E. STANLEY KROENKE

OWNER/CHAIRMAN

Stanley Kroenke's journey to bring professional football back to Los Angeles culminated on Jan. 12, 2016 when National Football League owners ratified his proposal to return the Rams to Southern California.

Eleven years after NFL owners unanimously approved Kroenke to assume sole ownership of the franchise in 2010, he celebrated the opening of SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park – a 298-acre development with a 70,240-seat stadium as its crown jewel, which hosted Super Bowl LVI in 2022. The Rams celebrated the stadium's first season with fans in attendance with a world championship won in their home stadium, in their home city of Los Angeles. That year, Kroenke became the first sports team owner to win a Super Bowl and another major pro sports title in any given calendar year when the Denver Nuggets also won the NBA Championship.

The state-of-the-art SoFi Stadium rises from nearly 100 feet below ground on the former site of the Hollywood Park Racetrack and serves as the home to the Los Angeles Rams and Los Angeles Chargers. Additionally, the multi-purpose project serves as a West Coast campus for the National Football League, houses NFL Media's headquarters, and features hosting capabilities for future Super Bowls, NFL Drafts, and Pro Bowls. This summer, ESPN relocated its west coast production operations from L.A. Live in downtown Los Angeles to the NFL's headquarters at Hollywood Park.

"I think what Stan has built here and done here, in his creativity with this whole development, this probably is going to redefine this area of Los Angeles for the next century," Chargers Owner/Chairman Dean Spanos told The Associated Press. "It's going to be something that L.A. is going to be very proud to have."

Equipped with decades of real estate development experience, a passion for sports and a one-of-a-kind vision, Kroenke orchestrated the Rams' return home by privately financing the construction of a world-class stadium befitting the culture and style of Los Angeles.

"Stan has the vision, resources, inspiration and creativity to create the right setting for the NFL in Los Angeles," said Dallas Cowboys Owner Jerry Jones. "I have great admiration for his talent and skills, and I have great confidence in his leadership ability in guiding our league back into this very important community. He sees the big picture, knows how to do things on the big stage, and he knows how to do what's best for the long-term future. Stan Kroenke is a valuable asset to the National Football League."

In the months leading up to the opening of SoFi Stadium, Kroenke was named Los Angeles Business Journal's Business Person of the Year for 2020. The Rams' return to Los Angeles was named 2016's top sports moment at the 12th Annual L.A. Sports Awards.

DELIVERING A GLOBAL DESTINATION

In a marriage of sports, retail, commercial and residential development, Kroenke constructed a 3.1 million-square-foot stadium expandable up to 100,000 seats that anchors an urban village, complete with a 6,000-seat performance venue called The YouTube Theater, 300 boutique hotel rooms, 2,500 modern residences, more than 1.5 million square feet of retail, office, conference and meeting space. More than 20 acres of public parks, open space, pedestrian walkways and bicycle paths will divide the district into thirds, offering residents and visitors a regional gathering place in the center of the Los Angeles basin.

"(The) project is uniquely tied to Kroenke's vision of where global sports and entertainment are heading and his zeal to be at the forefront," sports reporter Liz Clarke detailed in The Washington Post in 2019.

In addition to hosting NFL games, SoFi Stadium and the district at Hollywood Park has transformed the area into a year-round sports and entertainment destination that delivers an unparalleled experience for residents and visitors. Beyond Super Bowl LVI in 2022, the stadium hosted eight 2026 World Cup matches and has been awarded the Super Bowl in 2027 and Opening Ceremony of the 2028 Olympics. Previously, SoFi Stadium hosted the 2023 College Football Playoff National Championship and Wrestlemania in 2023.

The NFL opened the league's West Coast headquarters in 2021, a 450,000 square foot Class A building with 214,063 square feet of office space and 74,922 square feet of studio and support space to serve as the home for NFL Network, NFL.com, NFL RedZone, the NFL app and many other department's supporting the league's media and business operations. In addition to office and studio space situated next to SoFi Stadium, the facility features NFL Media's first outdoor studio which hosts audiences and includes an outdoor field for filming purposes as well as public use.

"As home to the Rams and Chargers, and now NFL Los Angeles, SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park will be an attraction for NFL fans year-round," said NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell. "Thanks to Stan's vision, we know Hollywood Park will be the place to be – not just for football, but for entertainment and events, for living and for working. We are excited for NFL Los Angeles to join this transformative project."

The NFL's largest stadium was designed to reflect the climate, characteristics and culture of Southern California, and to capitalize on the site's near-perfect weather. A transparent roof canopy covering 19 acres was developed. Under the lightweight roof made of ETFE, all sides of the building remain open, allowing for a natural integration between the indoor and outdoor public spaces.

"That stadium is off the charts," said Al Michaels, the play-by-play voice for NBC's Sunday Night Football. "It's very different. It's very special."

Kroenke and project developers officially broke ground on SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park on Nov. 17, 2016.

ENRICHING THE COMMUNITY

Within months of relocating to Southern California, Kroenke's Rams hosted their first local community improvement project in partnership with the Inglewood Unified School District as a continuation of the team's commitment to service.

"The (community improvement) project, being completed through a grant from the Rams, is a visible manifestation of Stan Kroenke, the NFL and the Rams organization to the school children of Inglewood," said Inglewood Mayor James T. Butts. "The Rams have shouted, 'Inglewood kids count,' and I salute them for their investment in the learning environment for our children."

Since the initial community improvement project in 2016, the Rams have built new playgrounds and football fields in Inglewood, Watts, South LA and East LA. Through the team's PLAY 60 Field Days, the Rams are impacting more than 10,000 students annually and another 10,000 students each year through Rams Readers, the team's in-school literacy initiative. Under Kroenke's leadership, the Rams have also aimed to level the playing field for girls, helping to sanction Girls flag football as a high school sport and have engaged 10,000 girls in flag football to complement the team's extensive work in youth and high school football efforts throughout the region.

Upon returning home to Los Angeles, the Rams debuted Taste of the Rams, an annual event that takes place at SoFi Stadium and has raised more than $1.5 million for Los Angeles Regional Food Bank and provided more than 5 million meals to food insecure Angelenos. The Rams also introduced Rams Night for Wishes, an event that has raised more than $2 million for Make-A-Wish and granted more than 240 wishes of children battling illness.

Additionally, as part of the effort to help address education inequities, Kroenke's Rams fund student success coaches in Inglewood and Watts through City Year, provide internships for public school high school students through LA Promise Fund and offer college scholarships through the Fulfillment Fund. The team also funds youth football programs in South LA and East LA designed to use the game of football to bridge the divide between communities of color and law enforcement.

As the fires broke out in Los Angeles in January of 2025, the Kroenke Family Foundation immediately made a $1 million donation to the LAFD Foundation. Kroenke also hosted an essentials distribution and resource fair for fire victims at the Shops at Hollywood Park. Additionally, the team provided assistance to American Red Cross and World Central Kitchen. With Mr. Kroenke's support, the Rams made LAFD Air Ops their NFL Draft Headquarters to shine a national spotlight on the community's first responders and hosted a special event attended by top Rams players and Head Coach Sean McVay to help thank the firefighters and law enforcement officers for their heroic efforts. After the NFL Draft, SoFi Stadium hosted another fire distribution with Habitat for Humanity and the entire Rams rookie class assisted. The Rams also hosted a school beautification in Altadena to help prepare for the school's reopening and joined with United Way of Greater Los Angeles to host WalkUnitedLA, a 5k community walk/run to bring LA together to support wildfire recovery and uplift communities in need.

In 2022, the Los Angeles Business Journal honored Mr. Kroenke's Rams as the "Business Angel of the Year" for their extensive community outreach, particularly supporting the Los Angeles Unified School District and addressing educational inequities. The award, presented at the Nonprofit and Corporate Citizenship Awards, recognized the team's commitment to providing access and inspiring social responsibility through various initiatives that create a lasting impact on the community.

Under Kroenke's leadership, SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park are committed to positively impacting the Greater Los Angeles region and the City of Inglewood through world-class entertainment, outreach activities, the creation of new jobs, and local revenues.

"In shifting the center of gravity of West Coast sports to Inglewood, Kroenke has elevated the profile of the community and seeded the area with opportunity for years to come," added Farmer. "A project of this magnitude changes the landscape both literally and economically."

In partnership with the City of Inglewood, Kroenke committed to a 100 percent union job site with priority given to residents of Inglewood and designated local zip codes. Since breaking ground in 2016, more than 17,000 people worked on-site to help construct SoFi Stadium. In order to further create job opportunities for members of the local community, a 15 percent Inglewood resident apprenticeship goal was established to help workers develop professional and trade skills. At the completion of the stadium construction in Summer of 2020, over 95 Minority and Disadvantaged Businesses received more than $750 million in construction contracts and local area residents have received more than $93 million in wages.

As a whole, the City of Inglewood's general fund is expected to receive tens of millions in annual revenue from SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park. According to initial estimates, the city is projected to receive $13 million in sales tax revenue during construction from equipment and materials purchased alone. Inglewood is also benefitting through other avenues such as ticket taxes, sales tax from retail operations, property taxes and a hotel occupancy tax. These funds help balance the city's budget, improve and expand city services and infrastructure, enhance public safety, maintain open green space and support local youth.

AN INTERNATIONAL SPORTS LEADER

Regarded as one of the world's leading sports proprietors, Kroenke's teams have won titles in the NFL, NBA, NHL, MLS, Premier League and the National Lacrosse League. Kroenke's sports holdings also include Arsenal FC, which was crowned Premier League champion in 2026 and won its 13th FA Cup in 2017. From 2000-2014, Kroenke owned the NBA's Denver Nuggets and the NHL's Colorado Avalanche, which are now a part of a family trust. The Nuggets have made the playoffs in eight consecutive seasons, the second-longest active postseason streak in the NBA, and won the NBA Finals in 2023. The Avalanche have made the postseason nine consecutive seasons, tied for the longest active playoff appearance streak in the NHL, and took home the Stanley Cup in 2022. Kroenke's Denver-based company, Kroenke Sports & Entertainment (KSE), also owns the Colorado Rapids of Major League Soccer and the Colorado Mammoth of the National Lacrosse League.

In both 2025 and 2026, CNBC named KSE "the most valuable sports empire." Valued at $26.05 billion as of July 2026, the empire spans geography and sports. KSE also was recognized as one of Sports Business Journal's "Power Players" in 2024. Kroenke also owns Altitude Sports & Entertainment, which produces Rams preseason games.

Kroenke's teams won six championships (Los Angeles Rams, Arsenal F.C., Colorado Mammoth, Colorado Avalanche and Denver Nuggets) in a four-year span. His championships across four major leagues (NFL, NHL, NBA, EPL) in a four-year span is unprecedented in professional sports.

"It is evident that Stan knows how to achieve success in the sports world," Rams General Manager Les Snead said. "His teams have won championships in five different sports and he has experience in building a contender. The success we have experienced through the NFL Draft and free agency would not have been possible without Stan's support and his willingness to take risks to build our team."

On Jan. 12, 2017, Kroenke hired Sean McVay – the youngest head coach in modern NFL history – to lead the Rams. Since onboarding McVay, the Rams have seven playoff berths and two Super Bowl appearances, winning Super Bowl LVI. McVay has a 92-57 regular season record and is 10-6 in the playoffs. His 10 playoff wins are the most by a head coach before the age of 40. He has led the Rams to eight winning seasons with four NFC West titles. McVay is the youngest head coach to win a Super Bowl at the age of 36 and the youngest head coach to win AP Coach of the Year at 31 in 2018. He is the second-fastest coach in franchise history to reach the 50-win mark and is the fifth-youngest head coach in the NFL despite entering his tenth season at the helm. In 2024, McVay passed John Robinson for the most wins by a head coach in franchise history. McVay's eight winning seasons are the most by a head coach in franchise history.

Additionally, McVay's 33 wins in his first three years is the franchise's most wins since the 1974-76 seasons, and his record through the first four seasons (43-21 in 64 regular season games) of his coaching tenure is amongst the best start of all head coaches hired since 2000.

McVay and General Manager Les Snead currently rank second among active head coach and general manager duos for regular season and postseason wins with 102, leading up to the 2026 season. Their 102 wins together are 15th all-time among duos in NFL history.

According to The New York Times, 1997 was the first season to allow NFL owners to own cross-sport franchises. Among current NFL ownership, only two have had three teams to win a playoff game/series in the same year in North America. Kroenke was the latest to accomplish the feat as the Avalanche and Nuggets also made remarkable playoff runs during the 2018-19 season. Both the Avalanche and Nuggets secured first-round playoff wins, and Los Angeles advanced to the club's fourth Super Bowl (2018-19 season). The late Paul Allen's Seattle Seahawks (NFL), Portland Trail Blazers (NBA) and Seattle Sounders FC (MLS) previously did so in 2014.

Kroenke currently serves on the NFL's Broadcast Committee and has worked on multiple league committees, including the NFL's Workplace Diversity Committee. He also worked alongside his fellow owners to reach a new Collective Bargaining Agreement with the NFL Players Association in 2011.

In 2022, Kroenke was one of 15 exceptional business, civic and cultural leaders from across North America to receive Horatio Alger Award honors, which is awarded annually to individuals who have succeeded despite facing adversities, and who have remained committed to higher education and charitable efforts in their communities.

Stanley Kroenke, named after baseball legends Enos Slaughter and Stan Musial, was born in Cole Camp, Mo., and grew up in Mora, Mo. Kroenke and his wife, Ann, have a daughter, Whitney, and a son, Josh, Vice Chairman of KSE and KSE UK. Kroenke holds undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Missouri and he is a member of the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame (2009 Enshrinement Class).

KEVIN DEMOFF

PRESIDENT, TEAM & MEDIA OPERATIONS, KSE

| NFL EXP | 22nd Year | RAMS EXP | 18th Year |
|---|---|---|---|

Kevin Demoff is in his third year as the President of Team and Media Operations for Kroenke Sports & Entertainment and his 18th year as the team president for the Los Angeles Rams. Demoff oversees operations of all KSE teams including the Denver Nuggets (NBA), Colorado Avalanche (NHL), Colorado Rapids (MLS), and Colorado Mammoth (NLL), as well as operations of all KSE Media properties including Altitude Sports and Entertainment, KSE Radio, and Outdoor Sportsman Group.

In his role, Demoff also serves as the Rams' top front office executive and liaison to owner and chairman, Stan Kroenke, on all organizational matters. With Stan Kroenke and Josh Kroenke at the helm, CNBC named KSE "the most valuable sports empire" in 2025 and 2026.

After serving on the working group that helped Kroenke return the Rams – Los Angeles' original professional sports team – home to L.A., Demoff continues to play a significant role in delivering on Kroenke's vision to design and construct Hollywood Park, the 298-acre sports and entertainment district in Inglewood that features SoFi Stadium, the home of the Rams. Beyond the stadium, the campus includes the 6,000-seat YouTube Theater, an office complex that is the home of the NFL's West Coast headquarters, a retail district that is under development, and is currently the largest entitled real-estate project in Southern California.

In addition to the entertainment district at Hollywood Park, Demoff has led the efforts for the construction of the team's practice facility in Woodland Hills. Demoff continues to collaborate with local officials and front office staff to create a state-of-the-art training facility and team headquarters surrounded by a sports and entertainment development.

Demoff works closely with General Manager Les Snead and Head Coach Sean McVay and was instrumental in delivering on Kroenke's promise of bringing a Super Bowl Championship to Los Angeles, with the Rams making history and topping the Cincinnati Bengals 23-20 at SoFi Stadium. Not only were the 2021 Rams only the second team in 56 years to play in (and win) the Super Bowl in their home stadium, but they were the first team in NFL history to host the AFC or NFC Championship in the same stadium where the Super Bowl would also be played.

Bringing Super Bowl LVI and LA28 Olympics to Los Angeles
Immediately on the heels of the National Football League's historic return to Los Angeles in 2016, Demoff and the Rams helped lead a regional effort to bring the Super Bowl to SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park. Micronomics projected in 2021 that Super Bowl LVI would have an economic impact up to $477 million across the greater Los Angeles region. Beyond the Super Bowl LVI in 2022, the stadium hosted eight 2026 World Cup matches and has been awarded the Super Bowl in 2027. Demoff and the Rams have also joined forces with the LA24 Olympic Bid Committee to help deliver the 2028 Olympic and Paralympic Games to Los Angeles. In addition, SoFi Stadium hosted the College Football Playoff final and Wrestlemania in 2023.

Beyond the impact of the Super Bowl and other major events that are now hosted in LA and Inglewood, the Hollywood Park development is expected to generate hundreds of millions in new annual economic activity across the region. During construction, there were upwards of 3,500 construction workers on-site daily, with Inglewood residents given priority placement, and more than 17,000 workers have stepped on the stadium site since it broke ground in November 2016. In order to further create job opportunities for members of the local community, a 15 percent Inglewood resident apprenticeship goal for construction was established to help workers develop professional and trade skills. During construction, over 95 Minority and Disadvantaged Businesses had received more than $754 million in construction contracts and local area residents earned more than $129 million in wages. In addition, in partnership with the Anti-Recidivism Coalition (ARC) and 2nd Call, more than 100 union workers who were previously incarcerated found employment opportunities during the construction of SoFi Stadium. Once fully operating, the stadium and retail components together are expected to generate thousands of additional jobs with long-term regional benefits.

A Leader in Diversity and Inclusion
In Demoff's tenure with the Rams, he has shaped the club's business efforts with a focus on delivering a best-in-class experience for fans and partners, building a team that reflects Los Angeles, and increasing the club's presence in the community. With a strong commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion, Demoff has intentionally built one of the most diverse front offices in sports. The Rams rank in the top quartile of all NFL teams in terms of racial and gender diversity across the organization. As a result, Demoff was awarded the Daniel M. Rooney Lifetime Achievement Award from the Fritz Pollard Alliance in 2023 and was named one of Sports Business Journal's 2023 ALL-IN Leaders in Diversity, Equity and Inclusion. The San Fernando Valley Business Journal also recognized the Rams with a 2022 Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Award and the LA Chamber of Commerce honored Demoff with the Distinguished Business Leader Award. Looking to expand that commitment beyond Los Angeles, Demoff helped found the Black Sports Business Symposium, which aims to create new opportunities for diverse professionals in the world of sports and to increase Black representation in the industry. He also regularly supports programs aimed at increasing diversity across the NFL, including the Ozzie Newsome General Manager Forum and Quarterback Coaching Summit.

Demoff's commitment to DEI also extends to the team's community efforts which are largely focused on providing access and opportunity for young people from Black and Brown communities in Los Angeles. Each year, the Rams partner with LA Promise Fund to provide paid internships to deserving students from Los Angeles public high schools and expose them to career opportunities in professional sports. The Rams also became the first team in professional sports to partner on a corporate residency program with College Track, whose mission is to support students with limited resources to chart their course to and through college. The Rams have created a season-long mentorship program, Pathways to Success, which pairs minority students with Rams front office members and provides a variety of professional workshops and job shadowing opportunities. In 2021, the team created the Kenny Washington Memorial Scholarship to provide up to four years of financial support for 13 students from under-resourced communities who are among the first in their families to pursue post-secondary education. The scholarship, introduced in honor of the 75th anniversary of Washington becoming the first Black player signed by an NFL team in the modern era, also includes advisement support from Fulfillment Fund, an educational non-profit partner of the Rams.

