DENISE DEBARTOLO YORK & JOHN YORK

CO-CHAIRMEN

Denise and John York bring long and distinguished careers in sports and business to their roles as Co-Chairs of the San Francisco 49ers, where they combine their passion for building a championship team with their commitment to being the best possible business partners and community citizens.

A LEGACY IN BUSINESS AND PRO SPORTS

Since Denise's father, Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., purchased the 49ers in 1977, she has been an integral part of 49ers football, including 56 playoff contests and five Super Bowl victories. Earlier in her career, Denise served as President of the Pittsburgh Penguins hockey team. Under her leadership, the Penguins were revitalized and transformed into a championship team, winning the organization's first Stanley Cup in 1991. In doing so, she became just the third woman to have her name engraved on hockey's famed championship trophy.

A successful entrepreneur, John spent years as Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations for the DeBartolo Corporation, instituting programs designed to enhance the fan experience and raise the profile of thoroughbred horse racing. John, a noted pathologist, began his business career in 1982 as Founder of DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown, Ohio. From three employees, he molded the company into a 500-person operation with facilities in three states before selling the company to Corning, Inc., in 1993.

As co-chairs of the 49ers, Denise and John provide the resources and guidance to uphold the 49ers celebrated history and oversee the team's relationship with the Commissioner of the National Football League and other team owners.

THE YORKS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- John is Chairman of the NFL's Health & Safety Advisory Committee. He is also a member of the League's Audit, Health & Safety Medical and International committees, the latter of which he previously served as Chairman.
- The 49ers were named the 2017 ESPN Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year and the 2017 Pop Warner Little Scholars Team of the Year. The 49ers and the 49ers Foundation were previously recognized as Beyond Sport's 2015 Sport Team of the Year for Outstanding Philanthropic Sports Organization and the 2013 winner of the prestigious Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Steve Patterson Award for Sports Philanthropy.
- For the past 30-plus years, the 49ers Foundation has educated and empowered Bay Area youth through a host of innovative, community-based strategies. The 49ers Foundation has distributed more than $70 million back into the community.
- In 2014, the 49ers were among the first professional sports organizations to develop and deliver STEAM learning concepts for youth with the launch of the Denise DeBartolo York Education Center at Levi's Stadium.
- The ongoing commitment to promote education is also demonstrated in the 49ers STEM Leadership Institute (SLI), a collaborative education venture in cooperation with Chevron, the Santa Clara Unified School District and the Silicon Valley Education Foundation. The SLI program provides over 300 hours of rigorous STEM curriculum to cohorts of 60 high-achieving 7th through 12th graders each year from Cabrillo Middle School and Santa Clara High School.
- In 2020, Denise and John's impact on Bay Area youth reached another milestone. That year's SLI graduating class was the first cohort to complete the program from start to finish, with 100 percent of the senior class graduating in May and heading off to four-year universities.
- The SLI program has also garnered several awards including the California School Board Association's highest honor, the Golden Bell award for Expanded Learning and Engagement.
- Denise served as President of the Pittsburgh Penguins hockey team and became just the third woman to have her name engraved on the Stanley Cup.
- John spent years as Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations for the DeBartolo Corporation, instituting programs designed to enhance the fan experience and raise the profile of thoroughbred horse racing.
- John began his business career in 1982 as Founder of DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown, OH.

TAKING A LEADERSHIP ROLE IN THE NFL

Denise and John's dedication to the sport of football extends to the top levels of the NFL.

Denise previously served as a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Committee, where she helped the League's ongoing support of the museum that pays tribute to the triumphs of professional football's greatest stars, including 31 legendary members of the San Francisco 49ers.

John is Chairman of the NFL's Health & Safety Advisory Committee, which was established in 2011. He is also a member of the League's Audit, Health & Safety Medical and International committees, the latter of which he previously served as Chairman. Under his leadership, the 49ers became the first team to play a regular season game outside the borders of the United States, taking on the Arizona Cardinals in front of 100,000 fans at Azteca Stadium in Mexico City in 2005. Under his direction, the League expanded its presence abroad with regular season games at Wembley Stadium in London, England. San Francisco has played in London twice, defeating the Denver Broncos in 2010 and the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2013. In 2022, the 49ers defeated the Cardinals at Azteca Stadium in Mexico City.

CELEBRATING THE TEAM'S LEGENDARY HISTORY

Denise and John have played a pivotal role in fostering tremendous relationships with former players and coaches to help celebrate more than seven monumental decades of 49ers football. Over the past decade, Denise and John have brought back every Hall of Fame enshrinee from the 49ers to be honored for their tremendous contributions to Bay Area sports.

Levi's® Stadium opened in 2014 with one of the premiere features of the venue being the 49ers Museum presented by Foxconn, which houses the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame. The two-level, 20,000 square foot space is dedicated to showcasing the past, present and future of the 49ers' organization and its commitment to education and innovation.

Under the guidance of Denise and John, the team hosts its annual alumni weekend event to give all players who have donned the red and gold throughout the team's history a chance to catch up with old friends. They have also worked with players like Joe Montana and the late Dwight Clark, and the members of the 1981 49ers defense to reenact and commemorate some of the team's most famous plays such as "The Catch" and the goal line stand that propelled the team to its first Super Bowl victory. As the team said goodbye to Candlestick Park in 2013, the 49ers commemorated many great memories by honoring the Top 10 moments in the storied history of the venue by welcoming back the alumni who helped make them all possible.

ENHANCING THE FAN EXPERIENCE

Denise and John are dedicated to embracing the passion of 49ers fans everywhere. They are committed to giving fans an opportunity to experience the excitement of 49ers football year-round wherever they live around the world and have made it their mission to embrace the Faithful as family.

Levi's® Stadium is the culmination of their vision to create an unparalleled game day experience for 49ers fans. The venue not only provides fans with the ultimate place to enjoy 49ers football, but it also plays host to a number of world-class sports and entertainment events throughout the year. Through the integration of innovative technology, sustainable practices and groundbreaking design elements, Levi's® Stadium accurately reflects the best of the Bay Area while bringing fans closer to the game. In 2026, the venue will become the first stadium to host both the Super Bowl (LX) and FIFA World Cup in the same calendar year.

The team is continuing to invest in the stadium to ensure it excites fans for years to come. Starting this season, the fan experience will be vastly improved – from renovating the team store to building new videoboards, which are the largest outdoor 4K videoboards using glass-to-glass technology in the league.

Visitors to Levi's® Stadium immediately notice wide, open concourses that look into the lower bowl, so fans don't miss a minute of the action while ordering food. The high number of points of sale for concessions and merchandise, and the number of restrooms were designed to limit congestion.

Those who visit the Solar Terrace on the roof of the stadium's Suite Tower are treated to unbelievable views, while being shaded by solar panel arrays that helped make the venue the first NFL stadium to open with LEED Gold certification. In 2024, the stadium extended its commitment to sustainability by earning a third LEED Gold Certification from the U.S. Green Building Council (2014, 2016, 2024).

Levi's® Stadium features signature locations in the 49ers Museum presented by Foxconn and the 49ers Team Store presented by Visa, in conjunction with the venue's special events programs, to make the venue a year-round destination.

Levi's® Stadium garnered international recognition by receiving the prestigious honor of Sports Business Journal's 2015 Sports Facility of the Year and the 2015 Sports Venue of the Year at the StadiumBusiness Awards in Barcelona, Spain. The venue has also received several recognitions from the sustainability industry - including the 2017 StadiumBusiness Environmental Award - for its environmentally friendly design and operations plan, both of which were priorities of the York family. In 2024, the Green Sports Alliance honored Levi's® Stadium in their Play to Zero Awards for the venue's exceptional conservation of energy and water.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN THE LIVES OF OTHERS

Under the leadership of Denise and John, 49ers Community Impact and the 49ers Foundation are recognized among the most impactful in all of professional sports. The 49ers were named the 2017 ESPN Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year and the 2017 Pop Warner Little Scholars Team of the Year. The 49ers were also previously recognized as Beyond Sport's 2015 Sport Team of the Year for Outstanding Philanthropic Sports Organization and the 2013 winner of the prestigious Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Steve Patterson Award for Excellence in Sports Philanthropy.

Since 1991, the 49ers Foundation has served its mission, to harness football to educate and empower Bay Area youth through direct and beneficiary programs throughout Bay Area counties and beyond. The Foundation leverages a host of innovative, community-based strategies, that includes supporting long-standing community partners like the 49ers STEM Leadership Institute presented by Chevron, Fresh Lifelines for Youth (FLY), City Year of San Jose/Silicon Valley, and African American Female Excellence. The 49ers Foundation has invested over $70 million back into the historically underserved communities in support of its commitment to remain faithful to the next generation. The York family believes that, if a child can learn to learn, they will continue to educate themselves for the rest of their lives.

Within the 49ers Foundation's direct programming, 49ers EDU presented by Chevron is a reflection of the York family's passion and commitment to providing and improving educational opportunities for young people in the Bay Area. The program provides a myriad of opportunities to engage learners, teachers and families in standards-aligned and community-building educational programming—all free of charge. In 2014, the 49ers were among the first professional sports organizations to develop and deliver STEAM learning concepts for youth with the launch of the Denise DeBartolo York Education Center at Levi's® Stadium, and the corresponding field trip program that runs through it to this day. The three-pronged program offers a series of three free lessons, including an on-site STEAM visit to the stadium, for students in grades K-8 by integrating innovative concepts that support classroom learning in the community and beyond. Since its inception, 49ers EDU has engaged more than 300,000 students in STEAM conversations through its innovative programming – at no cost. The mission of 49ers EDU is simple: to show students and teachers in kindergarten through eighth grade that education can go beyond textbooks and traditional lessons, and to light a fire for young people for STEAM concepts, so they have a stronger proclivity to pursue these subjects throughout their education. Fortified with a team of dedicated educators, 49ers EDU teaches students the principles of STEAM through something they love -- football.

The ongoing commitment to promote education is also demonstrated in the 49ers STEM Leadership Institute (SLI), a collaborative education venture in cooperation with Chevron, the Santa Clara Unified School District and the Silicon Valley Education Foundation funded by the 49ers Foundation. The SLI program provides over 300 hours of rigorous STEM curriculum to cohorts of 60 high-achieving 7th through 12th graders each year from Cabrillo Middle School and Santa Clara High School. Each student selected into SLI gains access to the six-year program, which is meant to strengthen students STEM-related skills to prepare them for eventual entry into the workforce. In the fall of 2016, the program expanded to Santa Clara High School (SCHS) and now serves over 360 students from 7th through 12th grade.

In 2020, Denise and John's impact on Bay Area youth reached another milestone. That year's graduating class was the first cohort to complete the SLI program from start to finish, with 100 percent of the senior class graduating and heading off to four-year universities. The program now has four cohorts of students in college and has maintained a 100 percent graduation rate. Many of the students are pursuing STEM-related degrees, achieving the York's goal to create educational opportunities for youth to follow their passions. The SLI program has also garnered several awards including the California School Board Association's highest honor, the Golden Bell award for Expanded Learning and Engagement.

Football has been in the York family for over 40 years and 49ers PREP presented by U.S. Bank, a direct service program of the 49ers Foundation, is the evolution of the family's continuing efforts to promote health and wellness through the game of football. 49ers PREP is more than just football, it's the 49ers Foundation's boots-on-the-ground approach to serving Bay Area youth through sport. The direct impact of 49ers PREP can be seen in the over 100,000 participants who have engaged in their in-school programming since 2014. 49ers PREP offers free non-contact, co-ed football camps and clinics to kids of all ages, teaching the importance of fitness and fun. 49ers PREP additionally launched a free flag football program for girls and boys ahead of the 2018 season. In February of 2022, the California Interscholastic Federation (CIF) unanimously passed the motion to make girls flag football a varsity sport across the state. 49ers PREP hosted girls flag football jamborees, events for female athletes at Levi's® Stadium, and launched a player of the week program to celebrate female flag football players throughout the inaugural season. The goal set forth by the York family is to continue to teach more children the importance of teamwork, goal setting and how to live a healthy lifestyle in a fun, safe and educational environment.

In recognition of their community involvement, Denise and John have been honored with a number of accolades including the Children Discovery Museum's Legacy for Children Award, City Year's Service Leadership Award, Silicon Valley Exemplary Community Leadership Award by Silicon Valley FACES, Outstanding Corporate Philanthropy Award at the Catholic Charities/Catholic Youth Organization's Loaves and Fishes Dinner, and annual inclusion on the Top Corporate Philanthropists list for the San Jose/Silicon Valley Business Journal and the San Francisco Business Times.

Through the York's family foundation, an excess of $3 million has been donated to support programs under the broad categories of Education and Literacy, Religious (multi-denominational), Underprivileged, Healthcare, Elderly, Diversity (including ethnic, LGBTQ+, gender and others).

Their passion for community involvement extends beyond the Bay Area as well. John has been honored with Loyola University's Stritch Medal – the highest honor awarded by the school – for his ongoing contributions to his alma mater. The couple was honored with the Youngstown Hearing and Speech Center's Great Communicators Award in recognition of their philanthropic leadership. They continue to support the Boys and Girls Club of Youngstown, Youngstown Gleaners Food Bank and the Mahoning Valley United Way, while also being intimately involved with the Edward J. DeBartolo Memorial Scholarship Foundation, which awards college scholarships to deserving Youngstown area high school seniors. This year marked over $2 million given out by the Edward J. DeBartolo Memorial Scholarship Foundation.

Denise continues to provide mentoring and tuition assistance for at-risk youth throughout all levels of education. Denise "adopted" Williamson Elementary School in Youngstown through the United Way Success after Six program, and her donation sponsors the after-school program. She also supports Rescue Mission of Mahoning Valley, Akron Children's Hospital Mahoning Valley, Beatitude House, Youngstown Neighborhood Development, Angels for Animals, YWCA Bright Futures Scholarship Program, Women in Entrepreneurship Program at Youngstown Business Incubator and made a substantial contribution to the new Youngstown State University Veteran's Resource Center. Denise is also passionate about cancer-related causes, including The Serenity Garden at the Joanie Abdu Comprehensive Breast Care Center and continues to support the Mercy Health Foundation.

Through the guidance and leadership of Denise and John, the 49ers organization has been highly regarded for its corporate philanthropy. In 2024, players, 49ers staff, family and alumni volunteered 800 hours of their time serving over 80 organizations through programming that benefited over 1,500 children and 800 adults.

PUTTING FAMILY FIRST

Though Denise and John have accomplished much in their professional careers, they first define themselves as husband, wife, and parents.

Their eldest son, Jed, now carries on the family's legacy -- begun by his grandfather Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., his Uncle Eddie DeBartolo Jr., and his parents -- by serving as CEO of the 49ers. Their twin daughters, Jenna and Mara, have worked in the Napa Valley wine industry for several years and are active participants with the 49ers community efforts in their role as Chief Impact Officers. Their son, Tony, was an entrepreneur whose true passion lied in philanthropy, which led him to support a number of non-profit efforts and work closely with incarcerated youth. The York children share their parents' passion for community service and are very active in the 49ers Foundation. Denise and John have two grandchildren, Jaxon and Brixton, the sons of Jed and his wife, Danielle.

RECOGNIZING THE 49ERS FAITHFUL

A 49ers fan since birth, York recognizes that the success of the 49ers hinges on the team's Faithful fans, and he is committed to honoring them for their passion and enthusiasm.

Since the time Levi's® Stadium was just a concept, creating the ultimate game day experience for 49ers fans has been at the core of the York family's vision. To design the venue and bring that vision to life, York and the 49ers incorporated one of the Bay Area's most notable natural resources – innovative technology.

With technology woven into its backbone, the building not only allows visitors to customize their own individual experience through the use of the Levi's® Stadium App, but it is also able to seamlessly evolve throughout the decades to come. In addition to groundbreaking design elements that bring fans closer to the game, the venue is a showcase for the region's sustainable efforts and world-class wine and cuisine. Fans have also come to recognize Levi's® Stadium as a year-round destination for private events and a museum dedicated to honoring the team's storied history, while also using football as a means to educate Bay Area youth.

As a result of York's leadership, the team is continuing to invest in the stadium to ensure it excites fans for years to come. Starting this season, the fan experience will be vastly improved – from renovating the team store and updating concessions areas, to building new videoboards, which are the largest outdoor 4K videoboards using glass-to-glass technology in the league.

Under York's leadership, the team established the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame in 2009, to commemorate the significant accomplishments of some of the team's biggest stars and key contributors. Named for his grandfather and the beloved patriarch of the 49ers, the Hall of Fame automatically inducted those 49ers greats who have either had their jersey numbers retired by the team or have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. York, shortly thereafter, announced the Hall of Fame's inaugural inductee, his uncle, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr. who was enshrined during the 2009 season. The 49ers Hall of Fame now has a home inside the 49ers Museum at Levi's® Stadium.

Also located inside the 49ers Museum is the Denise DeBartolo York Education Center, which provides learning platforms that connect, inspire and engage K-8 students from Santa Clara and throughout the Bay Area throughout the year. Featuring content-rich lessons in science, technology, engineering, art and mathematics, the highly interactive center promotes physical activity and valuable life skills. Since the program's inception in 2014, the program has provided trajectory and mindset-changing experiences to more than 250,000 participants.

CARRYING ON THE FAMILY'S LEGACY

York's roots with the 49ers run deep. He is the oldest child of Denise and John York, the co-chairmen of the team. York's uncle and godfather, Eddie DeBartolo, also known to fans as "Mr. D", has long served as a mentor.

York began his career as a financial analyst at Guggenheim Partners, a diversified financial services firm. He worked in the firm's New York office in several areas, including private wealth management, hedge funds risk analysis, and collateralized debt obligations. York currently serves on four key NFL committees: Stadium, Media O&O (NFL's owned and operated media businesses), Business Ventures, as well as Fan Engagement and Major Events, assigned to address facets of National Football League business.

Born and raised in Youngstown, OH, York was a student athlete at Cardinal Mooney High School where he was captain of the baseball team as well as student body president. After high school, York decided to carry on a family tradition by attending the University of Notre Dame, where he earned a degree in both finance and history. York was a member of Phi Alpha Theta, the National History Honors Society.

York credits his parents, his uncle Eddie, and his grandfather Edward DeBartolo Sr. as being positive role models and for teaching him character values such as integrity, a strong work ethic, and respect for others. He is pleased to carry on his family's commitment to community by serving as a board member at Tipping Point Community, Silicon Valley Leadership Group, Operation HOPE, as well as the University of Notre Dame Advisory Council.

Besides his tremendous passion for the 49ers, York enjoys traveling, fishing, and playing cards, which he learned from his grandfather.

During the opening of Levi's® Stadium, Jenna and Mara played a key role in the launch of the Denise DeBartolo York Education Center, the first and only classroom located in a professional sports stadium. This space offers hands-on, project-based learning in a dynamic and technological environment. The programs, including STEM, are based on a common, core-aligned curriculum and tied into football so that students in grades K through 8 can learn in a fun and unique way. During the Covid pandemic, the Yorks worked to turn a lot of the programs virtual and have continued to use that technology to reach more people in the Bay Area and beyond.

49ers EDU and 49ers PREP presented by U.S. Bank, both direct service programs of the Foundation have reached over 600,000 students since their inceptions. 49ers EDU has engaged more than 300,000 students in STEAM lessons through its innovative programming at no cost to students or communities. 49ers PREP focuses on bringing health and wellness resources into underserved communities by working with community centers and local schools to make an impact and promote active lives through the game of football. The direct impact of 49ers PREP can be seen in the nearly 200,000 participants who have engaged in their in-school programming since 2014. 49ers PREP offers free non-contact, co-ed football camps and clinics to kids of all ages, teaching the importance of fitness and fun.

Under the guidance of Jenna and Mara, the 49ers championed girls flag football and played a major role in getting the state of California to recognize it as a varsity sport. 49ers PREP hosted girls flag football jamborees, events for female athletes at Levi's® Stadium, and launched a player of the week program to celebrate female flag football players throughout the inaugural season. California is now the eighth state to have girls flag football as a varsity sport. The 49ers provide a free flag football program for youth and have served over 500,000 student athletes.

In 2021, the 49ers Foundation established the Red & Gold Society, the NFL's first-ever annual giving program. This program has raised $3 million so far, which has allowed the organization to reach more kids, through the classroom and through physical fitness, than ever before. With the help of Jenna and Mara, the 49ers were named the 2017 ESPN Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year and the 2017 Pop Warner Little Scholars Team of the Year. The 49ers were also previously recognized as Beyond Sport's 2015 Sport Team of the Year for Outstanding Philanthropic Sports Organization and the 2013 winner of the prestigious Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Steve Patterson Award for Excellence in Sports Philanthropy.

In 2024, players, coaches, football executives and their families volunteered over 800 hours of their time serving more than 80 community groups through programming that benefited over 1,500 youth and 800 adults through Community Relations initiatives.

To deepen their knowledge, Jenna and Mara worked with renowned winemakers in California and Argentina and traveled extensively through the wine regions of France, Italy, and Australia. This lifelong dream of producing their own wines has come to fruition through JennaMarise.

They share their family's passion for building a championship team with their commitment to being the best possible business partners and community citizens.

JOHN LYNCH

PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS/GENERAL MANAGER

24TH NFL SEASON (15 PLAYING/9 FRONT OFFICE) × 9TH WITH 49ERS

One of the most respected players to ever play the game of football, and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2021, John Lynch is in his ninth season with the 49ers and third as the team's President of Football Operations/General Manager. He spent his first six years (2017-2022) with the organization as the team's General Manager following a 15-year playing career and more than eight seasons as an NFL analyst.

Since coming to San Francisco, Lynch has been vigilant in seeking and acquiring the players that embody the team's culture on the field and in the community. While working hand-in-hand with head coach Kyle Shanahan and the coaching staff, Lynch and his personnel staff continue to add players through all available avenues. Following a 13-3 regular season record and a trip to Super Bowl LIV, Lynch was named the 2019 Executive of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America after his third season as the team's general manager.

Lynch and the 49ers front office took the necessary steps to secure the future of the team in 2025, signing QB Brock Purdy to a five-year extension, TE George Kittle to a four-year extension and LB Fred Warner to a three-year extension in the offseason. The team also completed an 11-player Draft class during the 2025 NFL Draft, including DL Mykel Williams with the 11th overall selection. The 49ers trip to Super Bowl LVIII was their second in five seasons.

Five members of the 2023 San Francisco 49ers were named Associated Press First-Team All-Pro in Juszczyk, Kittle, RB Christian McCaffrey, Warner and T Trent Williams, as well as two Associated Press Second-Team All-Pro selections in WR Brandon Aiyuk and CB Charvarius Ward. Nine 49ers were selected to the 2024 Pro Bowl Games, the most the team had donned since the 2013 Pro Bowl (DL Nick Bosa, DL Javon Hargrave, Juszczyk, Kittle, McCaffrey, QB Brock Purdy, Ward, Warner and Williams). Prior to the start of the regular season, San Francisco signed Bosa to a five-year extension. McCaffrey, who led the NFL in rushing yards in 2023, was named Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year as well as the PFWA Offensive Player of the Year. In his first full season as a starter, Purdy led the NFL in passer rating (113.0) and yards per attempt (9.6), while setting the franchise record for passing yards (4,280) and throwing 31 touchdowns, becoming the first 49ers QB to throw 30-or-more touchdowns in a single season in 22 years.

In October of 2022, Lynch and the Niners acquired McCaffrey in a mid-season trade with the Carolina Panthers. McCaffrey went on to register 1,210 scrimmage yards and 11 touchdowns after joining the team in Week 7. San Francisco saw three starting quarterbacks during the season, with rookie QB Brock Purdy, the final overall draft pick in the 2022 NFL Draft, becoming the team's starter in Week 13. Purdy went 7-1 as a starter, including the playoffs, and became the first quarterback in franchise history to win their first five starts and the third rookie quarterback in NFL history to win at least their first five starts.

Lynch and the 49ers, along with the entire NFL, went into the 2021 offseason facing a new challenge with a reduced salary cap. San Francisco navigated the adjustment and retained core players who played vital roles for the team. The team was able to re-sign All-Pro T Trent Williams to a six-year extension and Pro Bowl FB Kyle Juszczyk to a five-year deal, while also re-signing key pieces of their defense in DL D.J. Jones, CB Emmanuel Moseley, S Jaquiski Tartt, CB Jason Verrett and CB K'Waun Williams. In 16 games (15 starts), Samuel registered 77 receptions for 1,405 receiving yards (18.2 average) and five receiving touchdowns to go along with career-highs in carries (59), rushing yards (365) and rushing touchdowns (eight). His eight rushing touchdowns were the most by any player whose primary position is wide receiver since the merger. Second-year WR Brandon Aiyuk also added 56 catches for 826 yards and five touchdowns. On the ground, rookie RB Elijah Mitchell set the franchise record for most rushing yards by a rookie (963).

In 2020, San Francisco signed TE George Kittle to a five-year extension and re-signed a pair of key pieces of their defense in DL Arik Armstead and DB Jimmie Ward. Lynch and his staff then addressed the departures of key veterans, with the selection of WR Brandon Aiyuk and the acquisition of All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection, Trent Williams, in a draft-day trade with Washington. That season, Lynch and the 49ers leadership steered their way through the COVID-19 pandemic, a situation that included the relocation of the team's football operations to Arizona for the final month of the season.

Following the 2018 season, Lynch continued to improve the 49ers roster through trades, free agency and the 2019 NFL Draft. The offseason started with the 49ers acquiring DL Dee Ford via trade and signing him to a five-year contract followed by the signing of free agent LB Kwon Alexander. The 49ers added eight players to the roster during the 2019 NFL Draft, including DL Nick Bosa with the second overall selection, who went on to be named the 2019 AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Lynch continued to add to the roster during the season as the 49ers acquired WR Emmanuel Sanders via trade, a move that proved integral to the team winning the NFC Championship.

In 2018, Lynch bolstered the 49ers offensive line with the additions of C Weston Richburg through free agency and T Mike McGlinchey in the first round of the 2018 NFL Draft. Richburg went on to start 15 games at center while McGlinchey started all 16 games at right tackle and earned All-Rookie Team honors from the Pro Football Writers of America and ESPN. San Francisco also selected LB Fred Warner in the third round of that year's draft. Warner would later become a multiple Associated Press First-Team All-Pro selection and earn his first trip to the Pro Bowl following the 2020 season. The team also added free agent CB Richard Sherman who went on to earn his fifth Associated Press All-Pro selection in 2019 with the 49ers.

In his first season with San Francisco, Lynch brought in several key players through free agency, including K Robbie Gould and Juszczyk, who impacted the team immediately. Gould led the NFL with a career-high 39 made field goals and a career-high 145 points and Juszczyk was selected to the Pro Bowl. That year's NFL Draft saw San Francisco select TE George Kittle in the fifth round, as Kittle has since earned First-Team All-Pro honors (2019), been selected to two Pro Bowls (2019-20) and set the then-NFL record for the most receiving yards by a tight end at the time with 1,377 in 2018.

Lynch was also responsible for acquiring G Laken Tomlinson and QB Jimmy Garoppolo in trades. Tomlinson was acquired on August 31, 2017 and started the final 15 games of the season at left guard. He was rewarded with a three-year contract extension through the 2021 season on June 22, 2018. Garoppolo, who was traded to San Francisco on October 30, 2017, started the final five games of the season and posted a 5-0 record while setting the franchise record for most passing yards in the first five starts with the team (1,542 yards). On February 8, 2018, Garoppolo signed a five-year contract extension through the 2022 season and led the team to a 38-17 career record in the regular season (4-2 in the postseason) as the 49ers starting quarterback.

Lynch joined the 49ers in February of 2017 after serving as a color analyst for FOX Sports from 2009-16. In his final season of 2016 with FOX, he manned the number two broadcast crew alongside play-by-play announcer Kevin Burkhardt.

Prior to his time at FOX, Lynch constructed one of the all-time great NFL careers while with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1993-2003) and the Denver Broncos (2004-07). A four-time All-Pro and nine-time Pro Bowl selection, he played in 224 games (191 starts) and registered 1,277 tackles, 13.0 sacks, 26 interceptions, 16 forced fumbles, eight fumble recoveries and 100 passes defensed. Lynch also started all 12 playoff games in which he appeared and tallied 71 tackles, two interceptions and 12 passes defensed. He was a Buccaneers team captain as the squad achieved the crown jewel of team sports, a victory in Super Bowl XXXVII, and has been inducted into the Ring of Honor in both Tampa Bay and Denver.

Lynch attended Stanford University where he excelled in both football and baseball. On the football field, he earned Second-Team All-American and First-Team All-Pac-10 Conference honors as a senior, while playing for Hall of Fame head coach Bill Walsh. Lynch was later selected in the third round (82nd overall) of the 1993 NFL Draft by Tampa Bay. Following his career on the diamond for the Cardinal, he was selected in the second round (66th overall) of the 1992 Major League Baseball Draft by the Florida Marlins.

In addition to his stellar play on the field, Lynch is also a pillar of the community. He and his wife, Linda, formed the John Lynch Foundation, which is committed to inspiring young people to become leaders through scholarship, sport participation and community involvement. The Foundation is committed to developing leaders by encouraging dreams, providing programs that assist and motivate, and recognizing achievement and excellence.

Lynch was the recipient of the 2006 Bart Starr Award, which is voted upon by players throughout the NFL and recognizes a player who shows outstanding character and leadership in the home, on the field and in the community. He was also presented with The Byron "Whizzer" White Award, which is given annually to the NFL player who serves his team, community and country in the spirit of Bryon Raymond White. In 2019, Lynch received the prestigious Wender Weis Change Maker Award, which is given annually to a current or former professional athlete who has used their sports platform to improve the lives of underserved youth. Additionally, Lynch was the 2019 recipient of the Excellence in Leadership Award from the Positive Coaching Alliance, the Ireland Funds 2020 Distinguished Leadership Award recipient and the 2021 Quincy Jones Exceptional Advocacy Award recipient.

With a longstanding appreciation for the United States military stemming from his grandfather and great uncle both volunteering for the Army the day after the deadly attacks on Pearl Harbor in December 1941, Lynch has twice (2017 & 2020) been the 49ers nominee for the Annual Salute to Service Award presented by USAA, including his selection as one of three finalists for the Award in 2020.

John and his wife, Linda, have four children – Jake, Lindsay, Lilly and Leah.

ABOUT LEVI'S® STADIUM

Now in its 12th year of operation, Levi's® Stadium has built a reputation as one of the premier destinations for sports and entertainment on the West Coast. After over 200 major events to date, in 2026, Levi's® Stadium will become the first venue in global history to host a Super Bowl and FIFA World Cup in the same calendar year. Super Bowl LX returns to Levi's® Stadium exactly 10 years after the venue hosted Super Bowl 50 in 2016 and will be the second time Levi's® Stadium has hosted the game.

According to studies, Levi's® Stadium has been a massive economic driver for the region since opening in 2014. In its first 10 years of operation, the stadium has added $2 billion to the Bay Area economy, creating more than 12,000 jobs and paying workers more than half a billion dollars in wages. Hosting major events like the Super Bowl and FIFA World Cup at Levi's® Stadium continues to play a major role in that success. In 2016, Super Bowl 50 alone generated nearly $250 million for the Bay Area economy. 2026 will continue to build on that success with Super Bowl LX projected to generate at least $370 million, and the World Cup estimated to bring in at least $480 million for the Bay – putting the combined estimated impact from these upcoming 2026 events at around $1 billion.

Levi's® Stadium boasts a seating capacity of 68,500 with the ability to expand to more than 75,000 for special events, and is best known as the home of the five-time Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers. Drawing more fans closer to the experience than ever before, Levi's® Stadium features nearly 45,000 seats, or roughly two-thirds of stadium capacity, in the lower bowl. Overall, the stadium includes 1.85-million-square-feet of space that provides a distinctively California experience.

Creating a best-in-class fan experience is a major priority for Levi's® Stadium. The venue has been designed for fans of all ages, including kids. Located at Gate C, the Play Kind Zone has a variety of activities for 49ers fans of all ages. Kids 14 and under are invited to pick up their own customized "My First 49ers Game" certificate, sign up for the 49ers Kids Club, participate in beginner level football drills, enjoy the thrill of riding down the giant football slide, climbing over giant NFL cleats, as well as X's and O's. Everyone can stand next to life-sized 49ers players on the Measure-Up Wall.

One of the most technologically advanced stadiums in the world, Levi's® Stadium is a showcase for innovation in Silicon Valley. As of the 2025 NFL season, the stadium boasts the largest outdoor video boards with glass-to-glass 4K production in the league, enabling fans to experience the action on the field like never before. Accompanied by its own mobile app, the 49ers App, the venue brings the comforts of watching a game at home right to your seat. In addition to mobile ticketing and parking, and the ability to watch video replays in real-time on a handheld device, the stadium features a best-in-class cellular and Wi-Fi infrastructure that allows guests to stay connected throughout their visit.

Levi's® Stadium has now been awarded LEED Gold Certification three times by the U.S. Green Building Council, the most widely used green building rating system. The first came in 2014 when the stadium opened with LEED Gold for New Construction, while the second and third came for Operations and Maintenance of an Existing Building. When the stadium obtained their second LEED Gold Certification in 2016, the venue was the only one of its kind to twice be recognized for achieving the industry standard for sustainable design and construction. Equipped with a green roof, state-of-the-art solar elements made up of 1,162 photovoltaic panels throughout the venue, low-flow plumbing fixtures and the first rooftop farm at an NFL stadium, the stadium has been widely recognized as a leader in sustainable design. Additionally, Levi's® Stadium has established a new standard for sports and entertainment venues by using 85 percent recycled water for all of its non-potable water needs.

Levi's® Stadium was awarded the 2017 Facility of Merit by the NFL and the National Center for Spectator Sports Safety and Security for its efforts in performing above and beyond normal operations to demonstrate an innovative approach to enhancing safety and security. Previously, Levi's® Stadium was recognized by the Sports Business Journal as the 2015 Sports Facility of the Year and by The StadiumBusiness Awards as 2015 Venue of the Year over an international field of facilities.

49ERS RING OF HONOR

The 49ers Ring of Honor, located on the suite tower at Levi's® Stadium, features the jersey numbers of all Edward J. DeBartolo, Sr. San Francisco 49ers Hall of Fame inductees. The Ring of Honor also highlights the jersey numbers of Alumni who have had their numbers retired by the 49ers. Retired jersey numbers are denoted with a white circular border, and all numbers are displayed in numerical order.

TECHNOLOGY

Levi's® Stadium is a showcase for innovation in the Silicon Valley through partnerships with local, national and international technology providers that help deliver world-class Wi-Fi capability, mobile connectivity, IPTV, digital displays, the largest outdoor video displays with glass to glass 4K production in the NFL, and paperless ticketing.

- New technology upgrades will keep the Faithful more connected than ever. Levi's® Stadium now features fast and reliable free Wi-Fi presented by Xfinity by Comcast. The new Cisco Wi-Fi 6 infrastructure features 1,300 access points that provide for high speed internet in every location. Further, the has upgraded its wireless network presented by Verizon. With the help of America Fujikura Ltd. (AFL), the stadium will feature a new 5G Distributed Antenna System (DAS) that will ensure fans have the best connectivity of any building in the NFL.
- In 2018, Levi's® Stadium launched the Executive Huddle presented by SAP, the first real-time analytics control room in the NFL, to help stadium operations staff identify and respond to gameday fan experience issues. The system tracks data sources like concessions POS terminals, parking & ticket scanners and fan satisfaction terminals. Using real-time data visualizations, staff can detect and respond to fan experience issues within 10 minutes. Previously, game day satisfaction feedback was largely measured via postgame surveys, which took several days to produce meaningful data.
- Levi's® Stadium's innovation extends all the way to its own app. The 49ers App is the best way to access, manage and scan your tickets and parking passes. Guests can easily transfer tickets to friends and family with a few taps. You can also watch live streaming games (in market and Primetime games only) and access exclusive content, breaking news, and interactive fan experiences.

NETWORK INFRASTRUCTURE

- Levi's® Stadium boasts a robust 40Gb/s Internet backbone, easily scalable to accommodate event attendance, which is four times greater than the 2017 NFL stadium standard recommended by the National Football League. The stadium features over 1,300 Wi-Fi access points supporting 5GHz, and the latest Wi-Fi 6 (802.11ax) standards, ensuring comprehensive and free Wi-Fi access in every location.

IN-STADIUM "BROADCAST"

- The in-stadium "Broadcast" rivals that of a Network TV broadcast, featuring 39 stadium cameras (ten operated cameras, seventeen PTZ cameras, five 8K cameras, two mobile kits, and five POV cameras). The stadium has the ability to share camera feeds with the broadcasting TV network. At least twelve different replay angles can be viewed at any given time. The game day production team consists of 70-plus people.
- In 2020, the 49ers and Levi's® Stadium unveiled the first-ever 8K video replay system presented by Foxconn Industrial Internet (Fii). Thanks to five 8K cameras (capturing 120 frames per second) positioned around the stadium, the incomparable new replay system provides views of all goal lines and sidelines that can be zoomed in on without pixilation or motion blur. A true technological feat, the 49ers new video replay system is able to ingest the highest amounts of data for any existing stadium to produce video in 8K. This data is sent to the Levi's® Stadium scoreboard control room, the hub of the system, where the gameday production team is able to route and distribute the signals to different areas of the stadium.
- As of the 2025 season, the stadium is equipped with the largest outdoor videoboards with glass to glass 4K production in the NFL, measuring 250 feet by 66 feet. The boards also feature tremendously sharp, cutting-edge LEDs. The boards can be sectioned and layered in order to show multiple pieces of content simultaneously. The result is producing two shows simultaneously, an A show and a B show, to maximize fan engagement.
- 2200 4K screens are connected to the stadium's Cisco IPTV network, which allows for incredible flexibility and customization throughout the venue. Content includes menu boards, game broadcasts, statistics and other important information as deemed necessary.

SUSTAINABILITY

In August 2014, Levi's® Stadium became the first professional football stadium to open with LEED Gold Certification for BD+C: New Construction, the recognized standard for measuring sustainability for design and construction. Less than two years later in July 2016, Levi's® Stadium continued to set benchmarks as the leading sports venue in sustainability by achieving LEED Gold Certification for Operations and Maintenance of an Existing building – making it the first-ever NFL stadium to be LEED Gold certified under the two respective rating systems. Levi's® Stadium once again has been awarded LEED Gold for Operations and Maintenance of an Existing Building in 2024. This accomplishment positions Levi's® Stadium at the forefront of sustainability in the world of professional sports and entertainment venues, with only 18 other stadiums certified at the same level in the US. Out of the 30 NFL stadiums, only 7 including Levi's® Stadium have been awarded LEED Gold or higher. The project was specifically recognized for energy efficiency, water conservation, and indoor air quality.

In June 2024, Levi's® Stadium was named a recipient of the Green Sports Alliance "Play to Zero" Awards, including the Waste Champion Award, the Energy Player Award and the Water Player Award. These awards celebrate Levi's® Stadium's extraordinary leadership toward advancing sustainability, environmental stewardship and community engagement in sports and entertainment.

SUSTAINABLE DESIGN ELEMENTS

- The stadium is designed to reduce energy demand and generate more electricity annually, via on-site photovoltaic (PV) systems, than is consumed during the 10 scheduled 49ers games each season.
- The stadium features 1,162 photovoltaic panels throughout the venue. Each year the panels produce enough energy to power 42 homes.
- The venue's 27,000-square-foot "green roof," is located atop the stadium's suite tower which houses a majority of the venue's 173 suites. This living roof features 16 species of vegetation native to the Bay Area to lower the building's cooling and heating needs by regulating ambient temperatures in the tower.
- In 2016 Levi's® Stadium partnered with Farmscape, California's largest urban farming company, to bring the first-ever rooftop farm to an NFL stadium: The Faithful Farm. The 7,500 sq. ft. rooftop farm located on the tower roof supports over 40 organic rotational crops, including tomatoes, summer squash, peppers, eggplants. These crops generate an annual yield of more than 10,000 pounds, all of which are harvested and used for dishes served at Levi's® Stadium. Excess produce from the Faithful Farm also contributes to the stadium's humanitarian efforts with various food banks and nonprofits across the Bay Area, helping to provide healthy vegetable-based dishes to individuals in need.
- The playing field is surrounded by a 23,000-square-foot artificial turf track that reduces watering needs by approximately 20 percent and reduces the amount of natural grass needed for each field resurfacing.
- The stadium's sustainable initiatives also include public transit access (Caltrain, ACE & Capitol Corridor – VTA, Amtrak), convenient bicycle parking and a walking path from the San Tomas Creek Trail.
- Construction materials utilized contained more than 40 percent recycled content overall, based on cost. More than 75 percent of construction waste was recycled and diverted from landfills.
- Three solar array-covered bridges are the first of their kind in the NFL.

SUSTAINABLE STADIUM OPERATIONS PROGRAMS

- The Solid Waste Management Reduction Program is a comprehensive waste diversion program that is striving for netzero landfill. All garbage, recycling and compostable materials from inside the venue and the surrounding parking areas are sorted on-site and placed into compactors to be processed. Over 70% of stadium waste is recycled or composted.
- The Building Management System allows the venue to conserve energy usage through HVAC monitoring, lighting distribution and the use of automatic sensors.
- The Preventative Maintenance Program tracks all equipment and systems to enact their manufacturer's recommendations and scheduled preventative plans.
- The Ongoing Commissioning Program ensures that the venue operates under the LEED existing building guidelines for new projects and build outs.
- The Green Cleaning Program ensures that the janitorial contractor uses sustainable green certified products for all cleaning essentials and equipment.
- The Sustainable Purchasing Program for ongoing consumables, foodstuffs, durable goods ensures that local, organic, recycled and compostable items will be purchased from vendors.
- The Pest Management Program uses only green-materials pest eradication products.
- The Indoor Air Quality Management Program consists of perpetual monitoring of indoor air quality.
- The Landscape Management Program includes using native, drought-resistant plants that are irrigated with 100 percent recycled water.
- The Exterior Hardscape Management Program utilizes cleaning equipment when washing the exterior skin of the building and sidewalks. All organic materials collected are composted.
- The Energy Metering & Benchmarking Program utilizes a comprehensive, live-time electrical metering building management system, that allows the stadium to load-shed as needed through the use of motion sensors and pre-programmed computer BMS control.
- The Recycled Water Program is setting a new standard for stadiums. Recycled water accounts for about 85 percent of all water used in Levi's® Stadium and is used for playing field irrigation, the "green roof," flushing toilets, and cooling tower make-up water.

LEVI'S® STADIUM COVID-19 VACCINATION SITE

SANTA CLARA COMMUNITY ASSET

Owned by the Santa Clara Stadium Authority, Levi's® Stadium has served as a valuable asset to the Santa Clara community since opening in 2014. The 49ers and its stadium management company take great pride in making the venue accessible to everyone beyond the 68,500 people who are able to attend 49ers games 10-12 times per year. Levi's® Stadium annually hosts Bay Area youth each year for the 49ers Foundation and its direct programs 49ers EDU and 49ers PREP.

COVID-19 VACCINATION SITE

- Beginning in 2020 and lasting into 2022, the COVID-19 pandemic halted the world in its tracks. Professional sports, usual models of perseverance and strength, were also forced to surrender to the deadly virus; however, large sports venues like Levi's® Stadium stepped up in a significant effort to defeat COVID-19. In February 2021, after playing an entire NFL season without a single fan in attendance at Levi's® Stadium, the 49ers partnered with the County of Santa Clara to transform Levi's® Stadium into the largest COVID-19 vaccination site in California. The site was operated by the County of Santa Clara Health System, while the Levi's® Stadium Operations team assisted with pulling off the major logistical feat of administering 15,000 shots per day. As of June 2021 when the vaccination site closed, the 49ers and Santa Clara County had administered over 350,000 vaccine shots.

VOTING CENTER

- In September 2020, the 49ers announced a multilateral partnership to make Levi's® Stadium a voting center for the November 3rd general election in conjunction with the organization's ongoing voter awareness initiatives. The team and stadium joined California Secretary of State Alex Padilla, the Santa Clara County Registrar of Voters, More Than A Vote, and founding partner Levi's® to ensure Santa Clara County residents had a safe and easily accessible location to drop off their ballots, participate in early voting or vote in-person on election day. The operations took place within the suite tower while free parking was provided directly outside the stadium. During the early voting period, Santa Clara County totaled over half a million votes, doubling the number of votes cast during the same period in 2016.

