept. 22, 1991. Shula won the 300th regular-season game of his coaching career with a 16-13 overtime win at New England on Dec. 27, 1992.

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on Sept. 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joined Hall of Fame coaches Curly Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club. Bill Belichick (New England) and Andy Reid (Kansas City) would later join that list.

Elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Feb. 5, 2005 and enshrined on Aug. 7, 2005 ... Announced his retirement on March 13, 2000 ... Marino ranks among the NFL's all-time top ranked passers ... In his 17-year career, Marino played in 242 games (240 starts) and he was 4,967-of-8,358 (59.4 percent) for 61,361 yards, 420 touchdowns and 252 interceptions for an 86.4 passing efficiency rating, which ranked fourth among the all-time passing leaders when he retired ... At the time of his retirement, Marino held 25 regular season NFL records and was tied for five others ... He also held 38 regular season Dolphins records (50, including playoffs) and was tied for six others (eight, including playoffs) ... Currently, Marino holds 22 Dolphins regular season records (31 overall, including playoffs) and is tied for one other (two overall, including playoffs) ...

AMONG NFL LEADERS: With a career passing efficiency of 86.4, Marino ranked No. 4 on the all-time list of passers at the time of his retirement ... With 147 career wins, Marino also is among the winningest quarterbacks in NFL regular season history, ranking eighth in all time regular-season victories as a starter … His 8,358 career pass attempts rank seventh in NFL history ... His 4,967 pass completions rank 10th in NFL history ... His 61,361 passing yards ranks ninth in NFL history ... His 420 touchdown passes rank seventh in NFL history ... He broke Fran Tarkenton's NFL records in all four categories ...

YARDAGE: Marino's 61,361 yards passing ranks ninth on the NFL's all-time career passing yardage list ... On Nov. 12, 1995 vs. New England, with a 9-yard completion to Irving Fryar in the first quarter, Marino passed Fran Tarkenton (47,003 career passing yards), breaking Tarkenton's NFL record for most career passing yards … Marino had reached the 40,000- and 30,000-yard passing plateaus faster than any quarterback in NFL history ... In 1984, Marino set an NFL record for most yards passing in a single season with 5,084 yards ... He broke the former record of 4,802 yards passing, which was set by Dan Fouts of the San Diego Chargers in 1981 ... Marino's record was broken by Drew Brees of the New Orleans Saints in 2011 (5,476 yards passing) and the current record is held by Peyton Manning, who passed for 5,477 yards in 2013 with the Denver Broncos ... Marino, Brees (five times; 2008, 2011-13, 2016), Tom Brady (2011, 2021), Matthew Stafford (2011), Manning (2013), Patrick Mahomes (2018, 2022), Ben Roethlisberger (2018), Jameis Winston (2019) and Justin Herbert (2021) are the only quarterbacks in NFL history to throw for 5,000 or more yards ... Marino led the NFL in passing yards during a season five times, having accomplished that feat in 1984-86, 1988, and 1992 ... Marino tied the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in passing yardage (five) with Sonny Jurgensen until Brees broke that record in 2015 ... Marino had 13 career 400-yard games (15, including playoffs) and the Dolphins were 8-5 in those 13 games (9-6 overall, including the playoffs) ... Marino had 63 career regular-season 300-yard games (67, including playoffs), and the Dolphins were 37-26 in those 63 300-yard games (38-29 overall, including playoffs) ... Marino's 63 career regular season 300-yard passing games extended his own NFL record for most career 300-yard passing games until it was broken by Manning in 2010 ... Including playoffs, Marino owns 11 of the top 14 and 29 of the top 50 passing yardage games overall in Dolphins history as well as 66 of the 134 300-yard passing games overall in club history ...