Making an Impact on the Los Angeles Community
Demoff has spearheaded the organization's efforts to become one of the strongest philanthropic partners in professional sports. That focus has led the team to receive numerous awards for their charitable efforts as they continue to become part of the fabric of the greater Los Angeles region. Under Demoff's guidance, the Rams have focused on addressing education inequities, food insecurity, homelessness, community-police relations and youth justice.

Community pillars for the organization are the Watts Rams and North East Lincoln Rams youth football teams, which are coached by officers from the Los Angeles Police Department. The Los Angeles Rams formally adopted the Watts Rams in 2019 and the North East Lincoln Rams in 2022 to use the game of football to help bridge the gap between law enforcement and communities of color. The team also worked with Inglewood Parks and Recreation to rename their youth flag football league the Inglewood Rams. Each of the 26 teams in the Inglewood Rams flag football league is named after a current Rams player with Inglewood police officers serving as coaches and mentors.

Demoff also serves on the executive board of the United Way of Greater Los Angeles, and since 2017 he has served as the chair of its annual campaign which helps United Way transform lives and communities by creating pathways out of poverty for the most vulnerable residents through education, housing and financial stability. Each year, the Rams team up with United Way of Greater Los Angeles to host a 5K family run/walk to raise public awareness and funds to end homelessness. The event, which was renamed Walk United LA in 2021, aims to rally the community to help provide housing, education and opportunity for all. Demoff led the effort to bring WalkUnited LA to SoFi Stadium in 2021. Since 2019, the event has raised more than $4.2 million and the Rams and United Way hosted the 2026 WalkUnited LA at SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park to support local wildfire recovery, housing and education.

In addition to these efforts, the Rams annually host the Taste of the Rams event, which raises money to address the food insecurity of 1 in 5 Angelenos. Introduced in 2016, the event has raised more than $1,500,000 for LA Regional Food Bank and has allowed them to provide nearly five million meals to Angelenos in need.

Demoff also joined the board of City Year Los Angeles, an organization that mobilizes AmeriCorps members for a year of full-time service in underserved communities to serve as tutors, mentors and role models for students to help them graduate high school, college and become career-ready young professionals.

Spearheading Crisis Relief and Recovery Efforts
When the COVID-19 pandemic hit the country in March 2020, the Rams partnered with KABC on a "Te'LA'thon for Los Angeles," which raised $2.2 million to benefit both LA Regional Food Bank and United Way of Greater Los Angeles to help those affected by COVID-19. The organization also made a commitment to fund monthly mobile food distributions in Black and Brown communities including two mobile distributions at SoFi Stadium that provided more than 7,000 families with nutritious food. In March of 2021, Demoff teamed with former Los Angeles Unified School District Superintendent Austin Beutner and the Rams official health partner, Cedars-Sinai, to make Hollywood Park a vaccination site for LAUSD teachers and staff. In two months, approximately 17,000 vaccines were administered to help reopen schools in the safest way possible.

In the wake of unimaginable tragedy that struck the Southern California region in 2018, the Rams hosted the Kansas City Chiefs at the LA Memorial Coliseum for a game that currently stands as the highest scoring Monday Night Football game ever and will be remembered for bringing LA Together. After a mass shooting and wildfires affected and displaced thousands of residents in the Southern California region, the Rams stood in solidarity with Angelenos to honor and pay tribute to affected individuals, their families and first responders who worked tirelessly to keep the region safe. Under Demoff's leadership, the Rams wrapped their arms around the community in a number of ways including giving away thousands of game tickets to those affected by the tragedies and honoring victims and the community through in-game elements. The Rams partnered with CBS-2 and United Way of Greater Los Angeles on a telethon that raised more than $2.1 million benefiting the relief efforts, and in addition more than $250,000 was raised for a variety of charities supporting the relief efforts through in-game 50/50 raffles, jersey auctions and player ticket donations tied to the game.

Corporate Citizenship
The Rams have received multiple accolades recognizing their impact on the greater Los Angeles region. The Salvation Army recently recognized the team with their annual Humanitarian Award and the Los Angeles Business Journal recognized them with the "Business Angel of the Year" award as part of their 2022 Nonprofit and Corporate Citizenship Awards. Additionally, the LA Chamber of Commerce honored the organization with the Distinguished Business Leader Award and the Valley Industry & Commerce Association (VICA) inducted the Rams into the 2022 San Fernando Valley Business Hall of Fame.

Reinforcing the Rams' commitment to the Los Angeles community, Demoff was selected to sit on the Los Angeles Area Chamber of Commerce's CEO Council. He also serves on multiple boards including the LA Coalition for the Economy & Jobs, the Los Angeles Sports Council, and the Los Angeles Sports and Entertainment Commission, as well as its philanthropic initiative, ChampionLA. Additionally, Demoff is part of the American Cancer Society's CEOs Against Cancer, which is a partnership of the world's leading CEOs and the American Cancer Society dedicated to eliminating unnecessary deaths and suffering from cancer. He also serves as the Co-Chair of The Los Angeles Coalition for the Economy & Jobs, an independent, bipartisan membership organization established to bring together leaders from the region's business, labor, academic and nonprofit communities to advance sound policy initiatives that will help grow the economy and create quality jobs throughout the L.A. region.

Demoff was recently awarded Executive of the Year for the 2023 LA Sports Awards. Los Angeles Business Journal also recognized Demoff for five consecutive years on its annual LA500 list, honoring the most influential leaders and executives in Los Angeles. In 2016, he was recognized by the Sports Business Journal as one of its "Forty under 40" class members and in 2010 he was named one of the "NFL's 10 Future Power Brokers" by Sports Illustrated.

Before the Rams
Prior to joining the Rams, Demoff spent four seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2005-08), where he served as a consultant before being named Senior Assistant in 2006. In this capacity, Demoff assisted General Manager Bruce Allen in contract negotiations, salary cap management, strategic planning and both college and pro scouting. CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Tony Pastoors enters his 17th season with the Rams and serves as the team's Chief Operating Officer.

In this role, Pastoors works directly with Owner and Chairman E. Stanley Kroenke and team president Kevin Demoff on all aspects of Rams operations. He partners with General Manager Les Snead and Head Coach Sean McVay in the development and implementation of the club's strategic plans for player signings and player acquisitions. Pastoors also oversees the club's football operations, finance, legal, employee experience and IT functions.

As the team's chief negotiator, Pastoors oversees the team's salary cap management, contract negotiations, compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement as well as the club's financial and strategic planning. Pastoors partners with Snead and McVay in the day-to-day management and execution of the team's football operations. In addition, he serves as a liaison to the club's business operations including marketing, partnerships, finance, ticketing, community relations, administration, and communications. Pastoors serves as part of the Rams' executive leadership team and represents the club at a league level, attending NFL league meetings on behalf of the organization.

Pastoors was a member of the working group that helped Kroenke return the Rams home to L.A. and he continues to play a significant role in delivering on Kroenke's vision to design and construct Hollywood Park, the 298-acre sports and entertainment district in Inglewood that features SoFi Stadium. He has also led the efforts for the construction of two temporary practice facilities and continues to collaborate with local officials and front office staff to create a state-of-the-art training facility and permanent team headquarters surrounded by a sports and entertainment development in Woodland Hills.

Throughout his tenure with the Rams, Pastoors has played a pivotal role in the evolution of the Rams' team-building philosophy and his work has allowed the team to add star-level talent over the last handful of years. There isn't a significant roster or contractual decision that doesn't run through Pastoors and while many have deemed the Rams roster constructing methods as "unconventional" dating back to 2018, numerous clubs around the league have adopted the practices that Pastoors, Snead, and McVay have put into place. Pastoors has been honored in The Athletic's "NFL 40 Under 40" list in four of the last five years.

Over the last few years, Pastoors has helped execute a trade for veteran quarterback Matthew Stafford along with the mid-season trades for Von Miller and Odell Beckham Jr., which helped put the Rams over the edge en route to their Super Bowl LVI victory. During the 2019 season, Pastoors worked closely on the trade deal that brought former All-Pro defensive back Jalen Ramsey to the Rams.

"Rams vice president Tony Pastoors has in the last six years proven masterful at finding creative ways to provide Snead and McVay with virtually any player they desire," said Gary Klein of The Los Angeles Times in 2022.

Pastoors continues to find creative ways to structure contracts and extend player deals in a way that creates cap space and flexibility for the future. In partnership with Snead over the past three offseasons, Pastoors calculated new deals for Matthew Stafford, Kyren Williams, Quentin Lake, Tyler Higbee, Alaric Jackson, Kevin Dotson, and helped sign high-prized free agents such as Davante Adams, Poona Ford, Kam Curl, Nate Landman and Jaylen Watson. He also helped land All-Pro cornerback Trent McDuffie in a trade with the Kansas City Chiefs and sign him to a four-year contract extension this offseason.

In January of 2017, Pastoors worked alongside Kroenke, Demoff and Snead to reshape the culture of the Rams football operation and usher in a new era. The group led a broad coaching search that resulted in the hiring of Head Coach Sean McVay – the youngest head coach in modern NFL history.

Born and raised in Minneapolis, Minn. Pastoors received his degree from Dartmouth College, where he played football for the late Buddy Teevens.

Tony and his wife Emily, have two daughters.

MOLLY HIGGINS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNITY IMPACT AND ENGAGEMENT

| NFL EXP | 25th Year | RAMS EXP | 25th Year |

Molly Higgins is the Executive Vice President of Community Impact and Engagement for the Los Angeles Rams. In her role, Higgins oversees the Rams community outreach and social justice efforts and aims to use the team's platform to fight for equality, drive equity and provide access and opportunity for youth.

Through various programs and initiatives, Higgins and her team work to address issues of poverty that disproportionately impact communities of color including education inequities, housing and food insecurities, community-police relations, youth justice and mentorship.

One of the Rams' signature programs is the Watts Rams youth football program consisting of 150 boys and girls who are coached by LAPD officers. Using the game of football, the goal of the program is to help bridge the divide between the Watts community and law enforcement allowing the kids to see the officers as human beings and mentors, while allowing the officers to get to know the community members they serve. The Rams fund all components of the program and throughout the year, provide engagement opportunities with current players and enrichment and educational experiences to help the kids dream beyond their current reality.

Beyond the Watts Rams, Higgins is driven by the fact that talent is equally distributed, but opportunity is not. With that as a focus, Higgins has placed an emphasis on the Rams being a collaborative partner in the education space with the goal of helping to close the achievement gap for low-income students. Through year-round school engagement including the Rams Readers literacy program, PLAY 60 youth health and wellness Field Days, mentorship programs, internship opportunities, incentive campaigns, playground builds, campus beautifications, career chats, college field trips and funding City Year student success coaches, the Rams are committed to ensuring a child's education and upward mobility are not dictated by their zip code.

Five years ago, the Rams created an additional education program when they introduced the Kenny Washington Memorial Scholarship to celebrate the 75th anniversary of the Rams becoming the first professional sports team in the modern era to sign an African-American player, Kenny Washington, in 1946. Each year, the scholarship provides up to four years of financial support for 13 students who are among the first in their families to pursue a post-secondary education.

Three years ago, the team continued their efforts to support the 1 in 5 Angelenos who struggle with food insecurity with efforts like mobile food drives as well as Taste of the Rams, which Higgins introduced in 2016 upon the team's return to Los Angeles. To date, the event has raised more than $1.5 million dollars for LA Regional Food Bank and provided more than five million meals to Angelenos in need.

In 2025, the Rams and UnitedWay of Greater Los Angeles teamed up to host WalkUnited LA at the Rose Bowl. The largest annual event to end homelessness, WalkUnitedLA works to address the intersectional causes of poverty and benefit the diverse community organizations working to build a more equitable Los Angeles. Unique to 2025, last year's event focused on recovery efforts from the devastation caused by the Eaton and Palisades wildfires and United Way's life-changing initiatives focused on pathways for low-income students, families and communities to thrive. Quarterback Matthew Stafford and his wife, Kelly, served as the honorary chairs for WalkUnitedLA 2025 and were joined by teammates including OL Justin Dedich, C Coleman Shelton and TE Davis Allen. The event also included live entertainment featuring a performance by DE Kobie Turner. WalkUnitedLA rallied together thousands of Angelenos and raised more than $500,000.

Beyond the organization's charitable priorities, the Rams community impact team works to understand each player's areas of interest and aligns them with causes they are passionate about to enable them to personally impact their community. When Andrew Whitworth joined the Rams in 2017, Higgins worked with him to create a community impact strategy. Leading up to Super Bowl LVI, his impact was recognized when he has awarded the NFL Walter Payton Man of the Year, the league's most prestigious honor that recognizes a player's commitment to philanthropy and community impact, as well as excellence on the field.

In addition to Higgins' community impact and engagement responsibilities, she is part of the Rams' executive team that helps shape the organization's off the field strategies.

The Sports Business Journal named Higgins to their 2020 class of "Game Changers." In 2019, the United Way of Greater Los Angeles recognized Higgins with an EmpowerHer Award for her commitment to advance equity in Los Angeles. During her time in St. Louis, Higgins was a recipient of the Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis' "Spirit of Justice Award" honoring individuals who have demonstrated accomplishment, leadership and integrity in facilitating and promoting justice. In 2014, Higgins was recognized as one of St. Louis' "Most Influential Business Women" by the St. Louis Business Journal. Higgins was named to the St. Louis Business Journal's 30 under 30 list in 2006, an annual award that honors 30 St. Louis-area business leaders under the age of 30.

Prior to joining the Rams, Higgins worked in public relations for Unigraphics Solutions, a NYSE-listed global computer software company.

A graduate of the University of Northern Iowa with a B.A. in public relations and a minor in marketing, Higgins is also a graduate of the Coro Women in Leadership program and participated in the Stanford Graduate School of Business Program for NFL Managers. HC SEAN MCVAY

HEAD COACH

| NFL EXP | 18th Year | RAMS EXP | 10th Year |

On January 12, 2017, Los Angeles Rams Owner/Chairman E. Stanley Kroenke named Sean McVay the 23rd full-time head coach in franchise history. McVay became the youngest coach in modern NFL history at 30 years old.

He has led the Rams to seven playoff berths and two Super Bowl appearances in his first nine seasons, winning Super Bowl LVI at SoFi Stadium. McVay, who turned 39 in January, has a 92-57 regular season record and is 10-5 in the playoffs. This past season, McVay joined Hall of Famers Curly Lambeau and George Halas as the only head coaches in NFL history with 100 combined wins prior to turning 40. He also became the winningest head coach in franchise history, passing John Robinson during the 2025 season.

McVay has led the Rams to eight winning seasons with four NFC West titles. He is currently the fifth-youngest head coach in the NFL despite entering his tenth season at the helm, making him the second-longest tenured coach in the NFL behind Andy Reid.

In 2025, the Rams finished with a 12-5 record and appeared in the NFC Championship game. The offense finished the regular season ranked first in yards per game (394.6), yards per play (6.2), passing yards per game (268.1), first downs per game (23.3) and offensive points scored per game (29.6). The unit also finished sixth in yards per rush (4.6) and fourth down conversion rate (64.5%) as well as seventh in red zone efficiency (63.3%) and rushing yards per game (126.6).

McVay guided QB Matthew Stafford to an MVP season after leading the league in touchdown passes (46), passing yards (4,707), and tied for third in completions (388). Stafford also was named an AP First-Team All-Pro selection for the first time and was voted to his fourth Pro Bowl. WR Puka Nacua finished third in AP Offensive Player of the Year voting after leading the league in receptions (129) and finishing second in receiving yards (1,715), tied for third in games with 100 or more receiving yards (6), and tied for sixth in touchdown receptions (10). He also earned AP First-Team All-Pro honors.

Additionally, in his first year with the team, WR Davante Adams led the league in touchdown receptions (14), which was three more than the next closest player despite missing three games due to injury. TE Colby Parkinson set the single-season franchise record for receiving touchdowns by a tight end (8) while RB Kyren Williams rushed for 1,000 yards for the third consecutive season, joining Eric Dickerson, Marshall Faulk and Steven Jackson. Williams also became the sixth player since 2000 with at least 13 scrimmage touchdowns in three of his first four seasons.

The offensive line finished tied for first in sacks allowed (19), penalties per game (4.41), and ranked third in hurries allowed (137) and fourth in pressures allowed (201).

Last season, the Rams defense finished first in opponent rushing touchdowns (8), third in pressures (274), fifth in forced fumbles (12) and pass breakups (48), sixth in hurries (248) and interceptions (16), tied for seventh in opponent third down conversion rate (36.3%) and sacks (47), ninth in opponent passer rating (87.0), and 12th in opponent rushing yards per game (110.8). OLB Jared Verse was voted to his second consecutive Pro Bowl while OLB Byron Young was voted to his first.

Leading up to the 2025 season, McVay's 80 regular season wins were the third-most by a coach before turning 40 in NFL history, behind only Curly Lambeau (130) and George Halas (107).

In 2024, McVay passed John Robinson (79 wins) for the most wins by a head coach in franchise history. He also tied Robinson for the most playoff berths by a coach in franchise history. McVay led a group that became the first team in NFL history to enter their bye week with a losing record and make the playoffs in consecutive seasons.

Under McVay, the offense ranked 10th in the NFL in passing yards per game (227.5), 13th in net yards per attempts (6.9), and 15th in yards per game (331.4) and first downs per game (20.1). The team also tied for seventh in fourth down conversion rate (66.7%) and tied for 10th in turnover margin (six).

Stafford finished in the top-15 in passing yards and touchdowns in 2024. He also surpassed 3,000 passing yards in a season for the 12th time in his career and became the 13th different quarterback in NFL history to accomplish the feat. Stafford passed Eli Manning for 10th all-time in career passing ayrds (59.809) and passing touchdowns (377).

Williams built on the success of his All-Pro season the year prior and tallied single-season career-highs in rushing yards (1,299) and rushing touchdowns (14) in 2024. He joined Hall of Famer Marshall Faulk and Todd Gurley as the only Rams players since 2000 to record 14 rushing touchdowns in a season.

In 2024, the receiving corps recorded the 10th-most receiving yards and sixth-fewest drops (15). They also finished 12th in yards per reception (11.2). Despite missing five games, Nacua recorded 79 catches for 990 yards and three touchdowns. He became the second player in NFL history to record at least 150 receptions, 2,000 receiving yards and nine touchdowns in his first 25 career games. Nacua also became the first player in franchise history and the 16th player in NFL history to record 150+ receiving yards, one receiving touchdown and one rushing touchdown in a game.

The Rams' offensive line ranked first in penalties per game (5.56), sixth in sacks allowed (31), tied for sixth in quarterback sack rate (5.5%), tied for seventh in hurries allowed (132), and 11th in pressures allowed (191). The unit also did not allow a sack in four consecutive weeks (Weeks 14-17), which tied for the longest streak in franchise history and the first time they have accomplished the feat since 2013.