BY THE NUMBERS

- In its first 10 years of operation, Levi's® Stadium generated $2 billion for the Bay Area economy. That included around 12,000 full time jobs across the county, and more than half a billion dollars in wages for local workers.
- Revenue from the stadium has provided roughly $1 billion to the City of Santa Clara and the Santa Clara Stadium Authority.
- Revenue from each and every 49ers ticket sold at the stadium goes toward supporting Youth and Seniors programs in the City of Santa Clara, totaling more than $2 million since 2014.
- The stadium is decades ahead of schedule in paying back its debt, saving over $100 million in interest for the Santa Clara Stadium Authority.

KYLE SHANAHAN

HEAD COACH

22ND NFL SEASON × 9TH WITH 49ERS

Kyle Shanahan was named the 20th head coach of the San Francisco 49ers on February 6, 2017. Shanahan signed a multi-year contract extension with the 49ers in September of 2023.

The 2024 San Francisco 49ers saw DL Nick Bosa, FB Kyle Juszczyk, TE George Kittle and LB Fred Warner selected to the Pro Bowl, with Warner earning Associated Press First-Team All-Pro and Juszczyk and Kittle earning Second-Team All-Pro honors. Shanahan again led a top offense in 2024 by directing a unit that finished in the top five in the NFL in yards per game (376.3 - fourth) for the fifth time in his tenure with the 49ers. San Francisco's offense was led by the receiving duo of WR Jauan Jennings and Kittle. Jennings finished the season with career highs in receptions (77), receiving yards (975) and receiving touchdowns (six), while Kittle led the team in receptions (78), receiving yards (1,106) and receiving touchdowns (eight). Kittle's 1,106 receiving yards marked his second-consecutive and fourth overall season with 1,000-or-more receiving yards, marking the third-most seasons in franchise history with at least 1,000 receiving yards and making him one of five tight ends in NFL history to register four such seasons in a career.

QB Brock Purdy finished the 2024 season completing 300 of his 455 passing attempts (65.9%) for 3,864 yards and 20 touchdowns with a passer rating of 96.1. The 49ers rushing attack was led by RB Jordan Mason, who registered a career-high 789 rushing yards and added three touchdowns. Rookie RB Isaac Guerendo added 84 carries for 420 yards and four touchdowns in his debut season.

The 49ers defense wrapped up the 2024 season with the fifth-ranked passing defense (192.8) and eighth-ranked total defense (317.4) in the NFL. Warner anchored the defensive unit, leading the team in tackles (131) and forced fumbles (four). He also added 1.0 sack and two interceptions, one of which was returned for a touchdown. Warner became one of three players in the NFL to register 130-or-more tackles in each of the previous four seasons (2021-24) and also became the second linebacker in franchise history to register 10.0-or-more sacks and 10-or-more interceptions in a career. Bosa led the defensive line with 52 tackles, 9.0 sacks, one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery, while the secondary was led by DB Deommodore Lenoir, who shared the team-lead in interceptions (two) and notched 85 tackles, nine passes defensed and one forced fumble. As a rookie, Bosa, who played in all 16 games (14 starts) and registered 47 tackles, 9.0 sacks, one interception, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and two passes defensed, was named Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press and the PFWA, and Rookie of the Year by Sporting News, PFWA and Pepsi. He was also named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team and was named a starter in the Pro Bowl. With DLs Arik Armstead (10.0), Bosa (9.0), DeForest Buckner (7.5) and Dee Ford (6.5), the 49ers were the only team in the NFL to have four-or-more players with 6.5-or-more sacks in 2019. LB Fred Warner started all 16 games and led the team with 118 tackles, while also adding 3.0 sacks, one interception (returned for a touchdown), three forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and nine passes defensed. Rookie LB Dre Greenlaw played in all 16 games (10 starts) and tallied 87 tackles, 1.0 sack, one interception and two passes defensed as he was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. The secondary was led by CB Richard Sherman, who registered 57 tackles, three interceptions (one returned for a touchdown) and 11 passes defensed and was named Associated Press Second-Team All-Pro.

During his second season at the helm of the 49ers, the 2018 team overcame adversity early in the season after top free agent acquisition RB Jerick McKinnon tore his ACL prior to Week 1, as did starting QB Jimmy Garoppolo in Week 3, putting an end to both of their seasons. Despite the setback, Shanahan, his coaches and the young core of the team stepped up to the challenge and endured the ups and downs of the season. Second-year TE George Kittle set an NFL record for most receiving yards by a tight end in a single season (1,377) while recording the most yards after catch by any player in the NFL since 2010 (870). Kittle earned AP Second-Team All-Pro honors, as well as his first Pro Bowl selection, after his historic season. Following injuries to both Garoppolo and QB C.J. Beathard, undrafted QB Nick Mullens was able to fill the void and excel for San Francisco's offense after being promoted to the active roster from the team's practice squad on September 26. Mullens started the final eight games of the season and accumulated the fourth-most passing yards by a quarterback in his first eight career games since 1970 (Patrick Mahomes, KC; Andrew Luck, Ind.; Cam Newton, Car.). On the defensive side of the ball, DL DeForest Buckner earned his first Pro Bowl appearance after leading the pass rushing unit with a career-high 12.0 sacks, which was the second-most among NFL DTs and the fourth-most by a member of the 49ers since 2000.

In his first season as head coach, Shanahan led the team to a 6-10 record, which was a four-game improvement from the previous year. After a difficult stretch to start the season, the 49ers won six of their final seven games, including victories in five-straight games to close out the season. With six wins on the season, San Francisco set the NFL record for the most wins by a team in NFL history that started 0-9. The 49ers closed the season as one of the hottest teams in the NFL, posting a perfect 5-0 record in December. San Francisco was the only team in the league to have a perfect record over the last month of the regular season as Shanahan became the fourth rookie NFL head coach in franchise history (Buck Shaw – 1950; Frankie Albert – 1956 & George Seifert – 1989), and the first in the NFL since Tony Sparano in 2008, to go undefeated in the month of December.

San Francisco's offense reached new heights under Shanahan in 2017. The 49ers ranked 12th in the NFL, averaging 349.2 yards per game, the highest output by the team since 2012 (361.8 – 11th). The team also finished the year with 3,925 net passing yards, the most in a single season since 2000 (4,239). QB Jimmy Garoppolo, who went 5-0 as a starter and engineered four, second half comeback wins, set the franchise record for most passing yards in his first five starts. QB C.J. Beathard set the single-season franchise record for attempts (224), completions (123) and passing yards (1,430) by a rookie quarterback. The offense also featured WR Marquise Goodwin who set career highs in both receptions (56) and receiving yards (962), as well as Pro Bowl selections for FB Kyle Juszczyk (second) and T Joe Staley (sixth).

Defensively, San Francisco battled through multiple injuries that left several key 49ers on the Injured Reserve List early in the season, but the 49ers defense improved as the season progressed. Over the final six weeks of the season, San Francisco held opponents to an average of 87.7 rushing yards per game while allowing 100 rushing yards just once in that span. The defense was led by DL DeForest Buckner who tallied 61 tackles and tied for second on the team with 3.0 sacks. The defense also had good productivity from rookies, including DL Solomon Thomas, who led the team with 10 tackles for loss while notching 3.0 sacks, and CB Ahkello Witherspoon, who tied for the team lead with two interceptions.

Special teams lived up to its name for the 49ers in 2017. K Robbie Gould had a career year, leading the NFL with a career-high 39 made field goals and finishing third in the NFL with a career-high 145 points. Gould's 39 made field goals were the second-most in a single-season in franchise history (K David Akers – 44 made field goals in 2011) and tied for the third-most in a single-season in NFL history. P Bradley Pinion set a career high with a 41.3 net punting average and the punt coverage unit ranked second in the NFL, allowing only 4.2 yards per return.

Prior to being named head coach of the 49ers, Shanahan had 15 seasons of coaching experience at the NFL level, including nine as an offensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16), Cleveland Browns (2014), Washington (2010-13) and Houston Texans (2008-09). In six of his nine seasons as an offensive coordinator (2008-09, 2012-13 and 2015-16), Shanahan directed an offense that ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in yards gained.

Following the 2016 season, Shanahan was named Associated Press Assistant Coach of the Year, Coordinator of the Year by Sporting News and Assistant Coach of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America after a record-setting performance by the Falcons offense en route to capturing the NFC South division title and an appearance in Super Bowl LI. Under Shanahan, the 2016 Falcons set franchise records in yards per game (415.8), points scored (540), net passing yards per game (295.3) and average yards per play (6.7).

Atlanta QB Matt Ryan, who was named Associated Press Most Valuable Player, Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year, Most Valuable Player/Offensive Player of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America and FedEx Air Player of the Year, threw for a single-season franchise record and career-high 4,944 passing yards and 38 touchdowns, ranking second in the NFL in both categories, in 2016. He led the NFL with a passer rating of 117.1 on the season and threw a career-low seven interceptions. WR Julio Jones recorded 83 receptions for 1,409 yards (17.0 average) and six touchdowns in 14 games played. His 1,409 receiving yards were the second-most in the NFL that season. Both Jones and Ryan earned Associated Press First-Team All-Pro and 2017 Pro Bowl honors.

On the ground, Atlanta averaged 120.5 rushing yards per game and tallied 20 rushing touchdowns in 2016. RB Devonta Freeman registered 227 carries for a career-high 1,079 yards and 11 touchdowns, on his way to earning his second-consecutive Pro Bowl appearance.

In Shanahan's first year in Atlanta, the Falcons offense ranked seventh in the NFL, averaging 374.1 yards per game, ranked sixth with a 273.7 passing yards per game average and led the league in time of possession (32:19) in 2015. Julio Jones led the NFL with a career-high 1,871 receiving yards, while notching a career-high 136 receptions to share the League high with the Steelers WR Antonio Brown. Jones' receiving yards marked the second-highest total in a single season in NFL history, behind WR Calvin Johnson's 1,964-yard performance in 2012.

Shanahan joined the Falcons after spending 2014 as offensive coordinator of the Cleveland Browns. That year, his offense averaged 324.6 total yards and 108.0 rushing yards per game. Under Shanahan's direction, RBs Isaiah Crowell and Terrance West combined to rush for 1,280 yards on 319 carries (4.0 average), while WR Andrew Hawkins posted career highs in receptions (63) and receiving yards (824).

Prior to his stint in Cleveland, Shanahan spent four seasons (2010-13) as offensive coordinator of Washington. In 2013, Washington finished ninth in the NFL in total offense (369.7) and fifth in rushing yards per game (135.3). Second-year QB Robert Griffin III threw for 16 touchdowns and a career-high 3,203 passing yards, while WR Pierre Garçon set a franchise record and led the NFL with 113 receptions for a career-high 1,346 yards. RB Alfred Morris also rushed for 1,200-or-more yards for the second-consecutive season (1,275).

Washington won the NFC East division championship in 2012 as they became the first team in NFL history to register 3,400-or-more passing yards (3,422) and 2,700-or-more rushing yards (2,709) in the same season. Washington led the NFL, averaging 169.3 rushing yards per game and finished second in rushing touchdowns (22). Griffin won the 2012 Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year Award after setting NFL rookie records in passer rating (102.4), interception percentage (1.27), and rushing yards by a rookie quarterback (815). He completed 258 of his 393 passes (65.6 completion percentage) for 3,200 yards and 20 touchdowns. Fellow rookie Alfred Morris ranked second in the NFL with a single season franchise-record 1,613 yards and 13 touchdowns.

In 2011, Shanahan worked with QB Rex Grossman, who finished with the second-best statistical season of his career, having thrown for 3,151 yards, 16 touchdowns and a career-high 57.9 completion percentage. WR Santana Moss also had his best professional season in 2010 under Shanahan, notching a career-high 93 receptions for 1,115 yards and six touchdowns.

Before joining Washington, Shanahan spent four seasons (2006-09) with the Houston Texans, including the final two as the team's offensive coordinator. In 2009, he worked with QB Matt Schaub, who registered career highs in completions (396), completion percentage (67.9), passing yards (4,770), touchdowns (29) and passer rating (98.6). His completions and passing yard totals led the NFL that season. Additionally, WR Andre Johnson led the NFL in receiving yards in both 2008 (1,575) and 2009 (1,569) and led the NFL with 115 receptions in 2008. TE Owen Daniels registered career highs in both receptions (70) and receiving yards (862) with Houston in 2008. Shanahan spent his first season with Houston (2006) as the team's wide receivers coach and moved to coach the quarterbacks in 2007 prior to his promotion to offensive coordinator in 2008. He broke into the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2004 where he served as an offensive quality control coach for two seasons (2004-05). His first coaching experience came as a graduate assistant at UCLA in 2003.

Born December 14, 1979, in Minneapolis, MN, Shanahan played wide receiver at Duke University before transferring to the University of Texas in 2000, where he spent two seasons. He and his wife, Mandy, have three children – Stella, Carter and Lexi. Shanahan's father, Mike, who served as the 49ers offensive coordinator from 1992-94, was the head coach of the Denver Broncos (1995-2008) and Washington (2010-13), where he accumulated an overall win total of 178 victories (eight postseason), including victories in Super Bowls XXXII and XXXIII.

BRANT BOYER

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

25TH NFL SEASON (11 PLAYING/14 COACHING) × 1ST WITH 49ERS

Brant Boyer enters his 14th season as an NFL coach and his first as special teams coordinator for the 49ers. He joins the 49ers after spending the previous nine seasons as the special teams coordinator for the New York Jets.

During his Jets tenure (2016-24), Boyer led a special teams unit that ranked tied-for-second in total touchdowns (nine), second in blocked punts (eight) and tied-for-fifth in special teams points scored (63) and opponent kickoff return average (21.8). Under Boyer's guidance, two players (WR Braxton Berrios - 2021 & WR Andre Roberts - 2018) earned Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors as returners, while three players (CB Justin Hardee - 2023, Roberts - 2019 and K Jason Myers - 2019) made Pro Bowl appearances. In 2024, Boyer led a special teams unit that ranked fourth in yards per kickoff return (30.3) and seventh in opponent yards per kickoff return (26.1). Under Boyer's guidance, WR Xavier Gipson registered 266 total punt return yards and 489 kickoff return yards, ranking seventh and eighth, respectively, in the NFL.

In 2023, Boyer's units finished in the top 10 in the NFL in multiple categories, including top five marks in opponent yards per kickoff return (15.4 – first), punts placed inside-the-10 (17 – first), punts placed inside-the-20 (36 – tied for second), punts blocked (one – tied for third) and special teams touchdowns (one – tied for third). Boyer's kickoff coverage unit held opponents to a NFL-low 123 kickoff return yards that season, which marked the second-fewest total kickoff return yards allowed by a team in a single season since at least 1970. The Jets also finished eighth in field goal percentage (92.3%), as K Greg Zuerlein converted on 35 of his 38 field goal attempts. Zuerlein's 35 made field goals were tied for the second-most in the NFL that season. Boyer also guided P Thomas Morstead to setting the Jets single-season franchise records in punting average (48.8) and average net yards per punt (41.8).

The 2022 Jets special teams units averaged 11.4 yards per punt return, ranking fourth in the NFL, and held its opponents to 20.9 yards per kickoff return, which was tied for the fifth-fewest in the NFL that season. Boyer also led the only unit to register three blocked kicks and a successful onside kick, making them one of 17 teams in the NFL to accomplish the feat since at least 2000. Under Boyer's tutelage, Justin Hardee earned the first Pro Bowl selection of his career after registering a career-high 14 special teams tackles. Boyer also saw Zuerlein convert on a 60-yard field goal attempt, the longest made field goal in franchise history, which made him one of five kickers in the NFL to convert a field goal of 60-or-more yards that season.

In 2021, Boyer coached one of the best return units in the NFL with the help of Braxton Berrios, who earned an AP First-Team All-Pro selection after leading the NFL in yards per kickoff return (30.4). Berrios also finished second in yards per punt return (13.4), third in total kickoff return yards (852) and was one of eight players to return a kickoff for a touchdown that season. Berrios' top three finishes in yards per kickoff return and yards per punt return made him just the 10th player since at least 1970 to finish in the top three in both categories and the first player since Andre Roberts, who Boyer helped accomplish the feat in 2018. In addition to Berrios' individual success, the Jets special teams units finished with top five marks in total kickoff return yards (1,371 – first), yards per kickoff return (27.4 – first), opponent yards per kickoff return (17.8 – tied for first) and yards per punt return (12.1 – second).

In the 2020 season, the Jets led the NFL in total punt yards (3,598). Boyer guided rookie P Braden Mann to setting the rookie franchise records in punting average (43.9) and punting long (60 yards). Despite three different kickers being used throughout the season, the Jets converted on 75.0% of their field goal attempts and 83.3% of their extra point attempts.

In 2019, Boyer led a unit that finished in the top five in total punt yards (3,991 - first), special teams touchdowns (two – tied-for-first), yards per punt return (11.4 – second), opponent yards per kickoff return (19.3 - third) and special teams forced fumbles (two – tied for fourth). He also saw K Sam Ficken convert on three field goals of 50-or-more yards, which was tied for the eighth-most in the NFL.

Boyer led two players to career years in 2018 in Jason Myers and Andre Roberts. Myers was selected to the Pro Bowl after converting 33 of his 36 field goal attempts (91.7%), which is tied for the second-highest field goal percentage in franchise history and was tied for the third-most field goals made that season. Myers also converted on six of his seven field goal attempts from 50-or-more yards, which was tied for the most in the NFL. Five of those attempts were from 55-or-more yards, and Myers converted on all of them, which was tied for the third-most made field goals from 55-or-more yards in a single season in NFL history. Roberts earned an AP First-Team All-Pro selection and the first Pro Bowl selection of his career after leading the NFL in yards per punt return (14.1), total kick return yards (1,174) and finishing second in yards per kickoff return (29.4). He was one of five players in the NFL that season to return a kickoff for a touchdown.

In addition to the individual accolades, Boyer's special teams units finished with top five marks in 2018 in yards per punt return (13.0 – first), special teams touchdowns (two – tied for first), yards per kickoff return (26.9 – third) and field goal percentage (91.7% - fifth). The Jets also registered a blocked punt, field goal and extra point, making them one of two teams with a block of all three that season.

In 2017, Boyer saw P Lachlan Edwards average 46.6 yards per punt, the fourth-highest mark in Jets franchise history, and place 33 punts inside the 20-yard line, which was tied for the third-most in the NFL that season and marked the third-most punts placed inside-the-20 in a single season in franchise history. He also helped K Chandler Catanzaro connect on 25 of his 30 field goal attempts (83.3%) and all 29 of his extra point attempts. Catanzaro connected on a 57-yard field goal that season, the third-longest made field goal in team history.

In his first year as the Jets special teams coordinator (2016), Boyer saw K Nick Folk make 27 of his 31 field goal attempts (87.1%), which was tied for the 10th-highest field goal percentage in the NFL that season and became the sixth-highest field goal percentage in Jets franchise history.

Prior to his time in New York, Boyer spent four seasons (2012-15) as an assistant special teams coach for the Indianapolis Colts. He helped guide the Colts unit to top 10 ranks in the NFL in yards per kickoff return (24.4 – fourth), net yards per punt (40.8 – tied for sixth) and field goal percentage (88.5% – seventh) during that span.

In 2015, Boyer aided a kickoff coverage unit that held opponents to just 156 kickoff return yards, which was the fewest in the NFL that season and ranks as the sixth-fewest allowed by any team in the NFL since at least 1970.

In 2014, Boyer worked closely with P Pat McAfee and K Adam Vinatieri, helping them both earn AP First-Team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors. McAfee registered a Colts franchise record and career-high 42.8 net yards per punt that season, the third-highest in the NFL, and placed 30 punts inside the 20-yard line, also setting the franchise record for the Colts. Vinatieri finished the year converting on 30 of his 31 field goal attempts (96.8%), which ranked first in the NFL among kickers with at least 30 field goal attempts. His 96.8% field goal percentage also became the second highest single season field goal percentage in team history. The Colts led the NFL in field goal percentage that season and finished with top marks in yards per kickoff return (28.0 – tied for second), opponent yards per punt return (5.9 – third), and total opponent kickoff return yards (587 – tied for fifth).

In 2013, Boyer mentored LS Matt Overton to the lone Pro Bowl selection of his career and aided a Colts special teams unit that made 15 field goals of 40-or-more yards, which was the most in the NFL that season. In his first season with the Colts (2012), the punt return unit averaged 11.1 yards per punt return, ranking seventh in the NFL.

Before joining the Colts staff, Boyer was a training camp intern for the New York Giants (2010) and Cleveland Browns (2009).

Originally a sixth-round (177th overall) draft pick by the Miami Dolphins in the 1994 NFL Draft, Boyer played linebacker and special teams for 11 seasons with the Dolphins (1994), Jacksonville Jaguars (1995-2000) and Cleveland Browns (2001-04). In 129 career games, he registered 250 tackles, 13.0 sacks, 15 passes defensed, six interceptions and one forced fumble. He also appeared in nine postseason contests (two starts) and added eight tackles.

A native of Ogden, UT, Boyer attended Snow College (1990-91) and the University of Arizona (1992-93), where he earned Second-Team All-Pac-10 honors (1993). He and his wife, Melissa, have two sons, Brayton, who is a kicker at the University of Montana, and Braddock.

BRIAN FLEURY

RUN GAME COORDINATOR/TIGHT ENDS

13TH NFL SEASON × 7TH WITH 49ERS

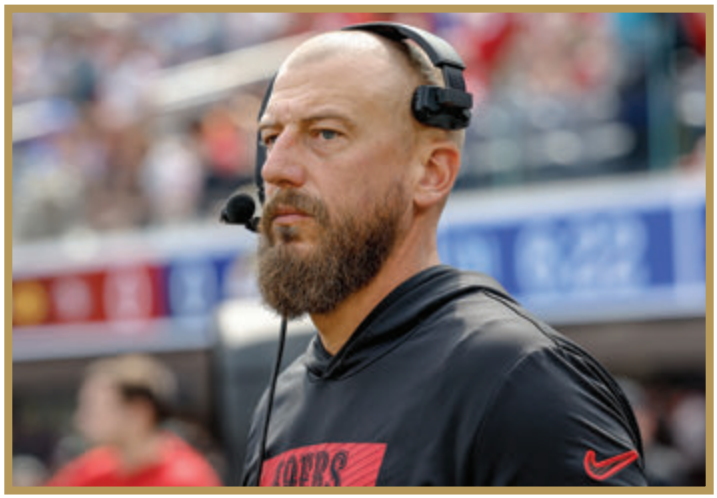
Brian Fleury is in his seventh season with the 49ers and first as the team's run game coordinator/tight ends coach. He spent the previous three seasons (2022-24) as tight ends coach, the 2020-21 seasons as an offensive quality control coach and the 2019 season as a defensive quality control coach with the team. He joined San Francisco after spending three years with the Miami Dolphins as the team's football research analyst (2016) and director of football research (2017-18).

In 2024, Fleury assisted a 49ers offense that finished tied for second in yards per play (6.2), fourth in yards per game (376.3) and passing yards per game (249.1) and tied for sixth in yards per rush (4.7). Fleury continued to work with TE George Kittle, who earned his fifth career Associated Press All-Pro (Second-Team) and sixth Pro Bowl selections of his career after leading the team in receptions (78), receiving yards (1,106) and receiving touchdowns (eight). Kittle also led all NFL tight ends in yards per reception (14.2) and games with 100-or-more receiving yards (four). With 1,106 yards on the season, Kittle registered his second-consecutive and fourth overall season with 1,000-or-more receiving yards, which is the third-most in franchise history and makes him one of five tight ends in NFL history to register four career seasons with 1,000-or-more receiving yards.

The 2023 San Francisco 49ers finished with top-five marks in total offense (398.4), scoring offense (28.9), rushing yards per game (140.5) and passing yards per game (257.9). The 49ers offense registered 491 total points and 6,773 total yards in 2023, both of which were the second-highest single-season marks in franchise history. Fleury once again coached Kittle, who registered his third season with 1,000-or-more receiving yards (1,020) to go along with six receiving touchdowns. He was named AP First-Team All-Pro and selected to the Pro Bowl Games.

In 2022, Fleury worked directly with Kittle, who caught a career-high 11 touchdowns, ranked second on the team with 60 receptions and 765 yards over 15 games and earned AP Second-Team All-Pro honors and a trip to the Pro Bowl. His 11 touchdown receptions were the third-most in a single season by a TE in franchise history.

Kittle finished the 2021 season ranked second on the team with 71 receptions for 910 yards and six touchdowns while earning a trip to the Pro Bowl. In 2020, Kittle added 48 receptions for 634 yards and two touchdowns, while TE Jordan Reed tallied 26 receptions for 231 yards and four touchdowns and TE Ross Dwelley played in all 16 games (nine starts) and set single-season career highs in receptions (19) and receiving yards (245).



In his roles with the Dolphins, Fleury worked closely with defensive coordinator Matt Burke to help prepare for upcoming opponents and follow NFL trends. He assisted the team's defensive backs in 2018 after assisting the defensive line in 2017 and linebackers in 2016.

Fleury joined Miami from the Cleveland Browns, where he was the team's outside linebackers coach in 2015 and assistant linebackers coach in 2014. In 2015, OLBs Armonty Bryant (5.5) and Christian Kirksey (3.5) set career highs in sacks. In his first season with the Browns, Fleury helped coach Paul Kruger to the most productive season of his career, as he set career highs in tackles (53), sacks (11.0) and forced fumbles (four). Kruger's 11.0 sacks tied for the fifth-most in team history at the time and were the most by a member of the Browns since 2006. In addition, the Browns finished second in the NFL with 21 interceptions, while also finishing tied for fourth in takeaways (29).

Prior to his time in Cleveland, Fleury spent the 2013 season as a quality control coach for the Buffalo Bills, working with the linebackers. He helped develop rookie LB Kiko Alonso, who registered 159 tackles, four interceptions, 2.0 sacks, four passes defensed, two fumble recoveries and one forced fumble and was named PFWA NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. The Bills set a franchise record with 57 sacks, the second-most in the NFL in 2013. Buffalo's defense also finished 10th in the NFL in total defense (333.4 yards per game).

Before Buffalo, Fleury spent four seasons (2009-12) at Towson University where he served as the special teams coordinator/defensive backs coach. He helped the team achieve top-10 national rankings in kickoff return yardage (24.28 yards per return) in 2011 and punt return defense (3.46 yards per return) in 2010. Towson won the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) in 2011 and earned a share of the conference title in 2012.

Fleury was an assistant at Sacred Heart University for four seasons, spending one year (2005) as secondary coach and the following three (2006-08) as defensive coordinator. In 2008, the Pioneers posted an 8-3 record, which ranked as the third-highest win total in the history of the school. Fleury began his coaching career as an intern and graduate assistant at the University of Maryland from 2003-04. In 2003, the Terrapins went 10-3, earned a victory in the Gator Bowl and finished 17th in the nation in the final poll.

Fleury began his collegiate career at Maryland before transferring to Towson, where he played quarterback for four years (1999-2002) and earned a degree in sport management from the school in 2002. He and his wife, Natasha, have one daughter, Nadia.

KLAY KUBIAK

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

5TH NFL SEASON × 5TH WITH 49ERS

Klay Kubiak is in his fifth season with the 49ers and first as the team's offensive coordinator. He spent the 2024 season as San Francisco's offensive passing game specialist and served two seasons (2022-23) as the 49ers assistant quarterbacks coach after spending the 2021 season as a defensive quality control coach with the team. Kubiak joined the 49ers after spending the previous three years (2018-20) as the head coach at Strake Jesuit College Preparatory (Houston, TX). He also served as the school's offensive coordinator from 2013-15 and for the 2017 season.

In 2024, Kubiak helped direct a 49ers offense that finished tied for second in yards per play (6.2) and fourth in yards per game (376.3), passing yards per game (249.1) and total yards (6,397). With his help, WR Jauan Jennings registered career highs in receptions (77), receiving yards (975) and receiving touchdowns (six). Kubiak also helped TE George Kittle earn Associated Press Second-Team All-Pro honors and the sixth Pro Bowl selection of his career after he led the team in receptions (78), receiving yards (1,106) and receiving touchdowns (eight). Kittle's 1,106 receiving yards marked his second-consecutive and fourth overall season with 1,000-or-more receiving yards, making him one of five tight ends in NFL history to register four such seasons. Kubiak also worked closely with QB Brock Purdy, helping him set the NFL records for the most games with a passer rating of 140.0-or-higher (six), 130.0-or-higher (10) and 120.0-or-higher (13) by a quarterback in their first three seasons.

The 2023 San Francisco 49ers saw Purdy lead the NFL in passer rating (113.0) and yards per attempt (9.6), while setting the franchise record for passing yards (4,280) and throwing 31 touchdowns. In his first year as a starter, Purdy became the first 49ers QB to throw 30-or-more touchdowns in a single season in 22 years and the first 49ers QB selected to a Pro Bowl since QB Jeff Garcia in 2002, leading the team to a spot in Super Bowl LVIII.

San Francisco saw three starting quarterbacks during the season in 2022, with rookie QB Brock Purdy becoming the team's starter in Week 13. The 49ers offense remained explosive, as the team ranked fifth in the NFL in yards per game (365.6) and averaged 5.9 yards per play, the fourth-highest mark in the league. Purdy went 7-1 as a starter, including the playoffs, and became the first quarterback in franchise history to win their first five starts and the third rookie quarterback in NFL history to win at least their first five starts.

Kubiak and the 49ers defense ranked third in the NFL in 2021, allowing 310.0 total yards per game. San Francisco also was sixth in the NFL, surrendering 206.5 passing yards per game. The Niners forced 22 fumbles on defense in 2021, the most in the NFL and the most in a single season by the 49ers since 1994.

During his three seasons as head coach at Strake Jesuit, Kubiak led the Crusaders to a 24-11 record and a playoff appearance in each season. Kubiak is the only coach in the school's history to win double-digit games as part of the University Interscholastic League (UIL), which Jesuit joined in 2003.

Kubiak attended Colorado State University where he was a quarterback for the Rams from 2007-10. He majored in English at the school and would later earn a master's degree in the subject from Texas Christian University in 2013. Kubiak used his educational background to teach English at Strake Jesuit College Preparatory.

A native of Houston, TX, Kubiak is the son of longtime NFL coach, and former 49ers quarterbacks coach, Gary Kubiak. His brother, Klint, is the offensive coordinator of the Seattle Seahawks. Kubiak is married to his wife, Marissa.

ROBERT SALEH

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

21ST NFL SEASON × 5TH WITH 49ERS

Robert Saleh (SAH-luh) enters his 21st NFL season and returns to the 49ers for his fifth season as the team's defensive coordinator.

Before returning to the 49ers, Saleh spent three-plus seasons (2021-24) as head coach of the New York Jets. While at the helm in New York, Saleh guided four different players in their first four years in the NFL to Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors (WR Braxton Berrios, CB Sauce Gardner & DL Quinnen Williams) and Pro Bowl appearances (Gardner, LB Jermaine Johnson II & Williams). The Jets defense excelled with Saleh, ranking in the top 10 in the NFL in multiple categories over the 2022 and 2023 seasons. During that span (2022-23), Saleh's Jets ranked first in passing yards allowed per game (178.9) and opponent yards per play (4.7), second in total defense (301.7) and sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.1). The unit also tallied 93 sacks and 29 interceptions during that time, tied for the eighth and 10th-most, respectively, in the NFL. Over the first five games of the 2024 season, Saleh's Jets ranked first in passing yards allowed per game (136.6), tied-for-first in opponent yards per play (4.3), second in total defense (255.8) and tied-for-sixth in third-down defense (31.7%).

The 2023 Jets featured two AP First-Team All-Pros in Gardner and LB Quincy Williams as well as three Pro Bowl selections in Gardner, Johnson II and Quincy Williams. The Jets offense gained 4,566 total yards in 2023, with 64.1% of those yards coming from rookie and second-year players, the second-most in the NFL. The Jets also won four games after trailing in the fourth quarter that season, which was tied for the second-most in the NFL. Saleh saw second-year RB Breece Hall register career highs in rushing yards (994), receiving yards (591), yards from scrimmage (1,585) and total touchdowns (nine). Defensively, the Jets finished tied-for-first in opponent yards per play (4.6), second in passing yards allowed per game (168.3), third in total opponent yards (4,969) and total defense (292.3) and tied-for-eighth in takeaways (27). The Jets held opponents to seven points-or-less in 10 of their 17 games, which was tied for the most such games in the NFL that season. In addition to Gardner and Quincy Williams earning All-Pro honors, Johnson II registered career highs in tackles (55), sacks (7.5), interceptions (one), passes defensed (seven), forced fumbles (one) and fumble recoveries (one).

In 2022, Saleh led a roster that featured two AP First-Team All-Pro selections (Gardner & Quinnen Williams), a Second-Team All-Pro selection (LB C.J. Mosley) and four Pro Bowl selections (CB Justin Hardee, Gardner, Mosley & Quinnen Williams). He also was responsible for the development of the NFL's Offensive and Defensive Rookies of the Year in WR Garrett Wilson and Gardner, making the Jets the third team in NFL history to have both rookie players win the honor. Wilson led all rookie wide receivers in receptions (83) & receiving yards (1,103), while Gardner led the NFL in passes defensed (20). The Jets improved their win total by three games in 2022, which marked the sixth-largest win improvement in the NFL that season. Saleh improved the Jets to boasting a top defense that ranked tied-for-first in opponent yards per play (4.8), third in opponent passing yards per game (189.4), fourth in total points allowed (316) and total defense (311.1) and fifth in total opponent yards (5,288).

In his first year as head coach of the Jets, the 2021 team was led by rookie QB Zach Wilson (2,519 passing yards), rookie RB Michael Carter (639 rushing yards) and rookie WR Elijah Moore (538 receiving yards), which made the Jets just the second team since the merger to be led by rookies in passing yards, rushing yards and receiving yards.

Before taking the helm in New York, Saleh spent four seasons (2017-20) as the defensive coordinator for the 49ers. During that span, the 49ers defense ranked third in passing yards allowed per game (211.4), fourth in total defense (323.6) and opponent yards per play (5.1) and sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.1).

Despite injuries to key players throughout the year, the 2020 49ers defense held top five marks in passing yards allowed per game (207.9 - fourth), third-down defense (35.5% - fourth), total defense (314.4 - fifth), opponent yards per play (5.0 – tied for fifth) and total opponent yards allowed (5,030 - fifth). The unit also ranked tied-for-sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.0) and seventh in opponent rushing yards per game (106.4). The defense was led by LB Fred Warner, who earned AP First-Team All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl selection after registering a team-high 125 tackles to go along with 1.0 sack, two interceptions, six passes defensed, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries.

In 2019, Saleh was named Coordinator of the Year by Sporting News after leading the 49ers defense to rank second in the NFL in total yards allowed per game (281.8), the fewest total yards allowed per game by the team since 1997 (250.8). San Francisco ranked first in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game (169.2), the fewest passing yards allowed per game in the NFL since 2009 (NYJ - 153.7). It marked the first time San Francisco led the NFL in passing yards allowed per game since 1987 (165.6). The 49ers ranked tied-for-second in the NFL in third-down percentage allowed (33.3) and tied-for-fifth in the NFL in sacks (48.0), the most by the team in a single season since 1998 (51.0). San Francisco also ranked seventh in both opponent completion percentage (61.3) and opponent quarterback rating (83.0).

Rookie DL Nick Bosa, who played in all 16 games (14 starts) and registered 47 tackles, 9.0 sacks, one interception, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and two passes defensed, was named Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press and the PFWA, and Rookie of the Year by Sporting News, PFWA and Pepsi. He was also named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team and was named a starter in the Pro Bowl. With DLs Arik Armstead (10.0), Bosa (9.0), DeForest Buckner (7.5) and Dee Ford (6.5), the 49ers were the only team in the NFL to have four-or-more players with 6.5-or-more sacks in 2019. LB Fred Warner started all 16 games and led the team with 118 tackles, while also adding 3.0 sacks, one interception (returned for a touchdown), three forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and nine passes defensed. Rookie LB Dre Greenlaw played in all 16 games (10 starts) and tallied 87 tackles, 1.0 sack, one interception and two passes defensed as he was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. The secondary was led by CB Richard Sherman, who registered 57 tackles, three interceptions (one returned for a touchdown) and 11 passes defensed and was named AP Second-Team All-Pro.

In 2018, the 49ers defense registered 37.0 sacks, the most by the team in a single-season at the time since 2013 (38.0 sacks). The defense ranked in the top half of the league in rushing yards per play allowed (4.09 – seventh), opponent completion percentage (63.5 – 10th), yards per play allowed (5.42 – 11th), net passing yards per game allowed (233.3 – 11th), yards per game allowed (346.6 – 13th), rushing yards per game allowed (113.4 – 14th) and passing yards per play (6.45 – 14th). San Francisco was one of six teams (Baltimore Ravens, Buffalo Bills, Detroit Lions, Indianapolis Colts & New England Patriots) to allow fewer net yards per game, rushing yards per game and passing yards per game than in 2017.

The 49ers defense was anchored by Buckner who led the team with a career-high 12.0 sacks, ranked second with 67 tackles and was named to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career. His 12.0 sacks were the most by a 49ers defender since LB Aldon Smith registered 19.5 sacks in 2012. Warner started all 16 games as a rookie and led the team with 123 tackles, ranking 12th in the NFL and third among all rookies. Warner became the first rookie in the NFL since 2000 to begin his career with four consecutive games with 10-or-more tackles, according to Gamebook Statistics.

In 2017, Saleh led a 49ers defensive unit that allowed 5.28 yards per play, which was a 0.62 yards per play improvement from 2016 and the third-largest improvement in the NFL from 2016-17 (Cle. - 0.76 yards per play; NYJ - 0.72 yards per play). The defense also finished the season holding their opponents under 100 yards rushing seven times. From Weeks 12-16, the 49ers streak of holding each of their five opponents under 100 yards rushing was tied for the longest streak in the NFL over that span (Arizona). It also marked the first time the 49ers held five straight opponents to under 100 yards rushing since Weeks 11-15 of the 2012 season. The 49ers defense was among the league leaders at getting into the opponent's backfield on running plays, finishing ranked tied for fifth in the NFL by forcing 53 rushes for negative yardage.

Saleh's defense continued to improve throughout the season. Over the final eight weeks of the year, San Francisco ranked second in the NFL in rushing yards allowed (640), tied for fourth in yards per carry allowed (3.62), fifth in rushing yards allowed per game (91.4), seventh in net yards allowed per game (314.4) and tied for eighth in rushing touchdowns allowed (four).

Saleh joined San Francisco after three years (2014-16) as the linebackers coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars. In 2016, Saleh's linebackers helped the Jacksonville defense rank fifth in passing yards allowed (215.3) and sixth in opponent rushing average (3.82). Team captain LB Paul Posluszny started all 16 games at MLB and led the team in tackles for the second-consecutive season. According to Jaguars team statistics, LB Telvin Smith registered 118 tackles while starting all 16 games at outside linebacker for the first time in his career. Smith's 350 career tackles were the most by a Jaguars player in his first three NFL seasons.

In 2015, the Jaguars defense allowed 3.68 yards per rushing attempt, the fifth-lowest rushing average allowed in the NFL. Posluszny led the Jaguars and ranked fifth in the league with 133 tackles, according to Gamebook Statistics, while tying with Smith for the team lead with 13 tackles for loss. According to Jaguars team statistics, Smith registered a career-high 128 tackles in 2015.

Under Saleh's guidance, Smith stepped in the starting lineup and ranked third among all rookies with 99 tackles, according to Gamebook Statistics, in 2014. Smith led the team with two fumble recoveries while ranking second with nine tackles for loss. After a season-ending injury to Posluszny midway through the year, LB J.T. Thomas stepped in and set a career high in tackles along with two interceptions, two tackles for loss and five passes defensed.

Prior to Jacksonville, Saleh spent three seasons (2011-13) as a defensive quality control coach for the Seattle Seahawks. During his three seasons with the Seahawks, he was responsible for assisting the defensive staff with day-to-day duties with a focus on the linebackers. Working under linebackers coach Ken Norton Jr., Saleh aided in the development of LB K.J. Wright, LB Bobby Wagner and Super Bowl XLVIII MVP LB Malcolm Smith.

Before joining the Seahawks, Saleh spent six seasons with the Houston Texans, serving as a coaching intern (2005), defensive assistant (2006-08) and assistant linebackers coach (2009-10). In Houston, Saleh oversaw the growth of the Texans linebackers, including AP Defensive Rookie of the Year performances by DeMeco Ryans (2006) and Brian Cushing (2009). In 2009, the Pro Bowl duo of Ryans and Cushing were the only teammates to both rank among the league's top 10 tacklers, according to Gamebook Statistics.

Saleh joined the Texans after three seasons working in the collegiate ranks. He began his career as an offensive assistant/tight ends (2002) and defensive assistant/defensive line (2003) at Michigan State University before spending one season (2004) as a defensive assistant/defensive line coach at Central Michigan University and a brief stint (2005) at the University of Georgia as a defensive assistant/linebackers coach.

A native of Dearborn, MI, Saleh attended Northern Michigan University where he started at tight end for four years. Saleh and his wife, Sanaa, have eight children: six sons, Adam, Zane, Michael, Sam, Jacob and Robert Jr., and two daughters, Mila and Ella.

Bradley spent more than three seasons (2013-16) as the head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars. The Jaguars defense finished the 2016 season ranked sixth in yards per game allowed (321.7) and fifth in passing yards per game allowed (215.3). CHRIS FOERSTER

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/OFFENSIVE LINE

33RD NFL SEASON × 11TH WITH 49ERS

Chris Foerster is in 11th overall season with the 49ers and first as the team's assistant head coach/offensive line coach. He spent the previous three seasons (2022-24) as San Francisco's run game coordinator/offensive line coach after spending the 2021 season as offensive line coach. He also worked as the team's offensive line coach from 2008-09 and 2015. Foerster spent the 2020 season as the 49ers assistant offensive line coach after serving as a consultant with the 49ers for two seasons (2018-19).

In 2024, Foerster's offensive line helped the 49ers offense finish tied for second in yards per play (6.2), fourth in total yards (6,397), yards per game (376.3) and passing yards per game (249.1) and tied for sixth in yards per rush (4.7). Foerster also oversaw the development of rookie draft pick OL Dominick Puni, who was named to the Pro Football Writer's of America All-Rookie Team.

The 2023 San Francisco 49ers finished with top-five marks in total offense (398.4), scoring offense (28.9), rushing yards per game (140.5) and passing yards per game (257.9). The 49ers offense registered 491 total points and 6,773 total yards in 2023, both of which were the second-highest single-season marks in franchise history. Foerster once again coached T Trent Williams, who was named Associated Press First-Team All-Pro for the third-consecutive season and selected to the Pro Bowl Games.

In 2022, the 49ers offensive line went five games without allowing a sack, matching the most registered by the 49ers in a single season since 1980 (2000). Williams was selected to his 10th Pro Bowl and earned Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors for the second-consecutive season. The 2022 49ers offense averaged 5.94 yards per play, which ranked fourth in the NFL.

The 2021 49ers offensive line saw three of five members earn Pro Bowl honors in Williams, G Laken Tomlinson and C Alex Mack. Williams was selected to the Associated Press 2021 First-Team All-Pro list for the first time in his career. San Francisco's offense finished the season averaging 127.4 rushing yards, ranking seventh in the NFL.

In 2020, the 49ers offensive line was anchored by All-Pro Williams, who was named to his eighth Pro Bowl, and Tomlinson, who started all 16 games. The 49ers offense averaged 370.1 yards per game (118.1 rushing yards; 252.1 passing yards) and ranked tied for 10th in the NFL with 19 rushing touchdowns.

Prior to returning to San Francisco, Foerster spent two seasons (2016-17) with the Miami Dolphins as the run game coordinator/offensive line coach (2017) and offensive line coach (2016). In 2016, the offensive line was critical to Miami's four-win turnaround from 2015. After starting the season 1-4, the Dolphins won nine of their final 11 games to earn a playoff berth and their first winning season since 2008. During those 11 games, the team's offensive line helped the Dolphins rank third in the NFL with 132.9 rushing yards per game and tied for third with just 13 sacks allowed.

In 2014, Foerster's unit assisted RB Alfred Morris to reach 1,000 yards for the third consecutive season (1,074) and earned a trip to the 2015 Pro Bowl. His offensive line aided one of the NFL's top rushing attacks during the 2012-13 seasons as well.

Washington ran for a league-leading 4,873 yards in that two-season span and was one of only two teams to average at least five yards per carry across those two years (5.01). In 2013, Foerster's unit powered Washington to the fifth-most rushing yards in the league (2,164) and helped the team rush for 2,000 yards in consecutive seasons for the first time since 2005-06. Those seasons led to Pro Bowl honors for Williams, the first two of his career.