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: Marino's first touchdown pass in the November 26, 1995 game at Indianapolis, a 6-yard TD pass to Keith Byars with 13:54 elapsed in the second quarter, was Marino's 343rd TD pass of his career, breaking Fran Tarkenton's former NFL record of most career touchdown passes (342), making Marino the league's all-time leader in career TD passes until Brett Favre broke his record in 2007 ... Marino recorded 420 touchdown passes in his career, ranking seventh in NFL history … Marino reached the 200 touchdown passes plateau (89 games) faster than any quarterback in NFL history at that time ... In his career, Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in 203 of his 242 regular-season games as well as in 16 of his 18 playoff games (219 of 260 overall) ... Marino had six career games of throwing five or more touchdown passes, and the Dolphins were 4-2 in those contests ... Marino had 21 career games passing for four or more touchdowns, and he was 16-5 in those 21 contests ... Overall in his career he threw three or more touchdowns in 62 games (67, including playoffs), and he was 41-21 in those contests (44-23 including post-season games) ... Marino threw for 20 or more touchdown passes in 13 of his 17 years in the NFL ... The only seasons when he failed to reach 20 touchdown passes came in 1999, 1997, 1996 and in 1993, a season when he played only five games due to injury ... By throwing for 20 touchdown passes in 1998, he extended his own NFL record for most years throwing for 20 or more touchdown passes to 13 seasons, a record that Favre broke in 2008 ... Marino, Manning and Russell Wilson are the only players in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes in each of their first 10 NFL seasons and is one of eight players (along with Manning, Favre, Brees, Philip Rivers, Brady, Matt Ryan and Wilson) to throw 20 or more touchdown passes in 10 consecutive seasons ... Four times in his career (1984-86, 1994) Marino threw for 30 or more touchdowns ... Two times in his career (1984, 1986) Marino threw for 40 or more touchdowns ... In 1984, Marino threw for 48 touchdown passes, breaking the former NFL record of 36 TD passes that was set by George Blanda of the Houston Oilers in 1961 and tied by Y.A. Tittle of the New York Giants in 1963 ... Marino's record was broken by Manning, who threw for 49 touchdowns for the Indianapolis Colts in 2004 ... Marino's 48 touchdown passes in 1984 are tied for the fifth-highest single-season total in NFL history, behind Manning (55 in 2013), Brady (50 in 2007), Patrick Mahomes (50 in 2018), Manning (49 in 2004) and tied with Rodgers (48 in 2020) …

COMEBACKS: Over the course of Marino's 17-year career with the Dolphins, he brought the team back from a fourth-quarter deficit a total of 36 times, with 21 fourth-quarter triumphs at home and 15 on the road ... Included in that total were three playoff games in which Marino led Miami back in the fourth quarter ... With 36 fourth-quarter comeback victories, Marino ranks tied for seventh in that category with Johnny Unitas and Wilson, trailing Brady, who had 55 final period come-from-behind wins, Manning, who had 45, Roethlisberger, who had 44, Stafford, who has 40, Ryan, who had 39, and Brees, who had 38.

MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD: On Jan. 28, 1999, Marino was named as the 1998 Sprint/NFL Man of the Year ... It is the only league-sponsored award that recognizes player community service as well as excellence on the field ... DOLPHINS PRO BOWL TOUCHDOWNS

In the 2016 Pro Bowl, Dolphins wide receiver Jarvis Landry scored the final touchdown of the game, a 31-yard reception to give his team a 49-27 lead and victory. Landry became the seventh Dolphins player to score in a Pro Bowl. In the 2012 Pro Bowl, Dolphins wide receiver Brandon Marshall caught a Pro Bowl-record four touchdown passes and was named MVP. Prior to that, the most recent Dolphins player to have accounted for a touchdown in the Pro Bowl was wide receiver Chris Chambers, who scored on a 16-yard reception from Peyton Manning in the first quarter to open the 2006 game's scoring. Other Dolphins who have scored Pro Bowl touchdowns include running back Ricky Williams, who scored on a pair of 1-yard runs as he was named MVP of the 2003 game, wide receiver Mark Clayton, who caught a 9-yard touchdown pass from Buffalo's Jim Kelly in the 1991 game, tight end Ferrell Edmunds, who had a 5-yard scoring reception from Seattle's Dave Krieg in the 1989 game, and Hall of Fame wide receiver Paul Warfield, who caught a 32-yard touchdown pass from Dolphins teammate Bob Griese in the '74 contest.