On defense, the Rams finished tied for fifth in red zone efficiency (50%) and sixth in goal-to-go efficiency (65.5%). Against the run, they allowed the 10th-fewest rushing touchdowns (13). The pass rush finished near the top of the NFL in all major categories and finished sixth in hurries (225), 10th in pressure rate (35.7%), and 13th in pressures (218). In the secondary, the team tied for the 12th-most interceptions (13) and allowed the 12th-fewest completions (354).

The team also had two AP Defensive Rookie of the Year finalists in Verse and DE Braden Fiske. Verse was named the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year at NFL Honors at the conclusion of last season. His 89 total pressures (including postseason) were the second-most pressures by a rookie behind Khalil Mack's 102 in 2014. Overall, Rams rookies tallied the most sacks (13.5), tackles for loss (26), pressures (139), and quarterback hits (30) across the NFL in 2024.

DE Kobie Turner set single-season career-highs in tackles (62), tackles for loss (10) and passes defended (four). He also notched 8.0 sacks and became the second player in franchise history to record at least 10.0 sacks in his first 19 career games, joining Aaron Donald. Young also tallied career-highs in tackles (62) and tackles for loss (12). Young's 112 pressures in his first two seasons are the fourth-most in the NFL since pressures began being tracked in 2012.

During the 2023 season, McVay coached his 100th career regular season game and his 0.64 winning percentage became the fifth-highest among active head coaches in their first 100 regular season games. McVay also led the Rams to a 10-7 record and a berth in the Wild Card Round.

The McVay-led offense finished the regular season seventh in yards per game (359.3), seventh in yards per play (5.6), 11th in rush yards per game (120.3), and 10th in pass yards per game (239.0). The Rams offense also finished eighth in third down conversion rate (42%), fourth in fourth down conversion rate (61.9%), fourth in red zone efficiency (63.6%), and eighth in points scored per game (23.76).

Stafford was voted to the Pro Bowl and finished 11th in passing yards (3,965), which ranks among the top-10 most in a single season in franchise history. He also finished 11th in passing touchdowns (24), 12th in completions (326), and 10th in passing first downs (187). With the help of McVay, Stafford passed Fran Tarkenton and moved to 11th on the NFL's all-time passing touchdown list and became the 11th player in NFL history to throw for 53,000 career passing yards.

Williams emerged into a Second-Team All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection during the 2023 campaign. He finished third in rushing yards (1,144), sixth in yards per rush (5.0), and tied for seventh in rushing touchdowns (12). He also tied for the sixth-most receiving touchdowns (three) among running backs.

McVay also guided Nacua to a record-breaking rookie season. Nacua set the record for most receptions and receiving yards by a rookie in a single season in NFL history. His 181 receiving yards in the Wild Card Round also set an NFL rookie record for the most in a playoff game as well as the most in franchise history during a Wild Card Round matchup. McVay guided Nacua to finish ninth in receptions (104) and fourth in receiving yards (1,486) to go along with Second-Team All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl nod.

The Rams offensive line was among the best in the league in several categies during the 2023 season. The unit paved the way for one of the league's best rushing attacks and finished tied for sixth in sacks allowed (34), seventh in sack rate (5.5%), seventh in pressures allowed (213), and ninth in pressures allowed per dropback (33.5%).

The defense also made steady improvements during the and finished seventh in opponents completion percentage (60.8%), 12th in opponents passer rating (88.0), 12th in opponent rush yards per game, and 11th in opponent rushing touchdowns allowed.

Aaron Donald became an eight-time All-Pro selection, which tied for the most by a defensive player and tied for the fifth-most overall. He finished ninth in the NFL in pressures (84) during the regular season. Linebacker Ernest Jones also finished 11th in the NFL in tackles (145), which set a single-season franchise record.

Additionally, rookies such as Turner and Young burst onto the NFL scene under McVay's leadership in 2023. Turner's 9.0 sacks tied the franchise record for most by a rookie, tying Donald's total in 2014. He also became the only rookie in franchise history to finish the regular season as the team's sack leader. Young finished one sack short of the franchise rookie record mark, finishing with eight on the season.

In 2022, McVay helped several Rams players receive notable recognitions for their performances on the field. Donald was voted to his ninth career Pro Bowl and was named to the NFLPA All-Pro team while former Defensive Back Jalen Ramsey was voted to his sixth Pro Bowl. Additionally, in his lone season with the Rams, former Linebacker Bobby Wagner fell three tackles short of breaking the Rams' single-season tackle record (142).

Before sustaining an injury in Week 11, McVay helped Stafford record the highest completion percentage of his career (68.0%). He also supported former Rams Quarterback Baker Mayfield, who led the Rams on a game-winning drive against the Raiders in Week 14 despite joining the team only two days prior. Mayfield and McVay led the Rams on a 98-yard touchdown drive to win the game. According to Elias Sports Bureau, that was the longest go-ahead touchdown drive to begin in the final two minutes of a game in the last 45 years. Mayfield earned Player of the Week honors following the game.

Former Running Back Cam Akers eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark in three consecutive games to close out the regular season and became the first Rams running back to have three consecutive 100+ yard rushing performances in the same season since Todd Gurley in 2015.

McVay also helped Tyler Higbee break the single-season franchise record for receptions by a tight end (72) and become the team's all-time leader in touchdowns for tight ends (20).

Under the leadership of McVay in 2022, the Rams' defense ranked among the best in the NFL and finished first in opponent red zone efficiency (44.4%), second in goal-to-go efficiency (53.3%), and fourth in fewest missed tackles (103). The Rams' defense also finished tied for seventh in interceptions (16), and ninth in defensive total rush EPA (42.97).

McVay produced his fifth-straight winning season with the Rams in 2021, which was the longest consecutive winning season streak since the Rams posted four-consecutive winning seasons from 1983-1986. The 12-5 record earned L.A. its fourth postseason appearance and second Super Bowl appearance in McVay's first five seasons leading the franchise which was capped off by a Super Bowl LVI victory in the Rams' home stadium. McVay became the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl at the age of 36.

He also became the second-fastest coach in franchise history to reach the 50-win mark and was the youngest head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl during the 2018 campaign. He was the youngest coach to win AP Coach of the Year at the age of 31 and won 70% of his first 50 games, which is the sixth-best winning percentage of all-time among coaches with at least 50 games.

The Rams offense thrived during the 2021 season and in Stafford's first year under center. Under McVay's guidance, the Rams offense ranked in the top 10 in total offense and fifth in passing offense. Stafford threw for almost 5,000 yards and Cooper Kupp won the Triple Crown, leading the league in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns.

The Rams would have sent four starters to the 2021 Pro Bowl had they not been preparing for Super Bowl LVI at SoFi Stadium. On offense, Kupp was selected to his first Pro Bowl. On defense, Ramsey earned his fifth straight Pro Bowl nod and Donald earned his eighth-straight Pro Bowl nod. Former Kicker Matt Gay was selected as the starter in his first Pro Bowl. The Rams also had four players selected as alternates including Matthew Stafford, former Tackle Andrew Whitworth, former Outside Linebacker Leonard Floyd and former Center Brian Allen. Kupp, Ramsey and Donald were All-Pro selections.

In a season that was anything but normal due to the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020, the Rams defense flourished earning the league's No. 1 ranked unit and dominating in three different categories. The Rams defense held opposing offenses to only 16.8 points per game, 281.9 yards per game, 190.7 passing yards per game and held each opposing quarterback to under 300 net yards passing. McVay won his third-career postseason contest, this time against a familiar opponent on the road against the Seattle Seahawks in a Wild Card game before falling to the Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field in the Divisional Round.

In 2020, Donald became the third player in league history to be named NFL Defensive Player of the Year three times. He was also named the PFWA Defensive Player of the Year for the second time and joined teammate Jalen Ramsey on the PFWA All-NFL Team. Donald finished the season with 13.5 sacks.

L.A. finished 10th in the league in rushing, averaging 126.1 yards per game led by rookie Cam Akers with a team-best 625 yards on the ground. The Rams offensive unit finished just outside of the top-10 in total offense, amassing 377 yards per game (11th) and passing offense, averaging 250.9 yards per game (13th).

In a win-and-in Week 17 contest against the Arizona Cardinals, McVay helped former Quarterback John Wolford earn his first-career win in his first-career NFL appearance and start. Wolford finished the game completing 22-of-38 passing attempts for 231 yards.

McVay's third season as head coach in 2019 produced his third-consecutive winning season with a 9-7 record. Three-consecutive winning seasons had not been accomplished by a Rams team since 1999-2001, and it was only the third time since 1980 the franchise accomplished the feat.

Additionally, McVay became the first head coach since 2016 to have a winning record in each of their first three seasons as a head coach and became the fourth Rams head coach to have a winning record in three-consecutive seasons.

In his third year working with former QB Jared Goff, McVay helped him throw for over 4,000 yards for the second-consecutive season, becoming the first quarterback in franchise history to do so. Goff also climbed up the Rams' passing leader board, closing out the season sixth on the franchise list.

Under McVay's guidance, the Rams had multiple receivers finish the season with over 1,000 receiving yards. Former WR Robert Woods posted his second-consecutive season with over 1,000 receiving yards, finishing with 1,134. Kupp posted his first season with over 1,000 receiving yards, totaling a team-best 1,161. The 2019 campaign was the first time since 1999-2002 the Rams had consecutive seasons with multiple receivers recording over 1,000 yards. Despite changes in personnel and position due to injuries, L.A.'s offensive front managed to post six games without allowing a sack, good for a single-season franchise record. The defense received a boost when L.A. acquired Pro Bowler Jalen Ramsey via trade in Week 7 of the 2019 campaign. The defense went on to finish with the fourth-most sacks in the league (50.0) and was ranked 13th overall.

Following his second season as an NFL head coach, McVay ranked 17th on Fortune Magazine's World's Greatest Leaders Top-50 List. He was joined on the list by the likes of Bill Gates and Jacinda Ardern and the Prime Minister of New Zealand. The complete rankings are found in the May 2019 issue of Fortune.

The Rams defense proved stout down the stretch in 2018 and helped the team secure a first-round bye in the playoffs. The Rams held the Patriots offensive attack to only 13 points in Super Bowl LIII. The defense was led by Donald, who posted a franchise-best 20.5 sacks, the most ever by a defensive tackle. Donald recorded 183.5 sack yards, the most ever by a defender in a single season. As a unit, the Rams ranked sixth with 1.6 takeaways per game.

In his first season guiding the Rams, McVay completed one of the greatest offensive turnarounds in NFL history. He helped the Rams move from the 32nd-ranked scoring offense in 2016 to the league's top-scoring team in 2017, marking the first time in league history a team has gone from last to first in scoring. The first-year head coach led the Rams to an 11-5 record and their first NFC West title since the 2003 season. McVay guided the Rams to their first playoff berth since 2004.

Following his first season in L.A., McVay was named The Associated Press Coach of the Year, becoming the youngest head coach to ever win the award. Gurley brought home Offensive Player of the Year honors, while Donald was named the Defensive Player of the Year, marking the first time in the 45 year history of the awards there was a sweep of three of the league's top awards. The Rams placed eight players in the 2018 Pro Bowl, the most in a single season by the franchise since the 1999 campaign.

Under McVay's guidance in 2017, Goff flourished earning his first Pro Bowl appearance. Goff completed 296-of-477 (62.1 percent) of his passes for 3,804 yards with 28 touchdowns and seven interceptions posting a 100.5 QB rating on the season. Gurley led the league in scrimmage yards finishing the year with 2,093 yards, including 1,305 rushing yards and 788 receiving yards. Additionally, Gurley was the league's highest-scoring non-kicker posting 19 total touchdowns on the season.

The Rams' defense posted the fourth-most sacks (48.0), tied for sixth in interceptions (18) and finished the 2017 campaign fifth in total takeaways (28). The takeaways directly resulted in 126 points for L.A., the second-best total in the NFL.

In his first season as head coach, the Rams' special teams unit played an integral part in the team's success and was rewarded with a total of four special teamers being named to the Pro Bowl. The L.A. special teams unit was a top-10 finisher in 18-of-22 statistical categories in the 2017 special teams rankings.

Before joining the Rams, McVay completed his third season as Washington's offensive coordinator in 2016 after initially being promoted to the position on January 15, 2014. Prior to his promotion during the 2014 offseason, McVay spent three seasons as the team's tight ends coach (2011-13) and one as an offensive assistant (2010).

The 2016 Washington offensive unit broke many franchise records and ranked in the top-three in a number of statistical categories. The Washington offense became the first unit in franchise history to average over 400 yards per game (403.4) and notched a franchise record 6,545 total net yards.

Former Commanders Quarterback Kirk Cousins finished the year with single-season team records in completions (406) and passing yards (4,917) and matched his team record for 300-yard passing games (seven). His 4,917 passing yards ranked third in the NFL in 2016 and are the 15th-most in a season in NFL history. Cousins closed out the season ranked second in the NFL in passing yards per game (297.4), passing yards per play (7.84) and yards per play (6.4), in addition to being the league's third ranked offensive team, averaging 403.4 yards per game.

From 2015-16, Cousins threw for 9,083 yards, the fourth highest output by a quarterback trailing only Drew Brees (10,078), Matt Ryan (9,535) and Philip Rivers (9,178).

The Washington offense had eight players finish the season with at least 500 yards from scrimmage (DeSean Jackson, Pierre Garcon, Jamison Crowder, Rob Kelley, Chris Thompson, Jordan Reed, Vernon Davis and Matt Jones), tying the 2011 New Orleans Saints for the most in a single-season in NFL history.

McVay's group posted a breakout campaign in his second year as offensive coordinator in 2015, including record-setting performances by Cousins and tight end Jordan Reed. McVay's scheme and tutelage helped Cousins break the Washington records for attempts (543), completions (379), passing yards (4,166) and 300-yard passing games (seven) in a single season. Reed was a direct beneficiary of McVay's work, spending 2013 as a member of his unit during McVay's time as tight ends coach and being a focal point of the offense in 2015 when Reed recorded 87 receptions for 952 yards (both team records for a tight end) with 11 receiving touchdowns (one shy of the team record) in 2015.

Collectively, McVay's 2015 offense recorded Top 10 rankings in third down percentage (43.5, fifth in the NFL), red zone scoring percentage (61.2, eighth), yards per play (5.6, 10th) and points per game (24.3, 10th). Washington also led the NFL with a team-record 69.5 completion percentage in 2015.

In his first season as offensive coordinator in 2014, McVay helped the Washignton offense to a Top 10 league ranking in yards per play (5.7) despite starting three different quarterbacks. His work with the three passers was instrumental in setting a team record for completion percentage (66.5 percent, later broken in 2015) and helping facilitate the explosive debut season of wide receiver DeSean Jackson. Jackson averaged a league-best 20.9 yards per reception and became only the fourth player in team history to lead the NFL in that category.

In 2013, McVay played a crucial role in Reed's development, as the then-rookie compiled 45 receptions for 499 yards – both Washington's single-season rookie tight end records – despite Reed playing in only nine games. Under McVay's tutelage, Reed joined Chris Cooley (2004) as the only Washington tight ends named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team.

During Washington's NFC East championship season in 2012, McVay's unit was productive despite losing starting TE Fred Davis to a torn Achilles tendon in Week 7. Davis had led the team in both receptions (24) and receiving yards (325) through seven games before being placed on the reserve/injured list.

In 2011, McVay played an integral role in Davis' emergence, as the then fourth-year tight end surpassed his previous career highs despite playing in only 12 games. Davis caught 59 passes for 796 yards, the second-highest total on the team in both categories. Before missing the final four games of the season, Davis was on pace to set a franchise record in receiving yards by a tight end and was on pace to post the first 1,000-yard receiving season by a tight end in Washington's history.

McVay served as an offensive assistant for Washington in 2010 in addition to working with the tight ends during the final four weeks of the season. The Washington offense ranked eighth in the NFL in passing yards per game (244.6) and tight end Chris Cooley ranked second among NFL tight ends in receptions (77) and third in receiving yards (849). The offensive unit also set a franchise record for completions in a season (349), and registered a touchdown pass in 15 consecutive games for the first time in team history.

The Rams receiving core totaled just 15 drops all season, the sixth-fewest in the NFL. QB Matthew Stafford surpassed 3,000 passing yards in a season for the 12th time in his career and became the 13th-different quarterback to accomplish the feat in NFL history. With Scheelhaase, Stafford posted the fifth-best completion percentage (65.8) of his career and moved into the top-10 in NFL history in completions (5,174), passing yards (59,809), and touchdown passes (377). Scheelhaase also spent two years coaching the running backs and wide receivers and took on run game coordinator responsibilities (2021-22). Before splitting duties for the program, he coached the receivers for two seasons (2019-20) and the running backs for one season (2018).

During his tenure at Iowa State, the Cyclones appeared in five bowl games and began the season in the AP Top 25 in four of six seasons with the program. The Cyclones also finished with a winning record in five of six seasons and the program produced three of the most productive offenses in school history since 2019.

The Cyclones offense improved from 20.2 points per game in 2022 to 26.2 points per game under his leadership as offensive coordinator. They led college football with 11 offensive touchdowns of 50 or more yards and many players were recognized for their outstanding play including redshirt freshman Quarterback Rocco Becht, who was named Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year and Second-Team Freshman All-American. Becht completed 231-of-367 passes for 3,120 yards and 23 touchdowns. He broke nearly every ISU freshman passing record and his touchdown mark was the most in a single season for a Cyclone quarterback since Brock Purdy (27) in 2019. Receiver Jaylin Noel also excelled under Scheelhaase's guidance, notching 66 catches for 820 yards and seven touchdowns, the most by an ISU player since 2020. Receiver Jayden Higgins, who finished the season with 53 catches for 983 yards and six touchdowns. They recorded a 6-3 record in conference play and competed in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

As the receivers coach in 2022, he guided Xavier Hutchinson to a record-breaking season and helped him earn AP First-Team All-American honors. Hutchinson was also named First-Team All-Big 12 for the third consecutive season and was named a Biletnikoff Award finalist. He led the Big 12 and broke his own single-season record with 107 catches, becoming the first Cyclone in school history to record 100 catches in a single season and the first player in Big 12 history to lead the conference in receptions three consecutive seasons. Hutchinson finished his collegiate career with the eighth-most catches in Big 12 history and the third-most receiving yards in ISU program history. He recorded a reception in every game he appeared in, which was the second-longest streak in school history, and tied for the seventh-longest active streak in college football. That season, Scheelhaase was named a finalist for FootballScoop's Wide Receiver Coach of the Year.

During the 2021 season, the Cyclones recorded the fourth-best scoring average (31.3) and fifth-best total offense (424.5 yards per game) in program history. Scheelhaase helped ISU's offense rank second nationally in red zone offense, converting on 47-of-49 trips (95.9%) and guided the Cyclones to their fifth-consecutive bowl game appearance. That season, two-time consensus All-American Running Back Breece Hall led the conference and ranked sixth nationally in rushing yards (122.7 yards per game) and was second nationally in touchdowns (23). Scheelhaase also participated in a Minority Coaching Fellowship with the Kansas City Chiefs and worked specifically with the quarterbacks in 2021.

In 2020, ISU finished the season with the second-best scoring offense (31.9 points per game) and the third-best total offense (436.3 yards per game) in program history. The Cyclones finished first in the Big 12 standings, competed in the Big 12 Championship, and qualified for a New Year's Six Bowl for the first time in program history. Scheelhaase helped the team record the highest rankings in school history during the season (sixth) and in the postseason (ninth).

