Official Bank of the
Jacksonville Jaguars since 2010

EVERBANK STADIUM

EVERBANK STADIUM

The structure currently known as EverBank Stadium has been home to the Jacksonville Jaguars for more than 30 years. Following the construction of the facility on the previous site of the city's Gator Bowl, the stadium, then known as Jacksonville Municipal Stadium, debuted in time for the team's inaugural preseason game on Aug. 18, 1995.

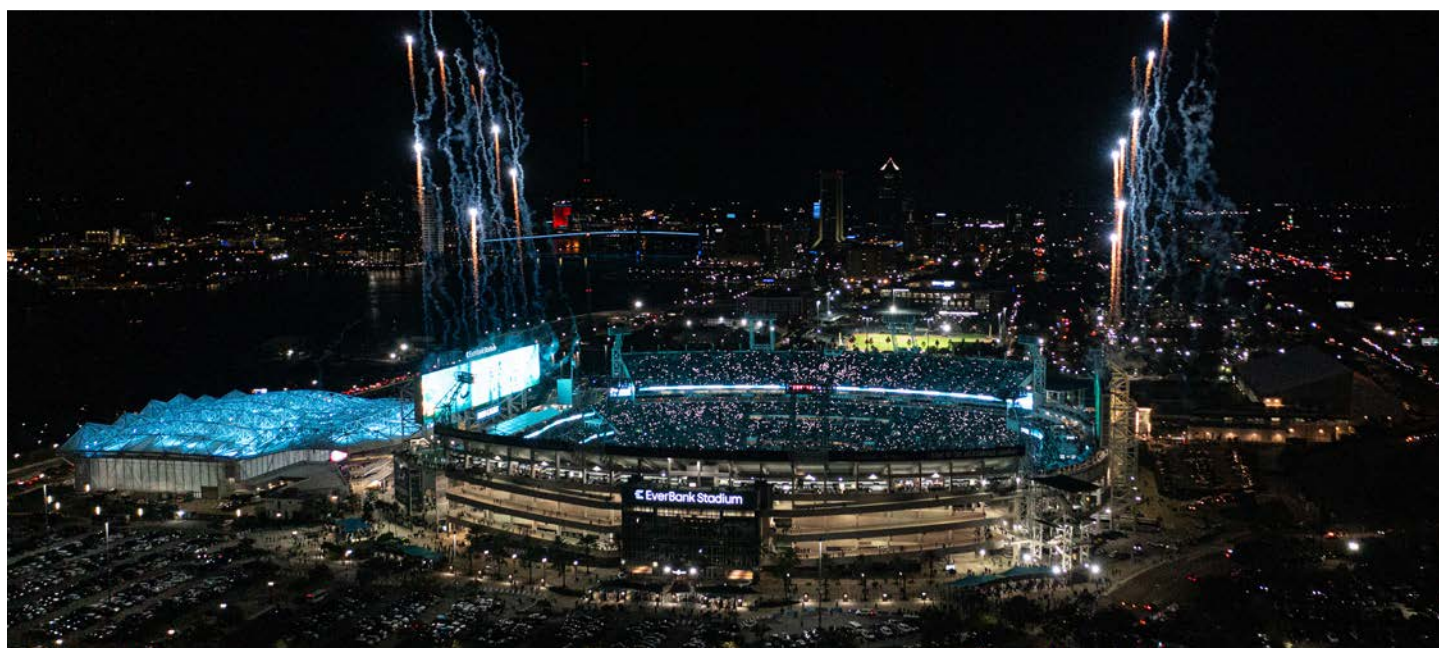

Jacksonville-based EverBank became the naming rights partner with the Jaguars when the stadium was named EverBank Field from 2010 through the 2017 season, changing to TIAA Bank Field in 2018 following a merger between the two banks that year. In 2023, the EverBank name returned with the EverBank Stadium name, bringing with it the tradition of partnership, reliability and trust, as the bank transitioned to new ownership and continues its long-standing commitment to provide a financial advantage to all its nationwide consumer and commercial clients.

This will be the final season in "The 'Bank," as it currently stands.

EVERBANK IN TRANSITION

As EverBank Stadium transitions into the world-class Stadium of the Future over the next two years, guests can expect some temporary changes on game day this season:

- Capacity will be reduced to approximately 42,500 for the 2026 season. Of the more than 27,600 seats that will be offline in 2026, 22,005 are located in the upper bowl (400 Level).
- The entire upper bowl, Sky Patio, and North End Zone deck including the two spas will be offline in 2026.
- The two spas in the North End Zone as well as the world's largest collection of outdoor in-stadium video boards are a part of the Stadium of the Future design.
- Daily's Place, the state-of-the-art entertainment facility adjacent to EverBank Stadium, is taking a planned temporary intermission. The 5,500-seat amphitheater will be back in action at a date to be named.
- TOUCHDOWN, the beloved Jaguars statue that greets fans on the west side of the stadium, will be on sabbatical until 2028 when he will be permanently relocated to his new home, welcoming fans at Gate 1.
- Since the conclusion of the 2025 season, more than 100 steel trusses to support the impending canopy structure have been installed and two new Grand Staircases - at Gate 2 and 3 - are complete and will lead fans from the plaza to the main concourse.

STADIUM OF THE FUTURE

STADIUM OF THE FUTURE

Construction on the Stadium of the Future is fully underway with a smaller, more intimate capacity and features of the forthcoming structure coming to fruition now. The stadium's complete renovation will accomplish the realization of Jacksonville's position as a world-class city, serving its people as the hub for sports, entertainment and community connection.

Through feedback from key stakeholders including Jaguars fans; the City of Jacksonville, current stadium management company ASM, athletic departments at the Universities of Florida and Georgia, TaxSlayer Gator Bowl leadership, U.S. Soccer Federation and prominent concert promoters, who manage and decide where major stadium concerts are held throughout the year, the Jaguars designed a facility that rivals any other.

The Stadium of the Future is a complement to the tremendous growth happening in Downtown Jacksonville, which includes the completion of riverfront parks, and the Four Seasons Hotel and Residences Jacksonville which will serve as the centerpiece of the adjacent Jacksonville Shipyards development.

TIMELINE

Proposed timeline for the Stadium of the Future:

- February 2025: Construction began
- Jaguars' 2025 season: Jaguars played at EverBank Stadium with 60,000+ capacity
- Jaguars' 2026 season: Jaguars play in Jacksonville with capacity of 42,500
- Jaguars' 2027 season: Jaguars to play one season away from Jacksonville at Orlando's Camping World Stadium
- August 2028: Stadium of the Future opens

STADIUM OF THE FUTURE

DESIGN HIGHLIGHTS

The key design features that stadium patrons would look forward to in the new facility include:

- A public subtropical Floridian nature park available for visitors and residents year-round to the elevated midlevel of the stadium on event days;
- Next generation transparent protective canopy providing sun, wind and rain protection, reducing heat retention by 70+ percent;
- Concourses that extend 360-degrees, four times wider than existing spaces, providing for convenient and safer movement of patrons attending sports, entertainment and special events;
- Flexible seating capacity from more than 63,000 to expand up to 70,000 to accommodate a range of professional and college sports, concerts and special events;
- A transformative environment creating distinctive event experiences through lighting and digital technology;
- Skyline and river views from lookout decks under a fritted roof membrane to introduce dispersed ambient light throughout the stadium interior;
- Increased seating options, including premium offerings from field to sky; and
- First-class interactive social bars, local food options and retail venues in communal spaces for all fans.

MILLER ELECTRIC CENTER

MILLER ELECTRIC CENTER

The Miller Electric Center, a state-of-the-art 125,000 square-foot facility that serves as home to the Jaguars football operations, opened on July 18, 2023. A public-private partnership between the Jaguars and the City of Jacksonville, the Miller Electric Center includes locker rooms, training and medical facilities, office space and a draft room. It is home to two full-size grass practice fields and one indoor field, along with shaded public viewing stands, concession areas and a team store.

MILLER ELECTRIC CENTER

POWERING PERFORMANCE

"Today is another example of vision becoming reality in Jacksonville," said Jaguars Owner Shad Khan at the grand opening celebration in 2023. "But what makes this particularly gratifying is the vision certainly wasn't mine alone. Our community, our city leadership, our football team and Miller Electric – everyone had the same vision and belief that we can do amazing things in Jacksonville. The best is still to come!"

- The dining hall is over 5,000 square feet in size and feeds players, coaches and staff up to three meals and two snacks every day. The facility has a full-service kitchen, a gas-fired pizza oven with a teal brick dome and features multiple self-serve and buffet stations.

- The team meeting room features auditorium seating for 153 with cushioned recliners. The room is designed with a video screen just over 23 feet wide and 13 feet high for watching film and other presentations.

- The Dream Finders Homes Locker Room includes 91 individual lockers allowing the full offseason camp roster to fit inside one space. It also features a sauna and steam room alongside showers and restrooms.

- The player lounge includes couches and recliners, televisions, a three-seat barbershop, ping pong table and a Full Swing golf simulator bay.

- The Miller Electric Center weight room is 9,420 sq. ft. with an additional 1,910 sq. ft. upper cardio deck. There are 14-custom designed teal and black, Jaguars-branded weightlifting racks.

- The indoor field features two hanging goals posts and two scoreboards. The ceiling height offers 71 feet of clearance. The two outdoor practice fields include 144,000 square feet of natural hybrid Bermuda grass.

- The Miller Electric Center training room has 12 treatment tables and six taping tables as well as two full-size medical examination rooms and three in-ground hydrotherapy pools.

- A full recovery room offers players eight zero gravity massage chairs, a cryotherapy chamber, a float tank and two LED beds.

- There are 2,090 seats in the fully-shaded grandstand, which features nine overhead fans for circulation and an overhead speaker system.

- There are two permanent concession stands and the fan plaza has permanent restrooms, both men's, women's and a family restroom.

- A 900 sq. ft. pro shop is open Monday-Friday weekly, during training camp and each home game at EverBank Stadium.

JAGUARS UK

Since making history in 2012 as the first NFL team to commit to playing four home games at Wembley Stadium, the Jaguars will celebrate their 12th game at the iconic stadium on October 18, 2026, against the Houston Texans. This follows a matchup with the Philadelphia Eagles on October 11 at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium, marking the third time that the franchise has played consecutive games in London.

The Jaguars became the first NFL team to ever play back-to-back games in London – one home game at Wembley and a road game at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium – in 2023. That ground-breaking development continued for a second consecutive year in 2024 when the team faced the Chicago Bears at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium on October 13, followed by a home victory at Wembley Stadium in front of a record-breaking attendance. The Jaguars' 15th game in London will be played in Week 5 vs. Philadelphia, and their 16th game will be played in Week 6 vs. Houston. Both games will kick off at 2:30 p.m. BST/9:30 a.m. ET.

JAGUARS IN THE COMMUNITY

Since first playing in London, the Jaguars have developed their own community-based programs, and at the end of 2024 were exceptionally proud to announce that 100,000 young people across the year had played a version of the flagship program JagTag across the UK and Ireland.

JagTag, presented by A.O., is a simplified version of American football and is delivered country-wide. It has a starter version named JagTag 101, which progresses to JagTag and JagTag Xtra Time, with many progressing on to their local BAFA (British American Football Association) teams through the various programs. Some players are advancing as far as being offered scholarships to play in universities across the UK. Jochebed Frimpong, a member of Great Britain's Women's Flag team who are the current European champions with sights firmly set on the Olympics, began by playing JagTag.

2026 also saw the launch of another community-based initiative when the Jaguars partnered with the prestigious Birmingham Royal Ballet (BRB) to deliver the Junior Roar cheerleading program. Trained by the Jaguars, BRB's teachers deliver Junior Roar to both boys and girls in schools across Birmingham, the UK's second largest city.

EXPANDING THE REACH

In 2022, the Jaguars were granted marketing rights to the UK as part of the NFL's International Home Marketing Area (IHMA) initiative, and have subsequently delivered coaching clinics and its JagTag program in Dublin. At the 2024 NFL Draft, the Jaguars became the first team to ever make a live draft pick from Ireland.