While tight end Jonnu Smith did not catch a touchdown at the 2025 Pro Bowl Games, he became the most recent Dolphins player to score, catching a two-point conversion from Drake Maye in the third quarter.

BOBBY BEATHARD

COACH/EXECUTIVE YEAR INDUCTED: 2018
NFL CAREER: 1963-2000 DOLPHINS: 1972–77
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: JOE GIBBS

Bobby Beathard served as director of player personnel for the Miami Dolphins from 1972-77 and was a part of the team's back-to-back Super Bowl championships in 1972-73, including the NFL's only perfect season in 1972. He was credited with helping build both the Dolphins' famous No Name and Killer B defenses.

Over the course of his 38 years in the NFL, his teams competed in seven Super Bowls (winning four times), beginning with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1966, Dolphins in 1972 and 1973, Washington in 1982, 1983, and 1987, and the San Diego Chargers in 1994.

Beathard first joined pro football in 1963 as a part-time scout for the Chiefs. He left the Chiefs briefly to scout for the American Football League and returned to Kansas City full-time in 1966. He earned an AFL championship ring as a member of the 1966 Chiefs organization. Beathard served as a scout for the Atlanta Falcons from 1968-71. In 1972, Beathard was named director of player personnel for the Dolphins, where he served with the team through the 1977 season. In 1978, Washington named Beathard general manager. During his tenure in Washington, he helped lead the team to three Super Bowls and two championships. After a year as a studio analyst with NBC in 1989, Beathard joined the Chargers as general manager. In just his third season in San Diego, the organization won its first division title in more than a decade and, after five years, appeared in its first Super Bowl. He retired in 2000.

Beathard passed away on Jan. 30, 2023.

CRIS CARTER

WIDE RECEIVER YEAR INDUCTED: 2013
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: DURON CARTER

A fourth-round pick of the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1987 Supplemental Draft, Cris Carter developed into one of the most prolific receivers in the NFL. He spent his first three seasons as a member of the Eagles (1987-1989) and then played with the Minnesota Vikings for 12 years (1990-2001), where he helped re-write the team's record book.

Carter finished his NFL career as a member of the Miami Dolphins, coming out of retirement to sign with Miami as a free agent on Oct. 21, 2002. He remained on the team's roster until the conclusion of the season, playing in five games with the Dolphins, including one start, and recorded eight catches for 66 yards (8.3 avg.) and one touchdown. He also was inactive for four games during that span due to a kidney injury.

Carter's career regular season totals include 1,101 receptions for 13,899 yards (12.6 avg.) and 130 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement, Carter ranked No. 2 in NFL history in receptions and receiving touchdowns (behind Jerry Rice) and was fourth in reception yardage. During his tenure in Minnesota, he led the Vikings in receptions for 10 straight years, recorded eight straight 1,000-yard seasons and also earned eight consecutive Pro Bowl berths. In 1994, Carter set a then-NFL record for receptions in a season when he hauled in 122 passes for 1,256 yards (10.3 avg.) and scored seven touchdowns. A year later in 1995 he registered his second straight 122-catch season and amassed a career-high 1,371 yards (11.2 avg.) and 17 touchdowns. His two-year total of 244 catches was the most in NFL history. He was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

An Ohio native, he played collegiately at Ohio State.

JIMMY JOHNSON

COACH/EXECUTIVE YEAR INDUCTED: 2020
NFL CAREER: 1989-93, 1996-99 DOLPHINS: 1996-99
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: TROY AIKMAN

Jimmy Johnson's NFL coaching career included five seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (1989-93), with whom he won two Super Bowl titles, and four years with the Miami Dolphins (1996-99).

In those four seasons in Miami, the Dolphins went to the playoffs three times and won two postseason games, defeating the Buffalo Bills in the 1998 season and the Seattle Seahawks the following year. Johnson's record of 36-28 (.563) is third-best in terms of winning percentage among the Dolphins' 14 head coaches, behind only Shula's .659 and the .575 posted by Johnson's successor, Dave Wannstedt.