Scheelhaase was listed in 247Sports' "30Under30" as one of the top rising coaches in 2019. In his first season as the receivers coach, he mentored All-Big 12 Receiver Deshaunte Jones, who finished the season with 76 catches which was the second-highest mark in school history, to go along with 877 yards which was eighth-best in program history.

In 2018 as the running backs coach, he mentored David Montgomery, who earned All-America honors in back-to-back seasons and finished third in the conference in rushing (101.3 yards per game) and became just the eighth player in program history to record multiple 1,000-yard rushing seasons. Montgomery also finished second in the Big 12 in rushing touchdowns (13).

Prior to his time at Iowa State, Scheelhaase was on staff at the University of Illinois (2015-17). He spent his first season as the running backs coach (2015) before becoming an offensive analyst (2016-17).

Scheelhaase played quarterback for the Fighting Illini (2009-13) and finished his career as the program's all-time leader in total offense with 10,634 yards, which ranks seventh in Big Ten history. In 2013 as a senior, he had one of the best offensive seasons in program history leading the conference in passing yards (272.7 yards per game) and completion percentage (66.7). He also broke the school record for passing efficiency (140.7) to earn All-Big Ten honors. He earned the prestigous Big Ten Medal of Honor in 2014, was a four-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree, and earned two degrees, a bachelor's degree in communication and a master's in sports management.

His 89 total pressures (including playoffs) were the second-most by a rookie behind Khalil Mack's 102 in 2014. Overall, the Rams defensive rookie tallied the most sacks (13.5), tackles for loss (26), pressures (139) and quarterback hits (30) across the NFL in 2024.

Lake became the 11th Rams defensive back to record 100 tackles in a season. His 111 tackles are the fifth-most for a defensive back in franchise history.

In 2023 when Shula was coaching linebackers and serving as the team's pass rush coordinator, former LB Ernest Jones set the franchise record for most tackles in a single season (145), despite missing a game due to injury, and finished 11th in the NFL in tackles. Former S Taylor Rapp also had one of his best seasons under Shula and was the 12th-highest graded safety during the 2022 season, according to PFF.

With the guidance of Shula during the team's Super Bowl-winning season in 2021, Jones became an instant contributor as a rookie starting 15 games. Shula helped Jones have a standout performance in Super Bowl LVI with seven tackles (six solo), 1.0 sack, one pass breakup, and four quarterback pressures. Shula's unit supported the Rams defense which finished sixth in the NFL in opponents rushing yards per game (103.2), sixth in opponents rush yards (1,754) and fifth in yards per rush (3.96) in 2021.

Shula entered the NFL after spending one season as defensive coordinator at John Carroll University in 2014. During that season, John Carroll reached the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division III playoffs and finished 10th in Division III in scoring defense.

SAFETIES

| NFL EXP | 28th Year | RAMS EXP | 5th Year |
|---|---|---|---|

Chris Beake enters his 28th season coaching in the NFL and his fifth with the Los Angeles Rams. He will coach the safeties in 2026 after coaching the secondary the last three seasons.

In 2025, the Rams secondary finished sixth in interceptions (16), tied for fifth in pass breakups (48), ninth in passes defended (80) and ninth in opponent passer rating (87.0). Safety Kam Curl set new single-season career-highs in tackles (122), which led all safeties in tackles last season and was the most by a safety in a single season in franchise history.

Cornerback Emmanuel Forbes also showed improvement in the Rams secondary in 2025 and finished tied for third in the NFL in passes defended (18). He also finished tied for 14th in incompletions against as the primary defender (37).

Under Beake's guidance in 2024, the Rams safeties finished first in defensive touchdowns (three), tied for third in interceptions (nine), and ninth in completion percentage (65.7%). The Rams also became the first team this century to have three different safeties record at least one defensive touchdown in the same season.

The Rams rookie safety duo, Kamren Kinchens and Jaylen McCollough, each recorded four interceptions, tied for the second-most among rookies and the sixth-most in the NFL. Kinchens recorded the longest interception returned for a touchdown in franchise history (103 yards). Additionally, safety Quentin Lake stepped into a larger role as a team captain and played 100 percent of the team's defensive snap through the first 17 weeks. His 111 tackles are the fifth-most by a defensive back in franchise history. Additionally, safety Kam Curl recorded a single-season career-high in passes defended (nine), tied for 14th-most in the NFL among safeties last season.

In 2023, Beake mentored former defensive back Jordan Fuller who was one of 11 players in the league to force six or more furnovers leading into the final game of the regular season. Beake also played a role in the development of Lake, who had a breakout season notching 53 tackles, one fumble recovery, five pass breakups, and six passes defended. Additionally, Beake mentored S John Johnson, who finished the season 18th among secondary defenders in passer rating against as the primary defender (35.4) to go along with his two interceptions on the season.

The Rams' inside linebackers had a productive season under Beake's guidance in 2022. In his first and only season with the team, former linebacker Bobby Wagner had a career year and finished three tackles short of setting the Rams' franchise record for tackles in a single season, which was set by James Laurinaitis (142) in 2011 and 2012. He was also Pro Football Focus' top-ranked linebacker in the regular season with a 90.7 grade. Wagner finished tied for 10th in tackles against the rush (84), 13th in tackles (140), tied for 20th in stops (51), and tied for 38th in tackles for loss (10).

Beake also played an instrumental role in the development of former linebacker Ernest Jones in 2022. He finished 35th in tackles (113), which was second on the team behind Wagner. With the elite play from both inside linebackers, the Rams rush defense was among the best in the NFL and only allowed two players to eclipse the 100-yard rushing mark. The Rams were one of four teams to enter Week 17 without allowing a 100-yard rusher that season.

Beake spent nine years of his career in Denver working with the Broncos defense serving as pass game specialist (2021), defensive assistant (2019-20), defensive assistant/defensive line (2016-18), defensive assistant (2014-15) and defensive quality control (2013).

During Beake's nine seasons in Denver, the Broncos allowed the third-fewest total yards (327.4) and seventh-fewest points (21.8) in the league. The Broncos were also one of just two NFL teams to finish in the top eight against the run (seventh/106.4 ypg) and against the pass (second/221.0 ypg) during that span.

In his first year as defensive pass game specialist in 2021, Beake continued to push the Broncos secondary, working directly with safeties such as Justin Simmons and Kareem Jackson. Opposing offenses were challenged in the pass game as the Broncos defense ranked fourth in opposing completion percentage (60.7%), fifth in passing touchdowns allowed (22), sixth in opponent passer rating (85.0) and eighth in passing yards allowed (3,652). As a collective unit, the Broncos defense made 13 interceptions for 221 return yards.

In 2020, Beake took on increased coaching responsibilities in the secondary, stepping into an elevated weekly and gameday role with several coaches missing time due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Denver led the NFL in red zone defense (47.5%, 29-of-61) for the second consecutive season while outside linebacker Bradley Chubb and safety

Justin Simmons were voted to their first Pro Bowls.

From 2013-20, the Broncos defense featured eight players who combined for 20 Pro Bowl selections, led by 2010's NFL All-Decade linebacker Von Miller, who led the NFL with 81.0 total sacks during that span. Beake worked extensively with the Broncos' outside linebackers in 2018 as Miller was selected to his seventh Pro Bowl and Chubb set the franchise rookie record for sacks (12.0).

In his two seasons (2011-12) with the Browns, Beake worked with one of the youngest offenses in the NFL, helping to develop a quarterback group that included draft choices Colt McCoy and Brandon Weeden.

Beake spent two seasons with Seattle, serving as the Seahawks' offensive quality control coach in 2008 and offensive assistant/assistant special teams coach in 2009. From 2004-06, he coached linebackers for the Atlanta Falcons, tutoring All-Pro Linebacker Keith Brooking, who earned the final two of his five career Pro Bowl selections in 2004 and 2005.

Beake started his NFL career with San Francisco in 1998 as a pro personnel assistant and spent the next five seasons with the 49ers coaching on both sides of the ball.

He is a graduate of the U.S. Air Force Academy, where he played quarterback from 1990-92 and majored in civil engineering. He began his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant for his alma mater in 1994. Beake served as a Civil Engineer Officer in the Air Force from 1995-98 while earning his master's degree in business administration from the University of West Florida.

Beake's father, John, was the general manager of the Denver Broncos from 1984-98, part of a 44-year career as a coach or administrator at the high school, college or pro levels. Chris and his wife, Andrea, have a son, Colin (19) and twin daughters, Madeline and Emilie (13). He was born on Sept. 10, 1972, in Kansas City

ROB CALABRESE

WIDE RECEIVERS

| NFL EXP | 7th Year | RAMS EXP | 3rd Year |

Rob Calabrese enters his third season with the Los Angeles Rams and his first coaching the wide receivers after spending the previous two as an offensive assistant. He joined the Rams after spending three seasons with the New York Jets as the quarterbacks coach from 2021-23.

During the 2025 season, Calabrese worked with a Rams offense that finished first in points scored per game (30.47), yards per game (394.6) and passing yards per game (268.1), seventh in rushing yards per game (126.6), sixth in yards per rush (4.6), seventh in red zone efficiency (63.2%) and fifth in goal to go efficiency (84.4%). The offense also finished first in passing yards (4,557), passing touchdowns (46), and seventh in rushing yards (2,152).

In his first season with the Rams, Calabrese supported multiple position groups across the offensive unit. Under his guidance, the team finished the 2024 season ranked 10th in passing yards per game (227.5) as well as 15th in offensive yards per game (331.4) and first downs per game (20.1). The Rams also finished inside the top-15 in scrimmage yards with 5,861 on the year.

Despite working through many quarterback changes during the 2023 season with the Jets, Calabrese helped guide QB Zach Wilson to 2,482 yards of total offense. He threw for 2,271 yards and eight touchdowns in 12 games played on the season.

In 2022, the Jets saw three different quarterbacks record at least two games of 300 or more passing yards and became the only team in the NFL to do so. QB Mike White became only the fifth player in NFL history to record more than 350 passing yards in at least two of their first five career starts. Calabrese also helped QB Joe Flacco become the first player with two passing touchdowns in the final two minutes of a fourth quarter.

During his first season with the Jets in 2021, he mentored Wilson who improved steadily throughout his rookie season. In the last seven games, Wilson ranked in the top half of the NFL starters (min. 100 attempts) in total touchdowns and in the top five in fewest turnovers. He ended the season without an interception in 156 passing attempts, the longest rookie streak in franchise history and longest streak by a Jets quarterback since 2000. Under Calabrese's leadership, three other quarterbacks saw action in 2021. White became the first quarterback in NFL history with 300+ passing yards and a 75+ completion percentage in his first career start. Additionally, Calabrese helped the transition of acquiring Flacco midseason and in his only game of action recorded a 100+ passer rating. QB Josh Johnson saw action for the first time in three seasons and threw for 300+ yards, becoming just the fifth quarterback in the last 30 seasons to not start a game and still throw for 300+ yards.

Prior to the Jets, Calabrese spent two seasons with the Denver Broncos as their offensive quality control coach from 2019-20. He worked with multiple different quarterbacks as the Broncos were forced to use five different starters as a result of injuries. He made his NFL coaching debut with the Broncos in 2019 when Joe Flacco started the first eight games completing 65.3% of his passes, the best mark of his career at the time. Calabrese also helped rookie quarterback Drew Lock start the final five games of the season and compile a 4-1 record. The Broncos offense finished second in the NFL in fourth down conversion rate (68.8%) that season.

Before entering the NFL coaching ranks, Calabrese coached at the collegiate level. He spent time at Wagner College from 2016-18 and held various positions. He served as the running backs coach in 2016 and then became the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2017-18. Under his leadership, the offense averaged 28 points per game in 2018, which was almost a seven-point per game improvement from the season prior and the school's best average in nine seasons.

Calabrese also spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Central Florida. He worked with the quarterbacks and wide receivers and was selected as one of 30 coaches for the NCAA-AFCA Future Football Coaches Academy.

He began his coaching career at Oviedo High School in Florida mentoring the quarterbacks for a season in 2013.

Before Calabrese became a coach, he played quarterback and wide receiver at Central Florida, where he registered 1,276 passing yards and 12 touchdowns to go along with 494 rushing yards and two touchdowns. He also attended East Islip High School, where he broke school records for career passing yards and touchdowns.

He is a native of Islip Terrace, New York. Calabrese and his wife, Taylor, have two sons, Kayden and Cooper.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

| NFL EXP | 4th Year | RAMS EXP | 4th Year |
|---|---|---|---|

Joe Coniglio enters his fourth season with the Los Angeles Rams as their outside linebackers coach after serving at the Naval Academy for two seasons.

In 2025 under Coniglio's guidance, the Rams pass rush unit finished tied for seventh in sacks (47.0), sixth in hurries (248), second in quarterback hits (119) and third in pressures (274). Outside linebacker Jared Verse was voted to his second Pro Bowl while Byron Young earned his first Pro Bowl nod.

Young finished the season tied for eighth in sacks (12.0), fifth in quarterback hits (30) and tied for 14th in pressures (64). He became the first Rams player to reach the 12.0 sack mark since Aaron Donald in 2021. Among outside linebackers, Young's 12 tackles for loss also ranked tied for 19th among all defenders in the NFL.

Verse finished the 2025 season ranked sixth in pressures (80) and hurries (52) eighth in quarterback hits (28). Verse also became the second-fastest player to reach 100 career pressures (22 games) behind Nick Bosa.

Additionally, rookie edge rusher Josaiah Stewart excelled as a rotational pass rusher and finished eighth in quarterback hits (7), tied for ninth in sacks (3.0), 12th in pressures (21) and tied for 15th in hurries (14) among all rookie defenders in the NFL.

During the 2024 season, the Rams outside linebackers took another step under Coniglio's guidance. The pass rush unit finished the season ranked sixth in hurries (225), 10th in pressure rate (35.7%), and 13th in pressures (218). Verse was named the Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year and PWFA Defensive Rookie of the year after he tallied 66 tackles, 11 tackles for loss, 4.5 sacks, two forced fumbles and two passes defended. Verse's 89 total pressures (inluding playoffs) were the second-most pressures by a rookie behind Khalil Mack's 102 in 2014. His 17.2% pressure rate last season was the second-highest by a rookie in the Next Gen Stats era behing Micah Parsons' 19.5% pressure rate in 2021. Verse and rookie DE Braden Fiske became the first two rookies in franchise history to record at least 4.5 sacks, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries in their rookie seasons. The duo finished the season with a combined 120 pressures, the most by any rookie duo since 2018.

Additionally, Young built on his stellar rookie campaign and tallied career-highs in tackles (62) and tackles for loss (12). He also notched 7.5 sacks, taking his career total to 15.5 which marks the third-most among players drafted in 2023. His 112 pressures in his first two seasons are the fourth-most in the NFL since pressues began being tracked in 2012.

During the 2023 season, Coniglio played a vital role in helping Young burst onto the NFL scene. His 8.0 sacks ranked third for most sacks by a rookie in franchise history. He also became the first rookie in franchise history to be in the sack column in his first three regular season games. Among rookies, Young finished in the top 10 in most defensive snaps played, tackles for loss, hurries, quarterback hits, pressures, sacks and tackles. He finished the regular season ranked 16th in pressures, 15th in sacks among outside linebackers, and tied for seventh in quarterback hits. Former OLB Michael Hoecht also notched single-season career-highs in tackles, sacks, pressures, and pass breakups in his first year playing the position as a full-time starter.

During his time at Navy in 2022, the defense finished third in the nation against the run. The unit was the only defense ranked in the top 25 that faced three of the top 10 rushing offenses in the country. The Navy defense also finished third in fewest first downs allowed, 23rd in sacks, 22nd in fumble recoveries, and 32nd in total defense. Coniglio also mentored senior striker John Marshall, who finished third in the nation in sacks and tackles for loss per game while setting school records for single-season and single-game sacks. Marshall became the only unanimous First-Team All-American Athletic Conference selection in 2022.

Despite having one of the toughest schedules in the country in 2021, the Navy defense finished 32nd in the nation in run defense (130.4 yards allowed per game), 51st in passing defense (218.2 yards allowed per game), 34th in total defense (348.6 yards allowed per game), and 34th in red zone defense (.778).

He joined the Naval Academy from Kent State, where he coached the outside linebackers and served as the defensive recruiting coordinator for two seasons. During his second stint with the Golden Flashes, Coniglio helped lead the team to a 3-1 record in a COVID-shortened season and their first bowl win in school history with a 51-41 victory in the 2019 Tropical Smoothie Cafe Frisco Bowl.

He also spent five seasons at Rhode Island, where he served as defensive line coach, special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator. During his time with the Rhode Island Rams, they were among national (FCS) leaders in numerous defensive categories. In 2017, Rhode Island was the only defensive line in the nation to have five players register five or more sacks and 10 or more tackles for loss. The defense broke the program's sack record that season and produced their third different all-conference player during Coniglio's coaching stint. The following season in 2018, Rhode Island ranked 31st in the FCS in total defense. Addtionally on special teams in 2018, Rhode Island ranked in the top 20 in punt return defense, kick return average and punt return average.

From 2012-13, Coniglio was the defensive line coach at Northern Michigan.

He also spent three seasons at Kent State from 2009-2011 while earning a master's degree. His roles during his first stint at Kent State included special assistant to the head coach, defensive graduate assistant, video coordinator and defensive volunteer. Coniglio worked closely with the defensive line and helped develop future NFL players Roosevelt Nix, Ishmaa'ily Kitchen and Monte Simmons. During that period, Kent State's defense ranked in the top tier of numerous NCAA categories, including 10th in the nation in total defense in 2010. The following season in 2011, the Golden Flashes ranked 21st in total defense, and in 2009 the defense was fourth in tackles for loss and 17th in sacks.

A two-time All-Mid-American Conference defensive end at Miami (OH), Coniglio was a three-year starter and three-year winner of the RedHawks' Vic Waltz Defensive Lineman of the Year award. He also helped Miami (OH) win three MAC East titles and ranks fifth among the program's sack leaders.

Coniglio and his wife, Jessa, have a daughter, Anna, and two sons, Joseph and Matthew.

RUNNING BACKS

| NFL EXP | 4th Year | RAMS EXP | 4th Year |
|---|---|---|---|

Ron Gould enters his fourth season with the Los Angeles Rams as the running backs coach. He joined the Rams after spending six seasons at Stanford leading the running backs.

Gould has 36 seasons of coaching experience, including four as a head coach at UC Davis and 24 years working in the Pac-12 Conference.

During his career, Gould has mentored some of the game's elite running backs, including Rams All-Pro and Pro Bowler Kyren Williams, and coached Super Bowl champions such as Marshawn Lynch, C.J. Anderson and Shane Vereen. Anderson spent time with the Rams in 2018 and appeared in Super Bowl LII against the New England Patriots.

Gould also mentored college standouts Bryce Love and J.J. Arrington, as well as NFL players such as Jahvid Best and Justin Forsett. He has coached a total of eight Pro Bowl selections, three First-Team All-America picks, and six First-Team all-conference honorees. Five of the past twelve Super Bowls have featured a running back whom Gould has coached.