In 2012, Foerster led a unit that helped Washington rush for a team-record 2,709 yards, ranking first in the NFL in that category for the first time since 1933. The team's offensive line was a major part of Washington's first NFC East Championship since 1999, blocking for the team's young backfield that featured rookie QB Robert Griffin III and Morris, who also was a rookie. Morris set a new single-season team high in rushing yards with 1,613, while Griffin III led all quarterbacks with 815 rushing yards that season.

Foerster helped groom two rookies as starters in 2011, as undrafted free agent T Willie Smith and seventh-round pick G Maurice Hurt started a combined 11 games for Washington in Weeks 9-16. The offensive line featured 10 different starting combinations that season. During the 2010 season, Foerster's offensive line featured four new starters that helped Washington lead the league in receptions of 50-or-more yards (nine).

Prior to joining Washington, Foerster spent two years (2008-09) working with the offensive line of the 49ers. In 2008, he was originally brought on as co-offensive line coach before being named offensive line coach in Week 8 of the season. In 2009, Foerster's unit helped RB Frank Gore rush for 1,120 yards, his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard season. Gore set a career high with 10 rushing touchdowns that season and was selected to the Pro Bowl. During his time with San Francisco, he also assisted in the development of perennial Pro Bowl T Joe Staley.

From 2005 to 2007, Foerster was the offensive line coach and assistant head coach for the Baltimore Ravens. Under Foerster, 2013 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee T Jonathan Ogden made the Pro Bowl in all three seasons. In 2007, RB Willis McGahee rushed for 1,207 yards, the second-highest total of his career, and earned a trip to the Pro Bowl. In 2006, the Ravens offense set team records for fewest sacks allowed (17) and most wins in a season (13) with Foerster.

Before joining the Ravens, Foerster was the offensive coordinator for the Miami Dolphins (2004), tight ends coach for the Indianapolis Colts (2002-03) and offensive line coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1996-2001). While in Tampa Bay, Foerster helped three players make a combined five Pro Bowl appearances – C Tony Mayberry (1997-99), C Jeff Christy (2000) and G Randall McDaniel (2000). As the assistant offensive line/tight ends coach for the Minnesota Vikings (1993-95), Foerster helped tutor 2009 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee G Randall McDaniel, who earned Pro Bowl appearances in all three seasons.

Foerster also worked in the collegiate ranks, serving as the offensive line coach for the University of Minnesota (1992), assistant offensive line/special teams coach at Stanford University (1988-91) and offensive line coach for Colorado State University (1983-87). He began his coaching career in 1982 as a graduate assistant at Colorado State.

Foerster graduated with a degree in history after a successful playing career with CSU as a center from 1979 to 1982, starting as a walk-on before earning a scholarship as a sophomore.

Foerster and his late wife, Michelle, have three children: Kathleen, Jake and Micah.

KRIS KOCUREK

DEFENSIVE LINE

19TH NFL SEASON (2 PLAYING/17 COACHING) × 7TH WITH 49ERS

Kris Kocurek (KO-SIR-ick) is in his seventh season as the 49ers defensive line coach. He joined San Francisco after spending the 2018 season as the defensive line coach with the Miami Dolphins.

In 2024, Kocurek assisted a 49ers defense that finished with the fifth-ranked passing defense (192.8) and the eighth-ranked total defense (317.4) in the NFL. He again coached DL Nick Bosa, who led the team with 9.0 sacks and finished the season with 52 tackles, one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery and earned the fifth Pro Bowl selection of his career. Kocurek also helped DL Leonard Floyd register 8.5 sacks on the season and saw DL Kevin Givens register a career-high 3.5 sacks.

The 2023 San Francisco 49ers defense finished in the top-10 in the NFL in total defense (303.9) and rushing defense (89.7), tied for first in interceptions (22) and tied for the seventh-most sacks (48). San Francisco's defensive line was anchored by Bosa (10.5 sacks), DL Javon Hargrave (7.0 sacks) and Walter Payton Man of the Year nominee DL Arik Armstead (5.0 sacks), with Bosa and Hargrave each selected to the Pro Bowl Games.

In 2022, the 49ers defense ranked first overall in the NFL in total yards per game (300.6) and points allowed per game (16.3). The team also finished second with 77.7 rushing yards allowed per game. San Francisco's defense held its opponents to 277 points on the season, the fewest in the NFL and the lowest surrendered by a 49ers team since 2013. Kocurek coached Bosa, who was named Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year after leading the NFL with a career-high 18.5 sacks.

Kocurek and the 49ers defense ranked third in the NFL in 2021, allowing 310.0 total yards per game. San Francisco also was sixth in the NFL, surrendering 206.5 passing yards per game. The Niners forced 22 fumbles on defense in 2021, the most in the NFL and the most in a single season by the 49ers since 1994. Bosa finished the season leading the team with a career-high 15.5 sacks. His sack total ranked fourth in the NFL among all players as he was selected to the Pro Bowl. Kocurek also worked closely with DL Arden Key, who registered a career-high 6.5 sacks on the year.

Kocurek helped the 49ers defense rank fifth in the NFL total yards allowed per game (359.0) and seventh in rush defense (118.9) in 2020. Rookie Javon Kinlaw registered 33 tackles, 1.5 sacks, one interception (which was returned for a touchdown) and four passes defensed. Armstead tallied 49 tackles, 3.5 sacks and a career-high three passes defensed, while DL Kerry Hyder Jr. set career highs in tackles (49) and sacks (8.5).

In 2019, Kocurek helped the 49ers defense rank second in the NFL in total yards allowed per game (281.8), the fewest total yards allowed per game by the team since 1997 (250.8). San Francisco also ranked tied for fifth in the NFL in sacks (48.0), the most by the team in a single season since 1998 (51.0). With DL Armstead (10.0), Bosa (9.0), DeForest Buckner (7.5) and Dee Ford (6.5), the 49ers were the only team in the NFL to have four-or-more players with 6.5-or-more sacks in 2019. Bosa, who played in all 16 games (14 starts) and registered 47 tackles, 9.0 sacks, one interception, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and two passes defensed, was named Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press and the PFWA, and Rookie of the Year by Sporting News, PFWA and Pepsi. He was also named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team and was named a starter in the Pro Bowl.

With the Dolphins, Kocurek coached DE Robert Quinn and DE Cameron Wake who registered 6.5 and 6.0 sacks respectively. Quinn's 6.5 sacks in his first season with Miami were his second-most in a single season since 2015.

Prior to Miami, Kocurek spent nine years with the Detroit Lions, first as the team's assistant defensive line coach (2009), followed by eight seasons as defensive line coach (2010-17). In his first season leading the defensive line, Kocurek played a vital role in DT Ndamukong Suh's Defensive Rookie of the Year award and helped develop him into a three-time AP First-Team All-Pro (2010 & 2013-14) and three-time Pro Bowl (2011 & 2013-14) selection. Suh's 36.0 sacks as a member of the Lions are the most in franchise history among defensive tackles.

While Kocurek was the Lions defensive line coach from 2010-17, Detroit's defensive linemen registered 250.0 sacks, which was the fourth-most by a defensive line in the NFL during that timespan. His defensive linemen also ranked fourth in forced fumbles (57) and ninth in passes defensed (82) over that eight-year period as well.

Under Kocurek's tutelage in 2017, DE Ezekiel Ansah tied for eighth in the NFL with 12.0 sacks. During that same year, DE Anthony Zettel started all 16 games and finished with a career-high 6.5 sacks in his second NFL season, while DT A'Shawn Robinson ranked eighth among NFL interior defensive linemen with 53 tackles and tied for the league lead with six passes defensed.

The 2016 Lions earned an NFC Wild Card berth as Kocurek helped develop undrafted free agent DE Kerry Hyder into the team leader with 8.0 sacks in 16 games played.

In 2015, Ansah set a career high with 14.5 sacks for the Lions. His sack total led the NFC and ranked third in the NFL, as Ansah earned his first Pro Bowl selection and AP Second-Team All-Pro honors. Ansah also forced four fumbles, which was tied for second in the NFL.

In 2014, Kocurek assisted a Lions defense that finished the season ranking first in the NFL in rushing yards allowed per game (69.3). Detroit's 69.3 rushing yards allowed per game was the second-lowest in the NFL over the previous 10 seasons, trailing Pittsburgh's 2010 defense (62.8). The Lions ranked eighth in the NFL with 42.0 sacks that season as Detroit earned an NFC Wild Card berth after an 11-5 finish.

Suh earned AP First-Team All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl selection in 2013 after ranking second among NFL defensive tackles with six passes defensed to go along with 5.5 sacks. The Lions defense allowed 99.8 rushing yards per game, ranking sixth in the NFL. Ansah led all NFL rookies with a team-high 8.0 sacks.

In 2012, Suh was second among NFL interior defensive linemen with 8.0 sacks and earned AP Second-Team All-Pro honors and his second Pro Bowl selection, while DE Cliff Avril led the team with 9.5 sacks.

The 2011 Lions finished tied for 10th in the NFL with 41.0 sacks. Detroit went 10-6 and earned an NFC Wild Card spot. Suh again earned AP First-Team All-Pro honors as Avril led the team and tied for 11th in the NFL with 11.0 sacks. His sack total was the second-highest of Avril's career in a single season.

Kocurek was promoted to defensive line coach in 2010, where he helped the Lions finish sixth in the NFL with 44.0 sacks, an improvement from 29th in the league (26.0 sacks) the year prior. He worked closely with Detroit's first-round pick, Suh, who led the team and all NFL defensive tackles with 10.0 sacks that season, the most by an NFL rookie interior defensive lineman since 2003, when Minnesota's Kevin Williams registered 10.5. Suh's 10.0 sacks were the most by a Lions defensive tackle since Henry Thomas had 10.5 in 1995. Suh's 66 tackles were fourth on the team and fifth among NFL defensive tackles. He became the first rookie defensive tackle to ever earn AP All-Pro honors and the first rookie defensive lineman to do so since Tennessee's Jevon Kearse in 1999. He was also named AP Defensive Rookie of the Year, becoming the sixth defensive tackle to win the honor and first since Miami's Tim Bowens in 1994.

Kocurek originally entered the NFL in 2009 as Detroit's assistant defensive line coach. He helped DT Sammie Hill start as a rookie after being a fourth-round selection from Division II Stillman College. Hill finished the season with 26 tackles and two fumble recoveries in 13 games.

Prior to Detroit, Kocurek served as the defensive line coach at Stephen F. Austin State University (2008), assistant head coach/defensive line coach at West Texas A&M University (2007) and defensive line coach at Texas A&M University-Commerce (2006). At West Texas A&M in 2007, the Buffaloes won the Lone Star Conference and led the league in scoring defense (19.5 points per game). At Texas A&M University-Commerce in 2006, Kocurek helped the team's defense lead the LSC in scoring and total yards allowed. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M University-Kingsville (2004-05) and a graduate assistant at Texas Tech (2003).

A native of Rockdale, TX, Kocurek was originally drafted in the seventh-round (237th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks as a defensive lineman. Following his release from the Seahawks prior to the 2001 season, he was signed to the Tennessee Titans practice squad and was later promoted to the team's active roster and appeared in one game with Tennessee in 2001 before spending the 2002 season on the Injured Reserve List. Kocurek played collegiately at Texas Tech, where he was a three-time All-Big 12 selection (1998-2000). He was selected team captain and named the team's defensive player of the year as a senior in 2000. He earned his bachelor's degree from Texas Tech and his master's from Texas A&M University-Kingsville. Kocurek and his wife, Amy, have one daughter, Presley, and one son, Koleson.

Scruggs joined Wisconsin after one season (2022) as the assistant defensive line coach for the New York Jets. Under Scruggs' guidance, the Jets finished the 2022 season ranking fourth in yards per game allowed (311.1), third in passing yards per game allowed (189.4) and added tied for the seventh-most sacks (45) in the NFL. He worked with AP First-Team All-Pro DT Quinnen Williams (12.0 sacks), DE Carl Lawson (7.0 sacks) and DE John Franklin-Myers (5.0 sacks). Prior to his NFL coaching career, Scruggs was the defensive line coach for two seasons (2020-21) at the University of Cincinnati following two years as the program's director of player development (2018-19). His tenure as defensive line coach included an appearance in the Cotton Bowl as part of the 2021 College Football Playoffs Semifinal. He saw the Bearcats go 22-2 in that span and finished both years ranked in the top 10. In 2021, his line was a key part of a defense that ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense (16.5) and 10th in total defense (318.4), after finishing the season with the second-most sacks in the American Athletic Conference (39.0). While serving as the director of player development and NFL liaison for two seasons, Scruggs mentored players and managed many of the program's off-the-field initiatives, including community service efforts. Before that, he worked with the NFL's Legends Development Program in player marketing and communications.

Scruggs was originally drafted by the Seattle Seahawks in the seventh-round (232nd overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft. A two-time Super Bowl champion (XLVIII-Seattle & LI-New England), Scruggs spent five years in the NFL with the Seahawks (2012-15), Chicago Bears (2015-16) and New England Patriots (2016), where he appeared in 18 games as a defensive lineman and tight end.

ROBERT TURNER JR.

RUNNING BACKS

30TH NFL SEASON × 9TH WITH 49ERS

Robert Turner Jr. is in his ninth season as the 49ers running backs coach. He joined San Francisco after spending two seasons (2015-16) in the same capacity with the Atlanta Falcons. A veteran of 29 NFL seasons, Turner is responsible for overseeing three of the top nine rookie rushing seasons in the NFL since 1970 [Alfred Morris – 1,613 rushing yards in 2012 (fourth); Clinton Portis – 1,508 rushing yards in 2002 (seventh); Mike Anderson – 1,500 rushing yards in 2000 (eighth)].

In 2024, Turner led a running back group that featured RB Jordan Mason and rookie draft pick RB Isaac Guerendo. Mason registered career highs in carries (153), rushing yards (789) and tied his career high with three rushing touchdowns. Guerendo appeared in 16 games and made three starts, registering 84 rushing attempts for 420 yards and four touchdowns on the ground to go along with 15 receptions for 152 yards through the air. Turner also coached FB Kyle Juszczyk, who earned his third career Associated Press All-Pro honor (First-Team – 2022-23; Second-Team – 2024) and ninth-consecutive (2016-25) Pro Bowl selection, including eight straight as a member of the 49ers, after registering five carries for 26 yards and one touchdown on the ground to go along with 19 receptions for 200 yards and two touchdowns through the air.

The 2023 San Francisco 49ers finished with top-five marks in total offense (398.4), scoring offense (28.9), rushing yards per game (140.5) and passing yards per game (257.9). The 49ers offense registered 491 total points and 6,773 total yards in 2023, both of which were the second-highest single-season marks in franchise history. Turner Jr. once again coached RB Christian McCaffrey, who led the NFL in rushing yards (1,459), yards from scrimmage (2,023) and finished tied for the most total touchdowns (21). He became the first player since 1995 to lead the NFL in rushing yards after every week of an entire season and was named Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year, the PFWA Offensive Player of the Year, Associated Press First-Team All-Pro and selected to the Pro Bowl Games. FB Kyle Juszczyk was once again named to the Pro Bowl and finished the season with two receiving touchdowns.

In May of 2023, Turner was inducted into the Indiana Football Hall of Fame. Named a distinguished member "in recognition of his dedication and loyalty to, and excellence in the game of Indiana football," Turner was acknowledged for his long tenure at Indiana State University.

Turner spent the 2022 season as an assistant coach with San Francisco, working with the team's running backs. He tutored midseason acquisition RB Christian McCaffrey, who went on to rush for 746 yards and six touchdowns, add 52 receptions for 464 yards and four touchdowns, and earn a trip to the 2023 Pro Bowl. San Francisco's 20 rushing touchdowns on the season were the fifth-most in the NFL. Juszczyk also earned Pro Bowl honors after registering one touchdown each on the ground and through the air.

In 2021, Turner was the recipient of The PFWA's Paul "Dr. Z" Zimmerman Award given for lifetime achievement as an assistant coach in the NFL. The award is named for Zimmerman, who covered the NFL for 29 years as Sports Illustrated's lead pro football writer. That season, he coached rookie sixth-round draft selection RB Elijah Mitchell to team highs in rushing attempts (207) and rushing yards (963), setting the rookie franchise record for each category. Juszczyk was again named to the 2022 Pro Bowl.

In 2020, the 49ers rushed for 1,889 yards and 19 touchdowns on 437 carries. The 19 rushing touchdowns ranked tied for 10th in the NFL. RB Jeff Wilson Jr. led the team with a career-high 600 rushing yards and seven touchdowns on 126 carries (4.8 avg.). RB Raheem Mostert added 104 carried for 521 yards and two touchdowns. Additionally, Juszczyk tallied 17 carries for 64 yards and two touchdowns on the ground while adding 19 receptions for 202 yards and four touchdowns en route to his fifth-consecutive Pro Bowl selection.

The 2019 San Francisco 49ers led the NFL with 23 rushing touchdowns and ranked second in rushing yards per game (144.1). The 49ers ground attack featured three players with 500-or-more rushing yards in a single season (Mostert – 772; RB Matt Breida – 623; RB Tevin Coleman – 544) for just the second time in franchise history (1954 - three players). In 1954, three of the four members of the "Million Dollar Backfield" had more than 500 rushing yards in Joe Perry (1,049), John Henry Johnson (681) and Hugh McElhenny (515). Juszczyk was selected to the Pro Bowl for the fourth-consecutive season. In the postseason, the 49ers averaged 204.0 rushing yards per game as Mostert led the way with 336 yards and five touchdowns on 36 carries (6.3 average).

In 2018, the 49ers rushed for 1,902 yards and seven touchdowns on 423 carries. The team's 118.9 rushing yards per game ranked 13th in the NFL and seventh in the NFC in 2018. RB Matt Breida led the team with 153 carries for 814 yards (5.3 average) and three touchdowns. His 5.3 average ranked fourth in the NFL in 2018 and was the highest rushing average by a 49ers running back (minimum 100 carries) since 2006 (RB Frank Gore – 5.4 average). Additionally, Juszczyk earned Pro Bowl honors for the third-consecutive season.

In 2017, the 49ers rushed for 1,662 yards and 15 touchdowns on 408 carries. San Francisco ranked tied for seventh in the NFL in both rushing touchdowns (15) and carries of 10-or-more yards (53). Juszczyk was named to the Pro Bowl for the second-consecutive season and first time as a member of the 49ers and rookie RB Matt Breida averaged 4.43 yards per carry, ranking 10th in the NFL (minimum 100 carries).

In 2016, the Falcons ranked fifth in the league in rushing yards per game (120.5) and tied for third in the NFL with 20 rushing touchdowns. RB Devonta Freeman registered 1,079 rushing yards and 13 total touchdowns, the fifth most among running backs, to earn his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection. Freeman also ranked fifth among running backs with 54 receptions for 462 yards. Part of a two-pronged attack, RB Tevin Coleman registered 520 rushing yards, 421 receiving yards and 11 total touchdowns on the year.

In 2015, Freeman earned his first All-Pro and Pro Bowl selections as he was one of seven players to eclipse the 1,000 rushing yard mark (1,056) and tied for the NFL lead with 11 rushing touchdowns. Freeman's 1,634 total yards from scrimmage ranked fifth among all players during the 2015 season.

Prior to Atlanta, Turner spent four years (2010-13) as assistant head coach and running backs coach for Washington. In 2013, Washington ranked fifth in the NFL with 135.3 rushing yards per game and finished with 61 rushes of 10-or-more yards, the fourth most in the league. Morris finished the year ranked fourth in the NFL with 1,275 rushing yards to earn his first career Pro Bowl berth.

In 2012, Washington set a franchise record with 2,709 rushing yards, led the NFL 169.3 rushing yards per game and ranked second in yards per carry (5.22) and rushing touchdowns (22). Turner helped Morris set a franchise record with 1,613 rushing yards, as a rookie. Morris' 1,613 rushing yards were the fourth most by rookie in NFL history (Eric Dickerson – 1,808 yards in 1983; George Roberts – 1,674 yards in 1981; Ezekiel Elliot – 1,631 yards in 2016).

In 2011, Turner oversaw the development of rookie RBs Roy Helu and Evan Royster. Helu finished the year as the team's leading rusher with 640 yards, the second-highest yardage total among rookies that season. In Weeks 12-14, Helu became the first rookie running back in Washington history to post three consecutive 100-yard games. In weeks 16 and 17, Royster rushed for more than 100 yards in each game, making Helu and Royster the first rookie running back tandem in NFL history to each post consecutive 100-yard rushing games in a season.

During his first season in Washington, Turner helped develop RB Ryan Torain into a feature back as he posted career highs in attempts (164), rushing yards (742) and touchdowns (four). Under Turner, Torain ran for 172 yards against Tampa Bay in Week 14, the 10th-highest total in Washington's history.

Turner came to Washington after spending the previous 15 seasons (1995-2009) as the running backs coach of the Denver Broncos, where he was part of teams that earned two Super Bowl championships (Super Bowl XXXII and Super Bowl XXXIII), three AFC West titles (1996, 1998, 2005) and seven playoff berths (1996-98, 2000, 2003-05).

Turner worked with 2017 NFL Hall of Fame inductee RB Terrell Davis, who was named AP Most Valuable Player (1998) and AP Offensive Player of the Year (1996, 1998) while helping lead the Broncos to back-to-back Super Bowl titles. During his 7-year (1995-2001) NFL career, all under Turner's tutelage, Davis rushed for 7,607 yards and 60 touchdowns, while delivering 1,140 rushing yards and 12 touchdowns in only eight playoff games.

Davis' 97.5 rushing yards per game in the regular season is the third-highest total in league history among running backs who recorded rushing attempts in at least 75 games, while his 142.5 rushing yards per game in the postseason is the highest average in league history for running backs who had registered rushing attempts in at least five playoff games.

During his 15 seasons in Denver, the Broncos produced the most rushing yards (32,829) and the most total yards (86,523) in the NFL. Over that span, six different running backs rushed for at least 1,000 yards in a single season, including Davis (four times), Tatum Bell, Reuben Droughns, Clinton Portis (twice), Mike Anderson (twice) and Olandis Gary. Additionally, Turner helped Denver become the only franchise since the inception of the common NFL Draft in 1967 to have two undrafted rookies reach 500 rushing yards in the first season with Selvin Young (2007) and Mike Bell (2008) accomplishing the feat in back-to-back seasons.

Turner helped the Broncos record 11 individual 1,000-yard rushing seasons during his tenure, a total that includes a four-year streak of having a different 1,000-yard rusher each year (2003-06). Under Turner, the Broncos ranked among the NFL's top five in rushing during 10 of his 15 seasons, with 16 different running backs posting at least one 100-yard rushing game in the regular season or playoffs.

In 2005, the trio of Mike Anderson, Tatem Bell and Ron Dayne helped Denver rank second in the NFL in runs of 50 yards-or-more (four) and fourth in the league in runs of 10 yards-or-more (60), while setting a franchise record for most rushing first downs (145).

Before his arrival in Denver, Turner was assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and running backs coach for four seasons (1991-94) at Purdue. During his tenure, the Boilermakers running game and entire offense improved each season, going from 106th in the nation in 1990 to 12th in 1994, a season in which the team rushed for a school record 36 rushing touchdowns. That year, Turner guided All-Big Ten second-team selection Mike Alstott (1,188 yards and 14 TDs), the school's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1976. In 1991, Turner coached the Big Ten Freshman of the Year RB Corey Rogers.

Prior to Purdue, Turner served as the running backs coach for two seasons (1989-90) at Ohio State University, during which time the Buckeyes went to two bowl games and had one of the most prolific running games in the Big Ten.

Turner's 1990 backfield was highlighted by Big Ten and National Freshman of the Year Robert Smith, who finished the season with 1,126 yards and eight touchdowns. In 1989, the Buckeyes led the Big Ten in rushing yards per game (241.0), total offense (418.1 yards per game) and scoring (29.5).

Before his stint at Ohio State, Turner coached the running backs at Fresno State (1983-88) and at his alma mater, Indiana State (1975-82). At Fresno State, he coached future pros RB Lavale Thomas (Packers), RB Anthony Mosley (Bears) and RB Aaron Craver (Dolphins, Broncos, Chargers, Saints).

Turner began his collegiate coaching career at Indiana State, where he spent eight years (1975-82) on staff. He began as running backs and quarterbacks coach while also working as the team's strength and conditioning coordinator in 1975. In 1976, Turner became defensive backs coach in addition to strength and conditioning coordinator for two seasons before working as the team's running backs coach and special teams coordinator for four years (1978-81). During his final year at Indiana State in 1982, he coached defensive backs and served as special teams coordinator.

During his tenure on Indiana State's coaching staff, Turner recruited and coached two All-American defensive backs in Wayne Davis (1984) and Vencie Glenn (1985), both of whom went on to be second round draft picks. He also helped ISU running back Vincent Allen post a 1,000-yard rushing season (1,022) in 1975.

Turner began his coaching career at Haworth (Kokomo, IN) High School as an assistant with the football and basketball teams from 1972-74.

A native of East Chicago, IN, Turner was an all-conference defensive back at Indiana State, where he played both football and basketball. Turner ranks tied for second in school history with 16 career interceptions (returning two for touchdowns), including nine in 1969, which is tied for second most in a single season in school history. He earned his bachelor's degree from Indiana State in health and physical education in 1972 before receiving his master's degree from the school in education/administration in 1976.

Turner attended East Chicago Washington High School, where he played four sports (football, basketball, baseball and track). In 1993 he was inducted into the Indiana High School Basketball Hall of Fame Silver Anniversary Team and was selected to the East Chicago Sports Hall of Fame in 1999.

Turner and his wife, Kimberly, have three daughters: Nacole, Krishana and Kiaana.

Additionally, Gillen works closely with the coaching staff and various other departments to establish consistency in the scouting process and alignment throughout the organization. He collaborates with the football administration staff on contract negotiations, market analysis, and roster management strategies and works in conjunction with the R&D department to develop creative approaches to optimize and improve efficiency in decision-making and apply data for team and scheme-specific evaluations.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Gillen gained front office experience in the NBA with the San Antonio Spurs where he assisted the team in preparation for the NBA draft and free agency. BRIAN HAMPTON

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

22ND NFL SEASON × 22ND WITH 49ERS

Brian Hampton is in his 22nd season with the San Francisco 49ers and first as Assistant General Manager. Prior to his promotion, Hampton spent the previous five seasons (2020-24) as Vice President, Football Administration after 10 seasons (2010-19) as the director of football administration & analytics. Hampton also served as the team's manager of football operations for two seasons and as an analyst before that. He originally joined the 49ers as a football operations intern in late 2003.

Hampton is primarily responsible for roster construction strategy, leading contract negotiations, strategic planning, and management of the organization's player compensation and salary cap. His extensive knowledge of the salary cap has enabled the 49ers to remain competitive year after year, creatively navigating the CBA to both retain and add core players, maximizing the cumulative talent and depth on the roster.

In his role, Hampton works closely with General Manager John Lynch and Head Coach Kyle Shanahan, providing senior leadership and support to the entire football operation. His additional daily football operations duties include overseeing the budgets for all football departments, directly managing the budgets for player compensation, coaching, scouting, executives and football administration. He is also the primary liaison to the NFL Management Council. Hampton built the club's football Research & Development program, finding and developing new ways to gain advantages in both scouting decision making and game-management strategy.

Hampton was a member of the committee that led the 2017 search for the team's General Manager and Head Coach, which resulted in the hiring of Lynch and Shanahan. More recently, he has helped prepare others to become General Managers within the National Football League, by providing guidance and development to associates who ultimately were hired into such roles in Minnesota, Tennessee and Washington. Hampton has also developed and mentored numerous colleagues and interns that have grown into a variety of lead positions across many teams. Hampton, along with a number of individuals that have worked for him, were recognized from a 2024 NFL-wide survey of the "analytics person most likely to become a general manager."

Since Hampton was promoted into a management role, the 49ers have reached the NFC Championship game seven times and advanced to three Super Bowls in 15 seasons. While Hampton served in the booth on the coaches headset during games to provide strategic advice and guide challenge decisions, the 49ers posted a 72-40-1 record and reached the Conference Championship in four of the five seasons, which excludes 2020 where social distancing rules limited the number of people in the booth.

Throughout his tenure, Hampton has played a critical role in the acquisition and retention of key talent that has propelled the 49ers to consistent success. He has been instrumental in crafting the complex contracts that have allowed the team to secure their high-level players, having led contract negotiations for the team with their draft picks, free agents and extensions. The extensive list of Pro Bowl selections Hampton and the 49ers have signed include at least one player at every position on offense and defense as well as punter and kicker. Hampton's contributions as an expert at navigating the compensatory draft pick allocation process as well as identifying trade opportunities provide the 49ers the ability to accumulate draft picks to select elite players and core contributors throughout each round.

Born and raised in Oakley, CA, Hampton earned a M.A. in sport management from the University of San Francisco and a B.A. in business economics from UC-Santa Barbara. Hampton worked for the Santa Barbara Foresters Baseball Club and the UCSB athletic department. GOLDMINE

- During his time at Sierra College and later Arizona State, Aiyuk was known for his work ethic on and off the field. Ben Noonan, who coached Aiyuk at Sierra College, found Aiyuk in the weight room constantly, improving his squat from 275 pounds coming out of high school to 500 pounds by May 2017. That drive carried over to the practice field, where Aiyuk routinely stayed for 30 minutes after every practice working on routes in the Rocklin heat. "It gets up to a good 110 degrees, and then he's out there until the daylight is gone with the quarterbacks after a four-hour day," Noonan said. "And demanding that the quarterbacks stay, you know, whether their arm was falling off or not."

AIYUK'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- His last name is pronounced EYE-yook.
- Though he stands at 6-foot-0, Aiyuk recorded an 81-inch wingspan, equivalent to 6-foot-9.
- Only the second alum from a Northern Nevada high school to become a first-round NFL draft pick. Former DT Shawn Knight (Reed HS, NV) was drafted by the New Orleans Saints 11th overall in the 1987 NFL Draft.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- Though he grew up in Nevada, Aiyuk has roots in Northern California. He attended Sierra (Rocklin, CA) College from 2016-17, where the 49ers spent training camp from 1981-1997. Additionally, Aiyuk began supporting the 49ers at a young age, thanks to his mom. "My mom's been a huge 49ers fan her whole life, so that kind of bled on me a little bit when I was younger," said Aiyuk. When he got the call informing him that he would be a member of the team, Aiyuk realized a childhood dream that he wasn't sure would come true. "There were a lot of people telling me before today and all week that it was going to happen. So, it's crazy that it actually did happen."

ROBERT BEAL JR.

DL × GEORGIA

51

6-4 × 250 × 8.18.99 × DULUTH, GA × 3RD YEAR × ACQUIRED D-5B IN '23

GOLDMINE

- Despite leading the Bulldogs in sacks in 2021, Beal decided to return to Georgia for his final year of eligibility in pursuit of a second-consecutive National Championship. The move paid off as Georgia finished the 2022 season a perfect 15-0 culminated by a 65-7 victory over Texas Christian in the National Championship, which was the largest margin of victory and the most points scored in a College Football Playoff or Bowl Championship Series title game. Beal registered 3 tackles and 1.0 sack of former Horned Frogs and former Los Angeles Chargers QB Max Duggan and became forever engrained in college football history as part of the only team in CFP history to win back-to-back National Championships.

BEAL JR.'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Goes by "RJ." When he was young, also earned the nickname "Tank" because he had a big head compared to his small frame.
- Joined NFL DL Cameron Heyward, TE Connor Heyward, OL Orlando Brown Jr., DE Kingsley Enagbare and CB Bradley Roby as one of six active NFL players that attended Peachtree Ridge (Duluth, GA) HS.
- Initially wanted to be a WR as he grew up idolizing NFL WR Julio Jones.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- Although he was born and raised in Georgia, Beal is a lifelong 49ers fan. When asked who his favorite 49er was he cited former First-Team All-Pro and 49ers DL Aldon Smith. "I used to watch him day in, day out," said Beal. Like Smith who boasts a 83 7/8-inch wingspan, Beal uses his length to his advantage on the field. However, Beal's 83 1/2-inch wingspan does not come with the same advantages when shopping. "I was born with long arms. I can't really fit any shirt comfortably," said Beal. "It's either too long and my arms stick out the bottom of the shirt or the shirt will be too big. It's kind of crazy."

TATUM BETHUNE

LB × FLORIDA STATE

48

6-1 × 230 × 2.19.01 × MIAMI, FL × 2ND YEAR × ACQUIRED D-7 IN '24

GOLDMINE

- Many athletes come from a family of other athletes. For Bethune, the case was different. He comes from a family of academics. Bethune's parents are both educators, but the person who set the precedent for this line of work that runs in his family was his great-aunt, Mary McLeod Bethune, who founded Bethune-Cookman University. Originally an all-girls school, the historically black college was founded in 1904 in Florida. The rich history of education in his family was passed on to Bethune as well. "I came from a family where education was a huge thing," Bethune said. "[The main goal is] to get my degree and make sure my grades are straight. And that's always the main focus. Growing up, school was always the priority."

BETHUNE'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Both of his parents work in education with his father, Gregory, being a longtime principal at Miami Central and current administrator for the Miami-Dade County Public Schools. His mother, Shovon, is a guidance counselor at Miami Jackson High.
- Was the recipient of the Monk Bonasorte Award in 2022 at Florida State, given to the defensive player who displays the most heart on the field.

- Bosa's father, John, a former Miami Dolphin, encouraged sons Nick and Joey to try other sports like tennis, golf and baseball. However, Nick only had one sport in mind, and he let his parents know it. "Nick threw temper tantrums," John said. After successfully convincing his parents to let him play football, Nick gave everything he had to the sport. Even as a kid on the field, he wasn't afraid to speak his mind. Early in his football career, Cheryl watched from the sideline at practice as Nick approached a coach. "I find out later they'd put Nick with the offense," she recalled. "And he walked up to this guy, totally by himself, tugged on his shirt and said, 'I don't want to play offense. I want to play defense."

JAKE BRENDEL

OL × UCLA

64

6-4 × 299 × 9.10.92 × PLANO, TX × 8TH YEAR × ACQUIRED FA IN '20

AWARDS & HONORS

2022: Bobb McKittrick Award, 49ers Community Relations Family Award
2024: Bobb McKittrick Award

GOLDMINE

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during the 2018 season. Brendel represented the foundation, "Living for Zachary," named for former high school teammate Zachary Schraw, who passed away in 2009 on the Plano East High School football field. He died suddenly of cardiac arrest. "If there was an AED (automated external defibrillator) nearby, it could have saved Zachary's life, might have brought his heart back to life," Brendel said. "The foundation is trying to make sure the next time that happens, a life can be saved."

BRENDEL'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Growing up, Brendel's family was involved in local musical theater. During a production of "Annie," Brendel's dad, Bill, played "Daddy Warbucks," his mom was the musical director and Lauren and Jake played two background actors. "Jake was the dancer. The kid could dance and sing," said Bill.
- Enjoys fishing, particularly for bass, bluegills and walleye.
- Spent much of his childhood participating in various sports, such as football, basketball, baseball, lacrosse, wrestling and was a competitive swimmer in the backstroke and breaststroke.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- As a senior at UCLA in 2015, Brendel and his teammates suited up to play in their senior game at the Rose Bowl. He was joined by his entire family, including older sister, Lauren. Lauren had officially made captain in the Air Force the week before, and decided to skip her ceremonial pinning in order to watch her brother play. "It was great to have her there, especially being Military Appreciation Day," Jake said. "She loved every single aspect of it." Lauren, through her various assignments in the Air Force, was forced to miss a majority of her brother's games, but knew she wanted to be there for this one. "My feeling was, I'll be pinned for major, the next promotion, and then my family can be there," Lauren said. "Senior night was a one and only type thing for Jake. I couldn't miss that ceremony."

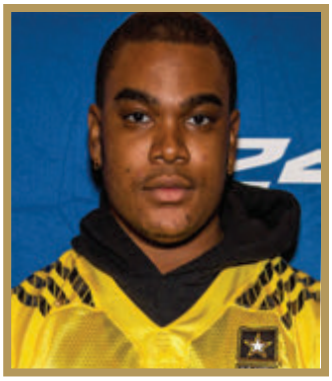
JORDAN ELLIOTT

DL × MISSOURI

92

6-4 × 303 × 11.23.97 × HOUSTON, TX × 6TH YEAR × ACQUIRED FA IN '24

GOLDMINE



- When Elliott first started playing football as a child, he was a running back. In his first game, he led his team to a victory by scoring four touchdowns. "I wasn't necessarily big, weight wise, but I was tall when I was a kid." Elliott said, "They didn't see me as a D-lineman at that time. I was just a dominant running back. I was fast, I could run, I could juke people, run you over." As he grew, it was undeniable that he would be more dominant on the other side of the ball, as a lineman. He made the switch and hasn't looked back since.

ELLIOTT'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- In his free time, enjoys producing music. After retiring from the NFL, he plans to pursue a career in music full-time.
- In high school, was selected to participate in the 2016 U.S. Army All-American Bowl.

AWARDS & HONORS

2019: NFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 14)

GOLDMINE

- Gross-Matos has a very strong family unit. One of the driving factors of this closeness is the loss of close loved ones they've experienced. When Yetur was two years old, his father, Michael, tragically passed away in a boating accident after saving Yetur's life. Eight years later, at the age of 10, Yetur's older brother, Chelal, passed away after being struck by lightning. These experiences, one of which he was not old enough to remember, have shaped him into the man he is today. They've allowed him to see just how important family is.
- He has an incredibly close relationship with his parents Sakinah and Robert Matos. They have always been supportive of everything he has done, especially football.

GROSS-MATOS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Name is pronounced yee-TOUR gross MAH-tos.
- Goes by the nickname 'Yee.'
- Due to his love for video games, Gross-Matos is interested in information technology and the ability to build PCs.

AWARDS & HONORS

2021: Thomas Herrion Memorial Award

GOLDMINE

- When a deadly tornado hit Tennessee in March of 2020, Jennings turned his scheduled autograph session into a donation drop off benefiting those affected by the tornado. "Just to be able to go down there and help," said Jennings, "It means a lot because this is a place that helped build who I am today. I had just gotten to Knoxville from the Combine and to wake up and see that call about the tornado and see the devastation that's happened, it broke my heart." In addition to signing autographs and talking to young fans, Jennings organized donations to go toward the community. "A lot of people are contacting me and they're like, 'What can we do?'" Jennings said. "And I'm like, 'Just bring donations. I'll take care of the rest.' It just means a lot to be able to just come out here and help the community."

- Since childhood, Jennings has immersed himself in athletics. Coming from a family of athletes, Jennings grew up with a competitive spirit. Older sister, Alexis, played collegiate basketball at Kentucky and South Carolina, collecting Second-Team All-SEC honors as a senior with the Gamecocks in 2018-19. "We were always outside going to the playgrounds or to the local YMCA to play against people," said Alexis. "We pretty much played anything and everything. We just loved to be outside doing anything that had to do with sports."

JENNINGS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- His first name is pronounced juh-WAHN.
- In addition to football, Jennings played basketball at Blackman (Murfreesboro, TN) HS.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- Jennings followed in the footsteps of his father, Bennie, who was a four-year letterman on the University of North Alabama's football team from 1987-90. The First-Team All-American registered 29 catches for 456 yards and four touchdowns as a senior. His athletic prowess earned him a spot in UNA's Hall of Fame for football.

CHASE LUCAS

CB × ARIZONA STATE

26

5-11 × 184 × 3.4.97 × CHANDLER, AZ × 4TH YEAR × ACQUIRED FA IN '24

GOLDMINE

- Lucas understands the value of family and having a strong support system. His family has been integral to his success, both on and off the field. "My family is everything to me," Lucas said. "My mom, grandparents, my aunt, they all did everything for me." His aunt, Tara, was a major source of motivation for him. She was like a second mother to him. He works hard every day to make her proud, because while she was alive, Tara was his biggest cheerleader along with his mother, Valerie. "I'm very proud of my aunt for the legacy she built here on this earth. I want to dedicate everything I have done, everything I accomplish from here on out to her."
- Along with Tara, he would consider Valerie to be the most influential person in his life because she raised him as a single mother. Being close to home and making sure his mother could attend as many games as possible, is the reason he ultimately decided to attend Arizona State over other schools he was heavily recruited by. This support system is the reason Chase has gotten to where he is today.

LUCAS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Played WR all throughout high school, made the switch to corner in his senior year and saw his potential grow in that position.
- Enjoys spending time doing outdoor activities, specifically fishing and hunting.
- Has two rottweilers at home: Royce and Blue.

GOLDMINE

- McCaffrey founded the Christian McCaffrey Foundation shortly after entering the NFL. The foundation's mission is to serve as a catalyst for the community and country by supporting those who sacrifice daily for the benefit of many. We show up for our servicemen and women for standing at the front of the most critical challenges of our time. Since it's inception, McCaffrey's foundation has expanded beyond the military. In addition to working to prevent veteran suicide, the foundation supports front line workers, serves underserved youth and provides support to children undergoing medical treatment.
- His foundation's Logan Project strives to connect children going through medical treatment through gaming in honor of Logan Hale, a fan of McCaffrey who passed away after a battle with cancer in 2021. "I found out he had been buried in my jersey, and I just kind of broke down. That hit me like a ton of bricks. "I found out he wanted to do this while he was going through what he was going through. I was extremely determined to make that happen." After reading Hale's obituary, which mentioned his video game dream, McCaffrey decided to put his vision into action. "I know Logan would be over the moon, to see this actually come true," Hale's mother, Kristina, said. "But most of all because his favorite player, the person he admired the most, is making it come true."

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- McCaffrey returns home to Denver annually each June to help staff his father's Dare to Play football camp. Dare to Play partners with the Global Down Syndrome Foundation to ensure people with Down Syndrome have the ability to play the game of football. McCaffrey has been a counselor at Dare to Play since he was a freshman in high school in 2010. Since then, the camp has given hundreds of people with down syndrome an opportunity to play.

COLTON McKIVITZ

OL × WEST VIRGINIA

68

6-6 × 301 × 8.9.96 × JACOBSBURG, OH × 6TH YEAR × ACQUIRED D-5 IN '20

GOLDMINE

- McKivitz is a lover of outdoor activities, as he frequently spends his time with his dad, Matt, fishing and hunting, for deer, ducks and squirrels. "It was really my dad that got me into it," said McKivitz. "He's got me into everything in the outdoors, really. That's me and dad's time, the outdoor time. I'm just lucky to have that type of figure to learn from and that's kind of what I love most about the outdoors." Matt is known for creating unique hats from the animals the two of them have hunted. The elder McKivitz is famous for being seen sporting one at each of West Virginia's home games.

- This past offseason, McKivitz hosted a youth athlete empowerment camp in San Francisco called The Trenches. The focus of the camp was for mental and emotional resilience and football development of high school linemen. McKivitz is passionate about the community around him in the Bay and has dedicated his extensive time to the people around him in this area.

McKIVITZ'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- In addition to playing football, McKivitz was a four-year basketball player at Union Local (Jacobsburg, OH) HS, earning all-state honors as a senior in 2014.
- Didn't participate in organized football until he enrolled at Union Local before his sophomore year of high school in 2012.
- He caught his first fish, a bluegill, at age 3. McKivitz notes that the largest fish he's ever caught was an 8-pounder which he caught in the Summer of 2019.
- Is a fan of country music, citing Kenny Chesney and the Zac Brown Band among his favorites.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- While the Mountaineers were on a bye in September of 2019, McKivitz returned to his former high school, Union Local, in Ohio to be honored at the homecoming game. The Jets retired McKivitz's number 53 in a pregame ceremony, an honor that McKivitz doesn't take lightly. "It was huge. At the time I didn't really understand the meaning of it. But now, once you look back on it, that number will never see the field again. It's a pretty big honor for me." Former Union Local offensive line coach Brion Schiappa echoed the sentiment, saying, "We're all just so proud of what Colton has accomplished, and it meant a great deal to honor him in that way."