Johnson also was instrumental in putting together one of the top defenses in the NFL, with the draft selections of Zach Thomas in 1996, Sam Madison and Jason Taylor in 1997 and Patrick Surtain in 1998. Taylor was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2018 and Thomas was elected in 2023, with Johnson presenting both of them at their inductions. With those four players leading the way, the Dolphins defenses were third and fifth in fewest yards allowed in Johnson's final two years and in the top 10 the following five seasons.

Twenty-three years after Don Shula was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Johnson joined him as the second Dolphins coach enshrined in Canton.

BILL PARCELLS

COACH/EXECUTIVE YEAR INDUCTED: 2013
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: GEORGE MARTIN

Bill Parcells served the Miami Dolphins in an executive capacity, but he is best known for his success as a head coach in the NFL. In his 19 years as a head coach in the league, he experienced just five losing seasons. Four times he took struggling teams and turned them into winners. He won two Super Bowls, and his teams finished in either first or second place in their division 11 times.

Parcells spent almost three full seasons (2008-10) as the executive vice president of football operations of the Dolphins. He had an immediate impact, inheriting a 1-15 team and turning them around his first year, leading the Dolphins to an 11-5 record in 2008 along with the AFC East title and a playoff berth. The team's 10-game turnaround was tied for the biggest improvement in NFL history.

Parcells had the most success as head coach of the New York Giants. He took over that position in 1983, inheriting a Giants team that had just one winning season in its previous 10 years. After a 3-12-1 season in his first year, the Giants made the postseason as a wild-card team the next two years. In 1986, however, the Giants finished 14-2 and capped the year with a victory over the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXI. And in 1990 the team captured its second Lombardi Trophy with a dramatic 20-19 victory over the Buffalo Bills in Super Bowl XXV. Parcells took over as head coach of the New England Patriots, and in 1996 he led them to a berth in Super Bowl XXXI. After that he moved to the New York Jets, and in 1998 he guided them to a 12-4 record and advanced to the AFC championship game. His final stint as a head coach in the NFL came with the Dallas Cowboys from 2003-06. He led the team to playoff appearances twice during that tenure.

Overall Parcells spent 26 seasons as a coach and executive in the NFL. He compiled an overall coaching record of 172-130-1 in the regular season and 11-8 in the playoffs. He was named NFL Coach of the Year in 1986 and 1994 and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

JUNIOR SEAU

LINEBACKER YEAR INDUCTED: 2015
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: SYDNEY SEAU

Junior Seau played three years (2003-05) as a linebacker for the Dolphins, but is best known as a perennial Pro Bowl performer for 13 seasons with the San Diego Chargers and also spent his last four years in the NFL as a member of the New England Patriots. During his 20-year career, he recorded 56.5 sacks along with 18 Interceptions and was known for his leadership and his passionate style of play.

Seau was acquired by the Dolphins on April 16, 2003 from the Chargers in exchange for a 2004 fifth-round draft choice. During his tenure in Miami, Seau teamed with Jason Taylor, Zach Thomas and others to form the nucleus of one the strongest defensive units in the NFL. In 2003, his first season with the Dolphins, he started 15 games and finished second on the team with 133 tackles, the ninth time in his career he recorded 100 or more tackles in a season. He also added 3.0 sacks. He proved to be a key addition to a defense that allowed only 90.8 yards rushing per game, the fifth-best mark in the NFL, as the Dolphins became the only team in the league not to permit an individual 100-yard rusher. In 2004 he started the first eight games of the season, recording 68 tackles and a sack before being placed on injured reserve with a torn right pectoral muscle he injured on Nov. 1 at the New York Jets. At the time of the injury he was averaging eight tackles a game and ranked second on the team in tackles. Limited by injuries in 2005, Seau only played in seven games with the Dolphins (including five starts) and had 43 tackles and one sack before being placed on injured reserve on Nov. 24 with an Achilles tendon injury. He was released by Miami on March 6, 2006. In two of his three years with the Dolphins (2003-04) his teammates voted him the recipient of the Don Shula Leadership Award.