During the 2025 season, the Rams offense finished sixth in yards per rush (4.6), seventh in rushing yards (2,152) and tied for 14th in rushing touchdowns (17). Under Gould's guidance, Kyren Williams reached 1,000 rushing yards for the third consecutive season in 2025, becoming the first Rams running back to hit the mark three straight seasons since Steven Jackson (eight straight seasons). The only other running backs to accomplish the feat were Eric Dickerson (four consecutive) and Marshall Faulk (three straight). Williams also became the sixth player since 2000 with at least 13 scrimmage touchdowns in three of his first four seasons, joining Shaun Alexander, Maurice Jones-Drew, Alvin Kamara, Adrian Peterson and LaDainian Tomlinson. Additionally, Gould mentored second-year running back Blake Corum to a single season career-best 746 rushing yards and six touchdowns. Corum also finished the 2025 season as one of eight running backs in the NFL to average at least five yards per rush (min 145 attempts).

In 2024, Gould helped the rushing attack finish 14th in rushing first downs (119) and tie for 15th in rushing touchdowns (14). With consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons, Williams became the first Rams running back to accomplish the feat since Todd Gurley in 2017 and 2018. He built on is All-Pro season and record career-highs in rushing yards (1,299) and rushing touchdowns (14). Williams became the sixth Rams running back to record 14 rushing touchdowns in a season and the first since Gurley in 2018. He rushed for at least 60 yards in 12 consecutive games (Weeks 3-15) and passed Eric Dickerson (11 games) for the longest streak of 60+ rushing yard games in franchise history. Williams has recorded 31 scrimmage touchdowns since Week 1 of the 2023 season, the most across the NFL over that span.

During his first season in the NFL in 2023, the Rams finished ranked 11th in rushing yards (2,045), 12th in yards per rush attempt (4.3), eighth in rushing touchdowns (18) and 11th in tackles avoided on rushes (89). It was the first time the Rams rushed for 2,045 or more yards since the 2018 campaign.

Under Gould's leadership, Williams finished third in the NFL in rushing yards (1,144), sixth in yards per rush (5.0) and tied for seventh in rushing touchdowns (12) despite missing four games due to injury. It was the first time Williams eclipsed 1,000 rushing yards in his NFL career and he was the first Rams running back to do so since Todd Gurley in 2018. Additionally, with 12 rushing touchdowns on the season, Williams tied Gurley, Wendell Tyler, Eric Dickerson and Marshall Faulk for the seventh-most rushing touchdowns in a single season in franchise history.

Before joining Sean McVay's staff, Gould spent six seasons at Stanford where he guided Bryce Love to a record-breaking season in 2017. Love set the school's single-season rushing record (2,118), single-game rushing record (301), and was named the 2017 Doak Walker Award winner. Love also was the Lombardi Award winner and Heisman Trophy runner-up as a junior. He set Stanford records for rush average (6.79) and consecutive 100-yard rushing games (nine). The Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year and unanimous All-American finished with the fourth-most rushing yards and fifth-most touchdowns in school history. Love was drafted in the fourth round of the 2019 NFL Draft by Washington.

Prior to joining Stanford, Gould was the head coach at UC Davis from 2013-16. During his time as head coach, the Aggies posted the Big Sky Conference's highest Academic Progress Rate (APR) from the NCAA all four years. Gould helped guide Gabe Manzanares to record the program's best rushing total (1,285 yards) in more than a decade during the 2013 season. Manzanares won Big Sky Newcomer of the Year honors and ranked among the conference and FCS leaders in several statistical categories.

Gould coached the running backs for 16 years at California from 1997-2012 and was eventually promoted to associate head coach in 2008 and had added responsibilities as run game coordinator in 2011. Gould developed several of the top running backs at Cal including NFL players such as Lynch, Arrington, Best, Vereen, Adimchinobe Echemandu, Forsett, Tarik Smith and Will Ta'ufo'ou. Other players who worked with Gould and later signed NFL contracts include Chris Manderino and Byron Storer. Nine of the program's top 11 individual rushing seasons and six of Cal's all-time top rushers were coached by Gould.

Marshawn Lynch was the 2006 Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year, J.J. Arrington was eighth in the 2006 Heisman Trophy voting after leading the country with 2,018 rushing yards, and Jahvid Best was a two-time All-Pac 12 First-Team selection. Both Lynch and Best were first-round picks in the NFL Draft, while Arrington and Vereen were second-round selections.

He was a candidate for the 2010 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Assistant Coach of the Year Award and participated in NFL internships with the Atlanta Falcons, Arizona Cardinals, Green Bay Packers, Los Angeles Rams, San Francisco 49ers and St. Louis Rams.

Following his college graduation, Gould began his collegiate coaching career at his alma mater, Oregon, from 1990-91. He also coached the defensive backs at Portland State in 1992 and at Boise State from 1993-96.

A native of Scottsdale, Arizona, Gould played defensive back at Scottsdale Community College from 1984-85 before earning a scholarship to Wichita State. When the Shockers discontinued their football program, Gould chose to play at Oregon where he earned his bachelor's degree in human services.

Gould and his wife, Teresa, have two sons Tevin and Trae.

TIGHT ENDS

Scott Huff joined Los Angeles in 2025 as the tight ends coach after coaching the offensive line with the Seattle Seahawks.

Under Huff's guidance during the 2025 season, the Rams tight end unit finished first in receiving touchdowns (17), fourth in receiving yards (1,128) and yards after the catch (588), seventh in receptions (103) and eighth in yards per reception (11.0). Tight end Colby Parkinson set new single season career-high marks in receptions (43), receiving yards (408) and touchdowns (eight). Rookie tight end Terrance Ferguson recorded six receptions of at least 25 yards, the most by a Rams rookie tight end in the last 35 years and the third-most among all tights ends during the 2025 season.

In his first NFL season, the Seahawks offensive line finished fifth in rushes per touchdown (22.53), eighth in passing yards per game (236.5), tied for the 11th-most rushing touchdowns (17), and tallied the 14th-most yards per game (332.2). Under his guidance, C Olu Oluwatimi started the final eight games of the season and allowed just six hurries and eight pressures. QB Geno Smith totaled career-highs in passing yards (4,320) and completion percentage (70.4%). RB Zach Charbonnet also had a breakout season and led the team with a career-high eight rushing touchdowns.

Previously, Huff spent seven seasons with the Washington Huskies (2017-23) as their offensive line coach. From 2017-19, he was the Huskies run game coordinator on top of his duties as offensive line coach. Under his guidance from 2017-2023, the Huskies had at least one First-Team All-Pac-12 offensive lineman each season, and two first-teamers on three occasions. In all, seven UW offensive linemen coached by Huff have spent time on an NFL roster including four draftees. OL Troy Fautanu (2024) and OL Kaleb McGary (2018) were both first-round draft picks.

In 2023, Huff was part of a coaching staff that for the second year in a row, produced an offensive line that ranked among the nation's best in sacks allowed (11) and permitted just 46 tackles for loss. That group received the Joe Moore Award, recognizing them as the best offensive line in the nation. The award-winning unit was led by Fautanu, a Third-Team All-American who was also named to the All-Pac-12 first team for the second season in a row. He took home the 2023 Morris Trophy as the top offensive lineman in the Pac-12 Conference.

In 2022, Washington led the nation in both passing offense (369.8 yards per game) and third-down conversion rate (57 percent), and finished second in total offense (515.8 yards per game). Just one season earlier, Washington finished the season 73rd in pass offense and 114th in total offense. The unit also paved the way for the FBS's No. 25-ranked rushing offense and allowed just seven sacks, the second-fewest in the nation. Four of UW's five starting linemen received some level of All-Pac-12 honors.

In 2021, Huff added another First-Team All-Pac-12 selection to his résumé as Jaxson Kirkland earned that honor for the second season in a row. In 2019, Washington's offensive line paved the way for yet another 1,000-yard rusher (RB Salvon Ahmed), while limiting opponents to just 22.0 sacks in 13 games. In 2018, McGary won the Morris Trophy as the Pac-12's best offensive lineman. The offensive line helped the Huskies rush for 179.9 yards per game (third in the Pac-12) and paved the way for RB Myles Gaskin to become the second player in NCAA-FBS history to rush for 1,200 yards in four consecutive seasons.

In his first season in Montlake in 2017, Huff mentored an offensive line that helped Gaskin rush for 1,380 yards and 21 touchdowns. Two of his linemen, Coleman Shelton and McGary, earned First-Team All-Pac-12 honors.

Prior to his time at Washington, Huff coached 11 seasons at his alma mater, Boise State (2006-16), under Chris Petersen. During his final season with the Broncos in 2016 as co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach, his unit was a semifinalist for the Joe Moore Award, given to the top line in the nation, as Boise State placed two linemen on the All-Mountain West Conference First-Team. He also was a nominee for the Broyles Award, given to the assistant coach of the year. As co-offensive coordinator, the Broncos led the MWC in total offense (472.8 yards per game) and the offensive line allowed just 19.0 sacks in 13 games as Boise finished the year 10-3.

In 2015, Boise saw two offensive linemen earn First-Team All-MWC while a third picked up honorable mention. OL Rees Odhiambo was selected by the Seahawks in the third round of the 2016 NFL Draft while OL Marcus Henry signed with the Saints as an undrafted free agent. Huff moved back to coaching the offensive line in 2014 where the Boise State team ranked ninth in the nation in scoring (39.7) and 14th in total offense (494.3). They had one offensive lineman be named First-Team All-MWC (Henry) while another made the Second-Team (Odhiambo). From 2012-13, Huff was promoted to special teams coordinator on top of his duties as tight ends coach. Boise led the Mountain West in kickoff return average in 2012 with 26.0 yards per return. In 2013, the Broncos led the Mountain West in field goal percentage (89.5 percent) and punt return average (15.7 yards per return).

In two seasons back coaching the tight ends (2010-11), the Boise State offense ranked among the top-10 in both total offense and scoring. As the Broncos offensive line coach in 2007-09, Huff helped the Broncos finish 10-3 in 2007, 12-1 in 2008 and a perfect 14-0 in 2009. Over those three seasons, Boise State allowed an average of just 12.3 sacks per season. The 2009 team led the nation in scoring offense and gave up just five sacks all year. After having served as a graduate assistant coach at Arizona State following his playing career, Huff's first full-time coaching job came in 2006 when he joined Boise as the tight ends coach. The 2006 season ended with a perfect 13-0 record and a notable win over Oklahoma in the Fiesta Bowl. In his four-year playing career (1999-02) at Boise, Huff started 40 games at center and earned First-Team All-Western Athletic Conference as a senior. He helped lead the Broncos to a 12-1 overall record and the WAC championship. In 2005, he was named to the Broncos Stadium 35th Anniversary Team.

A native of Phoenix, Ariz., Huff earned his bachelor's degree in business administration in 2002 and his master's in secondary education from Arizona State in 2005. Huff and his wife, Shannon, have two sons, Scott III and Sullivan, and a daughter, Savannah.

OL Kevin Dotson led the charge on the line and allowed only 1.0 sack, four quarterback hits, five hurries and 10 pressures from Weeks 6-17.

Under Kromer's guidance in 2023, the Rams offensive line allowed the lowest sack total (22.0) since the 2020 season and propelled the run game signigicantly. The Rams offensive line also finished seventh in quarterback sack rate (5.5%) and pressures allowed (213).

Rookie OL Steve Avila had a stellar first season and led the team in offensive snaps played (1,094), which was the most snaps played for a Rams offensive lineman since 2021. Among rookie offensive linemen, Avila ranked second in offensive snaps played and was the only Rams player to play every offensive snap. He also finished fifth in sacks allowed (2.0).

Dotson finished with the second-best overall grade (85.2) and the best run blocking grade (88.8) among all guards, according to PFF. Additionally, veteran Alaric Jackson was tied for first in sacks allowed (1.0) among tackles who played over 500 offensive snaps.

During his first five seasons with the Rams from 2017-2021, Kromer primarily worked with an offensive line that anchored one of the most productive offenses in the NFL during that span.

In 2021 during the team's Super Bowl-winning season, the offensive line finished tied for sixth in sacks allowed (31), seventh in sack percentage (4.9%), fifth in pressures allowed (173) and third in pressures allowed per dropback (26.8%).

Kromer spent the 2016 season with the Buffalo Bills as an entry-level coaching assistant. Prior to the Bills, he spent four seasons at the University of Oklahoma as a student assistant for the football program.

Kromer earned a bachelor of arts degree in communications.

DAVE RAGONE

ASSOCIATE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS

| NFL EXP | 15th Year | RAMS EXP | 3rd Year |
|---|---|---|---|

Dave Ragone enters his third season with the Los Angeles Rams and his first as the associate offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He has spent the previous two seasons serving as the quarterbacks coach.

During the 2025 season, Ragone guided quarterback Matthew Stafford to an MVP season after he led the NFL in passing yards (4,707) and passing touchdowns (46). Stafford's 46 passing touchdowns were the most for any quarterback since Aaron Rodgers threw 48 in 2020 and was 12 more than the next closest quarterback during the 2025 season. Stafford also finished second in passer rating (109.2), first in passing first downs (236), tied for third in completions (388) and seventh in yards per attempts (7.9).

Under Ragone's guidance in 2024, Stafford finished in the top-15 in passing yards and touchdowns. He also surpassed 3,000 passing yards in a season for the 12th time in his career and became the 13th different quarterback in NFL history to accomplish the feat. Stafford passed Eli Manning for 10th all-time in career passing yards (59,809) and passing touchdowns (377). Stafford recorded four-consecutive games (Week 10-13) with multiple touchdown passes and no interceptions for the second time in his Rams career (Week 13-16 in 2023) and became the only Rams quarterback to accomplish the feat in franchise history. During the 2024 campaign, the Rams quarterbacks finished with the seventh fewest interceptions, 10th in passing yards per game (227.5), 13th in completed passes (367), and tied for 14th in passing rating (93.7) and passing first downs (192).

Ragone joined the Rams after spending three seasons with the Atlanta Falcons as their offensive coordinator from 2021-23. During the 2023 campaign, the Falcons finished ninth in rushing offense with 2,159 rushing yards and 127 rushing yards per game, tied for eighth with 121 rushing first downs, and ranked fourth in tackles avoided on rushes (106). The offense also ranked seventh in yards per reception (11.5).

Under Ragone's guidance, rookie running back Bijan Robinson ranked in the top 20 in rushing yards (976), yards per rush (4.6) and rushing first downs (50). After a productive first season, Robinson was named to PFWA's All-Rookie Team and was one of six finalists for the 2023 Pepsi Zero Sugar NFL Rookie of the Year. He also set the franchise record for yards from scrimmage by a rookie (1,463). Tight End Kyle Pitts ranked in the top 10 among tight ends in receiving first downs (35) and yards per reception (12.6).

In 2022, Atlanta's offense led the NFL in fewest penalties, finished third in rushing yards per game, and 10th in third down conversion rate. The Falcons also had the third-highest successful play rate on rushing attempts (45.1%). The rushing offense averaged 74.5 more rushing yards per game in 2022 than the year prior, which was the largest one-season improvement by any team since 2001. The Falcons became the first team to have four players with at least 250 rushing yards through the first eight games of a season in NFL history with running backs Cordarrelle Patterson (340), Tyler Allgeier (324), Caleb Huntley (265) and quarterback Marcus Mariota (280).

During the 2022 campaign, Ragone mentored two quarterbacks, Mariota and rookie Desmond Ridder, who started the final four games and had 73 completions for 708 passing yards which was the most by a player in his first four career starts in franchise history. He became the third rookie to attempt at least 100 passes and not record an interception in his first four starts in NFL history, joining Dak Prescott and Gardner Minshew. Receiver Drake London also made franchise history with the most receptions by a rookie (72). The Falcons became the fourth team to have a 1,000-yard rookie rusher and an 800-yard rookie receiver in the same season in NFL history with Allgeier (1,035 rushing yards) and London (866 receiving yards).

In Ragone's first season as offensive coordinator in 2021, Atlanta was the only team to have a wide receiver (Russell Gage), tight end (Pitts), and running back (Patterson) each record at least 50 receptions and 500 receiving yards in the NFL that season. The Falcons running backs and tight ends combined for 2,251 yards receiving, which led the NFL that season and set a single-season franchise record.

With a young offense that season, many rookies produced and set franchise records under the leadership of Ragone. Pitts set the single-season rookie receiving record and the single-season receiving record for a tight end. He earned his first-career Pro Bowl nod and became the second rookie tight end to eclipse 1,000 receiving yards in NFL history (1,026).

Prior to his time in Atlanta, Ragone spent five seasons with the Chicago Bears from 2016-20. For the first four seasons from 2016-19, he served as the quarterbacks coach and became the pass game coordinator in 2020. That season,

The previous season, the Ravens allowed the NFL's second-fewest points per game (18.9), produced the No. 2 third-down defense (34.0%), and registered an NFL-high 25 forced fumbles. The 2019 Ravens produced a franchise-best 14-2 record and won a second straight AFC North title. Baltimore allowed the third-fewest points (17.6) and fourth-fewest net yards (300.6) per game in the NFL.

OLB Matthew Judon was selected to two Pro Bowls (2019, 2020) during his tenure with Wilkins in Baltimore. Wilkins also coached OLB Terrell Suggs, who registered 139.0 career sacks (eighth in NFL history) and was selected to seven Pro Bowls.

OLB Za'Darius Smith also recorded then career-highs in sacks (8.5), tackles for loss (10), total tackles (45), and passes defended (two) while starting just eight games. Smith's 25 quarterback hits in 2018 are the second-highest single-season total of his career.

In 2017, Wilkins worked with a defensive unit that led the league in both takeaways (34) and interceptions (22). Suggs was named to his seventh Pro Bowl this season after recording 11.0 sacks, his highest total since 2014. He also forced four fumbles, the third-highest single-season total of his career.

Los Angeles native Eric Yarber is in his 10th season with the Rams and his first as a senior offensive assistant and wide receivers coach. He spent the previous nine seasons serving as the wide receivers coach.

During the 2025 season, the Rams finished first in receiving touchdowns (46), second in receiving yards (4,707) and seventh in receptions (388). Receiver Puka Nacua was an NFL Offensive Player of the Year nominee after he led the league in receptions (129), finished second in receiving yards (1,715) and tied for sixth in touchdowns (10). Under Yarber's guidance, Nacua recorded the second-most receiving yards by a player in their first three seasons in NFL history, trailing only Justin Jefferson. His 129 receptions were the second-most in a single season in franchise history whils his 1,715 receiving yards were the third-most in a single season in franchise history. Davante Adams also led the league in touchdown receptions (14) despite missing three games due to injury.

In 2024, the receiving corps had the sixth-fewest drops (15), 10th-most receiving yards (4,096) and 13th-most receptions (367) in the NFL. The unit also ranked 12th in yards per reception (11.2) and 14th in yards after the catch (1,958). Despite missing five games last season, WR Puka Nacua recorded 79 receptions for 990 yards and three touchdown catches. He became the second player in NFL history to record at least 150 receptions, 2,000 receiving yards and nine receiving touchdowns in his first 25 career games, joining Odell Beckham Jr.