SAM OKUAYINONU

DL × MARYLAND

91

6-1 × 269 × 5.1.98 × LOWELL, MA × 3RD YEAR × ACQUIRED FA IN '23

GOLDMINE

- Okuayinonu, a native of Monrovia, Liberia, did not grow up playing football and dreaming of being an NFL player. Instead, he grew up loving the game of soccer, a much more prevalent sport in his home country.
- At the age of 12, he and his family fled from Liberia to the United States to escape the country's civil war, settling in Lowell, Massachusetts. Even after immigrating to the US, his love of American football took a bit longer to develop. It wasn't until his junior year of high school that his cousin introduced him to the game. "I actually quite hated football when I first started playing," Okuayinonu said. "I tried it out my junior year of high school, but I didn't really like it. So, I ended up quitting I think three or four games into the season and went back to playing soccer."
- He decided to give football another try during his senior year, which is when he began to take it seriously and ultimately fell in love with the sport. Okuayinonu instantly found success on the field and decided that he would work hard to play professionally.

OKUAYINONU'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Is of Liberian and Nigerian descent.
- Last name is pronounced oh-koo-WAH-new.
- Okuayinonu has his mother's middle name 'Deakonti' tattooed on his right forearm. In his native language, Bassa, the word means 'Everything has time.' He has used this phrase to remain motivated during difficult times in his life, including the ups and downs of playing professional football.

2024: Ed Block Courage Award

GOLDMINE

- Pearsall has been playing sports for as long as he can remember. But his love for football did not start with him throwing around the ball with his father, Rick Sr., instead, it started with somethihg much smaller, Skittles. As a toddler, Pearsall loved to run around and was very fast. His father took notice and thought it would be a good idea to get him involved in sports. "I wanted to show him how to catch with his hands from the get-go. No body catches," said Rick Sr. "So I had a pile of Skittles. I told him, 'Every time you catch it with your hands, you get a Skittle, but you can't eat it, yet. It's going to go in this pile. And if you catch it with your body or drop it, I'm taking your Skittle from you.' So he'd be happy every time he got a Skittle. But when I took it away from him, he'd cry and he'd get really frustrated. And I'd encourage him, 'Hey, just catch with your hands, and you'll get more.'" This motivation proved to be successful in the long run, as Pearsall quickly caught on and developed a strong love for football.

GOLDMINE

- When playing paintball in the desert with his Perry (Gilbert, AZ) HS teammates in May 2017, Purdy suffered a punctured left hand from a Saguaro Cactus. "It's something that everyone's done," Purdy said on the game in the desert. "It's one of those group things that you do to build chemistry." The team-building exercise forced Perry's starting QB to miss spring ball headed into his senior season. However, Purdy was largely unfazed by the injury to his non-throwing hand as the Queen Creek, AZ native threw for 4,405 yds. and 57 TDs that fall en route to winning Arizona Gatorade Player of the Year.

AWARDS & HONORS

2024: 49ers Community Relations Veteran Award

GOLDMINE

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15 of 2018. Taylor and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. End Slavery Tennessee provides specialized case management and comprehensive aftercare for human trafficking survivors and tactically addresses the problem through advocacy, prevention and training of front line professionals.

- Taylor and his teammates joined Levi's in support of breast, colon and pediatric cancer warriors at the Crucial Catch Fashion Show presented by Dignity Health on October 2, 2018. 49ers players and cancer warriors took to the runway to show off their attire and share their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

TAYLOR'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Taylor's father, Greg, played linebacker at Western Kentucky University from 1982-85 under WKU's all-time wins leader, Jimmy Feix, for two seasons (1984-85).
- In 2016, Taylor led the nation with 1,803 rec. yds. on 136 recepts. to go along with 12 TDs.
- Taylor has lived in three states during his life, including Kentucky, Louisiana and Tennessee. During his time in Tennessee, he became very fond of the city of Nashville and country music.
- Growing up, Taylor was a multi-sport athlete while attending Evangel Christian (Shreveport, LA) High School. He was an all-state baseball player in addition to participating in track and long jump. For one season, Taylor played tennis with his quarterback as his doubles partner and the two were state runners-up that year.
- While playing defensive back in high school, Taylor hit an opponent with such ferocity that he broke the receiver's jaw.

- The 49ers joined forces with Martha's Kitchen of San Jose as part of their Community Tuesday kickoff event on September 11, 2018. Taylor and teammates took part in the event by serving dinner to nearly 200 residents in need, refilling beverages and bussing tables. Both the 49ers and Levi's Stadium partner with Martha's Kitchen throughout the year by donating excess food after stadium events. Martha's Kitchen's mission is to "feed the hungry with dignity, no questions asked, no judgements made."

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- During all Week 13 games in 2017, NFL players had the chance to share the causes that are important to them as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. The initiative was a culmination of collaborative work between the NFL and players across the league. "The USO strengthens America's military service members by keeping them connected to family, home and country, throughout their service to the nation," said Taylor.

- As part of the 49ers annual Thanksgiving celebrations, Taylor and his teammates visited Cityteam San Jose to serve a holiday feast to over 300 people in need. Guests enjoyed turkey along with all of the usual holiday sides, while getting to know the 49ers.

- In April of 2018, Taylor and his teammates attended the eighth annual Prom at UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital San Francisco in Mission Bay, with more than 200 teen patients and their friends. Patients and 49ers players enjoyed a fun-filled "Vintage Circus" prom with photo booths, music, dancing, dining and more. This special evening allowed patients to participate in a milestone that they may miss as a result of sickness.

- During the 2019 offseason, members of the 49ers took park in the Second Annual Picnic on the Field, located on the Levi's Stadium field. Taylor and his teammates spent the day taking pictures with fans, who enjoyed music, food and games in support of the 49ers Foundation. The foundation, in conjunction with NFL Huddle for 100, partnered with Amazon to fill 1,000 backpacks full of school supplies. Fans and players joined together to assemble the packs, which were distributed throughout the community to children in need.

GOLDMINE

- When Williams was young, he and his family lost his paternal grandfather, John L. Hawkins, due to Type 2 diabetes. It affected Williams deeply, saying, "Not being able to build that relationship with my grandfather, sometimes I still think about it." To honor his memory and expand the awareness and prevention of diabetes, Williams began to serve as an ambassador for the American Diabetes Association in 2014, and has done so ever since in order to help others focus on the importance of wellness in life. "As we all know, it affects a lot of Americans, not just around the world, but in America we have almost 30 million people living with the disease," Williams said. "It's almost catastrophic, and it can be without the right awareness. Obviously, I lost my grandfather at a young age to this disease, so I have a special interest in working with the ADA every year. To me, I feel like it's something that I have to do," Williams said. "I owe it to my family and to myself to do."

WILLIAMS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Was the 49ers 2020 and 2021 Garry Niver Award winner, presented annually by the San Francisco Chapter of the Pro Football Writers of America to a 49ers player for his cooperation and professionalism in helping the writers do their jobs.
- Honored in his hometown of Longview, Texas, with "Trent Williams Day" on May 12, 2010 to celebrate his selection in the NFL Draft.
- In 2016, Williams partnered with Nike in order donate over 1,000 shoes to give to each elementary school campus in his hometown of Longview, Texas, for kids who are in need.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- During Week 13 of the 2020 season, 49ers players wore custom cleats as a part of the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign. Williams and his teammates highlighted their respective causes, with Williams representing the DFSP Foundation.

- In May of 2017, Williams returned to his roots as he walked through the Lobo Stadium tunnel at his alma mater of Longview High School. Williams returned to Texas to partake in a ceremony held by the school for the 2006 Longview graduate in conjunction with the football team's Green-White Game in order to retire his No. 71 jersey. He became the second former player to have his jersey number retired in the school's history. "It's a surreal feeling," Williams said. "Never in my wildest dreams did I ever imagine getting my jersey retired, especially at a high school like this that's rich in tradition in football. To know that I've done enough in my career, and I feel like I've got a lot left to do, to have my jersey retired, it's a blessing."

- Throughout his career, Williams has made it a priority to assist and help those who shaped him in his younger years. In 2015, Williams donated $25,000 to his high school alma mater to help fund EKG screening for every member of the football program. He has also donated a new locker room, new shoes for elementary students and Christmas gifts for those in need in his hometown of Longview, Texas. "This is home," his mother, Veronica, said. "Trent loves giving back to the community here. When it's involving children, that's his first love." Williams' former high school coach, John King, added, "The money he's given our football program, our athletic program, our high school, the at-risk kids throughout the district and in this community, he's never forgotten home. He's done a lot of things that haven't gotten recognition. Just a tremendous person."
- In June of 2018, Williams hosted the 5th Life and Skills Camp, also known as Silverback football camp, at Lobo Stadium in his hometown of Longview, Texas. Williams hosted more than 100 athletes during the afternoon with assistance from Los Angeles Rams LB Travin Howard, who also attended Longview High School, as well as other volunteer coaches. Williams enjoys being able to give back to his community, and said, "This is where I grew up, the place that birthed me. Anytime I get a chance to come back and connect with the community, I love it."

6-4 × 240 × 11.11.99 × ARLINGTON, TX × 3RD YEAR × ACQUIRED D-7A IN '23

GOLDMINE

- Willis' position coach at Oklahoma was Joe John Finley, a former 49ers TE who played for the team from 2008-10. "The first thing that comes to my mind when I think about Brayden is just that dog mentality. You come across a bunch of great football players in your life and one thing they all have in common is they all have that killer mentality. He took that into every part of his life, he was the hardest worker on the team, and he was a leader through his actions," Finley remarked when asked about Willis and his work ethic. "He wore out our jugs machine, I think he caught 10,000 balls the last two summers that he was here. And thats a lot of balls to catch over the summer in addition to all of those things we ask those guys to do, go to class, their workouts, and seven on seven, routes on air, all that good stuff. He actually caught 10,000 per summer which is unbelievable."

WILLIS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Earned the nickname "Weight Room Willy" in college for his work ethic and strength in the weight room.
- Hosts an Oklahoma football podcast with his former teammate, Jeremiah Hall, called "The Podcast on the Prairie."

NICK ZAKELJ

OL × FORDHAM

63

6-6 × 316 × 6.22.99 × BROADVIEW HEIGHTS, OH × 4TH YEAR × ACQUIRED D-6A IN '22

GOLDMINE

- Zakelj's path to the NFL was anything but traditional. The Brecksville-Broadview Heights (OH) HS product was a zero-start recruit when he joined FCS Fordham University's football team. Once on campus, the former LB converted to OL. If it wasn't for another Fordham teammate annd current Tampa Bay Buccaneers RB Chase Edmonds, Zakelj may have not ended up where he is today. When NFL scouts from all 32 teams came to see Edmonds his senior year, they were struck by the potential Zakelj possessed as a freshman playing offensive line for the first time. The story came full circle when the 49ers drafted the four-year starter five years later in the sixth-round of the 2022 NFL Draft.
- Zakelj earned his Master's Degree in business analytics while at Fordham and is passionate about the subject. Zakelj said if he wasn't in the NFL he'd probably pursue a career in baseball analytics, something he explores in his free time. "Baseball reference is the coolest thing ever. Looking at Barry Bonds' baseball reference page... that 2004 season is so crazy," Zaklej said. "Sites like fangraphs make it so much easier for a causal fan to understand that stuff. As I got further in my studies at Fordham, I was actually able to take that data and analyze it myself."

ZAKELJ'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

(San Francisco, CA)

In the most memorable playoff game to date, the 49ers and Cowboys staged an epic battle. In what was a fitting end for some and a heartbreaking one for others, it was the 49ers who came out on top 28–27. QB Joe Montana capped a brilliant day with a six–yard touchdown pass to WR Dwight Clark late in the fourth quarter to overcome a six–point deficit. "The Catch," as it would come to be known, capped a 13–play, 89–yard drive that took over four minutes off the clock. Montana finished the day with 286 yards on 22–of–35 passing and three touchdowns. Clark posted eight receptions for 120 yards and two touchdowns.

The veteran kicker connected on all four field goal attempts in the game, hitting from 22, 26, 40 and 23 yards. The 49ers defense kept the potent Bengals attack in check for much of the game. Cincinnati QB Ken Anderson warmed up in the second half with three touchdowns, two of them on pass plays to TE Dan Ross, but two fourth quarter field goals by Wersching put the game out of reach. LB Jack Reynolds keyed the 49ers defense with seven tackles and one sack. LB Bob Leopold also recorded seven tackles and NT Archie Reese added six stops.

On the next 49ers possession, Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 76–yard bomb to pull within seven at 21–14. Super Bowl XXIII
January 22 at Joe Robbie Stadium
(Miami, FL)

In what proved to be the most exciting Super Bowl game of the decade, it was the play of a collected veteran that delivered San Francisco its third NFL Championship. QB Joe Montana connected on 23–of–36 passes for 357 yards, but no completion would be more important than his last. The game opened at a stand still with neither team having any ability to move the ball offensively. San Francisco opened the scoring on a 41–yard field goal by K Mike Cofer late in the first quarter. The Bengals responded with K Jim Breech's 34–yard field goal and the teams headed to the half locked in a 3–3 tie. The third quarter began with the teams trading field goals before the Bengals broke the touchdown draught. Following a 49ers field goal, Cincinnati KR Stanford Jennings took the Cofer kickoff and returned it 93 yards for a touchdown. It didn't take long for San Francisco to respond. Montana hit WR Jerry Rice for a 31–yard completion and followed that with a swing pass that RB Roger Craig turned into a 40–yard gain. Two plays and 16 seconds later, Montana found Rice in the corner of the end zone for a 10–yard touchdown. An 11–play, 46–yard drive by the Bengals resulted in a 46–yard field goal by Breech, giving Cincinnati a 16–13 lead and leaving the 49ers just 3:20 on the clock. San Francisco received the kickoff and returned it to the 20, but a penalty moved the ball back to the eight–yard line. What happened next is legendary. Montana connected on five consecutive passes to move the ball to the Bengals 35. A holding penalty moved the ball back 10 yards, but Montana responded with a 27–yard completion to Rice and another first down. A quick hit to Craig followed by a timeout left the Niners with second and two from the Bengals 10–yard line. Following the timeout, Montana hit WR John Taylor in the middle of the end zone for a touchdown and San Francisco had its third Super Bowl title of the decade.

The 49ers erupted for 28 consecutive points before halftime to put the game away early. Just 20 seconds after the Vikings initial score, Montana connected with WR Jerry Rice for the first of his four touchdown passes of the afternoon. The play started simply enough before, in true Rice fashion, he turned a seven–yard gain into a 72–yard touchdown. Following an interception by S Chet Brooks, Montana hit TE Brent Jones for an eight–yard touchdown pass and the rout was on. Montana would add touchdown passes to WR John Taylor and another to Rice before handing the game over to reserve QB Steve Young. On the day, Montana completed 17–of–24 passes for 241 yards. January 9 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw for 227 yards, including two touchdown passes, and rushed for an additional 73 yards to lead San Francisco to a hard fought 20–13 win over visiting Washington at Candlestick Park. Young tossed a five–yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor to open the scoring at the 11:48 mark of the first quarter. The teams traded field goals, and then Young hit TE Brent Jones on a 16–yard scoring strike and K Mike Cofer added the extra point to give San Francisco a 17–3 lead at halftime. Washington answered with 10 consecutive points on a K Chip Lohmiller field goal and a QB Mark Rypien one–yard touchdown plunge to cut the 49ers lead to 17–13. The locals responded with a 14–play, 59–yard drive that resulted in a 33–yard Cofer field goal with 2:22 remaining. The San Francisco defense did the rest, sacking Rypien four times on its final drive before forcing Washington to turn the ball over on downs. DT Pierce Holt had four tackles, including three sacks, to pace a determined Niners defense. CB Don Griffin posted a team–high six stops in the victory.

Cofer added a field goal for the 49ers to make the score 17–13 heading into the fourth quarter. It was a battle between Aikman and Young in the fourth. Aikman hit Smith on a 16–yard scoring strike at the 12:25 mark, extending the Dallas lead to 24–13. Young answered back with a nine play, 93–yard drive resulting in a five–yard scoring toss to WR Jerry Rice to trim the Cowboys lead to 24–20. It didn't take long for Dallas to respond. On a first and 10 from their own 21, Aikman hit WR Alvin Harper on a crossing pattern that Harper turned into a 70–yard completion. Three plays later Aikman hit WR Kelvin Martin for a six–yard touchdown to secure the win. Rice had an outstanding day receiving, finishing with eight catches for 123 yards and one touchdown. Cowboys 38, 49ers 21
NFC Championship
January 23 at Texas Stadium
(Irving, TX)

The Cowboys broke a 7–7 tie by scoring 21 unanswered points in the second quarter and that proved to be the difference in their 38–21 win over the visiting 49ers. The game was played before 64,902 at Texas Stadium. The Cowboys opened the scoring on a five–yard touchdown run by RB Emmit Smith at 8:14 of the first quarter. San Francisco responded with a seven–yard touchdown reception by FB Tom Rathman from QB Steve Young early in the second quarter to tie the score. That would be as close as the 49ers would get, as Dallas answered with a 21–point outburst in the final 10 minutes of the second quarter to take a 28–7 halftime lead. San Francisco scored its second touchdown of the game at the 5:47 mark of the third quarter. RB Ricky Watters capped a six–play, 43–yard drive with a four–yard scamper into the end zone. Dallas sealed the game by scoring 10 consecutive points on a 42–yard touchdown reception by WR Alvin Harper from reserve QB Bernie Kosar and adding a 50–yard field goal from K Eddie Murray. 49ers 44, Bears 15
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 7 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

FB William Floyd rushed for three touchdowns and the 49ers defense held Chicago to just 247 yards in a 44–15 rout of the Bears. Floyd's three scores established him as the first rookie to hit paydirt three times in an NFL playoff game. The Bears actually took an early 3–0 lead on a 39–yard field goal by K Kevin Butler. The Niners bounced back, however, lighting up the scoreboard for 37 unanswered points to put the game away. San Francisco's first points were the result of a 13–play, 68–yard drive that ended with a two–yard run by Floyd. CB Eric Davis then intercepted QB Steve Walsh on the Bears next possession and moments later, QB Steve Young connected with TE Brent Jones for an eight–yard scoring play. The Niners continued to roll in the second quarter, increasing the lead to 30–3 at the half on touchdown runs by Floyd and Young, sandwiched around a K Doug Brien field goal. Floyd's third touchdown of the game midway through the third quarter increased the lead to 37–3 and completed the afternoon's work for many of the San Francisco starters. LB Gary Plummer led a spirited defensive effort, tying the 49ers single–game postseason record with 13 tackles. The 49ers defense also sacked Chicago quarterbacks four times, led by DE Tim Harris' two.

NFC Championship
January 15 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

CB Eric Davis returned an interception 44 yards for a touchdown and forced a fumble that San Francisco converted into another touchdown. Those plays set the stage for a defensive effort that produced five takeaways in San Francisco's 38–28 NFC Championship Game win over the Dallas Cowboys. The game was played before a Candlestick Park–record 69,143 (since broken). On the third play of the game, Davis, playing a disguised zone coverage, stepped in front of a QB Troy Aikman pass and sprinted to the end zone. Three plays later, he stripped the ball from WR Michael Irvin and S Tim McDonald recovered. Five plays later, QB Steve Young hit FB Ricky Watters in the flat on a play that produced a 29–yard touchdown and a 14–0 lead. The ensuing kickoff saw 49ers RB Adam Walker jar the ball loose from Dallas returner Kevin Williams and K Doug Brien recovered the fumble. It took seven plays before FB William Floyd plunged in from the one to make it 21–0 with 7:33 remaining in the first quarter. Dallas began its comeback on the next series. Facing third and 23 from the San Francisco 44, Aikman hit Irvin for a touchdown that cut the score to 21–7. Following a Brien field goal of 34 yards, RB Emmitt Smith capped a 63–yard drive with a four–yard run that narrowed the gap to 24–14. The crucial point in the game came seconds before the first half expired. With eight seconds remaining, Young found WR Jerry Rice for a 28–yard score, giving the 49ers a 31–14 lead heading into the locker room. The teams traded touchdowns in the second half with the 49ers holding off a strong Dallas charge in the fourth quarter. Young completed 13–of–29 passes for 155 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed for 47 yards and another score. Watters led the ground game, compiling 72 yards, while TE Brent Jones and Floyd each had three receptions. Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. paced the squad with 10 tackles, while Davis and McDonald added seven. Davis also had two interceptions and a forced fumble. CB Deion Sanders had an interception, along with five passes defensed, while DT Rhett Hall and DE Tim Harris each had two sacks.

49ers 49, Chargers 26
Super Bowl XXIX
January 29 at Joe Robbie Stadium
(Miami, FL)

QB Steve Young set a Super Bowl record with six touchdown passes and WR Jerry Rice hauled in three scoring passes for the second time in his career in the world championship game. The 49ers stars led an offensive explosion that carried the team to a 49–26 win over San Diego. San Francisco wasted little time getting on the scoreboard as it took just three plays following the game's opening kickoff to crack the Chargers end zone. Following a FB William Floyd four–yard run and an 11–yard pass from Young to WR John Taylor, Young connected with Rice streaking down the middle of the field for a 44–yard scoring strike. Following a San Diego punt, San Francisco was back in the end zone again after only three plays as Young, once again, challenged the middle of the Chargers defense, this time with a pass to RB Ricky Watters, which netted a 51–yard score. The Chargers made things close for awhile, however, putting together a 13–play, 78–yard drive that concluded with a RB Natrone Means one–yard touchdown plunge to make it 14–7 after one quarter of play. The 49ers began to break the game open in the second quarter. They followed the San Diego touchdown with a 70–yard drive that culminated with a five–yard scoring pass from Young to Floyd. Two possessions later, following a partially blocked punt by RB Adam Walker, the Niners drove 49 yards for another score on an eight–yard toss from Young to Watters. K John Carney's 31–yard field goal with less than two minutes remaining in the half closed the margin at intermission to 28–10. The Niners put the game away in the third quarter, running the lead to 42–10 on a pair of long drives that ended with Watters' third score of the evening, a nine–yard blast up the middle, and a 15–yard pass from Young to Rice. Rice caught his third touchdown of the night on a seven–yard toss from Young in the fourth quarter, enabling Young to break QB Joe Montana's record of five Super Bowl touchdown passes. Young was named the game's Most Valuable Player, while Rice turned in the second best receiving performance in Super Bowl history with 10 catches for 149 yards, while tying his own record with three scoring receptions.

Packers 27, 49ers 17
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 6 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

Aided by a swarming defense that caused four turnovers, the Green Bay Packers defeated the 49ers 27–17 at 3Com Park. A record crowd of 69,311 saw the Packers advance to the NFC Championship Game, while the 49ers one–year reign as world champions ended with an overall record of 11–6. Green Bay took its opening drive and marched to the San Francisco 26 before settling for a field goal attempt. However, K Chris Jacke's 44–yard attempt was blocked by S Tim McDonald and the 49ers took over at their 34. On the first play from scrimmage, QB Steve Young hit FB Adam Walker in the flat, but LB Wayne Simmons jarred the ball loose and CB Craig Newsome returned the fumble 31 yards for the touchdown. Green Bay also scored on its next two possessions, a three–yard pass from QB Brett Favre to TE Keith Jackson and a 13–yard toss from Favre to TE Mark Chmura. San Francisco scored its first points of the game late in the half when K Jeff Wilkins nailed a 21–yard field goal with two minutes remaining. The 49ers took their first possession of the third quarter and marched 80 yards for a touchdown, when Young plunged in from the one, cutting the deficit to 21–10. On the 14–play drive, Young was 9–of–10 and ran the ball twice. Again, the Packers responded to the challenge, using a pair of Jacke field goals (27 yards in the third quarter, 26 yards in the fourth quarter), and boosted Green Bay's lead to 27–10. San Francisco's final score of the season came on a two–yard plunge by RB Derek Loville with 50 seconds remaining in the game. Young completed 32 passes in an NFL postseason record 65 attempts, for 328 yards and two interceptions. He also led the 49ers in rushing, gaining 77 yards in nine attempts, including a 40–yard sprint after he was flushed from the pocket. WR Jerry Rice led the receivers with 11 catches for 117 yards, while TE Brent Jones gained 112 yards on eight receptions. Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield recorded a team–high 10 tackles and a sack for a loss of five yards, while LB Ken Norton Jr. added nine tackles.

49ers 14, Eagles 0
NFC Wild Card
December 29 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

On a wet and windy Sunday at 3Com Park, San Francisco opened its 1996 postseason by defeating the Philadelphia Eagles 14–0 in the NFC Wild Card Game. Led by their marquee players QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice on offense, and a defense that recorded the team's first postseason shutout since the 1984 NFC Championship Game, the 49ers advanced to the NFC Divisional Playoff round. Following a scoreless first quarter, Young led the offense on a 10–play, 74–yard drive that concluded with the Pro Bowl quarterback scoring on a gutty nine–yard run off a quarterback draw. On that play Young broke four tackles while fighting his way to paydirt. Twice in the second quarter the Eagles mounted long drives only to be denied just short of the endzone by Niners interceptions. Philadelphia's first trip ended with CB Marquez Pope intercepting a QB Ty Detmer pass on San Francisco's seven–yard line. Late in the quarter the Eagles marched 59 yards on 10 plays moving to the 49ers five–yard line. Facing third and four, Detmer's attempt to WR Chris T. Jones was picked off by DE Roy Barker, who had dropped off into zone–blitz coverage. The only scoring in the second half occurred on the Niners second possession of the third quarter. On that drive, Rice made a spectacular one–handed catch that resulted in a 36–yard gain. He scored on a three–yard pass from Young on the next play from scrimmage. Young finished as the game's leading rusher with 65 yards, while also completing 14–of–21 tosses for 161 yards. Rice had four catches for 50 yards and his 19th career postseason touchdown (17th receiving). RB Terry Kirby added 43 yards rushing. The Niners defense, which held Eagles RB Ricky Watters to 57 rushing yards, was led by LB Ken Norton Jr.'s team postseason–record 12 solo tackles. DT Bryant Young registered two sacks and LB Lee Woodall added a sack among his six total stops.

Packers 35, 49ers 14
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 4 at Lambeau Field
(Green Bay, WI)

Missed opportunities, including a total of five turnovers, spelled defeat for the San Francisco 49ers in their NFC Divisional Playoff Game with the Green Bay Packers. Played before a record Lambeau Field crowd of 60,787, the 49ers fell 35–14 in a game that featured 34–degree weather (with a wind chill of nine–degrees) and driving rain. It didn't take long for the Packers to take a lead. After forcing San Francisco to punt on its first series, WR Desmond Howard took P Tommy Thompson's punt, split the coverage down the middle of the field and raced for a 71–yard touchdown. Then, with seven minutes remaining in the opening stanza, Howard struck again. He returned a punt 46 yards to the San Francisco seven, and two plays later, QB Brett Favre threw a four–yard scoring pass to WR Andre Rison to make it 14–0. San Francisco then mounted a comeback in the second quarter. Trailing 21–0, the tide began to turn when 49ers special teams standout Curtis Buckley recovered a muffed punt at the Green Bay 26. Moments later, QB Elvis Grbac, replacing the injured QB Steve Young (ribs), hit RB Terry Kirby with an eight–yard pass, cutting the deficit to 21–7 at the half. On the opening kickoff of the third quarter, San Francisco CB Steve Israel recovered a loose ball on the Packers four, setting the stage for Grbac's scamper into the end zone. The 49ers fate was sealed, however, on the ensuing Packers drive. Marching 72 yards in 12 plays (10 of which were runs), Green Bay scored when FB Edgar Bennett fumbled before crossing the goal line; but before the 49ers defenders could react, WR Antonio Freeman fell on the loose ball, giving the hosts a 28–14 advantage. Bennett scored on an 11–yard run, and two more fumbles in the fourth quarter snuffed out any hope the 49ers had in getting back into the game. Young played the first nine plays at quarterback before giving way to Grbac late in the first quarter. Grbac completed 19–of–36 passes for 125 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions and led the team in rushing with 32 yards. Backfield mates Kirby and RB William Floyd had six receptions each, while WR Jerry Rice had a team–high 36 yards receiving. Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. posted eight tackles and LB Gary Plummer added seven. All–Pro DT Bryant Young left the game late in the first quarter because of a neck injury. He was taken to the hospital for tests, which were negative.

49ers 38, Vikings 22
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 3 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

RB Terry Kirby rushed for a career–high 120 yards and scored two touchdowns, leading the San Francisco 49ers to a 38–22 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Divisional Playoffs at 3Com Park. In addition to Kirby's heroics, QB Steve Young completed 21–of–30 passes for 224 yards and a touchdown, WR J.J. Stokes had 101 yards receiving and LB Ken Norton Jr. returned an interception 23 yards for a touchdown. San Francisco's first score came compliments of a Minnesota special teams miscue. P Mitch Berger's punt sailed off the side of his foot and into the crowd after going only 12 yards. The 49ers took over on the Vikings 26, and four plays later, FB William Floyd scored from the one and the 49ers led 7–0. Less than a minute later, the visitors tied the game on a 66–yard scoring pass from QB Randall Cunningham to WR Cris Carter. In the second quarter, the 49ers again took advantage of a poor kick by Berger — this time a punt of 29 yards — to take a 14–7 lead. Moving 61 yards in only four plays, and aided by three Minnesota penalties, Kirby scored the first of his two touchdowns on a one–yard plunge. The game–breaker occurred two plays later when the San Francisco defense flushed Cunningham out of the pocket and forced him to throw a pass over an onrushing DE Roy Barker and into the hands of Norton, who ran untouched into the end zone. In the third quarter, K Gary Anderson connected on a 34–yard field goal to build the lead to 24–7, but Cunningham and Carter hooked up again for a score, closing the gap to 24–14. On the ensuing series, the 49ers marched 75 yards in seven plays, highlighted by two Kirby runs of 22 and 14 yards. Young then hit WR Terrell Owens with one of the prettiest touchdowns of the year, as the second–year receiver shook off a defender then dove into the end zone for the score. Kirby finished the scoring in the fourth quarter with another one–yard run. CB Tyronne Drakeford had six tackles and a pair of passes defensed to pace the defense. Barker also recorded San Francisco's only sack of the game.

Packers 23, 49ers 10
NFC Championship
January 11 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

RB Dorsey Levens rushed for 114 yards and WR Antonio Freeman caught four passes for 104 yards and a touchdown to lead visiting Green Bay to a 23–10 win in the NFC Championship Game. The game was played before 68,987 under windy and rainy conditions at 3Com Park. The Packers opened the scoring late in the first quarter. After San Francisco punted on its first series, QB Brett Favre led Green Bay on a 10–play, 76–yard drive that resulted in a K Ryan Longwell 19–yard field goal. Favre completed three–of–four passes for 37 yards in the series. Green Bay continued its scoring in the second quarter. S Eugene Robinson intercepted a QB Steve Young pass and returned it 58 yards to the San Francisco 28. Two plays later, Favre threw a 27–yard scoring pass to Freeman to make the score 10–0. San Francisco then broke the drought with a scoring drive beginning with 4:23 remaining in the second quarter. Following a missed field goal by Longwell, the 49ers took possession at their own 38. A pair of Young completions for 32 yards had the Niners in Packers territory, but two holding penalties brought the ball back to the original line of scrimmage. On a key third down with 26 yards to go, Young completed a 48–yard pass to WR Terrell Owens to the Packers 10–yard line. The drive resulted in a 28–yard field goal by K Gary Anderson. Green Bay answered on its next possession. Freeman returned the kickoff 18 yards to the Packers 27. Two plays later, Favre hit Freeman for a 40–yard completion to the San Francisco 25. Longwell connected on a 43–yard field goal to make the halftime score 13–3. After a scoreless third quarter, Green Bay extended its lead to 16–3 on a 25–yard field goal by Longwell. The Packers added seven more after a five–yard touchdown run by Levens to make the score 23–3. San Francisco closed out the game by scoring on the ensuing kickoff. Chuck Levy returned Longwell's kick 95 yards for a touchdown. Levy's return was the second longest postseason return for San Francisco, trailing the 97–yard touchdown return by Vic Washington vs. Dallas in 1972. Young completed 23–of–38 passes for 250 yards and one interception. RB Terry Kirby ran for a team–high 21 yards on six carries. WR J.J. Stokes caught six passes for 87 yards, including a long of 43. Defensively, San Francisco was led by S Merton Hanks with eight tackles. LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Lee Woodall, LB Gary Plummer and S Tim McDonald had seven tackles each.

NFC Wild Card
January 3 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw three touchdown passes, including a 25–yard strike to WR Terrell Owens with three seconds remaining, as San Francisco edged Green Bay, 30–27. On a crystal clear day in the Bay Area, it was the Packers who opened the scoring on a 23–yard field goal from K Ryan Longwell midway through the first quarter. San Francisco answered with help from a big play on defense. S Merton Hanks forced a fumble by RB Dorsey Levens and the ball was recovered by DE Chris Doleman at the Green Bay 19–yard line. Three plays later Young connected with TE Greg Clark from one yard out for the touchdown and a 7–3 lead. Just four seconds into the second quarter, the Packers regained the lead on a two–yard scoring toss from QB Brett Favre to WR Antonio Freeman. San Francisco tied the score on the first of three K Wade Richey field goals, this one from 34 yards out with 6:53 remaining in the half. The Packers surged back ahead with 36 seconds remaining when Levens bowled into the end zone from two yards out to take a 17–10 halftime lead. The third quarter opened with Favre being pressured into an errant pass that was intercepted by LB Lee Woodall. Five plays later, the score was tied for a third time when Young hit Clark from eight yards out for the score. The 49ers reclaimed the lead midway through the quarter on a team postseason record and career–long 48–yard field goal from Richey. In a game that saw five lead changes and three ties, the fourth quarter became particularly dramatic. Longwell answered Richey's 48–yard kick with a 37–yard effort of his own to tie the game at 20–20 at the beginning of the fourth. On the ensuing possession, San Francisco marched 51 yards in 10 plays and capped the drive with a 40–yard field goal by Richey to reclaim the lead at 23–20. With 4:19 remaining in the game, Green Bay took over at its own 11–yard line. From there, Favre would lead his team on a nine–play, 89–yard scoring drive. The drive was capped when Favre hit Freeman from 15 yards out for the touchdown and a 27–23 lead with 1:56 remaining in the game. The Packers touchdown set up one of the most memorable sequences in 49ers history. San Francisco took possession at its own 24–yard line with 1:50 remaining and three timeouts to its credit. On the final play, Young dropped back, stumbled and threw a 25–yard touchdown strike to Owens who was sandwiched in the end zone by S Pat Terrell and S Darren Sharper.

Falcons 20, 49ers 18
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 9 at Georgia Dome
(Atlanta, GA)

With San Francisco's NFL–leading run game a mere shell of itself, the Atlanta Falcons forced three turnovers and held off the 49ers, 20–18, in the NFC Divisional Playoff at the Georgia Dome. San Francisco's hope of controlling the game on the ground came to a screeching halt on the first play of the game when RB Garrison Hearst fractured the tibia in his left leg on an inside run that had gained seven yards. With Hearst out and RB Terry Kirby hobbled with a bruised leg, the 49ers managed just 46 yards on the ground. Atlanta's rushing attack flourished in the first half thanks to the power running of RB Jamal Anderson, who scored on a two–yard run in the first quarter to give the Falcons a 7–0 lead. Atlanta increased its lead to 14–0 when Anderson finished off a 34–yard run with a spread eagle dive into the end zone with 3:12 left in the second quarter. The touchdown run capped a seven–play, 82–yard drive. San Francisco snatched the momentum from the Falcons by putting together a pair of scoring drives just before the half. The 49ers answered Atlanta's second touchdown march with a nine–play, 80–yard drive that concluded with the familiar end zone combination of QB Steve Young to WR Jerry Rice from 17 yards out. It was Rice's 20th career postseason touchdown. With just under one minute to play in the first half, DE Charles Haley chased QB Chris Chandler and deflected his pass into the waiting arms of DT Junior Bryant, who returned it four yards to the Atlanta 36–yard line. K Wade Richey made it a 14–10 game at the half with a 36–yard field goal as time expired. The 49ers carried that momentum into the third quarter, nearly tripling Atlanta's offensive output in the second half (187 yards to 68). But turnovers did not allow them to complete the comeback. The Falcons thwarted two drives with a pair of interceptions, including one by S Eugene Robinson that was returned 77 yards to set up a K Morten Andersen 29–yard field goal. Leading 17–10, Andersen added another 32–yard field goal to give the Falcons a 10–point edge with 10:33 remaining. San Francisco responded to Atlanta's three pointer with a 13–play, 87–yard drive that Young finished himself with an eight–yard touchdown run. A two–point pass from QB Ty Detmer to TE Greg Clark made it 20–18 with 2:57 left. After Atlanta used up 2:19 of the clock, the 49ers got the ball back at their own four–yard line but were only able to move to the 26 before Young's hail mary attempt was intercepted as time expired. After rushing for 83 yards on 13 carries in the first half, Anderson was limited to 30 yards on 16 carries in the second half by San Francisco's defense. LB Winfred Tubbs made a game–high 10 tackles, while DE Chris Doleman made six stops and one sack.

Packers 25, 49ers 15
NFC Wild Card
January 13 at Lambeau Field
(Green Bay, WI)

In their first postseason appearance since 1998, the 49ers dropped a hard–fought 25–15 decision to the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Wild Card Game at Lambeau Field. With a game–time temperature of 28 degrees, the 49ers won the opening coin toss and elected to receive. The two teams traded punts until Green Bay marched 40 yards in seven plays to score the first points of the game when QB Brett Favre hooked up with WR Antonio Freeman on a five–yard touchdown pass. DT Dana Stubblefield blocked the extra point to keep the score 6–0. After another 49ers punt, the Packers began their third possession of the game from their own 19–yard line. On the second play from scrimmage, Favre was intercepted by CB Ahmed Plummer, who returned it to the Green Bay 22. San Francisco K Jose Cortez had his 34–yard field goal attempt blocked and the score remained 6–0. After the Packers were forced to punt, San Francisco took possession at its own 14 with 7:06 remaining in the half. QB Jeff Garcia went 6–of–9 for 61 yards and RB Garrison Hearst had a two–yard touchdown plunge with 15 seconds remaining in the half, to cap off a 15–play, 86–yard drive. After a Cortez extra point, the 49ers went in with a 7–6 halftime lead. On their first possession of the second half, the Packers moved the ball down to the San Francisco eight–yard line where K Ryan Longwell nailed a 26–yard field goal for the 9–7 lead. After the 49ers couldn't get anything going on offense, they punted back to Green Bay. It took only four plays for the Packers to take advantage with a 19–yard touchdown pass from Favre to TE Bubba Franks. The two–point conversion failed and the score remained 15–7. Two series later, the 49ers marched 61 yards in six plays, culminating with Garcia hitting WR Tai Streets on a 14–yard touchdown strike and again on the two–point conversion to tie the score at 15. The Packers answered on their next possession with a 10–play, 45–yard drive as Longwell connected on a 45–yard field goal to push the score to 18–15. With 5:03 remaining in the game, the 49ers had moved the ball down to the Green Bay 41, when Garcia's pass intended for WR Terrell Owens was tipped by CB Mike McKenzie into the hands of CB Tyrone Williams at the Green Bay seven–yard line. Favre led the Packers on an eight–play, 93–yard drive ending with an RB Ahman Green nine–yard touchdown run and the 25–15 lead. RB Paul Smith took the ensuing kickoff on the 13–yard line and ran it back 16 yards before being hit by WR Cory Bradford and fumbling. The Packers recovered the fumble and ran out the clock for the 25–15 victory.

49ers 39, Giants 38
NFC Wild Card
January 5 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

Buried in a 24–point playoff hole, the 49ers exploded to record the second largest comeback in postseason history with a dramatic 39–38 victory over the New York Giants in the NFC Wild Card Game. The 49ers trailed 38–14 with four minutes left in the third quarter, but scored 25 straight points on two touchdown passes and a scoring run by QB Jeff Garcia, as well as two, two–point conversion catches by WR Terrell Owens. The game ended just as exciting. After Garcia drove his team 68 yards in just over two minutes for the winning score, QB Kerry Collins got New York to the San Francisco 28 with six seconds left. LS Trey Junkin, signed earlier in the week, made a low snap that P Matt Allen couldn't handle. Allen then threw a desperate pass that fell incomplete. The 49ers rally was the biggest in NFC playoff history. Garcia finished the day 27–of–44 for 331 yards and three touchdowns. He rushed for 60 yards, including a 14–yard score on the first play of the fourth quarter. Two of Garcia's touchdown throws went to Owens, who had nine catches for 177 yards. Collins was 29–of–43 for 342 yards and four touchdowns, and expertly guided New York to a lead that seemed insurmountable. WR Amani Toomer caught eight passes for 136 yards and three touchdowns and RB Tiki Barber added 115 yards rushing and 62 yards receiving. San Francisco rallied with purpose and poise. Owens caught a 26–yard touchdown pass late in the third quarter to start the rally and made big catches on every drive—right up to the final minutes, when Garcia found WR Tai Streets for the winning score. After Owens caught a 26–yard touchdown pass and a two–point conversion with 2:03 left in the third, Garcia rushed for a 14–yard score and threw another conversion pass to Owens five seconds into the fourth quarter. K Jeff Chandler added a 25–yard field goal with 7:49 left. Collins responded and drove New York 38 yards, but Bryant – kicking out of a poor hold thanks to a poor snap by Junkin—missed a 42–yard field goal with 3:01 left. Garcia took over, converting two straight third downs for the NFL leaders in that category. TE Eric Johnson caught a 25–yard pass to the New York 25 and Garcia scrambled 12 yards to set up his winning pass to Streets.

NFC Divisional Playoff
January 12 at Raymond James Stadium
(Tampa, FL)

San Francisco's Super Bowl hopes ended with a 31–6 loss against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game on the road at Raymond James Stadium. The 49ers trailed 28–6 heading into halftime and although the defense held Tampa Bay to only three points in the second half, San Francisco was held scoreless en route to the Buccaneers victory. Tampa Bay started the scoring with a two–yard touchdown run by FB Mike Alstott on a 12–play, 74–yard drive. San Francisco answered with a 12–play, 63–yard drive capped by a 24–yard field goal by K Jeff Chandler. The highlight of the drive was a 30–yard pitch and catch by WR Tai Streets from QB Jeff Garcia. Tampa Bay exploded for 21 points in the second quarter, highlighted by two touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson. Johnson connected on a 20–yard pass to WR Joe Jurevicius and a 12–yard pass to TE Rickey Dudley. In between the two scores, Chandler kicked his second field goal of the game for San Francisco, this time from 40 yards out. Alstott added another two–yard touchdown run to end the first half and K Martin Gramatica added a 19–yard field goal to close the scoring for both teams. LB Derek Smith led San Francisco with a game–high 14 tackles. LB Julian Peterson and LB Jeff Ulbrich added 11 tackles apiece. CB Rashad Holman led a banged up secondary with one interception. The unit was minus starting CB Jason Webster, who was inactive with an ankle injury. CB Ahmed Plummer left the game when he separated his right shoulder and did not return. FS Zack Bronson left the game in the third quarter when he aggravated his broken foot and SS Tony Parrish played the contest with a dislocated elbow. LB Shelton Quarles led Tampa Bay with nine tackles and Defensive Player–of–the–Year Derrick Brooks added seven tackles and one interception.

49ers 36, Saints 32
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 14 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

A 14–yd. TD pass from Alex Smith to TE Vernon Davis with 0:09 left in the game capped off one of the most memorable games in postseason history, as the 49ers defeated the New Orleans Saints, 36–32. Powered by Smith, who threw for 299 yds., three TDs and added another one on the ground, the 49ers triumphed in its first playoff game in nine years, moving within one win of the Super Bowl. The Niners scored on their second drive of the game, on a 49–yd. TD pass from Smith to Davis. On the Saints next drive, QB Drew Brees committed his first postseason INT in five years, thanks to S Dashon Goldson, giving San Francisco the football deep in New Orleans' territory. Scoring on a TD pass to WR Michael Crabtree, Smith took advantage of the costly turnover, making the score 14–0. On the ensuing kickoff return, S Madieu Williams stripped the ball away from Saints WR Courtney Roby and the loose ball was recovered by LB Blake Costanzo. The takeaway led to a 25–yd. FG by K David Akers. The Saints answered, scoring two TDs before half time, on a 14–yd. pass to TE Jimmy Graham and a 25–yd. pass to WR Marques Colston, making the score 17–14 at the half. San Francisco scored the only points of the 3rd qtr. on a 41–yd. FG by David Akers. The 4th qtr. started out with each team trading FGs. Then would come the four lead changes in the last five minutes of the game. New Orleans struck first on a 44–yd. TD pass to RB Darren Sproles, with 4:02 left on the clock. With the 49ers trailing 24–23, down for the first time in the entire game, Smith scored on a 28–yd. rushing TD. A missed two–point conversion put the 49ers up 29–24 with just 2:11 remaining. Brees took the lead back on a 66–yd. score to TE Jimmy Graham with 1:37 left. RB Darren Sproles then made a catch out of the backfield for the two–point conversion to give the Saints a 32–29 advantage. Facing elimination, Smith connected with Davis twice on their final drive, with the last throw jetting through double coverage for a game–winning 14–yd. TD.