With a small but dedicated full-time team in the UK, the Jaguars are able to provide resources in market to maximize opportunities for the development and growth of the Jaguars brand across the UK and in the Republic of Ireland.

MEDIA

Developing channels specifically designed for a wider audience is part of the UK team's strategy to encourage the growth of the game and fandom across the UK and Ireland. TealTalk, the established Jaguars UK and Ireland podcast, has a cult audience and welcomes Sky Sports pundit and former NFL player Jason Bell as a regular guest to offer his expert opinion and help break down important plays in games during the season.

UK-specific social channels feature content specifically designed for an audience 'across the pond' and more bespoke content is planned across YouTube, with expert pundits joining to talk through plays from games and preview upcoming fixtures.

ROAR ON TOUR

The summer of 2026 was an exciting one when two members of the ROAR of the Jaguars, Emily Frick and Maya Ogunjobi, visited Birmingham and surprised the children participating in Junior Roar whilst at the studios of the Birmingham Royal Ballet. It was a superb occasion with media interest and celebrity guests including Cuban-British ballet director and celebrated (now retired) dancer Carlos Ascosta in attendance.

Maya and Emily then took part in a Girls together JagTag session in Birmingham, which was hugely successful, and for some, was their first exposure to the sport of American football. They also snuck in a visit to the Black Country Museum, a must for anyone wishing to learn the history of industrial Britain, and for those who watch Peaky Blinders!

JAGUARS IN THE COMMUNITY

BUILDING A BETTER JACKSONVILLE TOGETHER

Dear Community,

Both on and off the field, 2025 was a significant year for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Not only did your football team reverse its regular season win-loss record to win the AFC South title, but the organization's community impact overwhelmingly succeeded in its mission to uplift Northeast Florida by providing economic and equal opportunity through programs that strengthen our neighborhoods and develop our youth.

As you will read in this report, the Jaguars Foundation made meaningful strides in its three pillars of focus: neighborhood revitalization, youth development and NFL-wide initiatives, including support for the military, cancer awareness and prevention, and non-profit engagement, among others. These highlights include committing nearly 1,000 hours of time to organizations during National Volunteer Month, hosting more than 5,300 area goal-oriented students in the Honor Rows program and building an NFL Flag Championship winning 14U Boys' Jaguars Elite flag team in Canton.

Through the Jaguars Foundation, we strive to improve the lives of our families, friends and neighbors and build a better Jacksonville. Since 2012, the Jaguars and Khan Family have donated more than $39 million through the Jaguars Foundation in support of many worthy causes within our pillars.

On behalf of the Khan Family, I want to thank you all for your continued support of the Jaguars Foundation and our community. As was said time and again this season, it truly is about us. All of us.

Go Jags!

JAGUARS IN THE COMMUNITY

STRENGTHENING OUR NEIGHBORHOODS

NEIGHBORHOOD REVITALIZATION

The Jaguars believe when neighborhoods thrive, so do residents and ultimately their communities. The Khan Family and the Jaguars Foundation have and continue to make significant contributions to help maintain, develop and grow Jacksonville's neighborhoods, including supporting the revitalization of Jacksonville's OUTEAST neighborhood.

- Workforce Development – In 2025, the Jaguars partnered with AECOM Hunt and DeWalt Tools to support the Goodwill A-STEP (Academic Support Through the Employment Process) program. This free-to-students program has seen more than 140 graduates and provides adults in North Florida access to post-secondary education opportunities in the construction industry to elevate earning potential and job security through courses at Florida State College at Jacksonville.
- 904 Day – To celebrate 904 Day, a local celebration of activities representative of Jacksonville, the Jaguars participated in a block party proudly centered on the Historic Eastside marking the one-year anniversary of The Corner at Debs Store. The event honored the neighborhood's rich history, celebrated its present vibrancy, and invested in its future by bringing together residents, local businesses, artists, youth and community partners for a day rooted in culture, wellness and connection.
- Community Baby Shower – The Jaguars Foundation and Wolfson Children's hosted a Community Baby Shower for more than 20 expectant mothers and new parents. Attendees participated in a day filled with fun games, exciting giveaways and gifts, and valuable resources from regional experts at Wolfson Children's.

JAGUARS IN THE COMMUNITY

DEVELOPING OUR YOUTH

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT

The Jaguars strongly believe in investing in the next generation through education and sports. These two powerful tools offer productive environments in which youth can learn, grow and thrive. Through the Jaguars Literacy Locker Rooms, Honor Rows, scholarship opportunities and nonprofit partnership programs, the team is seeing thousands of children benefiting annually from the resources offered.

- Literacy Locker Rooms - The Jaguars Foundation, in collaboration with READ USA, created Literacy Locker Rooms in 2021 to promote the importance of literacy to area youth. Jaguars players and Legends visit local schools to spend time reading to the kids and to discuss the importance of reading and the impact literacy has had on their lives. The program distributes over 2,500 free books for students to take home for their personal libraries each year.
- Honor Rows - Founded during the Jaguars inaugural season, the Honor Rows program recognizes area students for their dedicated efforts in the areas of academic improvement, character and community service. During the 2025 season, more than 5,300 students earned a free ticket and an unforgettable experience.

- Girls Flag - The Jaguars partnered with Florida High School Football to help identify the top 25 female athletes named to the 2026 Girls Flag ALL-PREP team. During the girls' flag football season, the Jaguars and media partner Action Sports Jax teamed up to highlight girls flag games and the top athletes and coaches of the week. Each Coach of the Week received a $1,500 check for their school's football program. SHAD KHAN

OWNER

SEASONS WITH JAGUARS: 15

Shad Khan, described in a Forbes magazine cover story in 2012 as the “New Face of the American Dream,” and in 2026 by the same magazine as among the United States’ most successful living immigrants, saw his goal of owning an NFL team become reality on December 14, 2011, in a unanimous 32-0 vote by NFL owners in support of his purchase of the Jacksonville Jaguars.

A naturalized U.S. citizen, Khan arrived alone from Pakistan in 1967 at age 16 to study at the University of Illinois. With a B.S. in industrial engineering in 1971, he quickly ascended to engineering manager at Flex-N-Gate, then a small automotive parts manufacturer in Urbana, Illinois. In 1978, Khan left and with $13,000 in savings and $50,000 from the Small Business Loan Corporation, he created the start-up Bumper Works, which revolutionized manufacturing through an innovative one-piece bumper design that remains the industry standard. When Flex-N-Gate came on the market two years later, Khan purchased his former employer, brought Bumper Works into the fold and in the decades that followed built the company into the global leader it is today.

Flex-N-Gate is currently ranked by Automotive News as the sixth largest original equipment supplier in North America, the 44th largest supplier in Europe and the 32nd largest supplier in the world. Flex-N-Gate employs nearly 26,000 people at 78 manufacturing facilities and five advanced product development centers throughout the United States, Canada, China, Mexico, Argentina, Italy, Germany, France and Spain. Khan’s ingenuity in automotive design earned him recognition by Forbes in 2026 as one of America’s top 250 living innovators who were celebrated as part of the United States’ 250th birthday celebration on July 4.

Khan’s passion for the National Football League took root long before his entry into the league. His dream of one day owning an NFL team began while watching games with his fraternity brothers at the Beta Theta Pi house as a student at the University of Illinois. After closing on the purchase of the Jaguars on Jan. 4, 2012, Khan has been an active owner on NFL matters, a fan-friendly owner for the Jaguars and a tireless supporter for the continued advancement of the Jacksonville community, particularly its downtown.

Khan chairs two important NFL committees – the Legalized Sports Betting Committee, to which he was appointed chairman in 2018, as well as the influential Business Ventures Committee, which he has led since 2016. Khan was also elected by his fellow team owners to the important Compensation Committee and sits on the NFL Network Committee, the Finance Committee and the Health and Safety Committee. Separately, Khan’s vision for international growth, both for his Jaguars and the NFL, has been celebrated throughout sports and business circles as being the only team owner who made a long-term commitment to annually play in the important London and UK market. The Jaguars have played 14 games in London overall and will play two more in 2026, the latter coming in their traditional home away from home at Wembley Stadium, the national stadium of England.

In 2013, Khan complemented his sports club portfolio with his purchase of Fulham Football Club, established in 1879 as the oldest professional club in London. Fulham’s famed home ground, Craven Cottage, recently saw the completion of a spectacular renovation with the introduction of Fulham Pier – a one of a kind mixed use destination featuring a members club, boutique hotel and spa while also serving as the club’s premium match-day hospitality spectator stand on the banks of the River Thames. Fulham has finished comfortably in the mid-table of the English Premier League the past four seasons.

In Jacksonville, Khan’s belief in the potential of downtown helped lead to the Jaguars’ new sports performance home, the Miller Electric Center. Adjacent to EverBank Stadium, the Miller Electric Center is the result of a public-private partnership between Khan and was opened this year as a 125,000 square-foot facility that houses all of the team’s football staff and football operations including locker rooms, training and medical facilities, office space and a draft room. The complex includes two full-size grass practice fields as well as one indoor field along with shaded public viewing stands, concession areas and a team store.

The Miller Electric Center was the initial stage of a downtown effort to spur development of the nearby Jacksonville Shipyards and create a path toward the Stadium of the Future, whose plans were introduced in 2023 with private-public partnership funding approved by the City of Jacksonville in June 2024. The $1.4 billion stadium renovation project is underway, with completion targeted for 2028.

Khan’s affiliate real estate and development entity, led by his daughter Shanna, is spearheading the Jacksonville Shipyards project that includes the highly anticipated Four Seasons Hotel and Private Residences Jacksonville, a modernized marina and the recently opened a six-story office building which now is home to the Jaguars business operations. Khan also became owner and manager in 2022 of the locally beloved Seahorse Oceanfront Inn and Lemon Bar in nearby Neptune Beach.

On Dec. 16, 2018, Khan, an immigrant who became a naturalized U.S. citizen, joined 65 North Florida residents originally from 38 different countries as they took their final step in saying the “Oath of Allegiance” in front of 65,000 fans to officially become Naturalized U.S. Citizens at halftime of the Jaguars’ home game against Washington. It marked the first-ever U.S. citizenship ceremony held during an NFL game and now represents a tradition Khan has continued during a Jaguars home game every season since.

Emblematic of his spirit of living the American Dream, Khan was honored last year by the Carnegie Corporation of New York as a member of the 2025 class of Great Immigrants and Great Americans, whose contributions and actions as naturalized citizens have enriched and strengthened our society and democracy.

Now in his 33rd year as an executive in professional sports, Lamping became the Jaguars' first president since the end of the 1996 season and currently serves on the NFL Stadium Security & Fan Behavior Committee. In February 2025, the Jaguars announced Lamping and the club agreed to an employment contract extension through March 2030.

Lamping's career highlights include 13 years as a marketing executive with Anheuser-Busch, 14 seasons as president of Major League Baseball's St. Louis Cardinals and four years as CEO of New Meadowlands Stadium Company, where he oversaw the construction and operation of MetLife Stadium, home to the New York Giants and New York Jets of the NFL. The Giants' 2012 Super Bowl victory enabled Lamping to become one of the few sports executives to have received both a Super Bowl ring and World Series Championship ring. Lamping earned his World Series ring as president of the St. Louis Cardinals following their 2006 championship season.

As president of the Jaguars, Lamping oversees all team business operations in addition to managing other initiatives driven by team owner Shad Khan. Examples of Lamping's business impact include the team's commitment and investment in London and the United Kingdom, the construction and operation of Daily's Place and overseeing the development of the Stadium of the Future project. Construction related to the Stadium of the Future has begun, with the project slated for completion in time for the 2028 season.

As part of the stadium package, Lamping also steered a $300 million community benefits agreement with the City of Jacksonville that will support the nearby OutEast neighborhood, downtown parks, workforce development, affordable housing and more.