Additionally under Yarber's guidance, former WR Cooper Kupp became the first player in franchise history, and the 16th player in NFL history, to record more than 150 receptions, more than 7,500 receiving yards and more than 50 touchdown receptions in a player's first 100 career games. Kupp also tallied the most receptions by a player in their first 100 career games with 625 and passed Elroy Hirsch for the most receiving touchdowns in franchise history with 57. Kupp's 629 career receptions are the third-most in franchise history.

Yarber also helped WR Tutu Atwell reach career-highs in receptions (42) and receiving yards (562) in 2024 while former WR Demarcus Robinson notched career-bests in receiving yards (505) and receiving touchdowns (seven). In 2023, Nacua set the NFL rookie record for most receptions (105) and receiving yards (1,486) in a single season. He also set the NFL rookie record for most receiving yards in a playoff game, set a franchise record for most receiving yards in a Wild Card game (181), and was a finalist for the NFL's Offensive Rookie of the Year Award. Kupp became the franchise leader in postseason receptions (50).

The year prior in 2022, Yarber helped Kupp sustain the success from his historic 2021 triple crown-winning campaign. Before he was sidelined with an injury in Week 10, Kupp was on his way to another stellar season ranking second in the NFL in receptions (72), third in yards after catch (422) and fifth in receiving first downs (42), receiving touchdowns (six), and receiving yards (812). Yarber also played an instrumental role in the development of former WR Van Jefferson. For a three-year stretch from 2020-22, Jefferson's 14.96 yards per reception ranked tied for seventh in the NFL amongst receivers.

In 2021 with the guidance of Yarber, Kupp became the fourth player in NFL history to win the receiving Triple Crown by leading the NFL in receptions, receiving yards, and receiving TDs. He led the second place receivers in all three categories by some of the widest margins of any receiving Triple Crown winner. Kupp's season was capped off by becoming the Super Bowl LVI MVP, the 2021 NFL Offensive Player of the Year and was voted to his first Pro Bowl. Kupp also was voted First-Team All-Pro. Jefferson had a breakout 2021 season, starting all 17 games and hauling in 50 catches for 802 yards and six touchdowns. With Yarber's leadership, mid-season acquisition Odell Beckham Jr. was able to quickly acclimate to the Rams' offensive system and play a key role in the offensive production during the Rams' Super Bowl run.

In 2020, Kupp and former WR Robert Woods led the Rams pass catchers, finishing with 974 and 936 receiving yards, respectively. Woods added a team-high six receiving touchdowns, 155 rush yards and two rushing touchdowns.

The 2019 campaign saw a breakout year from Kupp, who returned from a season-ending injury during the 2018 season. Kupp recorded his first 1,000-yard season of his career with 1,061 receiving yards and led the team in receptions (94). Kupp finished with a career-high 220 yards on seven receptions against the Bengals in the Rams' International Series win in Week 8. His 220 yards were the most receiving yards in an international game in NFL history. Woods also ended the season with over 1,000 receiving yards, giving L.A. consecutive seasons with multiple receivers totaling over 1,000 receiving yards since a run of four-straight seasons from 1999-2002.With the tutelage of Yarber, the Rams quickly acclimated 2018 offseason acquisition Brandin Cooks into the league's No. 3 scoring offense. Cooks (1,204) and fellow wideout Robert Woods (1,219) posted career-highs in receiving yards while becoming the first Rams receiving duo to surpass 1,000 yards each since Torry Holt and Isaac Bruce in 2006.

During the 2017 season, the newly-acquired Woods recorded a then personal-best 781 yards receiving, which ranked third amongst the 2017 free agent wide receiver group. Kupp finished with a team-best 869 yards receiving, the second-most amongst all rookies and was named to the Pro Football Writers Association (PFWA) All-Rookie team. Prior to joining the Rams in 2017, Yarber spent the previous five seasons with the UCLA Bruins in the same capacity. Yarber joined the Bruins staff as a receivers coach in 2012. During his tenure, seven of Yarber's receivers were selected in the NFL Draft, including three in the 2016 NFL Draft.

The Bruins' pass offense ranked 18th in the nation (295.6 yards per game) in 2016. That season saw the emergence of receivers Darren Andrews, Jordan Lasley and Kenneth Walker. Andrews ranked 10th in the Pac-12 in receptions per game and led the team with 55 catches. Lasley came on strong over the course of the season and recorded 41 receptions and led the team with six touchdowns. Walker notched 22 catches and four touchdowns.

Jordan Payton was invited to the Senior Bowl and was selected by the Cleveland Browns in the 2016 NFL Draft. Payton became UCLA's all-time receptions leader during the 2015 campaign and the first Bruin to ever catch 200 career passes. He also moved up to third on the all-time receiving yards list and ranked among the nation's top 25 in receiving yards (1,106) and receiving yards per game (85.1). Thomas Duarte, a Miami Dolphins draft selection, earned second-team all-conference honors after registering 10 touchdown catches, which ranked fourth on the all-time school single-season list and was 17th in the NCAA. Devin Fuller, drafted by the Atlanta Falcons, moved up to the top six in career receptions.

In year two at UCLA, Yarber helped senior Shaq Evans, a fourth-round selection of the New York Jets in the 2014 NFL Draft, finish his career ranked tied for 10th on the school's all-time receptions list. Evans earned an invite to the Senior Bowl and the NFL Combine after catching nine touchdowns in 2013, tied for ninth on the all-time school list.

In 2011, Yarber worked as Tampa Bay's wide receivers coach for a promising young unit that included the development of second-round pick Arrelious Benn and fourth-round pick Mike Williams. Williams turned in one of the top seasons by a receiver in Buccaneers history, recording 65 receptions for 964 yards and 11 touchdowns. He led all rookie receivers in each of these categories, earning The Sporting News and PFW/PFWA All-Rookie Team selection while finishing second in voting for the Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year Award. Yarber also oversaw the emergence of Benn, who was becoming an important part of the Tampa Bay offense prior to a season-ending knee injury in Week 13.

Yarber joined Tampa Bay after spending three seasons (2007-09) at the collegiate level as the wide receivers coach at Arizona State. While at ASU in 2009, Yarber coached two standout wide receivers in Kyle Williams and Chris McGaha. Williams finished the 2009 campaign with 815 receiving yards on 57 catches and eight touchdowns before being invited to the Senior Bowl and becoming a sixth-round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers in the 2010 NFL Draft. McGaha racked up 56 catches for 673 yards and four touchdowns on his way to earn second-team All-Pac 10 honors.

Prior to his work with the Sun Devils, Yarber coached wide receivers for two seasons (2005-06) under Tyrone Willingham at the University of Washington. With Yarber's assistance, two receivers, Sonny Shackleford and Anthony Russo, turned in strong performances, with Russo finishing third in the Pac-10 Conference with a 17.3 yards-per-catch average and Shackleford finishing fourth in touchdown catches (seven) and eighth in receptions (50) and receiving yards (666).

During the 2003-04 seasons, Yarber coached the San Francisco 49ers' wide receivers, and in his first year guided Pro Bowler Terrell Owens to a 1,000-yard season. During this time, Yarber was also instrumental in the development of wide receivers Cedrick Wilson and Brandon Lloyd, as the duo ranked first and second among 49ers' receivers in yards after the catch with a 13.6 and 13.1 average (min. 10 receptions) respectively in 2004.

From 1999-2002, Yarber coached at Oregon State, where he worked with the running backs for one season (1999) before switching to wide receivers (2000-2002). He coached Ken Simonton, who was inducted into the Oregon State Hall of Fame after setting program records that still stand today. Simonton posted records in career rushing yards (5,044), attempts (1.041); touchdowns (59) and 100-yard games (26). Simonton was the first Beaver to gain 1,000 or more yards in three seasons. His work with receivers Chad Johnson and T.J. Houshmandzadeh led to the two being selected in the second and seventh rounds, respectively, by the Cincinnati Bengals in the 2001 NFL Draft. Johnson also earned a Senior Bowl invitation.

Yarber coached his first year in the NFL in 1998, working as an offensive assistant/assistant running backs coach with the Seattle Seahawks, after spending the 1997 season coaching receivers at UNLV. Les Snead is entering his 16th season as General Manager of the Los Angeles Rams and was hired for the position in February of 2012. In his role as General Manager, Snead partners with Head Coach Sean McVay to direct all personnel decisions for the club. In addition, Snead coordinates all aspects of the club's football operations with the Head Coach and joins forces with team president Kevin Demoff and Chief Operating Officer Tony Pastoors to direct the team's business ventures.

Snead's tenure has been marked by strategic, aggressive moves that have created a strong core nucleus of talent and depth throughout the roster. Snead set his philosophy in motion just days after his hiring and has continued it through the 2026 NFL Draft.

After guiding the Rams through an organizational rebuild and transition back home to Los Angeles, Snead and the Rams have continued to thrive in the contention phase of NFL roster building and have created a team-building philosophy and model that other clubs have emulated. Under Snead's guidance, the Rams have recorded eight winning seasons, reaching the postseason seven of the last nine seasons with two Super Bowl appearances and one world championship. Snead is also the winningest General Manager in franchise history with a combined 133 wins across the regular season and playoffs in his tenure.

The Rams' recent Super Bowl LVI victory was made possible due to a series of trades executed by Snead for established and proven players. In January of 2021, Snead traded for veteran QB Matthew Stafford. Ahead of the team's final preseason game, Snead acquired former RB Sony Michel from the Patriots. Additionally, following a strong start to the season, Snead made more moves to complete an already talented roster, acquiring star outside linebacker Von Miller and signing former WR Odell Beckham Jr. Each addition proved to be paramount to the Rams' championship run.

Since becoming General Manager, Snead has orchestrated 90 trades, which ranks in the top half of the league since 2012. The Rams have selected 112 players in the NFL Draft under Snead with seven receiving All-Pro honors. During Snead's tenure, the Rams have also acquired All-Pro players such as CB Trent McDuffie, WR Davante Adams, former DB Jalen Ramsey and retired OT Andrew Whitworth.

During the 2025 NFL Draft, Snead traded the Rams first round pick and 2025 third round pick to the Atlanta Falcons in exchange for a 2026 first round pick, a 2025 second round pick and a 2025 seventh round pick. With the team's first selection, Snead drafted TE Terrance Ferguson (46th overall) out of Oregon. In the third round, he selected OLB Josaiah Stewart (90th overall) out of Michigan and then RB Jarquez Hunter out of Auburn in the fourth round (117th overall). With one of the team's fifth round selections, Snead picked DT Ty Hamilton (148th overall) out of Ohio State. Snead drafted WR Konata Mumpfield (242nd overall) out of Pittsburgh with the Rams final selection.

Leading up to the 2025 season, Snead also signed ILB Nate Landman, who had 10 forced fumbles in three seasons, tied for the second-most from 2023-25. Landman also set single-season career-high with 132 tackles for the Rams in 2025.

Snead selected 10 players in the 2024 NFL Draft. With the team's first round one pick since 2016, he selected OLB Jared Verse (19th overall) out of Florida State. In the next round, Snead traded up to selected Verse's college teammate in DL Braden Fiske with the 39th overall pick. The Rams selected RB Blake Corum (83rd overall) out of Michigan and DB Kam Kinchens (99th overall) out of Miami in the third round. With four selections in the sixth round, he selected DL Tyler Davis (196th overall) out of Clemson, WR Jordan Whittington (213th overall) out of Texas and OL Beaux Limmer (217th overall) out of Arkansas.

Verse became the second Snead draft pick to win AP Defensive Rookie of the Year, joining future Hall of Famer Aaron Donald. He led all rookies in pressures, hurries and quarterback hits in 2024. Verse also tied for second in tackles for loss his rookie season and has been a Pro Bowl selection in each of his first two NFL seasons. Fiske was a runner up for the Defensive Rookie of the Year Award and led the team with 8.5 sacks in 2024, the third-most in a season by a rookie in franchise history. He recorded the most hurries and tied for the second-most pressures among interior defensive linemen during his rookie season. Limmer started 14 games at center as a rookie and Whittington made contributions on offense and special teams. Additionally during the 2024 offseason, Snead bolstered the roster through free agency with the signings of S Kam Curl and TE Colby Parkinson, who set a single-season franchise record for reciving touchdowns by a tight end (eight) during the 2025 season. It also tied for the second-most among tight ends and ranked 11th in the NFL that season.

With the Rams first pick in the 2023 NFL Draft, Snead selected OL Steve Avila out of TCU in the second round (36th overall). He then selected OLB Byron Young out of Tennessee (77th overall) and DE Kobie Turner out of Wake Forest (89th overall) in the third round. In the fourth round, Snead selected QB Stetson Bennett out of Georgia (128th overall). With four picks in the fifth round, he selected OL Warren McClendon out of Georgia (174th overall), TE Davis Allen out of Clemson (175th overall) and WR Puka Nacua out of BYU (177th overall). Snead made three seventh-round selections that included P Ethan Evans out of Wingate (223rd overall) and DE Desjuan Johnson out of Toledo (259th overall).

Avila played the most snaps for a Rams offensive lineman since 2021 and the most snaps by a Rams rookie since Cooper Kupp in 2017. Among rookie offensive lineman in 2023, Avila ranked second in most offensive snaps played and he was the only Rams player to play every offensive snap that season. Young's 8.0 sacks his rookie season were the second-most sacks by a rookie in franchise history at the time. He also generated the second-most pressures among all rookie defenders in 2023 and played the most snaps of any rookie edge defender in the Next Gen Stats Era (since 2016). Young earned his first Pro Bowl nod in 2025 and became the first Ram to reach the 12.0 sack mark since Aaron Donald in 2021. His 27.5 career sacks are the third-most by a Rams player through three seasons.

Turner and Nacua burst onto the NFL scene during their rookie campaigns. Turner became only the second player in franchise history to record at least 10.0 sacks in his first 19 career games, joining Aaron Donald. He also tied Donald for the most sacks by a rookie in franchise history with 9.0. Nacua became a national sensation and recorded the most receptions and receiving yards by a rookie in a single season in NFL history. He became just the second rookie in NFL history to have at least 1,000 reciving yards after being drafted outside the top 100. He finished his second season with the seventh-most receptions in a player's first two seasons and passed Justin Jefferson for the second-most receiving yards through a player's first 25 career games. Nacua earned Pro Bowl honors in 2023 and 2024 as well as First-Team All Pro honors in 2025 and Second-Team All-Pro honors in 2023. Nacua passed Larry Fitzgerald for the second-most receiving yards in a single season (including playoffs) with 2,047 in 2025. He also became the fastest player to reach 300 career receptions (43 games).

In the 2022 NFL Draft, the Rams were without a first-round draft pick for the fifth-straight season after trading early picks to acquire proven talent and reward the team's core-nucleus with long-term contracts. The Rams were busy on Days 2 and 3 with eight selections in Rounds 3-7. With the team's seven picks on Day 3, Snead added depth to the secondary by selecting S Quentin Lake (Round 6) and added to the offensive backfield with the selection of Second-Team All-Pro RB Kyren Williams (Round 5). Lake has been voted a team captain the last two seasons and became the second Rams player to record five or more tackles in five consecutive postseason games. Since taking over as the full-time starter in 2023 and leading up to the 2026 season, Williams' 44 scrimmage touchdowns are the second-most in the NFL and the third-most in franchise history. He also became the sixth player since 2000 with at least 13 scrimmage touchdowns in three of his first four seasons. Williams has also reached 1,000 rushing yards in three consecutive seasons, joining Steven Jackson, Eric Dickerson, Marshall Faulk and Todd Gurley.

With a total of nine picks in the 2021 Draft, Snead and his staff selected four offensive players and five players to bolster the defense. On Day 2 with the 57th overall pick (Round 2), Snead selected former WR Tutu Atwell out of Louisville and former LB Ernest Jones with the 103rd overall pick (Round 3).

Leading up to the 2020 NFL season, Snead led negotiations for the signings of free agents and former Rams players and Super Bowl Champions: OLB Leonard Floyd, DL A'Shawn Robinson, and Pro Bowl K Matt Gay.

Snead added offensive support with the Rams' first two picks in the second round of the 2020 NFL Draft by selecting former RB Cam Akers (52nd overall) out of Florida State and former WR Van Jefferson (57th overall) out of Florida. With one of the team's later picks, Snead selected former DB Jordan Fuller (Round 6) out of Ohio State which helped improve a defense that eventually became the league's number one ranked unit during the regular season.

The Rams made six trades in the 2019 NFL Draft, including a trade out of the first round to acquire additional draft capital. L.A. used its first pick of the Draft to select former DB Taylor Rapp out of Washington in the second round (No. 61 overall). The 2019 Draft class also featured late round picks such as former DT Greg Gaines (Round 4), former OL David Edwards (Round 5) and former DB Nick Scott (Round 7), who played significant and meaningful snaps during their time with the Rams.

Snead took a different approach to the 2018 offseason compared to previous years, making trades to acquire players and bolster draft capital. From the start of the new league year on March 14 through the completion of the 2018 NFL Draft, Snead and his staff executed 11 trades that resulted in the acquisition of players such as former CBs Marcus Peters and Aqib Talib, and former WR Brandin Cooks. Additionally, the Rams landed coveted free agent DT Ndamukong Suh. Prior to the start of the 2018 season, L.A. rewarded two former first-round picks in DT Aaron Donald and RB Todd Gurley II with long-term contracts, making both Donald and Gurley the highest paid players at their positions following a 2017 season when they won Associated Press Defensive and Offensive Player of the year accolades, respectively.

In the 2018 Draft, Snead selected 11 players, despite not having a pick in the first two rounds. L.A. used its first two picks on offensive linemen picking former OT Joseph Noteboom (No. 89 overall) out of TCU and former C Brian Allen (No. 111 overall) from Michigan State. The Rams used seven of the remaining nine selections to bolster depth along the defensive front.

From 2012-2017, Snead made 52 selections in the Draft, with five earning All-Pro honors, the most in the league during that timeframe. Snead's draft choices included back-to-back Associated Press Rookie of the Year honorees in Donald (2014 Defensive Rookie of the Year) and Gurley (2015 Offensive Rookie of the Year). Both players went on the earn AP Offensive and Defensive Player of the Year honors following the 2017 season.

The Rams have reaped early dividends from many of Snead's initial selections, particularly in the early rounds. Of the 13 players Snead selected in the first or second round of his first four drafts, seven were named to the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie Team following their first season. In total, 10 players drafted by Snead have made an All-Rookie Team.

Despite not owning a first-round selection, Snead was active in free agency during the 2017 offseason to supplement the young talent accumulated through the draft on the Rams roster. The first moves made by Snead with Head Coach Sean McVay were the signings of Andrew Whitworth and WR Robert Woods.

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Snead used three of their first four selections on pass catchers, selecting former WR Cooper Kupp (No. 69 overall) and former WR Josh Reynolds (No. 117 overall), in addition to DB John Johnson III with the second of two third round selections (No. 91 overall). As a group, the 2017 draft class started 26 games as rookies, led by Johnson who started 11 games at safety. The 2017 rookie class was highlighted by Kupp being named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team. Kupp went on to eventually capture the receiving triple crown, becoming the first player since 2005 to lead the NFL in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns in 2021. Kupp also won the NFL's Offensive Player of the Year Award and become Super Bowl LVI MVP that same season.