Giants 20, 49ers 17 (OT)
NFC Championship
January 22 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

When asked what his message was to his players after falling short to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship game, Harbaugh stated, "As Sir Andrew Barton said, `Fight on my men, we're hurt but not slain. We'll lay down and bleed a while. Then we'll rise and fight again.'" Harbaugh, of course was referring to his team's blue–collar mentality after the Giants escaped rain–soaked Candlestick Park with a 20–17 overtime victory. Harbaugh got the Niners to the brink of the Super Bowl in his rookie year, taking over a 6–10 team and going 13–3 to win the NFC West. The extra minutes at Candlestick Park went in favor of the opponent in a year where most didn't expect a storybook season. The 49ers defense played stoically, recording six sacks on Giants QB Eli Manning, which ranked t–2nd for the most sacks in a postseason game in franchise history (6 – four times, last vs. Den. – 1/29/90). TE Vernon Davis gave the 49ers a 7–0 lead with 7:11 remaining in the 1st qtr. after running a pattern down the right sideline and outracing the secondary for a 73–yd. TD recept. from QB Alex Smith. On their ensuing drive, the Giants drove from their own 31 to the San Francisco 34–yd. line. On 3rd–and–1, Manning and the Giants failed to get a first down despite two opportunities. The Giants eventually evened the score on a 10–play, 69–yd. drive when TE Bear Pascoe caught Manning's short pass at the 6–yd. line and stepped into the end zone for the TD. The Giants added a FG with two seconds remaining in the 2nd qtr. to give them a 10–7 edge going into the locker room. Davis' second TD of the game, gave the lead back to the Niners at 14–10 with 5:18 remaining in the 3rd qtr. San Francisco's 3–play, 54–yd. TD drive was set up by a short pass to RB Frank Gore, who turned it into a 24–yd. gain. On the next play, Davis went in motion from right to left and caught a lofted pass to the end zone by Smith. The Giants took the lead back after the ball inadvertently glanced off WR Kyle Williams on a punt, giving the ball back to the Giants on their 29 yard line. Manning connected a 17–yard pass to WR Mario Manningham to give the Giants a 17–14 lead with 8:41 remaining. Williams' 40–yd. return on the ensuing kickoff enabled the 49ers to start their next possession at their own 45. On consecutive plays, Smith scrambled for 17 yds. and RB Kendall Hunter ran for 18 more, resulting in a K David Akers game–tying FG with 5:39 to go, 17–17. After both teams went 3–and–out on their first overtime possession, a Giants takeaway on a Williams fumble, forced by LB Jacquian Williams on a punt return, gave the Giants possession at their own 36 with 9:32 remaining. After converting one first down, K Lawrence Tynes sent the season–ending 31–yd. FG through the uprights.

49ers 45, Packers 31
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 12 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

With the win against the Green Bay Packers, the San Francisco 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the second year in a row, marking the first time San Francisco has reached the NFC Championship Game in consecutive seasons since 1992–94. The Packers got off to a quick start after QB Colin Kaepernick threw an INT on just the fourth play of the game that was returned for a TD by Packers CB Sam Shields. Kaepernick responded immediately like he had all season and turned in one of the best performances by a 49ers QB in franchise history. Kaepernick led the offense on an 8–play, 80–yd. drive that he capped off with a 20–yd. TD run to tie the score at 7 apiece early in the 1st qtr. The team converted on two 3rd and longs on the drive, setting the tone for the day by finishing 8 of 13 on 3rd down (62%). With 11:52 remaining in the 2nd qtr., Green Bay WR Jeremy Ross muffed a punt that was recovered by S C.J. Spillman at the Packers 9–yd. line. The takeaway led to a 12–yd. TD pass from Kaepernick to WR Michael Crabtree just three plays later. On the ensuing Green Bay possession, CB Tarell Brown picked off QB Aaron Rodgers pass and returned his 2nd career postseason INT. The Kaepernick to Crabtree connection continued to be successful as they connected for a 20–yd. TD strike, making the score 21–14. Crabtree led the team with 9 recepts. for 119 yds. and 2 TDs on the day. On the third play of San Francisco's second possession of the 3rd qtr., Kaepernick kept the ball on a zone read around the right side and dashed 56–yds. to the end zone for his 2nd rushing TD of the game. The 56–yd. TD run marked the longest run by a QB in franchise postseason history and the 3rd longest overall. Kaepernick also set the NFL single–game record for a QB with 181 rushing yds. on 16 carries. RB Frank Gore finished off the following drive on the first play of the 4th qtr., punching it in from 2 yds. out, stretching the 49ers lead to 38–24. Gore notched his first career 100–yd. game in the postseason, rushing for 119 yds. on 23 carries. The 49ers became the first team in NFL history to ever have two, 100–yd. rushers [QB Colin Kaepernick (181 yds. rushing), RB Frank Gore (119 yds. rushing)] and one, 100–yd. receiver [WR Michael Crabtree (119 yds. receiving)] in a playoff game. RB Anthony Dixon found the end zone on a 2–yd. TD run to finish off the 11–play, 93–yd. drive to make the score 45–24. San Francisco rushed for 323 yds. on the night, setting the franchise single–game postseason rushing record.

49ers 28, Falcons 24
NFC Championship
January 20 at Georgia Dome
(Atlanta, GA)

The 49ers started slow, spotting Atlanta a 17–0 lead after the Falcons scored on their first three possessions. On San Francisco's third possession the 49ers offense began to click. TE Vernon Davis hauled in a pinpoint pass from QB Colin Kaepernick for 27 yds. down to the Atlanta 15–yd. line. Davis had 3, 25+ yd. recepts. in the game, giving him 9 in 4 postseason games, which ranks 2nd in 49ers postseason history, trailing only WR Jerry Rice (14, 25+ yd. recepts. in 23 games). Two plays following Davis' catch, the 49ers got on the scoreboard with a 15–yd. TD run by RB LaMichael James. It was James' first–career TD. The 49ers next possession began on their own 18–yd. line with 6:24 remaining in the 2nd qtr. Vernon Davis stepped up once again, accounting for 48–yds. on 3 recepts., including a 4–yd. TD catch to finish the drive and pull the 49ers within 3, as the score read 14–17 at the 2–minute warning. Davis' 5 career postseason TDs rank t–4th in franchise history. With the Falcons scoring right before the half, it was important the 49ers came out of halftime with an answer, and answer they did. Kaepernick marched the 49ers offense right down the field, driving 82 yds. on 7 plays capped off on a 5–yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore to make the score 21–24 with 10:51 remaining in the 3rd qtr. The San Francisco defense also had answers, forcing turnovers on the Falcons first two possessions of the 2nd half. CB Chris Culliver picked–off QB Matt Ryan and LB Aldon Smith recovered a muffed snap to stymie the Falcons offense during the 3rd qtr. With 11:59 left in the 4th qtr. WR Ted Ginn returned a Matt Bosher punt 20 yds. to the Atlanta 38–yd. line, giving the 49ers offense good starting field position. San Francisco's physical offensive line began to take over and wear down the Atlanta defense, opening big holes for Gore, James and RB Anthony Dixon as they gained all but 8 yds. on the go–ahead drive. Gore registered his 2nd TD run of the game on a 9–yd. burst to the end zone to give San Francisco the lead 28–24 with 8:27 remaining in the game. The Falcons took over after the Gore TD and sustained a 14–play drive down to the 49ers 10–yd. line. On the 14th play of the drive, the Falcons faced a 4th and 4 with 1:13 remaining. WR Roddy White was unable to hang onto the ball due to LB NaVorro Bowman's blanketing defense. The Falcons got the ball back following an Andy Lee punt and had one last shot with :06 ticks left on the clock, but CB Perrish Cox tackled WR Julio Jones at San Francisco's 35–yd. line before he could attempt a lateral as the clock struck :00. The 17–point comeback led by Kaepernick was the 2nd largest deficit overcome to win a conference championship (2006 – Indianapolis trailed New England by 18 points).

Ravens 34, 49ers 31
Super Bowl XLVII
February 3 at Superdome
(New Orleans, LA)

The San Francisco 49ers and the Baltimore Ravens squared off in one of the most extraordinary Super Bowls where two brothers squared off as head coaches. The 49ers found themselves facing an early deficit, which would eventually be too much to overcome. Early in the 1st qtr., San Francisco answered a Ravens TD drive with a scoring drive of their own as QB Colin Kaepernick engineered a 12–play 62–yd. drive that was finished off by K David Akers' 36–yd. FG, making the score 7–3. After 2 more TD passes by QB Joe Flacco, the 49ers found themselves in a 21–3 hole with 1:45 left in the 2nd qtr. Kaepernick showed poise and led the 2–minute drill efficiently by completing 4 of 5 pass atts. for 56 yds. to move the 49ers into FG position. Akers added 3 more points with a 27–yd. FG as time expired in the half with San Francisco trailing Baltimore 21–6. The 49ers and Chargers played to a scoreless tie in the first half. The defensive struggle continued into the second half and the score remained 0–0 at the end of the third quarter. On San Diego's first possession of the fourth quarter, Dan Fouts guided them on a 16–play, 80–yard scoring drive, capped by a Bo Matthews two–yard touchdown run. San Francisco answered on its next possession with a 64–yard scoring drive. Paul Hofer caught an eight–yard touchdown pass from Scott Bull to make the score 7–6. The extra point was blocked, but the Chargers Tom Graham was flagged for offsides. After the penalty was marked off, Steve Mike–Mayer connected to tie the game at seven with just over a minute left in regulation. San Diego won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Chargers began their first possession on their own seven–yard line where Fouts guided them on a nine–play, 93–yard drive, which was capped by a Mercury Morris 13–yard touchdown run for the 13–7 win.

San Francisco 10, New Orleans 7

The 49ers got their first ever overtime victory at New Orleans. The Saints got on the board early in the first quarter on an eight–yard run by Tony Galbreath. The Saints appeared to grab a commanding lead at the end of the first half when Richard Mauti returned a Tom Wittum punt 65 yards for a touchdown 10 seconds before halftime. But a New Orleans clipping penalty nullified the score. The 49ers tied it up in the third quarter with a five–yard romp by Delvin Williams. Neither team would score again in regulation and the game went to overtime knotted at seven. The Saints won the overtime coin toss, but were unable to move the ball, giving it back to the 49ers. San Francisco started from its own 41–yard line and moved the ball down to the Saints 16, where Ray Wersching connected on a 33–yard game–winning field goal.

San Francisco visited Atlanta for a battle with the division rival Falcons and took an early 7–0 lead on a Roger Craig one–yard romp. The Falcons responded with a punishing 17–play, 44–yard drive that resulted in a 47–yard field goal by Mick Luckhurst. San Francisco maintained its lead in the second quarter with a 53–yard, 13–play drive, which led to a 24–yard Ray Wersching field goal and a 10–3 lead. The Broncos answered early in the second with a 27–yard field goal by Rich Karlis to knot the game at three. Turnovers and an ill–timed penalty marred the 49ers first overtime game in four years. The Philadelphia Eagles struck early and often, first on a 34–yard Roger Ruzek field goal five minutes into the game. On San Francisco's first possession, Steve Young was hit and fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Byron Evans who returned it 30 yards for a touchdown and a 10–0 lead. With Bubby Brister at the helm, the Eagles drove 76 yards in the opening minutes of the second quarter and connected with Calvin Williams for a 13–yard touchdown to push the lead to 17–3. Brister again guided Philadelphia to an eight–play, 64–yard touchdown scoring drive to take a commanding 21–point lead. The 49ers end zone drought ended with just less than two minutes remaining in the half when Young hit Jerry Rice for a three–yard touchdown that brought the score to 24–10 at halftime. San Francisco started the second half with a 60–yard kickoff return by Dexter Carter to give the 49ers the ball on Philadelphia's 38–yard line. Capping off a punishing 38–yard, nine–play drive, Ricky Watters ran 11 yards for the score. After a Philadelphia punt, John Taylor caught a 38–yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 24. Philadelphia took advantage of a Young injury by intercepting a Steve Bono pass. The Eagles worked quickly, moving 69 yards in just two plays to take a 31–24 lead. San Francisco gave Philadelphia good field position again with a fumble on its own 40, allowing the Eagles to increase their lead to 10 with a Ruzek 32–yard field goal in the third quarter. Set up by a Don Griffin interception, Bono drove the 49ers 42 yards and scored on a one–yard keeper that closed the gap to 34–31. After a Philadelphia punt, the Niners drove down and tied the game on a Cofer 29–yard field goal with 15 seconds left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive, but failed to score on two overtime possessions. On Philadelphia's second possession of overtime, they drove to San Francisco's 20–yard line. With four seconds showing on the clock, the Eagles set up for a 38–yard field goal. In their fourth overtime game of the season, setting a new team record, the 49ers pulled out an exciting 25–22 victory over the Carolina Panthers. The game was a see–saw battle with each team going back and forth until the fourth quarter. The Panthers went ahead late in the fourth quarter after a Jeff Garcia interception. In another division battle, the 49ers had their second overtime game of the season, this time at Arizona. The field goal kicking was the story of this game as the 49ers missed both field goal attempts and made only 1–of–2 PATs and the Cardinals made only 3–of–6 field goal attempts. The Cardinals had the lead 13–6 in the fourth quarter when the 49ers tied the game on one of the most improbable touchdowns in team history. Jeff Garcia fumbled at the one–yard line and the ball was recovered by offensive lineman Kwame Harris, who scored his first career touchdown. The game was tied at 13 with 2:25 left to play. The Cardinals had another shot to get into scoring position, but were forced to punt and gave the 49ers one more shot for the victory with almost six minutes remaining in regulation. San Fran–cisco then launched a drive that put the offense at the Arizona 16–yard line. But Owen Pochman missed the potential game–winning field goal, his second missed field goal of the day, this time from 35 yards out. This breathed new life into Arizona, who drove down to the San Francisco 32–yard line. The two teams traded points back and forth heading into the final quarter. The 49ers kicked a 25–yard field goal on the first play of the fourth quarter to cut Philadelphia's lead to 21–20. On San Francisco's next possession, Kevan Barlow ran for 26 of his career–high 154 total yards and scored from one–yard out to give the 49ers a 26–21 lead. The two–point conversion attempt was successful and the 49ers had a seven–point lead with five minutes remaining in the game. The Eagles answered with a 10–play drive, adding seven points to tie the game on a Todd Pinkston touchdown grab with a little over a minute remaining in regulation. Philadelphia won the overtime coin toss and started its drive at its own 21–yard line. On the first play in the extra period, Tony Parrish, who notched an interception on the game's first drive, intercepted an–other pass and ran it back to the Eagles four–yard line. Todd Peterson then came out and nailed the 22–yard game–winning field goal.

QB Tim Rattay joined an elite group of quarterbacks who have led the 49ers to come from behind victo–ries in a 31–28 overtime victory against the visiting Arizona Cardinals at Monster Park. Rattay coolly di–rected two late fourth–quarter scoring drives that sent the game into overtime after trailing by 16 points with 8:19 remaining. In overtime, Rattay again led the team downfield and buoyed by a roughing the passer penalty, put them into scoring position where K Todd Peterson banged home the game–winning 32–yard field goal. Rattay finished the game with a career–high 417 yards passing and a quarterback rating of 99.8. He was an impressive 14 of 20 for 115 yards and two touchdowns in the fourth quarter. He also broke QB Joe Montana's team record by completing 38 passes. Montana held the previous mark of 37. Rattay's favorite target on the day was TE Eric Johnson who hauled in a career–high 13 receptions for 162 yards and one touchdown. Johnson caught a six–yard touchdown from Rattay with 4:35 remaining in the game that pulled the 49ers within 10 points. Rattay ran in the two–point conver–sion and suddenly the 49ers were within eight points. Now they needed a stop and the defense was up to the task, forcing a Cardinals punt. Taking over at the 49ers 28–yard line, Rattay started off with a nine–yard pass to WR Curtis Conway, then scampered 15 more yards before hitting Conway on a 14–yard pass to get the 49ers to the Cardinals 23. From there Rattay found WR Brandon Lloyd in the corner of the end zone and the 49ers were within two points. Lloyd then slipped in front of the defender and caught Rattay's two–point offering sending the game into overtime. The 49ers won the overtime coin toss and never relinquished the ball. A roughing the passer penalty on Arizona's DT Darnell Dockett helped the 49ers cause and Rat–tay took advantage as he quickly moved the team into scoring position where Peterson knocked home the game–winner.

First–year RB Maurice Hicks earned the game ball after an inspiring 139–yard performance on 34 attempts. He and QB Ken Dorsey carried the 49ers to their sec–ond victory of the season, a 31–28 overtime victory in Arizona. San Francisco did have to work for the win, despite taking a 28–3 lead in the third quarter. The Cardinals staged a furious rally and almost answered the 49ers overtime win earlier in the season at Mon–ster Park. But some key plays from the defense and the legs of Hicks proved the difference of the day. Hicks, making his first career NFL start, had four carries for 42 yards in overtime including a significant 17–yard gain that set–up K Todd Peterson's game–winning field goal. Facing 2nd and 3 from the Cardinals 30–yard line, Hicks took the handoff from Dorsey, cut off the tackle to his right and raced downfield before he was knocked out of bounds at the 13. Dorsey finished the game completing 18 of 34 passes for 191 yards and three scores for a passer rating of 99.0. Starting for the injured QB Tim Rattay, Dorsey threw his first career touchdown to WR Brandon Lloyd for the first score of the day. He then connected twice with WR Cedrick Wil–son for scores as Wilson led the receiving efforts with five receptions for 83 yards and two scores, including a 19–yard catch to keep the 49ers game–winning drive alive. Dorsey was sacked just once in his 34 passing attempts behind an offensive line that played its best game of the year.

San Francisco 20, Houston 17

The San Francisco 49ers rallied from a 10–0 first quarter deficit for a 20–17 overtime victory over the Houston Texans to close out the 2005 campaign with two consecutive wins for a 4–12 record. The 49ers dominated the line of scrimmage, gaining 182 yards on the ground and controlling the clock for 44:03. The 49ers used a combination of RB Frank Gore (108 yards) and RB Maurice Hicks (64 yards) to take control on the ground. S Mike Adams was the star of the game on defense after finishing with two interceptions, one that was returned for a touchdown and the other that led to the game–winning field goal in overtime. QB Alex Smith helped lead the 49ers to a touchdown at the end of the first half by converting a key third–and–13 situation with a 14–yard strike to WR Brandon Lloyd and then three plays later threw his first NFL touchdown pass when he rolled to his right and found Lloyd in the back of the end zone for a 14–yard score. The 49ers took the second half kick and went on a 14–play, 56–yard drive that ended with a 42–yard field goal by Nedney to tie the game at 10–10. Houston responded when Banks fired a 31–yard pass to WR Corey Bradford to get into San Francisco territory followed by a 25–yard touchdown pass to Bradford to retake the lead at 17–10. Adams, who made his first NFL start at cornerback, intercepted QB Tony Banks at the end of the third quarter and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown to tie the game at 17–17. Then in overtime, Banks went deep but Adams intercepted the pass and alertly lateraled to S Ben Emanuel, who ran 35 yards to the Houston 21–yard line. After two short runs, PK Joe Nedney nailed a 33–yard field goal to give the 49ers the 20–17 victory.

San Francisco 26, Denver 23

The San Francisco 49ers overcame a 13–0 deficit to pull out a 26–23 win over the Denver Broncos at Invesco Field at Mile High. The 49ers played the role of spoilers when the victory knocked the Broncos out of the playoffs. The 49ers come–from–behind win was led by three outstanding individual efforts: RB Frank Gore gained 153 rushing yards, PK Joe Nedney kicked four field goals along with the game winner in overtime, and CB Walt Harris snagged two interceptions, including a 28–yard touchdown return in the third quarter. WR Bryan Gilmore had two key plays in overtime to advance the 49ers into field goal range for the game winning kick. During the first half, strong 49ers goal–line defense helped limit Denver to a pair of field goals on drives that were stopped when the Broncos were in first–and–goal situations. The 49ers defense again held Denver to a field goal in the third quarter when the Broncos had a first–and–goal inside the five–yard line. Denver went ahead 13–0 in the second quarter when CB Champ Bailey took a deflected theft 70 yards into the end zone. Nedney booted a 46–yard field goal to put the score at 13–3 in Denver's favor at the end of the half. San Francisco rallied in the second half, converting its first series into a 12–play, 76–yard touchdown drive. FB Moran Norris caught a short pass from Smith and weaved in and out of traffic for a 32–yard touchdown. The 49ers took the lead on the ensuing drive when Harris picked off QB Jay Cutler and went 28 yards untouched for a touchdown that gave the 49ers a 17–13 lead. Denver responded with a field goal on the next series, but the 49ers added two field goals in the fourth quarter for a 23–16 advantage with 6:14 to play in regulation. Cutler completed a nine–yard touchdown pass to TE Tony Scheffler to tie the game at 23–23 and send it into overtime. Denver won the coin toss, but was forced to punt on two drives before a 12–yard return by PR Brandon Williams allowed the 49ers to start their game–winning drive at their own 39–yard line. Gilmore gained 20 yards on an end route and then caught a 14–yard pass from QB Alex Smith for a first down at the Denver 25–yard line. Two plays later, Nedney kicked a 36–yard field goal to give San Francisco the win.

San Francisco 37, Arizona 31

The San Francisco 49ers completed a series sweep of the Arizona Cardinals with a 37–31 overtime victory to snap an eight–game losing streak at the University of Phoenix Stadium. DE Ron Fields forced QB Kurt Warner to fumble on a sack in the end zone, and LB Tully Banta–Cain recovered the ball for a touchdown in overtime to seal the win. The play was set up after PK Neil Rackers missed a 32–yard field goal in overtime. Rackers was successful on a field goal from the San Francisco nine–yard line, but the Cardinals were penalized for a delay of game penalty, moving the ball back to the 14–yard line where Rackers was wide to the left. A 59–yard punt by P Andy Lee followed by an Arizona penalty forced the Cardinals to begin their next drive at the three–yard line, setting up the 49ers defensive touchdown to get the win. RB Frank Gore went over the 100–yard mark for the first time in 2007, finishing with 116 yards and two touchdowns, including a 35–yard touchdown run with 1:25 to play to give the 49ers a 31–28 lead. Warner completed five passes on the ensuing drive to get Arizona to the one–yard line with six seconds to play. CB Donald Strickland broke up a pass in the end zone to force Arizona to settle for a 19–yard field goal as time expired in regulation. In overtime, Warner completed a short pass to WR Sean Morey, who raced down the sidelines for a 62–yard gain before LP Patrick Willis caught up with him to make a game–saving tackle at the 14–yard line. That set up Rackers game–winning field goal attempt. The 49ers had three first half turnovers with two CB Walt Harris interceptions and a strip by CB Nate Clements to lead to 14 points. San Francisco had a 17–7 lead and appeared to be in position to take a 17–14 halftime lead after Harris' second interception gave the 49ers a first down at their own 41–yard line. QB Trent Dilfer moved the team inside Arizona territory to the 37–yard line with 11 seconds to go to set up a field goal attempt. PK Joe Nedney attempted a 55–yard field goal that went wide, leaving six seconds on the board for the Cardinals. Warner completed a short pass to the sideline and then with two seconds left completed a 48–yard Hail Mary pass to WR Larry Fitzgerald for a touchdown and a 21–17 halftime lead. A 57–yard touchdown pass from Dilfer to WR Arnaz Battle in the third quarter pushed the 49ers back in front, 24–21, heading into the final quarter. Cardinals backup QB Tim Rattay completed a two–yard touchdown on a fourth–down play midway in the fourth quarter to take a 28–24 lead. Gore's 35–yard touchdown with 1:25 recaptured the lead for San Francisco, but Rackers last second field goal sent the game to overtime.

San Francisco 33, Seattle 30

The San Francisco 49ers overcame a 14–point first quarter deficit to win 33–30 in overtime after PK Joe Nedney nailed a 40–yard game–winning field goal. After closing the gap to 20–13 at halftime, the 49ers intercepted Seattle on the first two drives of the second quarter, including one that was returned for a touchdown. On the first series of the second half, CB Walt Harris tipped a QB Matt Hasselbeck pass that was picked off and returned 86 yards for a touchdown by LB Patrick Willis to tie the game at 20–20. On the next series, DE Ray McDonald tipped a pass that was intercepted by Harris at the Seattle 41–yard line to help set up the go–ahead touchdown. QB J.T. O'Sullivan completed back–to–back passes to WR Bryant Johnson to move the 49ers to the 22–yard line to help get into position for a two–yard touchdown run by RB Frank Gore to lift the 49ers in front, 27–20. Seattle responded with a 15–play, 74–yard drive that ended in a touchdown to tie the game at 27–27. After both teams exchanged field goals to get the score tied at 30–30, the 49ers forced Seattle to punt from its own 12–yard line and the 49ers began a drive at the Seattle 49–yard line with 1:09 to play in regulation. The team moved to the 23–yard line with three seconds to play to set up a game–winning field goal attempt. Nedney's 41–yard attempt sailed wide to the right to send the game to overtime. The 49ers won the toss and elected to receive. O'Sullivan completed a 33–yard pass to WR Isaac Bruce on third–and–seven and a five–yard pass to WR Arnaz Battle on a third–and–two situation to push the 49ers to the 23–yard line where Nedney connected on a 40–yard field goal to give San Francisco the win. O'Sullivan registered his first 300–yard game, finishing 20–of–32 for 321 yards with one touchdown. Bruce had his first 100–yard game as a member of the 49ers with 153 yards on four catches, including a 63–yard catch in the second quarter to help get the 49ers in position for O'Sullivan's three–yard touchdown pass to Johnson. Seattle jumped to a 14–0 first quarter after taking advantage of two miscues by the 49ers. LB Manny Lawson blocked a Seattle punt early in the game, however Seattle recovered the loose ball and converted it into a first down inside San Francisco territory on a drive that ended with a Seattle touchdown. On the next series, Seattle forced Gore to fumble deep in Seahawks territory on a play that resulted in a 10–yard touchdown return by DT Craig Terrill.

San Francisco 23, St. Louis 20

The San Francisco 49ers Week 10 matchup would be a battle between NFC West foes as they hosted the division leading St. Louis Rams at Candlestick Park. With the chance to get back into the hunt for the NFC West and compile back–to–back wins for the first time this season, the 49ers would take a big step and put the game in the hands of former Heisman Trophy winner QB Troy Smith. Along with late game heroics that came down to the first overtime contest for the 49ers this season, the game proved to be a classic NFC West shootout. The Rams would also rely on a former Heisman Trophy winner in QB Sam Bradford to come in and test the 49ers at home. With two quarterbacks of storied pasts, the game turned out to be an offensive showcase as both teams would throw for a combined 607 yds., as well as 753 yds. of total offense.

All would come down to an overtime FG off the foot of K Joe Nedney, who connected on a 29–yd. game winning kick that gave the 49ers the 23–20 win. With St. Louis winning the toss and electing to receive, Bradford started things off, marching his team down the field. The drive ultimately would be halted, but not before a K Josh Brown's 42–yd. FG put the Rams on the board 3–0 to start the game. Coming off a bye and an extra week to prepare, the 49ers picked up right where they left off in London, as they were able to effectively spread the ball down the field, putting up 421 yds. of total offense. Smith proved to be a major part of the offensive onslaught as he completed 17 of 28 pass atts. for a career–high 356 yds. and 1 TD through the air. Smith's 356 yds. were the most by a 49ers QB since QB Tim Rattay threw for 417 yds. on 38 of 57 pass atts. vs. Arz. (10/10/04). From start to finish, the 49ers found ways to get the ball to multiple players throughout the offense as Smith connected with 5 different receivers who registered 60 yds. rec. or more. It marked the first time in franchise history that at least 5 receivers totaled 60 yds. rec. or more. Smith started the carousel of offensive production with a 32–yd. pass to TE Vernon Davis. On the very next offensive drive, Smith hooked up with WR Josh Morgan for a 65–yd. pass deep down the right side that brought him to the 1–yd. line, setting up a 1–yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore and giving the 49ers a 7–3 lead. The 49ers offense would continue to pour on the yards as they successfully moved the ball down field and allowed Nedney to connect on a 26–yd. FG to put the home team up 10–3 with 12:04 left to go in the half. The Rams eventually would find their way into the end zone as QB Sam Bradford connected with WR Danny Amendola for a 5–yd. TD pass to tie the game at 10 a piece heading into halftime. The 49ers found themselves down heading into the 4th qtr. after Rams RB Steven Jackson scampered for a 13–yd. TD to bring the score to 10–17. With the home team down 13–17 late in the 4th qtr. the 49ers would once again turn to their quarterback. With 2:30 remaining on the clock, the 49ers faced a 3rd and 32 situation at the SF 47–yd. line. Smith then connected on back–to–back passes to Gore of 14 and 23 yds. to move the chains, before firing a 16–yd. TD strike to WR Michael Crabtree to give the 49ers the lead. Rams marched right back down the field and scored off of a 33–yd. FG by Brown, forcing overtime. After St. Louis won the toss, the 49ers defense made a crucial 3 and out stop, which included a 3rd down sack by DT Justin Smith that allowed the 49ers to get the ball back and set up the game winning FG.

Dallas 27, San Francisco 24

San Francisco's regime led by Jim Harbaugh and his new but experienced staff, entered the historic rivalry match against the Dallas Cowboys with something to prove at Candlestick Park. The 49ers started off as they had hoped, scoring 2 first–half TDs and blanking America's Team, but big pass plays late in the game would ultimately cause the Niners to fall short as they were edged 27–24 in overtime. Dallas opened the 1st qtr. marching down the field, but came up short after a failed 21–yd. FG attempt by K Dan Bailey. After exchanging the next couple of possessions, QB Alex Smith led the Niners on a 68–yd. drive, capped off by a 1–yd. TD by RB Frank Gore in the 2nd qtr. The 49ers front seven played strong, swarming and stopping the run, allowing Smith and the Niners to regain possession to take a 14–0 lead. The 12–yd. throw from Smith marked the first TD of WR Kyle Williams' career and the team's first passing TD of 2011. QB Tony Romo and the Cowboys answered before the half on a 71–yd. drive, capped off by a 53–yd. TD slant to WR Miles Austin, making it a one score game heading into the half. Dallas lost its starting QB for a brief stretch in the 3rd qtr., when it appeared Romo's rib injury – occurring on the 3rd play of the game – had become too much of a hindrance. Backup QB Jon Kitna started the 3rd qtr. and threw a tying TD pass and 2 INTs in relief. Displaying good ball skills and awareness, CB Tramaine Brock came up with his 2nd INT of the season in as many weeks, reacting to a Kitna tipped pass and coming up with the turnover. Smith and the 49ers took advantage of the Cowboys turnover with a deep pass down the right sideline to TE Delanie Walker for 29 yds. and the go–ahead TD entering the 4th qtr. K David Akers connected on a 55–yd. FG, marking the longest FG in Candlestick Park history, and the Niners built up a 10–pt. cushion. The Cowboys charged back from the 24–14 deficit when Romo hit Austin for a leaping 25–yd. TD, and then directed a 10–play, 44–yd. drive in the final 4 minutes that ended with an overtime–forcing, 48–yd. field goal. After the Cowboys' defense forced a punt on the 49ers first OT drive, Romo found backup WR Jesse Holley in stride for a 77–yd. gain that set up 19–yd. game–winning FG.

New York Giants 20, San Francisco 17
NFC Championship Game

When asked what his message was to his players after falling short to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship game, Harbaugh stated, "As Sir Andrew Barton said, `Fight on my men, we're hurt but not slain. We'll lay down and bleed a while. Then we'll rise and fight again.''' Harbaugh, of course was referring to his team's blue–collar mentality after the Giants escaped rain–soaked Candlestick Park with a 20–17 overtime victory. "They stand toe–to–toe and fight every time they go out onto the field," added Harbaugh. "Be forever proud of our players and coaches the way they compete." Harbaugh got the Niners to the brink of the Super Bowl in his rookie year, taking over a 6–10 team and going 13–3 to win the NFC West. The extra minutes at Candlestick Park went in favor of the opponent in a year where most didn't expect a storybook season. The 49ers defense played stoically, recording six sacks on Giants QB Eli Manning, which ranked t–2nd for the most sacks in a postseason game in franchise history (6 – four times, last vs. Den. – 1/29/90). TE Vernon Davis gave the 49ers a 7–0 lead with 7:11 remaining in the 1st qtr. after running a pattern down the right sideline and outracing the secondary for a 73–yd. TD recept. from QB Alex Smith. On their ensuing drive, the Giants drove from their own 31 to the San Francisco 34–yd. line. On 3rd–and–1, Manning and the Giants failed to get a first down despite two opportunities. The Giants eventually evened the score on a 10–play, 69–yd. drive when TE Bear Pascoe caught Manning's short pass at the 6–yd. line and stepped into the end zone for the TD. The Giants added a FG with two seconds remaining in the 2nd qtr. to give them a 10–7 edge going into the locker room. Davis' second TD of the game, gave the lead back to the Niners at 14–10 with 5:18 remaining in the 3rd qtr. San Francisco's 3–play, 54–yd. TD drive was set up by a short pass to RB Frank Gore, who turned it into a 24–yd. gain. On the next play, Davis went in motion from right to left and caught a lofted pass to the end zone by Smith. The Giants took the lead back after the ball inadvertently glanced off WR Kyle Williams on a punt, giving the ball back to the Giants on the 49ers 29 yard line. Manning connected on a 17–yard pass to WR Mario Manningham to give the Giants a 17–14 lead with 8:41 remaining. Williams' 40–yd. return on the ensuing kickoff enabled the 49ers to start their next possession at their own 45. On consecutive plays, Smith scrambled for 17 yds. and RB Kendall Hunter ran for 18 more, resulting in a K David Akers game–tying FG with 5:39 to go, 17–17. After both teams went 3–and–out on their first overtime possession, a Giants takeaway on a Williams fumble, forced by LB Jacquian Williams on a punt return, gave the Giants possession at their own 36 with 9:32 remaining. After converting one first down, K Lawrence Tynes sent the season–ending 31–yd. FG through the uprights.

The 24–24 stalemate marked the 14th tie for the 49ers since joining the NFL in 1950 and first since 1986 [10–10 at Atl. (10/19)]. It also marked the 49ers first tie at Candlestick Park since 1972 [20–20 vs. NO (10/22)]. St. Louis got off to a fast start, scoring on a 36–yd. TD pass from QB Sam Bradford to WR Brian Quick. The Rams next possession went 7–plays, for 93–yds., ending with a 7–yd. TD run by RB Steven Jackson to make the score 14–0 at the end of the 1st qtr. The 49ers answered on their next possession, driving 78–yds. on 12–plays, capped off by QB Alex Smith's 14–yd. TD pass to WR Michael Crabtree. Crabtree's TD recept. came on 3rd–and–7, marking his 3rd TD on 3rd down this season, ranking t–3rd in the NFL. Crabtree has tallied a TD in each of his last 5 games against St. Louis. Following the TD drive, Smith left the game due to injury. The San Francisco defense stiffened following the offense's TD, forcing two consecutive three–and–outs and what would have been a third if not for P Johnny Hekker's 1st down completion on a Rams fake punt. Three plays after the fake punt, LB Aldon Smith ended the Rams drive and the 1st half with his first of 2.0 sacks in the game. Smith has recorded 9.5 sacks for the season and 23.5 for his career. Smith's 9.5 sacks ranks 3rd in the NFL and 1st in the NFC. The first possession for each team to start the 3rd qtr. resulted in no change on the scoreboard. With 8:43 remaining in the 3rd qtr., St. Louis began a 16–play drive that milked 8:25 off the clock and resulted in a 27–yd. FG by K Greg Zuerlein, stretching the lead to 17–7. On the 49ers next possession, Alex Smith's backup, QB Colin Kaepernick, led the Niners down the field, completing 5 of 5 pass attempts for 67–yds. Kaepernick finished the drive with a 7–yd. TD run, as he successfully dove inside the pylon with 8:48 remaining in the 4th qtr. On the ensuing kickoff, RB Isaiah Pead fumbled the ball at the St. Louis 28–yd. line. CB Tramaine Brock (1st career FF) forced the fumble, it was recovered by S Darcel McBath (1st career FR) and returned 8–yds. to the Rams 20–yd. line. The 49ers first play following the fumble resulted in a 20–yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore. Gore rushed for 97–yds. on 21 carries. The 20–yd. TD run marked his 5th TD of the season and 48th of his career. He finished the game trailing just RB Joe Perry (50) and RB Roger Craig (50) for the most rushing TDs in franchise history. The TD made the score 21–17 in San Francisco's favor with 8:29 left in the 4th qtr. The Rams answered the 49ers score with a score of their own, going 14–plays, for 81–yds. capped off by a 2–yd TD pass from Bradford to WR Austin Pettis. The long St. Louis drive left only 1:13 on the clock, as the 49ers trailed 24–21. Kaepernick engineered an 8–play, 63–yd. drive under pressure, accounting for 54 yds. to set K David Akers up for a 33–yd. game–tying FG to force overtime. In the extra period, St. Louis won the toss and elected to receive. On the Rams first play, Amendola recorded an 80–yd. recept. down to the 49ers 2–yd. line, but an illegal formation penalty against the Rams erased the long catch and brought the ball back to the St. Louis 13–yd. line. A few plays later, San Francisco forced a Rams punt, setting up good field position for the 49ers offense. The 49ers drove down to the St. Louis 23–yd. line, to set Akers up for a 41–yd. FG attempt that was wide left. The Rams took the ball, drove to the San Francisco 40–yd. line and Zuerlein also missed the potential game–winning FG as neither team was able to score before the clock ran out, resulting in a tie.

St. Louis 16, San Francisco 13

The 49ers and Rams had to play deep into overtime for the second time this season, as St. Louis outlasted San Francisco in a tough divisional matchup. Both defenses played well, resulting in only one scoring play during the 1st half. After forcing a Rams 3–and–out, the 49ers took over on their own 40–yd. line. On the first play of the drive, RB Frank Gore gained 23–yds. on the ground, putting the ball at the St. Louis 37–yd. line. The offensive line continued to open up holes for Gore, as he ran for 18 more yds. on 3 carries and capped off the drive with a 1–yd. TD run, making the score 7–0 with 3:01 remaining in the 1st qtr. After the San Francisco TD, the Rams offense was held to its second consecutive 3–and–out. With 2:31 remaining in the 2nd qtr., the 49ers defense recorded its third 3–and–out in four defensive series, with LB Aldon Smith forcing a long 3rd down after registering his 17.5 sack of the season. His 17.5 sacks ties the 49ers single–season franchise record (Fred Dean – 1983). Smith now has 31.5 career sacks, surpassing Hall of Fame DE Reggie White (31.0) for the most sacks by a player in their first two years in NFL history. On the 49ers second possession of the 3rd qtr., Kaepernick was flagged for intentional grounding in the end zone, which resulted in a safety making the score 7–2 with 4:36 left in the 3rd qtr. San Francisco answered with its next offensive possession, marching 94–yds. on 13 plays to setup K David Akers for a 23–yd. FG. WR Michael Crabtree caught 4 passes for 69 during the drive. For the game, Crabtree tallied 7 recepts. for 101 yds., marking his 2nd 100–yd. game of the season and 5th of his career. The Rams were unable to get on the scoreboard with their next offensive possession, but they did after recovering a fumble by Kaepernick on 3rd–and–3 and CB Janoris Jenkins returned the loose ball 2 yds. for a TD. QB Sam Bradford completed the 2–point conversion attempt to TE Lance Kendricks to knot the score at 10 apiece with 3:04 remaining in the 4th qtr. Kaepernick showed poise on the next possession, following the fumble, as he rushed for 50 yds. down to the St. Louis 14–yd. line. Kaepernick rushed for 84 yds. on 9 carries. His 84 yds. on the ground are the most by a 49ers quarterback since Steve Young rushed for 102–yds. vs. NO (12/23/90). Akers was able to put the 49ers up by 3 with a 33–yd. FG with 1:38 remaining. The Rams managed to drive 45 yds. on 7 plays to set Zuerlein up for a 53–yd. FG that sailed through the uprights as the clock expired to send the game into overtime. Chicago would take a 13–6 lead on their next possession, as RB Matt Forte found the end zone on a 5–yd rush early in the second quarter. TD pass, but K Sebastian Janikowski missed the extra point attempt thereafter. On the following play, the 49ers seized a 7–6 lead after rookie WR Richie James Jr. took the kickoff return 97 yards for a touchdown. James Jr.'s return marked the first time a member of the 49ers has registered a kickoff return for a TD since WR Ted Ginn Jr. took it 102 yards for a touchdown in 2011 [vs. Sea. (9/11/11)]. James Jr. also became first 49ers rookie to register a kickoff return for a TD since 1981 [RB Amos Lawrence – 92–yd. KR TD at LAR (11/22/81)]. The 49ers opened the scoring in the 2nd quarter with a 10–play, 98–yard touchdown drive that was completed with a 41–yd. TD pass from QB Nick Mullens to TE Garrett Celek. The scoring drive was the team's longest since 2002 when the 49ers capped off a 12–play, 99–yd. drive with a 6–yd. TD rush by RB Kevan Barlow at Sea. (10/14/02). After the teams traded punts to open the second half, Mullens again moved the 49ers offense within scoring range to set up a 33–yd. FG from Gould, pushing the San Francisco lead to 20–13. Seahawks RB Chris Carson kicked off a dramatic fourth quarter with a 1–yd. TD rush on 4th down to tie the game at 20 apiece. On the next possession, the 49ers offense provided room for a game–long, 45–yd. FG from Gould to take a 23–20 lead. Seattle then tied the game on the subsequent drive with a 48–yd. FG from Janikowski. In a tie game, late in the 4th quarter and OT, the 49ers defense forced the Seahawks offense to punt on each of their final three possessions of the game. Seattle won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive, but the 49ers defense held their ground and forced a three–and–out, turning the ball back over to the offense at the 38–yd. line. The 49ers offense ran the ball effectively in their overtime drive and again moved the ball within range for Gould, who knocked in a 36–yd. FG, his fourth of the day, to clinch the victory over their division foe, 26–23. SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS FOUNDER

ANTHONY J. (TONY) MORABITO (1910-1957)

Tony Morabito dedicated his life to bringing an idea to fruition that others thought preposterous – the membership of the West Coast, in general, and San Francisco, in particular, in a nation–wide professional football league.

Morabito was the sports pioneer of the West, bringing San Francisco its first major league professional team, the San Francisco 49ers, in a professional sports business that was dominated by the East Coast. Before World War II, Morabito was convinced the San Francisco Bay Area was ready for a franchise in the National Football League. The Bay Area was a mecca for college football. Fans came in droves to Kezar Stadium to see the Wonder Teams of California–Berkeley and the Wow Boys of Stanford, led by Frankie Albert. St. Mary's, Santa Clara and the University of San Francisco were also area powerhouses that regularly defeated the University of Washington and Southern California inside the walls of Kezar.

Morabito saw the rise of football in the area and presented a case to birth a professional football team in 1942 to National Football League officials, but he was quickly ushered out of the meeting room with firm politeness. In the spring of 1944, he took another crack, filing an application for an expansion team in the NFL. Morabito and some of his business associates went to Chicago to present their plan in front of League Commissioner, Elmer Layden. The NFL had no teams west of Chicago, and had no plans of changing their geographical structure. Morabito was again shunned.

He was then put in touch with Arch Ward, sports editor of The Chicago Tribune who was trying to organize a rival league, the All–America Football Conference. Morabito told Ward to count him in.

The new league's first meeting was held on June 6, 1944 in St. Louis, D–Day in Europe. Morabito agreed to form a San Francisco franchise in a league that would not begin operations until the end of the war.

It was the right time, and Morabito knew it.