Under Lamping's direction and in partnership with the city, the Jaguars opened the Miller Electric Center in 2023 to serve as the new cutting-edge home for all Jaguars football operations. Lamping has also overseen many major fan-friendly enhancements to EverBank Stadium, including the installation of the collection of the world's largest video boards in 2014, a comprehensive renovation of Stadium Club areas, the construction of the 5,500-seat Daily's Place amphitheater which hosts 30+ concerts annually and numerous other amenities that have helped to transform and keep the stadium relevant for today's sports and entertainment fan.

In 2013, Lamping was named as a non-executive board member of Fulham Football Club, Khan's club that in August 2026 is competing in its fifth consecutive season in the English Premier League.

Lamping previously served as president and CEO of the New Meadowlands Stadium Company, LLC, beginning in 2008. Lamping was the president of the St. Louis Cardinals for 14 years, from Sept. 1, 1994, until March 31, 2008. In addition to the club's 1996, 2000, 2001, 2002 and 2005 Central Division titles and 2004 National League Championship, the Cardinals earned their 10th World Championship in 2006. In 1999 and again in 2003, the Cardinals were honored by United Sports Fans of America as Major League Baseball's Fan Friendly Team for their superior efforts to make a day at the ballpark more affordable and enjoyable. In addition to managing the club's business and facility operations, Lamping led the Cardinals' new ballpark initiative, and on April 10, 2006, the Cardinals officially dedicated the new ballpark, Busch Stadium. The perfect ending to the inaugural season at new Busch Stadium came in October with the Cardinals winning their 10th World Championship.

Lamping joined Anheuser-Busch in 1981 in the company's Corporate Planning Executive Development Program. He then served in a variety of positions including district sales manager in Southern Illinois and Central Iowa, senior brand manager for new products and director of sales operations before being named group director of sports marketing in 1989.

Jacksonville also became the only team in NFL history to have 30-plus takeaways one year after having fewer than 10 the season prior (31 in 2025, 8 in 2024).

Jacksonville's special teams unit was also one of the league's best. LS Ross Maticcik earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl nomination and was named an All-Pro by the Associated Press. K Cam Little set franchise records in points (140) and 50-plus yard field goals made (eight). Little also converted the two longest field goals in NFL history at 68 and 67 yards, respectively. WR Parker Washington set franchise records in punt return touchdowns (two), tied for the most in the league, and yards per punt return (13.6). As a team, the Jaguars ranked fifth in yards per punt return and sixth in yards per kickoff return in 2025, one of two teams to rank top six in both metrics.

Coen arrived in Jacksonville after spending one season as the offensive coordinator for the Tampa Buccaneers (2024). In his lone season in Tampa Bay, he led the NFL's only offense that finished in the top five in yards per game (399.6), scoring (29.5), passing yards per game (250.4) and rushing yards per game (149.2). Under Coen's direction, the Buccaneers became the first team in NFL history to complete 70 percent of their passes and average over 5.0 yards per carry throughout an entire season, in addition to becoming just the second team in league history with 40-plus passing touchdowns and 5.0-plus yards per rush in a single season.

Tampa Bay's offense established a number of single-season franchise records under Coen, including completion percentage (71.5 percent), passer rating (106.8), yards per rush (5.3), rushing yards (2,536) and third-down conversion rate (50.9 percent). Coen oversaw a complete overhaul of the team's rushing attack, improving the NFL's worst-ranked rush offense in 2022 and 2023 to a ground game that finished third in yards per rush and fourth in rush yards per game in 2024. Coen's 2024 offense was one of three across the league to throw for 4,000-plus yards and rush for 2,000-plus yards last season, alongside the Baltimore Ravens and Detroit Lions.

Individually, Coen helped QB Baker Mayfield to career highs in passer rating (106.8), completion percentage (71.4 percent), passing touchdowns (41) and passing yards (4,500), which put him among a group of 10 quarterbacks in NFL history with 4,500-plus yards and 40-plus passing touchdowns in a single season. Additionally, Coen oversaw OL Tristan Wirfs' Pro Bowl and first-team Associated Press All-Pro season and WR Mike Evans' NFL-record-tying streak of 11 consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons. Mentored by Coen, RB Bucky Irving led all rookies in scrimmage yards (1,514), rushing yards (1,122) and rushing touchdowns (eight), while WR Jalen McMillan tied for second among this year's rookie class in receiving touchdowns (eight).

Coen brought 15 years of coaching experience to Jacksonville, including five years in the NFL. Before his stint with Tampa Bay, Coen served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Kentucky for the 2023 and 2021 seasons during which he put forth two of the highest-scoring single seasons in school history. The 2021 Wildcats team amassed 56 total touchdowns while the 2023 Wildcats team scored 50 total touchdowns.

Prior to his most recent stint with the Wildcats, Coen was the Rams' offensive coordinator in 2022 after spending time as the club's assistant quarterbacks coach (2020) and assistant wide receivers coach (2018-19). Coen contributed to an offense that ranked among league leaders across those seasons in passing yards per game (248.1; sixth), third-down conversion rate (41.9 percent; eighth), and rushing touchdowns (77; fourth).

As assistant wide receivers coach in 2018, Coen helped guide Robert Woods and Brandin Cooks, who each topped 1,200 yards that season on the way to a Super Bowl appearance. The following year, Woods and Cooper Kupp each surpassed 1,100 receiving yards, marking the latter's first 1,000-yard campaign.

Prior to his time with the Rams, Coen spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator for the University of Maine (2016-17). He came to the University of Maine from the University of Massachusetts (2014-15), where he had served as the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator. Coen also spent three years as the quarterbacks coach at Brown University (2010, 2012-13) and one year as the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator at the University of Rhode Island (2011).

Prior to his coaching career, Coen played quarterback at the University of Massachusetts. He holds the program records for completions (830), attempts (1,302), completion percentage (63.7 percent), passing yards (11,031), yards per attempt (8.5), passing touchdowns (50) and passer rating (150.7). He graduated in 2008 with a degree in communications. A native of Wakefield, Rhode Island, Coen and his wife, Ashley, have two sons, Jackson and Callahan.

Grant Udinski was hired as offensive coordinator on February 5, 2025. He enters his seventh season coaching in the NFL and second in Jacksonville after three seasons (2022-24) with the Minnesota Vikings, most recently as the assistant offensive coordinator/assistant quarterbacks coach.

Udinski helped lead the Jaguars record-breaking offense to new heights in 2025. The Jaguars ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in points per game (27.9 - sixth), scoring margin (+138 - fourth), first downs (356 - seventh) and total touchdowns (55 - fifth). The team's 474 points scored, 55 touchdowns and 356 first downs also established new franchise records.

Individually, QB Trevor Lawrence had a career year and was named an MVP and Comeback Player of the Year finalist under Udinski's guidance as he had a franchise-record 38 total touchdowns, threw for over 4,000 yards and finished fifth in passing touchdowns (29) and tied second in rushing touchdowns (nine) among NFL quarterbacks. Lawrence flourished during the team's eight-game win streak to close out the regular season, going without a turnover in a four-game span (Weeks 13-16), tied for the third longest streak in the NFL in 2025. In that same span, he had four consecutive games with a passer rating of 100.0-plus, tied for the league's second-longest streak in '25.

RB Travis Etienne Jr. surpassed the 1,000 rushing yard mark (1,107 - 11th most in NFL) and produced 13 total scores (seven rushing, six receiving), tied for the seventh most among NFL running backs. Etienne Jr. ranked second in receiving TDs (seven), tied ninth in runs of 20-plus yards (seven) and tied seventh in rushes of 40-plus yards (three) among NFL running backs. WR Parker Washington (58 receptions for 847 yards and five touchdowns) and TE Brenton Strange (46 receptions for 540 receiving yards and three receiving touchdowns) saw career highs in every major receiving category in their first year working with Udinski. Jacksonville was one of four teams to have three players with 700-plus receiving yards (Washington, WR Brian Thomas Jr. and WR Jakobi Meyers) in 2025. WR Jakobi Meyers, a mid-season acquisition, made an immediate impact ranking third in receiving first downs (28), fourth in receptions (42) and seventh in receiving yards in the AFC after joining the team in Week 10.

During the 2024 season, the Vikings offense finished top 10 in the NFL in multiple categories including sixth in passing yards per game (237.8), seventh in passing yards per play (7.38), ninth in points per game (25.4) and 10th in first downs per game (20.8). Minnesota was 9-1 in one-possession games in 2024, the second-best mark league-wide. Their 15 games with 20-plus points scored tied for second-most in the NFL and their 432 total points marked their third-highest total in franchise history. Three members of the Vikings offense (QB Sam Darnold, WR Justin Jefferson and T Brian O'Neill) were named to the 2025 Pro Bowl Games, and Jefferson was voted a unanimous AP First-Team All-Pro.

QB Sam Darnold finished the regular season fifth in the NFL in passing yards (4,319) and passing touchdowns (35) and sixth in passer rating (102.5). He became the first quarterback in NFL history to record 14 wins in his first season with a team and the winningest quarterback in a single season in Vikings history. Darnold finished tied for the second-most games with a 100.0-plus passer rating in a season in NFL history (13), matching the season totals of Aaron Rodgers in 2011, Patrick Mahomes in 2018 and Lamar Jackson in 2024 (min. 20 attempts). He led the NFL in completions of 20-plus yards with 62 and completions of 25-plus yards with 41.

Jefferson ranked second in the NFL with 1,533 receiving yards. His 28 receptions of 20-plus yards led the NFL and were seven more than any other player, and his 14.9 yards per reception were the highest in the league (min. 70 receptions). receiving yards and nine receiving touchdowns, tying for second in franchise history for the most receiving touchdowns by a player in his first two seasons (19). The Vikings were one of two teams in the NFL in 2024 with two players in the top 10 in touchdown receptions (Jefferson, tied-sixth, and Addison, tied-ninth). For the third time in team history, Minnesota had three wide receivers with at least six receiving touchdowns in a season (Addison, Jefferson and Jalen Nailor) and were one of three teams in the NFL in 2024 to achieve the feat.

Udinski also served as assistant quarterbacks coach/chief of special projects in 2023 and previously served as the assistant to the head coach/special projects in 2022.

In his first season as assistant quarterbacks coach, the Vikings finished in the top 10 in the NFL in passing yards per game (fifth; 256.4), fourth-down percentage (tied-sixth; 58.62), passing yards per play (ninth; 6.91) and first downs per game (10th; 20.0).

He helped navigate the 2023 season with four different starting quarterbacks, the most in franchise history, due to a season-ending injury to QB Kirk Cousins in Week 8. Before his injury, Cousins ranked third in the NFL in passer rating (103.8) and completion percentage (69.5). In addition to Cousins, Udinski assisted in preparing rookie Jaren Hall, Joshua Dobbs and Nick Mullens, who each started multiple games for the Vikings throughout the season. Minnesota won three consecutive games with a different starting quarterback in Weeks 8-10 (Cousins, Hall and Dobbs). The Vikings' quarterbacks combined for 74 completions of 20-plus yards, the second-highest total in the league and the most by a Vikings team since 2000. Their 30 combined touchdown passes tied for fourth-most in the league.

Udinski entered the NFL ranks as coaching assistant with Carolina (2020-21) after spending the 2019 season at Baylor as a graduate assistant.

Prior to becoming a coach, Udinski played defensive end at Towson from 2016-18. He played in all 12 games in 2018, finishing the season with 28 total tackles, 4.5 sacks and three forced fumbles. The Doylestown, Pa., native also played one season at Davidson College as a tight end before transferring to Towson in 2016.

Metcalf (1,048) logged 1,000-yard seasons, making the Seahawks one of five teams in the NFL that season with two players with over 1,000 receiving yards.

In 2021, Waldron helped to develop RB Rashaad Penny as the Seattle rushing attack finished third in the NFL with 5.02 rushing yards per attempt. Lockett set a single-season career-high in receiving yards (1,175), while Metcalf set career-highs in receptions (75) and receiving touchdowns (12). QB Russell Wilson also became the second quarterback in NFL history to record at least 3,000 passing yards and 20 touchdowns in each of his first 10 seasons.

Spencer Whipple is entering his second season with the Jacksonville Jaguars as quarterbacks coach and eighth season coaching in the NFL.