During his 13 years in San Diego (1990-2002), Seau was voted to 12 consecutive Pro Bowls, becoming just the fourth player since 1970 to be selected 10 or more straight times to the Pro Bowl. He recorded 100 or more tackles in eight of his seasons in San Diego and was selected the Chargers' Most Valuable Player six times. Seau was selected to the NFL 100 All-Time Team in 2019. He was named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1992 by UPI and also was named to the All-Decade Team of the 1990s by the Pro Football Hall of Fame. In 1994 he led the Chargers to a berth in Super Bowl XXIX, the franchise's only Super Bowl appearance, and in the AFC Championship Game that season against the Pittsburgh Steelers he recorded 16 tackles despite playing with a pinched nerve in his neck. That same year he was named the NFL Man of the Year for his philanthropic efforts, and he was a constant and active contributor to his community throughout his career.

Following his tenure in Miami, Seau spent his final four seasons (2006-09) in the league with the New England Patriots. In 2007, he recorded 74 tackles and 3.5 while playing in all 16 games for Patriots' AFC Championship team that went undefeated in the regular season before losing to the New York Giants in Super Bowl XLII. Seau retired following his final season with the Patriots in 2009, and he died on May 2, 2012 in Oceanside, California at the age of 43. He was elected to the Hall of Fame on Jan. 31, 2015 in his first year of eligibility.

A native of San Diego, Seau played collegiately at the University of Southern California (USC).

HALL OF FAMERS BEHIND THE SCENES

The Pro Football Hall of Fame established the Awards of Excellence program in 2022 to recognize significant contributors to the game in "behind-the-scenes" job roles. The program honors career Assistant Coaches, Athletic Trainers, Equipment Managers, Film/Video Directors and Public Relations Directors.

Three former Dolphins staff members have been recognized with the award. Former Senior Vice President of Media Relations Harvey Greene, who spent 29 years with the organization from 1989-2017, became the Dolphins first recipient in 2024 in the Public Relations Directors category. In 2025, late Dolphins Senior Vice President of Communications and Community Affairs Jason Jenkins was honored with award in the same category, alongside former Dolphins Video Director Dave Hack who received the award in the Film/Video Directors category. Jenkins spent 14 years with the Dolphins from 2009 until his passing in 2022, while Hack was on staff for 38 years from 1974-2008

THURMAN THOMAS

RUNNING BACK YEAR INDUCTED: 2007
NFL CAREER: 1988-2000 DOLPHINS: 2000
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: MARV LEVY

A second-round draft choice of Buffalo in 1988, Thurman Thomas went on to enjoy a stellar 13-year NFL career (1988-2000), the first 12 with the Bills. He was a critical component that catapulted Buffalo to an unprecedented four straight Super Bowl appearances, following the 1990-93 seasons.

Thomas concluded his career as a Dolphin after signing with the team as a free agent on March 7, 2000. He played in nine games that season and rushed for 136 yards on 28 carries (4.9 avg.) and caught 16 passes for 117 yards (7.3 avg.) and a touchdown. He sustained a career-ending knee injury in a game at San Diego on Nov. 12, 2000.

Thomas' career regular season statistics include 12,074 rushing yards and 65 touchdowns on 2,877 attempts (4.2 avg.), and 472 receptions for 4,458 yards (9.4 avg.) and 23 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement following the 2000 season, his rushing yardage total ranked ninth in NFL annals while his 16,532 total yards from scrimmage were sixth-most and fifth among running backs. He was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, was selected as a first- or second-team All-Pro five times and was voted to the Pro Bowl five straight years. His election into the Pro Football Hall of Fame was announced on Feb. 2, 2007 in Miami.

A native of Houston, Thomas played collegiately at Oklahoma State.