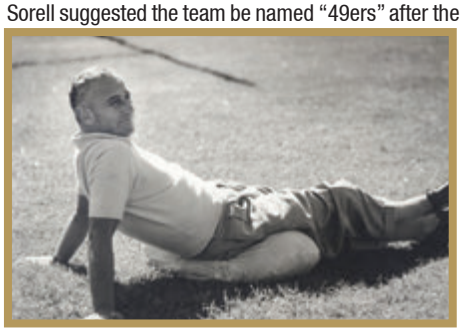
A native of San Francisco, Morabito learned the game of football on vacant lots in the North Beach sector and had some success later as a halfback at St. Ignatius High School. He went on to play for the University of Santa Clara as a freshman in 1927 but his playing career was ended shortly after by a shoulder injury. He received his diploma in 1931 at the height of the Great Depression. He got a job driving a truck for $80 a month while his father, an immigrant from Italy, had built up a flourishing ship's service business on the San Francisco waterfront, only to see it fold in the wake of the depression years.

As the country's economic state began to improve, so did Morabito's. By 1940, when he was 30 years old, he became a success in the lumber carrier business. The army turned him down for duty in 1942 because of partial deafness, which later forced him to wear a hearing aid.

By 1946, the San Francisco 49ers first year of operation, the Bay Area was in the middle of a postwar economic surge. Morabito's lumber yard was in huge demand as houses were springing up to shelter the fast–growing population that was migrating to California.

Morabito owned the new All–America Football Conference franchise with his partners in the Lumber Terminals of San Francisco – Allen E. Sorrell and E.J. Turre – and his younger brother, Victor.

Sorell suggested the team be named "49ers" after the voyagers who had rushed the West for gold. It is the only name the team has ever been affiliated with and San Francisco is the only city in which it has resided. The original team logo depicted San Francisco's wild beginnings. It was a goldminer in boots and a lumberjack shirt, firing a pair of pistols. One shot just missed the miner's head, while the other missed his foot. The logo was taken from a design seen on the side of railway freight cars.



49ers Founder, Tony Morabito

With a charter, name and logo, the group recruited Lawrence "Buck" Shaw, Santa Clara's famous "Silver Fox," as the 49ers first head coach. The organization spent $250,000 to get structured before the team even took their first snap. Morabito's approach was considered "first class," by most, and a financial risk by many.

But Morabito charged on, hand–picking an inaugural roster comprised of 32 players including Frankie Albert, Norm Standlee and Bruno Banducci, all from Stanford, and stars from Santa Clara, including Alyn Beals, an end who scored 46 pro touchdowns in four years. Other known players on the roster were Len Eshmont, Johnny "Johnny Strike" Strzykalski and Joe "The Toe" Ventrano.

Tony Morabito's widow, Josephine (left), and Victor Morabito's widow, Jane (right), kept control of the 49ers after their hus–bands' passing along with team presi–dent Lou Spadia (middle).

Morabito watched as his 49ers played their first game on August 24, 1946, a 17–7 exhibition win over the Los Angeles Dons at Balboa Park in San Diego. The 49ers first home game was played at Kezar Stadium on September 1, 1946, a 34–14 exhibition win over the Chicago Rockets in front of 45,000 fans made up of longshoremen, draymen, mechanics and waterfront workers.

The first regular season league game was on September 8, 1946 against the New York Yankees. The 49ers scored first, but lost 21–7 in a game that began in sunshine and ended in the famous Kezar fog.

The 49ers finished 9–5 in their first season under Shaw, and went on to have an 8–4–2 record in 1947, 12–2 finish in 1948 and 10–4 record, including a trip to the Championship Game, in their final season in the AAFC.

At the end of 1949, it was announced that the AAFC had run its course. San Francisco, Cleveland and Baltimore received NFL franchises and would begin play in the NFL in 1950. The merger was what Morabito had hoped for all along as he, his brother Victor and general manager Lou Spadia, continued to hold the reins.

The 49ers struggled during their first season among the NFL elite, finishing with a 3–9 record. The following year though, the 49ers went 7–4–1.

As the seasons went on, Morabito was the heart and soul of the organization, signing on greats like The Million Dollar Backfield: Joe "The Jet" Perry, Hugh "The King" McElhenny and John Henry Johnson. He also attracted some of the NFL's most renowned talents in R.C. Owens, Bob St. Clair, Leo Nomellini, John Brodie and Y.A. Tittle.

The players appreciated his honesty, and trusted his every move and word.

As the 1950's progressed, Morabito was warned by his doctors that a bad heart and the rigors of football were not a healthy combination. But Morabito wasn't going to let a health scare get in the way of his passion. "What the hell, if I'm going to die, I might as well die at a football game," he said.

On October 27, 1957, the 49ers hosted the Chicago Bears at Kezar. The 49ers entered the game with a 3–1 record behind the talents of Owens, Perry, Tittle, McElhenny, Billy Wilson, and others. The Bears had a 14–0 advantage in the first quarter before the 49ers scored to close the deficit at 14–7. Just as the 49ers lined up for the next kickoff, Morabito, who was sitting next to his wife, Josephine, and his brother, Victor, in the guest box, suddenly collapsed. The great heart that had been with the 49ers since the franchise's inception had failed.

Father Bill McGuire of St. James parish was summoned to the guest box and pronounced Morabito his final absolution. Morabito looked up at him and smiled.

"Thank you father," he said.

Those were his last words.

The 49ers were behind 17–7 in the third quarter when the team learned of Morabito's death. His players rallied and came back to defeat Chicago, 21–17, in an emotional last win for their owner. The 49ers finished the season with three straight victories and an 8–4 record, tying Detroit for the NFL Western Division title.

Victor, Tony's younger brother, kept the team in the family until 1964, when he too died of a heart attack. Both Victor and Tony's wives, Jane and Josephine, retained control of the 49ers with Lou Spadia as team president until 1977, when a new team owner, Edward DeBartolo Jr. of Youngstown, Ohio emerged to buy the franchise.

Morabito's conviction, passion and character birthed and kept an NFL franchise in San Francisco, and laid the sturdy foundation that enabled the 49ers to become one of the NFL's premier football powers over the past 60 years.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

The Ed Block Courage Award is named after Ed Block, the former head athletic trainer of the Baltimore Colts of 23 years. Block was a pioneer in his profession and a respected humanitarian whose most passionate cause was helping children of abuse. The award is presented in his name each year to the player that exemplified a commitment to sportsmanship and courage. Ed Block Courage Award winners from each of the 32 NFL teams are honored at a banquet in Baltimore, MD. All proceeds from the event benefit the Ed Block Courage Award Foundation's Courage House National Support Network. Named after the NFL team in a respective NFL city, a Courage House is a facility that provides support and quality care for abused children and their families in that community. The 49ers dedicated their Courage House in October 2003 at the Edgewood House in San Francisco.

BOBB McKITTRICK AWARD

This award is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best exemplifies the dedication, excellence and commitment of offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick, a five–time Super Bowl champion.

In 1999, the San Francisco 49ers, under the direction of Bill Walsh, established the Bobb McKittrick Award. The award is meant to honor those offensive linemen who have best represented the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by the late McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers. With the award established, McKittrick retroactively chose winners that he coached each season dating back to 1981.

"Bobb gave distinguished service to the organization since our renaissance in 1979," Walsh said. "He was a vital factor in five Super Bowl championships, the evolution of a dynasty and in the production of some of the finest offensive linemen in football. Offensive linemen don't receive the recognition they so richly deserve. This gives us a venue to honor their sacrifices and achievements."

MATT HAZELTINE AWARD

The Hazeltine Iron Man Award is named after linebacker/center Matt Hazeltine, a 14–year performer who played more seasons at linebacker than any other 49ers player. Known for his durability and dedication, Hazeltine passed away in 1987 from amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS) and Bill Walsh established the award in his honor that year. The award is given annually to the most courageous and inspirational defensive player.

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS COMMUNITY/TEAM AWARDS

POP WARNER LITTLE SCHOLARS TEAM OF THE YEAR

In 2017, the 49ers were named the Pop Warner Little Scholars Team of the Year. Throughout the year, 49ers PREP presented by U.S. Bank provides youth from ages 7–18 with the opportunity to experience football through a multitude of diverse programs aimed at creating young, healthy leaders on and off the field. With grassroots efforts that include hosting the annual Levi's® Stadium High School Football Series, free youth flag football programs, and free youth football camps, 49ers PREP has increased participation steadily year over year across all programs in all nine Bay Area counties and beyond.

The 49ers have co–hosted the last 13 annual Football Camp for the Stars, designed especially for athletes with Down Syndrome who love football. Athletes go through drills led jointly by 49ers players and Valley Christian High School football players to learn the fundamentals of the game, resulting in an authentic football experience. Since the beginning of his tenure as 49ers head coach, Kyle Shanahan has participated in the camp and provided words of inspiration to the participants.

ESPN SPORTS HUMANITARIAN TEAM OF THE YEAR

After being recognized as a finalist for the third consecutive year, the San Francisco 49ers were awarded Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year Award in 2017, presented by ESPN. In addition to the team collectively donating over 2,952 hours of volunteer time to 412 community events in 2019 alone, the 49ers Foundation has donated nearly $50 million to local nonprofits over almost 30 years and is at the forefront of two innovative and highly impactful programs that use the intersection between STEM and sport to improve educational opportunities for Bay Area youth.

First, the 49ers STEM Leadership Institute (SLI) was founded in 2014 in partnership with Chevron, the Silicon Valley Education Foundation and the Santa Clara Unified School District to provide educational opportunities for students interested in pursuing STEM related careers. Each year, a new class of 60 seventh grade students are selected from hundreds of applicants to embark on a six–year immersive experience in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math. Second, the 49ers STEAM Education Program – which also opened in 2014, uses the game of football and Levi's Stadium to provide informal learning experiences for K–8 students through its program that teaches standards–aligned (Common Core and Next Generation Science) lessons using the STEAM principles of science, technology, engineering, art, and mathematics. Housed within the Denise DeBartolo York Education Center at Levi's Stadium, the program has reached over 300,000 Bay Area students and educators since inception – free of charge – with over 60 percent of students coming from Title I designated schools.

EDWARD J. DeBARTOLO SR. 49ERS HALL OF FAME

The San Francisco 49ers franchise is arguably one of the most fabled in sports history. With the multitude of memories that the team's history holds, a place to honor and capture these tremendous times and legendary figures only seems appropriate.

During the 2009 offseason, the San Francisco 49ers and the York family proudly introduced the creation of the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame, named in honor of the beloved patriarch of the storied franchise. The 49ers Hall of Fame was established to recognize players, administrators and coaches who have made exceptional contributions to the organization.

A week after the creation of the new 49ers Hall of Fame, team President & CEO Jed York announced the name of its inaugural inductee, his uncle, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr., known as "Mr. D" to most close to the 49ers family. He was then officially inducted during halftime of the team's home opener versus the Seattle Seahawks on September 20, 2009.

Being inducted into the 49ers Hall of Fame is no easy task, and the selection process reflects the level of honor which it bestows. As a prerequisite for induction, all 49ers Hall of Fame candidates must have displayed one or more of the following qualifications: outstanding production and performance on the field, key contributions to the team's success, and/or the embodiment of the spirit and essence of the San Francisco 49ers.

A number of players and coaches have already been recognized in various ways throughout the years for their contributions to the game of professional football and the 49ers organization. Accordingly, the franchise has automatically enshrined members of the 49ers family who have either had their jersey numbers already retired by the organization or have been selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. These players include: John Brodie, Dwight Clark, Fred Dean, Jimmy Johnson, John Henry Johnson, Charlie Krueger, Ronnie Lott, Hugh McElhenny, Joe Montana, Leo Nomellini, Joe Perry, Bob St. Clair, Y.A. Tittle, Bill Walsh, Dave Wilcox and Steve Young.

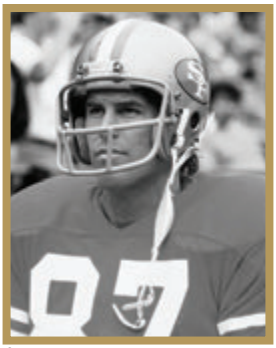
During Alumni Weekend on October 11, 2009 against the Atlanta Falcons, the 49ers honored the automatic enshrinement of the above players during halftime of the game.

The 49ers organization will enshrine new members each season.

JOHN BRODIE

Quarterback, 1957–73
49ers Hall of Fame Inductee: 2009
Holds the team record with 17 years of service. Ranks second in team history with 31,548 passing yards and third with 214 touchdown passes. Guided the 49ers to back–to–back NFC Championship games in 1970 and 1971. Was named NFL Most Valuable Player in 1970. Born August 14, 1935 in San Francisco, CA.

DWIGHT CLARK



Wide Receiver, 1979–87
49ers Hall of Fame Inductee: 2009
Drafted by the 49ers in the 10th round (249th overall) of the 1979 NFL Draft, Clark spent his entire nine–year playing career with San Francisco (1979–87), appearing in 134 regular season games, the third–most among 49ers wide receivers, and registered 506 receptions for 6,750 yards (13.3 average) and 48 touchdowns. He also appeared in nine postseason contests, adding 48 receptions for 726 yards and three touchdowns while helping to bring the first two Super Bowl championships to the 49ers organization.

ROGER CRAIG

Running Back, 1983–90
49ers Hall of Fame Inductee: 2011
A member of three Super Bowl Championship teams, Craig ranks third in franchise history with 7,064 rushing yards and first in career rushing attempts (1,686). He also ranks third in franchise history in receptions (508) and total touchdowns (66). Craig became the first running back in NFL history to register 1,000 rushing yards and 1,000 receiving yards in a single season (1,050 rushing yards and 1,016 receiving yards in 1985). HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

1949

December 10, the NFL and AAFC announced that the two leagues will merge. The NFL agrees to adopt Baltimore, Cleveland and San Francisco as new franchises.

1950

The 49ers struggled in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

1951

In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race until the season's final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by LB Hardy Brown and his famed shoulder tackle, the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the League. QB Y.A. Tittle and E Billy Wilson began their great 49er careers.

1952

After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in mid–season. HB Hugh "The King" McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become the NFL Player Of The Year and the most feared runner in football.

1953

The 49ers had their best NFL showing posting a 9–3 record, normally good enough for a championship. Detroit, however, was 10–2. Two of San Francisco's losses came with QB Y.A. Tittle sidelined because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. FB Joe "The Jet" Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. E Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954

The 49ers jumped out to a blazing start, posting a 4–0–1 record through the season's first five games. However the early momentum was slowed by injuries to three key members of the legendary "Million Dollar Backfield." QB Y.A. Tittle, HB Hugh McElhenny and FB Joe Perry all missed action with different injuries, but Perry returned to become the first player to record 1,000 yards rushing in consecutive seasons.

1955

With HB Hugh McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second–worst season in history under Norman P. Strader, who succeeded Buck Shaw as head coach.

1956

In head coach Frankie Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were in last place at mid–season with a 1–6 record. They went 4–0–1 in their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957

This undoubtedly was one of the most emotional and dramatic seasons in 49ers history. Every game was a cliffhanger and the Alley Oop pass from QB Y.A. Tittle to rookie HB R.C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing 17–7, the 49ers fought back for a great victory, 21–17. The magnificent E Billy Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8–4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31–27, after holding a 27–7 lead in the third quarter.

1958

An up–and–down season finished on a high note with victories over Green Bay and Baltimore. The 6–6 record, however, was blackened by the 33–3 and 56–7 lacings at the hands of the Los Angeles Rams. Head coach Frankie Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959

With Howard W. "Red" Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and QB John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21–20 upset of Cleveland. HB J.D. Smith, a converted defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960

Howard W. "Red" Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his shotgun attack and the club captured four of its last five games, including a 30–22 upset of Baltimore.

1961

The success of Howard W. Hickey's shotgun amazed the football world, especially in a 49–0 victory over Detroit. QB Billy Kilmer, a passing–running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the shotgun stopped, QB John Brodie took over again in the T formation and had the finest season in 49ers QB annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second–place tie, plus a trip to the Runner–up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth–place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 will remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49ers history.

1962

For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished a frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at Kezar Stadium, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963

A multitude of injuries to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2–12 season. One of the victories, however, was a 20–14 upset of ultimate world champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1964

Club Chief Executive Victor P. Morabito died of a heart attack in May. Injuries to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season despite having one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Outstanding rookie performances by E Dave Parks, QB George Mira and LB Dave Wilcox also took some of the sting from the 4–10 record.

1965

Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. QB John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL, E Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie FB Ken Willard and veteran HB John David Crow, acquired in an offseason trade, led a strong ground game. The 7–6–1 record included a season–opening 52–24 victory over the Chicago Bears, marking the most points scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

1966

After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before the midway point and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual world champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they finished with a respectable 6–6–2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final league game. G John Thomas and E Dave Parks were All–Pro, and they joined G Howard Mudd, C Bruce Bosley, FB Ken Willard and LB Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.

1967

An auspicious start (5–1) disintegrated into disappointment for the 49ers as injuries took a heavy toll and a six–game losing streak took them out of the running. QB George Mira came off the bench to lead the squad to two season–ending victories and salvage a 7–7 record. There were bright spots, however, as QB John Brodie and the 49ers were the only team to beat the power–laden Rams in a league game. G Bruce Bosley played in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season.

1968

Under new coach Dick Nolan, the 49ers posted a 7–6–1 record. The season turned on key wins over the New York Giants, 26–10, and Green Bay, 27–20. Brilliant performances by QB John Brodie, WR Clifton McNeil and RB Ken Willard led a prolific offense, while DT Charlie Krueger, LB Dave Wilcox and DB Kermit Alexander sparked a revitalized defense. McNeil and G Howard Mudd were chosen All–NFL and were joined by Wilcox, Willard and Alexander in the Pro Bowl.

1969

Beset by injuries that nearly decimated the de–fensive unit, the 49ers struggled through the early part of the season. They went winless in their first five games before beating Baltimore, the first time they had beaten the Colts in 13 previous games. The 49ers finished 4–8–2 and five players—CB Jimmy Johnson, LB Dave Wilcox, G Elmer Collett, FB Ken Willard and rookie WR Gene Washington—were se–lected to the Pro Bowl. Johnson was also All–Pro and winner of the Len Eshmont Award.

1970

This was the greatest year since the club became a member of the NFL in 1950. The team recorded a 10–3 record and captured the Western Division (NFC) Championship. QB John Brodie was the NFL'S Player of the Year, CB Bruce Taylor was NFC Rookie of the Year and Coach Dick Nolan was a near–unan–imous choice as NFC Coach of the Year. Brodie, WR Gene Washington, LB Dave Wilcox and CB Jimmy Johnson were All–Pro and joined T Len Rohde in the Pro Bowl.

1971

The 49ers forged a 9–5–0 record and won their second consecutive NFC Western Division title, clinching the crown on the final day by beating De–troit, 31–27, the identical score by which the Lions had knocked the 49ers out of championship play in 1957. The season also was the club's first in its plush new home, Candlestick Park. C Forrest Blue, LB Dave Wilcox and CB Jimmy Johnson were All–Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington, RB Vic Washington, DE Cedrick Hard–man and CB Bruce Taylor.

1972

Early–season inconsistency, compounded by an injury to QB John Brodie in the fifth game of the sea–son, cast appall on the 49ers prospects for a third–straight NFC Western Division title, but QB Steve Spurrier stepped in for Brodie and turned things around with a brilliant, poised performance. In the final quarter of the final game against Minnesota, the recovered Brodie relieved Spurrier and threw two TD passes in a 20–17 win over the Vikings. The vic–tory clinched divisional title number three, but Spur–rier's nine–game contribution was the key. C Forrest Blue, DB Jimmy Johnson, TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington and LB Dave Wilcox were All–Pro selec–tions.

1973

In what was both a disappointing and significant year, the 49ers were 5–9 after tackling the NFL's toughest schedule, a rash of key injuries and an unsettled quarterback situation. It also marked the end of the brilliant careers of QB John Brodie and DT Charlie Krueger, both of whom retired at year's end. C Forrest Blue and LB Dave Wilcox were voted All–Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, G Woody Peoples and P Tom Wittum.

1974

The 49ers used five different quarterbacks after an injury to starter QB Steve Spurrier, a week before the season opened, sidelined him for most of the year. After winning the first two games, the club lost a team–record seven straight and then closed with a rush, winning four of its last five to finish the season 6–8. RB Wilbur Jackson was named The Sporting News ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and was named to the NFL All–Rookie team along with QB Tom Owen and DB Mike Holmes. C Forrest Blue and P Tom Wittum were All–NFC and selected for the Pro Bowl along with CB Jimmy Johnson. A knee injury forced peren–nial All–Pro LB Dave Wilcox to retire after a brilliant 11–year career with the 49ers.

1975

A strong defensive performance throughout the season couldn't offset an erratic offense troubled by an unsettled quarterback situation and a rebuilding offensive line. The high point of the 5–9 season was a 24–23 win over Los Angeles to end a 10–game losing streak to the Rams. At season's end, CB Jim–my Johnson was the club's first ever two–time Len Eshmont Award winner.

1976

A turnaround year for the 49ers as the team, un–der coach Monte Clark, posted an 8–6 record, their first winning season since 1972. With new QB Jim Plunkett at the controls, the 49ers got off to their best start ever (6–1), before hitting a mid–season four–game losing streak knocking the club out of playoff contention. The season saw the emergence of a powerful defensive unit that led the league in quarterback sacks with 61. RB Delvin Williams set a 49ers single–season rushing record with 1,203 yards. DE Tommy Hart was named All–Pro and played in the Pro Bowl along with Williams, DE Cleveland Elam and LB Dave Washington. C Randy Cross was an All–Rookie team selection. Hart be–came a two–time winner of the Len Eshmont Award and CB Jimmy Johnson retired after a brilliant 16–year career with the 49ers.

1977

In the 32nd year of their existence, the 49ers be–gan a new era. On March 31, 1977, the club became the property of Edward J. DeBartolo Jr. and came under the guidance of Joe Thomas as general man–ager. The changeover was made more dramatic be–cause the San Francisco 49ers were one of the few NFL franchises which had never previously changed ownership or location. On the field, under Coach Ken Meyer, the 49ers ran hot and cold. The club lost its first five games, then won five of the next six before dropping the final three contests to finish 5–9. SS Mel Phillips was named winner of the coveted Len Eshmont Award. DE Cleveland Elam was selected All–Pro and played for the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

1978

The 49ers suffered through their longest season as the club fell to 2–14 and three coaches were hired and fired in less than 12 months. First Head Coach Pete McCulley departed after nine games with a 1–8 record, and his replacement, Fred O'Connor, was let go at the end of the year as the team won just one of its final seven contests. Bill Walsh was hired as the new coach and general manager. RB Paul Hofer, who replaced RB O.J. Simpson when the newly–acquired star went to the sidelines for the year with a shoul–der injury, was named recipient of the Len Eshmont award.

1979

The 49ers suffered through their second consec–utive 2–14 season, but there were several indica–tions of improvement. San Francisco went from vir–tually the worst–ranked offensive team in the league in '78 to one of the most productive in '79, ranking first in passing offense in the NFC and sixth in to–tal offense in the NFL. RB Paul Hofer again was the Len Eshmont Award recipient and individual leader, racking up 615 yards rushing and an additional 662 yards receiving on 58 catches in only seven starts. QB Steve DeBerg broke Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for completions by connecting on 347 passes. K Ray Wersching set a club record with an 83.3 field goal percentage and also led the league with that mark. RB O.J. Simpson retired from the 49ers and the NFL, finishing as the second leading rusher of all time with 11,236 yards.

1980

In their second season of the Bill Walsh era, the 49ers showed gradual improvement in their rebuild–ing program. A three–game winning streak to open the season, combined with a three–game victory string from Week 12 through Week 14, enabled the Niners to post a 6–10 season, tripling the number of victories from each of the previous two 2–14 cam–paigns. Week 14 was a day when the 49ers made NFL history. That December 7 at Candlestick Park, the 49ers overcame a 35–7 halftime deficit against the New Orleans Saints to win in overtime, 38–35. The 28–point comeback was the biggest comeback in NFL history. E Jim Stuckey and P Jim Miller were named to All–Rookie teams, while another rookie, FB Earl Cooper, led the NFC in receptions with 83, the most catches ever by an NFL rookie. WR Dwight Clark caught 82 passes to break the team wide re–ceiver mark, and QB Joe Montana set the club pass–ing percentage record at 64.5 with 176 completions in 273 attempts.

It was a year of firsts and bests for the 49ers in 1981. In his third season as head coach and gen–eral manager, Bill Walsh guided San Francisco to a 16–3 record (best record in the league that year), the NFC Western Division title (first since '72), the NFC Championship crown (first ever for the 49ers) and the World Championship/Super Bowl XVI win (first ever for the 49ers). Walsh earned every possible NFC Coach of the Year award and all seven NFL Coach of the Year honors, while six 49ers were named to the Pro Bowl—WR Dwight Clark, C Randy Cross, QB Joe Montana, DE Fred Dean, S Ronnie Lott and S Dwight Hicks. Three San Francisco players were selected to All–Pro teams as recognized by the NFL—Cross, Lott and Dean. Montana, who led the NFC in pass– ing in '81, was named MVP of Super Bowl XVI (for leading his team to a 26–21 win over the Cincinnati Bengals of the AFC). Dean was picked UPI NFL Defensive Player of the Year, NFL Outstanding Defensive Lineman of the Year (NFL Players Association) and NFC Defensive Player of the Year (Kansas City Committee of the 101). San Francisco opened and closed the season in Pontiac, MI in drastically different styles. The 49ers lost two of their first three games of 1981, including the season opener on the road against Detroit, then ran off seven wins—before a loss to Cleveland 15–12—and ran off eight more wins (including playoffs, the NFC Championship and Super Bowl XVI). The 49ers won 15 of their last 16 games, beat five opponents twice—including all three postseason foes—and became the first team since Chicago in 1945–47 to go from the worst NFL record (2–14 in 1979) to the league's best (13–3 in '81) in just three seasons. All this happened with three rookies (S Carlton Williamson, CB Eric Wright and Lott) starting in the defensive secondary. Those three rookies, along with Montana, Clark, Cross, WR Freddie Solomon and Hicks, combined with "old veterans" Dean and LB Jack "Hacksaw" Reynolds, formed a nucleus of world championship vintage.

1982

As defending world champions, the San Francisco 49ers did not enjoy the 1982 season, but then not many NFL fans, coaches and players throughout the league did either (except maybe in Washington, who were Super Bowl XVII champs). The Niners fell to 3–6 and missed out on the playoffs. In the strike-shortened season, San Francisco went winless at home (0–5) but did manage a 3–1 road record (the Niners were 0–2 prior to the 57-day players' strike and 3–4 following it). WR Dwight Clark had an outstanding season, leading the NFL with 60 receptions and being named consensus All-Pro and NFL Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated. LB Keena Turner (second-team All-Pro), S Ronnie Lott (Pro Bowl), C Randy Cross (Pro Bowl), S Dwight Hicks (Pro Bowl), T Keith Fahnhorst and QB Joe Montana (NFL record for five straight 300-yard passing games) were bright spots in an otherwise disappointing season.

1983

For the second time in three seasons, San Francisco played in the NFC Championship Game. The '83 49ers were 10–6 (third best regular season victory total in club history) and NFC Western Division Champions (fifth time since 1970, second time since 1981). In the playoffs, San Francisco squeezed past Detroit, 24–23, but lost to Washington, 24–21, in the NFC Championship contest. Individual stand-outs included QB Joe Montana (the league's No. 1 all-time QB entering the 1984 season), S Ronnie Lott (making his third Pro Bowl appearance in as many years), DE Fred Dean (leading the NFC in sacks with 17.5), DE Dwaine Board (second in sacks with 13), CB Eric Wright (team leader in interceptions with seven, two for scores), WR Dwight Clark (team leader with 70 receptions and eight TDs), WR Freddie Solomon (club record 21.4 yards per catch), K Ray Wersching (team-record 126 points, including a perfect 51-of-51 PATs), offensive linemen C Randy Cross, T Keith Fahnhorst and G John Ayers, RB Roger Craig (752 yards rushing, 427 receiving), RB Wendell Tyler (856 rushing yards, 285 receiving) and NFL All-Rookie team pick LB Riki Ellison.

1984

The 49ers experienced the most successful regular season in NFL history by winning a league record 15 games, including all eight road contests—setting yet another NFL standard. The Niners broke 14 team records in '84, while becoming the first NFC team to sweep all of its conference games, and the first NFC West unit to win all contests within the division. Led by RB Roger Craig and QB Joe Montana, San Francisco capped the year by routing the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XIX, 38–16. The win was the 18th victory of the '84 campaign, establishing an NFL standard for wins in a single season (including playoffs). San Francisco scored a then team-record 475 points. The 49ers defense was the stingiest in the NFL in '84, allowing a league-low 227 points scored. Honors were numerous, including Pro Bowl recognition for 10 of Bill Walsh's charges—Montana, RB Wendell Tyler, T Keith Fahnhorst, C Randy Cross and C Fred Quillan on offense and S Dwight Hicks, S Ronnie Lott, S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright (the entire Niners secondary), and LB Keena Turner on defense.

1985

At 10–6, San Francisco qualified for postseason play for the fourth time since 1981. Offensively, RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice emerged as potent weapons in the attack. Craig became the first NFL player to surpass 1,000 yards rushing and receiving in the same season. Rice was named NFC ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and set the team record for first-year players with 927 receiving yards. The defense experienced the influx of four new starters in '85 (NT Michael Carter, LB Todd Shell, LB Michael Walter and DE John Harty). Carter won a berth on the Pro Bowl team, as did DBs Eric Wright and Carlton Williamson.

1986

The 49ers captured their fourth NFC Western Division title since 1981. Offensively, the team was led by All-Pro wide receiver WR Jerry Rice, who paced the NFL with 1,570 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns. Those marks established club standards in addition to Rice's team-record 16 total scores. The defense managed 49 takeaways, tying the Kansas City Chiefs for NFL leadership. San Francisco's 39 interceptions and 578 return yards set team records, while five scores on interceptions returns tied another club mark. S Ronnie Lott tied HB Dave Baker's 1960 team record with 10 interceptions. The output by young players was vital due to major injuries suffered by many starting veterans. San Francisco made 20 roster moves during the season, shuffling players in and out of action. QB Joe Montana missed Weeks 2–9 due to back surgery, while backup signal-caller Jeff Kemp did not play Weeks 8–11 due to a hip injury.

1987

The San Francisco 49ers marched to an NFL regular season best 13–2 record. It marked a league-leading third time in the decade of the '80s that the team either tied or posted the best win-loss percentage during the regular season. San Francisco led the NFL with 5,987 total yards and was best among league defenders allowing 4,095 total yards. It was the first time in Niners history that the team led the league in fewest total yards allowed. WR Jerry Rice set NFL records with 22 receiving touchdowns and scoring receptions in 13 consecutive games. The durable wide out received postseason Most Valuable Player awards from nearly every news agency and sports publication. QB Joe Montana won the first NFL passing title of his nine-year career and set a team record with 31 touchdown passes. S Ronnie Lott, Montana and Rice were joined by NT Michael Carter and RB Roger Craig on the NFC squad in the 1988 Pro Bowl.

1988

The 49ers climaxed their 1988 season in thrilling fashion with a dramatic touchdown drive in the waning seconds of Super Bowl XXIII. QB Joe Montana's 10-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor with 34 seconds remaining in the contest gave the Niners their third Super Bowl win of the decade and the rights to the title "Team of the 1980s." The world championship game against the Cincinnati Bengals was a microcosm of the entire '88 campaign. San Francisco opened the year strong with a 5–2 record, but by Week 12 were 6–5, two games out of first place with only five contests to play. That week's victory over Washington launched a four-game winning streak that resulted in the Niners moving up from third to first place in the NFC West standings and earning a third consecutive NFC Western Division title. As the season ended RB Roger Craig broke the team's single season rushing record (finishing with 1,502 yards) and K Mike Cofer established new Niners single-season standards for field goals attempted (38) and made (27). WR Jerry Rice went on a playoff tear that included: an NFL postseason record-tying three touchdown receptions against Minnesota, the Montana-to-Rice battery hooked-up on first half touchdowns of 61 and 27 yards at Chicago, and concluded with a Super Bowl XXIII MVP performance of 11 receptions for a Super Bowl record 215 yards and a touchdown. Defenders S Ronnie Lott, DE Charles Haley, NT Michael Carter, along with Rice, Taylor and Craig, were selected to the Pro Bowl.

George Seifert was named head coach of the San Francisco 49ers just four days after the team had won its third World Championship under retiring head man Bill Walsh. Seifert's quest for the title was tested early and often as the 49ers endured nail-biting wins at Indianapolis (30–24) and Tampa Bay (20–16) to open the season. QB Joe Montana threw for 428 yards and five touchdowns, including a team-record four TD tosses in the fourth quarter resulting in a 10-point victory (38–28) in Philadelphia. Under first-year offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren, the Niners accumulated more yardage than any other NFL team. WRs Jerry Rice and John Taylor, RB Roger Craig, G Guy McIntyre and QB Joe Montana were 1990 Pro Bowl participants. Rice's 1,483 receiving yards paced the league. Craig exceeded 1,000 yards rushing for the second consecutive season and running mate FB Tom Rathman led NFC running backs with 73 receptions. Montana had the best season of his career. A consensus Player of the Year, Montana's 112.4 quarterback rating set a then NFL single-season record. Montana was selected by his teammates as the '89 recipient of the Len Eshmont Award. Fueled by Rice's 72-yard first quarter catch-and-run for a score, the 49ers exploded for 27 first half points and cruised to a 41–13 victory against Minnesota in their opening '89 playoff contest. The 49ers faced Los Angeles in the NFC Championship Game. The Niners started slowly, however. Two long, second–quarter scoring drives and a touchdown set up by an interception gave San Francisco a 21–3 lead at intermission. Cofer's three field goals cushioned San Francisco's lead as the team advanced to Super Bowl XXIV with a satisfying 30–3 win. The 49ers displayed optimal performance at the highest level of competition while securing their second consecutive World Championship. The resounding 55–10 defeat of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXIV was a convergence of talent and technique, planning and purpose. San Francisco tied or set nearly 40 Super Bowl records and Montana was honored with the game's MVP award for an unprecedented third time.

The Niners finished the season with an NFL–best 14–2 mark and came within four seconds (in a 15–13 loss to the NY Giants) of earning their third consecutive trip to the Super Bowl. In addition to recording the NFL's best win–loss mark for the second straight season, the 49ers captured the NFC Western Division title for the fifth consecutive year and the eighth time since 1981 ('81, 1983–84, 1986–90). San Francisco claimed its 11th Division crown since the NFL/AFL merger of 1970, more than any NFC Western Division opponent (the Rams were second with eight), and second most in NFL history (behind Miami's 13 AFC East titles).

San Francisco opened the 1990 season with a team–record 10 consecutive victories. The 49ers also posted an 8–0 mark on the road, giving them the longest road winning streak in league history (19 games, including postseason) heading into '91. QB Joe Montana and WR Jerry Rice again formed one of the most prolific aerial combinations in pro football. Montana, who was named 1990 Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated, finished his 12th NFL season by throwing for a then team–record 3,944 yards. He also tossed 26 touchdown passes (second in the NFC) and finished as the third highest rated quarterback in the conference. On the receiving end of many of those Montana passes was Rice, who became only the fourth player in league history to reach the century mark in receptions for a single season. Rice hauled in 100 passes for 1,502 yards and 13 TDs, and earned his fifth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl.

In one of the most memorable performances of the season (if not team history), Rice tied an NFL record with five TD receptions in a 45–35 victory at Atlanta, October 14. The defensive side of the ball was led by LB–DE Charles Haley's 58 tackles and an NFC–high 16 sacks. For his efforts, the fourth–year player from James Madison University was named as a starter in the 1991 Pro Bowl. LB Bill Romanowski led the team in tackles with 79, while CB Darryl Pollard registered 74, including a team–high 72 solo stops. A number of team career records fell by the wayside in '90. Montana slipped past QB John Brodie to take over the career passing lead (34,998 yards), while RB Roger Craig became the all–time team record holder in career receptions with 508, moving ahead of WR Dwight Clark's total of 506. The 49ers placed five players on the 1991 NFC Pro Bowl squad, four as starters. Representing the 49ers were Haley, Rice, S Ronnie Lott and G Guy McIntyre, while Montana, selected as a starter, was unable to participate because of a finger injury suffered in the NFC Championship Game.

It was a classic case of "too little...too late" for the San Francisco 49ers in 1991. After losing six of their first 10 games by a total of 26 points, the Niners won their remaining six contests (by a total of 95 points) but missed the playoffs for the first time since 1982.

The 49ers finished the 1991 campaign in impressive fashion during that final six–game span, with a margin of victory that averaged almost 16 points. During that final six–game span, the Niners defeated three playoff teams (New Orleans, Kansas City and Chicago) while averaging 31.5 points per game in the process. WR Jerry Rice continued to register his place in club and league history taking over the club's career receiving record with 525 catches. Rice finished third in the NFC with 80 receptions and 1,206 yards, surpassing 1,000 receiving yards for a club–record sixth consecutive season, and he led the NFL with 14 TD receptions. QB Steve Young won the NFL passing title, despite missing six games due to a knee injury. Young, who passed for 2,517 yards and 17 TDs, finished with a 101.8 rating, besting Washington's Mark Rypien (97.9) for the title.

When Young was injured at Atlanta November 3, QB Steve Bono (1,617 yards, 11 TDs) came off the bench to rally the team to five consecutive victories. On the defensive side of the ball, S Dave Waymer finished as the leader in total tackles (86), solo tackles (77), interceptions (4), interception return yards (78) and passes defensed (16) and tied CB Kevin Lewis for the lead in forced fumbles (3). LB–DE Charles Haley and DE Larry Roberts each posted seven sacks, while CB Don Griffin's 99–yard fumble return against the Bears set a team record and was the third longest return in league history. San Francisco placed three players on the 1992 NFC Pro Bowl squad, two as starters, as Rice, Guy McIntyre and Haley were all selected (Rice and McIntyre as starters). It was the sixth time in Rice's seven–year career that he was selected to play on the islands. McIntyre and Haley were each selected for the third time.

The San Francisco 49ers continued their winning tradition as they once again posted the NFL's best regular season record (14–2), while winning their sixth NFC Western Division title in seven years, and advancing to the NFC Championship Game for the second time in three seasons. In the NFC Divisional Playoffs, the 49ers defeated defending Super Bowl Champion Washington (20–13). However, San Francisco fell to Dallas, 30–20, in the NFC Championship Game at Candlestick Park the following week.

WR Jerry Rice continued to etch his name in football history, becoming the NFL's all–time touchdown reception leader with 103. He tied Steve Largent's mark of 100 in Week 13 against the Philadelphia Eagles (11–29), then broke the record the following week vs. the Miami Dolphins (12–6). QB Steve Young, who harvested a total of 34 awards, including the NFL'S Most Valuable Player Award, won the NFL passing title for the second straight year, finishing an amazing 16.3 points ahead of his closest competitor. Young, who passed for 3,465 yards and 25 TDs, finished with a 107.0 rating. Following his 101.8 rating in 1991, it marked the first time in league history that anyone had posted back–to–back seasons with ratings higher than 100 each year. RB Ricky Watters gained 1,013 yards to establish a team rushing record for first–year backs. K Mike Cofer's 107 points led the 49ers in scoring for the fifth consecutive year.

On the defensive side of the ball, linebacking led the charge as LB Bill Romanowski finished as the leader in total tackles (80) and assists (15). LB Mike Walter (67 solo stops) and LB Tim Harris (17 sacks for 116 yards) also led defensive categories. CB Don Griffin paced the defensive backfield with five interceptions and 19 passes defensed.

Fans at Candlestick saw the Niners rewrite part of the team's record book in '92 as they set team marks for total offense (598 yards) vs. the Buffalo Bills (Sept. 13) and points (56) in their win over the Atlanta Falcons (56–17, 10–18). San Francisco placed seven players on the 1993 NFC Pro Bowl squad, including four starters and five first–time participants. Rice, G Guy McIntyre, DT Pierce Holt and Young were all named as starters. TE Brent Jones, Watters and T Steve Wallace were also selected. It was the seventh time in Rice's eight–year career that he was selected to play on the islands and McIntyre was named for the fourth time, while the others made their first visits.

The 1993 season was another in a long line of successes for the San Francisco 49ers. Among the team's accomplishments were: a 10–6 record, marking an NFL–record 11th consecutive season with 10 or more victories, the team's 10th NFC West title in 13 seasons and a third appearance in four years in the NFC title game. In addition, San Francisco led the National Football League in scoring and total offense and established or tied five of the team's nine major offensive records. The marks set included most net offensive yards (6,435), most TDs (61), most first downs (372) and highest average gain per play (6.3). The Niners also tied the team mark for net passing yards in a season with 4,302, equaling the record set in 1989.

Individually, QB Steve Young became the first player in NFL history to lead the NFL in passing three consecutive seasons, when he posted a 101.5 rating in 1993. In addition, it was his third consecutive season with a rating over 100, also a league first. Young completed 68 percent of his passes (second highest in team history) for a then club–record 4,023 yards. His 29 scoring passes in '93 ranked third on the team's single–season charts.

RB Ricky Watters led the ground game for the second consecutive season, narrowly missing the 1,000–yard mark with 950 yards. Watters posted 10 rushing TDs during the season and set an NFL single–game playoff record with a five–touchdown outburst vs. the New York Giants. WR Jerry Rice posted one of his best seasons, recording 98 receptions for 1,503 yards and 15 touchdowns on his way to being named NFL OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR by Associated Press. He also received the team's Len Eshmont Award. Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield was named the NFL DEFENSIVE ROOKIE OF THE YEAR, capping a season in which he registered 10.5 sacks. LB Bill Romanowski (105) and S Tim McDonald (91) topped the team in tackles. Young, Rice and McDonald were selected to the Pro Bowl, joining T Harris Barton, G Guy McIntyre, TE Brent Jones and C Jesse Sapolu with that honor.

The 1994 San Francisco 49ers completed one of the most impressive seasons in NFL history by capturing their NFL–record fifth Super Bowl Championship at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami. San Francisco defeated the San Diego Chargers 49–26 in Super Bowl XXIX to put the finishing touches on a 16–3 season and win an unprecedented fifth Vince Lombardi Trophy.

The offseason started on a high note. Despite facing an NFL–imposed salary cap in 1994, the 49ers still managed to sign such veteran free agents as LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Gary Plummer, DE Tim Harris, DE Charles Mann, DE Richard Dent, LB Rickey Jackson, C Bart Oates, WR Ed McCaffrey and CB Toi Cook. Then, after some draft day maneuvering, San Francisco came away with two first–round picks in DT Bryant Young and FB William Floyd. Injuries, however, played a key factor early in the campaign. By the end of the second game in Kansas City, the 49ers had lost most of their starting offensive line, as well as the services of Dent, their top pass–rusher, to various injuries. Despite signing CB Deion Sanders prior to Week 3, the problems continued. Still playing with a decimated line, San Francisco suffered its worst loss in almost 14 years when it dropped a 40–8 decision to the Philadelphia Eagles in Week 5 at Candlestick Park. The season turned around the following Sunday at Detroit when the 49ers, trailing 14–0 at one point, rallied to defeat the Lions 27–21. That win started a winning streak that extended 10 games and saw the 49ers finish 13–3 and win the Super Bowl. Among the other highlights from the 1994 season, the 49ers offense was one of the most potent ever. During the 16–game regular season, the 49ers scored a team–record 505 points, a total that ranks as the fourth–highest total in NFL history. The 31.6 points per game average also established a team record. In addition, San Francisco scored 66 touchdowns, shattering the previous team mark of 61.

QB Steve Young recorded one of the finest seasons in NFL history. He set a league record with a QB rating of 112.8 and became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in passing four consecutive seasons. He also set team records for completion percentage (70.2) and touchdown passes (35). In Super Bowl XXIX, he passed for a record six touchdowns, while being named the game's MVP.

Rookie Floyd emerged as one of the league's brightest young stars, rushing for 305 yards and six TDs. The 49ers went 10–1 after he was named to the starting lineup in Week 6 at Detroit. Young finished third on the team in rushing with 293 yards and led the team with seven rushing touchdowns. WR Jerry Rice set a team record with 112 receptions for 1,499 yards and 13 touchdowns. However, his shining moment came in Week 1 vs. the Los Angeles Raiders when he eclipsed Jim Brown's all–time touchdown mark with 127. Norton Jr. led the 49ers with 92 total tackles and 79 solo stops. S Merton Hanks placed second with 79 tackles (66–13) while leading the team with seven interceptions. DT Dana Stubblefield's 8.5 sacks and 53.5 sack yards led the squad for the second consecutive season. And finally, Sanders, who joined the team in Week 3, shattered the team record with an NFL–high 303 interception return yards on six thefts. Among his three returns for touchdowns (tying a team mark) were efforts of 93, 90 and 74 yards. He was named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year as well as a starter in the Pro Bowl. Other Pro Bowl selections included Young, Rice, TE Brent Jones, Oates, G Jesse Sapolu, Hanks, Stubblefield, S Tim McDonald and RB Ricky Watters. CB Eric Davis had a team–leading 22 passes defensed during the regular season and four interceptions in the playoffs.