In his first season with Jacksonville, the Jaguars set franchise scoring records with 474 points, 27.9 ppg and 55 touchdowns. The team scored 25-plus points in 13 games in 2025, tied for the NFL lead. Their eight straight games with 25-plus points scored from Weeks 9 to 16 also tied for the longest streak in the NFL in 2025. Whipple helped lead a passing attack that ranked sixth in the NFL in scoring (franchise-record 27.9 ppg) and tied seventh in completions of 20-plus yards (57).

He worked closely with QB Trevor Lawrence who had a career year and was named an MVP and Comeback Player of the Year finalist as he had a franchise-record 38 total touchdowns, threw for over 4,000 yards and finished fifth in the NFL in passing touchdowns (30). Lawrence flourished during the team's eight-game win streak to close out the regular season, going without a turnover in a four-game span (Weeks 13-16), tied for the third longest streak in the NFL in 2025. In that same span, he had four consecutive games with a passer rating of 100.0-plus, tied for the league's second-longest streak in '25.

Whipple came to Jacksonville after six seasons with the Arizona Cardinals, most recently as pass game specialist (2023-24). He served as co-pass game coordinator in 2022 after working as assistant wide receivers coach for two seasons (2020-21) following one year (2019) as offensive quality control coach with the Cardinals.

Whipple aided the development of rookie WR Marvin Harrison Jr., whose eight touchdown catches tied the rookie franchise record and tied-second among NFL rookies in 2024. Harrison Jr.'s 52 receptions and 885 receiving yards were each second-most by a rookie in team history and fifth among all rookies in 2024. TE Trey McBride was named to his first Pro Bowl after catching 111 passes for 1,146 yards. His 111 receptions were second-most in single-season franchise history and the fourth-best total in NFL history by a tight end, and his 1,146 receiving yards were second-most by a tight end in franchise history. QB Kyler Murray's 2024 season ranked in the top 10 in franchise history in multiple categories including completion percentage (second; 68.8), completions (third; 362), passer rating (sixth; 93.5) and passing yards (seventh; 3,851).

Whipple worked with All-Pro WR DeAndre Hopkins in each of his three seasons (2020-22) with the team. In his first season with Arizona in 2020, Hopkins was selected to his fifth-career Pro Bowl and received Second-Team All-Pro honors after a franchise-record 115 receptions (second in the NFL) for 1,407 yards (third in the NFL) and six touchdowns. He also tied for second in the league with seven 100-yard receiving games in 2020. In 2022 in only nine games played due to injury, Hopkins led the team in receiving yards (717) and was second in receptions (64) after finishing with eight touchdowns in only 10 games in 2021.

In 2021, Arizona's offense had 4,276 passing yards and 2,076 rushing yards, marking just the second time in franchise history (1984) that the Cardinals had 4,000-plus passing yards and 2,000-plus rushing yards in a season. The Cardinals had 6,352 net yards, the second-highest total in franchise history (2015) and finished with the 10th ranked passing offense in the league (251.5 yards per game). During the team's Week 6 victory at Cleveland in 2021, Whipple called plays in collaboration with the offensive coaching staff due to Head Coach

COACHING STAFF

Kliff Kingsbury missing the game because of COVID-19.

Arizona's 6,153 net yards in 2020 were third-most in team history while their 410 points were fifth-most in franchise history.

Prior to joining the Cardinals in 2019, Whipple spent seven years coaching at the collegiate level. He coached for five seasons (2014-18) at the University of Massachusetts where he served as the passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 2018. Whipple joined the UMass staff in 2014 as tight ends coach before working three seasons (2015-17) as passing game coordinator/wide receivers coach.

In 2018, UMass WR Andy Isabella was a Biletnikoff Award finalist after leading the FBS in the regular season with 1,698 receiving yards. He finished second in the nation with 102 receptions and fifth in the country with 13 touchdown receptions. Isabella was a consensus First-Team All-American and finished with the most receiving yards in school history (3,526). In 2017, Minutemen wide receivers had the third-most total receptions (272) and receiving yards (3,570) in school history.

Whipple also tutored WR Tajae Sharpe, who was drafted by the Titans in the fifth round of the 2016 NFL Draft. In 2015, Sharpe set a single-season reception record (111) to go along with a school career record for total receptions (277). He was a two-time First-Team All-MAC selection at UMass.

Prior to working at UMass, Whipple served as a defensive graduate assistant and video assistant at the University of Pittsburgh from 2012-13. He played collegiately for three seasons (2009-11) at the University of Miami (FL) as the team's holder and backup quarterback. During his senior season in 2011, Whipple received the Mariutto Family Scholar-Athlete award. He began his college career as a walk-on at the University of Pittsburgh (2007) and spent one season at UMass (2008).

His father, Mark, is a longtime college and NFL football coach who most recently served as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at the University of Nebraska in 2022 after working in the same position for three seasons (2019-21) at the University of Pittsburgh. He previously served two stints as head coach at UMass and also worked in the NFL as an offensive assistant coach with Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Cleveland.

RB Aaron Jones Sr. rushed for a career-high 1,138 yards, the ninth-highest total in the league last season. Jones Sr. was one of five running backs in the NFL with at least 250 carries in 2024 to average at least 5.0 yards per touch (5.5). T Brian O'Neill allowed only 2.0 sacks on the season, per Pro Football Focus, and was named to his second-career Pro Bowl.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Sarrett spent three seasons with the Los Angeles Chargers as assistant offensive line coach (2021-23). Sarrett helped the Chargers rank in the top three in the NFL in passing offense in back-to-back seasons (2021-22) and finish top 10 in total offense in each of those seasons. The Chargers concluded the 2021 season tied for second in passing yards per game (282.4) and fourth in total yards per game (390.2), while they ranked third in passing yards per game (269.6) and ninth in total yards per game (359.3) in 2022. The offensive line also contributed to the Chargers scoring the fifth-most points per game (27.9) in 2021.

Under Sarrett's guidance in 2022, the offensive line helped QB Justin Herbert become the first player in NFL history to surpass 4,000 passing yards in each of his first three seasons and join Hall of Famer Peyton Manning as the only players to record at least 25 touchdowns passes in three consecutive seasons to begin a career. The unit also blocked for RB Austin Ekeler, who led the NFL for a second-straight season with 18 touchdowns from scrimmage and set single-season career highs with 1,637 yards from scrimmage, 915 rushing yards, 13 rushing touchdowns and 107 receptions.

In his first season with the Chargers in 2021, Sarrett helped coach C Corey Linsley and develop rookie T Rashawn Slater, the 13th overall selection in the 2021 NFL Draft. Both linemen were named to the Associated Press All-Pro Second Team and were voted to the Pro Bowl as starters, marking the first pair of Chargers offensive linemen to be named to the Pro Bowl since 2008. Slater was also named to the All-AFC and All-Rookie Teams by Professional Football Writers of America.

The offensive line helped Hebert set single-season franchise records in passing yards (5,014) and passing touchdowns (38) during the 2021 season. On the ground, Ekeler totaled 12 rushing touchdowns, the most by a Charger since Hall of Famer LaDainian Tomlinson in 2009. The offensive line also contributed to Los Angeles' single-season team records for first downs (401) and passing touchdowns (38) during the 2021 season.

Sarrett entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2012, spending nine seasons with the organization (2012-20). As the offensive line coach in his final two seasons in Pittsburgh (2019-20) and assistant offensive line coach during the 2018 season, Sarrett coached both G David DeCastro and C Maurkice Pouncey to three-consecutive Pro Bowl appearances. Pouncey was also named AP All-Pro Second Team in 2018. During his first six seasons as offensive assistant (2012-17), the Steelers led the AFC in total offense in both 2014 and 2015 and ranked in the top five in the NFL four out of Sarrett's nine cumulative seasons with Pittsburgh. The club secured five AFC North Division titles during Sarrett's tenure with the Steelers.

Sarrett began his coaching career at Streetsboro High School (Ohio) in 2004, working with both the offensive and defensive lines and guiding the team's strength and conditioning efforts. After a year at the prep level, Sarrett spent a season working as a defensive quality control coach at Marshall University (2005), before serving as an offensive graduate assistant for the Thundering Herd for two seasons (2006-07). He then went to Duke University as an offensive assistant/offensive quality control for four seasons (2008-11).

A native of Beckley, W.Va., Sarrett played four years on the offensive line at Kent State (2000-03), graduating in 2004 with a degree in health education. He is married to his wife, Amy.

Edgar Bennett enters his second season with the Jacksonville Jaguars as wide receivers coach in 2026 and his 22nd season coaching in the NFL. Bennett came to Jacksonville after spending seven seasons (2018-24) in the same role with the Raiders.

In his first season at the helm of the Jaguars receivers room in 2025, he led a balanced attack that featured three 700-yard receivers, Jacksonville was just one of four teams to do so. Bennett helped WR Parker Washington reach career highs in every major statistical category as he totaled 58 receptions for 847 yards (14.6 avg.) and five touchdowns, including a career-long 63 yard catch. WR Jakobi Meyers, a mid-season acquisition, made an immediate impact ranking third in receiving first downs (28), fourth in receptions (42) and seventh in receiving yards in the AFC after joining the team in Week 10. WR Brian Thomas Jr. registered 48 catches for 707 yards and two scores.

In 2024, WR Jakobi Meyers set a career high in receptions (87) and posted his first 1,000-yard receiving season (1,027) to rank 10th in the AFC in receiving yards. Meyers became the 11th undrafted player in NFL history to record 1,000 receiving yards in a single season and the first to do so since 2020. Second-year WR Tre Tucker set career highs in receptions (47), receiving yards (539) and touchdown receptions (three), ranking third on the team in each category.

In 2023, Bennett coached WR Davante Adams to his fourth consecutive season with 100-plus catches (103) and 1,000-plus receiving yards (1,144). He also saw Meyers post a career-high eight receiving touchdowns, while adding 71 receptions and 807 yards.

In 2022, Bennett coached WR Davante Adams to his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl selection. In his first season with the Raiders, Adams set a franchise record with 1,526 receiving yards on 100 receptions, while his 14 receiving touchdowns were the most in the NFL and tied for second-most in a single season in franchise history. Bennett also coached WR Mack Hollins to career highs with 57 receptions, 690 receiving yards and four touchdowns.

Under Bennett's guidance in 2021, WR Hunter Renfrow put together one of the greatest seasons in franchise history by a Raiders wide receiver to earn his first Pro Bowl selection. Renfrow set career-highs in receptions (103) and receiving yards (1,039), becoming the first Raiders wide receiver to surpass 1,000-plus receiving yards since 2016.

In 2020, Bennett's wide receivers recorded an NFL-best average of 15.2 yards per reception. It marked the highest average yards per reception by a Raiders wide receiving corps since 2004. WR Nelson Agholor posted 48 receptions for a career-high 896 receiving yards while tying a career high with eight touchdown receptions. His 18.7 yards per reception marked a career high and were first in the AFC and second in the NFL.

In 2019, Bennett developed a rookie Renfrow to produce 49 receptions for 605 yards and four touchdowns, marks that ranked second, sixth and tied for fourth, respectively, in franchise history among rookies.

In Bennett's first season with the Raiders in 2018, he oversaw a group led by WR Jordy Nelson, who finished second on the team in both yards (739) and touchdown receptions (three), while finishing third in receptions (63).

Bennett spent the previous 17 seasons (2001-17) with Green Bay in multiple roles, serving as the team's offensive coordinator from 2015-17, wide receivers coach from 2011-14, running backs coach from 2005-10 and as the team's director of player development from 2001-04. Bennett also spent five seasons playing running back for the Packers. As a player and coach, Bennett won 11 division titles, appeared in six conference championships and won both Super Bowl XXXI in 1996 and XLV in 2010.