GEORGE YOUNG

PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: TIM AND MICHAEL CONNOR

George Young spent 30 years in the NFL as an assistant coach, director of personnel, general manager and senior vice president of football operations for the league.

Young got his start in the NFL with the Baltimore Colts in 1968, when he began scouting college prospects for then-head coach Don Shula. He eventually rose to the position of director of player personnel. Young was named the Colts' offensive line coach three games into the 1970 season and about three months later, Baltimore would top the Dallas Cowboys, 16-13, to claim Super Bowl V.

Young served as director of personnel and pro scouting for the Miami Dolphins from 1975-78. During that time, Young worked with Bobby Beathard, who was inducted into the Hall of Fame as a contributor in 2018.

In Young's four years in Miami, the Dolphins used the draft to acquire future Pro Bowl selections Bob Baumhower, A.J. Duhe, Kim Bokamper and Doug Betters, who would be named NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1983. The Dolphins had a 37-21 record during Young's four seasons with the team.

After his Dolphins career, Young served as general manager of the N.Y. Giants from 1979-97 and as senior vice president of football operations with the National Football League from 1998–2001. During Young's tenure, the Giants earned eight playoff berths, highlighted by victories in Super Bowls XXI and XXV, and compiled an overall record of 155-139-2. He was named NFL Executive of the Year a record five times: in 1984, 1986, 1990, 1993, and 1997. Young also served as co-chairman of the NFL's Competition Committee, along with Shula.

He passed away on Dec. 8, 2001.

DOLPHINS RETIRED JERSEYS

BOB GRIESE #12

Bob Griese's No. 12 jersey became the first Dolphin number to be retired, on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet.

No other player in the history of the Dolphins, either before or after Griese, wore No. 12 in regular season play.

Griese was further recognized when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990.

For a full bio of Griese, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

DAN MARINO #13

Dan Marino's No. 13 jersey became the second Dolphins uniform number to be retired, on Sunday, Sept. 17, 2000, at halftime of the Dolphins-Baltimore Ravens game. He was also inducted into the Dolphins Ring of Honor on that date. Marino was further honored when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2005.

The only other Dolphin player to wear No. 13 was safety Jake Scott, who wore that number from 1970 through 1975.

For a full bio of Marino, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

LARRY CSONKA #39

Larry Csonka's jersey No. 39 became the third number in club history to be retired, during halftime ceremonies of the Dolphins' game against the Chicago Bears on Dec. 9, 2002.

No player other than Csonka ever wore No. 39 in regular season play. Csonka wore that number in his eight years with the Dolphins, from 1968 through 1974 and again in 1979.

Csonka also was honored when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987.

For a full bio of Csonka, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

HEIS-FINS

Two former Dolphins have earned college football's most prestigious honor, the Heisman Trophy. Since 1935, the award has been given to the best college football player in the country.

The two Dolphins to take home the illustrious honor are running backs Ricky Williams and Reggie Bush. Williams won the award in 1998, during his senior season at the University of Texas after rushing for 2,124 yards and 27 touchdowns. Bush was awarded the Heisman Trophy in 2005 as a junior, after rushing for 1,740 yards with 16 touchdowns and adding nearly 500 receiving yards.

Williams and Bush were established running backs in the NFL and both set career highs during their time with the Dolphins. In Williams' first season with the Dolphins in 2002, he rushed for a franchise record 1,854 yards, earning his only Pro Bowl appearance and First Team All-Pro selection. During his seven seasons with the team (2002-03, 2005 and 2007-10), Williams amassed 6,436 rushing yards, second all-time in Dolphins history. In Bush's two seasons with the Dolphins (2011-12), he recorded 2,072 yards and 15 total touchdowns. His 1,086 rushing yards in 2011 were a career high.