San Francisco once again captured the NFC West Championship, despite battling through a season in which injuries wreaked havoc time and again. Among the key contributors who were sidelined during the campaign were starting FB William Floyd, whose season ended with a severe knee injury in the October New Orleans game, and QB Steve Young, who missed five games with a shoulder injury. Those injuries, in addition to several others in the offensive line throughout the season, would have crippled most teams; however, the 1995 49ers established a reputation as one of the grittiest in team history.

The defensive unit created a new aggressive identity, finishing the season ranked number one in the NFL. Not only did it lead the league in scoring defense, it set team records for fewest rushing yards allowed (1,061) and fewest rushing yards per game (66.3). San Francisco's defense also excelled in takeaways, forcing a total of 34, including a team–record seven (five interceptions, two fumbles) that resulted in touchdowns.

Among the standout performers were Pro Bowl selections CB Eric Davis, FS Merton Hanks and SS Tim McDonald, marking the second consecutive season the 49ers secondary included three Pro Bowl picks. LB Ken Norton Jr. racked up 127 tackles and set a team single–game record by returning two interceptions for touchdowns at St. Louis. LB Lee Woodall and DT Dana Stubblefield rounded out the Niners Pro Bowl defensive players. Offensively, WR Jerry Rice posted the finest of his legendary 11 seasons with the 49ers. He became the NFL's career leader with 942 receptions and 15,123 yards, while also establishing the league's single–season standard with 1,848 yards. He was named as a starter in the Pro Bowl for the 10th consecutive season.

Young, who returned to quarterback the team for the final four regular season games, was also selected to the Pro Bowl, as was TE Brent Jones, who made the squad as an alternate. One of the highlights of the season was the emergence of QB Elvis Grbac. Playing in place of the injured Young, he directed the Niners to three of their biggest wins of the season at St. Louis, at eventual world champion Dallas and at Miami. Floyd was the recipient of the team's Len Eshmont Award.

One streak continued and another ended for San Francisco in 1996. With a 12–4 record, the 49ers reached double digits in the win column for the 14th consecutive season, the longest streak in the NFL. However, the upstart Carolina Panthers unseated the Niners as NFC West Champions, ending their four–year reign. San Francisco remained one of the league's most dangerous teams with an aggressive defense and a productive offense. Despite losing QB Steve Young for four full games and parts of four others with various injuries, the 49ers offense ranked second in the NFC with 398 points and sixth in the NFL in total offense.

WR Jerry Rice became the first player in NFL history to record four 100–catch seasons after making a league–high 108 receptions for 1,254 yards. The 12–year veteran earned his NFL record–tying 11th Pro Bowl invitation and was a first–team All–Pro selection. Young won his fifth NFL passing title with a QB rating of 97.2 and was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth consecutive season.

Defensively, the 49ers had the league's most imposing pass rushing trio in DE Roy Barker, DT Bryant Young and DE Chris Doleman. Barker finished fourth in the NFC with 12.5 sacks, while Doleman's 11 sacks moved him into seventh on the NFL's career list with 115.5. Young was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl team and earned first–team All–Pro honors after posting 11.5 sacks and 85 tackles. He also claimed the 49ers Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational and courageous player. The third–year veteran was joined on the Pro Bowl team by FS Merton Hanks, who was invited for the third consecutive season. As usual, Rice's assault on the record books continued. He became the first player in NFL history to register 1,000 career receptions and 16,000 receiving yards. Rice also surpassed K Ray Wersching as the team's all–time leading scorer with 982 points.

Although they appeared vulnerable after first week injuries to QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice, the San Francisco 49ers rallied under the direction of rookie head coach Steve Mariucci, reclaimed the NFC West title and advanced to the NFC Championship Game. The 49ers finished with a 13–3 mark, including an 11–game winning streak, despite losing Rice for all but two games. They did it behind a newfound running attack and the league's top–ranked defense.

Mariucci became one of 13 head coaches since the NFL–AFL merger in 1970 to lead his team to a division title in his rookie season, and he was the fourth to do it directly out of the college ranks. The former University of California skipper established an NFL record for consecutive wins by a rookie head coach with an 11–game streak (games 2–12). The 49ers claimed their 13th NFC West title in 17 years and posted 10–or–more wins for the 15th consecutive season. Young suffered a concussion against Tampa Bay on opening day, but remained healthy throughout the season and claimed his NFL record–tying (Sammy Baugh) sixth league passing title with a rating of 104.7. The 13–year veteran showed consistency while getting adjusted to a new coach, new running back and two young receivers.

The 49ers made a commitment to a power rushing attack by signing G Kevin Gogan during the offseason. The additional size up front allowed the 49ers to finish fourth in the NFC in rushing yards. RB Garrison Hearst (1,019 yards) became the first 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards since 1992. With Rice out, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes became the primary receiving targets. Owens led the team with 63 receptions for 936 yards and eight touchdowns, while Stokes posted 58 receptions for 733 yards and four touchdowns. Rice returned for one game against Denver (12–15) and helped the 49ers clinch home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 34–17 win. Rice became the first non–kicker in league history to reach 1,000 points with a 14–yard touchdown catch in the second quarter of the Broncos contest.

The 49ers defense led the league in total yards allowed (250.8), finished second in takeaways (41) and was tied for third in sacks (54). They helped carry the burden as the offense adjusted to new personnel. For the second consecutive season, the 49ers had three players reach double figures in sacks. DT Dana Stubblefield (15.0), DE Chris Doleman (12.0) and LB Kevin Greene (10.5) led the sack attack. Stubblefield finished second in the league in sacks and was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year by Associated Press and earned the Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational player. Of the seven 49ers named to the Pro Bowl, five were from the defense. Stubblefield was joined by Doleman, FS Merton Hanks, LB Lee Woodall and LB Ken Norton Jr. Gogan and Young were San Francisco's offensive selections.

Led by one of the most productive offenses in team and league history, San Francisco posted its 16th consecutive winning season and remained one of the NFL's elite teams. Behind the strong arm of QB Steve Young, the powerful legs of RB Garrison Hearst and the triple-threat receiving corps of WR Jerry Rice, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes, the 49ers rolled to a 12-4 regular season mark and an appearance in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game. Young opened the season in sizzling fashion. The 14-year veteran established an NFL record by throwing for over 300 yards in six consecutive games, breaking the previous record of five held by former 49ers QB Joe Montana. Young finished the season completing 322-of-517 (62.3) passes for 4,170 yards and 36 touchdowns. His final passing rating of 101.1 marked the seventh consecutive season he has surpassed the 100-point barrier and earned him his seventh consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl.

The 49ers offensive line, led by Pro Bowl G Kevin Gogan, paved the way for Hearst's record-setting season. Hearst, and his team-record and career-high 1,570 yards rushing, were a major reason the 49ers led the NFL in rushing. His 198-yard performance against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football also set a then team-record and was a personal-best. His four plays of 70 yards or more led the league and helped earn him his first career Pro Bowl selection.

The 49ers receiving corps was in the capable hands of Rice, Owens and Stokes. Rice, returning from a serious knee injury in 1997, earned his 12th career Pro Bowl nomination and finished with a team-high 82 receptions for 1,157 yards and nine touchdowns. The athletic Owens asserted himself among the league's best receivers and brightest young stars by catching 67 passes for 1,097 yards and 14 touchdowns. Stokes caught a career-best 63 passes for 770 yards and eight touchdowns.

The 49ers defense was paced by the inspiring play of DT Bryant Young. Young was having an exceptional season with 54 tackles and 9.5 sacks before suffering a season-ending leg injury against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football. Young was still named Eshmont Award winner although missing the final four regular season games. LB Winfred Tubbs, in his first season with the 49ers, earned his first career Pro Bowl nomination after finishing with 112 tackles. CB Darnell Walker, FS Merton Hanks, S Zack Bronson and S Tim McDonald led the team with four interceptions each.

San Francisco had a streak of 16 consecutive winning seasons snapped, after finishing the 1999 season with a 4-12 record. A season-ending injury to QB Steve Young in Week 3 sent the 49ers into a tailspin from which they did not recover. Replacing Young proved to be quite a task for QBs Jeff Garcia and Steve Stenstrom. Garcia received the first try at the job and responded admirably, posting a 24-22 victory, with a QB rating of 106.0, over the Tennessee Titans in his first NFL start. Garcia would start the next four games, but was replaced by Stenstrom in Week 10 at New Orleans. With Stenstrom struggling in starts against the Saints, Rams and Packers, the 49ers coaching staff returned Garcia to the starting lineup for a December 5 game at Cincinnati. And what a return it was. Garcia threw for a career-high 437 yards against the Bengals, including throwing two touchdown passes to WR Jerry Rice. The game proved to be an impetus for Garcia, who over the final five games of the season completed 121-of-182 passes for 1,441 yards, eight touchdowns and three interceptions for a quarterback rating of 98.3.

During that stint, Garcia completed 66.5 percent of his passes and was sacked just three times for 25 yards. San Francisco also was faced with the task of replacing 1998 Pro Bowl RB Garrison Hearst and his team-record 1,570 yards rushing. A key off-season acquisition of RB Charlie Garner proved more than an adequate replacement. Garner rushed for a career-high 1,229 yards, caught a career-high 56 passes for 535 yards and finished third in the NFL with 1,764 total yards.

The San Francisco running attack also was given a boost by second-year FB Fred Beasley's 276 yards rushing and 282 yards receiving, both marks were career-high's. Overall the 49ers led the NFL with 2,095 yards on the ground, becoming the first team to lead the league for consecutive seasons since Buffalo did it in 1991-92. The 49ers also led the league with a per-rush average of 5.0 yards.

The San Francisco receiving corps was once again paced by Rice. He finished the year with 67 receptions for 830 yards and five touchdowns. Certainly not the kind of numbers that Rice is accustomed to, but over the final five games of the season, Rice caught 24 passes for 420 yards (17.5) and three touchdowns. In that span he posted two 100-yard games, including a six-reception, 143-yard effort at Atlanta (1-3) in the season finale. WR Terrell Owens added 60 receptions for 754 yards and four touchdowns while J.J. Stokes totaled 34 grabs for 429 yards and two touchdowns, including a five-reception, 130-yard performance at Atlanta (1-3) in the season finale.

The 49ers defense struggled for much of the season, but was highlighted by several individual performances. DT Bryant Young was named the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year and earned a Pro Bowl selection. After overcoming a devastating leg fracture that ended his 1998 season and left his future clouded in doubt, Young answered all questions by earning a Pro Bowl nomination with his 11.0 sacks on the season. S Lance Schulters, in his first season as a starter, responded by finishing second in the NFC with six interceptions, including a game-winning 64-yard return against New Orleans (9-19) in the second week of the season. Schulters was named as the starting free safety for the NFC squad in the 2000 Pro Bowl.

San Francisco opened its sixth decade in the NFL under new leadership. The transfer of ownership from Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. to his sister Denise DeBartolo York was approved by the NFL May 23, 2000. DeBartolo, Jr. ended his tenure after guiding the 49ers to five Super Bowl Championships and 16 postseason appearances. A young San Francisco team, which at one point started five rookies on defense, showed marked improvement throughout the season, winning four of the last six games, to finish 6-10.

The offense again was one of the best in the league, which led to three starters being named to their first Pro Bowl – QB Jeff Garcia, RB Charlie Garner and WR Terrell Owens. Garcia, who was in his first season as the full-time starter, set the pace for the offense all season long. He set career-highs in every category, completing 355-of-561 passes for a team-record 4,278 yards, with 31 touchdowns and only 10 interceptions. He finished the year ranked fifth in the NFL with a 97.6 quarterback rating. Garcia started all 16 games and had six 300-yard passing games, including a 402-yard effort against Chicago in December, which was his third straight 300-yard passing performance and his sixth of the season. His productivity not only led to his first Pro Bowl appearance, but Football Digest also named him the NFL'S Most Improved Player.

WR Terrell Owens was one of the many benefactors of Garcia's success. Owens posted his second career 1,000-yard season, catching a career-high 97 passes for 1,451 yards, which ranked him fourth in the NFL. Owens, who only played in 14 games during the season, also had five 100-yard games and scored a team-high 13 touchdowns. Owens had his best performance of his career against Chicago in December, breaking a 50-year old NFL record with 20 receptions for 283 yards and one touchdown. Owens broke Tom Fears' NFL record of 18 receptions in a game, which he set back in 1950 with the Rams. The 49ers backfield was again in the capable hands of Garner and FB Fred Beasley. Garner earned his first Pro Bowl appearance and became the fourth 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons. Garner, behind the stellar play of the 49ers offensive line, ran for 1,142 yards on 258 carries and seven touchdowns. Also a receiving threat, Garner set career-highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns. In addition, he established a team record with 201 yards rushing vs. Dallas. Beasley also had a solid year, rushing for 147 yards on 50 carries and three touchdowns, while catching 31 passes for 233 yards and three touchdowns.

The 49ers defense was young, but got better over the last half of the season. The defense was again paced by the efforts of DT Bryant Young, who posted 51 tackles and led the team in sacks with 9.5. LB Ken Norton Jr. was one of only three players to start all 16 games, extending his consecutive games streak to 160. The 49ers defense started five rookies in the final game at Denver and had seven different rookies start throughout the 2000 campaign. Rookies CB Ahmed Plummer, DE John Engelberger and CB Jason Webster all started at least 10 games. Six rookies—Plummer, Webster, Engelberger, LB Julian Peterson, DT Cedric Killings and S Ronnie Heard—participated in more than 20-percent of the total 1,096 plays.

The San Francisco 49ers made their return to the playoffs after a two–year absence, as the young and improving team posted a 12–4 record. The year marked the return of RB Garrison Hearst, who came back from a devastating ankle injury that kept him out of football for two seasons. Hearst rushed for 1,206 yards, was named Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year and also earned his second career Pro Bowl nomination. In total, the 49ers had six players travel to the islands for the annual all–star game. In addition to Hearst on offense, QB Jeff Garcia and WR Terrell Owens made their second straight appearances, C Jeremy Newberry played in his first Pro Bowl, G Ray Brown made the first Pro Bowl appearance in his 16–year career, and on defense DT Bryant Young made his third Pro Bowl appearance, anchoring the 49ers defense that improved from ranking 29th in 2000 to 13th in 2001.

The offense was again in the capable hands of Garcia. The Gilroy native proved that 2000 wasn't a fluke. He completed 316–of–504 passes for 3,538 yards. The third–year veteran also threw 32 touchdowns, becoming the first 49ers quarterback to throw for 30 or more touchdowns in consecutive seasons. Owens was one of Garcia's favorite targets, especially when it came to the endzone. Owens caught 93 balls for 1,412 yards and a career–high and NFL leading 16 touchdowns. While Hearst was the big story, the offensive line, which returned all five starters from the 2000 season, proved to be vital to the team's success. For the fifth consecutive season, San Francisco produced a 1,000–yard rusher, which set a new team record.

The defense was still young, but improved as the season progressed. The defensive line added two new starters to the mix, although one of them was not so new. DT Dana Stubblefield returned to the 49ers after spending three seasons with Washington and rookie DE Andre Carter made an impression, especially in the last four weeks of the season when he was named NFC Rookie of the Month. Carter led the team in sacks with 6.5, adding 4.5 of those in the last five games. The unit as a whole improved over the last half of the season, posting a team–record three shutouts in the last month of the campaign. Another big addition was LB Derek Smith, who came over from Washington as well. Smith brought with him four consecutive seasons of 100 tackles or more. Smith kept that streak alive as he led the defense with 126 total tackles. Also helping the defense with its improvement was S Zack Bronson and CB Ahmed Plummer. Both players recorded career–highs with seven interceptions each. Bronson also returned two for touchdowns, including a career–high and team record 97–yard return at Chicago.

The San Francisco 49ers entered 2002 with hopes of advancing past the first round of the NFC playoffs. The team accomplished the mission finishing the season with 10 wins and advancing to the NFC Divisional Playoffs in grand fashion with the second largest playoff comeback in NFL history. The 49ers finished the season with a 5–1 division record and won their first division title since 1997. The team's success came from its ability to minimize turnovers, along with a strong running game. The 49ers gained 2,244 yards on the ground for the second consecutive season and RB Garrison Hearst established a career–high with eight rushing touchdowns. Helping Hearst were Pro Bowlers G Ron Stone and C Jeremy Newberry, who anchored an offensive line that was third in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed.

San Francisco had the least amount of turnovers in the NFC with 17. In his third season as director of the 49ers offense, QB Jeff Garcia earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl berth. He completed 62 percent of his passes and tied a team record by directing five fourth–quarter comebacks. WR Terrell Owens continued his dominance with a career–high 100 receptions and led the NFL with 13 receiving touchdowns. Owens surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the third consecutive season and earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl bid.

Defensively, LB Julian Peterson had a breakout season with a career–high 104 tackles. He shut down several of the league's top tight ends and made history by playing four positions in a single game against Dallas (12–8). His effort earned him his first career Pro Bowl appearance. DT Bryant Young added an interior presence with his fourth career Pro Bowl nomination and S Tony Parrish proved to be an invaluable pickup with a career–high seven interceptions. He won the Len Eshmont and the Ed Block Courage Award, both firsts for a player in his inaugural season.

Head Coach Steve Mariucci was released from the final year of his contract on January 15, 2003. The 49ers conducted an extensive search for Mariucci's successor and in the end hired Dennis Erickson. Erickson was introduced as the 14th head coach in 49ers team history on February 12, 2003. The Erickson era started with a 7–9 record for the 49ers in 2003.

The team struggled on the road, winning only one game, but was impressive at home, scoring more than 45 points in two separate home games. The team was represented in the Pro Bowl, the 23rd consecutive year the 49ers had at least one team representative in the islands. In 2003, WR Terrell Owens made his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, LB Julian Peterson made his second consecutive trip and FB Fred Beasley made his first career appearance in Hawaii. On offense, QB Jeff Garcia missed three games due to injury, but threw for 2,704 yards and 18 touchdowns. In his place, QB Tim Rattay responded admirably, throwing for 856 yards and seven touchdowns while posting a 2–1 record in those three games. RB Kevan Barlow recorded his first career 1,000–yard rushing season after becoming the main tailback after RB Garrison Hearst went down with a knee injury and missed the final four games. Owens recorded his fourth consecutive 1,000–yard season, amassing 1,102 yards despite missing the final game of the year.

The 49ers defense finished the year ranked 13th overall in the NFL and ninth against the run. The unit was led by Pro Bowler Peterson, who led the team in sacks with seven, and S Tony Parrish, who tied for the league lead with nine interceptions. The group as a whole recorded 42 sacks on the year, the highest total since 1998, which was good for second in the NFC and tied for fourth in the NFL. In addition, the 49ers defensive unit allowed only 268 yards per game, the lowest total since 1997. San Francisco also caused turnovers as evidence by its 13 fumble recoveries, its highest total since 1997.

The San Francisco 49ers continued to build depth with a young squad of versatile and talented athletes in 2004. Despite a 2–14 overall record, the group was able to gain significant experience while individuals on both sides of the ball notched career milestones over the 16–game span. The 49ers also swept NFC West rival Arizona in two thrilling overtime battles in the confines of both Monster Park and on the road in Sun Devil Stadium. The team was also represented in the Pro Bowl for the 24th consecutive year as LS/TE Brian Jennings made his first trip to the Pro Bowl. Jennings was chosen to serve as a "need" player in Hawaii by the NFC coaching staff. On offense, TE Eric Johnson returned to the lineup after missing 2003 with a broken collarbone and paced the team with 82 receptions for 825 yards and two touchdowns. His performance was the best–ever by a 49ers' tight end.

WR Brandon Lloyd led the scoring attack with six touchdown receptions while RB Kevan Barlow steadied the ground game with 244 carries for 822 yards and seven touchdowns. Under center, QB Tim Rattay battled shoulder, forearm and foot injuries to play in nine games, including a career–best 417–yard performance in the 49ers first of two bouts against Arizona. Rattay rallied the offense from a 16–point fourth–quarter deficit to win 31–28 in overtime. In the process, he completed a team–record 38 passes en route to his first 400–yard game.

DT Bryant Young's 11 years of NFL experience served as the veteran voice behind the defensive unit. Young led the line with 79 tackles and three sacks and enjoyed a career game against Chicago after notching 10 tackles and two sacks, his 17th career multi–sack game. For his efforts, Young was presented the team's Len Eshmont and Bill Walsh Awards. It was an unprecedented fifth Len Eshmont award win for Young. DE John Engelberger responded with a career year, with a career–high 64 tackles. He led team with 6.0 sacks. Also a steady rock on defense was SS Tony Parrish, who started all 16 games to give him 112 consecutive career starts, the third–longest active streak at his position. LB Derek Smith also chipped in at the linebacker post, reaching the 100–tackle plateau for the eighth straight year. Smith and fellow LB Jeff Ulbrich led the team with 167 tackles. After a season–ending Achilles injury to LB Julian Peterson, LB Jamie Winborn stepped up with 104 tackles, 4.5 sacks and three forced fumbles.

The 49ers also saw much promise from a handful of young participants. Second–year T Kwame Harris played in 14 contests and did not allow a sack in the last five games after returning to the starting lineup on the left side. Also gaining experience on the line was rookie G Justin Smiley who played in all 16 games with nine starts. On the opposite side of the ball, rookie RCB Shawntae Spencer finished third in the league with 12 starts as a rookie. He also led the defensive unit with 12 passes defensed. Second–year DT Anthony Adams continued to flourish in his role, registering a career–high nine stops against Washington. The special teams unit remained staunch, led by the efforts of rookie P Andy Lee. Lee finished the season with a 41.6–yard average, the highest since P Reggie Roby during the 1998 campaign. He led all rookies in the NFC in gross average and boomed an 81–yard punt against Tampa Bay (11–21–04) which was the longest of 2004 and the fourth–longest in team history. Another rookie, S Keith Lewis, also made his presence felt as he became the first player in 49er history to block a punt, force a fumble and recover a fumble in the same season. Lewis was able to accomplish this trifecta on only special teams plays.

The San Francisco 49ers faced a tremendous amount of adversity during the 2005 campaign under new Head Coach Mike Nolan, but utilized both the highs and lows as opportunities to grow and improve. With a mix of veteran experience and young talent, the team doubled their win total from 2004 with a 4–12 record, including a series sweep over NFC West division rival St. Louis, a home win against playoff contender Tampa Bay, and a nail–biting overtime victory in the 2005 season finale against Houston.

The 49ers also made a historic trip to Mexico City to play NFC West division rival Arizona in front of an NFL–record 103,467 fans. Even though the 49ers lost a league–high 101 games by starters, including three of the four starters in the secondary, there were many individual and team bright spots, including strong showings from five players who started every game in 2005 (LB Derek Smith, NT Anthony Adams, G Justin Smiley, T Kwame Harris and C/G Eric Heitmann). Of the 11 original 2005 draft selections, 10 went on to spend the 2005 season on the 49ers roster and contributed on offense, defense and special teams. Six of the 10 started in some capacity throughout the season (RB Frank Gore, QB Alex Smith, G David Baas, T Adam Snyder, TE Billy Bajema and CB Derrick Johnson).

On offense, four different quarterbacks saw time under center. The most experienced of the four in the quarterback rotation, Tim Rattay, took the initial starting reins and led the 49ers to a 28–25 opening day victory against St. Louis. Shortly after, first overall draft pick Alex Smith made his professional debut, stepping in to relieve Rattay at Arizona in Mexico City. With the eventual trade of Rattay in Week 7 to Tampa Bay, and a knee injury to Smith, both Ken Dorsey and Cody Pickett also stepped in to call plays in the pocket. Smith returned to the starting lineup and gained valuable playing experience, seeing action in nine games with seven starts while showing outstanding poise and maturity in the pocket.

WR Brandon Lloyd led the aerial attack with 48 catches for 733 yards including five touchdowns from four different quarterbacks. WR Arnaz Battle also gained ground after rebounding from a knee injury, averaging 11.3 yards per catch while snagging three touchdowns. On the ground, RB's Kevan Barlow, Frank Gore and Maurice Hicks all chipped in 100–yard single–game performances and three touchdowns each. Gore had a stellar first season while pacing all 49ers rushers with 127 carries for 608 yards. After losing C Jeremy Newberry and LT Jonas Jennings to injuries, the offensive line was able to develop some consistency in the second half of the season with rookie LT Adam Sndyer and rookie G David Baas making significant strides as starters. Eric Heitmann also held strong as both a guard and center.

Defensively, veteran leader DE Bryant Young led the team with eight sacks (including three multi–sack contests), his most since 2000. His 77.5 sacks put him into third place on the 49ers all–time sack leader list. For his stellar performance, Young was voted by his teammates as the 49ers recipient of the Len Eshmont and Ed Block Courage Awards. Also paving the way was LB Derek Smith, whose 163 tackles led the 49ers, his fifth straight time to pace the unit. The team's co–MVP/Bill Walsh Award winner also notched his ninth straight 100–yard campaign. In the absence of an injured Jeff Ulbrich, LB Brandon Moore responded by finishing second on defense with career highs in tackles (93), sacks (5), interceptions (1) and fumble recoveries (1). Before he was lost for the season with a fractured fibula, S Tony Parrish posted two interceptions, returning one for a touchdown. His teammates, CBs Mike Adams and Shawntae Spencer led the team with four interceptions and a touchdown return each.

The special teams unit played a big part in the team's scoring efforts as co–MVP Bill Walsh Award winner K Joe Nedney accounted for 97 49ers points off of 28 field goals (including a 56–yard career long) and 19 extra points. P Andy Lee's three touchbacks in 107 punts placed him with the third–best ratio of touchbacks–to–punts among punters with 30 or more kicks in 2005. Special teams ace Terry Jackson stayed true to his form by leading the coverage unit with 21 tackles. And rookie return man Otis Amey got the season off to an electrifying start after returning a 75–yard punt for a touchdown in the season opener against St. Louis. Amey became the fifth 49ers rookie to return a punt for a touchdown and the first to do so on his first–ever return. He also became the second 49ers player (behind WR Nate Singleton) to score a touchdown on his first touch.

Under the direction of second–year Head Coach Mike Nolan, the 49ers continued to build a framework for success – that included utilizing young talent sprinkled with enough veteran leadership to mentor and keep the group heading in the right direction. After a 4–12 campaign in 2005, the 49ers significantly increased their win total to seven and closed the year with two, morale–boosting road wins in Seattle and Denver to finish 7–9. The organization picked up some key free agents prior to the start of the 2006 season, including All–Pro and future Hall of Fame G Larry Allen, speedy playmaker CB Walt Harris and 13–year NFL veteran and proven Super Bowl winner QB Trent Dilfer. Their acquisitions paid immediate dividends. Allen and Harris joined second–year RB Frank Gore at the Pro Bowl to mark the 25th time in club history the team has been represented, and Dilfer served as a sturdy mentor to second–year starting QB Alex Smith.

The 49ers also added talent through the draft, picking up nine immediate contributors. Eight of the nine draft picks (TE Vernon Davis, LB Manny Lawson, WR Brandon Williams, RB Michael Robinson, DE/LB Parys Haralson, TE Delanie Walker, S Marcus Hudson and DE Melvin Oliver) saw action during the season while three (Davis, Lawson and Oliver) were starters.

Offensively, the 49ers grew by leaps and bounds, largely in part to the schemes and game plans run by new Offensive Coordinator Norv Turner. QB Alex Smith began to flourish under Turner's guidance and became the first–ever 49ers quarterback to take every snap for the entire regular season while showing dramatic improvement in year two. He set career highs in every offensive category and led the 49ers to a fourth–quarter comeback win (24–14) in Seattle in his first career primetime game. C Eric Heitmann held strong under center, serving as the line's vocal and emotional leader and Bobb McKittrick Award winner. Leading the offensive production was RB Frank Gore, who plowed behind the line and new free agent FB Moran Norris en route to setting a franchise–record 1,695 rushing yards, tops in the NFC, and another record 2,180 combined yards. His 212–yard performance against Seattle was the highest single–game rushing total in 49ers history and was one of nine 100–yard rushing performances on the season. Gore was voted the team's co–MVP/Bill Walsh Award winner and Ed Block Courage Award recipient. Also chipping in was rookie TE Vernon Davis, who scored on his first NFL touch, a 31–yard touchdown catch in the season opener at Arizona.

The defensive unit overcame some early struggles and improved significantly during the second half of the season. LB Brandon Moore led the unit in tackles (114) and sacks (6.5) in his first year as a full–time starter. Consummate veterans LB Derek Smith (93 tackles), DT Marques Douglas (75 tackles, three sacks) and seven–time Len Eshmont Award winner DE Bryant Young (60 tackles, 5.5 sacks) led the group up front while CB Walt Harris and S Keith Lewis (72 tackles, two interceptions, one sack) proved to be new, impact presences in the secondary. Harris finished with one sack and a career–high eight interceptions including a 28–yard touchdown return at Denver. Rookie LB Manny Lawson wrapped his inaugural campaign with 65 tackles, 2.5 sacks, one interception and a blocked punt while rookie DE Melvin Oliver had 50 stops, one sack and a 12–yard fumble return for a touchdown. On special teams, K Joe Nedney amassed 116 points, the second–highest total of his career and eighth most in team history. Nedney was also successful on three onsides kicks. RB Maurice Hicks continued to play a key role in the special teams effort. He led the unit with 20 tackles, one fumble recovery and also returned 57 kickoffs for a franchise record 1,428 yards, third best in the NFC. Also making a difference on the special teams unit was rookie RB Michael Robinson, who finished with 16 stops and a 33–yard return for a first down on a fake punt at Seattle.

Head coach Mike Nolan and his team entered the 2007 season believing that anything less than the playoffs would be a disappointment. Unfortunately, the team fell far short of that mark with an overall 5–11 record as four different quarterbacks took the helm of the 49ers offense. 49ers fans did experience some highlights in 2007, including another 1,000–yard rushing season for RB Frank Gore and a stellar season by LB Patrick Willis. The 49ers top pick out of Ole Miss won Defensive Rookie of the Year and Pro Bowl honors. Willis was also the only NFL rookie to be named All–Pro in 2007, becoming the first 49ers defensive rookie to earn the honor since CB Ronnie Lott in 1981. His 226 tackles was an unofficial NFL record and Willis earned numerous additional accolades. P Andy Lee joined Willis at the Pro Bowl as he put together one of the greatest punting season in NFL history. Lee set an NFL record for punts downed inside the 20–yard line with 42, while ranking second in gross punting average (47.3) and net punting average (41.0) behind Oakland's P Shane Lechler.

The 49ers went 2–1 in primetime games in 2007, winning the season opener on Monday Night Football against the Arizona Cardinals and defeating the Cincinnati Bengals on a Saturday night game in December. QB Alex Smith started the season with a

2–1 record before experiencing a shoulder injury in the fourth game of the season against Seattle. He eventually was placed on Injured Reserve in December and underwent surgery. QB Trent Dilfer stepped in for Smith and led the team with 1,166 passing yards on 113–of–219 passing. Dilfer eventually would suffer a concussion vs. Minnesota (12–9), and QB Shaun Hill replaced the veteran in Week 13 of the season. Hill was sharp during his three games of action, completing 54–of–79 passes for 501 yards with five touchdowns and one interception. However, Hill would also succumb to injury, being sidelined with a back injury for the season finale. QB Chris Weinke saw action in the final game of the season.

Despite inconsistency on offense, the 49ers special teams unit was among the league's most elite in 2007. K Joe Nedney connected on 17–of–19 field goal attempts, while Lee booted 49 punts of 50 or more yards (16 more than any other punter). At the conclusion of the season, one of the all–time great 49ers, DT Bryant Young, retired from the NFL after 14 seasons with San Francisco. Young led the 49ers with 6.5 sacks and finished with 89.5 sacks for his career, which is third on the 49ers all–time sack list behind Cedrick Hardman and Tommy Hart. He earned his eighth Len Eshmont Award, given to the player who best exemplifies the inspirational and courageous play of Len Eshmont.

The San Francisco 49ers entered the 2008 season following a simple mantra, 'One game at a time.' Throughout the year, 49ers players and coaches experienced several transitions and tribulations, but did not allow their minds to linger in the past, nor venture too far into the future. The focused approach proved effective as the team won five of its final seven games to close out the season.

After a promising 2–1 start to the year, San Francisco dropped four straight contests before making a change at head coach. In his fourth season at the helm of the 49ers, Mike Nolan was replaced by assistant head coach/linebackers coach Mike Singletary. Upon accepting the position, Singletary said the foundation was in place to take the team to the 'next level.' The response by his players and staff proved positive as the 49ers finished with a 5–4 record under Singletary's direction. Immediately following the conclusion of the season finale against Washington, team President Jed York announced to onlooking players and coaches in the locker room that Singletary would remain the 49ers head coach moving forward. The quarterback position was one of the first areas that Singletary addressed when taking over midway through the 2008 season. QB J.T. O'Sullivan started the first eight games of the year and showed an ability to make big plays, but costly turnovers proved to be problematic for the signal caller. O'Sullivan was replaced at the end of the first half of Singletary's first game as head coach against Seattle. Singletary later announced QB Shaun Hill would take over the starting role for the remainder of the season. The move appeared to be the right one as Hill went on to post a 5–3 record and a 87.5 overall passer rating. While Hill made his season debut midway through the year, RB Frank Gore was once again the centerpiece of the 49ers offense.

Despite missing two games with an ankle injury, Gore became the first 49ers player to rush for over 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons, finishing the year with 1,036 rushing yards and 1,409 total yards from scrimmage. WR Isaac Bruce, who earned the team's coveted Len Eshmont Award in his first season in a 49ers uniform after spending 14 years with the Rams, recorded team–highs in receptions (61), receiving yards (835) and touchdown catches (7). TE Vernon Davis, who was named as an alternate for the Pro Bowl, finished the season ranked fourth on the team in receptions (31) and receiving yards (358).

On defense, Singletary consulted with defensive coordinator Greg Manusky and transitioned the unit into a more simplified, yet productive 3–4 alignment midway through the season. Over the final nine games of the year, the 49ers improved from 23rd in total defense to finish 13th (326.0) in the NFL. LB Patrick Willis earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl nod after totaling a team–high 185 tackles, while LB Takeo Spikes ranked second on the team with 122 tackles to go along with three interceptions in his first year with San Francisco. LB Parys Haralson had a breakout season with eight sacks, the most by a 49ers linebacker since Kevin Greene posted 10.5 in 1997. The 49ers defensive line got a boost with the offseason signing of DE Justin Smith, who ranked second on the team with seven sacks and fourth on the squad with 104 tackles.

As one of the most experienced units in the NFL, the 49ers secondary finished the season strong, allowing an average of 177.4 passing yards per game over the final five contests, which ranked third among NFL teams during that time span.

For the second year in a row, the 49ers special teams unit ranked among the best in the NFL. Led by special teams coordinator Al Everest, P Andy Lee, KR/PR Allen Rossum and RB Michael Robinson were all named alternates for the Pro Bowl. Lee finished the season ranked third in the NFL with a career–high and team–record 47.8 gross average.

The 49ers took a step forward in 2009, recording their best finish since 2002 with an 8–8 record in head coach Mike Singletary's first full season, which included a 5–1 record against the NFC West. The 49ers opened the season with a bang against the defending NFC Champion Arizona Cardinals. LB Patrick Willis, who was named to his 3rd consecutive Pro Bowl as a starter at year's end, recorded the first of his career–high 3 INTs on the year to propel his team to a 20–16 road victory. RB Frank Gore also played a large role in the win, scoring the go–ahead TD in the 4th qtr. as part of a 2–score performance. On the season, he went on to set personal bests with 10 rushing TDs and 13 total TDs, while becoming the only 49er ever to post four 1,000–yd. rushing seasons, despite missing two games to an ankle injury. Gore repeated his 2–TD performance the following week in a 23–10 victory at home against Seattle, running for scores of 79 and 80 yds. to join RB Barry Sanders as the only players in NFL history to register 2 TD runs of 75+ yds. in a single game.

With the momentum of a spotless division record, San Fran traveled to Minnesota for what would be an action–packed matchup. In a game where an ankle injury felled Gore on his first attempt, TE Vernon Davis rose to the occasion and recorded 2 TDs, one of which gave the 49ers a 4–point lead in the 4th qtr., which they held until Minnesota's last drive. Vikings QB Brett Favre milked every last second as he fired a 32–yd. TD pass with 2 seconds remaining, stabbing the hearts of 49ers fans. The 49ers bounced back the next week against St. Louis, defeating the Rams 35–0 to mark the first shutout by the team since 2002.

Following a crushing 45–10 loss to Atlanta at Candlestick Park, San Fran added another weapon to its arsenal as rookie WR Michael Crabtree joined the team over the bye weekend after missing the first 5 games of the season because of a contract impasse. Crabtree hit the ground running and went on to lead all NFL rookies with a 56.8 yds./game avg. over the final 11 contests. In his debut at Houston, the rookie dazzled the crowd with some acrobatic catches, but the show would eventually turn to two 49er veterans. After falling behind 21 points at halftime, Singletary made a change at quarterback, inserting Alex Smith into the lineup for Shaun Hill. Smith, who hadn't seen any action in nearly two years, responded by throwing a career–high 3 TDs in the final 2 qtrs., all of which were caught by Davis. Following the Texans game, Smith would go on to start the remainder of the season and register career–highs in passing TDs (18), completion pct. (60.5) and quarterback rating (81.5), while Davis proceeded to put up historic numbers on his way to being named a starter in his first Pro Bowl. The talented tight end finished the year with 965 yds. and tied the NFL single–season record for TD receptions (13) by a tight end. The next week at Indianapolis, the team lost starting LT Joe Staley on the first offensive play to a knee injury.

Behind the crafty play–calling of defensive coordinator Greg Manusky, the 49ers became the only team to hold NFL MVP QB Peyton Manning without a TD on the season. Despite the unit's valiant effort, the 49ers fell 18–14. A 34–27 loss to the Titans at home inspired the squad for a prime–time, Thursday Night Football showdown against Chicago. In what was a microcosm of the defense's season, the unit recorded 5 INTs, including SS Michael Lewis' victory–sealing pick in the end zone. After digging themselves a 23–3 hole at Green Bay, San Fran valiantly battled back in the final 2 qtrs., only to come up short by less than a TD in the 30–24 defeat.

The defense exacted revenge at home against Jacksonville the following week, allowing just 3 points as Davis and Gore each scored in the 20–9 victory. Despite a career–high 310 yds. passing from Smith, the 49ers lost in Seattle, 20–17, before returning home for a prime time, MNF rematch against Arizona. A statement game for the defense, the 49ers forced 7 turnovers (5 FRs, 2 INTs), including a franchise record 7 FFs, as the 24–9 win sealed the season sweep of the Cardinals. The Niners penchant for forcing turnovers allowed them to post the NFL's 5th–best turnover ratio in 2009 (33 takeaways; 24 giveaways). In the blizzard–beaten city of Philadelphia the following Sunday, the Niners struggled with turnovers in a 27–13 loss to the Eagles. Facing Detroit a week later, TDs from Davis and Gore led the way as the 49ers outgunned the Lions 20–6.

San Fran would move toward its final game in St. Louis with a chance to secure its first non–losing season since 2002. Overcoming a slow 1st half, Alex Smith and Co. put up 28 points in the final half, including a 73–yd. TD catch by Davis to register his record–tying total. Gore capped off the day with 2 TDs and his 5th 100–yd. performance of the year, giving him 20 such career games and tying him with Joe Perry for the franchise record.

The San Francisco 49ers entered the 2010 season with high hopes, having finished the previous season with their best record since 2002 and having five players named to the Pro Bowl. The 49ers dug themselves an insurmountable deficit with a 0–5 start that they ultimately could not overcome. San Francisco finished the year with a 6–10 record and a third place finish in the NFC West. The 49ers opened the season on the road against the Seattle Seahawks. With the arrival of former USC head coach Pete Carroll, the 49ers were not completely certain about what to expect and were stunned by a 31–6 loss.

The Niners opened their home slate on Monday Night Football against the Super Bowl Champion New Orleans Saints to Candlestick Park. RB Frank Gore rushed for 112 yds., and 1 TD on the ground and 1 through the air. 49ers QB Alex Smith passed for 275 yards, but his heroics were not enough as New Orleans posted a late FG giving the Saints a 25–22 victory. A dismal offensive performance in a 31–10 loss in Kansas City influenced head coach Mike Singletary to let offensive coordinator Jimmy Raye go and promote QBs coach Mike Johnson to the role of play–caller. In week 4 the Niners traveled to Atlanta. The 49ers started fast but their inability to finish, however, ultimately cost them a win as the Falcons edged them,16–14.

San Francisco returned home for its 2nd prime–time matchup in as many home games. NBC's Sunday Night Football pitted them against the Philadelphia Eagles. Again, San Francisco showed up under the brightest of lights, posting 309 yds. through the air including 3 TDs, but a late game INT gave the 49ers their 5th straight loss of the season, 27–24. The 49ers added some rays of hope against the visiting Oakland Raiders. Gore accounted for 149 yds. rushing, leading the 49ers offense to 349 yds. of total offense and earning the Niners their first win of the season, 17–9.

The 49ers next test would be at Carolina. The Niners failed to capitalize on a late–game lead and allowed the Panthers to mount a 20–23 comeback victory on a game–winning FG as time expired. Starting QB Alex Smith suffered an injured shoulder during the 4th qtr. At 1–6, the team boarded a plane and traveled to London for a week–long road trip to square off with the Denver Broncos in the 2010 International Series game. With QB Troy Smith at the helm due to the injury to Alex Smith a week earlier, the "home team" defeated Denver, 24–16. After the bye week, the 49ers returned home to defeat division foe St. Louis 23–20 in OT, behind the big–play arm of Troy Smith and the Frank Gore run game.

The ensuing 21–0 shutout by Tampa Bay at Candlestick, the first home shutout since 1977, inspired the squad for a prime–time, MNF showdown at Arizona. The defense held the Cardinals to just 13 yds. rushing and forced 2 turnovers. Unfortunately, perennial Pro Bowl RB Frank Gore suffered a fractured hip during the contest ending his season. After a forgettable 34–16 loss to Green Bay at Lambeau Field, San Fran erupted for a season–high 40 points against the visiting Seahawks. Mike Singletary had handed the started QB role back to Alex Smith after the GB loss, and he went on to throw for 255 yds. and 3 TDs in the 40–21 win. Despite the momentum the Niners seemed to gain they lost, 34–7, at San Diego in a Thurday night matchup.

Despite a 5–9 record, San Francisco was still in NFC West hunt. Looking for a spark Singletary once again switched QBs, this time to Troy Smith. The spark that was expected never came to be and the 49ers suffered a devastating, 25–17, loss at St. Louis. With the division title and all playoff hopes out of reach, team President and CEO Jed York relieved head coach Mike Singletary of his duties that evening. Defensive line coach Jim Tomsula was later promoted to interim head coach for the final week of the season. The 49ers battled to finish the season with a favorable taste in their mouths vs. Arizona. RB Brian Westbrook notched 2 TDs while Alex Smith threw for 276 yds., 2 TDs and a QB rtg. of 107.8, in a 38–7 win.

The San Francisco 49ers 2011 season began with great hope surrounded by as much, if not more, uncertainty, due in large to the arrival of head coach Jim Harbaugh and the lack of an offseason for the new coaching staff to gel with its players. By season's end, Harbaugh had led his team to a 14–4 record, a NFC West Division Title and a berth in the NFC Championship Game.

Although the 49ers became a blue collar unit focused solely on wins, individual honors were plentiful for the team in 2011. Harbaugh was named AP Coach of the Year at season's end and the team boasted a league–high five First Team AP All–Pros – DT Justin Smith, LB Patrick Willis, LB NaVorro Bowman, K David Akers and P Andy Lee (LT Joe Staley and CB Carlos Rogers were named to the Second Team). San Francisco also posted a NFL–high nine Pro Bowl selections – Smith, Willis, Akers, Lee, Rogers, Staley, S Dashon Goldson, RB Frank Gore, and LS Brian Jennings.