COACHING STAFF

During his three-year tenure as the offensive coordinator, Bennett helped orchestrate an offense that finished with 96 touchdown passes, the most in the NFC and second most in the NFL during that time frame. In 2017, Bennett's offense ranked fifth in the NFL in yards per rush (4.47) and tied for sixth in the NFC with 25 touchdown passes on the season. Guided by Bennett in 2016, QB Aaron Rodgers put together one of the best passing seasons in team history, throwing for 4,428 yards, completing over 400 passes for a completion percentage of 65.7, while adding an NFL-high 40 touchdowns through the air to just seven interceptions. As a first-time coordinator in 2015, Bennett's offense's 17 turnovers were the fifth fewest in club history and fourth fewest in the NFL that year. Green Bay rostered four wide receivers that notched at least 50 receptions in the same season, just the third time the feat had been accomplished since 1940.

From 2011-14, Bennett's receiving corps featuring wide receivers Randall Cobb, James Jones and Nelson made the Packers one of just three teams to roster three receivers with at least 20 receiving scores each during that span. The three combined for 92 receiving touchdowns. Nelson accounted for 43, fourth-most in the NFL, and finished sixth in the league with 4,841 receiving yards in that time span.

Prior to his move to wide receivers, Bennett served six years as a running backs coach for the Packers from 2005-10. In his six years, Bennett coached running backs to 1,000-yard seasons three different times. Before going into coaching, he spent four years in the Packers front office, serving as the team's director of player development from 2001-04.

A native of Jacksonville, Fla., Bennett played eight seasons in the NFL at running back for the Green Bay Packers and Chicago Bears after being selected by Green Bay in the fourth round of the 1992 NFL Draft. He played in 112 games (77 starts) and tallied 3,992 yards and 21 touchdowns on 1,115 carries and added 284 receptions for 2,245 yards and 10 receiving touchdowns. He won Super Bowl XXXI with the Packers as a player and was inducted into the team's Hall of Fame in 2005.

Bennett played collegiately at Florida State University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in social science and was inaugurated into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005. He has a son, Edgar IV, and a daughter, Elyse Morgan.

Richard Angulo enters his fifth season with the Jacksonville Jaguars as tight ends coach and his 13th season coaching in the NFL in 2026.

In 2025, Angulo helped TE Brenton Strange emerge, setting career highs in receptions (46), receiving yards (540) and receiving touchdowns (three) despite missing five games due to injury. Strange helped the Jaguars stretch the field, hauling in nine receptions of 20-plus yards, tied for the eighth most in the NFL among TEs. After returning from injury in Week 12, Strange (336) had the second most receiving yards among AFC tight ends. Jacksonville went 11-1 in regular season games Strange played.

Under Angulo's guidance in 2024, TE Evan Engram logged his eighth consecutive season with more than 40 receptions (47) in just nine games played, making him one of three tight ends in the NFL since 1970 to record at least 40 receptions in each of their first eight seasons. Since Angulo's first season in 2022, Engram ranks second in receptions (234) and fifth in receiving yards (2,094) among tight ends.

Angulo also facilitated the development of second-year TE Brenton Strange, who set career highs in receptions (40), receiving yards (411) and receiving touchdowns (two) last season. In Week 15 against the New York Jets, Strange recorded single-game career highs in receptions (11) and receiving yards (73). His 11 receptions tied for fifth-most in a single game in franchise history. Strange recorded seven receptions of 20-plus yards, tied for third-most in the AFC among tight ends in 2024.

In 2023, Engram earned Pro Bowl honors under Angulo and broke his previous franchise records in receptions (114) and receiving yards (963) by a tight end. Additionally, his 539 yards after catch were the most by a tight end in team history. Engram became the eighth tight end in NFL history to record at least 100 receptions in a single season and the second player in franchise history. Under Angulo's guidance, Engram joined Jeremy Shockey as the only tight ends in NFL history with 40 or more receptions and 400 receiving yards in each of their first seven seasons.

In 2022, Angulo led a tight end room that played an important part in the Jaguars' offensive success. Under Angulo, Engram set single-season franchise records in receptions (73) and receiving yards (766) by a tight end. Engram's receptions and receiving yards were also career highs.

Angulo spent the previous eight seasons in Baltimore serving as a coaching intern (2014), tight ends coach (2015-16) and assistant offensive line coach (2017-21).

In 2021, Angulo assisted a Ravens offensive line that ranked third in rushing yards (145.8 yards per game), fourth in rushes of 10-plus yards (67), fifth in total scrimmage yards (6,746) and tied-ninth in rushing TDs (18).

In 2020, Angulo helped guide an offensive line that blocked for the NFL's top-ranked rushing attack (191.9 yards per game), which averaged a league-high 5.53 yards per carry, produced the third-most rushing yards (3,071) in a 16-game NFL season and recorded a franchise-record 24 rushing TDs. The Ravens also owned the seventh-best scoring offense (29.3 points per game) and fourth-best third-down offense (48.8 percent). During the season-ending five-game winning streak to earn a playoff berth, Baltimore's league-best rushing attack gained the most rushing yards (1,337) over a five-game stretch of a single NFL season since the 1950 Giants (1,369).

In 2019, the Ravens led the NFL in points (33.2) and rushing yards per game (206.0) and finished second in total yards (407.6) en route to a franchise-best 14-2 record and a second-straight AFC North title. With help from the offensive line, the Ravens set a new NFL single-season rushing record (3,296), besting the 1978 Patriots (3,165). Baltimore became the first team to ever average 200 passing and 200 rushing yards per game in a season. The 2019 Ravens also set single-season team records for TDs (64), points (531), net yards (6,521), rushing yards (3,296), first downs (386) and fewest turnovers (15).

In 2018, Angulo helped the Ravens post the NFL's No. 2-ranked rushing attack (152.6 yards per game). In 2017, he helped guide an offensive line that permitted the league's seventh-fewest sacks (27, tied Vikings).

From 2015-16, Angulo served as Baltimore's tight ends coach after being promoted from his original position of offensive coaching intern (2014). In 2016, Angulo guided the Ravens' deep tight ends corps, highlighted by TE Dennis Pitta, who led the NFL in receptions (86) by a tight end and produced the second-most (tied, WR Derrick Mason - 2005) catches in Ravens single-season history. In 2015, Angulo helped lead a young tight ends group that contributed to the league's

Prior to his time in Baltimore, Angulo spent two seasons as the offensive line/strength and conditioning coach at Trinity International.

Angulo is a six-year NFL veteran at the tight end position and was originally drafted in the seventh round by the St. Louis Rams in the 2003 NFL Draft. He played for four teams, including the Jaguars, where he appeared in 20 games (six starts) and caught a career-high 16 passes for 144 yards and one TD. He attended Western New Mexico University.

Chad Morton enters his second year as running backs coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. He has 17 years of NFL coaching experience.

In his first season in Jacksonville in 2025, the Jaguars ran for 22 touchdowns, tied for the fourth most in the NFL that season and the second most in franchise history. Morton guided RB Travis Etienne Jr. to one of his finest seasons as a pro, recording a career-high 13 total touchdowns (seven rushing, six receiving) and 1,399 scrimmage yards (1,107 rushing and 292 receiving). Etienne Jr. ranked second in receiving TDs (seven), tied ninth in runs of 20-plus yards (seven), tied seventh in rushes of 40-plus yards (three) and 11th in rushing yards (1,107) among NFL running backs. Etienne Jr. joined 49ers RB Christian McCaffrey as the only players since 2022 to have at least seven rushing touchdowns and six receiving touchdowns in a season.

Morton also helped a pair of rookie running backs - Bhayshul Tuten and LeQuint Allen Jr. - emerge as consistent contributors. Tuten produced seven total touchdowns and five rushing touchdowns, both of which ranked tied fourth among AFC rookies in 2025. Allen Jr. excelled as a third-down pass blocker and made a big impact on special teams, returning 24 kicks for 617 yards (25.7 avg.) and totaling three tackles, two fumble recoveries and one forced fumble.

Under Morton's guidance, RB D'Andre Swift finished the 2024 season with 959 rushing yards, the second-highest total of his career. His 1,345 scrimmage yards set a new career high and were the most by a Bears running back since 2020. Swift totaled three rushing touchdowns of at least 35 yards, third-most by any player in the NFL in 2024 and tied for second-most in single-season franchise history since 1925. He registered four-consecutive games with 100-plus scrimmage yards and a rushing touchdown in Weeks 4 through 8, tying RB Jahmyr Gibbs and RB Joe Mixon for the longest such streak in the NFL last season. Swift's 9.2 yards per reception were a career high and ranked fifth in the NFL among running backs.

Morton spent the previous 10 seasons (2014-23) in various roles for the Seattle Seahawks. He was originally hired as assistant special teams coach in 2014. In 2015, he began working with the running backs and took charge of the running backs room in 2017. In 2022, Morton added the title of run game coordinator.

In 2023, despite missing two games, RB Kenneth Walker III recorded 219 carries for 905 yards and eight touchdowns. Walker tied for 12th in the NFL in rushes over 10 yards (24), tied for 13th in rushing touchdowns, 14th in rushing yards per game (60.3) and tied for 15th in carries. Rookie RB Zach Charbonnet ranked fourth in rushing yards among rookies in 2023.

Morton's group saw the emergence of a rookie Walker in 2022 after RB Rashaad Penny suffered a season-ending injury in Week 5 at New Orleans. Before his injury, Penny averaged 6.1 yards per carry and posted a 151-yard, two-touchdown performance in Week 4 at Detroit. Walker assumed the starting role and went on to lead all NFL rookies in rushing yards (1,050), yards from scrimmage (1,215) and touchdowns (nine). Walker, the second rookie in franchise history to rush for 1,000 yards, finished second in AP Offensive Rookie of the Year voting. Seattle's rushing attack led the NFL with 176.0 yards per game over the final three weeks of the season.

In 2021, Penny put together one of the best stretches of rushing production in franchise history, rushing for 135 yards or more in four of Seattle's final five games. Penny's 671 yards over the final five weeks of the season were the most in the NFL over that span, and despite having only 119 carries during the season, his eight rushes of 25 or more yards were tied for most in the NFL. Penny's 6.3 yards per carry were the best in the NFL.

In 2020, RB Chris Carson was one of only three players in the NFL with four-plus rushing touchdowns (five) and four-plus receiving touchdowns (five) despite playing only 12 games. Carson also set career highs in yards per attempt (4.8), catches (37) and receiving yards (287).

In 2019, Carson ranked fifth in the NFL in rushing yards with a career-high of 1,230, his second consecutive 1,000-yard season. Carson added seven rushing touchdowns and recorded 37 receptions for 266 yards and three receiving touchdowns.

In 2018, returning from a broken leg suffered in his rookie season, Carson became Seattle's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2014 and just the sixth player in franchise history to accomplish the feat with a career-high 1,151 yards (fifth-most in the NFL). Seattle's ground game ranked first in the league (160.0 yards per game), rushing for 2,560 yards (third-most in franchise history).

Prior to his time in Seattle, Morton spent five seasons in Green Bay (2009-13) where he contributed as coaching administrator (2009) and special teams assistant (2010-13) and won Super Bowl XLV with the team. His time working with special teams with the Packers was highlighted by WR Randall Cobb's 2012 season when he became the first player in NFL history to have 900-plus kickoff return yards (964) and receiving yards (954) in the same season.

A seven-year NFL veteran as a player, Morton was a running back and returner who began his career with New Orleans in 2000 as a fifth-round draft pick. Serving primarily as a returner as a pro, Morton tallied 5,401 career kickoff-return yards and three kick-return scores, as well as 1,431 career punt-return yards and one score, in 93 career games. He was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate as a returner in 2002 and 2005. Morton is the only player in NFL history to return a kickoff for a touchdown in regulation and overtime in the same game (at Buffalo, 9/8/02) and one of two players in NFL history to return a kickoff for a touchdown in overtime.

Morton was an All-Pac-10 selection at Southern California, where he served as the team's primary running back in his final two seasons and earned a degree in sociology. He ranks 12th on the Trojans' all-time rushing list with 2,511 career yards.