The 2016 season kicked off with a blockbuster pre-draft trade from No. 15 overall to No. 1 overall with the Tennessee Titans to select Cal QB Jared Goff. The trade sent the Titans the Rams' first-round draft pick (No. 15), two second-round draft picks (No. 43, No. 45), and a third-round draft pick (No. 76) in 2016. Tennessee also obtained Los Angeles' first-round and third-round picks in the 2017 NFL Draft. In addition to receiving the No. 1 overall pick, Los Angeles received the Titans' fourth-round (No. 113) and sixth-round (No. 177) selections in 2016.

The Rams' 2016 Training Camp roster was the youngest roster in the NFL. Since the Snead administration has been in place, the Rams boasted the youngest roster during the 2012, 2014 and 2016 seasons. The Rams were the second-youngest team in 2015.

In 2015, Snead led a draft that focused on revamping the run game. The process began by selecting Gurley No. 10 overall and then selecting four offensive linemen with the team's next six selections, highlighted by Wisconsin T Rob Havenstein (No. 57 overall). Havenstein started all 148 regular season games played and 13 postseason contests with the organization. The Rams boasted the third youngest offensive line in the NFL during the 2015 season, which showcased Havenstein who did not allow a sack as a rookie.

Gurley became just the third Rams rookie running back to eclipse the 1,000-yard rushing mark since Hall of Famers Eric Dickerson (1983) and Jerome Bettis (1993). Gurley led all rookies in rushing and finished third among all NFL runners in rushing yards (1,106). His season culminated with a Pro Bowl berth, Pro Football Writers of America Rookie of the Year Award and NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year , marking the second-consecutive year that a Rams rookie took home NFL rookie honors (Donald –DPOY 2015). Gurley had his best season as a pro in 2018, leading the league with 2,093 scrimmage yards and 19 total touchdowns to earn Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year accolades.

Snead and his staff made a total of 11 selections in the 2014 draft. With their first-round pick, they selected Donald, a Pittsburgh All-American who earned Pro Bowl honors and was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the year after posting 9.0 sacks, the second-most by any NFL defensive tackle that season. Donald bested his rookie performance in year two and garnered 11.0 sacks, which tied for most in the league at his position on his way to his second-consecutive Pro Bowl nod and went on to win Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2018. After becoming the highest paid defensive tackle in NFL history, Donald thanked Snead and the Rams with a franchise-best 20.5 sacks, the most by an interior defensive lineman in league history, earning his second-consecutive AP Defensive Player of the Year honors. Since Donald was drafted in 2014, he's been selected to the Pro Bowl every season and has received First-Team All-Pro Honors seven of the eight years in the NFL.

Snead and his staff have had plenty of success with undrafted free agent signings over the years. Undrafted free agent signings that have contributed to the Rams success have been C Coleman Shelton, T Alaric Jackson, G Justin Dedich, LB Shaun Dolac, DB Jaylen McCollough, RB Ronnie Rivers, WR Xavier Smith, LB Omar Speights and CB Josh Wallace. Of the 53 players on the team's final 2016 roster, 15 joined the Rams as undrafted rookie free agents under Snead's watch. That group included Pro Bowl P Johnny Hekker, LS Jake McQuaide and special teams standout LB Cory Littleton, who blocked two kicks during the 2017 season.

Snead inherited a roster that had endured one of the most difficult stretches in league history in St. Louis from 2007 to 2011. The team posted a 15-65 record (.188 winning percentage), the worst ever by an NFL team during any five-year period. The Rams' 15 wins during that stretch were the fewest in the league, and Detroit, which had the second-lowest win total during the same time frame, recorded 10 more wins than the Rams with 25. From 2012-15, the Rams logged 27 wins to increase their winning percentage to .422.

In the spring of 2012, Snead directed a trade that sent the second overall pick in the 2012 draft to Washington in exchange for the sixth and 39th picks that year, along with Washington's first round picks in both 2013 and 2014. Snead made two additional trades in April of 2012 that allowed the Rams to make four of the first 50 selections in the 2012 draft. The surplus of picks allowed the Rams to strategically maneuver in the 2013 Draft as well. With the Rams sitting at No. 16, Snead surmised that he wouldn't be able to stand pat and land highly-coveted WR/PR Tavon Austin, so he worked out a deal with the Buffalo Bills. The Rams moved up to Buffalo's eighth spot and selected the speedy playmaker from West Virginia. Austin scored six touchdowns as a rookie – four receiving, one rushing and one on a 98-yard punt return. In the Rams' win at Indianapolis in 2013, Austin became one of three rookies in NFL history to score three touchdowns of 50 yards or more, joining Hall of Famer Gale Sayers and Randy Moss.

With the 22nd pick, which the Rams owned as part of the Washington trade, Snead made another deal that helped the club recoup a significant portion of what he sent to Buffalo. The Rams swapped places with the Atlanta Falcons, and with the 30th selection, Snead was able to secure the player he targeted at No. 22 - Georgia LB Alec Ogletree. As a rookie, Ogletree led the Rams with 155 tackles and added 1.5 sacks, six forced fumbles and an interception.

Prior to joining the Rams, Snead spent 13 seasons with the Atlanta Falcons serving as the club's director of player personnel from 2009-11, a pro scout, and the team's director of pro personnel. During his time in Atlanta, Snead was part of a personnel staff that signed, traded for, or drafted 16 players that earned Pro Bowl honors.

Snead helped construct a roster that was one of the NFL's best over a four-year span. From 2008-11, the Falcons had four consecutive winning seasons winning 43 games, the fifth-most wins in the NFL over that time period. The Falcons played in one Super Bowl and two NFC Championship games during Snead's time with the club.

Snead joined the Falcons after three seasons (1995-97) in the pro scouting department of the Jacksonville Jaguars. He was hired by the Jaguars prior to the franchise's first season and helped put together a team that garnered an AFC Championship berth in just its second year of existence. Jacksonville won its first division title in Snead's final year with the team.

Snead played tight end for Auburn from 1992-93 and was part of the Tigers' perfect 11-0 team in 1993. He also earned Southeast Region Academic All-American honors during his college career.

The Eufaula, Ala. native holds a Bachelor of Science degree in psychology and planned to attend medical school until he was offered a graduate assistant coaching position at his alma mater. He earned a Master of Education degree at Auburn while working as a graduate assistant and he also served as an administrative assistant of football operations in 1995 at Auburn.

In addition to his duties with the Rams, Snead also sits on a pair of advisory boards, including GAMEBREAKER, a soft shell headgear company powered by D3O Impact Technology to help alleviate some of the abrasions that come with playing any contact or non-contact sport. Snead also serves as a board member on the Curry School Foundation Board at UVA, a dynamic group of professionals who have committed themselves as fundraisers and ambassadors of the school, promoting Curry's work among their networks of colleagues and acquaintances.

Snead is married to Kara Henderson Snead, a former sports media personality who has worked for NFL Network co-hosting NFL Total Access and providing in-depth interviews, pregame and postgame reports and sideline reports for a variety of shows across the network including NFL Total Access, Around the League, NFL GameDay Morning and NFL GameDay Final. Kara graduated cum laude from Duke University. She began her career as a production assistant at ESPN and later ABC News. Her on-air career began at NESN in 1998 as the co-host of NESN's "Front Row". From 2000 to 2003, she worked at CNN as a reporter and anchor.

Together, the couple has three children: two sons, Logan and Tate, as well as a daughter, Cannon.

TRAINING CAMP

The Rams headed to their new home for Training Camp at Loyola Marymount University in 2024. It was the 54th training camp in Southern California for the franchise. The 2020 season marked the first time the Rams held training camp at their team facility (on the campus of California Lutheran University), after the NFL mandated its teams conduct training camp from their own facilities in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Over the course of Rams' history, the team has held training camp at several locations in the Southern California area, including: Compton College (1946), Loyola University (1947-48), University of Redlands (1949-60), Chapman College (1961-66), California State-Fullerton (1976-71, 1973-90, '93), California State-Long Beach (1972), UCI (1991-92, 1994, 2016, 2021, 2022), their team facility on the campus of CLU (2020) and Loyola Marymount (2024).

Los Angeles Fire Relief & Recovery Efforts

Since the unprecedented fires broke out around Los Angeles on January 7, 2025, the Rams have supported wildfire relief and recovery efforts throughout Los Angeles in a variety of ways. The team hosted two major distributions for evacuated families and football clinics for impacted youth, delivered meals to fire stations and base camps, donated backpacks and distributed merchandise with Rams players and coaches, Rams Cheerleaders and mascot Rampage. Legends including Aaron Donald, Andrew Whitworth and Todd Gurley visited base camps and distributed essential items while quarterback Matthew Stafford and his wife Kelly, gifted Pasadena High School and Pasadena Panthers Youth Football programs with new uniforms and football equipment that were lost in the wildfires. The team visited LA County Fire Department Fire Preparatory Academy and had their rookies train at LAFD's academy to boost morale as well as teamed up with the Seattle Seahawks to donate more than $10,000 worth of Nike shoes to youth served by the Boys and Girls Club of Pasadena whose home and school communities were impacted by the devastating Eaton Fire. In addition, the team recognized teachers in displaced schools during Teacher Appreciation Week, donated to youth cheerleading teams affected by the fires, joined Habitat for Humanity for a drive-thru distribution, completed a school beautification project in Altadena in partnership with City Year and hosted WalkUnitedLA at the Rose Bowl Stadium where walkers, runners, and donors raised $500,000 to support community-driven wildfire recovery and healing efforts in Altadena and surrounding communities.

The team also took their 2025 NFL Draft to Los Angeles Fire Department (LAFD) Air Operations, showcasing their commitment to community resilience and honoring the first responders who protect the city they call home. As part of their continued efforts to help uplift the LA community, the Rams worked with partner Zillow to renovate LAFD Air Operation's recreation room, creating a more comfortable space that feels like home for firefighters to rest between callouts, during their 24-hour shifts. Recliners for the recreation room were provided by Rams partner Bob's Discount Furniture. Prior to Day 2 of the Draft, the Rams welcomed additional first responders from throughout the region who assisted with the fires for a chalk talk with Coach McVay, Los Angeles Rams President Kevin Demoff, and Rams players including Matthew Stafford, Puka Nacua, Kyren Williams, Tyler Higbee, Braden Fiske, Kobie Turner, and Blake Corum. To date, the Rams have donated nearly $2 million in total to fire relief efforts, including $1million donation from The Kroenke Family Foundation to LAFD Foundation.

Since the 2025 offseason, the team has stayed committed to recovery efforts. Events that the team has held include a school beautification with City Year Los Angeles at Odyssey Charter School in Altadena, a pep rally at Palisades High School to kick off the NFL and the school's football season, and the Rams Foundation worked alongside Zillow to cover one year of rent for two Los Angeles families who lost their homes in the wildfires. Additionally, the Foundation provided rental assistance to five LAUSD employees who were also displaced. Throughout the school year, the Rams also hosted high school mental health programming focused on Palisades and Pasadena High Schools to support student-athletes in fire-affected areas with a discussion on leadership, resilience, promoting healthy habits, and supporting teammates. The team dedicated a preseason game against the Chargers to "LA Together" honoring first responders throughout the game. The team partnered with Bank of America to host holiday season events that ensured students and communities affected had resources and gifts to celebrate with despite their challenging year. In 2026, the Rams Legend Andrew Whitworth surprised students at Marquez Charter Elementary School in the Palisades with new bikes, scooters and skateboards to uplift students. The team will continue working alongside nonprofits such as Habitat for Humanity to aid in long-term recovery of the affected communities.

Watts Rams

Designed to bridge the gap between communities of color and law enforcement, the Watts Rams is a coed youth football program coached by Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) officers. Through LAPD's Community Safety Partnership Bureau (CSPB) and Project Blue, community leaders are able to connect with local youth. This unique program allows young student-athletes to see police officers as human beings and mentors, while allowing the officers to get to know the youth and families they serve. Rams head coach Sean McVay and LAPD Officer and former Watts Rams head coach Zarren Thompson announced the partnership at Rams Training Camp in 2019.

Beyond the game of football, the Rams provide the Watts Rams with educational opportunities, access to players, coaches and staff, and enrichment activities throughout the year. The program also emphasizes character development and community service. More than 150 youth currently participate in the Watts Rams football program's 9U, 10U, 11U, 12U and 13U divisions. The program also features a flag football and cheerleading team. Expanding the Ram's efforts to uplift the young athletes off the field, the team's mental health clinician Dr. Carrie Hastings led a program on mental health and performance skills with Watts Rams athletes.

In December 2025, the Rams hosted the fourth annual Inspire Change Bowl for the Watts Rams and North East Lincoln Rams youth football and cheerleading programs to celebrate their 2025 seasons. The bowl featured a flag football clinic and divisional matchups between the Watts Rams and North East Lincoln Rams 10U, 12U, 13U and 14U teams.

North East Lincoln Rams

In December 2022, the Rams launched a partnership with the North East Lincoln Tigers, a youth football program coached by Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) officers serving youth in the Ramona Gardens public housing development in Boyle Heights, that included renaming the youth football program the North East Lincoln Rams. As part of the partnership, the Rams fund all football components of the program, including uniforms and equipment. The team also provides engagement opportunities with current players, alumni, coaches, scouts and the football operations staff, as well as develop programs that focus on character development and community service to expand their knowledge and ignite their passions beyond the playing field.

Inglewood Rams

The Rams adopted the Inglewood Parks and Recreation Flag Football League in 2019, renaming the program the Inglewood Rams. The league consists of four divisions and 26 teams with over 360 youth participants (ages 7-13). Each team is named after one of the Rams' current players. The Rams fund all football components of the Inglewood Rams program, including uniforms and equipment.

Nickerson Gardens Field Unveiling

Leading up to the Los Angeles Rams 2024 home opener against the San Francisco 49ers, the team partnered with the Housing Authority of the City of Los Angeles (HACLA) to install a 60-yard turf football field at Nickerson Gardens, the largest housing development west of the Mississippi. The installation will bring enriching programming to underserved youth and create a lasting impact on the young people of the Watts public housing development and community at large. The very same field was brought to Hermosa Beach during the 2024 NFL Draft by the team and SoFi. Rams safety and team captain Quentin Lake and running back Kyren Williams joined the event to unveil the field and lead youth in a flag football clinic.

As part of the unveiling, the Rams worked with HACLA, Project Blue, ThinkWatts Foundation and Watts Gang Taskforce, to invite over 100 youth from various housing developments in Watts to come together for a moment of unity on the field. After the ribbon cutting, the team hosted a football clinic and flag football game for the united community of Watts. Development of the field was also supported through the NFL Foundation's Club Matching Field Grant program. The field provides community members with a lasting space to learn, play and connect with one another and the Rams continue to host community gatherings, football clinics and more at the field.

Rams Readers and Ride with Rampage

The Rams kicked off the Rams Readers literacy program and released “Ride with Rampage” in celebration of Read Across America Day, in 2022. “Ride with Rampage” is a book that takes readers on a journey throughout Los Angeles before reaching SoFi Stadium for game day. As part of the announcement, the Rams hosted outdoor reading sessions of the book for local first through third grade students. Additionally, first through third grade students in Inglewood Unified School District (IUSD) and Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD) received a copy of Ride with Rampage, Rams Readers crayons and an activity guide. The Rams Readers program encourages students to explore the excitement that reading can provide while helping improve literacy rates among students in the Los Angeles community. Since launching the program, the Rams have hosted more than 200 Rams Readers and Rams Reading Challenge assemblies worldwide, including 174 assemblies across Los Angeles, creating engaging literacy experiences for more than 42,000 elementary school students. Through these visits, the Rams have distributed over 42,000 books and brought interactive reading programs to more than 150 elementary schools across over 30 school districts throughout the region.

“Ride with Rampage” has also been translated into Spanish and Mandarin, with programming for students in Australia, China, Japan, South Korea, and Mexico.

In 2023, the Rams also kicked off The Rams Reading Challenge as part of the Rams Readers literacy program. The reading program along with the challenge heightens the excitement and engagement around reading. During each Rams Readers assembly, Rampage challenges students to read for at least 20-minutes a day each day for the following 30 days. In addition to receiving their own copy of the book and a Rams bookmark, participating classes were provided with posters to track their progress. At the end of the challenge, the Rams rewarded the highest achieving school with a PLAY 60 Field Day and in 2025 and 2026, the winning school received tickets to Disneyland Resort. Participating students in the 2025 challenge collectively logged 4.8 million minutes of reading, demonstrating the powerful effect that encouragement, access to books, and engaging programming can have on young students regardless of zip code. The number was double the minutes logged last year and totaled the program at more than 7 million minutes read since it began in 2023.

Kenny Washington Memorial Scholarship

The Rams created the Kenny Washington Memorial Scholarship to celebrate Kenny Washington and his impact on the Rams and the NFL. Each month, a "pLAymaker" is selected for their impact on the Los Angeles community and showcased on the Rams website. Each "pLAymaker" receives a financial grant from the Rams to support their community work and is recognized on the field during a Rams home game at SoFi Stadium. Since launching the program, the Rams have provided $260,000 (as of June 2026) to local "pLAymakers".

In 2021, the Rams launched the Pathways to Success Mentorship Program, a tailored approach to support professional development and exploration of careers in the sports industry among high school students. The program offers local students mentorship from Rams front office staff members and features workshops designed to discuss goal setting, self-discovery, strengthening communication skills, interview preparation, financial literacy, and building a personal brand. In addition, the Rams host the program participants for a visit to a local college as well as a job-shadowing opportunity with their mentor at a Rams home game at SoFi Stadium that includes a meeting with Rams President Kevin Demoff.

LA Promise Fund Internship Program

In 2018, the Rams created a summer internship program for students from Inglewood Unified School District. In 2019, the Rams broadened the internship program to include additional public high schools from various districts. As part of the internship selection process, interested students submit their resumes and participate in professional interviews with team executives. The Rams' summer internship program exposes students to opportunities in a professional setting, while expanding their skills, experiences and network as they prepare for college or to enter the workforce following high school or college graduation. The LA Promise Fund Internship has provided nearly 100 local students with work-based learning opportunities.

California Interscholastic Federation (CIF) Girls Flag Sanctioning

On Friday, February 3, 2023, California Interscholastic Federation (CIF) sanctioned girls' flag football in high schools across California. This achievement allows young women across our state to continue to pursue their passion, elevate football to the next level, and become future leaders in sports and in the community. Since the sanctioning, the Rams have hosted over 85 girls flag football camps, clinics and tournaments, reaching over 20,000 athletes and serving more than 800 schools and teams. The team has contributed over $1,500,000 to girls flag programming since 2023.

The Rams' efforts throughout Southern California have helped bring flag football to young athletes wanting to pursue the sport through numerous camps, clinics, jamborees and talent identification camps. The 2028 Los Angeles Olympic Games will introduce the sport of flag football for the first time in the Olympic Games. With Los Angeles being the host city for the 2028 games, the Rams are committed to sharing pathways for local youth to compete at the highest level in flag football on home soil. Through partnerships with USA Football, Bridgestone and community stakeholders, the Rams continue investing in opportunities that empower young athletes through sport, leadership, teamwork, and community connection.