DOLPHINS RUN WILD(CAT) AGAINST NEW ENGLAND

In Week 3 of the 2008 season, the Dolphins immortalized the wildcat offense in a 38-13 victory over the New England Patriots. Led by running back Ronnie Brown who rushed for 113 yards and four scores – while adding a passing touchdown – Miami totaled 461 total yards with 216 on the ground. Brown's backfield running mate Ricky Williams added 98 rushing yards as quarterback Chad Pennington completed 17-of-20 passes (85.0 pct.) for 226 yards. Tight end Anthony Fasano caught Brown's passing touchdown from 19 yards out which gave Miami a 38-6 lead. A 62-yard rushing touchdown from Brown and field goal from kicker Dan Carpenter would round out the scoring for the Dolphins. Brown became just the second player in NFL history to run for four scores and pass for another, joining Pro Football Hall of Famer Paddy Driscoll of the Chicago Cardinals on October 7, 1923 against the Rochester Jeffersons. Brown also became the first Dolphin to rush for four touchdowns in a single game.

Running back Ronnie Brown

Miami, who had a record of 1-2 after taking down the Patriots, would go 10-3 in the last 13 games of the season, winning the AFC East. The Dolphins would continue to utilize the wildcat offense throughout the season, lining up in the formation on 91 occasions and totaling 580 yards (6.1 avg.) and eight touchdowns. Brown was responsible for 317 of those yards on 56 carries (5.7 avg.) with five rushing touchdowns. He also completed two-of-three pass attempts for 41 yards and the touchdown pass to Fasano.

The 25-point margin was Miami's fourth-largest point margin against New England and highest since 1972.

LARRY LITTLE IN A LEAGUE OF HIS OWN

Dolphins legend, Pro Football Hall of Famer and two-time Super Bowl Champion Larry Little is in a league of his own in NFL history. Not only was Little the first player in league history to be named the NFLPA AFC Offensive Lineman of the Year in three consecutive seasons (1970-72), but Little was the first offensive lineman in the Super Bowl Era to be given an Associated Press Most Valuable Player vote.

Little finished eighth in MVP voting in 1972, earning one vote. The Hall of Fame guard helped Miami to an undefeated season, 2,960 rushing yards – an NFL record at the time – and ultimately, the first of two Super Bowls.

The Dolphins acquired Little through a trade with San Diego, being swapped for his high school teammate, cornerback Mack Lamb. Little was a five-time Pro Bowler (1968, 1971-74) and six-time All-Pro selection (1971-75, 1977). He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame 1993.

THE 41-YEAR STALEMATE

On May 1, 1984, the Dolphins and Bills agreed to a trade that would send Miami's first round pick (26th overall) and two third round selections (79th and 82nd) to Buffalo in exchange for the Bills' first round choice (14th). It is the most recent trade between the two division rivals.

Miami drafted linebacker Jackie Shipp from Oklahoma with the 14th-overall pick. He would play 74 games for the Dolphins, making 44 starts from 1984-88. Buffalo selected running back Greg Bell out of Notre Dame with 26th 14th pick, who went on to make 40 appearances and 38 starts for the Bills. Buffalo also selected defensive end Sean McNanie from San Diego State and running back Speedy Neal from Miami (FL) with their third round picks from the Dolphins.

The Dolphins have made a total of 200 trades and at least one with all 30 other franchises since their trade with the Bills in 1984. Prior to this 40-year hiatus, Miami and Buffalo were common trade partners from 1966-84. During that span, the Dolphins made seven trades with Buffalo. The only two teams Miami traded more often with were Denver and Tampa Bay with eight trades a piece.

iHeartMedia Miami signed a multi-year deal to become the Miami Dolphins flagship radio broadcast partner beginning in 2023. Live game day broadcasts air on BIG 105.9 FM (WBGG) and Fox Sports 940 AM (WINZ) in the Miami-Ft. Lauderdale market and several other markets throughout the state.

BIG 105.9 FM (WBGG) and Fox Sports 940 AM (WINZ) carry all Miami Dolphins football game broadcasts and play-by-play coverage as well as a pregame show, postgame show and weekly radio show featuring exclusive interviews with Dolphins' personnel and guests from around the league. All shows are available on the stations' websites and the iHeartRadio app, and the game broadcasts can also be heard on Dolphins.com.