Prior to the NFL, Walker spent one season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Massachusetts (2021) after coaching wide receivers at Murray State the year prior (2020). The Racers did not compete in the 2020 season due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Walker joined the Duke football staff as an offensive assistant ahead of the 2018 season and worked primarily with the quarterbacks for two seasons (2018-19). Walker's mentorship of QB Daniel Jones helped him post 237-of-392 passes (60 percent) for a career-high 22 touchdowns, while rushing for 319 yards and three touchdowns in his final season. Walker's development led to Jones being named Duke's Most Valuable Player and his selection by the New York Giants as the sixth overall pick in the 2019 NFL Draft.

Campanile led Jacksonville's defense to major turnarounds in 2025, setting franchise records in rushing yards allowed per game (85.6), takeaways (31), interceptions (22), passes defended (107) and turnover differential (+13). The Jaguars led the NFL in run defense after ranking 25th in the league the year prior and became the first team in NFL history to produce 30-plus takeaways after having 10 or fewer the season prior (eight). They also became just the third team since 2000 to not allow a 75-yard rusher in a single game for an entire season. LB Foye Oluokun's career-high 11 passes defended tied for the league lead among linebackers and set the single-season franchise record at his position, while he also tallied his sixth straight season with 100-plus tackles.

In 2024, Green Bay's defense surrendered the third-fewest yards per rush (4.0) and the seventh-fewest rushing yards per game (99.4) under Campanile's guidance, the first time the Packers allowed less than 100 rushing yards per game since 2016. He also helped Green Bay's defense finish fourth in total points allowed (318) and fifth in total defense (314.5). Rookie LB Edgerrin Cooper was named NFC Defensive Rookie of the Month for December/January to close out his 2024 campaign and was the only player in the NFL in 2024 and the first rookie since 2000 to post 75-plus tackles, 13-plus tackles for a loss, 3.0-plus sacks, an interception, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery in a single season. LB Quay Walker led the team with 102 tackles (72 solo) in 13 games to rank fifth in the NFL in solo tackles per game (5.54; min. 10 games played), while LB Isaiah McDuffie produced a career-high 94 tackles. Green Bay was one of four teams in the NFL in 2024 with three linebackers with over 75 tackles.

During his time as linebackers coach with Miami (2020-23), Campanile was a part of staffs that helped Miami rank fourth in the NFL over that span in sacks (180.5), sixth in rushing defense (106.4 yards per game), eighth in takeaways (96) and third-down defense (38.6 percent) and tied-fifth in forced fumbles (56).

COACHING STAFF

Campanile also tutored LB Jaelan Phillips, who was limited to just eight games due to injuries but registered 6.5 sacks and 11 quarterback hits as he became the first player in franchise history to register 6.0-plus sacks in each of his first three NFL seasons. In his first season with the team in 2023, LB David Long Jr. led the Dolphins with a career-high 110 tackles (62 solo). Miami ranked seventh in the league in 2023 in rushing defense (97.1 yards per game), the team's fewest rushing yards allowed per game since 2011 (95.6 yards per game), and sixth in yards allowed per carry (3.81). The Dolphins tied for the league lead by allowing just 32 runs of 10-plus yards on the season, their fewest given up in a season dating back to 2000.

Campanile's unit helped the Dolphins rank fourth in the NFL in rushing defense (103.0 yards per game) in 2022, the team's top finish since a third-overall ranking in 2011. Phillips led the team in both sacks (7.0) and quarterback hits (25) while LB Elandon Roberts paced the team with a career-high 104 tackles (65 solo) and added 10 tackles for a loss (second on the team).

In 2021, Campanile worked with a linebacker group that helped the Dolphins rank tied-fifth in the league with 48.0 sacks, tied for the fourth most in a season in team history. The linebackers accounted for 19.5 of those sacks, with Phillips setting a team rookie record with 8.5 sacks. Miami was tied for eighth in the NFL in takeaways with 26, including 12 opponent fumbles recovered, tied for fourth in the league.

In his first NFL season in 2020, Campanile was part of a staff that guided Miami to first-overall league rankings in takeaways (29) and third-down defense (31.2 percent) as the Dolphins won 10 games for the first time since 2016. For the first time in franchise history, the Dolphins had three linebackers register 5.0-plus sacks in a season (Jerome Baker, 7.0; Kyle Van Noy, 6.0; Andrew Van Ginkel, 5.5). Miami finished sixth in the NFL in scoring defense (21.1 points per game) after ranking last in the league in the category in 2019 (30.9 points per game).

In 2019, Campanile served as the linebackers coach at the University of Michigan, where he helped mentor Khaleke Hudson and Josh Uche, both of whom earned Second-Team All-Big Ten recognition for the first time in their careers. Hudson led the team with 101 tackles (45 solo), good for fifth in the Big Ten, and was selected by Washington in the fifth round of the 2020 NFL Draft. Uche ranked ninth in the Big Ten with a team-high 8.5 sacks and was picked by New England in the second round of the 2020 NFL Draft.

Campanile spent the previous three seasons at Boston College (2016-18), where he coached defensive backs all three years and added co-defensive coordinator duties for his final season. He helped six of his defensive backs earn All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors with four of them going on to be selected in the NFL Draft (S John Johnson III, CB Kamrin Moore, CB Isaac Yiadom, S Will Harris). Campanile was named the National Defensive Backs Coach of the Year by both 247Sports and FootballScoop.com for his efforts in 2017.

Prior to his time at BC, Campanile spent four seasons at Rutgers, serving as a defensive assistant in 2012 before moving to the offensive side of the ball to coach tight ends (2013-14) and wide receivers (2015). In 2015, he tutored WR Leonte Carroo, who led the Big Ten and was tied for 14th in the nation with 10 receiving touchdowns. Carroo earned Third-Team All-Big Ten honors and was selected by the Dolphins in the third round of the 2016 NFL Draft. During his time coaching tight ends for the Scarlet Knights, Campanile helped develop Tyler Kroft, who earned First-Team All-American Athletic Conference recognition and All-America honorable mention from SI.com in 2013. Kroft went on to be picked by the Cincinnati Bengals in the third round of the 2015 NFL Draft.

Campanile coached for six seasons (2006-11) at the high school level, beginning as an assistant at his alma mater, Fair Lawn (N.J.) High School, in 2006. He then coached for five seasons at Don Bosco Prep (Ramsey, N.J.), tutoring linebackers (2007-09) before serving as offensive coordinator (2010-11). Campanile helped guide the Ironmen to state titles in both 2010 and 2011 and a first-overall national ranking in 2011.

Campanile began his coaching career as a student assistant at Rutgers in 2005 after playing safety and linebacker for the Scarlet Knights from 2002-04. He and his wife, Tracey, have two daughters, Valentina and Serafina, and a son, Anthony.

Derrick LeBlanc (luh-BLON) enters his second season with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2026. He serves as pass rush specialist after spending the 2025 season as assistant defensive line coach. LeBlanc brings 26 years of coaching experience, including 21 years at the collegiate level, primarily with the defensive line.

In 2025, LeBlanc aided a Jaguars defensive line that helped the team set a franchise record in rushing yards allowed per game (85.6). Jacksonville led the NFL in that category after ranking 25th in the league the year prior and became just the third team since 2000 to not allow a 75-yard rusher in a single game for an entire season. The Jaguars' 228 quarterback pressures (per Next Gen Stats) ranked third in the AFC and seventh in the NFL, and their average passer rating allowed of 78.5 was the fifth-lowest mark in the league. DE Josh Hines-Allen accounted for 80 pressures, tied for fourth-most in the NFL.

Prior to arriving in Jacksonville, LeBlanc spent two seasons as defensive line coach with the Arizona Cardinals (2023-24). Under LeBlanc's leadership, the Cardinals' 7.5 sack percentage ranked fourth in the NFL in 2024. Arizona's 41.0 sacks ranked eighth in the NFC and 13th in the NFL in 2024, with three defensive linemen setting single-season career-highs (Dante Stills, 4.5; L.J. Collier, 3.5; and Naquan Jones, 3.0).

As assistant defensive line coach for Miami in 2022, LeBlanc assisted a defensive line that helped the Dolphins finish fourth in rushing defense (103.0 rushing yards allowed per game), the team's best ranking since 2011 (third). LeBlanc helped DT Christian Wilkins and DT Zach Sieler to record-breaking seasons. Wilkins totaled 98 tackles, the most by any NFL defensive lineman since 1994 and the highest total in team history. He also posted a career-high 16 tackles for loss. Sieler established a career-high 70 tackles, putting him and Wilkins in the top five in the NFL among defensive tackles.

Prior to coaching in the NFL, LeBlanc spent one season (2020) at the University of Arkansas following three seasons (2017-19) at the University of Kentucky. In 2020, LeBlanc served as defensive line coach at Arkansas, where DT Jonathan Marshall became the Razorbacks' only selection in the 2021 NFL Draft. During his tenure at Kentucky (2017-19), the Wildcats went to three consecutive bowl games. In 2018, Kentucky had their best finish in 41 years with 10 wins, and the Wildcats ranked fourth in the SEC in yards allowed per game (337.9). Kentucky held six opponents under 100 rushing yards for the first time since 1949.

Prior to Kentucky, LeBlanc spent one season as defensive line coach at North Texas (2016) and helped a defense that allowed 8.6 points per game less than they did the previous year. LeBlanc spent the 2015 season as the defensive coordinator/defensive line coach at Pearl River Community College following two seasons (2013-14) as the defensive line coach at Southern Mississippi, where he coached future pros DT Khyri Thornton and DT Rakeem Nunez-Roches. Thornton was named second-team All-Conference USA in 2013 and was drafted by the Green Bay Packers in the third-round of the 2014 NFL Draft. Nunez-Roches was a First-Team All-Conference USA selection in 2014 and was drafted by Kansas City in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft.

LeBlanc served as defensive line coach at Wyoming in 2012, where he mentored future NFL DT Mike Purcell, who earned First-Team All-Mountain West Conference honors. He was an assistant strength and conditioning coordinator at LSU (2008-11), where the team won the SEC Championship in his final season and made an appearance in the BCS National Championship game.

He coached the defensive line at Missouri State (2006-07) and Arkansas Tech (2005) after spending four seasons (2001-04) at Henderson State (2001-04) where he also served as the team's strength and conditioning coordinator. While at Henderson State, LeBlanc got his first coaching experience in the NFL with the Chicago Bears in 2004 as part of the Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship. LeBlanc began his coaching career as an offensive line/defensive line coach at Breaux Bridge (LA) High School in his hometown, and started collegiately as a graduate assistant at LSU in 2000. Kevin Wilkins enters his second season with the Jacksonville Jaguars as assistant linebackers coach in 2026.

In 2025, Wilkins assisted a Jaguars defense that set franchise records with a league-leading 85.6 rushing yards allowed per game, 31 takeaways, 22 interceptions and 107 passes defended. LB Devin Lloyd produced a career year, receiving Pro Bowl and AP All-Pro honors after leading all linebackers and ranking tied-second in the NFL overall with five interceptions. Lloyd became the second player in the last 20 seasons (LB Lavonte David, 2013) to register at least 10 quarterback hits and five interceptions in a single season. LB Foye Oluokun's career-high 11 passes defended tied for the league lead among linebackers and set the single-season franchise record at his position, while he also tallied his sixth straight season with 100-plus tackles.

Wilkins spent the 2024 season as defensive analyst for the University of Michigan, coaching outside linebackers. He contributed to a defensive unit that allowed 90.7 rushing yards per game, ranking fifth nationally. EDGE Josaiah Stewart ranked second in the Big Ten in sacks (8.5) in 2024 and finished the season as the second-highest rated edge in college football. Michigan ended their season on a high note, defeating Ohio State and holding them to just 10 points in Columbus.

Prior to his stint at Michigan, Wilkins spent two seasons as a defensive assistant for the New York Giants (2022-23). In 2023, the Giants' defense tied for first in takeaways (31), the team's most since 2012. Further, the Giants' 18 interceptions tied for third-most in the NFL in 2023 and were the team's highest total since 2012 (21). DL Dexter Lawrence II's 53 tackles (32 solo), team-high 21 quarterback hits, seven tackles for loss, 4.5 sacks and two passes defended secured him his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection. In 2022, the Giants ranked fifth in the NFL in third-down defense, fifth in the red zone and eighth in tackling percentage.