The Rams have also worked to provide greater access and opportunity for all young female athletes who want to pursue flag football. This past June, the team culminated the first season of the Rams Girls Flag Community Club Initiative. The initiative is a community-based youth girls flag football league designed to grow participation for girls ages 6–18 while building a sustainable pipeline of athletes, coaches, and programs connected to the Los Angeles Rams through accessible, community-rooted opportunities focused on leadership, confidence, and long-term development through sport.

The Rams have provided resources to make football accessible to everyone for years. Beginning in 2021, the Rams and Chargers launched the Los Angeles Girls Flag Football League of Champions. The Rams and Chargers co-sponsored high school teams and provided uniforms (courtesy of Nike), stipends for coaches, coaching manuals, officials, athletic trainers, equipment and transportation for the season. The program was created to offer more opportunities for young women to engage in football. The program started with eight teams and 96 players and expanded to 16 teams and more than 400 players during the second season.

Rams Flag in Schools

The Los Angeles Rams partner with local school districts to host flag leagues and sponsor their existing flag football programs by providing Rams jerseys to all participants and additional opportunities for engagement beyond game play. As the number one state when it comes to number of elementary and middle schools, the Rams are committed to providing access and opportunity for all students that want to play the sport of flag football. The Rams Flag in School efforts focus on students aged 6-17 and host a season for the program between August and November. Through programs such as Beyond the Bell, the Rams reach more than 2,000 participants through this effort.

Rise with the Rams

For the past seven seasons, the Rams have teamed up with RISE for a season-long leadership and community building program featuring local high school football programs with a cross-section of ethnic and socioeconomic backgrounds. The initiative is designed to harness the unifying power of sports and build relationships, leadership, understanding, acceptance and cultural competency for student-athletes and coaches. In 2024, the program featured five sessions for varsity girls flag and boys tackle football teams from El Camino Real Charter High School and Thomas Jefferson Senior High School. Since 2018, the Rams and RISE have engaged more than 25 high school football teams throughout the greater Los Angeles region through the RISE with the Rams program.

Free Youth Football Camps & Clinics

The Rams partner with local nonprofits and youth football programs to host free football clinics throughout Southern California year round. Youth participate in football-related drills and competitions. The clinics also feature character education sessions that focus on transferrable life skills attained through sport and teamwork.

In celebration of Women's History Month, the Rams host annual free girls' flag football clinics and tournaments for local elementary, middle and high school students. During the clinics, attendees participate in football-related drills and competitions led by women from USA Football, Rams staff members and high school girls flag mentors.

Rams Partner with Watts-native STIX

For four consecutive years, a Watts native, rapper, producer and the founder of the Thinkwatts Foundation, Brandon "STIX" Salaam-Bailey, teamed up with the Rams to address social injustices.

Most recently, the Rams concluded their 2025 Black History Month Canvas of Culture initiative that honors the past and celebrates the future of Black culture via events in the LA community, by releasing a special video of Rams defensive end Kobie Turner and Watts artist, producer, and founder of the ThinkWatts Foundation, Stix, partnering up to educate the next generation on song creation and the music industry.

Turner, a gifted singer and musician himself, who made it to the quarterfinals of last season's The Masked Singer as "Goo", teamed up with Stix for an unforgettable music workshop to educate, inspire, and empower local youth. Together, they shared their personal journeys with music and guided six highschoolers, including former members of the Watts Rams - a coed youth football program coached by Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) officers and sponsored by the Rams - through the entire process of recording a song, from songwriting and production, to recording vocals in the studio. The inspiring video shows Kobie and Stix first meeting the kids at sneaker boutique TILT.INGLEWOOD to talk about their relationship with music, before walking them through the process of creating a song at the legendary East West Studios in Hollywood and concludes with a listening event of the final song at the Rams practice facility in Woodland Hills.

As a special highlight, the kids had the unique opportunity to be featured on the track "In the Gap", alongside Stix, which is an anthem about perseverance and unity – two themes that run strong in the Black community. Stix drew inspiration for the song from "Kingfish: The Story of Kenny Washington", a documentary about the LA-native and UCLA standout who was the first Black player to be signed by an NFL team (the Rams) in the modern era. This initiative blends sports, music, history, and mentorship, creating a platform for young Black voices to be heard and celebrated.

In 2022, the Rams and the NFL worked with the Thinkwatts Foundation to host an event for community members in the Watts neighborhood. As a part of the evening, the NFL and Little Caesars recognized the great work being done by local community leaders by providing the Thinkwatts Foundation with a $125,000 grant to support programs and initiatives led by the community leaders in Watts and surrounding areas. In addition, during the Rams Week 16 Inspire Change game against the Denver Broncos, the team announced STIX as their recipient of the inaugural 2022 Inspire Change Changemaker Award. The league's Inspire Change Changemaker Award recognizes individuals who are making a difference in their communities through social justice work, either individually or as part of a nonprofit organization, across each of the NFL's 32 club markets.

In 2020, STIX produced an original song titled "It Takes All Of Us," which was one of the phrases highlighted by the NFL for their continued commitment to social justice. Rams team captains selected the phrase to be on the helmet sticker for the 2020 season. The music video, filmed in Inglewood, Watts and South Los Angeles, debuted during the Rams virtual Kickoff for Charity event. All proceeds generated by the event supported the team's efforts to help bridge the digital divide disproportionately impacting under-resourced students in Los Angeles. In addition, the Rams and STIX produced a PSA featuring players reading an original spoken-word piece written by STIX. The PSA debuted before the opening game at SoFi Stadium against the Dallas Cowboys on Sunday Night Football. Last season, the Rams partnered with Stix, Sisters of Watts, Eastside Riders and the Watts Rams to host a holiday distribution event for families in need.

Geared for Greatness and Loads of Love Program with Pacsun

In 2023, the Los Angeles Rams and Pacsun launched their “Geared for Greatness” initiative in continuation of their efforts to combat chronic absenteeism. To kick it off, the two organizations donated washer and dryer sets to local schools in historically under-resourced communities. Through their “Loads of Love” program supported by Thinkwatts Foundation, 20 schools from Compton Unified School District and Los Angeles Unified School District received a set, ensuring students have clean clothes. In addition, the Rams and Pacsun donated $2 million worth of clothing to under-resourced schools served by Compton Unified School District, Inglewood Unified School District, Los Angeles Unified School District and Partnership for Los Angeles Schools throughout the year. On May 24, 2024, the Rams and Pacsun joined Thinkwatts Foundation and the Los Angeles Unified School District to host a free Pacsun Pop-Up Shopping Experience and washer and dryer ribbon cutting for students from 112th STEAM Academy in Watts. The students also enjoyed a youth football clinic and received autographed cards from Rams running back Kyren Williams who joined the special day.

Leading up to the 2023 season, the Rams and Pacsun renewed their partnership centered around incentivizing attendance at Partnership schools in Watts, South LA and Boyle Heights. In 2023, Rams and Pacsun rewarded students at George Washington Carver Middle School and Florence Griffith Joyner Elementary with an exclusive shopping experience. In addition, Pacsun merchandise was donated to the other 18 Partnership schools throughout the school year.

In May 2025, the team continued their Geared for Greatness initiative at Budlong Elementary School in South Los Angeles to gift their school and students with $1million of clothing as well as a new washer and dryer set. During the 2025-2026 school year, the Rams hosted events at Crenshaw High School, giving away custom Crenshaw shirts on behalf of Pacsun and gifting the school a washer and dryer. The team also hosted a clothing distribution at La Tijera K-8 Academy of Excellence in Inglewood. Since the inception of the program, Pacsun and the Rams have donated more than $6 million in product to provide new, on-trend clothing to over 30,000 students throughout Los Angeles County.

Staff Days of Service

Every month, the Rams front office staff takes time out of the office to volunteer with local nonprofits. Since returning home to Los Angeles in 2016, Rams staff members have provided nearly 17,000 hours of community service, impacting 70 local nonprofits and more than 80 schools (as of June 2026) through the Staff Days of Service program.

Giving Tuesday

In honor of “Giving Tuesday” in 2025, in partnership with Bank of America, the Rams celebrated Giving Tuesday with Shoes That Fit as members of the Rams 2025 rookie class, cheerleaders, and staff provided students with brand new shoes and hosted a flag football skills and drills activity stations. Shoes That Fit is a nonprofit organization dedicated to improving the lives of children in need by providing them with new, properly fitting athletic shoes. By partnering with schools and community sponsors, Shoes That Fit ensures children have the confidence and physical comfort to learn, play, and thrive. The team also continued their special effort encouraging Season Ticket Members and Suite Owners not planning to attend select Rams home games to donate their tickets to a nonprofit organization in Los Angeles. Active Rams players and coaches also donated tickets to charities and nonprofit groups.

In 2020, Rams players awarded $750,000 to 25 nonprofits focused on social justice across the greater Los Angeles region. Following the deaths of Breonna Taylor and George Floyd, Rams players came together to discuss how they could help address the injustices that continue to plague society. The players decided to pull resources together to financially support organizations doing critical work focused on long-term systemic change. The Rams invited 25 social justice nonprofits to share information about their work, those they serve and how the players could assist. After listening and learning, the players awarded each organization with a donation ranging from $20,000 to $50,000. Recipients included A Place Called Home, Brotherhood Crusade, College Track, Heart of Los Angeles (HOLA), Homeboy Industries, SoLa I Can Foundation, Anti-Recidivism Coalition, Liberty Hill Foundation, Operation Progress, Partnership for Los Angeles Schools, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Los Angeles (BBBSLA), Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Los Angeles (BGCMLA), Children’s Institute, Fulfillment Fund, St. Joseph Center, BOSS, Communities in Schools (CIS), Covenant House, HomeLight Family Living, LA Family Housing, LAPD Community Safety Partnership, LA Regional Food Bank (LARFB), Los Angeles Room and Board, Sharefest and Social Justice Learning Institute (SJLI).

Certified Rams House

In 2020, the Rams launched the Certified RamsHouse program to support businesses throughout the Los Angeles region. The Rams focus efforts on the small businesses of Season Ticket Members and Black-owned businesses in Inglewood and throughout Los Angeles. Each Certified Rams House receives branded window decals, banners, shirts, hats and other items to showcase their Rams pride. As part of the program, Rams fans are encouraged to visit Certified Rams House businesses on preferred days and share their experiences on social media using Rams House. Since the launch of the Certified Rams House program, the team has supported more than 80 small businesses across Inglewood and Greater Los Angeles.

Rams Season of Giving

The cornerstone volunteer effort of the Staff Days of Service program is the team's annual Season of Giving. Since 2018, Rams players, cheerleaders, mascot Rampage, and front office staff have participated in annual Season of Giving days of service that have helped distribute holiday meals and grocery gift cards to more than 20,000 Southern California residents battling food insecurity, host shopping sprees for hundreds of children served by local nonprofits and hospitals, as well as host holiday parties and gift distributions for communities in need.

The Rams 2025 Season of Giving, sponsored by Bank of America, kicked off with the Rams 2025 rookie class joining staff at the West Valley Food Pantry in Woodland Hills for a Thanksgiving mobile produce and grocery distribution aiming to serve nearly 200 families. The team also hosted the second annual football clinic and food distribution for 500 families in the Nickerson Gardens community alongside L.A. Care. For the fifth year, the team hosted "Ramsgiving" with running back Kyren Williams, cheerleaders and mascot Rampage joining the North East Lincoln Rams and Watts Rams youth football players at the team's practice facility in Woodland Hills for a "Ramsgiving" meal. Both youth football programs are coached by LAPD officers working to bridge the gap between communities of color and law enforcement. The Rams fund all football components of the programs and provide engagement opportunities that focus on character development and community service for the youth participants. This year, Williams also purchased and distributed turkeys for Lincoln Rams youth football players.

Continuing the momentum, defensive end Kobie Turner, staff members and cheerleaders served a holiday meal for more than 1,000 community members supported by A Place Called Home (APCH) and volunteers distributed 400 turkeys and bags of Thanksgiving meal supplies to South Central families in need. Turner also performed for the community members along the A Place Called Home Band, 29Live. The team also supported New Friend Homeless Center's Thanksgiving Celebration and Rams rookies attended the City of Inglewood Turkey Giveaway Presented by Pepsi Co and Don Lee Farms. The team continued their partnership with Call Jacob to host their annual shopping spree for 100 youth served by the Salvation Army. Nine Rams veterans and the 2025 rookies class along with Rams staff paired up with youth shoppers and a $200 Walmart gift card to purchase gifts for the season. In continuation of the Rams fire recovery efforts, the team, including Rams Legend Rodger Saffold, joined Bank of America to host a Pasadena holiday shopping spree at the Walmart in Duarte. Children, who lost their homes in the Eaton Fire in 2025, received a $200 gift card and were paired with volunteers to assist them as they shopped. Also with Bank of America, the team visited Altadena to host a Winter Wonderland Toy Distribution for more than 500 students at Odyssey Charter School. Rams Legend Andrew Whitworth surprised 300 Inglewood students with brand new bicycles.

At the end of December, the team also teamed up with Pechanga and the Los Angeles Regional Food Bank to distribute 20,000 at SoFi Stadium for the sixth consecutive year. The final event with Bank of America for the season took the team back to A Place Called Home with Legend Steven Jackson and Rams volunteers providing more than 3,000 children with toys, festive activities, live entertainment, and the chance to meet Santa. In addition, A Place Called Home was recognized as the 2025 Los Angeles Bank of America Neighborhood Builder for their work supporting career and workforce readiness across Los Angeles and received a $200,000 grant.

50/50 Raffle

Since 2017, Rams fans have had the opportunity to purchase 50/50 raffle tickets on game day. The winner receives half (50%) of the jackpot total from the game's raffle ticket sales and the other half (50%) benefits the Los Angeles Rams Foundation.

When the Rams clinched the NFC West division during the 2021 season, the team's 50/50 Raffle raised a total of $342,975, which set the new NFL regular season record and broke the previous record of $332,110 set during Super Bowl LIV. The Rams also broke the league's single-season 50/50 Raffle record by surpassing $3 million in 2021. Through their 50/50 raffle, the team has raised over $9 million total.

SoFi Stadium

The open-air SoFi Stadium is the first indoor-outdoor stadium to be constructed. It has a seating capacity of approximately 70,000, expandable up to 100,000. It features 260 luxury suites, more than 13,000 premium seats and approximately 3.1 million square feet of usable space.

Adjacent to the stadium and under the same canopy are a 2.5-acre open-air American Airlines Plaza and the 6,000-seat YouTube Theater.

Across the three spaces, SoFi Stadium has the flexibility to host anywhere from one cohesive event to three separate events concurrently in each of the venues.

The roof canopy features a single-layer of Ethylene Tetrafluoroethylene (ETFE), which creates a semi-clear cover that protects from weather elements. The ETFE has a 65 percent frit pattern, which reflects 40 percent of visible and solar rays and 42 percent of UV rays. As a result, the temperature is approximately 4 degrees cooler inside the building than outside.

Each panel on the roof canopy is covered in a special LED light system. The LED roof screen is 12 acres long or 6.5 city blocls. With over 216,000 LEDs, the roof turns into a dynamic display for passengers flying in and out of LAX.

The 120-yard-long Infinity Screen video board is the first HD video system ever built into a stadium. The Infinity Screen is the first-of-its-kind and the only dual sided, center-hung 4k videoboard ever created. It is a 70,000 square foot, high-definition television that spans from one end of the field to the other, the biggest in sports.

The Infinity Screen's oval display features approximately 8 million pixels, spaced 8 millimeters from center to center and can be uniquely or congruently programmed with statistics, live and/or animated content.

In addition, SoFi Stadium features five levels of an additional 20,000 square feet plus ribbon board throughout the bowl. SoFi Stadium has 90,000 square feet of digital LED in its seating bowl alone.

The first-ever soccer event at the stadium was the 2022 Leagues Cup Showcase featuring four of the continent's most popular clubs – Los Angeles Football Club, LA Galaxy, Club Deportivo Guadalajara and Club América.

SoFi Stadium also hosted eight FIFA World Cup matches in 2026 kicking off the Univet Stats Men's National Team's opening 4-1 victory over Paraguay set a new record as the most-watched football match in U.S. television history. Los Angeles welcomed 561,656 fans across eight matches, 99.6% of total capacity.

Grupo Firme is the first band to perform for two consecutive years at SoFi Stadium (2022, 2023) and broke the record for most tickets sold by a Latin band or artist (May 28-29, 2022 & May 27, 2023). Additionally, TWICE is first female group to perform and sell out SoFi Stadium (June 10, 2023).

Unique Elements of SoFi Stadium

The stadium's event level sits 100 feet below grade level. To accomplish this, over seven million cubic yards of dirt were excavated from the stadium bowl alone and redestributed around the site. Nearly 100,000 tons of steel and cable were installed, and 144,000 cubic yards of concrete were used to construct SoFi Stadium.

Adjacent to the stadium and under the same canopy are a 2.5-acre open-air plaza named American Airlines Plaza and the 6,000-seat YouTube Theater.

SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park utilizes 27.5 million gallons of reclaimed water a year for landscape irrigation and maintenance, saving an equal amount of drinkable water for the region.

SoFi Stadium was named "Stadium of the Year" in 2024 and 2025 by Pollstar Magazine, a leading industry trade publication.

On a clear day, you can see the Pacific Ocean to the West, the Santa Monica Mountains, and the Hollywood Sign to the North. To date, SoFi Stadium has hosted over 4.3 million fans.

SoFi Stadium features the first-ever dual-sided video board, the Infinity Screen by Samsung. Consisting of 70,000 sq. ft. of digital display, the experience is similar to watching a 55"-60" television, from every seat in the stadium.

The Infinity Screen by Samsung is comprised of multiple screens, allowing the event host to show consistent or varied content.

In addition, SoFi Stadium features an additional 20,000 square feet of digital display on other LED ribbon boards in the bowl.

SoFi Stadium recently completed a multi-million dollar project of its broadcast infrastructure, cementing its position as the NFL's most technologically advanced sports and entertainment stadium.

It features the largest and most robust XPression Tessera UHD system in global stadium history. It also includes new state-of-the-art control rooms, industry-first Ross Video TD5 switchers, expanded IP infrastructure, and immersive spatial audio enhance the fan experience.

Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum Renovations

The University of Southern California and United Airlines announced a new agreement to name the field at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. Under this 10-year deal commencing in August 2019, the field at the historic landmark, memorial to World War I veterans and home of the USC Trojans, will be referred to as United Airlines Field at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

USC and United worked together to reach an agreement that retains the original venue name while still providing funding to support a $315 million project to restore and preserve the Coliseum and upgrade its facilities for fans, athletes and the community.

The Coliseum Renovation Project will restore one of the most iconic sports and entertainment venues in the world, the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

During the 2019 season, the Rams played their home games at a renovated Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. Upgraded features included Wi-Fi connectivity, new stadium seats with cupholders, additional aisles, improved concession stands, more ADA seating and a new Scholarship Tower which includes a press box and sky deck, as well as premium seating options.

In Week 11 of the 2018 season, the Rams defeated the Kansas City Chiefs 54-51 in a shootout thriller, ending on CB Troy Hill picking off Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes II in the final moments of the game.

The game hosted in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum marks as the highest scoring game in the 49-season history of Monday Night Football.