Led by Willis and Smith, both finalists for Defensive Player of the Year, the 49ers defense possessed the most dominant front seven in the game, a unit that produced 40 of the team's 42 sacks and a Defensive Rookie of the Year finalist, LB Aldon Smith, who set the franchise's rookie sack record (14). The unit began the year without allowing a rushing TD in its first 14 games, a feat never before achieved in league history. The defense's NFL–high 38 takeaways allowed the 49ers to lead the league with a team–record turnover differential (plus–28). By the end of the year, the defense ranked 1st in the NFL against the run, 2nd in points allowed, and 4th in total defense.

The San Francisco offense played a physical brand that controlled the tempo of games, rarely made mistakes and made plays when it was ultimately needed. Six times in 2011, QB Alex Smith, RB Frank Gore and the Niners offense mounted come–from–behind wins. The offense tied NFL single–season records for fewest turnovers (10) and interceptions (5). Gore became the franchise's all–time leading rusher surpassing Joe "The Jet" Perry. Smith put together his finest year as a pro, finishing the season with a 90.7 QB rating, a 61.4 completion percentage and the NFL's lowest interception percentage (1.1). The quarterback also tied the franchise record with four, 4th quarter come–from–behind wins on the road (QB Joe Montana – 4 in 1989).

Special teams lived up to its name for the 49ers in 2011, as the unit finished the season ranked atop the NFL. The team featured two record–setting specialists in Akers and Lee. Akers set the NFL record for most field goals made (44) and most points in single–season, no touchdowns (166), while Lee registered a 44.0 net punt average, also setting a new NFL record. KR Ted Ginn Jr. became the first player in franchise history to record a punt return for a touchdown and a kickoff return for a touchdown in the same game in the season opener versus Seattle.

Inside the friendly confines of Candlestick Park, San Francisco posted a 7–1 record. The Niners never trailed by more than 3 points at home all season and averaged 27.6 points per game, ranking 6th in the NFL. The 49ers also boasted a 6–2 record away from home. The 6 wins on the road were the most by the team since 1996 (6–2).

In the 49ers first postseason game since 2002, they defeated the New Orleans Saints, 36–32. TE Vernon Davis shined as he registered 7 receptions for 180 yards and 2 touchdowns, including the game–winning 14 yarder from Alex Smith with :09 remaining.

A magical season came to an end in the NFC Championship game, as the 49ers fell to the eventual Super Bowl Champion New York Giants in overtime, 17–20.

Carrying the heavy expectations from a trip to the NFC Championship in 2011, the 2012 San Francisco 49ers took a step further and won the NFC for the first time since the 1994 season. Head coach Jim Harbaugh led his team to a 11–4–1 regular season record, a second straight NFC West Title, and the sixth Super Bowl appearance in franchise history.

For the second consecutive season, accolades accompanied team achievement. The 49ers led the NFL with six First–Team AP All–Pro selections – LB Patrick Willis, LB NaVorro Bowman, LB Aldon Smith, G Mike Iupati, S Dashon Goldson, P Andy Lee and three Second–Teamers DT Justin Smith, LB Ahmad Brooks and T Joe Staley. In addition to the All–Pros, the 49ers also had nine players selected to the NFC Pro Bowl team – Bowman, Goldson, RB Frank Gore, Iupati, Aldon Smith, Justin Smith, Staley, S Donte Whitner and Willis. The Niners offensive line was also awarded the 2012 Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award, which recognizes the best offensive line in the National Football League.

The 49ers defense picked up where they left off in 2011, dominant. The unit, which returned 10 of 11 starters from 2011, finished 2nd in the NFL in total points allowed (17.1 pts. per game) and 3rd in total defense (294.4 yds. per game). Aldon Smith broke Hall of Fame DE Fred Dean's franchise sack record (17.5 in 1983), with 19.5. That mark was 2nd in the NFL in 2012 and t–10th in NFL history. A stone–wall rush defense held opponents to an average of just 94.2 yds. per game, which ranked 4th in the NFL and a pass defense that allowed 200.2 yds. per game that also ranked 4th. The defensive unit was one of two teams in the NFL to rank in the top five in all four categories (Denver).

A dynamic and physical rushing attack complimented the Niners defense in 2012. Gore surpassed RB Roger Craig and RB Joe Perry's franchise record of 50 career rushing TDs by punching in his 51st TD vs. Arz. (12/30). Entering the starting lineup in Week 11 due to an injured QB Alex Smith, QB Colin Kaepernick left opposing defenses in a daze with his versatility. In the Divisional Round of the playoffs vs. GB (1/12/13), Kaepernick set the NFL single–game rushing record by a quaterback with 181 yds. rushing and 2 TDs on 16 carries, as well as completing 17 of 31 atts. for 263 yds., and 2 TDs. Big plays from Kaepernick not only came on the ground, but through the air as he completed 21, 25+ yds. completions, which was good for 2nd in the NFL since taking over the starting job.

Special teams started the season off with K David Akers tying a NFL record long FG when he nailed a 63–yd. kick at GB (9/9). Andy Lee sat atop the NFL with a 43.2 net punting average and landed 36 punts inside the 20–yd. line, 3rd most in the NFL in 2012 and the second highest single season total of his career.

The 49ers were 6–1–1 at Candlestick Park this season, with the defense allowing just 9 TDs, the best in the NFL.

In addition to Kaepernick's record–breaking performance in the 49ers 45–31 Divisional Round victory vs. the Packers, San Francisco also became the first team in NFL history to ever have two, 100–yd. rushers [QB Colin Kaepernick (181 yds. rushing), RB Frank Gore (119 yds. rushing)] and one, 100–yd. receiver [WR Michael Crabtree (119 yds. receving)] in a playoff game. The following week, the Atlanta Falcons jumped out to a 17–0 lead in the NFC Championship Game at the Georgia Dome and Kaepernick led the charge by hitting 16 of 21 passes for 233 yds. and 1 TD with a QB rating of 127.7 as the 49ers came back to win 28–24. It was the 2nd largest deficit overcome to win a conference championship in NFL history.

The curtains closed on the biggest stage for the 2012 49ers as they fell to the Baltimore Ravens 34–31 in Super Bowl XLVII. The 49ers became the first team in Super Bowl history to have a 300–yd. passer, a 100–yd. rusher and two, 100–yd. receivers in a single game. Kaepernick threw for 302 yds., RB Frank Gore added 110 yds. rushing, WR Michael Crabtree tallied 109 rec. yds. and TE Vernon Davis recorded 104 rec. yds.

Following a trip to Super Bowl XLVII in 2012, the San Francisco 49ers battled through adversity and high expectations to reach the NFC Championship Game for the third year in a row. Head coach Jim Harbaugh led his team to a 12–4 regular season record as the team closed out historic Candlestick Park and moves to its new home in 2014, Levi's® Stadium.

Possessing a deep, talented roster, the 49ers had nine players selected to the 2014 Pro Bowl, the second most in the NFL – LB NaVorro Bowman, LB Ahmad Brooks, TE Vernon Davis, RB Frank Gore, G Mike Iupati, S Eric Reid, DT Justin Smith, T Joe Staley and LB Patrick Willis. San Francisco also had one First–Team AP All–Pro selection – Bowman, and four Second–Teamers – Brooks, V. Davis, J. Smith and Staley.

The 49ers defense continued its dominance under defensive coordinator Vic Fangio. The unit finished 3rd in the NFL in scoring defense (17.0 pts. per game), 4th in rushing defense (95.9 yds. per game), 5th in total defense (316.9 yds. per game) and 7th in passing defense (221 yds. per game). They were also the only team to not allow a 100–yd. rusher during the regular season.

In 2013, the Niners featured a balanced offensive attack. Frank Gore rushed for 1,128 yds. and 9 TDs, which ranked t–6th in the NFL, and WR Anquan Boldin registered team–highs in recepts. (85) and rec. yds. (1,179). It marked the first time since 2003 that the 49ers have had a 3,000–yd. passer, 1,000–yd. rusher and 1,000–yd. receiver in the same season. QB Colin Kaepernick passed for 3,197 yds., the most for a 49ers QB since 2002 (Jeff Garcia – 3,344). He also rushed for 524 yds. during the regular season, which is the 2nd highest single–season rushing total by a quarterback in franchise history (Steve Young, 1992 – 537). During the postseason, Kaepernick rushed for 98 yds. at GB (1/5/14 – NFC–WC) and 130 yds. at Sea. (1/19/14 – NFC–C). He now owns three of the top five rushing performances by a QB in NFL postseason history.

The 49ers special teams unit was spectacular all season long. Veteran K Phil Dawson made 32 of 36 FG atts., including a franchise–record 27 in a row, en route to recording the 2nd–most made FGs in franchise history. He made two game–winning FGs [vs. Sea. (12/8) and at Arz. (12/29)] and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Weeks 14 and 17 for both performances. Andy Lee finished the season with the 3rd–highest gross avg. (48.2 yds.) and 4th–highest net avg. (41.7 yds.) in the NFL.

San Francisco took part in the NFL International Series, defeating the Jacksonville Jaguars, 42–10, at Wembley Stadium in London. With the win, the 49ers became the second team to win multiple games at Wembley Stadium (New England).

The 49ers hosted the final regular season game at Candlestick Park against the Atlanta Falcons on Dec. 23. The game marked the 350th played by the 49ers in their longtime home, "It's an iconic venue," said Harbaugh when asked to sum up his feelings before the farewell game. "It'd be an honor to be on that sideline for the last game at Candlestick, and we want to win it." The 49ers would go on to win the game, 34–24, in epic fashion. In the 4th quarter, after closing the gap to 3 points and recovering a crucial onside kick, the Falcons seemed poised to score a go–ahead touchdown and threaten the festivities of the final game at Candlestick. However, The 'Stick had one last moment left when CB Tramaine Brock broke up a Matt Ryan pass and NaVorro Bowman made the interception and returned it 89–yds. for the score, sealing the legacy of the historic venue and sending the 49ers into the playoffs.

The season came to an end after dropping a back–and–forth contest with the division–rival Seattle Seahawks, 23–17, in the NFC Championship Game at CenturyLink Field. Jim Harbaugh became the first head coach in NFL history to lead his team to a conference title game in each of his first three seasons.

The San Francisco 49ers inaugurated Levi's® Stadium as their new home in 2014, a season that saw key legends RB Frank Gore and WR Anquan Boldin reach career milestones. With an 8–8 record, the 49ers overcame a slew of injuries to register their fourth–consecutive season with a .500–or–better record for the first time since 1998.

In the final game of 2014, Gore rushed for 144 yds. on 25 carries to become just the 20th running back in NFL history to eclipse the 11,000–yd. mark for his career. He finished the 2014 season with 1,106 rushing yds., becoming the 11th player in league history to rush for 1,000 yds. or more in eight seasons. Boldin also joined the NFL's elite ranks, becoming just the 17th player in league history to reach 900 career recepts. and the 24th player to record 12,000 receiving yds. He is now one of only four players to record 500–or–more rec. yds. in 12 consecutive seasons, joining the likes of Jerry Rice, Terrell Owens and Randy Moss. Boldin finished the season with 83 catches for 1,106 yds. and five touchdowns.

San Francisco was represented again at the 2015 Pro Bowl as T Joe Staley and G Mike Iupati were selected. Five other players – S Antoine Bethea, G Alex Boone, LB Chris Borland, RB Frank Gore and DT Justin Smith – were named as Pro Bowl alternates.

Defensively, no other team worked through adversity as efficiently as the San Francisco 49ers. Under the direction of defensive coordinator Vic Fangio, the 49ers defense ranked near the top in several categories for the fourth–consecutive season despite injuries to many key players, including All–Pro linebackers Patrick Willis and NaVorro Bowman. San Francisco finished with the league's 5th best unit overall (321.4 YPG), allowing the 7th fewest rushing yds. per game (100.8) and the 5th fewest passing yds. per game (220.7), and finished the season with a league–leading 23 INTs.

On the other side of the ball, San Francisco relied on bell cow running back Frank Gore to be the focal point of the NFL's 4th–best rushing attack, which averaged 136.0 yds. per game. The 49ers managed 62 plays of 10–or–more rushing yds. – 4th–most in the league – as Gore pieced together his eighth season of 1,000–or–more yds. QB Colin Kaepernick threw for a career–high 3,369 yds., 19 TDs and 10 INTs. He tied the franchise record for the most consecutive games with a TD pass (18) following a Week 12 victory over Washington [Steve Young – 18 (10/9/94 – 11/26/95)]. He also rushed for a QB franchise record 639 yds.

Led by K Phil Dawson and P Andy Lee, the 49ers special teams unit maintained its reputation as one of the league's finest. Dawson connected on 25–of–31 FG attempts, including the 2nd most made FGs of 50–or–more yds. among all kickers en route to becoming one of 19 players in NFL history to surpass 1,500 pts. scored. Lee finished the season with the 6th highest punting average (46.8).

San Francisco bid an end to the 2014 season with back–to–back home games. Against the Chargers in Week 16, the 49ers rushed for a franchise record 355 yds., with Gore and Kaepernick both registering150–or–more yds. on the ground. The duo became just the fourth pair of teammates to accomplish that feat in a single game in NFL history.

In the team's final home game, the 49ers topped the Cardinals, 20–17, in a tightly contested match–up. Gore eclipsed the century mark for the fourth time in 2014 and for the 39th time in his career, which is the second–most among all active players.

The 2014 season was full of highs and lows, ultimately resulting in the team missing the playoffs for the first time since 2010.

The 2015 season for the San Francisco 49ers was full of ups and downs, but ended on a high note as the team earned an overtime victory over division–rival St. Louis. LB NaVorro Bowman returned to the field after missing all of the 2014 season due to injury and started all 16 games as he led the NFL in tackles with 154 and earned First–Team All–Pro honors. Along with T Joe Staley, Bowman was one of two 49ers selected to the Pro Bowl.

The 49ers opened the season with a 20–3 win on Monday Night Football over the Minnesota Vikings led by RB Carlos Hyde, who rushed for a career–high 168 yards and two touchdowns. After a win at home over the Baltimore Ravens in Week 6, the 49ers dropped two division games to fall to 2–6 at the midway point in the season. Heading into Week 9, head coach Jim Tomsula tabbed QB Blaine Gabbert as the starter, as he promptly led the team to a 17–16 victory over the Atlanta Falcons who were 6–2 prior to the matchup at Levi's® Stadium. Two weeks later, San Francisco earned their fourth win of the season in dramatic fashion, as Gabbert connected with WR Torrey Smith for a 71–yard touchdown pass in overtime to beat the Chicago Bears on the road.

On offense, WR Anquan Boldin continued his Hall of Fame career by becoming the first player in NFL history to register 50–or–more receptions and 600–or–more yards in each of his first 13 seasons in the NFL. As the team's leading receiver for the third consecutive season, Boldin became just the 13th player in NFL history to record 1,000–or–more receptions in their career (1,009) and moved into 12th place all–time in receptions and 17th in NFL history in receiving yards (13,195).

Gabbert started the final eight games of the season for the team and threw for 10 touchdowns with a career–high completion percentage of 63.1%. In his first year with the 49ers, WR Torrey Smith showed off his speed and big play potential in becoming the first player in franchise history to register three receiving touchdowns of 70–or–more yards in the same season since WR John Taylor accomplished the feat in 1989. In hauling in 33 receptions for 663 yards and four touchdowns, he averaged 20.1 yards–per–catch, the highest in the NFL.

Under the guidance of running backs coach Tom Rathman, the team did not miss a beat in the rushing game throughout the season. Following an injury to Hyde, RB Shaun Draughn was brought in and registered career–bests in both rushing yards (273) and receiving yards (176) during his six games with San Francisco.

Defensively, NT Ian Williams, who suffered a season ending injury in 2014, returned to set a career–high in tackles while being named a team captain. DT Quinton Dial set a new career–high in tackles and 2015 first–round pick DL Arik Armstead registered two sacks while appearing in every game during his rookie season.

Second–year players made their mark on the defense in 2015 as LB Aaron Lynch built off his rookie season to post a career–high 6.5 sacks coming off the edge. DB Jimmie Ward also stood out, setting a career high with 65 tackles and recording the first pick–six of his career, playing all over the field.

On special teams, the ever–reliable K Phil Dawson continued his impressive career and led the team in points scored with 92. From Week 1 through Week 15, Dawson knocked through 19 consecutive FGs, the second longest streak in 49ers history. In Week 17, he became the 16th player all–time to reach the 1,600 career points mark and now made 386 career field goals, ranking t–9th in NFL history.

The 2016 San Francisco 49ers were a team that had some highs and lows throughout the year, but the team's young talent showed bright spots, including setting individual milestones.

Under the guidance of head coach Chip Kelly, the 49ers defeated the Los Angeles Rams 28–0 on ESPN's Monday Night Football at Levi's Stadium to open the season, marking the first shutout in franchise history on opening weekend.

Offensively, the 49ers finished with the fourth ranked rushing offense, averaging 126.2 yards per game on the ground. RB Carlos Hyde led the team with 217 carries for 988 yards and six touchdowns. In Week 14 vs. NYJ, Hyde put himself into the 49ers record books with 193 rushing yards, the sixth–highest total in a single game in franchise history. WR Jeremy Kerley, who joined the team via trade late in training camp, quickly found his groove in Kelly's offense and posted a career–high 64 receptions. T Joe Staley, who started 13 games and moved into the top ten for most games played by an offensive lineman in franchise history, earned the Bill Walsh Award as the team's MVP.

Defensively, DL DeForest Buckner, whom the 49ers selected seventh overall in the 2016 NFL Draft, quickly established himself as a rising start in the NFL. Buckner led all rookie defensive linemen with 73 tackles and tied for the team lead with 6.0 sacks. LB Ahmad Brooks registered 6.0 sacks as well, his eighth consecutive season with 5.0–or–more sacks as a member of the 49ers, and moved into sole possession of third place on the team's all–time sack list.

On special teams, K Phil Dawson became the 10th kicker in NFL history to record 400–or–more made field goals in his career and the 10th player in 49ers history to surpass 400 total points scored with the franchise.

The San Francisco 49ers began a new era in 2017 as the team welcomed the leadership of John Lynch as general manager and Kyle Shanahan as head coach to the organization. The 49ers completed the season on a five–game win streak to finish with a 6–10 record. The season got off to a rough start as the team lost five of their first six games by three points or less in each of the games, but finished as the hottest team in the NFL as winners of six of their final seven games and were the only team in the NFL to post a perfect 5–0 record in December.

The 49ers used both free agency and the NFL Draft to add key contributors in 2017. LB Brock Coyle, LB Elvis Dumervil, OL Brandon Fusco, WR Pierre Garçon, WR Marquise Goodwin, K Robbie Gould, FB Kyle Juszczyk and CB K'Waun Williams were some of many free agents that helped the team immediately, with Juszczyk earning Pro Bowl honors in his first year with the team. San Francisco selected DL Solomon Thomas with the 3rd overall pick in the 2017 NFL Draft after making a draft–day trade with the Chicago Bears. The 49ers then moved back into the first round to select LB Reuben Foster at 31st overall. The team's late–round picks in CB Ahkello Witherspoon, QB C.J. Beathard, TE George Kittle, WR Trent Taylor and DB Adrian Colbert, along with undrafted rookie free agents in RB Matt Breida and WR Kendrick Bourne, also made several starts throughout the year and were among the team's statistical leaders.

On October 31, 2017, the 49ers completed a trade with the New England Patriots to acquire QB Jimmy Garoppolo. Following the team's first win of the season against the New York Giants, Garoppolo made his Niner debut in the final drive versus the Seattle Seahawks. On the final play from scrimmage, Garoppolo tossed his first touchdown with the 49ers, a 10–yard pass to WR Louis Murphy. The following week, he made his first start with San Francisco in the team's Week 13 matchup against the Chicago Bears near his hometown of Rolling Meadows, IL. He would go on to lead the 49ers to five consecutive victories in the month of December after becoming the full–time starter. The 49ers won five consecutive games for the first time since 2013, and became the first team with 10–or–more losses prior to December to go undefeated from December 1st until end of season since the 1986 Indianapolis Colts. Garoppolo's 1,542 passing yards through his first five starts with the 49ers were the most by a quarterback in franchise history in their first five starts with the team and ranks fourth among all quarterbacks in their first five starts with a new team since the merger in 1970.

Defensively, San Francisco excelled under first–year defensive coordinator Robert Saleh. After battling through multiple injuries that left several key 49ers on the Injured Reserve List early in the season, the 49ers defense got better as the season progressed. Over the final six weeks of the season, San Francisco held opponents to an average of 87.7 rushing yards per game while giving up 100 rushing yards just once in that span. LB Elvis Dumervil registered a team–high 6.5 sacks on the season, becoming the 32nd player to register 100–or–more sacks and joined John Abraham as the only players to register at least 0.5 sack against all 32 teams in the NFL.

In his first season with the 49ers, K Robbie Gould had arguably the best season of his 13–year NFL career, and got better as the season went on. Registering a single–season career–high 145 points on the season, Gould connected on a career–high 39 field goals, which led the NFL. He joined K David Akers (44 FGs in 2011) as the only players in franchise history to lead the NFL in made field goals while his 39 made field goals tied for the 3rd–most in a single season in NFL history. In the month of December, Gould connected on each of his 18 field goal attempts and had a three–game stretch in December which he made 15 field goals, becoming the first player in NFL history to make 15 field goals in a three–game span, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. Against the Bears and in his first trip back to Chicago, Gould accounted for each of the team's 15 points, including the 24–yard game–winning field goal with four seconds left in the game. Two weeks later against the Titans, he set a single–game career high with six made field goals which tied the franchise record for most made field goals in a single game. Gould won NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for both Week 13 and Week 15 and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for December.

The San Francisco 49ers finished the 2018 season with a third–place finish in the NFC West, improving from fourth the previous season. Despite the team's 4–12 record, the 2018 season produced NFL records and franchise milestones from both the team and individual performances. The organization welcomed back the duo of gen– eral manager John Lynch and head coach Kyle Shanahan for their second season, as well as newly re–signed QB Jimmy Garoppolo, who led the team to wins in each of the final five games at the conclusion of the 2017 season. In an in–jury plagued season that included losing starting QB Jimmy Garoppolo and newly signed RB Jer–ick McKinnon to ACL injuries, the young core of the team stepped up to win two of their final four games in the month of December to close out the season. Over the past two seasons, the 49ers are tied for the second–most victories in the month of December with seven wins.

The 49ers were able to find several contrib–uting members of the 2018 team through both free agency and the draft. The team acquired key pieces such as C Weston Richburg, RB Al–fred Morris and CB Richard Sherman, a four–time All–Pro defensive back that helped provide vet–eran leadership and productivity to the team. With the ninth–overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft, the team selected T Mike McGlinchey, who started all 16 games for the team at right tackle. The 49ers then selected WR Dante Pettis in the second round (44th overall), who hauled in 27 recep–tions for 467 yards and five touchdowns. Pettis' five touchdowns are tied for the second–most in franchise history by a rookie. With their third–round pick (70th overall), San Francisco selected LB Fred Warner, who started all 16 games and logged the third–most tackles (122) among all rookies. The team's late–round picks of DB Tar–varius Moore, DB D.J. Reed Jr., S Marcell Harris, DT Jullian Taylor and WR Richie James Jr., along with undrafted rookies RB Jeff Wilson Jr. and TE Ross Dwelley, also made several starts and pro–vided substantial contributions throughout the year.

Following injuries to both Garoppolo and QB C.J. Beathard, undrafted QB Nick Mullens was able to fill the void and excel for San Francisco's offense after being promoted to the active roster from the team's practice squad on September 26. Mullens started all eight games he appeared in and accumulated the fourth–most passing yards by a quarterback in their first eight career games since 1970 (Patrick Mahomes, KC; Andrew Luck, Ind.; Cam Newton, Car.). In his NFL debut versus the Oakland Raiders on Thursday Night Football in primetime, Mullens threw for 262 yards and the second–best quarterback rating (151.9) by a passer in their NFL debut since 1973. The of–fense received an abundance of firepower from second–year TE George Kittle, who exploded onto the national scene and set an NFL record for most receiving yards by a tight end in a single season (1,377). Kittle also proved himself as a weapon in the open field, recording the most yards after catch by any player in the NFL since 2010 (870). Kittle earned Second–Team All–Pro honors, as well as his first Pro Bowl selection, after his his–toric season. On the ground, the 49ers were led by second–year undrafted RB Matt Breida who carried the ball 153 times for 814 yards and three touchdowns, while adding 27 receptions for 261 yards and two touchdowns. Breida finished the season with a 5.3 rushing average, which was fourth–best in the NFL.

On the defensive side of the ball, the 49ers fought through an assortment of injuries that in–cluded a different starting lineup in all 16 games, but came together as a unit towards the end of the season as they began to find continuity and success. DL DeForest Buckner led the pass rush–ing unit by collecting a career–high 12.0 sacks, which was the second–most among NFL DTs behind Los Angeles Rams DT Aaron Donald and the fourth–most by a member of the 49ers since 2000. Ronald Blair III (5.5) Cassius Marsh (5.5) and Arik Armstead (3.0) also provided support in the pass rush and set career highs in sacks on the season. Robert Saleh's unit also proved themselves to be a force against the run, ranking seventh in the NFL on the season with just 4.1 yards per carry allowed.

K Robbie Gould continued to shine in his sec–ond season with the 49ers both on and off the field as he was nominated the 49ers' Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year. Gould expanded on his streak from the previous season and set the franchise record with 33 consecutive field goals made 10/29/17 to 10/7/18. Gould finished the season leading the NFL with a 97.1 field goal percentage (33–34), which also set a franchise record. Over the past two seasons, Gould leads the entire league in field goals made (72) and field goal percentage (96.0).

The San Francisco 49ers finished the 2019 season with a 13–3 regular season record (2–1 in the postseason), a NFC West title and the num–ber one seed throughout the NFC Playoffs as head coach Kyle Shanahan led his team to Super Bowl LIV, the seventh Super Bowl appearance in fran–chise history.

The 2019 49ers featured three AP All–Pro se–lections in TE George Kittle (First–Team), DL De–Forest Buckner (Second–Team) and CB Richard Sherman (Second–Team) and four players named to the Pro Bowl (DL Nick Bosa, Kittle, FB Kyle Juszczyk and Sherman). The second overall pick in the 2019 NFL Draft, Bosa was also named AP Defensive Rookie of the Year, PFWA Rookie of the Year, PFWA Defensive Rookie of the Year, Sporting News Rookie of the Year and Pepsi Rookie of the Year. General Manager John Lynch was named Executive of the Year by the PFWA, while Sha–nahan was named Coach of the Year by Sporting News and NFC Coach of the Year by the Commit–tee of 101.

The 49ers defense was a dominant force throughout the season. San Francisco finished the regular season second in the NFL in yards al–lowed per game (281.8) and yards per play (4.66), first in forced fumbles (21), third in fumble re–coveries (13) and fifth in sacks (48). Defensive linemen Arik Armstead (10.0), Bosa (9.0), Buckner (7.5) and DL Dee Ford (6.5) combined to make the 49ers the only team in the NFL to have four–or–more players with 6.5–or–more sacks in the 2019 regular season. The 49ers linebackers were led by second–year LB Fred Warner, who was named NFC Defensive Player of the Month (November) and NFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 12). The linebacking corps was also bolstered by LB Kwon Alexander, who was the recipient of the team's Matt Hazeltine Iron Man Award, and LB Dre Greenlaw, who was named to the PFWA All–Rookie Team. The pass defense, led by 49ers Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nom–inee CB Richard Sherman, ranked first in the NFL with 169.2 yards allowed per game. The 169.2 passing yards allowed per game was the fewest allowed in the NFL since the 2009 New York Jets (153.7).

On offense, the 49ers excelled on the ground, as the 49ers led the NFL in rushing touchdowns (23), with the trio of RB Raheem Mostert (772), RB Matt Breida (623) and RB Tevin Coleman (544) running behind an experienced and tough offen–sive line. It marked the first time the 49ers had three players rush for over 500 yards in a single season since 1954. Through the air, QB Jimmy Garoppolo finished the regular season with 3,978 passing yards, the fourth–most by a quarter–back in franchise history. Kittle finished the year with 1,053 receiving yards and five touchdowns, becoming the first tight end in franchise history to register back–to–back 1,000–yard seasons (1,377 receiving yards in 2018). He also set the NFL record for the most receiving yards by a tight end in their first three NFL seasons (2,945 re–ceiving yards). The 49ers were given a boost by mid–season acquisition WR Emmanuel Sanders who complemented a young core composed of WR Deebo Samuel Sr. and WR Kendrick Bourne. Samuel Sr. tallied 57 receptions for 802 yards, the second–most receptions and receiving yards in a season by a 49ers rookie.

On special teams, K Robbie Gould delivered consistently in critical games down the stretch. Additionally, rookie P Mitch Wishnowsky was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 9).

The 49ers shut down the Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Divisional round, as San Francisco's de–fense held the Vikings to 147 total net yards (21 rushing and 126 passing). The defense registered 6.0 sacks of Vikings QB Kirk Cousins, tied for the second–most in a game in postseason franchise history. San Francisco then defeated the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Championship to advance to Super Bowl LIV. The 49ers season ended as they fell to the Kansas City Chiefs, 20–31, in Super Bowl LIV. Samuel Sr. finished the game with five recep–tions for 39 yards to go along with three carries for 53 yards. His 53 rushing yards were the most by a WR in a Super Bowl while his 32–yard run was the longest run by a WR in a Super Bowl. The 49ers defense registered 4.0 sacks while Warner and DB Tarvarius Moore both recorded an inter–ception of Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes in the loss.

Throughout 2020, the world faced an unprecedented Coronavirus pandemic that completely altered every facet of everyday life, including sports. On special teams, K Robbie Gould continued his consistent 49ers career. He was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Week 18 after connecting on two field goal attempts, including a 24–yarder in overtime. He also punted twice and finished with an average of 45.0 yards per punt, including one downed inside the 20 yard line. Additionally, P Mitch Wishnowsky earned the honor in Week 2 as well as being awarded NFC Special Teams Player of the Month (September) for the first time in his career.

The 49ers defeated the Dallas Cowboys on the road in the NFC Wild Card Round. The team excelled in the trenches as the offensive line did not allow a single sack for the first time in a postseason game since 2003, while the defense got to Cowboys QB Dak Prescott on five occasions. San Francisco went on to defeat the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Divisional Round, with the victory coming on the back of heroics by the 49ers special teams unit. DB Jimmie Ward and DL Jordan Willis each had crucial blocks that made San Francisco the first team to block both a field goal attempt and punt in a postseason game since 1989.

The 49ers season came to a close as they fell to the Los Angeles Rams, 17–20, in the NFC Championship Game. Samuel and Kittle each had a touchdown reception in the loss, while Ward registered his first career postseason interception. The 49ers offensive line did not allow a sack on the night, making the 49ers the first team not to allow a single sack in a pair of postseason games since 2019.

The San Francisco 49ers finished the 2022 season with a 13–4 regular season record that included a 10–game winning streak after a 3–4 start to the year. The Niners earned a postseason berth as the second seed in the NFC playoffs and were victorious against the Seattle Seahawks (NFC Wild Card) and Dallas Cowboys (NFC Divisional Round), paving the way to their 18th NFC Championship Game appearance in franchise history, and their third in the past four seasons (2019 and 2021).

The 2022 49ers boasted four AP First–Team All–Pro selections in DL Nick Bosa, S Talanoa Hufanga, LB Fred Warner and T Trent Williams, as well as two AP Second–Team All–Pro selections in TE George Kittle and S George Odum (special teamer). Seven 49ers were selected to the 2023 Pro Bowl Games (DL Nick Bosa, S Talanoa Hufanga, FB Kyle Juszczyk, TE George Kittle, RB Christian McCaffrey, LB Fred Warner and T Trent Williams). Bosa, Hufanga, Warner and Williams were each named to the Pro Football Writers of America All–NFL and All–NFC teams, while Kittle and McCaffrey both earned All–NFC honors and QB Brock Purdy earned a selection to the All–Rookie team.

In a year that saw Purdy, a rookie quarterback, become the team's starter in Week 13, the 49ers offense ranked fifth in the NFL in yards per game (365.6) and averaged 5.9 yards per play, the fourth–highest mark in the league, while finishing in the top–10 in rushing yards per game (138.8), yards per rush (4.68) and points scored per game (26.4). Purdy went 7–1 as a starter, including the playoffs, and became the first quarterback in franchise history to win their first five starts and the third rookie quarterback in NFL history to win at least their first five starts. He finished the year with 1,374 passing yards and 13 touchdowns, leading the league in passer rating (112.0) over the final five weeks of the season. The offense was led in 2022 by WR Brandon Aiyuk and RB Christian McCaffrey, who was aquired in a mid–season trade. Aiyuk registered 1,015 receiving yards and eight touchdowns, giving him the first 1,000–yard season of his career. McCaffrey, who was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week twice (Weeks 8 & 14) and NFC Offensive Player of the Month once (December/January), registered 1,210 scrimmage yards and 11 touchdowns after joining the team in Week 7.

The 49ers defense proved to be one of the most dominant in the league during the 2022 season. Led by Bosa and Warner, the defense finished first in the league in yards per game (300.6) and scoring defense (16.3), tied–first in interceptions (20), ranked fourth in yards per play (4.98) and tied for fifth in forced fumbles (16). The defensive line was led by Bosa, who earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week twice (Weeks 13 & 16), NFC Defensive Player of the Month once (November) and was named Defensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press, Committee of 101, Sporting News and the Pro Football Writers of America. He led the league in sacks (18.5) and quarterback hits (48). DL Samson Ebukam registered 5.0 sacks on the year and DL Charles Omenihu registered 4.5. The unit finished the year tied–10th in the league with 44.0 sacks. The linebacking corps was led by Warner, who tallied 2.0 sacks, one interception, 10 passes defensed and registered a team–high 130 tackles on the year, giving him his fifth–consecutive season with over 115 tackles. LB Dre Greenlaw finished close behind with 127 tackles on the season to go along with two forced and recovered fumbles, one of which was returned for a touchdown (Week 13 vs. Miami), and one interception. The 49ers secondary was led by the tandem of Hufanga and S Tashaun Gipson Sr., who combined for 156 tackles and nine interceptions. Gipson Sr.'s five interceptions were tied for the fifth–most in the NFL.

On special teams, K Robbie Gould connected on 27 of his 32 field goal attempts and 50 of his 51 extra point attempts, marking the 11th season of his career with at least an 80% field goal percentage and a 95% extra point percentage. His 23–yard field goal in overtime in Week 17 (at Las Vegas) helped keep the 49ers winning streak alive. P Mitch Wishnowsky averaged 39.7 net yards per punt and finished the year with the highest percentage of punts inside the 20–yard line (52.5%) in the NFL. Wishnowsky was also named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month (September) for the second time in his career. WR Ray–Ray McCloud III finished the season ranked second in the NFL in punt return yards with 356.

The 49ers hosted and won two playoff games at Levi's Stadium in 2022. The team defeated the Seattle Seahawks in the NFC Wild Card Round, 41–23, while registering 505 yards of offense, marking just the third time in franchise history that the team registered 500–or–more yards in a playoff game. The game was changed by the defense in the second half. Seahawks QB Geno Smith was sacked twice by Omenihu, with one being a strip sack, and once by Walter Payton Man of the Year nominee DL Arik Armstead.

San Francisco went on to defeat the Dallas Cowboys in the NFC Divisional Round, 19–12. Again, the defense made the difference, with Warner and DB Deommodore Lenoir registering interceptions on Cowboys QB Dak Prescott. Gould connected on all four field goal attempts and the lone 49ers touchdown was scored by McCaffrey.

The 2022 49ers season ended with a 31–7 loss to the Philadelphia Eagles in the NFC Championship Game. McCaffrey put the 49ers on the board with a 23–yard touchdown run and registered 108 yards from scrimmage on the day.

The San Francisco 49ers finished the 2023 season with a 12–5 record, starting the season 5–0 and winning seven of their last nine games. Head coach Kyle Shanahan led his team to its second–consecutive NFC West title, the number one seed throughout the NFC playoffs, third–consecutive NFC Championship Game and the eighth Super Bowl appearance in franchise history.

The 2023 49ers featured five AP First–Team All–Pro selections in FB Kyle Juszczyk, TE George Kittle, RB Christian McCaffrey, LB Fred Warner and T Trent Williams, as well as two AP Second–Team All–Pro selections in WR Brandon Aiyuk and CB Charvarius Ward. Nine 49ers were selected to the 2024 Pro Bowl Games, the most the team has donned since the 2013 Pro Bowl (DL Nick Bosa, DL Javon Hargrave, Juszczyk, Kittle, McCaffrey, QB Brock Purdy, Ward, Warner and Williams). Kittle, McCaffrey, Warner and Williams were each named to the Pro Football Writers of America All–NFL and All–NFC teams, while Bosa earned All–NFC honors. McCaffrey, who led the NFL in rushing yards in 2023, was named AP Offensive Player of the Year as well as the PFWA Offensive Player of the Year.

The 49ers boasted one of the most potent offenses in the NFL in 2023, finishing with top–five marks in total offense (398.4), scoring offense (28.9), rushing yards per game (140.5) and passing yards per game (257.9). The 49ers offense registered 491 total points and 6,773 total yards in 2023, both of which were the second–highest single–season marks in franchise history. In his first full season as a starter, Purdy led the NFL in passer rating (113.0) and yards per attempt (9.6), while setting the franchise record for passing yards (4,280) and throwing 31 touchdowns, becoming the first 49ers QB to throw 30–or–more touchdowns in a single season in 22 years. McCaffrey led the NFL in rushing yards (1,459), yards from scrimmage (2,023) and finished tied for the most total touchdowns (21). He became the first player since 1995 to lead the NFL in rushing yards after every week of an entire season. Aiyuk (1,342 receiving yards) registered his second–consecutive 1,000–yard season and added seven touchdown receptions. He and Kittle (1,020 receiving yards) became the first 49ers duo to register 1,000–or–more receiving yards in the same season since 1998. WR Deebo Samuel added 1,117 yards from scrimmage and 12 total touchdowns. In McCaffrey (2,023 yards from scrimmage), Aiyuk (1,342 yards from scrimmage), Samuel (1,117 yards from scrimmage) and Kittle (1,022 yards from scrimmage), the 49ers became the first team in NFL history to have a RB, two WRs and a TE each post 1,000–or–more yards from scrimmage in a single season.

The 49ers defense finished in the top–10 in the NFL in total defense (303.9) and rushing defense (89.7), tied for first in interceptions (22) and tied for the seventh–most sacks (48). San Francisco's defensive line was anchored by Bosa (10.5 sacks), Hargrave (7.0 sacks) and Walter Payton Man of the Year nominee DL Arik Armstead (5.0 sacks). Warner led the linebacker unit with a team–high 132 tackles, 2.5 sacks, four interceptions, 11 passes defensed and four forced fumbles, marking his sixth–consecutive season with over 115 tackles. LB Dre Greenlaw finished the season with 120 tackles, 1.5 sacks and four passes defensed. Ward led the secondary with 72 tackles, a NFL–high 23 passes defensed and a team–high five interceptions, one of which was returned for a touchdown (Week 15 at Arz.).

On special teams, rookie K Jake Moody connected on 21 of his 25 field goal attempts (84.0%) and 60 of his 61 extra point attempts (98.4%). His 60 made extra points led the NFL. In Week 2 at LAR, Moody connected on a 57–yd. FG, marking the longest made field goal by a rookie in franchise history and the second–longest made field goal in franchise history. P Mitch Wishnowsky averaged 42.7 net yards per punt, which ranked 10th in the NFL, and finished the year with the second–highest percentage of punts placed inside the 20–yard line (50.0%).

After earning the first–round Bye, the 49ers defeated the Green Bay Packers, 24–21, in the Divisional Round of the 2023 playoffs. Purdy threw for 252 yards and one touchdown to Kittle on the evening, while McCaffrey registered 128 yards from scrimmage and two rushing touchdowns. Greenlaw led the defensive unit by registering eight tackles and two interceptions, becoming the first 49ers player to register multiple interceptions in a playoff game since the 1994 season. San Francisco went on to host the Detroit Lions in the NFC Championship Game, earning a 34–31 victory. Purdy registered 267 yards and one touchdown to Aiyuk, while McCaffrey added another two rushing touchdowns. The 49ers became the first team in NFL history to win a Conference Championship Game after facing a deficit of 17–or–more points at halftime.

The 2023 49ers season ended with a 22–25 overtime loss to the Kansas City Chiefs in Super Bowl LVIII. WR Jauan Jennings threw a 21–yard touchdown pass to McCaffrey and caught a 10–yard touchdown pass of his own, becoming the second player in NFL history to throw and catch a touchdown in the Super Bowl. Armstead, Hargrave and DL Chase Young each registered a sack on Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes, while rookie S Ji'Ayir Brown registered one interception of Mahomes.

The San Francisco 49ers wrapped up the 2024 season with a record of 6–11. Despite injuries and adverse situations throughout the season, the 49ers were able to accomplish multiple milestones on the team and individual level. The 2024 49ers featured an AP First–Team All–Pro selection in LB Fred Warner, as well as two AP Second–Team All–Pros in FB Kyle Juszczyk and TE George Kittle. The team also boasted four selections to the 2025 Pro Bowl Games in DL Nick Bosa, Juszczyk, Kittle and Warner, as well as four alternates in DL Leonard Floyd, DB Deommodore Lenoir, QB Brock Purdy and T Trent Williams.

The 49ers offense finished in the top five in the NFL in yards per game (376.3) for the fifth time in head coach Kyle Shanahan's tenure with injuries to key contributors. The unit also finished fourth in total yards (6,397), tied for second in yards per play (6.2) and fourth in passing yards per game (249.1). San Francisco's offense was led by a receiving duo of WR Jauan Jennings and Kittle. Jennings registered career highs in receptions (77), receiving yards (975) and receiving touchdowns (six), while Kittle led the team in receptions (78), receiving yards (1,106) and receiving touchdowns (eight). Kittle also led all NFL tight ends in yards per reception (14.2) and games with 100–or–more receiving yards (four). Kittle's 1,106 receiving yards marked his second–consecutive and fourth overall season with 1,000–or–more receiving yards, which is the third–most in franchise history. He also became one of five tight ends in NFL history to register four career seasons with 1,000–or–more receiving yards. The passing attack also featured rookie WR Ricky Pearsall, who appeared in 11 games and registered 31 receptions for 400 receiving yards and three touchdowns.

Purdy finished the 2024 season completing 300 of his 455 passing attempts (65.9%) for 3,864 yards and 20 touchdowns with a passer rating of 96.1. Purdy also registered career highs in carries (66), rushing yards (323) and rushing touchdowns (five). Purdy's five rushing touchdowns led the team and were the most by a 49ers QB since the 2012 season. The 49ers rushing attack was led by RB Jordan Mason, who registered a career–high 789 rushing yards. Rookie RB Isaac Guerendo added 84 carries for 420 yards and four touchdowns in his debut season. WR Deebo Samuel Sr. tallied 42 carries for 136 yards and one rushing touchdown to go along with 51 receptions for 670 receiving yards and three receiving touchdowns, giving him 20 rushing touchdowns and 22 receiving touchdowns in his career. He became the only WR in NFL history to register 20–or–more rushing touchdowns and 20–or–more receiving touchdowns in a career.

The 49ers defense wrapped up the 2024 season with the fifth–best passing defense (192.8) and the eighth–ranked total defense (317.4) in the NFL. The defensive line was led by Bosa (9.0 sacks) and Floyd (8.5 sacks). Bosa tallied 52 tackles and the second interception of his career, while Floyd added 42 tackles. Fred Warner anchored the defensive unit, registering team highs in tackles (131) and forced fumbles (four). He also added 1.0 sack and two interceptions, one of which was returned for a touchdown. Warner became one of three players in the NFL to register 130–or–more tackles in each of the previous four seasons (2021–24) and became the second linebacker in franchise history to register 10.0–or–more sacks and 10–or–more interceptions in a career. The secondary was led by DB Deommodore Lenoir, who shared the team–lead in interceptions (two) and notched 85 tackles, nine passes defensed and one forced fumble. Rookie CB Renardo Green added 60 tackles, one interception, 13 passes defensed and one forced fumble. His 13 passes defensed became the most by a 49ers rookie since at least 2000.

On special teams, K Jake Moody hit 24 of his 34 field goal attempts and 32 of his 33 extra point attempts (97.0%). In Week 1 against the New York Jets, Moody connected on all six of his field goal attempts, which tied the franchise record for the most field goals made in a single game and earned him NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. Samuel Sr. handled the kick return duties for the majority of the year, registering 533 kick return yards, which marked a career high and ranked fifth–most in the NFL.