Before his tenure with the Giants, Wilkins spent seven seasons with the Baltimore Ravens (2015-21). After two seasons as a football video intern (2015-16), Wilkins was then promoted to football video operations coordinator (2017-20), working on special projects for the Ravens coaching staff. Wilkins' work led to him joining Defensive Coordinator Wink Martindale's staff as a defensive assistant in 2021, when the unit allowed the fewest yards in the NFL.

Wilkins spent four years at the University of South Carolina, where he graduated with a degree in business management. While attending school, Wilkins worked as a video assistant under Steve Spurrier. The Gamecocks won the SEC East for the first time in school history, followed by three consecutive 11-win seasons.

The Doylestown, Pa., native was a graduate of La Salle College High School outside of Philadelphia. His older brother, Drew, is also an NFL coach, currently serving as pass rush coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams. The two previously worked together on the Giants staff in 2022-23.

The Jaguars finished eighth in the NFL in scoring defense (19.8 points per game), and their five games with 10 or fewer points allowed tied the Los Angeles Rams for the most in the league.

Before returning to the NFL, Sheridan spent two seasons as linebackers coach for the UFL's Arlington Renegades (2023-24). Sheridan helped lead the Renegades to win the then-XFL championship in 2023, the team's first-ever title.

Prior to his time with the Renegades, Sheridan served two seasons as defensive line coach at Air Force (2020-21). In 2020, Air Force's defense was among the top units in program history. 2019-20	Los Angeles Rams	Director of Scouting Strategy
2018	Los Angeles Rams	Senior Assistant to the General Manager/Player Personnel Coordinator

In Gladstone's first season as general manager, the Jaguars finished 13-4 to more than triple their victory total from 2024 and won the AFC South. In doing so, Gladstone became the first GM in franchise history to claim the AFC South in his first season in the role. Gladstone's first draft with the Jaguars started with a trade to acquire, from the Browns, the No. 2 overall pick: WR/DB Travis Hunter, who started games on both sides of the ball. Fellow 2025 draftees RB Bhayshul Tuten, RB LeQuint Allen and C Jonah Monheim (PFWA All-Rookie Team) were each key contributors to a Jaguars offense that ranked sixth in the league at a franchise record 27.9 points per game. At the trade deadline, Gladstone acquired WR Jakobi Meyers from Las Vegas. From Weeks 10 to 18, Meyers ranked among the AFC leaders in first-down receptions (third), receptions (fourth), and receiving yards (seventh), all while the Jaguars went 8-1 and averaged 33.1 points per game. Defensive stalwarts CB Jourdan Lewis, S Eric Murray and LB Dennis Gardeck highlighted Gladstone's first free-agent class in Jacksonville. Late in the season, Gladstone signed Meyers and OL Cole Van Lanen to contract extensions.

During Gladstone's nine-year tenure in Los Angeles, the Rams secured four NFC West division titles and appeared in the postseason six times, including a Super Bowl LVI victory in 2021.

As director of scouting, Gladstone collaborated with General Manager Les Snead on strategic planning and oversaw the execution of day-to-day scouting processes. He was also responsible for scouting both current and prospective players, and for providing analysis on a variety of special projects. In the 2024 NFL Draft, the Rams selected OLB Jared Verse in the first round (19th overall) who went on to lead all rookies in pressures (77), hurries (56) and quarterback hits (20), tie for second in tackles for loss (11) and rank fifth in sacks (4.5). Verse was subsequently named the 2024 Associated Press NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. The year prior, the Rams drafted WR Puka Nacua in the fifth round (177th overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft, who set rookie NFL records in receiving yards (1,486) and receptions (105). Nacua was named AP Second-Team All-Pro, earned All-Rookie honors by the Pro Football Writers of America and was nominated to the Pro Bowl.

Gladstone began his front office career with the Rams as senior assistant to the general manager from 2016-18 and personnel coordinator in 2018. In Gladstone's first NFL Draft in 2017, the Rams selected WR Cooper Kupp in the third round (69th overall) who was named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team after leading the team and ranking second in the league among rookies with 869 receiving yards. After eight seasons with the Rams (2017-24), he finished third in franchise history in receptions (634) and receiving touchdowns (57) and fourth in receiving yards (7,776). In 2021, Kupp posted the second most receiving yards in a single season in NFL history (1,947) and became the fourth player in NFL history to lead the league in receptions (145), receiving yards and receiving touchdowns (16). He was subsequently named Super Bowl LVI MVP, NFL Offensive Player of the Year and AP First-Team All-Pro and was voted to his first Pro Bowl.

Gladstone also played a role in key free-agent acquisitions in 2017, including WR Robert Woods and T Andrew Whitworth. Woods set a career-high in receiving yards (781) on 56 catches in 2017 and later went on to post back-to-back seasons with 1,000-plus receiving yards in 2018 and 2019. Whitworth was named AP First-Team All-Pro in his first season with the team, helping the offensive line give up the ninth-fewest sacks in the league (28.0) after giving up the second most in the league (49.0) the season prior.

Before entering the NFL, Gladstone worked in educational administration as the student activities director and football coach at Clayton High School in his hometown of St. Louis, Mo., and as the media and literacy coordinator and football coach at St. John Vianney High School, also in St. Louis.

Gladstone graduated from Westminster College in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in education. While attending Westminster, he was a two-time captain of the football team, was awarded Athlete of the Year honors and was named to the BSN All-American team as a wide receiver. HISTORY

TONY BOSELLI (1995-2001)

Former OT Tony Boselli, the Jacksonville Jaguars' first-ever college draft choice, was the first member of the Jaguars franchise to be honored in The Pride of the Jaguars on Oct. 8, 2006. Boselli was the second-overall selection in the 1995 draft following an All-American career at Southern California. He started a then-team-record 90 of the 91 Jaguars games in which he played from 1995-2001 and was named to the Pro Bowl five times. He was voted No. 1 on the Jaguars All-25. Widely considered the best offensive tackle in the game, Boselli allowed only 15.5 sacks in seven seasons and was named to the second team on the NFL All-Decade Team for the 1990s.

"Tony Boselli was the original Jaguar, and we are excited to recognize him," said Jaguars then-owner Wayne Weaver. "We are proud of Tony's contributions on the field for this organization, and we're proud of his contributions off the field for this community. We welcome the opportunity to have Jaguars fans thank Tony for what he has meant to Jacksonville and the Jaguars."

On Feb. 10, 2022, Boselli was selected for enshrinement in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, becoming the Jaguars' first-ever Hall of Famer. Nearly three years later, on Feb. 3, 2025, Jaguars team owner Shad Khan announced his appointment of Boselli to serve as the team's executive vice president of football operations.

WAYNE & DELORES WEAVER (1993-2011)

Wayne and Delores Weaver were inducted into the Pride of the Jaguars at halftime of their final game as owners of the team on Jan. 1, 2012, becoming only the second and third inductees. Three days later, their ownership of the Jaguars was transferred to Shad Khan, ending their tenure that began when the franchise was awarded on Nov. 30, 1993.

During the 17 seasons of the Weavers' ownership, the Jaguars were 138-134 in the regular season and 142-140 including postseason contests with six playoff berths and two division titles. The Weavers were on hand for every game during that span – 352 total contests including 69 preseason, 272 regular season and 11 postseason games. In addition, 20 Jaguars players were named to the Pro Bowl during their tenure.

From 1995-2011, the Weavers, through the Weaver Family Foundation, contributed more than $22.6 million to Jacksonville organizations. The Jaguars Foundation also awarded more than $14.8 million in grants to area nonprofit agencies during that time. Wayne Weaver served on four NFL committees: Business Ventures, Investment, Finance and Compensation. Delores Weaver served on two committees: NFL Charities and NFL Giving.

FRED TAYLOR (1998-2008)

Former RB Fred Taylor became the fourth inductee into the Pride of the Jaguars on Sept. 30, 2012. Taylor, who started 136 of 140 games, is one of five players along with Brad Meester, Mercedes Lewis, Jimmy Smith and Josh Scobee to play for 11 or more seasons with the Jaguars.

Taylor ranks fourth in franchise history in scoring with 424 points (70 TDs, two 2-point conversions) and set a then-rookie franchise-scoring record with 102 points (17 TDs) during the 1998 season. He is one of just two Jaguars rookies (Leonard Fournette) to rush for 1,000 yards (1,223). His 17 TDs (14 rushing and three receiving) as a rookie still sit atop the Jaguars single-season TD list. Taylor, the Jaguars career-rushing leader with 11,271 yards, leads second-ranked Maurice Jones-Drew (8,071 career rushing yards) by 3,200 yards. While Taylor ranks among the best in nearly every Jaguars rushing statistic, he also sits at fifth in career receptions (286) and eighth in receiving yards (2,361). He was voted No. 2 on the Jaguars All-25.

Jaguars Owner Shad Khan acknowledged Taylor's place among elite company, stating, "Fred has earned his place in the Pride of the Jaguars, both with his record-setting performances on the field as well as with his involvement in the Jacksonville community throughout his career."

MARK BRUNELL (1995-2003)

Former QB Mark Brunell became the fifth member inducted into the Pride of the Jaguars on Dec. 15, 2013. Owner of nearly every Jaguars passing record, Brunell is one of 14 players in Jaguars history to play nine seasons or more. He started 117 of his 120 games played and completed 2,184 of 3,616 passes for 25,698 yards with 144 touchdowns and 86 interceptions – all still ranking as Jaguars career records. Brunell's 4,367 passing yards in 1996 led the NFL. He was voted to the AFC Pro Bowl squad three times and was named the game's MVP in 1997. He was voted No. 5 on the Jaguars All-25. Brunell was the Jaguars' starting QB from 1995 through 2003, posting a winning record as a starter and leading the team to four playoff berths, eight postseason games and two AFC Championship games.

"Mark Brunell epitomized the Jaguars in their early years, and he was one of the main reasons for their success during that time," Jaguars Owner Shad Khan said. "I personally recall how the Jaguars captured the imagination of NFL fans throughout the nation in those days, and Mark Brunell was always in the highlights. Now that I have been here, I have gotten to see that this great quarterback is also a great person. Mark is a big part of the Jaguars family and the Jacksonville community, and it gives me great pride to join our fans in recognizing Mark and honoring him for his contributions to Jaguars history."

JIMMY SMITH (1995-2005)

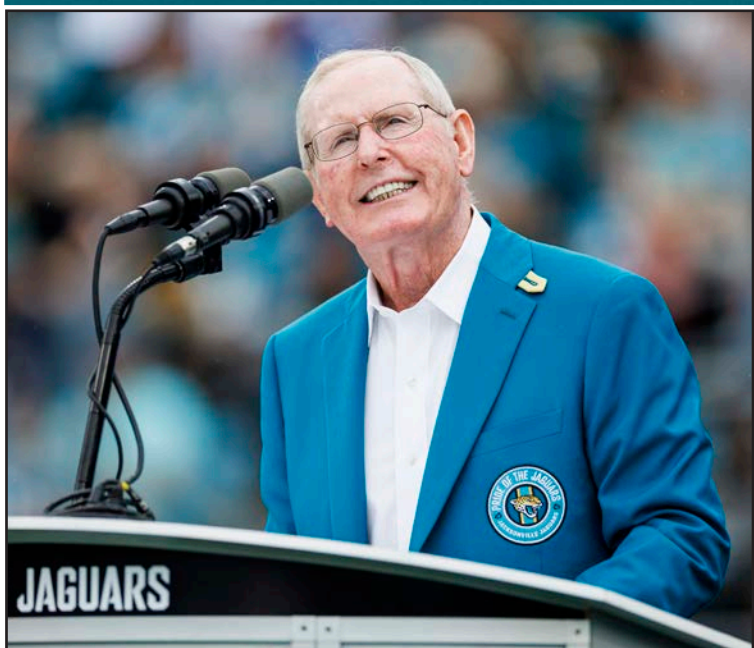

Former WR Jimmy Smith was inducted to the Pride of the Jaguars on Dec. 11, 2016, becoming its sixth member. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, Smith was a key to the Jaguars' early success when the team earned four straight playoff appearances from 1996-99 and played in eight postseason games, including two AFC Championship appearances. He was the Jaguars' leading receiver in seven seasons and was voted to the Pro Bowl five consecutive years from 1997-2001. He was voted No. 3 on the Jaguars All-25.