The Dolphins game broadcasts feature familiar voices, with former Dolphins wide receiver Jimmy Cefalo handling play-by-play duties, former Dolphins tight end Joe Rose providing color commentary and former Dolphins linebacker Kim Bokamper giving analysis and updates from the sidelines. This is the trio's 14th season together calling games for the Dolphins Radio Network.

La Mezcla 94.9 (WZTU-HD2) is the Dolphins' official Spanish radio broadcast partner for all preseason, regular season and playoff games, with Roly Martin handling the play-by-play and Eduardo Martell providing the game analysis. The tandem has called Dolphins games together since 2018. The station also airs a pregame show and postgame show featuring interviews with guests from around the league.

Joe Rose (L), Jimmy Cefalo (C) and Kim Bokamper (R)

THE 200-YARD MAN

Running back Jay Ajayi rushed for 200 yards in three contests in 2016, including back-to-back games in Week 6 and Week 7, becoming one of only four players to accomplish that feat in NFL history. Two of his 200-yard games came against the Buffalo Bills while the other was vs. the Pittsburgh Steelers. Ajayi joined O.J. Simpson (1973 and 1976), Earl Campbell (1980) and Ricky Williams (2002) as the only players in NFL history to rush for 200-plus yards in consecutive games. He is one of just five NFL players to ever rush for 200 yards at least three times in the same season. The others to do so are Campbell (1980, four times), Simpson (1973, three times), Tiki Barber (2005, three times) and Derrick Henry (2020, three times). Ajayi rushed for 420 yards in two games against Buffalo in 2016, the fifth-highest rushing total against one team in a single season, trailing Jamal Lewis (500 vs. Cleveland in 2003), Simpson (469 vs. New England in 1973), Derrick Henry (462 vs. Houston in 2020) and LaDainian Tomlinson (430 vs. Oakland in 2003).

PRESEASON TELEVISION

CBS Miami returns as the preseason home of the Dolphins for the 29th consecutive season and will broadcast all three of Miami's preseason contests.

Play-by-play man Steve Goldstein returns to the broadcast booth for the fifth straight season. He will be joined by former Dolphins linebacker Kim Bokamper as color analyst, who returns to the booth for a third season after he spent 20 years as the sideline reporter for Dolphins preseason games. CBS Miami sportscaster Mike Cugno returns for his third season as sideline reporter, providing updates and in-game interviews during the broadcast.

Goldstein became the voice of Dolphins preseason telecasts in 2021 and has been the television play-by-play voice of the NHL's Florida Panthers since 2007. He has covered numerous high-profile sporting events on TV and radio including four Winter Olympics, Super Bowls, Stanley Cup Finals and the US Open. A familiar voice in South Florida, Goldstein currently anchors for CBS Miami and hosted pre- and post-game shows for the Miami Dolphins Radio Network from 1995-2004 and 2012-15. He's also hosted morning shows on AM 560 Sports WQAM and 940 WINZ.

Bokamper began his career with the Miami Dolphins in 1976 as the team's first round draft pick. During his 10 years with the Dolphins, he played both linebacker and defensive end, earning Pro Bowl recognition in 1980 as a linebacker. Bokamper began his broadcasting career in 1990. Since then, he has served on Dolphins pregame and postgame shows, hosted regular sports talk radio shows and spent nearly 20 years as a member of CBS Miami's on-air sports team. He's been the sideline reporter for the Miami Dolphins Radio Network since 2012 and was the sideline reporter for Dolphins preseason TV broadcasts from 2002-22.

Cugno is a Miami native who began his sports broadcasting career with NBC 6 in Miami in 2011. After working his way on air, he joined CBS Miami in 2014 and now serves as the sports anchor for the station. He has become a mainstay on CBS Miami's Dolphins coverage, hosting Dolphins Weekly Live and pregame and postgame shows, and reporting from the Baptist Health Training Complex on a regular basis.

FanDuel will re-air all three games on FanDuel Sports Network Florida and FanDuel Sports Network Sun.