"There is no question that Jimmy Smith was one of the best players to ever wear a Jaguars uniform," Jaguars Owner Shad Khan said. "His contributions in the early years were critical to the success the Jaguars enjoyed during that time. The fact that most of his records have stood for 10 years without being surpassed underscores what a great player he was. I am very happy that we will appropriately honor him."

HISTORY

TOM COUGHLIN (1995-2002)

Tom Coughlin, the franchise's first and all-time winningest head coach, was inducted into the Pride of the Jaguars in a halftime ceremony during Jacksonville's win against the Indianapolis Colts in EverBank Stadium on Oct. 6, 2024.

Named the first head coach of the Jaguars on Feb. 21, 1994, Coughlin constructed the team from scratch, unabashedly implementing a football operation predicated on hard work and discipline. He would become the franchise's all-time winningest coach.

Coughlin's players reacted in kind, posting 68 victories in eight seasons (72 including the playoffs), three of which were double-digit win campaigns (1997-99). Along the way, two division titles (1998, '99) and four postseason berths (1996-99) were secured, including a pair of AFC Championship Games appearances (1996, '99).

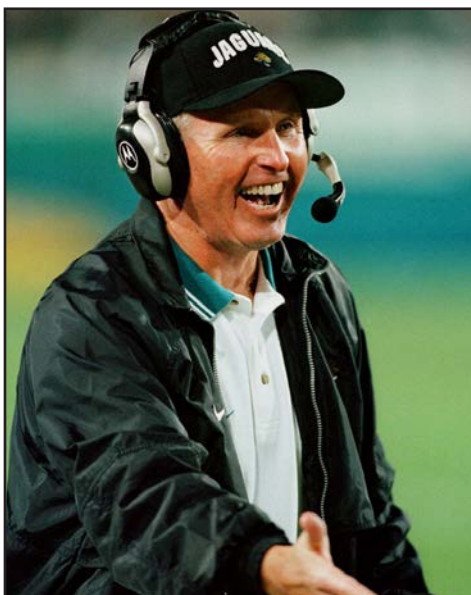

Throughout his tenure, Coughlin drafted, developed, coached and showcased the talents of franchise greats like Tony Boselli (tapped by Coughlin as the first draft selection in franchise history), Fred Taylor, Mark Brunell and Jimmy Smith, along with defensive mainstays like Tony Brackens, Kevin Hardy and Donovan Darius.

In 2017, Coughlin returned to the Jaguars for a three-season stint as executive vice president of football operations and his first team reached the AFC Championship Game.

"The story of the Jaguars cannot be told without Tom Coughlin and the influence he had on our expansion team and new fan base here in North Florida," said Tony Boselli, who anchored Coughlin's offensive line for seven seasons and was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2022.

THE TOM COUGHLIN JAY FUND FOUNDATION

Shortly after being named head coach of the Jaguars, Coughlin established the Jay Fund in honor of Jay McGillis, a member of Coughlin's team at Boston College who lost his eight-month battle with leukemia. Headquartered in Jacksonville Beach, Fla., the Jay Fund seeks to provide financial, emotional and practical support to parents of children with cancer, allowing them to focus solely on their child's well-being. Since its establishment in 1996, the Jay Fund has provided $28 million of financial assistance to more than 5,800 families in Northeast Florida and the New York/New Jersey Metropolitan Area. The Jay Fund hosts three annual signature fundraising events in Jacksonville and New York – the Celebrity Golf Classic, Wine Tasting Gala and Champions for Children Gala – as well as a variety of local events, campaigns and educational programming in support of the foundation's mission to "BE THERE" for parents, so they can be there for their families.

GLADSTONE AT THE HELM

The 2026 draft marked the second for Jacksonville under General Manager James Gladstone. It was the first time in franchise history that the Jaguars did not make a selection in the first round. Gladstone orchestrated two trades on Day 3 of the draft. In his two drafts leading Jacksonville, he has made five in-draft trades.

NOTE THE QUOTE: ON THE THEME OF THE DRAFT CLASS

"It was a higher volume of draft capital and ensuring we could prioritize guys that match and align with what I've spoken a lot about, which are the intangible elements, elements that don't necessarily always lie on the surface but are beneath the hood, and I think it's very clear internally that we were able to do just that, and really excited about what lies in front."

- General Manager James Gladstone

ALL-TIME PICKS BY POSITION

Overall, the Jaguars have selected 273 players through the NFL Draft, including 142 defensive players, 125 offensive players and seven special teams players. 2025 first-round pick WR/DB Travis Hunter counts as both an offensive and defensive player. HISTORY

2026 DRAFT NUMBERS TO KNOW

OL Emmanuel Pregnon, Jacksonville's 88th overall selection, had a 98.0 percent pass block win rate on 446 pass block snaps in 2025.

74

TE Tanner Koziol, who was selected by Jacksonville in the fifth round, led all tight ends nationally with 74 receptions.

72.2

TE Nate Boerkircher, the Jaguars' 56th-overall pick, finished first among SEC tight ends in run blocking grade (72.2; min. 400 snaps played).

NOTE THE QUOTE: EXPERIENCE OF THE DRAFT CLASS

"I think it helps a great deal... Especially when the human beings themselves are the types that can really pour in and do it in the right way and have the routine that would cultivate a faster acclimation, you're going to be able to see that turn around rather quickly. All these guys, they can have the talent, but the differentiator is the mindset, and that's a lot of what we focused on with these decisions.

- General Manager James Gladstone

In just their second season, the Jaguars' saw their hopes of reaching the Super Bowl end in the AFC Championship game on a cold night in New England. The game began ominously for Jacksonville on its first series, when P Bryan Barker fielded a high snap and was tackled at the Jaguars' four-yard line. The Patriots scored a touchdown two plays later. The Jaguars returned to the site of their historic playoff upset over Denver a year earlier, but the outcome was not to be the same. The Broncos took a 21-0 lead early in the second quarter; however, the Jaguars closed the gap to 21-17 in the third quarter with a blocked punt returned for a touchdown and looked to make a rally. On the next series the defense forced a fumble, but the Jaguars could not capitalize as a fumbled snap at the Denver 16-yard line ended the Jaguars' momentum. The Broncos rolled up 511 yards on offense, 310 of them on the ground, and scored five rushing touchdowns in the game. The Jaguars held the ball for just 19:01, their lowest time of possession ever.

The Jaguars hosted their first-ever home playoff game and defeated the Patriots to advance to the divisional playoffs. QB Mark Brunell returned as the starter after missing nearly three games with a high-ankle sprain. For the Patriots, QB Scott Zolak started for the injured QB Drew Bledsoe. The Patriots did not score on their eight first-half possessions. The Jaguars took advantage and scored on two K Mike Hollis field goals and a 13-yard run by RB Fred Taylor. New England scored 10 points before the Jaguars bounced back with 13 in the fourth quarter. Taylor's 162 yards rushing were the second-most in a postseason game in Jaguars' history, and his 33 attempts were the most. Hollis' four field goals without a miss extended his streak of consecutive field goals in the postseason to 12 and broke his postseason single-game record.

The Jaguars' season ended in 26-degree temperatures in New York, with the Jets jumping out to a 17-0 lead and coasting to the win. Jacksonville's only first-half score was a 52-yard pass from QB Mark Brunell to WR Jimmy Smith on the final play. The Jaguars couldn't stop New York's WR Keyshawn Johnson, who scored both a rushing and receiving touchdown, and also intercepted a pass. With the score 31-24 late in the fourth quarter, Brunell, who threw three touchdowns and three interceptions, had a chance to tie the game late after a S Donovan Darius interception of Jets QB Vinny Testaverde in the end zone. However, the Jaguars went three-and-out and the Jets added a field goal to bring the game to 34-24. Smith caught two TD passes for the Jaguars and became the first player in franchise history to have 100 receiving yards in a playoff game (104).

The Jaguars' season came to a sudden end as Tennessee defeated Jacksonville for the third time in the season. A then-record crowd of 75,206 saw the Jaguars get off to a fast start, with TE Kyle Brady scoring a touchdown on a seven-yard pass from QB Mark Brunell. The Jaguars returned to the postseason for the first time since 1999, but saw their season end at New England with a 28-3 loss to the Patriots. The Patriots began the scoring with a six-play, 37-yard drive that was capped off with an 11-yard touchdown pass from QB Tom Brady to WR Troy Brown. The Jaguars next drive was thwarted after 33 yards when RB Alvin Pearman lost a fumble at the Patriots' 44-yard line. After two punts, the Jaguars scored their only points of the game on a K Josh Scobee 36-yard field goal with 1:05 remaining in the half. The Patriots then erupted with back-to-back touchdown drives to start the second half. Each drive ended with touchdown passes by Brady, the first to WR David Givens for three yards and the second to TE Benjamin Watson for 63 yards. On the Jaguars' ensuing drive, QB Byron Leftwich was intercepted on fourth-and-five by DB Asante Samuel, who returned the pick 73 yards for a touchdown.

BUFFALO BILLS (9-8)	0	3	0	0	-	3
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (11-6)	0	3	7	0	-	10

Playing in their first postseason game since the 2007 season, and their first at home since the 1999 season, the Jaguars won a gritty AFC Wild Card game on the strength of their stingy defense. In a game that featured 17 punts, field position was key. The first three possessions by each team ended with a punt. The Jaguars then got the first turnover of the day on CB Aaron Colvin's interception of Bills QB Tyrod Taylor at the Buffalo 35-yard line early in the second quarter. Unable to capitalize, Jacksonville punted again and Buffalo then put together its longest drive of the day, covering 71 yards in 18 plays and taking up 8:06, which was capped off with a 31-yard field goal by K Stephen Hauschka, giving the Bills a 3-0 lead. On that drive, the Bills had a fourth-and-one from the three-yard line, but a neutral zone infraction gave them first-and-goal at the one. The Jacksonville defense, with the help of an offensive pass interference penalty, backed the Bills up to the 13-yard line to force the field goal. The Jaguars' last possession of the quarter covered 27 yards in six plays with K Josh Lambo kicking a 44-yard field goal to tie the game at the half. The Jaguars' best drive of the day came in the third quarter when they marched 86 yards in 15 plays - 12 runs and three passes - and used up 8:52, where QB Blake Bortles threw a one-yard touchdown pass to TE Ben Koyack in the back of the end zone on fourth-and-goal.

The Jaguars led for most of the game, including a 10-point lead in the fourth quarter, but two touchdown passes from QB Tom Brady to WR Danny Amendola in the final nine minutes gave the Patriots their third Super Bowl berth in four years. New England scored on its opening series with K Stephen Gostkowski's 31-yard field goal capping a 10-play drive. After punting on their initial series, the Jaguars put together back-to-back long touchdown drives, marching 76 yards in seven plays and 77 yards in 10 plays to go up 14-3 on a QB Blake Bortles to TE Marcedes Lewis four-yard pass and a RB Leonard Fournette four-yard run. Near the end of the half, the Patriots drove 85 yards in six plays to make the score 14-10 on RB James White's one-yard rushing touchdown. The Jaguars got the ball to start the second half and extended their lead to 17-10 with K Josh Lambo's 54-yard field goal to cap off a nine-play drive. The Jaguars added to their lead, 20-10, with another Lambo field goal, this time from 43 yards, following the start of the fourth quarter. Brady converted a third-and-18 pass to Amendola, and the duo then combined for a 14-yard completion to set up Amendola's nine-yard receiving touchdown at the back of the end zone. Brady and Amendola teamed up again on a four-yard touchdown pass with 2:48 left. The Jaguars' final drive ended with a failed fourth-and-15 at the New England 43-yard line, and New England then got a first-down to run out the clock.
